

DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHANT

Wilson and Marshal Have Assured Total of More Than Three Hundred Electoral Votes, With Roosevelt Second. Taft Is Very Bad Third, And Is Sure of Only Three States.

NEW YORK AND THREE NEW ENGLAND STATES DEMOCRATIC

Roosevelt Has Won In Pennsylvania Illinois And Several Others--Both He And Taft Admit Defeat.

The election of Wilson and Marshall, Democratic nominees for President and Vice-President respectively, was assured beyond question of doubt by returns from practically every State in the Union at midnight Tuesday night.

At that hour Wilson had carried enough States to give him 267 electoral votes, Roosevelt had 29 and Taft 8.

Of the electoral votes yet to be determined, the Democratic ticket has almost certainly received enough to bring the total to 291, and this does not include California's vote, which it was reported had been conceded to Wilson and Marshall.

It seems reasonable to predict at midnight upon returns that, although scattering, are representative of sentiment in their respective States, that Wilson and Marshall will receive considerably more than three hundred electoral votes and it is quite possible that it will reach the four hundred mark.

The following States were claimed for Wilson and Marshall in a statement issued by the Democratic National Committee at 11 p. m., Tuesday night.

Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Wisconsin, New York, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Missouri, West Virginia and New Jersey.

Since that hour, additional returns furnished by the Associated Press make it very probable that the Democrats have carried California with 13 electoral votes, Arizona with three and Colorado with six.

Illinois and Pennsylvania are in the Roosevelt column, without much doubt, though Wilson, at midnight was only 15,000 behind Roosevelt in Pennsylvania. It appeared at that hour that Iowa would also be in the Roosevelt column. Scant returns from Ohio show Wilson has a lead and he was also leading in Michigan at midnight.

The early returns gave Wilson the "solid South" with Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York and probably West Virginia, Louisiana and Missouri.

Wilson carried three New England States, Maine, Massachusetts and Connecticut. He carried most of the States on the Atlantic seaboard, and more than broke even in the North Central States and in the Central West, where it appears that Kansas and Nebraska are for him. From the far Northwest little has been heard.

Democracy won a sweeping victory in New York State, coming down the Harlem River for the first time in history with a big plurality. New York City, New York, swelled this with the mighty plurality of probably 135,000, a record-breaker, and there is every reason to believe Wilson's plurality in New York State will be close to 200,000 votes, if it does not exceed that figure. This is in the face that Wilson ran behind the vote of Bryan four years ago and that the total up-state vote was considerably lighter than four years ago.

Debs, Socialist nominee for President, showed surprising strength in Illinois and California and in many places in those States his vote will probably be larger than that of Taft.

Chafin, Prohibition nominee, did not figure in the returns at all and the vote he received was nominal.

Texas will give Wilson a much larger majority over the combined vote for Taft and Roosevelt, than she gave Bryan over Taft four years ago. Scattering returns from over the State indicate that the race for second honors between the Republicans and Progressives is very close, with the Taftites showing considerably more strength than he had been expected.

Taft carried New Hampshire and Vermont, rock-ribbed Republican strongholds in New England, giving him four electoral votes each. While Utah was considered a safe Taft state, returns from that commonwealth last night showed Wilson leading both Taft and Roosevelt, with excellent prospects of being able to enter the four votes from that State in his column.

Whatever shadow of doubt there may have been as to Wilson's victory at 11 o'clock was dispelled when Associated Press dispatches announced that both Taft and Roosevelt conceded the election of the New Jersey Governor.

WILSON'S PLURALITY IN COUNTY CLOSE TO 1100

Incomplete returns from Wichita county up to midnight indicate that the Democratic vote will be the heaviest ever polled in the county and may come within four or five hundred votes of that cast in the primary last summer. On the other hand the combined Progressive and Republican vote will fall short of the vote cast for Taft in 1908.

In the returns received last night Roosevelt was leading Taft by a margin of only 11 votes while Debs, the Socialist was only five votes behind Taft.

With City Box 13, the largest in the county, incomplete, and no report from Allendale, Eleora, Beaver Creek, Clara and Denny the vote stood: Wilson, 943; Roosevelt, 88; Taft, 77; Chafin, 5; and Debs 72. In the northwest end of the county the Socialists are strong, and the final count may put Debs ahead of either Roosevelt or Taft.

The Democratic county candidates have a much larger vote than the candidates for governor or president owing to the fact that the Republicans and Progressives had no candidates for county offices. Not a single socialist scratched his neck so far as reported.

All of the amendments carried in this county by handsome majorities, the vote for the amendment for pensions for Confederate veterans being especially large.

In 1908 the total vote in Wichita county was Bryan, 804; Taft, 225; Chafin, 16; Debs, 23. Bryan's plurality was 549. Wilson's indicated plurality is about 1,100 and will be double that of Bryan.

EARLY MORNING RESULT FLASHES

ROOSEVELT TO WILSON.
New York, Nov. 5.—Shortly before midnight, Col. Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Gov. Wilson:

"The American people by a great plurality have conferred on you the highest honor in their gift. I congratulate you."

TAFT CONCEDES VICTORY.
New York, Nov. 6.—Shortly after midnight the Associated Press declared that Taft had conceded the election of Wilson.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5.—Meagre returns from scattered precincts throughout the State indicate that Wilson has carried Wisconsin by from 10,000 to 20,000 over Taft with Roosevelt running a poor third. Complete returns from Milwaukee county, where Wilson has run 10,000 ahead of Taft may double the estimated Democratic plurality in the State.

St. Paul, Minn.—One hundred and seven precincts in Minnesota out of 2,900 give Wilson 9,191; Roosevelt, 7,186; Taft, 6,892.

Cincinnati, O.—Four hundred precincts out of 5,211 in Ohio give Wilson 26,873; Taft, 20,761; Roosevelt, 11,773.

Fargo, N. D.—Republican headquarters at Fargo tonight concede Wilson would carry the State but claimed that Hanna, Republican for governor would win from Selstrom, Democrat, by 6,000 with Sweet, Progressive running a poor third.

San Francisco—Chairman Davis of the Democratic State Central committee claims Wilson carries California by a majority of 20,000 over Roosevelt.

Newark, N. J.—At midnight indications are that Wilson has carried New Jersey from 40,000 to 42,000.

Reports from New York were the basis of the early returns and these soon began to indicate a victory for Wilson. The Evening Mail, a Roosevelt paper, at 6:50, conceded the state to Wilson, claiming second place for the Bull Moose candidate. At that time Roosevelt was running behind Taft in both the city and up-state returns.

It soon became apparent that Wilson was easily victorious in both New York and in the up-state country, and it became a question only of the size of his plurality.

One curious feature in connection with the returns from New York state, outside of the city, was the fact that the vote was considerably lighter than it was four years ago and one result of this condition was that Wilson ran behind the vote received by Bryan four years ago.

The cheerful news began to come from Massachusetts and Connecticut and Maine, that Wilson was leading both the Republican and Progressive candidates in all three of these states.

The Chicago returns also began to come in early and showed Roosevelt leading Wilson by a small plurality, with Taft apparently barely holding third place over Debs, the Socialist candidate. The strength of Debs in Chicago and in Illinois occasioned much surprise.

ELECTORAL VOTE BY THE STATES

WARM WEATHER FOOD

LIGHT, APPETIZING REPASTS FOR THE HOT DAYS.

All Kinds of Delicious Salads That May Be Easily Prepared and Are Inexpensive—Stuffing for the Tomatoes.

As soon as the really warm weather comes in housekeepers are on the watch for anything that will be a change, or tend to tempt the appetites of those in her family.

Elaborate dishes, requiring time and skill, to say nothing of their cost, she will pass by, but simple, inexpensive additions to the daily menu are sure to be welcomed, writes Elizabeth Lee in the Chicago Daily News. For instance, a salad made from toast and hard-boiled eggs is not as well known as it should be.

To prepare it stale bread is toasted a light brown. The crusts are cut away and the square cut diagonally. One-half is piled with the grated yolk of egg, the other with the white finely chopped. The two are placed together and laid upon them may be boned sardine, a little salmon, lobster, or any fish at hand, covering with mayonnaise. The toast is transferred to a crisp leaf of lettuce.

As most housekeepers keep mayonnaise on hand this dish is quickly prepared, and at very little cost, too. For lunch this makes quite a substantial meal. Those who like peppers will find a sprinkling of the green shells both attractive and tasty.

Another inexpensive salad quickly prepared is made by mixing two tencent squares of cream cheese with enough cream or milk to form a paste.

To this is added a small onion chopped fine, a half-cup of any kind of nuts chopped, and salt to taste. This is piled upon lettuce leaves, each one garnished with a sprig of parsley.

In making chicken salad if one runs short of the meat a nice way of helping out is to inclose the salad in a ring of ham jelly. You make just a plain jelly with the gelatin slightly salt, and when almost cold beat in a little cream or the white of an egg and a half-cup of potatoe ham. Place in ring shape upon the dish and fill with the chicken salad, when you will have a most delicious and attractive looking salad.

Any bits of food left over in the ice box can be used up to make a stuffing of tomatoes. The inside of the tomato is taken out and mixed with almost anything at hand. I have tasted the combination of rice, a few nuts, a hard-boiled egg, a sprig of parsley, and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley as a filling and found it very appetizing. Salt and pepper to taste are added and then the tomatoes are filled. They can be baked in the oven or put on the ice to chill just as one prefers the raw or cooked food. Both ways taste good.

Chocolate Gingerbread.

One cup molasses, one-half cup sour milk, one teaspoon ginger, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon salt; dissolve one teaspoon soda in a teaspoon cold water; add this and two tablespoons melted butter to the mixture; stir in two cups sifted flour; finally add two squares of chocolate and one tablespoon butter melted together; bake in three deep pie plates in moderate oven for about 20 minutes.

Vanilla Iceing.—Break the white of one egg into a bowl and gradually beat into it one cupful of confectioners' sugar. Beat for three minutes; add one-half teaspoon vanilla extract and when cake is done and still warm spread between and on top. This cake is best when eaten fresh.

Green Peas Waffles.

Boil the peas until tender or use left over peas; drain until very dry, then mash the pulp through a strainer; pour a cup of boiling milk into a cup of strained peas, adding a generous tablespoonful of butter, one of sugar and a half a teaspoon of salt. When the mixture cools add two eggs, yolks and whites beaten separately; two teaspoons baking powder, sifted with a full cup of flour. If too thin add more flour. Bake in buttered waffle irons; sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve hot with maple syrup.

Hominy Drop Cakes.

One pint of fresh boiled hominy (cold may be used and, if the latter, break into grains as lightly as possible with a fork and beat in a double boiler without adding water); one tablespoon of water, two eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately. Stir the yolks into the hominy first, then the whites; add a teaspoon of salt, if not already salted; if so, half the amount. Drop by spoonfuls on well buttered tin sheets or pan and bake to a good brown in a quick oven.

Breadcrumb Pudding.

Two cups bread crumbs, one cup sugar, one cupful molasses, one-half cup raisins, a little salt and cinnamon and two cups sweet milk, bake one-half hour, stirring often, then add four cups sweet milk and bake two hours longer. It will wiley and can scarcely be told from an Indiana pudding. Serve hot with butter or cold with cream.

Sugar Pie.

One leasop sweet milk, one and one-half cups sugar, not quite half-cup flour or cornstarch, one teaspoonful of vanilla flavoring. This will make filling for one pie baked in large pie tin. Bake without top crust.

