SENATOR WORKS SCORES JOHN D.

HE SPEAKS ON THE TARIFF

Ready to Give Democratic Party Fair Trial in Attempt to Reform Tariff

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—Efforts in congress to incorporate the $100,000,000 Rockefeller Foundation were scored today by Senator Works, who declared them a "proposal to farm out" to John D. Rockefeller and his associates the right and power to educate the people of the country with money accumulated by criminal means.

Senator Works' statement was made in connection with a speech delivered in the Senate today on trusts and combination, the existence of which he blamed to the high protective tariff policy.

"The extent to which this may be carried out is practically unlimited. The corporations and institutions of learning which may be established throughout the country in the hands of people who will be subservient to the interests and views of Mr. Rockefeller and his associates are without number or limitation," said the Senator.

"We do not want our children to be taught the way nor the methods of John D. Rockefeller or his kind, nor to be generous with his-gotten gains, nor to touch, handle or profit by gold that should blister the fingers of them who had accumulated it by extortion, oppression and crime, and is now attempting to rid himself of it by giving it away, nor to become the receivers of stolen goods in the name and under the guise of charity."

"The continued existence of trusts and monopolies," the Senator said, "was due to the inadequacy of the Sherman anti-trust law, which he declared should be so amended that specific restraints of trade shall be unlawful. While he was not in favor of a high protective tariff which fostered capitalistic combination, he said he would be in favor of an effort to protect the wage earner in his earnings and that he believed it would be an excellent thing to harmonize the tariff and wages."

"The Interstate Commerce Commission," continued the Senator, "should be allowed to determine whether fair wages are being paid by any concern, and if not, to compel the employer employing foreign laborers and paying European wages to pay the same tariff on its manufactured goods that are enforced against foreign importations to a fair scale for American workmen. If a higher tariff did in fact protect the wage earner I would cheerfully stand for its continuance, even at the expense of higher prices to the consumer. The evident purpose of the so-called tariff experts is, so far as progress has been made, to deprive the farmers who are themselves laboring men and wage earners in most cases, of all protection and preserve it to the trust and millionaire manufacturers. This would be a fatal mistake. In most cases our manufacturers and business men can compete with the world and make profit. They can and do sell their goods cheaper in foreign markets than at home. With the farmer, in many cases, it is different.

"The wage earner must be protected in his dealings and reasonable hours of labor, and the consumer in reasonable prices, and the whole people must be protected in their independence and liberty. The equality of all men must be made a reality and not a theory. If the Democratic party can and will accomplish these results demanded by the people, it may live, and maintain itself in power. If it does not, its reign will be brief. If neither of the old parties can or will restore the government to the people as our forefathers handed it down, then a new party will be raised up that will do the people's will. It will be a party of the people's own making, founded on justice, fair dealing and disinterested patriotism. I am ready to give the Democratic party a fair trial. I am willing to wait and see and to lend my aid to that party or any other to bring about just and which the people may be brought into their own and their just rights fostered and protected."

KING NICHOLAS DECIDES AT LAST MOMENT TO EVACUATE SCUTARI

IN HANDS OF THE POWERS

Action of Montenegro Causes Unbounded Satisfaction on all Sides

By Associated Press. Cetinje, Montenegro, May 5.—King Nicholas of Montenegro today decided to evacuate the fortress of Montenegro in response to the demands of the European powers.

Announced at Meeting of Ambassadors By Associated Press. London, May 5.—Sir Edward Gray, the British foreign minister at today's meeting of the ambassadors announced that Montenegro unconditionally has placed the question of Scutari's future in the hands of the European powers.

This decision reached Montenegro at the last moment had the effect of relieving the tension in European politics and caused unbounded satisfaction on all sides. The stock market responded at once to the feeling of optimism and hope that fighting would be averted. It is hoped this action will do away with all necessity of the military expedition planned by Austria.

SMALL CYCLONES AT GAINESVILLE

Gainesville, Texas, May 5.—The first cyclone here with the recollection of the oldest settlers struck Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, wrecking buildings worth several thousand dollars. There were two twisters, one originating in the city limits at the county fair grounds and going west, meeting another which came from the south. The wind lifted the roof from the big grandstand at the fair grounds, as well as the poultry sheds and the ground was strewn by debris for several hundred yards.

The two tornadoes met at A. C. Russell's farm, just outside the city limits, demolishing the two-story residence and several barns and outbuildings. The family saw the cyclone coming and barely had time to get into the storm house.

About 100 yards north, the residence of W. B. Buchanan was lifted from its foundation and moved forty feet, being injured almost around. The back porch was torn off and all barns were wrecked. The family could not get to the storm house, but no one was injured. Debris was strewn over the Allen farm to the north.

The tornado then went east demolishing several sheds on the Gates farm leaving the ground at this point and disappearing in the north.

There were several freak capers by the twister. A cow on the Buchanan farm was blown about fifty yards. The cow's back was broken but the gule was scratched.

Chickens were shorn of their feathers and hundreds of them were killed. Buggies, gas machines and all kinds of farm utilities were blown over the country for hundreds of yards. A cat had one eye torn out and a chicken was pinned to the ground by a stick through its neck.

