MAYOR GAYNOR DIES IN MID-OCEAN

HEART FAILURE BELIEVED CAUSE

ATTACK SUPPOSED TO BE RESULT OF GUNSHOT WOUND IN NECK

ENDS POLITICAL CONTEST

News of Demise Received in New York Today—Had Gone on Voyage Very Suddenly

By Associated Press. New York, Sept. 11.—Mayor Gaynor died on the steamer Baltic in mid-ocean at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

News of his death was received here today in a message sent by wireless and cable to Gaynor's secretary by Rufus W. Gaynor, the mayor's son, who sailed with him. The message read:

Father died Wednesday at one o'clock, due to heart failure. Notify mother.

Lacking details, the mayor's friends here believe the heart attack was brought on by a return of the coughing fits which have recurred at intervals since he was shot three years ago.

He had told his secretary that the violence of these attacks was a great strain on his heart and he feared that at some time or other one of them might result seriously. The mayor sailed from New York on the morning of September 4. An hour before he sailed, only one man, his secretary, knew of his plans outside members of his immediate family. The mayor felt that the salt air would restore him in some measure to health. The Baltic was due in Queenstown today.

Mayor Gaynor's sudden death completely overturns the municipal situation. It removes from the field a candidate for mayor who was expected to cut heavily into the vote of the Fusion nominee, John Purroy Mitchell, and leaves only the ticket nominated by the democrats and the Fusionists. The democratic ticket is headed by Edward E. McCall, former chairman of the Public Service Commission of this district.

The mayor's renomination was brought about by no particular political faction or party but represented only his personal popularity. Politicians expect his followers will not try to nominate a candidate in his place. No other places on the Gaynor ticket had been filled.

Sketch of His Life. William Jay Gaynor, jurist and politician, who made a remarkable record as "Reform Mayor" of New York City, was born as the son of a poor farmer near Whitestown, N. Y., in 1851. He received his early education at the public schools of Whitestown and later at the Whitestown seminary and in Boston and was originally destined to enter the priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church. As a boy young Gaynor was ambitious and made every effort to acquire a good education.

In his young manhood Mr. Gaynor taught school in Boston and afterward studied law in Utica, N. Y., removing to Brooklyn in 1873 to continue his studies. Meanwhile he made a scant living by working for newspapers. He was admitted to the bar in 1875 and went to live in Flatbush, then a separate community in the control of corrupt politicians. Straightway Gaynor began to study his surroundings and developed his fighting qualities as a reformer. He found the Flatbush a very corrupt place, but only liquor license. He obtained evidence against the saloons, had their proprietors arrested and compelled them to take out licenses. Then he called the better element together and a reform ticket was nominated at the next election.

Although opposed by both political machines, the reform ticket was elected and Gaynor was appointed police commissioner. As commissioner his most notable achievement was the closing of several illegal road houses on the Ocean Parkway, the evidence being procured, the Democratic boss and the whole business cleaned up within sixty days.

Early Political Fights. In 1885 Mr. Gaynor moved to Brooklyn proper and soon found himself arrayed against the late Hugh McLaughlin, the Democratic boss. When the town of New Lots was annexed to Brooklyn in 1889, the boss

Last Picture Of Gaynor, Taken When Friends Renominated Him For Mayor

This unique picture was taken when a number of Mayor Gaynor's friends renominated him for the mayoralty of New York City, at a meeting in City Hall Park, after the Fusionist and Tammany forces had placed other candidates in the field. The meeting was featured by promises to "bury Murphy," the Tammany leader and that part was carried out as literally as circumstances would permit. A few days after he was elected in the mayoralty race the mayor suddenly sailed for Europe, and the news of his death, this morning, was and his friends, with their peculiar foresight, purchased, through dummies, the Long Island Water Company in the new addition for $185,000. Their purpose was to sell it to the city and they had contracted with the mayor to dispose of it for $1,500,000. Gaynor denounced the deal as a swindle, and declared he would eventually win in the highest court in the State, saving the city of Brooklyn nearly one million dollars and beating the ring out of the same amount. Next, Mr. Gaynor started out to make the elevated roads of Brooklyn pay their taxes. The Brooklyn political ring "stood in" with the traction companies, and had refused to allow the property to be sold for the delinquency. Gaynor compelled the traction companies to pay about $1,000,000 into the city treasury, much to the astonishment of McLaughlin's men. Mr. Gaynor fought the ring in various other ways, its overthrow being complete when, in 1893, Gaynor, declining a citizens' nomination for mayor, took a nomination from the Republicans and independent Democrats for justice of the supreme court. At the same time the fusion ticket, headed by Charles A. Schlerer, won a sweeping victory. The McLaughlin ring lost its power.

