SULZER LOSES IN OPENING CLASH

FOUR SENATORS CHALLENGED BY DEFENSE ALLOWED TO RETAIN SEATS

VOTE BY ENTIRE COURT

Judges Herrick and Parker Devote Nearly All of Morning to Arguing Question

By Associated Press. Albany, Sept. 19.—Gov. Sulzer's lawyers lost their fight in the impeachment proceedings today when the four senators challenged by the defense were permitted to retain their seats. The vote of the entire court was 10-2. The four senators concerned did not vote. Immediately following the vote, reading of the long articles of impeachment began. Although Judge Cullen had the right to decide on qualifications of the senators, he permitted the entire court to decide. The vote came after a morning of argument between Judges Herrick and Parker, representing the defense and prosecution respectively. Judge Herrick's argument was that no man might sit both as prosecutor and judge. In his speech he said the four members already had formed an expressed opinion on the articles of impeachment and that his client should have an impartial trial.

Rules Are Adopted.

In reply, Judge Parker said the members of the court were as representatives of the people, that the people established the court of impeachment in the beginning and that none other than the people had a right to remove their representatives.

The high court of impeachment in the case of Governor Sulzer met today for its second session. Senator Wagner submitted the report of the rules committee, which was adopted. The rules provide for daily sessions except Saturday from ten a. m. to twelve-thirty p. m., and from two to five p. m. On Fridays the final adjournment will be at 3:30.

Eight articles of impeachment. The eight articles of impeachment voted against Gov. Sulzer by the assembly are in substance:

That he lied with the secretary of state a false statement of his receipts and of the monetary transactions during his gubernatorial campaign.

That he committed perjury in this statement.

That he bribed witnesses to withhold testimony from the legislative committee which investigated his campaign accounts.

That he suppressed evidence by means of threats to keep witnesses from testifying before the committee.

That he dissuaded a witness, Frederick L. Colwell, from attending, under subpoena, the committee's sessions.

That he committed larceny in speculating in stocks with money and checks contributed for his campaign.

That as governor he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote of certain public officers.

That while governor he corruptly used his authority to affect prices of securities on the New York Stock Exchange, in some of which securities he was at the time interested.

"Inspired by Tammany."

The charges are set forth in eight articles of impeachment adopted by the assembly and embrace in their substance the findings of the Frawley legislative committee which began last July a public investigation into Sulzer's campaign contributions and political activities. This joint committee, created by the democratic majority in both Houses, was charged by the governor with being inspired by Tammany Hall to attack him because of his refusal to bow to the will of Charles F. Murphy. It began investigation shortly after investigations ordered by the governor.

The committee took testimony in New York and Albany and unearthed evidence tending to show that seven checks, amounting to $8,500, were contributed to the Sulzer campaign fund which were omitted in the governor's sworn statement. The statement accounted for only $5,460. It also brought out that during the campaign he received $22,850 in cash.

CANDIDACY OF DIAZ DISCUSSED

IS BELIEVED TO BE RECALLED TO MEXICO BY HUERTA FORCES

BRINGS PEACE NO NEARER

Would Hardly Be Accepted By Constitutionalists If He Is Elected In November

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 19.—News that General Felix Diaz had been recalled to Mexico to become the candidate of the Huerta faction in the coming presidential election aroused much interest in official circles here. The general feeling was that Diaz' return meant compliance with President Wilson's demands that Huerta should not be a candidate. So far as meaning an era of peace, however, the outlook was described as discouraging. The constitutionalists hold Diaz jointly responsible with Huerta for Madero's downfall, and should he be elected, it is thought there will mean a sharpening of the contentions of the warring factions.

While the American government is or record with a promise to extend recognition to the government set up by a legal election, it is said to be practically certain that the United States would not hasten to recognize Diaz, but would wait to determine whether his government was strong enough to maintain peace and guarantee internal obligations.

HOTEL MAN IS WOUNDED IN SHOOTING AT GRAHAM

Brother of Young Woman Fires at Him, Inflicting Painful Wounds

At Graham, Texas, Wednesday Beecher M. Baker was shot and wounded by Leonard Graves, the affair growing out of a case in which Graves' sister was the complainant against Baker. A report from Graham today says that Baker is not resting well. The following is from the Graham Reporter:

"Leonard Graves, who lives near the city, shot and painfully wounded Beecher M. Baker, proprietor of the Mountain Hotel of this city.

