ANTI-AMERICAN OUTBREAK NOW FEARED IN MEXICO

TENSE SITUATION IN MEXICO CITY

ANTI-AMERICAN OUTBREAK FEARED DURING DEMONSTRATION PLANNED THERE TODAY

WILSON FILES PROTEST

American Ambassador Notifies Mexican Government U. S. Will Demand Reparation

Mexico City, July 12.—The American ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, has protested to the minister of foreign affairs against further anti-American demonstrations, but up to a late hour today no answer had been received at the embassy, and students who are planning to hold a demonstration tomorrow assert they will not be troubled by the authorities.

In his note to the Mexican government, the ambassador deplored that youths of the capital were to be permitted to indulge in public manifestations which were calculated to result in violence to American residents in Mexico. He indicated the danger of allowing persons to use as tools the students and others who expected to participate. He reminded the Mexican government if any Americans were injured he would demand reparation.

The number of Americans leaving for Vera Cruz was greatly augmented today. Mr. Wilson is sending frequent reports to Washington on the situation.

Mexico City, July 13.—Flash.—Permit to hold the demonstration Sunday has been refused by the Mexican authorities. The police have received instructions to prevent demonstrations of any kind.

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING HAS REACHED HIGH PITCH

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 12.—An anonymous letter containing threats to blow up the United States embassy was received by Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson today and immediately referred to the Mexican foreign office for investigation. The American ambassador protested energetically to the Mexican government against permitting another anti-American demonstration.

As an indication of the fervor of patriotism that has been aroused in Mexico, the department of the interior announced today that representatives of 200,000 workmen had appealed to the government for military instruction in order that they might be ready to fight for the national cause. The newspaper, El Talz, says it had been visited by a committee of women school teachers who offered to enter the ranks of the army in case of an international conflict. Students at the capitol are organizing a demonstration for Sunday in which they have invited all classes to participate. Although the organizers have cautioned those who participate to keep order there is grave fear on the part of conservatives in Mexico, and also among the American colony that the demonstration will provoke serious trouble.

Despite protests of Ambassador Wilson in regard to the attitude of the newspapers, especially El Talz, the latter journal devotes its entire first page today to the anti-American movement, its articles being highly sensational. Editorially it cautions prudence but says the time is near when the Mexicans must fight the United States. It urges the public not to place itself in the position of having provoked a war and to leave that responsibility to the United States. It declares that a great wave of patriotic enthusiasm has been aroused throughout the country. It continues its charges against Americans and publishes the facsimile of a telegram from its agent at Puebla asking for 100,000 extra copies of yesterday's paper.

AMERICANS RELEASED ON DEMAND OF CONSUL

Laredo, Texas, July 12.—Peregrinary demands by American authorities today secured the release of the three American prisoners of constitutionalists at Hidalgo, Mexico and also the release of two Mexican cowboys who had been taken with the Americans. The party was escorted to Texas soil by United States Consul Garrett of Nuevo Laredo. It is said the constitutionalists held the party for $4000 ransom. The Americans released today were Robert Hazlerig, William Randolph and Isaac Cade.

DULL DAYS ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Week One of Slowest in Recent Years—Exchange Seat Sells For Only $38,000

New York, July 12.—There was a distinct hardening tone on the stock exchange today. Otherwise the market presented few changes from the previous session, which was one of the dullest in seventeen years. Many traders did not take the trouble to go to the street. Canadian Pacific opened two points higher and later increased its gain. Bethlehem Steel, New Haven and the petroleum stocks made substantial gains. The stock market leaders, however, moved only fractionally. A factor in strengthening the market was the satisfactory character of private crop reports. The expected cash loss, amounting to $758,000 was shown in the average statement of banks. Bonds were steady, total par value sales $410,000. U. S. bonds declined one-half to one point on the week.

The dullness and sluggishness of the week's stock market did not permit any definite conclusions as to the course of speculative sentiment which apparently remained in a formative stage. A liquidating market was a phrase often heard. How small an affair the market was during the week is shown by the daily average transactions which fell much under 200,000 shares, while on Friday the total was 65,400—the low record for seventeen years. A seat on the exchange sold for $38,000 a low record since 1900. The fall in British consols to a price lower than for nearly nine years was notable. The acceptance of the Pittsburgh bank failure as merely a sporadic condition was taken as evidence of the underlying confidence in the banking position as a whole. The form of settlement of the eastern railroad trainmen's demand is regarded as hopeful, but with reserve.

TWO CURRENCY RESOLUTIONS

REPRESENTATIVE HENRY WOULD HAVE "MONEY TRUST" INQUIRY CONTINUED

"MONSTROUS MONOPOLY"

This Was Term Used by Progressive Asking for Inquiry into the Glass Bill

Washington, July 12.—Currency difficulties broke out along two different lines in the House today with the introduction of resolutions directing investigations; the first, by Representative Henry of Texas, proposes a renewal of the investigation of the "money trust" as an aid to the banking committee in its consideration of the administration currency bill; the second, by Representative Lindbergh of Minnesota, Progressive member of the banking committee, proposes an investigation to determine whether the Glass bill would not create a "monstrous monopoly, controlled and operated by private interests."

GOOD ROADS MEETING AT CORPUS CHRISTI ADJOURNS

Corpus Christi, Texas, July 12.—After a most enthusiastic and largely attended meeting the Texas Good Roads Association adjourned today, and adopted a report submitted by the finance committee, asking that subscriptions be received from railroads, automobiles and good roads leagues, and other organizations interested in the furtherance of the good roads propaganda in Texas, all such subscriptions to be used in defraying the actual expenses of the association.

MONEY TO BUY FOOD FOR DESTITUTE PEOPLE

Washington, July 12.—Ambassador Wilson has sent $1000 from Mexico City to the American consular agent at Torreon, Durango, Mexico, to buy food for American war orphans to leave the country because of their destitution.

REPUBLICANS GOT N. A. M. SUPPORT

MULHALL GIVES FURTHER DETAILS OF ASSOCIATION'S POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

HOUSE PROBE MONDAY

Senate Committee Wins in Fight for Possession of Mulhall, the Star Witness

Washington, July 12.—When the Senate and House lobby investigators adjourned today, the fight for possession of Martin M. Mulhall, J. M. McMichael and other witnesses still was in progress, with the odds strongly favoring Chairman Overman and his Senate committee. The Overman committee adopted a technical measure of safety to allow Mulhall to get out of town over Sunday by remaining in session until after he boarded a two o'clock train for New York.

Chairman Overman was prepared to resume the investigation this afternoon if the House committee had made any attempt to stop Mulhall or subpoena him for immediate testimony before the Garrett committee. Overtures for peace from both sides passed back and forth by special messengers during the day, and on the last exchange of communications late this afternoon it seemed certain the House investigators would be given an opportunity to start work next week with McMichael or some other witness provided they made a respectful request upon the Senate committee for his production.

Mulhall Again Testifies. The House committee issued subpoenas for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Springer of Baltimore, the parents of Mrs. Martha M. Mulhall. The Senate committee today secured the identification of nearly two hundred additional letters and documents furnished by Mulhall on his activities as a representative of the National Association of Manufacturers in 1904, 1905 and 1906. Mulhall identified letters showing his relations with Mulhall Cushing, secretary of the association of manufacturers. He testified how he worked to defeat the late Senator McComas of Maryland, although he posed as the senator's friend. He said he had received five hundred letters from Cushing directed against McComas. He added:

"I turned them over to Carl M. Downs, secretary to McComas. 'Do you mean you delivered these letters against McComas to his secretary?' asked Senator Reed.

"The witness replied that Downs was in the pay of Cushing, and Mulhall said he (Mulhall) quarreled with Cushing because he was 'buying out' the secretary of a senator. A letter to Senator Foraker in September, 1904, referred to a suggestion that Mulhall go to Rhode Island to help Senator Aldrich in his campaign. He testified he went later at the request of Aldrich. Aldrich, he said, 'asked me to get in touch with labor men and get their support. A letter of identification for H. C. Kuehn, given by the Council of Allied Building Trades of Philadelphia, was offered in evidence. It was signed by Kurten as secretary. Mulhall said Kurten was engaged in the fight against William Hughes, then a representative and now a senator from New Jersey.

"Were you sent to help beat Hughes by the National Association of Manufacturers?' asked Mr. Reed. "Yes, sir."

"On account of his holding a union card, being affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and his activity on the floor of the House and with the labor leaders in Washington."

Work in Rhode Island For Aldrich. Kurten was given credentials, Mulhall said, so that he could get into labor union meetings to oppose Hughes. Mulhall identified a letter from James R. Ridge, outlining work done by Ridge among Rhode Island labor unions in 1904, in behalf of Aldrich's candidacy. Mulhall testified to giving Ridge $600 which he got from Cushing, secretary for the manufacturers, to help Aldrich in his campaign for re-election.

In a letter about Ridge, it was said, "the senator is well pleased with the work of your friend."

REWARD OF $100 IS OFFERED FOR MCCORMICK'S ARREST

Fort Worth, Texas, July 12.—The city commission today offered $100 reward for the arrest of Charles McCormick of St. Louis, head of the Underground Construction Company which had the contract to build the $1,000,000 reservoir here. He is under indictment here for swindling, it being charged that his company had city employees on the construction company payroll.

