CHOLERA WORSE THAN BULLETS

500 NEW CASES DAILY AMONG TURKISH SOLDIERS ON FOR-TIFICATIONS

IS UNDERMINING DEFENSES

Epidemic at the Same Time, It Is Believed Will Prevent Occupation of City

Armistice Reported Agreed Upon.

By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 15.—Bulgaria and Turkey have agreed upon an armistice according to a special news agency dispatch which reached this city this afternoon from Bucharest, Roumanian.

By Associated Press.
Constantinople, Nov. 15.—The cholera epidemic among the Turkish troops holding the line of fortifications at Tchatalja in front of Constantinople, is rapidly becoming worse. Over five hundred cases are reported daily and the total already exceeds six thousand.

Whatever hope the Turks may have had of maintaining their line of defenses has been dissipated by this outbreak of cholera. An eye witness declared that he saw 253 bodies buried in one big trench near the headquarters of the Turkish commander-in-chief on Tuesday.

The bodies were dragged to the spot on hooks and dropped into the trench, which was not nearly deep enough for the purpose. The covering of earth was very shallow.

While cholera is undermining the Turkish defenses, it also constitutes a formidable opposition to the Bulgarian advance, and it is generally believed here that the outbreak has disposed of the question of even a temporary occupation of Constantinople by the Bulgarian troops. It is thought that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria will risk the lives of his soldiers in this way if he can avoid it.

It is stated on good authority that cholera already has appeared among the Bulgarian troops. This would not be at all surprising because they occupy the positions where the disease claimed its first Turkish victims. The Bulgarian army last Sunday occupied the town of Derkos at the Black Sea end of the Tchatalja line and thus controls the water supply of Constantinople. This, however, has not yet been interfered with.

The apathy and sullen resignation with which the Turks face the serious and overwhelming disaster, deserves comment. It is true, the severe application of martial law prevents a public expression of any criticism or demonstration of resentment.

The great mass of Turks, however, are inclined to bow to the inevitable and to accept without violent opposition what they regard as the dictates of fate.

Bulgarians at Bosphorus Entrance.
By Associated Press.
Constantinople, Nov. 15.—Bulgarian troops have reached the vicinity of Kilios on the Black Sea at the entrance to the Bosphorus and within a few miles of Constantinople.

The men belonging to the Turkish life boat station have left their posts.

Bulgarian Council Discusses Armistice Proposal.

By Associated Press.
Sofia, Nov. 15.—The Turkish request for an armistice was discussed today by the Bulgarian council of ministers. It was decided to reply that the Bulgarian government will inform the other nations in the Bulgarian alliance of the steps taken by Turkey and will give its reply as soon as possible after reaching an agreement with them.

Bulgarians Have Reached Kilios
By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 15.—Announcement that the Bulgarians have reached Kilios lifts a corner of the veil which has been baffling observers of the movement of the victorious invaders in front of the Ottoman capital.

Their appearance at Kilios shows they are now very close to Thracia, the summer resort of Constantinople.
Early peace in the Balkans seems assured, but whether it will come without the surrender of Constantinople probably is known only to King Ferdinand and his advisers. If the Bulgarians at Kilios are in strong force there is little doubt that if they wish they can enter Constantinople and take possession.

Differences between Serbia and Austria Hungary over an Adriatic port seem in a fair way toward settlement, but Montenegro's attitude in declining to relinquish any of the spoils of war is causing some concern.

WILL PUT UP MARKERS FOR "MERIDIAN" ROAD

Signs Ordered for Route in This County by Y. M. P. L.—Planned to Mark All Way

Within the next few days signs will be placed along the road from the Burk Burnett bridge to the southeastern part of the county, pointing the route of the "Meridian road" which has been definitely located through this county. The Young Men's Progressive League expects the signs to be here shortly. F. N. Foxhall of Jacksboro has written to the league, saying signs are wanted for the road through that county and it is hoped to have the route clearly marked all the way from Burk Burnett bridge to Fort Worth within the next few weeks. From Fort Worth south to Waco, which is as far as the route has been located in Texas, signs are to be placed as soon as possible.

Similar signs will eventually mark the road for its entire distance from Winnipeg to the Gulf and when the highway has been improved for the cross-continent road, its path will be clearly indicated at frequent intervals. It is hoped to have Wichita county's part of the road made into a finished pike at an early date.

BAPTISTS WILL BEGIN REVIVAL SUNDAY

Rev. J. H. Pace of Anson Will Assist Pastor in Series of Special Meetings

The First Baptist Church will begin a series of services commencing Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. J.
H. Pace of Anson will assist the pastor in the meeting. There will be a special service for men Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services each day through the week at 9:45 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. Prayer-meeting for men thirty minutes before the evening service.

It is the purpose of those who are planning the meeting not to continue these services more than ten days, as this is a busy time with all. The hope is, therefore, expressed that all the members of the church will give due consideration to their spiritual needs during this time and arrange to attend all the services as far as it is possible to do so. The unsaved are also urged to give themselves an opportunity to know the way of salvation during these days of special effort in their behalf.

The Christian people of the community are cordially invited to these services.

ROOSEVELT'S PLURALITY 66 IN CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—California complete gave Roosevelt a plurality over Wilson of sixty-six, in considerably more than 500,000 votes.
These figures are official from all but three counties, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Yuba. In Los Angeles, a Roosevelt stronghold, the Democrats have filed a petition with the District Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus compelling the board of supervisors to "make an honest count." Arguments on the application will be heard Monday.

Gross irregularities are charged by the petitioners, one of whom is Miss Mary Foy, a wealthy resident of Pasadena. That tally sheets in thirty-eight precincts were removed from the election returns by breaking of the official seals also is alleged.

The tally sheets it is asserted, were made unintelligible by the judges of election and changed in such a manner that more than 600 votes were affected. These votes, if counted as originally intended, or if unintelligible as alleged and counted at all, would have materially reduced the plurality of Roosevelt in Los Angeles county, according to the petition.

Bald Hills, the last northern precinct to straggle in today, brought a smile by falling to change the result.
Stanchly Republican, the precinct cast four votes for Taft, one for Chasfin and none for the two leading candidates.

