TWO CHURCHES AND NEGRO RESIDENCE BURNED NEAR DAINGERFIELD

CHEATED FROM HANGING

Governor's Respite Delaying Execution of Negro Aroused Vigilant Spirit Among Whites

Daingerfield, Texas, May 6.—Being disappointed in not seeing Gus Finley, a Negro hanged in Daingerfield today because Governor Colquitt granted the condemned man a respite of thirty days, two negro churches and a negro residence were burned at Omaha last night, twenty miles north of Daingerfield. Finley was convicted of the murder of a constable in the Omaha precinct in 1911 and was sentenced to be hanged today. Notice of the respite came last night and fearing the vigilant spirit of the people the negro and others were spirited away from Daingerfield. Public sentiment in the Omaha community is running high and it is feared that a serious clash may occur.

45 YEARS IN PEN; $90,000 FINE POSSIBILITIES FOR JOHNSON

Chicago, May 5.—Twelve jurors to try Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, on a charge of violating the Mann white slave act had been accepted by the government when the first day of the trial ended last night. None of the panel had been accepted by the defense.

Johnson is charged with having transported Belle Schreiber from Pittsburgh to Chicago for immoral purposes in 1910. Counsel for Johnson, it is said, will seek to bar from the jury those who admit having convictions against the marriage of white women to negroes. E. Johnson and A. E. Peck of Aurora, the first two men examined, were excused promptly when both declared they had decided opinions as to Johnson's guilt and strong convictions as to the punishment they would mete out to him.

Lucille Cameron Johnson, the fighter's second white wife, did not appear in court and it was said counsel for Johnson will keep her from the courtroom unless she is called upon to testify.

There are forty-five counts in the nine indictments against Johnson, the maximum penalty collectively being forty-five years in the penitentiary or a fine of $90,000, or both.

DOROTHY GOULD

New York, May 6.—One of the most ardent roller skaters of the little children of the rich who frequent Central park is Dorothy Gould, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gould. She spins along with a rush and a laugh, as frolicsome a little lass as the humblest child in Uncle Sam's broad land. "It's fun to be just a kid," the little miss said. The wave of interest among children in roller skating which has swept over the country engulfed practically all the "millionaire kids" as they are called, who play in the park near their parental homes.

BEFORE AND AFTER THE CONFERENCE OF BRYAN AND JOHNSON

Sacramento, Cal., May 6.—Very often the camera tells a better story than words. When Secretary of State Bryan arrived here and was met by Governor Johnson to confer over the anti-alien land bill at the request of President Wilson the two distinguished men sat together in an automobile on the way to his governor's office and exchanged pleasantries. It was a cordial meeting and everything was delightful before the conference. After the California senate had passed the Webb bill, which was not what President Wilson or Secretary Bryan wanted the camera caught another picture of the same distinguished men riding in the auto to the station. Do you notice any difference?

MUCH EXPLAINING FOR THIS YOUNG MAN

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, May 6.—Chief of Police Davidson has in his custody a young man who will have much explaining to do as to his knowledge of the killing of Mary Egan, a young girl employed in an Atlanta, Georgia, pencil factory.

The young man gave his name as Paul Bowen and when arrested had in his possession a blood-stained woman's vest and Atlanta papers containing portraits of Mrs. Egan and accounts of her murder.

The young man also has letters from Atlanta business concerns. The police received the tip that led to the detection of the young man from the proprietress of a rooming house, who told the police that Mrs. Blachetto, a lodger, had reported to her that she heard the occupant of a room adjoining her own crying and that when she investigated she found the young man now held riding an Atlanta paper and repeating, "Why did I do it?"

The young man moved to another rooming house yesterday, seeing his trunk with him. When taken into custody this morning the young man's trunk was found to contain the vest and the Atlanta papers.

Bowen said he was a bookkeeper and stenographer and claims to have worked in Atlanta. He has also worked, he says, at several places in Georgia, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. He declares that he knows nothing of the National Pencil Company at Atlanta, where the murder was committed, and never heard of the murder of Mary Egan until she read the accounts in the paper. He would offer no explanation of the blood-stained vest or photos found in his trunk, said to be of the murdered girl. He is being held for the arrival of Atlanta officers, who are now on their way.

Hill County Fair

Hillsboro, May 6.—The local fair association has announced the purchase of fifty acres of land for fair grounds. The purchase price was $5,000. An exhibition hall and grandstands will be constructed and $2,500 will be spent in beautifying the tract. A landscape artist will be engaged. The first fair will be held Oct. 6, 8 and 9. Plans rapidly are being matured. Two thousand Hill county citizens are directly interested in the organization. The park is two miles north of the city and is ideally located for fair purposes.

PROJECT FOR BIG COTTON MILL

20,000 SPINDLE PLANT

Manufacturer a Cousin of Judge Carrigan—Doesn't See Ruin in Lower Tariff

A proposition to establish a cotton mill in this city, calling for an investment of practically half a million dollars, was submitted to the Chamber of Commerce at this morning's meeting of the directors by E. C. Holt of North Carolina. The matter is being considered by the manufacturers committee at a meeting this afternoon. The proposition calls for the taking of a large amount of stock by local people.

Mr. Holt, who is a cousin of Judge A. H. Carrigan of this city, is a member of a family which has been engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods for three generations. He came here Sunday and after going over the local situation, was convinced that this was a logical site for a cotton mill. He proposes to establish a mill of 20,000 spindles employing from 250 to 300 people with a payroll of $200,000 annually.