PARK TREES PERILED

Fine Elms in New York Endangered by Caterpillars.

More Spraying is Needed but There is Not Enough City Money to Do This Thoroughly, Says Commissioner Storer.

New York—Visitors to Central park within the last few days, and those who walk along the Fifth avenue side of the park, have been appalled at the destruction done to the fine elm trees by thousands of caterpillars, remarks a writer in the New York Tribune. They are the tussock moths, long known among landscape gardeners as one of the most persistent and destructive insects with which they have to deal. Within the limits of Central park they seem to have sprung into life in unusually large numbers this year. Charles Downing Lay, the landscape architect of the park, said recently that in a recent trip through the parks of Brooklyn and the Bronx he saw comparatively few of them.

E. S. Avery, who lives at the Metropolitan club, and several other lovers of New York's fine trees, have called attention to this unfortunate state of affairs, and have not hesitated to say that unless the deadly moth situation is taken in hand quickly and forcibly Central park and other sections of Manhattan island which possess handsome trees will see many of the best specimens degenerated to decaying stumps before the approach of another spring.

Landscape architects and authorities on trees who were asked yesterday if it were too late in the season to do anything to counteract the destructive effects of these pests said on the contrary that this was the time to get to work. As soon as the caterpillars emerge from their cocoons, which they are now doing by the thousands, they start upward for the green leaves, upon which they feed, and then return to the trunk to lay their eggs within the bark. If the trees are well sprayed with arsenate of lead mixture they will die before denuding the tree partially of the leaves.

"This spraying is the second means of eradicating the moths," said William J. Zartmann yesterday. For ten years he was superintendent of parks in Brooklyn. "My method of fighting the tussock moth has been to have workmen clean off the trunk and branches thoroughly in the winter with wire brushes. The small cocoons are swept out of their hiding places, and, being caught on pieces of canvas under the tree, are then burned. This is a laborious job, for with large trees the men must get up to the top and scrape all the branches and one man cannot do much more than three trees a day.

"The spraying comes when the moths first appear—anywhere from the end of June to the middle of July. If thoroughly applied by power-spraying machines to every part of the tree one good spraying ought to be sufficient."

"Mr. Zartmann figured out the approximate cost of this work at about $1.30 a tree. The spraying is the most costly. A crew of five men and a modern power-spraying machine, he said, ought to clean about sixty trees a day.

"One or two years' work is not enough," added Mr. Zartmann. "It must be faithfully followed out year after year, and then; while we cannot prevent the appearance of these insects entirely, they will be less in number and less destructive to the future beauty of the trees."

Park Commissioner Storer, when asked what was being done to kill off the moths and prevent their future propagation, said that he believed everything that could be done with the means at hand was being accomplished, and he added that spraying machines were at work in several parts of the park.

Besides the caterpillars the remaining signs show indications of other diseases noticeable by the dead branches protruding in a most unpleasing way from the sides and tops.

Spanish railways have been notorious for delays and poor management, travelers will hope that the change promises improvement in service.

"THE MAN BEHIND"

We didn't mean the man behind the times, nor the man behind his payments. Julius Caesar was "the man behind" Rome. Washington was the "man behind" the United States at a crisis in its history. Every successful business venture, no matter how humble, has "a man behind;" the man who shoulders the responsibility, and plans the campaign, who possesses those qualities that bring success to him and to those associated with him in business. Young man! if you wish to be "the man behind" a successful enterprise, attend the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, America's largest school of Bookkeeping, Business Administration and Finance, shorthand and Telegraphy. With such efficiency as this school will give you, the time will come when you'll "the man behind" a successful enterprise; when you will become a factor in the business world, and your name a synonym of success, again exemplifying the fact that with educated head and skilled hands, young men and women can carve their names upon the tallest towers of fame.

We have now more students in daily attendance than any other three commercial schools in the state combined. This shows the overwhelming popularity of the Tyler Commercial College. It shows that the people appreciate the advantages of the famous Byrnes systems, which save the student, while qualifying himself to hold a good position, almost $200 in time and board over what it would cost in a school teaching other systems. We can place you in a god position just as soon as your course is finished. Write for a catalogue and make your arrangements to enter at once.

See That Bald Headed Young Man. "I know he is only 38," said one young lady to another at a social function, "but he looks like 50."

"Better say he looks like 60," replied the other. Young men who use PARISIAN Sage never grow bald because the hair root is supplied with plenty of nature's own nourishment, which means at all times an abundance of healthy hair.

Young Man, if your hair is thinning out; if that little bald spot on top is beginning to spread, try PARISIAN Sage. It is guaranteed by Fooseh & Lynch to stop falling hair, banish dandruff and scalp itch, or money back. 50 cents at dealers everywhere.

503 U.S. MAIL PERMIT NO. 303

Today is the time and the opportunity for Democrats all over this United States to elect not only the presidency, but both branches of Congress, and that done, the house cleaning will begin after March 4th.

A straw vote on the presidential race at the Opera house last night was taken with the following result: Taft, 10; Roosevelt, 46; Wilson, 156; Debs, 1. That is about the proportion the vote on the candidates throughout this State will be.

Notwithstanding the ballot being voted today is as large as a page of this paper and has seven tickets or 47, it is much easier to vote than the size would indicate. One man entered a booth, was handed a ballot by the presiding judge, which he marked according to the way he wanted, and voted, consuming only one and a half minutes from the time he was given the ballot until it was deposited in the ballot box. That is not so bad. The election officers, also, are counting the ballots just about as fast as they are being voted, which was not the case in the primary election. One reason for this is that about all the voters are voting their parties ticket without scratching, and that makes the counting much easier than when the ticket is scratched.

The last of the car load of brood sows shipped brought from Fort Worth to this city by the Chamber of Commerce were disposed of to John Moore, a farmer, residing seven or eight miles north of this city. There is a great demand for stock of that kind in Wichita county this year. An immense feed crop of all varieties has been made, and those who made the feed crops, would rather feed it to hogs than sell outright. Several more car loads of brood sows could be disposed of to the farmers of this vicinity readily, and the Chamber of Commerce efforts along that line are commendable.

HOW TEXAS VOTED IN 1908

In 1908 the popular vote cast for Taft throughout the United States was 7,837,676; Bryan, 6,283,182; Debs, 448,453; Chaffin, 241,252. Taft's plurality over Bryan being 1,554,494.

The vote on the presidential question in Texas in 1908 was: Taft, 65,602; Bryan, 216,737. Bryan's plurality over Taft 151,135.

The vote in Wichita County that year was: Bryan, 804; Taft, 255; Chaffin, 16; Debs, 23. Bryan's plurality 549.

According to the vote cast in the July primaries of this year, there were 1700 Democrats who voted in the governor's race, and if all those who voted for Colquitt and Ramsey vote the Democratic presidential ticket in today's election it will show an increase in the Democratic vote in this county in four year's time of 897, or more than double.

The election today, however, is creating but little interest. What interest there is seems confined largely as to the number of states Wilson will carry, and as to whether Taft or Roosevelt will run next to Wilson.

CLOSE OF A MOST REMARKABLE CAMPAIGN

The closing of the polls tonight will bring to an end one of the most remarkable presidential campaigns this country has ever known. Of course, it is beyond human power to forecast the result with any degree of accuracy, but all along there has been a feeling that the Democrats would win, and it certainly seems that if they do not win this time, at a time when everything seems so favorable, it will be useless to ever make another attempt. Virtually, the campaign is

PRESERVING JUICES OF STEAK

Great Point to Be Remembered When Broiling of the Meat is Undertaken.

In an article on "The Appetizing Beefsteak" in the Woman's Home Companion, Fannie Merritt Farmer, the well-known cooking authority, presents a number of recipes and gives the following general advice about steaks:

"The underlying principle which governs good broiling is this: One side of the meat must be quickly seared, the meat must be turned, and the other side quickly seared. This prevents the escape of any of the juices. Turn almost constantly for the first minute of the cooking, then the meat must be cooked on one side, turned and cooked on the other, to suit individual taste.

"The best cuts of meat for broiling are porterhouse, sirloin, crosscut of rumpsteak and second and third cuts from top of round. Porterhouse and sirloin cuts, although commanding about the same price per pound as the cross cut of the rump, prove more expensive on account of the greater loss in bone and fat. Round steak is very juicy, but, having coarser fiber, is never as tender. Neither is the flank end of a porterhouse very tender.

For the reason it is a good plan to cut it off before cooking the steak and use it for meat cakes (Hamburg steak) or a small steak, or perhaps a small beefsteak piece. Cut out the tenderloin and reserve it to be cooked for one meal; cut off the flank and save it to be prepared for another; then broil the sirloin for dinner. The bone may be used to give added richness to the stock, if the flank end is utilized for a stew."

PRESENTED WITH GOLD MEDAL FOR HEROISM

Dean Howard Receives Splendid Gift From R. Rylands and Lamsbury

Dean Howard is the proud possessor of a handsome gold watch presented to him by R. Rylands and N. E. Lamsbury whom he rescued from drowning at Lake Wichita on October 31.

Mr. Rylands and Mr. Lamsbury started out in a sail-boat to go up the lake to shoot ducks. When about three hundred yards from the shore the boat turned over and its two passengers were in danger of being swept off their perilous perch by the high waves that were rolling.

Several attempts to reach them by persons on shore with row boats were abandoned on account of the high waves. When Mr. Howard arrived he started out to reach them. His boat was full of water by the time he got to them and was in danger of sinking and he could not permit them to get into it but allowed them to catch hold of the stern and towed them into shore.

All three were exhausted when they reached land and but for Mr. Howard's bravery the two men would undoubtedly have been drowned.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Always use soft water for washing purposes whenever possible.

Wash a little paraffin in the blacking to increase the brightness of the polish.

To take away the oily taste when using oil for frying, make the oil very hot and then fry a piece of onion in it, and when brown take it out.

One of the most useful herbs in cookery is thyme, which is invaluable for seasoning forec meat, balls, etc. Both lemon and common thyme should be stored.

To remove machine oil stains, cover them with lard for several hours, and then wash with soap and water. When the lard is washed out the spots will have disappeared.

When darning stockings run a thread around each hole before beginning and draw until the edges lie flat. This makes the hole appear smaller, and it will be much easier to mend.

To keep a zinc-covered kitchen table bright rub it occasionally with a cloth dipped in vinegar.

To dry a one-piece frock and have it keep its shape, slip it on a wooden coat hanger that you have first covered with a couple of folds of old muslin.

FINDS HIS LONG-LOST RING

Man Gets Wedding Band Buried in Sand Three Years at King's Beach in Massachusetts.

Boston, Mass.—Three years ago this summer J. Franklyn Brown, now head bookkeeper in a shoe factory at Chelsea, lost a wedding ring while in bathing on King's Beach, Swampscott. Today he has the ring, and behind its restoration is a story of a bit of detective work.

Two weeks ago Arthur Getchell, mail clerk in the Lynn postoffice, was rolling around on the beach in a bathing suit when the sandy recess in which the ring had lain hidden for three years was exposed. The only clue to the identity of the owner was an inscription on the inside which read, "From Flossie to Frank, Oct. 14, 1905."

How to find the owner on such a meagre clue, when thousands bathe on the beach every summer, was the problem. For a week Getchell searched every place that he could think of. Then, remembering the old adage about two heads being better than one, he consulted a friend, George F. Alley, and out of their conference, a bright thought popped forth: "Why not look up the marriage records on that date?"

