STATE RESTS IN TRIAL OF CAPT. S. B. BURNETT

DEFENSE BEGAN INTRODUCTION OF TESTIMONY IN TRIAL AT SEYMOUR TODAY.

KILLING DESCRIBED

Witnesses Tell of Scene in Hotel When Sayers Was Shot—Many Threats Heard.

Special to the Times.—Seymour, Texas, July 23.—The State after putting a number of witnesses on the stand who told of the killing of Sayers in the hotel at Paducah, rested this morning in the trial of S. B. Burnett, charged with murder. The defense immediately began the introduction of its testimony placing a number of witnesses on the stand who testified to having heard Sayers make threats to kill Burnett.

The testimony including that of Tuesday afternoon and up to noon today follows:

Yesterday Afternoon's Session.

The entire afternoon yesterday was taken up in the examination of four of the State's witnesses. The testimony of these witnesses was just about as had been expected, and nothing new was developed, neither side scoring any signal points in the evidence introduced. All four witnesses were given a rigid examination by both the State in their direct and the defense in their cross examination. District Attorney L. O. Newton led in the questioning for the State and J. F. Cunningham for the defense.

The attendance was exceptionally large and a greater part of the afternoon there was not standing room in the large district court room. Notwithstanding this crowded condition order was exceptionally good and only a few times did Judge Dickson have to rap for quiet and order in the court room.

Walker Morgan's Testimony.

Walker Morgan of King county was the first witness examined. He testified in part as follows: That he was 27 years old, and a farmer. That he was a son of the former district judge, J. M. Morgan; that he was acquainted with Farley F. Sayers; had known him about seven years; that he had worked for Sayers and was in his employ at the time he was killed. On the 22nd of May, 1912 he went with Sayers to Paducah after a bunch of cattle, and with him at the Goodland Hotel on May 23rd, the day he was killed. That when Sayers and himself, together with Wallace Givin, Fred McDonald and Walter Edwards entered the hotel about 11:30 a. m., the day of the killing; that Burk Burnett, Tom Pickett and Jim Barkley were in the lobby and that they passed directly in front of them, and that Burnett, nor any of the party with him made any demonstration whatever. That Sayers, McDonald and Edwards went immediately to the wash room after entering the hotel, and that he sit down near the steps in the lobby. He saw Mr. Burnett enter the wash room; that he saw a gun and pulled it as he entered and immediately fired. He did not see Sayers as defendant pulled his gun, but saw Sayers fall. He saw another man, whom he took to be Pickett, with a gun in his hand as Burnett entered the wash room; that he did not see Sayers make any play for his gun without him seeing.

Under cross examination he stated: That Burnett was standing in the wash room door when he pulled his gun. He thought Sayers had a 25-automatic on that day, but did not see it; that he always carried his gun in his right hand hip pocket. He had been in Sayers employ for about twelve months and they were on friendly terms. Sayers seemed to be a good humor at the time. He did not hear Sayers ask any one for cartridges; that Edwards or McDonald stated in his presence and in the presence of Sayers that Burk Burnett and party had passed them on the road that morning coming to Paducah in an automobile; that Sayers' hands were in an upward position, in front of his face when he was falling, and that he fell on his right side with his right arm under him. He had never heard Sayers make any threats against Mr. Burnett.

SENATOR CULBERTSON SLOWLY IMPROVING.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 23.—Mrs. Charles A. Culbertson, writing her brother, W. B. Harrison here, says Senator Culbertson is improving slowly at Crowell, N. H., and will be able to resume his duties in the Senate soon. Mr. Harrison denies that Senator Culbertson has Bright's disease or that he contemplates resigning his seat in the Senate.

net, but knew they were not on friendly terms.

Willis Evans On Stand.

Willis Evans of Cottle county was the next witness placed on the stand. He stated that he had lived in Cottle county for about 13 years and lived about 17 miles northwest of Paducah. He had been acquainted with Sayers four or five years. Was in Paducah on the 23rd of May, 1912 and was with Sayers at the Goodland Hotel at the time he was killed. His direct testimony was about the same as Walker Morgan's. Upon cross examination he testified that he was at this time under indictment in Cottle county for the theft. That he was a witness in the case of the State vs. Farley Sayers for killing his (Sayers) brother. That after the shooting he came back to the hotel and went to the wash room where Sayers' body was and found his shirt on fire, and was in the wash room at the time he himself. That Morgan might have been at the door at the time. He helped to prepare the body for burial but was not asked anything regarding the wounds. He did not take any gun from his person nor search him while he was in the wash room.

