PRESIDENT OUTLINES COUNTRY'S STAND IN MEXICAN SITUATION--NO INTERVENTION

WILL URGE AMERICANS TO LEAVE THE REPUBLIC

Message Recounts Peace Efforts And Declares Friendship--Details of Negotiations Known

By Associated Press.

Washington, Aug. 27.—President Wilson appeared in person before Congress today and revealed to the world details of this nation's effort to bring about peace in Mexico, the facts concerning Huerta's rejection of the peace proposal and the policy to be pursued now by this government.

The president announced the position of the United States to be as follows:

No armed intervention. Strict neutrality, forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States to any part of the Republic of Mexico.

Under no circumstances to be "the partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico or constitutes ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

To urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once and to assist them to get away in every possible way.

To let everyone in Mexico who assumes to exercise authority know that this government "shall vigilantly watch the fortunes of those Americans who cannot get away, and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to a definite reckoning."

"That can and will be made plain beyond the possibility of a misunderstanding," declared the president.

Negotiations for the friendly mediation of the United States are open to resumption at any time upon either the initiative of this government or Mexico. Accompanying the president's address was the reply of the Huerta government rejecting the American proposals. It was written by Foreign Minister Gamboa. It suggested the following alternative policy for the United States:

Acceptance of a Mexican ambassador in Washington. That the United States send a new ambassador to Mexico without restraint.

Strict observance of the neutrality laws and "see to it that no material or monetary assistance is given the rebels."

The unconditional recognition of the Huerta government.

The occasion today has not been paralleled in more than a century. No other president since George Washington has appeared before Congress on foreign affairs. The Senate and House assembled in the House Chamber. The president stood at the clerk's desk in his easy conversational tone. First pointing out that it was his duty without reservation to lay all the facts concerning the relations of the United States with Mexico before Congress, the president outlined what the United States had done "as a friend and neighbor." The president declared that "we shall yet prove to the Mexican people that we know how to serve them without first thinking how we shall serve ourselves."

He continued:

"We are not the only friends of Mexico. The whole world desires her peace and progress and the whole world is interested as never before. The future has much in store for Mexico, but the best gifts can come to her only if she be ready and free to receive them and to enjoy them honorably. The present circumstances of the Republic, I deeply regret to say, do not seem to promise even the foundation of such a peace. As friends we could wait no longer for a solution which every week seemed further away. It was our duty at least to volunteer our good offices."

The president then gave his instructions to Mr. Lind, saying he told him "to press very earnestly upon the attention of those exercising authority or wielding influence in Mexico the following considerations:

"The government of the United States does not feel at liberty any longer to stand inactively by while it becomes daily more and more evident that no real progress is being made toward the establishment of a government at the city of Mexico which the country will obey and respect. The government of the United States does not stand in the same case with the other governments of the world in respect of what is happening or what is likely to happen in Mexico.

"We offer our good offices, not only because of our genuine desire to play the part of a friend, but also because we are expected by the powers of the world to act as Mexico's nearest friend.

"It is our purpose not only to pay the most scrupulous regard to the sovereignty and independence of Mexico but also to give every possible evidence that we act in interest of Mexico alone and not in the interest of any person or body of persons who may have personal or property claims in Mexico which they may feel they have the right to press. The government of the United States would deem itself discredited if it had any selfish or ulterior purpose.

"The present situation in Mexico is incompatible with the fulfillment of international obligations on the part of Mexico, with the civilized development of Mexico herself and with the maintenance of tolerable and political and economic conditions in Central America. All America cries out for a settlement.

"A satisfactory settlement seems to us to be conditioned on an immediate cessation of fighting through Mexico, a definite armistice.

(A) Solemnly entered into and scrupulously observed.

(B) Security given for an early and free election in which all will agree to take part.

(C) The consent of General Huerta to bind himself not to be a candidate for election as president of the Republic at this election, and

(D) The agreement of all parties to abide by the result of the election and co-operate in the most loyal way in organizing and supporting the new administration.

"The government of the United States will be glad to play any part in this settlement, or in its carrying out which it can play honorably and consistently with international rights, it pledges itself to recognize and in every way possible and proper to assist the administration, set up in Mexico in the way and on the conditions suggested.

"Taking all the existing conditions into consideration, the government of the United States can conceive of no reason sufficient to justify those who are now attempting to escape the policy or exercise the authority of Mexico in declining the offices of friendship thus offered. Can Mexico give the civilized world a satisfactory reason for rejecting our good offices? If Mexico can suggest any better way in which to show our friendship, serve the people of Mexico and meet our international obligations, we are more than willing to consider the suggestion."

"Mr. Lind executed his delicate and difficult mission with singular tact, firmness and good judgment. The proposals he submitted were rejected.

"I am led to believe that they were rejected partly because the authorities at Mexico City had been grossly misinformed and misled upon two points. They did not realize the spirit of the American people in this matter, their earnest friendliness and sober determination that some just solution be found for the Mexican difficulties, and they did not believe the present administration spoke through Lind for the people of the United States.

"The situation must be given a little more time to work itself out in the new circumstances and I believe that only a little while will be necessary, impatience on our part would be childish and would be fraught with every prospect of wrong and folly. The door is not closed against the resumption either upon the initiative of Mexico or upon our own, of the effort to bring order out of confusion by friendly co-operative action, should fortunate occasion offer.

"While we wait the contest of the rival forces will undoubtedly for a little while be sharper than ever.

"I am happy to say that several of the great governments of the world have given this government their generous moral support. We have not acted under the ordinary principles of international obligations; all the world expects us in such circumstances to act as Mexico's nearest friend and intimate adviser. The steady pressure of moral force will before many days break the barriers of pride and prejudice down and we shall triumph as Mexico's friend sooner than we could triumph as her enemies."

Although a deafening volley of applause rang out as the president appeared before Congress, he plunged into the reading of his message without delay. He finished reading at 1:21 o'clock and another great roar of applause broke out. Then the joint session dissolved.

CORONER'S JURY SAYS WILLARD NOT TO BLAME

Action Will not Prevent Prosecution of Fighter on Charge of Manslaughter

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 27.—The death of John (Bull) Young was "unintentional by Jess Willard," according to the verdict of a coroner's jury rendered today. The death was caused, the verdict said, by "contusion of the brain due to a blow on the chin delivered by Jess Willard."

The prosecution had announced that the coroner's verdict would not alter the manslaughter charges against Willard and eleven others as a result of the fatal fight last week at the Vernon Arena.

It was announced last night that there would be "nothing doing" at the Vernon Arena until the last of September, at the earliest.

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 27.—Judge Marvin Brown of the Sixty-seventh district court today ordered William P. McLean, Albert Baskin and Assistant County Attorney B. S. Aldwin cited for contempt of court.

The contempt charges grow out of McLean's accusation in the Ratliff habeas corpus hearing that conspiracy on the part of at least nine grand jurors existed to indict innocent persons, to clear another person of the burning of the First Baptist Church and paragonage.

The hearing was set for ten a. m., Thursday.

Wichita Falls Well

Supplied With Dust Due To Dry Weather

The prolonged dry weather which has prevented the use of the water mains by the city street force has resulted in the streets becoming beds of dust with here and there big holes worn by the traffic or where the water company or the gas companies have been working. In some places the dust is four or five inches deep and when the water company has been laying new mains and putting in new connections holes have been left which make riding over the streets in an automobile or buggy not unlike the sensation of riding in a roller coaster.

In the early evening just after the rush of traffic before the quitting hour when the air is still a pall of dust hangs over the streets. This is particularly heavy over such streets as Scott avenue and on Tenth street. Chief of Police Crivna says it was so heavy at his house the other night that when he stuck out his finger and pulled it back a hole was left in the dust.

INCREASE IN RAILROADS

FISCAL YEAR REVENUE Twelve Months Ending June 30 Show Decided Gain in Nearly All Earnings

Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—For the twelve months' period ending June 30 of this year there was a decided increase in the freight, passenger and other revenues of the railroads operating in Texas. The total operating expenses were also greater, as was the income from operation.

The showing according to a compilation issued by the State Railroad Commission, is one of the best and most encouraging made in years and is the echo of the widespread and unusual prosperity sweeping over the State.

In no item is a decrease shown, but on the other hand the increases range all the way from 10.85 to 21.15 per cent as compared with the twelve months which ended June 30, 1912. Freight revenues jumped from $69,251,514.35 last year to $79,165,605.99 this year, an increase of $9,914,091.64 or 14.32 per cent.

The increase in passenger train revenue was $3,478,196.19 or 11.38 per cent. The figures for this year are $34,655,184.66 as compared with $30,575,988.47 for the same period last year.

The largest increase is shown in the operating revenue. The total this year is $115,422,336.20 as compared with $101,814,619.29 last year, making a percentage of 13.37.

Members of Party Found Weak and With Supplies Gone When Relief Party Arrives

By Associated Press. Christ Church, New Zealand, Aug. 27.—Relief arrived just in the nick of time to save the lives of Dr. Douglas Mawson, the Australian Antarctic explorer and his five companions, who were left last March on an island in the Antarctic Ocean when the remaining twenty-four members of their expedition returned to civilization.

The six men were believed to have enough provisions to last them until the Antarctic spring which recently began, but the commander of a government steamer, which just went to their relief, reports that they had used up all their supplies and had been living for some time on the hearts and tongues of sea elephants.

All of them were in very weak condition when the relief ship reached them.

GAMBOA'S TART ANSWER TO LIND'S IMPUTATION

Denies That Federals Have Failed To Show Their Control of Situation in Republic

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 27.—The text of Senator Gamboa's reply to the proposals submitted through John Lind is in part as follows:

"The imputation in your instructions that no progress has been made toward establishing in the capital in Mexico a government that may enjoy the respect and obedience of the Mexican people is unfounded. In contradiction with their gross imputation, which is not supported by any proof, principally because there are none, it affords me great pleasure to—Mr. Lind's imputation Agent, set the following facts:

"The Mexican Republic is formed by twenty-seven states, three territories and one federal district. Eighteen states, three territories and the federal district, a total of twenty-two political entities are under absolute control of the federal government which aside from the above exercises its authority over almost every point in the Republic and consequently over the customs houses."