At the meeting of the directors this morning, Judge Carrigan called attention to the fact that for three years he had been a member of a committee to get someone interested in locating a cotton factory here and he had induced Mr. Holt to come here to look the field over. Mr. Holt was then introduced. He told of the experience of himself and other members of the family in cotton manufacture and said he had looked the local field over carefully. The availability of raw material and the big advantage in freight rates to eight or ten million consumers had, he said, convinced him, that this was an advantageous location. His mills sold much in Texas, he said, paying freight on the cotton one way and on the goods the other. He believed, that eventually mills would be established to supply this section at close range, and he wanted to be first on the ground.

Mr. Holt said he considered the gas a big asset, but was not certain that sufficient labor would be available; he was reassured on this feature. He advised establishing a mill of not less than 20,000 spindles, saying that the great mistakes in many mills was starting too small and in not getting efficient management. Such a mill, he believed would cost $475,000 to build and equip. Mr. Holt had much to say in praise of the country as he found it, saying he was greatly surprised to find it so productive.

Frank Kell took the floor and said that he considered this a very important proposition. He explained to Mr. Holt how cheaply power might be produced here and also outlined the very material advantage of Wichita Falls in the way of freight rates, declaring that there were from eight to ten million people who might be reached by a mill here at a saving in freight rates of $1 per 100 pounds.

"What effect would the Underwood bill have on cotton manufactures?" he asked Mr. Holt.

Mr. Holt said that the effect of the bill could not be determined, but he believed that if it hit the eastern mills as hard as some people thought, it would really operate to the advantage of a mill in this section; he had considered that fact in thinking about locating here, he said. The reduction in the cotton goods tariff would at least put American mills on an import basis perhaps on a competitive basis, Mr. Holt believed. Most of the present imports he said, were cotton goods of the highest grades; he showed where English cotton mill labor is 30 to 35 per cent cheaper than American, German labor 40 to 50 per cent and Italian 50 to 60 per cent. In Japan, he said, the disparagement was much greater still.

In reply to a question by Frank Kell, Mr. Holt said that the mill would require from $25,000 to $50,000 operating capital, keeping about 4000 bales of cotton in its warehouses. Further questioned by Mr. Kell, he said that cotton factory machinery was much cheaper at present than it had been and that the Underwood tariff would probably reduce it still further. He did not believe that the cotton machinery tariff would be entirely removed, however, as he said that would put $500,000,000 worth of factories out of business.

The water question was brought up but it developed that comparatively little would be needed, unless the mill should go into the colored manufacturing.

After some further discussion of the proposition, it was referred to the manufacturers committee. Judge A. H. Carrigan being added. Mr. Kell called a meeting of the committee for 3 o'clock this afternoon in his office.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S FIGHT IN NEW JERSEY FOR JURY REFORM

Trenton, N. J., May 6.—President Wilson's visit to this state to urge the passage of the jury reform bill at the special session of the legislature has again definitely drawn the line of battle between the Smith-Nugent machine, as it is called, and the Wilsonites. President Wilson's speeches in Newark, Elizabeth, Paterson and Jersey City set a precedent for a president of the United States entering so actively into a purely state campaign for reform legislation. At present in this state juries are empaneled by the county sheriffs, thus making the sheriffs the most powerful means of the machine controlling justice. The jury reform idea is to place the drawing of juries in the hands of county judges, who are appointed by the governor. The present system is defended by the leaders whom President Wilson defeated when he was governor of the state, among whom is former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., long Democratic leader of the state. The outcome of the fight is anticipated with interest, not only here, but in Washington.

DID MILITANTS BURN CHURCH?

IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Fight Re-Opens With Second Reading of Bill to Enfranchise 6,000,000 Women

By Associated Press. London, May 6.—St. Catherine's, the parish church of Hatcham, London, was burned this morning. The outrage is believed to be the act of militant suffragettes. The church was well alight before the blaze was discovered.

Miss Nina Boyle, and Miss Anna Munro, the two militant suffragettes arrested while trying to hold a meeting a few days ago in Hyde Park, when brought into court this morning, chose 14-day imprisonment rather than fines of $5 each.

Suffrage Fight Reopened in Parliament. The struggle for woman suffrage began again in the House of Commons Monday afternoon, when the second reading was moved by Willoughby Dickinson's bill, which proposes to enfranchise 6,000,000 women.

Vital sections of the brief were as follows:

- 1. Every woman who (a). If she were a man would be entitled to be registered as a parliamentary elector in respect of a house-hold qualification within the meaning of the representation act of 1884, or (b). Is the wife of a man entitled to be registered in respect of a household qualification and has resided in the qualifying premises during the period required by law to enable a person to be registered. Shall be entitled to be registered, and when registered, to vote as a Parliamentary elector in the constituency wherein the qualifying premises are situated. No woman shall be entitled to be registered until she has attained the age of 25 years. A woman shall not be disqualified.

TELLS OF FINDING SCOTT'S BODY

LIEUT. GRAMM SAYS EXHAUSTION NOT STARVATION CAUSED DEATH OF EXPLORERS

THEIR END WAS PEACEFUL

Members of Party Lay as if Asleep—One Wore Faint Smile on Frozen Face

By Associated Press. Winnipeg, Manitoba, May 6.—Exhaustion and not starvation caused the death of Captain Scott and the men who died with him on their return from the Pole, according to Lieutenant Gramm, a member of the party which found their bodies. Lieut. Gramm is here enroute to London and has in his possession Capt. Scott's diary and records.

The end of the party was apparently peaceful. Lieutenant Wright of Toronto who was in command of the party went in the explorer's tent first. Captain Scott was found lying as if asleep but outside his sleeping bag. Dr. Wilson and Lieutenant Bowers were in their sleeping bags. Apparently they had been carefully wrapped by Captain Scott who was evidently the last to die.

