Commerce Redfield today is on his way west enroute to the Alaskan Territory and Alaska, where he is to make an extensive tour and inspection of im-

the far and rolling industries, both of which are under the jurisdiction of his department. The secretary will do

THREE AMERICAN SHIPS GUARD MEXICAN COAST.

Washington, July 16.—American warships continue to stand guard over American interests in the Mexican gulf and Pacific ports. The battleship South Carolina swings at anchor in the harbor of Tampico, and the battleships Michigan, Louisiana and New Hampshire are at Vera Cruz.
Three vessels remain on duty constantly in the two gulf ports, while the fourth serves as a relief, giving officers and men of the several vessels opportunity for shore leave at Galveston, Texas. On the Pacific side the cruiser Pittsburgh is at Guaymas and the Denver is at Topolobampo.

KOREAN PLOTTERS COULD NOT RECRUIT ASSASSINS.

Tai Ku, Korea, July 16.—In sentencing to six years imprisonment Baron Yush Shi Ho, a former Korean cabinet minister, and five other Koreans charged with attempted assassination of Governor General Terachi, the court of appeals found that the defendants secretly plotted in Seoul in 1910 to kill the governor general.
As a measure of preparation the judge said three of the defendants were dispatched to the provinces to recruit executors of the plot but no assassins were found, hence the conspiracy failed.

TWO MORE TEXANS GO TO ST. LOUIS BROWNS.

Houston, Texas, July 16.—That Charles Barrett's stay in this section was by no means remunerative is reported by Con Lucid, the veteran coach of the Buffaloes. Barrett has obtained for the St. Louis Americans Johnson of the Eleven-hundred Johnson is regarded by the Browns' as scout as one of the most brilliant in fielders he has ever seen.
Wiley Taylor has twice gone up to the big league, but despite his two returns his mechanical experience makes him look like a star.

RAINS IN OHIO EQUAL THOSE OF FLOOD SEASON.

Columbus, July 16.—Although the total of rainfall in Central Ohio and the Muskingum valley for the last two days has approximated that which caused the disastrous Ohio floods of last March, weather bureau observers today announced no further serious rise of the streams in those sections need be feared. Train service and interurban traffic continued uncertain but railroad officials asserted that practically normal conditions would be resumed during the day.

to Wed, End Lives—Only 17 Years Old

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, July 16.—Miss Edna Dodson of Kemp, Texas, died last night at Arlington from the effects of poison. She left a note. Her death follows that of Willie Record, her sweetheart, who took his own life last month at her home in Kemp.
It was the dying wish of the boy that she live with his parents. It is said parental objection prevented a wedding and led to the double suicide.

BODY OF SERGEANT-AT-ARMS OF HOUSE IS RECOVERED.

By Associated Press.
Mason, Texas, July 16.—The body of C. E. Burkes, formerly sergeant-at-arms of the Texas legislature, who was drowned in Llano River near here yesterday with his fiancée, Miss Essie Gammel, was recovered late last night. Burkes' body will be taken to Belton today for burial.
Mr. Burkes was an expert swimmer. Miss Gammel got in deep water and in trying to rescue her both went down. The girl floated on down the river and her body was soon recovered. Miss Gammel was the daughter of John W. Gammel, a retired stockman of this place. He was formerly deputy county clerk.
Mr. Burkes was of statewide prominence having been sergeant-at-arms of the last legislature and was recently appointed Deputy United States Marshal with headquarters at Waco. Mr. Burkes had been a guest at the Gammel home the past few days.

OWEN WOULD PREVENT FUTURE FILIBUSTERING

Says Measure Not Introduced Because of Any Fear of Tactics Against Tariff Bill

Washington, July 16.—Senator
Owen introduced an amendment to the Senate rules which he said would put an end to filibusters in that body. It is entitled "The Closure Resolution, or the resolution to terminate the right of minority vote, and the adoption of the measure, he said it was not introduced because of any fear of a fil-buster against the tariff bill.
"I wish it to be clearly understood,"
he said, "that my demand for a change in the rules of the Senate is not at all due to the idea that the adoption of such a rule is necessary to pass the tariff bill or any other particular bill pending or to be brought forward. My reason for this demand is that I think the welfare of the Nation requires it."

RESOLUTION FOLLOWS

The resolution as presented reads:
"That debate or dilatory motions which in the opinion of the Senate are intended to prevent a majority of the Senate from exercising the full and free right to control any matter pending before the Senate, either in legislative or executive session, may be terminated by a vote of a majority of the members of the Senate upon notice given by the Senate.
"Provided, however, that this rule shall not be invoked to prevent reasonable debate by any Senator who requests an opportunity to express his views upon such pending matter within a time to be fixed by the Senate."
"The notice given by the Senate upon this section, except by consent, shall not be less than a week, unless such request be made within the last two weeks of the session."
The Oklahoma Senator declared "the rule of the Senate has been such as to prevent action, to put the power in the hands of a small fraction or of a single individual, to obstruct legislation without reason, and to prevent action by Congress in response to the National will."
Senate Rules of Conduct
"And many a good bill has died in this way," he added. "The Senate of the United States has rules for its conduct, that make it almost impossible to get a bill through, except by unanimous consent, where a resolute minority is opposed to the passage of the bill. Under the so-called privilege of freedom of debate a group of Senators can hold up any measure indefinitely by endless talk in relays and by the use of dilatory motions, reading an hour or so from Martin Chuzzlewit or Pickwick papers and reading a few chapters of Huckleberry Finn—said this privilege conduct is dignified by the false pretense of being 'freedom of debate,' when it is nothing of the kind. It is the minority vote under false pretense of freedom of debate under the contemptible and odious pretense of freedom of debate."
"This thoughtless rule of unlimited freedom of debate was adopted in 1806, when there were twenty-six Senators, who met to discuss their common affairs, when only a very few bills were brought before the Senate and who had no conception that unlimited freedom of debate really meant a minority veto."

NEGRO HELD IN ANGLETON CASE

SPECIAL TERM OF DISTRICT COURT MAY BE HELD TO CONSIDER CASE

HUSBAND GIVEN RELEASE

Negro Is Convict Trusty Who Was Alone All Day at House Near Scene of Crime

By Associated Press.
Angleton, Texas, July 16.—After investigation of all facts in connection with the outrage of a murder and murder of Mrs. J. M. Seltz of Post City last Wednesday night, Sheriff Wright has released the woman's husband and all other prisoners except Jim Duffie, the negro convict trusty who was alone at a suspected house all day Wednesday and Wednesday night while the family was absent.
This house was nearest to the place where the body was found.
Sheriff Wright said today:
"I will not file a formal charge of murder against Duffie, but I have communicated with Judge Stiles and he will lose no time in convening a special term of the district court for his possible indictment and trial. We are convinced that we have solved the mystery and are ready to lay our cases against Duffie before the court."
By Associated Press.
Richmond, Va., July 16.—Blossom
Browning paid a $50 fine in court here today for wearing a slit skirt and declared she intended to go to New York at once, "where people are not prudish."
She was charged with indecent exposure. The skirt, slit knee high, and held by the police as evidence, was restored to Miss Browning on her promise to sew up the slit or not appear again on the streets of Richmond without a petticoat.
Miss Browning's lawyer argued the sale of the skirt by a licensed department store, permitted her to wear it.
The judge replied that a city license for the sale of firearms did not permit the sale of the skirt, but inspection of the offending skirt, blushing to the defendant, who paid with the report that "Richmond is a most liberal city." The court was packed with the most select audience it had ever held.

PHILIPPINE QUESTION CAUSES SOME CONCERN

Whom to Appoint as Governor General of Islands Is Problem for President

Washington, July 16.—The administration is giving serious consideration to the choice of a governor general for the Philippines and two other places in the Philippine commission.
Many well known names have been urged upon the president for the governor generalship, but that of O.
T. Crosby of Warrenton, Va., is considered the most likely to be sent to the Senate at an early date, according to present belief.
President Wilson had Secretary Garrison of the war department at a conference on the Philippine question.
The selection of a governor general and other members of the commission is regarded as a preliminary step to the choice of a governor general policy toward the islands. In public speeches prior to his administration, Mr. Wilson made favorable allusion to the pending bill of Representative Jones of Virginia, providing for ultimate independence. The measure has been before Congress for several years without making much progress. With the tariff and currency absorbing attention, determination of the policy toward the Philippines has been deferred.
Meaning the choice of a governor general and other commission officials is felt to be desirable in order that they may be on the ground when the larger questions of policy are taken up later on.
The resignation of Prof. Dean Conant Worcester, Secretary of the interior in the Philippine government, was received today by the administration.

INTRODUCES BILLS FOR RELIEF OF BORDER VICTIMS.

Washington, July 16.—Representative Smith of Texas introduced two bills for the payment of $100,000 and $200,000 to the American injured during the fighting in Juarez and Agua Prieta. The army commission found in favor of certain claimants to the extent of $75,000 and found against the claimants whose claims aggregated $150,000.
Representative Smith's bills provide for the payment of each set of claims by the United States government and that the president shall request Mexico to reimburse this country for money which the bills seek to appropriate for claimants.

drafts issued to Mason and upon which payment was stopped, reported to Judge Martin this morning at ten o'clock that it had been unable to reach a verdict. It stood at that time since to three, but whether for pleadite or defense was not stated. Judge Martin instructed the jurors to retire again and consider the case further.
No verdict had been returned up to 3:30 this afternoon.

MULHALL TELLS ABOUT HIS WORK

MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION'S OPPOSITION TO LABOR
FURTHER EXPLAINED

RAISING OF LARGE FUND

Another Organization Had Collected Large Amount, He Says, to Carry on Fight

By Associated Press.
Washington, July 16.—Martin H.
Mulhall brought the story of his lobbying activities for the National Association of Manufacturers before the committee today.
"The association wanted Miles and Schwedman on the commission and wanted to control it themselves."
He did not explain who Miles was.
Schwedman was secretary to President Van Cleave of the association.
J. E. Emery, counsel for the manufacturers wrote Mulhall on January 16, 1908:
"Doubtless you know we had a issue on the floor of the House last Saturday where an attempt was made by the democrats, under cover of an amendment to the conspiracy provision of the revised statutes, to epscot some of the worst features of the extreme labor legislation now before the judiciary committee. Our friends stood firm and the attempt to make powerful friends were squelched in the most admirable way and very happily, a Democrat, Swager Shirley of Kentucky, took the chief part in the defense of the existing laws and against the proposed amendment."
Another letter from Mulhall written at Indianapolis July 17, 1908 to Schwedman, reported how "Mr. Watson has a large majority of the machine under his control. The convention of the miners will be held here on the 21st. They certainly expect Gompers, Duncan and others.
Three of the district presidents from the anthracite district are my personal friends. I feel I might be able to do good work through those gentlemen and it is too bad we are short of funds when the convention is coming with the opportunities for use."

INNOCENT BYSTANDER GETS STUNG, AS USUAL.

"We've got into a dispute," Chief Gwinn told the innocent bystander this afternoon, "and we want you to help us out—what do those letters on the front of that machine say?"
The chief was sitting in F. P. St.
Clair's automobile in front of the city hall with Councilman Young and Mr. St. Clair.
The innocent bystander of course was ready to help arbitrate and stepped up in front of the machine and saw the letters "I-m-p-e-r-i-a-l" as plain as any thing could be, and wondered how anybody could make any thing else out of it. In his surprise he asked as he stepped up closer to the machine, pointing to the name "You mean this right here?"
Just at this juncture somebody in the machine pressed the bulb and the horn gave out an awful honk and innocent bystander jumped about two feet into the air while everybody around him howled.
A whole lot of fellows tumbled to the sell. Chief Gwinn being the first and original fall guy.

AMBASSADOR WILSON IS CALLED TO WASHINGTON

HE COULD AND THE COMMITTEE DID NOT QUESTION HIM FURTHER.

On Dec. 21, 1901, Mulhall received this letter from President Van Cleave:
"My Dear Mr. Mulhall: You are aware that D. M. Parry, the former president of the National Association of Manufacturers, takes much interest in Indianapolis. He is very strong for Watson and I recommend that you call upon him at once with the letter of introduction attached hereto.
There is no one able to place you in closer touch with certain elements than the man to whom Mr. Parry will introduce you."
Mulhall said Parry introduced him to several leaders and he met Senator Beveridge, he said, was against Watson.
"I met Beveridge two or three times at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis," said Mulhall. "He knew Parry well. I saw him throw his arms around Parry and say he was the man who sent him to the United States Senate."

By Associated Press.
Washington, July 16.—President Wilson today after an early conference with Secretary Bryan over the latest aspects of the Mexican situation, presented by inquiries of foreign powers as to the attitude of the United States, ordered Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City to proceed to Washington for a conference.

BABY BORN ON TRAIN HAS NO NATIVE STATE.

Dallas, Texas, July 16.—The stork paid a visit to a speeding Frisco passenger train between Water, Okla., and Dallas today, leaving a ten pound boy who was promptly christened
"Edgar Frisco," the middle name being in honor of the road.
The fact that the child was born on an interstate railroad, one of the few such births recorded, raises the question as to what state he can claim as the place of his nativity, the interstate commerce commission having held such roads cannot be considered a part of any state.
The mother and child, both of whom are doing well, were hustled to a sanitarium on arrival here.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ATTITUDE

It is believed in official and diplomatic circles that an important announcement of the attitude of the United States in the pending situation will be made after the ambassador confers with the president and Secretary Bryan. The president's action day, coming closely after the unofficial announcement that some of the foreign powers who had already recognized the Huerta government were pressing for an indication of this government's attitude toward the continued disorder in Mexico, leads to that belief. Secretary Bryan possibly declined to add any information to his brief announcement of Ambassador Wilson's call to Washington. However, it is assumed that the administration desires to learn from the ambassador directly what influence actuated the foreign diplomatic representatives in Mexico when they jointly agreed to address their governments with what amounted to a formal complaint against the attitude of the United States in its relations with the Huerta regime.

WILSON WANTS INFORMATION

President Wilson has kept an open mind on the subject, but is believed to feel himself bound to adhere to the policy he announced early in his administration of lending moral encouragement only to revolutionary movements in Latin-America as were founded upon constitutional law and practice. However, it is understood that he is ready to give due weight to any representation Ambassador Wilson may care to make. The president has had the benefit of private reports from several of this personal friends who have traveled in Mexico recently, but they were unofficial and not sufficient to form the basis of a formal attitude if there is to be any change in policy.

SECRETARY BRYAN WAS ASKED IF THE COMING AMBASSADOR WILSON WOULD CHANGE HIS PROJECTED LECTURE TOUR. HE REPLIED:

"The newspaper men might have assumed that my lecture tour could not interfere with business instead of assuming that it would. All my lecture dates were made subject to cancellation."

OIL RESIDUE FOR BUILDING ROADS

D. P. TALLEY BRINGS SUGGESTION BACK FROM CORPUS CHRISTI MEETING

MAY MAKE EXPERIMENT

Report is made at Session of Chamber of Commerce Directors Held this Morning

That Wichita county was overlooking a mighty good road making material in the residue from the oil storage tanks was the opinion expressed by R. J. Potts, road expert of the A. & M. College to D. P. Talley, Wichita Falls delegate to the Good Roads Congress at Corpus Christi last week.

Mr. Talley's report of the Corpus Christi meeting was an interesting feature of the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning.

Mr. Talley said that in a conversation with Mr. Potts the latter said that heavy oil such as he understood the residue from the oils at Electra and Burkburnett to be used were mostly asphalt which when mixed with sand of the proper character made one of the best roads that could be obtained.

A particularly interesting feature of the convention, Mr. Talley said, was a school of instruction in road building conducted by government experts.

EXPECTS PROMPT ACTION ON APPROPRIATION BILL

CORPORATIONS PROSPER MORE THAN EVER BEFORE

Earn Over Three Billion Dollars Above All Expenses in 1912, Government Figures Show

By Associated Press. Washington, July 15.—Corporations of the United States earned $3,204,000,000 above all expenses in 1912, according to a calendar year of 1913 exceeding all records since the enactment of the corporation tax law by $400,000,000.

The increased prosperity of the corporations is expected to yield the federal government more than $36,000,000.

Texas corporations assessments for 1912 totaled $801,554, an increase of $159,535 over the previous year.

KANSAS FARMERS WAGING FIGHT ON GRASSHOPPERS

Dodge City, Kansas, July 15.—Nearly 1,000 Ford county farmers were up early today, each with 100 pounds of poisoned bran, to fight the grasshoppers which have done so much crop damage in this vicinity in the last three weeks.

The county commissioners authorized the trustees of the townships to distribute a quantity of grasshopper poison to every farmer in the county who would avail himself of the opportunity to make the experiment.

This was the day named on which an organized fight against the pest should begin.

Mr. Woodall, the dairyman whose farm is about a mile up the river on the north side is building two large silos, which he will fill with maize and squaw corn of which he has a good yield ready to be put into the silos.

What You Should Take When You go Abroad

New York, July 12.—The first part of July finds many fortunates aboard a steamer en route to the old land. Those who have already made the trip will require no advice as to dress.

What to take along by way of clothes is a much discussed and very vital question. There are those who go abroad and remain three or four months, with only a handbag for the necessary toilet articles, one nightgown and one silk, usually white, shirt waist.

They are free to drink in the beauties of mountain, valley, castle, garden and gallery, with no thought of whether trunks have arrived or are held up at the border.

They are fulfilling the old adage that "one is free only when without possessions," but, notwithstanding all these advantages, there are also many disadvantages.

