RESOLUTIONS SIDETRACKED

SENATOR CLARK'S DEMAND FOR INVESTIGATION OF MEXICAN CONDITIONS PUT BACK

WAS RECALLED TODAY

After Short Debate Democrats Force Resolution to Bottom of Calendar

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 7.—Further demand for passage of his resolution for an investigation of Mexican conditions was made today by Senator Clark of Wyoming. Senator Bacon of the foreign relations committee asked that the resolution be referred to his committee but Senator Clark insisted upon reconsideration. The Clark resolution was finally forced aside after bitter debate and can be taken up again only by a vote of the Senate. Senator Clark tried to secure a vote, but as the tariff bill had the right of way at 2 o'clock, the Democrats forced the resolution to the foot of the Senate calendar.

WICHITA FALLS FAVORED FOR CARPENTERS MEETING

No report had been received from Greenville up to three o'clock this afternoon but dispatches from that city indicated that Wichita Falls would win the contest for 1914 convention of the Texas Carpenters' union. Other cities seeking the convention were Waxahachie, Fort Worth, Kingsville, Hillsboro, El Paso and Sherman.

At yesterday's session it was voted that in cities where no report had been received as much as $4 per day to the wages next year should be advanced to $5.

PRODDED LAWMAKERS TO HELP LEGISLATION

Washington, Aug. 7.—How the National Association of Manufacturers "prodded" members of Congress to support legislation the association favored and opposed those who threatened its interests was explained today by a House-Jobby committee by Senator Emery. Emery was the principal witness of the day before the lobby investigations on both sides of the Capitol. He began a preliminary statement to the Senate committee on the subjects and aims of the association as presented in the Sherman law. The identification of the 200 letters culled from the organization's files by the committee.

Discussing the political activities of the association, Emery said that the body itself did not engineer legislative campaigns. The association kept track of the records of congressmen, he added, and when the time came for their re-election notified its members in the individual districts and the campaign work was done by the local members.

A letter written by Emery to F. S. Schmittman, secretary of the president of the National Association of Manufacturers in 1910, commented on the fact that "Congressman Barthold was very effectively prodded from St. Louis" in connection with a vote on a proposition to exempt cotton unions from prosecution under the Sherman law. Members of the committee conducted a rather lengthy examination to determine just what method of "prodding" was employed by the association. The witness explained that letters and telegrams of the Congressmen sought to be influenced by the committee with the members of the association in the Congressmen's district.

Aspermont.—A stock company has been formed in this city and is erecting a large cotton gin at this place, for the purpose of handling the cotton crop in this vicinity. Indications point to a bumper cotton crop in this section.

Powers Take Step to Compel Turkey to Respect Treaty Signed in London

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 7.—Representatives of the powers took the first step at Constantinople today to compel Turkey to evacuate Adrianople. Turkish troops re-occupied the fortress after war broke out among the former Balkan allies. The powers demand that Turkey respect the treaty made in London.

MCHARG'S PLANS FOR PARTY HARMONY

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Ormsby McHarg of New York, who figured prominently in the Republican National conventions of 1908 and 1912, today announced a plan for reunifying the Republicans and Progressives to present a united front against the Democrats in 1916.

Mr. McHarg said a banquet to be attended by from 2,000 to 5,000 members of the two parties representing all sections of the country would be held in Chicago sometime during the early winter. Just who are associated with Mr. McHarg in the movement was not stated.

"The necessity for action at this time can be shown by the condition of manufacturing in part, and of the money market in general," said Mr. McHarg. "One day recently in New York there was not enough business done by the stock brokers to pay office rent."

The proposal of the administration to establish money centers in various parts of the country instead of keeping them at the direction of New York bankers, will make impossible the financing of great projects, except perhaps, at an extremely heavy rate of interest.

"Already the depression can be felt in many parts of the country, and it will be widespread next year, the reunion of the Republicans and Progressives is necessary to combat this state of affairs."

