

ARMISTICE AGREED TO BY BALKAN NATIONS

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT ISSUED BY ALLIES FROM BULGARIAN CAPITAL TODAY

END OF WAR NEAR

Desire to Avert Enormous Slaughtering Necessary to Take Forts Influenced Allies

By Associated Press. Sofia, Nov. 19.—The allied Balkan nations today assented to the Turkish proposal to discuss the terms of an armistice and eventual peace. The reply to the dispatch of the Turkish grand vizier says: "The Bulgarian government after agreement with the allied cabinets of Serbia, Montenegro and Greece, informs the Porte that plenipotentiaries have been appointed with instructions to arrange with the commanders of the Turkish armies the conditions of an armistice and subsequently to proceed to the conclusion of peace."

10,000 Turks Killed at Monastir. Belgrade, Nov. 19.—Turkish casualties during the three days fighting with the Serbians prior to the fall of Monastir are reported to have reached 10,000.

Cessation of Hostilities to Bury Dead by Associated Press. London, Nov. 19.—An eight hour armistice has been arranged to bury the Bulgarians and the Turks at Tchatalja, so both armies may bury their dead.

Armistice to Prevent Needless Slaughtering

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 19.—Nations of the Balkan confederacy, satiated with victory, today signified their willingness to treat for peace terms at the request of the vanquished Turkish army. The stubborn defense encountered by the Bulgarians at Tchatalja and the realization that enormous slaughter would be necessary to take the position at the point of the bayonet doubtless was a factor in deciding the conquerors to listen to the request of the powers and refrain from pressing home their victory to the Turkish capital.

Monastir Turkey's Stronghold in Macedonia

London, Nov. 19.—Any idea that the Turkish Government may have had of benefiting by continued resistance must be shattered by news of the fall of Monastir. In the capture of that important town the Serbians took three thousand Turkish prisoners, including the Turkish commander in chief, Zekki Pasha, 50,000 men and forty-seven guns, thus achieving the greatest individual success of the war.

Monastir was the second city of importance in European Turkey. It was Turkey's stronghold in Macedonia and by its downfall Macedonia passed completely out of Turkish hands.

What part the Greeks played in the capture has not yet been ascertained. It is known that the Greek army was marching to the assistance of the Serbians and it is supposed that the Greeks were able to cut off the Turkish retreat to the south. The Serbians naturally will be elated at this victory, which outshines the capture of Saloniki and must have a great moral effect on the future course of the war.

Another of the strange silences which have been characteristic of this war appears to have fallen over Constantinople, from which city only brief dispatches have been received telling of the resumption of the Chatalja battle and that the Sultan has made a fresh personal appeal to the European sovereigns to intervene for the termination of the war. Quite as little may be expected to come of this appeal as of the previous attempt at mediation by the powers.

With cholera and typhus ravaging her demoralized army and a powerful enemy hammering at the gates of the capital, Turkey must again appeal to the allies for terms. Undoubtedly the object of the commanders in ordering the attack on the Chatalja lines was to compel this course. It seems incredible that Bulgaria, for the mere glory of a triumphal entry into a city she does not desire possession of, should wish to take her army into a disease infected zone.

Turkish reports, even the officers' official dispatches of the results of the operations, have been so unreliable throughout that little attention can be paid to the statements regarding the Chatalja battle, issued at Constantinople Sunday and Monday. The operation probably was little more than an artillery preparation, which in all important battles lasts several days, for the purpose of drawing the enemy's fire and locating his batteries.

As the effect of the victory at Monastir will be to stiffen the Serbian Government in resisting Austrian pretensions, the consular troubles at Prirend and Mitrovitz are breeding a danger spirit of ill feeling between Austria and Serbia, which is little calculated to favor diplomatic negotiations. The newspapers of both capitals reflect this feeling.

No news has yet reached Vienna of the Austrian Consul, Prochaska, at Prirend. The Serbian Government has declined to comply with Austria's request to allow an Austrian representative to go to Prirend to make inquiries and practically ignores Austria's protests on the subject.