The Third Witness.

The third witness examined was J. P. Watkins, a cotton buyer of Paducah. He testified in part as follows: He had been living in Paducah about one year and was boarding at the Goodland Hotel at the time of the killing; that he was in the lobby at the time Burnett entered with two other gentlemen, Jim Barkley and another whom he afterwards learned was Tom Pickett. He was not personally acquainted with any of the parties. That Burnett and associates came into the hotel about 9:30, and he was still in the hotel when Mr. Sayers and party came in. He saw Burnett go to the wash room, but did not see any one shoot. He saw Sayers fall and saw Mr. Burnett with a smoking revolver in his hand. He went into the wash room and saw Sayers lying on the floor. When Sayers fell he had his hands in an upward position in front of his face. Sayers' hands and face were wet at the time he saw him lying on the floor immediately after the shooting. He saw Morgan and Evans in the lobby after the shooting, but did not remember where they were. He heard Mr. Burnett or Mr. Pickett tell the other boys to get out of the wash room and he walked out behind them. Mr. Parrish, who was in the lobby asked Mr. Burnett what was the trouble, and Burnett answered that he had to kill Sayers and used some phrase of profanity in answering. There was not a gun in Sayers' left hand hip pocket. He had been playing "42" in the hotel all morning and had just finished when the shooting occurred.

Walter Edwards' Testimony.

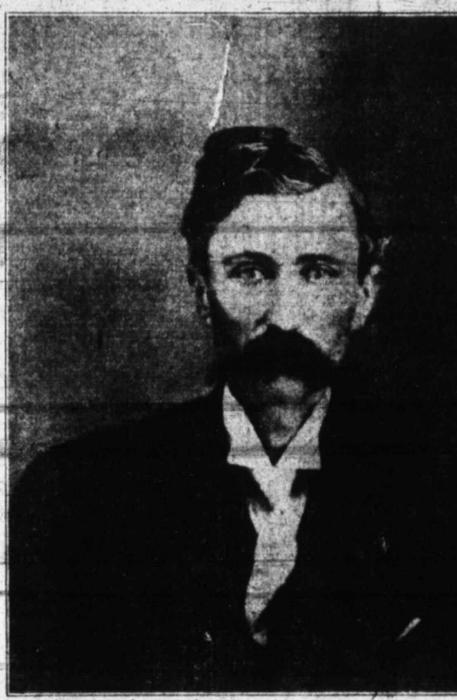

Walter Edwards of Dumont, Texas, was the fourth witness placed on the stand by the State, and testified as follows: He had lived in Dumont one year. Was 19 years old and at the time of the killing had been acquainted with Sayers about a week, and was working for him at the time of his death; that he was in Paducah on May 23, 1912, and that at the Goodland Hotel at the time of the killing. He and Fred McDonald had come to Paducah that morning from Sayers' place in a wagon after a load of salt; that they were together up to the time of the killing. He did not tell Sayers he had heard McDonald tell Sayers that Burnett had passed them as they came to town that morning in an automobile. He did not know Burnett and had never heard of any trouble or had feeling existing between Sayers and Burnett. He first saw Sayers at Christian Brothers' Hardware store that day where he was buying some plow points. After loading his salt he next met Sayers

KATY SUIT MAY BE SETTLED

ATTORNEY GENERAL INDICATES HE WILL DISMISS SUIT IF PROPOSAL IS CARRIED OUT.

STATE TO BE THE GAINER

Plans of Railroad Company Would Give Direct Benefit to People of Texas.

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 23.—Attorney General Looney today said there was a possibility of a compromise between the Katy and the state in the merger suit. He did not say that any negotiations were under way, but did state which it is announced would be taken by the Katy for a compromise would in each case tear down the state's case against that railroad.

The state, in bringing out, declared that the people would receive no direct benefit from the consolidation and that competition was being suppressed, but the building of additional tracks will be of benefit to the people of the state and the joining of the smaller branch lines will, instead of suppressing competition, enlarge opportunities for shipping.

When the official sanction of the railroad commission is given the agreement for the proposed consolidation and is made a part of the agreement for the proposed consolidation of the state and the joining of the smaller branch lines will, instead of suppressing competition, enlarge opportunities for shipping.