BOY RESCUES GIRL FROM DROWNING

Miss Inez Geary Fell From Boat and Was Saved From Drowning by Austin Self

Austin Self, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Self, Sunday afternoon rescued Miss Inez Geary from drowning in Lake Wichita. The two were members of a party rowing in a small boat. Miss Geary lost her balance and fell into the deep water. She had gone down twice the time when Self leaped into the water and brought the girl to the surface. Kenneth Smith and others assisted the two back into the boat.

Those who witnessed the rescue declare that but for the boy's prompt action Miss Geary would have been drowned.

Damage by Wind at Saitillo By Associated Press. Saitillo, Texas, May 5.—Considerable damage was done here early this morning by a high wind storm accompanied by a torrential rain and heavy thunder. Several small buildings were blown down and the residence of J. T. Swinford was completely wrecked. Fences were destroyed and shade trees blown down. No reports of injuries have been received.

SCENES WHILE MONTENEGRIN KING DEFIED THE EUROPEAN POWERS

Threatened war between Montenegro and Austria-Hungary has been averted for the present at least by the powers of Montenegro's explanation that she meant no defiance to the powers in the occupancy of Scutari. The answer of Montenegro left the way open for further negotiations. Montenegro is the smallest kingdom of Europe and her troops captured the Turkish citadel after a siege of six months during which thousands of lives were lost.

HOUSE EXPECTED TO PASS UNDERWOOD BILL BEFORE THE END OF THE WEEK

NO PUBLIC HEARINGS

Those Most Interested, However, May File Briefs With Senate Finance Committee

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—No public hearings on the tariff revenue bill will be held by the Senate finance committee according to an announcement today by Senator Simmons, chairman of the Senate finance committee. This is expected to speed up consideration of the bill after it goes to the Senate, probably Thursday.

Senator Simmons announced, however, that those most interested in the schedule will be allowed to file briefs, setting forth their views and recommendations.

It is the present view of the finance committee chairman that the committee will have the bill about ten days or two weeks at the longest. After that two weeks will be given to allow the Senators to prepare for the debate on the bill which is expected to be reported in the Senate by June 1 at the latest.

Republican leaders, it is asserted, are preparing to attempt to have the tariff bill, when it comes to the Senate, sent to the finance committee with instructions for public hearings.

President Wilson told callers today that he did not credit the report that the free wool provision might be defeated. He has heard the views of many people who wish to see a duty retained on wool and sugar but he sees no reason to change his position after considering their arguments.

UNLAWFUL TO ATTEMPT TO SEND ARMS TO MEXICO

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—Persons who export arms from the United States to promote revolutions in Mexico may be arrested by government officers for violating the neutrality proclamation of 1912, even though the army have not left the United States, according to a decision of the United States supreme court today. This decision reversed the U. S. District court for the southern district of Texas which had annulled indictments against two men charged with attempting to export arms to Mexico.

WOULD INQUIRE INTO REDUCTIONS

LOWERING OF WAGES FOLLOWING NEW TARIFF BILL WOULD CAUSE INVESTIGATION

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—If a reduction in wages of workmen follows the enactment of the democratic tariff bill an investigation will be called by the department of commerce and labor to establish whether such reductions are of a bona fide nature according to Secretary Redfield.

President Wilson has said he would try to learn the cause of any reduction in pay after the passage of the bill and to callers today he indicated general approval of Secretary Redfield's ideas.

Mr. Redfield said probably the first inquiry would be directed to the pottery industry for which he said representations have been made that a reduction in wages would follow changes in the tariff.

PRESIDENT AWAITS SEC. BRYAN'S RETURN

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—President Wilson today received by telegraph a copy of the California alien land holding bill as passed by the assembly of that state.

He let it be known that the federal government would take no further steps in the matter until Mr. Bryan's return.

The President told callers that he had not yet received any formal protest from Japan and he intimated that before May 13, the last day before Governor Johnson may sign the bill, some expression might be expected from the federal government as to whether the bill was considered in contravention with the treaty between Japan and the United States.

OPINION AGAINST LABOR LEADERS

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURT OF APPEALS UPHOLDS JUDGMENT IN CONTEMPT

SENTENCES ARE REVISED

Combers' Punishment Fixed at 30 Days in Jail and Fines for Others

By Associated Press. Washington, May 5.—The contempt of court judgment against Samuel Combers, John Mitchell and James Morrison, American Federation of Labor officials, was affirmed today by the court of appeals of the District of Columbia which, however, revised the sentences to give Combers 30 days in jail and to fine Mitchell and Morrison five hundred dollars each.

The chief justice of the court dissented from the decision holding that the whole sentence should be reversed. The lower court gave Combers a year in jail, Mitchell nine months and Morrison six months.

The contempt proceedings grew out of the failure of the defendants to observe an order of the court in the Bucks Range case.