MAY COMPLETE JURY BY NIGHT

SEVEN JURORS FOR TRIAL OF SNEED HAD BEEN ACCEPTED AT NOON

ADVICE TO VENIREMEN

Judge Tells Them to Knock Down and Spit in Face of Those Who Talk About Case

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 15.—Completion of the jury which will try J.
B. Sneed for the murder of Capt. A.
G. Boyce Sr., is expected by tonight.
Examination of veniremen proceeded vigorously this morning, the sixth juror being added before 10 a. m.
Judge Swayne has instructed the veniremen to "knock down and spit in the face of any man who tries to discuss the case with you." He has promised to order the release of any venireman who uses such strenuous methods.

Seven jurors had been selected when court took its noon recess. Two were chosen out of twenty-five examined this morning. A. G. Huffmaster, a farmer had been on the witness stand forty-five minutes when court adjourned. The defense challenged him because he said one man should not kill another and admitted he had an opinion that could be changed only by evidence.

The state strongly resisted the challenge and Judge Swayne refused to excuse him until he was satisfied that he had a fixed opinion.
Huffmaster was the most refractory witness examined this week. He exasperated Judge Swayne by his evasive answers, and at one time the court threatened to fine him if he qualified his answer to a question that should be answered by yes or no.

The two jurors selected Friday morning were Weaver Birch, a farmer living near Dulles, native of Missouri, married nine years, has three children, one of them a baby girl, has one married sister and never was a juror in a murder trial before; S. B. Austin, aged 44, farmer living near Grapevine, native of Alabama, married, has four children including two daughters, both married. He served in the murder trial of a negro eighteen years ago.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—A general plan to raise funds for the Confederate monument in Arlington cemetery by the convention of the U. S. D. C., which decided to request each member of the organization to contribute fifty cents to the fund during next year. This would raise enough money to complete the monument. About $250,000 remains to be supplied for the building of the shaft.

NEW RECTOR HAS REACHED THE CITY

Rev. Chester Wood Arrives to Begin Duties With Church of the Good Shepherd

Rev. Chester Wood, the new rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, reached this city today and will conduct his first services next Sunday.
He comes here from Michigan, where he has been for several months, formerly being assistant rector of the famous "little church around the corner" in New York City.

The Episcopal church here has been, without the services of a rector for some time, and it is expected that the church will enter into a period of much activity, for which plans are already being made. The new rector was formerly a newspaper man but entered the Episcopal ministry some years ago. He has the reputation of being an accomplished and eloquent divine.

Murdered Man Identified.

By Associated Press.
Dallas, Texas, Nov. 15.—The man found on a Dallas pike yesterday is believed to have been J. L. Drake, whose residence is unknown. The body was recognized by a farmer who said Drake had cooked for him.
Ben Hinson, a saloon man, told the police he recognized the dead man as a man he had seen with $180 in $20 bills in his possession. Less than four dollars was found on the murdered man.

IMMORAL DRAMAS CATHOLIC TARGET

Movement to Censor Bad and Support Good Plays Has Approval of Pope

New York, Nov. 15.—The National Catholic Theatre movement is rapidly taking definite shape. With the personal endorsement of Cardinal Farley in accordance with the papal bull of Pius X., to the daughters of the faith, Miss Eliza O'B. Lummis, the founder of the movement, has sent out to the hierarchy of the United States and Canada an outline of the plan of organization.

Active co-operation upon the part of cardinals, archbishops and bishops with the laity of their respective dioceses is asked in this concerted effort to bring all classes, irrespective of creed, into a National union for the eradication of immoral drama from the American stage.

Cardinal Gibbons, Baltimore, Cardinal O'Connell, Boston; Archbishop Riordan, San Francisco; the bishops of Newark, Sioux City, Iowa; Richmond and Bismarck, N. D., have assured the cardinal of New York of their readiness to further the project.

Cardinal Farley upon his return next week from the Pacific coast is expected to announce the personnel of the National and local committees.

"National Catholic influence," declares the official plan of organization, "must be concentrated upon practical demonstration in New York, while foundation is being laid at the same time in every city for local support of reputable plays. Success in New York will be repeated in every other city; plays denounced in New York will find no audience elsewhere."

The plan of organization as officially outlined, provides that a National committee shall advise the formation in each city of a Catholic civic committee under the supervision of its bishop. The civic committee in each city shall form subcommittees in each parish.

The subcommittee, each supervised by its pastor, shall cover a special field, calling social meetings for discussion among their own people and gaining the co-operation of all classes in their district. Each parish shall thus have individual representation through its civic committee in the National committee in New York and shall be credited with the sum of all financial offerings from its people.

The opening of a charter under Catholic supervision, the clergy is likewise informed, does not indicate the immediate erection of a theatre building.

Managers will find it to their financial profit to present approved plays if endorsement and support are warranted.

Nor is the undertaking wholly dependent on financial support. It is advisable, however, that each city should offer its assistance to the National committee.

Cardinal Gibbons assures the cardinal of New York that in trying to uplift the moral tone of our plays he has his hearty support.

Among the women vitally interested are Mrs. Mary Anderson Navarro and Miss Elizabeth Marbury. Mary Anderson wrote:

"If a Catholic theatre could be made practical it would be a beautiful thing and do great good. But where procure plays? Would it reproduce mysteries? It would take a lot of money. Where is the money to be found?"

GOOD RESULTS BY OIL SUPPLY MEN

Travelers Over Road to Electra Found It Greatly Improved
Today

The "road gang" of oil supply men, who yesterday worked the road from this city to Electra, accomplished good results, according to some who used the road today. One man who came in a machine this morning said that it was necessary for him to change from high gear only twice on the entire road, while it before had been necessary twelve or fifteen times.

The oil men found some very bad holes on the road, especially where the approaches to bridges and culverts had been washed out. Large stones, logs and other things were placed in these and covered with earth, putting the road in much better shape.

The party spent practically all day yesterday on the road and they believed that the road is very much improved as a result of their labors.