FINAL PROPOSAL IN PEACE PLAN

BRYAN WOULD HAVE DISPUTANTS MAINTAIN MILITARY STATUS QUO

HE SUBMITS PROPOSAL

Outline of Third and Final Proposal Given to Representatives of 39 Nations

Washington, July 12.—A proposal to maintain the status quo as to military and naval preparations among disputants during the period of investigation of international difficulties constitutes the third and final proposal in Secretary Bryan's peace plan.

In making that portion of the plan public today, Secretary Bryan said that the obligation to maintain the status quo would not be obligatory in the event of danger to either of the two contracting parties from a third party. In that event, he said, the party feeling itself menaced by a third party, should confidentially communicate the matter in writing to the other contracting party and should be released from the obligation not to change its military or naval program.

RABBITS AND GRASSHOPPERS HAVE DAMAGED CROPS

Jack rabbits caused much damage to the wheat and corn crops while grasshoppers have done much damage to corn and cotton in this section, said John Ground, a pioneer citizen of this section who lives on Route 3 in Archer county. Mr. Ground was in town yesterday and called at The Times office to renew his subscription.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT AT SOFIA

London, July 12.—Reports of tumults in Sofia are telegraphed by the Vienna correspondent of the Central News who reports that a mob stormed the government offices and came into contact with the troops who fired a volley, killing many people. It is also rumored that the royal palace is surrounded.

"SAFETY FIRST" KATY'S SLOGAN

TRAINMEN MET LAST NIGHT AND ORGANIZED "SAFETY COMMITTEES"

ST. LOUIS MAN SPEAKS

Says Carelessness Cause of Most Accidents—Taking Chances Adds to Death Toll

"It is no human to err; it is inhuman." That was the keynote of a meeting last night of about thirty trainmen and other employees of the Katy system at which "safety committees" for this city and district were organized. The speaker was A. A. Krause of St. Louis, chairman of the "safety first" movement on the Katy, who arrived here late Friday to perfect the organizations here.

Mr. Krause spoke very interestingly and instructively of the elimination of accidents and his remarks were attentively heard. He announced the following "safety first" committees: Wichita Falls District: R. J. Sullivan, superintendent; G. R. Fisher, trainmaster; W. H. McCune, road foreman of engines; C. O. Horton, supervisor of buildings and bridges; J. F. Montgomery, engineer; E. E. Booth, master mechanic; T. F. Patterson, chief dispatcher; F. Murphy, S. Lewis, conductor of Gainesville; D. Kibler, building and bridge foreman; W. A. Bettie, roadmaster of Wichita Falls; R. Johnson, car inspector of Gainesville; O. D. Green, agent of Nocona.

Local Safety Committee, Wichita Falls Terminal—W. R. Duke, yardmaster, chairman; J. A. Kavenagh, clerk, secretary; W. H. Herron, engineer; W. J. Lytton, switch freeman; C. L. Wilson, switch freeman; Floyd Baker, car clerk; W. H. Clegg, machinist; W. S. Underwood, boilermaker foreman; A. G. Bentley, car inspector; W. N. Barringer, blacksmith.

Local committee, Altus division, including Wichita Falls division: Wellington branches, Newcastle branch, Mangum yard, excluding Wichita Falls terminal—W. H. McCune, road foreman of engines, chairman; W. H. Bush, clerk, secretary; James Bradshaw, conductor; W. H. Herron, engineer; T. W. Williams, freeman; W. H. Clapper, brakeman; W. E. Robertson, roadmaster; L. G. Post, agent at Altus; W. P. Kenney, roundhouse foreman at Mangum.

Local committee, Elk City and Foreign divisions, exclusive of Mangum yard—G. R. Fisher of Wichita Falls, trainmaster, chairman; L. W. Fritz, agent at Woodward, secretary; H. J. Stanley, conductor; J. H. Hicks, engineer; E. H. Metcalf, brakeman; R. S. England, freeman; J. A. Carroll, conductor; Thomas Potter, roadmaster; C. J. Melton, building and bridge foreman; W. M. Harris, roundhouse foreman, all of Woodward.

Carelessness Cause of Most Accidents. Mr. Krause said that most of the deaths and injuries among railroad employees were due to collisions and derailments, but that this was erroneous. One year's figures, he said, showed only one death out of twenty-five due to collisions and derailment, and fifty-four injuries out of 2442 due to the same causes.

Nearly every accident was preventable, he declared, and practically every one was caused either by physical condition of the road or by "taking chances."

"Take stock of your bad habits," he said, "pull them out by the roots. It's carelessness that causes the trouble. It is estimated that from two-thirds to three-fourths of the accidents can be prevented; I say they can be, if we only will try. Think of saving the lives of 25,000 out of the 35,000 people killed in industrial accidents in this country every year; think of saving 2500 out of the 3600 railroad employees killed every year; think of preventing injury to 100,000 out of the 142,000 railroad employees injured every year."

Results of Safety Campaign. To illustrate what had been accomplished through "safety first" organizations, Mr. Krause said that such a movement was inaugurated on the Katy north of Red River only about a year ago. In the eleven months of

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN ANGLETON TRAGEDY

Husband of Murdered Woman and Three Negroes Still Being Held by Sheriff

Says Carelessness Cause of Most Accidents—Taking Chances Adds to Death Toll

"I am holding Mr. Meitz; I also have three negroes in custody; no formal complaints have been filed against any of them. I have thus far organized no trace of the missing shoes, parol, purse and hand-bag. I will state, however, that my belief is that Mrs. Seitz met death by strangulation, and that the four stiletto wounds, all of which penetrated her heart, were inflicted after death. I base this on the fact that blood from the wounds did not soil the outer clothing. I know she was slain away from the spot where she was found and carried there in the arms of someone, for her stockings were not even soiled. The negroes I have in custody are a convict trusty who worked about the nearest residence where the body was found and who was the only person on the place that day; a negro who admits he was working Wednesday just across the hedge from where the body was found and from whose mouth a tooth is missing and the general outline of which corresponds to imprints on the body of Mrs. Seitz; the other negro is a stranger here. He also was near the spot where the body was found."

TRAINMEN DEFER STRIKE ACTION

AT CONFERENCE SATURDAY FINAL ACTION ON RATIFYING VOTE POSTPONED

TO MEET WITH WILSON

Decision as to Strike Will Probably be deferred Until After Conference

New York, July 12.—Representatives of the 100,000 trainmen and conductors who threaten the eastern railroads with a strike for wage increase deferred formal ratification of the strike vote at a conference concluded late today. A. B. Garretson, head of the Trainmen's Brotherhood said tonight the leaders were undecided whether to approve the vote at a meeting to be held tomorrow, in view of the conference called for Monday in Washington to be attended by President Wilson and other government officials at which efforts are to be made to avert an industrial conflict.

OJEDA CONTINUES TO ARREST AMERICANS

Douglas, Arizona, July 12.—Constitutionalist officers have withdrawn the request they made recently to Governor Pequeña of Sonora, that Charles Montague, United States consular agent at Cananea, be deported, according to dispatches received tonight. It was said that the trouble, which grew out of Montague's refusal as a banker to draw drafts as requested, had been settled satisfactorily.

Ojeda, a federal leader at Guaymas, continues arresting Americans, according to reports. One American arrested at Guaymas and held several days, is alleged to have been told by a federal officer:

"Your president will not recognize our president. Americans will be entitled to no recognition until Huerta is recognized."

CONSUL INSTRUCTED TO ORDER RELEASE OF AMERICANS

Piedras Negras today received instructions to demand the release of L. L. Davis and John Rives, Americans of Dallas, Texas, who are prisoners of constitutionalists near Monterrey.

Cornish, N. H., July 12.—President Wilson practically ended his vacation today and will leave here tomorrow at 10 o'clock for Washington arriving there early Monday.

GREECE DEAF TO PEACE PROPOSAL

KING CONSTANTINE DECLARES PEACE MUST BE CONCLUDED ON BATTLEFIELD

RUSSIA'S PLANS FAIL

Turkey Joins Greece and Serbia Against Bulgarians—Later Suffocates Further Route

Athens, July 12.—It is semi-officially announced that the Greek government has replied to the Russian proposal for the cessation of hostilities that peace must be concluded on the battlefield. The proposal was supported by Great Britain and France.

GREEK KING'S PROTEST

London, July 12.—King Constantine's protest to the civilized world against Bulgarian atrocities destroys the last hope of those who believed that Russia would succeed in inducing the belligerents to accept arbitration. The spectators of the struggle have been confident throughout that Serbia would prove amenable to the counsels for moderation in view of the appalling losses she sustained in electing Bulgarians from Macedonia, but they were less hopeful that Greece would listen to reason as her people and army are obviously intoxicated by the victories over the dread Bulgarians.

In his protest the Greek king says: "I see myself compelled to weak concessions in order to inspire those monsters with terror and make them reflect, before committing more outrages of this sort."

The strength of King Constantine's language and dispatches from Constantinople tonight indicate that Bulgaria may not merely be stripped of its gains, but her victory over the Turks, but possibly may have to submit to the diminution of her own territory, for Rumania is credited with the intention of annexing a larger strip than she at first proclaimed while Turkey is joining hands with Serbia and Greece and has already ordered her troops to advance.

