AN ELOPEMENT NIPPED IN BUD

MOTHER WAS ON THE JOB AND DAUGHTER WILL CONTINUE IN HIGH SCHOOL

GIRL LOCKED IN HER ROOM

Noise of Preparations Warned Parent Who Effectively Prevented Execution of Plan

Father wasn't at home, but mother was, and mother was on the job quite extensively also. That was why an incipient romance was nipped in the bud and two very young people forced to abandon, for the present, their dream of the vine-clad cottage and all the et-ceteras.

The elopement had been planned for Saturday night. The young woman, a high school student, had another girl to come over to spend the night, the girl friend being wise to the evening's program. The young man, with a friend, was to wait outside beneath the silvery moon until the appointed hour, when the girls were to come out by the window route, hide them to the county clerk and to the parson and then for the aforesaid vine-clad cottage.

The girls went to their room early and sat down to wait. The house was all still. The hours dragged by, like hours always do when you're waiting for a train or something else but finally the young men were in sight. Everything was lovely so far and it looked like everything was going as per schedule. Just as Harold and Gwendolyn made their getaway in the novel.

But, as was stated previously, mother was on the job. You cannot get two girls and a suitcase and other things out of a window with any excess of quietude and there was noise. In the novel, Gwendolyn thoughtfully put a sleeping powder in mother's tea, but this young lady hadn't thought of that, besides, her mother didn't drink tea.

So mother investigated and found what was about to transpire. She locked the door to the room and let her presence be known. The girls went to bed. The young man waited long and patiently, as all true lovers do, but no girls. Yesterday morning the door to the room was still locked and the girls were inside, also at noon and late in the evening. There had been no breakfast, no dinner and supper was beginning to look doubtful. So the girls capitulated.

There was a familiar form wending its way to the high school from that home this morning. But what became of the young man the affiant afflieth not.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE NOW PENDING

Standard Oil Interest Have Offered To Sell Stock of Waters, Pierce Co.

Associated Press. New York, Oct. 28.—Taking of the testimony of John Archbold in the Standard Waters-Pierce litigation was postponed today until Thursday pending the negotiations to settle the suit out of court. Although counsel for neither side would discuss the case today it became known Saturday that Mr. Archbold, John D. Rockefeller and other Standard interests had offered to sell their holdings in the Waters-Pierce Company to H. Clay Pierce, thus settling the fight for control.

The deal would involve $3,000,000, it was said.

GOVERNOR WILSON RESUMES SPEECHMAKING

Left Princeton This Morning for Southeastern Pennsylvania

By Associated Press. Princeton, Oct. 28.—After an interruption of a week, Governor Wilson resumed campaigning today. He left here for Southeastern Pennsylvania to speak at Westchester at noon. He speaks tonight at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia under the auspices of a league of independent republicans, and later at the Democratic rally.

The governor looks forward to a strenuous week of speech making in New York and New Jersey. Gov. Wilson last night issued a statement calling attention to the importance of electing state legislatures for the election of Democratic senators. The statement says:

"I am particularly anxious that the Democrats of those states in which senators are to be chosen should remember that the control of the government depends as much upon the majority in the senate as upon the presidency itself. I hope that in those states, particularly, special attention will be concentrated upon the necessity of obtaining a majority in the state legislatures."

The nominee said the states he had in mind were New Jersey, Colorado, Illinois, West Virginia, Wyoming and Nevada.

The governor announced last night his plans for the remainder of the campaign, as follows:

Monday, Oct. 28.—Leave Princeton 9:33 a. m. Speech at Westchester, Pa., at noon; speeches at Academy of Music and convention hall, Philadelphia, at night.

Tuesday—State business at Trenton and speech at Newark, N. J., at night.

Wednesday—Speeches at Wildwood and Burlington, N. J.

Friday—Speech at Rochester, N. Y.

Saturday—Review college men's Wilson and Marshall club parade, New York; speaks at Monmouth, N. J., at night.

Monday—Speeches in New Jersey; plans not yet decided.

SOCIALISTS WANT REPRESENTATION

Taking Steps to Have Members of That Party on the Election Boards

Steps to secure representation on the election boards at the polls on election day are being made today by the Socialists of this city, who are seeking to have Socialists appointed as clerks at the voting boxes. It is expected that anyone volunteering to serve in that capacity will be appointed without objection. The Republicans and Progressives, particularly the latter, are already represented, as the names of several "Bull Moosers" appear in the list of election officers appointed by the commissioners' court last year.