KATY HEARING HERE ON AUGUST 17TH

Austin, Texas, Aug. 7.—Apparently at least the chance for a compromise of the Katy merger suit, appears to be getting more remote. Infact, the state, through Assistant Attorney General Luther Nickels, is going on with the taking of evidence in the suit before a Special Commissioner, Thurman Barrett. Mr. Hill is back from North Texas, where he has been taking testimony at Dallas, and announced that he had decided to take testimony at Wichita Falls on August 18. It will be recalled that on account of the illness of one of the witnesses, the hearing at that place had been postponed but now the date has been decided upon. Testimony will be taken at a hearing at Waco on next Thursday. As to the proposed compromise, it appears the Katy does not seem willing to accede to the demands of the state as that certain proposed extensions which would be exacted in the event an agreement was reached.

CUBAN ARMY OFFICERS PREFER TEXAS HORSES

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 7.—Dr. Louis Beltran, connected with the Cuban army and Captain George Villa, are in this city, for the purpose of purchasing 500 horses, to be used in the Cuban army. Dr. Beltran says "the Texas horse" is preferred by the army officials, because of its superior strength and its wonderful endurance. The "Texas horse" is also better acclimated says Dr. Beltran, than any other horse raised on the continent and is well adapted to a hot Cuban climate. They will spend several days at the numerous horse and mule bars in the North side.

Manufacturers in Session.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 7.—"Finding the Market," by Herbert N. Gasson of New York, was the principal address made today at the sessions of the annual convention of the Iowa State Manufacturers' Association which convened yesterday and will adjourn tomorrow. Representatives of practically every large manufacturing concern in the United States attended the sessions today and will be guests at the annual banquet tonight in honor of Governor George W. Clarke of Iowa. Covers will be laid for 450 at the banquet tonight. This afternoon's discussion was devoted to the subject, "Efficiency in Production." Harrington Emerson of New York, was the chief speaker.

PENITENTIARY BILL UNDER CON- SIDERATION IN THE SENATE THIS AFTERNOON

HOUSE TAKES A RECESS

Delay of Printers Necessitates Recess in Lower House This Morning

Austin, Texas, Aug. 7.—The delay of the printer in having the committee's bill on penitentiary legislation ready for the House this morning necessitated a recess of that body shortly after convening today. A new blue sky law by Morris was introduced shortly after the call to order. This would place the responsibility for the organization of corporations on the secretary of state rather than on the commissioner of insurance and banking. The appropriation committee reported the miscellaneous section of the appropriations bill. A resolution by Watson would appropriate $10,000 for the erection of a monument to General Edward Burleson, the San Jacinto hero, the monument to be erected in the state cemetery.

In the Senate the Warren penitentiary bill which came up on special order yesterday but was postponed until today, was taken up.

Senator Willicy offered an amendment for the division of prison profits among convicts and their dependant families. There was considerable opposition, and it was evident that no decision upon a penitentiary bill would be reached before tonight.

Without action on the Warren penitentiary bill the Senate today recessed until five o'clock when the appropriation committee reported the miscellaneous section of the appropriations bill. A resolution by Watson would appropriate $10,000 for the erection of a monument to General Edward Burleson, the San Jacinto hero, the monument to be erected in the state cemetery.

ARKANSAS'S 5TH GOVERNOR SINCE JANUARY QUALIFIES.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 7.—Judge George W. Hayes of Camden took the oath of office as governor, succeeding Senator J. M. Futrell, who has been acting for several months. Judge Hayes is the first man to take the oath since Jan. 15, 1912. On that date George W. Donaghey's term expired; he was succeeded by Congressman Joe T. Robinson who a few weeks later resigned to qualify as United States senator; Senator O. K. Oldham, president of the Senate, then qualified, but the title of the office was sought a few days later by Senator J. M. Futrell, now president pro tem of the Senate, he winning in the courts. Hayes who qualified today, was elected July 23.

Aviator Owed $8,000,000.

