TEXAS COTTON IS BELOW LAST YEAR

CONDITION 84 PER CENT ON MAY 25—86 PER CENT IN 1912

CROP CONDITION IS 79.1

Country's Average Above That at This Time Last Year—Government Figures Issued

By Associated Press. Washington, June 2.—The newly planted cotton crop of the United States showed a condition on May 25 of 79.1 per cent of normal, according to the United States Department of Agriculture's crop-reporting board, announced at noon today in the first condition report of the season which always is looked forward to with great interest by cotton growers, textile manufacturers and cotton dealers. This condition, compiled from the reports of the correspondents and agents of the department's bureau of statistics, compares with a condition of 78.9 per cent on May 25 last year, 87.8 per cent on the corresponding date in 1911, 82.0 per cent in 1910, and 79.9 per cent the average condition for the past ten years on May 25. The generally favorable growing conditions throughout the cotton belt since the planting of the crop caused much speculation as to the condition of the planted crop resulting in unofficial estimates ranging from 78.8 per cent to as high as 85 per cent.

The area planted to cotton this year also has been the subject of much speculation in cotton circles, but the Department of Agriculture's official estimate will not be issued until July 3 owing to the passage of the law last year which deferred this annual report from June to a month later. Unofficially the area planted this year is estimated by the most conservative at an increase over the 34,283,000 acres picked last year. These unofficial estimates range from a 3 per cent increase upward. A 3 per cent increase in the acreage planted would indicate an area of about 35,311,000 acres.

NEWSPAPER EDITOR HELD NOT GUILTY OF CONTEMPT

By Associated Press. Jefferson City, Mo., May 2.—The Missouri supreme court today discharged William R. Nelson, owner and editor of the Kansas City Star from the charge of contempt of the Jackson county circuit court.

The supreme court held the article published in the Star was contemptuous but ordered Mr. Nelson discharged from contempt solely on the ground that Circuit Court Judge Guthrie prepared his opinion the night before the trial for contempt. Mr. Nelson was found guilty and sentenced to one day in jail February last by Judge Guthrie who based his action on the publication in the Star of an article which said that Judge Guthrie had refused to dismiss a divorce suit filed in his court until the parties to the suit had settled it out of court and asked dismissal and had paid their attorney's fees.

KATY ENJOINED ON OWN PETITION

HAS SELF PREVENTED FROM ACCEPTING EMPIRE EXPRESS BUSINESS

MATTER WILL BE TESTED

Points are Raised Which Promise Interesting Fight Over Question in Courts

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, June 2.—On the road's own application a temporary restraining order was granted in federal court here today by Judge E. R. Meek restraining the M. K. & T. Railroad Co. from receiving express packages from the Empire Express company and also restraining that company from offering packages for transportation. June 9 was set for hearing on application for permanent injunction.

A suit was instituted in the state district court at Greenville by the express company which was chartered some time ago under the Texas laws to do a general express business to compel the road to accept the company's business, and is still pending.

The railroad claims that under an exclusive contract with another express company it is prohibited from accepting the new company's business, while the express company sets up the claim that under the constitution of Texas, the railroad is compelled to accept its packages.

It was said today the case involves a precedent and probably will go eventually to the Supreme Court of the United States.

SETS "TANGO" RECORD; WON'T DANCE AGAIN.

Edmonton, Alta., June 2.—Mrs. John G. Luroski was declared the winner in a tangoecorean marathon in Edmonton South the other night, when she danced with 171 partners at the celebration following her wedding.

Incidentally, the bride gathered in $342, each partner paying $2 for the privilege of dancing with her in accordance with an old Polish custom.

The director of ceremonies said that such a thing as copying the "Chicken Scratch" and "Grizzly" were out of the question.

Mrs. Luroski, who is a comely young woman, recently from Poland, told several of her countrywomen that while she is proud of having established a new "tango" record in America, she will never dance again.

New Orleans, June 2.—The New Orleans Lumber Trade Journal has received the following telegram from Dallas:

"At a conference of Texas manufacturers and shippers held yesterday with Governor O. B. Colquhoun, it was decided to call a conference of all southern governors and shippers to be held in New Orleans early in June.

PINK SLIPS DECLINED BY FEDERAL EMPLOYEES.

Little Rock, June 2.—Guy W. Caron, register of the United States land office in Little Rock and John E. Bush, negro, receiver of the land office, each received a note from Secretary of the Interior Lane stating that his resignation was desired.

Mr. Caron said his term expired June 12 and that he does not consider it necessary to resign.

Bush says that his term does not expire until May 19, 1914 and that he will not resign, and that he will resist any attempt made to oust him. Bush has held his present position for fifteen years having been first appointed by President McKinley in 1898.