The election judges for all the boxes were named in February, 1911, although the officers for the new box created not long ago by the court are yet to be appointed. The list follows:

Precinct 1—J. Wedman, presiding; Vic Stampfli, J. W. Stone, L. C. Hinckley.

Precinct 2—G. D. Anderson, presiding; J. D. Avis, T. C. Thatcher, H. J. Bachman.

Precinct 3—W. H. Gwinn, presiding; A. C. Griesemer.

Precinct 4—Frank Jenne, presiding; John Moore, J. W. Donohoe, C. G. Bilderback.

PANIC SCARECROW RATTLED BY TAFT

SAYS PROMISE OF TARIFF REFORM WAS CAUSE OF PANIC OF 1893

A LEAP INTO THE DARK

He Declares Would Be Election of Wilson—Believes Surprise Awaits Opponents

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Taft today made public a statement in which he declared that the four years of depression which followed the second election of President Cleveland were due to the promise of tariff reform and the Democratic changes in the tariff that followed.

The president says that the issue before the voters is clear. On the one hand, prosperity and real progress; on the other a leap in the dark. The American people he continued, have more than once surprised those who thought the people were being successfully fooled and he believes that a similar surprise awaits his opponents in the coming election.

One hundred thousand persons could find work in New York if they would go into domestic service.

MARTIAL LAW NOT PROBABLE IN TEXAS

It Is Declared President Has No Intention of Taking Such a Step

Washington, Oct. 28.—Officials here today denied there was any intention on the part of President Taft to declare martial law over any part of Texas as a result of the continuance of the revolution in Mexico. It has, however, been found necessary to enlarge the police powers of the regular army patrolling the borders.

This applies not only to the arresting of armed rebels crossing the line to escape pursuit, but also their detention. Serious embarrassment to the officers charged with the execution of the neutrality laws has followed the discharge by state judicial officials under habeas corpus of fugitives held by the army and officials of the department of justice and this difficulty is to be met by regarding refugees as military prisoners beyond the reach of state authorities.

FEDERAL REINFORCEMENTS REACH JUARZ

Juarez, Oct. 28.—Two hundred federal regulars arrived early today to reinforce the defeated garrison here. They were compelled to fight on the march from Casas Grandes and tell of a battle seventy-two miles south of Juarez Friday, in which sixty rebels under Gen. Salazar were routed by the federal machine guns.

A VERY EARLY MORNING WEDDING

Judge Felder Roused From Slumbers Sunday Morning For Hymenal Ceremony

County Judge Felder was aroused from slumber in the very small hours of yesterday morning, by a knock at his door and on responding found a cab-driver, who announced that there was a couple seeking to be united in marriage. The judge was clad only in his robe de nuit (French for night) but hastily put on some more clothes and summoned the couple in to the house where the ceremony was performed.

CAMERON GIRL BROUGHT BACK TO CHICAGO

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Luella Cameron and her mother, Mrs. Cameron Falconet of Minneapolis were brought here today from Rockford when the federal grand jury resumed its investigation of the relations between the girl and Jack Johnson. Mrs. Cameron said the girl had entirely abandoned her former resolve to stick to Johnson.

GENERAL FELIX DIAZ SENTENCED TO DIE

Three Other Officers Sentenced to Death at Same Time by Court Martial

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz, leader of the revolution recently inaugurated in Vera Cruz and three of his confederates, have been sentenced to death by the court-martial before which they were tried in that city.

Besides General Diaz, the condemned officers are: Colonel Antonio Miguel, Major Zerate and Lieutenant Salustio. Other officers, according to the dispatch, were sentenced to terms of imprisonment as follows:

Ten years, Captain Herminio Martinez, Lieut. Camachi and Lieut. Malten; two years, Gabriel Ramez, administrator of the customs house, and Herman Arostegui, who was the Diaz press censor.

At the same time word of the verdict against Diaz was received came the report that the military court had decided to recognize the order of suspension of sentence which the military leader granted pending investigation as to whether the trial of Diaz should be by military or civil court. Popular apprehension regarding the fate of Diaz has not been greatly allayed, however, by this action of the court-martial.

