BURLESON WILL PROCEED TO ACT

INTENDS TO ENFORCE NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY LAW, DESPITE AGREEMENT.

INJUNCTION NOW SOUGHT

Test of Law's Constitutionality to Be Made Following Suit Filed by Papers Tuesday

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—Unless the supreme court restrains Postmaster General Burleson from enforcing the newspaper publicity law as it was asked to do yesterday, Mr. Burleson will immediately enforce it regardless of the agreement by former Postmaster General Hitchcock to withhold action pending a determination of its constitutionality. Mr. Burleson made this announcement today.

Final notices have been sent to a number of publishers that if they don't furnish the information required within ten days their publication will be denied admission to the mails. Approximately 91 per cent of the publishers affected have filed their reports with the postmaster general and otherwise have complied with the law. The delinquents constitute about nine per cent and generally include the larger daily newspapers. It was pointed out today that Postmaster General Hitchcock before leaving office had on February 28 decided to terminate the agreement and had ordered postmasters to call upon publishers to submit their reports.

Suit Filed Tuesday
Counsel for the New York Journal of Commerce Tuesday applied to the supreme court to restrain Postmaster General Burleson from immediately enforcing the "newspaper publicity law." Former Postmaster General Hitchcock had agreed not to attempt to enforce the law pending a prompt appeal to the supreme court from the decision of the federal courts in New York.

The request was based upon an agreement between counsel, the department of justice and the postoffice department last October that no action would be taken by the postoffice department to compel newspaper publishers to comply with the law or enforce any of its penalties until the supreme court had passed upon its validity.

Notified to Comply with Law
Robert G. Morris, counsel for the Journal of Commerce, in a statement to the supreme court declared that on March 4 the postmaster at New York had notified the papers that unless the statements required were filed at once he would enforce the penalties. Similar letters had been sent to other papers. Since March 4, Morris said, the postmaster general had informed him that unless the required returns were made on or before March 11 he would enforce the penalties which include disbarment from the mails. The law requires newspapers to file with the government and publish twice each year a sworn statement showing the name of their bondholders, security holders, stockholders, amount of daily circulation and to designate all paid-for articles as "advertisements."

The supreme court has had the validity of the law under consideration for several months, but has announced no decision.

Taken Under Adversement
The court took the motion of Mr. Morris under advisement.

Solicitor General Bullitt stated verbally that the government took cognizance of the motion but did not agree to all the statements Mr. Morris filed with the court.

Later Mr. Bullitt stated that his recollection was that the postoffice department had informally agreed not to enforce the law for a reasonable time but that it did not specifically agree to enforce the law until the supreme court had passed upon it.

WARNS WILSON AGAINST "CRANK" REPUTATION.

London, March 12.—President Wilson's teetotal policy at the White House has aroused the resentment of the London Standard, which editorially warns the President against "gaining the fatal reputation of a crank." Other papers refrain from comment but the Daily Mail has taken occasion to ascertain that there are about 100 teetotalers in the British house of commons, and on this point remarks that President Wilson's ideas would not suit the majority of the British and Irish members.

MEXICAN CONSUL AT NAPLES TO MEET PORFIRIO DIAZ.

By Associated Press. Naples, March 12.—The Mexican consul here has been instructed by the Mexican minister to Italy to go on board the steamship Adriatic on her arrival here tomorrow to greet Porfirio Diaz.

WITHDRAW REPRIMAND FOR CRITICISM OF JEW

Way, is Cleared for Promotion of Frank Bloom, Whose Case Attracted Much Attention

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—One of the last acts of the Taft administration was the issue of a presidential order wiping off from the military record of Col. Joseph Garrard of the Fifteenth Cavalry commander at Fort Meyer, Va., the reprimand administered to him because of his unfavorable indorsement upon the examination papers of Frank Bloom, a young Jewish private who was seeking a commission. Garrard pronounced Bloom undesirable because of family conditions and religion. The effect of the presidential action is to clear the way for Bloom's promotion.

WIRELESS MESSAGES ARE SENT OVER 7,000 MILES.

By Associated Press. Key West, Fla., March 12.—Captain Hyden, commandant of the naval station, has a letter from Cairo, Egypt, saying that Lloyds wireless station there has several times copied messages sent by the Key West station. It is claimed this breaks all wireless records by more than 500 miles. The distance involved is more than 7,000 statute miles.

ADRIANOPLE IS TOTTERING FAST

"I CAN HOLD OUT ONLY A WEEK LONGER," SAYS COMMANDER

ECHO OF NAZIM'S DEATH

Internal Troubles Still Brewing as Result—Priest Adds Fuel to the Flames

BALKAN CONDITIONS OF PEACE EXCESSIVE.

By Associated Press. Belgrade, March 12.—The allied Balkan nations have agreed to accept mediation of the powers but only on conditions whose acceptance is unlikely. According to unofficial announcements the consent is contingent on agreement of Turkey to surrender Adrianople and Scutari and the Aegean Islands and also to pay a war indemnity.

By Associated Press. Constantinople, March 12.—A despairing cry of "I can hold out only a week longer" was sent in cipher by wireless today from Shukri Pasha, Turkish commander of Adrianople to his superior officers here, according to unofficial reports.

Shukri who was held out many months against the hundreds of sieges of the Bulgarians and Serbians is said to have informed the Sultan that Adrianople is practically at the end of its supplies of food and ammunition and that there is much sickness especially scurvy and intestinal disorders. He urges that either peace negotiations be hastened or that an immediate attempt to relieve the city be undertaken from the Tchatalja line.

The Turkish ministry is undecided what to do and probably will have trouble in reaching a solution.

The disorder caused by the murder of the late Nazim Pasha continues to threaten internal trouble. At a service today in Nazim's memory the official priest pronounced a malediction on his assassins and "on those who have deceived the Sultan of Turkey, the head of the Mussulman faith."

CHAMP CLARK ADMITTED TO SUPREME COURT PRACTICE.

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—Speaker Champ Clark was today admitted to practice before the supreme court. He was introduced by former Judge Sheppard Barclay of St. Louis, who vouched for his good standing and qualification as a lawyer. The speaker does not expect to practice before the court in the immediate future at least.

ANDRUS PASS—What is said to be the largest single catch of trout, on record in this section, was made here recently, when Sam Murphree brought in a total of one thousand and fifty pounds. The fish were caught in gill nets and sold readily at a good price on the local fish market.

SINALOA REVOLTS AGAINST NATIONAL GOVERNMENT AND JOINS REBELS

AGUA PRIETA EVACUATED

General Ojeda and His Force of 400 Men Leave for Nogales—Quiet at Eagle Pass

By Associated Press. Nogales, Ariz., March 12.—The state of Sinaloa, south of Sonora, has revolted officially against Huerta's national government and named a provisional governor according to reports of persons arriving today from Hermosillo. They also report that the Yaqui Indians of Sonora have volunteered to assist the insurgents.

OROZCO JR. LEAVES TORREON FOR CAPITOL.

By Associated Press. Torreon, Mexico, March 12.—Pascual Orozco Jr., who expressed himself decidedly for peace left here for Mexico City at 2 o'clock this morning.

RURAL POLICE AT NOGALES THREATENED WITH ATTACK.

By Associated Press. Douglas, Ariz., March 12.—General Ojeda and 450 men evacuated Agua Prieta at 9 o'clock today and began an overland march west to Nogales, where the rural police are threatened with attack. Each man carried all the arms and ammunition possible. The rest of the garrison equipment, arms and ammunition were left packed in cars.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS SHOOTING CAUSES GENERAL STAMPEDE.

By Associated Press. Eagle Pass, Texas, March 12.—There is but little change in the local situation. Carranzistas in Piedras Negras fearing an attack last night from railroad men and other refugees in the area, placed several box cars on the railroad bridge and barricaded the Mexican end of the wagon bridge. However, nothing developed. A personal encounter at between two railroad at Piedras Negras yesterday in which one or two shots were fired and a horse wounded caused a stampede to the American side.

CONFERENCE AT AUSTIN ON OIL TRUST CASES.

Austin, Texas, March 12.—A conference was held Tuesday in the attorney general's office in regard to the receivership recently appointed by district court of Hunt county in the suit of the State against the Magnolia Petroleum Company and the Corsicana Petroleum Company.

Those participating in the conference were Attorney General Lookey, First Assistant C. W. Cureton, Assistant C. A. Sweeton and W. B. Hamilton of Greenville, representing the State and George C. Greer of Beaumont, J. W. Terry of Galveston and Judge E. R. Cavin of Galveston, representing the defendants; also John Sealy of Galveston and E. R. Brown of Corsicana, defendants in the suits and Sam B. Brooks, the receiver.

The defendants will not contest the appointment of the receiver by the district court of Hunt county and hence the receivership will be maintained as inaugurated.

The conference was with reference to the proper policy that should be pursued by the receiver in the management of the business and properties of these concerns, and there was no dissent expressed by anybody from the idea that the business of these concerns should be so managed and its status maintained so as not to injure any sense to impair the same; that the employees, as at present engaged and upon salaries at present paid, should be retained by the receiver. In other words, that there should be no violent disruption of any contractual relations that existed at the time of the receivership.

NEW DAYLIGHT WIRELESS RECORDS ESTABLISHED.

Gibraltar, March 12.—It was announced today that the United States scout cruiser Salem, on her trip across the Atlantic to this port, set several new world records for consistent and reliable wireless communication by daylight.

The Salem was sent out to make tests with the high-powered government wireless station at Arlington. She was able to send complete day messages to Arlington from distances up to 1,300 miles and receive from distances above 2,400 miles. Night transmission distances were considerably greater.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS.

SEVERAL PAPERS READ

Monthly Session of Local Physicians Organization is Held Tuesday Night

A well attended and interesting meeting of the Wichita County Medical Society was held in the offices of Burnsides, Walker and Jones last night. Dr. C. R. Hartsook, president of the society, presided.

The meeting was opened with a paper on "Gangrenous Appendicitis," by Dr. Wade H. Walker following which reports of cases were made by Dr. Daniels and Dr. Everett Jones.

Dr. McNew of Charlie, Texas, a member of the society, led a discussion on "Granulated Eyelids" in which discussion all the members present participated.

FRIEDMANN WILL MAKE HIS METHODS PUBLIC

Alleged Tuberculosis Serum Will be Given Publicity and His Secret Revealed

New York, March 12.—When Dr. Friedmann returns from Montreal, where he went to demonstrate his tuberculosis vaccine, he may reveal his secret.

"On my return from Canada," the doctor is quoted by his secretary as saying, "I shall deliver accurate and scientific lectures on the preparation and application of the vaccine. These lectures will be delivered before medical bodies."

Dr. Friedmann may also find Bellevue Hospital, the largest of city hospitals, opened to him for further demonstrations here when he returns. Dr. John P. Anderson, director of the hygienic laboratory of the public health service, has opened negotiations with the directors of Bellevue for the admission of Dr. Friedmann. This institution would provide a larger variety of cases than any other, it was explained. While the decision of the Bellevue authorities is pending, the Montefiore Home has decided to open its doors to Dr. Friedmann, and it was said he has accepted the welcome and will treat patients there. Mount Sinai Hospital, where Dr. Friedmann conducted tests for the Federal Health authorities, will, however, be first visited by Dr. Friedmann upon his return.

The hospital has given notice that all fresh cases of tuberculosis of the joints or glands—meaning cases which have not been operated upon—will be treated without fee under the auspices of the public health service.

STEVEDORE'S FOREMAN BLAMED FOR EXPLOSION

"I'll Move That Box or Blow Up the Ship" He is Declared to Have Said

Baltimore, Md., March 12.—Norris Price, a stevedore, testifying before the coroner's jury investigating the blowing up of the dynamite ship Alum Chige last Friday, declared that William Bomhardt, assistant foreman of the stevedores, was responsible for a first explosion which preceded the destruction of the boat.

Becoming angered at the manner in which the men were working, Bomhardt, according to the witness, muttered an oath, grabbed a cotton hook from a stevedore and swung it into a box of dynamite.

"There was a small explosion," said Price. "It sounded like a pistol shot, and then I saw smoke issuing from the hatchway. I did not stop to see any more, but jumped overboard."

The witness said the second explosion took place ten minutes later. Contradicting the testimony given last night by Capt. Ansley of the Alum Chine, Price said that the cargo of coal was first palced in the holds, planking laid on top without air space between and the dynamite boxes were piled on the planking. Capt. Ansley was called to the stand and denied this.

CAPT. BILL MC DONALD NORTH TEXAS MARSHAL

Washington, March 12.—Senators Culberson and Sheppard agreed on Capt. Bill McDonald of Quanah for United States Marshal for the Northern District of Texas, to succeed United States Marshal Green of Dallas.

EXTRA SESSION MAY BE DELAYED

UNDERWOOD ASKS PRESIDENT WILSON TO POSTPONE IT A WEEK

CONSIDER ONLY TARIFF

Not Likely Any Other Subjects Will be Considered—Committee Will Need More Time

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—President Wilson was urged today by Representative Oscar Underwood of the Democratic House leader to postpone the date of the extra session of Congress at least one week. As a result of Mr. Underwood's suggestion recently, the president had fixed April 1 as the date. Mr. Underwood today advised the president that the ways and means committee would require more time in preparing the new tariff bill.

Inasmuch as Mr. Wilson has said he would be guided by the counsel of House leaders it was regarded as practically certain today that the new Congress would not convene before April 7 or 8. Mr. Underwood discussed with the president the advisability of including anything more than the tariff in his first message.

Issue Proclamation Today.
The proclamation calling the new Congress probably will be submitted to the cabinet today. It is expected to point out that the extra session is for the purpose of revising the tariff alone. Mr. Underwood today assured the president that House leaders would be able to confine the attention of Congress to that subject although several Democrats interested in other legislative matters are anxious to have them considered before the regular session in December.

Mr. Underwood said the Democratic caucus will decide whether the tariff shall be revised in one bill or each schedule be taken up separately.

CHARGES FOLLOW THAW'S ALLEGED BRIBERY PLAN

Superintendent of State Prisons of New York Declines to Resign When Asked

Albany, N. Y., March 12.—Gov. William Sulzer, who, since his inauguration, has had differences with Col. James F. Scott, superintendent of State prisons, has demanded that Scott resign. The latter refused and as a result will have to face charges which will be brought against him. Under the Constitution the superintendent may be removed by the governor upon charges, after an opportunity has been given him to be heard.

The friction between the governor and Col. Scott, it is said, when Scott refused to resign, Charles F. Rattigan, a member of the Democratic State committee, as warden of Auburn prison. Then came the Thaw bribery scandal, which included charges against the prison department and in which Gov. Sulzer's name was mentioned without his authority, the governor said.

Col. Scott, who is well known throughout the country as a prison official, was appointed to his present position by Gov. Dix.

MANY INDIANS JOIN CARRANZA'S REBEL FORCE

Are Being Stirred Up by Governor's Emissaries and May Take Part in Uprising

Monterey, March 12.—Federal troops are reported to have driven a large body of Carranzistas back toward Musquiz, after a fight on Sunday at San Salvador Bonavide, in Coahuila.

Envoys are said to be spreading the rebel propaganda among Kikatsik Kickapoo Indians, many of whom are flocking to Carranza's standard.

Gen. Trucy Aubert, with a column of Federal troops, has advanced to Baratoran, sixty miles north of Monclova, and it is expected that he will attack Carranza's men at Musquiz shortly.

The city council of Torreon has been removed from office owing to the support given by its members to Madero. It has been replaced by a commission empowered by the government to use all available means for the pacification of the city and the surrounding country.

Gen. Manuel Blazquez has been named Military Governor of Coahuila.

ENJOINS COMMISSION IN CONTROL OF PIPE LINES

Commerce Court Grants Preliminary Order to Test Constitutionality of Recent Ruling

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—The commerce court today granted preliminary injunction restraining the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission in what are known as the pipe line cases. The constitutionality of the Interstate Commerce law as applied to all pipe lines in question.

BRYAN'S BIBLE CLASS ATTRACTS YOUNG MEN.

Washington, March 12.—Secretary of State Bryan has been invited to take charge of the young men's Bible class in the First Presbyterian church Sunday school and in consequence the membership of the class is going up by leaps and bounds.

Mr. Bryan has not yet accepted, but the pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. Donald McLeod, believes that he will do so.

The secretary of state long has been interested in church matters and has had a decided leaning toward the Sunday school. He is a personal friend of Dr. McLeod, who is urging him to undertake the work.