That settled it. They found a Frank and a Flossie were married and Frank lived then at 63 Essex street, Lynn, from where he was traced. Flossie, before she became Mrs. Brown, was Miss Lauckner of 41 Porter street, Lynn.

RECOMMENDS INDUSTRIAL COURT TO SETTLE INJURIES

Mr. Finty recommends the establishment of an industrial court of competent jurisdiction, similar to that now employed by the state of Wisconsin, to settle personal injury claims and eliminate as far as possible the waste resulting from our present system and give all injured workmen reasonable and prompt compensation.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 5.—Tom Finty Jr., staff correspondent of the Dallas News and one of the most competent citizens in Texas, has rendered a report to the Texas Welfare Commission on Compensation to Employees for "Casualties Occurring in Course of Employment, in which he directs attention to the waste resulting from our present system of settling personal injury cases. Mr. Finty quotes from a statement by the committee of the Wisconsin Legislature, which investigated the subject and drafted the workmen's compensation law of that state. It says that "under the old system (similar to the one now in use in Texas) in order for an employer to pay about $18 to an injured employe for or on account of injury, it required $82 to carry the $18 to him." The damaged suit lawyer, who suffers no injury whatever, usually gets half the award; and court costs and other items, make up the remainder of the expense.

Mr. Finty recommends the establishment of an industrial court of competent jurisdiction, similar to that now employed by the state of Wisconsin, to settle personal injury claims and eliminate as far as possible the waste resulting from our present system and give all injured workmen reasonable and prompt compensation.

Some unknown person threw a stone through a window at the home of Rev. F. F. Walters, pastor of the First Christian Church between ten and eleven o'clock last night breaking out the window pane and frightening Mrs. Walters badly. Rev. Walters had just come in after being out with Mr. Pond canvassing funds for the new church and was seated near the window counting up the subscriptions with Mrs. Walters when they were startled by something striking the window sill. An instant later a stone as large as a goose egg crashed through the pane bounding along the floor and barely missing one of the children sleeping in an adjoining room. The stone was evidently thrown from across the street. The identity of the thrower is unknown.

Yesterday was a record breaking day in the money order department of the Wichita Falls postoffice, a total of 172 orders being issued, involving a total of $1429.75. The largest previous day was last April, when 159 orders were issued, the total amount being $1253.92. The large transient population of this city is one source of the large money order business, there being many people who "send money home" and who prefer the old familiar postoffice order to bank drafts.

The "Advertising Man"

W. H. Cousins, the Wichita Falls druggist who occasionally finds time to contribute a column of miscellany to The Times is also editor of the advertising department of the Practical Druggist, a trade publication of National circulation.

In the current issue of this publication Mr. Cousins has an article on the "Advertising Man" which is here with reproduced.

The caption around which is coiled the cable that makes the ship of business success, sure of her moorings.

Not since Solomon set about to determine the ownership of the baby of Biblical tradition has there been a man of such varied wisdom, until the advent of the modern producer and purveyor of publicity brain throbs—the man that the modern business world is pleased to denigrate—the advertising man; the man who writes the copy that convinces the world, or a part of it at least, that Bataana breakfast food is alone responsible for the brain and drawn of the American nation.

We also find this chain laboring in the production of copy that is to surround the photograph of Jason Fernigan in the Happy Home Monthly, telling how Jason had been an invalid for fourteen years, and after taking twenty-eight bottles of your valuable remedy, is as strong as a dry horse and as pert as a pointer pup.

Nothing so thoroughly demonstrates and proves the versatility of the advertising man's knowledge as the fact that he makes a go of every kind of manufactured product. From the new brand of toothpicks to the latest thing in suspension bridges. In so doing he must appeal to tastes, ranging from that of the beggar to the bloated bondholder, and passes from the washerwoman to the chap who has to pay storage on his coin. There are probably a few advertising specialists in the country who delineate the merits of one line or class of merchandise, but the seasoned advertiser, the successful veteran who gets results, has in most cases gone the route from fountain pens to automobiles, and from mouse traps to real estate, and in getting results has had to appeal to a wide range of natures. For instance, his happy wheeze about the thorough goodness of Clark's peach preserves at forty cents the short pint did not appeal to any great extent to the twelve dollars a week man, whose stomach bore a close and long standing acquaintance with cow peas and bacon; and whose neck valve had never gurgled anything rarer than common water, but it was put up to the advertising man to get this chap to buy the goods or get off the job, so he rolled up his sleeves and buckled down, with the result that we find the president of the road and the section boss pouring cream and sprinkling sugar over the same brand of cereal excelsior, and we find the same kind of edible sawdust in the carpenter's dinner pail that we find on the menu at the millionaire's club.

The advertising man has to a certain extent limited the duties of the once greatest factor in the proposition of converting raw material into finished product and later into cash—the salesman. Not so many years ago the marketing of a product was left to a large extent in the hands of the men who went out on the road in quest of orders. The first question that confronted these salesmen, when they approached a buyer, was whether or not the buyer wanted the product at all, but since the advertising man has come into the scheme of marketing a product the question has changed to "How much do you want?"

The advertising man has put the product on the market by appealing directly to the consumer, the man who takes it entirely off the market and out of commerce forever, and the salesman's duty has come to be merely a matter of the number of copies, the discounts and shipping instructions. The comfortable looking salesman who sits in the Pullman and boasts of solid car orders to his less wise companions and tries to look the part of the factory's only chance to get the goods out, has come to be regarded as a large joke and of no more importance than any of the other workers whose labor makes it possible to give the populace the finished product at a price they are able to pay.

Before the coming of modern advertising man it was customary for a manufacturer to make a product and man the road with what was commonly known as "smooth salesmen" to see if the product could be sold. He did this without making a single arrangement looking to the ultimate sale to the consumer, or, rather, the manufacturer considered his task finished and his work done when his goods were in the hands of the retailer. But the advertising man demonstrated and very forcibly so, that the manufacturer was working backwards. The advertising man says "advertise the goods today and make them to-morrow," and under his publicity plan the consumer is the first man who hears of the goods. He is made acquainted with their merits and their price, and after the advertising man has given him a graphic description and assurance of their thorough goodness and adaptability to his needs, he closes with his near axiom "For sale by all grocers," hence Mr. Consumer goes to Sellen & Co., and asks for goods that Sellen & Co. never heard of, but is told as usual that they are expecting a shipment soon; so the consumer goes again and again and asks for the goods that the advertising man has told him were best, and when the salesman comes with the line Sellen & Co. are not only willing but eager to buy.

The advertising man wisely provides for the goods from their creation to their consumption. Under the old plan it was possible for experienced salesmen to sell goods to the retailer, but it was up to the retailer to resell these goods, single handed and alone, to people who had never heard of them, hence when the salesman came again he found that the retailer looked on his goods as stickers that were absolutely unmovable and deserved to be invoiced with the fixtures of the store.

To the advertising man belongs the credit for convincing the manufacturer that the proper method of effectually advertising a product is to appeal not to the merchant, but to the man who is going to consume or destroy the goods, and get them out of the way and make room for next year's output.

No legitimate manufacturer can afford to sell a retailer goods concerning which there is a ghost of a question about the retailer being able to resell them. In the modern advertising man's setting plan the retailer is not consulted or asked anything about the marketing of a product that he is later going to have to sell.

The advertising man approaches the housewife through the advertising department of her favorite magazine and delineates in telling style the merits of the merchandise which he wishes her to buy, when the proper time comes. He even goes so far in the perfection of his plan that his copy is displayed on either side of the column of the serial story, continued from page 4, and as my lady peruses with great interest the almost animated sentences telling how Hugh Roxton bravely rescued Beryl Underwood from the cruel waves at the risk of his own life, she dare not look to the right or the left of the column, as her mind is sure to go from Hugh to homeless hostess, and beautiful Beryl would certainly get lost in a maze of descriptive adjectives extolling the pre-eminent superiority of So and So's vacuum cleaner.

In most cases the advertiser gets away with the housewife's attention with his "HOUSE CLEANING A LUXURY" against the author of "DARING I LOVE YOU."

The advertiser is aided in his appeal by the commercial illustrator, whose pictures always show the lady who manipulates the cleaner to bear a striking resemblance to the Venus of Milo dressed in one of those at-home gowns, smiling like a magdalen and cleaning a twelve room house, while the cook makes toast. And, usually, the author's illustrator makes the heroine show more wrinkles than roses, often her feet are not maton, her shins borders on deformity and her features look as if they were mad at each other.

What the successful advertiser does is done well. His copy may not say what he would wish it to say, but it must say that which will make the millions sit up and take notice. His sentences must be plain and to the point, as they are intended for an universal appeal to the whole world. High flown phrases would probably appeal to a small class of people. For instance, if he said: "Cranford's Baked Beans are a Prime Product and the Acme of Culinary Elegance" there would probably be a hundred college professors in the country, those huge spectacled long-haired-veg-dors of tangled English who would burn up the telephone wires getting a case of Mr. Cranford's product up to the house, but instead the ad-man says: "Cranford's Beans Are Good Beans Well Cooked," and the man who knows how to get the best results from a pick and shovel is wise in a minute to what he means, and the shoveler artist is the man who is responsible for the demand for next year's output. He is the man who puts the beans where they will not compete with next year's crop. Not only does the advertising man have to be an adept at the art of description, but he must make his delineation of the merits of his merchandise appeal to people who are going to buy and consume either his or a similar product.

Some advertisers whose copy is entitled to be termed classic, and is intended to portray the merits of a book on chemistry, or tell of the unquestioned excellence of Doctor Dunderhiltzen's culture media, can afford to write Shakespearean hidden meaning copy, but theirs is not a universal appeal. It is an appeal to a class of customers that is perfectly at home when trying to find out whether the advertiser is extolling the merits of his goods or drawing a word picture with a view to giving the reader a prize if he guesses what is meant. This kind of copy would promote the popularity of Peterson's Pomade for Pank Complexions to about the same extent the proverbial snowflake would quench a prairie fire.

The varied knowledge of the modern advertising man is something wonderful, and is probably not equalled by that of any other class of workers in the world. He is the man who made the Hooob and the Nabob smoke the same kind of tobacco, and has put the plumber and the plumber on the same brand of caffeineless coffee. His greatest efforts and most brilliant successes are in the promotion of universally used products.

This is where his varied knowledge of human nature, and his thorough knowledge of his own product, are brought into strong play. He hands the industrial journal a bunch of copy setting forth the fact that his great factory, owing to its immense output and colossal volume of business, is able to put this large cake of good having sold on the market at twenty-five cents, while the copy for national goods that are to be placed on the leading retailables of the Gotta Yaht Club cuts out price and screams quality in a voice that gets the business.

It takes vastly more brains and experience to promote successfully the sale of a shoe polish whose ultimate sale amounts to ten cents than it does to sell an automobile, the retail value of which is $5,000. The automobile advertiser has one class of buyers to appeal to, while the promoter of the human hoof joint has at least ninety-five per cent. of the civilized world to reach, or they will buy the other fellow's polish.

One of the things the modern advertising man is doing for the salesman is to pave his pathway smoothly cover it with soft fluffy divan cloth, so that the salesman will have easy going and his hardest and most fatiguing work will be looking up the rating of the Junction Mercantile Co., and showing them where to sign.