Chicago Labor Organizations Ask Money for Defense of Attorney

THREE AND HALF INCHES OF RAIN

THIS WAS AMOUNT OF PRECIPITATION SATURDAY NIGHT AND SUNDAY

WICHITA RIVER IS UP

2200 Feet of Track Washed Out at Hawley on the Wichita Valley

Wichita Falls was visited by another rain yesterday, lasting less than an hour and amounting to about a third of an inch. This makes the total rainfall since Saturday afternoon about three and a half inches, the precipitation Saturday evening and Saturday night being three and an eighth inches.

Yesterday's rain was accompanied by a brisk wind and some hail and as a large number of people were out at the beach park and at Lake Wichita, quite a few got wet. One of the large open cars, heavily loaded, was returning from the lake when the rain came and the passengers were subjected to considerable discomfort; the wind blew in the curtains along the sides and rain and hail swept in on the occupants with considerable force. One little girl was struck in the face by a large piece of hail and slightly hurt.

While Saturday night's rain was general throughout Northwest Texas, that of last night seems to have covered less territory, extending only from Vernon south, with little on the Oklahoma side of Red River.

Practically all points on the Valley were visited Saturday night and at Hawley, 140 miles south, 2200 feet of track were washed out. The damage is being repaired today. The Wichita river is higher today than for some time past and other streams in this vicinity are also nearly bank-full this morning.

PRAYING FOR VICTIM HAYMARKET RIOT

Policeman Finds Aged Mother Kneeling in Prayer on Spot Where Son Was Killed

Chicago, Ill., May 5.—Policeman John O'Leary found an aged woman kneeling in prayer in an alley at Des Plaines and Randolph streets this morning. She explained that every year she visited the spot where her son was killed in the Haymarket riot more than a quarter of a century ago and offered prayers for him.

ARCHER CITY'S DAM WAS WASHED OUT

Entire Water Supply of Town Lost as Result of Recent Heavy Downpour

Special to The Times. Archer City, Texas, May 5.—The Archer City reservoir dam broke this morning and all of the 20,000,000 gallons of water was lost. It will cost about $1,000 to repair the dam. This followed a 3.82 inch rain which fell between five o'clock Saturday afternoon and six o'clock Sunday morning.

Arrangements have been made for the erection of a tank and tower and a pump and engine had been purchased and work was to begin on the waterworks system. This comes as a serious blow to the city.

2 CHARTER ELECTIONS MAY BE HELD HERE

At a meeting of the citizens charter committee, called by Chairman A. H. Britain for tomorrow night at his office, it is likely that steps will be taken for the holding of two charter elections. The first election, it is planned, shall give the voters opportunity to decide between the commission and aldermanic forms and the second election will decide for or against the adoption of the charter for the form of government the voters choose.

It had been planned to submit both charters at the same election and allow the voters to choose between them, but under the terms of the enabling act under which the charter is to be adopted, this cannot be done. The committee has prepared two forms of charters, one covering the commission, the other the aldermanic form, so that the form of government decided upon at the first election is already covered by the charter draft.

The committee meeting will be held at the office of Chairman A. H. Britain at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

PROCEEDINGS MUST BE OPEN

ENGLAND'S HIGHEST COURT STRIKES BLOW TO SECRET DIVORCE TRIALS

OPEN TO EVERY SUBJECT

No Court in Kingdom Has Power to Exclude any Subject From Any Trial

By Associated Press. London, May 5.—The possibility of secret divorce proceedings and secrecy in other suits in the courts of the United Kingdom was ended today by a judgment delivered the House of Lords sitting as the highest court of appeals. A lower court had adjudged a Mrs. Scott guilty of contempt in circulating among friends a report of a divorce case heard in chambers in which she was the defendant having been accused of infidelity but had been vindicated.

The Lord Chancellor's opinion in which the other lords unanimously concurred reversed the judgment of the lower courts.

The Lord Chancellor in delivering his opinion said: "Every court of justice if the land is open to every subject of the King and the court has no power to hear cases than within open doors."

WACO MAY SECURE GAS FROM PETROLIA FIELD

A proposition to pipe natural gas from the Petrolia field to Waco, building a new line by way of Fort Worth, is being considered by Waco business men, having been submitted recently by S. J. Slade of Amarillo, head of the Amarillo Oil & Gas Company. This company has two producing gasers at Petrolia, with a total of about fifty million feet daily.

In an interview at Fort Worth, Mr. Slade said he believed the Petrolia gas field was good for one hundred years and the gas might be piped to Waco and even more distant points without danger of exhausting the field any time soon. Waco also has a proposition for natural gas from the field recently opened near Mexia, Texas.

PROBATE MATTERS IN COUNTY COURT

Several probate matters have been given attention by Judge Felder recently as follows: The will of A. J. Vancleave, deceased, formerly of Burkburnett, and owner of considerable real estate and bank stock in this county, was admitted to probate. Edmund Newell was appointed executor without bond. All of the property was left to the 16-year-old son of the deceased.

J. H. Marriot of Electra was appointed administrator of the estate of E. B. Marchant, deceased of Electra; bond was fixed at $50,000. This estate is valued at $30,000.