ALAMO CASE TO BE TRIED AGAIN

SUPREME COURT GRANTS WRIT OF ERROR IN D. R. T. CONTROVERSY

DALLAS CASE REVERSED

Former Tax Assessor Who Failed to Make Report Will be Given New Trial

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, March 12.—Application for a writ of error was allowed today by the supreme court in the Alamo case, which has created no little attention recently, both in the Legislature and courts. The affair remains unsettled by action of the Legislature. The House and Senate find no common agreement.

The daughters of the Republic were granted an injunction restraining the superintendent of public buildings and grounds from interfering with them. They lost in the lower courts.

Dallas Case Reversed.

On the definition of official misconduct the court of criminal appeals today reversed the case of James Bolton of Dallas county. Bolton was tax assessor of Dallas county on December 1, 1911 and failed to make report showing the fees collected by him as required by law. He was found guilty in the Dallas county court and fined $100.

The court held today that the county court had no jurisdiction in cases of this nature and ordered the case reversed and remanded to the district court.

CLOSING OF MINE FORCES MANY OUT OF WORK.

Eagle Pass, Texas, March 12.—A train load of railroad employes arrived here at 6 o'clock last evening from Monclova and other points. They report everything quiet at Monclova, and that Gen. Aubert's forces have apparently returned south. The suspension of traffic will force many coal mines to shut down and throw over three thousand miners out of employment. It is feared that this will result in many of the miners joining the revolution or in the formation of small bands of looters. The streets of Eagle Pass today resemble a large city on circus day.

WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT HEARS DISQUIETING NEWS.

Washington, March 12.—Dispatches to the war department indicate a serious condition at Piedras Negras where the forces under Governor Carranza appear to be in full control, general Aubert, with federal cavalry, is reported near Monclova. The railroad near Piedras Negras has been abandoned by the central government and Carranza is trying to operate the line by impressing discharged employees. Inhabitants of Piedras Negras fear the town may be destroyed. It is reported that Carranza intends to take part of his force to Cuatro Ciénegas.

DERRICK ON BYWATERS WELL IS DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed a derrick belonging to John Dyson, drilling on Producers No. 14 Bywaters. The derrick and rig were almost a total loss, but the fire was confined to the rig. The cause of the fire was not learned.

KIRBY ANSWERS BAILEY ARTICLE

BITTERLY ASSAILS MAGAZINE WHICH CRITICISED FORMER TEXAS SENATOR

DR. FRIEDMANN INVITED

Tuberculosis Cure May be Tested in Texas—Senate Confirms Several Appointments

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, March 12.—Representative John Henry Kirby today in a plea of personal privilege denounced in the bitterest terms, stories carried in the current issue of the Cosmopolitan, copies of which had appeared on the desks of members. Mr. Kirby declared:

"The inference from this publication is that I corrupted a United States senator. I cannot sit silently here when a charge involving such infamy is being read by members of this body. I have never corrupted nor attempted to corrupt, at any time or in any place, any man in either public or private life."

Denying that he had personal interests in legislation, he told the story of his employment of former Senator Joseph Bailey, referred to in the Cosmopolitan. He said that in 1901 he went to New York to look after Texas development projects. He found himself in the hands of an unscrupulous man and he needed help. He telegraphed Senator Bailey to meet him in New York, because he needed a fearless lawyer.

Says Bailey Not Rich.
"Senator Bailey came; the Kirby company paid Mr. Bailey $15,000 and not $225,000 as charged by the colossal liar who writes for this dirty, muck-raking magazine."

Mr. Kirby denied the charges that Mr. Bailey is now a multimillionaire saying that he is on his notes and knows what he is worth.

After the Kirby plea of personal privilege the House simmered down and work was done in a hurry. At the instance of Mr. Kennedy a resolution was adopted inviting Dr. Friedmann with his tuberculosis serum tests to come to Texas.

The action of Representative Ross in refusing to def his hat while smoking in the House, evidently bore fruit, for Mangum and others introduced a resolution which was referred to the rules committee, providing that there shall be no more smoking in the House in the future.

The Senate spent most of the morning in executive session confirming recent appointments which Governor Colpitt has made with the advice and consent of the Senate. Appointments on the state insurance board have not been confirmed.

The Cosmopolitan Article.
The article to which Mr. Kirby referred appeared in the April issue of the Cosmopolitan. It was written by Alfred Henry Lewis, a well known political writer, under the title, "The Hon. (7) J. W. Bailey." That part of it which brings in Mr. Kirby's name, follows:

"The records indicate that Bailey cast other bread upon the golden waters, always to see it return after not too many days. There was one Kirby of the Houston Oil Company and the Kirby Lumber Company. The latter Kirby took the Austin witness stand and told how, in a mere handful of months, under one head or another, he paid Bailey, tired of being poor and rapidly amending his condition, a round $225,000 and still owed a substantial publisher's money."

Un, had made a feast of his good fortune and bought the Grapevine ranch, a $250,000 proposition and was eagerly acquiring trotting horses."

The article is in the nature of a review of Bailey's career in the national Senate, and contains very little of a complimentary nature. It deals in detail with the legislative investigation at Austin in 1906, after Bailey had been re-elected to the Senate. In summing up Bailey's services to the State and Nation, the article says:

"There is no law on the statute books which can be called better because of Bailey. What little he contributed to legislation was obviously bad."

ESCAPED CONVICT HAS BEEN LOCATED IN OKLAHOMA.

Denton, Texas, March 12.—Ed Goss, who was given a ninety-nine year sentence here in August, 1910 on a plea of guilty to first degree murder, and who subsequently escaped from the penitentiary, has been found in Oklahoma, according to a telegram received here today.

Goss was indicted in Cooke county for the murder of Henry Davis, whose body was burned in an effort to destroy evidence.

New York, March 11.—Down on Manhattan-Isle along Riverside Drive or Fifth Avenue, the wives and daughters of the rich have their afternoon stroll. And as each ambles along she holds in her hand the nearest end of a chain. It is quite the mode in New York now; the further end of the chain has a dog on it. To appear un-dogged, so to speak, while taking a constitutional along an avenue in Gotham would mean a social setback for the offender. Such is the dictum of Dame Fashion.

Select a dog that becomes you—that's the idea. Young, slim, slender, maidens should wear "swear," of course, but exercise young, slender dogs. Such as a greyhound or a Russian Wolfhound. Old fat maidens should be with old fat dogs—a crusty old bull or pug would do. New York society leaders give as much thought and care to the selection of a becoming dog as they do their hats. It is a terrible "laux pas" to appear two days in succession with the same dog—almost as bad as to appear with no dog at all.

The many fashionable little millinery shops, florists shops and antique shops along Fifth Avenue are making the "dogroom" one of the features of their establishments. The beautifully gowned ladies—whose hands work hard and almost worry themselves sick in order to make ends meet, but that's another story—these ladies step in to look at a perfect "duck" of a hat at only $350 and "Princess" or "Fido" must be looked after. The shop-keepers are going to a lot of pains to make the dear purple feel at home.

We have heard it said that such and such a line of work was a dog's life. We don't believe we'd mind this in Gotham.

Albert Sidney Burlison, Texan, The New Postmaster General

The new postmaster general, Albert Sidney Burlison of Austin, Texas, was born June 7, 1863, at San Marcos, Texas; was educated at Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, Baylor University of Waco, and University of Texas; was admitted to the bar in 1884; was made assistant City Attorney of Austin which office he held from 1885 to 1889; in 1891 was appointed by Governor James S. Hogg as prosecuting attorney for the Twenty-Sixth Judicial District of Texas, to which office he was afterwards elected successively from 1892 to 1896; in 1898 was elected to the Fifty-sixth Congress, to succeed Hon. Joseph D. Sayers, who was elected Governor of Texas; was successively re-elected to the Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses, each time without opposition in his own party.

During his service in Congress Mr. Burlison has held places on the following important committees: Census, agricultural, foreign affairs and in at present the ranking Democrat on appropriations, with one exception (ways and means) the most important committee of Congress.

In recognition of the esteem in which he is held and the sacrifice that he made for his exuberant record of the membership of the Democratic House and also because of his fitness for the place, Mr. Burlison was made chairman of the Democratic caucus. At the organization of the last Congress was urged for chairman of appropriations or agriculture committees, but in order to avoid friction and discord, stepped aside and yielded the honors to others.

Albert Sidney Burlison is the son of Major Edward Burlison who served with distinction in the Confederate States army throughout the war between the States, and the grandson of General Edward Burlison, who commanded the volunteer forces of the Texan army at the Battle of San Jacinto, April 21, 1836, when the Texans defeated the Mexicans in the Lone Star Republic its independence and freedom from the tyranny of Mexico.

Both General Burlison and his son served in the war between the United States and Mexico.

General Burlison was Vice President of the Republic of Texas in 1847 when David Burnett was President. He was a candidate for President of the Republic of Texas in 1844 as an annexationist, and Dr. Anson Jones was the opposing candidate as an anti-annexationist, that being the issue of the campaign. Dr. Jones was elected by 1026 votes. However, the sentiment was so strong in favor of annexation that after he became President he sent a message to the Texas Congress advocating its adoption.

In 1848 General Burlison was elected State Senator and was made president of the Senate, which office he held at the date of his death, when he was 51 years of age.

At the outbreak of the war between the States, Mr. Burlison's father, Major Edward Burlison, was captain of the Texas Ranger force, in the State service, at the same time that General Robert E. Lee was commander of the United States forces at Fort Mason, Texas, and co-operate with General Lee in the protection of the frontier. Like General Lee, he was a Union man, opposed to secession; however, after the articles of secession were adopted, Major Burlison accepted a commission as major under General Henry E. McCulloch in the Confederate States army, and served throughout the war between the States.

Major Burlison was a member of the constitutional convention that framed the present constitution of Texas.

Dr. Rufus C. and Dr. Richard J. Burlison were cousins of Major Burlison, Mr. Burlison's father; they were the founders of Baylor University, the first educational institution established in Texas. Dr. Rufus Burlison was president of the university for over 40 years, and Dr. Richard B. Burlison was dean of the faculty for many years.

Mr. Burlison's great-grandfather James Burlison, was captain in the Creek Indian wars in Tennessee and also served in the war of 1812 and was a friend of Andrew Jackson.

Mr. Burlison has placed on the statute books a number of important laws. Foremost among the industries to feel the impulse of Mr. Burlison's efforts should be placed cotton. A the most important product of his section, it is natural that he should have begun early to consider its needs.

He inaugurated the campaign against the boll weevil, and his initial legislation was an appropriation of $35,000 with which to investigate the pest. Later he succeeded in raising this to $250,000, which has now become a permanent feature in the annual appropriation bill. This fund had made possible demonstration farms throughout the South, where the advantages of diversification are shown, soil conditions studied and experiments made looking to the betterment of cotton seed, the preparation of new varieties and their selection for particular localities according to climate and other conditions.

Through Mr. Burlison's efforts a uniform standard of cotton has been provided by law, which enables every

TILLMAN SCORES OFFICE SEEKERS

HUNGRY Hordes at Washington are criticized sharply by Senator

QUOTES FROM SCRIPTURE

Washington, March 11.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina today showed his displeasure at the persistence of hundreds of office-seekers who have flocked to the capital since the inauguration. With characteristic vigor, he condemned the scramble for jobs, and said the situation reminded him of a Bible text. He said: "I have forgotten where in the Holy Writ I read it, but it fits the case exactly and runs something as follows: 'The wild asses of the desert are athirst and hungry; they have broken into the green corn.' The senator recalled that the text contained a reference to the wild asses trampling down the corn, but he said he would leave that out. He added he had full faith in President Wilson, as a "herdsman who would keep the wild beasts from doing any damage."

Clouds and Sunshine.

To the Editor of the Times: Mr. President Taft in his jolly good nature, reminds one of the unusually bright big fat boy. His administration has passed into history with its achievements and mistakes. Though entirely of another school of politics, the writer genuinely regrets that in the very last hours of his administration, Ex-President Taft was influenced to put a shadow on his own ending career as President. That he did that for any thing, is beyond all shadow of doubt, when he vetoed the Webb interstate shipment of liquor bill.

There was a general feeling, when the Webb bill passed both Houses, that it was safe in the hands of the President, but the general public did not wisely figure on the influences that were to play upon him to prevent his approval of the measure. When it became known that the bill had been referred to Ex-Attorney General Wickesham for an opinion as to its constitutionality, there was grave fear in the minds of those who knew the alignments and sympathies of the attorney general that he would do just as he did—give an opinion that the measure was unconstitutional. In other words, if Mr. Wickesham had been continued in office, he would be in the attitude of having rendered judgment against a measure, that the law would have made it his duty to uphold before the supreme court, in case the measure reached that court. Thoughtful people of all political parties deeply deplore the fact that Ex-President Taft cast a shadow over himself almost at the very hour when he was taking his leave of the White House.

The sunshine of the whole situation was the quick work done by both the Senate and Congress in passing the Webb bill over Mr. Taft's veto. In the Senate, which first acted on the veto, within three hours, the vote was 23 to 21. In the House, the vote was 216 to 95. Those who find interest in keeping track of such events, say that no such record was ever made by Congress in so short a time. Stalwart men in both Houses asserted their moral conviction, which happily, is in perfect accord with the overwhelming moral conviction of the entire country. Many a man who voted to pass the measure over Mr. Taft's veto did it with a pain of regret, because without reference to party alignments, they personally liked the Ex-President.

The meaning of this whole matter is, that the time is out for public officials to daily with the moral sentiment of the country. It also furnishes a happy forecast of what will be the policies of the Wilson administration. Humanitarian considerations, the law of justice and equity, are to characterize the policies of our government in the future, as they have not for more than a half century. From this time forward, the dollar will have to take a back seat, and humanity with its varied interests, is to have first consideration. The government that best safeguards the life, health, and morals of its citizenship is the best and most prosperous government beneath the sun. Big business interests are going to be treated right, but are going to be denied the right to make merchandise of humanity, in order to increase their already fabulous wealth. Because he threw a shadow over his own executive career, right at its close, the American people have said "good night, Mr. Taft" and in the golden sunshine of a new day, have said "good morning, President Wilson."

RAILROAD-BUILDING IN OKLAHOMA MORE ACTIVE

Several New Lines are Being Surveyed and Construction Prospects are Good

Guthrie, Okla., March 11.—Offering a substantial bonus and the free right of way, citizens of Beaver the old town in Oklahoma—are asking the Santa Fe to extend the line down to Beaver from Englewood, Kan. The line would be built through Oiler, Kan., and Forgan, Okla., to Beaver, putting this town on the railroad map for the first time. Attempts were made to get the Wichita Falls and Northwestern to build into Beaver last fall, but instead the road went to the northward and Forgan was established. The road would penetrate the fertile valleys of the Cimarron and Beaver Rivers.

The surveyors are busy on the route of the Ringling road west from Ardmore and Waurike, and during the past week worked between Chattanooga and Snyder in Comanche and Kiowa counties, respectively. The plan is to build on west from Snyder through Hobart and Roger Mills county to Canadian, Texas, and thence northwest through the Texas Panhandle country to Gayton and Boise City, Okla., and thence into Colorado, crossing the Santa Fe's coast line seventy-five miles east of Lamaha and on to Denver. This is the system outlined yesterday by Col. Jake L. Hanson of Lawton, former Republican State chairman and resident representative of the Ringling Press, who are financing the few road.

MINISTER SAYS POLICE TOLD HIM TO GO TO HELL

Maryland Pastor is Witness at Investigation of Suffrage Parade Disorder

By Associated Press. Washington, March 11.—At the suffrage parade investigation today, James Mythern, a clergyman of Baltimore who marched in the Maryland division, said the marchers were forced to go in single file and that they were greeted all along the line by jeers, shouts and obscene remarks. He gave the numbers of several persons who he said neglected to keep back the crowd.

One officer to whom he complained he said, told him to "go hell." Dr. Mythern said the police generally had become a part of the crowd and did nothing to restrain those who insulted the marchers. He said he had been told that Mary Melvin, a distinguished girl who led in the parade, had been pulled out of line by rowdies and that her guide had difficulty in regaining her.