His Fight on McMans. Coincident with the overthrow of McLaughlin was the annihilation of chief of police John V. McMans, Democratic ruler of Coney Island, whose padded list of voters was used to swing elections with impunity. During the campaign Gaynor had declared that he would send McMans to prison if he attempted to debase the ballot box again. On election day Gaynor sent watchers to the polling places, having first produced an injunction which forbade interference with them. McMans's henchman threw the watchers out of the polling booths and the boss himself uttered that famous declaration: "Injunctions don't go here." Gaynor threw himself into the work of the prosecution and after one of the most memorable series of trials in the country's history, McMans and his associates were sent to prison for terms of various lengths.

The next year David B. Hill wanted Gaynor to take the Democratic nomination for governor, but he declined, and also refused to accept a nomination for judge of the court of appeals. In 1895 Gaynor refused the nomination for Mayor of Brooklyn, because it did not come from a united Democracy. In the following year he strongly supported Bryan and the radical Democratic national platform, but declined to accept a nomination for the mayoralty nomination in 1912 but was defeated by the Tammany influence. In 1906 he was a leading candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, but was defeated and supported Hearst. At the election in 1909 he was elected mayor on the Tammany ticket, but contrary to expectations he maintained an independent position and aroused considerable enmity among gang politicians by his energetic reform measures. On August 9, 1910 while about to sail on a vacation trip to Europe, Mayor Gaynor was shot and seriously wounded by James G. Gallagher, a discharged city employe.

COURT DECIDES AGAINST SULZER

HOLDS THAT IMPEACHMENT BARS FROM ACTING AS GOVERNOR

RULING IN PARDON CASE

Banker-Convict Freed By Justice Is Remanded To Prison By Order of Supreme Court

By Associated Press. Kingstown, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Justice Hasbrouck of the State supreme court today decided that Governor Sulzer was "legally impeached and while awaiting impeachment was divested of the right to exercise his executive functions, including the power to pardon."

The question of the legality of Sulzer's impeachment came up in connection with habeas corpus proceedings to compel New York City authorities to honor Governor Sulzer's pardon of Joseph G. Robin, the banker-convict. Justice Hasbrouck decided Robin's pardon was invalid and he sent Robin back to prison.

Judge Hasbrouck in his decision said the New York law is very plain and that even though the impeached governor is innocent he nevertheless "cannot hold office until his trial is over. He added:

"It seems an unjustifiable and unreasonable provision, for delay in the prosecution to the end of the term works the same result in the main that judgment or removal would and delays in such proceedings have been known to be long. The impeachment proceedings against Warren Hastings lasted thirteen years.

"However, full of, or wanting in reason, the province of the court is only to say what the law is."

By Associated Press. Savannah, Ga., Sept. 11.—The disappearance of $50,000 being sent from New York to Savannah was discovered when a safe on an Atlantic Coast Line express car in which the money had been placed in New York, was opened on its arrival here today. Seals on the safe were intact.

ROBBERS SEIZE MESSENGERS SATCHEL AND GET AWAY.

By Associated Press. The messenger stood near the bank awaiting a street car when the robbers seized the satchel.

MEMBERS MUST TELL WHERE MONEY GOES.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Every time a member of the government commission investigating rural credits in Europe takes a bath or has his shirt laundered, or rides in a cab, he must jot down the expense if he expects reimbursement from Uncle Sam.

Senator Fletcher, chairman of the commission, asked Comptroller of the Currency Downey for permission to allow one dollar a day for each member of the commission for these incidental, but the comptroller today held that an itemized account must be submitted.