Some excited person at Warren and Chenango streets, four blocks away, saw a burst of flames and pulled the box there. The rest of the company answered this alarm.

That meant ten minutes' delay for part of the firemen. But even those who arrived first were unable to do anything. The first puff of flames was hardly discerned before the fire leaped along the stair cases and walls, up the elevator shaft, along the floors and ceiling. There was a roar, front and rear, and the flames belched forth across Wall street, on which the building fronted. After this blast the fire seemed to burst from every part of the building at once.

Clustered on Fire Escapes.

Upon the fire escapes girls, women and men were clustered, and inside others were waiting to get on the iron ladders. But the flames were too quick for them.

The slow starting of the fire drill may have contributed to the disaster, the delay in getting all the firemen to the scene may have been responsible for part of the loss of life, but people who were early on the scene said these things did not materially affect the result.

When the firemen arrived in response to the telephone alarm they were unable to get within 200 feet of the burning building and the ends of the streams from their hose were turned into steam, without effect, upon the fire.

The stairs and extension ladders were equally useless. There was no chance for those caught on the upper floors, except the last resort to jump and this many took, while others fell, shriveled and crumpled with the heat.

DEATH TOLL MAY REACH 60

EXACT NUMBER OF DEAD IN BINGHAMPTON FACTORY FIRE MAY NEVER BE KNOWN.

AN INVESTIGATION

District Attorney Will Conduct Rigid Inquiry—Public Funeral For Unidentified.

By Associated Press. Binghamton, N. Y., July 23.—Municipal employees today began a search for bodies in the Binghamton Clothing Company's factory where late yesterday scores of girls and women were killed or injured when they attempted to escape the flames which swept through the four story building almost in a flash.

It is conservatively estimated that more than fifty were burned to death. Of the 125 employees, mostly women and girls, who were in the factory when the fire broke out only 41 were known to have escaped. Twenty-seven bodies had been recovered at noon. The list of the 134 employees of the company, some of whom were away on their vacations is buried under the ruins making the task of compiling a list of those missing a difficult one.

The loss by fire and water to the buildings is conservatively estimated at more than $200,000.

Girls Thought Fire Alarm Was For Drill.

Reed B. Freeman, president of the Binghamton Clothing Company estimates that there were more than 120 employees in the building when the fire started of whom eighty per cent were American born.

"It's not the money loss nor the loss to the business that overcomes me, but it is the thought of those girls, some of whom had been with us for twenty years. They perished because they believed the fire alarm was an alarm for a fire drill, several of which had been held recently. They disliked these drills which forced them to appear in the street in their rough working clothes, so when the alarm sounded most of them took time to do their coats and others to get their belongings. But for this fact I believe nearly all would have been saved.

Death Toll May Reach Sixty.

The exact number of those who perished may never be known. The latest careful estimates placed the number of those in the building at the time the fire broke out at 111.

The city physician estimated the death toll at fifty, but admits it may reach sixty. Bodies of several of the girls burned in the center of the building may never be recovered. District Attorney Meager announced today that a thorough investigation will be made to determine the responsibility if any for the loss of life.

As many of the bodies are not recognizable a public funeral will be conducted by the city and the unknown dead buried in a plot upon which a shaft will be erected.

Alarm Sounds at 2:30.

The building was equipped with fire escapes and an automatic alarm system. The alarm tinkled at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Reed B. Freeman, wife of the proprietor, telephoned to the central fire station. The usual apparatus for a first still alarm responded. Some excited person at Warren and Chenango streets, four blocks away, saw a burst of flames and pulled the box there. The rest of the company answered this alarm.

That meant ten minutes' delay for part of the firemen. But even those who arrived first were unable to do anything. The first puff of flames was hardly discerned before the fire leaped along the stair cases and walls, up the elevator shaft, along the floors and ceiling. There was a roar, front and rear, and the flames belched forth across Wall street, on which the building fronted. After this blast the fire seemed to burst from every part of the building at once.

MAY PERMIT SHIPPING OF ARMS TO MEXICO

ADMINISTRATION CONSIDERING REPEAL OF NEUTRALITY PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY TAFT.

CONFERENCE HELD

President to Discuss Proposal With Congressional Leaders Late Today.

By Associated Press. Washington, July 23.—Repeal of the neutrality proclamation prohibiting the exportation of arms to Mexico is being considered by the administration as the next step in Mexican developments.