CHARRED BODY IS FOUND IN RUINS OF RESIDENCE

House Not Occupied at Time of Fire, and Mystery of Affair is Unolved

San Antonio, Texas, March 11.—Mystery surrounds the finding of a charred body of a man in the ruins of L. S. Spencer's home on South Press street, which was destroyed by fire early today. Mr. Spencer, owner of the house, is an extra man in the fire department and was not home last night. His wife and child are in Houston visiting relatives.

The body was burned beyond recognition. Strapped about it was a belt to which was attached a scabbard containing a 38-caliber revolver. The police are investigating.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TO GO TO LEGISLATURE

Two Vacancies in Lower House are Filled by Boys Now Pursuing Their Studies

By Associated Press. Marshall, Texas, March 11.—Myron G. Blalock of this city, a student at the State University, was elected to the Legislature yesterday, succeeding Representative Killingsworth, who died of meningitis. Blalock defeated his opponent, J. R. Wilson, ten to one.

F. G. TILLER SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE AT LOCKHART.

By Associated Press. Lockhart, Texas, March 11.—The election of F. L. Tiller a State University student to the House of Representatives in yesterday's election is indicated by a large majority, from nearly complete returns. He succeeds Representative McNeil, who died of meningitis. Tiller is in the State University law department and expects to resume his studies after adjournment.

Dr. Friedman Treats 18

By Associated Press. New York, March 8.—Seventeen tubercular patients were treated by Dr. Fred Friedman late this afternoon with the vaccine, which he claims is a cure for tuberculosis at a private clinic today. Earlier it had been announced that there would be no clinic until Dr. Friedman had met government officials who were on their way from Washington.

ANSTRIA WANTS FORCE RECALLED

OBJECTS TO SERVIA'S PENDING REINFORCEMENTS TO MONTENEGRINS

By Associated Press. Belgrade, March 11.—The Austrian government today took a step regarded as equivalent to forbidding Serbia from sending troops to assist the Montenegrins in capturing the Turkish fortress of Scutari.

The Austrian minister to Serbia informed Serbia that his government objected to the Serbian troops assisting in the siege. He requested immediate recall of any Serbian troops which may have been sent to Scutari. Serbia replied she was compelled to assist her allies. The situation is regarded as extremely critical.

REQUEST IS NOT GRANTED

Jeffersonville, Ind., March 10.—After several postponements the John Fritz murder case was finally called for in the Clark circuit court today for its second trial. Among the witnesses summoned to testify are ten or twelve prisoners from the Indiana reformatory here. Fritz, while an inmate of the reformatory, is alleged to have assaulted and killed a guard, Hiram B. Mihwille, because the latter had reported him for refusal to work. The killing occurred on November 21, 1911. At the first trial Fritz was found guilty and sentenced to hang, but a reprieve was granted by Governor Marshall and late a new trial was granted by the State supreme court. At the time of the alleged murder Fritz was serving a term for grand larceny. One of his brothers is also in the reformatory and his father is serving a life sentence in the State prison at Michigan City.

C. O. D. PACKAGES BY PARCELS POST

GOVERNMENT ADDS NEW FEATURE FOR BENEFIT OF PATRONS

LIKE EXPRESS BUSINESS

Bundles May Not be Refused, However, After Consignee Has Opened Them

Postmaster O. T. Bacon has received from the Department at Washington a copy of order No. 6888, amending the parcel post regulations by the addition of a provision that provides parcels on which the postage has been paid may be sent collect on delivery. A fee of ten cents is charged provided the amount does not exceed $10.

Merchants here believe the innovation will greatly extend the usefulness of the parcel post to them and a number are making preparations to use the government service much more extensively.

The sender of a C. O. D. parcel will be given a receipt showing the office and date of mailing, the number of his parcel and the amount due him.

A C. O. D. parcel will be accepted for mailing only at a money order office and then addressed to a money order office.

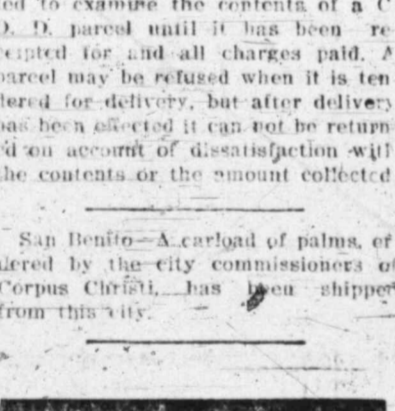

If a C. O. D. parcel is received at a non-money order office the postmaster will notify the office of mailing of the amount of postage required for its return. The postmaster at the office of mailing will ascertain from the sender whether he desires the parcel returned or delivered without collection of the charges. If the sender notifies him in writing that the parcel may be delivered without collecting the charges he will attach the order to the office copy and notify the postmaster at the office of address to that effect.

The C. O. D. tag issued to the sender will show the amount due him, the money order, if necessary, to make the remittance and the total amount to be collected. It is to be attached to the parcel, which will be numbered to correspond with the tag, stamped C. O. D. and the charges to be collected written thereon. The parcel will be treated as ordinary mail until it reaches the office of address, where, on payment of all charges, it will be delivered to the addressee, or, unless otherwise directed by the addressee to the person, firm, or corporation in whose care it is addressed, or to any responsible person to whom the addressee's ordinary mail is customarily delivered. A receipt for the parcel will be obtained on the tag attached thereto. The receipted tag will be considered as the addressee's application for a money order for the amount due the sender. A money order will then be issued, stamped C. O. D. and mailed to the sender in a penny envelope by the postmaster, who will enter on the tag the number of the money order, the amount and date of issue and file it with other money order applications. No return receipt will be furnished the sender, as the money order serves that purpose.

The addressee will not be permitted to examine the contents of a C. O. D. parcel until it has been receipted for and all charges paid. A parcel may be refused when it is tendered for delivery, but after delivery has been effected it can not be returned on account of dissatisfaction with the contents or the amount collected.

farmer to know the grade of his product and to obtain its market value. He secured the legislation providing for the ginners' reports and also for more accurate estimates of the annual yield of cotton, so that it is now known with reasonable certainty how much cotton is annually planted, produced, exported, consumed by spinners or being held for future use. Thus the efficiency of the governmental statistical work has been materially increased, the trade supplied with accurate and reliable statistics on the production and consumption of cotton, which makes for stability of prices, the ascertainment of the true value of the product and greatly diminishes the evil influences of the professional cotton estimators and gamblers.

In obedience to a resolution introduced by Mr. Burlison the government recently investigated the speculative cotton exchanges. Three years ago he started his fight against gambling in futures on these exchanges, which has resulted in a bill now before Congress.

In addition to his work along agricultural lines, Mr. Burlison secured a large appropriation for deepening the channel of the Brazos River, which runs through his district, and as a member of the committee on appropriations has been in a position to safeguard the passage of many bills drawn in the interest of his State. He secured the reburialment of Texas by the National government to the extent of $400,000 expended by the State for frontier defense during the Indian wars from 1855 to 1869 and the enactment of a law placing on the pension roll all Texas Rangers who aided in that defense during that period.

In addition to the long list of actual services, many of which have received no mention, rendered to his State, the South and, in agricultural matters, to the entire country, Mr. Burlison has shown himself a master of legislative tactics, an astute politician and a leader of men. As the mediator between the insurgent Republicans and the Democrats he brought about their coalition and organized the fight against Cannonism, which so far has resulted in removing the Speaker from the committee on rules. When Mr. Cannon dared the members of the House to declare his office vacant, it was Mr. Burlison who promptly accepted the challenge, and, through his courage and understanding of the situation, turned the occasion into a victory for the Democrats by forcing the Republicans on a record vote to again endorse Cannonism.

COURT WILL NOT ORDER ELECTION

ELECTRA CANNOT VOTE ON PROHIBITION UNTIL SEPTEMBER, 1914

DELAY IN PUBLICATION

Result of Last Vote Not Published Until Last Fall, and Two Years Must Elnapse

The county commissioners today refused to order a local option election in Precinct No. 4, in which is located the town of Electra, because two years have not elapsed since the publication of the result of the local option election held there more than two years ago. In that election the drys won but through an oversight the results of the election were not published until last September and the sale of liquor there did not become a felony under the law until after the local publication was made.

The vets at Electra have recently been agitating a local option election. A petition was presented to the court yesterday bearing over 100 signatures asking that an election be ordered. The court declined to do so, being advised that an election could not be called legally until two years from the date of publication declaring the result of the election had elapsed. Under this ruling the vets cannot call an election until September, 1914.

WILSON DOESN'T LIKE TO DRESS UP SO OFTEN

Washington, March 11.—With the Wilson administration just a week old today, those who frequent the White House are recounting the Democratic conduct of the new president. He works every day in a gray business suit. Mr. Taft wore a cutaway—much of the time and occasionally a lark blue suit. Mr. Roosevelt favored a dark cutaway. President Wilson has been wearing gray suits for the last two years and it is only on a day when he is preparing to attend a formal ceremony that he abandons his business suit.

The series of afternoon formalities with the diplomatic corps and the various judicial bodies have inconvenienced the president somewhat because he has found it necessary to change to formal dress in the middle of the day.

Statistics show that one-third of all the children born of parents after they have reached the age of 41 die before they are a year old. On the other hand, the mortality rate of children born of parents between the ages of 21 and 30 years is only 8 per cent. That's a sound reason for marrying young.

When you work yourself up to that point where you think the troubles you have are entirely too many and burdensome, just think how much worse it would be if you were a citizen of a country that is ruled by the hands-of-assassins—Mexico.

Some of the friends of Otto Stehlik are urging him to allow the use of his name as a candidate for one of three aldermen to be elected on Tuesday, the first day of April. He is young, active, enterprising, and will always be found ready and willing to do anything that will advance the interests of Wichita Falls. As one of his friends, the Times would like to see him elected to one of the three positions, and trusts he will become a candidate.

The American branch of the Scott Memorial Fund are sending out appeals for donations, and among other notices, ask the Times to give publicity to the following:

Admiral Robert E. Peary has consented to become President of the American branch of the Scott Memorial Fund and Clarence H. Mackay, vice president. Henry Clews of 15 Broad Street, New York, the Treasurer of the fund announces the receipt of donations amounting to $1,500 including $100 from Captain Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole. The American Fund is working in co-operation with the Mansion House Fund to provide a fitting memorial to brave men whose names are honored equally on both sides of the Atlantic. Not merely England but all humanity, it is felt, is richer for the example of the Antarctic Heroes. Most of the money needed for the Scott Memorial will be raised, of course, by the following of the dead men, but the American Scott Committee hopes to collect $100,000 in the United States as an American contribution. To accomplish this Admiral Peary appeals with confidence. "The world," he says, "in his appeal for donations, needed the example of Scott and his dead comrades as future generations will need ours. The world is giving to the cause and the United States should not be left behind." Mr. Henry Clews, treasurer, emphasized today that the appeal was not one to a few millionaires and that he would be just as glad to welcome the small as the big subscriptions.

Thirty-four of the forty delegates that represented Texas at the Baltimore convention, have presented direct to President Wilson a strong protest against the manner Texas congressmen are discriminating against applicants for federal office who were for Wilson from start to finish, in favor of reactionaries, or those who were against Wilson. This protest says that only four of the sixteen Texas congressmen were for Wilson, and that it is an injustice to allow them to distribute the plums to their friends and punish those who did not agree proper to follow their (the congressmen's) advice in selecting a Democrat as presidential candidate. Texas Democrats were overwhelmingly for Wilson, he having carried the state over the combined opposition of all other candidates with plenty to spare, and Mr. Wilson, now that he is President, is under no obligations to those congressmen who do not all in their power to throw the vote of the state against him. Had they succeeded in their purpose, and Texas sent a Clark, Harmon or Underwood delegation to Baltimore, who can doubt but that Wilson would have been defeated. His friends in this State deserve, at the very least, fair consideration in the distribution of the offices, and the Times believes that those of our congressmen who fail and refuse to view the matter in that light will utterly fail in their purpose—that of discriminating against Wilson's friends—those who were his friends when he most needed them.

NO LAW OF PRIMOGENITURE

Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee has made this statement: "The law of primogeniture has been cultivated in the world at large. There is no more reason why it should survive in the United States than in any other place. The house has found a way to break-up the inheritance system in regard to committee chairmanships, and you can judge for yourself whether the senate is likely to do the same thing." Referring to Senator Lea's statement the Baltimore Sun says: "There is no ground in this for any surprise, any alarm, any discord. No one is to be thrust aside summarily whose superior ability and experience entitles him to leadership. The only law which is sought to be put into effect in congress is the law which prevails in the whole world—outside—the law of superior merit—and if that be true to the people or to the democratic party. And we do not believe after they have considered the matter carefully, that any 'senior' senators will attempt to create dissension over an issue that the people have already practically settled."—Bryan's Commoner.

The Times is informed by County Judge Felder that the notice of result of the Burk Burnett local option election was prepared and sent the local paper of that place in due time to have been published last week, but that owing to a rush of other work the notice was delayed for one week, and will appear in this week's issue. This delay, however, does not effect the enforcement of the law, and the penalty for bootlegging will not be reduced to a misdemeanor by failure of publication for one week. The law used to be that publication of the result of such elections had to be published within twenty days after such elections were held, but has been changed, and now the only effect delay of publication could have is to delay enforcement of the law until after it is made. No blame for this short-delay can be taxed up to Judge Felder, as he used all diligence in the matter. The fault, if any, is with the local paper at Burk Burnett, and it is quite likely that the failure to publish the first week after receipt could not have been avoided.

A stock law election for Commissioners precinct No. 1, has been ordered for Thursday, March 27th, and there will only be one voting place for that election, which will be at the court house. The election pertains to stock running at large. If it carries, all stock will have to be kept within enclosures, and will not be allowed to run at large. Only freeholders, who are otherwise qualified voters will be permitted to vote at this election. Inasmuch as there is considerable complaint on account of stock being permitted to run at large, the Times believes that to adopt a law that will make it compulsory upon the part of owners to keep their stock within enclosures in order to prevent them from doing injury to crops and property of other people will result in general good, and it is therefore favorable to the adoption of a law that will bring this result about.

The slight rain of yesterday and last night served to lay the dust in the city and cause rain to illuminate the faces of what farmers. Crops were needing rains, and to make anything like a good yield, must have more rain than has yet fallen. This may be the raining of a wet spell, and there is nothing that helps crops in this section of country more than an abundance of rain during the months of March and April.

What is left of the Madero family has quit Mexico for good. This is the most sensible thing they ever did.

CONSTITUTION AND THE KATY CONSOLIDATION BILL

It is an elected knight of the Constitution of course, that Attorney General Looney seeks to nullify the act of the Legislature permitting the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Company of Texas to operate and manage its own property. Having expressed the opinion previously to its passage that the bill would be unconstitutional, doubtless Mr. Looney conceives that his oath of office requires him to attack that measure in the courts. Also, we can readily imagine, he has been somewhat incited to that course by a sense of wounded vanity; for the Legislature, in passing that measure after Mr. Looney had told it that it would be unconstitutional, manifested no very great confidence in the opinion of the State's Attorney General.

But the Constitution may appreciate the gallant devotion of its chosen champion and at the same time devoutly pray that he will be defeated in his enterprise. For if the Constitution forbids the doing of something that is in every respect so sensible and advantageous to the interests of this State, then the people of Texas will have an additional reason of no little gravity for wishing that the Constitution were in limbo. They are apt, in that case, to think that our Constitution is not only venerable, but also senile. By succeeding in the courts Mr. Looney might indeed prove that he has a truer knowledge of the Constitution than the Legislature credited him with having, but he would likewise prove that the Constitution is a greater obstacle to the progress of this State than even some of its critics have allowed. We doubt if there is a creed of reverence for the Constitution outside the circle of those to whom its ambiguities and mysteries supply a professional and profitable occupation; and if now it is proved that it forbids the doing of something so essentially just and sensible as this Katy merger, then there will be a large number of citizens who profess no higher intellectual endowment than the possession of common sense whose lack of reverence will degenerate into something akin to contempt for the Constitution. Although animated by a sense of gallantry and although acting as a friend of the Constitution, Mr. Looney is pursuing a course which, if it succeeds, can only bring the Constitution into disrepute.

This Katy consolidation bill may be unconstitutional. Experience admonishes common-sense to mark no limits for the follies of the Constitution. But if this measure is unconstitutional, then the reproach will be, not on the measure, but on the Constitution. The Constitution, like individuals, has frequent occasion to pray to be saved from the solicitude of its over-zealous friends.—Dallas News.