FORT WORTH POOL HALLS TO KEEP SALOON HOURS

City Commission Passes Ordinance Providing That They Must Close At 9:30

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 27.—An ordinance, effective next Sunday, requiring pool halls of Fort Worth to close at 9:30 p. m., was passed by the city commission. The measure, authorized by Police Commissioner R. M. Davis and read by the city secretary, was adopted without a dissenting vote. Commissioner Allen was not present.

In addition to the early closing feature, the ordinance will prevent the operation of public pool halls on Sunday. It will not affect clubs which maintain tables for their members. The clause relating to the closing of pool halls on Sunday reads:

"That every owner, manager or lessee of any pool hall shall close and keep closed their room, hall or building wherein are exhibited any pool or billiard tables for the purpose of permitting games thereon for hire, revenue, prize, fees or gain of any kind, at 9:30 o'clock p. m. of each week day, until 6 o'clock a. m. of each week day, and shall close and keep closed such room, hall or building from and after 9:30 o'clock p. m. on Saturday until 6 p. m. on the following Monday of each week, and within the hours above set forth it shall be unlawful for such owner, lessee or manager to open or keep open any such room, hall or building above referred to for the purpose of carrying on said pool hall business."

The penalty for violation of the ordinance is a fine of from $20 to $100. The present prohibition against minors being permitted in pool halls and the provision against gambling are retained. Five days' publication must be given the ordinance before it becomes of force.

BARS NEW YORK FROM THAW CASE

CANADIAN JUDGE IS WILDLY CHEERED WHEN HE MAKES RULING

HEARING IS HELD TODAY

Is In Progress at Sherbrooke This Afternoon—Remarkable Demonstration For Prisoner

By Associated Press. Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 27.—Judge Glovensky this afternoon granted, at the plea for discontinuance of habeas corpus writ, and remanded Thaw to jail. This is a complete Thaw victory.

By Associated Press. Sherbrooke, Aug. 27.—New York state was ruled out of court here today during a dramatic preliminary skirmish with the lawyers fighting against Harry Thaw's deportation. Superior Judge Glovensky, hearing arguments of Thaw's lawyers, absolutely refused to sustain the objections of Hector Verrett, representing New York.

This was greeted with a wild outburst of cheering by a thousand Canadian spectators. Men and women stood on chairs, waving handkerchiefs, parasols and hats and shrieking: "Hooraay for the British flag! Hooraay for Harry Thaw!"

Thaw bowed three times like a stargazer taking a curtain call before a sympathetic audience, his cheeks were flushed, his big brown eyes shone, but he maintained his composure. Verrett had interrupted to say that New York desired to resist the abandonment of the writ of habeas corpus.

The court replied: "I do not wish to hear from your side of the case. This is an ex parte proceeding."

This practically sustains Thaw's lawyers. While the cheering was at its height, the case was adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon. Thaw had been brought to court in a cab in custody of two officers. He was not handcuffed. A battery of camera men scaled the judge's bench and photographed the prisoner repeatedly. Thaw appeared to enjoy the attention, attracting and laughing out-cried at the antics of the photographers.

Jerome Gives His Views. Though declining to express an opinion on what will happen in the Thaw case next, Mr. Jerome took the hitch in the proceedings philosophically. He was asked if he had anything of particular interest to say to America with reference to the Thaw case, now that he was on the ground and had learned something of the Canadian attitude toward White's slayer.

"No, but I have something I'd like to say to the people of Canada," he exclaimed. "They seem to regard this man as a martyr. No one is persecuting him; no one wants him."

"New York State is trying to get Thaw back, not because New York wants Thaw, but because she cannot effect his freedom would have on the people. If Thaw were allowed to remain, every one would say: 'Ha, the Thaw millions freed him! Yet they are saying the Thaw millions got him out of Matteawan and generally so. Thaw he deported faded into the background when the news went abroad that tomorrow's hearing was off. However, no matter when the case does come into court, the prediction still is that should the immigration authorities deport Thaw, Vermont will be the State and New-ton Mills, the point at which he will be sent across the border. There would then remain to be fought out the question of extradition from Vermont to New York."

"What does New York State want with such a man? Canada might keep him and welcome were it not for the fact that it is New York's duty to get him back. The doors of Matteawan would have been thrown open to Thaw long since had New York the ethical right to do that. There would have been no pursuit of him. But he must be taken back."

Questions of treaty violations and future contingencies suggested should Thaw be deported faded into the background when the news went abroad that tomorrow's hearing was off. However, no matter when the case does come into court, the prediction still is that should the immigration authorities deport Thaw, Vermont will be the State and Newton Mills, the point at which he will be sent across the border. There would then remain to be fought out the question of extradition from Vermont to New York.

J. KING ASKS 50,000 DAMAGES

ERS MAN ALLEGES DEFAMATION OF CHARACTER IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

ERS PEOPLE ARE NAMED

is Aftermath of Investigation of Alleged Murder of Young Girl

An aftermath of the complaint against Milton J. King, the young man who was held in bond in the district court here in an investigation by the grand jury of charges that he was responsible for the death of a girl at a party about a year ago, King has filed a suit in the Clay county district court asking $50,000 damages against A. Foster, Fred Kopley, A. T. G. C. Davis, J. E. Wright and B. Medley all of Byers.

The Hanrietta Independent has the following account of the filing of the suit: The petition of the plaintiff sets out a charge of character as a result of action. About a year ago a young lady of the Byers neighborhood who was attending school at Wichita Falls, died and the petition states that the defendant falsely charged that plaintiff had seduced her and with the aid of a Wichita Falls doctor had produced an abortion, which was the cause of her death. And that they falsely charged that the young woman made a statement on her death bed that plaintiff was the cause of her ruin. The petition further states that recently the defendants in the county court of Wichita county charging defendant with the murder of the young woman and caused him to be arrested, but that upon an investigation by the grand jury that body voted not to find a bill against him. King charges in his petition that the defendants, in all these statements—which are set out, made same knowing them to be false and without foundation, and made them in the presence and hearing of many good people. All the parties to the suit are prominent people in and around Byers, and interest in the outcome of it is very strong. King is represented by Taylor and Humphrey and Allen.

TEXAS LANDS FIRST IN PATRONAGE

Leads Every State in Union in Number of Federal Appointments

Washington, Aug. 25.—That the work of installing democrats in federal offices in place of republicans, especially in Texas, is progressing rapidly and that patronage is being rapidly distributed among the faithful by the present administration is shown by the nominations which have been sent to the Senate since President Wilson took office. These nominations number approximately 2000 and these about 2000 are postmasters.

Texas ranks first among the states in number of federal appointments. One hundred and sixty-seven jobs, according to the official record, have fallen to the sons of the Lone Star State. Iowa is second with 109, Illinois third with 100, Pennsylvania fourth with 98, New York fifth with 96, Ohio sixth with 92 and North Carolina seventh with 74. The jobs awarded to the states are as follows: Alabama 45, Arizona 37, California 47, Connecticut 19, Florida 35, Idaho 20, Indiana 61, Kansas 73, Louisiana 38, Maryland 53, Michigan 53, Mississippi 40, Montana 1, Nevada 1, New Jersey 29, New York 96, North Dakota 43, Oklahoma 69, Pennsylvania 98, South Carolina 30, Tennessee 36, Utah 4, Virginia 39, West Virginia 26, Wyoming 9. Porto Rico 3, Alaska 2, Arkansas 20, Colorado 20, Delaware 10, Georgia 56, Illinois 100, Iowa 109, Texas 167.

The match which began today is open to members of the army, navy, marine corps, United States military and naval academies, educational institutions, organized militia of the United States and the District of Columbia and the National Rifle Association of America and affiliated clubs.

The coveted prize in today's shooting is the president's cup, emblematic of the individual military champion ship of the United States. With the exception of Nebraska, Nevada, Arkansas, Idaho and South Carolina, every state in the Union was represented. To the winner goes a gold medal appropriately inscribed, an autograph book and a certificate.

FINAL VOTE IN NEXT TWO WEEKS

THIS IS HOPE OF DEMOCRATIC LEADERS IN SENATE ON TARIFF BILL

MAKING DEEP INROADS

Showing Yesterday Makes it Practically Certain Wool Will Remain Free

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 23.—Rapid progress on the tariff bill was made today in the Senate. The wool schedule was disposed of as far as it will be considered by the Senate in committee of the whole and a deep inroad was made into the free list. Although no vote was taken on free raw wool, the decisive showing on wool having been postponed until the bill comes from the committee of the whole, the finance committee rates on wool manufacturers were agreed to without amendment, and there was every indication that raw wool would remain free. The Penrose-LaFollette-Smoot-Carter substitutes for the wool schedules will come up when the bill appears in the Senate proper.

Final Vote in Two Weeks. With only a part of the free list, a portion of the paper schedule and the sundries schedule remaining to be considered in committee, democratic leaders expressed confidence that the income tax would be disposed of before the end of the coming week. It was their hope to have the bill ready for the final vote in the Senate within two weeks. Among the articles on the free list ratified today were agricultural implements, sugar cane machinery, alcohol, horses and mules and animals for breeding, asbestos, Bibles, bread, biscuits and many others.

Wants Inspection of Meat Imports. An inspection system for foreign meat imports more rigid than that in the tariff bill was proposed in an amendment introduced and urged by Senator Cummins, but the free meat section went over without action. The pending bill provides for the acceptance of certificates of inspection from exporting countries. Senator Cummins' amendment would demand an ante mortem examination of meats in the countries of exportation and would authorize American inspectors to reinspect the meat after it enters the United States. Senator Cummins said: "There can be no reason why we should permit the foreigner to supply us with diseased meats and deny that privilege to our own packers."

