BORDEN GIRL FINALLY FOUND

GIRL WHOSE DISAPPEARANCE WAS MYSTIFYING TUMBLED INTO ARMS OF FATHER

"A FOOLISH ESCAPE"

Father Forgives Daughter and Asks Papers to Treat Matter as Closed Incident

By Associated Press.
Boston, Mass., April 26.—Romona Borden tumbled into the arms of her father, Gall Borden, the millionaire milk dealer of New York, at the Hotel Touraine here today and so brought to an end what the family has decided to regard as a school girl's escapade. Half an hour later father and daughter drove away in an automobile for a destination not made public. Mr. Borden hopes the affair will soon be forgotten and is determined to protect the girl from more notoriety. Miss Borden will not return to New York in the immediate future. Her father plans to place her under medical care in a quiet retreat to recuperate from the physical and nervous strain which her flights from Ray's Sanitarium in New Jersey last Wednesday. There will be no legal proceedings against anyone.

Miss Borden Found At a Hotel.
Miss Borden was located at noon today at a hotel where she was staying with two girl friends and she was asked to return to her father. She promptly consented. Mr. Borden was waiting for the girl when she arrived. Later it was said the reconciliation was complete.

A person authorized to speak for Mr. Borden said tonight: "Mr. Borden's daughter has been restored to him by the ill advised and foolish persons who induced her to evade his authority. The case is simply that of an undisciplined girl who found discipline that her father had mapped out for her distasteful and what has been made so notorious is actually nothing more than a reckless escapade of some school girls. Mr. Borden only thought has been the good of his daughter, at heart a good girl and a sweet girl who now fully recognizes the deplorable consequences of her foolish conduct and is happy to be back with her father. Mr. Borden hopes and believes that the matter may now be treated as a purely private affair which it is, so that he and his family may be relieved of further notoriety."

Similar Escapade Once Before
Once before Miss Borden broke away from the parental moorings and for that reason her father decided to place her in the New Jersey rest cure after she had been found in Washington ten days ago. At that time she visited friends in the South, being absent from home without permission. When she was placed in the sanitarium she regarded it as a punishment and last Wednesday while out walking with a nurse she jumped into an automobile and was whirled away. The identity of her automobile companion was not known. The party went to Newark, Atlantic City, New York and New Haven. Thursday afternoon they arrived here. The next day one of the party left, Miss Borden remaining at a hotel with two girls. Yesterday noon of the girls was recognized by a Boston acquaintance who communicated with Mr. Borden; he arrived here early today and local detectives promised to restore the girl to him.

Mr. Borden is Silent.
The subsequent proceedings were scarcely less a mystery than the circumstances surrounding the girl's disappearance. O. C. Kyle, who came with Mr. Borden from New York and said that he was Borden's representative, this afternoon notified the newspapers that the girl had been found. According to Miss Borden had been located at a private residence. The detective said they found her at a hotel. Mr. Borden refused to discuss the matter. "He appeared to have suffered severely while waiting for word from the detective and according to Kyle he was almost ready to collapse when he met his daughter."

PRESIDENT WILSON TAKES DAYS REST.
Washington, D. C. April 26.
President Wilson left the White House early today and boarded the government yacht Sybil for a trip down the Potomac to rest. He will return sometime Sunday. His youngest daughter accompanied him. No newspaper men went along.

Clash of Labor Organizations In The Patterson Silk Strike

Paterson, N. J., April 26.—The American Federation of Labor officials are planning to organize the 25,000 silk workers who are out on strike under the direction of the Industrial Workers of the World. John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers, says that as soon as the silk workers are properly organized they will formulate their demands and will then appoint a committee to wait upon the silk manufacturers with a view to a settlement of the difficulties. "I feel absolutely confident that we can repeat in Paterson what we accomplished in Lawrence, Little Falls and Hackett," he said, "and straighten this strike out if the rank and file only have the opportunity." The A. F. of L. stepped in these places after strikes had been conducted by the I. W. W. for many weeks and succeeded in arranging terms for settlements that were satisfactory to the workers.

SINISTER MOVE BY BULGARIA

EVACUATION OF SALONICA IS VIEWED WITH ALARM BY DIPLOMATS

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Are Bulgarians Withdrawing in Fear of Clash With Greece?—Theory Advanced

By Associated Press.
London, April 26.—In diplomatic circles the evacuation of Salonica by the Bulgarians is viewed as having a grave bearing on the Greco-Bulgarian differences regarding the possession of the town since the fall of Janina. The Greeks have been concentrating considerable forces in the neighborhood of Salonica and it is thought probable that the Bulgarian commander at Seres became alarmed at the situation as a comparatively small force of Bulgarians was isolated there.

Austria Will Not Wait Until Monday
Vienna, April 26.—Austria-Hungary will wait until Monday for some decisive action of the Powers regarding Serbia, according to a statement made in official quarters. Should the powers fail by that time to agree on united action, Austria-Hungary will proceed alone to protect her political and military prestige. It is reported that Germany has promised to aid Austria.

Much significance is attached to the conference that the foreign minister had with Schomburgk this evening. The conference lasted until 8:45 o'clock although the Emperor usually retires at eight. The official French newspaper discussing Serbia says: "Austria-Hungary is to be really tranquilized the great Powers must not stop at a Platonic declaration of their unanimous intention; they must convert their good will into deeds without delay. In this connection the constant talk abroad of compensating Montenegro for her military success makes an especially bad impression. The political and military prestige of France has suffered by the fall of Serbia. If this injury to their prestige, this check to their actions is a matter Austria cannot follow them along such a path. She must insist with all the emphasis at her command on a remedy being found as speedily and as thoroughly as possible."

Carranza Warns Lenders
Eagle Pass, Texas, April 26.—Gov. Carranza, the constitutionalist leader, announced today that if the constitutionalists secure control in Mexico, they will repudiate the collection of any loan made by foreign bankers to the Huerta government. Carranza's statement referred in particular to the proposed Pierson loan on the Tehuantepec railroad.

Washington, April 26.—Riata, Suiz of Monclova the stronghold of the Carranza forces has been occupied by Huerta troops under Gen. Lopez according to official dispatches. The federalists are reported to be in force and preparing an immediate advance on Monclova. Dr. Bigelow Resigns.
By Associated Press.
Washington, April 26.—Dr. W. D. Bigelow, assistant chief of the Bureau of Chemistry whose name figured frequently in the controversy which followed the resignation of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, left the government service today. He will become chief chemist of a research laboratory to be established here by a cannery association. His resignation was accepted with regrets.

Bailey Declares Papers "Greatest Enemies Public Peace in Existence"

By Associated Press.
Galena, Ill., April 26.—Former Senator Bailey in his address before the Grant Memorial Association here today advised voters to cast their ballot without regard to politics and he attacked the press of the country. He praised the character and services of General Grant and Abraham Lincoln. He said: "Lincoln believed in the government as our fathers ordained it. George Washington believed in the Constitution and they called him a patriot. I believe in it and they call me a seceder. Let the Republicans nominate their best man, the Democrats theirs, and the Progressives theirs, then vote for the best man of the three."

Mr. Bailey warned his hearers against newspapers as the "greatest enemies of public peace in existence today."

CHARGED THAT PIERCE DEPRECIATED STOCK VALUES.

By Associated Press.
St. Louis, April 26.—Charges that H. Clay Pierce depreciated the value of the stock of the Nashville Terminal Railway, were made today at the taking of depositions in the suit of the National Bank of Commerce against Pierce to recover 15,000 shares of the Nashville Terminal Railway Company or their equivalent, $1,500,000.

Pierce could not answer definitely questions as to whether the bonded indebtedness of the terminal company had been increased after Pierce took hold of it. Mr. Pierce said that after Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas, took charge of the Tennessee Construction Company and all its subsidiaries was one, he gave options on the Illinois Central and to the Southern Railway. These roads operated the Tennessee Central jointly until July, 1908, and then decided not to exercise their option. The Tennessee Central then went back to the control of its stockholders.

Pierce said it was at his suggestion that Senator Bailey took charge of the property as his representative.

LONG BEACH BANKER CANNOT BE FOUND

Millionaire Wanted in Connection With White Slavery Investigation Still Hiding

By Associated Press.
Los Angeles, Cal., April 26.—Police Chief Sebastian today notified the assistant district attorney handling the grand jury investigation of the alleged millionaire white slaving, that when the grand jury meets again Monday, other prominent men than George H. Bixby will be summoned as witnesses.

Bixby, a millionaire banker of Long Beach, is wanted in connection with allegations by certain young women. He is still in hiding but his attorney has promised he will appear Monday. The lawyer insists that Bixby is common with others, has been the victim for some time of black-mail by young girls.

The whereabouts of Bixby is still a mystery tonight. He is said to be in several places. The police continue their efforts to get witnesses before the grand jury who can tell just what the numerous so-called prominent men reported to be involved in the charges had to do with the Jonquill, the house which it is said millionaires maintained. Grace Redwine who was arrested at Riverdale was placed in seclusion here tonight and probably will go before the jury Monday to give the testimony on which it is hoped by the police to base indictments.

COUPLE LEAPED FROM TOWER

YOUTH OF 18 AND GIRL OF 19 PRINCIPLES IN A MOST REMARKABLE TRAGEDY

THEIR BODIES CRUSHED

Suicide Pact Carried Out by Couple From Tower of Notre Dame Cathedral

By Associated Press.
Antwerp, April 26.—Elle Walkow, a young 18 year old boy and Alice Peeters, a 19 year old girl, were the principal actors in a remarkable tragedy here yesterday. Arm in arm, they climbed to the clock gallery in the tower of the Notre Dame Cathedral and from a height of 180 feet, leaped into space, falling at the feet of passers-by. Every bone in their bodies was broken. As they fell through the air several men and women who witnessed the sight fainted.

According to the police, the leap from the church tower was in accordance with a suicide pact. The tragedy occurred at an hour when the market in front of the north tower of the Cathedral was thronged with pedestrians, great numbers of whom witnessed every step of the tragedy.

The boy and girl had purchased from the warder at the entrance, tickets of admission to visit the tower, from which a wide view is possible. The porter noticed nothing unusual in their demeanor; they placed five letters where they could be seen by visitors to the tower. One was addressed to the police and the others to relatives. Entering the clock's gallery, they climbed up the stone balustrade; with hands clasped, they poised themselves for a moment and then leaped downward into the market place striking the pavement close to the historic fountain of Natsys.

The letters declared the young couple had been driven to their death because of a love affair. They belonged to well known families.

MYSTERIES WITHIN MYSTERY

NEW EVIDENCE ADDS TO THE MAZE OF PUZZLE IN DUNBAR KIDNAPPING

TWO WILLIAM WALTERS

Both Thinkers Who Look Alike and Both Near Scene of Kidnapping—Other Mysteries

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., April 26.—A mystery within a mystery has developed in the Dunbar kidnaping case, and today the identity of Wm. C. Walters, the alleged kidnapper, is puzzling the authorities more than the question of the identity of the child whom the Dunbars have accepted a strolch boy, Robert. Evidence was obtained today which indicates that there are two men by the name of Wm. Walters, both about the same age, both itinerant tinkers and traders and no relation and born a thousand miles apart but both frequenters of the same section of Mississippi and Louisiana and both so much alike that the neighbors of one readily recognize him in the photograph of the other.