The National government has put into circulation about four million new nickels, and some of them are being paid out by the banks in this city.

The Wichita Times thinks all the new postmasters will favor a six-year presidential term—Houston Post.

Three aldermen are to be elected at the city election on the first Tuesday in April, which falls on the first day of the terms of Aldermen Reed, Young and Gardner expire at that time. As to whether these gentlemen who have served the city so well and faithfully will permit their names to go on the ticket for re-election the Times is not informed. At any rate, it is time to begin to cast around for new material in the event either or all three of them refuse to become candidates for re-election.

Owing to failure to publish the result of the recent local option election held at Burk Burnett, the penalty for bootlegging liquor is reduced from a penitentiary offense to fine and jail sentence. The Times understands the notice of the result was sent by the proper authorities to the local paper at Burk Burnett in ample time to have been published within the time limit, and on failure to appear in the first issue after the notice had been given the publisher, the publisher's attention was called to the omission, but failed to get the notice in the following issue of his paper. The time set for publication of the result of that election expires with today. The Times, of course, does not know of its own knowledge that the legal notice declaring the result, was ever prepared by the proper authorities and handed the publisher to be published, but gets its information on what it deems good authority. There is talk of holding another election in order to make bootlegging a penitentiary offense.

The Times is glad to announce that our city council has at last agreed upon a plan for the expenditure of the $12,000 worth of bonds voted several months ago for street lights, and on yesterday awarded a contract for the installation of ninety lamp-posts with a cluster of five electric lights to each post, which are for the business district, and what is left of the fund will be expended in installing arc and incandescent lights in the residence portion of the city. After these lights are installed it will cost the city $4200 per year to burn them on an all-night schedule. The only objectionable feature that could be pred against the action of the council is that there seems to be an inclination to include only that part of our streets that are paved as "being in the business district property, when" if the cluster lights were placed only on street corners, (one on each corner) the ninety cluster lamps could be made to cover all that portion of the business district from Sixth to Tenth streets and from Ohio to Lamar avenues. This would include all that portion of the city that is now included in the fire limits. That kind of arrangement, in the judgment of many tax-payers, would come nearer giving general satisfaction than if the lamps were placed thick-on some streets, while on others there would be none.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram carried on its front page Thursday the picture of a gallows on which the web of the spider had been spun, and which an unsmiling, rotten with age and covered with insects, dangled in the wind. It was a lesson, and a picture without words—impressive, instructive and striking. The Herald believes that a million copies of this picture should be made and scattered broadcast over the land. It would do good. We think the picture could be improved if there was a lawyer, bearing the name of Technically standing guard near the gallows, with a drawn sword. Understand, this would apply to some lawyers—not all, because Texas has an abundance of lawyers who would not do anything willingly to keep the noose from getting busy.—Denison Herald.

That certainly was a very, very suggestive cartoon—about the most impressive that has ever appeared in any Texas newspaper. The hip-pocket gentry are given entirely too much consideration by our laws, courts and juries. There is no record of any man ever having been wrongfully hung in this state for committing murder willfully, but there are hundreds of cases where they have managed to be legally acquitted. The insanity dodge is worked in some instances, where the crime is unusually atrocious; but the rouble seems to be that in most cases where insanity is pleaded, the man is allowed his freedom after acquittal. The place for insane people, or people who even plead insanity, is in an asylum.

Concerning the refusing of the Senate to confirm the appointment of Gov. Colquitt to be members of the State Fire Insurance Board, Worth S. Ray, a newspaper correspondent at Austin sends out the following: "It has leaked out that the Senate refused to confirm the appointment of the governor of Capt. Pollard and Wayne English on the State Fire Rating Board. By some it is charged that Captain Pollard, by reason of his long connection with insurance companies, takes a one-sided view of rate making and rate adjusting favorable to the companies and that he is the whole 'board' in effect. By others, principally those who are close to the Governor it is stated that action on these appointments was postponed because of the fact that a bill is pending to abolish and another to amend the present fire rating board law. It will be remembered by many that under this law as it was first enacted during the administration of Governor Campbell the insurance companies had the privilege of naming one of the members of the board and that in so doing they selected Captain Pollard, who is a veteran in the business, but whom the Governor refused to appoint to that position and demanded the selection of some one else. Later he was again selected and appointed by Governor Colquitt. It must be confessed that there is a strong prejudice existing against Captain Pollard as a member of the board, but while this is true it has never been charged that he acted other than with strict honesty in the enforcement of the law.

It is only, they say, that he has become so imbued with the 'insurance vision' that he cannot see the people's side so well as another might do. Whether this view is taken of the matter by members of the late Senate is not known. If so, this may account for the failure to confirm his appointment. If not, and the law remains unamended, it is not clear how Mr. Wilson could have made a better selection, considering Mr. Olney's record while secretary of state in Cleveland's

There is talk of the legislature adjourning on the 14th.

Only 119 tax-paying citizens took interest enough in the school bond election of yesterday to go to the polls and vote, but 117 of them voted for the bonds. It is believed the opposition polled its full strength.

The retiring president, on the eve of his departure from the big arm chair in the white house expressed his wonder that all good men were not Unitarians in religious belief. It was the same "wonder bump" which became excited when the returns of the late election came in. He wondered how it was that all good men were not republicans.—Temple Telegram.

Wichita Falls has organized a stock company for the purpose of holding an interstate fair at that place, in which parts of Oklahoma will participate. This means the thing will go through for Wichita Falls has a sure enough live Chamber of Commerce.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

And still there is great demand for more residences. The lack of them is Wichita Falls' greatest drawback. There is hardly any investment that will bring better interest than a few well constructed modern residences. There is not the least danger of having them stand idle.

Editor Wm. A. Bowen of the Arlington News, and also of the Farmers Fireside Bulletin, which is the official organ of the Farmers' Union for Texas and Louisiana, was in the city today, and honored the Times with a visit. Editor Bowen is one of the pioneer newspaper men of Texas, and is making a great success of his publications.

Press dispatches indicate that President Wilson meant just what he said when he gave it out that he would not grant audiences to those seeking office except on his own invitation. Even senators and congressmen who try to break over the rule and intercede for their friends are respectfully but firmly told to take the matter up directly with the heads of departments under which the applicants are seeking appointments.

Huerta, the president of Mexico, is nothing if not a tyrant, and late press dispatches indicate that even our American ambassador is approving his acts of assassination and murder. It may be that he is forced to do to protect Americans who are there, but if so, it is deplorable, and an evidence that he should be recalled. "Long live the president" is the cry in Mexico, and those who shout this do so seemingly without caring much who the despot is that happens to be the president.

In the passage of the Webb bill over ex-President Taft's veto, the prohibitionists have won a great victory. This bill, which soon will become a law, prohibits the shipment of intoxicating liquors into states that have adopted laws prohibiting the sale of liquor, or from one part of a state where liquor is legally sold into another part where its sale is prohibited. This is a sensible law, and one that will do much good.

We are told by the Richmond Times-Dispatch that there has never been a president of the United States who was a Baptist. That paper says there have been eight Episcopalians—Washington, Madison, Monroe, William Henry Harrison, Tyler, Taylor, Pierce and Arthur. Six Presbyterians—Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Lincoln, Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison, and Woodrow Wilson is the seventh of that faith. There have been four Methodists—Johnson, Grant, Hayes, McKinley. Both Van Buren and Roosevelt were adherents to the Dutch Reform Church. John Quincy Adams were Congregationalists, Fillmore, and Taft Unitarians, and Garfield a Disciple, making in all seven religious bodies that have been represented by our twenty-six presidents.

Judging from the way in which President Wilson has picked his cabinet, the fellows who were Wilson men from start to finish are not going to be left out in the cold. Their claims for office will at least be given as much consideration as if they had been advocating the claims of other presidential candidates, and this is as it should be. If the Times has been rightly informed, only about three of the eighteen congressmen from this state were for Wilson as against Clark Harmon or Underwood, and those who were against Wilson used all the press, size and influence they could bring to bear to throw the forty convention votes of Texas against Wilson, and had they succeeded, Texas would not have sent a solid Wilson delegation to Baltimore, and the probability is that if Texas had not sent a Wilson delegation, the Wilson men of Texas made a strong fight against great odds and won, and they should not be discriminated against.

The State of Utah, where there are so many Mormons, pay pensions to mothers of children. For the first child $10 is allowed, and for each child thereafter $7.

News from Washington is to the effect that Richard Olney has been offered by President Wilson the job of representing the United States at the Court of St. James. He is now more than 70 years of age, but even at that it is difficult to imagine how Mr. Wilson could have made a better selection, considering Mr. Olney's record while secretary of state in Cleveland's cabinet during the Venezuelan dispute, at which time, in very polite and diplomatic language he settled the matter to the perfect satisfaction of all Americans, even if it did not entirely please the Britishers.

It is not difficult to solve the problem as to why real estate in Wichita Falls keeps adding to its value. Wichita Falls is growing faster and building more substantially than any city in the state. The principal reason for this long continued prosperity is that her citizenship, almost to a man, is of the progressive, pushing type, and when they combine their efforts, which they nearly always do, they get what they go after. You can't keep a city back that boasts such a citizenship.

All Texas Democrats will learn with pleasure that both Senators Culberson and Sheppard, together with Congressman Stephens, have agreed to recommend Capt. Bill McDonald for appointment to the United States marshalship of the Northern district of Texas. It is needless to add that it will give President Wilson much pleasure to make this appointment.

In selecting men for diplomatic positions to foreign countries, the question of whether he is capable and efficient is not the only one to be settled, but is he able, financially. Chairman McCombs, it is understood, can't have his pick of these positions, but he is not a rich man, and therefore it is extremely doubtful if he can accept any of them. It might be better if the salaries that go with such positions could provide for an expense account that would make it possible for a man of abundance of brains but little money to accept them.

While it would be entirely wrong to assert that the fee system is always abused, it is a fact nevertheless that it is responsible for many convictions. Something should be done to stop the abuse, but in doing that, care should be taken to provide liberal compensation for service rendered by those whose duty it is to enforce the laws. Texas is a great State, wealthy enough to pay all her public servants salaries that are in keeping with the offices they hold. But there are instances where the fees of some officers run into the thousands of dollars annually, and after paying all clerical and deputy hire, and every other expense imaginable, still have left a lump sum for the head of the office that, compared with the salary the governor of the state receives, is enormous. It may be that there is no remedy for this, but if not, it is a great pity.

The two senators from Florida who called on President Wilson to present the applications of some office-seeking friends of theirs, were politely referred to the heads of departments under which the applicants expected to serve. This was a little unusual, and doubtless was somewhat of a slap in the face of the senators from Florida, who are both Democrats. But there was probably a reason for treating them that way. When Wilson was a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination he made a strong effort to get the vote of Florida lined up for him at the Baltimore convention, and perhaps would have succeeded had it not been for the efforts put forth by these two senators against him and in favor of Underwood. President Wilson was only showing them that he had a memory and could appreciate his friends. It was a gentle hint, if anything, that when the time arrived to distribute political favors in Florida he would call in his friends and advise with them.

Frank G. Carpenter, the world renowned traveler and writer, says in his latest letter written in the City of Mexico: Does Uncle Sam own Mexico? The question is startling. But it is one which the fingers of destiny are writing in letters of gold upon the sky of the financial universe. The answer is: "No, not now, but the time when he will own it is already in sight." This is a foregone conclusion, and it is independent of peace or of war, as the following figures will show. We may not flaunt our title in the face of the world, and we may keep our controlling partnership quiet, but the facts are that we already own two-fifths of all the wealth of this country, and that it is a question whether our possessions are not already greater than those of the Mexicans themselves.

TODAY ALBERT PRINCE HAS HIS LAST CHANCE FOR LIFE.

Lincoln, Neb., March 10.—A last appeal to save Albert Prince from the gallows was made to the State board of pardons today. The case has been before the courts for more than a year and has attracted wide attention. Prince, a negro, was serving a sentence for burglary in the State penitentiary here, when on February 11, 1912, he stabbed and killed Deputy Warden Davis during services in the prison chapel. The crime was the beginning of a series of tragedies at the penitentiary, in which four officials and three convicts were killed. Prince was convicted of murder and sentenced to hang on August 30 last. The execution was stayed by an appeal to the supreme court, which tribunal later affirmed the sentence. Unless the board of pardons intercedes the negro will be executed on Friday of next week.

Blaze at McKinney. McKinney, Texas, March 8.—The Katy freight office, with its contents is not yet set. If Einley hangs, merchandise was destroyed by fire about midnight. The loss is estimated at $15,000.

THE CAUSE OF WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

Rev. Anna H. Shaw was last week given the degree of D. D. by the University of Kansas City, Mo. President D. S. Stevens said she was the first woman to whom this degree had been given by his university.

The Portland, Oregonian, says of the new state legislature: "Neither senators nor representatives are opposing any measures which will tend to be of assistance to the women. There is a noticeable tendency at this session to vote aye for all such bills. They all now have a new class of constituents at home, from whom they are beginning to hear and who are heeding the new voice nobly."

The Cook county civil service commission has decided that Illinois women are eligible to the position of assistant to probate judges. A Chicago woman lawyer, Miss Frances E. Spooner, of 1203 City Hall Square building, appeared before the three attorneys for the commission and made so convincing a plea that all opposition was withdrawn and women will be allowed to take the examination.

Once more it seems as though Austrian women were nearing the first stage of their enfranchisement—i. e., the alteration of the associations laws, which forbids women taking part in political associations. A similar law existed in Germany till 1908, and the progress made by German women since its abolition has been enormous. As yet the new bill has only passed the lower house.

Phoenix is the first city in Arizona to try the commission form of government, writes Mrs. Frances Willard Munds. A committee of citizens has been selected to draft a model charter. Twenty-five women have been placed on this committee of 25, and women are on all the sub-committees. It is predicted that this committee will be referred to in the future of Arizona as the immortal 25.

Miss Lavonia Dock, known as Little Dock on the recent Albany hike, is now making a pilgrimage through New York's East Settlement, where she lives, wearing a huge sign, one side of which announces to all voters who read Yiddish, "Every man will have to vote yes or no on woman suffrage in 1915." The other side is for the women. "New York state will give women the right to vote in 1915 if women demand it." And the East Side is strong for suffrage. Miss Dock made this discovery on her first trip. The only objection is that two years is too long to wait. A push cart man voiced the sentiment of the crowd when he protested: "1915, ah, mine Gott. Dat is too long. We all be dead by then. One month is enough."

Mrs. Frances Munds of Prescott was president of the State Equal Suffrage association last November, when Arizona enfranchised its women; therefore she was suggested as presidential elector. But there were protests. Arizona was quite a new state and must be very careful of its dignity. A Mr. Webb who protested most, said it was a man's job. In due time he himself started forth with the electoral vote in his pocket while Mrs. Munds stayed at home. When the moment came to deliver the vote of Arizona, Mr. Webb was peacefully enjoying himself in New York. He did not know that he ought to be in Washington on that particular day until he read in the newspaper the next morning that everybody was wondering where he was. Suffragists are not saying very much about it, except to emphasize the fact that Colorado, Washington and Utah all sent women as presidential electors and that they all arrived on time; also they are wondering whether, if Mrs. Munds had been the elector from Arizona, and if she had been in New York shopping.

BOMB WELLS STUDIES GUNBOAT SMITH'S RECORD.

New York, March 12.—Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight, is studying the record of "Gunboat" Smith of California. Wells and Smith are matched to box ten rounds in Madison Square Garden Friday night and as the holder of the Lord Londale belt never has seen the Californian in action he is asking many questions about him. Last year Smith met "Porky" Flynn of Boston in a ten-round bout at a local club. It was a close finish, inasmuch as some of the critics decided in Flynn's favor, others declared Smith had won, and still another verdict was a draw. The record of this affair proved of great interest to Wells for in England two years ago he got a decision over Flynn in a twenty-round battle.

Ad Men of the Southwest.

St. Louis, March 10.—The St. Louis Advertising Men's League has prepared an elaborate program for the entertainment of the annual convention of the Southwestern division of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America. Several hundred delegates representing all of the large cities of the Southwest are here to take part in the sessions, which will begin tomorrow and continue over Wednesday. The conclusion of the gathering will be marked by a big banquet.

POET NOT YET FORGOTTEN

Friends of Coleridge Place Memorial in Church Where Once he Aspired to Preach.