The present bill, he declared, would give Americans no protection against beef of diseased cattle from countries that had no adequate system of ante mortem inspection. Senator Williams asked: "Does the senator want to fix it so meat cannot come here from Mexico?" Senator Cummins replied: "I do not particularize. I want to protect our consumers no matter from where the meats come."

Secretary of Agriculture to Decide. Senator Norris also said he believed the bill, if not changed, would give the foreign meat producer an advantage over the American packer. Senator Williams, in charge of the bill, said the committee intended to admit foreign meat from countries with inspection laws inferior to American laws, provided the secretary of agriculture should decide the foreign inspection is "good enough." He said the United States had no power to compel other countries to adopt definite inspection systems.

Senator Lodge suggested other countries in the past have compelled the United States to adopt regulations by excluding United States meat. The tariff free list were passed over for future consideration. These included furs and leather goods, flax, cash registers, typewriters, sewing machines, iron pipe and other articles.

OIL PRICES HERE FAIL TO FOLLOW OKLAHOMA'S

Recent Advances in Mid-Continent Quotations are Not Reflected in Local Field

Oil producers in the Wichita Falls district are still looking for an expected advance in the price of oil following the recent advance in the Oklahoma fields and "looking" about describes the situation so far as the producers are concerned. Up until recently oil here has brought from five to ten cents a barrel more than in the Oklahoma fields but a month or so ago Oklahoma oil went to 98 cents while oil here was advanced to $1. About ten days ago Oklahoma crude was advanced to $1.03 and so far there has been no corresponding advance in this field. Oil producers here who have been seeing the price advanced every time there was a raise in the mid-continent field are much disconcerted by the delay on the part of the pipe line companies in posting an advance and are beginning to fear that it may not come at all.

Some of them profess to believe that as soon as the half a million dollar fine is taken out of the producers that the price will then be advanced. Reports show that despite great drilling activity in all the territory west of the Mississippi river production has not increased in the past few

Sobriety Prevails In The Color Scheme For Summer

New York, Aug. 23.—Those of us who have a penchant for quiet color schemes uttered last spring a strong protest, which later became almost indignant, when we were told that Bulgarian coloring was to be the rage of the summer. Unwillingness changed to bewilderment when the new Futurist, Post-impressionist and Cubist schemes made their advent. But gradually many of us, who at first condemned the gaudy riot of color, in which orange held combat with green and blue with purple, enthusiastically embraced. And the feminine ribbon girde accompanies this style of frock.

Although much has been written of the girde, "the last word" remains to be said, as new methods of tying or ornamenting are continually being introduced. A present a girde that has won much favor is brought loosely about the waist in soft, crushed effect and terminates in wired butterfly bows at center front or back (the ends being folded underneath and attached to the lower edge of the tunic). It is made of tulle, printed gauze, embroidered chiffon, or soft velvet or satin, the softness of the fabric being the prime essential of the girde.

But afternoon frocks of perishable fabric, although preferred are not always most serviceable. They look easily and cleaners' bills come high. For this reason many women prefer a silk frock of rather dark tone. Such a frock may be seen in the second illustration. French blue velvet moire was the material chosen. The waist is attractively trimmed with shadow lace, inserts and neck flounce coming well over the bust. It has a stylish back yoke and droops effectively over the black satin girde both back and front. The skirt has front drapery and applied panel. The back is laid in soft pleats. The style will be quite as smart for fall and midwinter wear as for midsummer.

When walking through the shops at this season of the year, many odds and ends of cretonnes, mousseline, plain and figured silk, satin and crepe may be seen strewn about the counters. Did women realize the possibilities of these fabrics, they might have most attractive, up to date jack-line portion of the world at least, bent its knees in obeisance to Fashion's behest. Dame Fashion has a capricious spirit. Her moods are an earnest, not of principle, but of fancy. No sooner was this frame of color accepted than she voted it a nightmare, inartistic and distressing. She would have none of it. So back she swung to her old reliable black and white and the various half tones that follow in their train. And as summer was under way and Nature had already made lavish use of her color tubes, the quieter tones were a timely relief even if we should return to our gay tints in the fall.

Very refreshing on a midsummer day is the neutral tint of the frock first illustrated. The shade chosen was gray, and the material sponge. Black satin was used for collar, cuffs and girde, and shadow lace for the tie. The waist is fashioned on Balkan lines, now so fashionable for general wear. The skirt has close fitting front and back panel and narrow lines at waist, hips and hem. It is one of the few models intended particularly for outdoor sports, morning and business.

Frocks for afternoon might very appropriately be called by our mothers evening dresses—not, however, by our great great grandmothers, whose afternoon dresses approached the evening style quite as closely as do our own in their décolletage, diaphanous shoulder effects and wisps of sleeves. So history is repeating itself. Chiffon, mousseline de soie, tulle and lace are the fabrics chosen for these waists, tunics and overdresses. The waists are very low in front and very transparent about the neck and shoulders. The sleeves are such in name only. They are frequently but a few inches long and also of transparent fineness. The gloves worn with these sleeves should extend almost to the shoulders. The shoulder drapery has become a smart style feature and reaches well over the arm, a small, closely fitted sleeve cap is inserted in the waist drapery or attached to the underwaist or casket to prevent exposure of the underarm.

Many of the skirts for wear with these lovely sheer bodices are made of silk or soft satin. They are wrapped about the form in folds over the hips and in narrow lines about the hem and are slashed at front, sides or back to permit of easy walking. It is at the hem where the sharp contrast is made between afternoon and evening frocks, as no trains are seen on gowns for afternoon wear. It is rare when any of the material of the wrapped skirt appears above the high waistline unless in the folds of the girde or in fluted, pleated and pointed effects. Skirts of mousseline de soie, chiffon and net accompany waists of similar materials. When the development is in these fabrics they are almost invariably flounced. These flounces may be pleated or ruffled, as preferred, and extend to a trifling outlay. These smart little costumes are made on loose lines. Frequently the sleeves are cut in one with the body of the garment; a peplum is added and a smart ribbon belt and the garment is ready to don. Peplums by the way, are the distinctive features of the coatee. They invariably extend to a point in the back and are smartly cut away in front. The necks and sleeves may be attractively trimmed with lace or net frills. When the development is in silk or satin the jackets may be worn "into" the fall and are very attractive as an accompaniment to dainty afternoon frocks.

RAILROAD SHOPS AT TEAGUE BURN

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $500,000 CAUSED BY FLAMES EARLY TODAY

TO BE REBUILT AT ONCE

Fire Breaks Out at Two O'Clock and is Under Control When Daylight Arrives

By Associated Press. Teague, Texas, Aug. 26.—About twenty acres of buildings were burned over and nearly $500,000 damage done by a fire in the Trinity and Brazos Valley shops here today. The fire was brought under control and extinguished about daylight, when seventy-five fire fighters made a stand at a heavy brick fire-wall.

Before nine o'clock this morning the railroad headquarters had telegraphed to Teague that plans already are under way to rebuild the burned shops on a larger scale than ever before. The entire plant including yards, covers about a hundred acres. The fire started from unknown causes in the store room. The railroad's own fire fighting apparatus and the local fire company turned out. The blaze was discovered about two o'clock this morning. Built of brick and containing great quantities of non-inflammable machinery, the shops were nevertheless turned into a furnace by the great burst of fire from the inflammable material in the store room.

Nearly all Plant Swept. This fire swept into the wood working plant adjoining, where it found piles of dry lumber and great quantities of paint. The blacksmith shop, machinery department and tin shop were gutted, along with the store room and wood working departments. This comprised practically all the main shops. The round house and power plant were saved by a heavy brick wall.

Rolling stock burned included five locomotives, one passenger coach and several freight cars. There were eight or ten locomotives in the round house, which the fire walls saved. There will be some salvage in the machinery department, estimated at about twenty-five per cent. The only records saved from the office of the master mechanic were the payroll sheets of the four or five hundred employes of the shops.

Thaw's Wife Said She Received Checks for Amount but They Were Never Paid

New York, Aug. 26.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, testifying before referees in bankruptcy today swore that Harry Thaw's mother had contracted to pay her $15,000 cash and $1,000 a month so long as Evelyn should live, if she would enter into an action for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Thaw. The girl testified this contract was made in 1907 or 1908 after Thaw had killed White.

She said her lawyer has checks for $15,000 bearing Mrs. Thaw's signature and that none of them have been honored. These checks, she said, were to be the first payments on the contract.

WASHINGTON DENIES THAT LIND IS EN ROUTE HOME

Hope Exists That Moral Suasion Will Yet Prevail—Pres. Wilson's Demands Made Public

Washington, Aug. 26.—Eleventh hour developments in the Mexican situation today postponed delivery of President Wilson's special message to Congress until Wednesday and indicated that the Huerta government after all might withdraw or modify its rejection of the United States proposals. At the request of Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs Gamboa, which was based upon supplementary suggestions by John Lind, President Wilson consented to postpone his address to Congress until one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Its delivery already had been set for three o'clock this afternoon. It was officially stated today that in no case would the United States withdraw from the basic principles of its position. Paramount among this is a consistent refusal to recognize Huerta.

Official announcement was made of the original proposals by the United States, presented to Huerta by Mr. Lind. They were: (1) Cessation of hostilities and a definite armistice. (2) An early and free election. (3) Huerta to bind himself not to be a candidate. (4) Agreement by all parties to abide by the result of the election.

White House officials said positively that Mr. Lind had not been recalled from Mexico and added that if he had left for Vera Cruz, it would be for only a short visit. He expected to return to Mexico City to continue the negotiations.