There is a report that Szentari has fallen before the Montenegrin attacks, but this is not confirmed.

Proof that the cholera has affected the Bulgarian army comes in a report that the noted German doctor, Roth, has been summoned to Bulgarian headquarters to assist in stamping out the disease.

REPORT OF ALIENISTS FINDING PREMATURE

Judge Backus Denies That Commission is Ready to Report on Condition of Schrank

By Associated Press. Milwaukee, Nov. 19.—It was reported today that the commission of five alienists had found John Schrank, who shot Col. Roosevelt, insane.

Later Judge Backus denied that the commission of alienists had finished its work and said if any member of the commission had given out advance information he adjudged him to be in contempt of court.

It was learned from another source that the information that Roosevelt's assailant had been found insane came from the district attorney's office.

His reason was that he was unable to spare time from his own affairs.

THREE KILLED TWENTY INJURED

GUESTS OF LOS ANGELES HOTEL CUT OFF BY FIRE ON THE UPPER FLOORS

JUMP FROM WINDOWS

More Than Score Owed Lives to Heroism of Elevator Boy

By Associated Press. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 19.—At least three persons were killed and about twenty injured by a fire in the St. George Hotel on East Third street near Main, which started at midnight. The blaze started on the second floor and drawn up through the elevator shaft it spread so rapidly that those on the fifth and sixth floors who did not receive the warning in time were compelled to jump from the windows.

The known dead: MRS. CHARLOTTE HARRINGTON, MRS. ELLA MORAN, JOSEPH MARTIN.

The others were only slightly injured. Many of the hotel guests had miraculous escapes from death.

Perhaps a score or more owe their lives to the heroism of Oscar Jones who ran the single elevator of the hotel. He continued to operate the elevator between the fifth and sixth floors with the small car packed with humanity until flames and smoke made further trips impossible.

There were numerous heroic rescues by firemen. Mrs. Harrington, who was a member of a company playing at a local theatre lost her life by jumping from the fifth floor. First she tossed her 18-month-old baby into the net held by firemen and then jumped but she missed the blanket and sustained injuries from which she died.

Mrs. Ella Moran jumped from a sixth story window and was crushed to death. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Block jumped from a sixth story window. Mrs. Block was taken to the hospital with the neck broken. Block's injuries are not serious.

The fire did comparatively little damage to the building.

Florida Specials On the Seaboard Air-line Crash at Granite, North Carolina

By Associated Press. Richmond, Va., Nov. 19.—Five are known to be dead and many injured as the result of a head-on collision early today near Granite, North Carolina, between the north and south bound Florida-Cuba special trains on the Seaboard Air-line railway.

The trains met shortly after two o'clock. Telegraph lines were torn down and communication with the outside world entirely cut off many hours.

Both engineers were killed, as were two negro firemen and an express messenger.

The boys of Mrs. Hancock's class of the First Christian church gave a picture show at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Walters last night which was attended by nearly a hundred persons. Postcard pictures were projected on a curtain by a microscope and as the pictures were shown a talk concerning each was made by J. W. Bradley. Japanese scenes were shown. An admission of five cents was charged children while the older ones made offerings. In all the proceeds were $10.50. The boys have pledged to give $25 toward the new church and the money raised last night will go into this fund.

In addition to the pictures the boys also made candy.

FOUR GUN-MEN FOUND-GUILTY

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE WAS FINDING OF THE JURY TODAY

Quick Verdict Was a Surprise to Everyone—Judge's Charge Lengthy

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 19.—Gyp the Blood, Lefty Lewis and Dago Frank Crofted, the gunmen charged with the killing of Herman Rosenthal were all found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury this afternoon. The jury deliberated only an hour and ten minutes.

The quick verdict came as a surprise to everyone. The jury in the case of Charles Becker deliberated for nearly seven hours. He is now in Sing Sing.