The delay in the receipt of the news regarding the outcome of the military trial is characteristic of all communication between the capital and Vera Cruz. The uncertainty as to what is transpiring there has served to increase the tenseness of the situation. Friends of Diaz here fear the consequences of the conflict of authority which has arisen between the judiciary and military courts. If the military court observes the order of the civil authorities, the final disposition of the case will be long postponed. But it would be no surprise to thousands here to receive a message announcing the execution of the rebel general and his associates.

Efforts to save their lives especially that of Diaz, continue unabated. Prominent women, men of high affairs, members of congress and even high army officers, have appealed to President Madero for clemency, but to all he has given the same negative answer. To a group of women he intimated that to show clemency would be construed by the world as an indication of weakness. He cited as an example that when he captured Juarez he pardoned Gen. Navarro, which action the world attributed to weakness instead of magnanimity.

An incident showing the popular attitude occurred at Chapultepec on the occasion of a visit of a committee of women who pleaded for the lives of the condemned men. When leaving the castle they were cheered by cadets of the military college quartered in the same building.

NO BUSINESS MAN FEARS INTERRUPTION

Only Those Who Have Been Breaking the Laws, Fear Democratic Success

Westchester, Pa., Oct. 28.—"Pennsylvania expects, New Jersey expects, the country expects the Democrats to win," declared Gov. Wilson today, "and as the expectation grows, the prosperity of the country is not checked for a moment. There is not a business man in the country who fears a year of interruption of his business unless he has been breaking the laws of the land and the laws of honor."

MURDER VICTIM TURNS UP ALIVE

THE MAN WHO WAS REPORTED TO HAVE CONFESSED TO KILLING WILL GO FREE

GENERAL FELIX DIAZ SENTENCED TO DIE

A VERY UNUSUAL CASE

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 28.—Juan y Rauke will be set free today after a startling experience of how an innocent man may be accused. Rauke was arrested charged with the murder of Atollhar Bonada, an ex-ranchman, who disappeared from his place on August 23.

The police claimed they had a confession from Rauke and that the stories of two men on the ranch corroborated this confession. Rauke, they said, confessed he had buried the body, but when they took him to the ranch he tried to escape, and later declared he did not bury the body, but threw it into the Rio Grande.

Yesterday Danada, the alleged dead man, appeared at the jail, having heard reports of his death and because the police had his ranch foreman in jail. He said he had been in the cotton fields.

WISCONSIN FARMER KILLED THREE PERSONS

Killings Took Place at Father-in-Law's Home Where He Had Gone to See Estranged Wife

Sheboygan, Wis., Oct. 28.—Alvin Roehr, a young farmer, late yesterday shot and killed his father-in-law, Philip J. Ott, Mrs. Ott and Mrs. Ott's father, Fred Haut. Roehr had been given permission to see his wife from whom he lived apart. Roehr's body was found this forenoon hanging to a tree in the woods about a quarter of a mile from the scene of the tragedy. It is supposed that fearing summary action at the hands of a posse, he committed suicide. Mrs. Roehr and her baby escaped by hiding in a cupboard for three hours. Some time ago she took her six-month-old baby and returned to her father's house, filing suit for divorce. Roehr filed suit for the recovery of the child, but failed. Roehr's father committed suicide some time ago.

MURDER TRIAL AT HOUSTON

Houston, Texas, Oct. 28.—The case of Brush Finch, charged by indictment with the murder of Burt Buehmer was called for trial in the criminal district court today. He is a nephew of Sheriff Anderson and a well known young contractor while Buehmer was a city freeman. The latter at the time of the murder was engaged to the former wife of Finch and the two had been heard to talk over the future of the child. Buehmer when killed, was unarmed, the state contends. Efforts of Finch to secure release on bail have failed.

RYAN REFERRED WITH M'MANNIGAL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 28.—Conference between Orrie McManigal, confessed dynamiter and Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, were described by M. Cook, a stenographer at the dynamite conspiracy trial today. The defense had maintained that Ryan never talked to McManigal and the entire responsibility for causing explosions rested on J. J. McNamara.

Cook told of frequent conferences between McManigal and Ryan, at which it is alleged the details were planned.