President Wilson's message, about 4000 words long, was locked up in the White House vault, awaiting further developments. It is understood the message is very kind in tone toward Mexico. Wilson's plan to deliver the message today was the first time since George Washington's day that a President of the United States had determined to appear personally before Congress on a question of foreign policy. It is learned that this expression of American policy says that in view of the rejection of the suggestions of the United States, this country has not felt compelled to emphasize its ideas by arms, but having obtained the moral support of the civilized world, the American government has decided to pursue a policy of absolute interference; from the first it has realized that only two alternatives were before it—friendly mediation or armed intervention. The former has failed, and the other in the opinion of administration officials is not called for by the existing emergency.

The United States therefore will remain aloof, hoping moral suasion eventually will prevail. Arms will be denied all warring factions. Americans will be assisted to leave danger zones and the United States will patiently await the establishment of a secure stable and constitutional government before extending recognition.

The message cites as almost a parallel precedent for the action of the administration the difficulties between President Hayes in 1877 and Profrío Diaz, who after overthrowing President Lerdo, sought American recognition. Although foreign governments recognized Diaz the United States waited a year, not only until an election was held but it was satisfied the government thereby set up could guarantee international contracts. President Hayes in 1877, ordered General Ord to the border with power to cross into Mexico with American troops to suppress marauding bands who were plundering the property of Americans and retreating across the Rio Grande.

LIND LEAVES MEXICO CITY PRICE OF OIL IS RAISED TO $1.05

MAGNOLIA AND TEXAS COMPANIES ADVANCE QUOTATIONS ON CRUDE HIGHER THAN OKLAHOMA

Means About $1500 More Daily Will be Paid for Present Production in This Field

The price of oil has been advanced to $1.05 here. The advance was posted yesterday by the Magnolia Company and was followed this morning by the Texas Company. The advance amounted to five cents a barrel and brings the price of oil here two cents a barrel higher than is paid in Oklahoma. An item appeared in yesterday's paper saying that the producers were looking for an advance but that it had not been posted. This was written before notice of the advance had been received here.

The five cent raise in price means that nearly $1500 more money daily will be paid out to the producers in the Wichita Falls district as the production is now close to 30,000 barrels daily. Drilling operations through the field, including Electra, Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Petrolia, are more

President Hedges of the Farmers Union, predicts that cotton will sell for 15c per pound before January 1st, and while he made this prediction before the drought had cut short the prospects for the fine cotton crop, it looks now as if his prediction will come true.

About all the city of Wichita Falls owns are the streets and alleys, and these are maintained largely at the expense of abutting property owners. Under present conditions public service corporations use our streets and alleys for which they pay the city nothing.

Now that it has been decided to do a little more paving of streets, and inasmuch as the owners of abutting property on the streets to be paved will be required to pay all the paving expense, excepting the intersections, why not give the owners of abutting property a chance to make a choice of the kind of paving to be used?

Children county will vote next Saturday, August 30th, to determine whether pool halls shall be permitted in that county.

It would seem that the war victories in Mexico are largely determined by which side happens to be in possession of the telegraph lines reaching the scene of battle.

State Senator John G. Willacy laments that all he lacks of being decided as to whether he will be a candidate for governor is as to whether he can raise the money with which to make the campaign.

As a last resort, it is very difficult for the Mexican mind to disassociate the idea of strong sentiment from the idea of force, largely because with Mexicans sentiment means passion so strong that it can find no expression except in the employment of force.

Had the United States professed its suggestions to General Huerta by assembling a considerable army along the border and a strong fleet of battleships along the Mexican coast, it is quite probable that they would have been received by him much more favorably than they were.

This government wished to give Victoriano Huerta an opportunity of indicating to the world the depth and sincerity of its hostility, so without the display of force or the implication of threats, it suggested to him, through its special representative, John Lind, that he step aside in the interest of peace, which he has utterly failed to bring about, and give others a chance.

Had Victoriano Huerta been as unselfishly devoted to the welfare of his country as he pretends he would have gladly acceded to the proposition made to him by the Wilson administration.

Victoriano Huerta is neither a patriot nor a statesman. He is a rather high type of ambitious bandit. He is occupying the national palace because it suits his personal pride and appeals to his personal vanity.

Children county will vote next Saturday, August 30th, to determine whether pool halls shall be permitted in that county.

It would appear that those three indicted men charged with the burning of the First Baptist church in Fort Worth and the residence of Rev. Frank Norris, are men who can without funds furnished by themselves or their relatives, command the very best legal talent of the Tarrant county bar in their defense.

IN DEFENSE OF ROBERTSON INSURANCE LAW

Dallas, Texas, August 22nd, 1913.—To the Times: Quite a number of papers in the State have recently printed a communication from John B. Lunsford under the caption "Bankers Favor Cheaper Money."

The total state tax rate for 1913 has been fixed at forty-five cents on the $100 valuation, an increase over last year of eighteen and one third of a cent. The tax is proportioned as follows: state ad valorem, 23 cents; special confederate pension, 5 cents.

It strikes the Times that if public service corporations are to have the free use of our streets and alleys for the setting of their poles upon which to string wires they should be required to pay something toward the maintenance of the city government for that privilege.

When you drive over our streets and find them in bad condition, worse in fact than they have been in several years, you lay the blame to our city officials.

Senator Willacy, one of the strongest anti-prohibitionists in the state, and by the way, also one of the state's most able men, in speaking of his prospective candidacy for the governorship, has the following to say:

"I have no objection to make at this time; nothing to turn loose in the way of accusations, but when I go on the stump the fur will fly. I shall make the campaign on an anti-graft and extravagance platform."

From reading the proceedings of the habeas corpus trial of a man charged with arson in connection with the burning of the First Baptist church in Fort Worth and the parsonage, one is bound to reach the conclusion that the people of Fort Worth are hopelessly divided.

No objection was made to ratifying this paragraph although Republican senators will later demand roll calls on pending substitutes for the woolen schedule when the bill leaves the committee of the whole.

SLAVERY EXISTS IN PHILIPPINES

COMMISSIONER MAKES REPORT SHOWING MUCH PEONAGE IN THE ISLANDS

NO LEGISLATIVE RELIEF

Courts Fail to Convict Slave Trader and Means of Checking Evil is Not in Sight

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 25.—Slavery in the full meaning of the word exists throughout the Philippines, even in the city of Manila, and peonage is general in the islands, according to a special report made by Commissioner Dean Worcester to the Insular government. He says that Philippine children and some parts of the island capture them and sell them into slavery for profit. Some are sent to China where they are dressed in the native fashion.

Mr. Worcester cites the case of a thirteen year old girl who was bought for some pigs, rice, chickens and a cloak. The supreme court of the island released the slave trader on the ground that no crime had been committed and because no physical force had been used. Worcester said this one case has blocked all other slavery prosecutions.

He said the Philippine assembly has opposed laws to suppress slavery because many of its members come from provinces where slavery flourishes. He cites the case of a Philippine assemblyman caught red-handed owning a slave girl in Manila and says he could obtain conclusive evidence of ten thousand such cases.

SECRET SERVICE AGENTS

Their Presence Cause by Reports That Money Was Being Used by Thaw Forces

By Associated Press. Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 25.—Neither William T. Jerome, for the State of New York, nor Roger O'Hara for the Thaw family, had reached Sherbrooke this afternoon and counsel for both sides marked time. Thaw had a row with the jail authorities today because his breakfast from a hotel arrived too late. It was the worst show of temper since his detention.

J. Parkinson of Montreal, connected with the Canadian secret service reached here today to keep in touch with the case. Stories of Thaw money corrupting courts, judges and immigration officials, all of them baselines so far as anyone can learn, were being discussed today in the hotel corridors and on the street.

One of the Thaw lawyers explained this afternoon one of the reasons why they had not yet announced a definite plan of action. He said: "We are waiting for the other side to show its hand. It has never been made clear to us exactly what is the attitude of the Canadian authorities in regard to Thaw."

Attorney for J. W. Ratliff Makes Charge During Hearing of Case This Morning

By Associated Press. Port Worth, Texas, Aug. 25.—Charges that at least nine members of the sixty-seventh district court jury were in a conspiracy to indict innocent men in an effort to clear someone of the burning of the First Baptist Church and the parsonage were made in Judge Buck's court this morning by counsel fighting for the release of J. W. Ratliff, one of the three indicted in the church and parsonage fire cases.

This charge was made when J. Y. Cummings, one of the private prosecutors, refused to answer a question intended to show that he had been solicited to serve on the grand jury. He refused to answer on the ground that the question was immaterial. Attorney McLean who asked it then declared that the purpose was to show that men were solicited to serve on the grand jury to the purpose of indicting innocent men.

Fred Lavender, supposed star witness in the case, again today refused to answer any questions. Cummings on the stand, said Lavender had told him yesterday that the Ratliff seeking release was the Ratliff Lavender meant in his statement. Saturday Lavender had denied that this Ratliff was the right Ratliff.

Cummings said Lavender said he lied in court Saturday because he was afraid of being killed in jail if he told on Ratliff.

A. R. Deason is on trial before a jury in the county court this afternoon on a charge of aggravated assault. The complaining witness is Miss Beulah Cox. She testified that after she had given Deason a drink of ice water he threw his arm about her neck and attempted to kiss her.

Two pleas of guilty on pistol toting charges were accepted in the county court this morning. A hundred dollars was assessed in one case and the other where a negro was the defendant a thirty days jail sentence was imposed.

SULZER REFUSED TO BE MURPHY'S RUBBER STAMP

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 25.—Governor Sulzer of New York asserts that he has no fear of the impeachment proceedings which have been instituted against him. He expressed this belief in a letter to Representative LaFollette of Washington, who made Mr. Sulzer's letter public last night. Mr. Sulzer says none can conceive the obstacles which beset his path. He emphatically declares the charges against him are groundless and says Charles F. Murphy knew there is no basis for the publicity campaign they are conducting against him, but are pursuing it with the knowledge that it may prove disconcerting to him and worry Mr. Sulzer. Speaking of Murphy he said:

"When the political boss found he could not control me and make me a rubber stamp, he did everything in his power to destroy me politically. When Boss Murphy told me he would destroy me if I did not do his bidding, I defied him to do his worst and declared I would continue to do my duty."