The judge's charge to the jury today occupied more than three hours.

Yesterday the four defendants—"Gyp the Blood," Lefty Lewis, "Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lewis"—heard themselves characterized by Assistant District Attorney Moss, as the "hands which held the instruments of death—the hands of the body of which Rose, Webber and Vallon were the brains and Lieutenant Charles Becker the will." He referred to them as "that battery of gunmen."

He declared that the witnesses who identified them showed the "odorous of soldiers marching to the cannon's mouth." He beseeched the jurors "not to be afraid of bullets," in considering their verdict.

"It may require some courage for a jury to bring in a verdict of murder against these men," he continued, "but this is a rare time for the performance of a great public duty to the commonwealth."

"This is the crime of crimes—a challenge to civilization, a blow in the face of American law and order. I call upon you for a verdict that will vindicate law and order and make these gunmen and their friends realize there is a God in Israel, justice in the state of New York and a jury that is not afraid of bullets."

By their attorney, Charles C. F. Wable, the defendants were pictured as men who had been criminals, but who were innocent of this crime—the victims of the testimony of the "men who really killed Rosenthal, Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepp."

"Give me these boys and I will make men of them," said Wable. "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Lewis" listened to the eloquence of the two lawyers with pallid faces. "Whitey Lewis" and "Dago Frank" were visibly affected.

NEW EVIDENCE AT SNEED TRIAL

WITNESS SAID SNEED PEERED THROUGH WINDOW BEFORE THE SHOOTING

Says Companion Rushed at Sneed When Shooting Began—Scenes at Killing Re-enacted

HAMPTON ON THE STAND

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 19.—Well dressed women occupied seats near the front, half an hour before court was opened in the John Neal Sneed murder trial today. Most of them were elderly women, and they bent their heads forward to catch every word of the testimony.

Irland Hampton, north side live stock commission man, was the first witness called today. He and George Dupree, his business associate, were standing near where Captain Boyce sat when the shooting began.

He told of how Sneed brushed close by, how he lurched back against Dupree, when the shooting began, and how Dupree rushed at Sneed. Hampton seized Dupree.

"You didn't testify about Dupree striking at Sneed in the first trial did you?" Cone Johnson of the defense asked the witness.

"No, sir."

"Because Mr. McLean jumped on me for being an ex-lawyer and we didn't get into that part of the testimony at all."

Hampton and Dupree were standing in the lobby waiting for an Arlington Heights car, the witness testified. Hampton was looking toward the south plate glass front of the lobby.

"I saw Sneed come up to the window and look into the lobby," he said. "He wore an overcoat and his hat was pulled down over his face so as to conceal most of his face."

The big leather upholstered chair in which Captain Boyce had been sitting before the shooting was brought into court and Senator Hanger had Hampton illustrate to the jury how Capt. Boyce rose when the shooting began.

The scene was realistic. Hampton, although much younger and not of Capt. Boyce's physical build, has facial features not altogether unlike those of the dead man. He wore a shirt of the same pattern as that of Capt. Boyce wore when he was shot.

Then Attorney McLean of the defense staged a version of the scene in the Metropolitan lobby the night of January 13. Senator Hanger of the prosecution sat in the chair. Capt. Boyce had occupied, after the witness returned to the stand. Mr. McLean stood where a pillar with a mail box in the lobby stood. One of the jurors represented Capt. Boyce and Hampton stood in the position where he and Dupree were when Sneed entered the lobby.

Hampton said he heard neither Sneed nor Capt. Boyce say anything prior to the shooting. He heard Capt. Boyce say "Oh" when the first shot was fired.

THE STAPLES WELL IS LOOKING GOOD

Oil Covers Slush Pit and Some Say Well is Good for Twenty Barrels

Parties from this city who visited the Staples well on the Wilfray farm near Iowa Park today, report that there are all sorts of evidences that the well is going to prove a genuine surprise to those who have all along given it out that in their opinion oil in paying quantities would not be obtained. At the present time the well is down to a depth of about 740 feet, with a cave-in of 30 feet above the bottom and a considerable amount of oil is finding its way to the top through this cave-in.