Paris, Aug. 7.—Debts amounting to over $8,000,000 are included in the liabilities of Armand Deperdussin, the airplane inventor, who was arrested here yesterday charged with forgery. Against these liabilities his assets, which are somewhat vague, are estimated at $4,000,000. His bankers hold his paper for $4,000,000, while other creditors claim $1,600,000. Newspapers here recount many stories of Deperdussin's personal extravagance. He was the foremost patron of aviation in France and spent money with the utmost lavishness.

NEGRO MURDERERS HANGED AT FORT WORTH.

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 7.—Paul Fowler and Ernest Harrison, negro murderers of Paul Knetech, were hanged today at the gallows. Fowler was hanged last night. Harrison was pronounced dead after thirteen minutes. Knetech was murdered July 1, 1912.

Want Chairs of Logging in Colleges.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—Believing that the logging industry has grown to such an extent that the most scientific methods must be employed in removing logs from the woods with the least possible delay and breakage, it was announced today that the Pacific Logging Association, which meets here September 24, will endeavor to have established chairs of logging engineering in all the western and the large eastern colleges and universities. Several hundred loggers will attend the convention next month.

ABOARD BATTLESHIP FOR VERA CRUZ

Galveston, Texas, Aug. 7.—The United States battleship, New Hampshire, bearing John Lind of Mexico, crossed the Galveston bar en route to Vera Cruz at 11:15 this morning. The New Hampshire will arrive at Vera Cruz tomorrow night.

BELIEVE MURDERER STILL IN DALLAS

Dallas Officers Still Working Tenaciously on Murder of Miss Florence Brown

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 7.—The grand jury probe into the murder of Florence Brown which has been proceeding quietly for the past twelve days today looked up as an important factor in tracing the play of the girl. The jurors have examined between 40 and 50 witnesses, a number of whom have been women. The fact of this extensive investigation came to light indirectly. It is not known what clues were followed or developed by the grand jury.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 7.—Undaunted by poor success in working out the mystery of the murder of Miss Florence T. Brown and the failure to find evidence to justify the arrest of any man, officers are still hard at work upon the case. Failure to find good grounds for holding any of the men arrested in other towns has confirmed a theory to which the officers are holding rather tenaciously—that the murderer of the young woman is in Dallas, has never been out of the city since the day of the murder and will not leave it.

Queries and descriptions have come in from more than thirty places, most of them so palpably unlikely to be the man wanted that only slight investigation was necessary to justify a discharge.

Officers Discuss Case.
What outside officers are at work upon this case, he many of them and for what length of time engaged, the police commissioner and his men have declined to say. Two conferences were held yesterday between Sheriff Brandenberg, Chief of Police Ryan and United States Marshal McDonald.

Due time that they have it all at all reasonable is being worked out. Lines were put out yesterday reaching to four Texas cities.

Expect Early Solution.
"I've seen in a number of offices," Commissioner Blacklock said, "cards posted warning the workers and the visitors that this is a place of business and there is no time to talk. That's the position we are in, as officers, and actually there is nothing to tell. We have things we are working out, but it would ruin it to say so. The people must have patience, and due time that they have it all, and we feel very sure that we shall have the sort of news shortly that they want to hear."

Chief Ryan and Chief Detective Tanner, talking together yesterday, declined to make any statement.

Persons skilled in the methods of obtaining evidence from the underworld are at work securing it and tracing out lines of possible evidence that might lead to valuable discovery. At least four detective agencies of large scope, including the police in the State, have men at work, attracted by the unusual features of the case and the size of the rewards.

"It'll come out," Sheriff Brandenberg said. "A thing like that is bound to come out."

Relatives in Conference.
J. D. Robinson, uncle of Miss Brown, and J. R. Brown, her father, conferred with the officers, going over the facts and habits of Miss Brown's life at home, in the family, in the office where she had worked, for the purpose of ascertaining any possible link of circumstances that may suggest a connection with the person who killed her.

TWO MURDERED NEAR PARIS LAST NIGHT

Paris, Texas, Aug. 7.—Sam McMillon and a friend known only as Joe, were murdered last night near Paris, according to the police. The bodies were apparently placed on the railroad track after death for they had been dismembered and scattered for 200 feet. A robbery was committed last night near the scene of the killing and the officers are searching for negroes suspected for both the killing and the robbery.

