ROOSEVELT CASE STILL ON TRIAL

DEFENSE ATTORNEY OUTLINES PLAN OF HIS SIDE'S ACTION

SAYS ONE SINGLED OUT

Declares Many Papers Published Re port That Roosevelt Was Not Total Abstainer

By Associated Press: Marquette, Mich., May 28.—Introduction of further testimony to show the abstenious habits of the plaintiff was resumed today in the libel suit of Theodore Roosevelt.

John Callan O'Loughlin, a Wash ington correspondent was the first Col. Roosevelt entered the witness. room and took his customary seat with a row of spectators inside the His gaze turned upon the railing. jury and then on O'Loughlin.

During court proceedings Mr. Roosevelt sits quietly caressing his heavy watch chain. He does it slow ly and reflectively rather than nervously. Mr. Newett came into court with his counsel. He is very ill, but his ruddy complexion hid this from all but those who knew him well. He sat looking straight in front of him and not at anyone in particular, utterly motionless as he has sat since the trial opened.

Mr. O'Laughlin on cross examina tion, denied that he was in charge of any work for the Progressive party O'Laughlin said Roosevelt appointed him assistant secretary of state and he went on a mission to Japan. The same year that he ordered the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific.

"Now, you mention that Col. Roose velt sent the fleet to the Pacific Was that measure taken because of the relations between this country and Japan? Was it to prevent war

"Well, yes, it was perfectly evident that Japan would not go to war with this country if it was apparent that was more powerful. It this country was one of the measures taken by Col. Roosevelt to prevent war."

Other Reports Printed. Attorney Belden of the defense said the defense intended to ask questions of future witnesses in an at tempt to show that there was in existence a general report amounting to a general reputation that Col Roosevelt does use liquor, and some times to excess; that these reports published in newspapers and that Col. Roosevelt read these reports and this charge had never been contradicted by him, that the defendant published the report of the former president's reported excessive use of intoxicants believing it to be and not with any malice. The defense said it could not see in the presence of wide-spread comment by the public and in important newspapers that Mr. Roosevelt had been greatly damaged by the repetition of charges of intexication in a remote weekly with a circulation o about 3000 copies.

"We propose to show that such charges as were made in the Iron Ore were by no means confined to this region."

THESE GRADUATES DO NOT FEAR UNLUCKY THIRTEEN

Sussex, N. J., May 28.—Supersti ly, but the younger generation here have determined to turn bad omens to good ones. The senior class o the Sussex high school has thirteen members. It is to receive diplomas on Friday, June 13, 1913. Many parents have petitioned the board of education to change the date, but the board referred the matter to the pupils and the latter vigorously on posed any move to "spoil the jinx."
"It's such a perfectly complete hoodoo," said a girl member of the class, "that we wouldn't think of let-ting anything interfere with it. I the thirteen influence goes straigh through the charm will be twisted and it will mean the best of good luck for us all."

Danish Engineer Capitalizes His Vis ion by Inventing New Death Machinery

By Associated Press.
Copenhagen, May 28.—The dream of a Danish engineer named Aesen of seeing the next war waged by automatons in place of soldiers has developed into the patenting of an invention which it is claimed would evolutionize defensive tactics

The contrivance is a cylinder which may be buried in the ground for years the same as submarine mines are placed in harbors; doing no damage until they are fired. The cylinder s operated by electricity from a staion four or five miles distant.

When a button is pressed ylinger jumps two feet from the ground and fires four hundred shots horizontally the shots being effective at 3000 yards.

Aesen claims crops may be grown over the invention in time of peace and that the contrivance would be so well hidden the enemy would not know its position.

LIGHT SHOWING OF OIL ON MUNGER RANCH WELL

Struck at Depth of 830 Feet-No Test Yet Made of New Burkburnett Shallow Well

A small showing of oil was struck oday in the well on the Munger subdivision of the old Jones ranch, near Holliday, at a depth of $30 feet. The showing was a light one, and drilling has been resumed. This well is being put down by L. C. Hivick and is one of the most important tests now showing. No test has yet been made of the Burkburnett Oil Company's well on the Hardin survey, but the well will cemetated. The drill passed through the oil sand Sunday, going several feet below it, and it was found necessary to cement the open hole below the sand. This will probably be done by tomorrow

The well on Waggoner Brothers ranch was not as dry as at first re ported there being four feet of oil sand mixed with shale, at 1745 to 1749 feet. Drilling has been resume but if nothing is encountered in the deeper strata, it is understood the company will attempt to develop both the 1740 foot sand and that which was, found at about 1400 feet.

The Guffey Company has made location on the northwest subdivision of the J. E. Roller tract in the Burkburnett field, the new well being in the extreme northwest corner, more than a mile from Roller No. 1. The atter was drilled to 2200 feet without tract, where Reese Allen and J. A. Fisher have a shallow well.