Identified By Mississippi Citizens
More than a score of county officials and prominent citizens of Jones county, Mississippi have identified the photograph of the alleged kidnapper as that of a native of Jones county who was sent to the Tennessee state prison about twelve years ago on a federal charge. The man arrested for kidnaping denied he was ever in prison and said that he is a native of Robeson county, North Carolina. A letter received from C. M. Blackledge, of Tallahassee, La., says the Jones county, Mississippi Walters, the one who was in the Tennessee prison is working for a lumber company at Tallahassee. This morning a letter was received from Sandersville, Miss., which said last August two weeks before the kidnaping at Opelousas, La., a letter was received there from Wm. C. Walters, postmarked Opelousas. The Walters in jail declares he was never west of the Mississippi River except in New Orleans. A dozen persons in Opelousas have identified the photograph of the alleged kidnapper as that of a traveling man who was there last August. Sandersville is the home of the Jones county officers.

Questions That Arise.
The mix-up in identity has raised these questions:

1. Did the North Carolina Walters write the letter from Opelousas to the relative of the Jones county Walters?
 2. Was the letter written by the Jones county Walters himself, and if so, was it a mere coincidence which brought him at that particular time to Opelousas, the scene of the crime which has involved the other Walters?
 3. What Wm. Walters was it that carried a strange child to his home at Hattiesburg, Mississippi after dark the latter part of August?
- With all of the conflict as to evidence as to Walters, dozens of people at Poplarville and other Mississippi towns are still willing to swear that the child which the Dunbars identified as their missing boy was with Wm. C. Walters in July last year a month before the kidnaping.

HUMOR AND HEAT IN TARIFF DEBATE

NEW DEMOCRATIC MEMBER REMINDS PROGRESSIVES OF TARIFF REVISION PLEDGES

QUARREL IN MINORITY

Payne and Murdock Quarrel Over Division of Time for Speech Making

By Associated Press.
Washington, April 26.—Confronting Progressive members of the House with a plank in the national platform of the Progressive party pledging them to immediate revision of "excessive tariff schedules" without waiting for their proposed non-partisan tariff commission, Representative Lorenzo D. Stringer, a new Democrat from Illinois, called upon the Progressive in the House tonight to support the Underwood bill if they wished to carry out their party declaration.

First defending the progressives against onslaught of both Democrats and Republicans and declaring that they represented more than four million voters and had rights to claim that their party was the second party in the nation, the Illinois Democrat emphatically denied that the progressives represent a protection party. "You tell me that the Progressive party," he shouted, "favors a non-partisan tariff commission, that is true but that plank in the Progressive platform concluded by saying the work of the commission should not prevent the immediate adoption of acts reducing these schedules generally recognized as excessive."

An Outbreak of Temper.
The day's debate was further enlivened by an outbreak of temper between majority and minority leaders in the tariff discussion when Representative Dixon of Indiana, a Democrat, attacked the Republican tariff law and declared it was in effect an increase over the former Dingley tariff, and that the average rate of the Payne law was 17-100 percent higher than the Dingley law, according to 1907 statistics. Representative Payne, Republican, shouted, "The statistics that the ways and means committee presents today shows that the gentlemen's statement is utterly unfounded and false."

A clash between Representative Payne and Representative Murdock of Kansas, leader of the progressive over the division of time for speech making on the minority side enlivened the monotonous proceedings late this afternoon.

Representative Hefflin, Democrat of Alabama, made a humorous attack on the Republican tariff. He injected a good natured criticism of Theodore Roosevelt and the Republican party. Representative Chandler of New York, will reply to the progressives on Monday.

Representative Crist of Georgia, congratulated the country on the Democratic bill which he said should reduce the cost of living. He said he would place all necessities of life on the free list if he could.

Underwritten By Woodrow.
Representative Lafferty of Oregon, a progressive, attacked the manner of preparing the Underwood bill. He said: "It was written by Underwood and underwritten by Woodrow; I would suggest that it be called 'Woodrow-Underwood'."

Mr. Lafferty presented the progressive belief in a protective tariff policy and argued for the creation of a non-partisan tariff commission. Representative Cahn of California, Republican, denied that the protective tariff was responsible for monopolies and combinations. Mr. Cahn characterized the president's personal delivery of his message to Congress as a dramatic incident, a bold stroke, a brilliant spectacle, excellently executed. He said if President Taft, a year ago, had announced he would deliver his message in person he would have been denounced as a reactionary in many places and if Col. Roosevelt had attempted a similar feat there would have been a considerable portion of the population that would have pronounced the proceedings revolutionary.

RADFORD URGES SILO BUILDING

PRESIDENT FARMERS UNION DE-CLARES EVERY FARMER IN TEXAS SHOULD BUILD

ARE GREAT EDUCATORS

They Return Large Percent On Investment and Will Help Solve Cotton Problem

BY PETER RADFORD,
President Farmers' Union.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 26.—In former communications to the press
I directed attention to misguided or organized efforts of the business interests to assist the farmer, and I now want to call attention to a very simple and practical plan of cooperation between the agricultural and commercial interests. There are many other important methods which I will mention later. I consider the state is suffering from book farming and shall ask space of the press later on to more fully discuss this phase of the subject.

I have just returned from a trip through the northern and eastern states, attending the marketing convention at Chicago, also the one at Richmond, Va., and in traveling I was particularly impressed with the silos and red barns so prominent on many farms in that section of the country, and which are likewise so conspicuous by their absence in Texas. We need these twin agencies of prosperity in this state and I am thoroughly impressed with the importance of the silo to the Texas farmer. If we are to place our cereal and forage crops on a stable and profitable basis we must use all helpful devices and processes that multiply the value of the product after production and that enable us to turn waste products into profit. The economies easily possible in these two lines of endeavor are sufficient to make the Texas farmer home owners and wealth accumula-tors.

Will Plant Most Profitable Crops.
We can never hope to materially reduce cotton production until we find a more profitable line of farming than raising cotton. Then three-fourths of our farmers are tenants and the land owner usually has something to say about what is planted on his land, and on, shares, which is the case with 53 especially so where the land is rented per cent. of the farms. The land owner does not care to accept a share of the corn, wheat, oats, etc., for his rental when it brings him less revenue per acre than cotton. According to the Federal Government Department reports, the average farm value per acre of the leading crops in Texas during the past five years is as follows:

Cotton	17.45
Corn	11.99
Wheat	10.21
Oats	10.46
Hay	10.46

It will be observed that in productive value per acre cotton has an average lead of 52 per cent. over its rivals and it is quite reasonable that the land owners should insist on growing cotton.

Revision of Methods Necessary.
The soil and climate of Texas are naturally adapted to cotton and the state as a whole can never hope to lead in cereals unless the value of the product can be increased by artificial means on its journey from the harvest field to the market. A season well adapted to cotton will not suit cereal crops. The moisture requirements of these plants are different, and in a measure antagonistic, and three times out of four nature will favor cotton and we will have a good cotton crop and poor cereals. Nothing short of a revision of the plan of creation will change these conditions.
We can only hope to overcome them by rendering artificial assistance to the cereals and grasses by building silos and feeding to stock.

Feeding corn direct to stock by the old method, it is authoritatively estimated, adds approximately 30 per cent. to its value and the farmers using silos tell me that when corn is cut at the right time and fed as ensiled the efficiency of the food is increased 40 per cent., making a net gain of 70 per cent. over the market value by feeding to livestock through the silo. It is only in a small portion of the state that corn can be successfully raised, but in the remaining sections milo maize, kafir corn, sorghum, etc., can be successfully substituted.

Changes Needed to Retain Supremacy.
It is going to take a silo or some kindred agency to enable Texas to maintain her supremacy as a cattle producing state. Land in many portions of the state has, under present conditions, proven too valuable to produce cattle for the market, as compared with raising cotton. Nature must, in some way, be reinforced by the ingenuity of man or the livestock industry in Texas is bound to suffer.
The silo, by increasing the fattening power of the plants and utilizing waste, will make raising livestock as profitable as cotton growing and build up a waning industry as well as strengthen the cotton market by reducing production to the demands of the market.

PLANS ADOPTED FOR FINANCING SECRETARIES.
Dallas, Texas, April 26.—Following the plans mapped out at the recent session of the executive committee of the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association, the committee appointed to canvas the mercantile houses of Texas for finances to assist in carrying on the work of the association met in the mittee is composed of W. Holt Harris,

Waco, secretary; W. C. Munn, Houston; Loyd McKee, Fort Worth; W.
O. Connor, Dallas, and R. L. Penick, Stamford.

Tenant Farming a Drawback.
Perhaps the greatest drawback in silo building is the system of tenant farming in vogue in Texas. The silo is an immovable improvement used to the profit of a plant whose custom is as a general rule, to change his habitation annually and in any event his agreement or lease is often of shorter duration than the life of a silo, and if funds were available, he might hesitate to build the plant. The land owner may not feel like investing in a structure which his present tenant might desire and the next one would not care to use, but there are 198,195 farms operated by owners where these difficulties do not exist. I believe a tenant can afford to build a silo on a five-year lease, as it will more than pay for itself in that time, and certainly every farm owner should erect a silo on his farm for the use of tenants.

Silo a Business Educator.
My own observation is that the silo is one of the greatest business educators in agriculture, and like all great and far-reaching improvements, stamps its characteristics indelibly upon its human associates. It arouses the spirit of enterprise, develops commercial ingenuity, awakens the joy of ownership and will take away the omadic habits of the tenant farmer and plant within him a desire to own a home. Every farmer in Texas should build a silo.

We Have Just Received Two Carloads of Imperial Automobiles

These 1913 IMPERIAL cars will compare in every essential and minute detail with the highest priced cars upon the market. They embody, not only the best engineering practice, but all the very latest improvements and equipment pertaining to that perfection in motor car operation and durability the most exacting buyer can demand.

To the splendid reputation of the IMPERIAL has everywhere established as a car of absolute dependability and highest class we have added the advancements of electrical and engineering attainment to provide a still further ease and flexibility of operation, a greater comfort, a "down to the minute" refinement of equipment.

We believe that there is no car upon the market that offers such a combination of superb quality at such a moderate price.

We are proud to state that IMPERIAL cars are now manufactured in one of the largest individual automobile plants in the world with a capacity of 10,000 cars per annum.

Electric Starting and Lighting Device

These cars are equipped with a dynamo and generator for lighting and starting, above being installed in one case. Starter and generator are inserted in front of right hand rear motor arm. The starting device has a gear ratio of 28:1 and is attached directly to the crank shaft of the motor through the crank case under the right hand rear motor arm. Case is oil tight and electric motor and generator gears are constantly lubricated from the fly wheel by splash system.

When starting, the dynamo acts as a motor, automatically securing its power directly from a storage battery of ample capacity. As soon as the motor starts the gears shift automatically and the generator then recharges the battery so that it is kept constantly charged to its maximum capacity. By automatic arrangement it cannot be overcharged, making it impossible to destroy the battery by overcharging same after it reaches its extreme density for which it is designed.