The traveling salesman who once had the task not only of selling but advertising the goods has had his burden considerably lightened. The goodness and desirability of his product is impressed on the retailer by consumers who have been reached by the publicity man through an effective advertising medium. The sales-

Algiers is said to have the largest European population of any city in Africa. Johannesburg comes next, then Oram. Will the class in geography kindly locate the latter town, with its one hundred thousand Europeans, without referring to the atlas?

Dr. Roy C. Adams, curator of the

NEW NEWS OF YESTERDAY

Great Desire of W. A. Camp That Wasn't Gratified.

Former Manager of the New York Clearing House Had Consuming Ambition to Find One Day's Exchanges Exactly Balance.

By E. J. EDWARDS.

One of the most famous managers in the history of the world's largest clearing house association—that of New York city—was the late William A. Camp. He held that position for nearly a quarter of a century, and in that time he carried the clearing house through two famous panics—those of 1872 and 1893—and several lesser financial disturbances. No financial history of the country of the period from 1870 to 1894 would be complete without paying considerable attention to the activities of Mr. Camp as manager of the New York Clearing House association and the work of that institution under his management.

Recently I told of the improvised institution of research which Mr. Camp, as manager of the clearing house, conducted to test the mind's ability to count without external aid. Mr. Camp was a man of delightful whims, and this was one of them. But there was yet another whim which had even greater hold of him. It became, in fact, the great consuming ambition of his life as manager of the clearing house.

"This institution," he said to me one day, "is established for the purpose of making it possible to exchange easily the checks and drafts which the banks that are members of the association have received upon deposit or which are drawn against these banks. Every bank comes here at a certain hour of the day, with checks or drafts, which they call 'items,' that have been received upon deposit within 24 hours. Then the clerks go around presenting the drafts to representatives of each bank. In that way the exchanges are effected, for every bank is credited with the drafts which it has presented for collection and is charged with the items presented to for collection. Then, if there be any balance, the bank must pay it in to the clearing house, which settles with each bank. With this explanation in mind, you will understand the nature of the wish which has been with me every day when the Clearing House association opens.

"It occurred to me, I should think, some ten years ago, that it would be a wonderful thing if one day's exchanges in the clearing house so exactly balanced that there would be nothing to pay over. See what that would mean. It would mean that all of the sales and purchases of commodities which were represented by these checks and drafts and which have taken place in any one day would exactly balance one another, just as if you swapped your pocket knife for somebody else's penholder on an even basis. The more I thought of this the more anxious I became that it should happen at some time during my service as manager of the clearing house that the exchanges would exactly balance, so that there would not be a dollar to pay over to any one. And at last this became my pet ambition.

"But though this desire came to me a full decade ago, I have never been able to see it gratified. There have been a few times when exchanges which aggregated a hundred millions or thereabout have been made with a few hundred dollars' balance to pay. I remember vividly that one day I was overjoyed with the prospect that the exchanges would balance exactly. What a triumph that would have been! But I was disappointed at the last moment. And now, every day when I come here, I say to myself that I hope this is to be the day when the exchanges will exactly balance."

"Perhaps a year later I met Mr. Camp again and asked him if at any time during the year the exchanges had balanced.

"No, not yet," he said, and then he added sadly: "But I feel sure it will happen before my time here ends."

Again, some months later, I met Mr. Camp and again asked if the exchanges had balanced.

"Not yet," he replied, "but I still have hope that I will be able to report that the exchanges have exactly balanced."

Some time later, when I saw Mr.

Camp after it became known that he was to retire from the management of the Clearing House association, he said to me:

"I have carried this clearing house through some severe panics. The aggregate exchanges effected here have been up to the trillions. But I have got to go away from here with one deep regret, for I never shall see the exchanges at this clearing house exactly balance. And yet it might have been, for it was all chance, and fate was against me."

Barley Soup.

Three ounces barley, 1 1/2 ounces stale bread, 1 1/2 ounces butter, one-quarter ounce chopped parsley, one-quarter ounce salt. Wash and steep the barley for twelve hours in one-half pint of water, to which a piece of carbonic soda, the size of a pea, has been added; pour off the water not absorbed, add the bread crumbs, three quarts of boiling water and the salt; boil slowly in a well-tinned covered pan for four or five hours, add the parsley, butter, white pepper about half an hour before the soup is ready to serve.

Mother's Surprise.

Take half a square loaf of baker's bread, cut into thin slices, crum and all, and butter them; peel, core and cut up sufficient quantity of good baking apples to be in proportion. Take a pie dish, line it with bread and butter; put a layer of the apples at the bottom, then of sugar, then of bread, and so on until the dish is filled. Bake until the apples are perfectly soft; turn out in a dish and serve. It should keep its shape and taste almost like a sweetmeat, all the ingredients being thoroughly blended in baking.

The Staples well at Iowa Park has not yet done anything to justify the faith of those who were leaving everything around that place last week, and the well is still shut down. It has been nicknamed the "mystery well" but not many of the oil men think there is much mystery to it.

Scene From Polly of The Circus At Wichita Theater Tonight

"Polly of the Circus," Margaret Mayo's wholesome and simple story of the circus ring, is at the Wichita Theatre this afternoon and tonight. This show is a great favorite with Wichita Falls theatre-goers. Miss Elsie St. Leon is in the title role and is supported by all the members of the original "Polly of the Circus" company.

It would be a difficult task to imagine a prettier scene than that with which the first act of Polly closes. It is there that the young girl of the circus world gets her first insight into things that are higher and better, when as she first regains consciousness and realizes her helplessness, the minister reads to her, at her request, those memorable lines from the Book of Ruth: "Entreat me not to leave thee or to return from following after thee for whither thou goest I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge. My people shall be thy people, and thy God my God." The curtain falls, and the real story is begun. Pathos is mingled through-the play, with no less excellent humor than Polly's slang when she first converses with the minister about his people. She calls him "sky pilot" and talking of her business as compared with his ministerial duties says: "One year you give 'em the rottenest kind of a show and they eat it up; the next year you give 'em a 'knockout' and it's a frost." These are but random pamples. The circus scenes of the third act are revelations of stage craft. It's all there, the rings, the horses, the trained ponies, the clowns and everything and everybody else, including the famous St. Leon family. The setting of the last act scene is as wonderful as it is beautiful. The circus trains and wagons winding their way up the pathways while Polly remains once more and forever behind and with the man after her own heart. Taken all in all, "Polly of the Circus" offers more pure and wholesome entertainment than any play has had in a long time, hence its success.

Not Necessary to Stop Eating to be Cured

It is not necessary for stomach sufferers to stop eating the things they enjoy and take up a light diet which will scarcely nourish the body. Nature demands nourishment and it is not going to cure the stomach trouble to deny oneself proper food. There are hundreds of bad cases of stomach trouble in the city which have been cured by the use of Fowler's Stomach Wafers and dieting has not been necessary at all.

For people who have not tried this splendid stomach cure, it is only necessary to say that it is one of the greatest remedies ever discovered and for all stomach troubles it has no equal. Fowler's Stomach Wafers are in small wafer form. They are placed in the

The present age has been denominated the age of specialists by some of the wise ones, who in many cases have spoken more wisely than they knew. Specializing has brought the preacher a pulpit, the barrister a brief, the physician a patient, and from the womb of necessity there has been born a man child, whose fertile brain and tireless hands, under the tutorage of an unrelenting mother, have quickened the life blood and stimulated the pulse of the trade-velins of the great world.

And he thinks that in the future when generations yet unborn gather in the Hall of Fame to drop tears of admiration on the plaster of paris breasts of long notables, among other tenants of the niches will be an imposing statue of the man who made the world acknowledge that there were only two kinds of laundry soap, namely, his and all others. And crowned with a laurel wreath that would make Horatus of ancient Rome gasp for breath and scream for help will be the chap who sat in his ten-by-twelve office on the twenty-second floor and slipped the dent-ens of earth printed conversations that made them buy Tabor's Tooth Paste by the shipload.

EARLY VOTING NOT HEAVY IN THE CITY

Delay in Opening Several Boxes May Cut Vote Short Here—Much Interest in Outcome

Election day opened in Wichita Falls with wet, cloudy weather, but by early this afternoon the clouds had been dispelled and the day was fair.

The voting was slightly above the normal, according to estimates. Following were the total votes at the five city boxes at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

Table with 2 columns: No. and votes. No. 1: 82, No. 2: 150, No. 11: 60, No. 12: 146, No. 13: 232

Total 670 The city hall and bridge boxes did not open until the morning was several hours gone, owing to a misunderstanding on the part of those appointed to serve. As a result, some who went to vote were unable to cast their ballots and this may result in light voting at these boxes when the totals are in. It is understood that the same condition prevailed at some of the rural boxes.

Considerable interest was being manifested in the outcome and early this afternoon, before any definite news could possibly have been forthcoming, The Times was receiving telephone calls for news of results in the Eastern States.

In the bond election at the city hall a total of 188 votes had been cast at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

DEMOCRATS INCREASE MAJORITY IN HOUSE, MAY CONTROL SENATE

GAIN 37 MEMBERS WITH 62 DISTRICTS STILL UNDECIDED

Upper Branch Probably Democratic, But Many Results In Doubt—Progressives Have Seven Congressmen

By Associated Press.
Washington, Nov. 6.—House of Representatives—Democrats, 267; Republicans, 99; Progressives, 7. Districts unreported 62. Total membership, 435.

The foregoing shows the standing at noon today of the House of Representatives in the Sixty-Third—that is, the new Congress. The total of 267 gave the Democrats forty-nine more than the 218 necessary for a majority, and thirty-seven more than the Democratic membership in the Sixty-Second Congress.

Returns indicate a probability of the success of a sufficient number of Democratic senatorial candidates to give the democrats control of both branches of Congress.

There is still sufficient uncertainty regarding the Senate to make the situation indefinite.

NEXT PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES

WOODROW WILSON

Woodrow Wilson was born in Staunton, Va., Dec. 28, 1856, the son of Rev. Dr. Joseph and Jessie (Woodrow) Wilson, grandson of Judge James and Annie (Adams) Wilson, and of Thomas and Marion (Williamson) Woodrow, and a collateral descendant of Rev. Thomas Woodrow, ecclesiastical historian of Scotland, in whose honor the Woodrow Historical Society was named. His father, Rev. J. R. Wilson, was one of the most influential clergymen in the South.

At the age of 2 years Woodrow Wilson was taken with the family from Virginia to Augusta, Ga., and it was there his boyhood was spent. In 1870 Rev. Dr. Wilson became a teacher in the Southern Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., where the boy got a part of his more advanced education. He later became a student at Davidson College, N. C. He was graduated from the College of New Jersey (Princeton), A. B., in 1879; A. M. in 1882, and studied law at the University of Virginia in 1879 and 1888. Mr. Wilson was admitted to the bar in 1882 and practiced in Atlanta, Ga., until 1883. From 1883 to 1885 he was a student in history and politics at Johns Hopkins University, holding the appointment of fellow in history, 1884 and 1885. From 1885 to 1886 Mr. Wilson was associate in history at Bryn Mawr College and associate professor of history and political science, 1886 to 1888.

WILSON REPLIES TO MESSAGES

ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF CONGRATULATIONS FROM TAFT AND ROOSEVELT

HE ISSUES STATEMENT

Says Purpose of Party is to Bring all Free Forces of Nation into Intelligent Co-operation

By Associated Press.
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 6.—To President Taft, Mr. Wilson sent the following telegram today:

"I warmly appreciate your kind message and wish to express my sincere personal regards."