Briefly chronicling the unopposed view of the Rumanian Government, Sofia maintains a significant silence regarding the operations of Servians and Greeks.

Rumor of Revolution in Bulgaria

London, July 12.—A Vienna dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says:

"It is rumored here, but not confirmed, that a revolution has broken out in Sofia and that King Ferdinand has been assassinated. The secretary of the Bulgarian legation said late tonight he had received no message from Sofia indicating a revolutionary outbreak, or that the king had been assassinated."

Whole Bulgarian Troops Driven Back

Belgrade, July 12.—A semi official statement reports that throughout Friday along the entire front from Saitchar to Radovich, a distance of about three hundred miles, the Bulgarians were compelled to retreat, hotly pursued. Near Ketchana, feeble attacks by the Bulgars were repulsed. At other points the Bulgarian detachments were crushed and in one instance fourteen field batteries were captured. The Bulgarians, unable to rally, abandoned their wounded.

Turkey Demands Evacuation by the Bulgarians

Constantinople, July 12.—Negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria regarding their future frontier line have been a complete failure. Turkey sent a note to the commander of the Bulgarian troops last evening, demanding that they evacuate immediately all territory south of the line running from Enos to the Aegean Sea to Mida on the Black Sea; otherwise, they would be driven out by the Turkish troops. The terms of the note permitted no temporizing. Gen. Ziaet Pasha, commander in chief of the Turkish army left for the front.

Wild Ride Saved Ambushed Train

Eagle Pass, Texas, July 12.—A wild ride down grade saved most of a constitutionalist troop train which federalers ambushed at Casteno yesterday. The federalers turned heavy artillery into the train, smashing the engine and several cars of supplies. Constitutionalists aboard the train cut loose eight cars allowing them to back down grade into Monclova. Several rebels were killed.

Eight hundred constitutionalist reinforcements reached Monclova yesterday and both sides appear to be preparing for a great battle immediately.

AMENDMENT VOTE NEXT SATURDAY

FRIENDS AND OPPONENTS OF AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED UPON ARE ACTIVE

THE BOND AMENDMENT

Holds Center of Stage—Friends Here Perfect Organization For the Fight

With the election one week away, the friends and opponents of the constitutional amendments to be voted upon next Saturday, are actively at work in this county. Although there are several amendments, Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, relating to the issuance of bonds by the Legislature, occupies the center of interest and has apparently overshadowed the others in the discussion.

W. J. Bullock has been appointed chairman of the Wichita county organization for the amendment and is being assisted by a number of University of Texas ex-students. The opponents are not organized, but the state organization which is fighting the amendment is distributing literature and press matter.

Yesterday the voting boxes were prepared and will be distributed to the various voting places over the county this week. The voting places and the names of the judges will be announced shortly. A light vote is anticipated, especially in the country boxes and it is predicted that the vote will be light throughout the State.

Socialist Leader Takes Fallen Woman Into Own Home—Declares Church Charity Hypocrisy

Special to The Times. Terry Hale, Ind. July 12.—"I challenge Christianity to live up to its standards in regard to this girl or to admit that its charity is hypocrisy and its professions only a cloak."

With these words Eugene V. Debs, agnostic, socialist leader and reformer, flung down the gauntlet to the Christians of Terre Haute, Ind., as he took a fallen girl from the city jail into his home and declared that he would recognize her as a member of his own family and that those who would be his friends must receive her as they would one of his own children.

Back of the daring challenge of the great socialist leader and writer there lies a pitiful story of romance and sorrow.

Daughter of a Minister.
The girl is the beautiful daughter of a noted Methodist minister, Rev. J. H. Hollingsworth, formerly of the faculty of De Pauw University and famous as a pulpit orator all over Indiana and the middle West. Those who know her describe her as the most beautiful girl they have ever seen. Great big blue eyes, "eyes as blue as cornflowers and hair as golden as wheat," made her the popular idol of the young people.

A short time ago the girl eloped with Newton Cox, the son of a prominent family and was married to him. Somehow the romance lost its savor and the beautiful girl and the rich young man became separated and he divorced her and took her child away from her.

A few nights ago she was found on the streets by the police, who told her that she must keep off the streets or go to the "red light district." Then she was arrested and taken to jail and had been in jail for three days when Eugene V. Debs, as an emergency probation officer, was permitted to take her to his home.

"Are the police trying to get recruits for the red light district?" he asked indignantly. "Are we to hunt down helpless girls scarcely out of their own childhood and pay no heed to the men who are far more dangerous to society."

"This penniless girl has been persecuted. Her father gave his life to Christianity and we will see what Christianity will do for his daughter. Will Terre Haute help her or will

FALLS WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. M. E. Harris Who Came Here Before Railroad Passed Away at Dallas Yesterday

Mrs. M. E. Harris, one of the earliest settlers of Wichita Falls, who came here with her husband and family in 1878 several years before the railroad was built, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Van Dorn, in Dallas Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. She was 78 years of age. The funeral service will be held at the home of Mrs. Van Dorn Sunday evening at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Harris was the mother of W. T. Harris the dairyman, Mrs. C. M. Bryan and Miss Betty Harris all of this city.

With her husband, who died twelve or fifteen years ago, she ran the old Harris hotel that occupied the site that was later occupied by the old Fort Worth & Denver depot that was torn down several years ago. Later they purchased what was known as the "Jersey farm." Their last residence here was at the corner of Fifteenth and Travis streets in the house formerly owned by Jeff Waggoner.

After Mr. Harris' death Mrs. Harris made her home in Dallas where she had lived before coming to Wichita Falls.

When Mrs. Harris came to Wichita Falls there were only a few little homes half hidden in the mesquite and brush that covered the townsite. Wild turkey, antelope and prairie chickens often roamed into the hamlet and great herds of cattle grazed on the prairies hereabouts. Later she saw the glistening rails of the first railroad and then the auction of town lots that was the opening of the town of Wichita Falls. In the years that followed she and her husband were prominent figures in the struggling little town.

It uses its organized force to drive her to desperation and shut all doors of hope against her. This pitiless cruelty must stop and if we are to wage war on immorality let us begin with the immoral people in high life."

Wichita Falls, Texas, July 13, 1913

Petitions are being circulated in Wilbarger and Archer counties for local option elections from which we judge the Allison anti-shipping bill is proving highly efficacious.

On the 19th three counties in the Panhandle will hold local pool hall elections. They are Wilbarger, Hall and Hale counties. This is one of the new laws enacted by the legislature, and under its provisions pool-halls in any county can be closed by a majority vote of the people.

Things are reaching that stage in Mexico now when it begins to look as if the United States will have to step in and settle the matter between the warring factions. The Huerta government has grown gradually weaker day-by-day, and the Constitutionalists or rebel faction have grown in strength and numbers until now they seem to be winning more battles than they lose.

So long as the water company is not in a position to furnish a sufficient amount of water for domestic use, there will be no sprinkling of streets in Wichita Falls. This statement is made on authority of Mayor Bell, and it will do no good whatever to complain of the dust nuisance so long as the waterworks people are unable to supply the city with all the water that is necessary for domestic use. This is the first time Wichita Falls has ever been short of a water supply, and that with a lake of water that could supply a city of 100,000 population for a year or more. The only reason for this is that the city has grown so rapidly during the past year that the capacity of the pumping machinery at the power house is entirely inadequate to supply the demand. The water company is doing its utmost to have the deficiency corrected.

The only difficulties that confront Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, known as the educational resolution, is the ignorance of the majority of the people as to the full purport of same. Once they understand the amendment, they are invariably in favor of its adoption. In view of this fact it is suggested by friends of education in Texas that between now and July 19 the voters of Texas should carefully study the amendment in question and vote intelligently.—Denison Herald.

That sounds very much as if some of the staunch supporters of S. J. R. No. 18 were fixing a nice soft place to fall. It's human nature to assert that it is ignorance that prevents the other fellow from thinking and voting as you do, but it is not often the case that a majority of the people are ignorant. The people of Texas, the majority we mean, know pretty well how to take care of their own interests. It might be that they want to vest the right in the legislature to do the main portion of creating a debt for them to discharge in after years, and again they might conclude it best to hold that right for themselves. In either event, there seems slight provocation to assert that a majority of our people are going to act on so important a matter ignorantly.

REPUBLICANS GOT N. A. M. SUPPORT

went to Patterson to aid Hughes' opponent. He hired six union men to work against Hughes and paid them altogether about $1800, which came from the National Association of Manufacturers. Mulhall said, took possession of 75,000 circulars sent into the district by the American Federation of Labor to aid Hughes and turned them over to the Republican campaign committee.

"You bribed men to vote against Hughes?" asked Senator Cummins. "I don't know whether you call it bribery or not. They were paid a weekly salary; that is what they called it. It has been done by both parties for years." Generally Supported Republicans. This referred to the money paid the six union men. Senator Reed asked if the National Association of Manufacturers went "generally into politics" and supported the Republican organization, or whether it singled out individual men throughout the country whom it supported. Mulhall said it generally supported the Republican ticket and particularly opposed democrats who were too actively opposed to its labor union policies. Efforts to control Senator McComas on labor legislation were further

Two Killed in Auto Accident. Chicago, July 12.—K. B. Bell, former general manager of the Hammock Packing company, killed himself here today after methodically settling his affairs. He was sixty years old. Mr. Bell had his chauffeur drive him to the end of a boulevard to the prairie south of the city. He said: "Wait here while I go for a stroll."