The will of A. J. Coe, deceased, was admitted to probate and his son, Rev. J. E. Coe, was appointed executor without bond.

OHIO AVENUE, CORNER EIGHTH STREET

Tegucigalpa, Capital of Honduras

ARMINIUS T. HAEBERLE of St. Louis, who as American consul to Honduras traveled about the mountainous country accompanied by his wife, sleeping under the stars and under forest trees, to attend to duties of his office, has been promoted through the merit system to the office of American consul to Siberia. Instead of sitting in his office to attend to routine duties, he set about to acquaint the natives with American ideas, and in doing this he aided them to seek better means of living, better methods of cultivating their farms, and in many ways helped to improve their condition. Mrs. Haebler visited the natives, made them feel that the consul's home was always open to them and many took advantage of the hospitality, some after a journey of 200 miles. In this manner the consul and his wife became acquainted with the natives. Mr. Haebler's efforts were recognized by the government of Honduras, and progressive articles which he wrote were circulated by the government.

Camped at Roadside. Mrs. Haebler was Miss Ida Wieneke of California, Mo. She accompanied her husband on many arduous trips.

Sometimes the couple would accept the hospitality of the people along the roads, and swing their hammocks in front of their houses, and sometimes they would camp along the road. Speaking of his trips, Mr. Haebler said: "A saddle mule is needed to make the journeys into the interior, as there are no railroads. In addition to the saddle mule, a traveler must have a pack mule and a 'mozo' or guide. The guide does not ride, and the traveler does not have to worry about the guide becoming tired. The only concern is to obtain a mule which will keep up with the guide. The riding is rough, being along mountainous trails and near precipices. The usual day's journey is 27 miles.

The journey to the north coast is a trip of six days, and to the south coast requires two and one-half days. Some of the fancy mules travel 20 leagues a day. "Most of the houses are modest, and with few accommodations, but great hospitality is shown, and the natives give freely of their food, which consists principally of coffee, eggs, rice, beans, and the native corn cakes. Eggs, by the way, cost about 20 cents a dozen in the capital, but they are fresh, as there are no cold storage plants in that country. "The name of the capital, Tegucigalpa, interpreted, means 'The Hills of Silver,' and the name is properly applied, as the hills and mountains are rich in mineral wealth, silver and gold.

The old Spanish mine of Santa Lucia, near the capital, is still worked in a small way. In the seventeenth century more than $1,000,000 was sent to the king of Spain as one-fifth of one mine's output for the year. The king sent a wooden image of Christ to the city, as a token of his appreciation, and this wooden image occupies a place in the church at the present time. "In the southern part of Honduras was the largest Spanish gold mine in Central America, located at Clavajero. Nuggets have been taken out so large and the virgin gold was so coarse that King Phillip called them 'My Royal Tamarinds,' tamarinds being a tropical fruit. "As American consul I always received the co-operation of the Honduras authorities, which made it possible to obtain interesting data on the country. I always received great attention from those in authority, having early demonstrated that I sought to aid them wherever and whenever possible.

Used Old-Style Plow. "I was not trying to teach them anything, simply showing how they could benefit by making use of modern appliances. "When I first went there the old Spanish plow, made of a wooden beam, on the end of which was a piece of iron, with which the ground was only scraped to a shallow depth, was in general use. "I told them of the modern plow, which would greatly benefit crops. I wrote articles setting forth the advantages of modern machinery for the benefit of the small farmer. There are many agriculturists in Honduras well acquainted with the most modern farming methods, and it is also their desire to see improved machinery introduced among the poorer class. "These articles were translated into the Spanish language and printed and sent out by the government in its official paper. The Hondurans gladly read and commented on the articles. "The government co-operated, and a farmer in the interior, who had purchased an American plow in some manner or other, confirmed my statements of the depth that it would cultivate the ground, and of the benefit such cultivation was to the crops. Finally, a consignment of plows was received and distributed to the farmers. Many were anxious to receive them and they are now reaping the benefit of large crops. "This is simply an instance of how a consul may create a demand for the products of his country, while at the same time aiding the natives. "Mrs. Haebler accompanied me, and made many friends. I believe we enjoyed the confidence of all with whom we came in contact. Mrs. Haebler has served as a judge in needle and art work at the schools, and has otherwise mingled with the Hondurans."

BRITISH MUSEUM'S TREASURE

Arabic Book, of Which There is No Other Copy in the World, Acquired by That Institution.

The trustees of the British museum have just acquired a manuscript of the Fadhil al-batiniyah, an account of the doctrines of the Karmathians, Ismailis and other esoteric and unorthodox sects of Mohammedanism, by the famous theologian, Muhammad ibn Muhammad al-Ghazzali. This is apparently a unique Arabic MS., as no other copy is on record. In it the author systematically sets forth the doctrines of the various sects and refutes them. The work is of great significance, as it supplies a very early account of these sects, some of which are very important. Ghazzali was born in A. D. 1059, and spent his early years in Tus, Khorasan. He studied under the great Imam al-Haramain at Nishapur. In A. D. 1091 he became a professor at the Nizamiya college in Baghdad, where he worked for four years. He then resigned in order to continue his own studies and effect a satisfactory concord of orthodox, reason and mysticism. He died in Tus in A. D. 1111. His influence upon the later developments of Islam has been enormous. Suyuti, a famous author, says: "If there could be another prophet after Mahomet, it would certainly be Al-Ghazzali." The present MS. was copied in A. D. 1255, and is perfect except for a few pages at the beginning.