To Col. Roosevelt, Mr. Wilson sent the following:

"My sincerest thanks for your kind message. Pray accept my cordial good wishes."

Mr. Wilson made this official statement today:

"The result fills me with the hope that the thoughtful progressive forces of the Nation may now at last unite to give the country freedom of enterprise and a government released from all corporate and private influences, devoted to justice and progress."

"There is absolutely nothing for the honest and enlightened business man to fear. No man whose business is conducted without violation of the rights of free competition, and without such private understanding and secret alliances as violate the principle of our law, and the policy of all wholesome commerce and enterprise, need fear neither interference or embarrassment from the administration."

"Our hope and purpose is now to bring all the free forces of the Nation into active and intelligent co-operation and to give to our prosper-

STOCK MARKET IS STIMULATED

PRICES OF MOST STOCKS ADVANCE ON OPENING OF STOCK EXCHANGE AFTER ELECTION

A VERY SLIGHT REACTION

Quickly Followed By Gains That Were Maintained To High Point of Advance

By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 6.—The result of the presidential election seems to have left Wall street in some doubt, judging from the market's course in the early hours today. Opening prices showed marked advances in the speculative issues, thereby following the lead of London, but the first outbreak was followed by heavy offerings which soon wiped out most gains.

Then came a renewed demand in smaller volume, which largely restored the early rise. Beet sugar, whose fortunes are linked with the tariff, added seven points to its recent decline and American sugar also fell. Call money eased off to five per cent.

FRANK M'CUEN AGAIN FOUND GUILTY

His Punishment Fixed at Life Imprisonment by Jury at McKinney.—Will Appeal

By Associated Press.
McKinney, Tex., Nov. 6.—The jury in the Frank McCue case brought in a verdict of guilty this morning and assessed his punishment at life imprisonment. His attorneys announced that a motion for a new trial will be made at once, and if it is not granted an appeal will be taken. McCue killed Early Mabry in Dallas in 1908, while robbing him.

IMPROVEMENTS ASSURED BY BOND ISSUE VOTE.

More street lights, a garbage destructor and extensions of the sewer system were made certain yesterday when the property-owners by an overwhelming majority, approved the issuance of $22,000 in bonds, $12,000 for street lights and $10,000 for sewers.

The vote was: For sewer bonds, 232; against, 48. For street lighting bonds, 228; against, 49.

While the vote is decisively in favor of the improvements, the vote in opposition was the largest ever recorded to a bond issue in this city. Usually, the opposition to bond issues numbers from twenty to thirty votes and this time it was nearly fifty. While that is a very meager minority it is larger than usual.

It will be some time before the improvements will actually be under way, as the bonds must be approved, registered and sold before the funds will be available, but it is hoped to complete these formalities in a month or so.

WEATHER FORECAST
Frost tonight, Thursday fair and warmer.

LATEST BULLETINS

Des Moines—Latest returns indicate the Democrats have won in Iowa for first time in state history. The Wilson victory is by about 10,000.

Cincinnati—Wilson carried Ohio by about 100,000 majority. Taft defeated Roosevelt probably by 50,000.

Topeka, Kas.—Col. Roosevelt's lead in Kansas indicated last night was greatly reduced at 10:30 a. m. Returns, mostly from city districts from 425 precincts, complete, and 100 more incomplete, out of 2300 give Roosevelt 25,206; Wilson, 24,581; Taft, 14,547.

Philadelphia—Returns from 4,931 election districts out of 6,593 in Pennsylvania give Taft 210,059; Wilson, 270,876; Roosevelt, 295,614.

St. Paul—Incomplete returns from Minneapolis at noon show Wilson safely leading. Gov. Eberhardt, Republican was in the lead although Peter Ringdahl, Democrat was gaining somewhat.

Chicago—With 1,224 precincts in Illinois to hear from Roosevelt led Wilson by 14,015, votes, as the returns from the country districts came slowly in, Roosevelt's lead was reduced. The plurality of 26,477 given Roosevelt in Cook county has probably carried the state for the Colonel, but if the subsequent returns from the country show consistent Wilson gains, Roosevelt's plurality will be small.

Colorado Democratic.
By Associated Press.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 6.—Additional returns today confirm the earlier prediction that Wilson has carried the State by a substantial plurality.

Kansas In Doubt.
By Associated Press.
Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6.—Roosevelt's big plurality in the early count has dwindled to a few hundred votes and the result will be very close between Wilson and Taft.

Good Majority in Nebraska.
By Associated Press.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—Wilson and Marshall have a good plurality in Nebraska.

By Associated Press.
Conford, N. H., Nov. 6.—The official count may be necessary to decide the result in New Hampshire between Taft and Wilson.

New Mexico For Wilson.
By Associated Press.
Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 6.—New Mexico has been conceded to the Democrats.

Oklahoma Gives Wilson Big Vote.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 6.—The Democratic plurality in Oklahoma may reach 35,000.

"Meridian Road" Meeting Tonight.
Whether Wichita Falls will be on the route of the "Meridian Road" the proposed highway from Canada to the Gulf, is to be largely determined tonight at a meeting at the city hall, at which action will be taken by the citizens. The meeting was called by Mayor Bell, who is chairman of the Meridian road committee for Wichita county. It is known that this city is favorable to the plan.

Late Returns Place Several States in Doubtful Column

By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 6.—Without affecting in the slightest the certainty that Wilson and Marshall yesterday captured an overwhelming majority of the electoral vote, conservative estimates at 1 p. m. today compelled a change to the doubtful column of some states where the results had been recorded as certain.

Among these states were Iowa, with 13 votes, and Minnesota with 12; and even Illinois was included by the ultra-conservatives, with its 29 votes and Pennsylvania, with 28.

At that hour, Wyoming's three votes and South Dakota's five had not been placed.

Heavy reductions in the early reports of a large plurality for Roosevelt in Kansas upset all calculations, so that at this hour Roosevelt's lead over Wilson in Kansas had narrowed to 625 votes on returns from about one-fourth of the precincts.

In Illinois the heavy Wilson vote outside of Cook county had reduced Roosevelt's lead to about 15,000, as against the estimated 100,000 or more given him last night upon the Chicago returns.

Roosevelt's supporters declared at one o'clock that there was no reason to put Pennsylvania in the doubtful column, even though they admitted that early reports of the Colonel's plurality probably had been exaggerated.

TEXAS MAJORITY IS ABOUT 150,000

Incompleteness of Returns Makes It Uncertain Whether Taft or Roosevelt Will Be Second

By Associated Press.
Dallas, Texas, Nov. 6.—Texas polled one of the biggest Wilson majorities of any State yesterday. Approximately 150,000 is the figure. All four constitutional amendments carried, the Confederate pension amendment by about four to one. The interesting issue, whether Taft or Roosevelt leads in Texas, is not yet decided, owing to very slow returns.

Indications are because of the long ballot, many precincts will not be heard from before tomorrow. So far Taft and Roosevelt are about even in all returns received.

So far Taft and Roosevelt are about even. Their combined vote seems to be about 50,000. The Socialists polled about 10,000 and the prohibitionists polled probably less than 1000.

Missouri Safe For Wilson.
By Associated Press.
St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Missouri is safely in the Democratic column with a handsome plurality for Wilson.

With Tears In His Eyes Wilson Talked to Home Folks

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 6.—With tears in his eyes, Governor Wilson stood before the student body of Princeton University as it came cheering and singing to his house to congratulate him last night on his election.

The governor made a brief speech. The students gave the "Incommodore" yell of Princeton and sang "Old Nassau."

As he sang the song of the college his hand uplifted moving steadily to the characteristic refrain of the song; it was evident that he was deeply moved. Beside him stood Mrs. Wilson and her three daughters beaming with happiness.

President John C. Hibben of Princeton University declared today a holiday in the university.

The demonstration came as a climax to a rather quiet evening at the Wilson home. Though the returns came steadily along, it was hard to convince him that he was elected. He said he preferred to be ultra-conservative in the matter of returns, but the household of people thought otherwise and so did the students who hailed the governor once more as they used to—"President Wilson." In addressing the students, Dr. Wilson said:

"Gentlemen: I am sincerely glad to see you. I got upon a chair so that you could not see the patch on my head. But when I see this great gathering around me, it carries me back to many happy and laborious days and I can't help thinking this evening that something has only just begun which you men will have a great part in carrying forward. Therefore, my wish tonight is to say to you what I would say to myself. The lesson of this election is a lesson of responsibility.

"I believe very heartily that a great cause has triumphed; that the American people know what they want and that when they know what they want, they have the men and the purpose to obtain it; but that they can't get what they want through the activities of a single man or a single session of congress or a single group of men. They must get it by a long, tedious effort in which this generation

As for the Progressive cause, I can only repeat what I have so many times said: The fate of the leader for the time being is of little consequence, but the cause itself must in the end triumph, for its triumph is essential to the well-being of the American people."

President Taft's Statement.
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—President Taft at 11 o'clock last night conceded the election of Gov. Wilson. He issued the following statement from his brother's home here:
"The returns insure the election of Gov. Wilson to the Presidency. This means an early change in the policy of the Government in reference to the tariff. If this change can be made without halting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be."
"The vote for Mr. Roosevelt, the third party candidate, and for Mr. Debs, the Socialist candidate, is a warning that their propaganda in favor of fundamental changes in our constitutional representative government has formidable support."

ciples and to organize again to defend the constitutional government handed down to us by our fathers. We must make clear to the young men of the country who have been weaned away from sound principles of government by promises of reforms, impossible of accomplishment by mere legislation, that patriotism and common sense require them to return to a support of our Constitution. Without compromising our principles, we must convince and win back former Republicans and we must reinforce our ranks with Constitution-loving Democrats."
"We favor every step of progress toward more perfect equality of opportunity and the rising society of injustice. But we know that all progress worth making is possible with our present form of government and that a sacrifice that which is of the highest value in our governmental structure for undefined and impossible reforms is the wildest folly. We must face the danger with a clear knowledge of what it is. The Republican party is equal to the task. It has had no nobler cause. Let us close ranks and march forward to do battle for the right and the truth."

ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC STATE.
TICKET ELECTED IN ILLINOIS.
Chicago, Nov. 6.—What an early return last night appeared to be a landslide in Illinois for Roosevelt at 8 o'clock this morning had narrowed to eight thousand plurality and almost half of the State was still to be heard from.

◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆
E. S. Dunne, Democratic candidate for governor, is generally conceded to have won a plurality of at least 60,000.

◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆
The entire Democratic state ticket was swept into office. Two of the big surprises were the defeat of former Speaker Cannon by O'Hair, Democrat in the Eighteenth district, and the strength of the Socialist vote.

◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆
In Cook county, Cuneo, Socialist, ran ahead of the Republican candidate for State attorney. Two Socialists were elected to the Legislature. It was announced early that William H. McKinley, Taft's campaign manager, had been defeated in his race to succeed himself in Congress.

TIMES ELECTION SERVICE WAS GOOD

Bulletin Service Last Night, "Breakfast" Edition and Telephone Announcement Results in This Section

In keeping with its long-established policy of giving its readers the best possible service when big news is stirring, the Times this morning issued a "breakfast edition" showing election returns from more than two-thirds of the States and giving a comprehensive summary of yesterday's election results.