The dynamo generates electricity from 300 R. P. M. of the motor and keeps recharging the battery constantly. The starting lever is on the dash within easy reach of the operator and needs only to be pushed to the left until the motor starts when it resumes its original position again automatically.

Lights can be turned on from push-switch on the dash. You can make combinations of lights, using the dash and tail or using the head and tail lights, or all lights can be turned on at once, as desired. When car is standing still and motor is not running, the lights are supplied and kept burning from the storage battery. Should motor be running at times lower than 300 R. P. M. the lamps will automatically take the electricity from the storage battery and retain the same brilliancy as if taken from the generator.

Land of Enchantment

THE real character of Ireland begins to assert itself when, traveling westward, the trim hedges and English fields near Dublin give place, beyond Mullingar, to wild, upland country, whose wide sweeps are broken only by stone walls and twisted thorns. Then there creeps into the atmosphere a subtle something which it is very difficult to put into words—something that is the very antithesis of English life and ideals. There is an absence of practical thrift and energy, an air of stolidness and neglect, which all the new, square-built government cottages can do nothing to lessen, for they intrude themselves merely as foreign crescences upon the landscape. Much more typical are the ruins that lie thickly over the country—once comfortable farms or snug little cottages, now crumbling heaps of rough stone, with only the great, open chimney still standing, as a nesting place for birds. The other day, down a winding "boreen" (a narrow lane), I came upon a collection of ruins that had been a good-sized farm surrounded by barns and outbuildings. Ivy and nettles masked the crumbling stones; a couple of larches had been blown against the wall of the largest barn and completed its ruin; in the yard the stone handmill had toppled sideways on its base of supporting stones.

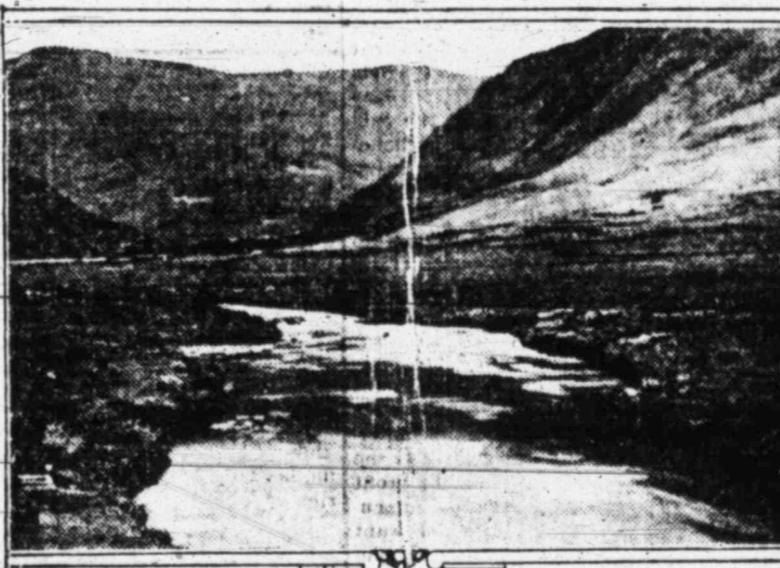

Nothing Disturbed.
The roof of the house had fallen in, the rafters broken by the weight of decaying thatch; but the rooms were still as the owner had lived in them. Nothing had been taken away; nothing disturbed; the furniture, clocks, rugs were still in their places, mouldering away under the open sky. The pigeonholes of an eighteenth century bureau had broken beneath the weight of age-yellowed papers; but one drawer stood half-open, as if the owner had been called away while looking through some letters. The leg of a chest of drawers had given way, till it sank, drunken-wise, against a folding table with hand-turned legs; a white-faced clock hung on the wall beside a tall, oak press, whose doors, falling off their hinges, gave a mysterious glimpse into dim, inner recesses. Brass knobs and handles had turned a peacock blue with damp; patches of mould, moss and lichen sent them down. There is no contrast in the fields of red plowed earth with golden stubble; no young winter oats show vivid green against the deeper emerald of root crops; as far as the eye can see stretches an expanse of grayish green pasture, broken only by gray walls, pierced by gray rocks, under a low, gray sky—a study in gray that is relieved only by the warmer coloring of the bogs.

Bogs Are Elusive.
After heavy rain, when the clouds are clearing, the pools among the yellow grass reflect the patches of wintry sky, giving an effect of Damascus steel work inlaid with gold; only here the gold is Damascused with steel. In another place, even in mid-winter, patches of horse are in full flower, while beside their golden glory a still-pool mirrors in its shining surface those tall, feathery gray rushes that look like a Japanese embroidery on pearly satin, while perhaps a bird swaying on a tall rush gives just the touch of animal life which the Japanese portray so imitatively.

The bogs are typical of Ireland—changeable, elusive, full of moods and mystery, not beautiful in the obvious sense, but with the fascination of an aloof and subtle woman, who is all the more irresistible because she cares nothing whether her charms are felt or not. These great stretches of bog give a sense of freedom and wide spaces which is one of the joys of Ireland. No neatly-trimmed hedges confine you; no great belts of woodland shut you in, for where there is a clump of trees on a hill, they accentuate rather than lessen the bareness of the country. Undeterred by barbed wire or notices to trespassers, you may ride or walk for miles across other people's land, clambering through gaps in the stone walls, plunging through bogs, pushing aside the piles of dead branches that do duty as primitive gates, and no one will say you nay.

To the wanderings of the spirit also there are set no bounds; the world of visions is open to any who will enter in and take possession, for the gate of dreams is at the threshold, and the gate always stands ajar. The real and unreal are interchangeable words here; the whole scale of values has altered, till ghosts and fairies, made green and gray splashes on wood and floor and ragged rugs; but still the room waited, open to sun and wind and rain, for the owner who never came home. Surely some Irish Rip Van Winkle had strolled out one summer afternoon, fifty years ago, to the fair, mound two fields away, and there, encircled by the moss-grown moat and ring of rough gray stones, had dreamed away half a century in the twinkling of an eye. One looked to see him return down the "boreen" now, gray-bearded, dim-eyed, old and crooked as the fairy thorus; but no one came, only the breeze stirred softly through the bare larch twigs, and from the broken roof the rain dripped as steadily as the ticking of a ghostly clock.

A Wild Aquatic Country

Such deserted homesteads, ruins at every turn of the road, every corner of the fields, mouldering away in unlovely and uncared-for decay, create a sense of overwhelming desolation which the land itself—truly "a land of ruins and weeds"—does nothing to allay. The country is in no sense beautiful; it has been called flat, though in reality there are never twenty yards of level going on road or field. An Irishman back from the States said to me, "It is what we should call rolling prairie out there;" and for anyone who has seen the corn plains of Canada, or the wild prairies of Mexico or Texas, the description exactly fits. Low hill behind low hill, mound beyond mound, they stretch away south for over thirty miles, to where the long line of the Silver Bloom mountains show faintly bobait against the pale winter sky. The only boundaries consist of loose stone walls, as ruined as the cottages, their gaps sometimes stuffed with thorn branches, but more often left just as the flying hoof of a hunter legend and vision, are inextricably interwoven with field and mound and bog. Every square yard of Ireland has been fought over and fought for; there is scarcely an acre which does not hold the bones of men and the relics of some old feud—Celt, Dane, Saxon, Norman, Jacobite, Orangeman—everywhere they lie where they fell fighting, and their spirits, unquiet even in death, increase the atmosphere of sadness and mystery.

Limitations of Mahogany.
A remarkable disparity is shown between the mahogany cut and the mahogany consumption. The cut of real mahogany per year amounts to 18,000,000 feet, while 40,000,000 feet are sold as mahogany. An investigation made of this subject shows that there are no less than 20 different kinds of wood which are offered as true mahogany, to say nothing of the others which are stained to imitate mahogany. The newest arrival in the ranks of the imitations is what is called Colombia mahogany, which is so-called for the reason that it comes only from Colombia. It is not mahogany in any sense of the word and it belongs to an entirely different family, but it has a remarkable superficial resemblance in grain and color. There is said to be quite a large supply of this wood available.

No Progress.
Knicker—That preglacial skull showed "man" reasoned before he talked.
Bocker—Well, that's more than he generally does now.

Luckily some men don't know as much as they think they do, or they would be greater bores than ever.

Jack Binford will leave this morning for Elgin, Texas, where he will put on a sale for a large mercantile firm.

"Tunny" Sandwiches Are Simply Great

PHONES 432 and 232

AUTO DELIVERY

The Tunny fish is one of the most tasty deep sea fish that has ever been offered the American public. The flavor is simply incomparable and you can't appreciate it until you have tried it. This fish is now put up in pound cans the same as salmon and I want to suggest that you try a Tunny sandwich sometime this week and I am sure you will appreciate it. Here is the recipe: Shred the contents of one can of Pierce's brand Tunny, add a little celery, green pepper, olives and nuts finely chopped, mixed with mayonnaise or any good salad dressing. Place in crisp lettuce leaves between slices of bread and then spread the Tunny mixture upon them. I am sure you will like it.

All last accounts King Nicholas of Montenegro was standing pat. The Powers told him he must not. He guessed they were bluffing, called their hand and now it seems he guessed right. Plucky old King Nick. He deserves to be the ruler of a greater Nation.

Since the rain wheat fields that had the appearance of having suffered greatly before the rain fell, have come out most wonderfully, and as a whole, both wheat and oat crops are much more promising at this time than they were one year ago. Most wheat raisers now think that one more good rain during the first half of May, will be sufficient to mature the crops.

Gov. Colquitt stands with Gov. Johnson on the alien land law enacted by the State of California, and it looks as if a majority of all the governors will do likewise. They take the stand that California, or any other State has the right to enact just such laws as best suits its citizens, and will result in bettering their condition, provided such laws do not come in conflict with treaties made by the National government with foreign countries. In this instance Japan contends that citizens of that country or discriminated against, but even if that be true, that country is guilty of the same thing, as it has a similar law pertaining to alien ownership of lands, and therefore that country's grievance against California is not well founded.

It now appears that the contest for the postmastership at Weatherford will be settled in favor of a genuine Wilson man, and not Mr. Martin, recommended by Congressman Callo way. Through mistake of a clerk in the postmaster-general's department, the name of Martin was sent to the president, and in turn the president sent the nomination to the Senate. Postmaster General Wilson did not discover the error until after Martin's nomination had been sent in, and as soon as discovered took steps to have it corrected. In all probability the matter of Judge Richards, who made the fight for Wilson's nomination in Parker county, will be substituted for that of Mr. Martin.

FREAK NEWSPAPERS

A newspaper which can be often after the information it contains, is absorbed, thus affording nourishment for the body as well as the mind, is being published in Paris, and is called The Real. It is printed with an ink or coloring guaranteed non-poisonous on thin sheets of dough.

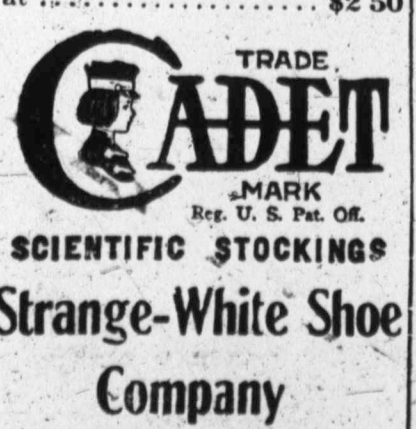

Another freak newspaper, the Luminaria, is published in Madrid. The ink with which it is printed contains a small percentage of phosphorus so that the letters are visible in the dark and the reader does not need to make a light to enjoy its contents.