CLARK FAVORS EXTRA SESSION

THE SPEAKER SAYS DEMOCRATS HAVE MADE PROMISES AND OUGHT TO KEEP THEM

CROAKERS ARE UNHEARD

Business Men Confident of Continued Prosperity, He Says—Wants More Elastic Currency

By Associated Press.
Washington, Nov. 15.—Speaker Champ Clark returning to Washington today, said:

"I believe there should be an extra session of Congress at the earliest possible date after March to fulfill the pledges made by the democratic party. We made certain definite promises in order to win. We ought to carry them out religiously.

"I have no doubt we will keep faith with the people. Therefore, I am in favor of an extraordinary session of Congress at an early date as possible after the inauguration to revise the tariff and to do such other things as appear proper. The country has a right to know what we intend to do.
It is the uncertainties that hurt, but after all is said and done whether we have an extra session or not depends entirely upon Mr. Wilson's idea as to the necessity thereof."

Mr. Clark said business men were confident of continued prosperity and that nobody pays any attention to the croakers except to laugh at them.

The speaker said the currency laws should be so revised as to afford greater elasticity in the money volume.
He expressed the belief there would also be amendments to the Sherman law making it more effective.

LAND AFFECTED IN RECENT RULING

The classification by the land commissioner as school land of approximately 700 acres east of Electra, which Maddox brothers of Austin have made application to purchase affects the holdings of a number of Wichita county citizens and involves land worth, since oil was discovered at Electra, about $500,000. The following are the owners of the land.

J. R. Brewer, 320 acres; C. C. Huff, 80 acres; Mrs. Grace Jennings estate, 101 acres; W. E. Crow, D. T. Cross and H. B. Reasonover 100 acres; W. E.
Crow, 140 acres; W. B. Honaker estate, 45 acres; B. A. Bywaters estate, 15 acres; L. P. Douglas, two acres.
The land has been leased by oil companies and oil men, as follows:

Guffey company, 135 acres; Corsicana company, 80 acres; Alston, Friend and Brokaw, seven acres; Owens, Wobd, Alston and Norton, 26 acres; Owens and Wilson, 17.5 acres.

Dago Frank On Stand.
By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 15.—"Dago Frank" Cirofici took the witness stand today in the gun men's trial. His tension was almost literally a repetition of the story of his three fellow gunmen told yesterday, up to the point where he said he left "Whitey," "Gyp" and "Lefty" at Bridge's poker rooms the night of the murder.

Raynor's Condition Improved.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The condition of Senator Isadore Raynor of Maryland, who lies critically ill at his home in Washington, was reported slightly improved this morning.

CITY DOING MORE CLEAN-UP WORK

Trash Wagon Making Regular Trips and Sanitary Force Regularly Employed

More "clean-up" work is now being done by the city than for some time and the city is being gotten into good sanitary condition for the winter months. The trash wagons are making regular trips through the residence section and a large sanitary force is now regularly employed.

Sanitary Officer Brown is making careful inspection of the downtown places, paying particular attention to the restaurants. He is also reporting those citizens who refuse or fail to obey clean up orders. There has been some agitation here for having the paved streets flushed two or three nights weekly and this additional measure may be taken.

The state health authorities are urging all communities to take active steps for better sanitation, remembering the meningitis epidemic of last winter, which was believed to be largely due to lack of sanitary methods. It is believed that by instituting clean up early this winter, the danger from that and other sources can be reduced to a minimum.

STEFANSSON PLANS ANOTHER EXPEDITION.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Villamur Stefansson, the discoverer of the blonde Eskimos of the arctic, gave out a prospectus of an exploring expedition which he will undertake for the purpose of settling the question whether there is another continent in arctic regions. Mr. Stefansson, who is connected with the American Museum of Natural History, will have the indorsement of that institution, and it is expected other scientific organizations will lend their names to the enterprise.
The necessary financial support will be furnished from private sources.

The expedition will start from San Francisco or Seattle in May, 1913, and Mr. Stefansson does not expect to complete his work until the summer of 1916. The main base of operations will be on Cape Bathurst.
Part of the work will be a close scientific study of the blonde Eskimos, which will be conducted by a portion of Mr. Stefansson's party with headquarters in Victoria Land.
Six scientists will accompany him.

his age and loyalty made him the hero of the day.

WAS QUOTING LINCOLN

When Arrested by Little Falls Authorities—Says He Will Spend 50 Days in Jail

By Associated Press.
Little Falls, N. Y., Nov. 15.—George R. Lunn, Socialist mayor of Schenectady was today found guilty of violating a city ordinance recently in refusing to move when the police interrupted a speech he was making to striking mill employes. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or spend fifty days in jail. He signified his intention of going to jail. He said:

"This is a question of principle, and I will never spend a dollar for quoting Abraham Lincoln. I was not blocking traffic or causing congestion.
I was about to address a peaceful assembly. The prosecution is pushing this case on a mere technicality and it is prejudice. I was going to urge the men to use peaceful methods in their strike."

"I was quoting Abraham Lincoln when stopped. I did not resist arrest. I was seized and thrown into jail."

OIL LAND INVOLVED IN INJUNCTION

Owner of Land Seeks to Enjoin Guffey Company From Operations On W. E. Crow Tract

In the district court this afternoon a hearing is being held on the injunction suit of T. B. Smith vs. J. M.
Guffey Petroleum company, in which Smith seeks to prevent the oil company from further operations on the W. E. Crow land, where the company has a well producing about 180 barrels daily. Smith claims that the land was leased to him by Crow and Crow has a suit filed in the district court seeking cancellation of the lease, owing to an error in the description of the tract. The Guffey has suit against Crow for reformation of the contract.
The Guffey is represented in the hearing by Judge Carrigan and D. E. Greer of Beaumont. Smith is represented by W. F. Weeks.

Later—At 3:15 this afternoon Judge Martin rendered a decision refusing the injunction.

OVERALL FILES ANOTHER SUIT

Seeks Cancellation of Lease Held by Producers Company on 477 1-2 Acres

H. A. Overall today filed suit in the district court against the Producers Oil company, et al, seeking cancellation of the lease upon 477 1-2 acres and asking $50,000 damages. The suit was filed by Davidson and Davidson, attorneys of Dallas.