DELIVERY

You will very soon be thinking about fruit canning as the fruit season is rapidly advancing. Now if you are aiming at economy and variety as well as quality I want to talk to you about furnishing your next winter's supply of fruits already for use. I refer of course to canned goods, I have been very successful in supplying a great many of my customers with first class canned goods for their winter use and at prices that beat home products all to pieces. I can show you how you can save money and get a better variety of fruit of the guaranteed kind with ne loss whatever and with absolutely no work, a your part. Now if this is interesting to you, as I am sure it must be, I hope to see you soon.

minister up in Canada, so the press dispatches say, opened the prize fight Saturday night with prayer, and in the very first round one of the principals was killed gy a blow under the heart or on the neck delivered by the other fighter. To us this is some evidence that the prayer uttered by that minister did not reach a great way in the direction prayers are usually thought to ascend.

At the Confederate reunion parade given in Chattanooga no ladies were permitted to ride astride. It may be and probably is the most correct, sensible and convenient way for ladies to ride, but it is evident the new style did not appeal strongly to the old grayhaired vets. The rest of us have no objection. In fact most men rather fancy looking at ladies thus mounted, provided of course, that the riders are wives or sisters of some other man.

A Pennsylvania oil man went out to Wichita Falls and undertook to lease some of land from one of the wealthy and beautiful belles of that city. The young lady refused to lease the land to the Pennsylvanian, and he got busy, courted her and yesterday led her to Hyman's altar. Those oil fellows are not afraid to risk any thing.-Sherman Democrat.

MORE ABOUT THE AMENDMENT. In making up his mind as to how he will vote on the amendment to sec-tions 40 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, the voter must consider the following questions:

1, Is he willing to authorize the state officials to create debts against the state to the amount of a half million dollars, which may be repeated as often as the debt is paid, and which the tax payer must pay?

2. Does he favor the issuing of bonds to build another Agricultural and Mechanical College at Austin in connection with the University

3. Does he favor giving the Legislature unlimited power to issue any where Mrs. Sterley and her daughter will take a steamer for Manilla where amount of bonds it may see fit for Misi Sterley will be married to a buildings for "other institutions?"

policy to issue three million dollars' Fort Worth and Denve worth of bonds for the penitentiary system, which in two years has lost two million dollars?

5. Is he willing, as a tax payer, to pay his share of the seven million dollars' worth of bonds which will be immediately demanded of the Legislature should this amendment be adopted? 6. Does he believe it good public policy for the voter to be forced to vote for seven different propositions, or against all of them, or not vote at A. M. KENNEDY.

Mississippi Street, Block 10

Notice to Patrons of the Wichita Falls Traction Co.

On and after June 1st., 1913, the Wichita Falls Traction Company will inaugurate the "Pay-as-youenter" system of collecting fares, and patrons are requested to have the exact fare ready on entering the car, in order to save time and avoid confusion.

Packages cannot be handled on the street cars except those that can be handled by the owner and within the car. Baby buggies cannot be handled unless folded or of such size as can be handled on inside of car and not block the aisle.

With the above system in effect, we will be able to give the public much more efficient service, and hope our patrons will assist us by having their nickles and tickets ready on entering the car, and not attempt to take packages on the cars other than specified above.

TEXARKANA WINS

SCORE OF ELEVEN TO THREE

JONES PROVES NO PUZZLE

Sixteen Hits While Wichita Falls Gets Only Six Off Fulweider _

Special to the Times.

Texarkan, Texas, May 28.—Texarkana made an easy thing of it in the opener with Wichita Fails and captured the first of the series, 11 to 3. Jones was in the box for the Drillers and had nothing that the locals were not able to solve, yielding sixteen hits. Wichita Falls is still crippled by the absence of three of the regu-late line-up.

Fulweider pitched for the locals and kept the hits scattered until the fourth, when the Drillers got their only runs. The score:

DISAPPOINTMENT

Is that which comes to those who build their homes, and fall to use the best Mantle, Wall, and Bathroom Tiling, set by some one who knows how.

Every few days some one comes to us with a tale of disappointment, having been misjed by the apparent difference in cost between superior and inferior material and labor. Cheap material, set by inexperienced hands comes high and results in disappointment.

We demand only a fair profit, regardless of what competitors say, and what we say, we do-without any disappointment to you. If you are in the market for anything in our line, remember w

If I were selling nails or glass, or pills or garden sass, or honey from the bee—whatever line of goods were mine, I'd study up that special line and

If I a stock of rags should keep, I'd read up sundry books on sheep and wool and how it grows. Beneath my old baid, freekled roof, I'd store some facts on warp and other things like those. I'd try to know a spinning jack from a patent churn or wagon rack, a loom from hog-tight fence; and if a man came in to buy, and asked some leading question. I could answer with

If I were selling books, I'd know a Shakespeare from an Edgar Poe, a Carlyle from a Pope; and I would knnw Fitzgerald's rhymes from Laura Libbey's brand of crimes, or Lillian Russell's dope. leather doesn't grow; that shoe pegs do not grow like oats, that cowhide doesn't come from goats—such things I'd surely know.

And if I were a grocer man, I'd open now and then a can and see what stuff is held; 'twere better than to writhe in woe and make reply, "I didn't." know," when some mad pairon yelled.

I hate to hear a merchant say: "I think that this is splendid hay," "I guess it's first class tea." He ought to know how good things are, if he would sell his silk or tar or other goods to me. Oh, knowledge is the stuff that wins:

the man without it soon begins to get his trade in kinks. No matter where a fellow goes, he's valued for the things he knows, not for the things he thinks.—Walter Mason.