MORE DELAY IN HARRY THAW CASE

TO CONSIDER CASE TOMORROW—JEROME AND SPECIAL DETECTIVE ARE WAITING

LAWYERS FEAR RELEASE

Counsel For Thaw Prefers That He Remain in Custody—Is Charged With Conspiracy

By Associated Press. Colebrook, N. Y., Sept. 11.—The case of Harry Thaw assumed the familiar aspect of uncertainty and delay. Counsel working for and against his return to Matteawan agreed not to arraign him before a police magistrate until 4 this afternoon and then to adjourn until tomorrow.

He is charged with conspiracy to bring about his escape and it is on this charge that Jerome will seek his extradition. Failing in this, Jerome will contend that Thaw is insane and should be turned over to an attendant from Matteawan.

John Lanyon, private detective in New York, has been made a special attendant from Matteawan and is waiting an opportunity to get his hands on Thaw and start with him direct for the New York line. Followed by silent crowds, Thaw went about the village today accompanied by Sheriff Dre, apparently contented and hopeful.

Everybody Going Crazy. Soon Will Quit Having Children, Says Doctor

By Associated Press. Colorado Springs, Sept. 11.—Statistics purporting to show that the human race is gradually becoming insane and the prediction that the time will come when human reproduction will cease were features of an address before the American Public Health Association here today by Dr. J. H. Kellogg of Battle Creek, Mich.

According to him, the birth rate is decreasing in a manner which will ultimately bring it to the vanishing point. The achievements of modern science, he said, are bringing about race degeneracy by saving weaklings.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Acting up on the suggestion of the request of Postmaster General Burleson, President Wilson has signed an executive order which puts Patrick O'Keefe on the federal pay roll. Impassioned, wrestled with the Lone Star banner in every parade and aisle rush and demonstration for Woodrow Wilson throughout the long and exciting campaign.

His reward is the appointment to a deputy collectorship under internal Revenue Collector Walker. Ordinarily the deputy is under the protection of the civil service commission but in the case of O'Keefe the special power vested in the president to suspend the rules governing appointment to public office was invoked and the Dallas enthusiastic booster for President Wilson gets his job without an examination.

The congress will be assembled here Monday when it will be addressed by Secretary Houston. A busy day of receptions and sightseeing will follow and the delegates will leave for Chicago on special trains to take up the serious business of the meeting.

ROMANCE CAUSES HANGING OF BOY

MOTHER, UNABLE TO GET COMMUTATION, HEARS FATAL TRAP SPRUNG

SLEW SCHOOL TEACHER

Announcement of Her Engagement To Another Causes Killing—Pathetic Story of Mother's Effort

By Associated Press. Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 11.—Omer Davis, an eighteen year old country boy, was hanged at Fayetteville, Ark., today for the murder of Miss Nellie Monday, aged twenty-six, his school teacher, last February. The boy's mother was on the outside of the enclosure surrounding the scaffold and fainted when she heard the trap sprang.

Davis is said to have been in love with Miss Monday and the announcement of her approaching marriage to another caused him to kill her. When the jurors returned their verdict, it is alleged each of them believed Davis would receive only life imprisonment.

Mrs. Davis, the boy's mother, carrying an infant, walked many miles through Northwestern Arkansas, getting signatures to a petition for commutation of Davis' sentence to life imprisonment. After getting a considerable number of names, Mrs. Davis lost the petition one night. She said it was stolen.

By Associated Press. SMALL BOYS REPORTED FORMING COCAINE HABIT

Purchase Drug at Local Drug Store, According to Police Inquiry is Probable

The police believe that some one in Wichita Falls is supplying cocaine to young boys without any restriction and are certain that a number of Wichita Falls youths are forming the drug habit.

"It would surprise you to know the number of snow-heads here," said a policeman to a Times reporter today. "The number is increasing every day and something ought to be done. Only the other day we found a couple boys acting queerly and finally got them to surrender a box of cocaine powder which the boys told us they got at drug stores here. There are probably twenty-five or thirty young boys here using cocaine. It is sold in the powder form and is snuffed up the nose. The boys who use it soon become indolent, stupid and vicious and probably from the white powder form in which the drug is used they are called snow-heads."

The matter has been brought to the attention of County Attorney T. R. Boone, who is investigating and who announces that he will file complaints if he can collect sufficient evidence.