At two French seaside resorts newspapers called Le Courier des Baigneurs and La Nade are printed on waterproof paper, so that the subscriber can take his morning paper with him into the sea and read it while enjoying his bath.

In Paris a paper called Le Mouchoir is printed on paper such as the so-called Japanese napkins are made of, and may be useful in case the reader has forgotten or lost his handkerchief.—Baltimore Sun.

SHOWING OF OIL CHILDRESS WELL

PRESIDENT COOPER OF COMPANY SAYS WELL HAS TWENTY-FIVE FEET OF SAND

MAY DRILL IN TODAY

Oil of Light Aniline Color and of Good Gravity—Much Excitement

Special to the Times. Childress, Texas, April 26.—George R. Cooper, president of the Cooper Oil & Development Company, gave out the following information to a Times representative tonight relative to the company's well two miles east of Childress: "We have twenty-five feet of oil sand and after washing the well, the drillers state that a fair flow of oil will be had. The last bailer showed much oil. The oil is of a light aniline color and of good gravity. We will wait over night, the drillers expecting to ball Sunday or Monday. Drillers tell me that our well has demonstrated that an oil pool is in this locality."

The Cooper well was started about sixteen months ago and the exact depth is not known.

A TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER HEROES

CITIZENS OF WICHITA FALLS WILL PAY HONOR TO VETERANS TODAY

HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Program at Majestic Theatre Will be Followed by Decoration of Graves

Wichita Falls will pay a tribute today to the memory of the heroes of long ago who endured the hardships and the dangers of the campaigns against the Mexicans, the Indians or in the war between the States or in the Spanish-American war or other form of military service for the protection of home and family, country or state.

Public memorial services under the auspices of the Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy will be held at the Majestic Theatre at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when an appropriate program will be given, and an address delivered by Captain B. B. Padlock of Fort Worth, himself a Confederate veteran.

Following the services at the theatre the meeting will be adjourned to the Riverside Cemetery where the graves of the dead veterans of all wars will be decorated. Efforts have been made to locate the graves of all soldiers' dead but in this the committee has been only partly successful.

Conveyances have been provided for all veterans to the meeting at the theatre and to the cemetery. The number of veterans here is not large and many of those still living are growing feeble and the townspeople will be glad of this opportunity to come out and pay their respects give a slight testimony of their appreciation of the gallant services rendered by these gray haired men who gave the best of their youth and life to their country.

This is the first public memorial service held in Wichita Falls for a number of years and it is hoped that it will be an annual event hereafter. The graves of those who wore the Blue and the Gray will be covered with flowers alike today in token of the feeling of complete friendship between the sections once embittered. There are probably less than a score of veterans of the war between the States living in Wichita Falls, but invitations have been sent out throughout the land adjoining counties and it is hoped to have more than this number in attendance at the exercise this afternoon.

LEWIS TO GIVE EXHIBITION AT ELECTRA SATURDAY

Featherweight Harry Lewis, who is in training quarters at the lake has accepted an offer to appear next Saturday in Electra, where he will participate in an exhibition bout against three fighters of all-time fame. Although one of the latter is said to be in the featherweight class, weighing about 120 pounds, it is said that the other two tip the scales in the region of 160 pounds.

Lewis is scheduled to go up against this formidable array all in one afternoon, fighting a four round go with each one. Doc Robbins, a well known local sportsman, it is understood will accompany the western scrapper, acting as his manager. It is also probable that several local fight fans will make the trip to witness the exhibition.

Today the Right Rev. Dr. Garrett, Bishop of the diocese of Dallas, will administer the sacrament of Confirmation at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd. The service, which is most impressive, will commence at 11 a. m. Bishop Garrett, after an episcopate in Texas of forty years, is about to resign the active work of his high office. This is probably the last visit he will pay Wichita Falls and the last service of confirmation he will hold in the diocese.

In the service today Bishop Garrett will have the assistance of his chaplain, the Rev. F. L. Carrington, rector of All Saints Church, Dallas, who will present the candidates for confirmation.

The many friends of Bishop Garrett are cordially invited to attend the service this morning and the members of the vestry of the church of the Good Shepherd will gladly welcome any at the service who care to be present.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to T. A. Allen of Bartlesville, Arkansas and Miss Annie Robb of Wichita Falls.

Petitions for the paving of Tenth street out as far as J. A. Kemp's residence have been prepared and may be found with C. W. Snider, H. B. Patterson and J. P. Gibson. Property owners on this street desiring the paving are asked to call on these gentlemen and sign the petition. The petition stipulates that the paving is not to cost more than $1.50 per square yard and that the city shall bring the street to grade and pave the street and alley intersections.

Architects Pate & Vonder Lippe have completed plans for the three-story addition to the 13th street school building, and the school has accepted the plans and will advertise for bids and award contract for construction of the building on May 18th.

The plans call for ten class rooms, library room, two teachers rooms, and will be heated by the Fan Blast system of heating.

Special to The Times. Texarkana, Texas, April 26.—Wichita lost the third and last game of the series to the locals after ten innings of close play. Texarkana should have had a two to nothing shut out but an error at first allowed two runs to score and another error allowed another score in the third after which both teams tightened up until Texarkana's half of the tenth when "one down Lewis hit for two sacks to left and scored on Tierney's two-bagger to right center.

The score: Wichita Falls.....3 8 2 Texarkana.....4 7 3 Batteries—Jones and Hornbuckle; Weeks and Ritter. Umpire—Merkle.

RALPH MATHIS WINNER IN OKLAHOMA MEET FRIDAY

Ralph Mathis of this city, a student at the State University, won first honors in both the half-mile and mile races Friday afternoon at Stillwater, Oklahoma, when the Texas team defeated Oklahoma A. & M., 67 to 50, in the dual track meet. Mathis made a record of two minutes and five seconds in the half mile and of 4:42.45 in the mile, both figures being exceptionally good.

ALLEY PAVING WILL BE URGED BY COUNCIL

The street committee was instructed at Thursday night's meeting of the city council to again take up with the owners of the adjoining property, the matter of paving the alley running between Ohio avenue and leading to the St. James and the Westland hotel. An agreement had been reached at one time for this work but some of the property owners "kicked out." It is believed that all can now be lined up for the improvement. This alley in its present condition is very dirty and unsightly and it will be impossible to improve it much until it is paved. It is a short cut from the depot to the hotels and is traveled by many visitors daily. In this connection Councilman Young reported that several property owners had agreed to pave the running back of the city hall.

BASEBALL

The Wichita Colored League Base Ball Team will open the season with Sherman Colored League Team

Sunday and Monday, April 27 and 28

Sunday's Game at Lake Wichita, Monday at the City Park Games will be Called at 3:30 sharp

Wichita has secured some of the best colored ball players the State affords, and Sherman has a National line-up.

Several Changes Made in The Personnel of Drillers

Losing to Texarkana yesterday in the last game of the series, the Drillers position in the league standing is practically unchanged. They still remain close to the foot of the ladder. During their present trip on the road the team has won three and lost five games. In the opening series here with Denison two games were lost out of the three played. This makes a total of four games won and seven lost by the Drillers during the season so far bringing their percentage down below the three hundred mark. The team left here April 17th, going to Ardmore. Completing the series there the team next visited Sherman. During the latter series Catcher Rosamond and Pitcher Sid Meyers were released. Hornbuckle, who caught for Durant during part of last season and started this year with Sherman was signed up and is now, with the Drillers. Callahan, a right fielder of unknown origin was also signed up by the Drillers. In Texarkana, where the team played a series yesterday, Twilley Covington, a brother of Bobby Covington, Denison's first baseman, was taken on. He was put on the mound in Friday's game, but lost his game pitching rather unsteady ball. However, after he has been thoroughly worked out it is expected that he will materialize into one of the Drillers' best twirlers as he has the stuff and only needs the practice to get into shape. The team will open at Paris this afternoon, thence to Bonham and are scheduled to return home on the 2nd of May, opening here with Paris on the 3rd. During the play at Ardmore Outfielder Kizzlar was seriously injured while retrieving a ball stepping into a hole and suffering from a very severe fall. It is not known how serious his injuries will prove to be but it has been reported that he may be unable to play again this season. The team is gradually getting into shape. Although still way down in the percentage column, a fair showing has been made during the present trip, and with a little more practice, barring accidents a big change in the present standing of the club is looked for. Captain Morris is confident that he has another winning pile. He is gradually getting the boys into shape, making changes in the line-up as he sees fit from time to time, and hopes when the team arrives home to put up a better class of ball than was viewed here at the opening of the season.

FIREMEN'S CARNIVAL OPENS TOMORROW

Great White Way Carnival Company Coming For a Week's Engagement

The Wichita Falls Firemen's Carnival will open here tomorrow. The Great White Way Carnival Company is expected to arrive today. The company's attractions include about 30 shows and is probably the biggest thing of its kind that has ever been given the public an opportunity to view in this vicinity.

The shows will remain here for one week, showing on the vacant ground on Indiana avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets. The carnival is being given under the auspices of the local firemen's association. It is the object of the association to raise enough through this medium a sufficient amount of money to enable them to purchase new uniforms and paraphernalia to be used by the company in connection with the State Firemen's 1913 convention which will be held in this city May 13th to 16th inclusive.

As the carnival opening here tomorrow is among the first in its class and is full of interesting features it is expected that the association's efforts will meet with great success, and that the company's attractions will be well attended during the coming week.

The latter include the usual animal show and various other amusements.

As an added attraction free outdoor performances will be given each day, including trapeze performing and a large number of dare devil stunts enacted in mid air.

NEW GUN CLUB BEING PROMOTED

Sportsmen Living in Factory District Anxious To Form Organization For Weekly Shoots

Arrangements are being made in the factory district at Maples for the organization of a gun club. The club will be composed of sportsmen living and working in that vicinity. It is anticipated however, that the club membership will later be augmented by several of the lake inhabitants, including, restorers and ball players, nearly all of whom are enthusiastic marksmen.

The membership will not exceed twenty. With this number it will be possible for the club to become registered, in which case records of the regular shoots will be kept and sent in weekly to be published in the leading sporting journals of the country.

A trap, which was formerly operated at the lake has recently been removed to a location in a large vacant tract situated directly in front of Trevathan Bros., No. 2 store. The promoters of the coming organization in anticipation of its early formation have already on hand a large quantity of clay pigeons and several cases of ammunition.

The association will be named the Maples Gun Club, and it has been decided that the weekly shoot for members only will be held on Thursday evenings.

During the season arrangements will be made to hold several shoots with out of town clubs and many interesting meetings are anticipated with the Wichita Falls Gun Club, which it is understood is now being organized.

Chi-Namel Demonstration

ON At the Chi-Namel Store on April 30 and May 1

We have the sales agency for the line of all-purpose varnish, which is so far ahead of any varnish that has ever been sold in this community, that we particularly desire an early opportunity to show its good points to some member of every household in our business district.