FARMERS CAN DOMINATE STATE LEGISLATURE.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 7.—In an address before the Texas Farmers' Union this morning, Harry Tracy, a recognized agricultural writer and authority, made the statement that 80,000 organized farmers can control and dominate the law making body of the State and do this without engaging in partisan politics. He made this statement in speaking on the general topic of "Co-operation."

BORAH MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE

DECLARES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE HAS INSTITUTED INVESTIGATIONS FOR INFLUENCE

"IS ENTIRELY UNTRUE"

This is Atty. General McReynolds' Reply to Charge—Matter Before Senate

Washington, Aug. 7.—The flat charge that the department of justice agents had investigated federal judges to influence their judgments in cases in which the department was interested, was made by Senator Borah and endorsed in part by Senator Norris. Senator Borah's charge was brought about by a report by Attorney General McReynolds in response to a resolution of the Senate asking for a report on the investigations of the department.

The resolution arose in the case of Federal Judge Speer of Georgia, whose court had been investigated. The attorney general's reply was that any report that the department of justice was maintaining a system of spying over judges was "entirely untrue."

"I know this is a very serious charge but I am so reliably informed that I make the statement that within the last four or five years special agents have carried on such investigations with a view of influencing judges."

Senator Works who introduced the resolution for a report denounced the attorney general's report as "evasive," Borah's charges were characterized as "serious" by Senator Sutherland, who declared that "if such influences exist and continue the end of the republic is in sight."

No final action was taken on the attorney general's report.

Webb of Upland, Texas; Joseph Hirsch of Corpus Christi, Texas, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Texas Bankers Association, and ex-President Chamberlain of the Texas Bankers Association.

To this list will be added a number of prominent business men who will be invited to give their views along lines of mutual benefit to the agricultural and business interests.

In the party were representatives of all New Jersey branches of the organization. The party arrives in St. Louis tomorrow evening and will leave there immediately for Colorado Springs, Colo. From Colorado Springs the knights will go to Cripple Creek and leave for Denver, arriving in the latter city the evening of August 11. Before returning here the New Jersey delegation will make a four-day tour of Yellow Stone Park and visit also Salt Lake City and Glenwood Springs. Bankers Discuss Tariff.
Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 7.—Possible effects of the Underwood tariff bill and pending currency legislation before Congress were the principal topics discussed today by delegates to the Washington bankers' association, which opened for a three days session this morning. Prominent bankers from all over the state were present and it was believed that this would be the most important convention the association has ever held because of the present pending Congressional legislation. It was generally believed that the association would go on record as favoring the Underwood tariff bill and the proposed new currency law as the best laws of their kind this country has ever had.

Incendiary Tells of Job.
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 7.—John Danies, self-confessed "fire bug" today described how he had set fire to the store of W. A. Harris and Max Covitz, who are on trial under an indictment for arson. He said that he received $700 for the job.

"Harris and Covitz told me they wanted a total loss," Danies testified. "They said they have more insurance than goods."

"I bought twenty-five gallons of kerosene and poured it over the goods in the store. I went out in the alley and threw a match through the back window. Covitz and his brother-in-law Nudelman, next morning said the job was bad and they did not want to pay me the amount we had agreed upon. But I insisted and Nudelman paid me $400 in cash and Harris and Covitz gave me a note for $300 which Nudelman later cashed."

Danies' story was corroborated by Harry Brown, a public fire insurance adjuster, who testified that he had first approached Danies with the proposition to start the fire.

FAMOUS AVIATOR KILLED AT ALVERSNOT

Col. S. F. Cody and Passenger Met Death While Testing Out New Aeroplane

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 7.—Col. S. F. Cody, the famous Anglo-American aviator, was killed at Alversnot today when a new aeroplane which he was trying out collapsed and fell to the ground. A passenger named Evans was also killed. Cody was the most interesting figure in aviation in the British Isles. He was a real soldier of fortune with a varied career. He came to England a number of years ago from the United States, where he had been a cowboy. After living precariously for a while he attracted the attention of the British war office on account of his display of his natural gift of construction particularly along aviation lines.