INDICTMENT OF MURPHY AND OTHERS IS ASKED

CONSPIRACY TO PUT SULZER OUT

BANKERS IDEAS IN SCANT FAVOR

PRESIDENT WILSON OPPOSED TO CHANGES SUGGESTED LAST SATURDAY

By Associated Press. Albany, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The indictment of Charles F. Murphy, Aaron Levy, leader of the democratic majority in the assembly and Senator James J. Frawley, chairman of the committee which investigated Governor Sulzer's campaign contribution, has been requested of the district attorneys of New York and Albany counties by L. F. Arnold of Albany, a Sulzer supporter.

The indictment of the three leaders is requested on statements of an alleged conspirator to put Sulzer out of the governor's chair. In so announcing, Judge Arnold declared that money had been freely used to accomplish this result.

Judge Arnold is publisher of the Press-Knickerbocker-Express of Albany. He said today: "My newspaper has been friendly to Sulzer in this fight, because we thought he was not getting a square deal. Because of this friendliness, many persons have written to us and called at our office to tell us what they knew of a plot by certain men whom I cannot name now, to disgrace Sulzer and put him out of the governor's chair. Evidence has been placed before competent lawyers and they believe with me that it is such as to warrant indictments in connection with the impeachment proceedings."

"As an instance of the number of men who are ready to testify, I will say that ten men came into our office Saturday afternoon with evidence about this plot. I cannot say how many others are implicated nor can I tell the nature of the charges. They go to show, however, that there was a conspiracy and a plot against Sulzer. More than that, they tend to prove a Swedish crime far greater than that."

During the last ten days lawyers who volunteered to assist Gov. Sulzer have been busily engaged gathering evidence touching this alleged conspiracy, and it was announced that they had procured sufficient data to justify them in placing the matter in the hands of District Attorney Whitman of New York, with a demand that he lay the evidence at once before a grand jury.

Confidence is expressed. Other lawyers and laymen who had a hand in the Sulzer proceedings expressed confidence that their contemplated move will block the governor's impeachment trial. They declared that when the evidence they have collected is made public it will cause the court of appeals to decline to join the Senate in a trial and that the whole matter will fall to the ground, as the Senate would have no power under the constitution to proceed alone.

Ben Smith, for many years a Denver employe of the Fort Worth & Denver here, was seriously hurt Saturday morning when he fell from a passenger coach on one of the coach tracks near the Union Station.

The coach was one of the Wichita Valley train and it was a part of Smith's work as a switchman to set the brake on it. He had climbed up onto the platform and was pulling at the brake when he set the brake firmly when the wheel came off and he fell backward to the ground, the back of his head striking against one of the rails.

Mr. Smith was picked up by fellow employes who had witnessed the accident, and was later carried to the hospital in an ambulance where it was found that his skull had been fractured at its base. His injuries are pronounced of a serious nature and his recovery is doubtful. It is reported that the tap at the one of the brake rods holding the wheel was missing.

Governor Makes Heaviest Slashes in Funds Appropriated in Educational Department

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 23.—Governor Colquitt's veto of the appropriation bill today totalled $3,429,325, divided into $1,005,943.62 for the first year and $1,823,381.38 for the second year.

The bill as it now stands carries $11,529,025 for both years. The appropriations were cut as follows: Educational department—first year $691,800; second year, $1,529,960. Eleemosynary institutions—$465,450 for the first year, $158,160 for the second year.

PIECE OF SKULL IS REMOVED SATURDAY

Efforts to restore Leonard Lennox, otherwise known as "Dutch" to his normal condition took definite form yesterday when an operation was performed on the skull of the semi-paralyzed, deaf man in the hope that he will again have the use of his limbs and faculties.

Leonard Lennox, the man who was injured last year while at work on the Magnolia Petroleum Company's pipe line. Since his injury he has been a familiar character on the streets here. Although deaf and without the use of his limbs on the right side of his body, his mind is not thought to have been permanently affected.

Several weeks ago, through the efforts of A. A. Scott, W. G. Long, E. Morgan and others of the local oil fraternity, plans were made for an operation on Lennox and the necessary authority was secured from the county authorities. Lennox apparently having no relatives to speak for him, Doctors Jones and Burnside consented to have the operation assisted by Doctors Meredith and Hale. The work was done at the Wichita Sanitarium yesterday afternoon and last night the man was said to be resting nicely. The success of the operation, of course, cannot yet be determined. A portion of the skull about the size of a quarter was removed by the physicians, there being evidence that the bone was pressing upon the brain.

The case of Lennox is an interesting one. The injuries he received resulted in his being unable to write or tell his name. Superficial medical attention was given him at the time of his injury, but the paralysis remained, and had not the kindly spirits among the oil men become interested in his case, it is likely that he would never have been restored. His only means of communication was to nod or shake his head or to pat one on the back with his left hand. He is believed to be from Pennsylvania or somewhere in the East; his name was not learned until recently, and the sobriquet of "Dutch" had come to be his.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DISTRICT MEET

CONVENTION WILL BE HELD IN THIS CITY SEPTEMBER 18 TO 21

PLANS NOW BEING MADE

is to be One of Several Such Conventions to be Held Throughout the State

Sunday school teachers and workers from over twenty Northwest Texas towns will meet in Wichita Falls September 18 to 21, and plans are already under way for the meeting.

The Texas Sunday School Association of all denominations has planned a series of big State District conventions throughout the State, beginning at Canyon City on September 3rd and closing through October.

The annual state-wide convention reaches delegates numbering the thousands, but the long distances prevent many from attending.

The program at the convention provides for a genuine school of methods, to be conducted by trained experts.

The delegates will be entertained free in the homes of the people for lodging and breakfast, but will pay their diners and supper down town.

ROD AND GUN CLUB HAS BOUGHT 80-ACRE TRACT

The Wichita Rod and Gun Club recently organized has secured a deed to the eighty acre tract about seven miles up the Big Wichita River formerly owned by St. Clair Sherrod on which is located a lake covering about thirty acres.

The purchase price was $4,000. In addition to the lake the tract contains a piece of woodland covering five or six acres. In this woodland the club will build its clubhouse. Work on the latter is to start within a few weeks. The lake is well stocked with bass and croppie and in season affords excellent shooting.

E. G. Hill has been elected president of the club. Fred Harrington and J. W. Pond are vice presidents and Claud Wood is secretary and treasurer.

Membership in the club is limited to twenty-five and this number is now completed comprising in addition to the officers the following: B. J. Bean, Mark Walker, T. S. Freeman, John W. Bradley, P. P. Langford, George D. Keith, S. A. Wilford, L. McKechney, A. H. Britain, A. R. Cotton, E. P. Walsh, V. H. S. Shepard, R. D. Thorburn, I. A. Harris, S. H. Burnside, F. P. Avis, C. J. Barnard, W. H. Mornings I felt devoid of energy and after sitting in a chair I could hardly stand erect. Sharp twinges often darted through me when I stooped. These troubles all left after I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy since. You are at liberty to continue publishing my former testimonial."

RATLIFF TO FACE TRIAL

COURT ORDERS HIM HELD ON TWO BONDS TOTALLING $1250

MORE TESTIMONY

Identity of Persons Who Appeared at Church Night of Fire is Subject of Evidence

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 26.—District Judge Buck today held J. W. Ratliff, charged with burning the First Baptist church and parsonage under $750 bail in the church case and $500 in the parsonage case after Ratliff's three days fight for complete discharge by habeas corpus. Judge Buck said:

"I have no wish to prejudice this case, but I think the evidence is sufficient to require Ratliff to furnish security for his release." Ratliff's counsel said that if the court requires any bond whatever Ratliff would have to remain in jail until his trial.

After the decision Ratliff's counsel asked for a swift trial. The case probably will be transferred to Judge Buck's court for trial, to begin September 15.

G. L. Lyton, of Venus, Texas, a farmer, testified today that he and Sam Black were the two men who professed religion at the First Baptist Church the night someone shot at Rev. J. Frank Norris, the pastor.

W. S. Sweet, a trustee of the church, who shook hands at the vestibule door, has testified that Fred Lavender, the State's informer and Ratliff, had come there at the instance of a young theological student Dr. Albright. Dr. Albright, who had been sought since Sweet testified appeared in court today, explaining that he had read in the newspapers he was wanted as a witness.

Lyton and Ratliff both stood up. Albright said he recognized Lyton as one of the two men and that he never had seen Ratliff before. He described Lyton's partner and positively identified him as Sam Black.

DRUG STORE ENTERED BY BURGLAR MONDAY NIGHT

Entrance Effected by Cutting Through Door—Small Sum of Money Taken

The Rexall Drug Store was entered by a burglar Monday night and five or six dollars taken from the cash register at the front of the store. Entrance was gained by cutting a hole through the rear door just above the lock. The door panel was of soft pine and was thin and the hole was whittled without difficulty. It was then an easy matter to thrust through a hand, turn the lock and remove a stick propped against the door. The cash register at the front of the store can be reached by going behind a case that extends from the rear of the store.

The register is always left open and last night five or six dollars in change was left in it. The stock of jewelry kept by the store was locked in the safe and if anything else was taken by the uninvited caller last night it had not been discovered this morning.

Some person also started to burglarize Bachman & Son's grocery and meat market on Indiana avenue last night but gave up the job before they got into the store. This morning the screen was found cut on a rear window but the window itself had not been raised.