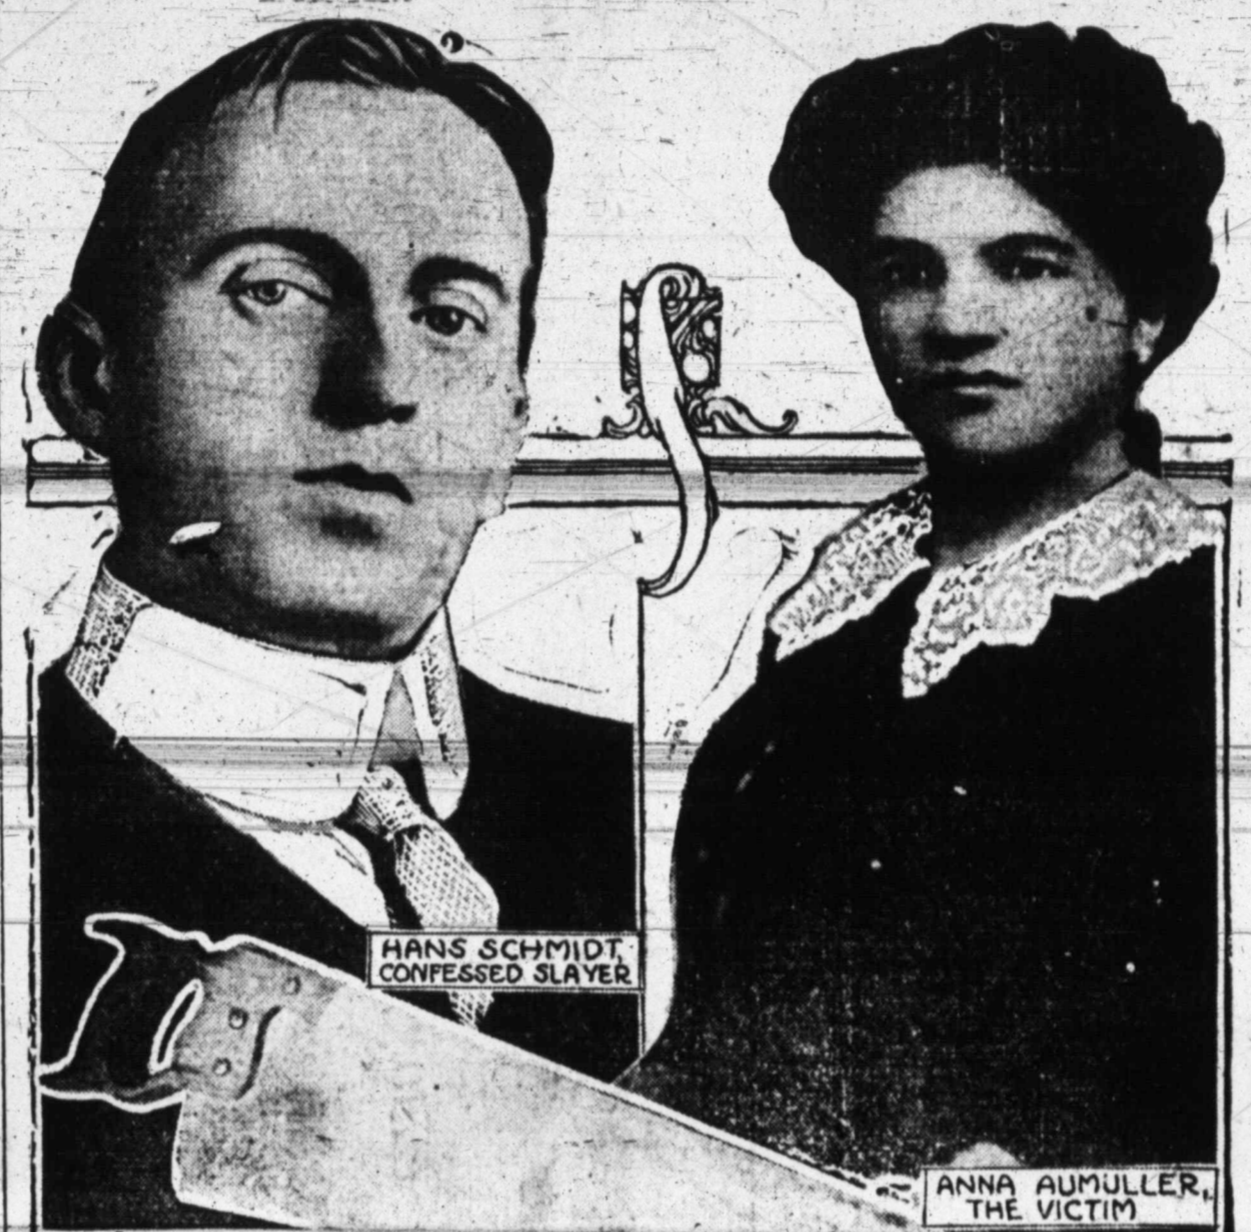

"Immediately after the shooting Graves gave himself up to the sheriff who placed him under arrest on the charge of assault with intent to murder. He was later granted bail in the sum of $1,000.

"It appears from the statements of eye witnesses that Graves was sitting in front of Mabry's grocery store and Baker was coming up the sidewalk from the west. When Graves saw him approaching he stepped into the rear of the store and after Baker passed began to shoot. The first shot taking effect in the middle of his back, the second one in the left shoulder, knocking him down. Graves fired towards him firing as he went.

"Five shots were fired, each one taking effect in the back, one in the left shoulder and three in the left leg. The gun used was said to be a .38-calibre and while the wounds were very painful, the physicians who are attending him, Drs. Terrell, Duncan and Logan, state that they do not think the wounds serious.

"The shooting grew out of the case wherein Baker was charged with a statutory offense, the complainant being a sister of the man who did the shooting. The case would have been called for trial at this term of court