Lawyer Gibson, His Alleged Victim, Scene Of His New Trial, Judge and Lawyers

Newburgh, N. Y., June 2.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer accused of the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa M. Szabo, in order to secure her little fortune of $10,000, faced his second trial for his life in the courthouse here with the assertion that this time he would be acquitted. He was tried last fall at Goshen, N. Y., and the jury disagreed. The second trial bids fair to be even more sensational than the first because it was said that new evidence had been obtained. The case attracted wide attention because of its mystery. It was alleged by the state that the lawyer choked Mrs. Szabo while boating with her on Greenwood lake, New York, before the boat capsized. Gibson claims that the boat simply overturned and that the woman was drowned after he had made vain efforts to save her. The state set up as a motive that Gibson obtained possession of his dead client's money after he had buried her quietly in Jersey City, N. J., by presenting a false power of attorney from some one who posed as Mrs. Szabo's mother, the prosecution claiming that the mother had been dead for two years. District Attorney J. D. Wilson, Jr., appeared for the state, and Henry Kohl, a local lawyer, was assigned by Judge A. S. Tompkins as Gibson's attorney. Robert Elder of New York, who represented Gibson at the first trial, having withdrawn except in an advisory capacity.

Real Summer Sunday. With Temperature 99: Bugs Invade The City

Wichitans sweated yesterday afternoon in a temperature of 99 degrees the hottest of the present season. The absence of breeze and the cloudless sky made the heat all the more noticeable.

An army of several billion bugs invaded the city soon after dark and helped to decrease the comfort of Wichitans. There were three kinds: Little sickly green bugs. Little black bugs with bad smells. Common, everyday grasshoppers. Today the temperature is appreciably lower and the bugs are less numerous. Late last night there was lightning, with some promise of rain.

MEXICAN RAILROAD LOAN SUPPLIED BY SYNDICATE

By Associated Press. New York, June 2.—A syndicate of New York, London and Berlin bankers today purchased an issue of $26,750,000 national lines of Mexico at six per cent two year secured notes. This is part of an authorized issue of $29,160,000 and provided funds for the payment of $10,000,000 in notes due today and also provides funds for future retirements. Arrangements have been completed for the $50,000,000 loan to the Mexican government exclusive of the railway's financing and it was expected details would be announced late today.

Many of those drawn for the jury presented excuses and others were secured in their places.

In his charge to the jury Judge Martin dealt with more emphasis than usual upon conditions in local rooming houses and of the segregated district.

"You cannot rid entirely or drive vice away," he said, "but you can make it hide its face, where men and their wives and daughters on trains will not be forced to look upon it." Judge Martin's charge was not completed until nearly 3:30 this afternoon.

The case of Edson Jeloniok vs. H. T. Canfield, for settlement of estate will be the term's first civil case. In the county court the appearance docket will be called Tuesday and the probate docket Wednesday. The criminal docket will be taken up the third week.

SENATORS NAME ONE "LOBBYIST"

HE IS NOT WORKING ON TARIFF, HOWEVER—INQUIRY BEGINS

WITNESSES KNOW LITTLE

Senator Ashurst Says a "Man Named McMurray" Is Working For Indian Measures

By Associated Press. Washington, June 2.—The first senators to testify today at the Senate's investigation on the charge that a lobbyist is working against the tariff bill declared that they knew no improper influences being exerted, no use of money and had not themselves attempted to improperly influence any other senators.

All admitted having talked with manufacturers interested in the tariff and having heard arguments and protested, but all considered such proceedings strictly legitimate and did not consider that the men to whom they talked were lobbyists.

Senator Ashurst said, however, that a "man named McMurray had been attempting to improperly influence senators against a movement to cancel Indian claims by which McMurray is said to stand to receive $3,500,000. Senator Borah also referred to "the man Senator Ashurst mentioned."

NORTHWESTERN TELEGRAPH SERVICE NOT CHANGED.

The report that commercial telegraph service for towns in Oklahoma along the Northwestern was to be instituted June 1 does not seem to be well founded. Superintendent Sullivan of the Northwestern says that he is not informed as to the intention of the Western Union in that respect, and S. J. Harting, local manager of the Western Union says that he has not yet received any information from the telegraph company officials regarding the proposed service. As it is now the only means of long distance communication for people residing in the towns between Wichita Falls and Altus, the telephone, as the railroad handles no commercial business.

MILLERS WANT TARIFF ON WHEAT TO REMAIN

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 2.—Frank Kell returned yesterday from Chicago, where he had been in attendance at a meeting of the leading millers of the United States to consider the possible effect of the proposed removal of the tariff on wheat and to take some action toward changing the present attitude of Congress on that section of the Underwood tariff bill.

It was the unanimous sentiment of the millers that the removal of the protective tariff on wheat would cause such a drop in price of the American grown product, and such consequent curtailment in acreage, that this country would soon become an importer of wheat instead of an exporter at present, as the home consumption would soon exceed the supply.

"This state of affairs would in the end restore the price of wheat to normal," said Mr. Kell, "but during the four or five years necessary to bring about this transition, there would be disastrous fluctuations of the market, and ruinous depression."

Mr. Kell said that in his opinion the removal of the tariff on wheat would result in an immediate drop of ten to fifteen cents in the price of wheat in this country, and such reduction in the price of wheat would mean that a great many wheat growers in North Texas and Oklahoma, where they can grow either wheat or cotton with equal success, would immediately reduce their wheat acreage and thereafter raise cotton instead, thus materially increasing the acreage planted to cotton. Therefore the proposed tariff would ultimately effect not only the wheat grower of the entire West but the cotton grower of the entire South.

COAST POTATO CROP IS ONLY 40 PER CENT NOMINAL.