Country-Wide Celebration of Wilson and Marshall Day

New York, Oct. 28—William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is hearing from Democrats all over the United States who want to get information to assist them in planning for the national celebration of Wilson and Marshall Day on Saturday afternoon and evening, November 2nd.

It is Mr. McCombs' idea to make this a great national celebration in which the state and county Democratic organizations throughout the country shall participate. Hundreds of telegrams and letters are pouring into Democratic National headquarters asking for suggestions and information regarding the celebration.

It is Mr. McCombs' plan that every state and county chairman shall arrange for the celebration of Wilson and Marshall Day. From the way letters and inquiries are pouring into National headquarters it appears that his expectation will be realized. There has been a tremendous response to the announcement that Wilson and Marshall Day would be celebrated on November 2nd, and the Democratic officials have taken up the matter enthusiastically.

Many requests have come to National headquarters for a special message from Governor Wilson, which is to be sent out on that day and read at the gatherings. The letters want to know what the general tone of the message will be, how many words it will contain, when they are to receive it, etc.

The National committeemen and State chairmen of the various states have notified the county chairmen and precinct leaders to arrange their celebrations in any way they think proper. It is these local leaders who have flooded National headquarters with inquiries and requests for information. They want suggestions, instructions or anything that will help them make the day a big success.

From Virginia comes a statement from a county chairman that he has arranged to bring together at his county seat between 25,000 and 30,000 people for a great barbecue. A county chairman in Kentucky has advertised for every Democrat who owns a mule to get busy and bring in as many people as a single mule or mule team can haul. This chairman writes that arrangements will be made for four or six-mule teams in parts of his county.

Another enterprising leader from Maine has written to National headquarters that he has a whole township at work collecting firewood, and that he proposes to light the biggest bonfire ever seen in the State of Maine, on the night of November 2nd. This chairman states that Governor Wilson's message will be read to the assembled crowd by the light of this big blaze. In the agricultural districts of the West Wilson day is to be a sort of harvest day. In those localities where bumper crops have been harvested the Democrats and Independents are in a happy mood, and are planning to combine their political enthusiasm in a general feast day in many of the cities and large towns.

In many localities where up to the present little activity has been shown the celebration of Wilson and Marshall day has been taken up with enthusiasm and the celebration is to be made the biggest event of the campaign. Information from these sections is to the effect that the novelty of this celebration has caught the popular imagination and has aroused great political enthusiasm. The speakers' bureau at National headquarters has been overwhelmed with applications from many states for speakers of national reputation for the afternoon and evening of Wilson and Marshall Day. The leaders expect the biggest crowds assembled at any time during the campaign on that occasion.

The women of the country are also going to take a very active part in the Wilson day celebration. In all States they are co-operating with chairmen and arranging for demonstrations. In the towns where afternoon and evening parades are to take place, the women will march with the men and in the big meetings in several places they are to have their own speakers, who will speak from the same platform with the men. Many letters have asked that William Jennings Bryan and Speaker Clark and others be assigned to their localities to address the gatherings on Wilson and Marshall Day.

News From the Oil Fields

STANDARD WILL STOP SALE OF FUEL OIL

Chicago, Oct. 28—Action stopping the sale of fuel oil after December 1, a step to boost prices in May, a step expected to boost prices in many important manufacturing lines as much as 50 per cent, has been taken by the Standard Oil Company. Phenomenal increases in the use of gasoline for propelling automobiles and other machinery is given as the cause for the abandonment of the fuel oil branch of the business.

It has been found more profitable to refine the oil than to sell for fuel. The situation is serious for manufacturers whose furnaces are fitted for oil. The independents can not supply the demand and it will cost fortunes to change plants to meet the new conditions. Scores of millions of barrels of crude oil are burned as fuel yearly. The International Harvester company alone uses 8,000,000 barrels annually. Manufacturers will be forced to use more expensive sorts of fuel and are already sending out notices of advances in their products.

Whatever may be the facts in connection with the Staples well near Lewis Park, several local oil men think enough of the prospects to quietly gather in some leases close to the Winfrey farm, where the well is being drilled. There was considerable activity on the part of the lessees Saturday and today in that vicinity. The well is now shut down and capped.