Lieutenant Bowers lay on his side, exactly as if asleep. Dr. Wilson's body half reclined with his back against the tent, his body facing us as we entered. On the frozen features were traces of a faint smile. He looked exactly as about to awaken from sound sleep. I have often seen the same look on his face in the morning just before he awakened.

The scene was a depressing one. While the party did not perish from starvation all their food had given out and worst of all their fuel had been exhausted, besides they had experienced terrible storms.

WALTER L. McDERMOTT DEFIED PRESIDENT IN JURY REFORM FIGHT

Trenton, N. J., May 6.—On the eve of the meeting of the legislature in special session for the purpose of passing the jury reform bill favored by Assemblyman Walter McDermott of Hudson county upon the president was still talked about. McDermott heckled the president when the latter spoke in Jersey City for the reform measure and practically defied him. The twelve members of the assembly delegation from Hudson county decided they would stand by a jury reform bill offered by McDermott. It provides for a referendum on two propositions, one to have the list of grand and petit jurors selected by the sheriff, subject to the correction of the presiding supreme court justice, and the second to have the list prepared by two jury commissioners named by the supreme court justice. The argument of McDermott and his adherents was that whichever scheme of these two was adopted would be an improvement over the one now obtaining and that an opportunity would be given the people of the state to decide whether or not they wanted the sheriff to retain his present powers or whether they desired the judges to have more power.

18 CARS PIPE FOR WATER CO.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS AND EXTENSIONS BEING MADE BY WATER COMPANY

FOUR MILES EXTENSIONS

New Ten Inch Line Will Be Laid From Plant to the Business Section

Substantial improvements and extensions in the water system are now being made by the water company and when the work is completed the city will be much better equipped than for some time past. Eighteen cars of pipe are now being unloaded and will be laid within the next few weeks, extending a total of about four miles.

The company will lay 10-inch pipe from the plant down to Eleventh and Ninth, and down the latter streets to the business section and railroad yards. This will give the business district road pressure, independent of the stand-pipe and will offset the heavy drain on the system by the railroads. In case of a fire downtown, much better pressure could be obtained than at present.

The eight-inch pipe is to be laid from the plant out Eighteenth street to Holliday, north on Holliday to Eleventh, west to Brook and north on Brook to Tenth, reaching a large part of the residence section. The six-inch pipe will be laid out Tenth street to Kemp boulevard, covering Floral Heights and the western part of the city. The new pipe will not replace any already-down, being an extension of the service. There is also a car of four-inch pipe, which with the six-inch, will be used for numerous short-extensions.

When these improvements will be completed the system will be in shape to give good service for some time to come.

Governor Designates Mothers' Day Austin, Texas, May 6.—Governor Colquitt has issued a Mothers' Day proclamation, officially designating Sunday, May 11, as Mothers' Day. On that day the people of Texas are urged to remember their mothers and also to wear her favorite flower on the lapel of their coats.

HEAD OF TRAINMEN MAY BE CALLED ON TO LEAD BIG STRIKE

W. G. LEE

New York, May 6.—W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, may be called upon to lead a strike that will tie up fifty-four eastern railroads, aided by A. B. Garretton, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors. These two men head the organizations representing 100,000 men, which have demanded an increase of 15 per cent in wages. The railroad managers have declined to grant the demands. In their answer the managers point out that to avert a strike in 1910 they granted the conductors and trainmen an increase in wages aggregating $30,000,000. They demanded what was equivalent to placing on their proprietors a lien of $425,000,000 of 4 per cent securities, the burden of which would fall upon the public. "We hold the public interest paramount," the statement declares. It is hoped the demands will be arbitrated, as was done in the case of the engineers and firemen.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR UNDERWOOD

OCCASION OF TARIFF BILL AUTHOR'S BIRTHDAY A LOVE FEAST IN HOUSE

MANN'S PRETTY SPEECH

Minority Leader Pays Tribute to Opponent While Both Sides Join in Applause

By Associated Press. Washington, May 6.—A Democratic-Republican love feast was held in the House today as consideration of the tax provisions of the tariff bill drew toward a close. The occasion was the birthday of Representative Underwood.

Minority Leader Mann announced that he wished to cast aside all party animosity and speak from a personal viewpoint. He told the House that 21 years ago one of the ablest men in American public life first saw the light of day, and he congratulated "the Democratic party and the American people that during the fifty-one years of his life there was brought to greatness and bigness the able gentleman from Alabama, Mr. Underwood."

Amid a roar of applause from both sides of the House Mr. Underwood arose to thank Mr. Mann for his congratulations. In a short time the remaining paragraphs of the free list were read and adopted and the income tax provisions of the bill were taken up.

At the very southern gate of the United States lies Cuba, the Pearl of the Antilles. The name was given by the Spaniards, who knew what they were talking about. For some reason of soil or climate Cuba is the most favored of all the West Indian islands. Not only is the scenery of the island wonderful beauty and variety, but the products of her soil are finer in quality than the products of any of her neighbors though they lie in practically the same latitude and grow the same things.

When the war broke out there was no railroad within three hundred miles of Santiago. The line from Havana stopped one third of the way down the island at Santa Clara. All the eastern part of Cuba had been devastated by long years of revolution. Just after the war Sir William Van Horne came out of Canada and proceeded to open up the eastern part of Cuba. By 1902 the Cuba railroad was ready for traffic. And now it is possible to go in 24 hours from Havana to Santiago in a comfortable train with good sleeping cars and observation cars, just like a limited train between New York and Chicago. A few years have worked marvelous changes in traveling conditions.