The petition, which is a lengthy one, charges that the Producers company, the Texas company, G. W. Mason, W.
B. Corlett, Frank Cullinan and E. W.
Keenan entered into a conspiracy to secure a lease on Overall's land at nominal cost, and recites numerous alleged facts, also set forth in the previous suit brought by Overall, among them being the allegation of "slight of hand" performances by Mason in the pretended destruction of the lease.

Twenty Million Immigrants For Tax-as Last Year.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Texas has been chosen as the home of 19-902 immigrants who have come to America during the past year. The progressive wide awake state seems to appeal to the foreigner whose great aim in life when he comes to the United States is that of making money. Comparatively few of the immigrants become members of the professional world. There are some editors and a somewhat larger number of teachers.

Those foreigners who come here from the countries in the southern part of Europe frequently settle in some of the southern states here.
The Greeks maintain that the climate of Texas is not much unlike that of Greece, and they still the homesick calls for the fatherland in the interests of earning a livelihood in the new land.

The general class of foreigners enter the commercial world and interest themselves in farming, carpenting, plumbing, and various industrial pursuits.

The Texas Penitentiary System

This is the last of a series of seven articles on the Texas Penitentiary System, business management of the system, suggested improvements, and prison farms; the laws governing same; treatment of convicts, etc.

By Will H. Mayes

The State pays out about $130,000 a year under the new law to convicts under what is known as the ten cents per diem. This small sum is paid to the convict's dependent relatives, if he has any. If he has no relative, this sum is paid to him on his discharge from prison. There are some who would deny this pittance to the convict's family or to him, but there are very few in the State who would care to deal in such a parsimonious way with its prisoners. A provision for the forfeiture of this sum for misconduct or violation of prison rules has a salutary effect upon the discipline. Provision is also made for paying the prisoners for overtime or for work required in extreme necessities on Sunday. Instead of cutting off this ten cents per diem to well behaved prisoners, I would keep the minimum amount ten cents per day and in the discretion of the prison officials, would stimulate those who are more capable and who do better work by offering them additional compensation for extra results. This policy works well in all outside industries, and should prove even more efficacious in dealing with prisoners, many of whom are keenly appreciative of even small favors.

There are some of the provisions of the act, though, that serve no real good purpose. Under the law, when the family of a convict who dies in prison requests it, the deceased prisoner must be embalmed and shipped to any point in the state, desired by the relatives the expense to be borne by the State. Such distinction is not conferred upon others who die away from home too poor to meet the expenses of shipping their remains to other points, and it is rather a maudlin sentiment that tries to do more for prisoners than for others.

Another provision of the law requires the State to give the discharged convict transportation to any point in Texas called for by him, instead of the place from which he was sentenced, as under the old law. Prisoners take advantage of this and call for tickets to El Paso, Amarillo or Dalhart, cash their tickets at Houston or some other nearby point and pocket the difference. This provision is a temptation to the prison for to start at once upon dishonest ways, and is a positive harm to him besides costing the state some $15,000 a year, according to the prison estimates.

There is one provision of the new law intended to guard the rights of the convicts, which in my opinion really works hardship on the state. The law should be founded upon the wisdom and experience, as well as upon the habits and customs of the people and no effort should be made to treat convicts in any way better than others following similar pursuits are treated. The ten hour law applies all right to work within the prison walls but it works to the state's disadvantage in farming operations. Every farmer in Texas will tell you that he could not successfully operate a farm on a ten hour day throughout the year. In the summer months the farmers work more than ten hours a day; they do well to get in ten hours in the spring and fall, and in the winter can hardly work eight hours in daylight. To make an invariable ten hour rule throughout the year would prove ruinous to farming, and therefore no farmer attempts it. Under the new law, convicts on farms, as well as in the penitentiaries, can not be worked more than ten hours a day, except in cases of extreme and unavoidable emergency and for such work they must be paid ten cents an hour. This ten hours must include time spent in going to and returning from work, and convicts must not be made to travel faster than a walk in going to and coming from the fields. I was told that under this law the average working time in summer days is reduced to about eight and a quarter hours, and in the winter, when necessity requires that the prisoners be inside the bars before dark, the time is still further cut down. Last year in the midst of the harvesting season rains kept the farm hands indoors for seventeen days continuously, the men idle all the time, yet when they went to work again the state could not get even eight hours a day from the labor.

This provision was doubtless made with the thought of the long overtime at hard labor on the railroad contracts or on the contract farms under the old system, but it is proving a heavy drain on the state farms and one that other farmers say they could not stand in their work. The law should be amended so that the average day's labor on the farms may be kept within ten hours, allowing the prison officials discretion in regulating the hours to the seasons. Common sense business methods should prevail even in efforts at prison reforms.

Some arrangement should be made for frequent visit to the penitentiaries and farms either from the Governor or from some other state official. These visits should not be hurried inspection trips, but should be of sufficient duration and frequency to allow a thorough understanding of the system and its needs from every viewpoint. It is true that the law contemplates that the commissioners shall look closely after penitentiary matters, and they are doing it well, but they realize the great problems with which they have to deal and but such visitation prove helpful to them, as well as to the prisoners. I am told that Governor Colquitt is the first governor who has made such visitations since Governor Lanham was in office. It is really too much to expect the Governor of Texas to do all this and attend to his many other official duties. The last visit of Governor Colquitt, and the interest shown in the entire system and in the prisoners, could but have had a beneficial effect.

The system has outgrown itself in business way, just as towns and business enterprises frequently grow beyond their capital. Still much greater development is needed in order to be able to produce the best results. Every man who has himself undertaken large problems understands how this can be true. Indebtedness is itself often the best indication of business opportunities.

The chief vexing or at all uncertain financial problem connected with the prison system is the best way to handle the iron industry and the state railroads. I do not know at the writing just what Governor Colquitt and the commissioners have done as to the lease to the Pennsylvania parties, but if a lease can be obtained, which does not carry with it an option of purchase at a low price, and which insures the operation of the Rusk plant at a fair rental, keeps the iron mines active and gives the state railroad tonnage, that settles for the present the chief troubles at Rusk. I presume that this kind of a contract will soon be signed, but if it is not done, the state itself should arrange to start the furnace and the pipe foundry and to successfully finance the iron industry here. I do not hesitate to say this because the fact that there have been previous mistakes and failures there in the past, and my conclusion is based on a fairly close study of existing conditions.