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, May 2.—The coast country Irish potato crop has about been harvested and the yield is about 40 per cent of normal. A curious feature is that with almost the shortest crop on record, not only here but elsewhere, it is said prices are lower than have been prevalent for years.

ALFRED AUSTIN, BRITISH POET LAUREATE, IS DEAD

By Associated Press. London, June 2.—Alfred Austin, British poet laureate since 1896, died today at the age of seventy-seven. Besides being a poet, he was a lawyer, a critic, a novelist, a war correspondent and a political writer. He published his first poems at the age of eighteen. Although he was a lawyer he never practiced that profession. He was a newspaper correspondent in Rome for many years and followed the operations of the Franco-Prussian war in 1870-71 with the headquarters of the Prussian king. His writings were very patriotic. The greatest part of his poetical work was published between the years 1851 and 1890.

Farmers Not Opposed To Scientific Methods, Says Radford

Fort Worth, Texas June 2.—To the City Men. In this article I want to reiterate the position the Farmers Union has always held on scientific farming. As those who farm understand it, farming embraces both production and marketing and they cannot separate the two.

Our money is lacking in volume and the rate of interest is too high to sustain, much less develop, productive industry. These problems belong to the banker and the task is sufficiently largely to engage the entire attention of all bankers who feel a desire to render a service to progress and prosperity.

I attended the State Bankers' Convention recently held in Galveston. A committee on marketing was appointed for which I now want to publicly thank the association. The bankers have been plowing for several years, but this is the first time they have gone to market. Let me quote, for the encouragement of the farmers, a paragraph from an address of Col. David C. Houston, secretary of agriculture, who is the highest authority in the nation: "We have learned how to produce, now we must learn how to market our products."

The merchant is located in cities and towns. There is no person more influential among the farmers than the local merchant. It is the credit merchant who, in the main, holds the crop mortgages and the terms are frequently beyond endurance, running as high as thirty per cent. He has the misfortune of being the pawn broker of agriculture. The merchant takes high risks and excessive charges are necessary to protect him against loss. He is also a victim of the crop mortgage system in common with the farmer. The crop mortgage system is a mill stone around the neck of industry and sends thousands of farmers each year staggering down the back alleys of agriculture.

It stands by the wayside like a terrible giant plucking its victims from the thoroughfares of commerce. The abolishment of the crop mortgage system would cut out the floating derelicts of trade that wander from farm to farm and force them to be enterprising and honest and to be free of excessive interest rates from the farmer who struggles for a time as well as make the mercantile business more safe and profitable. It is in the power of the city men to change this system.

As To the Press. The printing presses are in the cities and the newspapers have more influence than perhaps any other institution, and there is room for improvement in this business. The farmers of Texas subscribe for an average of four papers per annum and we liberally patronize like a customer who is not satisfied.

I shall not be so ungenerous as to take advantage of this occasion to return criticisms that have been unjustly heaped upon me by the press. At no field is plowed until all the soil is upturned and at the risk of being considered impertinent, I want to say a few things to the press. I have time before I unitch. A few editors understand efficient service and what I now say does not apply to them. Many articles and editorials appear in the press that I feel sure the writer would plow a round of two he would throw them in the waste basket.

Farmers' Union Stands For Scientific Farming. A very brief review of our organization and its purposes will perhaps assist in a better understanding of our work. The Farmers' Union was organized in 1892, succeeding the Grange and Farmers' Alliance, as an agricultural association. There have been initiated into the union to date 300,000 farmers. No one except a farmer is eligible to join. I quote in part from our constitution on this subject: "No person shall be admitted to membership unless of sound mind, over the age of sixteen years, a white person of industrious habits and who is a farmer or farm laborer residing upon the farm."

The declared purposes of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union insofar as relates to this discussion, are set forth in the preamble of the constitution as follows: "To educate the agricultural class in scientific farming." "To systematize methods of production and distribution." "To bring farming up to the standard of other industries and business enterprises."

"To teach farmers the classification of crops, domestic economy and the process of marketing." "When a farmer lives up to the tenets of the Farmers' Union he will know how to farm." Union Co-operates With Farm Demonstrators. The Farmers' Union has repeatedly announced its allegiance to these principles and members of the union cooperate with farm demonstrators and adapt all scientific methods of culture of practical value. The government selects its demonstrators from among the farmers of whom are members of the union and they collect the best methods of any one farmer and disseminate them throughout the community and in this manner a high standard of efficiency is maintained. The cost of production is constantly under strict surveillance by three hundred government farm demonstrators and half a million farmers. The demonstrators are competent and skilled in their line and the farmers are alert in taking advantage of any economies or improvements in their interest. The suggestion that the farmers could, if they would double their production without cost is a book farmers' dream.

I want to say that all this stir about the farmers of Texas being ignorant, indolent and incapable of applying economic methods and these "surprises" are a slander on the intelligence of the rural population and an insult to the government demonstrators who have wrought so nobly. We crave more wisdom and welcome intelligence

Youth calls to youth, the wide world over.
Like wind to leaf, like bee to clover.
None but the cynic dares to spurn.
Red blood that cries red blood in turn.
The dark eyes dazzle, soft lips burn
Pale dreams arise, swift heartbeats yearn.
Up-up some ecstasy to learn.
The spirit dares not speak. Afar
Youth lures its fellow—like a star.