NEW YORK PRIEST, CONFESSED SLAYER AND COUNTERFEITER—YOUNG WOMAN HIS VICTIM

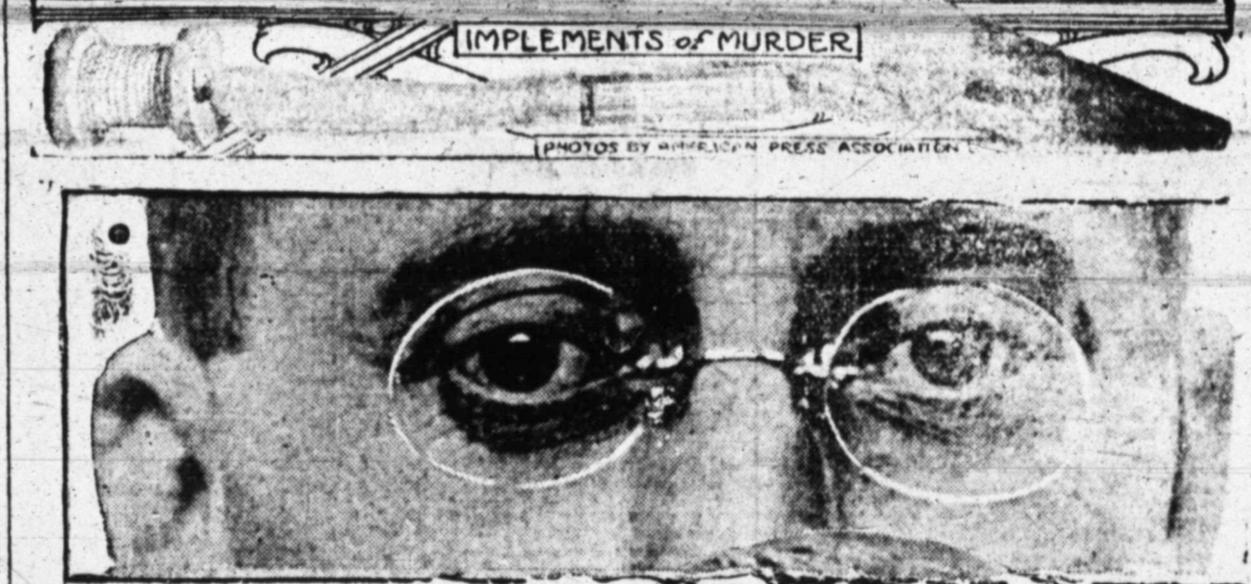

HANS SCHMIDT, CONFESSED SLAYER

ANNA AMULLER, THE VICTIM

IMPLEMENTS OF MURDER

PHOTOS BY WASHINGTON PRESS ASSOCIATION

Upon the sanity of Hans Schmidt, in all probability, depends his fate. The picture in which the reader looks into the very eyes of the confessed slayer, was taken only four days before he cut the throat of pretty Anna Amuller as she slept, then dismembered her body and dragged the fragments to the Hudson River. Even as the picture was taken, Schmidt tells the police, the crime was in his mind.

Whether insanity lurks behind the friendly look in these eyes, experts and alibists must determine, and upon their decision rests Schmidt's chances to escape paying the extreme penalty in the electric chair.

The members of the sheriff's department claim they went to the house when a call was made for officers to arrest disturbers. There has been bad feeling between the city and county officers for several years.

Plans for Thirty Day Recess Are Disapproved by Leaders at Least for Present

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 19.—Fresh from its triumphant passage in the House the currency bill to the Senate was featured today by a statement from Senator Owen, chairman of the banking committee that he expected the measure out of committee and on the Senate floor for action October 6.

The big democratic majority in the House will be kept in Washington as a moral influence over the slender democratic control in the Senate, while the currency bill is under way, according to plans made today by House leaders, who definitely rejected, for the present at least, the idea of a thirty day recess.

Owen Makes No Prediction.

Chairman Owen would make no predictions as to the prospects for action in the Senate committee. Emphatic expressions have come from Democratic members of the committee as to changes they believed necessary in certain features of the bill.

The final vote on the bill in the House brought a number of Republicans to the support of the administration measure. Twenty-four Republicans voted for the bill and three Democrats voted against it. A burst of applause greeted the passage of the bill. The three Democrats who voted against it were Representatives Calloway of Texas, Elder of Louisiana, and Witherspoon of Mississippi. The Republicans voting for it were: Representatives Baltz, Browne, Hill, Jones, Cooney, Cranston, Leach, Parr, Foss, Frost, Haugen, Helgeson, Kent, Lenroot, Linquist, Mapes, McLaughlin, Nelson, Porter, Samuel Smith and J. McSmith of Michigan, Smith of Minnesota, Stafford, Young of North Dakota.

Too sick for school! Who knows the joy that permeates a little boy. Who gets by with that "sickness" stunt? By means of writhing and grunting? Rejoicing through the window glass? He sees his school mates slouching past. And, braving scowls of future foes, He wiggles fingers at his nose. Oh, behind him as he stands And shows derision with his hands! His mother views the pantomime; Her face is something to be seen. "Too sick for school!" With scorching look. She gathers slate and sharp and book. And he is thrust into the street. And slow, with sad and slouching feet. That on the sidewalk drag and scrape. Makes for the school he can't escape. Rebellious, for from sickness past. He knows that sick bluff should have passed.

MAYFLOWER 42 CLUB IS ENTERTAINED THURSDAY.

The Mayflower 42 Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. E. Stearns and enjoyed one of the most delightful afternoons spent by the club this summer. Mrs. Ben Eddius of Jonesboro, Ark., was the special guest of the afternoon. Other guests were Mesdames Durrett, Cleburne, Grey of Albany, Oregon, Corkhill, Little, Higgins and Parker. Seven games were played, Mesdames Davis and Grey scoring highest. Punch was served throughout the games by Misses Pauline Langford and Eliza Beth and Ruth Eddius, nieces of the hostess. Refreshments of brick cream in pink and green, angel food and lemon cake were served by the hostess. Mints in the club colors were passed by little Miss Ruth Eddius. The club members present were Mesdames Allen, Brown, Bradshaw, Dobson, Davis, Haynie, Howard, Hurst, Langford, Page, Stewart, Thompson, Wilson and Yates. The next meeting will be October 2 with Mrs. Charles Davis in her new bungalow, 1408 Thirteenth street.

GIVES DINNER PARTY FOR VISITORS FROM FORT WORTH

Thursday evening Miss Lillian Mc Gregor entertained with a seven o'clock dinner party in honor of the Misses Durrett of Fort Worth, who are visiting her. The dining room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and the table laid with eight covers was most tastefully arranged with a large Mexican drawn-work center piece, banked with beautiful cut flowers. Handsome placards marked each cover. A sumptuous seven course dinner was served to the following couples: Miss Lucille Durrett and Mr. Gober, Miss Ann Carrigan and Carter McGregor, Miss Lillian Durrett and Mr. Durland and Miss Lillian McGregor and Bobbie Burns.

Mrs. L. A. McNeil and little daughter leave for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the winter months. Mrs. McNeil is quite popular socially in Wichita Falls and has many warm friends who will regret her departure.

Miss Icie White, one of Wichita's most popular young society girls, will leave soon for Long Beach, to be gone during the winter months. Miss Icie will be very much missed in the society circles this winter.