This year traffic to Panama is heavy. Instead of going direct from New York to Jamaica and on to Panama, the traveler should, if possible, go first to Havana, from there through the heart of Cuba to Santiago, thence to Jamaica, and so on to Panama. From Santiago to Kingston in Jamaica the journey is just a night's run. So that those who are going to see Panama have no possible excuse for not seeing Cuba first. They can ship to Havana and proceed by rail to Santiago, and then across to Kingston and pick up their Panama steamer there. And if the truth must be told the visit to Cuba will be the best part of the trip. Every year Cuba is being brought a little nearer to us by improvements in the steamship and railroad services. Very soon it will be the favorite winter resort of the United States. For the scenery, especially in the east of the island, is matchless and the climate all the year round except in July and August, when the rains come is almost perfect.—Town and Country.

HAIRLESS BREED OF HORSES

Animals of the Turkomans Require Much Care and Thrive on Some-what Peculiar Diet.

The greatest peculiarity of the Turkoman breed of horses is their hairlessness. They have naturally very little mane, and what they have is always carefully cut off. Their skin is very soft and thin. Colonel Stewart in "Through Persia in Disguise" tells of the great care taken of these animals. They are never stabled, but picketed in the open. They are, however, warmly clothed. First the Turkoman puts over his animal a thick felt body-covering of the size that an English horse wears; over this he fastens an immense piece of felt that covers the horse's ears and his whole body down to his hoofs. This clothing he keeps in place with a long roller, which is passed three times round the horse's body.

The Turkomans feed their horses, when in camp, on barley or chopped straw, and give them flour and sheep's fat, or clarified butter, when they are going to call on them for great exertion. I myself, in India, have often given my horses a pound each of flour and coarse sugar, and half a pound of clarified butter made into balls, when I have ridden them far and wanted them to go on again. The horse easily digests this mixture, and he is ready to start sooner than if a feed of corn is given him. It is also supposed to give great strength.

Turkomans give their horses almost anything they eat themselves. Although hardy in respect of food, the horses require a good deal of care as to clothing, for their fine coats and delicate skins make them very susceptible to colds.—Youth's Companion.

New One to Him. A wealthy farmer was in a lawsuit the other day. In the trial the authorship of a certain newspaper article came up. It had been signed by his name. "I never wrote that," he said. "Why, there's words in here I never saw before." "Ah," said the other man's lawyer. "And will you point out one of them?" "Well," running a thick finger down the page, "here's one of 'em. 'V-I-I'—San Francisco Argonaut."

The Result. "How was the silence broken?" "Somebody dropped a remark."

You could not get beans as carefully hand-picked and sorted—as uniform in size as these for home cooking. The very best beans grown, prepared in the cleanest manner imaginable. The sauce is evenly distributed throughout—not poured in spots here and there as it is when put in after cooking. You could not serve a more appetizing or palatable dish. Ready to eat—hot or cold.

NOBLE HARDWARE CO'S FORMAL OPENING TONIGHT

New Wrinkles in Household Economics Will be Feature of Display

A stock of hardware is admirably considered very possible, but for the occasion of their formal display and inspection tonight, the Noble-Frank Hardware company have fixed up their store in a most pleasing manner and have prepared a most interesting display for the inspection of their friends. All of the new wrinkles in household economics will be shown, as well as the latest improvements in stoves, refrigerators, fireless cookers, etc. A very extensive line of China-ware and glassware is also to be shown.

For the occasion the store is being decorated with ferns and flowers, and music will be furnished by Katz orchestra.

For their lady guests the firm has provided very pretty and useful souvenirs in the shape of an aluminum and push pin cushion, which every lady will appreciate.

During the past month the Noble-Frank company have made very material changes in the interior of the store, and now have one of the best stocks in the city. Both floors of the building are employed to house the goods and a large balcony across the rear of the first floor adds additional space for display. An electric elevator is used for the carrying from one floor to another. Everything in the hardware line is carried in stock and with the additional room is shown in the most convenient manner.

START TO WALK FIFTY MILES TO REJOIN CARNIVAL

Broke, and fifty miles from their beds and meal tickets, three members of the carnival company which was here last week yesterday decided to make the best of a bad situation and struck out on foot for Vernon, where the carnival is showing this week. The three were left behind by mistake when the carnival left here Sunday, and found themselves without funds to pay railroad fare. A telegram to the carnival brought no relief.

The three boys pooled their assets, invested the total in hard-boiled eggs and other eatables and started out on their 50-mile hike late yesterday afternoon. They expect to reach Vernon tonight or tomorrow, perhaps sooner if a freight train with a not-to-watchful conductor comes along.

ROOMS WANTED FOR VISITING FIREMEN

With 1500 Delegates Expected Next Week, Not Enough Rooms Yet Secured

With 1500 visitors expected in the city next week for the firemen's convention, less than 100 rooms are now available, outside of the downtown hotels, for their accommodation. Unless the Wichitians who have spare rooms and spare beds allow the visiting firemen to use them, the problem of accommodating the crowd will be a very serious one. The hotels can take care of a comparatively small per cent of the visitors and it will be necessary to secure a large number of rooms in private homes.

All who have spare accommodations that could be used by the firemen are urged to notify the Chamber of Commerce, phone 299, giving the street and number and the price, so that the information may be ready for the visitors when they come. If Wichita Falls should prove unable to accommodate the visitors, it would make it very difficult to secure large conventions in the future, and the co-operation of every citizen is needed.

How to Cure a Horse of Kicking.