He walked away a few hundred yards and was seen by several boys to stand a few moments as if in thought. Then he took out his revolver and fired a shot into the ground. Then he shot himself in the temple. He was wealthy and his business prosperous. His wife, however, was suing him for separate maintenance as a result of family trouble.

NEITHER COLQUITT NOR LEGISLATURE

Could Fill Vacancy in U. S. Senate, if Vacancy Should Occur Now.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, July 12.—If a vacancy occurs in the Texas representation in the United States Senate, it could not at the present time be filled either by the governor or by the legislature, under the new direct election of senators statute. This was the opinion expressed by Governor Colquitt today. He said, in answer to a question on this point: "The joint resolution proposing an amendment to the United States constitution, providing that senators shall be elected by the people of the several States, as adopted by the Legislature of the State of Texas and approved by me on February 14, 1913 reads as follows: 'Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of each house, concurring thereto, that in lieu of the first paragraph of Section 3, Article I of the Constitution of the United States and in lieu of so much of Paragraph 2 of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States... The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures. When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies, provided the Legislature of any State may empower the executives thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election, as the legislature may direct. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election of term of any senator chosen before it became valid as part of the Constitution.'

"The Legislatures of three-fourths of the States have ratified the foregoing proposed amendment. The ratification of its adoption was made sometime ago by the Secretary of State at Washington, and it is now part of the organic law of the land. If a vacancy should occur in the representation of Texas in the United States Senate from any cause whatsoever at this time, the governor could not fill the vacancy, neither could the Legislature do so by election; I have included this subject for the consideration of the special session of the Legislature which convenes in Austin, July 21. Under the amendment as shown above the Legislature will have to provide for the direct election of United States senators by popular vote. By the express

"God Help the Rich, the Poor Can Work"

Said Elbert Hubbard, and a saner sentence never came from human tongue or printed page. The happy mortal is the busy one. The man who thinks there are not enough hours in a day and far too few days in a year never has time to worry over the calamities of the future or brood over the misfortunes of the past. He is too busy trying to crowd all the accomplishments possible into the day that is passing. To him yesterday represents experience and tomorrow opportunity.

We are always too busy to worry. Work is our programme and service our motto. If we should not please you we will thank you to tell us that we may know why, because on our ability to remedy defects in our business system depends our success and your satisfaction.

The case of G. W. Mason vs. City National Bank, with the Producers Oil Company as intervenor, is now on trial in the district court and will probably not go to the jury before Tuesday. In this case, Mason is seeking to recover the money on two drafts payment upon which he alleges was stopped by the bank. The drafts had been purchased with money given Mason by the Producers company for the Overall leases, the transactions incident to which resulted in the indictment of Mason on charges of forgery and swindling. He was acquitted on these charges and in this suit seeks to recover the money paid him. The Producers Oil Company intervened in the suit.

Present statistics show that there is a wonderful increase in the number of people who depend on Glasses for good vision. Take enlightened Boston, "The Hub," for instance. There are more people wearing Specs there than in any other city of its size. Where learning and progress are, you will find most people wearing glasses. Are you going to stay behind till you have to have them and then find you have waited too long—that some small trouble has grown till Glasses won't remedy it.

DAUGHERTY-GORLINE WEDDING FRIDAY EVENING.

A winsome daughter of Wichita Falls became a bride Thursday evening when, at the home of her parents and surrounded by the friends of her girlhood and young womanhood, Miss Esther Gorline and Walter J. Daugherty were united in marriage. The ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Travis street had been selected as the theatre for the pretty and impressive ceremony that marked the entrance of this couple to the wedded estate and a large number of friends gathered there at the appointed hour; there was regret that they were so soon to be bereft of Esther Gorline, there was, at the same time, satisfaction in her happiness. The porch was decorated with vines and pot plants, daisies and smilax being pressed into service to make it a bower of green and white; the same color scheme was used in the parlor and dining room, which were transformed to make an appropriate setting for the scenes to be enacted. As the guests assembled, C. V. Durland at the piano and Mrs. Bruce Greenwood on the violin, rendered appropriate selections and then both accompanied Mrs. G. Fred Thompson as the song "For You Alone." This tender verse seemed to have an augmented sweetness as it was rendered Thursday evening and was an impressive prelude to the entrance of the wedding party. Mr. Durland, playing the wedding march as the bridal party entered. First came the four bridesmaids, Misses Jewel Kemp, Carrie Kell, Vivian Mathis and Mary Martha Bishop, all attired in lingerie dresses, trimmed with lace and wearing field hats with streamers of tulle, filled with daisies. Miss Phoebe Bishop, Georgetown, maid of honor, next entered, gowned in a creation of pink chiffon, trimmed with lace and carrying a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. Dr. C. M. Bishop of Georgetown, the officiating minister, was next, followed by the master of honor, Mrs. Bettie Durrett Hickman of Fort Worth; Mrs. Hickman wore her own wedding gown of real lace over satin, with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The ring bearer, Miss Phoebe Bishop, followed, and next came the bride, herself, a gown of brocade of crepe meteor, with real lace, the hooded veil with its orange blossoms, and the shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley—these formed the dainty costume of this dainty bride. Her attendants were Miss Lillian Durrett and was met by the groom, W. J. Daugherty, with the best man, Theodore Lane. Dr. Bishop then pronounced the solemnizing ceremony. In addition to his best man, the groom was attended by Lemuel Pahn, Alex. Brittain, Dr. Garrison, Mr. Goben and Ed Gorline, as ushers. After the ceremony sheet and cake were served in the dining room, where the wedding card was cut; the ring was cut by Miss Carrie Kell, the dime by Miss Vivian Mathis and the thimble by Miss Jewel Kemp. The refreshments were served by Misses Louise Montgomery, Annette Walsh and Margaret Noble, while punch was dispensed in the grape arbor by Misses Bertha May Kemp, Bess Kell and Edith Mathis. Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty left Friday for Newcastle, after which they will return to make their home in Fort Worth. The wedding of Thursday evening is the sequel to a romance which began while Miss Gorline was a student at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music several years ago. The groom, while a stranger in Wichita Falls, has established himself thoroughly in local favor by his choice of a bride; the bride has resided here for many years and her personal charm and the prominence of her family have united to make her one of this city's most estimable young women. Her closest friends are a wide circle of friends who with Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty.

noon at 4 o'clock by Misses Carrie Kell, Jewel Kemp and Vivian Mathis, the affair being held at the Kell home on Burnett street. Soon after the guests had arrived, the general entertainment with a pleasing musical program, after which the bride to be was invited to serve those present with punch which was to be drawn from a well located in an alcove in the front parlor of the Kell home. The well was braced with white crepe paper interlaced with gracefully entwined smilax and greens and the bucket was made of white ribbon and was attached to a white ribbon rope. As the guests waited with expectancy, the honoree of the afternoon walked forward to draw up a bucket of punch, but what was her surprise to find in the bucket, not punch, but a great variety of silk hose, handkerchiefs and dainty things of all descriptions. MANCHU COURT STILL REMAINS

MEMBERS OF FORMER REIGNING FAMILY STILL LIVE AT PEKIN, THE FORBIDDEN CITY

THE REPUBLIC MAY END

President Yuan May be Forced to Re-establish Dynasty and Proclaim Himself Regent

By Associated Press.
Pekin, July 12.—Contrary to declarations made at the time the throne abdicated in favor of the Republic, sixteen months ago, the Court of the old Manchu rulers of the Chinese Empire still remains at Peking.
The terms of the final agreement with the representatives of the new republican government provided that the Manchu nobles, including all the members of the reigning family, should retain their hereditary titles and be liberally pensioned, and that the young Emperor, after his abdication, should be accorded in China the honors given a visiting foreign sovereign. These stipulations have been carried out. At the same time it was declared the Court would eventually move away from the Forbidden City, but not steps in this direction yet have been taken. There has not even been an exodus to the Summer Palace, or to the ancient palaces at Jehol, which were mentioned at the time of abdication as places of possible retirement. Some minor Manchu princes and officials have deserted their residences in Peking and moved away, generally to the foreign settlements at Tientsin, or to Manchuria, where they can obtain Japanese or Russian protection if occasion arises. But the ex-prince regent and Pa Yi, the boy Emperor, now seven years old, still reside in the palaces occupied by the reigning family for 268 years and Imperial Guards will forbid entrance to their palace compounds.
Yuan May Be Forced to Re-establish Dynasty.
The Manchu troops continue in arms and obey the instructions of President Yuan Shih-k'ai in all matters that do not affect the safety of the court. Should there be a conflict of authority between the president and the court, it is believed they would stand by the Manchus; but the interests of the Republican president and those of the Forbidden City have not conflicted. Indeed, it is believed in the Legation Quarter that they are closely allied. It is thought among foreign observers that the court depends on Yuan Shih-k'ai for a regular payment of its pension from the Republic, and, on the other hand, that Yuan may be compelled at any moment to re-establish the dynasty and proclaim himself regent in order to give his orders the weight of imperial authority. At present, with a host of important presidential orders which are essential to the maintenance of the government, do not receive the sanction of any organized body of law-makers.

A question interesting to old observers who know China—under the dynasty is whether the Empress Dowager, who recently died, will be the last Empress of China. If the Republic succeeds there will probably be no other.