They miss much of social life, which is one of the purposes of all travel. It is no longer customary to wear last year's winter suit in mid-ocean.

The trunk containing steamer rug, woollens and suit may be stored on landings and traveling suit or frock of a shade which ignores dust, such as gray, tan or brown and of serviceable material, preferably ratine, is denoted.

It is advisable that it be fashioned with pleats, as this gives a much more finished and smarter appearance. If the suit is given the preference, it will be equally smart fashioned with Bolero jacket or Balkan blouse. The Bolero is made on the unfitted lines easily developed at home. It has large revers, and may be made of light weight cloth, or, invariably, however, buttons decorate the outer edges.

The question naturally arises, what more should the traveling case contain? First of all, toilet articles. These and fresh linen are of vast importance. Of cold cream, there should be a plenty, for grimy face, throat and arms and cologne for spraying as a tonic over the cream cleansed skin.

Of underwear as few pieces as possible should be carried. Vests and drawers may be knitted or of silk and, if desired, may be washed overnight in one's room.

One daily petticoat for wear with the evening gown described will be necessary. White crepe de Chine or batiste with flounce of shadow lace, is preferably for this purpose.

A petticoat of navy blue pongee, surah silk or crepe de Chine would be suitable for wear with the navy blue silk frock.

Three pairs of shoes and one pair of easy slippers should suffice. These should be accustomed to the feet before sailing, as continuous standing and tramping are very fatiguing both to feet and limbs.

A half dozen pairs of hose, matching in tone either shoes or frocks, a dozen handkerchiefs, three or four corsets and two nightgowns of either cotton, crepe, or crepe de Chine or wash silk, will be sufficient for the woman who attempts to see either Europe or America in a suit case.

Farmers are taking considerable interest in the exhibit of agricultural products to be held here early in the fall under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

South from Paris or Germany to Southern France, Italy and Tyrol only light weight clothing can be tolerated. A gown such as this of the second illustration for midsummer climates will be much appreciated.

When the waist scarf is discarded, it is suitable either for traveling or sightseeing. The addition of the early colored scarf makes it sufficiently dressy for luncheon at the hotel, or afternoon tea on the piazza, or in the garden tea rooms, of which there are so many delightful ones throughout all Europe.

It was developed in navy blue summer silk of soft flexible quality. The scarf is of Cubist silk, with turquoise blue background and tomato red, green and yellow motifs. The drapery at the left side of the skirt is very stylish.

REPEAL OF ROAD TAX ASKED OF LEGISLATURE

The commissioners court of Wichita county Tuesday adopted a resolution in which they requested Governor Colquitt to submit to the legislature at the coming called session the matter of amending the road laws so as to provide for the maintenance of the roads by a direct ad valorem tax and the abolition of the present system of compelling citizens to work the roads.

The resolution which was adopted by a unanimous vote followed a discussion of the unsatisfactory experience of members of the court in the operation of this law and the hardships it worked on laboring men least able to give the time to the roads and who properly received less benefit than property owners who were exempted on account of their age.

ONE NATION WANTS TO KNOW WHAT UNITED STATES IS GOING TO DO

MUST SHOW HAND

Failure to Recognize Huerta Government May Cause Europe to Protect Her Citizens

By Associated Press. Washington, July 15.—Already one of the great European powers through its diplomatic representative here, has called the attention of Secretary Bryan to the chaotic conditions in Mexico, and the effect upon the welfare and safety of its citizens there with a polite inquiry as to what the United States proposes to do about it.

Whether the inquiry was part of a concerted movement by European powers to bring the state department to a declaration of its purpose toward Mexico, did not develop today. Reports from the City of Mexico, however, appear to warrant the conclusion. Until recently, President Wilson has attached little importance to rumors of outside influence being brought to bear to cause the United States to recognize the Huerta government. It is believed to be apparent now that there must be very soon some official declaration in order to reassure the European powers of the protection of their citizens and subjects against pecuniary loss by the continuance of present conditions.

Falling short of a declaration, some of them may feel themselves free to take steps to restore peace.

Asked today whether any foreign power had made representations regarding the situation in Mexico, Secretary Bryan flatly declined to discuss the subject in any way. Nevertheless, it is known that one power has made inquiry into the absence of any announcement from the state department none of the diplomats would make a statement today that could be quoted with authority.

Administration Not Alarmed. While maintaining a state of preparedness for all contingencies that may arise in the Mexican situation, the administration refuses to show perturbation over the alarming reports that find their way into the newspaper dispatches from Mexico City. President Wilson made it clear that affairs in Mexico are giving no alarm; that all official advice indicate that Americans are being safeguarded both by the Huerta administration and the American diplomatic representatives.

Subsequently the state department made public some of the reassuring official dispatches. One of these dispatches told how the Huerta government had blocked an attempted anti-American demonstration. Another dispatch told of the prompt response of the revolutionists in the northern part of the country to the demand of the state and war departments for the immediate release of the Hazelrigg party at Hidalgo. In this connection a telegram was received today by Secretary Bryan from J. B. Hazelrigg at Laredo, Texas, expressive of his deep appreciation for the prompt action of the state department and of Consul Garrett in effecting the release of Mr. Hazelrigg's brother, two sons and the nine cowboys who had been captured by the Mexican insurrectionary party on the border and acknowledged on behalf of his business associates and friends the solicitude which the secretary has shown for Americans and American interests in Mexico.

Reports of Movements. As to the military movements in Mexico between the federalists and the revolutionists and the successes and failures, the state department has received considerable information today. From Eagle Pass it is reported that Gen. Maas and Lopez have occupied Monclova and that the revolutionists under Carranza and his brothers are retreating toward Cuatro Ciénegas and Hernandez. Many refugees and wounded have arrived in Ciudad Porfirio Diaz.

The railway between Monclova and Ciudad Porfirio Diaz was reported on July 12 as still in the hands of the Carrancistas, and though it was difficult to obtain reliable information, Consul Ellsworth reported that an important battle was anticipated near Monclova.

From Saltillo it is reported that Monclova was occupied by the federalists on July 11, the revolutionists having retreated north.

From Frontera it is reported that the southern section of the State of Tabasco is peaceful, but the northern part is invaded by bands of marauders. Some American plantations located within eight miles of Frontera are in the area of disturbances.

TEXANS RETURN FROM CENTRAL AMERICAN TRIP. New Orleans, July 15.—A party of eleven Texans including representatives of commercial interests of Galveston, Houston and Fort Worth arrived from Central America today. They studied trade conditions in every country in Central America and visited the canal zone with the view of being better informed of the situation after the canal is opened. The trip lasted four weeks.

EL PASO SHIPPERS GET MORE EQUILIBERATES. El Paso, Texas, July 15.—A decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission was received here today cutting rates on land substitutes between El Paso and Albuquerque from fifty cents to thirty-two cents per hundred pounds and to other New Mexico points in the same ratio. A complaint was made by an El Paso manufacturer on these substitutes that Fort Worth could put their products into Albuquerque for 53 1/2 cents a hundred while the El Paso concern paid 57 cents for 253 miles.

MASON-PRODUCERS CASE IS NOW BEING ARGUED

Will Reach Jury Late Today—Case Taken Interesting Turn at Monday's Session

The case of George W. Mason vs. the City National Bank, in which the Producers' Oil company intervened, and which involves the title to a slight acreage, was taken up by the court late yesterday.

This case is an outgrowth of the noted Overall leases, which have already been the subject of some litigation, and which promise to be of the basis of still more. J. H. Mathis and Judge Robert John of counsel for the Producers, testified last night that Mason had declared to them that the contents of H. A. Overall as to the manner in which the leases were taken, were true. They testified, however, that the next day Mason withdrew the statement. The attorneys also declared that Mason had said that the Producers company knew how the leases were taken.

Overall had alleged in his suit for cancellation of the leases that Mason had secured them by a certain "slight of hand" performance. When Mason was tried for forgery, the state was unable to show the alleged ledger-main or juggling and Mason was acquitted. The oil company's attorneys now testify that Mason admitted to them that Overall's contention was correct, although he later said that if he had made such a statement he did not know what he was doing; yesterday on the stand he denied making any such statement to Judge Mathis or Judge John at all.

Testimony in the case was concluded this morning and argument is in progress this afternoon. When Mason sold the lease to the Producers, he received a check for $7,500, taking $1,250 in cash and $6,250 in exchange before the exchange was cashed. The Overall allegations about the taking of the lease were made and payment of the exchange was stopped; Mason is now suing to recover this $6,250 from the City National; and the Producers Company intervened in the case, alleging fraud. The case will probably go to the jury late today.

REPUBLICANS GOT N. A. M. SUPPORT

MULHALL GIVES FURTHER DETAILS OF ASSOCIATION'S POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

HOUSE PROBE MONDAY

Senate Committee Wins Fight for Possession of Mulhall, the Star Witness

By Associated Press. Washington, July 12.—When the Senate and House lobby investigators adjourned today, the fight for possession of Martin M. Mulhall, J. M. McMichael and other witnesses still was in progress, with the odds strongly favoring Chairman Overman and his Senate committee. The Overman committee adopted a technical measure of safety to allow Mulhall to get out of town over Sunday by remaining in session until after he boarded a two o'clock train for New York.

Chairman Overman was prepared to resume the investigation this afternoon if the House committee had made any attempt to stop Mulhall or subpoena him for immediate testimony before the Garner committee. Overtures for peace from both sides passed back and forth by special messengers during the day, and on the last exchange of courtesies late this afternoon it seemed certain the House investigators would be given an opportunity to start work next week with McMichael or some other witness provided they made a respectful request upon the Senate committee for his production. If McMichael is put on the stand by the House committee, that body will plunge at once into the Mulhall charges, that system work was done in the House by the Manufacturers Association. Mulhall alleged McMichael received $20 weekly and extra amounts to secure information when McMichael was chief of the House pages and that he used the staff of pages to aid him.

Mulhall Again Testifies. The House committee issued subpoenas for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Springer of Baltimore, the parents of Mrs. Martin M. Mulhall. The Senate committee today secured the identification of nearly two hundred additional letters and documents furnished by Mulhall on his activities as a representative of the National Association of Manufacturers in 1904, 1905 and 1906. Mulhall identified letters showing his relations with Marshall Cushing, secretary of the association of manufacturers. He testified how he worked to defeat the late Senator McComas of Maryland, although he posed as the senator's friend. He said he had received five hundred letters from Cushing directed against McComas. He added: "I turned them over to Carl M. Downs, secretary to McComas."

"Do you mean you delivered these letters against McComas to his secretary?" asked Senator Reed. "The witness replied that Downs was in the possession of the letters," said he (Mulhall) quarreled with Cushing because he was "buying out" the secretary of a senator. A letter to Senator Foraker in September 1904 referred to a suggestion that Mulhall go to the United States to help Senator Aldrich in his campaign. He testified he went later at the request of Aldrich. Aldrich, he said, "asked me to get in touch with labor men and get their support." A letter of identification for H. C. Kurten, given by the Council of Allied Building Trades of Philadelphia, was offered in evidence. It was signed by Kurten as secretary. Mulhall said Kurten was engaged in the fight against William Hughes, then a representative and now a senator from New Jersey.

"Were you sent to help beat Hughes by the National Association of Manufacturers?" asked Mr. Reed. "Yes, sir."

"Why did they want to beat Hughes?"

"On account of his holding a union card, being attached with the American Federation of Labor, and his activity on the floor of the House and with the labor leaders in Washington."

Work in Rhode Island For Aldrich. Kurten was given credentials, Mulhall said, so that he could get into labor union meetings to oppose Hughes. Mulhall identified a letter from James R. Ridge, outlining work done by Ridge among Rhode Island labor unions in 1904, in behalf of Aldrich's candidacy. Mulhall testified to giving Ridge a check, he got from Cushing, secretary for the manufacturers, to help Aldrich in his campaign for re-election.

In a letter about Ridge, it was said, "The senator is well pleased with the work of your friend."

A reference to President Taft came in connection with notes on the back of one of the Mulhall envelopes, giving five names submitted to Mulhall by Senator Foraker to hand to President Taft at an interview Mulhall was to have with the president. The committee did not develop that point further.

The Work Against Hughes. Mulhall went to Patterson to aid Hughes' opponent. He hired six union men to work against Hughes and paid them altogether about $1800, which came from the National Association of Manufacturers. Mulhall said he had possession of 75,000 circulars sent in to the district by the American Federation of Labor to aid Hughes and turned them over to the Republican campaign committee.

"You bribed men to vote against Hughes," asked Senator Reed. "I don't know whether you call it bribery or not. They were paid a weekly salary; that is what they called it. It has been done by both parties for years."

Generally Supported Republicans. This referred to the money paid the six union men. Senator Reed asked if the National Association of Manufacturers supported "generally into politics" and supported the Republican organization, or whether it singled out individual men throughout the country whom it supported. NEW WELL GOOD FOR 500 BBLs.

PRODUCERS NO. 47 WAGONER BEST COMPLETION FOR THE WEEK AT ELECTRA

RUMOR DISAPPOINTING

Fifty-five Feet of Sand in Well on Ayers Farm Fails to Yield Viscous Fluid

A report that oil had been struck on the Ayers farm, where a well is being drilled by local talent, caused a rush to that vicinity yesterday morning, but net results were disappointing. There was fifty-five feet of unbroken sand at a depth slightly below 1500 feet, but no oil was in evidence.

Coriscana No. 1-Owens, in the Burk Burnett field, is among the week's completions; it is making eighteen barrels.

J. W. Dyson et al. No. 3 Hortoin and Walker made a small well at 1150 but not enough to satisfy the owners and is being drilled deeper.

Producers No. 47 Wagoner is good for about 500 barrels in the 1100 foot sand at Electra, being completed late Friday. This is the best well in the field at that depth.

Allen and Fisher No. 3 George, in the shallow sand at Burk Burnett, has been completed and is making about twelve barrels.

IN THE BURK BURNETT DISTRICT.

While the past week has brought forth nothing spectacular or unexpected in the field, there have been several new locations made, and three completions, all of which, was confined to proven territory.

Coriscana Petroleum Company's Gullett No. 2 was finished the first of the week and falls below the average well in production, as it is only good for about 25 or 30 barrels, though it is said that it is getting better each week.

Allen-Fisher's George No. 4 was finished in the shallow sand and is good for about 15 barrels.

Coriscana Petroleum Company, Owens No. 1 is now in the sand and will probably be finished today. They have a fine showing and it is believed that it will be good for 100 barrels.

Guffey Oil Company's Roller No. 2 is shut down at a depth of about 1000 feet.

The Producers Company is rigging up on Mrs. George's farm, one mile north of Riley No. 1.

McBride, Chenault No. 4 is drilling at a depth of about 300 feet.

A new location has been made on the J. B. Evans farm by the Coriscana Petroleum Company. This location is east of Riley No. 1.

Coriscana Petroleum Company, S. P. Hawkins No. 1 is still a derrick. Several wells are nearing the pay sand and will probably be finished by the coming week, among them being McBride, Chenault No. 3; Coriscana Petroleum Company, Schmocker No. 4 and Warren No. 1.

The Burk Burnett Oil Company is installing a pump station on the Harding tract which will be used for pumping their shallow production on this lease.

J. W. Fowler Under Arrest and E. N. Fowler Taken to His Home After Affray

J. W. Fowler is under arrest and E. N. Fowler is seriously injured, as a result of a difficulty between the two men, who are brothers, early yesterday afternoon at the J. W. Fowler home between this city and Lake Wichita. J. W. Fowler sustained a knife wound in his left arm and his nose was also injured. He was released last night on $2500 bond after a charge of assault, a murder had been sworn out against him.

His brother, E. N. Fowler, was reported resting fairly well last night; he was struck with a piece of plank and it was thought for a time that the injury was a fatal one. He was attended by Dr. Shirley of this city and it is thought he will recover.

E. N. Fowler could not, and J. W. Fowler would not, discuss the cause of the difficulty, further than to say that the trouble began the previous evening when there was some sort of difficulty between the children of the respective families. Yesterday morning E. N. Fowler and his brother-in-law, Frank Hawkins, went to the J. W. Fowler home and the difficulty followed. Deputy Sheriff McFall and Curran made the arrest. E. N. Fowler was taken to his home, and his brother was brought to the court house where he made bond.

The affair occurred at what is known as the old McIntyre place between Wichita Falls and Lake Wichita. It is said that there had never been blood between the brothers until Friday evening, when the children engaged in a dispute of some kind, which was taken up by the elders.

Port Worth—R. J. Harrell of Grandview, recently purchased from Miss M. J. Bell of this city, a farm near Port Worth, containing 316 acres. The consideration was $31,600.

FINAL PROPOSAL IN PEACE PLAN

BRYAN WOULD HAVE DISPUTANTS MAINTAIN MILITARY STATUS QUO

HE SUBMITS PROPOSAL

Outline of Third and Final Proposal Given to Representatives of 39 Nations

By Associated Press. Washington, July 12.—A proposal to maintain the status quo as to military and naval preparations among disputants during the period of investigation of international difficulties constitutes the third and final proposal in Secretary Bryan's peace plan.

In making that portion of the plan public today, Secretary Bryan said that the obligation to maintain the status quo would not be obligatory in the event of danger to either of the two contracting parties from a third party. In that event, he said, the party feeling itself menaced by a third party, should confidentially communicate the matter in writing to the other contracting party and should be released from the obligation not to change its military or naval program.