THAW'S LAWYERS DEMAND SILENCE

HAVE TROUBLE WITH PRISONER'S TENDENCY TO TALK TOO MUCH

REPORTERS NOW BARRED

Both Sides Admit That Legal Situation is Chaotic—Are Waiting on New Development

By Associated Press. Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 26.—Harvey K. Thaw's lawyers today fearfully lest he hurt his case with the erratic conduct of his self planned press campaign have put him off from all interviews. They obtained from the sheriff an order to the governor of the jail that no one should see Thaw except in the presence of someone of his counsel. The order prevents Thaw from giving news-making interviews, except secretly and would circumvent any attempt to obtain from him a statement in which he might inadvertently reveal something about the plot resulting in his escape from Mattawan.

A cold rain kept the army of lawyers indoors today, where both foe and friend swapped predictions and mutually agreed that even now, ten days after Thaw's break for liberty, legal moves for and against his return are in the state of chaos. Offer Spiritual Consolation. Two captains of the Salvation Army arrived today from Montreal. They said they had been sent here to "offer Thaw spiritual consolation."

The possibility of an international trial, except to the minister of the interior, St. Pierre, raised the point that a Canadian embroiled in the Dominion's iron clad immigration law regulations would doubtless have a right to appeal to the courts. Thaw, it had been said, would have no such privilege. "The figures in the bank and treasury numbers are poorly formed and out of alignment. The late work is very good. The backs of the bills is a darker shade of green than the genuine. The paper feels thick and harsh."

The bills, the officials say, are formed of two pieces of paper, between which silk threads are distributed. The officials add that "if better printed, these bills would be very deceptive."

TRYING TO DODGE DOG, RUNS CAR INTO DITCH

While trying to avoid running over a dog which had run into the street and was barking at his machine Dr. M. M. Walker ran his automobile into the ditch at the corner of Twelfth and Lamar streets this morning damaging it badly. The accident happened at about 3 o'clock this morning as Dr. Walker was going to the bedside of a patient. The dog was barking right in front of the machine and in turning aside to avoid the canine Dr. Walker ran his machine right into the ditch which he had not noticed until he was in it. Both front wheels of the machine were badly twisted and broken and the machine otherwise damaged and those who saw it this morning are wondering how Dr. Walker got out without being seriously hurt, but he sustained no injuries.

NINETY DAYS IN JAIL FOR ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO KISS

Ninety days in jail was the penalty assessed by a jury in the county court Monday against A. R. Deason for an alleged attempt to kiss Miss Beulah Cox. Deason was found guilty of a charge of aggravated assault and the jury assessed his penalty as a jail sentence of ninety days. Deason who was an ice wagon driver testified that he playfully threw a glass of ice water upon the young woman. She testified Deason threw his arm around her and attempted to kiss her.

"I was only going to remove it," said La Force. "Don't be angry with me." Thaw took the paper from La Force's hand. It had been folded so that a picture of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw could be seen.

"That paper is of great importance to me. I can't have it disturbed. As a matter of fact, I'm not angry, but I am likely to be soon unless a newspaper which was taken from my room yesterday is returned. If you don't get it for me, I'll get it myself."

MAY DRILL FOR OIL IN VICINITY OF STAMFORD

Committee of Business Men Here to Confer With Local Oil Men—May Let Contract

With a view to drilling for oil or gas in the Stamford vicinity, a committee of Stamford citizens is here today conferring with local oil men on the matter. The committee includes Homer D. Wade, secretary of the Commercial Club, R. H. Hones and R. L. Penick. As a result of their visit, it is probable that a contract will be awarded for putting down a well somewhere near Stamford.

O. P. Harlan, T. J. Penick and A. B. Bounds, all of Stamford, are here today on business connected with the oil fields.

CHICAGO CORPORATION LOSES IN LAWSUIT HERE

Without Permit to do Business in Texas and Cannot Collect on Hotel Contract

Because the American Hotel and Supply Company, a Chicago corporation, had taken out no permit to do business in Texas, Justice Brothers this morning threw their suit against Mack Taylor out of court. An agent of this company had induced Mr. Taylor to sign a contract for a card in a local hotel about two years ago. Mr. Taylor knew at the time that he was going to move from his location in a few months and said he would not want the card longer. The agent told him, he said, that that would be all right that the card could be discontinued at any time. Mr. Taylor had forgotten about the matter until recently when it developed that he had signed a note for $24 instead of a contract that could be discontinued at any time after a few months. Justice Brothers ruled that the transaction was not one of interstate commerce and that the plaintiff company had no standing in his court.

The old method was to dig a pit to bed rock about 36 feet below the surface, but this plan failed to work in this particular case, and Colonel Drake decided to sink an iron pipe. This was successfully done and at 89 1/2 feet oil was found, the hole being within ten feet of the surface. The well was put to pumping, making forty barrels daily, later declining to 15 barrels, at which figure it produced for some time. No difficulty was experienced in disposing of the oil, it selling at the rate of 50 cents a gallon, which meant $20 per barrel at that time.

This was the start of the oil business of America; it was not long before other tests were successfully drilled and marked the beginning of one of the largest industries in the world.

NOSE RING FAD IS LATEST YET

HAS MADE ITS APPEARANCE IN PARIS—MAY CROSS ATLANTIC

OTHER FASHION DICTATES

Hobble Shoes is another Novelty—Green Still in Style in Late Summer—Color Schemes

(By Margaret Mason, written for the United Press)
When you buy your fall clothes Get a ring for your nose For in France it is swell To thus ring the belle.

New York, Aug. 29.—Dame fashion has gone to many lengths and now her latest is the length of a nose. Actually a Parisian actress has started the startling fad of wearing a gold ring in her nasal appendage. Sort of ring around a nosy, you know. Whether fair devotees of fashion on this side of the water will have a snout full is a question. Anyway there are other hints of the stockfarm in the present day modes on a par with the nosering.

For instance the birdie is omnipresent on all the chic little hats and head dresses now topping smart femaleness—some as adapted to headgear for the fair sex, the name birdie has been shortened to "birdie," but by any name they will strap you as sweetly under your chin or chin. The bride of black velvet ribbon is the most commonly seen hat, those of pearls or jet are very quaint and lovely on Oriental turbans or Empire calottes.

It is no longer a case of pearls before swine but pearls before everything. Aside from the inevitable strand, her slender throat and the bride of pearls on her chapeau, many have shoulder straps of the iridescent globules to hold up the folds of chiffon—by courtesy called a bodice—on her sleeveless evening gown, a pearl fillet for her hair and pearls for her ears. A rope girl of pearls with nearly tassels adds a stunning touch to a dusky black tulle frock finished in white net. Also military cigarette case is thickly encrusted with pearls and she is even going in for pearls of thought.

There's a new veil come to town. It has a mesh of black threads crossing at three quarter inch space and just one lone dot the size of a current. You must drop this veil so that this lonesome dot is located on your left cheek about three fourths of an inch from the corner of your mouth. It lends such a piquant effect that the Autumn girl should be encouraged to take the veil.

The hobble, after jumping from skirt to hat, has now jumped back again to the other extremity and the hobble shoe is at your feet. The new ones are somewhat like the new, best samples of footwear that they are quite thrown out of gear and the best form of amble that you can manage is verily a hobble if you would be chiefly shod.

Another new touch on a modern beauty's boot is a top of filmy lace to match the ubiquitous lace frock without which no wardrobe is fashionable. The old idea of a lace shoe being restricted to one lacing up the front, this new departure of a cobweb top to a leather vamp shows that there are laces and laces.

Green still continues as a winner in the color field. Emerald is particularly alluring in crepes and liberally satins for evening and afternoon gowns while for tailor suits Babel green, a peculiar shade named for the artist fashion creator, is all the rage. Browns are next in order of popularity and so rich are the many tones of tobacco, chocolate, café au lait, and "nigger" that you would choose wisely to be done brown this fall. In spite of the prophecy of the National Tailors that coats were all to be long or three quarters, abbreviated velvet boleros and Etons that still cling to filmy clad shoulders and show also in the tailor suits of heavy materials. Fairlike indeed are the blouses for frock suit wear, and the frothy confections offered as neck pieces are things of beauty but hardly joys for ever as they are as perishable as thistle-down—almost. Oil sheers net combined with hand embroidered red batiste or mousseline, baby Irish, Valenciennes and net applique they will transform your last year's suit or blouse into up to date creation and Miss Cinderella with a limited wardrobe may blossom out in as many changes as a Princess of gowns galore. That is, of course, if Cinderella is a clever needle woman for these lovely neck things are almost priceless in the shops and yet can be easily and inexpensively copied by amateurs at home.

One lovely mousseline vest, hand embroidered and edged with a trill of Valenciennes lace has an upstanding trill of the same around the back of the neck. A round collar of embroidered batiste daintily edged with a picot pleating of net has revers of the same. One little vest of tucked net is trimmed down the front with tiny crocheted buttons between a double trill of narrow val and is outlined with a wide trill of net applique. It has a standing collar of applique. But their diversity is legion—there are collars round, square, flat, De Medici and no collar at all but just the trill.

Exquisitely hand embroidered, put together with entredoux, these dainty accessories of the modern Eve's toilette, when bought at the shops are equally dear to the heart and pocketbook and milady is sure to get it in the neck and her bank account.

OIL FIELD NEWS

In the Burk Burnett District (Burk Burnett Star)

While the month of August has brought forth nothing spectacular or unexpected in the Burk Burnett oil field, there were probably more rigs started than at any time heretofore and about the usual number of wells completed, most of which was confined to proven territory and were all of average production. There are now 23 drilling wells in the field and seven new rigs being erected. The progress in the production of the field during the past three months is about 600 barrels per day. The total production of the entire field during the month of August is about 45,000 barrels from fifty producing wells. This is an exceedingly good showing when it is taken into consideration that the above wells cover a territory of something like ten miles long and six miles wide. So far the closest well to town is about one and one half miles, but to an amateur at the oil same it looks very promising for the field to extend in this direction and if it does, the fondest hopes of the citizens of Burk Burnett will be realized.

Around Iowa Park (Iowa Park Herald)

Oil prospects continue to grow better from day to day and the people of this community continue to watch with interest the new shallow oil field that is being developed rapidly in the Lochridge vicinity.