The farms should receive the best of attention and should be cultivated along the scientific methods which the state is paying so much to teach, and is itself so little practicing. To me it appears like folly to ride state to spend thousands of dollars in teaching modern agricultural methods and itself adhere to antique bellows ways, especially when the farms at Rusk, at Haysville and in Fort Bend and Brazoria counties afford such excellent opportunities for the state to demonstrate what can be done on the different soils of those sections. Every state farm should be an experimental farm under the most highly trained management.

The state, in its penitentiaries and on its farms, should conserve its resources, instead of allowing them to go to waste. Conservation congresses have but little effect, it seems, upon Texas itself. The waters of the Brazos river and of Oyster Creek are admirably located for irrigating vast areas of land, but the cotton and cane patch for lack of water. Cane tops make excellent silage, but the state doesn't own any silos, and thousands of tons of this fine fattening feed goes to waste, while Texas pays $215,000 a year for meats for its prisoners and about $50,000 a year for feed for its work stock. $60,000 a year is paid for cloth for prisoners' clothes and for leather for their shoes that can just as well be produced by the prison system. At least half of the grocery bill of $100,000 a year and the meal and flour bill of $50,000 should come right from the farms, in addition to furnishing themselves

is 1/3 richer than butter

Cottolene is not for table use, but it is the best cooking fat for all shortening and frying. If you are using butter in your kitchen you are paying at least twice as much as necessary to secure the same results with Cottolene.

Another point of economy about Cottolene—use one-third less than you would of butter or lard.

Cottolene is a clean, pure product, and makes wholesome, healthful, digestible food, because it is a vegetable and not an animal fat.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tins, which protect it from dirt, just and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

UNTIL DEATH CALLED

English Priests Passed Through Storm of Persecution.

Secret Places Where They Were Forced to Remain in Hiding Are Still Being Found in Homes Through Britain.

London, England.—For a hundred and fifty years or so after the reformation Roman Catholic priests were mercilessly persecuted, and if discovered in the performance of the rites of his religion a priest was put to death. But in spite of that there were during those times many priests in England who considered it their duty to brave death rather than cease to do what they considered their duty.

After the reformation many priests were concealed in the country houses of the Catholic nobility and gentry. Their hiding places were unknown to all except the master and mistress of the house and possibly to one or two old servants. As a rule, the priests did not stay for long in the priest hole at any one place, but a certain Father Blackhall spent many years thus concealed in the house of the Viscountess Melgum in Scotland.

There are many old houses which still boast priest holes. There is one in an old manor in East Sussex, which contains a good example of such a chamber. Artfully contrived among the huge chimney stacks in the roof is a small room, perhaps twelve feet in length and six in breadth. Until it was broken into a few years ago no one living knew of its existence, for the hidden stairway which led up to it through the ceiling had rotted away and been covered in again, and the little room itself was almost hermetically sealed with the yellow straw plaster, which was the best material known to plasterers of former times.

Chill and wretched must the priest have found it, the daylight visible only through a few small chinks in the roof, the wind penetrating through the tiles and beneath the drafty eaves. At night he had the bats for company, the hard boards, with maybe an armful of straw for a couch, and the fear of capture ever looming large before him.

Of houses famous for their priest holes, perhaps the most renowned is Hendlip house, some four miles from Worcester, and said to have been built in the reign of Elizabeth by John Abington and a devoted partisan of Gable End of Hendlip House.

Mary, Queen of Scots. Thomas Abington, son of the builder, took great pains to make the house a safe hiding place, and hardly a room in the mansion was there but could be entered secretly. For several weeks in 1604 Father Garnet, who later paid the penalty of having known of the gunpowder plot, was hidden at Hendlip.

The government was made aware of his knowledge of the plot by the confession of one Catesby, Bates' servant. Suspicion having fallen on Hendlip as the priest's place of concealment, Sir Henry Bromley was sent thither with instructions which show that the government had some experience in the finding of hidden holes.

The house was searched and searched again from top to bottom, but Sir Henry could discover nothing but some scholarly books. Mr. and Mrs. Abington, of course, denied any knowledge of Father Garnet. Four days after beginning the search two men, half dead with hunger, gave themselves up, but they proved to be servants. Several days passed, and the searchers were in despair, when the confession of another conspirator condemned to die made it certain that a priest lay concealed at Hendlip house. When ten days had passed Father Garnet surrendered and with him a Jesuit named Hall. Lack of fresh air had forced them from their hiding place, not lack of food, for we are told, "they had nutritive drinks passed to them by a vessel, through a little hole in the chimney, that backed another chimney, into a woman's chamber." They could hardly move, as their hiding place. Their limbs were much swollen.

Still there are some of us who can't see why the Balkan war should make the Thanksgiving Turkey any dearer.

The press dispatches say that Gen. Felix Diaz is still confined in a prison at Vera Cruz. Therefore, the rumor of his escape is not true.

The cabinet makers are still on the job, and by the time President-elect Wilson gets ready to make his selection he will have a splendid bunch to pick from.

An Abilene citizen has given a site of twenty-five acres to the city for a park. His action suggests that some Wichitan can hand his name down to future generations as a generous and patriotic citizen by doing likewise.

President-elect Wilson is receiving praise just now from many who only a few months ago contemptuously referred to him as "Professor Wilson," or as the Schoolmaster. After he acts on the application to get their feet under the picnic some of them will begin to denounce him the same way they did before he received his nomination.

The largest number of bales of cotton ginned by Wichita County for any single year prior to this year has been in the neighborhood of 11,000, but this year is going to prove a record breaker, and the total for the county will not miss 15,000 bales very far. In addition to the large cotton crop, splendid grain and feed crops were made, and altogether this has been the most productive crop year for the county in its history. In addition to the large crops, better prices are being paid for them than ever before.