And who will dare to say it nay?
White souls are sad, white souls are gay.
Youth is the color of the play.
So dear because it flies away.
So dead its files are life is gray.
Thus over hill and over vale
Youth calls its fellow to its trail.
Youth calls to youth, the wide world over.
Like wind to leaf, like bee to clover.

WESLEY GIRLS HAVE OUTING AND CAMP SUPPER AT LAKE

As a final frolic before disbanding for the summer, the Wesley Girls Sewing Club went out to Lake Wichita Saturday afternoon and enjoyed a picnic and camp supper that was a real treat. A number of boys were invited and these came out to do full justice to the tempting array of eatables that was provided. The members demonstrated that while they have been putting in their seasons sewing they have not forgotten how to cook. Present were Mesdames C. R. Hartsook, Dan Hardy, Misses Gera Davis, Grace Nolan, Alta Ruesner, B. Cook, Bonnie Hardy, Hutchinson of Tulsa, Marie Shelton, Kathleen Benson, Alleen Waggoner, Gertrude Orth, Messrs. Somerville, English, J. Bonner, Chambers, Lester Jones, Hutchinson, Harding, Gould and Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. T. Orth and family have moved to the lake to spend the summer.

Messages to friends at home from the girls who went from here to the U. C. Y. reunion tell of delightful times at Chattanooga, and the entire delegation seems to have enjoyed it all. Most of the party will be home again Wednesday or Thursday.

POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS SHOW 25 PER CENT GAIN

Substantial Increase Over Last Year—Rural Mail is Now Being Weighed

The May receipts at the Wichita Falls postoffice for this year show a gain of approximately twenty-five per cent over the corresponding month of last year. The receipts for May 1913 were $4,066.84. For May, 1912 the receipts were $3,105.09. The five rural carriers in the local office began their arduous and tedious task of weighing the mail this morning. During this month each carrier must keep an accurate record of the weights of the mail he handles on his route, and these weights must be subdivided to show what part of his deliveries are first, second and third class matter. There are now five rural routes out of Wichita Falls but a new route will be started July 1.

PAY-AS-YOU-ENTER IDEA IS INSTALLED SUNDAY

Car Company Officials Pleased With its Success and Believe it is Improvement

A street car conductor was asked this morning how he liked the new pay-as-you-enter plan instituted the day before, and how the public seemed to like it. "Oh, it works much better than the old plan (fare, please)—and the public will soon (yes, I'll tell you when we get to 1409 Bluff)—much easier on our conductors and (yes, it's a new rule but we will have to enforce it)—most people seem to believe that it is all for the best. Some times they get past us now (lady, you forgot to pay your fare)—but they don't mean to do it. The new plan won't shorten schedules any, as we now have to make all change while the car is at a standstill, but it saves us a lot of standing around in the aisles of the car. Yes, we'll like it all right," said the conductor as he turned to keep an eye on a young lady who had just stepped in behind him and got to her seat without attending to the formality of producing the silver offering. Superintendent Orth is very much pleased with what he considers the success of the plan and the people will prove satisfactory all around. The conductors do not seem to be crazy about it, while the patrons seem to take it as a matter of course.

May Cut Famous Old Astor House In Two; Historic Hotel's Doom Sealed By Subway

New York, May 31.—The famous old Astor House, for years visited by notables from all parts of the world, will be closed on May 29 for good. The final curtain on the historic hostelry may be rung down in an odd manner, however. There is a possibility that the half of the hotel owned by William Waldorf Astor will be left standing, while the half belonging to the estate of John Jacob Astor, the Titanic victim, will be torn down about June 15. This is why: The public service commission signed an agreement with the estate of John Jacob Astor, which owns the southern half of the building, to buy a perpetual easement beneath it in return for a payment of $600,000 and to construct a wall from bed rock along the Broadway and Vesey street sides of the lot, which will be strong enough to hold any building which the estate may decide to put up. The original line of the new subway was laid out by the commission's engineers so as to cut across one corner of the northern half of the hotel, owned by William Waldorf Astor. It has been found possible, however, to divert the subway so as to avoid this property. The John Jacob Astor estate will start the demolition of the southern half of the building, but nothing was known at the offices of the public service commission as to the plans of William Waldorf Astor. He will be left with part of an antiquated hotel standing, and some lots adjoining it, running through from Barclay street to Vesey street. There is probably more history, tradition, tragedy and comedy associated with the weather stained, gray stone old Astor House than with any other old building in New York. John Jacob Astor, the founder of the Astor family in America, bought the plot and in the early thirties decided, much to the alarm of some conservative old Knickerbocker, to erect there the finest hotel on the western continent. The cornerstone was laid on July 3, 1834. It took three years to erect the building, and the original cost was $750,000. Perhaps there is no place in America where during the march of years so many celebrities from every field of endeavor have gathered. There has been murder, theft and suicide between those grim stone walls. Some of the bitterest political campaigns of American history have been planned there. A year after the place was opened Nathaniel Hawthorne and Charles Dickens registered there, and only a few months later Washington Irving spent several weeks there while on a visit to New York. Every president of the United States since the Civil War excepting William H. Taft has had at least one meal in the Astor House. In the parlors upstairs the campaigns of Henry Clay, Zachary Taylor and Winfield Scott were organized. Edgar Allan Poe, who in 1841 edited Graham's Magazine, dropped into the Astor House daily to pick up news. On the Astor steps Louis Kossuth bade adieu to America, and the late King Edward, then Prince of Wales, with the Grand Duke Alexis, bowed from those steps to the crowds. Thackeray passed in and out of the hotel entrance, and down those steps P. T. Barnum escorted Jenny Lind to her coach, and Macready followed.