The proposal was submitted to the twenty nations which have accepted Bryan's plan in principle, as well as to the other nineteen nations not yet heard from.

PIONEER WICHITA FALLS WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. M. E. Harris Who Came Here Before Railroad Passed Away at Dallas Yesterday

Mrs. M. E. Harris, one of the earliest settlers of Wichita Falls, who came here with her husband and family in 1878 several years before the railroad was built, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Van Dorn, in Dallas Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. She was 78 years of age. The funeral service will be held at the home of Mrs. Van Dorn Sunday evening at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Harris was the mother of W. T. Harris the dairyman, Mrs. C. M. Bryan and Miss Bette Harris all of this city.

With her husband, who died twelve or fifteen years ago she ran the old Harris hotel that occupied the site that was later occupied by the old Fort Worth & Denver depot that was torn down several years ago. Later they purchased what was known as the "Jersey farm." Their last residence here was at the corner of Fifteenth and Travis streets in the house formerly owned by Jeff Wagoner.

After Mr. Harris' death Mrs. Harris made her home in Dallas where she had lived before coming to Wichita Falls.

Some half hidden in the mesquite brush that covered the townsite when Mrs. Harris came to Wichita Falls there were only a few little wild turkey, antelope and prairie

NO NEW DEVELOPEMENTS IN ANGLETON TRAGEDY

By Associated Press. Angleton, Texas, July 12.—The start of the third day after the finding of the mutilated and outraged remains of Mrs. J. N. Seitz of Post, Texas, in a valley here, was practically without new developments, according to Sheriff Wright, who made this statement: "I am holding Mr. Melitz; I also have three negroes in custody; no formal complaints have been filed against any of them. I have thus far secured no trace of the missing shoes, parasol, purse and hand-bag. I will state, however, that my belief is that Mrs. Seitz met death by strangulation, and that the four stiletto wounds, all of which penetrated her heart, were inflicted after death. I base this on the fact that she worked about the nearest residence where the body was found and who was the only person who admits he was working Wednesday just across the hedge from where the body was found and from whose mouth a tooth is missing and the general outline of which corresponds to imprints on the body of Mrs. Seitz; the other negro is a stranger here. He also was seen near the spot where the body was found."

TRAINMEN DEFER STRIKE ACTION

AT CONFERENCE SATURDAY FINANCIAL ACTION ON RATIFYING VOTE POSTPONED

TO MEET WITH WILSON

Decision as to Strike Will Probably be deferred Until After Conference

By Associated Press. New York, July 12.—Representatives of the 100,000 trainmen and conductors who threaten the eastern railroads with a strike for a wage increase deferred formal ratification of the strike vote at a conference concluded last night. A. B. Garretson, head of the Trainmen's Brotherhood said tonight the leaders were undecided whether to approve the vote at a meeting to be held tomorrow. In view of the conference called for Monday in Washington to be attended by President Wilson and other government officials at which efforts are to be made to avert an industrial conflict.

GREECE DEAF TO PEACE PROPOSAL

KING CONSTANTINE DECLARES PEACE MUST BE CONCLUDED ON BATTLEFIELD

RUSSIA'S PLANS FAIL

TURKEY JOINS GREECE AND SERVA AGAINST BULGARIANS—LATTER SUFFER FURTHER ROUTS

By Associated Press. Athens, July 12.—It is semi-officially announced that the Greek government has replied to the Russian proposal for the cessation of hostilities that peace must be concluded on the battlefield. The proposal was supported by Great Britain and France.

By Associated Press. London, July 12.—King Constantine's protest to the civilized world against Bulgarian atrocities destroys the last hope of those who believed that Russia would succeed in inducing the belligerents to accept arbitration. The spectators of the struggle have been confident throughout that Serbia would prove amenable to the counsels for moderation in view of the appalling losses she sustained in ejecting the Bulgarians from Macedonia, but they were less hopeful that Greece would listen to reason as her people and army are obviously intoxicated by the victories over the dread Bulgars.

In his protest the Greek king says: "I see myself compelled to wreak vengeance in order to inspire these monsters with terror and make them reflect before committing more outrages of this sort."

The strength of King Constantine's language and dispatches from Constantinople tonight indicate that Bulgaria may not merely be stripped of the fruit of her victory over the Turks, but possibly may have to submit to the dismantling of her own territory, for Roumania is credited with the intention of annexing a larger strip than she at first proclaimed while Turkey is joining hands with Serbia and Greece, and has already ordered her troops to advance.

Beyond briefly chronicling the unopposed view of the Roumanian government, Sofia maintains a significant silence regarding the operations of Servians and Greeks.

Rumor of Revolution in Bulgaria

By Associated Press. London, July 12.—A Vienna dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says: "It is rumored here, but not confirmed, that a revolution has broken out in Sofia and that King Ferdinand has been assassinated." (The secretary of the Bulgarian legation said late tonight he had received no message from Sofia indicating a revolutionary outbreak, or that the king had been assassinated.)

Whole Bulgarian Troops Driven Back

By Associated Press. Belgrade, July 12.—A semi official statement reports that throughout Friday along the entire front from Saitchar to Radovitch, a distance of about three hundred miles, the Bulgarians were compelled to retreat, hotly pursued.

TURKEY DEMANDS EVACUATION BY THE BULGARIANS

By Associated Press. Constantinople, July 12.—Negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria regarding their future frontier line have been a complete failure. Turkey sent a note to the commander of the Bulgarian troops last evening, demanding that they evacuate immediately all territory south of the line running from Enos to the Aegean Sea to Midia on the Black Sea; otherwise, they would be driven out by the Turkish troops. The terms of the note permitted no temporizing. Gen. Izzet Pasha commander in chief of the Turkish army left for the front.

ED GILLIS DEAD AT VERNON HOME

OLD TIME RANCHMAN SUCCEUMBS TO OPERATION FOR APENDICITIS

PIONEER IN THIS SECTION

Located in Clay County Thirty-Five Years Ago—Funeral Held at Vernon Wednesday

E. M. Gillis, familiarly known to hundreds of friends throughout this section as "Uncle Ed," died at Vernon Wednesday following an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Gillis was an old timer in this section having been a cowboy in Clay county about thirty-five years ago. In the early eighties he bought a ranch northwest of Iowa Park where he lived until his removal to Vernon about three years ago. Like many of the pioneer cattlemen Mr. Gillis was a generous, liberal minded, hospitable man whose loyalty to his friends was proverbial. He was well known in Wichita Falls and news of his death was heard here with deep regret.

At his death Mr. Gillis was 58 years of age and besides a widow, three daughters and a son all living in Wilbarger county, he leaves two brothers at Electra and a niece, Mrs. W. E. Holder, living in Wichita Falls. His funeral was held at Vernon Thursday, Mrs. Holder going up from here to attend it.

Mr. Gillis was one of the party of cowboys and old timers including D. Phyll Taylor, who piloted former President Roosevelt on his wolf hunting expedition into the big pasture country in Oklahoma eight or nine years ago and was a great admirer of the Colonel.

He was a member of the Methodist church and belonged to one of the Woodmen orders.

THE TAXPAYER PAYS THE FREIGHT

The following is from the Dallas Democrat, a weekly newspaper ably edited by State Senator J. C. McNeel.

The Penitentiary University Amendment to be voted upon July 19 confers power on the Legislature to issue unlimited bonds without a vote of the people.

The Legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds, to be approved by the Governor, for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erect necessary buildings for the University of Texas.

The Legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds, to be approved by the Governor, for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erect necessary buildings for the University of Texas.

This amendment says that the Legislature may do these things, if it desires. That is true. Under this amendment, the Legislature can do almost anything in the way of issuing bonds.

The statement often heard that this amendment would give the Legislature the power to issue bonds without a limit is a misleading one.

$150,000 OFFER MADE MULHALL

COULD HAVE SOLD LETTERS TO MANUFACTURERS FOR THAT AMOUNT

DECLINED TO SELL THEM

Tells Committee of Association's Activities Against Gompers and Labor Forces

By Associated Press. Washington, July 14.—Martin M. Mulhall, self-styled lobbyist for ten years for the National Association of Manufacturers interrupted the Senate lobby investigation today to reply to what he declared were personal attacks upon his character and his purpose in the exposure.

He declared he had tried to sell the great mass of papers and letters which recently were published and which are now in the hands of the Senate committee. He said he had been engaged for months trying to give away this great body of correspondence.

He told the committee, "I have attempted for the past two months to give them away; I never have had in mind the questions of the money I would receive for them.

"But you did sell them later to the New York World," asked Senator Reed.

Offer From Manufacturers.

"I would like to offer further letters and witnesses on that point. I did not sell them. I fell into the hands of a gentleman named Barry, who came over to look at the letters. He has been known as a newspaper tipster. The letters were given to the New York World, but later Mr. Barry came and wanted me to break the contract with the World, saying he could get $150,000 for the letters from the National Association of Manufacturers. I said the letters were not for sale, that the National Association of Manufacturers did not have money enough to buy them, and I had no proposition of blackmail in connection with them.

At this point Mulhall's statement was interrupted by the committee. The House committee appointed to investigate the Mulhall charges was unable to proceed today.

Martin M. Mulhall continued his testimony before the Senate committee this morning. He explained the charges against him by the House committee. He said he had been known as a newspaper tipster. The letters were given to the New York World, but later Mr. Barry came and wanted me to break the contract with the World, saying he could get $150,000 for the letters from the National Association of Manufacturers.

The plan by which Mulhall and officers of the Philadelphia Typothetae proposed to break down the printer's strike in 1906, was outlined in a report Mulhall identified as one he had made for the National Association of Manufacturers. The report said: "A great many men brought up from the South to take strikers' places, but proved no good to their employers. Our plan was to get them to go out on strike also so they would become charges upon the union and help us up their funds."

Labor Candidates Opposed.

In a letter to Secretary Cushing of the National Association of Manufacturers, Mulhall wrote about a conference in March, 1906, between President Roosevelt and Samuel Gompers, a which the latter said Gompers declared that if labor were not favored more legislation labor would carry on a campaign to elect labor men to Congress.

Mulhall later wrote: "I am certainly confident that Mr. Gompers and his labor leaders can be badly checkmated if taken hold of in time. I know that if you take hold of the right way, no more delegations like the one that called with Gompers or the president will ever be gotten up and I know that the splendid organization you have got in the National Association of Manufacturers can easily put those people out of business."

Contest Between Committees.

Enlivening the interest in the lobby hunt is the game of hide and seek at the committee in the role of hidden members of the House investigating committee acting as seekers after the arch witness, Mulhall, and his ten-year pile of correspondence.

Chairman Garrett and his colleagues directed by the House to inquire into the Mulhall charges, were considerably aroused over the trick played by the Senate committee, which in Mulhall leave town for over Sunday before subpoena servers could round up the witnesses for a Saturday afternoon session with the House committee.

As matters stand now in the contest between the House and Senate for jurisdiction over the person and acts of Mulhall, the Senate claims nine points of the law, being possessor of both witness and documents, and will continue to hold them until all papers in the case have been read into the record and interpreted by Mulhall and until they are through with the witness.

The House investigators will continue to watch for an opportunity to catch Mulhall when he is not engaged before the Overman committee, and in the meantime, they are planning to examine acquaintances and relatives of the Baltimore lobbyist to get all possible information about the man and his operations from the outside sources.

SENATE BEGINS TARIFF DEBATE

MEMBER OF NORTH DAKOTA FIRES OPEN GUN FOR REPUBLICANS

ADVANCED COST OF LIVING

Extravagance, He Declares, Is Cause—Says Democrats Apparently Intend to Oppose

By Associated Press. Washington, July 14.—Senator McCumber of North Dakota opened the Republican assault on the democratic tariff revision bill in the Senate today, defending the farmers of the country against free listing or great reduction in tariff rates on agricultural products and charging the democratic party with deliberately "kicking the American farmers into the gutter."

He declared the tariff bill seemed to have been conceived in animosity against every American industry that needed protection. He said: "You declare to that farmer that the American people are paying $1,500,000,000 a year for meat and you say that is too much. He answers they are also paying $2,000,000,000 a year for liquor. Cut your liquor. Cut your liquor bill half and you will save enough to buy all your meat. You declare they are paying $438,000,000 a year for flour; he replies they are paying $600,000,000 for tobacco. You declare they are paying $225,000,000 a year for potatoes; he replies they are paying $500,000 for theatres and amusements. You declare they are paying $100,000,000 for butter and eggs; he replies they are spending $600,000,000 a year for confectionery; his replies are unanswerable and an indictment of our own criminal extravagance and high living."

You declare they are paying $438,000,000 a year for flour; he replies they are paying $600,000,000 for tobacco. You declare they are paying $225,000,000 a year for potatoes; he replies they are paying $500,000 for theatres and amusements. You declare they are paying $100,000,000 for butter and eggs; he replies they are spending $600,000,000 a year for confectionery; his replies are unanswerable and an indictment of our own criminal extravagance and high living."

McCumber declared that the tariff bill seemed to have been conceived in animosity against every American industry that needed protection. He said: "You declare to that farmer that the American people are paying $1,500,000,000 a year for meat and you say that is too much. He answers they are also paying $2,000,000,000 a year for liquor. Cut your liquor. Cut your liquor bill half and you will save enough to buy all your meat. You declare they are paying $438,000,000 a year for flour; he replies they are paying $600,000,000 for tobacco. You declare they are paying $225,000,000 a year for potatoes; he replies they are paying $500,000 for theatres and amusements. You declare they are paying $100,000,000 for butter and eggs; he replies they are spending $600,000,000 a year for confectionery; his replies are unanswerable and an indictment of our own criminal extravagance and high living."

STATE APPROPRIATIONS PROPOSED BY GOVERNOR

Bill All Ready to Submit to Legislature When Extra Session Begins

Austin, Texas, July 14.—Governor Ogilthorpe has completed the compilation of the general appropriation bill which he will submit for the consideration of the Thirty-third legislature at the coming extra session. The bill carries a total appropriation of $1,277,572, based on estimates furnished by the heads of the various departments.

This is an increase of $1,552,610 over the amount appropriated by the thirty-second legislature for the support of the state government for two past fiscal years.

The bill is divided into four parts: executive department, the eleemosynary institutions, educational institutions and the judicial department. The amount shown in the bill for the support for the next two fiscal years ending August 31, 1914, is $1,216,724 for the first and $1,245,932 for the second fiscal year.

Eleemosynary institutions first year, $1,607,645; second year, $1,437,950. Educational institutions, first year 2,206,800; second year, $1,529,950. Judicial department, first year 987,063; second year, $965,863. This makes a total of $6,098,232 for the first and $5,197,340 for the second fiscal year or a grand total for both years of $11,277,572.

The bill carries an appropriation of $256,788 for the first and $234,538 for the second fiscal year for the department of insurance and banking; for the judicial department, $103,092 for the first, and $78,380 for the second year.

The University of Texas is scheduled for $548,000 for the first and the same amount for the second year; the Agricultural and Mechanical College asks for $906,025 for the first, and $401,050 for the second fiscal year.

Mr. Boone has been pastor here for the past four years and expects to put in his time at Rochester preparing himself for some special church work.

Prominent Figures In Crisis Over Eastern Railroad Wage Question; Strike Looms Large

GASOLINE PRICE WAR NOW WAGED

DROPS FROM TWENTY TO SIXTEEN CENTS WITHIN FEW DAYS

COMPETITION IS SEVERE

Three Concerns Engaged in Fight and Cut by One is Promptly Followed by Others

Automobile riding is getting cheaper, for war is on between the big oil companies selling auto gasoline. The price last week was 20 cents per gallon at the stands in Wichita Falls. A few days ago the price was cut two cents and today there was another two cent drop.

All the companies supplying gasoline are engaged in the price cutting. It is said to have been started over an alleged secret attempt of the Texas Company to gobble up the gasoline business in Texas. The Texas Company according to this story, had issued a confidential letter giving its agents instructions to make a big cut in the price simultaneously at all points in the State. This information got out and the Pierce-Fordyce Oil Association, the Gulf Refining Company and the Magnolia Company started a real gasoline war by cutting prices all over Texas.

Any cut by one company is promptly met by the others. The Gulf Refining Company was the first to drop to 16 cents today, and the Magnolia Company met this price, and while the Pierce-Fordyce Company was still selling gasoline at 18 cents at two o'clock this afternoon, its representative here was expecting quotations for 16 cents on the afternoon mail. May be the Pierce-Fordyce Association will make the cut first the next time. No one will venture a prediction as to where the price cutting will end and it begins to look like these big companies might be giving it away before long. When they do and will furnish an automobile to put it in, every newspaper man can ride.

SUBSTITUTE WOOL BILL INTRODUCED BY SMOOT

Is Based Upon Report of Tariff Commission—Lowest Ever Offered by Republicans

AMENDMENT VOTE NEXT SATURDAY

FRIENDS AND OPPONENTS OF AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED UPON ARE ACTIVE

THE BOND AMENDMENT

Holds Center of Stage—Friends Here Perfect Organization for the Fight

With the election one week away, the friends and opponents of the constitutional amendments to be voted upon next Saturday, are actively at work in this county. Although there are several amendments, Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, relating to the issuance of bonds by the Legislature, occupies the center of interest and has apparently overshadowed the others in the discussion.

W. J. Bullock has been appointed chairman of the Wichita county organization for the amendment and is being assisted by a number of University of Texas students. The opponents are not organized, but the state organization which is handling the amendment is distributing literature and press matter.