A conference between President Wilson and congressional leaders is planned today for the discussion of the proposal to which many of the leaders have already given their approval.

It is understood to be the belief of the administration that should the free exportation of arms be permitted might adjust itself. The constitutionals have claimed, especially, that lack of arms was their only bar to a quick settlement of the contest.

Senate Debate a Sensation in Mexico City.

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 23.—All the newspapers of Mexico City displayed prominently on their first pages today accounts of the debate in the United States Senate yesterday on Mexican affairs, without, however, making any comments. The El Taif printed in account under the heading "Gen. Huerta Insulted Again by American Senate." The same newspaper solemnly assures its readers that in the Colonía de Boles the most disputable border of the City of Mexico there are men of more judgment and honor than a majority of the American senators.

Stairs Badly Crowded.

"When I first saw the alarm," said Miss Croft, "I jumped from my chair and started for the stairs, but when I reached them they were so crowded with other operators I could not get down and in another instant the whole floor was ablaze. Miss Croft jumped from a window.

Mary McDonough, an employe said she was on the fourth floor when the fire broke out. The employes on that floor thought it was a fire drill and marshaled in line slowly. When the flames burst upon them many fainted and a panic ensued.

"It was all over in a flash," Miss McDonough said. "There was great confusion. I do not know how I got to the street, but think I fainted and was carried out by some one."

FINE PROCEEDS TO RETIRE BONDS

Senate Finally Passes Hudspeth Bill After Considerable Wrangling.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, July 23.—The Senate finally passed the Hudspeth bill appropriating the $50,000 Standard Oil fine for the retirement of state bonds after considerable wrangling. The bill was amended in such a way that no money can come out of the general revenue to retire any bonds and has a compulsory provision that after the state bonds are taken up the funds holding the bonds must be reinvested in school district bonds.

Resolutions were adopted in the Senate on the death of Senator Kaufman and that body will adjourn all day Friday out of respect to his memory.

Two reports were submitted by the committee on bills to amend the laws. Both reports were favorable but amendments were suggested.

TERRELL WANTS NEW BUILDING FOR BLIND.

Austin, Texas, July 23.—Speaker Chester Terrell is in favor of an amendment to the general appropriation bill that will provide for at least $150,000 to build a new home for the State Institute for the Blind in Austin. This probably will be taken up before the bill is brought on the floor of the House and a vigorous fight will be made for its passage.

"If a fire should start in that building as it now is," said the speaker, "the children in the institute would have no chance. The way the corridors wind in and out would make it hard for a person with good sight to find his way out to safety from the turmoil of a fire. There is no way to improve the present building and the only way to do what is right by these wards of the state is give them a fireproof building."

STRENUOUS EFFORT TO STOP SERMON ON SOCIALISM

Rome, July 22.—Monsignor Liviero, bishop of Citta de Castello, a few Sundays ago preached to the largest audience that has filled his cathedral since its construction. He had previously announced that his sermon would be on "Socialism, Religion and the Working Classes." The government, which is making a bitter fight against Socialism, owing to the approaching elections, forbade the sermon, invoking a law which prohibits the use of churches for profane purposes. To insure the carrying out of the order, the prefect of the province, together with all the provincial and city officials, attended the service, attended by a company of carabinieri. Another company of soldiers was drawn up outside with the public itself, filled the remaining inch of space inside the cathedral. When all were assembled Bishop Livero changed his subject and preached to them on "The Immortality of the Soul."

HAYDEN QUITS FRISCO WHITE SLAVE CASES

Washington, July 22.—Thomas E. Hayden of San Francisco, associate counsel for the government in the Diggs-Caminetti white slave cases, against whom vigorous protests recently were made, on the ground that he was too inexperienced as a criminal lawyer to participate in the case, today tendered his resignation to Attorney General McReynolds. Hayden asked to be relieved because, he said, he found he would be absent from California a good part of the trial. The case will be prosecuted by Attorneys Sullivan and Roach, the government's principal counsel.

Women Have Outdone Men in This Country in Following Out Turner Doctrines

Denver, Colo., July 23.—That the turnverein is rapidly becoming an American institution instead of a purely German or German-American organization, and that the women have outdone the men of this country in following out the turner doctrines were the conclusions expressed today by observers who watched the recent International Bundes Turnfest held here.