A contributor to the current issue of Pax and Fireside says that his horse stopped kicking when he gave him the following treatment:

"We filled a stout gunny sack with sand and suspended it from the ceiling with a rope directly in the rear of the kicking horse in such a position that its heels could have a good play upon it. This mammoth pendulum, needing but a forceful touch, would swing with clock work precision as soon as the horse began to play its gymnastic stunts upon it. At the first kick the bag would swing away only to return with great momentum, giving the horse as good as he sent. Of course this unexpected state of affairs resulted in a general mixup between the horse and the bag of sand for a few minutes, but the bag held its own, returning all it received with interest, till the horse, coming to the full realization that there was no use to combat, was perfectly cowed. The bag was allowed to hang for about a week to insure an absolute cure, and up to the present time there has been no need of repeating the process."

Mayor McBride

Chief of Police DIMSON

Paterson, N. J., May 1.—The silk strike situation in this city, once the home of anarchists, is so serious as to attract almost national attention. The fight is being waged by William Hayward of the I. W. W., and already many clashes between the police and the strikers have occurred. Scenes nearly as violent as the I. W. W. strike at Lowell, Mass., have been witnessed. The militia has not been called, for Chief of Police Dimson and his men have tried their best to keep the strikers within bounds. The strikers have planned to send their hungry children, about 5,000 in number, out of the city, probably to New York City, to be taken care of by strike sympathizers, as was done in the textile strike at Lowell. Strikers obtain their food by standing in the bread line at the strike headquarters. Mayor McBride, of this city is being reviled by the strike leaders for his stand. The strike is for more wages and better hours. Paterson is known through the silk industry as the silk city. Many of the mills are practically closed.

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 6, 1913

Our idea of the real captain of industry is the housewife who can clean house, manage a bunch of painters, carpenters and paper hangers all at the same time and in addition to that provide the regular family meals.

It's not the tariff, the income tax or the standing of our ball team that's worrying us so much just now. It's why in thunder the seeds we planted in that measly little garden of ours about two months ago have not yet shown any disposition what ever to do the right thing.

Several complaints have reached the Times from citizens who are being considerably annoyed by small boys who are pilfering their premises during their absence, appropriating any thing that chances to meet their fancy and for which they can make disposition of, receiving in exchange a few nickels or dimes. Even small baby chickens are stolen and sold by these boys whose parents are no doubt in ignorance of their wrongful acts. It might be well for those who buy articles from these boys to make close inquiry as to how they came in possession of them. To not do this is but to give encouragement to the boys and such encouragement is more than likely to induce them to continue to prowl and steal until they become old enough to be handled by the law.

The people of Wichita Falls will soon be given an opportunity to decide the question as to whether they prefer a commission or aldermanic form of government. It is the purpose of the committee selected by a mass meeting of citizens held some months ago to recommend that an election be called to decide that question in advance of the new charter election. This plan, it strikes the Times is perfectly fair. If a majority desire a government by commission then those who oppose that form should drop their opposition and do all in their power to make it a success. On the other hand, the Times feels confident that if a majority of our people prefer the aldermanic form of government those who favor government by commission will do what they can to advance the interests of the city under that plan of government. There is not a town or city in Texas that has advanced as rapidly as Wichita Falls during the past few years, but a new city charter is needed, and that must be obtained if the city government is expected to keep up with the progress and growth of the city.

President Wilson, in a public address delivered in New Jersey the other day is quoted as saying: "I want everybody to realize that I have not been deceived by the results of the National election. The country did not go Democratic in November. It is impossible for it to go Republican because it could not tell which kind of Republican to go. The only hopeful and united instrument through which it could accomplish its purpose was the Democratic party." The fact, however, remains that it was Democratic votes that brought about the victory. The Republicans were divided, but that party has three full years before it got together, and the chances are that it will do that very thing. Therefore, it is up to the Democratic party to strengthen itself in every way possible for the battle that is to come with its old enemy. This can be best done by carrying out to the letter the National platform pledges, and if the Democratic majorities in both houses of Congress give the proper support to President Wilson, this will be done. Another good way to build up and strengthen the party organization is to put none but capable and efficient Democrats in charge of the government offices. This Democratic administration cannot expect with any reason to continue in power by retaining Republicans in office. The rank and file of Democratic voters throughout the whole United States, expect and have a right to expect that Democrats should succeed to the offices, and the quicker the change is made, the better it will be for the party organization.

DISCRIMINATION
 (By Strickland Gillilan in Editor and Publisher.)
 He'd run their store for years and years
 And sold them food that kept them living.
 He'd had his times of well-based fears
 Lest he must do some debt-forgiving.

They couldn't live without his stuff,
 'T would seem they well might pension him.
 All which combine to make it tough—
 The papers dash't mention him.
 The reason? It is not surprising,
 It would be plain "free advertising."

Another owned a baseball lot
 Where games for cold, spot cash were played.
 He rolled in money by the pot—
 Ten times that store man's dough he made.
 Folks didn't need his goods as much
 As they had need for beans and bacon.
 Yet no reporter got "in Dutch,"
 No odds how large a space he'd taken.
 To tell about the games and all,
 "Free advertising"? Not Baseball!

Just why poor Smith who sold them
 Tacks
 And brooms and soda and blue ging-ham,
 Who'd trusted them for flour sacks
 And never, never tried to sting 'em—
 Just why a mention of his joint
 Should be more like free-business-getting
 Than baseball boosting—that's a point
 O'er which some publishers are fretting.
 There comes a roar—we hear it rising!
 "This baseball slush is advertising!"

The parties are so hopelessly divided and even the members of the cabinet are so widely set asunder on the question that a forecast of the outcome of the debate is most difficult.

Members when they arrived at the house today had to run a gauntlet of women carrying placards directed at the cabinet ministers such as "Traitor Asquith," "Deport Reginald McKenna and Chancellor Hobhouse."