Two striking changes have taken place in the appearance of Peking as a result of the revolution. One is considered a disfigurement; the other an improvement, and a great advantage. The disfigurement is the disappearance of the Manchu cart, which an American lady of literary gifts once characterized as "Portia's Casket on Wheels." The brilliantly colored Sedan chair, borne high on the shoulders of four or eight coolies, disappeared to a large extent after the Boxer Rising of 1900 and has since been used only at funerals and weddings, and by a few ultra smart foreign legation ladies, who adopted the old when the Chinese began adopting the new.

European Carriage Displacing Manchu Cart

Now the Peking cart is being rapidly displaced by the European carriage. Only the poorer classes are still riding in these little blue covered springless carts with huge brass studded wheels. Along with the adoption of the brougham the Chinese outriders of the new official vehicle are adopting European saddles for their ponies in place of the gay caparisons in use under the dynasty; and instead of flowing dresses of white or light blue with red streamers to their hats, the sombre garb of the west is being affected by these outriders in imitation of their republican masters.

On the other hand the Peking of the people has been made much more beautiful by the opening up of several roadways through the Forbidden City and also by the breaking of several new gates in the wall of the Imperial City. As is known to all Americans who have visited Peking, the city is a piece of walls within walls. The Forbidden City where the court resides, is within the Imperial City, which in turn is within the Tartar City, surrounded by the great Peking wall. Again the Legation Quarter, the Southern City, and the Winter Palace, where the great Empress Dowager lived, and which Yuan Shih-k'ai at the present, now occupies, are enclosed within their own piles of masonry.

Pay Roll Keeps Pace With Receipts and is Now $40,580 Annually—Other Figures

An increase of over twenty-five per cent in postal receipts was recorded by the Wichita Falls postoffice during the year ending June 30, over the preceding twelve months. The total receipts for the year were $51,324.67, a gain of $10,556.63 over the year ending June 30, 1912, when the receipts were $40,768.04. There was a gain of 100 per cent in the five years from 1909 to 1913 inclusive, the figures being as follows:

1909	$25,555.21
1910	31,957.63
1911	37,116.30
1912	40,774.04
1913	51,324.67

The growth of the business of the local office is further indicated by the increase in the number of employees. In 1907, there were only three clerks employed; now there are thirteen. In 1907 there was no carrier service, now six carriers are employed. There were only three rural carriers in 1907, now there are six. The payroll of the office now totals $40,580 annually, the present figures being an increase of $6720 over last year; all advances in salary being effective July 1. Postmaster Bacon now receives a salary of $3100 a year. With the beginning of the new postoffice year on July 1, seven employees received $100 raises, three received $200 raises, four carriers got $100 more and one carrier was advanced $200 per year.

Increase in Registry Division.
A healthy increase in the registry division is shown by figures for the past six years, as follows: 1908, 2553; 1909, 3371; 1910, 3269; 1911, 5010; 1912, 6454; 1913, 7297 and 662 insured parcels, or a total of 7959.

The money order end of the postoffice also shows big gains. For the year ending June 30, 1912, 18,872 domestic orders were issued, the total value being $116,150.83 and the total fees being $1055.78; for the year ending June 30, 1913 there were 25,224 orders issued, totalling $160,384.55, with $1253.59 in fees. During the past year eighty-six international orders were issued totalling $1412.31, with $18.60 in fees. A total of 19,749 money orders were cashed here in the year ending June 30, 1912, their value being $94,354.62; for the year just closed 28,346 were cashed, totalling $130,926.82. Total money order transactions: 1912, $38,732; 1913, $53,667.

The office has received a new cancelling machine, the one furnished when the new building was entered having become too small for the business. Within a short time, four big electric light standards will be erected two on the north entrance and two on the east, furnishing attractive illumination for the building's exterior.

Lee Was Sick at Gettysburg.
The late Col. William W. Blackford, engineer of Stuart's cavalry corps and colonel First Regiment of Engineers, C. S. A., wrote it down that he personally knew that General Lee was weak and exhausted from illness when he went into the fight at Gettysburg, and he thus indulged in the following conjecture:

If General Lee had been in his usual vigorous health the day before, I believe he would have followed up our successes on the first day's action and have occupied this ridge or could have withdrawn by maneuvering for a more favorable field, instead of partial detached frontal attacks on an impregnable position, which culminated in the last day's battle by throwing in the elite division of his army—Pickett's division of Virginians of 5000 men—to attack this formidable position defended by three lines of battle and

150 guns over an open level space in front of three-quarters of a mile. The attack was doomed to failure before launched, 5000 or 6000 men fell or were taken prisoners; only 2000 returned. If Lee had been on this spot himself, with his experience in the art and theory of war, he would have seen all at a glance and the battle would never have been lost. Such little things in war, as in everything else, sometimes lead to great results. General Lee's sickness may have been sufficient cause for the loss of the battle. He took all blame of defeat on himself. Thus ended the battle of Gettysburg—the highest point of invasion and zenith of power reached by the Confederacy, whose ebullient red flag arose on the clouds of war in the zenith of nations, and after four years' warfare again disappeared from the earth's surface with a career of victory and glory seldom found in history under one flag in such a brief period of time.—Waco Times-Herald.

DOUBLE WEDDING CEREMONY PERFORMED WEDNESDAY.

Misses Marjorie and Bessie Mays of Atlanta, Texas, two popular young ladies who have visited this city frequently will make their wedding ceremony one, for on last Wednesday evening they became the brides, respectively, of Leon Deaton and Harvey A. McCarty of Wichita Falls. During former visits to this city when the Misses Mays were guests of the family of T. J. Taylor and her relatives, the double wedding was first inception and when they returned not long ago for another visit, a double wedding was decided upon. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. J. W. Hill, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, the contracting parties coming there from the Taylor home. After the ceremony, accompanied by a number of friends, they went to Lake Wichita where an elaborate and enjoyable wedding supper was served. The grooms are well known young business men of this city. Mr. and Mrs. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Deaton have the hearty good wishes of a wide circle of friends.

SLUMBER PARTY IN HONOR OF WEATHERFORD VISITOR.

As a compliment to her guest, Miss Lydia Sparks of Weatherford, Miss Lena Millican entertained with a slumber party that proved a very pleasant diversion for a number of her girl friends. The color scheme was red and yellow and this idea was tastefully executed. Various amusements employed the young ladies until midnight, when supper was served in the dining room, which was illuminated with candelabra shaded with yellow and white. The lateness of the supper hour did not prevent the guests from getting up at 6 o'clock morning to ride out to the Taylor home for breakfast and their enjoyment of the affair was complete. Those present were Misses Cora Lee Waggoner, Inez Geary, Ruby Self, Mabel Williams, Nelle Bulloch, Audrey Roberts, Daisy Stewart, Lena Millican, Lydia Sparks of Weatherford.

MAY HOLD PROHIBITION ELECTION IN WILBARGER.
(Vernon Record)
Petitioners requesting the county commissioners to order an election to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors will be made legal in Wilbarger county are being circulated over the county. These will be filed with the commissioners court at an early date, probably within a week, and steps will then be taken to order the election. If the required number of signers are secured—about 250 signatures will be necessary—and if action on the petitions is desired at an earlier date than the regular session of the court on August 11th, a special session will be held, in which latter event the election will probably be ordered for some time in August. If the petitions are not filed until the August term, it will be about the middle of September before an election can be held.