The meeting of the Thursday afternoon sewing circle was postponed this week on account of a winter school convention in session here.

Miss Mabel Simpson will entertain tonight with a picnic at Lake Wichita in honor of her visitor, Miss Tobin C. V. Durland is giving a dinner party Friday night at the "Mansion" for the Misses Durrett of Fort Worth who are guests of Miss Lillian McGregor.

The New Tunics.

Among the new styles that are coming in, short, bell shaped tunics of tulle or chiffon, worn over a satin skirt and bordered with fur, will probably be favored. In Paris they are said to be much worn, in every material from tulle to serge and velvet. In order to obtain the flaring effect at the edge they are bound with satin over a cord. The satin girls worn with them matches the underskirt—"blue Saxe," by the way, has entirely replaced green in Paris, but black and white are still much worn. Small, transparent lace coats are used, the edges of which fall straight from the shoulder, allowing the draped V shaped bodice and the broad crushed girdle to be seen. While the skirts are still often very narrow at the foot, the dominant tunic effect and the flounces have completely altered the general expression of the costume and the figure is concealed. In fact some of the tunics are so long—frequently, a flounce of plaited net was added to the edge of the taffeta of which one I saw was made—that they almost conceal the skirt. If you also consider that these are made with considerable fullness about the back hips, it becomes obvious that the ground for complaint, as far, at least as concerns propriety, should disappear. Of course, there will probably be individual exaggerations and eccentricities; but relief is in sight.

WORK OF SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

INCREASED ATTENDANCE FOR SECOND DAY OF DISTRICT CONVENTION

HEAR SEVERAL SPEAKERS

Departmental Conferences Are Held—Program For Sessions This Afternoon and Tomorrow.

Purity work in the Sunday schools was urged by W. N. Wiggins of Dallas, general secretary of the Texas Sunday School Association, in an address before the district convention Friday morning. He said it was time that parents and Sunday school workers should lay aside prudery and false modesty in dealing with such problems, and exercise some common sense in the matter. He declared that purity education should be undertaken by every Sunday school and that every school should have a special superintendent for this work. He mentioned some instructive books on this subject that should be in every home.

He said because such education had been neglected that Dallas had now to enter on a campaign that entailed a far greater effort and in which the results were less certain than if such education had begun with the children in the homes and in the Sunday schools. In the same connection he spoke of the rural Sunday school saying that it was closely correlated with the city school. He urged that rural schools notify the city schools of boys and girls coming into the cities from the country so that the city Sunday schools could give them a welcome and fellowship and help from the start.

Second Day Is Busy.

The second day of the convention opened this morning with a busy day ahead for the delegates gathered from more than a dozen counties. Round-table discussions, divisional conferences, addresses and song services made up the program for the day. The first topic at the morning session was "County Problems." Mr. Wiggins conducted this discussion in which many helpful points were brought out.

John N. Adams, state field worker of the Texas Sunday School Association, conducted a round table on "Sunday School Management." "Missions in the Sunday School" was a topic handled by Mrs. S. W. Hutton of Fort Worth. Mrs. Wiggins conducted a discussion on the "Home Department." Mr. Wiggins closed the morning program with a talk on "Purity Work in the Sunday School" and the "Rural School."

Conferences Are Held.

Departmental conferences opened the program this afternoon. The conference on the elementary department was led by Mrs. Wiggins. The cradle roll, beginners and junior departments or pupils under twelve years of age were discussed.

John M. Adams presided at the conference on the secondary department dealing with problems of classes in the "Home Department." The conference on the adult department was led by Mr. Hutton. Addresses by Mr. Hutton and Mr. Wiggins are also included in the afternoon program.

A vesper and song service are again scheduled tonight following which W. N. Wiggins will speak on "Our Three Years' Campaign—Your Part." Mr. Adams will also speak at the night session. The night program will be closed with a "Goodnight Story" by Miss Whitman.

J. Shreve Durham of Chicago, international visitation superintendent, will arrive tonight from Dallas, where he has been detained for conferences in regard to the purity campaign being inaugurated there, and will speak Saturday morning and Saturday night.

Thursday Afternoon Session.

With the opening of the convention, Thursday afternoon the work of the different divisions was outlined—the elementary division by Mrs. W. N. Wiggins, the adult division by S. W. Hutton and the secondary division by John M. Adams.

The Thursday night service was joined with a vesper service led by John M. Adams following which there was a song service led by S. W. Hutton assisted by Mildred Discan, pianist, and Mrs. Hutton. This song service was an inspiring feature.

An address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. W. Hill. He said the coming of the Sunday school workers, "cracks," he said someone had called them, would be a great help to the people of Wichita Falls. He said in these days the Sunday school had become pre-eminently the place for recruiting for the churches, for while many of the older people had become hardened and could not be reached, almost any man was willing and even wanted his children to attend Sunday school.

He declared that the day when the work of the Sunday school could be done in an old ramshackle building "with a hog under the house" and one song book for the leader had passed.

Some of the greatest minds of the country, he said, were working out the problems of the Sunday schools, which now had some of the finest publications issued. The churches, too, were being built with the Sunday school departments emphasized. One had only to look at the latest and best church buildings to know that this was so. On every hand, he said, the importance of the Sunday school was being emphasized and Wichita Falls considered herself very fortunate indeed to have the Sunday school experts come.

W. N. Wiggins Speaks.

Mr. Wiggins told of a Sunday school that had grown from 150 to 5,000 members in eleven years. This Sunday school was at Canton, Ohio. He attributed the phenomenal growth to the fact that the church had a leader with a vision. He said this Sunday school had lived up to two mottoes which if followed would materially increase the strength of any school. The first of these was, "Every member of the church in the Sunday school and as many more;" the second, "Every member of every family in our church in some department of the Sunday school."

The night session closed with an address by Mr. Hutton on "Leadership." He said the teacher was the hinge on which the Sunday school swings. He emphasized the importance of training schools in the churches for Sunday school workers.