"Another disturbance will appear on the North Pacific coast, Wednesday or Thursday. Although the season of

OPPOSES TEXAS EDUCATION SYSTEM

DR. S. P. BROOKS

Waco, Texas, Oct. 28.—S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, who is a close student of economic affairs in Texas, recently made a report to the Texas Welfare Commission in which he showed in a startling and convincing manner that while Texas has the largest permanent fund for education of any State in the Union, we actually spend less per capita and less per student than all other states. Dr. Brooks was chairman of the committee on education appointed by the commission to investigate our educational system and his report is a result of a close and searching investigation into affairs educational.

In a table submitted by Dr. Brooks it is shown that the per cent school population enrolled in school in Texas is 65.46 per cent as compared with an average in other states of 72 per cent. Comparing Texas with California, which is one of the most advanced states in the Union in the matter of education, he shows that our expenditure per capita of average attendance is $18.55, while that of California is $59.01. The expenditure per capita of entire population in Texas is $2.71, compared with $7.05 in California.

Dr. Brooks sounds a note of warning to the people against political control of our institutions of learning and pleads for a more liberal support of all our schools and colleges.

R. M. Moore having moved to California is offering his real estate located on Indiana avenue for sale. Anyone interested can see me in my office Kemp and Kell building, room 208, Mark H. Moore. —122-tfc.

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts in Regard to F. R. Huffman's Illness. Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain.

It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits."

Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together.

Theford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system.

It has done this for others, during the past 70 years; and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Theford's. Price 25c.

GINNERS reports indicate that Wichita county's cotton crop this season will be in the neighborhood of 12,000 bales. This isn't bad at all and will go a long way towards putting the farmers even after the poor crop years. A large acreage of wheat is being sown under favorable conditions and with half a chance Wichita county will yet prove her agricultural merit.

We again call attention to the fact that The Times will have a leased wire in its office election-night which will be used solely for election returns. The Times expects to have as prompt and complete bulletins on election night as any newspaper in the country.

The conviction of Police Lieutenant Becker for the murder of the gambler Herman Rosethal was indeed a surprise to Texans who are unused to seeing murderers pay the penalties for their crimes. As had as New York is, it is still a serious matter for a murderer when he comes before the courts of justice in that State.

The Houston Post has discovered the meanest "lightwad" in the universe. The Post, like all good Democratic newspapers, is soliciting funds for the Wilson campaign fund, and the smallest contribution so far received was from a fellow who signed his name as I. M. Tightwad. His contribution consisted of a Mexican 1-cent piece, and he was careful to inquire about the engraved receipt he was to receive for his contribution.

There are fields of cotton in this immediate section—in territory that does the greater portion of its marketing and trading in Wichita Falls, that will easily make an average of a bale per acre. In fact, there are a few places that have already made an average yield of about that much, and there yet remains in the fields as much as a half bale per acre. This should be sufficient proof of the fact that this is a cotton country second to none in Texas. "Come to Wichita County."

The Chicago people are having a great deal of trouble with Jack Johnson, the negro prize fighter and all-round tough. The fun of the thing, if there be any fun about it, is that the Chicago people are wholly responsible for Johnson's conduct. What he became the champion bruiser of the world they received him with open arms and treated him not only as a hero but as a social equal, and, in some instances, a social superior. His head was turned and he became just what he is—a brainless brute, unthinkingly impatient of all restraint, either legal or social. Had he remained in the South, where well-known and well-defined barriers between the races exist, his present and future might have been different. His case illustrates well the wisdom of the South and the folly of the North in their respective attitudes toward the negro.—Houston Chronicle.

Mr. Davies, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, says he is proud of Texas for the way the State is coming forward with contributions to the Wilson-Marshall campaign fund. There are a number of patriots in Texas who entertain the hope that this statement will not be overlooked nor forgotten by President Wilson when he begins to pass upon the applications to fill vacancies in the federal offices in this State caused by the unceremonious dismissal of our Republican friends.—Denison Herald.

If Wilson is elected and that seems certain, it will not be by any great number of votes cast for him by those now holding Federal office. He will be under no obligations to them whatever, and therefore, he would show gross ingratitude by keeping them on the government pay-roll. Right now Wilson's campaign managers are appealing strongly to the Democratic voters—not only for their votes, but for their dollars as well, and they

(the Democratic voters) are responding liberally to this appeal, and if they succeed in putting him in the presidential chair they have good reason to expect Mr. Wilson in turn to appoint a Democrat or at least a Wilson man to every federal office now held by a Republican, or by any man of any other political faith who failed to give his support to the Democratic ticket. Should he do otherwise, in case of his election, it would be in gratitude of the grossest kind.