PRIZE FARMING PROVES FAILURE IS NOT A SUCCESS IN GERMANY SAYS A. A. LINDSEY. FARM LIFE COMMISSIONS Institutions That are Self-Supporting and of Great Benefit are Found (By S. A. Lindsey, chairman Farm Life Commission). Halle, Saxony, July 12.—Landwirtschaftskammer is a long word and not easily pronounced by an American. We are in the city of Halle of Saxony, Germany, and I am sure the word is German. I have spent the day studying this organization and expect to spend tomorrow in the same manner. I wish to be able to make a thorough report of this organization in my report to the Texas Farm Life Commission. This institution is an agricultural, educational and farm life institution. It is, indeed, the head of all agricultural, educational co-operative, and rural welfare institutions in Saxony. The building in which its business is conducted covers eight acres of ground. I will enumerate a few things this institution performs. It provides the farmers with agricultural and educational facilities. It has established five schools where farmer boys are taught agriculture, and three where farmer girls are taught husbandry. Knowing that these girls are to become wives of farmers, they are given a thorough training in household economics, domestic science, and agriculture as practised here. For he it remembered that at least five out of every seven people we have seen working in the fields are women. I will speak of this at another time, if not later on in this article. At present, let me continue the enumeration of the things the Landwirtschaftskammer does. It conducts winter schools in agriculture for farmer boys who are unable to attend one of the five schools already mentioned. It furnishes lectures to farmers' societies, the members of which are required by their own self-imposed rules to attend. It assists co-operative associations of farmers in conducting their affairs, keeps up interest therein, and organizes others where needed. It maintains a farm labor bureau. Maintains Farm market Bureau. It tests farm machinery which is offered for sale and gives a certificate of its points of merit and demerit. It tests fertilizers and seeds. So valuable have these tests proven that no merchant will undertake the sale of new machinery, fertilizers or seeds without the certificate of this institution. It maintains a correspondence department for advising farmers on their questions. They may desire information. It maintains schools of animal industry and of forestry, a law department where all legal matters of members of farmers' organizations are given attention. It publishes a farm market bureau and publishes weekly market reports. It establishes cold storage plants in convenient localities for the storing of perishable farm products for the time there is no market for them. It prevents abuse, that is, the cornering of the market, no product is allowed to remain in cold storage longer than three months. This kind of law prevails throughout the empire and it stopped corners on meat, eggs, butter, etc. It acts as the clearing house for the rural banks, shifting the funds from one to another. That all needs are supplied and all funds kept employed, it acts as distributor for all co-operative farmers' associations for the purchase of supplies and sale of such commodities as are sold collectively. If a farmer is going to build a house he applies to the institution which as an expert architect, ascertains his needs, the money he has to spend and furnishes to him plans, specifications and correct prices of both labor and materials. Thus are farm houses properly, wisely and economically built. This institution does many other such things. The State levies $30,000 annually, then there is levied by the institution a tax on the farmers which yields $50,000 annually and the fees are collected for services rendered in collecting seeds, fertilizers, machines, etc. This makes a total of $200,000 annually, making a total of $350,000 which the farmers of Saxony spend annually for their social, financial and educational welfare. Here is my fellow citizens, a real dynamic properly supported Farm Life Commission. I said, "properly supported." I want to explain that too. The people of Europe have had almost a hundred years experience in agricultural uplift work. The first half of it amounted to nothing, say the people here, and the cost was contributed by others and the State in dollars, bonuses and prizes to the farmers and farmer organizations. They claim it to be a fundamental principle that farmers appreciate and use what they pay for, while they despise doles and gifts. They say that State aided rural banks have never done well, while ever since farmers have taken their own affairs in hand and taxed and obliged themselves to carrying on their own relief work, progress and success are general and failure unknown. IT HAPPENED IN WICHITA FALLS And is Happening to Wichita Falls People Every Week. The case told below is not an uncommon thing. The same occurs frequently and will continue to happen as long as folks have kidneys and overtax the kidneys. Mrs. Mary Beck, 712 Seventh St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "For years I suffered from kidney trouble, having pains in my back and side and irregular action of the kidneys. I steadily grew worse and about three years ago the trouble reached a climax, when I had to take to my bed. For three months I was helpless and six local physicians said that I had Bright's Disease. I was discouraged. A friend suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills and I took them. I began to improve and by the time I had taken the first box, I was much better. Four boxes cured me." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (Advertisement)

BELGIAN RULER PROVES CLIMBER HAS ASCENDED SOME OF MOST DIFFICULT MOUNTAINS IN SWITZERLAND. FLORAL ADVERTISEMENTS Prohibit Tax on Billboards in France Causes New, Less Unattractive Scheme. (By Associated Press) Paris, July 12.—It is comparatively seldom that the government of any European country permits himself to include in such a dangerous business as mountain climbing. A notable exception, however, is King Albert, of Belgium; this monarch is never so happy as when he can steal away from Brussels to devote a few days to his favorite sport. Albert's last exploit of this kind took place last month, when he disappeared for four days, leaving word that he had gone away on a private holiday. He is now known to have traveled under the strictest incognito to the Simplon Pass, between Switzerland and Italy, which he made his headquarters for several difficult and dangerous climbs. Accompanied by Baron Buffin, the King ascended the Spitzhorn, 10,950 feet; the Hubschorn, 10,485 feet; the dangerous Fletschhorn, 13,127 feet; and the Langefuh peak, 9,345 feet. The native guides, Berolt and Supersaxo, whom the King engaged to climb with him, were much surprised at his endurance and courage. This is the first time in Swiss Alpine annals that a crowned head has made such a series of difficult climbs. Flower Bed Advertising Now that the large advertising boards that disfigure the landscape on either side of the French railroads have been taxed out of existence by the Chamber of Deputies, an ingenious and less offensive way of advertising specialties in the same places has been devised. Advertisers on the Orleans Railroad have begun to plant beds of flowers of brilliant hues in the fields on either side of the track, with the blossoms so arranged as to spell the name of the products to which it is desired to draw the attention of the traveler. The efficacy of valuing stilliquities was very clearly demonstrated in a case before the Paris courts last week when the question of the value of an Arab glass cup was discussed. It appeared from the evidence that the cup certified by the priest of a Tartar Mosque at Chemarque to be of fourteenth century origin, was bought by a Paris dealer in antiquities, who found it in Russia, for the sum of $2,000 and sold by him to another Paris dealer for $6,000. The cup was eventually bought by a German dealer for $8,000 and the latter has now received an offer of $12,000 for his purchase. A medallion containing a lock of the hair of George Washington, has just been sold by a Paris dealer in antiquities to an American collector for $4,800. Aeroplanes Without Motors French aviators and inventors continue to devote much time and thought to the construction of a machine which will permit man to fly entirely by his own exertion. No motor, or other outside power, enters into the making of these small machines called "aviettes," the fundamental idea being to propel them by human force alone. The results so far have not been strikingly successful, but high hopes are entertained of several new "aviettes" now under course of construction. The formula followed by the inventors was obtained by M. Magnan, director of a French technical school, who after years of study, declares he has succeeded in translating the principles of bird flight into mechanics. By applying his formula to the measurements of a bird, M. Magnan obtained the following dimensions for an "aviette" of the monoplane variety, whose maximum weight, including the pilot, should not be more than 440 pounds. Wing surface, 32.67 square feet; weight of wings, $4.45 pounds; spread of wings, 18 feet; width of wings, 3.63 feet; length of tail, 4.38; length over all, 10 feet. EXPECTS 200 SALES OFF 170 ACRES OF COTTON. (Iowa Park Herald) D. E. Smith who lives seven miles north of Electra, spent Sunday in the Park with his son, Roy and wife. Monday morning Mr. Smith made this office a call and says he has 170 acres of cotton that sure looks like and that he expects to make in the neighborhood of 200 bales of cotton this year. He also has 100 acres in corn that he expects to gather thirty bushels to the acre. He says W. C. Clayton another old time Park farmer is doing nicely and will also make some good cotton and corn this year.

WAGON RAN OVER BOY'S FOOT AT IOWA PARK. (Iowa Park Herald) Alonza, the little son of V. R. Wigley and wife, narrowly escaped a very serious accident Monday evening. He was riding to town on a wagon loaded with wheat, with Jack Davis, and when at the elevator jumped off into some weeds, getting his feet full of stickers, he attempted to jump on the back of the wagon and in some manner came very near being run over, but Mr. Davis stopped in time to save the little fellow a serious accident. As it was he received a badly bruised foot, that will keep him under the doctor's care several days.

TWO BROTHERS IN DESPERATE FIGHT

ONE SUSTAINED KNIFE WOUND AND INJURED NOSE—OTHER HIT OVER HEAD

FIGHT OVER CHILDREN

J. W. Fowler Under Arrest and E. N. Fowler Taken to His Home After Affray

J. W. Fowler is under arrest and E. N. Fowler is seriously injured, as a result of a difficulty between the two men, who are brothers, early yesterday afternoon at the J. W. Fowler home between this city and Lake Wichita. J. W. Fowler sustained a knife wound in his left arm and his nose was also injured. He was released last night on $2500 bond after a charge of assault to murder had been sworn out against him.

His brother, E. N. Fowler, was reported resting fairly well last night; he was struck with a piece of plank and it was thought for a time that the injury was a fatal one. He was attended by Dr. Shriver of this city and it is thought he will recover.

E. N. Fowler could not, and J. W. Fowler would not, discuss the cause of the difficulty, further than to say that the trouble began the previous evening when there was some sort of difficulty between the children of the respective families. Yesterday morning E. N. Fowler and his brother-in-law, Frank Hawkins, went to the J. W. Fowler home and the difficulty followed. Deputy Sheriff McFall and Carnes made the arrest. E. N. Fowler was taken to his home, and his brother was brought to the court house where he made bond.

The affair occurred at what is known as the old McIntyre place between Wichita Falls and Lake Wichita. It is said that there had never any blood between the brothers until Friday evening, when the children engaged in a dispute of some kind, which was taken up by the elders.

A similar plan is to be followed later between Duncan and Marlow.

NEW WELL GOOD FOR 500 BBLs.

PRODUCERS NO. 47 WAGONER BEST COMPLETION FOR THE WEEK AT ELECTRA

RUMOR DISAPPOINTING

Fifty-five Feet of Sand in Well—On Ayers Farm Falls to Yield Viscuous Fluid

A report that oil had been struck on the Ayers farm, where a well is being drilled by local talent, caused a rush to that vicinity yesterday morning, but net results were disappointing. There was fifty-five feet of unbroken sand at a depth slightly below 1500 feet, but no oil was in evidence.

Coriscana No. 1 Owens, in the Burk Burnett field, is among the week's completions; it is making eighteen barrels.

J. W. Dyson et al No. 3 Hortolin and Walker made a small well at 1150 but not enough to satisfy the owners and is being drilled deeper.

Producers No. 47 Wagoner is good to about 500 barrels in the 1100 foot sand at Electra, being completed late Friday. This is the best well in the field at that depth.

Allen and Fisher No. 3 George, in the shallow sand at Burk Burnett, has been completed and is making about twelve barrels.