The preponderance of young people who participated in the affair, and especially the large number of girls who attended, indicates that the young people are coming into their own in the turnvereins. Not only that but the interest showed that the younger generation of Germans are even discarding the mother tongue. Of ten girls in a delegation from St. Louis, only one was able to speak German.

The statement that the turnverein is becoming in many ways an American institution appears to be borne out by statements of turners who participated in the turnfest. Mrs. Ferdinand Rhine, a resident of this country of but a few years, discussing the phases of the matter, said today: "I know many German women who never belonged to a turnverein until they came to this country. Some never saw a turnfest in the old country. But most German women in this country enter their children as members of a turnverein almost from babyhood. Women in the old country do not take nearly so much interest in turner work as they do in this country. That is because they are too busy. Many of them have got to go out in the fields and do heavy work about the farms and houses while the men are training to be soldiers. They don't have much time for turnvereins."

The younger members of the turnvereins present the idea by many that the turner organizations are particularly for elderly people. Miss Marie Ferber, one of the leaders of the St. Louis turner delegation to the turnfest, said: "People shouldn't get the idea that the turnverein is merely for older German people who wish to keep up the customs of their fatherland. That isn't true. About three-fourths of any women's turnverein ordinarily is made up of young girls with the rest a sprinkling of young married women."

The older German women, as a rule, usually have very little to do with it. These are bound to the customs of the old country. It is the younger generation, most of whom were born in this country, who take the greatest interest. There is no organization like the turnverein to develop, besides physical health, sense of power and independence. You will find that nine German girls out of ten are tall and strong, with good figures, good complexions and bright eyes. That's what being a turner means."

DISCARDED WARSHIPS AS TUBERCULAR HOSPITALS

Rome, July 22.—By an order formally announced today by the Minister of Marine, Italy solves the problem of what to do with discarded battleships, and also, possibly, what to do with the entire navy should the world wide disarmament ever come. As fast as the warships become too antiquated for modern naval use, they will hereafter be given to the National Society for the Care of Tubercular Children of Italy and its colonies.

The society plans to refit the war vessels into hospitals and give them permanent anchorage not only about the coast of Italy, but off the coast in whatever part of the world Italian colonies are to be found. Others will be used as existing hospitals for those of the invalids who need such treatment.

The action of today of the Italian government in giving its consent to the result of a propaganda to that end begun at the International Congress of Hygiene held at Rome last year.

A Rubens Sold For 35 Centa. Melbourne, July 22.—A painting which is believed to be a Rubens, worth at least $100,000, has been purchased at auction for 35 centes. A Brunswick (West Australia) auctioneer bought it at that price and sold it a few weeks later to Dr. Charles Summers of Perth, West Australia, for $250. The doctor is convinced that it is a genuine Rubens. He left today for England with his prize to submit it to the president of the London Royal Academy and other experts.

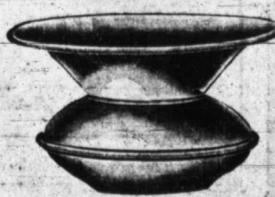

WASHINGTON BANKER'S WIFE ASKS DIVORCE

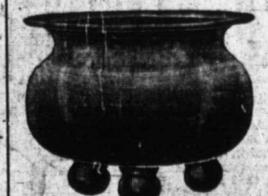

Washington, July 23.—Suit for divorce has been filed here by Mrs. Martha Tyson Manly Jordan against Eldridge E. Jordan, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Trust Company and a leading figure in several financial institutions. Mrs. Jordan alleges misconduct on the part of her husband in New York and Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were married in Baltimore on Oct. 7, 1893. They have been prominent socially in Washington. Mr. Jordan is a Virginian, who went west when a boy, served with the Roosevelt rough riders and, after the Spanish war, came to Washington and started as a real estate dealer. He soon became prominent in local business circles and got control of several banks, which he merged. After the election of President Wilson, Mr. Jordan became a candidate for the chairmanship of the inaugural committee, a position of considerable business and social importance within the gift of William F. McCombs, the chairman of the Democratic national committee. A hard fight was made against Mr. Jordan's candidacy by some of the banking and business interests with which he was not affiliated, and the contest was brought to the attention of President Wilson. The inaugural chairmanship ultimately went to William Corcoran Eustis, but Mr. Jordan was made vice chairman.

But for the benefit of my new customers and others who may not be getting just as satisfactory grocery and meat service as they want, I print below a schedule of my delivery hours.