Wichita Falls, Texas, June 2, 1913

Some people's idea of "nothing to worry about" is that of running a newspaper, and as a rule, when they are given an opportunity to work out their ideas their finish is short.

Mr. B. D. Donnell, managing editor of the Times, accompanied by Mrs. Donnell and their children, left this afternoon for Greensburg, Indiana, where he expects to spend the next three weeks in taking a much needed and well earned rest from newspaper work, at the end of which time he will return and take up his work on the Times where he left off.

It occurs to the Times that the best way for Texas to get the constitution that will fit her will be to call for a constitutional convention. This business of "amending the constitution" is dangerous, to say the least of it. Most people view it in that way, and as a rule they vote down all propositions to amend the constitution. This is probably for the reason that they realize the state needs a new constitution, and prefer getting it by way of a constitutional convention.

We confess in the first place that even our veneration for her great husband is insufficient to arouse our indignation over the summary dismissal of Mrs. Longstreet from her postmaster's office. Not particularly partisan, we believe that there are circumstances under which Mrs. Longstreet not only should but would have been retained in office. But Mrs. Longstreet seems to forget that she was offensively partisan last fall, and that she did all she could to turn Georgia into the Bull Moose party's column. That she failed was fore-evident. But, now having failed, it will become her, as we see it, to importune a democratic administration to re-appoint her. Her personal views would have, we believe, cut little figure in the matter had she merely held them reasonably. But she did not do that. She has made her bed and she might lie on it without the present indecorum of raising a bitter cry on "persecution."—Denton Record & Chronicle.

Mrs. Longstreet, though not a voter, had strong political convictions. She wrote letters urging the re-election of President Roosevelt. Under those circumstances she could not expect to hold the office especially where there was another woman, the widow of a Democrat, who wanted it. If the present administration will take the pains to investigate, it will find that there are other postmasters holding presidential offices who were quite as active in their efforts to re-elect President Taft as Mrs. Longstreet was in behalf of the Bull Moose ticket, and many of them are still holding the offices that Democrats are clamoring for. Of course, we do not blame these fellows for holding on to a good thing as long as they can, but if it is in the power of the present administration to remove them from the office "for offensive partisanship," then we, as a humble Democrat in the rear ranks, are of the opinion that it is getting time for the guillotine to get to work. President Taft did not hesitate to remove from office those who opposed his re-election. It made no difference with him whether their commissions had expired or not; they were "removed for cause" and for this the ex-president was commended.

BURKBURNETT HARVEST IS NOW UNDER WAY.

(Burk Burnett Star) Thousands of pounds of binder twine were hauled out this week by the farmers from Burk Burnett for the harvest of the wheat and oat crop which started the first of the week in many places. More binders too have been sold this year, than for many years and the farmers generally are pretty well equipped. A number of threshing outfits have also been shipped in and the harvest will probably require a shorter time this season than last, although there is more acreage in grain this year to be threshed. The straw is not heavy in most fields but the heads both wheat and oats, while not large are well filled.

INDIAN CASTE IS HEAVY OBSTACLE

MISSIONARY TELLS OF DIFFICULTIES WHICH HAVE TO BE OVERCOME

POLITICAL UNREST NOW

People Demand For Self Government Which is Many Years Behind

Washington, June 2.—Something of the difficulties which confront the gospel missionaries in India because of the caste system is described in an interview by Prof. J. L. Shaw of Lucknow, India, the superintendent of the India Union Mission of Seventh Day Adventists, who is now a delegate at the world's conference of the denomination—being held at Takoma Park, Prof. Shaw also declares that there is considerable unrest among the natives under British rule.

"The unrest of a few years ago in India is not entirely quiet," he said. "The people are finding that agitation and bomb throwing is gaining for them political opportunities which they never had before, and they are being given opportunities in the government heretofore unoccupied by Indians. But they are not wholly content, as shown by the bomb thrown at the viceroy, Lord Harding, when opening the new capital at Delhi. Thirty-three thousand dollars was offered by the government for the arrest of the man who threw the bomb, but without success.

Seek Self Government. "The people of India demand continued recognition; they are looking for that fair day when they will be granted self government, but that can not be for many years to come. The great majority of the people are ignorant, illiterate and unable to govern themselves. The English government, however, is doing much in providing schools to educate the rising generation. The present year large additional grants were made to education.