In the Burk Burnett District, (Burk Burnett Star) While the past week has brought forth nothing spectacular or unexpected in the field, there have been several new locations made, and three completions, all of which was confined to proven territory.

Coriscana Petroleum Company's Gullet No. 2 was finished the day of the week and falls below the average well in production, as it is only good for about 25 or 30 barrels, though it is said that it is getting better each week.

Allen-Fisher's George No 4 was finished in the shallow sand and is good for about 15 barrels.

Coriscana Petroleum Company, Owens No. 1 is now in the sand and will probably be finished today. They have a fine showing and it is believed that it will be good for 100 barrels.

Guffey Oil Company's Roller No. 2 is shut down at a depth of about 1000 feet.

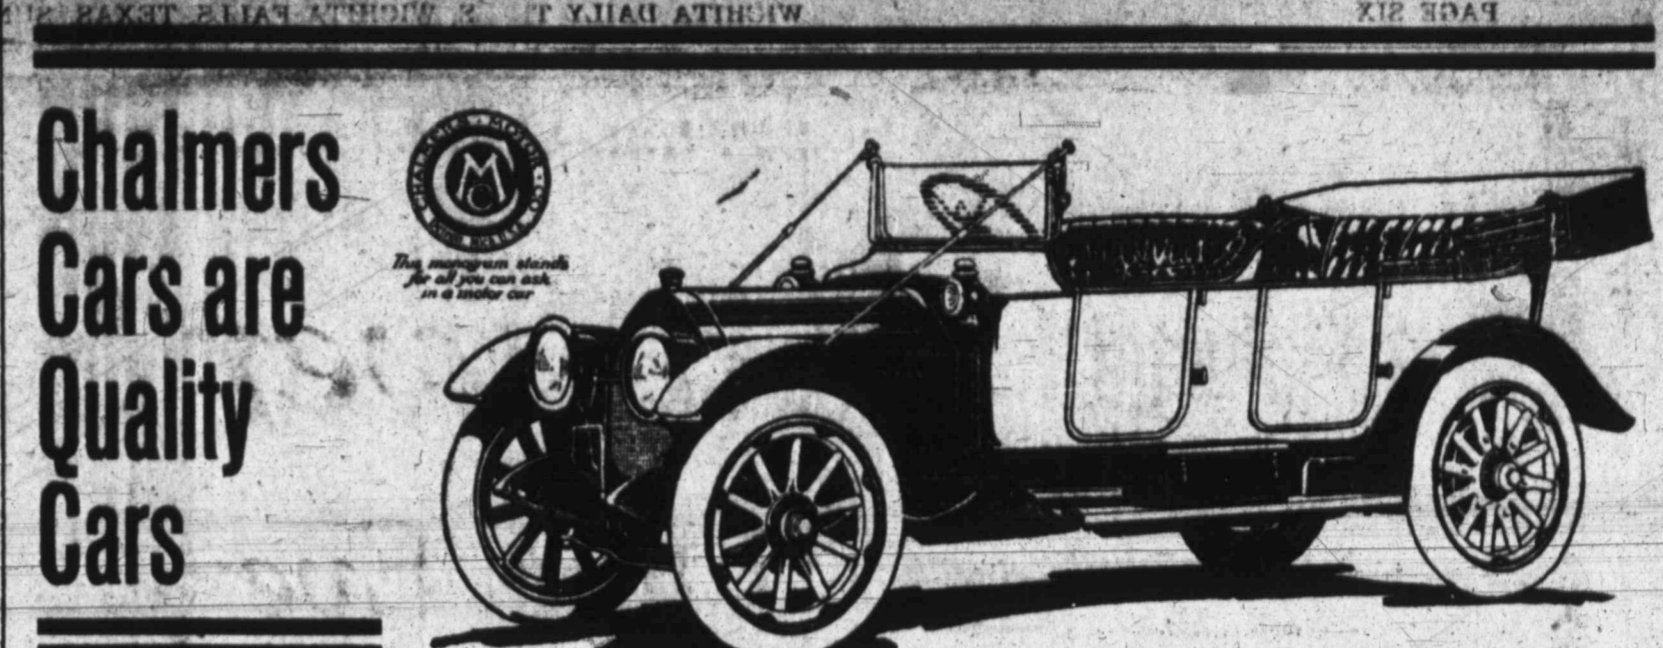

The Producers Company is rigging up on Mrs. George's farm, one mile north of Riley No. 1.

McBride, Chenault No. 4 is drilling at a depth of about 300 feet.

A new location has been made on the J. E. Evans farm by the Coriscana Petroleum Company. This location is east of Riley No. 1.

Coriscana Petroleum Company, S. P. Hawkins No. 1 is still a derrick. Several wells are nearing the pay sand and will probably be finished the coming week, among them being McBride, Chenault No. 3; Coriscana Petroleum Company's Sehmeyer No. 4 and Warren No. 1.

The Burk Burnett Oil Company is installing a pump station on the Harding tract which will be used for pumping their shallow production on this lease.

SIXTEEN CARS OF WHEAT SHIPPED FROM GRANDFIELD.

Grandfield Enterprise) During the first three days of this week Fred Varner, local manager of the Wichita Mill & Elevator Company, bought and shipped sixteen cars of wheat and the continued rush indicates that the average will be kept up for the entire week. During the three days other buyers shipped eight cars of wheat, making a total of twenty-four cars. This amount of wheat for the three days placed in the hands of the farmers $19,000 cash. Business is already feeling the impetus of the big wheat crop, and Grandfield will look like a beehive from now until Christmas.

Party of Sixteen Reached Here Friday Having Tramped Overland Since Monday

With canteens slung across their shoulders and dust stained but undaunted by the heat and untired, a party of sixteen boy scouts marched into the city Friday afternoon having tramped from their homes at Decatur since five o'clock Monday evening.

The party was made up as follows: M. B. Smith, scoutmaster; H. G. Ward, scout commissioner; Henry Madden, Joe Stewart, Ed Payne, Elmore Brady, Bill Scheulkey, Ted Ratliff, Dennis Hatfield, Paul Davis, Bob Blankenship, Daley Woods, Leonard Layton and Robert Smith.

After their arrival here and a short rest the Decatur scouts boarded a car for Lake Wichita where they are now encamped and will remain probably all this week. Monday night the party camped 7 miles west of Decatur, the second night near Sunset, the third night near Bellevue and the last night at Henrietta. During the heat of the day the scouts rested, marching early in the morning and in the cool of the evening.

Their camp will be visited by members of the local patrols during the week and it is probable the visitors will be entertained at the scout headquarters here.

TWINS AT SIXTY YEARS HOLD BIRTHDAY REUNION.

(Bowie Cross Timbers) The first family reunion of the elder members of the Ayres family, since about 1868 in Smith county, was held at the home of William A. (Bill) Ayres in Newport, June 29. This reunion was attended by several generations of the family and the strong resemblance between the members of the family could not fail to be noticed. The reunion was in honor of the sixtieth birthday of Robert Ayres of Bowie and William Ayres of Newport, they being twins. In another way was this meeting of kinsmen distinctive. Everyone of the Ayres brothers has proven a successful business man and all are men of considerable influence in their respective communities. A great dinner was the feature of the reunion, and thirty-six persons were feasted on the delicacies of the season. The family of each brother was represented.

DONATIONS MADE FOR MARRIAGE LICENSE

Document Secured for Amarillo Parties by Passing Hat the City Hall

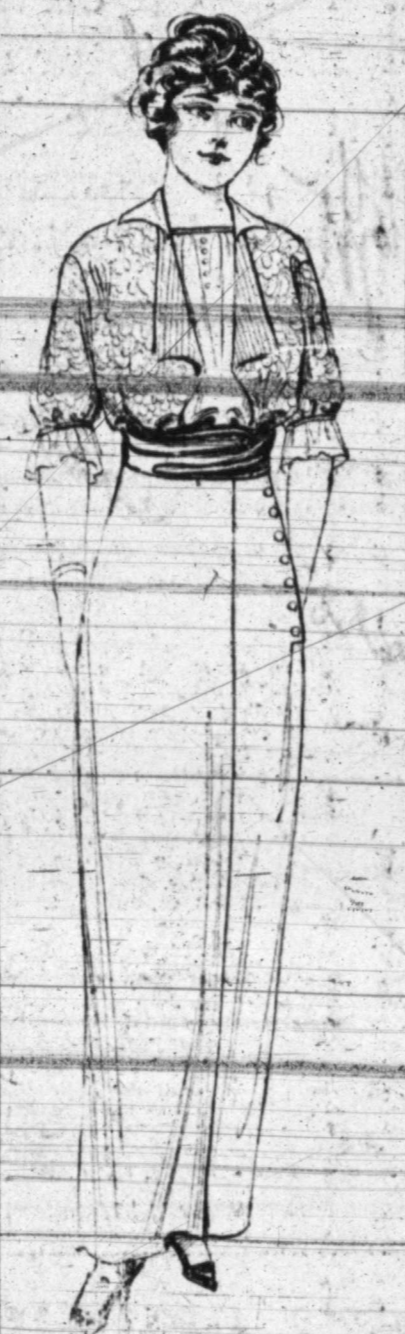

Purchasing a license with quarters and dimes donated by policemen and others at the city hall. W. L. Jones and Fannie Arvin were united in marriage at the court house Friday evening. As a result of the wedding, an Amarillo officer who had come here with the intention of arresting the woman, returned without her.