He foreswore American allegiance and became an English citizen. The public in England began to take him seriously when he captured the military aviation prize of $20,000 here a year ago.

APPENDICITIS CHARGED TO GLOOMY SPIRITS

Baltimore, Aug. 7.—Hopkins Hospital specialists made public a bulletin today in which they declare that appendicitis and other intestinal diseases are due to gloomy spirits. They declare that an absolutely certain preventive for appendicitis is to smile, continually and habitually.

"Smile" is the latest and cheapest preventive for appendicitis, according to the surgeons who have handled most of the cases in the hospital. The surgeons assert that many cases of intestinal complaints can be traced to gloomy spirits.

It has been long supposed that appendicitis is hereditary. While observations made have shown that this is frequently the case, it has been proven that the main causes are improper diet, hasty eating and mental depression.

Upon the admission of each case where the patient is suffering from appendicitis, the physicians in charge make it a rule to inquire into the habits of the subject, to find mainly whether he is mentally depressed, or, in more popular language, nursing a grudge. If this is the case, measures are taken to cheer up the patient.

TEXAS NEEDS CHEAP MONEY LIKE IOWA AND ILLINOIS.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The federal department of agriculture has just completed an investigation into interest rates charged farmers for short time loans and the results of the inquiry are of interest to every farmer and business man in Texas. According to the report, interest on loans to farmers for a period of one year or less vary from 5.50 per cent in New Hampshire to 10.70 in North Dakota. The average rate charged in Texas is 9.97 per cent for loans generally made in January and February which usually mature in October and November as soon as the cotton crop is harvested.

Only six states report a higher rate of interest than Texas. They are North Dakota, Alabama, Oklahoma, Montana, New Mexico and Arizona and the total number of farmers in Texas is valued at more than $1,000,000,000. Texas is the only leading agricultural state which reports an exorbitant rate of interest for farm loans. Illinois and Iowa, two of the leading agricultural states, although ranking below Texas in value of farm production in 1912, have interest rates of 6.31 and 6.23 per cent respectively.

During the past year, according to the report, the interest rate in Texas for farm loans, has been reduced six one hundredths of one per cent. Experts claim that by reducing the Texas interest rate to that of other agricultural states $10,000,000 annually could be saved Texas farmers.

Secretary of State Bryan sent the following telegram to the American legation last night:

"You may say to the minister of foreign affairs that Gov. Lind comes to Mexico on a mission of peace and that the president feels sure his presence there will contribute toward a settlement of the difficulties. The Mexican government should await the president's mere confirmation and not give weight to misrepresentations published in sensational newspapers."

The message was delivered to the foreign minister.

LIND IS OFF FOR MEXICO

President's Special Emissary Left Gal- veston for Vera Cruz This Afternoon

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 7.—Administration officials do not believe the Huerta government really intends to snub John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative as would appear in last night's official statement by the acting Mexican minister of foreign affairs.

At the White House today the impression was put out that when the Huerta government was fully apprised of President Wilson's views a different construction would be placed on Lind's mission and Mexico would receive it as a message of peace.

While the broad intimation from the Mexican capital was that Mr. Lind would be persona non grata attracted wide attention in government and diplomatic circles here today, administration officials were confident that no contingency would occur which would afford opportunity for any overt rebuff from Mexico.

The envoy is expected to transmit the opinion of the American government in such a way as to reflect only the friendship of the United States. He will make it clear that the American government wishes only to see a constitutional government set up and that it has no interest in the personal of the candidates.

Gov. Lind On Board Battleship.
By Associated Press.
Galveston, Texas, Aug. 7.—Former Governor John Lind, President Wilson's emissary to Mexico, arrived in Galveston at 4:30 o'clock this morning, and went on board the battleship New Hampshire immediately. It has been impossible to see him as no civilians are allowed on board the battleship and all efforts of newspaper men to communicate with him have failed.