A rooster cut, ordered especially for this occasion, adorned the front page of the extra, and served to express the general feeling of jubilation over the result. It was the first opportunity a Democratic paper has had in twenty years to use the rooster.

The extra edition went to press at 1:30, at which time Wilson's election had long been a certainty—that is, long as newspapers count time—and enough returns were in from the various States to enable a compilation of the electoral college standing. Hundreds of the extras were sold in the city and were also taken north on the Denver and Northwestern, giving readers along those lines the news twelve hours before the morning papers arriving from Dallas and Fort Worth. It was considerably after 2 o'clock before the Times force was through work and could go home for a wink of sleep in preparation for another strenuous day.

An immense crowd saw the election bulletins flashed in front of The Times office last night and many others, both in this city and in neighboring towns, received the news by telephone, so that The Times disseminated the glad tidings throughout Northwest Texas by early today.

In spite of the early returns from many of the States and in spite of the haste and hurry in which it was necessary to prepare "copy" for the extra edition, later news received this morning bears out in every essential detail the reports published in the breakfast edition.

Without any desire to throw bouquets at itself, the Times believes that there are very few cities under 25,000 population that received better election news service last night and this morning than did Wichita Falls.

EARLY REPORT OF RESULTS FROM THIS MORNINGS EXTRA NEW YORK AND THREE NEW ENGLAND STATES DEMOCRATIC

Roosevelt Has Won In Pennsylvania Illinois And Several Others--Both He And Taft Admit Defeat.

The election of Wilson and Marshall, Democratic nominees for President and Vice-President respectively, was assured beyond question of doubt by returns from practically every State in the Union at midnight Tuesday night.

At that hour Wilson had carried enough States to give him 267 electoral votes, Roosevelt had 29 and Taft 8.

Of the electoral votes yet to be determined, the Democratic ticket has almost certainly received enough to bring the total to 291, and this does not include California's vote, which it was reported had been conceded to Wilson and Marshall.

It seems reasonable to predict at midnight upon returns that, although scattering, are representative of sentiment in their respective States, that Wilson and Marshall will receive considerably more than three hundred electoral votes and it is quite possible that it will reach the four hundred mark.

The following States were claimed for Wilson and Marshall in a statement issued by the Democratic National Committee at 11 p. m., Tuesday night.

Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Wisconsin, New York, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Missouri, West Virginia and New Jersey.

Since that hour, additional returns furnished by the Associated Press make it very probable that the Democrats have carried California with 13 electoral votes, Arizona with three and Colorado with six.

Illinois and Pennsylvania are in the Roosevelt column, without much doubt, though Wilson, at midnight was only 15,000 behind Roosevelt in Pennsylvania. It appeared at that hour that Iowa would also be in the Roosevelt column. Scant returns from Ohio show Wilson has a lead and he was also leading in Michigan at midnight.

The early returns gave Wilson the "solid South" with Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York and probably West Virginia, Indiana and Missouri.

Wilson carried three New England States, Maine, Massachusetts and Connecticut. He carried most of the States on the Atlantic seaboard, and more than broke even in the North Central States and in the Central West, where it appears that Kansas and Nebraska are for him. From the far Northwest little has been heard.

Democracy won a sweeping victory in New York State, coming down the Harlem River for the first time in history with a big plurality. New York City, New York, swelled this with the mighty plurality of probably 135,000, a record-breaker, and there is every reason to believe Wilson's plurality in New York State will be close to 200,000 votes, if it does not exceed that figure. This is in the face that Wilson ran behind the vote of Bryan four years ago and that the total up-State vote was considerably lighter than four years ago.

Debs, Socialist nominee for President, showed surprising strength in Illinois and California and in many places in those States his vote will probably be larger than that of Taft.

Chafin, Prohibition nominee, did not figure in the returns at all and the vote he received was nominal.

Texas will give Wilson a much larger majority over the combined vote for Taft and Roosevelt, than she gave Bryan over Taft four years ago. Scattering returns from over the State indicate that the race for second honors between the Republicans and Progressives is very close, with the Taftites showing considerably more strength than had been expected.

Taft carried New Hampshire and Vermont, rock-ribbed Republican strongholds in New England, giving him four electoral votes each. While Utah was considered a safe Taft state, returns from that commonwealth last night showed Wilson leading both Taft and Roosevelt, with excellent prospects of being able to enter the four votes from that State in his column.

Whatever shadow of doubt there may have been as to Wilson's victory at 11 o'clock was dispelled when Associated Press dispatches announced that both Taft and Roosevelt conceded the election of the New Jersey Governor.

WILSON'S PLURALITY IN COUNTY CLOSE TO 1100

Incomplete returns from Wichita county up to midnight indicate that the Democratic vote will be the heaviest ever polled in the county and may come within four or five hundred votes of that cast in the primary last summer. On the other hand the combined Progressive and Republican vote will fall short of the vote cast for Taft in 1908.

In the returns received last night Roosevelt was leading Taft by a margin of only 11 votes while Debs, the Socialist, was only five votes behind Taft.

With City Box 13, the largest in the county, incomplete, and no report from Allendale, Electra, Deaver Creek, Clara and Denny, the vote stand: Wilson, 943; Roosevelt, 883; Taft, 77; Chafin, 5 and Debs, 72. In the northwest end of the county the Socialists are strong, and the final count may not be ahead of either Roosevelt or Taft.

The Democratic county campaign have a much larger vote than the candidates for governor or president owing to the fact that the Republicans and Progressives had no candidates for county offices. Not a single Socialist scratched his foot so far as reported.

All of the amendments carried in this county by handsome majorities in the vote for the amendment for pensions for Confederate veterans being especially large.

In 1908 the total vote in Wichita county was Bryan, 804; Taft, 225; Chafin, 16; Debs, 23. Bryan's plurality was 549. Wilson's indicated plurality is about 1,100 and will be double that of Bryan.

hour indicate Wilson will carry Kings county by 42,000, with Taft running 10,000 behind Roosevelt.

PHONES 432 and 232 QUICK SERVICE

Some people are inclined to be a little bit skeptical about the liberal use of oysters. They seem to think they are responsible for some forms of disease. This is probably true of some oysters the same as it might be true of some meats, or of real cheap canned goods, etc. But Sealshipt oysters are fresh when you get them as they were when taken from the shell at the seashore, all because of the extra care taken in picking and shucking them. They are seldom more than two or three days removed from the seashore when you get them, and have been kept in such a way that they have not had a chance to become spoiled.

found necessary to revise the tariff, President-elect Wilson will not have it done the way the Republican party and President Taft did it. Had that party kept its platform promises to the people in regard to the revision of the tariff, it is not likely that it would have met with such a crushing defeat as was administered yesterday by the American people.

THE GREATEST LOVE

The world was thrilled by the sacrifice of the Titanic where so many stepped back to certain death that others might live. But there was nothing in all that great surrender of life that reached a higher attainment than the act of the five Sisters of Charity at St. John's orphanage, San Antonio. The flames broke out early in the morning, rousing all from sleep. The sisters at once marshaled their little charges to lead them to safety—and they did it. Five of them died for doing it. They lived to do their duty. On this morning wakened from sleep with the rush of flames their duty was to rescue the orphans for whom they cared. That they might die did not enter into the calculation. It was not part of the problem. Lives like lived for the sake of duty do not regard consequences. It is simply a question of what is the next duty and behold it is done at whatever cost.

A Catholic priest once was called to give extreme unction to a man who was dying of smallpox. He went promptly. When asked what he thought on meeting such contagion, and if he had not been fearful of it, he answered no, that he had not thought anything at all.

All that filled his mind, he said, was that here was a call for his office, and that it was his duty as well as opportunity to answer. We venture to say that such was the state of mind of these sisters. If they could speak they would say with an accord that did not think of anything but that they must rescue their orphans. What the cost or risk might be was for from them. They simply did what they had lived for. So they died as they lived. And their whole life had been a preparation for death. It came then to five. It might have come to as many more. But when, if ever, it comes it can't come as a surprise to such as these, to any one who lives to do right and to keep the first and best of laws, which is sacrifice. It is certain that to such some time there will come a call that may mean death. Whether it so concludes will not be considered. Then, as now, the thing will be to do the duty, to answer the call. "Greater love hath no man than this."

Hamburg Steak and Potato

Take a pound of cold boiled potatoes, pour on them a wine glass of hot milk or water, add a big lump of dripping, cold bacon fat or butter, mash to a pulp, then beat up, with a fork until quite light, take three-quarters of a pound of hamburger steak, make into small cakes, sprinkle a little finely chopped onion on top of each cake. Make the potato pulp into thick, round cakes and put a cake of hamburger steak on each. Place in a well-greased bag. Close and seal it; cook in a hot oven for 25 minutes.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A SUCCESSFUL OLD SCHOOL-MASTER.

By A. W. MACY.

A good illustration of how a man of ordinary ability may attain success by making the most of his opportunities is found in Alcuin, an English schoolmaster of the eighth century. When returning from a visit to Rome he fell under the notice of the Emperor Charlemagne. It so happened that the emperor was looking for a principal for his royal school, and he offered Alcuin the place. Alcuin accepted, and this was the beginning of a great career, especially for a schoolmaster. It was a heavy burden Charlemagne imposed upon him—that he should make the Franks familiar with the Latin language, create schools, and do everything he could to revive learning. But he accepted the task willingly, worked faithfully, and succeeded far beyond his own expectations. His influence on the intellectual development of Europe can hardly be over-estimated. It may almost be said that the educational development of the modern world dates from him and his school. Yet all accounts agree that he was a man of only ordinary ability. He succeeded by keeping everlastingly at it.

DOGS OF OLD ARE PRESERVED

South Kensington Museum in England Contains Many Specimens of Canine.

London.—The rush to Europe season is at hand, and visiting Americans and birds on earth are advised to visit the South Kensington museum, which is the natural history branch of the British museum, London. The Kensington building is an enormous place and only a two penny fare from Charing Cross—virtually the center of the metropolis. The collection of everything with legs and wings is nothing short of wonderful. In an ordinary zoological collection many of the most interesting creatures are asleep or otherwise behind the scenes. At South Kensington, however, every dead beast and bird is very much "alive," and one can study its form and peculiarities with much detail and continued charm. All dogs are named and their breeding, owner and records given forth in plain lettering.

The day of stuffing animals' skins with tow is over. The model of the body is now made of plaster and the skin is fitted on to the prepared block of the proportions of the living dog.

Already there is noticeable a considerable change of type, an evolution that can hardly be carried in the mind's eye among the dogs of quite recent times.

GIRL RESISTS HEAVY BOLT

Young Woman Unconscious Several Days, but Lives After Shock That Melted Steel.

Baltimore, Md.—Medical scientists are interested in the peculiar case of Josephine Jones, sixteen years old, who is slowly recovering at St. Agnes' hospital from a lightning stroke. Dr. Pierce Wilson says that one of the most interesting features of the case is the fact that for several days following the accident the girl was in a state of anesthesia caused by the terrific shock on the nervous system.

"For some days she was insensible to pain. There was no muscular paralysis, but the nervous system was numbed. On making an investigation I found that the depression made in the sidewalk, where she was struck measured two feet in diameter and fifteen inches in depth. A tremendous impact caused the sinking of the earth. While in Europe, several years ago, I searched for unusual electrical cases, but this one is the most marvelous I have ever known. The body resistance of the young woman is what saved her life.