"Justice" Openly Bought. Removal of an unjust judge from the United States bench reminds the London Chronicle that centuries ago justice was not administered nearly so impartially as it is now. There were the "basket justices" who received their nickname from the presents openly handed up to them in receipt by suitors. And in more recent times there were the "trading justices" satirized by Fielding in "Amelia." Townsend, the celebrated Bow street runner, in his evidence before a parliamentary committee in 1816, described how these justices used to issue batches of warrants every day "to take up all the poor devils on the streets, so as to charge them two shillings four pence each as bail. Only the penniless offenders were sent to jail, and a morning's work would sometimes produce £10 (£50). After which the worthy magistrate and his clerk would adjourn to a neighboring hostelry for refreshment.

Hint Was Wasted. Mother (at 11:30 p. m.)—What's the matter, John? You look disturbed. Father—I thought I'd give that young man calling on our daughter a vigorous hint it was time to go, so I walked right into the parlor and deliberately turned out the gas. Mother—Oh, my! And did he get angry? Father—Angry? The young jack-napes said "Thank you."

INSIDE OF THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Mexico is upon us, neck and crop. The United States was not born with Mexico's problems—it achieved them; it has tried to evade the issue, but facts are stubborn. It is the United States that meddled and the United States must mend.

Aboriginal conditions in Mexico were not materially different from those of other Latin-American countries. The Spaniards and Portuguese came over and took possession of Mexico along with the rest. One by one these separate nations became independent of the mother country and established governments which they called republics. All went through the stages of savagery, of brigandage, of revolution.

The Latin nations of South America fixed up their boundaries and fought out their differences. Their trade went largely to Europe. Twenty-five years ago they began to shape in to business like attitudes without aid from the United States. Now the foreign trade of several South-American nations is much greater per capita than that of the United States itself. The Monroe doctrine prevented foreign encroachment. They did the rest themselves.

In comparison the Mexico showing is not good. By various trades and one war, portions of its territory—Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, and most of California—slipped away and connected up with the United States. Always the shadow of the United States was across Mexico's threshold, its children were taught to look upon the "gringo" as the embodiment of greed. The person of the gringo must be sacred, else evil befall their country.

For 30 years prior to 1911 Mexico had a great ruler, American money came in for investment. Big American influence in developing natural resources became pronounced. Such development demanded equipment, which was brought from the United States. Prosperity was upon the country—of the United States sort—the prosperity of few.

Compare the foreign trade record of Mexico's best year, 1911, with South American countries: Mexico—combined imports and exports—per capita, $17.50; Argentina, per capita, $96; Chile, per capita, $72; Uruguay, per capita, $84; Brazil, per capita, $28; Bolivia, per capita, $25.

The per capita foreign trade of the United States for the same year was $39.50.

It is, of course, unfair to charge the United States with agency in the poor showing made by Mexico at its best. The comparison with countries in which the United States influence is small or none at all shows, however, that with something like $1,000,000,000 of American money there went into Mexico no movement for prosperity of that permanent kind which has lifted Argentina and Chile to a high and stable place. The Mexico prosperity was brought about by methods which inspired revolt and the South American prosperity by a course that strengthened the state and promoted peace.

When Mexico, struggling away from conditions that held most of its people in direst poverty, deposed the great ruler, the United States adopted a critical attitude which it has consistently maintained. Other nations held large investments in Mex-co, but they were patient. The United States, on the contrary, made an early insertion of the "rod of complaint." This prod is duly revolved in Mexico's most trying hours and with every revolution the Mexicans saw an amplified threat.

Then came treacherous usurpation of government by Huerta, active meddling by the United States ambassador, foul crimes of the new regime and bankruptcy of the treasury. With this condition the problem slides from ambush and lights upon our necks. That the treasury may be filled Washington must, they say, condone the usurper's crimes.

The Mexico subject bores us, it's too bloody and primitive. Printed reports make us shudder. That some of our people have blundered seems certain, but cannot be admitted. Mexico must fight itself and plunder itself to a standstill—but don't bother us about it. Just tap us on the shoulder when the patient is dead. Skip all details.

There are men in the United States in Canada, in England, and in France who are willing, even anxious, to back Mexico to win, but they ask Washington to make the first move by condemning the Huerta felony, which no sane person, without an axe to grind, expects Washington to do.

At this stage of the proceedings the men of the billion dollar investment do not count. What they lose in Mexico they'll take out of American homes. The individual, resident Americans who have lost out and quit no longer count—the worst that can happen to them has happened.