Yesterday the voting boxes were prepared and will be distributed to the various voting places over the county this week. The voting places and the names of the judges will be announced shortly. A light vote is anticipated, especially in the country boxes and it is predicted that the vote will be light throughout the State.

American Tobacco Company Suffers $1,000,000 Loss—Consulate Are Attacked

By Associated Press. Saloniki, July 14.—The sacking and burning of the town of Seres by the defeated Bulgarian army and the atrocious outrages on women and atrocities on men, were fully confirmed today. The retreating Bulgarian soldiers opened fire with four field guns from a hill above the town on Friday. At the same time, bands of Bulgarian soldiers led by their officers, scoured the streets, first pillaging the stores and houses and then drenching them with petroleum and setting them on fire.

Even the foreign consulates were not spared. The Austro-Hungarian consulate had to pay a ransom for its liberty. The American Tobacco Company suffered $1,000,000 damages Crucified and Burned.

Many people were crucified, hacked to pieces or burned alive by the mad-dened Bulgarians who committed incredible outrages on women of all ages, many of whom died from the effects. The condition of those who escaped is lamentable. Rich merchants are dying of hunger, while wretched mothers are trying to find covering and food for their naked and starving children.

The situation is desperate, as all of the pharmacies were burned down and there is a total lack of medicines for the sick and bandages for the injured.

WILL PRESS HER SUIT FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Woman Who Alleges New York Governor Was to Have Wed Her is Determined

Philadelphia, July 14.—Miss Mignon Hopkins does not intend to abandon her suit for $30,000 damages against Governor Sulzer, according to a statement by her sister, Miss Gladys Hopkins.

Gladys Hopkins, a good looking blonde, slim of build, is the youngest of the three Hopkins sisters. The other sister, Miss Beaulieu Hopkins, is a designer in a department store.

Gladys declared there is no doubt Mr. Sulzer paid ardent suit for the hand of her sister Mignon, and it was understood by all of the latter's relatives and friends, she says, that an engagement of marriage had been agreed upon.

"My sister used to read to me some of the letters Mr. Sulzer wrote her," declared Gladys. "They were in the most endearing language and made reference to their engagement to marry. I did not see the letters personally and my sister did not read all of them to me. The governor now has declared that he has returned to him together with his presents, in fulfillment of the agreement between my sister and him that each was to send back letters and presents to the other. He also agreed to pay her $20,000 of it. If she had received it I suppose she would not now be working as a saleswoman in a department store."

"Do you recall the visits of Mr. Sulzer at your home when he called to see your sister?" "Do I?" she queried. "Well, I guess I do, for I used to let him in when a little girl and we lived at 119 Hancock street, Brooklyn. It was about ten years ago. The little fox terrier seemed to know the nights Mr. Sulzer called and would run to the door and jump all over him. I recall that he did not like the attention of the dog very much."

"Not only did he call at our home in Brooklyn to see my sister, but he used to take her out to theatres and other places of amusement in Brooklyn and New York. He was her ardent suitor in every sense of the word and he engaged himself to marry her. She will press her case at the trial. She has no intention of abandoning her suit and she will prosecute the governor to the finish."

ROADS REPLY TO MENS' ULNARTUM

WILLING TO ARBITRATE UNDER NEWLAND'S BILL BUT NOT ERDMAN ACT

REFUSE TO BE "COERCED"

Attitude Believed to Render Strike More Frequent—Action of Brotherhoods Sunday

By Associated Press. New York, July 14.—The eastern railroads involved in the wage controversy with trainmen and conductors issued a statement this afternoon through the conference committee of managers, saying they are willing to arbitrate the question at issue under provisions of the Newlands bill now before Congress, but still are unwilling to proceed under the Erdman act.

This is the road's reply to the ultimatum submitted by the unions yesterday. The statement says the railroad committee's policy never has changed, and that it has constantly refused to "be coerced through threats of strikes into paying railroad employes wages out of all proportion to the duties performed. The managers have been consistent in contending that the Erdman Act does not protect the interests of all parties concerned. Should the Newlands bill be enacted into law, the committee will of course, be willing to submit to arbitration by a board, provided in the Newlands bill, all questions of rates of pay and working conditions of conductors and trainmen."

The Employees Side. The reply is addressed to Messrs. Lee and Garretson, heads of the trainmen and conductors' organizations who last night issued a signed statement explaining the wisdom of the committee and their attitude with regard to the Washington conference.

"The committee of the various roads, acting independently of each other," says the statement, "unanimously ratified the strike vote of the membership of their respective organizations and empowered the executive officers of the organizations to fix the date for retirement from the service should the attitude of the managers' committee remain unchanged. In order that no reasonable means for effecting a friendly settlement should be neglected by us, they authorized sufficient delay in making the strike effective to permit the undersigned to attend the conference arranged for today in Washington with President Wilson, called for the consideration of the amendments to the Erdman act."

Mr. Lee announced that the railroads formally would be notified of the action of the men's committee in ratifying the strike order. The leaders declare no further overtures will be made to the government for mediation to make any concession or grant any portion of the increase in wages asked for or changed working conditions requested, and in addition have refused to submit the controversy to arbitration under the federal law governing such matters."

It remained for the employees' general committee to ratify the strike vote, which was done. According to the leaders, the railroads will be given probably until Tuesday to change their attitude, when, if they still refuse, the strike order will be issued calling $0.09 or more more from work with a possibility that this number will be augmented by thousands of engineers and firemen.

As to whether the engineers and firemen would join in a sympathetic strike, Mr. Garretson said: "The engineers and firemen are not bound to go out on strike with us. On the contrary, they are bound to remain at their posts until such time as they think their lives and the lives of their passengers are endangered by having inexperienced men on the train crew."

It had been announced that no strike would be called until all members of the general committee had had an opportunity to get to their homes. As the committeemen now homeward bound would be able to reach their destinations by Tuesday there will be nothing to prevent the issuance of a strike order that day should negotiations not be reopened. The committee will remain here to direct the strike should one be called.

TENSE SITUATION IN MEXICO CITY

ANTI-AMERICAN OUTBREAK FEARED DURING DEMONSTRATION PLANNED THERE TODAY

WILSON FILES PROTEST

American Ambassador Notifies Mexican Government U. S. Will Demand Reparation

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 12.—The American ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, has protested to the minister of foreign affairs against further anti-American demonstrations, but up to a late hour today no answer had been received at the embassy, and students who are planning to hold a demonstration tomorrow assert they will not be troubled by the authorities.

In his note to the Mexican government, the ambassador deplored that youths of the capital were to be permitted to indulge in public manifestations which were calculated to result in violence to American residents in Mexico. He indicated the danger of allowing persons to use as tools the students and others who expected to participate. He reminded the Mexican government if any Americans were injured he would demand reparation.

The number of Americans leaving for Vera Cruz was greatly augmented today. Mr. Wilson is sending frequent reports to Washington on the situation.

PERMISSION FOR DEMONSTRATION DENIED

Mexico City, July 13.—Permission to hold the demonstration Sunday has been refused by the Mexican authorities. The police have received instructions to prevent demonstrations of any kind.

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING HAS REACHED HIGH PITCH.

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 12.—An anonymous letter containing threats to blow up the United States embassy was received by Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson today and immediately referred to the Mexican foreign office for investigation. The American ambassador protested energetically to the Mexican government against permitting another anti-American demonstration.

As an indication of the fervor of patriotism that has been aroused in Mexico, the department of the interior announced today that representatives of 300,000 workmen had appealed to the government for military instruction in order that they might be ready to fight for the national cause. The newspaper, El Taliz, says it had been visited by a committee of women school teachers who offered to enter the ranks of the army in case of an international conflict. Students at the capital are organizing a demonstration for Sunday in which they have invited all classes to participate. Although the organizers have cautioned those who participate to keep order there is grave fear on the part of conservative Mexicans, and also among the American community, that a demonstration will provoke serious trouble.

Despite protests of Ambassador Wilson in regard to the attitude of the newspapers, especially El Taliz, the latter journal devotes its entire first page today to the anti-American movement, its articles being highly sensational. Editorially it cautions prudence but says the time is near when the Mexicans must fight the campaign against Hughes. Mulhall swore he United States. It urges the public not to place its confidence in anyone having provoked a war and to leave that responsibility to the United States. It declares that "a great wave of patriotic enthusiasm has been aroused throughout the country." It continues its charges against Americans and publishes the following telegram from its agent at Puebla asking for 100,000 extra copies of yesterday's paper.

GIRLS' DEATH YEAR AGO RESULTS IN MURDER CHARGE

MILTON J. KING OF BYERS PLACED UNDER ARREST HERE LAST NIGHT

INQUIRY IS MADE

Death of Marie Glascock, High School Student, Investigated and Complaint Follows

Milton J. King, a young man of Byers, Texas, was arrested here Wednesday night on a complaint charging murder in connection with the death of Marie Glascock, a student of the Wichita Falls high school, at Byers about a year ago. The filing of the complaint followed the discovery recently of some new evidence in connection with the case.

District Attorney Edgar Scurry made a trip to Byers Wednesday for personal investigation of some matters at that end and the filing of the complaint followed his visit.

King is a son of J. M. King, a merchant of Byers, and has lived there several years. He furnished bond here in the sum of $1500 with J. M. King, his father and Wiley Blair as sureties.

Marie Glascock for whose death King is charged with murder, was a bright young girl and was very popular in the high school here. Some time before the school year closed last year her parents moved to Byers and shortly after the term closed she went to Byers to join them. She became ill soon afterwards and died within a few days. There was some suspicion at that time that her death was not due to natural causes, they did not become public until recently.

It is probable that the grand jury will be reconvened in special session to investigate the charge. While Judge Scurry made no statement in this connection it is rumored that another may be involved in the charge.

BULGARIAN KING SAYS STORIES ARE UNFOUNDED

Denies Reports of Atrocities in Macedonia Attributed to His Soldiers

London, July 15.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria in a message dispatched from Sofia July 12, informs The Evening News:

"Stories and reports which the Greeks and Servians have been circulating in Europe concerning so-called outrages committed by my troops upon the Greek and Servian populations in Macedonia are absolutely unfounded and are published with the object of creating a bad impression."

King Ferdinand proceeds to tell of liberties enjoyed by the people of Adrianople without regard to their nationality and closes with the allegation:

"Sympathetic acts and persecutions have been directed against the Bulgarian element in Macedonia by the Servians and the Greeks. The districts of Kastoria, Florina and Voden have been cleared of all well educated men and the prisons of Salonika are overflowing with innocent Bulgarians. Great numbers of Bulgarians have been transported from their homes in the country to Greece and to the islands in the Aegean Sea. The same cruel regime has been applied to the regions occupied by the Servians. The purely Bulgarian town of Kukush has been completely burned by the Greek troops."

"Thousands of refugees, King Ferdinand concludes, are arriving in Sofia, giving terrible accounts of the horrible deeds committed by the Servians and Greeks. The Bulgarian government is ready to come to an international inquiry which will enlighten the world concerning the stories of these excesses."

BRYAN'S SALARY NOW UNDER FIRE

Attention Called to Fact That Predecessors Did Not Have to Go on Lecture Tours

Washington, July 15.—Senator Bryan introduced a resolution today aimed at Secretary Bryan's recent statement that he was obliged to go on a lecturing tour because of insufficient official salary. The resolution would be sufficient to enable Mr. Bryan to remain permanently at his post.

Objection by democratic senators prevented immediate consideration of the resolution. The resolution which called attention to Mr. Bryan's predecessors who served with salaries ranging from $2500 and $3000 and declared that "not one of them was compelled to neglect the duties of his office because of the meagerness of the salary." It stated that the salary was increased to $12,000 in 1911.

MULHALL SAYS MANUFACTURERS CREATED THE TARIFF COMMISSION

MEN KNOWN BY NUMBERS

Names of Users of Money Declared Attempt Was Made to Bribe

By Associated Press. Washington, July 15.—The Senate started Martin M. Mulhall's testimony today on letters written in 1907 to the late J. W. Van Cleave, as president of the National Association of Manufacturers. A letter from the late Vice President Sherman, then a member of the House, arranged for meetings with Van Cleave and Mulhall in New York in June, 1907.

In a letter to Mr. Sherman in July that year, Mulhall wrote: "I have just returned from the west and I feel that I have put the ball rolling in this case so that it will help Mr. Watson to renomination."

Senator Reed showed a letter in Mulhall from Dr. G. I. Crockett of Maine, dated July 14, 1912. Crockett was one of the men who worked with Mulhall in the fight to re-elect former Congressman Littlefield. The doctor's letter said in part:

"I have just read your confession in the New York World. I believe it all, except your statement that you are doing it for the good of humanity. This humanity business of yours is a damn swindle. Whether you do it for good or not, time alone can tell, but you surely have kicked up a stink in this neck of the woods. I hope you are getting a good thing out of this or you surely have bedaubed your conscience with the white wash of hypocrisy. I know it is true. Oh, it is clamoring for me to be taken to Washington and there be pumped. I am ready to go. Now don't jack down; stand by your colors. My best care if you sold my letters, but you just gave them away, I mean of you."

Frederic Schwidman, secretary to President Van Cleave, wrote Mulhall on August 9, 1907:

"There are some large things brewing and there is every indication that our tariff campaign we have will be the majority of the Republican side in Congress and senatorial men higher up than that, too. Schwidman wrote Mulhall on Sept. 1, 1907, bringing in the name of Mulhall then Secretary of War:

"You saw, of course, where Secretary Taft referred to the National Association of Manufacturers at great length in his Columbus address. It succeeded in getting the council of the National Association of Manufacturers, thoroughly established, the power for good will grow right along until next year, during the presidential campaign we will be the actor of national importance that cannot be overlooked. Mulhall testified on another point, saying:

"In the days of Cushing, there were never any books, and there was never any designation by name. We all had numbers. I was eleven. Littlefield was nine and Sherman was eight. Senator Reed wanted to know more about the Association's tariff an 'sycophancy activities. Mulhall replied:

"The National Association of Manufacturers created, and solely created, the tariff commission."

Effort to Bribe Gompers. Mulhall testified about correspondence concerning Mr. Brownell; 1907, Brownell was doing work in furthering the connection between Gompers and the national democratic campaign committee. Senator Reed asked Mulhall how Brownell was connected with the National Association of Manufacturers. They were trying to bribe Gompers at that time."

The committee did not press the issue of the bribery further. Yesterday afternoon Mulhall testified about making personal visits to Cushing and to lend his influence in the campaign to defeat Congressman Reed and one of the letters he received from his employers which said:

"We want to do all we can to do that gentleman, so redouble your efforts and don't get caught."

Much "Persuasion" Necessary. A letter from Mulhall to C. H. Holt at Cumberland said the anti-trust organization there was costing $200 a day and much persuasion was necessary.

"What do you mean by persuasion?" asked Senator Nelson.

"Money," said the witness, crisply. "We had a large colored vote there that needed seeing off," he explained.

On June 14, 1908, Cushing wrote Mulhall telling him that he could point out that Pearre was playing both ends against the middle. Cushing wrote:

"You ought to point out to all such people—that is, those who naturally ought to be against Pearre—how he is trying to play both ends against the middle; that he is attorney for the Baltimore & Ohio and could not excuse himself as a paid employee. He does not oppose legislation when it comes to a showdown."

"He is playing both ends against the middle, perhaps you can plan both ends against the middle on your own account."

In July 1908, Mulhall began to write and receive letters about campaigns in Pennsylvania congressional districts and he wrote to Cushing:

"I might be of some interest to you to show you what the Gompers people are doing in this state. They have nominated President Thomas D. Nichols from the Tenth congressional district of Pennsylvania on the Democratic ticket and I should predict now that unless there is very good work done in that district we will have a redoubt enemy in the next campaign. There are about 40,000 miners in that district and Nichols is their ideal. Besides, John Mitchell

NEWLANDS BILL PASSES; CONGRESS ACTS PROMPTLY

STRIKE AVERTED BY WOMAN'S WORD

MRS. J. BORDEN HARRIMAN IS GIVEN CREDIT FOR ACTION AT WASHINGTON

THINK AGREEMENT NEAR

Prompt Passage of Newlands Bill by Congress Expected to Bring Swift Solution

Washington, July 15.—The Newlands bill revising the Federal law to provide arbitration of wage disputes in a manner satisfactory to railroad and their employees passed the House without a roll call and was hurried to the Senate which was waiting to pass it. The Senate passed the bill without a roll call and it was hurriedly prepared for transmission to the White House where President Wilson was ready to sign it.

President Wilson expressed his gratification after the conference that an agreement had been reached on disputed points. He declared that while the Erdman act originally contemplated a controversy between a single railroad and its employees, the scope had now been widened so as to deal with a series of railroads. He referred to the suggestions made as "just and reasonable" and said, "In reason, he said, why Congress should not act upon them now to prevent a great inconvenience and perhaps a disastrous situation for the carrying business of the country."

STUDENTS MAKE APPEAL FOR $5,000. J. R. NO. 18.

To the Editor of The Times: The undersigned students of the University of Texas wish to explain the conditions at the University which make necessary the adoption of the amendment to the State Constitution known as Senate Joint Resolution No. 18.

The University now needs nearly a million dollars for permanent improvements in the way of additional grounds and new classrooms, study halls, libraries, laboratories and offices. The old equipment has been completely outgrown by the tremendous increase in attendance during the recent years. Last term five box sheds on the campus were used for class rooms. Such sheds would not be tolerated at any high school in the state and would not exist at the State University.