"The bolt melted her necklace and the steel rod of the umbrella she was carrying. The girl was burned the entire length of her left side, the wounds have not healed and may require a skin grafting operation."

SHOES DEFY TIME AND WEAR

Mount Joy (Pa.) Man Thirty Years Trying to Discard Them, Without a Peg Yielding.

Mount Joy, Pa.—Isaiah Zug of Mount Grove is the owner of a pair of shoes and of a pair of boots that, in a way, are as out of the ordinary as the famous slippers of Cinderella. They promise to be everlasting. For the shoes have resisted for thirty years the efforts of Zug to wear them out, while the boots would give his enthusiasm of former Governor Pennsylvania, with their record of twenty-five years wear.

The shoes are of the variety known in the rural regions as "Sunday shoes," while the boots are his "weddings" or "workday footwear."

Both pairs were the production of Abraham Ebersole, now dead, who had a cobbler and shoe shop at Mastersonville. Zug and the shoes have never missed a Sunday at church in the thirty years since Ebersole made them to order for him.

Flagged Train With Shirt. Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes. "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all druggists.

FINDS GREAT STORE OF LOOT

Stocks of Silks and Satins Valued at $25,000 is Discovered by Alert Policeman.

New York.—A policeman passing a tall loft building on Tenth avenue heard men's voices coming from an upper floor, and broke in to investigate. In a closet on the fourth floor he found a muscular young man who jumped at him so quickly that they both rolled down three flights of stairs together. The young man was underneath at the foot of the stairs, and was promptly handcuffed. A search of the lofts revealed a great stack of silks and satins, valued at $25,000, packed up ready to be taken away. The prisoner told the police later that three other men escaped while he was struggling on the stairs. They had an automobile outside the building to use in carrying off their loot, he said.

The Texas Penitentiary System

This is the sixth of a series of articles, on the Texas Penitentiaries and prison farms, the laws governing same and suggestive improvements.

By Will H. Maye

The state is engaged in farming on a large scale. There is a small farm of some three hundred and fifty acres near Rusk and close by the penitentiary there. It is handled quite conveniently with the convicts kept within the Rusk walls. I am not informed whether this farm is self sustaining or not, but there is no doubt that under the management of a practical East Texas farmer it could be made to pay.

Near Huntsville are two farms, one for consumptives and the aged and decrepit. The farm camp or hospital, on this, the Wynne farm, is ideally located and under splendid management. The prison commissioners do not expect to make this place self-sustaining, for the prisoners kept there are all either sick, it being the permanent hospital of the system, but it is of little expense to the state, as it is now conducted. The labor of the men, such as can work, is utilized in a way to obtain the best results, such as gardening, raising chickens, hogs, forage crops, etc.

The improvements made on this place are typical of those made on most of the farms. Capt. Oglesby, the efficient manager, says that two years ago the men were all herded together in one building, in bunk rooms above the other, consumptive negroes, afflicted of all kinds, white and negroes, the negroes and whites merely being separated by iron bars. There was not a bath tub in evidence, the buildings were old, unsanitary, and ill fitted for the uses to which they were put. Under the direction of the physician, modern sanitary buildings have been erected commodious and complete in every detail. The building for consumptives is apart from the others and is kept fumigated and clean in every respect, all known sanitary regulations being observed. A deep well has been sunk, a manager's home has been erected close by, and the entire place has been brightened up and made attractive. There are about one hundred convicts kept there, and only two or three guards are used where formerly eight or ten were employed. This shows a difference in the expense of maintenance where humane methods are employed. This farm, as well as the farm for women, located close to Huntsville, where it is under the constant supervision of the members of the commission and prison officials.

On the Goscoe farm, where the men are kept, the same improvements are noted. When the present commission took charge of this camp the sleeping tanks were three tiers high, the place was crowded, there were no sanitary conveniences whatever there was no hospital, and the water was hauled to the camp. A deep well has been sunk, the houses have been enlarged, comfortable beds and cots have been provided, bath tubs have been put in and the entire camp now presents an attractive appearance. The white women are kept in one building and the negro women in another and a matron has charge of them. There have been no escapes from this camp under the new method of treatment, though there have been a few attempts at escape. The negro women care for the crops of cotton and corn, while the white women look after the garden, do the sewing and care for the chickens. The commissioners state that this farm, though one of the oldest in the country and much worn, will make a good financial showing.

The principal farming done by the state is in Fort Bend and Brazoria counties, near the towns of Richmond and Brazoria, there being four of these State farms.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation; or I would have a cancer."

I went to a hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicine would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for womanly Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your trouble. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chas. Pfizer Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

The Harlem farm, near Sugarland consists of 3,740 acres of land owned by the State, and with nearly two thousand more leased on which the State has an option of purchase. There is in cultivation this year at this place 4,993 acres, including practically all of the State's land. This place, as well as all the other lands in these two counties, is mostly cultivated in cotton, corn and sugar cane. There is a sugar mill on this place and the State has a railway, in fair condition, for getting the cane crop from the farm and the Imperial farm adjoining, to the mill. The improvements at this place during the past two years have been most marked, the manager's home having been rebuilt, the sugar mill having been overhauled, sheds having been constructed and much other valuable work having been done, the permanent improvements alone costing $53,908.28.

The Imperial farm comprises 5,233 acres of State owned land with 1,900 acres leased, on which there is at present, all except about two hundred acres being in cultivation. Permanent improvements to the extent of $16,124.94 have been added to this farm. The Clemens farm in Brazoria county contains 7,261 acres, with some six or seven hundred acres leased, of which 4,786 acres are in cultivation and the balance in timber, uncleared. There is also a sugar mill on this place, and the State owns railway facilities for getting the cane from the harvest to the mill.

On the Kansey farm there are 7,782 acres, which the State owns and 1,200 acres leased. There is in cultivation on this place, including the leased land, 4,945 acres leaving about 4,500 to 5,000 acres of timber land uncleared. On these four state farms and the two farms at Huntsville and the one at Rusk, there is an aggregate of 35,493 acres of land cultivated by the convicts, of which 21,608 acres are on State owned land, the remainder being on leased land, and on the contract farm.

The total permanent improvements placed on these farms by the present commission have been $167,575.55 while $184,329.71 have been put into permanent improvements at the Huntsville and Rusk penitentiaries.

These improvements are everywhere in evidence and show that the commission has had an immense undertaking in the matter of putting the prison system in condition to answer its purposes at all acceptably. At the Imperial farm approximately $15,000 worth of ditching has been done; at the Kansey farm 1,900 acres has been cleared and grubbed ready for next year's crops; at the Clemens farm 750 acres has been cleared and prepared for cultivation; ten artesian wells have been sunk at different points on the farms; nine new buildings for prisoners have been constructed or the system; up-to-date dairy barns have been built on all the places; new quarters for guards, sheds, stables, etc., have been erected to meet urgent needs.

It is impossible to conceive the magnitude of the penitentiary system and the great problems before the commissioners, without personally going over them and all studying their labors.

The financial problems connected with the system require the closest and best study. The system represents an investment of approximately $5,000,000, and is doubtless now worth more than that sum. While the debt on the farm, as it is not accurately forecasted, it is agreed that it will be something like $1,000,000. Good crops and good prices this year may make it less than that amount.

The last legislature appropriated $310,000 to run the new law into effect. It has been found necessary to spend $251,896.26 in permanent improvements. The excess expenses of the new system, according to a statement furnished at my request by the prison commissioners have been $32,692.87, more than they would have been under the old law. These items include convicts' per diem of ten cents a day, overtime, excess transportation, funeral expenses, etc.; it became necessary to purchase $101,328.56 worth of live stock to replace the worn out stock found on the farms. The freezing of the cane crop last year entailed a loss of possibly $200,000. The fire at Huntsville stopping the output of the industries there, made another heavy loss. The cane crop this year will be short from the severe frost, as was also the cotton crop. Many changes had to be made in officials, in guards, in everything pertaining to the system and all these changes prove expensive. For a time, the prisoners thinking that those over them no longer had authority to punish them, failed to do as much work as they had formerly done. It has taken time to get as good results as under the old system of driving the men. The old system was able to show "net gains" from the following sources: The state farms, the share farms and the contract farms. Taking a period of nine years from 1903 to 1909, the state farms made net gains of $507,732.73, according to the report of the auditors appointed by the investigating committee, or about $66,000 a year, and judging from the

Crisp Appetizing Saratoga Chips

Made With Cottolene

Saratoga Chips made with Cottolene are never greasy, as are those made with lard. The reason for this is that Cottolene heats to about 100 degrees higher than either butter or lard, without burning, quickly forming a crisp coating which excludes the fat. Your Chips, therefore, are crisp, dry and appetizing.

Cottolene costs about the price of lard, and will go one-third farther than either butter or lard.

TRY THIS RECIPE

appearance of the farms, this gain was made at a far greater loss in the physical deterioration of the property. The share farms for the same period of nine years showed gains of $228,341.11, while the contract farms showed gains in that time of $1,524,243.55, the penitentiaries at Huntsville and Rusk showing a combined average yearly loss of approximately $200,300. Under the old system, the additions showed, there was a net gain of $693,500.40 in nine years, for the entire system, or an average of about $69,000 a year, without taking into consideration the deterioration in buildings and machinery that were rapidly going to waste. Even this slight gain was made almost wholly by the contract farms, and at the expense of all the suffering, the hardship, the cruelty, the inhumanity, the brutality and the wrong that the iniquitous system of selling prisoners like so many slaves, to the highest bidders, carried with it.

When all the conditions under which the prison commissioners have labored are considered, surprising things have been accomplished in a remarkably short time. The system as by no means reached the highest point of efficiency in any respect, but enough has already been done to demonstrate the wisdom of the legislative investigating committee in its recommendations, and of the last legislature in its action. Whatever deficiencies there may be in the present law are of minor consequence, and can be worked out by future legislation.

IT MUST BE TRUE.

Wichita Falls Readers Must Come to That Conclusion.

It is not the falling of a single axe in Wichita Falls, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the subtle statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

Mrs. W. M. Langford, 209 Lee St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for several years and I am glad to join others in recommending them, as they did me such excellent service. There were times when my back was so painful that I could not sleep at night. I also had pains in my sides and when I got up in the morning I was more tired than when I went to bed. My kidneys were weak. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and they promptly relieved me of all pains and strengthened my kidneys. Since then I have taken a box of Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and they have kept my kidneys in good working order."

The Co-operative Flint Glass Co.'s plant, Beaver Falls, Pa., is operating full capacity with two furnaces of 30 pots capacity in blast. Twenty shops are making a general line of pressed ware, blown ware and specialties.

Owing to the amber tank at the Glenshaw Glass Co.'s bottle plant, Glenshaw, Pa., springing a leak recently necessitating shutdown for repairs, Manager Meyer has installed the three shift system on the other two tanks so that all orders can be filled.

The Sydenham Glass Co.'s plant, Wallaceburg, Can., is operating in good shape. All departments of the works are in operation and prospects for the season are very good.

An excellent start is reported at the Patterson Window Glass Company's plant, Cameron, W. Va. Nine of the twelve shops have been working on double strength glass up to the present time.

The Berner-Bond Glass Co. have started their six-ring amber tank at Clarion, Pa., making 30 shops in all now working on a general line of prescription ware. All the shops are said to be doing well.

The Pressed Prism Glass Co., Morgantown, W. Va., recently added another department to their extensive business the innovation being in the nature of glass letters to be used in displaying electric signs.