"The reading public in India increases one-half million each year, newspapers are increasing in numbers and circulation in all parts of the empire, and western thought and learning are arousing Indians to greater possibilities in political and social life. "Christianity is continually getting a stronger foothold. In different parts of the country mass movements are taking place. Large numbers of Telegues and Punjabs are becoming Christians. The Pharaeese, among the most influential people of India, are becoming more favorable to Christianity. The number of Christians, according to the census of 1911, has risen from 2,923,241 in 1901 to 3,876,203 in 1913, a gain of 33 per cent.

"The caste system is one of the greatest barriers to Christian missions in India. There are no less than 2,000 different castes and tribes. Barbers belong to one caste, shoemakers to another. House servants are divided into nearly a score of different castes and so it goes. The man who cooks will not sweep the floor or do the family washing. Higher castes will do no kind of manual labor. If they have a parcel to be carried they look for a coolie, who is a low caste man, to carry it for them. It is impossible to describe in modern words the havoc which caste has wrought. It produces disunion and discord. By manual labor is thought contemptible.

Castes Cannot Intermarry. "It is against caste rule for those of one caste to intermarry with those of another, and for that reason marriage is confined within narrow circles, thus bringing physical degeneracy upon the people. Early marriages are also brought on by the caste system, and exorbitant matrimonial fees are charged, which sometimes plunge several generations into debt. There are more than 20,000 child wives under the age of ten years; some are even married when mere babies. But the Indians are awakening to the evils of early marriages, and reform movements are deprecating child marriage as rapidly growing. A leading Hindoo recently said: 'Early marriages are the greatest evils of our country. It has stood at the very springs of the life of the nation and prevented the normal expansion of which it is capable. "The caste system is not as rigid as a quarter of a century ago. Last year a Hindoo from Benares, who had been making a trip abroad for the purpose of study, returned and some members of his own caste insisted on his passing through the ceremony of 'atonement,' which is a very disgusting performance. He refused to do it and was ostracized by his fellow castemen, much to his discomfort and both social and religious standing. He therefore took the case to court and received a decision in his favor, which was an exceptional surprise. They thought they would compel him to cleanse himself from the sea trip and English environment which had broken his caste, but the court, which was a thing wholly unexpected, took his part and punished them.

Christians Are Outcasts. "Caste opposes Christian enterprise. The Hindoo who becomes a Christian must leave his own house. The other members of the family oppose him. They will not allow him to eat with them or drink water from the same well. He becomes to all intents an outcast and his inherited rights to property are gone.

And yet Christianity is making progress, mission schools are educating the people, village preaching is witnessing to the gospel of Christ, medical mission work is opening up the hearts and homes of the people, and the wide distribution of the Holy Scriptures is placing the Bible in their many languages. All of this is making for the advancement of Christian knowledge, and many are thereby led from dumb idols to serve the living and true God.

Mohammedanism is the strongest organized religious agency opposed to Christianity in India. There are 65,000,000 Mohammedans in the country. They have been much agitated by the recent war in the Balkans, and have sent large sums of money to assist the Turks and urge them forward in fighting for their country and the glory of Islam. At the Mohammedan college at Alljharh students denied themselves food to get money to send to Turkey to help in the war.

Stirred by Balkan War. "The present war in the Balkans has been to the Mohammedan world a religious war, and is undoubtedly making more intense the hatred of Christianity. Converts to Christianity from among the Mohammedans are few in some parts of India, and yet in the strongest centers at the risk of their lives, followers of Mohammed are turning into Christ.

"Our society work is carrying on mission work in nine different languages; seven different magazines are being published in six different languages; sixteen mission stations are being operated in different parts of India and Burmah; the number of converts is yearly increasing. There are five dispensaries and about 50,000 treatments are given each year. Mission schools are conducted at nearly every station, with 1,000 pupils in attendance. We expect to increase our mission force in India the coming year, missionaries will leave for India at the close of this conference. In addition to strengthening the work at mission stations already opened up, we intend to send missionaries to begin work among the Telegues of South India and the Punjabs of the north."

NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH FINISHED

BUILDING DEDICATED SUNDAY WITH APPROPRIATE EXERCISES

SERMON BY DR. HARTMAN

an Antonio Minister Attends—History of Church and Local Congregation.

Yesterday marked an epoch in the history of the Wichita Falls Lutheran Trinity Church, as the handsome new edifice at the corner of Bluff and Fourteenth streets was dedicated with fitting ceremonies. The church with its furnishings cost $1800 and the parsonage which stands on an adjoining lot represents an expenditure of $2,000.

Rev. F. A. Bracher, the pastor, assisted by Rev. O. W. Hartmann of San Antonio, conducted the three services held during the day.

The Lutheran church in Wichita Falls was organized in 1907 with four charter members: John Halter, Karl Wildermuth, Michel Nuss and C. Blumhart. The church now has a membership of sixteen.

History of Church
The church was organized by Rev. Bracher, who was at that time the pastor at Stamford. The first services were held in the court house. Later a dwelling on Dallas street was bought and remodelled to suit the requirements for use as a meeting house. This edifice was used until the present time. It has been sold and will again be used as a dwelling.

The congregation affiliated with the First Lutheran Synod of Texas in 1908. The same year the church called the Reverend Theo. Janssen as pastor. Rev. Janssen served the parish four years, being succeeded by Rev. Bracher.