Some who claim to be in a position to know give it as their opinion that even if drilling should stop now, the well would prove a producer of more than ten and possibly twenty barrels daily. A great quantity of oil taken from the well now covers the slush pit and a small iron tank standing close by has been filled with oil from this well.

Mr. Staples, the driller, who is also part owner of the well, with his force of workmen, are busy today putting down casing and calculate to bring the well in sometime tomorrow. Should it prove to be even as good as a twenty barrel well, it will be sufficient to make things hum for a while, at least, in that neighborhood. Even as things now stand, land in that neighborhood for two or three miles around the well, is bringing fancy lease prices.

BIG NEW GLASS PLANT IS WITHIN OUR GRASP

IF CITIZENS WILL SUBSCRIBE BETWEEN $7,500 AND $10,000 NEW INDUSTRY IS OURS

READY TO CLOSE

New Concern Will Employ About 200 Men and Will Be Immense Benefit to City

If Wichita Falls will raise about $20,000 to purchase the site—with half this amount already promised—another glass factory, employing 200 men can be secured.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors this morning, attended by a number of citizens, the above proposition was submitted by J. A. Kemp, on behalf of the owners of the glass plant in question. The site will cost from $15,000 to $20,000, of which Messrs. Kemp and Kell have agreed to give half, leaving from $7,500 to $10,000 to be raised by other citizens.

The names of the owners of the plant have not been made public, but it is understood that they are the owners of the plant in question.

The dead man was known by several names, having registered at the hotel as Joseph Vogel. The police declare that he was a Pole, named Phereas Doraskiel. The woman who had him had registered as Lottie Vogel. Vogel was about 48 years old and the woman about 25.

The detectives were on the trail of the pair, suspecting them of having been accomplices in a diamond robbery, for which Sophie Brockenhoff, a domestic, had been held for the grand jury. The woman who had lost the jewels traced the girl to Vogel's house and told the detectives of her discovery. After a taxi cab chase the detectives learned that the Vogels had sought lodging at the Elmore Hotel, at Cortland avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-first street in the Bronx.

Central Office Detective Martin F. Fay and Private Detective John Allen and Louis Gerade went to the hotel in search of their quarry last night. Louis Mondscheln, the proprietor told of the couple having arrived in a taxi cab early in the evening, and ordered Wim Butler, a waiter, to show the detectives to the Vogels' room.

Vogel opened the door in response to a summons and as Allen forced his way in, declaring that the couple were under arrest, Vogel struck the detective over the head with a black jack and then grasped a magazine pistol which lay upon the bed. His first bullet struck Allen in the head and he fell probably fatally hurt.

Be-atives Fay and Gerade rushed into the room, followed by Proprietor Mondscheln and Butler. It is declared that they did not fire a shot, but expected to seize Allen's assassin. They were not quick enough. Vogel let go one shot after another, nearly every one taking effect.

Fay and Mondscheln both received probably fatal wounds in the abdomen. Gerade was shot in the leg and back and Butler received a bad wound in the hip.

The woman, also armed, had fired several shots, some of which, it is believed, hit the detective.

Evidently crazed at his gun work, Vogel turned to his woman companion and shot. She was shot through the abdomen and soon expired.

Vogel made quick work of himself by putting the last bullet from his gun into his head, and fell dead. At the hospital, to which all of the wounded were removed, it was said that probably all except Butler would die.

Unable to Give Account of Shooting. By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 19.—The body of Henry Vogel and beside it the body of his girl, Lottie, lie in the morgue today and John Allen, city detective, was dead while in an untown hospital are four men, two of them are recovering between life and death, unable to give a connected account of how they were shot in the raid on Vogel's room when he was sought as a diamond thief.