WACO NEWSPAPER TELLS OF DEATH OF M. J. MORAN.

The following regarding the recent death of M. J. Moran of this city near Waco is from the Waco Times-Herald:

The man who was so horribly mangled beneath the wheels of a south-bound San Antonio & Aransas Pass train Saturday night has been identified as M. J. Moran, an employe on the government lock and dam, eleven miles south of Waco. Government pay check No. 152 was found among other papers near the body. W. H. Gibson, government inspector on the lock and dam, traced the number of the check and found that the man who drew it was M. J. Moran.

Moran, according to workmen who knew him, was a married man. His wife and family live at Wichita Falls. He has been employed on the dam for several months and was known as a steady, quiet, unassuming, likeable sort of fellow. He did not drink.

Moran was last seen by the officials at the dam Friday night when he, together with the other laborers on the dam, drove his automobile back and came to town. The most plausible theory of his death is that he left Waco Saturday night at 6:05 with some 75 other government employes to return to the dam, and the train being badly crowded a number of the passengers mingled force to ride on the platform. Moran was crowded off the platform and fell unnoticed beneath the wheels of the train.

A Granatt, a former intimate friend of Moran's called at the undertaking establishment yesterday to view the mangled remains. Granatt stated Sunday that two years ago Moran was one of the best and most widely known business men in Wichita Falls. He was the senior partner in the firm of Moran & Doran, furniture dealers, Granatt stated. Business reverses caused him to leave Wichita Falls.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus in good standing. He was secretary of the Wichita Falls lodge when he left that city.

His brother from Wichita Falls arrived Friday and the funeral was from the John Fall Undertaking parlors this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The sand was found at a depth of about 800 feet and the well is said to be good for 25 or 30 barrels. The first well on this lease was from the same sand several weeks ago and reported to be pumping better than 25 barrels.

Another Hillsboro Company has let the contract for two more wells on an adjoining tract.

Leovy, vice president in charge of all Gulf companies' interests in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mexico, has been promoted and will go to Pittsburg, Pa., as head of all the pipe lines, production and storage interests of the big companies he now represents in Beaumont. Mr. Leovy will be succeeded by Underwood Nazro who is now assistant to the vice president, and Harry C. Hansen will fill Mr. Nazro's present office.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 19, 1913

Both the proposed forms of our new city charter provide that money realized from the sale of bonds voted for street paving purposes may be loaned to property owners with which to pay for paving at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, to be paid in twelve equal payments. It strikes the Times as an arrangement of that sort should meet with the approval of all taxpayers who would like to have the streets paved in front of their property, but who feel they are unable to stand the cost by borrowing the money and paying a much higher rate of interest to those individuals who have the money to loan. If the new charter is obtained and a sufficient amount of bonds are voted for street paving, Wichita Falls will soon catch-up on civic improvements in that line, provided the property owners can get the money to pay for the paving at the low rate of interest mentioned, and are given ten years in which to reimburse the city.

The currency bill has passed the lower house of Congress by an overwhelming majority. Every effort to alter or amend it in any essential feature met with defeat and failure. Of course, this business of regulating the money of the country is decidedly ticklish business. Woodrow Wilson as president, when congress even hinted that a change in the way of handling the finances of the country was desired, Wall Street and the money sharks got busy by threatening to bring about a money panic. They not only made such threats, but actually put them into execution and at a time the whole of the United States was in the most prosperous condition it had ever before been in. There was absolutely no excuse for that panic, except that it was inaugurated for a purpose, and that purpose was to intimidate the government of the United States. I worked all right. The money lenders and sharks won their point, and after this normal conditions were restored the same tactics this time, not realizing perhaps, that they had a different political party and a different type of man as its leader to deal with. So far their talk of panic has proved to be most dismal failure. If the currency bill is not killed in the Senate President Wilson, with a united and solid Democratic party at his back, stands ready to shoulder the responsibility of any panic or scare of panic that Wall Street and the money barons threaten the country with. He has said there would not be a repetition of the last money panic, which was the most deliberate affair, and if there is those who bring it about shall be made to suffer.

THE PRINCIPLE OF CHECKS AND BALANCES.

The aldermanic form of government is in principle and form the same as the government of the United States. In a growing and changing country covering a wide area and containing widely diverse conditions the system of checks and balances was well calculated to prevent any one arm of the government from obtaining anything resembling absolute and self-perpetuating control. But in the government of a city the customs and activities of those citizens have much in common there is little need for laws to supplement the state and federal statutes. In a small city such a law-making body is not needed above half a dozen times in a decade, for a change of conditions requiring a change in laws takes place very slowly. So seldom, indeed are new laws necessary that it would obviously be much easier and less expensive to refer the questions directly to the people. For the same reason there is little need of a judiciary. The police court in a small city is too unimportant to be elevated to equality with the executive. City officers are not concerned with questions of policy but with problems of administrative detail and executive methods. Concentration of authority makes for efficiency in the administration of a city just as much as it does in the administration of a railroad. The fact is recognized every four years when one chief executive is elected to carry on the government of United States. At Galveston the first commission composed of five men and most commissions since then have contained that number because there are roughly five departments of municipal activity with separate problems and requiring a different kind of knowledge for its effective administration. Hence the principle of a five-headed executive has its basis in the actual needs of city government. Hence the advocacy

Always Order Belle of Wichita The flour of quality. Every sack guaranteed. It's better.

If the commission of five as the most efficient method of municipal management. The use of the check and balance system lies in the fact that absolute power for a short time tends to perpetuate itself; and in recognition of that fact to the commission plan is originally constituted has been added to initiative, referendum and recall; by which the people themselves have a direct check upon the actions of the men whom they have elected.