Ratification by only two more states is needed for the income tax amendment to make the required three-fourths. There are still ten states to act on the amendment and its approval seems certain. The states that have not yet acted are: Delaware, Florida, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming. It is quiet probable that all the states will ratify the amendment and it is regarded as practically certain that it will be ratified by Massachusetts, New Jersey and New Mexico. The amendment will be remembered, was made necessary by the ruling of the Supreme Court. When it is adopted and an income tax law is passed by congress one of the obstacles to tariff reform will be removed. With the revenues which an income tax will provide there will no longer be the bogey of lack of revenue to lower tariff duties that the friends of privilege have so long displayed.

Intelligence is no disqualification in this court. You can't keep people from reading newspapers. Can you go into the jury box and change your opinion by hearing true testimony first hand?

District Judge J. W. Swayne to the Sneed Jury at Fort Worth.

The time is not far distant, let us hope, when other trial judges will view this matter in the light Judge Swayne views it. It is ridiculous, in this enlightened age, to place the liberty or life of a person in the hands of twelve men, who, in order to qualify as jurors, will have to admit they have not heard of the case by word of mouth or through the public prints, or, in the event they have heard of it, have formed no idea whatever as to the guilt or innocence of the person on trial. It is perfectly natural for people of intelligence to form some sort of opinion on the slightest kind of information, but that does not necessarily mean that the opinions they have formed are fixed and cannot be changed upon hearing the evidence as sworn to by witnesses. True testimony at first hand ought to make a better and more lasting impression on the mind of any man who is qualified to set as a juror than mere talk or newspaper accounts. There should be more men like Judge Swayne on the bench, and when that happens the result will be the rendering of more intelligent jury verdicts.

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE PAID TO A DEAD BROTHER

Col. Geo. Bailey, one of the brightest and spiciest editorial writers in the south or west, and who for many years has been the chief editorial writer of the staff of the Houston Post, this tribute to his brother, who died occurred recently:

"The death of Charles B. Bailey, brother of the Alvin Sun, which occurred in Houston Tuesday night, ended a useful, unselfish and modest life. He was concerned chiefly in performing faithfully such duties as his environment put upon him, and he did nobly from beginning to end. If to be a devoted husband, father, a brave and honest citizen, a gentle and generous neighbor, a faithful compass the obligations of a gentleman, he lacked in no respect. He strove diligently and untiringly for the welfare and happiness of others, he met duty cheerfully, he more than a man's share of pain and agony, and he went to his God with clean hands and an honest heart, a ray of light which his modest, fish and unobtrusive career through the world for half a century is for the while all darkness and along the paths he traveled are wet eyes and aching hearts there is much to console those who loved him and that will come as a soothing and heal the wounds that bleed and bleed when the ties unite life with life snap asunder."

Our real object was the inspection of Temple's garbage crematory. I found it to be the same as that part that I visited in Hobart years ago, most of the objects of which have been overcome. It is the intention of the city to put in a crematory so that the thing of a decomposing or offensive nature can be burned. This is the only sanitary way to dispose of this kind of substance that can be removed from the city. We will make an effort to such a plant in by the first of next year.

New Feature of War In Balkan Is Unity

(Indianapolis News)

The remarkable feature of the present warfare in the Balkans is the fact that four Balkan kingdoms are united in their opposition to Turkey. The latter country has hitherto had a comparatively easy problem in dealing with them because of their intense jealousy, often breaking out in bloody clashes among themselves. It has been remarked that by the irony of fate Turkey's efforts at reform have, in some degree at least, tended to create this new condition of a united enemy. For the wily old deposed sultan used skillfully to foment the ill feeling among the Balkan kingdoms, so as to keep them at one another's throats. The dropping of such tactics by the new government has facilitated the creation of a spirit of union.

This new situation has its problems for the great powers of Europe as well as for Turkey. They, as well as the Balkan kingdoms, have their jealousies as to any possible advantage that may be gained by them through the driving of Turkish power back from Europe. Balkan war possibilities have been a perpetual matter of speculation, often rising to fear of a fearful outbreak involving the whole of Europe.

Rival Claims on Macedonia.

The scene of the present hostilities covers the whole of that part of Eastern Macedonia and the Balkan peninsula—a convenient though vague expression, as E. Alexander Powell remarks in the current number of American Review of Reviews. "To comprehend the present situation," he continues, "it must be understood that the population of Macedonia is composed in about equal parts of Greeks and Slavs (Bulgarians and Serbs) strongly tinged with Albanians, the Turks being in a decided minority. Greeks, Bulgarians, Serbs and Albanians, each consider themselves the only rightful heirs to Macedonia and each of them has been for years past engaged in strengthening their claims in their own peculiar way.

"As a result of this racial rivalry, the Balkan nations, particularly the Greeks and Turks, have for more than twenty years waged a bloody warfare in Macedonia by means of armed bands of desperadoes. Greek hands, slipping into Macedonia from the south, have murdered every Bulgarian on whom they could lay their hands, destroyed the crops of the Bulgarian inhabitants, chopped down and shrewdly perceiving that as long as the Bulgarians bands, sweeping down through the northern passes, would retaliate by committing precisely the same atrocities on the Greek inhabitants of Macedonia, the operations of both frictions being characterized by feroceity and wholesale destruction of property.

Turkey's Shrewd Policy.

"As a rule the Turkish government has made but little effort to bring this intolerable state of affairs to an end, shrewdly perceiving that as long as the various Christian races were engaged in fighting each other they could not combine against the Turks. At intervals, however, the Turks, exasperated beyond endurance, would take a hand in their turn, and once to the Christian, be he Bulgarian, Greek or Serb, who fell into their hands. From my own investigations in Macedonia, however, I think it safe to say that, in recent years at least, for every atrocity the Turks have committed in Macedonia, the Greeks, Bulgarians and Serbs have committed four.