OIL FIELD NEWS

Dark and devious mystery still holds sway at the Staples well on the Winfrey land near Iowa Park. Most of the operations are carried on at night, which gives an added look of mystery to the proceedings. Some oil men and some others, not oil men, have enough faith in the outcome to do considerable leasing in the vicinity. The unquestioned presence of oil in the slush pit has stimulated activity in leasing and there are hopes that the showing will be followed by something that the pipe lines will pay money for. Those who ought to know say the drill is four feet in the sand and that it will be sent deeper into the sand tomorrow.

A 300 acre tract belonging to James Van Horn and others, slightly over two miles southeast of the Eeds has been leased by E. H. Wilcox for the Mutual Oil Company, which is to begin drilling within 60 days. The price was $5 in cash and $20 in pork. The same company has leases on 20 acres of the Albert Johnson tract and 20 of the John Johnson, in the same vicinity.

The Kelly well at Mabledean, which is now down about 1200 feet, was reported with a good gas showing this week.

The Guffey is building a tank at Iowa Park to supply its wells to the northward. Operations in that section have been considerably delayed by inability to get fuel oil, although the Embry and Schmocker wells at Burkburnett are now taking care of a large number.

C. Paul who has been at Salamanca, N. Y., for several weeks is back in Wichita Falls. He arrived yesterday.

Four Large Battleships in Galveston. Galveston, Texas, Nov. 19.—Four of Uncle Sam's best sea fighters, the Louisiana, Kansas, Hampshire and Vermont will be seen in Galveston during battleship week between December 6th and 10th.

The Tacoma an enormous armored cruiser of 3,000 tons carrying an armament of 25 guns 10 of which are over four inch, will also be in the harbor that week.

A bare showing of oil was all that was found in the Clint Wood well on the M. A. Eeds farm, just a few yards west of the discovery well. It was drilled into the Eeds sand at 1447 feet late yesterday with the above result, being the third non-producer in that immediate vicinity and the fourth in that section of the county. L. P. Hivick's well, to the southwest of the original well, was 1445 feet this morning and will probably tell something this afternoon. The Guffey-Woods well to the southeast was down 1425 feet this morning and should be in the sand very shortly. It now seems certain that the sand does not extend to the northward, the Corsicana's well on the McClure, the Northwestern No. 2 M. A. Eeds and the Warner wells indicating that there is nothing in that direction. Clint Wood's failure would tend to discourage operations to the westward. It seems to be up to the Hivick and Guffey-Woods wells to show which way the sand extends, if indeed it extends at all. Some oil men believe that something will be found at 1900 feet, where some of the best producers around Electra were brought in. Others take a less cheerful view of the Eeds situation and say that it is Archer county all over again.

Dale and Knott brought in a fifty barrel well in Woodruff Heights at Electra Saturday.

A location has been made by the Pumpkin Ridge Oil Company on the Beveridge farm near Charlie, and drilling is to start shortly.

The Five Rivers on the Campbell lease near Petrolia, is dry this morning at 1900 feet, but will go deeper, having failed to find any sand.

The Markowitz Oil Company has made a location on the Frank Spell tract, next to the Edmonds Oil Co., and will start drilling shortly.

The Developers' Oil Company has made the location for its No. 4 on its fee land at Petrolia, just 500 feet from its No. 1. Nos. 2 and 3 were dry.

Henrietta, Texas, Nov. 19.—Marcus Oldfield and Charles McDaniel, two young white men, are under bond on a charge of engaging a fight at a pool hall on Saturday night. McDaniel was struck on the head with a billiard cue, and Oldfield had part of one ear chewed off.

"The Goose Girl." The tremendous success and popularity of "The Goose Girl," which will be the attraction at the Wichita Theatre tonight is not only due to the well written dialogue and well conceived plot, but to the clean, wholesome atmosphere of the story. The book is by Harold MacGrath, dramatized by George D. Baker, who so cleverly followed the book that no character is omitted. The production is positively one of the handsomest ever placed upon the stage and exemplifies the policy of the Baker & Castle offices—the original company and productions for one night stands. It was painted by Dodge & Castle of New York and compares with such productions as "The Rose Maid" and "The Merry Widow" from the same studio.