In 1910 a building committee was appointed to raise funds with which to build a church edifice. Because of the crop failure, this committee was unable to do more than buy a lot. Early in this year John Halter, Will Fehler, J. Klein and Rev. Bracher were appointed as a new building committee. How well their work was done, the dedicatory services yesterday attested.

Besides this pastorate, Rev. Bracher now serves the Vernon and Seymour parishes. In this parish there are now sixteen members of the church and fifty communicants.

Dr. Hartmann preached the dedicatory sermon yesterday morning, taking his text from First Samuel 7-12. "Hitherto the Lord has helped us." Congregational singing was a feature of the morning service.

Sermons Are Heard.
Rev. Bracher preached at the afternoon service, taking as his text the fourteenth verse of the Fifth Psalm. "Offer unto God Thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the most high." His subject was "The doctrinal standard—Christian life and work of the True Lutheran congregation."

Dr. Hartmann delivered an address on the subject of education, in the evening Dr. Hartmann preached an English sermon. His text was taken from First Peter 2, 4-8. "Today I greet you with the desire and prayer to build yourself into the spiritual house." Points he brought out were "On what cornerstone?" "Jesus Christ is the cornerstone." "With what stones?" "You are the stones." "For what kind of service?" "The service in a spiritual house is priestly."

The Lutheran Faith.
In 1529 the first Lutherans settled in Venezuela—this was the first settlement of Lutherans in the two Americas.

In 1623 Lutherans from Holland settled in Manhattan. This was the first Lutheran settlement in the United States. In 1636 a Swedish colony was organized on the Delaware where Wilmington now stands. In 1742 Rev. Henry Muhlenberg organized the first Synod with twelve pastors and seventy congregations. Today the Lutheran church in the United States has sixty-eight Synods with 8,000 pastors, 12,000 congregations and a membership of 4,300,000. Services are conducted in ten different languages.

Dr. Hartmann was the guest of Rev. Bracher while here. He will start today on his return trip home.

PHENOMENAL EGG FOUND BY MAN NEAR HENRIETTA.
(Henrietta Independent)
J. F. Williams who lives three miles west of Henrietta, brought to town on last Saturday an egg that measured eight inches around one way and eight and a half the other way. Except for its size the egg looked just like the ordinary hen egg. Mr. Williams stated that the egg was laid by a hen of Rhode Island Red variety Thursday morning Mr. Williams came in and said that he had found another egg that was, if any difference, a little larger than the first one, being perhaps nine inches around the long way, and in handling it they broke the shell. Upon examination Mr. Williams found that this egg had two fully developed yolks and one egg of the usual size with shell on. The first egg has not been broken, but it is presumed to contain the same assortment of hen fruit. Many persons have examined the egg that was brought to town, but thus far no one has ever seen or heard of anything like it. Mr. Williams is not sure the two phenomenal eggs were laid by the same hen, but he thinks they were.

PAPERS IN BURK BURNETT CASE FILED AT SEYMOUR.
(Seymour Banner)
District Clerk Elmer Graham has filed the papers in the case of State of Texas vs. Burk Burnett, transferred from Cottle county to the district court of Baylor county. About one hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed in the case, which will be tried at the coming July term of court.

WHEAT PROSPECTS GOOD IN ELECTRA VICINITY.
(Electra News)
A forty mile auto trip through the northern section of this county Sunday, revealed the fact, that the farmers are going to raise a nice crop of wheat and oats this season. Cutting will start in some places the latter part of this week. Corn is looking exceptionally well northeast of town and we saw many nice gardens and peach orchards. The last rain we had did a lot of good, and will put many dollars into the farmers hands this fall, in this vicinity.

OFFICERS GO TO FLORIDA TO GET WANTED MAN.
(Anson Enterprise)
Tom McClure and Spurgeon Reeve left Monday for Bartow, in the southern portion of Florida, where they will receive Will Welty from the authorities and return him to Jones county, where he is wanted on two or more charges. Welty had skipped two bonds here, and in going took another man's wife and two children and Spurgeon goes along to bring the children back to their father, a Mr. Anderson who lives in the Lueters vicinity.

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART
Real Facts In Regard To F. R. Huffmas' Illness, Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffmas, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain. After other remedies had failed, Theford's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold. It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits." Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together. Theford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system. It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Theford's. Price 25c. (Advertisement)

Jimmy and His Auto.
 Jimmy, he owns an auto, fastest car in the town.
 And when Jimmy, he rides and goes whizzing round
 Raising clouds of dust over the city's busy street.
 Men, women and kids sure have to see their feet.
 'Cause he says he can't help rimping at top-notch.
 For if he don't the muffler rones and engine will scorch.
 The sparkplug, misfire and rascal will jar loose;
 This is the reason why there is no earthly excuse
 To pass laws and ordinances regulat'ing speed,
 And if he do pass them, he will never heed.
 Jimmy he says to officers, "I salute you with respect,
 But you know it is not reasonable to expect
 A gentleman who runs a high-g geared auto car
 To slow down speed and make the engine to for
 When some fool pedestrian will get in my way
 Or mothers allow kids in the street to play
 Most unreasonable to expect or even require
 Me to skid out of the way and burst a tire
 Much less to go pass an ordinance regulat'ing speed,
 And if you do pass it well, I will never heed."
 When Jimmy he meets an old farmer on the road,
 Plodding along to market with his heavy load,
 Jimmy he honks his honk, vicious and loud,
 And turns loose on him a big gasoline cloud
 That makes the farmer's horses to jump and rear,
 Cranks the wagon sidewise and the harness to tear,
 And the farmer to damn him with his choice abuse,
 But that's no reason, nor can it be an excuse
 To pass laws and ordinances regulat'ing auto speed;
 And if they do pass them, Jimmy, he will never heed.
 RYE.