Open the Door.
Open the door, let in the air:
The winds are sweet, and the flowers are fair.
Joy is abroad in the world today;
If our door is open it may come this way.

Open the door!
Open the door, let in the sun;
He hath made of the raindrops gold and gems;
He may change our tears into diamonds.

Open the door!
Open the door of the soul; let in
Strong, pure thoughts, which shall banish sin;
They shall grow and bloom with a grace divine.

Open the door!
And their fruit shall be sweeter than that of the wine.

Open the door!
Open the door of the heart; let in Sympathy sweet for stranger and kin
It will make the walls of the heart so fair.
That angels may enter unaware.

WILDEWEST ROUNDUP AT PENDLETON, OREGON, TODAY.

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 11.—A fanfare of trumpets heralded the opening here this afternoon of the Roundup, the event which is given annually by the city of Pendleton.

Four hundred cowboys, picturesquely garbed, cowgirls resplendent in buckskins and varnished habits and Indians painted and feathered rode into the great arena on maddly plunging bronchos and mustangs.

Leading them was the famous Pendleton Cowboy Band. It was estimated that 25,000 spectators including hundreds of tourists from the East and Middle West were in the grandstand.

Broncho busting, relay races, Indian war dances, a mile war between cowboys, cowgirls and Indians; steer roping contests; stage coach races, lariat throwing contests, etc. were on the program.

Bulldogging is perhaps the most daring of all the frontier sports. A steer is started on a run across the arena with a cowboy on horseback in pursuit.

As the rider overtakes the steer he leaps to the horned animal's back. Then comes the fight to trip the steer, the cowboy dexterously leaping out of harm's way when the animal falls.

Steer Indian tribes are today encamped on the grounds surrounding the arena. They are in full regalia and are holding side shows of their own consisting of horse and foot races, war dances, knife dances and other tribal ceremonies.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and help build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Address: Dept. 248, Chattanooga, Tenn.; for Special Instructions as to how to use the Cardui bottle. Home Treatment for Women, sent in plain wrapper, No. 125.

Are Your Children Ready for School?

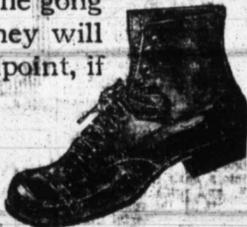

IN a few days we will hear the tap of the gong that calls your children to school. They will be better prepared, from a physical standpoint, if careful selection of their footwear is made.

Thoughtful mothers recognize the value of properly fitted shoes. They come here because we know the art of fitting children properly. We fit them with SELZ SHOES because they are made of REAL LEATHER, not paper or split leather scraps. We prefer SELZ SHOES. They use the same care and quality of leather in making children's shoes, as used in the manufacture of men's and women's shoes and they're guaranteed.

Have you seen the new "SELZ WAUKENPHAST" SHOES for children—new this Fall. They are positively the finest and most sensible children's shoe we ever saw. Others for men and women.

See our windows—better still—come in. All Selz Shoes are very moderately priced—quality considered.

'SIN KILLER' APPEALS FOR PUBLIC'S FINANCIAL AID.

Easing his plea upon the assertion that he brought the recent rains, Sin Killer Griffin is asking for financial aid in conducting services here. His appeal follows:

"To the citizens of Wichita Falls, Texas, the poor, the rich and every one:

"The prayers of the righteous prevail much. Elijah prayed and fire fell from heaven. He prayed again and it rained. I arrived in your city last Thursday, Sept. 4, and promised to pray for rain and would not leave the city until rain came. One of the officers of the city promised me a home here if I made it rain. At this writing it is still raining. The dust has been settled and untold good has been done. I appeal to the business men of the city to help me in my charitable work. I am in need of $350 to properly carry on my gospel meetings. I come to you well recommended by his Excellency, Gov. C. B. Colquitt, Sanger Bros., of Dallas and Waco, Dreyfus & Sons, I. Goldsmith, E. M. Kahn, Crawford and Crawford, attorneys at law, and one thousand other business men who endorse their own names giving their moral and financial support, asking the public to help 'em.

"In the name of suffering humanity, in the name of Him who lead Israel through the wilderness and Moses the public to help me.