What we want you to know about wonderful varnish is something that cannot be told; but we can show you in a very few minutes that you get more for your money every time by using Chi-Namel Varnish for floors, woodwork, furniture, or anything about the house on which varnish is used.

This varnish is furnished in the natural color and also in a full variety of colors. It can be hammered and boiled without showing any signs of abuse. Any amateur can apply it to large surfaces and get just as smooth a finish as a professional finisher—no laps, no brush marks, no blotches to make a patchy appearance. You will thank us for this invitation after you have come to know all about it.

Other features we want to show you are the Chi-Namel Ready-to-Use Graining Process, by which you can cover all blemishes in your old floors and make them any color you wish, and also produce the grain of oak or other woods.

Old carpets can be made into rugs and a new hardwood border will take the place of the ugly flooring at a cost of but 2c per square foot.

We will gladly explain all these features at our store if you give us the opportunity.

FORMAL OPENING A HUGE SUCCESS

Great Throng Visited Art Loan and Jewelry Co's. Handsome New Store. The formal opening of the new store of the Art Loan & Jewelry Co., proved a huge success Friday night. Judging from the jam of people that tried to get in the store between the hours of 7 and 8, almost everybody in town was there and all evening, right up to the closing hour visitors kept moving in and out of the place, admiring its beauty and wishing its owner a continuation of the success that has been his ever since he came to Wichita Falls.

ply of both souvenirs and cigars had been exhausted. The latter were soon replenished but for the former, only the names of those who came could be taken and the souvenirs will have to be sent later. Mr. Art has already ordered these, as will be noted in an ad on another page, and as soon as they arrive he will have them delivered to his guests.

A feature of the event that caused much merriment was the guessing of the weight of a beautiful cut glass vase. Nearly a thousand guesses were made, ranging from two to twenty-two pounds, two ladies alone, guessing the correct weight, seven pounds and five ounces. These were Mrs. E. Westfall and Mrs. B. Dellis. Music was furnished for the event by the Katz orchestra.

Can You Help Locate Her? The Sheriff's Department yesterday asked The Times to assist in an effort to locate Mrs. L. B. Smith to whom a telegram came yesterday. Efforts to locate Mrs. Smith had been unavailing up to last night. The telegram is as follows: "Mrs. L. B. Smith, Wichita Falls, Texas. Your son is critically ill at Park Hospital, Mason City, Iowa. Answer.—Dr. E. M. McEwen."

Dates for our demonstration Wednesday 30th, and Thursday, 1st. Wichita Hardware Company, 804-806 Ohio Avenue. 99 1tc

COMMISSIONS

The man who comes to see you must receive compensation. We are endeavoring to save you this by asking you to come to see us, and we can give to the citizens of Wichita Falls and surrounding territory the advantage of the best MONUMENTAL, TILING AND STONE PLANT IN TEXAS.

Don't take our word for it, however, but investigate. We are leaders; we make no commission cutting claims, such as it was $200, but to you we make it $150, like the commission man, who comes to see you. Think it over and consider why he calls. If you come to see us it will save the extra expense and we can and will give it to you by giving better and more efficient work. We always make good and don't have to ask any one how to do things. WE KNOW AND DO THEM.

STUDENTS RECITAL FRIDAY EVENING AT C. OF M. AND A.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of its kind ever given in Wichita Falls was the student's recital at the College of Music and Art Friday evening. While all who took part reflected great credit on the school, special mention of some must be made. Miss Bernice Jackson's rendering of Godard's Berceuse was excellent. Under the able instruction of Mr. Templeton she is being recognized as one of the best young violinists of the city. Miss Bonnie Hardy displayed her splendid voice to good advantage and was warmly received. The singing of Miss Vivian Mathis was marked by unusual grace and expression. The star of the evening was Miss Edna Mooneyham, whose marvelous improvement was a gratification to her friends and reflects great credit on her teacher.

Mrs. McKee, director of the school, in her introductory remarks said that "quality of tone rather than display was the aim of the school" and this was exemplified throughout the program. These recitals are of great educational value and will do much toward raising the standard of music in our city.

A large and appreciative audience heard the following program.

Piano Duet—Misses Adele Adickes and Margaret Burnside.

REYNOLDS AKERS NUPTIALS THURSDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Alice Akers and A. C. Reynolds, a popular railroad man were married at the home of Mrs. Akers, 806 Ninth street Thursday evening in the presence of a number of friends. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. J. P. Boone and the wedding march was played by Jack Matthews. Following the ceremony refreshments were served. The couple will make their home in Wichita Falls.

RALPH DARNELL WEDS TULSA, OKLAHOMA GIRL.

The wedding of Miss Dencie Elizabeth Stebbins and Mr. Ralph Maxwell Darnell of Wichita Falls, Texas, was simply but beautifully celebrated Thursday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Stebbins of No. 521 West Fourth street, Miss Stebbins having selected this day because it marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of her mother and father.

The impressive nuptial service, including the ring ceremony, was read by Rev. Mr. C. W. Kerr, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, there being only the immediate family and relatives of the bride, the groom's mother, Mrs. M. M. B. Darnell of Wichita Falls and a small party of the bride's closest friends present to witness Miss Stebbins and Mr. Darnell plight their troth.

The marriage in every particular was characterized by the quietest simplicity. The home was decorated appropriately with quantities of southern amilax and other trailing vines, intermingled with which were roses and carnations expressive of the chosen color combination of pink and white. A particularly tasteful arrangement was evidenced in the mass of greenery and flowers which formed the improvised altar in the parlor and which constituted the decorations of the dining room where the table and the chandelier above it received most pleasing treatment.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the hour set for the ceremony, Miss Stebbins and Mr. Darnell to the strains of Mendelssohn's bridal music, played by Mrs. Garland Marrs, marched to their places, and while the beautiful words that sealed their union were being said, Mrs. Marrs softly played the "Spring Song."

After the service and following the extending of felicitations, the guests were asked to the dining room where fees and cakes, repeating the prevailing tones of the wedding, were served by Misses Nancy Younkman, Gayle Pettus, and Gladys Stebbins.

For the wedding, the bride was beautifully gowned in a crepe meteor, made entrain and trimmed in Duchess lace. Clusters of crepe meteor roses caught up the side skirt drapery. A shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley was carried. To travel in she wore a smartly tailored taupe cloth suit, with shoes and gloves of the same shade, while the modish hat carried the shades of deep lavender.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnell left on the afternoon train for a brief honeymoon journey, after which they will proceed to Wichita Falls, where the groom who is one of the prominent and enterprising young real estate men of that city, has built and furnished a handsome bungalow for his bride.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stebbins, one of Tulsa's oldest and most influential families, who has gained the deep love and warm admiration of countless friends and acquaintances by reason of her nobility of character and pleasing, unassuming manner. Mr. Darnell is the son of Mrs. M. M. B. Darnell of Wichita Falls and a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nicholson of this city.

Beside the groom's mother, other out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Allen of Marselles, Ill.—Tulsa Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnell will arrive in Wichita Falls Tuesday or Wednesday from a brief honeymoon trip and invitations have been issued by Mrs. J. T. Montgomery, sister of groom, for a reception to meet the bride and groom Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 4, 4 to 5 and 5 to 6 o'clock.

WOODMEN CIRCLE LADIES ENTERTAINED THURSDAY.

The ladies of the Woodmen Circle were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Lee McDowell, 1703

Austin street Thursday afternoon from 2:30 until 6. Those present were Mesdames McConkey, Young, Threadkell, Somers, Potts, Roark, Scott, Meek, Womack, James, Garner, Duffey, and Misses Lula Staley, Clara Miracle, Callie Powell, Susa Powell and Grace McDowell.

MRS. R. E. HUFF ENTERTAINS WITH BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

The first morning party of the season was given by Mrs. R. E. Huff Friday, April 25 at her handsome home on Brook avenue, where she entertained formally with Austin Bridge and Five Hundred. The welcome extended by the charming hos-tes and the nodding pink killarney roses that greeted the guests as they entered the spacious parlors put every one in a happy mood and the playing was entered into with much spirit. When the games were finished instead of counting the scores and announcing the winners (for there were no prizes given), the company was invited to the dining room where the shades were drawn and the lights were softened. The table was beautiful with lace, cut glass and pink roses where the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wiley Blair poured tea served Russian style, while Mrs. Arthur Huff and Miss Mabelle Jackson assisted in serving a several course buffet luncheon.

Among those present were Mesdames Cravens, Mark Moore, J. C. Strauss, Fred Weeks, Walter Robertson, Stanforth, Lysaght of Fort

Do You Want the Best Suit That $25 Will Buy? I Have Got It.

It is an English-Cheviot, and sell the world over for $35.00.

I can sell it for $25 because I buy the cloth direct from the weaver. I have it made in the largest factory in the United States, and our system of measurements eliminates any possible loss through misfits.

My price is right down to rock-bottom—just the very lowest margin of profit, and the fact that I am "selling the goods" proves that my system is right.

I have spent all my life in the tailoring business—my father-taught me the trade in his own shop—and it stands to reason that I can measure you more accurately than a man who knows only the selling end of the game. And I know, even before you put on the garment whether it is built right, whether it is going to fit, whether it is just the garment that the particular individual should wear.

I want to show you this suit and I know you will say it is best clothes value you ever saw in this or any other city.

MRS. T. R. BOONE ENTERTAINED AT FORTY-TWO.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. T. R. Boone was hostess to a merry company of forty-two and five hundred players. The reception suite of the charming home was decorated with pink roses, sweet peas and potted ferns. The first sunshine after a season of gloom and rain tempted the ladies to wear their prettiest toques and no one could fail to notice that Wichita Falls ladies are fair to look upon. The afternoon passed quickly. At the conclusion of the games the souvenir of the party fell to Mrs. Mytinger, which was a lovely cut glass dish. Dainty refreshments of two courses were served. Mrs. Boone was assisted by Mrs. Mark Moore and Mrs. Butler. Among those present were Mesdames Maer, Merrill, Sheppard, Wade Walker, M. M. Walker, Walsh, Duval, Webb, Art, Bolding, Kate Ward, Cravens, E. E. Sanders, Anderson, Lee, Smith, Greenwood, Orlopp, Gresham, R. E. Huff, Mark Moore, Silk, Durning, Bullington, T. H. LOCAL CHAPTER D. A. R. CONDEMNNS IMMORAL DANCES

Mrs. Edward Orion Jr., chairman of the committee on the Welfare of Women and Children of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has issued a circular letter urging the various chapters of the society to join her in voicing a public protest against those undignified and immoral dances known as the Bunny Hug, the Bear, the Turkey Trot and other dances of a similar nature.

The members of the local chapter hope that the necessity for such a protest, if it exists at all in this community, is slight, but being willing to co-operate with this very important committee, in any work it may undertake and feeling that such a protest, if publicly voiced by the ninety-five thousand women who comprise our organization, must surely have some influence in causing young people to desist from such violation of good taste and morality the chapter at its last meeting adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, We the Major Franchise Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution have been organized primarily for the promotion of a high order of patriotism and,

"Whereas, A good citizen is a good patriot, and good citizenship is menaced by any thing that is subversive of morality, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we do unreservedly condemn the immoral dances known as the Bunny Hug, the Bear, the Turkey Trot and other dances of a like character and do pledge ourselves to all means possible to protest their exercise."