To get the most prompt and satisfactory service, arrange to have your orders in at least a half hour or longer before the delivery hour in which you want your goods to arrive.

KANSAS AND OKLAHOMA CRUDE GOES TO 86c

Independence (Kan.) Reporter The second jump of five cents a barrel in the price of crude oil, ever made in the Mid-Continent field was marked up Monday by the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, and was met immediately by the rival refiners. The new price is about eight cents, within two coppers of the long dreamed of dollar oil. The first five cent advance was announced two weeks ago today and followed a six months lull.

Despite the former increase, the Prairie's stocks continued to decrease. At ninety-eight cents almost half a cent of an oil well will pay the producer.

PREPARING FOR FARMERS' UNION CONVENTION.

San Antonio, Texas, July 23.—The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to make the arrangements for the holding of the Eleventh Annual meeting of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of Texas in this city August 5th to 9th inclusive, is leaving nothing undone to assist in making the annual convention one of the biggest successes in its history.

The sessions will be held in the auditorium of the Market Hall which is centrally located and provides ample seating capacity for several thousand people. Several rooms have been secured in the Bexar county court house for the use of various committees and as the court house is within a short distance of the Market Hall, this arrangement will no doubt be most convenient.

This meeting of the Farmers' Union will be especially notable, as in addition to the regular business to come before the convention, the subject of Marketing and a system of rural credits will be given marked attention by the organization. The railroads have promised reduced rates for this occasion and the largest attendance in the eleven years of the organization's life is indicated.

In addition to the annual address of Hon. Peter Radford, the worthy president of the Texas Farmers' Union, which will carry a message of importance, the Hon. C. S. Barrett, National president and A. C. Davis, National secretary, will be present and will address the convention. The fact that the Farmers' Union officials have secured sufficient funds to take care of a million bales of distress cotton this fall has quickened interest in the selling plan of the Farmers' Union not alone among the cotton producers and farmers of Texas but in every State in the Union where the need of an adequate marketing system is pertinent.

Unbalanced Says Doctor

Playing With Pencil, Pulling Lock of Hair, Signs of Temporary Insanity

Special to the Times. Greeley, Colo., July 23.—Are you crazy? Probably you are slightly—or not normal—and don't know it. Everybody is more or less off at times, according to Dr. Lightner Witmer, an expert on mental diseases, and a lecturer at the State Teachers College summer school here.

Playing with a pencil while you work, fingering a dress ornament or button—all these are unmistakable signs of temporary insanity, little ones from the normal, says Dr. Witmer, whose specialty is the study and treatment of defective children in public schools.

"It is more important that children should first learn to use the toothbrush and then the pen," he said, "while discussing the subject here recently. 'Same minds are found in sane bodies. The line of demarcation between the sane and the insane is like a hair and out of a dozen times a day the hand on the mental indicator swings over just a trifle."

"Do you play with a pencil? Do you toy with your watch chain or chain? Do you pick up trifles and twist and turn your fingers about them? Do you drum your fingers on our desk or your table?"

"Of course you do. We all do, and we are all just a trifle unbalanced when we do it. The delicate mechanism of the brain is easily thrown out of poise. The little common every day acts such as those I have mentioned prove mental lapses. You may call it nervousness; you may call it just fooling; you may call it anything you choose. But the stubborn fact remains that the pace of the day is telling on the nerve centers of the brain. Relaxation is as necessary as work. Don't forget that, coming back to the defective child, the remedies for retardation and defectiveness lie in the establishment of psychological clinics connected with schools and universities. It is necessary too, that teachers know signs of defectiveness when they meet it in their everyday work. We all have marks of the idiot as I have said, and it is time to eradicate as many of these marks as possible in when the child is going to school. We want schools to become social centers, nice halls in which to play, for young folks must have pleasure. It is their heritage and their due. It is a fact that cannot be denied. Therefore, it could be dealt with in sane, sensible fashion. This is a great and a serious problem—the backward child presents an undeveloped brain, it with special tact and with proper training he can and he will be made a useful member of society. To punish a child because he is not able to learn his lessons is the height of folly. Sympathy and a true understanding of his mental condition is the solution, in part, for the child who is slighted a dullard."