Forty business persons will subscribe, I promise to give this town from one side to the other. Men and women are standing on the streets waiting to hear the gospel. Some fifty and some seventy-five years old, I have a good lot on the corner of Tenth and Ohio avenue, room enough for three hundred persons. I have no seats nor lights. I appeal to you to help me at once.

"All checks should be made to J. L. Griffin or donations may be sent through the mails. Yours truly, J. L. GRIFFIN."

SICKNESS COSTS TOO MUCH MONEY

ONE ESTIMATE FIXES NATIONAL DISEASE EXPENSE AT $750,000,000

PUBLIC HEALTH MEETING

Need For Public Education Along Hygiene Lines Discussed at Colorado Springs

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 11.—

Urging the prevention of occupational diseases by the government, Dr. John B. Andrews of New York, secretary of the American Association of Labor Legislation, today declared the mere money loss alone to the nation through preventable disease amounts to more than three quarters of a billion dollars annually. Dr. Andrews was one of today's speakers at the third day's sessions of the forty-first annual meeting of the American Public Health Association.

"From sickness alone," declared Dr. Andrews, "our mere money loss each year is three quarters of a billion dollars. Conservative authorities declare that one-fourth of this annual loss—approximately $200,000,000—can be prevented with ridiculously little expense.

"The prevention of occupational diseases is too great an undertaking to be left entirely to individual action. It cannot be left to the worker, who even when not ignorant of danger, is driven by necessity to his work. It cannot be entrusted to the employer whose principal business, after all, under competitive conditions, is to secure profits. It cannot be left to medical treatment alone, or prevention and not aftercare is the remedy. Not only on account of the magnitude of the problem but also because of its nature, the prevention of occupational diseases is properly a function of government."

Letting the People Know.
A systematic effort to "tap the reservoir of health knowledge stored in universities and to pipe it to the people" of the state generally through the medium of a division of the University of Wisconsin was discussed at the sociological section of the association today by Dr. Hoyt E. Dearholt of the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Dearholt said that the establishment of a bureau of health instruction, the extension of which to the University of Wisconsin was based on the belief that ignorance and apathy are the underlying factors in the spread of preventable diseases. Dr. Dearholt explained the system in vogue at Wisconsin University which gives "service" work in a correspondence school for health officials.

"Instruction in health matters," said Dr. Dearholt, "for the people who may be deficient in preliminary education, but nevertheless having sufficient mental capacity to grasp basic truths when presented in a form adapted to his limitations, is to be carried on through correspondence courses, lectures and newspaper publicity. One of the most important features of this work is a correspondence school for health officials."

Taking for his topic, "The Mortality from Cancer in the United States and Foreign Countries," Dr. Frederick L. Hoffman, of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, said that it is evident "that the American people are increasingly liable to cancerous affections." Dr. Hoffman was unable to account for this, but he found a ray of hope in the fact that compared with other civilized countries the cancer death rate in the United States is not excessive. It has, however, he pointed out, increased from 67.9 per 100 population for the five years ending with 1905 to 74.3 per 100 population during 1911.

BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG TO BE SHOWN AT THE ALAMO.

The Alamo Theatre tomorrow night will produce the great war picture "The Battle of Gettysburg." This picture is an accurate reproduction of the greatest battle of the Civil War, lasting for three days. An absorbing dramatic story leads up to the eve of the conflict. Stonewall Jackson was dead and Grant was besieging Vicksburg. In desperation, Lee marshalled his forces and made a dash to the north with 59,000 men. The Union army, numbering 77,000, met him at Gettysburg on July 1, 2,

OIL FIELD MEN IN FISTIC MELEE

TEXAS IC VICTORIOUS OVER W. VIRGINIA AND PENNSYLVANIA IN FIGHT

ROTARY VS. CABLE TOOLS

Nobody Is Badly Hurt—Final Scenes Are Enacted in Justice Court—This Morning

"Texas vs. Pennsylvania and West Virginia," or "Rotary vs. Cable" might very properly be chosen for titles for a fistic engagement staged at Wichita Falls Wednesday evening. The dramatic personae was Tex Ward, rotary drifter in the electric field. Three drillers, natives of Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Bartenders, officers and drinkers. Time between 5 p. m., and 6 p. m., Wednesday and 9 a. m., this morning. Scene I—Famous Bar on Indiana avenue. Scene II—Sidewalks in front of same. Scene III—Club Bar, a few doors down.