The American men and women who are still there do count. They are an international menace. If enough of them are killed we may have to go over, there and kill the men who killed them. This will be more than disgusting; it will be a nuisance. It will take a lot of our national guardmen away from business. Also some of them will be buried there. If, by prompt and diligent effort and providing transportation, the Americans persist in remaining can be deposed away, the biggest hazard now in the situation would be removed. It would, in fact, cost not less to bring some thousand or so of such people than to support an army of occupation for a term of years.

All the rain necessary for the making of a splendid wheat crop in this section of country has fallen, and there is but little uncertainty felt on the part of wheat farmers that the yield per acre will be fully as good as it was last year.

In another column will be noticed an article from the Houston Chronicle showing the expense of maintaining the state prisons under the present administration as compared to that of previous administrations. Those interested should read carefully these figures, and when they do they will not wonder why it is that it has been necessary to raise the state tax from about 6c on the $100 taxable values to about three times that figure.

Our friend Harrison of the Seymour Banner marvels at the fact that Wichita Falls receives car loads of mineral water shipments from Mineral Wells, and wonders what we do with it. Now, if he will tell us what Seymour and other "dry" towns do with the large shipments of "wet" goods that bear such labels as "Schlitz," "Budweiser," "Hill & Hill," "Jersey Cream," "Four Roses," et cetera, et cetera that are shipped out of Wichita Falls, we will try to tell him what disposition the people of this city make of the car load shipments of mineral water they receive from the great health resort down in Palo Pinto.

The Washington staff correspondent of the Fort Worth Record is authority for the statement that Texas congressmen and Postmaster General Burleson are not agreed as to the plan of appointing postmasters. This comes from the fact that in at least two or three instances the postmaster general has refused to appoint the applicant endorsed by the congressman. At Weatherford Mr. Martin was endorsed by Congressman Calloway, but Judge Richards' name was substituted for that of Martin. The reason for this being that Judge Richards, in the first

FACTS DEVELOPED IN PENITENTIARY PROBE

The Houston Chronicle gives the following synopsis of the facts developed by the penitentiary investigating committee so far developed in its probe:

When the present commission took charge of the system there was a cash balance on hand amounting to $49,000. Unsold products were on hand valued at $150,000. The system owed $100,000 on the State Railroad and about $30,000 on open accounts. The actual cash receipts of the system since January 20, 1911, to December 31, 1912, aggregated $1,879,698.03. The total loss sustained during this period was $992,241.46.

The net depletion in the surplus for 1912, as compared with that of 1911, was about $40,000.

The legislature has appropriated for use by the present commission $310,000. It is claimed that most of this was applied to the payment of the per diem to convicts.

Under the Campbell administration an appropriation of $100,000 was made, and this was spent on the iron industry at Rusk.

Of the 622 convicts in the Huntsville prison there are but 239 productive men. There are 276 employed as "indispensables," and 56 are non-productive.

The sum of $18,000 was spent on residences for officials at Huntsville during 1912.

The system is made up of twenty separate and distinct inside and outside industries and establishments. Of this number only four were shown to produce a profit during 1912. This profit aggregated $32,654.69. The losses sustained by the other sixteen aggregated $959,688.76.

It is generally agreed that so far as the Rusk penitentiary is concerned no legitimate profit has ever been returned from its manufacturing industries.

Under the Campbell administration the cost per capita for the maintenance of the prisoners at Huntsville was 42 cents a day. At Rusk it was 43-1-3 cents. Under the present administration the figures were 60 and 68 respectively.

It is estimated that the per diem features of the new law cost the state $292,000 a year.

When the system was on a cash basis as many as sixteen bidders competed for the contracts to furnish supplies. Under the present system the lack of competition is costing the state approximately $100,000 a year.

The loss at Rusk for 1911 averaged $699 per man, not including overhead charges. The average loss for 1912 was $495 per man, the total for the two years being $1194 per man.

The growing of sugar cane is considered an unprofitable undertaking for the system.

It is generally contended that too many employees are carried on the pay roll of the system.

There is no general method of charging a proportionate share of overhead expenses to portions of the system outside of Huntsville.

Of the $276,270.45 carried on the books as accounts receivable, $118,700.92 is considered doubtful.

The legislative committee was informed that it would probably be impossible to furnish a detailed statement of the $428,140.85 spent for additions to buildings during 1912.

There is no method by which the cost of furnishing power can be ascertained.

Under the Campbell administration the men on the farms worked an average of 20-acre to the man. Under the present management the average is about 11 acres.

The present commissioners were handicapped by the following losses: Fire at Huntsville in December, 1911, $325,000; fire at Rusk in 1912, $40,000; fire at Rusk, 1913, $125,000; cane frozen in 1911, estimated at from $275,000 to $300,000; operation of the per diem law, $292,000 per annum. The figures are all estimates.

The meat consumption is 15 per Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cochran, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women. Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

A system of petty manipulation of railroad tickets for discharged convicts, by which the state is defrauded, has been discovered. No responsible prison official is in any way involved in these petty transactions.

Under the former management the institution was operated on a paying basis; the commissioners paid $165,000 for the Imperial farm, $40,000 for the Reddick plantation, $108,000 for the Rife farm, built houses and prisons on the Ramsey farm at a cost of $50,000, built a railroad on the Clemens farm at a cost of $75,000, and turned the system over to its successors with a cash balance on hand.