These improvements cannot be made without a change in the Constitution because the Legislature is now forbidden to appropriate money for his purpose. The annual income from the University's permanent fund, now about $100,000 per year, is not sufficient to erect the large and substantial buildings needed, unless the income is allowed to accumulate for a number of years, and the buildings are needed now.

The proposed amendment will allow these improvements to be made without cost to the taxpayers of the state. Bonds will be issued against the permanent fund, and the income from the fund will pay the interest on the bonds and will create a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity. The University will be able to use a large amount of money without disposing of its permanent fund. The Legislature will not appropriate money for the making of these improvements or the payment of these bonds. It has been urged that part of the income from the permanent fund is now used for maintenance, and that the legislature would have to appropriate an increased amount for maintenance if this amendment is adopted. But if this amendment is not adopted certainly the entire income from the permanent fund will have to go directly toward the making of improvements, if they are to be made at all.

We make this statement because we know the situation better than most others. Leaving to older and wiser men the task of answering the arguments which have been made against the proposed amendment, we want to ask friends of education to vote unhesitatingly for this measure, and we have reason to believe that the students now attending the summer session of the University would join us in this request.

bill, of which both parties to the conference had previously expressed their approval, with the minor provisions of the Clayton bill incorporated.

The Clayton amendments to be Newlands bill concern the elimination of an inconsistency in the plans for the filing of petitions for the hearing and the holding of the hearing, and the mandatory process of the court could oblige an employee to work against his will. While this is conceded as having been taken care of by the Clayton bill, it nevertheless was placed in the Erdman act to avoid constitutional objections of a technical nature and had been inserted in the bill by the framers of the Clayton-Newlands bill.

The perfected bill will create the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation to be composed of a commissioner of mediation and conciliation appointed by the President with the consent of the Senate, with a salary of $7,500 and tenure of seven years, and not more than two other officials of the government, already appointed by the president with the consent of the Senate, who shall be designated by him as the two other members of the board.

For settlement of controversies as they might arise, the measure would provide for boards of arbitration to be selected with the help of the Board of Mediation and Conciliation, whenever necessary. The agreements among the arbitrators. Awards made by the board would be executed by the Federal courts, with which appeals could be filed.

President Wilson expressed his gratification after the conference that an agreement had been reached on disputed points. He declared that while the Erdman act originally contemplated a controversy between a single railroad and its employees, the scope had now been widened so as to deal with a series of railroads. He referred to the suggestions made as "just and reasonable" and said, "In reason, he said, why Congress should not act upon them now to prevent a great inconvenience and perhaps a disastrous situation for the carrying business of the country."

STUDENTS MAKE APPEAL FOR $5,000. J. R. NO. 18.

To the Editor of The Times: The undersigned students of the University of Texas wish to explain the conditions at the University which make necessary the adoption of the amendment to the State Constitution known as Senate Joint Resolution No. 18.

The University now needs nearly a million dollars for permanent improvements in the way of additional grounds and new classrooms, study halls, libraries, laboratories and offices. The old equipment has been completely outgrown by the tremendous increase in attendance during the recent years. Last term five box sheds on the campus were used for class rooms. Such sheds would not be tolerated at any high school in the state and would not exist at the State University.

These improvements cannot be made without a change in the Constitution because the Legislature is now forbidden to appropriate money for his purpose. The annual income from the University's permanent fund, now about $100,000 per year, is not sufficient to erect the large and substantial buildings needed, unless the income is allowed to accumulate for a number of years, and the buildings are needed now.

The proposed amendment will allow these improvements to be made without cost to the taxpayers of the state. Bonds will be issued against the permanent fund, and the income from the fund will pay the interest on the bonds and will create a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity. The University will be able to use a large amount of money without disposing of its permanent fund. The Legislature will not appropriate money for the making of these improvements or the payment of these bonds. It has been urged that part of the income from the permanent fund is now used for maintenance, and that the legislature would have to appropriate an increased amount for maintenance if this amendment is adopted. But if this amendment is not adopted certainly the entire income from the permanent fund will have to go directly toward the making of improvements, if they are to be made at all.

We make this statement because we know the situation better than most others. Leaving to older and wiser men the task of answering the arguments which have been made against the proposed amendment, we want to ask friends of education to vote unhesitatingly for this measure, and we have reason to believe that the students now attending the summer session of the University would join us in this request.

FORMER WICHITAN IN CONTROVERSY AT LAWTON

Wendell Johnson, Attorney, in Center of Row Over Salary as Assistant County Attorney

Wendell Johnson, formerly an attorney of this city where he practiced several years, is the center of agitation at Lawton where he has been assistant county attorney. It appears that the Oklahoma law provides that the county attorney may have an assistant but leaves the question of his compensation up to the county commissioners. After several months service as assistant in this office Mr. Johnson put in a bill to the commissioners court which the latter turned down. Johnson then resigned and announced he would press his claim in the court.

The Lawton News and Star gives the following report of the latest developments in the case:

What is considered to be a climax as far as negotiations for a compromise on the amount of Wendell Johnson's salary as assistant county attorney was reached Saturday afternoon when the commissioners offered Johnson $300 for past services, a salary of $50 per month, which was refused. Saturday morning Johnson placed his resignation in the hands of T. B. Orr, which was accepted.

The wrangle over an assistant county attorney arose at the inception of the new county administration when County Attorney Orr appointed as his assistant Wendell Johnson. His appointment was refused confirmation by the board members who insisted that the cutting-off of the Cotton county area that the work of the county prosecutor could be handled by one attorney. That matter was brought before Judge Bailey of Chickasha, on an appeal salary claim of Johnson.

Bailey held that the county attorney has a right to appoint an assistant but that the amount of salary to be paid in return for his services may be designated by the county commissioners. Today, the last day of this month's session of the commissioners was the last opportunity the commissioners had to comply with the order of the court. However, it is understood that Johnson delivered his resignation, thinking that the commissioners would pay a reasonable salary for his past six months services.

They met at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon with Johnson present and made him an offer of $50 per month for his past work. However, Johnson refused the offer immediately after it was made.

It is understood that Mr. Johnson will take the salary question into court and if necessary to carry it to the supreme court.

Although the commissioners offered Johnson $50 per month on a compromise, which fell through the refusal or at least did not name a salary other than the compromise, as ordered by District Judge Bailey.

Motor Cars Now Quite a Fad With

Washington

By Burton K. Standish.
(Written for the United Press.)

Washington, July 16.—Whenever Senator Ollie James of Kentucky wants a little recreation or wants to prepare an extraordinarily brilliant speech he collects his constant "pal," Representative "Tom" Heflin of Alabama and takes a drive around the Potomac Park speedway in a "seagull" hack.

James and Heflin are the Damon and Pythias of congress. For years they have been practically inseparable and many a bright afternoon after the house and senate have adjourned they are to be seen ambling down Pennsylvania avenue for all the world like a couple of kids after school's out.

Senator James has the "seagull" hack habit, which means that same habit is among Heflin's list. James takes to an open barouche, one of Washington's cherished institutions, despite the advent of the automobile—like a duck to aqua pura. And he always employs the same hackman, a grizzled Irishman named Mike, who prides himself on two things. First, and foremost, because he is Irish, and second, because he is fadde. Boarded second, because in his youth he fed his father's pigs on the refuse from the table of Ulysses S. Grant. Mike is extremely and perhaps slightly snobbishly proud of the fact that he is the best hackman of Senator James. But there is one business by in his other vintment of bliss. Representative Heflin isn't so heavy, but Senator James has enough avardopolis for several men and the weight is a sore trial on the squeaky, antiquated hack and its protesting springs.

When Senator James was preparing his speech on sugar, in answer to Senator Randall's threatened bolt if the present sugar schedule was adopted with the tariff measure, he and Representative Heflin drove about the speedway practically the entire night thrashing over what James was going to say. Of course, they rode in Mike's hack.

When Senator James can not get his constant companion, Heflin, to ride with him—and since he has moved over to the senate from the house, the

The resolution adopted yesterday afternoon by the Commissioners court, asking the governor to submit the repeal of some features of the road law at the call session of the legislature, has aroused considerable interest, and seems to meet with more or less general approval. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, it appears to members of the Commissioners court of Wichita county, Texas, in regular session, that the system and laws for working the public roads of the State of Texas are obsolete and wholly unfit for present conditions, and work a hardship upon laborers and those least able to maintain the roads of the state.

"Therefore, Be it resolved by the court, that the governor of the State of Texas be requested to submit to the called session of the legislature the proposition of amending the road laws so as to provide for the maintenance of public roads and streets by direct and valorem taxation and do away with the working of the roads by the inhabitants of the several counties of the state."

Position of Road Overseer.
The resolution is aimed particularly at that part of the law which provides that citizens must work five days upon the public roads or in lieu thereof pay an amount sufficient to hire someone to work for them. Comparatively few people do work on the roads, nearly everyone preferring to pay the tax; however, those who are unable to do this must perform the actual labor.

The repeal of this feature of the law would also go away with the position of road overseer. The duties of this official are to see that nobody dodges his road work and the appointee, if he performs his duties, is pretty apt to be unpopular. If, however, he does like most road overseers and uses his position merely to avoid jury service, he may still have a few friends.

Former Repeats Sought.
The road law has been a dead letter on the statute books for years, with the exception of a few counties; its operations are confined principally to localities where some new and ambitious county official tries to make a record by its enforcement. To enforce it strictly seems impossible and it has engendered feuds, strife and turmoil to a large degree. The average farmer wants good roads, but he hates to dig up for road improvement when he knows that an improved road will merely result in a continual dodging of automobiles when he drives a load of cotton to town.

Several efforts to repeal the law have been made in years gone by, but the law has somehow remained on the statute books and is still in force and effect. There is little doubt that the resolution adopted by the Wichita commissioners will meet with hearty endorsement from many quarters.

URGES BOND BETWEEN NATION AND BUSINESS

U. S. Chamber of Commerce Will Correct Misrepresentations
Wheeler Decries Attacks

San Francisco, Cal., July 16.—To aid every administration by cordial cooperation; to draw together in common bond the business men of America—in defense of their—name, and in the creation of an instrumentality—through which they may speak as a whole with authority to the executive and congress relative to the things which business needs; to create a force comparable in every respect to the organized forces of labor and agriculture, these are the objects of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, now being formed, as outlined by Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago, president of the organization.

Attacks on Business Responsible.
Mr. Wheeler, expounding his theme here last night before the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and other commercial bodies, said frankly that aside from natural evolution, another reason for the organization of a National body at this time is "the indiscriminate attacks made upon business generally; upon the public opinion and the confidence of the people in the paper of the country."

The popular prejudice which was first roused against the railroad has extended its line of attack to include the industrial life of the Nation and the profession of banking, he said. "Popular sentiment has it that all who have wealth are parasites, that the accumulation of wealth has become so by predatory means and that rottenness underlies the entire commercial fabric of the Nation. To be popular with the general public upon the platform has been to give voice to violent attacks upon these interests. To popularize the periodical press, statements having little foundation often have been made or an isolated example of evil doing was made to bear upon an entire industry.

"As an argument for the larger governmental regulation of business, one of the candidates in the last presidential campaign repeatedly charged that the business interests of the country were engaged in a chaotic struggle to devour each other and that all were combined in an effort to enslave the workman."

"For ten years this campaign of misrepresentation has been going on with little or no contradiction on the part of business and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States enters the field to present a legitimate defense against these unjust attacks.

"Ninety per cent of American business men stand in the forefront of those who adhere to the highest principles of honor and integrity, but single handed he has been powerless to win deserved defenses."

Other objects touched upon by Mr. Wheeler were the assistance of Congress in enacting reasonable legislation for the regulation of industrial

FEELESS COURT PLAN IN KANSAS

NO LAWYERS PRACTICE IN THIS TRIBUNAL, WHICH ADJUD-ICATES SMALL DEBTS

ONE SUIT FOR 45 CENTS

Is Known As Small Debtors' Court and Has Proved of Much Public Benefit

Topeka, Kas., July 16.—Kansas has a lot of men with a lot of ideas and every legislature has presented to it one or more laws in the nature of experiments. The 1911 legislature passed the "blue sky law," which has driven the fake stock and bond promoters out of the state. This law has been copied by the legislatures of nineteen states in this country, eight foreign states or provinces, and by three foreign countries.

The 1913 legislature passed a law known as the small debtors' court law, and two months of its working has made Kansas mighty glad. The small debtors' courts are doing a world of good. The first one installed was at Leavenworth, the second at Topeka. Both have been in operation two months and on July 1 the little courts began business in Kansas City, Salina, Manhattan, Arkansas City, Fort Scott and Parsons.

Democratic Platform Pledge.
The Democratic state platform last year contained a plank pledging the party to enact legislation which would make legal proceedings more simple, less costly and quicker than the present cumbersome system. When the Democratic legislature met, being opposed chiefly of farmers, the Democrats did not know what to do with the pledge or how to help out the Democrats. John S. Dawson, attorney general, wrote the law and with the help of two newspaper men got it through the legislature. Now the Democrats are happy because the law is doing a world of good where it has been tried.

The Leavenworth court is a few days older than that of Topeka. But Judge Eli Nirlinger has had the same number of cases as the Topeka court, over which W. H. Kemper presides. Each has had fifty-nine complaints filed by poor people.

Small Totals Handled.
In Topeka the claims presented amounted to a total of $438.50, and in Leavenworth the claims were $397.85. In Leavenworth forty-six of the cases have been entirely settled and in Topeka twenty-four of the complaints have been paid and the dockets are closed. In Leavenworth nine cases were thrown out of court, while in Topeka but four cases were found spurious.

The smallest claim in the Topeka court was for 45 cents, which a man drawing $125 a month had refused to pay to a small bookshop because the bookshop had daubed some blacking on the man's trousers and it cost him 50 cents to get them clean. The case was compromised by the man paying the boy a quarter. In Leavenworth the smallest claim was for 75 cents for washing a white vest terribly stained by fruit juices. The owner of the vest thought the charge too high but when the woman told the judge it required almost two hours steady working to get the vest cleaned the court ordered the full amount paid.

Makes Lawyer Pay.
In Topeka one of the best known lawyers who also is regarded as a hard man to get money from, owed a small boy 60 cents for a weekly magazine delivered each week at the lawyer's office. The lawyer was ordered to pay and did it.

In only a few cases has there been a disposition shown in either city by the small debtors to pay their claims. In one Topeka case a man made a claim for $20, but was allowed $3, as it was shown this was all his work was worth. The extreme limit for which claims can be made before this court is $20, and the claimant must make a showing that he can not pay a lawyer for the court costs to collect the fee. Some merchants have complained that they should be allowed to use the court, but the law provides the court only for those without funds and with just claims which the little court is to collect without costs to either party to the suit.

No Lawyers Allowed.
Under the law no lawyer can intermeddle with the affairs of the court. He can not even appear officially at the hearing. There are no costs unless a case is appealed and then the man who owes the money must put up a bond of sufficient amount to pay the claim, the court costs and the fee for a lawyer for the claimant as well as the expense of the appeal must be paid by the man who refuses to pay his debts.

MIXING SEXES IN SURF

Movement is on Foot to Stop Men and Copenhagen, July 16.—King Christian X is becoming so noted for his disregard of court ceremonial and precedent that he is being constantly compared to President Wilson.

To prevent towns from incurring the expense of festival decorations, big banquets and the usual formalities incident to the visits of royalty, the King keeps secret the itineraries of his frequent cruises and lands at a town without informing the authorities of his arrival. Formal court affairs are limited, so far as possible and he is very fond of receiving his friends like an ordinary citizen.

Lately he invited fifty of his old schoolmates to the palace and, knowing that some of them were coming from a distance, he requested them not to go to the trouble of wearing evening dress. After a reception at the palace, Queen Alexandra's usual ceremony was banished, the leader of the party retired and the men gathered about an enormous punch bowl. The sort of celebration dear to the Danish student was then held. The King added greatly to the spirit of the evening by encouraging humorous speeches, delivered in the student manner.

While England is engaged in removing restrictions against mixed bathing at her seaside resorts, a certain group in Denmark is seeking to restrict the mixing of the sexes in the surf of this country. Advocates of mixed bathing declare that the movement is engineered by certain elderly prudes, who, having lost the savor of life, are seeking to deprive others of legitimate pleasures. At any rate, the movement is not altogether new, for the Danes have been mixing in the surf for many years. The present King and Queen have been enthusiastic advocates of the movement, but the Danes are now endeavoring to restrict the mixing of the sexes in the surf of this country. A ride in the luxurious automobile of American Consul General Winslow has converted Dowager Queen Louise from a bitter opponent of the motor car into one of its strongest adherents. The aged Queen has ordered her carriage and pair replaced by a car of the same type as that used by the American consul. The present King and Queen have been enthusiastic advocates of the movement, but the Danes are now endeavoring to restrict the mixing of the sexes in the surf of this country.

Miss Agga Amrup, a Danish journalist who has spent many years in America, is conducting a campaign in Denmark to encourage people to furnish and equip their homes in the American fashion. She is lecturing on the subject throughout the country, advising householders to do away with their many curtains and draperies which prevent light and air from getting into the rooms and to advise householders to make the same practical use of electricity as is made in America.

SPEAKER CANNON GIVEN SUPPORT

MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION DIDN'T WANT HIM BEATEN FOR REELECTION

AFFAIRS IN NEW JERSEY

Resistance Formerly Given to Man Who is Now Running is Recounted by Mulhall

By Associated Press. Washington, July 18.—How the National Association of Manufacturers proposed to concentrate its energies if necessary for the re-election of Speaker Cannon in the 1908 campaign was described in one of the first Mulhall letters brought before the Senate lobby committee today.