Scene IV—Justice's court. The engagement opens with beer drinking and glasses clinking at the famous bar. Tex Ward is there with a friend and so are the three cable drillers. Somebody points to Tex and says "There he is." Another makes a lightning remark and bumps into Tex, but before any blows are exchanged the prospective belligerents are pulled apart and the announcement is made emphatically that any kind of rough work don't go in that place.

Tex moves onto the sidewalk and the three follow him, and with the crowd pushing around them hats begin to fly and blows are given and taken and there is some clenching and separate in-fighting, but with three odds against him, Tex manages to get away. The crowd follows until a officer arrives. The crowd falls back in front of the officer and closes a behind him and when he reaches the center he finds Tex disheveled, fainting and dejected. The others have been swallowed up by the crowd. The officer collars Tex and escorts him down to the justice's court where he is arraigned on a complaint charging affray and pays a fine of $1 and costs.

With the admonition of the court bounding in his ears Tex pays his fine and walks back down town. He didn't stop at the Famous bar because he believed the three who had jumped on him were still there, so he went to the Club Bar a few doors down the street and is soon quaffing a foaming draught as he imagined. A peace and security. But his peace was to be short lived. In a crowd at the other end of the room someone whispered "There he is now" and a man jumped toward him. But he never reached Tex. Instead he met that individual's quizzing fist and a second later was rolling down the side of the wall ten feet away. Another is sprawled upon the floor as he attempts to rush Tex. The latter is now thoroughly warmed up and determined to do a good job, so he jumps upon the last man down, but whatever might had happened along the fighting line stopped then or half a dozen deputy sheriffs, constables and policemen came in at the same time and arrested everybody that looked like they had been fighting.

Three were taken to the city hall where they plead guilty to the charge and were assessed the usual ten dollars. Tex and another were taken to the county jail.

This morning Justice Brothers after hearing some testimony ruled that Tex was acting in self-defense and was not subject to another fine, and after recommending that he get his hair cut discharged him. The other man was fined a dollar and costs amounting to $10.80.

FIELDER JONES MAY COME BACK

OLD WHITE SOX MANAGER FREQUENTLY MENTIONED FOR MAJOR BERTHS

EVENTS IN THE MINORS

Portland, Oregon, Now Has Two League Teams, Both Owned by Same Individual

New York, Sept. 11.—Team lost a manager at half past four; Boss took aim out through an open door. Wires had a story at half past five; finding a new manager much alive. At half past six a denial came; Boss had a manager, but not that name. What was the name, somebody crones. The answer is easy—it was Fielder Jones.

There you have it. In landing upon the Pacific Coast during our minor league rambles, one of the big noises found out there is "Casey" Fielder Jones, one-time White Sox manager and now president of the Northwestern League. Any time a manager gets fired in one of the big leagues a story is sure to come from Portland stating that the job has been offered to Fielder Jones. And then Jones comes forth with an explanation of his business interests in Portland. One of the big sources of revenue for the newspaper correspondents is sending out reports assigning Jones to new berths in the majors. And in these feverish days, it is a dull time during which rumors of some managerial head about to drop are not in circulation.

One slant along the general lines of the Pacific Coast and Northwest-

None Reserved by Phone!

Telephone calls have been numerous this week, asking us to reserve Hoosier Cabinets and Hoosier Club Memberships until a family decision could be made. The amazing rapidity with which Hoosier Cabinets are being taken, makes it impossible for us to hold any more on approval. We have accommodated our friends and customers in this manner to the limit of our resources, but now the cabinets are nearly all gone and membership is strictly limited by the Hoosier Company. Please apply for your Hoosier Club Membership in person. The few memberships are going so fast that only early callers can avoid disappointment.

Don't Wait

You may have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered and set up ready for use tomorrow morning if you decide now. A single dollar brings your cabinet—the dollar club-membership fee that is part of the price.

No increase in cost above the low national cash price—balance payable in the dollar a week dues that pay for your cabinet so quickly.