UNCLE SAM HAS PUBLISHED COOK BOOK

Bulletin Just Issued By Government Tells 65 Ways For Cooking Mutton

(By Clyde H. Tavenner, Member of Congress.)

Washington, May 3.—"Eat mutton, and beat the cost of living" is Uncle Sam's advice to the American consumer. And so Uncle Sam's latest cook book (Farmers' Bulletin 526—Just out) urges more mutton eating and gives about 65 recipes for making toothsome mutton dishes.

There may be more than coincidence in the fact that Uncle Sam's mutton cook book appears just at the time when the Underwood tariff bill, which removes the Payne-Aldrich duty of 22 per cent on meat, admitting this prime necessity free through our customs houses, is assured of passage.

One of the first effects of the Underwood tariff bill will be to bring mutton from Australia to the American consumer. Australia has great quantities of mutton for export. She raises sheep primarily for wool, and the size of the wool industry means a greater production of mutton than her population can consume. Consequently, with the bar of 22 per cent duty removed, we can expect to hear of whole shiploads of mutton arriving in San Francisco from Australia.

And so Uncle Sam desires to create a taste for mutton in the United States, to take advantage of this cheap food. Mutton now is rather despised by the average American city dweller, who with characteristic American prodigality, prefers his mutton as lamb thus eating the future. In England mutton is preferred to lamb. Mutton naturally is cheaper than lamb, and the experts in the department of agriculture pronounce it one of the most highly nutritious of all meats.

Importing Meats

With increased importations of cheap mutton, and a growing consumption of this meat, the demand for other meat products will fall off. The result will certainly be a reduction in meat prices all along the line, due to the decreased demand for beef and the prepared pork products. This is an illustration of how reduced tariff rates indirectly bring down all costs of commodities. Had the Underwood tariff makers put mutton alone on the free list, leaving intact the prohibitive 22 per cent on beef, the price of beef would have tumbled nevertheless, because of decreased demand.

Uncle Sam's latest contribution to culinary literature is largely a brief in behalf of the lowly mutton. Mutton gives the consumer more of its energy than beef. Laboratory experiments show that mutton is easily and completely digested by the average stomach, having a higher degree of digestibility than any other meat. The cook book points out to the thrifty housekeeper that it is more economical to use mutton than beef for the reason that an average family can use up a quarter or a side of mutton before it spoils, whereas the purchase of a shoulder of side of beef is out of the question. By buying meat in this way a considerable saving is effected.

There is one true knight in Wichita Falls. The committee on arrangement for the entertaining of the K. of P. members state that one brother has offered to give five hundred dollars towards the erection of a new Castle Hall, with beautifully appointed club rooms for the benefit of members and their friends. No doubt the time is not far distant when such a building will be a reality and you can bring your wife or sweetheart to a place where friendship, charity and benevolence are the cardinal principles, and where intoxicants of every description are rejected and forbidden. A place for young men, is it not? A place where your wife or your daughter will be proud to say you are spending the evening. Come next Thursday and help us to make this dream of ours a reality.

ANOTHER GAME LOST BY LOCALS

PARIS DEFEATED DRILLERS WITH MUCH EASE SUNDAY AFTERNOON SCORE 14 TO 2

LOCALS PLAY POOR BALL

Lacked Speed and Pep and Everything That Contributes to Successful Team

Paris defeated the Drillers for the fifth time this season, with all the ease in the world, yesterday afternoon. The score was 14 to 2, or something like that. Fourteen hits, seven bases on balls and four errors and a great deal of loose fielding enabled the league leaders to have things their own way.

A good Sunday crowd saw the game and went home with the idea that Wichita Falls hasn't very much of a team. There was a general lack of speed and lack of "pep" on the part of the locals that looked mighty different from the fast, fighting ones that won two penants.

Myers pitched for the locals and worked hard for four innings but seemed to lose heart after that. Daniels started for Paris, but it was too cool for left-handers and when the locals began to go after him in the fourth, Kerr went in and held the Drillers perfectly safe for the rest of the game.

Paris started the scoring in the first inning, making two runs on two hits and an error. Wichita Falls tied the score in fourth on two hits and an error. Then Paris started in dead earnest and put the game safely on ice in the fifth with three scores. After that she scored almost whenever she wanted to and the result was never in doubt, as the Drillers seemed unable to connect with Kerr.

Myers began to get liberal with his passes after the fourth inning and issued a total of seven before the fray was over. One of these forced in a run and nearly all of them contributed to the scoring. The Paris bunch played fast, consistent ball and scraped things every inch of the way. The Diamond was slow after the rains of the night previous and this resulted in some loose playing on both sides, several players taking impromptu tumbles at the wrong time.

Nicholson started with the stick for the locals, getting two three-baggers and a single out of four times up. Wichita Falls got a hit in every inning except one, but seemed unable to bunch the bingles with any luck. Paris plays here again today, and will be followed by Texarkana tomorrow.