The letter declared all energies would be concentrated in Cannon's district "if there was the slightest occasion for it." Senator Reed questioned Mulhall about Congressman Barthold of St. Louis. Mulhall replied: "I always understood Schwedman and Van Cleave looked after Barthold; and that the brewery interests helped."

New Jersey Contest.
The committee decided to hear S. W. McClave, Republican candidate for congressman in the sixth New Jersey district, where a special election is to be held Tuesday. McClave will be heard immediately. Mulhall testified yesterday that he had run McClave's campaign against William Hughes in 1910.

The cross examination of Mulhall about McClave aroused the anger of the two Republican members of the committee, who declared it was an attempt to play politics. Schwedman wrote to Mulhall on August 28, 1908: "I do not consider Teddy or Tait nor Sherman nor Parker nor the rest of those great men equal to Van Cleave, Parry, Kirby and the others who have given freely of their energy and their money to the great cause which is expressed in the principles of the National Association of Manufacturers."

The McClave incident was opened yesterday afternoon when Senator Reed questioned Mulhall about his alleged relations with S. W. McClave in 1908, when McClave was a candidate for Congress in the sixth New Jersey district against William Hughes, now junior senator from that State. McClave now is the Republican candidate in the new sixth district, where a special election will be held next Tuesday. C. Hart, the Democratic candidate in this district, was endorsed by President Wilson.

Senator Reed announced the incident had denied acquaintance with Mulhall and "jumped" the witness from "exhibits" in his case around the 1,800 mark to those close to 4,000. The senator said he wanted to prove who was telling the truth, Mulhall or McClave.

Goos into Details.
Mulhall identified many letters from McClave to himself, written in 1908; said he went to the sixth district to help McClave fight Hughes and gave details of his work there. He said the National Association of Manufacturers had furnished him with $3,900 for this fight, and that a man named "Barber" put up $2,000 more. He told about taking McClave to dinner, about riding with him in cabs on political tours and in other ways helping out in the fight. One item in an expected letter from Reed put in the record spoke of "dinner for two" and the witness was asked who the other person was.

"I think it was McClave; he was always on hand," said the witness. Illustrating how close he was to McClave, Mulhall said he had a week "regularly" for services in this campaign.

Mulhall and McClave was in the lumber business, and members of the committee wanted to know if he did not have money. Mulhall said he had heard so. "But," he added, "I had been campaigning for thirty years among all sorts of men, and I never saw such a tight-fisted wad in my life."

Mulhall said he furnished headquarters and paid for McClave's meals three times a day. "What did you want to elect such a man for?" he was asked. "He was a 'con' man, that's the only way I can explain it," said the witness.

Mulhall said a man named Burke, collector of internal revenue at Paterson, had been paid by him $40 a week "regularly" for services in this campaign.

The testimony about McClave was a climax to a rather sensational day, even for a committee that has waded through daily sessions for nearly two months. In five hours Mulhall identified hundreds of letters bringing in the names of dozens of the most prominent men in the Republican party in 1908, and speaking familiarly of making platforms, throwing influence to men for nominations to all sorts of offices and of working to elect or defeat others in Congress.

Interested in Campaign.
As the year progressed, the interest of Mulhall in the National campaign began to show plainly. His letters to Secretary Schwedman of the National Association of Manufacturers, to James W. Van Cleave, its president, and to men in Congress showed activity proceeding and during

WILL TAX COTTON FUTURE TRADING

DEMOCRATIC TARIFF BILL EXPECTED TO EARN $7,000,000 ANNUALLY THIS WAY

INCREASE 27.64 PER CENT

Measure as Reported to Senate Will Advance Rates That Much Over Aldrich Bill

By Associated Press. Washington, July 18.—An average reduction of 27.64 per cent under the rates of the existing Payne-Aldrich tariff law is proposed by the Democratic Underwood-Simmons tariff bill upon which the Senate began general debate today, according to the report of the finance committee majority, submitted by the chairman, Senator Simmons.

The report shows that the bill, as reported to the Senate provides rates 4.2 per cent lower than the Underwood bill as it passed the House and that, together with other government revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, there will be an estimated surplus in the government treasury of $7,000,000. This revenue is estimated will total for the fiscal year, 1914-15, $99,910,000.

An important feature added by the Senate committee to the bill, is a tax on one tenth of a cent per pound on cotton sold through stock exchanges for future delivery. The report says of this change:

"To 'Eliminate Parasites'—The committee believes the subject matter, once fit for the imposition of a proper tax not only because of its indirect influence in eliminating a parasite which has afflicted business dealing in the purchases of cotton for future delivery, but because it will result in the collection of a considerable sum of revenue from a source which, in its usual operation, produced abnormal profits from a business that is not susceptible of just taxation in any other way. The committee is advised that since 1907 no official record of the extent of the dealings in cotton exchanges in contracts for future delivery is accessible to the public, but reliable estimates fix these dealings at about thirteen million bales annually in recent years. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that about ten per cent of the contracts of sales and purchases of cotton for future delivery, is embraced in that section of the business known as hedging, and that the other ninety per cent is of a speculative or gambling character where no delivery of the product is ever really intended to be made."

"If the effect of the proposed tax is to eliminate all the latter class of business and to leave intact that part of the dealings resorted to for hedging purposes, the revenue derived from this tax should amount to about $7,000,000 a year and its imposition does not have the effect of eliminating the gambling or speculative end of the business, the revenues derived therefrom will be enormously in excess of this amount."

"EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN" TO HAVE SPECIAL SCHOOL.

Greely, Colo., July 18.—The establishment in Colorado of a school separate for the "exceptional child," in which children who, because of physical or mental defects are unable to keep pace with normal children in the regular school classes, may have proper educational and medical treatment, was strongly urged today by Professor Maximilian P. E. Groszmann, educational director of the National Education Association. Professor Groszmann's ideas were set forth in a lecture delivered at the State Teachers' College here. The proposed school, argued Professor Groszmann, would put the nervous or backward child out of place entirely in the ordinary public school classes in surroundings which would be most appropriate for its development mentally and physically. The cause of the backwardness would be sought, said Professor Groszmann, and individual "remedies" applied to the children.

SWEEDISH SUBMARINE IS RESCUED FROM THE DEEP

Sink in 200 Feet of Water, Desperate Measures to Float Craft are Successful

By Associated Press. Stockholm, July 18.—A terrifying accident to a Swedish submarine which sank with her crew like a stone in two hundred feet of water, and then rose after a desperate expedient was resorted to on July 21, has just become known despite official efforts to keep the affair secret.

The submarine was practicing outside the harbor when by a mistake all her tanks were filled simultaneously and she sank to the bottom. The pressure was enormous and the water began to dent the hull. Desperate measures were necessary and the lieutenant in charge of the boat ordered the lead keel detached. When this task was removed, the boat rose to the surface and the pumping crew drew in great breaths of air. It is said here that never before has a submarine risen to the surface after sinking to such a depth.

The two were found last night in a critical condition from poisoning in a room in a little east side hotel. They left a note saying: "No one but ourselves know the reason, but it is compelling."

There still is some doubt that they will recover.

SECRETARY GARRISON TO ACCEPT NO INVITATIONS.

Washington, July 18.—Inundated by letters and telegrams requesting that Secretary Garrison on his tour of inspection of the army posts of the country be the guest of honor at various public and semi-public functions, the war department announced today that the secretary had determined not to attempt to fill any social or official obligations during his trip.

This was made necessary, it was explained, because of the length of the journey and the brief time allotted for inspection of each post.

The secretary today will inspect Fort Oglethorpe, near Atlanta, and then will proceed to Chattanooga, Tenn.

By Associated Press. The article says Diaz is being sent out of the country and expresses the opinion that there will be no election in Mexico in the time fixed.

El Independiente also frankly expresses the opinion that Diaz practically has been exiled, at least temporarily.

UNCLE SAM TEACHES "BANKING BY MAIL."

Washington, July 18.—"Banking by mail" is the latest innovation entered into by the government in connection with the postal savings system. Hereafter deposits and withdrawals may be made by mail.

When the postal savings system was first put in operation, postmasters were forbidden to permit deposits by such persons as were not patrons of the postoffice in which they sought to bank.

This was found to work a real hardship on a certain class of would-be depositors, and Postmaster General Burleson abrogated the rule. Postmasters throughout the country now are being advised of the change.

C. P. YEARY MEETS DEATH IN WAGON YARD FIGHT

"BUILDING BEES" HELD TO REPAIR FLOOD DAMAGE

Residents of Ohio Water-Swept Sections Cooperate in Rebuilding Destroyed Homes

FATALITY CUT BY A. L. JACKSON OF BYERS WHO SUSTAINS SERIOUS WOUNDS

Assailant Captured—Machete Used by S. A. Talley Inflicts Severe Injury in Back

Columbus, O., July 18.—They are going to hold at least one "building bee" every day this month in the valley of the Muskingum river—the mad Muskingum last March but peaceful and quiet enough now—and by virtue of their cooperation and assistance between neighbors and the financial help of the Red Cross, homes are going to spring up in clusters in all that rich but devastated district between Gaysport and Beverly, below Zanesville.

The "building bee" scheme was originated several years ago by the Red Cross in Minnesota when the farmers who lost their homes as a result of one of the great forest fires joined hands and built up each other's homes. The principle of the "building bee" is simple. The Red Cross organizes a group of farmers, all of whom have lost their homes in the flood waters. Into a construction crew and each man's place is visited in turn and a complete two to four-room house with the necessary out buildings is erected within 24 hours. The cost of the material, which is supplied by the Red Cross from funds donated by the American people, runs about $170 per house, but in some cases goes as high as $210.

That resilient spirit of optimism that has so frequently been shown in America following a great community disaster, such as the San Francisco fire or the Galveston tide horror, is very much in evidence in the flood washed valley of the Muskingum today. There is the aged bridge tender at Zanesville. He is over 73 now and a job close to a quarter of a century's standing was lost when the crest of the flood hit the bridge with an impact of many thousands of tons and swept the structure away and with it his monthly pay check. Not only did the relentless waters take away his work, but they swept away his home and left him and his faithful wife without a roof. But the old man is still smiling. They gave him one of the first "building bees" held in the valley and he now has a two-room cottage. The Red Cross supplied funds for garden tools and seeds and his garden will supply funds until the bridge is restored.

TAX BOARD MEETS MONDAY TO DETERMINE 1913 RATE.
Austin, Texas, July 18.—The State automatic tax board will meet on Monday, July 21, for the purpose of fixing State tax rates. Because of the absence of appropriations and estimates of values from a number of county tax assessors the board will probably be compelled to postpone action.

At this time the State tax rate is 10c on each $100 of valuation, while the school tax is 18 2/3c on $100 of valuation. The State is operating on a million dollar deficiency and the Legislature has not only made large special appropriations, but will be required to make additional regular appropriations. This may mean that the State tax rate will have to be increased, even though the aggregate taxable values show indications of healthy advances. An increase in the ad valorem tax rate appears inevitable.

FRECKLES
Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.
Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Wichita Falls Old Nineveh

(From the Christian Herald.)
ON HORSEBACK along the summit of the walls of the old city of Nineveh; that has been my work today. It is a journey of but three hours or of eight miles, yet there are so many things of interest to see, so many old ruins to examine, that a full day is scarcely long enough to make the complete circuit as one should. The book of Jonah calls Nineveh a great city of three days' journey. Had Jonah stopped to admire the palaces along the walls, or to study the strange sights which must have met his eyes, he might have found the three days too short, writes Prof. E. J. Banks, from Mosul, Arabia.

In its day, Nineveh was the greatest city in the world, and now its ruins are as imposing as the city was great. Sixty-five years ago Layard discovered the palaces of its kings and carried their treasures away to England. Since then visitors to the ruins have been few, and only during the present wave of reform in Turkey have the Arabs begun to use the ruins as a quarry.

The ruins of Nineveh stand on the left shore of the Tigris about five hundred miles from its mouth. Directly opposite the ruins is Mosul, the second largest city in Mesopotamia. Many of its seventy thousand people are Chaldeans, now Christians, the descendants of the people of old Nineveh.

Now a large new arched bridge, aided by a short bridge of boats, connects Mosul with Nineveh. Let us stand at its western end. Below it a kelek, or goat-skin raft, laden with of the foundation wall varied, but in places it was fully ten feet. Above the foundations, the walls were continued with large sun-dried bricks to a great height.

Just what the ancient gates were like, none can now say, for the excavator has not yet uncovered them. Only at the gate in the northern wall have the Arabs dug away the fallen dirt, revealing a great marble slab engraved with the figure of a winged bull. The gateways of Nineveh, therefore were faced with slabs of sculptured marble; probably they were arched above and gorgeously decorated. When we leave the walls to go down into the city, we can hardly believe that we are on the site of an ancient Assyrian capital. There are hundreds of acres of barley growing in its season; hundreds of camels are grazing over the waste places.

The site of Nineveh is almost perfectly level. Here and there are slight elevations which might be taken for natural hills. Few brick or pottery fragments appear on the surface. But adjoining the western wall are two huge mounds concealing the palaces of the greatest kings of Assyria. The lower or northern mound is the smaller, and perhaps of greater interest, for it is occupied by a mosque and a village of considerable size. Its name is Nebi Yunus, or the Prophet Jonah, for in the mosque is the tomb in which Jonah lies buried.

I rode up the steep, narrow streets of the village to the mosque, and to the amazement of the natives I dismounted and entered the mosque yard. A crowd of excited men quickly surrounded me. To a priest I explained freight and passengers, ready for a ten days' trip down the river to Bagdad. Above the bridge, on the rocks projecting from the water, and along the banks, a hundred women are beating the dirt from their clothes and spreading them in the ancient fashion on the shore to dry. Large troops of camels come straggling along and wade knee deep into the water to drink. Farther along are the booths of the vendors of watermelons, which are larger even than the prize pumpkin at an American agricultural fair. The grapes and melons of Assyria are unsurpassed.

Beyond the bridge and gardens and irrigating trenches, now fully a mile away, are the old walls of Nineveh. In ancient times the river used to flow along at their base, but the course of the Tigris is always changing. Imagine a ridge of dirt, with steep sides like the roof of a house, from thirty to forty feet high, so sharp along the top that there is scarcely room for a narrow path, and you have a picture of the walls of Nineveh. In company with Doctor Stanley, an English medical missionary of Mosul, I made their complete circuit on horseback. In shape the city was a somewhat irregular quadrangle, with its longer sides running north and south. It has long been supposed that the walls of Nineveh were of mud bricks, but these modern excavators have shown that the foundations were of massive blocks of white limestone. Only the outer and inner courses were of well cut stones, while the stones between were in the rough. The height that I had come to see the grave of Jonah, and with a motion of the hand I made it understood that he would be rewarded. Removing my shoes, I followed the priest through a dark passageway. There he pointed to a wall and said that the tomb was just beyond. I wished to enter the prayer-room from which the tomb itself might be seen, but the place was considered far too sacred for my profane feet. However, the few Christians who have been permitted to see the tomb may look only through a small window into a dark chamber in which a cloth-covered mound is scarcely discernible.

If we follow the wall from Nebi Yunus to the north half a mile, and over the Khair by a new stone bridge, we come to Kouyunjik, the largest mound of Nineveh. Covering about a hundred acres, it rises in places to the height of one hundred and fifty feet. Its sides are so steep that one may ride to the summit only up the winding paths made by the grazing camels. Here, in 1845, Layard found the palaces of Sennacherib and Esarhaddon, and thousands of clay tablets of the Babylonian story of the Deluge, and since then Rassam and King have excavated with success.

After all this labor, you might suppose that the mound has been thoroughly excavated; but only a part of the surface has been scratched. It would take a thousand men a hundred years to thoroughly excavate the entire city.

Memories.
The music of the old wild years is thrilling in my brain. Love and life, the 'olden years' The memories of smiles and tears Are mingled in a melody Of sweetness and of pain.

The hanks of dreams are strewn behind An empty road lies on before; Yet I had come to know the way And hoped to find no more Than just a silent bourne beyond The vista of the day.

But just a strain of olden song Brings back the days forgotten long; The days of youthful smiles and tears The memories of brighter years.

TO SHOW FAMOUS CIVIL WAR DRAMA TONIGHT

Bronson Howard's famous Civil War drama, "Shenandoah," has thrilled two generations of theatre goers. It is with no little pleasure that the Lydia Margaret announces that "Shenandoah" will be presented tonight as a magnificent photoplay in three parts. It required more than a year for the staid Company to produce this stupendous subject, as nearly every scene was made in the authentic locations. Thus when General Sheridan makes his famous ride to rally the panic stricken troops, the spectators will see the backgrounds of Winchester, Virginia, which were visited by the Kalum producers and players. The bombardment of Fort Sumter was produced at Charleston, S. C., through special arrangements and one thousand soldiers take part in the battle scenes. One of the most striking effects—and one never before accomplished in motion pictures—is a battle at midnight. The belching cannon illumine the sky and the soldiers are only seen by the flashes of their muskets.

WHITE PLAGUE WINS PRISONER HIS FREEDOM

Washington, July 18.—The plight of a federal prisoner dying of tuberculosis and whose life might be prolonged by freedom caused President Wilson today to commute to expire at once the four year sentence of James Ferrin, convicted at Cleveland Feb. 24 last, of embezzling while a postal employe.

the Republican convention held in Chicago that year. Arthur I. Vorys, one of the Taft managers; Wade H. Ellis, the man then credited with writing the platform and afterward the chief "trust buster" of the department of justice; Frank H. Hitchcock, former Speaker Cannon, Representative McKinley of Illinois, as well as many others of prominence, were mentioned, and Mulhall boasted in his letters of his acquaintance with most of them.