Paris, Aug. 7.—Former president Diaz of Mexico, authorized the publication of a statement that he has no intention of going to Japan. It was reported he intended going to Tokyo to meet his nephew General Felix Diaz and return with him to Mexico.

Statement of Minister.

City of Mexico, Aug. 7.—John Lind, special representative of President Wilson of the United States, now on his way to Mexico, will be persona non grata to this government unless he brings credentials in due form "together with recognition of the government of Mexico" according to an official statement issued late last night. Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of public institution, who is acting as minister of foreign affairs, issued the statement and had it transmitted to the United States embassy. It was also dispatched by the Mexican government to the United States and to Europe. The statement follows:

Consider this: Theodore Roosevelt is close to the Mexican border.

Talking about nuisances, down at Austin there is the —, but what's the use.

Health Note—Anger and disgust should be avoided—keep your attention away from the legislative tangle and the administrative fares at Austin.

Notwithstanding Mr. Bailey's declaration that he is out of politics for good, no doubt he is watching with considerable interest the news dispatches that have Venezuelan duties concerning the efforts of a certain Venezuelian to "come back."

Born of tragedy and crime the Huerta government in Mexico has gone in for heroics as for instance Wednesday night's declaration by the Mexican foreign minister that President Wilson's emissary, John Lind, would be persona non grata in the City of Mexico. It looks like Huerta was afraid for the truth to be known.

The Times man may be unusually dense but he can't see any good reasons why farmers should receive or accept free passes to go to a convention or any place else for that matter. This law should make no distinction in this matter, and somehow the acceptance of passes weakens confidence in the organization that accepts them.

The Houston Post thinks it altogether probable that Mr. Ball would win the Governor's office were he a candidate. Not if Mr. Lane persisted. The prohibitionists can name the next governor by uniting their forces in support of one man, provided that man has got some business sense. It's going to take a mighty fine business man to get us out of this tangle. Henry Knull would have a tremendous following on this account, but he is without political aspiration. John Henry Kirby has admirers but we do not think this is his opportunity, he being reckoned a reactionary. Waco Times Herald.

A DISCREDITED AMBASSADOR

Ambassador Wilson's reception at the White House has been described as "faultlessly courteous but finally unsympathetic." The Boston Transcript observes in this connection: "The President is determined that his ambassador of the same name shall not have an opportunity to pose as a martyr before the country. The ambassador is to be given a few days in which to recover from the severe nervous strain his duties have entailed, and then his resignation will be accepted."

"The sooner he is retired the better," thinks the Atlanta Journal; "for his conduct from first to last has been more like that of a personal agent of the usurping Huerta than of a diplomat representing the politics and the interests of the United States. Ambassador Wilson has gone contrary to the counsels of the Taft administration, under which he was appointed, and even more so to those of the present administration under which he has been suffered, through pressure of circumstances, to tarry at the Mexican post. Whether it be true, as some reports would seem to indicate, that he had foreknowledge of the foul conspiracy against President Madero, it is clear that he has done his utmost to enlist the moral and political support of the United States in behalf of those responsible for Madero's murder. He has been a partisan of the Huerta regime, insisting that our government

The Wichita Floor Sweep Co. is the title of a new manufacturing concern which has just been established in this city. J. H. Ferguson, recently from Dallas, is the head of the firm. The company is manufacturing a special floor sweeping compound and a liquid disinfectant. Its factory is located in the building occupied by the Wichita Horse Co. on Indiana avenue. Mr. Ferguson was the organizer and head of the Dallas Floor Sweep Co., which makes a similar product. He expects to employ four or five men in his work here, and already has orders for a large quantity of his product.