"These guerrilla campaigns in Macedonia were planned solely in the hope that the horrors which they caused would compel the powers to intervene, the Greeks believing that in the event of such an intervention Macedonia would be turned over to them, while the Bulgarians were equally confident that they would receive the prize. It will be seen, therefore, that the cry of humanity, so powerful in 1857, when the Turks themselves were the chief actors in

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles. Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did. I took Cardui when you feel fit in any way—tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times. Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it."

the Macedonian tragedy, has been practically taken away from the Christians by the horrible atrocities perpetrated by both Greeks and Bulgarians in recent years.

Interests Now Pooled.

"Now, the remarkable thing about the present situation is that the four Balkan kingdoms, which have hitherto been at each other's throats have suddenly and secretly formed a combination—pooled their interests in Macedonia, as it were—and have evidently come to an agreement that, if they are victorious in the hazardous adventure on which they are embarking, they will share the profits between them. We have therefore, the sudden appearance in Europe of a new and most formidable corporate power—the Balkan confederation.

Despairing of obtaining the partition of Macedonia through European intervention, and tardily appreciating that the game they had been playing was as foolish as it was wicked, they suddenly decided that the only hope of getting what they were after lay in their joining forces, a union which has been effected with a secrecy and celerity almost unexampled in the history of European diplomacy. Whether the allied kingdoms are sufficiently powerful to defeat the Turks, however, is a matter of grave doubt. Even if they should succeed in doing so, it is almost a certainty that they will not be permitted by the powers to annex a foot of Turkish soil.

Bulgaria's Army Strongest.

"The most dangerous factor in the present conflict is Bulgaria. The Russian general, Kuropatkin, attending the maneuvers of the Bulgarian army some years ago by way of being complimentary, remarked that the Bulgarians were the Japanese of the near east. They have never forgotten that remark. Like the Japanese they take themselves very seriously, and like them again, they firmly believe that they have a large place on the scroll of destiny. Ever since it declared its complete independence in 1908, Bulgaria has been preparing to fight Turkey. The Turks know this. A Turkish official recently admitted quite frankly to the writer that Turkey had no wish to fight though not because she was afraid of being defeated. "What good will it do us to fight," he asked. "We have fought and whipped the Greeks, but we lost Crete. We shall fight and whip the Bulgarians, but we will lose Macedonia."

"For its size the Bulgarian army is the best equipped and most efficient in Europe, though it has never been tested in actual warfare. It means business, however. Every detail is attended to, every probability provided for. Conscription prevails. Every sixth man in the country is a soldier. Not till he is forty-five years of age does the Bulgarian escape liability to serve. The officers take their profession seriously, and the men are hardly uncomplaining and enduring. The actual war strength of the army, which is modeled thoroughly after that of Russia, is probably very close to 250,000 men with five hundred guns.

Strength Chiefly Defensive.

"Its strength is believed by military experts to lie, however, chiefly in the defensive. It is doubtful if the Bulgarians have the qualities most essential for successful attack. Most important of all, it is extremely doubtful if the nation possesses a war chest at all commensurate with the size of the army to be supported. It has cost Italy very close to a million dollars a day to prosecute her ineffective Tripolitanian campaign and a struggle between Bulgaria and Turkey would prove incalculably more costly. Yet the foreign bankers have unanimously declined to advance Bulgaria the comparatively insignificant sum of a million dollars, not to mention the twenty millions for which she originally asked.

"Some one has said of the Bulgarians they are a practical people and their gratitude is chiefly a sense of favors to come. Likewise, they are a perennially dissatisfied people. They are never content with what they possess but are always reaching out for something more. They are a suspicious people, and do not like foreigners, but this they excuse by saying that they have lived under the Turks for five hundred years. This is their stock excuse for all their sins. Indeed, it is difficult to see what they would do if they did not have the Turk for a scapegoat.

No Dishonor to Black Boots.

"The Bulgarians are the most industrious of the populations of southeastern Europe. They are not ashamed of any honest form of work no matter how menial. The last time I went to Bulgaria a bright young Bulgarian, whose boot blaking establishment I was accustomed to patronize, asked me if he might give me a letter of introduction to his uncle, who he modestly remarked, was a person of some influence in Sofia. Weeks later, when unpacking my belongings in the Grand Hotel d'Europe in Sofia, I came across the letter. Sofia is a small town, and everybody knows everybody else, so as I was going out of the hotel one day I showed the letter to the concierge and asked if he had ever heard of the person to whom it was addressed. "Ever heard of him, monseigneur," he exclaimed. "Why he's the prime minister of Bulgaria!" I might add that when I presented the letter to the prime minister he inquired with deep interest after his nephew's welfare, and was in no way apologetic

King Ferdinand.

"Though King Ferdinand is a shrewd and calculating ruler, he is by no means popular, either at home or abroad. He is haughty, arrogant, overbearing, vain and pompous and indifferently fond of display. He is a grandson of Louis Philippe of France, and has many of that monarch's undesirable characteristics. Being a scion of the princely houses of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and of Bourbon, he is related to nearly every crowned head in Europe. None of them take him very seriously, however. He lives in a solid, unadorned palace surrounded by high walls, and rarely stirs out unless escorted by a detachment of cavalry. He is an aristocrat ruling a democratic people; a Roman Catholic set over a Greek orthodox nation."

Injured Employees Get Eighteen Out of Hundred Dollars

Houston, Texas, Nov. 15.—The Texas Welfare Commission's report on compensation to Employees for Casualties Occurring in Course of Employment, prepared by Tom Finty Jr., and appearing in the press has created considerable comment in shipping circles in this city.

The statement that out of every $100 paid the injured workman by the employer only $18 of it reaches the employe brings out in a startling manner the waste in our present system and it is well known that the shipper must bear the burden. A workmen's compensation act along the line down in Mr. Finty's report is considered necessary by the business interests of this city.

Our Pork Production Exceeds Consumption.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 15.—The hog industry of Texas has undergone a careful analysis at the hands of Col. Ike T. Fryor, chairman of the subcommittee on livestock of the Texas Welfare Commission. The report shows there are 2,570,000 head of hogs in Texas, 65,620,000 in the United States and 150,000,000 in the world. We consume approximately 100 pounds of pork and its products per capita per annum and produce 25 pounds. We ship into the state for consumption 250,000,000 pounds of pork and provisions per annum.