This is your last chance this year to join. Four thousand Hoosier agents in 4,000 towns are organizing branches of the great national Hoosier Club. Half a million women now own Hoosiers. Five hundred thousand more are waiting to get them.

The Hoosier is the only "Eft time" kitchen cabinet. It is a wonder of economy and convenience, and is sold so universally that the price can be made lower than on any other furniture.

The Hoosier Company allots to each of its 4,000 agents a limited number of cabinets for sale on this liberal club plan this season, and our share is so nearly gone that tomorrow may see dozens of women disappointed.

Only Complete Cabinet

Every modern labor-saving machine for the kitchen has been tested by the Hoosier Company to bring the Hoosier to its present perfection. It is the only scientifically built kitchen cabinet, and the only one that is complete as a labor-saving machine.

Have You a Pantry?

Women take so many steps daily and are on their feet so much that they rarely realize how greatly walking is the real drudgery of housework until they see how many steps the Hoosier Cabinet saves.

Some think a pantry and cupboard give all the convenience they need, but you women who have pantries and cupboards need a Hoosier more than anything else to save you miles of walking back and forth preparing and clearing up meals.

If you could save half the steps and do ern Leagues reveals a peculiar situation which may be untingled before next year this season. There are two teams in Portland, Oregon, both owned by former Congressman W. W. McCredie. One is in the Pacific Coast League and the other in the Northwestern. The Pacific Coast League has a class AA ranking and Owner McCredie recently put one over on the scouts from the big leagues by selling himself several players from the Portland Northwestern team and putting them in the Pacific Coast Portland team line up, thus dodging the drafting process.

The Pacific Coast League directors have voted in favor of breaking up this combination by which McCredie is in a position to help out his Pacific Coast League team by grabbing off players from his Northwestern League team and drawing both ways on the attendance. Should the Northwestern people be forced to switch the Portland franchise to some other town, as now appears likely, Fielder Jones will have to persuade them to name a non-resident president, because 'tis said, those business interests would prevent him from leaving Portland.

Mixed up in the Northwestern League is "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity, former New York Giant pitcher. McGinnity is handling the Tacoma team and in addition is taking his regular turn in the box. The team is in the second division, but Joe is right up among the leaders when it comes to the pitching business.

The pennant race in the Northwestern League has narrowed down to three clubs: Vancouver, Seattle and Portland. Vancouver is the favorite. Tacoma, Victoria and Spokane are the trailers. Three big sales, already have been made by Northwestern League clubs. Scout Maguire bought Pitcher Schulp from Vancouver, for Detroit, putting up $4,000 for him. Vancouver also sold Pitcher Schulp to Brooklyn, but the purchase price was not announced. Victoria sold pitcher Schulp to the Pittsburgh Pirates for $3,000. Outfielder Pappa, of Spokane also was taken up by the Pirates. Seattle has a southpaw from the same town in Idaho that produced Walter Johnson. He is "Weiser" Dell and is expected to be drafted. Pitcher Alvin Gipe of Seattle; Charley Fullerton, a spitballer and Stonewall Jackson, Seattle's first baseman and Pitcher Lou Standing of Portland, also are expected to go to the big leagues by the draft route.

The Pacific Coast League is all tangled up in one of the tightest fights in its history. As the season is not scheduled to close until October 26 they have plenty of time to fight it out. Any of the six teams have a chance at the pennant and all of them are going after it.

Harry Wolverton, one-time manager of the New York Yankees, is directing the Sacramento team and has it well up among the leaders. Portland, last year's pennant winner, was a disappointment this season. Portland was deep in the cellar for almost three months but has made a remarkable climb, mainly because of the strength of the pitching staff. Hi West and Bill James, who had brief trials with the Boston Nationals are the main stays. James has developed wonderful speed, and Portland fans think he will get another crack at fast company. West may also go up.

The Pacific Coast League has not sold as many players during the season as some of the others, but heavy drafting is looked for. San Francisco may lose Jimmy Johnston and either Walter Schmidt or Fanning. Johnston was loaned to San Francisco by the White Sox. He leads the league in base stealing and will likely be recalled. Schmidt is a heavy catcher and Fanning leads the league in the box. Ness is a good first baseman and hitter for Oakland and may go up.