CHOCOLATE FED HAM 'IS CINCINNATI' IDEA. Cincinnati, Aug. 7.—One of these days such items as "chocolate fed ham," peanut fed ham, and coconut fed ham are likely to appear upon the menu of the local refuge home. Tuesday the refuge farm wagon carted to the farm for the delectation of the pigs nearly 1,500 pounds of milk chocolate, 3,000 pounds peanuts, 350 pounds of shelled coconuts, fifteen barrels of sugar and about twenty barrels of other odds and ends used in making candy.

EVEN CRIME IS SYNDICATED

PICKPOCKETS TRUST, ARSON TRUST, RECEIVERS' TRUST ALL IN NEW YORK

MOST MONEY IN LATTER

Syndicate "Fence" Receives More than $4,000,000 Stolen Goods Annually

(Herbert Greer in Kansas City Star) New York, Aug. 6.—Crime is syndicated in New York. There is the pickpockets' trust and the extortioners' trust, and the arson trust. Biggest of all is the receivers' trust.

"Six men," said Morris B. Moskowitz, assistant district attorney, comprise the receivers' trust. It has been estimated by the Merchants' Association that goods to the value of 5 million dollars are stolen annually from the piers and lofts of New York City, and from trucks on the streets. A great share of the stolen stuff passes through the hands of the receivers' trust. They make more money than any other group of crime operators in New York.

That means that they make more money than any other group of crime operators in the world, for New York is admitted to be the richest field. Mr. Moskowitz did not attempt to compare the total graft in the Tenderloin with the illicit gains of the Six Little Fences who handle the goods stolen from stores and warehouses.

Order Goods Stolen by Telephone "But it is quite safe to say that by comparison the takings of the other group in the city are lean as mountain bacon," said he. "We hear a great deal about the wire mob. But the wire mob only works once in a while—and then its members scud for safety. The receivers' trust works all the time. They are as regular as they were licensed by the state. You can order stolen goods by telephone from them—or order goods stolen by telephone."

Nor did Mr. Moskowitz try to estimate their net profits. Evidently they must share their takings liberally with someone for the privilege of doing business. Laidor Rader, now under conviction in the Tombs, was one of the principal independent operators before his fall. Rader has been charmingly candid about his business.

"I was a fence for fifteen years, almost without interference," said he. "But I didn't make much money, although I had 150 thieves working for me at one time. It took too much to keep the police quiet."

Rader feels rather bitterly about that.

"I had to turn over three of my best hands to one cop," said he. "He split with them fifty-fifty, and I didn't get anything out of them at all. And there was a guy who didn't trust anyone. He made 'em work where he could watch them. Any time that there was anything wrong off you can bet that he got his share."

Business Beautifully Systematized Mr. Moskowitz believes that fully 2 million dollars of the goods stolen from lofts and truck and pier here pass through the hands of the Six Little Fences. His investigations have convinced him that their business is beautifully systematized. They have their lawyers and their bondsmen, and their witnesses ready to respond to a telephone call like a bunch of amateur firemen. The moment one of their "op-erators" gets in trouble, that moment an intricate machine is set in motion to free him.

"I was a little bit in doubt about one man we had under arrest," said Mr. Moskowitz. "But when his case was called on in court I knew that he was guilty. There was the trust lawyer, who always defends the trust cases, and the trust detective, who scares away or buys off the state's witnesses, and by and by the professionally weeping mother and the professional wife, and even an innocently professional babe in court. As soon as I saw that squad I knew I had my man."

Judge Edward Swann of the criminal courts has long been an interested watcher of the crime syndicates here.

"It is my belief," said he, "that every form of predatory crime is somewhat compactly organized. I have referred to the pickpockets' syndicate for example. I believe the use of the term is quite justified. There are no boards of directors, of course, and no stockholders. But there is a most workable organization that is in constant play."

How the Syndicate Works As an illustration of the manner in which the pickpockets' syndicate works Judge Swann told of the case of Thomas Mack.

"Mack," said he, "was a Boston pick-knowledge in legal form that can be taken before a jury. Once Judge Swann reasoned with a pickpocket. "Sure," said that individual. "I know I'll tumble sooner or later. But how's a guy going to keep honest when stealing's so easy? I can go out any day and come home with my pockets full of money. If the women wouldn't all keep their money in the same place there might be a chance for a guy like me."