NEW JERSEY'S TRUSTS.

Four questions concerning Governor Wilson's trust record in New Jersey, made public by Mr. Beveridge in his speech in Louisville, are furnishing opportunity for comment and caricature among the Progressive journals especially in the east. The questions were not asked by Mr. Beveridge, but by a philosophical head waiter. We reproduce them:

Is it not a fact that the laws of the state under which a corporation is organized prescribe its powers? Are not all the powers of the Standard Oil and similar monopolies conferred by the laws of New Jersey? Could not these powers be curtailed by amendments to the New Jersey laws?

Why has not Mr. Wilson, as Governor of New Jersey, recommended such amendments?

Despite the fact that Governor Wilson has held in his hand for the last two years, Mr. Beveridge was quoted as saying, the power to cripple every trust in the United States much more effectively than all the legislation that could be passed by the government, he has not taken one step in that direction. All of which, if true, would be a rather stinging indictment of Mr. Wilson. Granting that state legislatures, in that they frame laws regarding companies incorporated within the state, have certain powers over corporations, the questions resolve themselves into one. Why has not Governor Wilson caused the New Jersey laws to be amended so as to drive from the state such trusts as "Standard Oil and similar monopolies"? Governor Wilson has given his reply through Senator O'Gorman:

I authorize you to say that the Republican majority in the legislature made revision of corporation laws impossible, and no New Jersey official could prosecute or propose disqualification for breach of federal statutes. We have heard many passionate appeals from Progressive orators urging the truth in campaign speeches, not vilification or insinuation. In the remarks of Mr. Beveridge at Louisville there was insinuation of a type to mislead the hearer unacquainted with the situation. The truth is that New Jersey, instead of having a legislature in sympathy with Governor Wilson "for the last two years," has had, with the exception for the first three months, a legislature of Republican complexion, bitterly hostile to the Governor. Governor Wilson took office on January 17, 1911. From the beginning of January to the beginning of April the legislature was Democratic. Then it changed. Governor Wilson's efforts to obtain a revision of New Jersey's corporation laws are well-known. He did all that he could in the face of his Republican enemies. But what did he accomplish with a Democratic legislature? The Philadelphia Record enumerates some of his achievements—workmen's compensation law, contract labor at state prison abolished, child labor law extended, factory protection, cold storage law strengthened, new election law, providing for presidential and senatorial preference primaries, corrupt practices act, commission government, ship canal across the state, educational laws reorganized and an excellent public utilities act.

Governor Wilson has been working against odds. But, speaking of things accomplished, what has Mr. Beveridge to show for the twelve years he spent in a Republican Senate under Republican Presidents?—Indianapolis News.

The way things look now, politically, is that Taft will be third in the presidential race. The New York Herald's poll of Sunday places him in that position, and indicates that the president is still losing some in strength. Up to Sunday the Herald had received replies from 278,923 test ballots. These ballots were sent at random to people residing in thirty-five states, none of which are Southern states, which are conceded to be solid for Wilson. Of the total Wilson received 110,993; Roosevelt, 52,575; Taft, 58,413. Thus it will be noticed that Wilson not only has a large plurality, but lacks only 19,003 of having received as many votes as both his opponents. While it seems sure that Wilson is to be elected, all Democrats should go to the polls on election day and vote, not that this will make his election any more secure, but in order to make the popular vote as large as possible. If Wilson can be elected by both a majority of the popular vote cast, as well as by a majority of the electoral vote, it will serve a good purpose in the next presidential campaign. If the vote in the thirty-five states polled by the New York Herald will turn out like it indicates, it shows that Wilson will have a good sized plurality in most of them, and this with the heavy majorities he is sure to get in the Southern states, ought to give him a majority of the total vote cast.

REAL TURKEY TROT IN SOUTH TEXAS TOWN

Ten Thousand Fat Turkeys Will be Driven Through Street of Cuero. Next Month.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 28.—Much has been written about the turkey trot. Moralists have been condemning it as demoralizing and vicious, but Cuero, Texas, is preparing for a turkey trot that is bound to be instructive, inspiring, entertaining and altogether delightful. On November 25, next, says the Post, there will begin a harvest home celebration of three days' duration and a daily feature will be a parade of ten thousand fat turkeys, led by a brass band.