Coleridge's query to Lamb: "Charles, did you ever hear me preach?" and Ella's famous answer, "I never heard you do anything else" must have been in the minds of the little company which assembled the other day in the High Street Unitarian church at Shrewsbury, England, for the unveiling of a memorial to the poet in commemoration of the fact that for three Sundays in 1789 he preached there as a candidate for the pastorate.

Release Your Power!

Be Yourself---Be Original---Do Everything In a NEW Way---Your OWN Way!

MILLIONS of men are born, grow up and die, leaving undone all the things they might have done because they are CONTROLLED INTELLECTUALLY as a horse is controlled physically.

A majority of men believe that they cannot do a new thing. They believe that what always has been always MUST be.

The same old-thing is DONE IN THE SAME OLD WAY, and millions upon millions of human beings live and die, all of them thinking that THAT IS THE ONLY WAY TO DO IT.

And then occasionally along comes a man who resists the pressure of the bit, the bridle of custom and habit upon his mind, who determines that he will not be held by any such flimsy power, and we have the REAL MAN who does the real thing.

Napoleon crossed the Alps in the dead of winter. When he was praised to the skies for his daring and his genius he said most truly, "I deserve no credit except for REFUSING TO BELIEVE those who said it could not be done."

That is an instance that we shall quote to you often, for it shows above everything else the particular quality that made a friendless, penniless, sickly Corsican the greatest ruler that the world has known, the greatest lawbreaker and a most useful man in spite of the excesses and crimes to which his ambition drove him.

CUSTOM HAD NO HOLD ON NAPOLEON. THERE WAS NO BIT IN HIS MOUTH, NO HALTER FASTENED AROUND HIS INTELLECTUAL MACHINERY. HE COULD ALWAYS SEE THE NEW THING AND DO IT.

When his gunners were shooting at fleeing soldiers on the frozen lake, shooting at them from a height, Napoleon looked for a second at the scene and then gave the order to lower the guns and shoot at the ice.

The cannon balls broke the ice, the fleeing army sank into the water, to be drowned or rescued at the edge of the lake and made prisoners.

Lucky the man who can take a lesson intended for all and apply it TO HIMSELF.

Lucky the man also who can still keep trying, still struggling, to FREE HIMSELF FROM THE RUT, even after years of disappointment.

Napoleon at one time contemplated suicide in his despair of ever getting ahead in the world.

After he had become emperor a young officer complained that he (the young officer) had been a lieutenant in the army for five years and that there was no hope of advancement. Napoleon replied, "Truly, I was a lieutenant for more than five years, yet you see that I could arrive."

When they sent Napoleon to Italy, representing the French nation that had been brought to life and made to think by the splendid revolution, the old Austrian generals felt only contempt for the lean, big eyed young Corsican leading soldiers, many of them ragged and he himself tormented with the itch.

But those Austrian generals were held down by custom.

They did everything in the old way. AND NAPOLEON DID EVERYTHING IN THE NEW WAY—HIS OWN WAY.

When a battle was carried on along the banks of a river the Austrians followed the old plan—which was looked upon as sacred and unchangeable. They put one-half of their army on one side of the river and the other half of their army on the other side of the river, marching up and down, ready to meet Napoleon and beat him—as they supposed—no matter which side of the river he might choose.

Napoleon, free from custom, thinking for himself, kept his whole army together. He would take his WHOLE army along one side of the river, thrash one-half of the Austrian army, then cross the river and thrash the other half of the army, and those old generals, held by the halter of custom, scarcely knew what had happened to them before the Corsican boy had beaten them thoroughly and was well on the way to make himself emperor of France and practical ruler of the world.

WE CANNOT ALL BE NAPOLEONS. THERE IS ROOM FOR ONLY ONE NAPOLEON AT A TIME, AND HE MUST BE MADE BY CIRCUMSTANCES AND BY OTHER MEN. BUT WE ALL OF US CAN TAKE TIME, AN HOUR OR TWO ON A QUIET SUNDAY, TO ASK OURSELVES WHAT THE MATTER IS WITH US. WHAT BIT OR HALTER IS HOLDING US DOWN, KEEPING US BACK.

Do not imagine that it is necessary in order to succeed to GIVE UP WHAT YOU ARE DOING NOW. Success can be made at ANYTHING.

Napoleon didn't have to get out of the army, in which he was moving so slowly, in order to find his success.

Newton, the greatest mathematical genius produced by the human race, did not have to give up his little employment with the government in order to carry on his extraordinary work.

IN EVERY FIELD THERE IS OPPORTUNITY. The clerk in a department store can develop himself RIGHT WHERE HE IS as well as anywhere else in the world and perhaps better.

He sees human nature in all of its phases. Opportunity is before him if he will take it. But he mustn't imagine that because OTHERS remain clerks he is bound to remain a clerk.

And he mustn't feel that because other clerks are careful not to work too much he should not work too much.

ONCE YOU CAN GET A BIT INTO A HORSE'S MOUTH OR A HALTER ON THE HORSE'S HEAD YOU CAN DO ALMOST ANYTHING YOU LIKE WITH HIM. AND ONCE THE BIT OF CUSTOM OR THE HALTER OF FIXED OPINION HOLDS A MAN YOU CAN DO PRETTY MUCH ANYTHING YOU LIKE WITH HIM. FOR YOURSELF, MAKE UP YOUR MIND THAT YOU WILL KEEP YOUR HEAD FREE—NO HALTER OR BIT WITH A STRING FOR ANY MAN TO HOLD. REALIZE THAT FREEDOM IS OPPORTUNITY AND OPPORTUNITY IS LIFE.

On Friday night, March 14, will occur the second quarterly conference of the Thornberry and Friberg churches. M. E. Church. Dr. Eubank, district superintendent will be with us and, preach and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and hold a business session at Friberg. We hope to see all the members of the quarterly conference present and all members of the church. Every body cordially invited to be present. The school which was suspended for a week was resumed, Monday. All may feel safe to so as the building was fumigated thoroughly on Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Bell visited with her sister, Mrs. Arch McKinley on Friday of last week. Mrs. S. L. Lancaster and children spent the day last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chambers. Most of our people have planted their potatoes and early garden truck. The two families who have been victims of scarletina are all reported as about well at this writing. Rain fell intermittently here from Saturday evening until Monday morning, doing the wheat and oats crops much good. There are fine prospects for both a wheat and oat crop this year. They are both looking fine in this community. The rain fell so slowly and gently that the danks were not filled to any extent. Many of the people who live on the hills have been hauling wood from the Wichita Valley the past two weeks for the summer supply. While wood has been hauled out of this timber for 20 years there is yet an abundance. Miss Pearl Bandy, our efficient primary teacher spent part of last week at the home of her parents south of town. She returned to Friberg Sunday afternoon to take up school work again, Monday.

STATE DEPARTMENT "FACES RECOGNITION."

Washington, March 12.—Industry from the Mexican foreign office as to the acceptability to this government of Emilio Rabassa, as Mexican ambassador to Washington, to succeed Senor Calero, retired has brought the state department face to face with the question of formal recognition of the new provisional government of Mexico. Up to this time, Ambassador Wilson had been treating with the Herrera administration on a de facto basis and it now becomes necessary to decide whether formal recognition shall be extended, such as would be involved in the reception by President Wilson of the new ambassador.

TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION ELECTS ITS SECRETARY

J. G. Kilgore Chosen at Meeting of Directors—Offices to be Established Soon. Directors of the Wichita Falls Traffic Association elected yesterday met last night and completed their organization, with the election of J. A. Riechelt as treasurer and J. G. Kilgore as secretary. Mr. Kilgore has had many years experience in handling rate matters and claims and for several months has had charge of these matters for the window glass, bottle and automobile factories. Headquarters for the association have not yet been arranged for but the Chamber of Commerce will be asked to give its desk room in its room in the city hall. The directors last night selected a committee on membership and a committee on by-laws.

The committee on membership comprises M. A. Brin, J. G. Cuthbertson and Marvin Smith; the constitution and by-laws committee, T. B. Noble, A. Riechelt and W. G. Shaw.

We have purchased the stock of the Daylight Store, 803 Indiana Avenue, and invite a continuance of the patronage of those who have found it a good place to trade, and of others who have not been customers in the past. We have added a number of new lines consisting of men's furnishing goods, suits, overalls, shirts and neckwear, and have stocked on all the regular lines. New goods are arriving daily, and we offer the best class of merchandise at extraordinary low prices. N. D. Dixon & Co. 60 1/2 & w e. LAKESHORE ASSEMBLY DATES JULY 21 TO 27

Time of Annual Methodist Encampment Here is Fixed at Committee Meeting. July 21 to 27 were yesterday fixed as the dates for this year's Lakeshore Assembly at Lake Wichita, at a meeting of the committee from the northern district of the M. E. Church, South. The meeting was held yesterday afternoon and was attended by J. E. Roach of Gainesville, C. M. Woodward of Abilene, J. G. Miller of Vernon and J. B. Winfrey of Iowa Park. While the program and plans for the encampment are as yet indefinite, Dr. Roach says that the outlook is bright for the most successful affair of the kind yet held. He says that interest is being manifested by churches throughout the district.

APPLICATIONS TO JOIN MILITIA ARE RECEIVED

Number of Young Men Sign Up For Texas National Guard Company Now Being Organized. Applications for enlistment in the company of the Texas National Guard which is being organized here were signed last night by a number of young men who contemplate joining the company. The applications were taken by Eugene H. Morter and as soon as the required number of fifty-eight has been secured the list will be forwarded to Austin. The signing of the application does not commit anyone to membership in the company, however, as one may withdraw before being sworn in. Another meeting will be held Friday night when it is expected to complete the organization. The following signed applications last night: E. H. Morter, Walter M. Frank, Leonard H. Keller, Ben A. Hill, R. J. Glascock, James B. Brothers, E. V. Fulton, Claude E. Ashford, George H. Austin, Charles W. Nolen, W. J. Hickman, T. B. Hoffer, Sam A. McCleskey, John J. Oechsner.

NEW DRILLING ON OKLAHOMA SIDE

SEVERAL WELLS STARTED RECENTLY ACROSS RED RIVER

DELAY ON MARCUS WELL

Will Not be Drilled in Until Tomorrow—Other Oil News of the Past Week

Business is picking up across Red River, in Southwest Oklahoma and several wells are drilling there at present. The Norfolk Oil company has a rig up on the James A. Melure farm west of Davidson, Tillman county and expects to begin spudding tomorrow. Another new well will be in the vicinity of Randall, The Big Pasture Well near Loveland, Tillman county, where was stopped at a depth of about 1500 feet, will probably be drilled deeper, arrangements to that effect being under way. The Frederick Oil Producing company has started a well at Hart's Switch, Tillman county. Work is also to be resumed in the Columbia well, northwest of Grandfield, in the Rock Ford section. The Northwest Electric Oil & Gas company's well on the Finley farm, south of Frederick, is reported to have had a nice showing, but a thing definite has come from the mystery which enshrouds the affair. Drilling activities across the river were considerably stimulated by the government's geological report which purported to pick the wet spots.

A local oil man, who is inclined to be something of a cynic, has seen fit to comment upon the way some papers handle the oil news. He says the dope usually runs this way: First day, "Empty-Ump well on Black-Dash farm to be drilled in today, showing for 200 barrels"; second day, "Empty-Ump well drilled in, making 150 barrels"; third day, "Two new locations have been made near the Empty-Ump well, which was drilled for seventy-five barrels"; sixth day, "New productions for the week includes the Empty-Ump well, which was drilled in for forty barrels"; eighth day, "The Empty-Ump, which struck about a ten barrel showing last week, is to be drilled deeper."

It is understood that a location has been made for Developers No. 5 at Petrolia, and that it will offset Producers No. 12 Byers, a short distance from No. 4.

Petrolia production is present to be at the high-water mark of field, with better than 1100 barrels going into the tanks daily. Of this, about 350 barrels is produced by about eighty shallow wells, and the remainder from the deeper wells, headed by Producers No. 11 Byers and Developers No. 4, each of which is making around 200 barrels daily.

The Marcus Oil Company's well on the Biggers farm was in trouble again yesterday and will not be drilled in until tomorrow. There is every indication of a good well.

The Interstate well on the J. J. Kierst strip, which was reported as showing Friday night is drilling at 1360 feet, where it has a water sand.

Interstate No. 3 Borchardt put ninety barrels into the tank in eight hours Friday, but a great deal of water is coming up with the oil. An effort will be made to shut this off before pumping any further. No. 1 Borchardt is making about fifty barrels and No. 2 the shallow well is making about two barrels; it is not costing anything to pump No. 2 and if its production helps to cut down the fuel bill.

This has been a good week for homefolks. Two local companies have wells, the Developers and the Marcus; the latter is not a wet yet but is making a noise very much like one. Practically all the stock in these two companies is owned by Wichitans who were not afraid to get their feet wet.

J. E. Head of the Interstate Company is gathering something over 200 barrels of oil that had accumulated on his water tank. Some genius rigged up a hand pump to connect with the power and the waste oil is now being pumped. As Mr. Head gets $1.25 per barrel, selling this oil for fuel, he figures he has just found about $20 that he wasn't looking for.

Burkhardt and Petrolia have furnished the chief news of interest during the past week, though little of interest has developed, outside the bringing of Developers No. 4 at Petrolia for 200 barrels. There was little new production during the week at Electra.

Among the week's completions at Electra are the Producers No. 13 Skinner 75 barrels and the same company's No. 15 Striuser, good for about 75. There were no Corsicana or Gaffey completions there during the week.

Producers No. 14 Bickley an offset to the Corsicana No. 13 Honaker, was dry at the depth of the big 1500 barrel well, indicating that the new sand does not extend far to the northward. The 1500 barrel well is believed to be in one of the freak sands for which the Electra field is getting famous.

J. L. Powell has resumed drilling on his well one and a half miles northwest of Day Station. He is working day and night shifts on this well.

Considerable work is in progress around Iowa Park, especially in the country to the southwest toward the Ferguson well. Among the wells drilling are: Staples et al. Wintrey, 1120 feet; L. C. Hivick, Brown, 1175; Gaffey, W. R. Smith, 1430; Reese, Patterson et al. Munden, spudding; Brokaw, Friend and Ralston, Lockridge, rig; Producers, Waggoner Brothers, 590; Owen & Wilson No. 1 Ferguson, 580 and fishing; The Buffalo well is shut down at 1340 feet.

Federal Re-occupy Saltito
Laredo, Texas, March 8.—After two weeks' occupation by followers of Carranza, during which martial law was in effect, Saltito, capital of Coahuila, was again occupied by federal troops today. While fighting was reported between the forces of federal General Sanchez numbering 1200, and the rebels lasting from 2 to 8 o'clock this morning until 8 o'clock tonight, the number of casualties was not given. A train bearing reinforcements left Laredo tonight to prevent any effort to retake Saltito.

Prussian Loan Fails
Berlin, March 8.—The failure of the Prussian government to float the $100,000,000 debt term 4 per cent notes, marking the first occasion on which the government loan here has not been oversubscribed appears to have been more serious than was indicated yesterday. Only $42,500,000 of the notes were taken up. Banking circles had hoped to interest Americans in the issue, but the foreign subscriptions turned out very scanty.

RECEIVER OF PETROLEUM CONCERNS BEGINS WORK.

Dallas, Texas, March 11.—Sam B. Brooks, Greenville banker who was appointed receiver of the Magnolia Petroleum Company, and the Corsicana Petroleum Company, by the district court of Hunt county, following the filing of the anti-trust suit by the attorney general of Texas, was in Dallas Monday to assume his duties. Mr. Brooks says the business of the companies will go on as before the suit, his duty being to look after the court's interests so long as the suits are pending. The receiver who is cashier of the First National Bank of Greenville, has qualified under a $100,000 bond.

BOND ISSUE FOR PRISONS PASSES

HOUSE CUTS AMOUNT TO TWO MILLIONS AND THEN ENGROSSES BILL

WOMEN'S BILL NOW SAFE

Conference Report is Adopted—Senate Considers Common Law Marriage and Other Bills

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, March 11.—After a day and a half of debate in the course of which the bill was amended so as to provide for a $2,000,000 bond issue of $3,000,000, an original provision of the House this afternoon engrossed the bill for the bond issue.

The House this morning resumed consideration of the bill to allow the penitentiary commission to issue $3,000,000 in bonds. Enemies of the administration made a vigorous fight against the bill. It was said privately that some opponents of the bill wished to defeat it, hoping that the penitentiary deficit can be saddled upon the appropriation bill, thereby necessitating a large increase in the State tax rate, under the Colquitt administration.