Toward the close of the session, Senator Reed put in a letter Mulhall swore he wrote to former Congressman Ralph D. Cole of the eighth Ohio district, in which he said:

"We suppose you are aware of the miserable treatment we received from Attorney General Ellis, Vorys and other Taft managers, and, although there are several officers of our organization who are friends of Mr. Taft, still there are over 40,000 manufacturers in this country today who are organized in a very sore account of the work done by Ellis, Hitchcock, Vorys and others at Chicago."

The committee wanted Mulhall to explain what caused the soreness.

Explanation of Soreness. "They were having a conference in Ellis' room in Chicago," he said. "We went up and knocked on the door, and for quite a time there was no answer. Then Taft's brother came to the door and said they would see us in a few minutes. While we were there Gompers walked out. They tried to deny that they had given a hearing to Gompers, but Emery and the others were pretty sore about it."

The witnesses identified a pamphlet issued in the fall of 1909, in which President Van Cleave of the National Association of Manufacturers announced "we saw that we would fall in Denver if we went there, and so we kept out."

The pamphlet contained an attack on William J. Bryan, then the Democratic presidential candidate, but stated that Van Cleave was "not talking party politics," but was talking as a business man to other business men on a subject of vital concern to all.

One of the remarkable letters of the day was identified by Mulhall as his letter of introduction and his credentials. It read:

"National Association of Manufacturers, St. Louis, Mo., July 6, 1909.—To Whom It May Concern: This letter will introduce Col. M. M. Mulhall, for whom I bespeak the greatest possible consideration from every member of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"It is thoroughly clear to you that in order to have any standing with the elected and appointed officials of our country, whether federal or State, we must be able to show them that the business men and the manufacturers of our country are a factor to be reckoned with in politics. We must be able to prove to the man who is blacklisted by the labor unions, be cause he refuses to legislate special privileges to labor organizations and the demagogues that he will not suffer at the polls on account of his patriotism and of his devotion to his duty.

"This makes necessary a great deal of field work, and Col. Mulhall is in charge of this most important branch of our activity. His record is enviable and his fidelity, integrity and honesty beyond question. You can rely on his strict confidence, and you can rest assured that when he calls upon you it will be on a subject most important to you and to all of us. Yours very truly, "J. W. VAN CLEAVE, President."

References to Emery. There were many references during the day to James A. Emery, who, Mulhall said, is the Washington representative of the National Association of Manufacturers, but who J. B. Bird, general manager of the organization, swore the other day is connected with the National Council for Industrial Defense, and not with the association. Senator Reed laid particular emphasis on passages in letters telling of Mulhall's talks with Emery.

JUDGE MARTIN RECALLS GRAND JURY JULY 28

To Investigate Several Cases Which Have Arisen Since Adjournment Recently

Judge Martin this morning ordered the grand jury reconvened on July 28, as indicated in The Times of yesterday. Several cases will be looked into by the investigators, among them being that of Walter King, held in connection with the death of Marie Glascock last year; a negro cutting affray; the charges against E. M. and J. W. Fowler in connection with the affair of last Saturday; the Yeary-Jackson fatal affair of last night, and possibly some others.

These matters have all arisen since the grand jury adjourned a week or two ago. It returned an even one hundred true bills during its former session. The cases mentioned could not receive attention until the December term of court without a special session of the grand jury and Judge Martin decided that this was the best course to pursue, in justice to all parties concerned.

GUILTY VERDICT IN TANDY TRIAL

JURY CONVICTS FORMER PRESIDENT OF WICHITA STATE BANK

RETIRE LATE LAST NIGHT

Defendant Charged With Misapplication of Funds—Sentence Indeterminate

A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury at 3:20 this afternoon in the case of John C. Tandy, former president of the Wichita State Bank, who was charged with misapplication of bank funds. The case went to the jury late last night, after a night session was held to complete arguments. Arrangements were at once made by counsel for Tandy to secure a new trial, but "this event" this is refused. It is planned to carry the case to the higher courts.

Under the new "indeterminate sentence" law passed by the last legislature, the fixed term of punishment was prescribed by the jury, that being left to the district judge. The particular charge against Tandy was that he converted $1000 of the bank's funds to his own use in March, 1911; this, it was alleged, was done through the making of a $5000 note by W. C. Sparks, then cashier of an Olney bank, and the application of the proceeds on a note which Tandy owed the Olney institution.

The jury retired late last night, returning this morning for additional light on some of the evidence. The session for a new trial will be argued tomorrow.

GOOD PROGRAM OF PICTURES AT THE GEM THEATRE

A splendid program of pictures is being shown at the Gem. The feature is a New Zealand picture by the Vitaphone Company taken among the savages of New Zealand. It is entitled "The Stolen Jewels" and shows actual scenes from the courts of savage chiefs. "Pat the Cowboy" is a western picture as the title indicates. "The Stolen Tribute" by Melles and "Right of the Road" by Lubin are two other splendid pictures on the program now being shown at the Gem.

Ask a friend what time it is. When he puts his time piece back into his pocket, ask him whether the numerals on the dial of his watch are Roman or Arabic. The chances are ten to one, that he can't tell you. He has looked at that watch a dozen times a day for perhaps a score of years; its face is as familiar to him, in a general way, as his wife's, but he never noticed whether the "numeral five" was "V" or "V."

Does unusually hot weather tend to make work for the grand jury? Since that tribunal at some points has been "busted loose" to a decided extent in this county and there are some who contend that the disturbances are due to the psychological (see, what a word) effect of the high temperatures. Commenting on this, somebody remarked at the court house this morning:

"When there's just been a rain, and the weather is balmy, everybody in the court room is in a good humor and things rock along pleasantly. But when the weather is hot, and the dust is blowing, you can tell the difference; these lawyers object to everything and everybody and there's a general atmosphere of bad temper."

OFFICIALS INDICTED FOR MALFEASANCE IN OFFICE

Jackson, Miss., July 18.—The Hinds county grand jury today returned indictments against C. C. Smith, W. A. Montgomery and Leory Taylor, members of the prison board, charging malfeasance in office. Smith yesterday was sentenced to five years' imprisonment after conviction on a charge of defrauding the state through sale of products of the state prison farms.

The indictments today charge that the officials neglected their duty in allowing Lawrence Yergler, confessed defaulting former secretary of the board, to sell cotton seed and for failing to ask for competitive bids for purchase of prison supplies.

Wichita Falls, Texas, July 18, 1913

One of the most stretches of road in all Wichita county, so far as our knowledge goes, is that leading under the railroad trestle to the county wagon bridge. There is more traffic over this stretch of road than any other road in the county, yet it is permitted to continue in an almost impassable condition.

Tomorrow, the 19th, is election day. Every qualified voter should remember this and take time to vote. The question to be settled is of vast importance to the people of Texas than that of the election of a governor.

A demonstration of the folly of attempting to raise Indian corn on uplands or any except the sandy river bottoms in this section is again taking place. The crop flourished until it began to shoot when it was caught by a season of hot weather, and the farmer who planted corn on upland soil will do well to get back his seed.

The proposal made to the county commissioners court for the levy of an additional tax of two or three cents on the hundred dollars valuation to provide a fund to drain, grade and drag the public roads of the county, the Times believes, will meet with general approval.

LET THE PEOPLE RULE

Editor Times: I am glad to note the fact that the Times is opposed to Senate Joint Resolution No. 18. It is a notorious fact that many of our cheap politicians—present and prospective—rightly view in favor of this Resolution, and why?

So long as some matters of taxation are left with the people we will feel reasonably safe, but to throw away the power at this time would be folly, and if this Resolution carries it will be because our people have not studied it, or else will fail to come out and vote to keep "the legislative hand" out of their pockets.

ALABAMA FORWARD

The Supreme Court of Alabama has ruled that after Sept. 1 legal technicalities will not figure in the reversal of cases brought up on appeal before that court, or in any other court in that State. Cases are to be tried strictly on their merits, unless it can clearly be shown that the whole cause of the applicant may be prejudiced by the passing over or ignoring of the technicalities complained of.

SENSATION PROMISED IN NOTED DR. NORRIS CASE

The Times reproduces the following from the Vernon Record. As to how much there is in it, of course, cannot be forecasted, but there are thousands of people all over Texas who believe and have believed from the beginning, that Dr. Norris was picked as a mark for character assassins, and inasmuch as the case against him has been dismissed on motion of the prosecuting attorney for the reason that one of the chief witnesses was also a member of the grand jury, had disregarded the fact that he was a witness in the case and is now in some foreign country, there might be more in the story.

WHY-KILL YOUR BROTHER?

There is no institution of the present day that is more costly, more useless, and more barbaric than the army and navy. And nothing more foolish and insane than the constant preparation for war in time of peace.

War is brutalizing, it debases men; it turns them into murdering machines. The only thing the militia is maintained for is to shoot down strikers when they protest against bad labor conditions.

When I see the flags hanging over the recruiting station; when I see the gaudy pictures in public places, to induce men to join the army, I think of the words of Jack London. Read them and then refuse to join the army or navy.

to Mrs. Yeary at Electra and she had at once started for Wichita Falls in a high power automobile arriving at about 10:45. Mrs. Yeary had been hoping against hope that her husband was still living and when she was driven up to the undertaker's office her grief was uncontrollable and pathetic.

Jackson Badly Hurt.
Doctors Coons and Shirey made an examination of Jackson's wounds at the county jail and ordered him removed to the Mackechney Hospital. It appears that the point of the axe had struck Jackson at the right of the spinal column and had only been stopped on its way through the flesh toward his vital organs by coming into contact with the top of the pelvis. As it was, a gash about five inches long and about three inches deep had been cut into the flesh. Had the axe struck an inch or so higher the wound would likely have been instantly fatal. The axe too, was rather dull and if Jackson recovers he may be thankful for this fact too.

Jackson was reported to be resting well this morning with no indications of fever and unless there has been an internal hemorrhage it is believed he will recover, although the wound may still easily prove fatal.

Talley Under Arrest.
Talley made no attempt to escape after throwing the axe and was one of those who administered to Yeary while he lay on the ground in the wagon yard and helped lift him into the ambulance and followed it to the sanitarium where Deputy Sheriff Hawkins and Carnes placed him under arrest and took him to jail. No complaint had been filed against him this morning but it was expected that an inquiry would be conducted probably late this afternoon. If this inquiry develops the facts as have been stated it is the general opinion that no criminal action will follow against Talley as the law gives a man the same right to protect the life of another as his own.

Talley An Electra Man.
Talley has been living at Electra about two years and has been contracting in the oil field for the loading and hauling of pipe. He was at the wagon yard looking after some horses for a friend at Electra when the fight between Yeary and Jackson took place. While he was one of Yeary's friends there is no evidence to show that there was a conspiracy between them against Jackson.

It is not known that Yeary and Jackson had ever met before they came together Thursday evening and from best accounts John Barleycorn was the chief instigator of the affray.

Body Taken To Electra.
Yeary's body was taken to his home at Electra this afternoon where the funeral will be held tomorrow morning probably about ten o'clock, although this hour had not been definitely fixed upon when the boy left here. He was forty-one years old and leaves a widow and seven children most of whom live at the family home. His brother, Dr. Yeary of Farmersville, was expected to arrive on this afternoon's train.

Native of Collin County.
Charles P. Yeary was a native of Collin county and came to this section twelve or fifteen years ago, working first as a plumber. Later he moved to Electra where he was constable. Three or four years ago he moved to Wichita Falls and for four or five months was a deputy sheriff and later a deputy constable and one of the members of the Pickett detective agency. He was known as an officer who was without physical fear and one who could detect and trail a criminal probably better than any officer in the county. While at Electra he hunted out and detected a number of criminals for whose capture he received large rewards. In the discharge of his duties and in the rough life with which he was thrown in contact Yeary had many narrow escapes from being killed. One of these was about two years ago when he became engaged in an affray with Red Mitchell in a saloon here. Mitchell had Yeary on the floor and was slashing at him with a knife and had cut a deep gash across Yeary's hip when the latter shot Mitchell but did not seriously wound him.

After Yeary resigned from the constable's force here he returned to Electra where he was city marshal and constable, resigning the latter office to go into the horse and mule business for which he had a great liking and in which he was doing a thriving business.

Yeary was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and is reported to have carried $2,000 life insurance in that organization.

Jackson's Relatives Arrive.
A. L. Jackson, the man who is at the Mackechney Hospital, is a son of M. V. Jackson of Byers and is a farmer and horse trader. Two of his brothers who live across the river in Oklahoma, came into town this morning and his father and mother came down on the train from Byers this afternoon.

Jackson told officers who visited him this morning that he had no recollection whatever of the affray but told others that he had some recollection of having tried to get his family out of the wagon yard.

His condition was unchanged this afternoon and there is hope that he will survive. It is expected that developments of the next thirty-six hours will determine his chances of living.

Mrs. Jackson Leaves City.
During the excitement following the affray his wife drove out of the wagon yard with the horses and got out of town and was not located for many hours. She was on the way to the home of relatives when overtaken.

Reports were current throughout the day that Jackson had died and another rumor was circulated that the old man who was hit over the head

YOUNG WOMAN INJURED IN PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Is Struck by Man When Latter is Thrown From Swiftly Moving Street-Car

The attempt of an unknown man to catch a swiftly moving street car resulted in painful injury to Miss Margaret Rivier of this city at Lake Wichita last night, she being struck by the man's body as he was thrown from the car.

Miss Rivier was one of a party of young people at the Lake last night and was standing on the cement walk as the car passed the pavilion to circle the loop for the return trip. A man whose name was not learned attempted to board the car, but was not active enough to gain a sure footing and was hurled by the momentum of the car as he missed the step. Before Miss Rivier or her companions realized what had happened, she was knocked down by the man, who fell and rolled over. He got away in the excitement. The young woman was rendered unconscious by the blow, but was soon revived and was able to return to town on the car.

with a glass in a saloon Thursday had succumbed to his wounds. This rumor was so persistent that officers took into custody again the young man who had struck him with the glass. He was released soon afterwards when the supposed dead man was found leaning against a bar rail in a saloon taking all the drinks that came his way.

Among the eye witnesses to the affray were "Star" Gullahorn, T. C. Vaughn, proprietor of the wagon yard, and Otis Sakers, an eight year old boy. Several others including F. M. Tidwell, who has business at the yard saw parts of the affray. All accounts of the affray so far heard agree in the main details.

NEW DANISH MINISTRY IS QUITE DEMOCRATIC.

Copenhagen, July 18.—President Wilson's administration is today being robbed of its claim to being the most democratic cabinet in the world. The new Danish Radical Ministry has, as a starter, decided that none of its members will hereafter wear uniforms or decorations. They will not even accept the title of "Excellency." Premier Zahle's wife is one of the official stenographers in parliament and she avoids keeping the job, though to avoid any suggestion of craft or avariciousness, she will present her salary, which is $325 yearly, to the stenographer's fund, while her husband is in office. Mme. Zahle has decided not to go into society at all because of her domestic and office duties and interests. She says she "hasn't time to attend or give silly parties where nothing is discussed save clothes."

People Who Need Glasses Should wear them. But how many who won't wear glasses know whether they need them or not? That's the question we would like to answer for your own good.

This is not a patent medicine advertisement, but if your head aches, if your eyes tire, if your vision blurs, if your brain refuses to concentrate on the work you have to do—it's time you had glasses. When it comes to glasses come to us. We can and will tell you the kind that will do your eyes the greatest amount of good, and not recommend the kind that will yield us the greatest temporary profit. Our practice depends on the confidence you have in us. We certainly will not wreck our practice by betraying that confidence. We are accountable to thousands of persons we have supplied with glasses. We have their confidence. Our methods, if you will investigate them, will inspire your confidence.

Said Elbert Hubbard, and a saner sentence never came from human tongue or printed page. The happy mortal is the busy one. The man who thinks there are not enough hours in a day and far too few days in a year never has time to worry over the calamities of the future or brood over the misfortunes of the past. Leg of Mutton Skirt New Fall Garment For Women

BY MARGARET MASON.
 (Written for the United Press.)
 A skirt called Leg o' mutton Annette will wear this fall; She'll "ram" her hat about her ears. And make sheep's eyes at all.

New York, July 18.—You are due to don a mutton leg skirt this fall. Perhaps you'll feel a trifle sheepish in one at first, but the National Tailor's Association have wished it on you if you would be swaggar.

It's really quite a lamb of a skirt, cut two inches above the waist in the back and at the waist line in the front. Plain, down to two inches below the hips, it is box-pleated from there on down to two inches below the knee and thence again to the very finish. Developed in shepherd's plaid, it is just the thing for the trouttrotter suit-sheep-trotter as 'twere.

In a mutton leg skirt, slit to reveal a little calf, with a mole on your cheek, a rat lion in your hair, with your neck a little bear and your voice a little harse, you are bound to take some stock in fall fashions. The leg skirt is a mutton is sure to make a hit with the butcher's bride anyway, but if it doesn't quite meet with your approval, the National Tailor's Association fixed it all up for you with a lot of other styles at their sixth annual convention which just closed here.