J. A. Newland and Miss Mary Taylor were married at noon today at the home of the bride's father, D. Ph. Taylor, 912 Burnett, Rev. J. P. Boone officiating. It had been planned to make the wedding a "quiet" one, but he-associates of the groom in the Katy office decided otherwise; consequently Mr. and Mrs. Newland were escorted to the station by a large wagon load of bell-ringing, horn-blowing young people, while large placards on the carriage permitted no doubt that a newly married couple was inside. Mr. and Mrs. Newland left for Galveston, and will return shortly to make their home here. The groom is employed in the Katy office and is a popular and efficient member of that road's office force here. The bride is a member of one of this city's best known families and is a young woman of sterling worth.

Over Fifty Injured in Riot at Syracuse
 New York This Morning

By Associated Press.
 Syracuse, New York, May 6.—The local militia was called out suddenly on strike duty this morning after a riot in which fifty strikers and seven policemen were injured. Five hundred striking building laborers, all Italians, attacked the men who were tearing down the residence of Bishop John Grimes to make place for a new episcopal residence.

A squad of fifty policemen attacked the strikers with revolvers who used bricks as their weapons. Two strikers were shot through the body and six others were injured. After the first outbreak fire hose was used to drive back the strikers, who retreated to the residence district where they made another stand resulting in the calling out of the militia.

Federal General Has Retreated to Monterey, According to Gov. Carranzas

By Associated Press.
 Eagle, Pass, Texas, May 6.—The report that General Aubert, in command of the federal forces in Northern Mexico, had gone over to the constitutionalists, was apparently without foundation according to an official announcement from Governor Carranzas headquarters at Piedras Negras this morning. General Carranzas himself informed an Associated Press representative that General Aubert had retreated to Monterey.

In an interview General Carranzas said the federalists had been dislodged and that there was no further fear of a federal advance upon Monterrey.

He said that delegates from all parts of the republic were arriving to tender their allegiance to the Constitutionalist government. He further declared that he would issue a decree soon describing the punishment that other leaders in the conspiracy against the constituted government.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS TEX. OKLA. LEAGUE

Sherman, Texas, May 6.—There was a meeting of the directors of the Texas-Oklahoma Baseball League held in the rooms of the Sherman Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon.

It was decided, on a vote, that Third Baseman Dougan Brooks of the Denison team, who was recently given a fine of $15 and suspended for fifteen days by Umpire Nugent, be permitted to return to the team at once, but that the fine be paid. It was shown at the meeting Monday afternoon that Brooks was tried in Justice court at Denison Monday morning on a charge of assault, and was acquitted. It was alleged that he threw a baseball at Umpire Nugent.

The matter of Wichita Falls forfeiting a game to Bonham last week on a decision of Umpire Nugent was taken up, but because Wichita Falls was not represented it was decided to put the case off until the next regular meeting, and Secretary Roy M. Finley was instructed to notify Wichita Falls that the case would come up then.

The game played between Bonham and Paris, April 19, at Paris, which was protested by Bonham, because Pitcher Billings worked for Paris that day, when claimed by Bonham, was disposed of. Since the protest Billings has been awarded to Bonham, and the game was declared no game and was ordered played over. The secretary was ordered to make the necessary correction in the percentage column, and to cut out all averages of players who participated in the game.

A resolution was passed that hereafter the home team may have a ladies' day one day each series, at which ladies may be admitted at the gate free.

Those who were present at the meeting were: President C. O. Johnson of Durant, Secretary Roy M. Finley of Denison, D. B. Lyon of Sherman

RAISING $100 FOR PEACE PRIZE

ONE HUNDRED CONTRIBUTIONS OF $1.00 EACH ASKED FOR PRIZE FUND

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Subscriptions of one dollar each from 100 Wichitans are desired to make up a prize to be offered for the best paper by a high school student on the subject of industrial peace. The Chamber of Commerce committee, W. G. Long, J. S. Straus and Myles O'Reilly, give out the following:

"Some time ago, Mrs. Christensen, on behalf of the peace committee of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, suggested that the Chamber of Commerce offer a prize in the Wichita Falls Debating and Declaration League for the best paper on industrial peace. While it is not within the province of the Chamber of Commerce to take official action in such a matter, several of the members signified their willingness to contribute toward a $100 prize to be contended for next year.

"Afterwards, one of the members added the suggestion that giving a prize on such a subject would touch every one more or less; should not be the privilege of a few, but the right of all, and besides the more who contributed the greater would be the interest. This generation will not live to see the industrial treaty of peace ratified, nor in all probability will the next, but the conflict between capital and labor is a very menacing problem today and as the years pass will become, still more menacing to the stability of our civilization.

"If the boys and girls of the high school age have an incentive to talk, debate and write on the subject, with all that means of independent reflection and study of its many sides, a sure foundation will have been laid upon which, as men and women, they can use the mistakes of the past to build a more harmonious social structure.

"Therefore, we would like to have 100 persons contribute one dollar each to constitute a cash-prize for the best-essay on industrial peace by a pupil in any one of the schools which compose the debating and declaration league; and we would like also to have the people of Wichita Falls say that it shall be an annual prize which shall be offered as long as industrial peace is a hope but not a fact.

"Anyone desiring to chip in a dollar can do so by sending their check or taking the cash to T. J. Taylor at the First State Bank. Do this today.

R. Hodge of Texarkana, L. H. Barnes of Denison, D. B. Lyon of Sherman and Dr. F. C. Allen of Bonham, Ardmore and Wichita Falls had no representatives present.

MONDAY'S GAME GIVES HOPE

PARIS WON IN FIRST

After permitting 5 runs in opening inning, locals steadied and played gilt edged ball.

Starting with the second inning, it was a real good ball game yesterday, but O, that awful first inning. Paris made it three straight by putting the game on ice in the first frame, when two bases on balls, a hit batter, an error and a home run chased in five scores. After that the visitors chalked up a nice row of goose-eggs, but the damage was already done. The Drillers went gamely in to overcome the lead, but stopped two runs short and the final score was 5 to 3.