Bills' Enemies Active.
The bill's enemies and the governor himself were much more active than the governor's friends and the fight seems close.

The bill's enemies and the governor himself were much more active than the governor's friends, and the fight seems close. The House first took up a proposition to limit the bond issue to $1,500,000 four per cent bonds. Woods of Navarro offered a constitutional amendment to place the amount at $2,000,000 without reference to interest rates. He expressed the hope if the House would make the figures $2,000,000 might raise it to $3,000,000.

Raiden moved to postpone indefinitely consideration of the matter. Speaker Terrell, on the floor, at once moved a call to bring in absentees; the doors were locked and a quorum found to be present. Reedy then spoke in favor of the $2,000,000 amendment, and the previous question was ordered on the motion to postpone consideration of the matter indefinitely. Dwellling was given the floor and began the last speech for the anti-administration forces.

Hill answered Dwellling and by a vote of 41 to 72, the motion to postpone indefinitely was defeated.

Representative Hill then called up the $2,000,000 amendment to substitute for the $3,000,000 issue and by a vote of 75 to 42 the amendment placing the issue at $2,000,000 was adopted. The bill was then engrossed by a vote of 73 to 47. Those who had been fighting to reduce the bond issue then tried to kill the bill, but did not succeed.

Regret was immediately expressed by the friends of the bill that they had not permitted the issue to remain at $3,000,000 for they had much more support than they expected.

Marital Rights Bill

After a morning of argument that changed no votes the Senate today adopted the free conference committee report on the bill affecting marital rights of women with regard to their property. It is a substitute committee bill. Vaughan and Wiley agreed its passage while Morrow, Collins and Huddleston objected to it. The Senate then began considering the Westbrook bill abolishing common law marriage and providing that property shall not descend under it. Westbrook took the floor and enumerated the bills of his the Senate has killed and declared that senators possessed to be the people's friends, but are their enemies. The Senate Judiciary committee No.

2 today reported with a favorable majority and an adverse minority report by Nugent, the Collins bill making it a penitentiary offense for a newspaper to conduct a contest. The majority favored a committee amendment for bidding any contest between two or more people but so amending the bill as to permit newspapers to offer prizes, premiums and commissions to those getting subscriptions. The committee also reported favorably the House bill making it a felony to carry a bill, the anti bogus check bill and the Senate bill prohibiting any board of any State institution from creating unauthorized deficiencies. The committee on public health favorably reported the bill regulating the practice of message and providing a State board of examiners; also the House bill requiring that certain sanitary and ventilatory conditions be met in public school buildings.

Westbrook's bill making common law marriages null and void was amended by providing simply that the plea of a common law marriage shall not be a defense in prosecution for fornication or adultery. It leaves the property right of the woman and her children undisturbed. As amended, the bill was finally passed.

The debate on the penitentiary bond issue bill in the House lasted all of yesterday and most of today. Mr. Hill explained the existence of the present debt of something over $1,500,000 tolling of the fires, freezes and other disasters with which the public is familiar, all of which lost the system much money; also of the cost of putting into effect the new prison law and the abandonment of the lease system, etc., which necessitated further expenditures and reduction of actual revenue. He asserted, however, that the deficit was but a "book-keeping deficit" that the system had not actually lost money during the present administration but upon the contrary that the improvements made represented fully the amount of the indebtedness.

Pay or Repudiate?
This deficit, however, must be paid, he declared, and to those who opposed the bill just asked: "What are you going to do about it?" And answered the question: "Pay the debts or repudiate them?" You can pay them in two ways, by increasing the general appropriation two or three million dollars making the biggest general appropriation bill the State has ever known, and increasing the tax rate that much, or by authorizing these bonds, which will be paid by the penitentiary system itself, without creating any new tax on the State one cent.

While he took the position that the deficit was not caused by mismanagement, Mr. Hill contended that that question had nothing to do with this issue. Even, if for the sake of argument, the debts were so caused, they were legal obligations of the State of Texas, and must either be paid or repudiated.

System Will Pay.
That the prison system would make money and be able to pay the bonds without trouble he had no doubt, pointing out that some of the biggest fortunes in the State had been made by individuals working convicts under the lease system. Following this feature of the subject questions were asked opening a discussion of the present conditions of treatment and punishment of convicts as compared with conditions under the lease system.

Mr. Tarver had read parts of the report of Chairman Reedy of the House penitentiary committee, from a copy of the Dallas News, wherein present methods of punishment were discussed. Mr. Hill declared that even were it a fact the system had lost money because of the change in the law that loss were well worth while if convicts were not benten to death to make money for the system as under the old law.

Mr. Calvin, former president of the Farmers' Union, supporting the bill, repeated the famous Grover Cleveland slogan, "It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us." He asserted that the working of State convicts on farms did not constitute a real competition with the farmers of the State and would not be considered by the farmers. He opposed the working of convicts on the roads of the State absolutely. Previously, during the debate Mr. Burns opposed the operation of State farms, as competition to the farmers, fought the bond issue and favored the working of convicts on the State roads.

Audacity, Says Tarver.
Mr. Tarver, in opposition to the measure, termed it "audacity" to propose to give $3,000,000—equaling the present bonded indebtedness of the entire State—to the management which had created a deficit of over $1,500,000 since being in charge of the prison system.

Speaker Terrell said that "the politics of four years and the politics of two years ago won't solve the problem of today."

AUTO ROAD FROM TEXAS TO COLORADO SPRINGS

Wichita Falls May be on Summer Tourist Route—New Mineral Wells Line

An automobile highway from the larger cities of Texas to Colorado Springs is now being planned by the famous summer resort and efforts have been started to place Wichita Falls on the official route. B. P. Talley of this city, chairman of the Mexican road committee, already has the matter in hand and will of course put forth every effort to have the line routed through Wichita Falls.

Such a highway would bring hundreds of auto tourists through this city, particularly in the summer time, as many Texans who go to Colorado resorts travel by automobile.

IT HAPPENED IN WICHITA FALLS

And is Happening to Wichita Falls People Every Week

The case told below is not an uncommon thing. The same occurs frequently and will continue to happen as long as folks have kidneys and overtax the kidneys.

Mrs. Mary Beck, 712 Seventh St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "For years I suffered from kidney trouble, having pains in my back and side and irregular action of the kidneys. I steadily grew worse and about three years ago the trouble reached a climax, when I had to take to my bed. For three months I was helpless and had Bright's Disease. I was discouraged. A friend suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills and I took them. I began to improve and by the time I had taken the first box, I was much better. Four boxes cured me."

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts In Regard to F. R. Huffman's Illness. Relief Obtained by Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain. After other remedies had failed, Theodor's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold. It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits. Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together. Theodor's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system. It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Theodor's. Price 25c. (Advertisement)"

DEATH OF O. P. BOGER AT DEL RIO THIS MORNING.

The Times received information through Mr. Boger of this city this morning to the effect that he was just in receipt of a telegram from Del Rio, Texas, announcing the death of his kinsman, O. P. Boger and that the funeral would take place at Henrietta tomorrow. Deceased for years was a successful stockman and farmer of Wichita county and before coming to this county, resided near Jolly, in Clay county. He was about 55 years of age and unmarried. The news of his death was received as a surprise to his many friends in this city as he seemingly always enjoyed good health.

Allendale News.

Mrs. J. T. Tilham moved from the section house to J. B. Sisk's house, one-half mile east of the school house Wednesday and Thursday and to her surprise the next morning two of her children were taken over with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Swearing returned home today from a few days visit with his brother at Anson, Texas.

Mr. Black who has been working for the past year or so as a section hand at Anson, Texas, is now foreman of section two at Allendale. Mrs. Lula Garrett of New Mexico, who had been visiting relatives in East Texas, stopped off at Allendale for a few days visit with her cousin, Mrs. J. T. Gilham and her son, Roy. John and Russell Duckett who have been visiting their mother in this community returned last week to their home at Lyron, Okla.

Mrs. W. H. Winn is having a serious attack of rheumatism. She has been almost confined to her room for the past month.

G. L. Gilham of Wichita Falls, was a guest of his mother last Sunday. The rain that fell Sunday and Sunday night was very much appreciated by the farmers although it was light it fell so slowly that it all went in the ground and will do much good in advancing the wheat and oats. A rain was not badly needed. There is a very fine prospect for a good wheat and oat crop and also a good season to plant corn and the farmers will plant their entire corn crop now in a few days.

It seems by the amount of listing that is being done that Wichita county is not going to fall short on the acreage of cotton from what it was last year. If the warm weather that we have been having for the past few days will continue there will be green pastures and fine grazing in a few days.

SOLONS JUNKET AND BILLS WAIT

WITH HUNDREDS OF MEASURES PENDING, LEGISLATORS TAKE HOLIDAY

SUMMARY OF WORK DONE

Just Four Bills of a General Nature Have So Far Reached the Governor's Office

Special to the Times.
Austin, Texas, March 14.—The legislative halls were deserted today, all the members of both houses having left last night on a special train for Fort Worth, where they will be guests at the fat stock exhibition and horse show, returning Saturday morning.

It is learned that this junketing expedition does not at all meet the governor's approval, he believing that in view of the unusually small amount of work actually accomplished so far, and the delay on account of the meningitis scare, the lawmakers might have foregone the holiday.

A remarkable and most extraordinary record has been made by the thirty-third legislature, and one which, it is understood, is not at all to the liking of the governor. The lawmakers have been in session now 58 days, just two days less than the sixty days usually allotted for a regular session, and when the $5 per day period ends, and just four bills of a general nature have reached the executive department for action, not including the money bills for the payment of salaries and per diem of the members, and this taken into consideration that 1400 bills were introduced, to say nothing of 60 joint and a large number of concurrent resolutions. Of these four bills, three of them are consolidation bills. It is no wonder the chief executive is not pleased with the record made and the future of the session does not seem to bring any promise of better results.

It is true both branches have passed a number of bills and resolutions, but these measures have not as yet received the concurrent action of both branches and sent to the executive department for approval or disapproval. There have also been passed and presented to the governor for approval quite a batch of local and quasi-local measures, but the number of general laws, is only four as indicated herein. There has been no court reform measure passed to speak of, and none of the platform demands have been acted on finally by the lawmakers, and from present indications the plan which the lawmakers had in view during the first part of the week seems to have been abandoned.

All to Special Session.
It seems that everything is now being left to the special session, which appears to be sure to come. Senator Willacy, chairman of the senate finance committee, has now practically given up the idea of passing the general appropriation bill. This condition of affairs is in spite of the fact that night sessions have been frequent in both branches. This situation has been brought about in a great measure by the long winded speeches indulged in by certain members of both branches. In the senate, when a measure of ordinary importance comes up for consideration, practically every member feels it incumbent upon him to deliver himself of an oration on the subject. This consumes time of the legislature, to say nothing of the expense to the State, which is at the rate of $80 an hour. Strenuous efforts were made by the presiding officers of both branches to remedy the situation and to expedite business, but of no avail the members insist upon talking and offering all kinds of amendments on every bill that is presented for consideration.

Senator Brelsford has introduced a bill in the senate providing for an increase in the salary of the commissioner of insurance and banking. The present salary of that official is $2500 a year and the senator wants to double the amount and make it $5000. He points out that the commissioner holds a dual position; that is, commissioner of insurance and commissioner of banking, and such an important department of the state government should be in hands of a man of recognized capabilities. However, in this connection it may be said that the present commissioner is considered one of the most efficient heads that department has ever had.

Hints of Vetoes.
From what can be learned, the governor is not taking too kindly to the many court bills that are being passed by the present legislature and it would not be surprising to see some of those measures disapproved. In fact, the governor has let it be known that he is to disapprove the

American Says Rebel Governor Was 'Alive and Well Today, With Cracks'—says Cannon

By Associated Press.
Eagle Pass, Texas, March 14.—Carranza leaders in Pecos and Big Bend today positively denied that there is any truth in last night's report from Jaredo that Gov. Carranza was captured and executed near Monclova. They said they had messages direct from Carranza this morning. An American mining engineer who arrived here today said that he left Carranza alive and well in a Monclova hotel early this morning. He said there was no indication of federal troops within 100 miles of Monclova.

TELLS WHY MEAT PRICES ADVANCE

CHICAGO PACKER SAYS SUPPLY HAS BEEN STEADILY GETTING LOWER

RANGES CUT INTO FARMS

Believes It Would Take Seven Years To Readjust Conditions To Lower Prices

By Associated Press.
Chicago, March 14.—Arthur G. Leonard, president of the Union Stock Yards Company yesterday sent the following reply to a telegram from Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the National Housewives League as to the cause for increased prices of meat:
"For the period since January 1, as compared with the same period in 1912, there has been a total decrease in receipts at Chicago of 646,600 meat animals of every type, amounting to an aggregate of 200,000,000."

Mr. Leonard said the high prices are due to this shortage and the shortage and the shortage is largely due to the wiping out of the large amount of range country and its division into small farms.

He said this shortage has been increasing for seven years and that it would take a similar period to build up the cattle raising industry so that any material reduction in prices would become possible. He said:
"During the last year the decrease in the supply has amounted to ten pounds of meat per capita each month."

FATAL RESULT OF FORT WORTH DUEL

CHARLES DUNN DEAD AS CONSEQUENCE OF WOUNDS—ADAMS STILL ALIVE

HAD PLANNED ELOPEMENT

So Mrs. Adams Testifies to Officers—Husband Hears of Intentions, Shooting Follows

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, March 14.—Charles Dunn, one of the farmers engaged in the duel at Kennedale Tuesday night, died early this morning. His opponent, Adams, is still alive but his death is expected momentarily.

Mrs. Adams admitted to the police yesterday that she and Dunn had planned to elope. Adams learned of this, his wife said and the fight followed.

Friday night was the time set for the elopement of Charles Dunn and Mrs. Charles Adams, according to statements made to Assistant County Attorney James Wilson by Mrs. Adams herself and by Andrew Hass, an 18 year old boy employed by Dunn and made a confidant by him in his affair with Mrs. Adams. It was this that caused Adams to hurry home from Fort Worth. His wife admitted to him that the elopement story was true. Shortly afterward the two men met in the road near Kennedale, and the shooting followed.

Mrs. Adams said that Dunn came to her house as a friend of her husband, she said in her signed statement. He began to declare his affection for her, and finally persuaded her to run off with him and they fixed Friday night as the date. A train stops at Kennedale early in the night and it was their intention to take that train, she said.

Her husband came home unexpectedly Tuesday night, she told Attorney Wilson, and told her that a man named Estes had told him that she was going to run off with Dunn. She confessed and Adams told her he was going to kill Dunn when the latter was feeding his mules next morning, she said.

Adams had no gun in the house, but immediately left, said Mrs. Adams, and she did not hear further from him until after the shooting.

The gun which Adams used was borrowed from a man at the depot. It was found by Deputy Sheriff Mulesick.

Andrew Hass was asked by Wilson to relate what Dunn had told him about his relations with Mrs. Adams. The boy reluctantly told of how Dunn had revealed to him the plan he had for running off with Mrs. Adams. They were thinking of going to San Antonio or the far West, said the boy. Dunn was going to sell his stock and leave his farm for his wife.

Early Tuesday evening Dunn told

WEATHER FORECAST

Tonight fair colder. Cold wave, temperature will be 28 to 32 degrees; Saturday fair.

the boy he would have to go to a store at Kennedale, and the boy said he would go along, too, as he wanted to get some tobacco. Dunn lives about a half mile southwest of Kennedale. J. H. Fielding lives about a half mile this side of that town. Adams lives within a stone's throw of the Kennedale depot.

Hass said he and Dunn were walking toward Kennedale and just in front of Fielding's home they met a man who asked when within about fifteen feet from them, "Hey, who is that?" They recognized Adams' voice.

Hass said Adams hardly finished the question when he shot Dunn. Dunn then opened fire on Adams.

Everybody's Sneezing In Vienna Now—Epidemic Of Influenza Prevails

By Associated Press.
Vienna, March 14.—The most severe epidemic of influenza on record prevails here. Half a million cases have been reported during the last three months and the epidemic is still taking the capacity of the hospital, nursing institutions and physicians.

Entire families have been attacked and all classes of society have been affected.