FAVORS GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION

The Times reproduces the following letter from a Dallas citizen to a citizen of this city, at the request of those who are favoring a commission form of government for this city: Dallas, Texas, September 18th, 1913. -W. F. Weeks, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wichita Falls, Texas. My Dear Sir: In answer to your kind invitation for me to come up and give my views to our people of your City in regard to a commission form of government, I will say to you that it would be a pleasure to do so, if it were not for the fact that I am very busy with my current and as you know in addition to that, was called in from my short vacation by having a son operated on for appendicitis. I particularly regret that I cannot be with you, because I and I believe the best portion of our citizens, are not only pleased with the commission form of government as compared with the old form of Mayor and Aldermen, but we are delighted with it. Some of our most prominent citizens fought the commission form of government in the first place, and tumbled against it. I was on the stump in favor of the commission form of government. If I am not very much mistaken, the Hon. R. B. Allen and the Hon. Barry Miller were among those who have become converted to the commission form of government after it had been running for four years. One of the great beauties of the commission form of government is that the commissioners and mayor are elected from the whole body of the city, and with us, we never elect a mayor. The Citizens Association name the men who are not aspirants and request them to run for the position. The responsibility is not divided among a large body of men with differing interests and coming from different portions of the city, but they work much more harmoniously and much more effectively. I do not think our people have the slightest idea of abandoning the commission form of government. There are some efforts being made along that line, but with our movement in this direction principally by the Socialists, whose motto, as near as I can understand it, is, that "whatever is, is wrong." If my personal opinion has any weight, you can say to those who desire to know, that I consider it the most satisfactory, the most effective, and the cleanest form of municipal government, that I have had to come under my observation. I was indeed glad to meet you personally and would be very glad if I can do you personally, or the people of your splendid city, any good. Very sincerely yours, JUDGE FELDER FAVORS ALDERMANIC FORM.

If these men should prove to be ignorant and bad then it follows that they might work great evil. The main objection to commission government, to my mind is the one urged most in its favor. The control it gives the commissioners over all officers and employees would enable them to perpetuate themselves in power, if we should be unfortunate in their selection. Why should the country demand the direct election of United States senators, if we cannot safely be depended upon to select our city marshall. Besides the courtesy of a public official to his fellow townsmen, I am prompted sometimes by a desire for re-election is worth something. Let our city officers look directly to the people and not to the whims and caprices of a mayor or commission.

FEDERAL GAME LAW NOT AGAINST DUCK SHOOTING

The new federal game law will not affect the duck shooting at Lake Wichita this year, it is learned, although most of the sections of the law are in force on October 1. After this year, ducks may be killed only between October 1 and January 15. The Times has received the following from Jeff D. Cox, deputy fish, game and oyster commissioner of the State: The Congress of the United States passed a protective game law last March. It provides for rules and regulations to be made by the department of agriculture. These rules and regulations have been made and are effective on and after October 1, 1913. By these regulations all geese, ducks, swan, rails, cranes, curlew, plover, sandpipers, snipes, wild geese, woodcock, yellow legs, pigeons and doves are classed as migratory game birds and the closed seasons against killing them are as follows: Geese, ducks and brant, Jan. 16 to Oct. 1 each year; rails, Dec. 1 to September 30; snipes, woodcock, curlew, Jan. 1 to Nov. 1; shore birds, including black breasted and golden plover, jack snipe, wilson snipe, greater and lesser yellow legs, Dec. 18 to Sept. 1 next following. These regulations for killing geese, ducks and snipes are not effective any time during the year 1913. It is unlawful to kill any kind of migratory birds after sunset and before sunrise all the time. There is a closed season until Sept. 15, 1913, against killing the following migratory game birds: Black, blue, and white pigeons, blue jays, sand and white-winged crane, swans, curlew and all shore birds except the black breasted and golden plover, wilson and jack snipe, woodcock and the greater and lesser yellow legs. Under the federal laws, it is unlawful to kill migratory insectivorous birds, and by this law the following are designated as such birds: Bobolink, catbirds, chickadees, cuckoos, fly catchers, grosbeaks, hummingbirds, kinglets, martins, nuthatches, night hawks or bullbats, nuthatches, orioles, robins, shrikes, swallows, titmice, thrushes, vireos, warblers, waxwings, whippoorwills, woodpeckers and wrens.

OLD TIME MANNERS TO BE REVIVED IN ENGLAND

Young Men Form Organization To Instill Proper Reverence and Courtesy Into Nation London, Sept. 19.—Deploring the present-day disregard of manners a league of young men has been founded in London, whose object is to attempt to revive the courtesy of the past in "the grand style." The league has commenced business in picturesque style. Whenever they passed the statue of a great Englishman, the members raising their hats and bowed profoundly. Standing bare-headed, the members of the league naturally attract considerable attention in the crowded streets, and when a crowd had gathered, they are supposed to address a short homily to the assembled throng on the pressing need of retaining courtesy and respect to the greatness which were so characteristic of a past age. Some of the members find their courage fail them at this point but others conscientiously carry out their missionary duties. "We are hoping that our little acts of courtesy in the street will do much to convince London that there is just as much need for courtesy nowadays as in past generations," said A. E. Wilson, secretary and founder of the league. "We may be accused of flamboyancy but the attitude we are taking up is the only way to bring the objects of the league home to the people. England is getting slack in its manners, anyone who knows the Continent intimately will agree that the 'foreigner' can teach us a much needed lesson in courtesy." PRISON COMMISSIONER MURPHY HAS PLAN TO ESTABLISH THEM ON FIRM FINANCIAL BASIS

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Sept. 18.—Prison Commissioner W. O. Murphy proposed to the attorney general's department today a question which he believed would solve the condition existing on state farms and place them on a firm financial basis. His idea was the establishment of a computed sentence farm which would be managed by an employe of the prison commission. The state would furnish the ground, seed, etc., for the farm. The attorney general advised that it was within the jurisdiction of the commission to establish such a farm.

PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON IS WITHOUT A CHURCH

Washington, Sept. 19.—President Woodrow Wilson is without a church, the edifice in which he has been accustomed to worship since he entered the White House having been sold to a negro congregation. The sale was completed yesterday when the Mount Carmel Baptist congregation took over the edifice of the Central Presbyterian church. The latter congregation will build another structure in a more desirable neighborhood. President Wilson, it was reported today, probably will join some other Presbyterian congregation until the Central church is established in its own house when he will renew his membership. Henderson, repair of one story frame residence, 801 Austin to cost $850. E. L. Ray, one story frame residence on G. and B. addition, $1200. E. L. Smith, one story frame residence, block 135, $200. WHALE RAMS HOLE IN STEAMER'S BOW. St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 19.—A collision with a whale caused such serious damage to the Danish steamer Vladimir Heltz that the vessel had put in here for repairs. The accident occurred Monday about 350 miles east of St. Johns. The crew saw the whale approaching at terrific speed, but could not alter the ship's course in time to prevent the impact. The whale struck the steamer head-on, knocking a four foot hole in the bow. The accident is believed to have killed the whale.

REAL HUNT FOR MONACO'S PRINCE

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, ALBERT, WON'T ROUGH IT DE LUXE, SAYS CODY

"AIR TIGHTS" AND BACON

Food Will Be of the Simplest, and Served in the True Western Style

Cody, Wyo., Sept. 18.—When Prince Albert of Monaco starts next week on his big game hunt near the Continental Divide with Colonel Wm. P. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," he will find nothing molly coddle about his experience. If he expects to recline cozily in one spot and have the game "shoved" to him, he is going to be greatly disappointed. Nothing like that for Buffalo Bill. The famous scout has advised his ranch manager that he will insist that his guests be given a real western hunt in the real western style.

There will not be any portable bathtubs or that sort of luxury, according to A. A. Anderson, who will assist Colonel Cody in entertaining the royal party. When the hunters rise in the chilly dawn, Colonel Cody will kneel on one side of the creek, wash his hands and face in the icy water and his royal highness will be expected to kneel on the other side and perform the same service for himself.

Beans to Head Menu. Beans will be the staple article of food, with bacon, "corn pone" and "sour dough biscuits," assisting the menu. Only tin plates, spoons, knives and forks will be provided. In keeping with the simplicity of the daily fare, Buffalo Bill would scorn to wash his hands and face in the icy water and his royal highness will have to content himself with sleeping at night rolled up in a blanket on the hard ground with his saddle for a pillow.

Prince Albert and his party will reach here Monday and will be greeted by Anderson who will take them Tuesday to Cody's mountain ranch.

Elaborate Arrangements. The arrangements for the hunt will be the most elaborate made in the west since Colonel Roosevelt went on his famous hunting trip to Colorado in 1905. In addition to A. A. Anderson, Colonel Cody's chief lieutenant, will be Johnny Baker, champion rifle shot of the world and himself a hunter of no mean reputation. Baker is familiar with every foot of the big game country and promises to lead the party to where elk, bear, wild cats and mountain lion abound.

FRONTIER CONGRESS TO BE FEATURE OF COMING SHOW.

Many clever ranchmen, cowboys and other plainspeople are embraced in the great frontier congress that has been assembled under the banner of the Oklahoma Ranch Wild West show this season. Already a great deal of local interest has been aroused by the announcement that the show is to exhibit here September 30. This interest has been accentuated by the notably large number of well known wild west experts with the show. Among others, Oklahoma offers the famous Mulhalls, undoubtedly the greatest all round ropers, trick riders and broncho busters in the world. Col. Zack Mulhall is so well known that it seems almost superfluous to introduce him to the public. From coast to coast he is known as a ranchman, plainsman, rider, cattle king and founder of the town of Mulhall, Oklahoma. His personal intimacy with Col. Theodore Roosevelt is also well known. Scarcely less famous than Col. Mulhall are his daughters, Lucille and Georgie. These remarkable young women have taken more prizes for rough riding than any other living ranch girls. Their roping feats are also phenomenal. Both in this country and in Europe they have created a sensation. As star features of the Oklahoma Ranch Wild West show they have received an ovation wherever the big show has exhibited.

The Mulhalls are in good company. Captain Kearney with his clever wife give an exhibition of trick shooting, with glass balls and clay pigeons that is described as remarkable. Otto Kline, the champion prize winner at the great Calgary stampee last fall, is repeating his success as a fearless and clever rider with the show. Max Holmes, one of the greatest of lady ropers, gives some remarkable exhibitions of her dexterity. Many other clever ranch people contribute to the performance. By way of contrast, the riding of the wild Cossacks of the Russian Steppes is illustrated by a company of these remarkable horsemen, led by Prince Luca, and riding their wiry little ponies. As though all this was not sufficient to satisfy the most exacting audience, the management of the Oklahoma Ranch show announces another big feature—something outside the realm of the wild west. This is the wonderful auto polo game—the newest sensation. This marvelous act is already the talk of the country. As a special free offering to the public, wild west day will be inaugurated with a picturesque street parade at 10:30 in the morning.

ELECTRIC LIGHT FISH FOUND NEAR AUSTRALIA

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 19.—A new species of fish having the appearance of an electrically lighted ferry boat has been secured in the Great Australia Bight, at a depth of 350 fathoms.

This curious fish which has fifty-three brilliant light organs on either side of its body, which itself shines like a mirror, has been named the Tudor. It was hauled by the trawler Endeavor, and has been placed in the museum.

More than 100 other new varieties were obtained, all the specimens inhabiting these submarine depths being more or less luminous.