At the three window glass plants at Point Marion, Pa., all departments are in full operation with bright prospects for a steady run.

The first blowing was made at the Crescent Window Glass Co.'s plant, Weston, W. Va., on Oct. 19. Silver clear is reported in both tanks and the management anticipate a prosperous season's run.

The Gillinder plants at Philadelphia and Tacony, Pa., are operating as usual. Wm. T. Gillinder and brothers, James and Edward will likely start a plant at Port Jervis, N. Y., in the near future.

At the North Baltimore Glass Co.'s plant, Terre Haute, Ind., nine O'Neill narrow neck machines are being operated on tank No. 3. Nos. 1 and 2 are operating with blowers.

Another shop has been added to the working force at the Libbey Glass Co.'s branch plant, Sandusky, O. All the shops are working steadily with excellent prospect for the entire season.

At Streator, Ill., one continuous tank at the lower plant of the American Bottle Co., is scheduled to go in blast next week on the three shift system.

Education Leads To Avoidance of Having Children, Fordham Teacher Says

New York, Nov. 6.—The report from Bryn Mawr College that tendency among college bred girls toward race suicide is not surprising, said several doctors and physicians, such a condition recurring at intervals of time throughout the history of the world.

At Barnard College, Miss Virginia Gildersleeve, the dean, refused comment on the statistics gathered by Bryn Mawr. Miss Gildersleeve said that Barnard had no complete set of similar statistics to which she could refer for comparison and that statistics could be misleading.

Prof. Franklin H. Giddings, professor of sociology and the history of civilization at Columbia University said that while he knew the rate in the families of college women was lower than that in other families, it was not as low as in what is known as the upper class of society.

"The trouble with the college woman is the fact that fewer of them marry," said Prof. Giddings. "Most of them start out in life with the idea of earning their own living and many of them never marry. Those that do generally marry late in life, and of course have fewer children than if they had married at the age of 25 or so.

"Perhaps it is because they are more particular in choosing a mate that they put off marriage," he continued, "but I think the fact that they have fewer children is due to some such cause as this rather than to the fact that their education leads them to avoid having children."

Dr. James J. Walsh, dean and professor of the history of medicine and nervous diseases at the Fordham University College of Medicine and professor of physiological psychology at Cathedral College, was emphatic in his statement that the higher education of women gives them a tendency toward race suicide. To substantiate his views Dr. Walsh quoted from the chapter on "Feminine Education and Influence" in "Education, How Old the New," which he published in 1911.

"Occupation with other things, though necessary, detracts from the care of children," said Dr. Walsh, "and if exaggerated leads to the celibate condition or that approaching it, the limitation of families within narrow bounds. At certain periods in the world's history a certain number of these women accumulate and the tendency to celibacy or to very limited maternity makes itself felt, and then this class of people usually fails to propagate enough of the species like themselves to take their places in the world.

"It is a matter of common comment at the present moment that if the women's colleges were to depend on the progeny of their graduates to fill the classes in succeeding years the number of students would not only not increase, but would constantly tend to decrease. Of course, the same thing is true of the descendants of the male graduates of many of our Eastern universities.

"What has apparently happened then in the history of feminine education and influence is that whenever women became occupied with such modes of education or of the cultivation of feminine influence that took them out of their homes, away from family life and far from the hearthstone, the particular classes of women who thus became interested did not propagate themselves to such a limited degree that after a time their kind disappeared to a great extent."

A Serious Joke on The Rabbit

The U. S. Gov't has been experimenting to discover the poisonous quality of caffeine (found in coffee).

57 healthy rabbits were given an adverage dose of 5 1-10 grains.

—They all died.

See Gov't Bulletin No. 148, Bureau of Chemistry.

A cup of coffee contains over 2 1-2 grains of Caffeine; enough in two cups to kill a rabbit.

Of course this joke was on the rabbits.

A goodly number of humorous Americans play the same joke on themselves and keep it up until some fixed form of disease sets in, as a result of the daily dose of Caffeine, in quantity enough to kill a rabbit, but only enough to

Not at one blow, but by little blows repeated daily

Of course some systems are strong enough to stand all kinds of abuse, but when a man or woman observes a growing nervousness, or heart trouble, stomach, bowel or eye disturbances, it is time to quit the daily dose of coffee and see if Nature will begin to heal.

It is easy to shift from coffee to Postum. The food beverage has the deep, seal-brown color which turns to a golden-brown when cream is added. The flavour has the crisp tang so winning to the palate and the cup is made instantly by one struck spoonful of the powder.

will take an important part. I feel like summoning you fellows to do what you have more than generously done by voting for me and believing in me. I summon you for the rest of your lives to work to set this government forward by processes of justice, equity and fairness.

"I myself have no feeling of triumph tonight. I have a feeling of solemn responsibility. I know that a great task lies ahead of the men associated with me and ahead of myself. Therefore, I look upon you almost with a plea that you with your best purpose will stand behind me and support the generous men of the new administration. I feel as if I were standing among my younger comrades tonight. I thank you for the inspiration and exhilaration that I receive from your support."

Cheer after cheer rang forth when the governor finished speaking and the students crowded forward to shake hands. When the governor went back into the house he found the following telegram from Governor Marshall:

"I salute my chieftain in all love and loyalty. Governor Wilson replied: 'Warmest thanks for your generous telegram. Your part in the campaign was a source of great strength and stimulation. Now for the deep pleasure of close association in a great work of nation service.'

The governor and Mrs. Wilson entertained their guests at a buffet luncheon just before midnight. The governor retired at 12:45 o'clock saying he was going to sleep until noon today.

TWO ROADS WILL ASK MERGER PRIVILEGE

Austin, Texas, Nov. 6.—Several railroad consolidation bills will be introduced in the Legislature which meets in January next. It is announced that the Missouri, Kansas & Texas will seek authority to merge the Texas Central, the Wichita Falls & Northwestern, the Wichita Falls & Southern and the Beaumont & Great Northern lines into the parent system.

The St. Louis & San Francisco will ask the Legislature to authorize the merging into its system of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico, the Beaumont, Sour Lake & Western, the Paris & Great Northern, the Fort Worth & Rio-Grande and the New Orleans, Texas & Mexico lines.

It is reported that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe will seek authority to consolidate the Southern Kansas, the Concho, San Saba & Llano Valley, the Pecos & North Texas, the Pecos River and the Texas & Gulf lines with its Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe system.

It is probable that there will be other measures introduced providing for the merging of different lines into one system of railway besides those above mentioned. Under the Texas law each separate railway corporation is required to maintain its own general offices. By merging one or more lines owned by the same company into one system the maintenance of separate general offices is done away with. There is sometimes a disadvantage, however, to the merging of different lines that belong to the same ownership, as when this is done a two or more line rate can be charged, the single line rate being applicable upon all of the connecting roads. The Railroad Commission, however, usually forces the roads to apply the single line rate where it is known that their connecting line or lines all belong to the same ownership. The only constitutional inhibition to the merging of railroads in Texas is that they must not be parallel and competing lines. None of these roads which it is proposed to ask legislative authority to consolidate are parallel and competing, it is claimed.

But for the opposition of Governor Colquitt to all railroad consolidation measures the last Legislature would have given the Missouri, Kansas & Texas permission to merge the Texas Central into its system. There would have been several other consolidations had Governor Colquitt not announced that he would veto all such bills. It is stated, however, that he is no longer opposed to measures of this character, and the railroads, therefore except favorable action upon their bills during the coming session of the Legislature.

LITTLE NATION OF ANDORRA
 Republic is a Veritable Rip Van Winkle Land Hidden High Among the Pyrenees.

Paris, France.—There is nothing else in the world quite like the little "protected republic" of Andorra, a veritable Rip Van Winkle land, hardly yet stirring from its thousand years' slumber, and in its dreams it still hears echoing the march of the valiant paladin of Charlemagne, by whose help it came into being. But it is likely to waken soon and be made to realize that it, too, belongs to the 20th century. For a railroad is being built across the Pyrenees just east of Andorra, and then will be sure to come a wagon road—the valley can be entered now only by a huddle path—from the railroad into its midst.

Old Stronghold in Andorra.

Between the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, the flag of this proud little nation flutters over a region that is almost as much the land of the free and quite as much the home of the brave as is that of the Stars and Stripes, although it includes but 175 square miles and contains a population of only 6,000 souls.

For over 700 years Andorra has thrived under a modified double protectorate, the rule of France on the north and of the Bishop of Urgel on the south. A representative of each lives in the valley, administers justice and receives a small biennial tribute. Otherwise Andorra is an independent and self-governing state. Its relations to these two "over-lords" are a quaint survival of medieval feudalism.

Rohatch's Mineral Water. Is highly recommended by physicians and patrons who have tested its merits, for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, kidney and bladder trouble. This water stimulates the secretion of the stomach, increases digestion and favors a more complete absorption of the food and prevents the action of germs that cause typhoid and other infectious diseases.

This water can be purchased at the wells or delivered in jugs or cases. This well is located one mile south of Alamo school building in Floral Heights, two deliveries daily, morning and afternoon. G. J. Rohatch, Owner, Phone 1601—1 long—4 shorts.

WANTED "BROWN-EYED WIFE"
 And Secret Service Man Arrested Applicant as Smuggler When She Answered "Ad."

Philadelphia, Pa.—The quest of "Ashi Alexander," who is in reality Gomez Wilson, one of the government's shrewdest secret service agents, for a "brown-eyed wife" has ended.

Wilson, who posed as a seedy individual, sought a woman suspected of counterfeiting and smuggling. Her eyes were known to be brown. The woman, whose name is Christina Chandler, was found in Spain and has been taken to Duluth, Minn., where she is wanted.

Some time ago the government received reports of smuggling being carried on between Canada and the United States, and a description of the woman was placed in the hands of Wilson, who devised the scheme of advertising for a wife whose eyes were brown. The suspect answered and was arrested.

Naples is demolishing old dwellings in the lower part of the city, where the people live-crowded together, and is substituting modern buildings.

But two-hundredths of an inch of rain was measured at Greenwich observatory in England in April, making it the driest month recorded in a century.

Chalmers 1913
 MOTOR CARS

Made in Chalmers Shop
Chalmers Cars Represent Far More Than Steel, Wood and Leather

They are the finished result of the ideas, ideals and experience of the MEN in the Chalmers organization. No product is greater than the men who make it. From the beginning, the ideal of the Chalmers Company has been to make "Quality cars at medium prices."

Always the Chalmers Company has offered the greatest value for the money. It was the first to market a real automobile at $1500; first to offer in the Chalmers "Thirty-Six" all the most advanced features; first to produce in the Chalmers "Six" a maximum car at a medium price.

The Chalmers name on the radiator means much to the automobile public.

Compare these Chalmers features with those of any other car:

- Electric lights, Turkish cushions, Nickel trimmings.
 - Improved springs, long stroke motor, 4-forward speed Transmission, Eleven-inch upholstery, Increased Wheel base, Demountable rims, Big wheels and tires.
 - Dual ignition system, Speedometer, Special mohair top, Rain vision windshield.
- "Thirty-Six" (four cylinders) $1950
 "Six," 5-passenger $2400
 "Six," 7-passenger $2800
 (Prices include full equipment)

Let us take you for a demonstration in a Chalmers car over any roads you may select. Phone or write for road demonstration any time, any place, under any conditions.