SUNFLOWER EMBROIDERY CLUB IS ORGANIZED.

A number of ladies living north of Seventh street met at the home of Mrs. Comer last Thursday afternoon for the purpose of organizing an embroidery club. The first thing in order was the naming of our club. After some considerable discussion of names we decided upon for the "Sunflower" Club.

Mrs. Comer was elected president; Mrs. Klaster, vice president; Mrs. Shields, secretary; Mrs. Rawls, corresponding secretary.

Our next place of meeting will be with Mrs. G. W. Burns, 410 Austin, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The following ladies were enrolled: Mesdames Comer, Shields, Dickey, Lewis, Burns, Brown, Frost, Klaster, Smith, Rawls, McClure, Benson, Misses Shields, Comer and Tobojewsky, making a membership of sixteen.

"We just had a jolly good time," one of the guests told the reporter.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF SECURITY ENTERTAIN

Wichita Falls Council No. 2261, Knights and Ladies of Security, met in open session Tuesday at Odd Fellows hall.

There were a goodly number present and the program for the evening was a complete success in every detail, and enjoyed by all. The quartette rendered some beautiful selections and deserve the highest praise. Short talks were made by Brother Stillwell and Brother Martin, and the recitation by Mrs. Hardesty was enjoyed by all present. Also the speech by little Miss Joyce Hardesty was something fine. We thank her for her services, and hope to have her with us again in the future. Refreshments were served by the ladies. This was only the beginning of a series of such entertainments that we expect to have in the future.

A MEMBER. ART LITERATURE CLUB MET WITH MRS. GEBHARDT

A discussion of domestic science subjects and an exchange of recipes was a very interesting feature of the meeting of the Art Literature Club at the home of Mrs. Gebhardt Tuesday afternoon. This discussion and a business session preceded the regular program which was a continuation of the study of Mexico. Refreshments of sherbet and cake were served. The guests included Mesdames H. O. Cravens, G. W. Filgo, Elmer Filgo, Harry Robertson, C. W. Rountree, K. A. T. Ward, D. J. White, D. J. Carithers and the Misses Emma Childress, Essie Seeinger and Jessie Kerr. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. L. Baker.

MISS BEULAH HICKMAN MARRIES OKLAHOMA MAN

Miss Beulah Hickman of Sherman, Texas, and W. L. Richards of Marietta, Oklahoma, were united in marriage at 12:30 Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother, T. P. Hickman, 1004 Denver street. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Richards left the same afternoon for their home at Marietta where Mr. Richards is county clerk. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. J. W. Hill.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bawden will regret to learn that they departed this week for Wichita Falls, where they will make their home. Mr. Bawden is a cement contractor who has constructed many jobs in Altus, and whose work has always given satisfaction. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bawden are popular members of Altus social circles, and will be sincerely missed, especially in M. E. church circles, where Mrs. Bawden was an earnest, consecrated worker. The Times wishes them much prosperity in their new home, and commends them to the good people of Wichita Falls.—Altus Daily Times.

THE "BADGER MAN" HERE ON HIS ANNUAL TOUR.

Probably the smallest wild animal show in existence passed through Wichita Falls yesterday morning. It consisted of one wagon containing two wild animals and was driven by the owner and trainer.

The curious spectacle was viewed by hundreds of people on the streets of the city during the morning. The wagon, an old dilapidated canvas covered contraption, drawn by an aged flea-bitten mule passed up and down the streets for several hours, stopping occasionally when a throng had gathered to view the creatures caged within. The latter consisted of a dog, claimed by the owner to be part coyote and a pet badger.

No one appears to know where the outfit originally came from. The owner who appears to be a German of probably 35 years of age is badly crippled in his lower extremities and is also deaf. It is said that he makes his living by traveling about the country showing his pets and accepting small amounts of change from those he interests in the attraction. This is the third season in which Wichita Falls has been honored by the visits of the young menagerie.

The owner employs a very unique method in attracting the attention of the public to his crude outfit. On the sides and rear of the wagon, painted on the canvas appear several inscriptions of which the following two are very good examples: "I am deaf and can't walk. I have a coyote and a badger to show." "If you see where there is any pet badgers will you please tell me."

ON LOOKOUT FOR GERMAN AIRCRAFT

FRENCH ARMY POSTS ON GERMAN FRONTIER EQUIPPED WITH SEARCHLIGHTS

VIGILANCE IS TESTED

All Roads Near Frontier Now Guarded As Never Before By French

By Associated Press.
 Paris, April 26.—French army posts on the German frontier have been provided with powerful searchlights that sweep the heavens at irregular intervals throughout the night on the lookout for alien dirigibles. This is the latest development in the watchfulness with which the French are guarding the German line, especially since the landing of the Zepplin at Lunville a week or so ago.

To test the vigilance of the lookout French airships cruise unannounced along the 242-mile border and woe to the luckless picket who fails to detect their presence. All roads leading near the frontier are guarded as never before. The wayfarer from the German line encounters frequent patrols who observe sharply, but do not challenge. Among officers of the French army a favorite topic for discussion and concern is the possible start of twenty-four hours the Germans might get in case of war. The fate of the French nation, they say, might depend upon the prompt intelligence of a sergeant's patrol.

The wires leading from the frontier to Paris were alive with the alarm when the Zepplin crossed the border and descended at Lunville. Intelligence officers at the Nancy headquarters received from watchers along the frontier four telephone calls telling of the passage of the aircraft. The posts on all that part of the line were astir with alarm and doubt; a thousand field glasses swept the haze and fog of the heavens for a glimpse of the unwelcome visitor.

At Paris the War Ministry was promptly notified by telephone. The French air cavalry, especially the aeroplanists at Nancy, scurried to their hangars and remained there in momentary readiness to take wing and reconnoiter the German side for movements of troops. Since then the French War Ministry has not relaxed its vigilance, rather it has been increased.

See Sting Cure For Ophthalmia.
 A man stung by a bee the other day has discovered an unusual cure for catarrhal ophthalmia, and has brought his case to the attention of Dr. Tarnawski. The doctor's patient was suffering from double catarrhal ophthalmia that had resisted all orthodox treatments. He was stung by a bee on his left eyelid. When he woke up the next morning he found that the light was no longer painful to his eye and that the discharge had ceased. The delighted patient captured another bee and had it sting him on the other eye. The next morning it was cured.

Beautiful Rose Grown in Common Clay.

The beauty of the rose has been enhanced greatly by a new soil treatment recently discovered in an odd manner. When the first excavations were made for the Paris subway a gardener carted away a few loads of the clay dumpings. He tried roses on the soil thus procured, and to his amazement they grew finer than in the highly prized clays. Since then there has been a great demand from rose-growers for subway clay. The roses grown on this soil have been dubbed "subway roses." They have extraordinarily vivid colors and exquisite odor and are taking all prizes at the spring horticultural shows, where they have been allotted a section to themselves.

"Aviette" Latest Pleasure Vehicle.

"Aviette" is the name given to a flying machine propelled by the leg-power of the operator, treading as he would on a bicycle. It is being tried out at Meaux near Paris by M. Etienne, a military telegrapher, attached to the third Hussars. He can rise from the earth and fly from 150 to 200 feet. The physical efforts in starting is considerable, but after the start Etienne does not find the work harder than running. With experience and a perfected machine, he believes a man could probably fly for a half or three-quarters of an hour without excessive fatigue.

WANDERING WAISTLINE OF MODERN WOMAN

New York, April 26.—It has been recently alleged by one of the most noted French artists and designers of women's dress that the American woman is the best-gowned woman in the world, and most of us will agree with the French designer. Women of this continent show much originality and artistic ability. They refuse to adopt models which fail to add to their charm, beauty and comfort. This was made plain when a French house, a year or two ago, tried to place the divided skirt on the market. It was the American woman who voted it down, and that so decidedly and with such strong protest against a fashion so bizarre, that the house in question has not attempted a similar flight.

It was the American woman, too, who set the fashion of the raised waistline. She would have none of the Empire style forced upon her, as this threw her out of proportion and accentuated the length of limb which, when properly treated, is one of her most artistic assets. Thus, because of her, it was decreed that what is known as the three-quarter line be adopted. For the last two years this line has been in favor, not only throughout America, but throughout Europe.

But it is not her beauty in line alone that she excels. Her dress must combine comfort with beauty and charm, and in this, too, she is superiorly supreme. Her simple tailored suits, trim walking skirts, shirt waist frocks and pleasing full dresses outdo those of the women of any other country.

What could be more attractive than the frock pictured in the first figure? It was developed in figured agarie, having brown floral motif on a tan ground. The rash, of brown mesaline, tied loosely at side-front, is a smart feature. The negligee appearance is not only attractive, but secures a degree of comfort unattainable by the close-fitting waist.

It is a mistake to suppose that shirt waists have gone out of fashion. They not only remain popular, but many are the new notes both of material and construction which are shown in summer-blouses. Nowadays women realize that the summer sewing must not be delayed till the hot weather is upon us. This time must be left free to be spent out-of-doors.

Among the essentials for every woman, whether rich or poor, who would be comfortable during this period, for the same atmospheric conditions are felt in cottage and mansion alike, is an unlimited number of cool, suitable waists. These may be as dainty as can be afforded, but not too fragile to withstand frequent tubbing. To this purpose dotted Swiss, striped and plain voile, wash silk, both in stripes, checks and plain grounds, Ramee and Irish linen, crepe, net, creamy-white satin and China silk may all be used with most satisfactory results. From now until midsummer a few other materials may be added to the list. Chiffon, mousseline and lace, although very perishable, will continue to be extremely popular. Simplicity is the characteristic of these waists. Many of them are made without any trimming whatever, others have a bit of embroidery, a front ruffle of lace, rows of hemstitching or a few inserted medallions.

Some of the simpler models of sheer fabrics are closed in the back and have a filmy cascaded flounce down the front; others, on kimono lines, have much fullness in front and back of bodice and about the underarm. A youthful model is that with deeply dropped shoulder extending almost to the elbow, from which hangs a bishop puff continues to the wrist. Another effective novelty in blouses is that known as the "epaulet." When combined with Bulgarian embroidery it is particularly smart. This multi-colored embroidery may be used for the epaulets, high rolling collar, cuffs, and, if desired, a lower yoke or applied section extending upward from the waist. The "pocket" blouse, developed in silk or linen, has perhaps already won more general acclaim than any other model. In distinctive features are the pockets, one on either side, and front filled in by simulated vest trimmed with tiny buttons and developed in net, tulle or lace. Blouses of chiffon and lace are particularly notable for their simplicity. Some of these in chiffon are loosely pleated in half inch side pleats; under this pleating is placed chiffon of a different color, which in turn has a foundation of shadow lace. The sleeves in this style of blouse contain considerably more material than the sleeves of waists in general, as, otherwise, a fabric of such diaphanous texture would very scarcely survive one wearing. But none of the blouses of chiffon, no matter what the construction or the number of layer of material used, gives as good service as those made of stouter web. Those of net, lace, voile and crepe are much more practical. Since some waists have been accorded delicate, manufacturers have applied their skill to the requirements and turned out materials in which the pleating is done in the weave. This is so firmly wrought that neither cleaning nor pressing removes it. Parquet, a soft woolen fabric with raised design, is the name of one fabric subjected to this treatment, white crepe, both cotton, silk and wool, has been similarly woven.