Think about an exhibition like that during Thanksgiving week at a time when every family in the United Housekeeping with denatured alcohol is advocated by a contemporary. States will be thinking about turkeys! It will call to mind the olden times when turkey raisers in Texas did not ship their birds to market but drove them in great flocks through the streets of towns and permitted the purchaser to take his pick. It matters little at this time that the now harassed consumer could then buy from a flock of turkeys a large fat bird for half a dollar and an extra large one for seventy-five cents. That system of marketing turkeys has gone, never to return, just as the fifty-cent turkey has gone.

Now we buy turkeys by weight, and it is not much of a fowl that can be had even for a dollar and sometimes as much as $5 is paid for one particularly well conditioned.

In the meantime, the new conditions which grieve the consumers so much have not only brought prosperity to the poultry raiser, but have established in Texas a great industry. Texas sells more turkeys now than any other state, and the season is at hand when multiplied thousands are shipped to the great cities to be served upon the country's tables on Thanksgiving day. Year by year this industry increases and no doubt the time will come when our turkey exports will reach into the millions. Experience has shown that southwest Texas is exceptionally adapted to the production of turkeys; and by the demand at this time of the year is always greater than the supply, the industry can develop to its maximum without danger of glutting the markets of the country.

There are about eighteen million families in the United States, and every family wants a turkey at Thanksgiving. In the south the people like Christmas turkey as well, while hotels and restaurants of the better class find it necessary to serve turkey to their diners often. There is no danger, therefore, of raising too many turkeys. Sometimes, of course, we hear of glutted markets, but that is because the consumers hesitate to buy at the high prices asked or because the fowls are not shipped to the most eager markets.

These difficulties will be conquered in time, and the producers will get their turkeys to market where the demand is keenest.

On November 28 next hundreds of thousands of people throughout the United States will feast on Cuero turkeys, and Cuero's turkey trot will be notice to the country that it can reap the performance on Christmas.

GENTRY BROTHERS BRING NEW FEATURES

Many European Artists of Unive Note Are On Roster of Favorite Sons

While Gentry Bros.' shows, which will visit this city Monday, November 4th, are not new to this community, they bring with them many things that are new to America this season. Among these features are many trained wild animals, but first of all is the list of European novelty acts.

During the winter the agents of Gentry Brothers made a very careful and thorough canvass of Europe gathering together the most novel features possible for America's most closely censored shows. In France the agents secured Bouchard and Blanchard, the greatest gymnasts that ever claimed the home of Napoleon as their own. For many seasons this troupe of performers remained in the old country, persistently refusing to come to America. When a man has something to sell and the other fellow wants it, then the seller is sooner or later tempted by the fancy price offered for his ware. This was the case with these performers. They put, as they thought, a prohibitive price on their services, but when the figure was agreed to by Gentry Brothers the Frenchmen decided they would accept the alternative and come to America for one season, at least.

When the contract for an American tour was closed Marcel and Lennett, another French company decided to visit America. In this way Gentry Brothers shows annexed the services of the International Coiques, a clever set of tumblers, who also have long hesitated to leave their native land.

In Germany at the time these contracts were closed was Madame Heloise, whose act was the talk of Continental Europe. She is the world's greatest woman horse trainer. The horses she used before royalty are said to be the finest in the world. Madame Heloise, through the efforts of an American consul accepted a contract to appear in America. This season she is one of the special features with Gentry Brothers show.

Through Madame Heloise the Cevene Trio, who, three years ago startled the medical and dental worlds by acts of daring, were engaged. This company of performers are accustomed to dangling in the air while suspended by their teeth. Time was when no medical man would admit that the human being could accomplish such a thing, but the Cevene Trio have disproven the theories of the scientific worlds.

Another feature with Gentry Brothers show is Don Bouchard. This man is a Spaniard, has subdued and trained a ferocious family of leopards and lions, and with animals of the domesticated kind, he presents a performance of unusual merit. In addition to these new features Gentry Brothers all feature shows will present many others, the product of years of study on the part of animal trainers. The Gentry shows are this year twice as large as ever before. For this city only admission is reduced to 25 and 35 cents.