There's another distinctive new skirt dubbed the Napoleon which has a turn back cuff all around the bottom just like the trousers of a regular man. It is narrower than ever and slit well up in front. Side draping has been introduced underneath in the region of the knees, so when a fragile female desires to sit, she may sink down gracefully with the leeway of this extra expansion, and at the same time this concealed fulness keeps the skirt from bagging at the knees like the trousers of a rejected suitor.

Geel! Pistol Pockets. Then there are the new pistol pockets on the tight walking skirts. After going all over the feminine figure the only spot where a pocket could be located without the bulge marring the symmetry of nature—and the tailor's art, was on the hip. Hence, the pistol pockets are the first shot fired in the fall fashion campaign. Of course, you don't have to be a gun-toter to wear 'em. You can pull a powder puff or a lipstick just as well. Made of gunny cloth, these pistol pocket suits are very snappy, and the jackets are all appropriately weighted with shot. The short jackets were indeed short-lived. This fall coats are to be from thirty-six to forty inches long. The Russian blouse and the square cutaway are the prevailing styles and the coat sleeves will be either raglan or kimono. Vests with Medici collars will be much worn and they will all be double-breasted.

A mixture of three periods and three nationalities makes up a three-piece suit styled the Emperor. In the coat is combined the Italian Medici collar, the cutaway effect of the French First Empire, and the drooping shoulder of the present day Japan. The material is a pebble melleasse combined with broadcloth in a shade of dark blue. The skirt is an angular draped one, cut out very wide at the top and coming to distinct angles at the bottom with a tassel at each angle and with the drapings underneath the angles. The bodice is of blue chiffon over green and the military braiding on the coat and skirt is done with a plain black braid and a fancy braid of gold and green.

Military trimmings of braid and buttons, by the way, are to all the rage as a lingering influence of the Balkan war. Martial effects seem as lasting on the clothes line as on the firing line. You can go as far as you like with your fur trimmings this fall, and buckles, tassels and fringe will festoon the fashionably elect like the trappings of the circus horse. Sashes of silk and velvet will also stick around and almost all the suits will rough it in two-toned boucle, heavy chevots, wool sponges, mixtures and brocaded wools.

The favorite colors for fall sound like a table d'ote—chocolate brown, plum, wine and olive green. One will also see quite a bit of brick and there's a new shade of raven blue which is sure to have you all ravin'. Yes, verily, with all this that the Tailors' Association—convention has evilted for you, you are sure to be flitted with your new fall suit.

FLIRTATIOUS HAT BANDS ARE BARRED IN SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., July 18.—Woe unto the callow youth who is found parading the streets of Seattle after today with suggestive bands about his sky-piece bearing such mottoes as "I'm not married," "I'm your baby," "Won't you love me, kid?" and "Oh, you blue-eyed baby-doll!" After this week the foolish ones can wear them. The city authorities published appeals that the hat bands, which have come so much into favor in Seattle this summer, be not worn during the Golden Potlach celebration, which is now on for fear the visitors might think ill of Seattle's embryo citizens. The bands were barred at the instigation of members of women's organizations, in whom the alleged humor of the inscriptions touched no responsive chord.

SAYS MILITANT PLAN A FAILURE

LADY ABERDEEN POINTS TO METHODS OF UNITED STATES WOMEN

VIOLENCE NOT A SUCCESS

Believes English Women are Sincere, However, and Hopes They Will Win

Paris, July 18.—Lady Aberdeen, wife of the former Viceroy of India and President of the International Congress of Women, passing through this city on her way to Prague today, strongly condemned the militant suffragettes of England and pointed to the United States as the country where women are getting the franchise in the proper way.

"Good and proper behaviour," she told the United Press, "sensible talking and legal action will take us much farther along the road toward what we are after than will militancy. But it is not for me to sit in judgment over my English sisters. They are sincere. They mean well and I hope they win. But I can not help seeing that in the United States, where violence is unknown among the women workers, we are winning our fight."

"One is led to believe that, upon reading of the militancy of the suffragettes, that we are striving for votes for women solely. That is not true. There are so many ways in which women can help in the affairs of everyday life. Were she permitted to work with men on boards, political and social, I am sure her influence would be for good."

"What do you think of Mme. Jane Dieulafoy's proposal to teach women to take the place of military clerks, etc. during war, thus liberating fighting men?" Lady Aberdeen was asked.

"That seems to me to be going a little too far," she replied. "The true role for women is that of the peace-maker, not the warrior. I firmly believe that were women permitted to share the burdens with the men in the governing bodies of the world, wars would ultimately cease. There are always a liberal proportion of male legislators in every country opposed to war; these supported by women's votes, would always be in a majority. And have you ever thought of just what that would mean?"

Reduce Cost of Living. In the first place, the cost of living would be reduced. Taxes would be lowered. Armies and navies would exist only on a greatly reduced scale. Standing armies, 900,000 strong, idling away their time, eating food bought for them by the people, wearing clothes which other people have bought for them, would not exist. These men, instead of consuming alone, would produce at least $2,500,000 a week or $130,000,000 a year. Yes, the woman should, and would, be a peace-maker.

"Votes for women is only one of the many things we are striving for. We are firmly convinced that there is a far more important work for women to do, and we are only striving to do it. In general, we are trying to find a solution to the state of inferiority in which we find ourselves today in the affairs of everyday life. The International Women's Congress is divided into many sections, and each section has its duties, for the true feminist believes her work is broad, touching not only politics, but the home, questions of morals, the social problem and kindred subjects.

"Convinced we are that women's capacity for work is not given the full scope necessary in order that mankind may have the full benefit of her peculiar and particular qualities, we simply wish to obtain certain rights for ourselves which will enable us better to do our duty toward the world. That is what we desire to do: be an aid, instead of a dead weight for man to carry; to do our share of the work; to help our fellow creatures all we possibly can—and our possibilities are many once they are unshackled.

The Indian Medicine Men Knew Nothing of Practice of Medicine

Claremore, Okla., July 18.—The results arrived at after a careful study of ancient Indian medical practices will doubtless surprise many who have labored under the impression that an Indian must necessarily have been a good doctor, and that the medicine man or conjurer, with his theories of ghosts, witches and revengeful animals, knew more about the proportion of plants and the curative powers of herbs than the trained botanist or physician who had devoted a life time study to this specialty.

Those savage doctors of early centuries had their primitive methods handed down—not for their value in the medical world, but as a curiosity for ethnology students. Withal, there were many who belived the "child of the forest" was well versed in all the properties of its produce.

An extensive reading of diverse tribes of Indians will show that none were more complete in ancient lore than those of the Cherokees, who ranked first in aboriginal customs, and whose vocabulary of myths and creations were inexhaustible.

The medicinal practice of the Cherokee Shaman was complete of ancient formulas and an empiric development of the fetish idea. For example the antidote for a disease caused by a rabbit was a plant called "rabbit's food," "rabbit's ear" or "rabbit's tail;" for snake diseases the plant used was "snake tooth;" for worms, a plant resembling a worm and for inflamed eyes a flower having the appearance and name of "deer's eye."

A yellow root was good when the patient vomited, yellow bile, and a black one when dark circles appeared under the eyes, and in each case the disease and plant were named from the color. A decoction of burrs was a remedy or cure for forgetfulness, as there was nothing that would stick like a burr, and likewise a wiry root tea drank to make the muscles sinewy.

Under such a system the number of failures outnumbered the cures in the same proportion as the roots prescribed for certain cures in the Cherokee dispensatory (secured in North Carolina from several old Indian Shamans and priests in 1887) failed to serve their purpose—estimated at twenty-five per cent correctly used, sixty per cent worthless and fifteen per cent so used as to be difficult to ascertain whether they were of any benefit or not.

Granting the two of these three produce good results there would have been about thirty-five per cent of one-third of the whole increasing medical virtue, while the remaining two-thirds were inert, if not injurious.

Old Cherokee doctors never recognized the necessity of quietness around the sick, and a war dance could take place in front of the sick room without his raising any objections on account of the sickness or likelihood of retarding the recovery of the patient. No rules were formulated for fresh air exercises, and for the reasons the Cherokee cabin never had a door or window, and the wind might "sough and sough" for all they cared.

The Cherokees were very careless regarding the health and went bareheaded at all times, slept on the ground in all kinds of weather, and never went swimming in the cold months of mid-winter. As a result of this carelessness, they die like sheep with rot during the years of the Civil War and in later years.

And now, taking into consideration the rude methods pursued in the medical formations of the Cherokees, who were considered among the wisest, it would or should serve to disillusion any person who has been laboring under the delirious notion that the old Indian herb doctor knows his business. The old lines that the "herb of a dove will cure the life," is distinctly indelible, but it has always been a hard one to scientific purposes.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CHILDRESS FAIR RACES

Third Day's Program Draws Big Crowd and Harness Events are Closely Contested

Childress, Texas, July 18.—The third day of the race meet and fair here drew the largest crowd that has yet been in attendance. The racing program was a good one and Aviator Worden made a splendid flight. He was in the air twenty or thirty minutes and flew about twenty miles at times reaching an altitude of 2,000 feet.

All of Thursday's races were won in straight heats but there was some hard driving for second and third money.

In the 2:35 pace there was a field of eight starters, all good horses and apparently after the money although Dixie Hall won first place in straight heats.

FARM WORK DONE AT NIGHT

Misses Austin, Once of New York Live in Castle of Mystery in State of Maine.

Misses Veva and Alta Austin, daughters of Thomas D. Austin, formerly of Fifth avenue, New York, have upset all the traditions about farming, so far as concerns getting up early in the morning to do the work, says the Franklin Road (Me.) Dispatch.

Instead of arising with the sun, as has been the custom of tillers of the soil for generations, they do not start the work on their estate, Cuniculopa park, until sundown. It is then they feed their stock, and neighbors have been astounded to hear the hens cackling in the middle of the night, announcing the coming into the world of another egg. The cattle are all fed at night.

Mr. Austin, who is up and about part of the day, retires early in the afternoon, and arises for a midnight meal of honey, crackers and milk. At this meal discussions are held of literature and art.

Practically the only intercourse the family has with the outside world is through books and phonographic records. The daughters, though they have never been to school, are academically proficient, are practical farmers, expert mechanics, linguists and lovers of music. They are familiar with all the operas through hearing the most famous singers on phonographic records.

At present the family is living in the basement of an old farm building, pending the completion of their $100,000 "castle of mystery." The "castle" is of stone and wood, and at present has only one habitable room. This is the girls' study, and is at the topmost point of the tower.

Mr. Austin is now in New York settling the estate of his wife, who died recently.

When the Austins lived in Fifth avenue they moved in the best social circles. Mr. Austin was a manufacturing jeweler and very wealthy.

BARREN LAND IN AUSTRALIA

In Northern Districts There Are 125
Squars Miles to Each Person, Relates a Traveler.

Prof. Baldwin Spencer, who holds the chair of biology in the University of Melbourne, returned lately from travels in North Australia, and what most struck him was "the extraordinary emptiness and loneliness of that great land."

In more than one-half million square miles there are but four thousand white people, which allows 125 square miles for each. But only twenty-five hundred miles away, four days' sail or so, is Japan, with forty million people. It is a fact, he says, calculated "to make Australians think about the possibilities of the future."

And it is this, of course, which leads Australia to object to the proposal to make Gibraltar the base of its Imperial fleet. That would be like the Mediterranean force, but from Gibraltar to Melbourne is nearly nine thousand miles. Nor does it suffice to say that no European navy is nearer; as one Australian lately put it, "We are not afraid of any European navy."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Faced the Flood With a Prayer.
A West side woman who was alone in her home when the flood came was charitable enough to admit to the house a strange man who was vainly striving to reach his own home and rescue his family. When she did not think of the flood she was apprehensive of the man. It was an unusual situation, as the common danger drove them closer together and to the second story. When death seemed certain she wrote a farewell note and pinned it high on the wall. The man, too, was impressed. Together they recited the Twenty-third Psalm, and then he made a prayer. "I was so relieved when I found that he was a Christian," she said, "and it certainly was a beautiful prayer." Whether or not it was his prayer that checked the flood, the water began to subside and the two were in time permitted to escape.—Columbus Dispatch.

Witty Answer.
Mary Garden, the singer, attended a dinner in St. Petersburg, and the guest was a noted Russian general who was placed next to Miss Garden. The general was very dignified and cold in manner. Miss Garden found him rather hard to converse with, which fact was noticed by the woman on her other side. The woman, knowing the singer very well, whispered to her:

"Why don't you tell the general that you will sing for him, Mary? It might make him less chilly."

"Well," said the witty opera favorite, "every one to his trade, you know, I am waiting for him to fire a cannon."—Judge.

In a Foreign Tongue.
"Madame," said the stranger traveling through one of the back countries of Arkansas to a native in a garden plot near a tumbled-down cabin, "Madame, I see you have some fine spring onions. Could I buy a few?"

"Hey!"

"I would like to buy a few spring onions."

The woman turned in perplexity to her daughter who, hoe in hand, stood unabashed regarding the stranger with curiosity.

"What's he mean, sis?" the mother asked.

"It's ying-uns th' darn fool mean, am; jist ying-uns."

BRISTOW WILL PRESS QUESTION

TO URGE HIS RESOLUTION FOR INQUIRY INTO BRYAN
SALARY.

LATTER WELL DEFENDED

Friends Point to Work He Has Done
During His Five-Months in Office

Washington, July 18.—Secretary Bryan's statement why he decided to get in part of his vacation on the Chautauqua lecture platform instead of going to some resort and resting has not sufficed to put an end to the criticism continues in the form of partisan nagging, with progressives and regular Republicans in complete unison on at least this subject.

Senator Bristow, himself a Chautauqua star of some magnitude, is leading the hue and cry, and promises to push his resolution in the Senate on Friday. He wants the president to inform the Senate how much salary it will take to enable the Commissioner to live as Secretary of State. Senator Bristow is not the only senator who has questioned his salary of $7,500 by paid lectures on the Chautauqua platform.

Many of Secretary Bryan's friends regret that he has seen fit to utilize part of his vacation, while holding the highest Cabinet office, to pursue his business. Secretary Bryan's critics appear to see a difference between a Cabinet officer or a president writing magazine articles during his term of office for pay and delivering lectures for pay.

Bryan a Hard Worker.
The discussion of this subject has resulted for one thing in bringing to public attention the work of Secretary Bryan in public office. His supporters point out that he is the most prodigious and ceaseless worker who has held the foreign affairs portfolio in recent years. He is at his desk frequently for twelve hours a day and the five months' record of the State Department under his regime is cited as a shining example of the questions handled by his department. In that time Secretary Bryan has had to deal with the subject of so-called "dollar diplomacy," as affecting not only China, but also Latin-America. It was one of the very first questions he had to face and it came up in connection with the "Six-Power loan," to which the preceding administration had made this country a participant.

Next came the question of recognizing a number of administrations in countries disturbed by revolution, notably China, and a policy of conduct towards revolutionary governments was worked out by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, based on the Democratic principles that a government should represent the will of the governed which has been made the guidance of the administration in all of its foreign intercourse in such cases.

Japanese Question Next.
After that came the Japanese situation involving the visit to California and the adjustment of the matter with Japan on a basis of the utmost cordiality with the Japanese government.

All of this time he has had to deal with the chaotic Mexican situation with insistent demands on the one hand of a forcible protection of American interests that could mean nothing else than intervention. In his dealings with the Mexican situation he has steadfastly held to the idea of protecting American citizens, and leaving to future diplomatic adjustment the matter of injury to American investments in that country.

Between the considerations that had to be given to these important subjects, Secretary Bryan found time to work out a world's peace plan, by which countries agreed to a year's period of "cooling off" before engaging in hostilities. The leading nations of the world seized upon the plan as a practical solution of the problem of universal peace, devoid of quixotic conditions, and to date twenty of the world's foremost countries have formally signified their readiness to enter into such treaties with the United States.

At the same time the State Department renewed practically all of the arbitration treaties, and at this time is engaged on the task of working out a satisfactory treaty with Russia in place of the convention which was abrogated by Congress last year.

Secretary Bryan's friends declare that no fuss over grape juice or spending a part of his vacation on the lecture platform can dim the lustre of this five months' record. They charge that the attack on the lecture incident is in part due to a partisan attempt to divert attention from the achievement of President Wilson in averting the big railroad strike, with which the Republicans and progressives alike had to fall in line, and also in part, and outburst of Mr. Bryan's old time enemies in both parties.

SPEAKER AT BEAUMONT SCORES RICE TARIFF.

Beaumont, Texas, July 18.—The feature of the last day of the third annual convention of the rice growers was the address of S. Locke Bristow, of New Orleans, his subject being, "The Tariff and Its Relation to Rice."

In the afternoon the stockholders met in executive session, the meeting concluding with a boat ride on the Neches river.

Mr. Bristow said in part: "I hold to the view that the United States is big enough to take care of herself. I believe we will have it brought home to us that the measure is a great mistake and will seriously curtail the acreage in rice. This action on the part of congress is going to force the rice farmer into politics and every man we vote for should be made to pronounce in advance as to what he will or will not do."

Bids for the paving of Tenth street will be opened by the city council Thursday evening, July 31. This date was fixed at a meeting of the council Thursday night, when the city secretary was instructed to advertise for bids at least ten days before that date upon specifications prepared by City Engineer Hinkley and adopted by council and also upon such other specifications as the bidders themselves may present. Council may reject any or all bids. A certified check of $1,000 will be required from each bidder.

The specifications adopted are standard specifications for asphalt and wood block paving and include no patented processes so that the bidding will be open to all comers.