A Famous Texas Woman. The following is taken from the December Woman's Home Companion about Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Without indulging in sectionalism, it is easy to feel considerable satisfaction in the fact that a lady from the great State of Texas has been chosen president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Besides, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker has had the benefit of an interstate education and training. She was born in Petersburg, Virginia—her maiden name was Anna B. Hardwicke—and received her early education in the parsonage of her father, the Rev. Dr. John B. Hardwicke. As her family subsequently moved first to Leavenworth, Kansas, and then to Huntsville, Texas, she passed through the Classical High School in Leavenworth and afterward was graduated with the highest honors from the Huntsville State Normal School. She had been teaching several years when in 1884 she married Percy V. Pennybacker of Tyler, Texas, who died in 1899, leaving three children to her care. Mrs. Pennybacker was a high school principal for ten years and in the course of her career as a teacher, covering fourteen years in all, she made several noteworthy contributions to educational literature, including a history of Texas, which was adopted for use in the public schools of the State. She established the Literary Club of Tyler in 1887, has served as president both of the American History Club of Austin and the Texas State Federation of Women's Clubs.

For flaky pie crust use Cottolene

Lard soaked pies have caused a world of indigestion, and pies therefore have been wonderfully abused, and in some cases tabooed. When properly made with Cottolene and eaten at suitable times, pies are no more indigestible for a normal person than are many other foods which so far have escaped this criticism.

Cottolene makes light and delicate crust—rich, but not greasy—wholesome, digestible, nutritious. There is no hog fat in Cottolene. It is a vegetable product—made from purest and choicest cotton oil. It is a product of Nature, and much more wholesome than either butter or lard.

Cottolene is an economical fat. Use one-third less than either lard or butter, and obtain better results.

FORT WORTH TO HAVE RACE MEET

Fort Worth, Nov. 19.—Texas only running horse races of this fall will be pulled off at the Fall Fair and Race Meet to be held at Fort Worth, Nov. 27 to 30, arrangements having been concluded here by a local committee of business men to have the horses from the Hot Springs meet stop for four days while en route to Juarez for the winter racing in Mexico.

Omission of these running races at the State Fair this year has led to much interest in the coming meet for which grandstands are now being erected at the track of the old Fort Worth Fair Association, where the last running races were held four years ago.

In the new entry into the venture, the old scope has been greatly enlarged. The event is to be made a general speed carnival and the horse racing will form but one section. A four hour program is to be given daily both the half mile and the seven-eighths mile tracks at the fair grounds being used. Each day's program will include three running races, two or more harness events, three automobile races and three motorcycle events.

Motorcycle racing will be new here and for its introduction arrangements were closed Saturday by which there will be sixteen entries daily from the Dallas motor cycle riders, the interest in whose racing was the leading feature during the State Fair at Dallas.

For the automobile events a sanction has been secured from the American Automobile Association. Arrangements have already been closed for the Mercedes, Simplex, Marquette, E. M. F., and Flanders racers and as the entries must be kept open until three days before a race starts and for 24 hours before for a licensed driver, the number will be greatly increased before the first day's racing.

Stables at the track are now being put in shape for the reception of the fast horses which will arrive on their palatial cars by the end of this week. The racing trains will be parked on the Frisco siding by the track during the meet.

The racing men are taking to the meet with especial interest because it affords them a good opportunity to break the long trip to Mexico and keep the ponies in the best possible condition.

Following the closing of contracts, showing the large scope of the speed carnival, all railroads entering the city have authorized the special fair rate of a fare and a third for the round trip and the outside attendance is expected to be unusually heavy.

Thanksgiving will be made the day for special features and on it will be run the Derby.