ARKANSAS CHOOSING GOVERNOR TODAY

Generally Conceded That Judge Hays, Democratic Nominee Will Be Elected

Little Rock, Ark., July 23.—Arkansas is today holding a special election to elect a governor to serve the unexpired term of Governor Joe T. Robinson, recently elected United States senator. Judge George W. Hays of Camden is the Democratic nominee and his election was generally conceded as Arkansas is strongly Democratic. Harvey H. Myers is the Republican nominee and George W. Murphy, former attorney general and Democratic leader, is the progressive candidate.

Today's election brings to an end one of the most remarkable political periods in the history of the State. In the last six months Arkansas has had five United States senators and four governors. The death of United States Senator Jeff Davis last January caused it all. J. M. Heiskell was appointed by Governor Donaghey to succeed Davis. W. M. Kavanaugh was then elected by the legislature to serve out the unexpired term of Davis and finally Joe Robinson, who had just been elected governor and entered upon his term of office was elected United States senator for the six-year term. Davis had been the primary nominee to succeed himself and his death left the assembly free to act.

The special election was called by Acting Governor J. M. Fittrell. The Democratic nomination was by primary, and Judge Hays was nominated over former Congressman Brundidge by less than 1000 votes. Brundidge contested the primary, alleging fraud in several counties, but the state committee, after an investigation, dismissed Judge Hays as the nominee.

DR. MICRON MISSING NINE LONG YEARS

His Wife Still Keeps Up Payments On His Life Insurance Policies

New York, July 23.—Nine years ago today the mysterious disappearance of the metropolitan enshrouded Godfrey Louis Michon, M. D., Bellevue University, class of '87.

Never since that day has his wife (or widow), Mary, Falkon Michon, seen him or heard directly of him. She has had clues at times—but not in recent years—but all of them proved false.

With two daughters to support, Mrs. Michon went naturally into nursing, for it was while she was in training at North Brothers Island where Doctor Michon was head doctor, that she met and married the man who drifted so mysteriously to the Port of Missing Men. With a natural love for babies, Mrs. Michon named to that branch of work, and as early as she can calculate today she has ushered in and started properly on the road of life just two hundred and forty-three babies since that day nine years ago, when her physician-husband faded away.

CONFIRMED PROOF

Residents of Wichita Falls Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved

In gratitude for relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Wichita Falls who so testive years ago, now say the results were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Wichita Falls kidney sufferers.

Mr. G. A. Swope, carpenter, 612 Burnet street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I had pains across the small of my back and in my sides and there was trouble with the kidney secretions. My ankles became swollen. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills entirely cured me. I seldom have occasion to use a kidney remedy now but when I do, Doan's Kidney Pills always give fine results."

OIL FIELD WAS THREATENED

A GRASS FIRE NEAR PETROLIA BURNED OVER 2000 ACRES TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

100 MEN FIGHT FLAMES

Back Firing, Wet Sacks and Plows Used in Effort to Stop Flames.

Back firing, wet sacks, plows and all other methods of prairie fire fighting were called into play Tuesday afternoon when a grass fire burned over 2000 acres in the Byers Bros. pasture, between Petrolia and Byers. Over a hundred men fought the fire for several hours before it was finally stopped.

The flames swept into the oil field and for a time threatened to burn a number of derricks and cause great damage, but skillful backfiring prevented much damage.

The fire caught at Petrolia and burned eastward. It is believed to have originated either from the railroad or from the burning of some oil residue at one of the storage tanks.

Several hundred acres of grass on Will Walker's farm near Byers was also burned yesterday.

Miraculous Cure of Dropsy. The friends of W. H. Jolly, who resided in this section of the state for years, and for whom the village of Jolly is named, will learn with pleasure that he is now enjoying good health again, as will be noticed from the following, which is taken from the Long Branch (N. J.) Record:

William H. Jolly, for thirty years a Texas ranchman, tells a story of his cure from dropsy that sounds more like a miracle than anything else. Mr. Jolly and his good wife are here to stay. They are living with Mr. Jolly's brother, Thomas Jolly, of Chelsea avenue.

Mr. Jolly had been given up as incurable by specialists. He tipped the scales at 200 pounds on June 22 last and had a waist measurement of 53 inches. He had to crawl on his hands and feet to get up the front steps of the Jolly home. Today he weighs 148 1-2 pounds and has a waist measurement of but 38, having lost over 65 pounds, and as spry as some men at fifty, although he is sixty-two.

Mr. Jolly attributes his recovery to milk diet and treatment prescribed by a Long Branch physician.