Threat To Use Hatpins Sufficient to Cow Crowd In Suffrage Parade

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 14.—Get out your hatpins, girls, a warning shouted by a young woman marcher in the recent suffrage parade here was sufficient to subdue a party of disorderly young men, according to testimony heard by the Senate committee investigating the parade today. The witness was Mrs. Elizabeth Wedel. She said:

"At one point in the parade, a group of young men locked arms and swayed to and fro, evidently intending to break up the parade. A young woman at the head of our section, who was very pretty and who had been the butt of many remarks along the line, grew terrified and turned to us exclaiming: 'They are going to rush us; get out your hatpins, girls. None of us even reached for a hatpin but the mere threat subdued the crowd at once.'"

VISIT OF LEGISLATURE RECALLS 1907 TRAGEDY

County Attorney McLean Killed While Lawmakers Were at Stock Show Six Years Ago

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, March 14.—Eighty-six members of the Texas legislature are guests of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show today. They arrived this morning on a special train and will return tonight. This is Cleburne day and Waco day at the show.

The presence here of the legislators recalls the tragic events which attended a similar occasion in the Thirtieth legislature's visit to this city, six years ago. Like the visit today, that of the Thirtieth was to the Fat Stock show; that evening County Attorney McClain was shot and killed by a gambler in the business section of the city, the gambler and a policeman also meeting death.

As a result of the tragedy, sentiment against gambling was aroused as never before and the legislature, upon its return to Austin, passed one of the most stringent anti-gambling laws ever enacted in any state.

Mrs. J. W. Lee is in receipt of a telegram announcing the death of Rev. Joseph, which took place last night at Ralney, Iowa. He was formerly rector of the Episcopal church in this city. His death was caused by pneumonia. The funeral will take place next Monday at Farley.

FUTILE ATTACK ON ADRIANOPLE

PIERCE BUT UNSUCCESSFUL ASSAULT BY BULGARIANS AND SERVIANS

FAIL WITH HEAVY LOSSES

Charge South Front of Fort, But Are Driven Back in Defeat Along the Line

By Associated Press.
London, March 14.—A fierce but unsuccessful assault was made on the south front of the Turkish fort of Adrianople last night. According to a dispatch from Constantinople, the besieging Bulgarians and Servians sustained heavy losses and eventually were repulsed all along the line.

MASSACRE OF ALBANIANS BY SERVIANS REPORTED

By Associated Press.
Frankfort on the Main, March 14.—Three hundred Albanian inhabitants of Liemua in the Turkish province of Kossovo were shot without trial yesterday by Servian troops, according to a dispatch from Uskup to a local paper. The dispatch says the inhabitants of this district totalled 400; they were unarmed peasants and did not try to follow the example of other Albanians, who fled to the mountains. All the 400 were captured and the Servian troops, after shooting 300 of them, brought the remaining 100 as prisoners to Prirend, capital of the province.

ASK LEGISLATION ON CHILD LABOR

CONFERENCE MEETING AT JACKSONVILLE ASKS FOR SOME STRONGER LAWS

WOULD RAISE AGE LIMIT

Believed Children in Many Southern States Are Allowed To Go To Work Too Young

By Associated Press.
Jacksonville, Fla., March 14.—Joseph A. McCullough, L. L. D., of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. Edward L. Bailey of Jackson, Miss., W. H. Swift of Greensboro, N. C., and Rev. Welner of Columbia, S. C., made up a symposium of speakers this morning on the topic "Survey of the Child Labor Situation in the South," at the National Child Labor Committee conference which is being held in this city.

Dr. McCullough reviewed the present Child Labor Law of South Carolina, and said of the situation in the present legislature:
"A bill is now pending in the State Legislature to raise the age limit to thirteen from and after the first day of July, 1913, and fourteen after the first day of July, 1914. This bill has received an unfavorable report at the hands of the Senate judiciary committee. It was deemed advisable not to make a fight at this session for its enactment, in view of the fact which was being made for the enactment of a compulsory educational bill, and in view of the promises made to the Child Labor committee by the representatives of the South Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association, that if the compulsory educational bill was enacted, they would unite with us in securing the passage of a bill raising the age limit of South Carolina."

Mrs. Bailey told of the enactment of the present law that gives Mississippi the distinction of being the only Southern cotton State with an eight-hour day for all under 16 years. She then said:
"To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Child Labor committee, the Child Labor law has been strictly enforced, as regards cotton mills and factories."

"But Mississippi's most difficult child labor problem at present is that of the little oyster shuckers on the Gulf Coast. These children are nomads, coming on oyster luggers from the North Atlantic Coast to the Southern Coast for the winter oyster packing season and returning to the Chesapeake Bay canneries for the summer. The children are with their parents—parents without mental ability or moral standards, with no conception of right living and no interest beyond their daily food supply. Whether the case is for the law or the gospel, local charities or national philanthropies, I confess, I cannot determine. Perhaps a measure of responsibility rests on each."

Mr. Swift said:

"The inference of the administration misled Congress as to the country's financial condition. The Secretary of the Treasury's report disclosed an expected deficit of about $22,000,000, but Congress never received from the president the information which the statute directed him to furnish." Mr. Cannon said:
"All performances of said Republican houses fall into utter insignificance in contrast with what the Democratic House of the 62nd Congress has accomplished in emptying the treasury and piling up obligations."

GOVERNOR THINKS SESSION SHOULD LAST TO APRIL 15.

Austin, Texas, March 14.—With many legislators in Fort Worth absolutely nothing was done in the legislature today. Gov. Colquitt said very frankly he does not think the legislature should adjourn before the middle of April, for he believes the appropriation bills and platform demands could be disposed of in the regular session if adjournment is postponed to that date.

FIFTY OR MORE KILLED IN STORMS THROUGHOUT SOUTH

Five States Are Swept by Heavy Winds And Fatalities Are Numerous. Very Heavy Property Damage.

(By Associated Press)
Fifty or more persons are believed to have lost their lives in the disastrous storm which swept over Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee and Alabama Thursday afternoon and last night. Many were injured.

At Calhoun, Georgia, in the northwest portion of the State, the loss of life apparently was heaviest. The storm was accompanied by earthquake shocks. Eighteen are reported dead in Northwest Georgia. Five perished near Atlanta and two at Columbus, Georgia.

Sixteen are known to be dead in Tennessee and it is believed when communication to remote portions of the state is re-established the death list will be much larger.

Today's report from Mississippi and Louisiana did not increase last night's list of seven dead in each State.

Property damage will be very heavy. It is impossible to make an estimate of the loss at this time. Telegraph wires are down in all directions. Today the storm seemed to have spent its energy and all casualties reported were those of yesterday afternoon or last night.

In Texas the only death was a negro near Beaumont last night.

TENNESSEE IS VISITED BY TWO SEVERE STORMS

Death List May Reach Twenty—House is Carried Two Miles by High Wind

By Associated Press.
Nashville, Tenn., March 14.—The report of storms which swept middle and west Tennessee yesterday evening show the death list may reach twenty. There were two storms, one west of the Tennessee river and the other which traveled up through middle Tennessee, sweeping a clean path a quarter to three-quarters of a mile diagonally across the county.

Part of the house of Leonard Davis in this county was blown two miles. His small daughter was carried 200 yards and her father found her nearly drowned in a ditch.

In middle Tennessee the most disastrous work of the storm was in Maury county. Hardepan county reports that Mrs. Dock Mahon, whose husband was reported killed near Middletown, died of fright after the storm.

$1,000,000 DAMAGE BY ILLINOIS STORM TODAY.

By Associated Press.
Chicago, March 14.—It is estimated that $1,000,000 was done in Chicago and Illinois early today by cyclonic winds which blew fifty miles an hour here. Several large boats in the Mississippi were torn from their moorings and many launches swamped. One man was killed near Jacksonville, Illinois.

ALABAMA TOWN HAS SEVERAL FATALITIES.

By Associated Press.
Huntsville, Ala., March 14.—Madison Cross roads, seventeen miles north of here was swept by a tornado last night, buildings were blown down and several people killed or injured. The wires to this place are down.

COLUMBIA, GEORGIA IS HARD HIT BY CYCLONE.

By Associated Press.
Columbus, Ga., March 14.—A storm of cyclonic proportions struck Columbus early today causing several hundred thousand dollars' damage. Two large manufacturing buildings were partly damaged, several residences were blown down and street car traffic demoralized.

COLD WAVE PREDICTED FOR NORTH TEXAS TONIGHT.

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 14.—A storm of unusual proportions causing heavy rain and snow in nearly every section of the country was central this morning in Iowa.

Cold weather is predicted for Southern States tonight or Saturday and a cold wave warning has been issued for North Texas.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK IS FELT IN GEORGIA TOWN

Accompanies Storm and Vibrations Continue Several Minutes—Several Reported Killed

By Associated Press.
Calhoun, Ga., March 14.—A cyclonic storm, which lasted two hours and was followed by earthquake shocks distinctly felt in this place for several minutes about 11 o'clock last night devastated a wide section of country between Curryville and Desaca.

The principal loss of life is reported at Curryville and Rosedale. Fourteen are reported killed at Rosedale, including a child of William Martin, Mrs. Barnett and five children of the Bolt family.

AL G. FIELD TENDERED RECEPTION BY ELKS.

Following the minstrel show last night a reception was given by the local Elks' lodge to Al G. Field and other Elks who were members of his company. Nearly the entire membership of the company were guests on this occasion which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Field himself, who has been an Elk for 27 years, contributed the most pleasing feature of the entertainment giving some reminiscences from his experience as a show man. Other members of his company at spoke. Judge Edgar Rye and Hon. Bruce Greenwood of the local lodge made short talks appropriate to the time and the place.

APPROPRIATION BILLS SHOW HEAVY INCREASE

"President Taft to Blame," Says Fitzgerald—"Extravagant Democrats" Says Cannon

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 14.—Appropriations of the last session of Congress including the sundry civil and the Indian appropriation bills, which tattered at the last moment and which will be put through at the extra session, totalled $1,098,647,960.

The annual statement given out today by Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee and by former Speaker Cannon, agree on this total, but Mr. Cannon says that in addition, contracts authorized for public work will involve further expenditures of about $75,000,000.

Increase Is Explained.
Chairman Fitzgerald attributed the increase to development of the country, increased government activity and constant pressure to divert expenses to the federal treasury. He said:

"The indifference of the administration misled Congress as to the country's financial condition. The Secretary of the Treasury's report disclosed an expected deficit of about $22,000,000, but Congress never received from the president the information which the statute directed him to furnish." Mr. Cannon said:
"All performances of said Republican houses fall into utter insignificance in contrast with what the Democratic House of the 62nd Congress has accomplished in emptying the treasury and piling up obligations."

NON JURY CIVIL CASES DISMISSED

JUDGE FELDER DISPOSES OF LARGE NUMBER OF PENDING SUITS

ABSENCE OF ATTORNEYS

Lawyers Who Fail To Show Up When Their Cases Are Called For Trial, Lose Out

Judge Felder has disposed of a large number of non-jury civil cases on the county court docket this week by dismissing them when attorneys and clients have failed to appear when the cases have been set for trial, without having a valid excuse. Some time ago Judge Felder adopted the rule of setting these cases for trial at a specific time instead of announcing a date when he would call the docket and take up cases in which the litigants announced ready for trial. A number of these cases were set for trial on certain days this week but in many instances neither the attorneys or the clients have been in court at the time set for the trial apparently having forgotten all about the settings.

When this has happened Judge Felder has ordered the cases dismissed and has refused to redocket them except in cases where there have been legal grounds for so doing.

Will Enforce Rule.
He is determined that the court will not be trifled with by neglectful attorneys and says that if clients suffer it is solely their own or their attorneys' fault.

The enforcement of this rule has already resulted in a number of attorneys being in attendance at the opening of the court in the morning.

$3000 SWORD WILL BE SENT TO GREEK PRINCE.

New York, March 14.—A sword decorated with gold and jewels, costing $3,000, which Greeks in America have purchased to send to Crown Prince Constantine of Greece, commander in chief of the Greek army, has been finished. The movement to purchase the sword began last November, when news came of the capitulation of the Turkish garrison at Saloniki to Crown Prince Constantine. Set in diamonds and sapphires is the royal coat of arms of Greece and on the blade an inscription in Greek reads: "To Constantine, the Liberator, from the Greeks in America, 1912."

The P. W. Nolen Mercantile Co's Great Saving Sale Continues

Until we have found a buyer for the entire business, we will continue to retail the stock and close it down as low as possible. Thousands of dollars worth of our stock has gone out to the public since we decide to close out, hundreds of families from all over the County have taken advantage of this unusual opportunity and bought their supplies for the year at a great saving, why not you? Is it not worth your while to save the 25 to 50 per cent we are offering on our Groceries, Shoes and Hats? You can not make a mistake—it's the biggest saving on real necessary staple merchandise ever offered in Wichita Falls. The stock must go and must be still further reduced before selling the business out-right. These prices can not even be approached elsewhere in the town.

L'Envoi of Bridge.
When earth's last bridge game is finished and earth's last rubber is done,
When the oldest "shark" has been beaten and the youngest "feind" has won,
We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it—sit down for a rubber or two.
Till the hostess of all bridge parties shall give us a deal anew.

Then we who play, well shall be happy—we shall deal from a golden pack,
And hold a hundred aces, and no card less than a jack;
And all of our contracts shall prosper and all our finesses succeed,
And we'll hoard our trumps like a miser and never return a lead.

And only our partners shall profit and only our opponents go broke
And no one shall frown on "postmortems" and no one shall notice revoke.
But each, in her feminine fashion, unheeding the other's complaint,
Shall play the game as she sees it, by the laws of bridge as it ain't.—From Life.

UNIQUE STEP IS TAKEN BY CLUB WOMEN AT WACO.

MRS. LUTHER WEBB IS HON- OREE THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Luther Webb, whose residence in Wichita Falls terminates next week, was complimented Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. P. Webb, when Mrs. R. P. Webb and Mrs. D. J. White entertained a large gathering in her honor. Easter decorations had transformed the interior of the home, lilies being extensively employed, and the Easter idea was carried out in the refreshments. Six tables of five hundred and two of forty-two furnished diversion for the guests. The favor or high score, an ivory fan, went to Mrs. Ed Cobb while the honoree's favor was a hand painted plate. The affair was one of the largest and most enjoyable given here in some time and served as a fitting farewell compliment to Mrs. Luther Webb, who will soon make her home in Oklahoma. Those present were Mesdames McNeil, B. F. Terr of Dallas, Leon Loeb, E. L. Smith, E. P. Greenwood, Luther Haynie, C. I. Moore of Petrolia, Harry Mey, C. B. Bolding, W. W. Little, W. B. Shepard, Alex. Kahn, W. J. Grisham, R. E. Huff, Ed Cobb, J. C. DuVal, M. A. Marcus, E. P. Walsh, George Harrington, Mike Walker, J. G. Culbertson, Ed Orr, W. R. Reynolds, J. C. Cole, H. L. Baker, Ed Howard, Elmer Philgo, Luther Webb, Misses Icie White, Dola White.

GUILD OF GOOD SHEPHERD CHURCH HAS TEA THURSDAY.

The Ladies Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd served tea Thursday afternoon to a large number of visitors. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Sammons on Travis street and was a very pleasant affair. In spite of the bad weather there was a large gathering present.

W. R. SCURRY CHAPTER, U. D. C. MEETS TOMORROW AFTERNOON

A meeting of W. R. Scurry Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. B. Patterson. The roll call will be answered with the honor roll of the State. All members are expected to be present.

The Elks will entertain tonight with a dance at their hall.

AFTER COUGHING MONTHS

Brooklyn, N. Y., Woman Found Relief in Vinol
Did you ever cough for a week? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for three months.

Mrs. Marie Primrose of 87 Newell street, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cold which kept me awake nights for fully three months, and felt tired all the time because my rest was broken. The effect of taking your cog liver and iron remedy Vinol is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest and I feel much stronger in every way."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements cods' livers aided by the blood making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. For sale by Miller Drug Store. (Advertisement)

PLUMBING ORDINANCE IS DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL

Salary of Street Superintendent Geo. Dobson is increased from $100 to $125 Monthly

The salary of street superintendent, George Dobson was raised from $100 to $125 per month by the city council at its meeting last night. The vote for the increase was unanimous. Most of the time of the session was taken up with a discussion of the proposed plumbing ordinance but no definite conclusion was reached, and the committee was given further time to prepare a draft of an ordinance to embody the views of council.