Arrangements are now being closed for the incidental attractions during the event with a special view to securing entertainments for the mornings and nights so that visitors may enjoy themselves all the time.

The meet has been put in charge of a local committee of which E. H. Phillips and S. P. Berry of the State National Bank has been made treasurer.

Appropriations amounting to $10,000 have been made in order that the speed carnival may indeed be one in which speed is a feature.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 19, 1942

Gracious! tax paying time is here again.

Wasn't there something said, a while back, about a new charter for this city of ours?

Somebody was talking to remark that the retreat towards constant people was the original Turkey trot.

Three hundred thousand people visit the Cotton Palace at Waco. This is one of the greatest exhibitions of Texas and is growing in importance every year. Waco and all Texas are proud of the Cotton Palace.

It would be hard to convince the men who are getting from fifteen to twenty cents a barrel more for crude oil now than before the decision that the dissolution of the Standard Oil Co. has not been a good thing.

Where there is no vision of the people's peril. The mere count of ballots through the vision back—Colliers' Weekly.

Heavens! What a close call we had. Nobody suspected it was as bad as all that.

Congressman Henry, in writing letters at Hillabro from Washington says he does not favor primaries for the selection of postmasters for the reason that there is no law to govern such elections, and therefore the danger of fraud is entirely too great. He proposes to pass on the appointment in his district himself, and will assume the responsibility of selecting the most competent applicants to fill the positions. These are his views on this matter. As yet, Congressman Stephens has not indicated what plan he would prefer, but it is generally believed that he will leave it with the Democrats of his district.

*The Taft Republicans of Texas are about as anxious to get their feet under the federal pie counter as are the Democrats, judging from a press dispatch from San Antonio which says in effect that a committee is soon to be sent to Washington to confer with President Taft regarding certain positions now held by Roosevelt supporters, whom the regulars want removed regardless of when their commissions expire, and Taft men substituted for them. This will be all right, provided the men appointed to take the places do not extend over into the Democratic administration. There are enough Democrats, loyal and capable, to hold down all the government jobs, and they ought to have them. The Democratic party is to be on trial for the next four years, beginning March 1st and in order to give the party a fair and square chance to redeem its pledges to the people and make good every position of importance should be held by a Democrat.

"The Newtown Politician" presented by an Ethiopian aggregation, was last night's offering at the Wichita Theatre, being attended by a top-heavy audience. The play has much to recommend it, some of the songs and dances being excellent, but the comedy and the production itself were not of a very high order. Some of the blondest coons the writer has ever seen were in the chorus, one of them having golden hair. The upper portion of the audience seemed well pleased with the piece.

PROSPERITY has arrived, the news boys have more money than the bankers had a year ago, beggars turn down any thing less than the price of a ten course feed at the most raz-ma-tax eat foundry in the ballwick, and the goose is hanging far above all previous altitudal records, in fact to say we are going some in Wichita Falls does not any more measure our commercial velocity than a snow flake quenches a prairie fire. And our own Woodrow Wilson is now chief pedagogue to the likeliest looking class he has ever had and here's hoping he don't go nosing into the plans of some of the big boys and start a panic. We wish to call your attention to the reading of a portion of our business gospel which listens like this: "The only difference in a rut and grave is the length." We have always fought severely shy of the rut. Our business succeeds because we have what you want, at the right price and get to you quick. You grab the phone and we do the rest and do it quick.

OUR LINIMENTS DO THE WORK

The pain caused by a bruise is simply nature's way of letting you know that many little blood vessels are broken and that the congested blood needs help in moving along. IN CASE OF A SPRAIN the circulation must be stimulated not only to prevent congestion but to furnish material for repairing the injury. It is impossible to treat such injuries from the outside, but our liniments are the ideal external applications for all such troubles and the rubbing necessary in applying them helps stimulate the circulation. You should never be without a good liniment, for the sooner they are applied after an injury the easier it is for them to do their work.