Very charming is the frock in the second illustration. It was developed in Futurist summer silk, having white ground overlaid with blue motifs. Collar, front insert and cuffs are of white satin. A bit of drapery and slender lines bring the skirt smartly up to date.

Rattlesnake Vanquished With Sunbonnet

A new use for a sunbonnet was discovered by Mrs. J. W. Morris, one day last week, when she saved herself from a rattlesnake by turning one into a weapon. Mrs. Morris had gone into the cellar at her home on North Fifth street, and when she turned to go out, found a rattler barring the door. The snake was coiled and ready to strike. Not being able to get by and having nothing else at hand to use in her defense, she took her sunbonnet from her head and threw it at the snake, whereupon the snake turned tail and vanished down a hole. Mr. Morris was out of town at the time. Cliff Morris, a son, sent a man out from the Morris garage with a shotgun, and the gun was fired down the hole where the snake went, but whether it reached the snake is, of course, not known.—Frederick Leader.

Died From Snake Bite

Neighbors were in town yesterday after a coffin for the eight year old son of E. H. Humphreys of Elba. It seems the boy was with his father in the field Monday evening, and nearing a fence corner was bit in the calf of the leg by a large rattlesnake measuring over three feet in length. The doctor from Kirklind was sent for immediately, but the child died Tuesday night.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

Test Case of Liquor Seizure

What probably will develop into a test case of the new liquor law, or at least one phase of it, developed Saturday afternoon when deputy sheriffs arrested H. L. Hollister, agent of the American Express Company, on the charge of interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. Saturday there arrived at the Frederick office of the American Express Company, at the Wichita Falls, & Northwestern depot, a keg of beer consigned to a farmer residing near this city. Mr. Hollister had previously been advised by the officers of the express company not to allow the shipment of liquor to be taken from his office by the officers, unless the officers were in possession of papers from a competent court. When Deputies Lee Carter and F. P. Corpening appeared for the purpose of arresting the keg, Mr. Hollister took hold of it and refused to give possession of it to the officers. One of the deputies then arrested Mr. Hollister and the other took charge of the keg, and soon had its contents spilled on the thirsty earth. What became of the thirst of the consignee does not appear on record, but it may well be imagined. Mr. Hollister was arraigned before Judge Lukenbill, pleaded not guilty and gave bond of $300 for his appearance in county court the first Monday in July. It is presumed that, under the circumstances, the express company will defend the case vigorously and that an effort will be made at the trial to establish the true import of the law governing such cases.

Following this occurrence Mr. Hollister made the following statement: I desire to make a statement to the public regarding the circumstances of my arrest by a deputy sheriff Saturday evening on the charge of "resisting an officer." In order that the public may be in possession of the precise facts in the case and know that I am not a law violator, and was not on the occasion of my arrest. I am in possession of definite instructions from the superintendent of the American Express Company, for which I am agent at Frederick, to not allow anyone to take express from my office, except the consignee, unless an officer with proper warrant from a competent court. Saturday evening a keg of beer was received consigned to P. Meininger. Deputy Sheriff Carter informed me that he was going to take it. I refused to allow him to do so without a warrant, as per my instructions, but offered to hold it and not deliver it to the consignee until he had time to get a warrant. This he refused to do, and when I again refused to permit him to take it he arrested me as stated above. I have never before been arrested, have no intention of violating any law, and have no desire to interfere with any officer, but was simply following the instructions of my employer, which in turn informs me that it is following the instructions of its attorneys. The matter will be tried in court and the facts demonstrated then. Regarding the law or the officers I have nothing to say. Both can speak for themselves and the public will no doubt be informed of the subsequent proceedings. In the meantime, I shall continue to follow the instructions of the company which employs me, confident that neither it nor its attorneys will give such instructions as will cause me to violate any law.—Frederick Leader.

Another Brick Plant at Bridgeport. The Wise County Brick Company of Bridgeport have announced that they will install another brick plant of largest capacity at this place as soon as the machinery can be placed. The machinery has been purchased, but some time will be necessary to get it on the ground and in working order. The plant which has been in operation since 1909 will continue to run. The business of this plant has increased since its first year. The output of brick has increased from 5,000,000 the first year to practically twice that amount last year.—Bridgeport Times.

Quinn, W. O. Golsen and W. H. Baird, directors.—Burburnett Star.

Creamery Plant at Quanah

On Friday the directors of the Quanah Creamery Co., closed a contract with the Nissley Creamery Co., of Fort Worth, whereby the latter agreed to operate the Quanah plant for the coming two years, retaining at the close of this time a preference right to either lease or sell the plant.

The Nissley Company are a large and responsible concern, in fact the largest shippers of butter in the Southwest, and operate all over this country. Quanah's excellent location for a butter market attracted them, for from here they can buy butterfat in Southwestern Oklahoma, which on account of high express charges. About the first of May the plant will be put in operation, a man from Oklahoma City, a first class butter maker and business man, to be placed in charge. Every pound of butterfat that comes to Quanah will be bought at the highest possible market price. The company enjoys a great reputation for fair dealing, and every farmer who has business transactions with them, may rest assured of receiving a square deal.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

Middlebush Surveyors

A surveying crew of 16 men are camped in Bassham's wagon yard. In a few days they will finish the survey of the Quanah, Seymour, Bublin & Rockport Railroad from Graham to Seymour. There will then remain only the stretch from Graham to Strawn to be surveyed. The line comes into Baylor five miles south of Round Timber, passes within 300 yards of Round Timber and will probably parallel the G. T. & W. from Rendham. Work is to begin July 1. More about it next week.—Seymour Banner.

Injured in Runaway

Mrs. Theodore Fritz, Miss Ula Huffine and Mrs. Barker were injured in a runaway accident Saturday afternoon. At the same time, Mrs. Fritz's horse, which they were driving was so badly hurt that it had to be killed. The accident happened about 7 o'clock, while the ladies were driving from the fairground to the business portion of the city. As they turned north on Eighth street, the horse became frightened at an automobile. The driver of the automobile stopped his car, and the horse had been brought under control, when it was again frightened by a paper containing a hat falling out of a buggy. It ran north a short distance and then turned into a ditch alongside the cotton yard, on the east side of the street, throwing the occupants to the ground. The horse's leg was broken and it was found necessary to kill it. The buggy was wrecked. Mrs. Fritz suffered an injury to one of her arms, although it was not broken. Mrs. Barker was sorely bruised, while Miss Huffine escaped with some slight wounds to her face. Mrs. Barker, who lives near the scene of the accident was assisted to her home. Mrs. Fritz was taken to the home of D. A. Turner, where she remained until Monday morning, when she went to her home, west of Frederick. Miss Huffine, who also lives west of Frederick, was able to go home Saturday evening.—Frederick Leader.

"Pay Dirt" Along Deep Red

Reports from the gold fields along Deep Red river, in the northeast part of Tillman county, are to the effect that the mining companies operating there are active and are taking out considerable quantities of "pay dirt." It is believed that the same kind of dirt which is said to be yielding a profit to the miners now, exists for many miles around. Chickens in the valley of Dead Man creek have been discovered to have gold in their craws, evidently picked out of the sand and gravel. And so it may come to pass that gold mining may be added as a side line by the farmers in this rich country. A miner's pan was used for panning out some of the dirt brought to Frederick and it was found to be rich in gold. Reports from the Deep Red mines are to the effect that the miners are finding the deposits there even more valuable than they had expected.—Frederick Leader.

GOOD NEWS —FOR— WICHITA FALLS

The lowering of the tariff by the Democratic Congress means a reduction in the cost of living. Mr. J. Lippman, a resident of Texas and Oklahoma for 26 years, and a lifelong Democrat, has just returned from Washington, where he received assurances that the tariff would be reduced. It means much to the people of Wichita Falls and vicinity for Mr. Lippman has decided to reduce the price on all of his goods. While in Washington Mr. Lippman was asked "Why are you a Democrat?" His answer was, "Because the Democrats are honest, straightforward people. Going back 4000 years to the great flood, I believe God destroyed the world because the people were republicans—if there had been as many Democrats as there were Republicans the terrible disaster would never have happened. For this reason I am a Democrat and proud of it."

I have a special stock of ladies' dress goods, dress patterns and up-to-date Japanese drawn patterns, woolen goods, and beautiful silk skirts of all kinds that must be sold at low tariff prices.

Dress patterns of the latest design that sold for $15.00 now $4 25
Patterns that sold for $12, will now be sold for $3 50

Imported embroideries, white goods, etc., to be sold at less than half price.

Owing to the fact that we could not secure a large store, we have decided to occupy the room in the Palace Hotel at the corner of Eighth and Scott. Only limited quantities of the stock can be shown here, but all orders can be promptly filled.

Mr. Lippman also has a fine display of millinery—beautiful hats and trimmings to be sold at less than half price. He has employed two expert milliners and dressmakers—ladies who have had experience in some of the largest establishments of the state, and any goods bought from him will be made up by them at half price.

Mr. Lippman deals direct with the National Importing and Mfg. Co. who have offices in Yokohama, Japan, Plunien, Germany, Vienna, Austria, Paris, France, and New York and has a capital of $5,000,000.

This big sale starts Monday, April 28, and lasts till May 3, after which Mr. Lippman goes to New York to pick out a fine fall stock. Don't forget the place, corner Eighth and Scott, Palace Hotel.

FREE, FREE, FREE.

For three days only, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 28, 29, and 30, with every purchase of $5.00 or more, we will give a large handsome box containing the following articles:

- 1 cake Pumice hand soap.
- 1 cake Bay Rum Toilet soap.
- 1 cake Rose Cream Toilet Soap.
- 1 cake Medicated Cuticle Soap.
- 1 box Borated Talcum Powder.
- 1 box Lilacine Complexion Powder.

- 1 box French Powder, and six solid silveroid tea spoons, French imported and sent direct to Mr. Lippman.

MAPLES WANTS A POSTOFFICE

PEOPLE THERE HAVE SIGNED PETITION ASKING FOR AN OFFICE

POSTMASTERSHIP TALK

Friends of Ernest Trevathan Urge His Appointment As First Postmaster of Town

It is almost an assured fact that the factory district, lying south of the city, will, in the very near future be recognized by the government in the placing in that vicinity of a U. S. postoffice. This postoffice, if secured will not, as has been rumored, be a sub-station of the Wichita Falls postoffice, but will be an independent station as now planned and will in all probabilities be known as the Maples postoffice, which name the factory town has been given by the railroads passing through its territory.

Ernest Trevathan, manager of Trevathan Brothers' No. 2 store, operating at Maples, will doubtless be the town's first postmaster. Mr. Trevathan has sent in to the post office department two petitions, one of which bears the endorsement of several of the town's leading citizens, desiring to have Mr. Trevathan appointed to that position. The other is signed by several hundred of the inhabitants in meeting one of the government requirements necessitated in obtaining a postoffice.