My motto: Miller sells it for less. When Policeman Arthur Graves cried "halt" to a man whom he was chasing on Fifth street last night the fugitive instead of halting turned about and fired upon the officer. The bullet nipped a piece of cloth out of Graves pants legs but did not scratch the flesh. Graves fired back but his shot went wide of the mark and the man made his escape by running into the weeds near one of the wagon yards. The man had been found violating one of the city ordinances by the officer.

Stealing too Easy to be Honest So, thoroughly are the various branches of crime organized that before Judge Swann looks at the calendar he is often able to tell what sort of case is to come before him. "If I see one lawyer, for example," said he, "I know that a shoplifter is on trial. If there is another lawyer in the court I know that it is a pickpocket. Still another man specializes in burglars. Another attorney always represents the truck thieves. I know the private telephone numbers the thieves call when they want aid from the heads of the syndicate. I know precisely the routine that is gone through when one falls. Unfortunately, I have not been able to get my

CALLS AMERICAN HOSPITALS SUPERIOR

This is Concensus of Opinion of 70 American Physicians After Tour of Europe

London, Aug. 7.—Taken by and large, the American hospital is superior to the best found anywhere in Europe, according to the party of seventy American physicians who are here today after visiting practically every city in Europe.

"Of course," said Dr. Richard Kovacs, of New York, "we have seen many things in Europe which would help us in the hospitals of America, but we have more advanced systems and paraphernalia in the United States as a whole than European institutions. In France, from a scientific point of view, the physicians are masters. But even their newest hospitals lack some of the most important details to be seen in hospitals of the United States. I mean by that the best manner of placing beds; arrangement of wards; wards for convalescents; gardens for airing; sanitary arrangements, etc. I believe the French neglect their convalescents too much. A relapse fifteen times out of twenty in Europe means death, a percentage that is twice or three times as high as it is in the United States."

Dr. Sigmund Breitenfeld of the German hospital, New York, said: "After seeing nurses in hospitals all over the Old World, I take off my hat to our American nurses, queens of them all. The class of women I found in Paris, for instance, acting as nurses, was far below that of our own best, trim, gentle nurses and whereas in France they were more of the servant class, at home they are the equals and treated as such, of any woman who employs them."

"Our tour has been of immense educational value, for we have picked up new ideas everywhere. We stopped in Munich, Vienna, Paris, the Bohemian health resorts, Berlin, Bad Nau-

IRISHMEN WARNED AGAINST JOINING ARMY

"Vigilance Committee" Says England Depends Upon Fools in Ireland

Dublin, Aug. 7.—The police authorities today admitted that they have been unable to find the slightest clue to the authors of the leaflet warning young Irishmen against joining the English army or navy, with copies of which Dublin has been flooded in the past few days. A copy has been found in the private letter box of nearly every residence in town.

After declaring war between England and Germany is inevitable and that "England's cowardly and degenerate population will not fight," and that "she depends on the services of fools in Ireland," the leaflet, which is signed "Vigilance Committee," says: "Stand aside and have your revenge. Without Ireland's help England will go down before Germany as she would have gone down before the brave Boers had the Irish not fought England's battles in South Africa. The English know this and they have offered us a bribe which is called Home Rule. It is not yet a law, but, believing us to be a nation of fools, she wants payment in advance and has sent her warships to our coasts to entrap young Irishmen. Generations unborn will curse you now who join England's army or navy, and not alone the dupes who join, but also those who neglect to aid in the crusade against the most immoral army and navy in the world."

LOVE—LIFE—HOME

"Dust thou art, and unto dust returneth Was not spoken of the soul." How strong and faithful does every good and noble life bear out the above sentiment from the Poet's Pen. Man and woman pass through this life battling with conditions and yielding to environments as nothing else does. Each have their circle of friends and loved ones. Each their joys and their sorrows; each their creeds and desires while playing an important part in our actions comes greed, avarice, misfortune and penury.