To Perpetuate Memory of a President

PROPOSED MCKINLEY MEMORIAL BUILDING

MONUMENTS and memorials have been erected to the memory of distinguished statesmen, warriors, literateurs and heroes of various characters, for many centuries, and the types of architecture of these tokens of love and loyalty have assumed as many distinctive designs as are indicated by the character whom they commemorate, as well as that of the artist or architect who designs them.

The love and loyalty of one man, a friend for one whom he had admired throughout his momentous career, will be fittingly portrayed in the magnificent Birthplace Memorial building, which is to be erected in Niles, O., to the memory of its first citizen, the late President William McKinley, through the efforts of Hon. Joseph G. Butler, Jr., philanthropist, and capitalist of Youngstown.

The plans and specifications of this majestic shrine are now completed and a portrait of the building is herewith presented. It is expected that work on the construction will be commenced in the early spring.

Plan to Raise Funds.

The conception of this memorial has been upon the mind and heart of Mr. Butler since the death of the martyred president, and he always expressed the belief that Niles was the fitting place for such a memorial. Although he contributed liberally to the funds for the majestic mausoleum at Canton, he was then evolving a plan to erect a memorial in Niles himself, but on taking the matter under due consideration, he felt that there were many who cherished the memory of the great statesman as deeply as he, who should feel that they were deserving of the opportunity to contribute to such a cause. A number of friends were consulted, and Mr. Butler was accorded the greatest encouragement.

He planned to make it a thoroughly national movement, and decided that it would be a security to the enterprise to appeal to congress for a charter, with the understanding that the government was not called upon to provide any of the funds. These are to be raised by private subscription and a bill was accordingly introduced into congress by Representative W. Aubrey Thomas, who represented the old Nineteenth district, which was passed without a dissenting voice, in a most stormy period at the close of the third session of the Sixty-first congress, and Joseph G. Butler, Jr., of Ohio; Myron T. Herrick of Ohio; Jacob O. Schaubert of Ohio; John G. Hiburn of New York; and W. A. Thomas of Ohio were appointed members of a commission, which would be known by the name of the National McKinley Birthplace Association, to perpetuate the name and achievements of the late President William McKinley, by erecting and maintaining in the city of Niles, O., his birthplace, a monument and memorial building.

Will Serve Many Purposes.

Impressing upon the minds of his associates that his plan was to establish a building, far removed from the usual monumental pile, which would be a dignified structure of noble architecture, to serve as a civic center for the people of this city, to contain an auditorium for public meetings, a relic room, where documents, relics and other valuable mementoes of the McKinley period would be stored and statuary and rare paintings and portraits of notable people connected with that period will be placed. Another compartment will be given over to the free public library. An effort will also be made to allow space for portraits of notable men associated with McKinley's career, both as a citizen and as a statesman, and also illustrations and other representations of the industrial developments of the McKinley period. A room will be placed at the disposal of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Women's Relief Corps, and here will be found many relics of McKinley's military career in the Civil war as a private, serving in the rank of a major general, and also of the Spanish-American war.

In order to allow the people of Niles to show their appreciation of this great gift, it was deemed a courtesy by the trustees of the association to allow them to make such a contribution as they felt in their power, to give and in order to promote the general good feeling Mr. Butler and his aids came to Niles and conducted a six-day campaign. Previous to this, Mr. Butler had headed the list with a contribution of $5,000 and each of

World's Goat Population Large

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 13.—C. L. T. Proyer of the Texas Wool Commission has included in his report some interesting statistics of the sheep industry. The report shows that the sheep and goat population of the world exceeds that of any other class of animals by a quarter of a million dollars.

There are 1,954,000 sheep and goats in Texas; 53,433,000 in the United States and 680,000,000 in the world. The sheep have decreased in Texas 22,960 head during the past decade.

Texas sheep are grown principally for wool and it is only within the past year that Texas sheep have been shipped to the market. The average Texas consumption of mutton is estimated by Col. Prior to be 2 pounds per capita per annum and the produce approximately all the mutton we consume. The total Texas consumption is 3,000,000 pounds per annum.

LOUISVILLE COMMENT ON THE GIRL FROM TOKIO. The Louisville Herald has the following comment on "The Girl From Tokio" here tomorrow for an afternoon matinee and night performance: "The Girl From Tokio" the Shubert offering for the last half of the week, with daily matinee, a farcical comedy of four acts of unusual merit, played yesterday afternoon and last night to capacity houses. From the rise of the curtain amusing complications evolve which put the proper amount of spice and spirit into the farce which mark it as a success. The scene is laid at the residence of Bartley Swift, Hastings-on-the-Hudson; an ingenious prevaricator whose errand tales place him in an amusingly embarrassing position from start to finish. On a visit to Tokio Swift has an "affaire de coeur" with the beautiful Nancy Noyes, the widow of Emond Miller. Upon his return home, who should turn up at his villa but this charming former actress, the cause of his subsequent dilemma. Expecting a governess for his wife's sister, Swift introduces his friend from Tokio for the part to temporarily relieve the situation. Most amusing situations arise, especially after the arrival of the Count Boni de Brissac, the avowed suitor of Nancy Noyes. The proper governess finally puts in her appearance which further complicates matters for Swift. The troubles of Swift are eventually ended when the identity of Nancy Noyes is made known and he returns to the bosom of his wife. Miss Julia Morton, as Nancy Noyes, is in precisely the role which shows to best advantage her great amount of talent. She is an accomplished actress who has learned the fine arts of the stage. John Raymond as Prof. Christian Manners, private tutor, shows marked ability as a master of pantomime and is a performer of rare quality. The remainder of the cast include the following: Miss Adelaide Matthews, Miss Lee Hobbs Martin, Miss May Holton, Miss Jane Hanan, Miss Sherry Snyder and Maurice Bardwell. The company, as a whole has been extremely well selected and each character was portrayed to the limit of perfection possible in such an offering. Only about 1 per cent of the total wealth of the United States is invested in church property, but, according to Dr. Booker Washington, over 8 per cent of the wealth of the negroes of the country is invested in this way. They have 25,000 churches, with 3,700,000 members.