Notes of the Game
Texarkana comes tomorrow for three games, and the Drillers have to meet the league's two leading clubs right in a bunch.

Stayton, a new infielder, was given a brief trial at third yesterday but was not in the game long enough to show what he could do.

Daniels slipped and fell while recovering a ball yesterday, but threw the runner out while flat on his back. That kind of playing will keep any team in the first division.

The telephone at the city park is used for telephoning scores to the telegraph company and not for giving information to the public. The official scorer is too busy to answer requests for the score while the game is in progress.

Brown does not seem to be very much in the game these days. He is not hitting like he used to and doesn't cover center field with the old-time class.

Wichita Falls had the score tied for one brief moment yesterday, but Paris soon started in and got her lead back, and then some.

Nagle, right field for Paris, missed two chances yesterday, but is charged with only one error. Neither of them was "duck soup" as the sun was squarely in his eyes.

Weber, second baseman for Paris, used to play with Wichita Falls at the old park across the railroad track. He is a good pinch hitter and covers his section of the infield like a blanket.

Wichita Falls filled the bases with only one out in the fifth inning yesterday, but a fast double play ended the scoring hopes.

Denison 5, Texarkana 0
Denison, Texas, May 5.—Denison shut Texarkana out in a six-inning game on a muddy field and during a shower of rain. Though the grounds were muddy from an all-night's rain, the game went fast. Higginbotham pitched a good game, while Texarkana used two twirlers. A batting rally in the second frame started the scoring for Denison. Harper, purchased from Durant, was in the game today. A heavy rain fell during the sixth inning and the game was called. Story featured with a one-handed catch of a high drive in the first inning. Score:

"Please Don't Publish."
Every newspaper is familiar with the request, "Please do not publish anything about it." Sometimes it is made in the form of a demand and accompanied by threats of dire results if acquiescence does not follow. There are a few things the Louis-ville Herald says, the public ought to keep in mind in the matter of a newspaper's relation to the printing of news.

In the first place, a newspaper owes an obligation to its whole circle of readers to print a fair, comprehensive report of the day's happenings. It cannot overlook this responsibility merely to please individuals. That policy involved an injustice to the many and favoritism to the few. Who shall be favored?

Much of the news that is printed, unfortunately occasions annoyance and often heartaches to somebody. That is an unavoidable incident of the newspaper business. Is there justification for shielding from such consequences the man or woman who has influence, socially or in business, while the many who lack it must be treated without such consideration?

Persons who wish to escape publicity should be careful not to make news, or should count the cost of advertisement to the world as part of the price they must pay for what they have determined upon doing.

There are certain easily defined zones of publicity. The individual who steps into any of these may count upon getting his name in the newspapers. One is the courts, civil and criminal. The man who goes to law invites advertisement. Yet many men—and sometimes women—appeal to a newspaper to suppress reports of legal proceedings in order that they may be saved annoyance. The time to consider immunity is before resorting to law.

Departure from the conventionalities of life is another means of entering the publicity zone. Conduct that is off the beaten trail affords news. Those who defy social observances of tread upon established institutions must not expect to escape print, and should not ask to be saved from such notoriety.

Further, much injustice may be done by the suppression of news. The tongue of gossip, uninformed of the real fact, can do a hundred times more injury to the innocent than publication of the truth will do to those actually involved. Often a newspaper is shielding the reputation of a score from the scandal of suspicion when it is telling the truth about one who has incurred the liability to censure.

A newspaper, with a sense of responsibility, will exercise a certain discrimination. There may be times and circumstances that justify suppression. Some happenings may in the reporting of them serve no proper end. Of two things the responsible newspaper will be jealous careful—the good name of a woman and the reputation of a financial institution.

Both are of that delicacy to be easily hurt. The good name of a woman is treasure beyond price, and a cloud cast upon the reputation of a bank or trust company may cause loss to thousands who are dependent upon its solvency.

But this lesson the public should learn—the way to avoid publicity is to avoid departure from the beaten track; and let this be added to it—if you have diverged into the danger zone the way to obtain considerate treatment is to assume that you are a subject for news and to take the

MAN CHARGED WITH ASSAULT ON DUNLAP

Investigation by the officers of the circumstances leading up to the death Friday night of R. O. Dunlap, who was run over in the railroad yards, has resulted in the arrest of Harry Hewitt, a laborer, who is charged with assault and battery. His case will come up tomorrow in Justice Howard's court.

The officers learned that Hewitt and Dunlap engaged in a fight Friday night and it was decided to hold Hewitt pending further inquiry into the case.

The first of several lectures to be given at the high school by local pastors was delivered this morning in the high school auditorium. Rev. J. L. McKee being the speaker. It is planned to have similar lectures given at intervals, probably twice a week, the exercises being in the nature of chapel services.

Dr. McKee's remarks this morning dealt with the idea of asking questions and he emphasized the fact that on one ever learned anything without asking information, either from others or from himself. He urged the students to become questioners, that they might increase their store of knowledge thereby.

Such exercises are an innovation in the schools, being inaugurated by Superintendent Carpenter.