What's-His-Name

By George Barr McCutcheon

A charming human story which has its beginning in a little western town, and shifts later on to "the white lights of Broadway." "What's-His-Name" is the husband of a popular actress whose name twinkles in electric lights in front of a Broadway theatre. He has but little part in the gay life of his wife, and as she is "bill boarded" under an assumed name, he is simply referred to as "What's-His-Name." He devotes most of his time to their little daughter while the wife goes the pace of a theatrical favorite, and matters finally come to a dramatic climax. The situation is worked out with uncommon power, and Mr. McCutcheon manages to tell a most pathetic story, at the same time presenting a great deal of it in humorous fashion.

Quality

and not price should rule in drug buying or rather quality regardless of price. You would not buy any more compound cathartic pills at fifteen cents the bushel than you would at ten cents the dozen. If your child was sick you would not endanger its life and health to save a dollar. Cheap drugs are dangerous and to sell them is crime.

We buy the best because we had rather satisfy our conscience than our cash register. We know there is a standard of excellence and a degree of success the magnitude of which can not be measured by dollars and cents. Let us help your faithful physician pull the patient through.

EXHIBITION AT LAKE BY DRILL TEAM W. O. W.

is Getting Ready for Possible Competition at Picnic to Be Held June 26

Visitors to Lake Wichita yesterday were treated to an exhibition drill given by the drill team of Wichita Falls W. O. W. Lodge No. 3001, under the direction of Captain S. E. Simpson. The team has been drilling for less than two months but has become quite efficient. The team received its charter last week.

They are keeping in form in order to avoid the possibility of a defeat at the hands of some of their neighbors from distant towns who have accepted the invitation of the local lodge to attend a big picnic here on the 26th.

S. E. Simpson, captain of the team is a traveling salesman for Armour's but has given much of his spare time at home to the work of drilling the men.

Those who constitute the team are Messrs Knight, Figg, Latham, Mann, Terrell, Moore, Meadows, Buchanan, Stanfield, Shelby, Derriek, Hall, Collins, Hart, McKelvey and Pickett.

Fresh Bread Forty Hours Old.
Bread kept under ordinary conditions rapidly becomes stale or dry, so that persons who do not fancy the staff of life in that particular physical state must have bread within a few hours after it is baked. A method of preventing bread from becoming stale would therefore be an epicurean and economic advantage; it would not only contribute to the gustatory requirements of the fastidious, but also prevent considerable loss to the baker and the consumer. In a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association appears the statement that Dr. J. R. Katz of the University of Amsterdam has shown that bread kept at either a low or a high temperature is preserved fresh for some days at least. In his experiment bread was kept absolutely fresh for more than forty hours, at a temperature of 140 F. (60 C.). At a temperature of from 86 to 104 F. (30 to 40 C.), it became only half stale, and became fresh again at a temperature below freezing. Dr. Katz therefore recommends that bread be kept at a temperature of 120 F. (50 C.) and upward, which will keep the crumb fresh, while the crust will become soft by the absorption of moisture. If the bread is put back into the oven for a short time the water will be driven off from the crust and the bread will become crisp again. The bread may also be kept in cold storage rooms at sufficiently low temperatures, when if the air is sufficiently dry the crust will remain hard and crisp, so that it will retain all the characteristics of new bread for a considerable time.

Guessing vs. Knowing

If I were selling nails or glass, or pills or garden snas, or honey from the bee—whatever line of goods were mine, I'd study up that special line and know its history.

If I a stock of rags should keep, I'd read up sundry books on sheep and wool and how it grows. Beneath my old bald, freckled roof, I'd store some facts on warp and other things like those. I'd try to know a spinning jack from a patent churn or wagus rack; a loom from hog-tight fence; and if a man came in to buy, and asked some leading question, I could answer with some sense.

If I were selling books, I'd know a Shakespeare from an Edgar Poe, a Carlyle from a Pope; and I would know Fitzgerald's rhymes from Laura Libbey's brand of crimes, or Lillian Russell's dope.

If I were selling shoes, I'd seize the fact that, of gooseberry trees, good leather doesn't grow; that shoe pegs do not grow like oats, that cowhide doesn't come from goats—such things I'd surely know.

And if I were a grocer man, I'd open now and then a can and see what stuff is held; 'twere better than to write in woe and make a reply, "I didn't know," when some mad patron yelled.

I hate to hear a merchant say: "I think that this is splendid hay," "I guess it's first class tea." He ought to know how good things are, if he would sell his silk or fur or other goods to me. Oh, knowledge is the stuff that wins; the man without it soon begins to get his trade in kinks. No matter where a fellow goes, he's valued for the things he knows, not for the things he thinks.—Walter Mason.