Although they lost, the Drillers put up an exhibition that was so far ahead of Saturday's and Sunday's that it made things look better. Nobody will howl over losing games like that yesterday when the boys get out and really make a fight for the game. It showed that there is some fight left in them. There was much of the old-time pep, and while some splendid chances for pinch hits were passed up, the infield's work was classy to a high degree. It looked like a different team.

Chief Pones seemed to have all that was needed, after that fatal first inning and pitched shut-out ball. Brown, in the box for the visitors, was saved several times, by big-league fielding behind him when scores seemed certain.

After Daly was out in the first inning, Weber walked, Nagle was hit by a pitched ball and Mathis walked, filling the bases. Robertson hit a grounder to Nicholson, who threw to the plate, but Hornbuckle dropped the ball, Weber scoring. Then, with the bases cluttered, Harper uncorked a smashing drive to right field for a home run. Then Jones braced and the side was retired. There was no more scoring by Paris.

The Drillers scored their first in the first inning when Nevitt singled and scored on Nicholson's triple. Nicholson camped on third and watched Brown and Lawson go down on easy outs. The next run came in the seventh when Shell was safe on an Alphonso-Gaston play, was advanced by Hornbuckle's walk and scored on Nevitt's single. Phillips' home run in the eighth, with the bases absolutely empty, ended the scoring.

A golden chance to score in fourth was stopped by a double play. With one out, Lawson singled; Phillips walked and Jones was hit by a pitched ball. The best Shell could do was a grounder to third and fast fielding retired the side.

That boy Nevitt acted real handsome yesterday, getting three singles and handling six fielding chances. Phillips also handled six chances in good style. The score:

Yesterday's game showed that the old-time pennant-winning pep is not dead, boys really can play if they will.

Neither Brown nor White has gotten a hit in several days and these old stand-bys seem to have hit a bad slump.

Yesterday was pop-up day, twenty-eight of the fifty-four outs being on high flies or fouls. The wind was largely the cause of that.

Brown pulled down some ugly-looking drive in the first inning when he got hold of Moore's hot one that was labeled for three bases.

Lefty Mullins certainly seems to be making good with Dallas and will be wearing a big-league uniform before many months if he keeps up his good work.

Honors For Wichita Falls Students University of Texas

BY JEROME S. STONE.

Last week was a period full of achievement both in scholarship and athletics for Wichita Falls students at the University of Texas.

The Texas Alpha of the Phi Beta Kappa society elected Miss Clara Parker, for several years head of the department of Latin at the Wichita Falls High School, to membership in the Chapter. The Phi Beta society, it is unnecessary to explain, is a National organization which stands for the highest achievement in scholarship and learning.

Only one-eighth of the members of each year's senior class in the different universities are eligible to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa, and of these the ones chosen must not have fallen below a grade of 85 during the last three years at school, and must have made a number of grades exceeding 95, which is a most unusual happening at the University of Texas where only last March the winter term examinations revealed that more than two hundred students were unable to pass in enough courses to entitle them to remain in school.

Miss Parker, however, is not the only Wichita Falls student who has won unusual honors at the University this year.

At an inter-collegiate track meet between the University of Texas and Oklahoma A. & M. College, held at Stillwater, Okla., last Monday, Ralph P. Mathis of the Sophomore class, in the mile run, broke all Texas and all Southern inter-collegiate records, when he ran a mile in four minutes and forty-two seconds. The previous Texas record was four minutes and forty-eight seconds. Mathis, therefore, lowered by two seconds, all mile run records south of the Mason-Dixon line of an inter-collegiate nature, and in addition won the track meet for the University of Texas by also taking first place in the half-mile run.

Two days later at Norman, Okla., in a track meet with Oklahoma University, he again won the miles for Texas University by taking first place in the mile run and second place in the half-mile run. His performance at the Texas inter-collegiate meet to be held next Thursday and Friday at Brownwood will be watched with interest by the entire University, because the best long distance runners from all of the colleges and universities in the state will participate.

Wichita Falls students have also entered University politics.

Announcement was made last week that Wiley M. Fuller of Wichita Falls, a member of the Junior Law class here, is the choice of the barbarian or non-fraternity party as a candidate for editor-in-chief of The Daily Texan next year. Opposed to him is a popular fraternity man, and friends of Fuller are working overtime to bring about his election on the 20th of May, when the annual election of 1913 will take place under the rules of the Australian ballot system.

More than two thousand students are entitled to a vote, and a great deal of interest is being manifested concerning the general results of the election.

Inasmuch as the animated bar-frat fight has been waging all year, the outcome will decide the supremacy of one or the other of the parties, and is therefore of more than usual interest for that reason. Already, more than twenty-five candidates for the different offices have announced, and politics will continue to grow warmer and warmer until the passing of election day, the third Tuesday of this month, after which things will settle down for another year.

During the latter part of last week, approximately three hundred and fifty high school and academy students, teachers and trainers were the guests of the University, the visitors having made the trip here from all parts of the state in order to participate in the inter-scholastic track and debating contests, which were more widely attended this year than ever before and which proved entirely successful, even beyond the anticipations of those in charge.

Although the Wichita Falls High School failed to send a team to Austin this year, the northwestern part of the state was well represented, there being present boys from Childress, Amarillo, Clarendon, Iowa Park, Olney and a number of other towns not far from Wichita Falls.

Olney was well represented in the debating contests by Fred Harrell, as was also Iowa Park by John Matthews and Walter Sisk. Although these boys failed to win any of the high school debating prizes, they showed promise of development and made by no means a bad showing, even attracting enough attention to have their pictures printed in the University "Texan." They seemed to be well pleased with what they saw of university life.