Another matter publication of which might interfere with the plans of council was taken up and acted upon, Mayor Bell being given authority to act in the matter.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back
Again by The Use of Cardul.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardul as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help."

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardul, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardul acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health. It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardul. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

ED. HOWARD, Sworn to and subscribed before me this 13th day of March, 1913. M. D. WALKER, Notary Public (My commission expires June 1, 1913.)

The 220 Boston telegraph operators have voted to strike and announce they will go without new Easter clothes to turn money into a strike fund. If they live up to this determination they will certainly win the strike.

If we quite catch Mr. Burleson's idea, he is willing to apply civil service protection not only to fourth-class postmasters, but to third and second-class ones as well, which would leave

Belle of Wichita--IT'S BETTER

First-class postoffices the only postal element left to the politicians. However, before giving this protection to fourth-class postmasters, Mr. Burleson would subject all that are in civil service examination, to the end, as he explains, that life tenure is not conferred on the incompetents as well as on the competent, and to be further end, as we explain, that good, faithful and furnished Democrats will have a chance to insinuate themselves into places now held pretty unanimously by Republicans of stand at this juncture. Well, we can conceive no objection to this proposal unless there be some objection in the hugeness of the task of examining one time not only the army of the fourth-class postmasters, but the probably larger army of Democratic obligees ready to supplant them. It could make a big school, and the Civil Service Commissioners, as the masters of it would have no envious. Whether in all respects desirable or not, if the choice is between this method and a wholesale turning out of Republicans and a wholesale turning in of Democrats, then we guess most folk will be able to overcome any objections they may have to Mr. Burleson's proposal. Strong as we are in the faith of civil service reform we are not incapable of commiserating profoundly with the emotions of the Democrat who, after sixteen years of denial, is now forced to witness his one record and mock him as it reads.—Dallas News.

NEW AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO LIKELY

SLAYDEN OR GREGORY LIKELY TO REPLACE WILSON, IT IS SAID

SERIOUS CHARGES HEARD

Present Ambassador Declared To Have Been Hard In Glove With Huerta Forces

Washington, March 14.—There is every indication that an ambassador to Mexico in succession to Henry L. Wilson will be one of the best sent to the senate by President Wilson. It is said today that such an appointment would have been made ere this but for the fact that the proper man had not been spotted for the post.

The names of at least two persons have been under consideration in this connection at the White House, both of whom, it is considered, could fill the bill were they, from any other state than Texas. These are James W. Slayden and Thomas W. Gregory. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have not hesitated, it is intimated, to express the view that it would be better to select the ambassador from some state with no Mexican border line and no resulting complications.

Benton McMillin of Tennessee has been urged for the post, and it is known that he has been under consideration, to some extent at least, for that position.

Charges Piling Up.

Some of the charges made and piling up against Henry L. Wilson are astounding. Some of them were made some time ago, but it is only within the past few days that credence has been attached to them. American refugees reaching all ports and sections have given such damaging testimony against the present ambassador that it is regarded as almost a foregone conclusion that a bill of indictment similar to the following can be sustained.

Bill of Indictment.

That Ambassador Wilson threw the whole influence of the American government into the balance against Madero.

That he gave encouragement and indirect aid to the traitorous Mexican generals so openly as to constitute the most pernicious form of diplomatic meddling.

That he used other foreign diplomats as his facile instruments in attempting to coerce Madero to resign.

That he either possessed advance information of the plot of Huerta and Blanquet to turn traitors to Madero or displayed aiding presence in his official dispatches, predicting Madero's downfall the night before it occurred.

That Huerta was in frequent conference with the American ambassador before the palace coup d'etat.

That news of the success of the blow was conveyed by the ambassador's messenger to Felix Diaz with the suggestion that Huerta and Diaz should come to terms.

That Diaz, distrustful of Huerta, insisted upon an American escort and protection of the American flag on his trip to confer with Huerta in the embassy.

Hostile to Madero.

That Ambassador Wilson, brusque, arrogant and unsympathetic with the Mexicans, was for months openly hostile to Madero and an avowed partisan of Felix Diaz.

That without the encouragement and approval of the American ambassador Huerta never would have turned traitor and that Madero never would have been defeated without outside interference.

That Ambassador Wilson's prompt recommendation that the United States recognize the new government was precipitate and undiplomatic.

That his haste to seal with his approval the weird official explanations of the execution of the Maderos and Pino Suarez has further prejudiced Mexicans against Americans.

Army Officers Know the Facts.

For a fortnight officers of the army stationed here have held the opinion that Ambassador Wilson did much to bring about the downfall of President Madero in Mexico. Some of them openly charge him with being responsible for the assassination of Madero. As one high official of the war department expressed it:

"Is it to be conceived that a penitentiary, no matter where located, is any more comforting than a residence or a palace? Yet Ambassador Wilson in an official dispatch received at the state department, a copy of which was furnished by the state department to the war department, said that he had asked that President Madero be moved from the presidential palace in Mexico City to the penitentiary for safety and because he could be made more comfortable there."

LIQUOR SHIPMENTS LAW ENFORCED IN OKLAHOMA

Frederick Officers Seize Packages Arriving Over Northwestern and Drouth Is Being Felt

The Webb bill is really cutting down liquor shipments into Oklahoma and officers in that State are seeing that the law is enforced. The following from the Frederick Leader tells of steps that are being taken:

"As a result of the passage of the Webb bill, which takes away from the shipments of liquor the protection of the interstate commerce law and makes the liquor amenable to the laws of the state into which it is shipped, Sheriff B. B. Eoff has commenced a systematic seizure of intoxicants shipped into Frederick, which makes the reception of a consignment of 'cheer' a matter of much detail and difficulty.

"Mr. Eoff began his operations Saturday when he seized all the liquor which came over the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railroad. This included four kegs and one cask of beer. While all these shipments were made to individuals, the sheriff required each consignee to make an affidavit that the liquor was for personal use and that he was not receiving it for the purpose of selling, bartering or disturbing it to others. After such an affidavit had been made in each case, the whole question was referred to County Attorney McGuire and not until the attorney had endorsed on the affidavit the statement that he had investigated the matter and was of the opinion that the shipment might be legally released, was the consignee allowed to have the liquor.

"Sheriff Eoff informed the Leader that it would be his policy henceforth to seize all shipments and require affidavits of this kind and the approval of the county attorney before he would release them.

"The seizure business became dull late in the week, however, owing to the fact that shipments of liquor were stopped by the American Express Company, which operates over the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railroad. The company, in line with orders issued directing its agents to refuse to accept liquor shipments to Oklahoma. Up to yesterday no such order had been made by the United States Express Company."

MAY NOT ABOLISH SOUTHERN NAVY YARDS.

Washington, March 14.—Secretary Daniels has considered the recommendation of his predecessor and the navy general board that certain southern navy yards and stations be abandoned in the interest of economy and has decided that no change should be made in the status of the southern navy yards until he has had an opportunity personally to visit them and make a close study of their condition. This will be done in the course of a month or two.

Baking Economy

By the use of perfect baking powder the housewife can derive as much economy as from any other article used in baking and cooking. In selecting a baking powder, therefore, care should be exercised to purchase one that retains its original strength and always remains the same, thus making the food sweet and wholesome and producing sufficient leavening gas to make the baking light.

Very little of this leavening gas is produced by the cheap baking powders, making it necessary to use double the quantity ordinarily required to secure good results.

You cannot experiment every time you make a cake or biscuits, or test the strength of your baking powder to find out how much of it you should use; yet with most baking powders you should do this, for they are put together so carelessly they are never uniform, the quality and strength varying with each can purchased.

Calumet Baking Powder is made of chemically pure ingredients of tested strength. Experienced chemists put it up. The proportions of the different materials remains always the same. Sealed in air-tight cans Calumet Baking Powder does not alter in strength and is not affected by atmospheric changes.

In using Calumet you are bound to have uniform bread, cake or biscuits, as Calumet does not contain any cheap, useless or adulterating ingredients so commonly used to increase the weight. Further, it produces pure, wholesome food and is a baking powder of rare merit; therefore is recommended by leading physicians and chemists. It complies with all the pure food laws, both STATE and NATIONAL. The goods are moderate in price, and any lady purchasing Calumet from her grocer, if not satisfied with it, can return with it and have her money refunded.

bill creating a new court for Grayson county. It is also more than likely that the same treatment will be given to the proposed court of appeals to be created either at Beaumont or Houston. There are several court bills now pending in both branches of the legislature providing for the creation of new courts and the attitude of the governor on these measures is not calculated to overjoy the authors of these measures.

According to Representative Humphrey, the governor has again turned a deaf ear to the proposition for a constitutional convention. This, however, will not deter Mr. Humphrey, who declares that he will make an effort to get the sanction of the legislature to the submission of the question at the next general election; that is, put it up to the state Democratic executive committee with the request that the proposition be placed on the ballot so that the people may vote on it and in that event should it prevail then it will become a platform demand.

Reedy and Rankin.
Chairman Reedy of the house committee on penitentiaries has made public a statement in answer to a publication by Home and State, published at Dallas, relative to the affairs of the penitentiary. It will be recalled that this publication had, it is claimed, insinuated that there was something wrong in the penal system of the state and Chairman Reedy had called upon the committee and tell what they know, and instead the editor replied in a recent issue. Mr. Reedy declares that his invitation to come and tell what they know of the system still holds good; that this publication persists in slandering men in the legislature, "and our governor when they deserve better treatment."

"There is nothing they can do or have done that meets with your approval," declares Mr. Reedy, "or win your commendation—is that fair to them? Is it fair to the public? Do you not think that the time has come when the wholesale slandering of public men should cease?"

Mr. Reedy also defends his action in supporting Mr. Terrell for speaker of the house, and declares that the prohibitionists who voted for him have not had occasion to regret their action.

Fried Chicken
(Cottolene) Style

The best fried chicken you ever ate can be made with Cottolene.

Cottolene

can be heated to a much higher temperature than either butter or lard, without burning. It fries so quickly that little of the fat is absorbed, preventing the food being greasy. For this reason, Cottolene-fried food is more healthful than food fried in butter or lard.

Cottolene is more economical than lard—goes one-third farther; costs very much less than butter.

Offset Well to 1500-Barrel Gusher Looks Like One of Best in Field

What promises to be at least a 900 barrel well is being drilled in today by the Producers Oil Company at its No. 14 Bickley. The size of the well has not been ascertained, but it is showing for close to 1000 barrels according to reports.

This well is almost an offset to Corsicana No. 13 Honaker, the 1500 barrel-gusher, being across the line and about 120 feet to the east. No. 13 Bickley which is about the same distance to the west of the big Honaker well, was dry at 1650 feet, the depth of the 1500 barrel well.

MARCUS WELL FAILS TO COME UP TO EXPECTATIONS.

The well of the Marcus Oil Company on the E. M. Biggers tract south of Burk Burnett, in which a number of local people are interested, was drilled in yesterday but was found to be good for less than ten barrels. It will be drilled to the depth of the Schmecker sand.

AMUSEMENTS

FOUR GOOD ACTS FOR TONIGHT AT MAJESTIC.

At the Majestic tonight, John T. Ray will present, together with his charming little partner, Miss Grace Hilliard, one of vaudeville's greatest, latest comedy sketches, entitled, "Hello Sally." A spirit of breezy, good cheer and wholesomeness pervades the vehicle, which is built on the sound foundation of mirth and carefully plastered with good acting, genuine fun and excellent singing numbers. The new sketch, "Hello Sally" was written by the noted playwright, Herbert Hall Winslow, and is in two scenes. Mr. Ray, as Jonathan Hopper of Hoppersville, is screamingly funny as a rube and his superior talent and cleverness is apparent throughout his action. Miss Hilliard, as Florabella St. Clair, of the chorus, is a perplexingly beautiful bit of sweet fluffy ruffles and bewitching smiles. Their work throughout signifies their superior acting qualities, while the vehicle itself is one of the best on the market.

Williams and Warner, the French musical act, which will occupy third position on the bill, will be introduced by two of vaudeville's cleverest artists, Williams and Warner. These two artists are talented musicians, having studied with the most capable masters in France for fifteen years before their debut on the American stage. They have invented a number of odd musical instruments, demonstrating both their skills as inventors and musical geniuses throughout their renditions. Their slapshone specialty is one of the most unusual, greatest and oddest ever introduced, and will win for them much credit as peers in the entertainment field.

A singing monologist, Milt Arnsman, will occupy second position on the bill and will present one of the greatest single turns of the present season. Mr. Arnsman comes to the Majestic Theatre direct from the Music Hall, Broadway, where he scored one of the biggest hits of the bill. He introduces a few newest song hits, intermingled with some of his most original, clever and entertaining tom-dy talk ever invented. Aside from that, he is of most pleasing appearance, and his suits are the very latest wrinkle in spring attire for men. So, if you want to be entertained, don't fail to see Milt and if you want to settle the question of what is, get for spring, just pay a visit to the Majestic.

Miss Loa Durbyelle, an exceedingly pretty woman, will give an exhibition of hand shadowgraphy. Using only her two hands, she will throw upon a screen clever and realistic representations of people, animals etc. Her work is said to compare favorably with the best of similar acts now in vaudeville. She will prove one of the most amusing and delightful novelties of the season.

LARGE CROWD SEES AND ENJOYS FIELDS' MINSTRELS.

A capacity house greeted Al G. Fields' Minstrel show last night, and witnessed one of the most enjoyable and satisfying productions of the kind ever presented in this city. There was scarcely a dull moment in the production from start to finish, and good music and good comedy kept the audience in complete good humor.

The singing was the most enjoyable feature. In this, Eddie Dungan with "Way Down South," Gov. Bowen in "Rag, Rag, Rag," Charles Reinhart in "Star of Love," Jack Richards in "Sweetheart Sue" and John Dove in "The Green Grass Grew All Around" were the prize confections and there was not a number that did not win repeated encores.

In the comedy end, Bert Swor, a Texas boy, was the star, and his monologues and other work delighted his hearers throughout the performance. The minstrel is elaborately staged, with many ingenious and interesting features and the composition is a finished product of the minstrel art.

COLONNA TOGGERY HAS FORMAL SPRING OPENING

Large Crowds Attend and See Brilliant Display of Goods—Elaborate Occasion

In keeping with the up to now and progressive policy of the store was the spring opening last evening of the Colonna Toggery, which took this formal way of introducing to its patrons and friends the line of ladies' ready to wear goods and furnishings for spring shoppers.

The store was brilliantly lighted and decorated for the occasion, and a hidden orchestra dispensed music that was an enjoyable feature. Every visitor was decorated with a carnation. The stock was displayed to excellent advantage and was the object of much admiring comment. Hundreds of patrons and friends called during the evening, attesting the popularity of the togger and Mr. Colonna feels that the occasion was a completely successful one.

GREENLEES BROTHERS ARE DEFENDANTS IN SUIT.

Jack E. Kelly has filed suit in the district court against Greenlees Bros. for performance of contract and debt. He asks $2950 damages. The suit grows out of a well drilled at Mabledean. In his petition Kelly alleges that Greenlees Bros., when they took over the well which Kelly had started, agreed to reimburse Mr. Kelly for the money he had expended. Mr. Kelly claims they have not done this.

"Time and time again during the past year, I have made to feel that what we need in North Carolina is a larger membership in the National Child Labor committee. So far as I can see, we must depend upon this organization to aid us in doing many of the things which must be done.

"Back of all attempts to secure proper inspection lies a greater work, namely, that of making the people themselves feel such a need for improvement that they actually demand that it be made. If the community only knew the worth of children and could only place the proper estimate upon child life, children would come into their own at once. What we need in North Carolina and in the whole South is somebody who will shake up this factory population as our farmers have been shaken up. The trouble with us is that our people do not consider."

Rev. Dr. Weltner of St. Luke's Lutheran Mission among cotton mill operatives at Olympia, Columbia, S. C., said:

"Welfare work among cotton mill operatives is a perplexing problem because of the illiteracy and the transient character of the mill population. Other phases of their condition, such as the absence of leadership and organization, the low age limit set by the Child Labor law of South Carolina, and the prevalence of early and ill advised marriages and a weakening of home life greatly complicate efforts at welfare work. The greatest needs of the present are a Statewide compulsory school attendance law, a 14 year age limit for working children and a birth registration law. Also, we need to have a labor union of cotton mill operatives, whose leaders have brains, hearts and consciences."