At the present time the people of Maples either receive their mail at the city postoffice or "obtain" it through the rural free delivery system, Maples being on one of the latter routes. The town of Maples is about four miles distant from Wichita Falls. Its inhabitants number about seven hundred. It is constantly growing and with the advent of many new factories—the population is expected, will be gradually increased until a census of several thousand has been reached and the booming town becomes a prosperous and well founded suburb.

The two railroads, namely the Wichita Falls & Southern and the Wichita Valley, whose lines extend directly through Maples, expect, it is understood very shortly, to erect modern and up-to-date stations which will greatly facilitate travel to and from the town. Much confusion has been caused in connection with the naming of the town. Where the railroads pass, and where trains at present stop on signal is the name Maples, painted on a station sign. However, on the street car lines just before entering the town at what is considered the first stop appears another sign announcing the name of the town of Coffeyville. It is understood that this name was taken and the sign erected by some of the glass workers, most of whom came here originally from Coffeyville, Kansas. Where the street car stops, near the factories at the little waiting room station appears yet another sign bearing the name Motorville. It is thought that this latter sign was erected by the automobile interests connected with the automobile factory. However, Maples is considered the rightful name of the town, and it will probably be known as such officially.

The town's business center is also progressing rapidly. There are presently in operation two grocery stores, a drug store and pool room. Besides the four factories already in operation there, two lumber companies have recently constructed yards and opened up offices, both being located in the vicinity of the Ball Brothers' jar factory now in course of construction.

Rapid progress is being made with the latter, the frame work of several of the largest buildings to be erected by the company, have already been completed and a large force of workmen is busily engaged in the work of putting in the furnaces, etc. This factory, which it is expected will commence operations early in the fall, will employ several hundred men and will be the largest factory of any kind ever erected in this vicinity.

Eighteen months ago where the little town of Maples now stands, there was nothing but farm and grazing land. Since the institution of the present movement, during that brief period a small town has sprung up which bids fair to become in the not very far future a densely populated and thriving suburb.

LAMAR AIRDOME TO OPEN ABOUT MAY 15

The Lamar Airdome is being put in readiness for the spring opening. Flowers have been planted at the edges of the entrance and exit walks along the edge of the open arena, and other steps are being taken to beautify the enclosed grounds of this popular open air theatre.

The Airdome, located on Seventh street near the corner of Lamar, is the only summer open air theatre in the city. Its seating capacity is about 1,500. If the weather permits the opening this season will be held on or about May 15th. The theatre will stage the vaudeville booking now obtained at the Lydia Margaret Theatre. From two to three acts will be shown with change of program semi-weekly. The management who also manage the Lydia Margaret Theatre contemplate after the Airdome has been opened, running the former as a straight moving picture house without vaudeville during the summer months while the Airdome is being operated.

A new theatre on Indiana avenue, adjoining the Bessey Furniture Company is also being erected for the company. This latter place of amusement will probably be opened to the public during the middle of the summer, or just as quickly as it has been completed. It will be, when completed, a most modern and up to date theatre. Its seating capacity will be approximately the same as that of the Lydia Margaret, about 800 people.

The management has not decided what name the new theatre will be given. The latter question will probably be decided by a vote of the people on names submitted by the latter, in a contest which the owners propose holding prior to the opening.

A VERY CHARMING SUFFRAGETTE

AMERICAN GIRL WHO WENT TO AMERICAN GIRL WHO WENT TO HEARTS OF AUTHORITIES

SUFFRAGETTE GOSSIP

Many American Mothers Experience A Quick Change of Feeling

By Associated Press
London, April 26.—If all the English suffragettes had the charm of Miss Zelle Emerson, the American girl who went to jail "for the cause," equal suffrage would soon triumph in England, in the opinion of the prison authorities at the Holloway jail, where Miss Emerson was confined. Even the doctors who were required to feed her forcibly express the highest admiration for her pluck and cheerfulness.

Miss Emerson's good nature and wit made her a favorite among the prison officials, and it is doubtless true that she received better treatment than many of her English sisters. One of the attaches of the American consulate who visited Miss Emerson at Holloway said that she was one of the most charming girls he had ever met and expressed the hope that the State Department would require him to repeat the visit.

Mrs. R. H. Emerson, Miss Zelle's mother, is deeply distressed by a statement made by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst some time ago at a public meeting. Previously, in the House of Commons, reference had been made by a speaker to a militant suffragette in the Holloway jail who had sought to give herself pneumonia by lying uncovered on her cot after sponging her body with warm water. Mrs. Pankhurst said that this suffragette was Miss Emerson. Mrs. Emerson and her friends consider that Mrs. Pankhurst displayed bad taste in making the incident public and the relations between them are said to have become rather strained.

Change of Feeling Experienced.

One of the odd features of the situation is the change of feeling experienced by American mothers who go to the American embassy to ask aid in having their suffragette daughters released from jail. The mother usually arrives in London alone and unheralded, in a state of humiliation or mortification over her daughter's plight. Such a one stepped into the embassy recently, having arrived in London but an hour before. She implored the staff to use their best efforts to conceal news of her daughter's imprisonment. Were it made public, she said, weeping with shame, she could never again face her neighbors at home.

The militant suffragettes took the mother in charge. They persuaded her that her daughter's imprisonment was a signal honor. Two days later, with head held high and eyes blazing, the mother strode into the embassy and demanded to know why the American people had not been told that her heroic daughter was suffering martyrdom in an English jail. On her second visit a band of militant suffragettes accompanied her.

Glory For Another American Girl.
Another American girl who has covered herself with suffragette glory, albeit not by serving a prison sentence—is Miss Lillian Scott Troy, of San Francisco. Miss Troy is a writer and a woman of means. She is petite and chic, and a firm advocate of woman suffrage, although she is not a member of the English suffragette organization. In the campaign for Miss Emerson's release from jail she took a leading part.

She achieved her great distinction, however, in the days of the great dock strike. Her heart was moved with pity by the plight of the wretched children of the idle strikers. She gave one little urchin his dinner. Within a few minutes there were dozens of hungry mouths to be fed. Miss Troy then began a systematic plan of feeding all hungry children of the strikers. At first it looked as if the strike would last but a few days. As month after month dragged by, however, with the strike still in force, Miss Troy stuck to her self-appointed task. When the strikers gave in, she had given their hungry youngsters 56,000 meals.

Miss Troy thus made herself the idol of the strikers. Thousands of them knew her and would fight for her at the drop of the hat. When the delegation of suffragettes went to the Holloway jail to serenade Miss Emerson, Miss Troy called on the strikers for a bodyguard. From the hundreds who responded a suitable guard was selected. It accompanied the suffragettes to the jail and the usual display of rowdiness was changed to a program as orderly as a Wednesday night prayer meeting.

No Questions Are Asked.

Although Mrs. Pankhurst went to jail—and was afterward released through a hunger strike—because of her assumption of responsibility for burning the house of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, she has not even now the slightest knowledge of the identity of the real perpetrators of the deed, according to members of the suffragettes' organization.

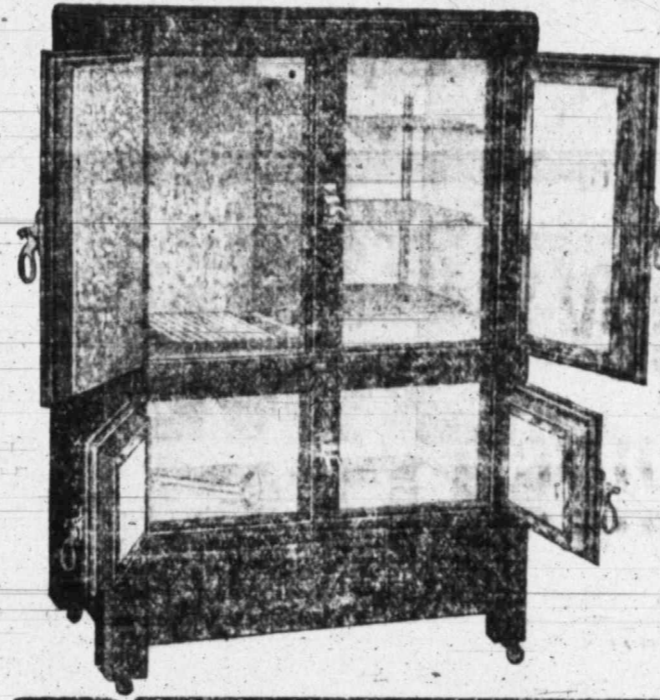

This, they assert, holds true in all the deprecations committed by suffragettes. They are merely accepted as volunteers for "war services." No questions are asked; the volunteers are left to their own initiative. Hower to shine in gilt, braid and brass buttons or seek the spotlight even more by wearing conventional evening clothes at daylight functions—a problem that has given many a diplomat a headache is to be settled by Mr. Page himself. He will have precedents for choosing either horn of the dilemma. The government allows him to use his own discretion in the matter, but fashionable London is awaiting his verdict with unsparring eyes.

Whatever John Bull may think of it, attaches at the American embassy are praying that the suffragettes' warfare will soon end. American mothers seeking the embassy's services in freeing their imprisoned daughters harass and heckle them no less than the English suffragettes harass their own political leaders. Almost every one at the embassy becomes depressed every time a strange woman enters the place.

What Will Ambassador Page Wear?
Another question which will soon come up for settlement at the embassy concerns the clothing which Walter H. Page, the new ambassador, will wear on dress occasions. Whether

The Line of Wichita's Greatest Growth Passes Directly Through Highland Heights

The big events which are taking place today and making Wichita Falls one of the greatest cities of the state are occurring at both ends of this line converging upon Highland Heights, the link between the city and lake. A heavy building growth is taking place in Highland Heights. Dozens of houses are under construction and material is being placed on the ground for many others. Rent houses are in great demand.

The best place to invest your savings or your capital is the location which has the best present earning ability and at the same time a reasonable prospect of big ultimate increase in value.

Highland Heights meets all these conditions

What has caused this rapid development? The firm conviction of the people of this city and state that Wichita Falls will spread over every foot of land between the present city limits and Lake Wichita. People are buying and building while prices are low and terms easy :: :: :: ::

The news of the death of our own Bro. R. R. Hamlin comes to this church bringing a deep and peculiar sorrow. He loved and was greatly loved by us. We pause to mourn the loss and sympathize with his loved ones and the church with whom he served. Seemingly so strong, he has suddenly closed his earthly career. The work and the worry and the anxiety of a pastor are most trying. A common burden bearer of his people, his own burdens must be borne alone. Thus another great leader has outworn the earthen tabernacle, and is now transformed through the new personality into the image and likeness of the Divine Master whom he served. Let us bury our sorrows by helping the living.
F. F. WALTERS, Pastor.

J. R. Henson, 119 Indiana avenue, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I was in a bad way and could find nothing that would relieve me of the dull, nagging pain across my kidneys. Mornings I felt devoid of energy and after sitting in a chair I could hardly stand erect. Sharp twinges often darted through me when I stooped. These troubles all left after I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy since. You are at liberty to continue publishing my former testimonial."