At this writing (Thursday) there are six producing wells on the L. N. Lochridge tract and five of these are flowing wells. Arrangements are being made this week to install a pumping station to pump all the wells now producing and it will be one capable of pumping a hundred wells if necessary. The five wells are now producing about 125 barrels a day and about fifty barrels of this oil is used each day for fuel on the wells now being drilled. They expect to reach the sand in a day or two in four more wells.

The Magnolia Oil Company has erected a 16,000 barrel tank to hold the oil until a pipe line can be laid to Iowa Park from where it will be shipped. The pipe for this line has been ordered and is expected to arrive in a few days. A loading rack will be built here and will probably be completed in ten days.

This makes the outlook brighter for Iowa Park and our business men and citizens should be boosted from now on with these bright prospects in view.

It seems that this new shallow oil field is causing much comment among the big oil companies and all eyes are turned to this field. We have heard a good deal by some of the big oil company interests that considering the fact there is nothing like it in the state of Texas.

Two new shallow wells are being drilled on the B. N. Ferguson tract and should reach the sand this week. They are still drilling on the deep beds.

Carl Parker is drilling near the Lochridge land. A new shallow oil well was brought in near Fowler station this week.

THIRTEEN DEFENDANTS FRIDAY MORNING

Police Court Combination Too Much and Eleven Enter Pleas of Guilty

Friday and thirteen defendants was combination in the corporation court this morning and that it was an unlucky one for the defendants at least was evidenced in the fact that eleven of the defendants entered pleas of guilty. Another charged with vagrancy claimed a physical disability and judgment in his case was suspended until after an examination by the city physician. Another defendant charged with provoking and abusive language will be tried before a jury.

The Wichita County Singing Convention will be held at the Methodist church in this city on Sunday, August 31 at which time a large crowd is expected. The Rev. Biggers of Waxahachie will preach in the morning instead of Rev. Johnson. Your appearance at these services will be appreciated. Come and bring your dinner basket well filled and enjoy the day.—Iowa Park Herald.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Drapery N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines pitched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted the Dr. Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has 5 million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

PALACE OF PEACE FORMALLY DEDICATED

Cremer, and William T. Stead, the English writer and peace leader who perished in the Titanic. The bust of Cremer was the gift of the International Arbitration League.

Within all that modern art and skill which to symbolize the purpose of the Palace has been devoted to the decoration. The grand marble staircase which forms the main entrance is illuminated from a group of stained glass windows, showing Peace shedding rays of light on Art and Science, Land and Sea, Commerce and Industry; while to the left and right are other stained glass windows depicting the ancient horrors of war and above them are companion panels of Terror and Death.

The great court is an imposing hall about 14 feet long, by about 40 feet in width and rising to the full height of the palace. It will accommodate about 300 persons. At the rear, facing the bench or presiding officer's stand, is an enormous arched stained glass window. To one side of it is a draped figure of Justice wearing a crown and holding a scale of justice; on the other side, a figure of Truth, wearing a crown and holding a mirror. Over the throne is a huge oil painting, a gift of France. To the left of the great hall are the arched galleries for the use of the public. The walls are paneled with oak and the ceiling is of polished oak in wonderful designs.

In addition to the great Hall of Justice and the Library are numerous apartments for the judges, hung with tapestries of the old Dutch style, rooms for counsel and many parlors. One of the most imposing of all the chambers is that assigned to the Administrative Council, which is composed of all the foreign ministers accredited to The Hague. This wonderful room is paneled with rosewood and satin-wood and hung with Japanese cartoons and embroidered silks. There are the rooms for the president of the court, the secretary general and his assistant, numerous handsome reception rooms, ornamented with carvings in all adorned with oil paintings and woods.

To Preserve Records. Apartments also have been set aside for the press and a complete system of vaults and steel lockers for the preservation of the records of the important congresses which will be held in the Palace.

The Library, which occupies the two stories in the west of the quadrangle, consists of a reading room, lecture room and central office and many rooms for study, while upstairs are the book compartments in steel.

Many nations have made gifts to the Palace, one of the most interesting being that of Greece. It is a white marble copy of the famous throne found at Knossos, in Crete,

HEALTHY LIVER MAKES BEAUTY

Famous Actress Finds that a Healthy Liver is Necessary to Good Looks and Youthfulness

One of the best known women of the American stage is writing a series of articles on the preservation of beauty. She attaches great importance to keeping the liver active at all times, and she is right. Neither good looks nor happiness will stay long with any man or woman who lets the liver get lazy and sluggish. It is not always safe to take calomel, the old liver remedy. Doctors agree that it is a very uncertain drug. But Stonecipher and Smith have a remedy for sale that they guarantee to take the place of calomel absolutely, and still be harmless, causing no restriction of habit or diet. This remedy is Dodson's Liver Tonic.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant tasting vegetable liquid, but it starts the liver gently and surely and relieves constipation and biliousness as promptly as it has become a dependable remedy in thousands of homes in the United States. There are scores of families in this vicinity who will not be without it in the house and who would not think of starting on a trip without a bottle of it.

Stonecipher and Smith have sold so much Dodson's Liver Tonic that they are convinced of its merit and will give any person his 50 cents back who buys a bottle and does not find that it takes the place of calomel to perfection. (Advertisement) which was supposed to have been the throne of King Minos.

The building materials of the Peace Palace came from many countries. The brick, which is the chief component, came from the famous fields near Leyden, while the hard white sandstone used for trimming is from French quarries and the wood used for flooring and paneling is largely from Austria. The granite constituting the base of the walls was presented by the governments of Norway and Sweden. The Italian government presented the marble which decorates the interior of the corridors and the grand marble staircase is a gift from the city of The Hague.

Wichita Falls, Texas, August 29, 1913

This much may be said in favor of the X-ray skirt: It will take away from women the excuse often made that they can't go out because they have nothing to put on.

Texas railroads, in their reports of earnings for the fiscal year June 30th, show an increase in business of 21.15 per cent over the previous year. That is not so bad. All things considered, Texas railroads are doing very nicely, and so far as this paper can make observations, they should not do too much kicking. The people of Texas want the railroads to make fair earnings on their investments. They also want more railroads.

This time last year cotton was selling at from 10.40 to 11.50. This year it is selling at from 11.25 to 13c. So much for the prediction of the fellow who said that if Wilson was elected and the tariff was tinkered with the price of cotton would go down. It has not done so yet. The prospects now are that the price will go higher, and before the season closes sell at 15c. The cause for this, however, is not politics. It is supply and demand. That is what governs the price of cotton.

Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut, at a meeting of governors in Colorado Springs, favored a proposition for the different states to pay the expenses of candidates for governor. It's a dangerous proposition. If Texas were to adopt a fee proposition of that kind, it would make no difference how small the limit of campaign expense should be fixed at, there would be more candidates for governor than now. Most of them, to be sure, would not expect to be elected, but would merely make the campaign to get some free publicity with the hope that at some future time lightning might strike them. It might not be a bad idea for the state to put a limit on the amount of money a candidate or his friends might spend to secure the nomination, but to tax people with that expense would be worse than foolish.

Dam the Wichita river. If this is done, a sufficient amount of storm water can be stored to irrigate thousands of acres of fertile lands that, in times like the present, are worthless or almost worthless for crop producing purposes. It will perhaps require a stock company with four or five million dollars capital to dam the river, but it can be done. The people of Wichita Falls are equal to the task, and once they are convinced that it is necessary to do a thing, they put their shoulders to the wheel and do it. The building of the dam across Holiday creek made Lake Wichita possible, and the lake of water has made Wichita Falls grow from a village to its present size, and property values in Wichita Falls are four or five times now what they were before the lake was made possible. If the storm waters of the Wichita river can be stored, it will make possible to build a city here of 50,000 or 100,000 population in the next fifteen or twenty years.

COLORED PEOPLE APPEAL TO WHITE FRIENDS

Want Assistance in the Rebuilding of Their Burned Church House

To the honored citizenship of Wichita Falls: Circumstances over which we have no control forces us to place ourselves before you in a way we hope to become the recipients of your human and Christian charity.

For more than seven years a small number of us have labored hard and have sacrificed much in order that we, the colored people might have place of worship commensurate v our opportunities and the progress of this town, where we may edify ourselves, religiously train our children and exert an influence for good over and among our people as they come and go to and from our city. This is not all, we too, have been very active in taking a large hand in helping to spread the gospel in the most desolated places by giving much of our means to the cause of home and foreign missions and to the aged and orphan home and to education. Unfortunately for us, on June 10, 1913 our church with all of its modest furnishings was burned to the ground. But we have decided to rebuild our church. We are doing of our own means. Having a transient public to call upon for aid, we have decided to ask the public spirited citizen of Wichita Falls to lend us a helping hand and help us to help ourselves. Sunday, Sept. 7 has been set apart as a day of free will offering. We want to raise one thousand dollars. We take this method of asking every person, white and colored, every church white and colored, every society or organization that believes in helping a worthy cause in time of need and distress to answer this our prayer. Contribution can be made to the City National Bank, depository for St. John Baptist Church or to any of the following soliciting committee: Rev. L. S. Arthur, Ed. Brown, Andy Byrd, R. Duckenfield, C. C. Trimble.

Roaring Springs—The Roaring Springs Echo is the name of the new publication launched here by the Suits Printing Company. The initial copy of the paper was issued August 22nd and it contained six pages of interesting reading matter.

ENSILAGE CATTLE GOOD AS BEST

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 29.—With the view of discrediting statements that ensilage fed cattle are not up to the standard, and to demonstrate the advantages of the silo system, are two principal purposes for which the silo special train will be run over the Rock Island line next week. The venture is entirely one of education and demonstration.