Smoker for the K. of P. Members. Next Thursday, May 8th, is the day set by the committee on arrangement for the big fraternal love feast to be given by Pioneer Lodge No. 49. We are not going to make any personal appeals to your knightly zeal, and you will receive no other invitation only through the columns of The Times. We consider this the best method of inviting you to be present.

Don't look for a long letter of introduction from the committee, with a ticket to the show on the side; we are too busy to go to all that trouble. We are looking for men who remember that confidence is the outgrowth of friendship, and that fraternalism is as much a giver as a receiver. Our Castle Hall door will be open to you next Thursday night, May 8th. Don't forget the date.

At the Lydia Margaret The Lydia Margaret has a clean entertaining bill for the first half of the week. It isn't a roar or a scream or anything like that but the act of LeCall and Gladys in the Devil and the Dragon and their acrobatic stunt with electrical effects that follow is a refined and pretty one, and while they present nothing new in the acrobatic line outside of the electrical effects with it, they are certainly performers of graceful skill.

The "Devil and the Dragon" is spectacular enough to give one the creeps while admiring the presentation. First the "Devil" appears on the stage with the usual red light and is followed by the "Dragon" which crawls around occasionally emitting spurts of red flame from its nostrils.

The Star Comedy Four sing in a most entertaining manner and their songs show some pretty harmony. They introduce enough comedy to give spice to their performance. Several good motion pictures fill out the program with enough variety and about the right length to be enjoyed all the way through.

MADE YOUTH A SAILOR

GREAT, MAN REMEMBERED HIS PROMISE TO BOY.

Had "Fought for Jackson," and the President Redeemed Partial Promise That He Had Made Some Years Before.

The subject of Mr. Stephen Bessal's stirring biography, "Edward Fitzgerald Beale," was the son of Paymaster George Beale, who served with distinction under Macdonough at Lake Champlain, and of Emily, the daughter of Commodore Truxton of the famous Constellation. Young Beale, as a member of two naval families, therefore, had what was regarded in the old navy as a prescriptive right to enter the service.

With the advent of President Jackson, all such rights were brushed aside, and the claims of young Beale might have been overlooked except for a fortunate and characteristic incident.

The boys of Washington, where the Beales spent their winters, were ardent politicians, like their fathers, and they were divided by allegiance to antagonistic statesmen. The disputes between the Adams partisans and the Jacksonians grew so bitter that the boys decided to settle all their political differences once for all by the ancient test of battle.

Ned Beale was the Jacksonian champion, and the Adamsites were represented by a boy named Evans, who afterward became a distinguished citizen of Indiana. The battle was appointed to take place under a long arch, which at that time marked the southern entrance to the White House grounds.

While the battle raged and the enthusiastic spectators applauded, a tall figure suddenly appeared, scattered the boys, and seizing Beale by the collar, asked him why he was fighting. He replied that he was fighting for General Jackson, and that his opponent had expressed a poor opinion of the president's politics and personality.

"I am General Jackson," said the man. "I never forget the men or boys who are willing to fight for me, but I do not wish them to do it all the time. Now put on your coats."

A few years later, when Beale reached his fourteenth year, his desire to enter the navy became overwhelming. One afternoon he called at the White House with his mother to see General Jackson and ask for a midshipman's warrant.

Mrs. Beale told her story, and spoke of the fact that her boy was the son and grandson of men who had served their country and been wounded in battle. Jackson listened with courtesy, but seemed uncertain how he should act. Suddenly the boy interrupted his mother.

"Mother, he said, 'let me speak to General Jackson.'"

He then reminded the president of the fight and the promise he had made, at least by implication, to serve him whenever the opportunity presented.

Without a word, General Jackson tore off the back of a letter lying near him, and wrote to the secretary of the navy, "Give this boy an immediate warrant," and handed it to Mrs. Beale.—Youth's Companion.

Treasure Hard to Get At.

News that a fresh attempt is to be made to recover sunken treasures from the ship General Grant recalls the story of that ill-fated vessel. She sailed for London from Melbourne in 1886 and was wrecked off the Auckland Islands. For two years her disappearance remained a mystery. Then chance led to the rescue of a few survivors, who told how the vessel had been dashed against a cliff 400 feet high and in sinking had been swept into a cave at its base. There for close on half a century the wreck has lain in fourteen fathoms of water, with treasure to the value of $1,250,000 in the bullion room to tempt the treasure hunter. The estimate may be an exaggeration, but the report has already attracted five well equipped expeditions. The swirl of the tide and the deadly backwash within the cave have so far defied the efforts of the most skillful and daring divers to reach the treasure. It remains to be seen whether the sixth attempt will share the failure of its predecessors.

Imaginary Insomnia.

Brand Whitlock, who is writing stories and books when he is not mayoring and reforming, hates, with all the vindictiveness that is in his heart, clocks that strike the hour and throw out on the silvery air of night their bell-like chimes.

One evening he went to Columbus and put up at a hotel near a church tower, which was some tower when it came to chiming. Brand got into bed, and, after tossing restlessly about for a long time, heard the big clock strike "one." After what seemed an interminable hour, during which his brain was teeming with ideas for up-lifting the human race and taking money away from publishers, the bell rang twice.

"Two o'clock!" groaned Whitlock. "I'll never get to sleep."

"Insomnia!" wailed Brand. "I'm going mad!" He sprang out of bed, turned on the light and looked at his watch. It was a quarter to one in the morning, and his agile brain had changed the quarter chimes into hour bells.—Popular Magazine.

"I want to ask you—ain't that a