The Amarillo officer had come here intending to arrest the young woman and after locating her on Tenth street, told her that if she would marry Jones he would see that prosecution was dropped. She and Jones agreed to this, but declared themselves bankrupt and without the wherewithal to purchase the license. The hat was passed at the city hall and enough was raised in quarters and other small change to secure the license, and Justice Howard performed the ceremony. The Amarillo officer returned home on an early train.

What You Should Take When You go Abroad

New York, July 12.—The first part of July finds many fortunates aboard a steamer en route to the old land. Those who have already made the trip will require no advice as to dress. But notwithstanding modern facilities for travel, there are many who will this summer make their maiden voyage.

withstanding all these advantages, there are also many disadvantages. They miss much of social life, which is one of the purposes of all travel tending toward a knowledge and acquaintance with other peoples, and this because of the good old fashioned pretext "nothing to wear." Teachers and students who travel will find it to their interest in every way to strike a happy medium between the fortunate rich with proverbial "big box, little box, band box and bundle," and no end of trunks down in the hold, and those traveling in a handbag. Those who are desirous of appearing daintily and fashionably dressed will find the gown of the first illustration very charming and altogether suitable for dinners and dances, not only on the steamer, but afterward at pensions and hotels. It will be equally smart for like purpose for the stay at home. The development is in ivory white crepon and white and light blue crepon brocade. The chemise and flounces of tulle are very soft and effective, and easily replaced when mussed or soiled. A girle of Gobelblue silk finishes the costume, particularly pleasing because of the quality of the material chosen, withstands creasing.

It is advisable to take along a steamer trunk and a wicker suitcase. Travel by sea is frequently stormy, invariably cold, and requires a steamer rug and much warm clothing. It is no longer customary to wear last year's winter suit in mid-ocean. The steamer outfit is now one of the smartest in midland wardrobe, and this is possible at little expense. Either jacket or skirt may be of all wool tartan, with blue or green color, harmonizing with old ocean himself, predominating. The other part of the costume is of plain serge of this shade. A distinctive note is thus inconspicuously struck. Sufficient variety is imparted to the outfit by shirt waists of French flannel crepe de Chine or wash silk. These are in evidence only in the dining salon, library, or sitting rooms, or on the promenade, may be seen casually peeping from the jacket at front, closing or throat.

The trunk containing steamer rug, woollens and suit may be stored on landings and traveling suit or frock of a shade which ignores dust, such as gray, tan or brown and of serviceable material, preferably rubber, is donned. If the dress is chosen, it is advisable that it be fashioned with pleats, as this gives a much more finished and smarter appearance. If the suit is given the preference, it will be equally smart fashioned with Bolero jacket or Balkan blouse. The Bolero is made on the unfitted lines easily developed at home. It has large revers, and may or may not be finished at the throat and front closing frills of lace. Invariably, however, buttons decorate the outer edges. The Balkan needs no comment. It has been speaking very volubly for itself for some months past, and will not be silenced for some months to come. The girle, however, made of tartan silk, is supplanting the Bulgarian and Oriental colorings so popular during the spring.

South from Paris or Germany to Southern France, Italy and Tyrol only light weight clothing can be tolerated. A gown such as this of the second illustration for midsummer climates will be much appreciated. When the waist scarf is discarded, it is suitable either for traveling or sightseeing. The addition of the gayly colored scarf makes it sufficiently dressy for luncheon at the hotel, or afternoon tea on the piazza, or in the garden tea rooms, of which there are so many delightful ones throughout all Europe. It was developed in navy blue summer silk of soft flexible quality. The scarf is of Cublet silk, with turquoise blue background and tomato red, green and yellow motifs. The drapery at the left side of the skirt is very stylish.

The question naturally arises, what more should the traveling case contain? First of all, toilet articles. These and fresh linen are of vast importance. Of cold cream, there should be a plenty, for grimy face, throat and arms and cologne for spraying as a tonic over the cream cleansed skin. Of underwear as few pieces as possible should be carried. Vests and drawers may be knitted or of silk and, if desired, may be washed overnight in one's room. One dainty petticoat for wear with the evening gown described will be necessary. White crepe de Chine or batiste with flounce of shadow lace, is preferably for this purpose. A petticoat of navy blue pongee, surah silk or crepe de Chine would be suitable for wear with the navy blue silk frock. If desired, the same underskirt might be worn with the traveling costume. Three pairs of shoes and one pair of easy slippers should suffice. These should be accustomed to the feet, before sailing, as continuous standing and tramping are very fatiguing both to feet and limbs. A half dozen pairs of shoes, matching in tone either shoes or frocks, a dozen handkerchiefs, three or four corset covers and two nightgowns of either cotton crepe, crepe de Chine or wash silk, will be sufficient for the woman who attempts to see either Europe or America in a suit case.

ATROCITIES ON INCREASE

INDIGNITIES TO FOREIGNERS FREQUENTLY COMMITTED BY MEXICANS

'LOOK OUT FOR PAINT'

Huerta's Quaint Warning to Cabinet About Intrigues for His Own Removal

Mexico City, July 12.—With the gradual spreading of revolutionary activity to parts of the Republic hitherto more or less unaffected, tales of atrocities and indignities to foreigners filter into the capital in increasing number. Early in July these had become so common, by reason of their frequency, that whereas a year ago they would have caused great indignation and possibly prompt representations by foreign governments, it is doubtful if they receive now more than inclusion in a possible general claim for damages, in due time upon the Mexican government.

An experience related by passengers on a train proceeding northward from Torreon appears to place a certain contingent of the northern rebels in a class with the followers of Zapata of the south on the score of barbarous treatment of their victims. The train was stopped near Bermejillo by a barred bridge. A band of intoxicated rebels or bandits swooped down upon the passengers, robbed them of everything, including clothing, not sparing even the women victims, of whom there were a half dozen, Americans and English. An American man, detected trying to hide a revolver, was taken out and shot. He fell badly wounded. An Englishman, of whom was demanded a diamond ring he wore, and which he had difficulty in removing, was assisted by means of a knife. The finger was chopped away so that the ring could be secured. The passengers eventually were allowed to go, and walked miles into Torreon.

Hardships of American Women Another experience growing out of an effort to escape a worse fate, was that of a group of Americans, refugees from a mining camp near Topolobampo, Tinaloa. There were three women in the party, which made its way to the coast town. To catch a coasting steamer due at an uncertain date, the refugees had to put out to an island, sun scorched and without a house or tree. Its only inhabitants were shark fishers and the stench of decaying shark flesh was next to unbearable. For two days the refugees endured great hardship and discomfort, then an American gunboat appeared. A boat was sent off, but the officer in charge had orders to take employees of a certain mining company. Nine were accordingly taken aboard and the rest, including three women, waited two days longer, when, almost in despair, they were picked up by the coasting steamer, described as a filthy affair, already overloaded, which landed them in Mazatlan.

President Huerta has great confidence in the ability of his new cabinet to aid him in his work of pacification, but he expects the into devote their attention to the work of their respective departments and not let their covetous eyes dwell upon his seat. This he made quite clear to them at the first formal gathering of the new administrators. To them Huerta said, after the usual felicitations, that he expected each minister to be supreme in his own post, so far as possible, and that they would experience little interference from him. But on the other hand, he warned them to "cuidarse con la pintura," a legend often seen on new edifices in Mexico, meaning "watch out for paint." To his puzzled ministers, who asked him to explain, the President said, patting the back of the chair he customarily occupies at his cabinet meetings: "I mean that this old chair suits me very well, and for the present you should not try to improve it. Pay attention strictly to the duties of your offices, and I shall manage to look after mine."

A Bull Fighter's Feast "Valerito," a Spanish bull fighter, recently put up an exhibition which undoubtedly will long impress him as "the fight of his life." There was no tinsel and no trimmings, but the reward offered and won by "Valerito" made up to him for the lack of applause from the benches. "Valerito" who was christened Manuel Valero, was overtaken on the road to Monterey while in charge of six fighting bulls intended for the ring there by a group of Carranza's soldiers. Taking advantage of the circumstances the revolutionists promised the bull fighter his life and liberty if he could kill the six bulls singlehanded. A ring was constructed on the spot. "Valerito," armed with a cavalry sabre and carrying a colored blanket for a "capa" or cape, an essential part of the bull fighter's equipment, proceeded to tire the animals down and dispatch them one after another. In spite of his heroic efforts his captors subjected the bull fighter to the greatest indignity possible to his kind, the amputation of his queue, before releasing him. DECATUR EDITOR HERE WITH BOY SCOUTS. M. B. Smith, one of the editors and proprietors of the Wise County Messenger was a visitor at The Times office yesterday. Mr. Smith came up from Decatur with the party of boy scouts from that place, who are now encamped at Lake Wichita, where they expect to remain for about ten days. Mr. Smith is spending his vacation with the boys and is enjoying the outing as much as any of them. This is his first visit to Wichita Falls in six years and he says the town has grown so much he hardly recognized it. When he visited here the last time, he said, there were only a few houses beyond the Baptist church. Now there are houses nearly all the way to the lake. Mr. Smith was impressed with the courtesy shown him and members of