Representatives of Armour & Co. and Swift & Co., will accompany the silo special to denounce reports that ensilage fed cattle are not wanted by the packing houses. Reports to this effect have become widespread and have worked to hinder the movement to introduce silos to Texas stock raisers.

There are six manufacturers of silos in Fort Worth and it is probable each of these concerns will have samples of their product for display on the Rock Island special.

Fully Up to Standard. An expert will lecture on how to prepare ensilage and how to feed it, and telling of value of different feeds. As to whether ensilage fed cattle are wanted by the Fort Worth packing concerns, representatives of these concerns will personally assure the stock raisers that ensilage fed cattle are, if anything of more value than those fattened on other feed.

W. H. Guelich, general manager of Swift & Co., declared the introduction of the silo to Texas stock raisers is one of the greatest things being done for Texas. The silo will revolutionize stock raising in Texas, he said.

Are Better Sellers. "There is no doubt but that ensilage fed cattle are good cattle," he said. "They are brighter in color than meal fed beef, which makes them more desirable from a selling standpoint."

My motto: Miller sells it for less.

Safeguard Your Health By Using Pure Ice—We have already called the attention of the public to the importance of Pure Ice. It is a subject worth mentioning again. We want to emphasize it by repetition. At this season of the year when the intelligent housewife is particularly careful to safeguard the health of her family. Pure Ice is the one matter she should not and does not overlook. We're carefully treating our water before we start it into the freezing process. If there happened to be a germ in the water freezing would do him no harm. Merely to incase him in ice would be a joke on us, not on him, because as demonstrated, soon after the discovery of germs, they don't ever stop wiggling in a block of ice much less die; so first we put the water through a special chemical process to make assurance doubly sure then we boil the water and condense the steam. A famous chemist and bacteriologist has said that ordinary water is liable to be anaquairum, (meaning germs, not fish) that if boiled it becomes a graveyard, but that condensation makes it absolutely pure. Not only is our ice made from absolutely pure water. It's kept pure in the making process—Phone us your orders

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION RACE FULL OF INTEREST

Four Teams are Fighting for the Lead and Result is Still Very Much in Doubt

There was a man in our town And he was wondrous wise. He bought a minor league team About class B in size.

And when he found his bank roll Was growing slim and low He sold a couple of players.

And I don't know, but I guess he took a trip to Europe.

New York, Aug. 28.—This is a season of tight pennant races. We have looked them over and rise to remark that the cooling days of October may save a considerable portion of our population from being overcome by watching the final tussles in various leagues during the dying days of a delicious summer.

Glaze upon the American Association. Here we have the near major league brand in baseball; one of the leagues that is classed as AA and always sure of putting up a fast exhibition of ball.

As this humble offering quivers to press, one might dig up a fight most any place around Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Columbus or Louisville by being too emphatic in one's assertions as to where the pennant was going to flutter. It isn't over yet, the fellows that you do not pick will tell you, and there you are. The teams named are fighting it out in the first division with Toledo, Kansas City, St. Paul and Indianapolis trailing.

At the risk of losing our lives, it may be said that either Milwaukee or Minneapolis is picked to win the pennant. After only a fair showing last year the Brewers started this season in bang up style and have been battling with Columbus for the lead since April. They nosed in front on their eastern trip in July and increased their lead by winning 14 out of 19 games on their return home.

Larry Chappelle, the $18,000 outfielder of the Chicago White Sox is a product of Milwaukee. And his going made a big hole for a series of defeats followed.

Milwaukee's leading pitchers are Cutting, Braun, Slapnicka and "Young Cy" Young.

Now for the others. Columbus is relying on her sluggers and "King" Cole, former Chicago and Pittsburg pitcher, to keep up the fight. Ferris, Cook and Davis are also going good for the Senators.

At Louisville, Jack Hayden, another ex-major leaguer is at the helm and has rounded up his team from a hopelessly trailing aggregation to a position among the contenders. Hayden gets a little help now and then from the Chicago Cubs when he hangs out a distress signal. He has pitchers Toney and Laudermilk, former employees of Cobb Murphy, on his staff. They have contributed largely to the advance of the Colonels.

Toledo fans are singing the chorus of "next year." They will have a new manager in Bronkie, for three years the thing baseman of the team, and the Mud Hens are expected to take a new lease on life in 1914. St. Paul is expected to head the second division. They haven't shown the snap and go necessary to carry them very far this season, but the Saint Paul fans are also crying that well known anthem regarding the prospects of the future.

make Doc Oaler excuse himself for living. His first baseman is Claude Rossman, whom it may be dimly remembered was once with the Detroit Tigers. Then there is Jimmy Williams, who was with St. Louis for eight years, to say nothing of other experience; Roy Patterson, once with Chicago, Jim DeJathanty, Bill Burns, Yip Owens, Lee Tannehill, who the oldest inhabitants may remember as having performed at Washington and in other American League circles at one time. There are others and Otis Clymer, who was drafted by Boston last year, was brought back early in August and is expected to contribute much in the final days of the pennant race.

BRIEF SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Appointment of L. N. Jernigan, as Member of Police Force Confirmed

The appointment of L. N. Jernigan as a member of the local police force was confirmed at a meeting of the city council last night. Mr. Jernigan is now on the night force. He is an experienced officer and is well and favorably known. The motion for Mr. Jernigan's confirmation was made by Councilman Rieholt and was seconded by Councilman Young. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

A letter from J. J. Taylor was read asking for a lease on the city's dumping grounds east of the city to be used as a lot for a slaughter house but the council unanimously rejected the offer.

Permission was granted for the construction of a wooden runway about 40 feet wide across Oak street to connect the two compresses.

An ordinance establishing curb lines on portions of Tenth street was adopted following which the council adjourned after one of the shortest sessions of the year.

SPEED ORDINANCE DON'T RECOGNIZE THE STORK

Physician Speeding to Beat Stork Fined For Violating the Speed Ordinance

Violators of the speed ordinance by a physician even in a race against the stork will not be sanctioned by the city authorities, and if the physician has reason to believe that the stork will get there first if he doesn't hit him up a bit, he will do so with the knowledge that while no limit is placed on the speed of the stork he must keep his machine down to ten miles an hour within the fire limits and down to eighteen miles an hour outside.

Several days ago a complaint was filed against a local physician charging him with violating the speed ordinance. Yesterday the physician submitted his case to Judge Rye. He admitted that he might have been going at a greater speed than ten miles an hour, but told the court that he was answering a call wherein a visit from the stork was expected, and that in a hurry. Judge Rye held that the ordinance made no distinction and fined the physician $5. The latter gave notice of an appeal.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask your druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Keep Your Eyes on Southland Addition

Contract for 200,000 square feet of cement sidewalks was let last week. Work is progressing rapidly on sewerage system and new street car line. Water mains to guarantee a plentiful water supply for the addition will be laid shortly. SOUTHLAND ADDITION will be the most complete residence addition ever placed on the market in West Texas. Buyers will be protected by restrictions preventing the building of unsightly shacks through the placing of a minimum building restriction on the property when needed. These restrictions will not, however, retard the building of modest homes. Lot owners will be protected against the building of outhouses alongside front of lots by preventing lots being cut cross-wise and backing up against other lots. Lots will be sold for residence purposes only. SOUTHLAND ADDITION WILL NOT be placed on the market until all improvements are completed. It will be a full grown addition that will sell rapidly and build rapidly. Its location is far enough away from the noise and dirt of the business district to be very desirable for homes and close enough in to give quick direct car service down town to enable the busy man to lose but little time. WAIT FOR SOUTHLAND ADDITION. OPENING SALE WILL TAKE PLACE IN ABOUT 30 days.

THE GREATEST BARGAIN CENTER FOR REAL ESTATE

If you desire to buy, sell or exchange property, it is certainly to your interest to get in touch with a specialist along that line

If you were sick you would call in a physician. If you were in trouble you would secure counsel.

It requires years of study to be proficient in any line of business, and in order to protect yourself in buying or selling real estate, you should secure the services of an agent who knows values and where to find buyers, and who is honest enough to see that you don't get skinned. That's me! At least lots of my friends have told me so, in this and other cities where I have operated, and I am convinced enough to believe it.

Make the Clerk Give You the Cash Discount We have inaugurated a plan whereby the cash buyer gets an even break with the credit man. Hereafter we shall give a coupon with every cash sale, and for every dollars worth of coupons a refund of five per cent will be made. You can take the refund in either cash or merchandise making it just the same as a five per cent discount for cash. This discount applies to every thing we sell—drugs, toilet articles, sundries, books magazines, stationery, fountain drinks, cigars, etc. All you have to do is to get your coupon when you buy the goods, and turn them in when you get ready. Five per cent means one-twentieth part of every dollar saved—a big discount when you stop to figure it.

DRUG SERVICE IS WHAT YOU PAY FOR Any old drug store might happen to have what you want today because goods can be bought but SERVICE HAS TO BE MADE. We have made drug store service in Wichita Falls until our system of service approaches perfection. For instance you could walk twenty blocks to a drug store and spend a dollar, but if you do not want to do the walking your telephone and our messenger service will put the twenty blocks where they won't cut any ice in the transaction and all for the same dollar. Our specialty is prescriptions and we spare no pains or expense in our efforts to produce results for the patient whose money we take. And remember you do not get your money's worth until you get Palace Drug Store Service.

Good Intentions! Do you remember what you told yourself, your wife, loved ones and friends about beautifying and marking the lonely mound out on the hill? Good men and true all over this part of the country, have said time and time again, they were going to mark the sacred plots in the cemetery tomorrow, next month, next year. But visit those graves, and you will find them unremembered, unmarked. In many instances, there is a rotten board, which the dust of time has all but destroyed. Every cemetery has its unmarked, unremembered dead, thus hindering those who have the work at heart and desire to make the place beautiful and attractive. Why pave your way with good intentions and as the shadows of night gather round you forget them? Count your marked graves, and you KNOW your best citizens in any community. Come to our plant and do your part in this great work.