THE DULL CHILD IN SCHOOL

A teacher is judged, a considerable extent, by the progress of her pupils. If she gets too many dull ones her progress in her profession will be retarded, and she will gain the reputation of being a poor teacher. She will hammer away at the dull ones, giving them far more than their share of time and attention, and will be more or less in a condition of despair because of lack of results. There isn't any doubt that in many cases a child is dull in school because either his vision is poor or uncomfortable, hence that teacher is wise who insists that the eyes of dull children shall be examined to see whether glasses are necessary. No "drops." We know how

STOVALL OFFERED SEVEN DIFFERENT JOBS ALREADY

Cincinnati, Sept. 19.—George Stovall, deposed manager of the Browns, proved to be one of the most popular fellows here during the recent gathering of the baseball magnates and players. He has received seven offers already, but as yet has made up his mind to nothing.

He has been offered everything from first baseman with pennant contending teams to managements in the bushes.

Stovall will go slowly. He has all winter in which to pull something and besides, he is anxious to secure his unconditional release from the Browns.

DREAMERS

Men and women who do things, have always been dreamers. They dream of something nearer the ideal, than the other fellow then they get busy and do it. "The populace say they are a genius," but they are only ordinary folks that make day-dreaming a habit, that must come true.

Dreamers in every line, if they develop their ideas, make a hit. They are listed on this mundane sphere as Electricians, mechanics, bankers, lawyers, doctors and preachers, the farmer and the day laborer, battling with adversities.

In our own little place, "the best known to the science of our craft is not enough." A better plant and studio, a truer conception of harmony both in subjects and surroundings, telling the story of life today in all of its fullness that the children of tomorrow may read your life, your thoughts and dream of your great love for those who passed before you, and in so doing be made better for the thought.

Our memorials to your loved ones are everlasting. It's not a duty, but a glorious privilege.

New York, Sept. 18.—Now is the winter of our discontent about to be made glorious by the plunk of the football. Eastern teams are now well down to practice and the "big nine" conference teams of the middle west will get down to business Saturday. The conference rules prevent practice before September 29, but things will be set on fire after that date. Taking it through and through, a very enjoyable time is expected to be had by one and all during the coming season. A large crop of new doctors came from the colleges this year and all are in need of something to do so the football season may come along about just the right time.

Taking the game seriously, however, Harvard is looked upon to repeat and cop the Eastern title. Harvard will have the fan-famed Charles Brickley in the line up again, which means considerable. It may be remembered that Brickley shoots drop kicks over the bar as effectively as an expert punter might put them over with a six inch gun and twenty paces. Storor will captain the team. The veterans who must be replaced this year are Wendall, Felton and Gardner. Promising material is on hand for their places and in addition recruit Mahan has taken the field with a reputation for drop kicking second only to that of Brickley.

Yale starts a new system of coaching this year. Howard Jones will take charge of Eli's football hopes for a period of three years and it is hoped he will establish a system of play as sound as that shown by Percy Haughton at Harvard. Heretofore Yale has changed head coaches annually, except that Walter Camp retained his place as advisor. Camp will continue to act in this capacity with Jones.

Captain Ketcham is the only all-American star in the Yale line up. Linemen Talbot, Pendleton, Warren, Cooney and Avery of last year's team will again be in their places, but the line will have to be filled out from last year's freshman eleven and the substitutes. Not a single regular member of last year's back field will be on hand. Philip and Spalding graduated. Lefty Flynn left school. Tommy Cornell, quarter, will probably be shifted to half or full back.

The Princeton team will be built around Capt. "Hobey" Baker, one of the fastest backs in the East. S. Baker and F. Trenkman will also be back this year and there is a wealth of material from last year's freshmen team to complete the backfield. Two big freshmen, Brown and Lambertson, will also probably appear in the varsity line this year. A. Blumenthal and Andrews, a Tiger end of 1912 will have charge of the coaching line this year, and it is to them to build up practically an entire new team. The only regular lineman to return this year was Phillips, left tackle. Five men who won their letters by substituting in the Yale or Harvard game are back, but only three of the real string men are available. The other positions must be filled by picking from the substitutes and the 1916 freshman eleven. Capt. Pendleton is lost to the backfield through graduation and DeWitt through the three year rule.

Pennsylvania is another team shaken sadly by graduation. Captain Young, Minds, Wilson, Journey, Marshall and Walter Simpson are the men left.

Both the Army and Navy have much building to do, but as the one big game with them is their own little "tussel" they expect to be in the best of shape. The argument as to where this game would be played has been settled and the teams will get together at the Polo Grounds.

AUTUMN STYLES FOR SCHOOL GIRLS

BIG SISTER HAS NOTHING ON SWEET SIXTEEN WHEN IT COMES TO FRILLS

FAR FROM SIMPLICITY

Slit Skirts, Etc., Are On the List and Some New Hats That Are Quite Chic

A Miss is as good as a Mrs. When it comes to a question of style. And you've often seen that sweet sixteen

Has thirty beat a mile. Her frills are just as frilly. Her frocks as sheer. I wish, While a skirt that's slit up quite a bit For a Miss is not amiss.

New York, Sept. 19.—Leading fashions are prone to be misleading when it comes to the younger generation and the American Miss is quite as prone to be misled. Sally Schoolgirl and Susie Sixteen are replicas of their daddies' dressed, or rather undressed Mamas and their slit skirts often show that as the tree is inclined so is the limb.

Though the days of the simple book muslin and blue ribbon are long since past, some modified fashions for youthful wearers are still extant. A charmingly dainty little frock of for get me not sprigged organdie is in good fashion and good taste. The short baby waist has a scalloped fichu around the V shaped neck and a scalloped ruffle around the elbow sleeves. The skirt is set onto the short waistline with a scalloped heading and the scalloped ruffle around the bottom is set on the skirt with a similar heading. A banding of the blue ribbon runs through a casing of the organdie, binds the elbow sleeves and the waist and from the latter point the long ribbon ends fall from a knotted bow.

A floppy white chip hat wreathed in for get me nots and rosebuds, tied under the chin with black velvet strings completes this ingenue costume.

A party frock of pale chiffon stamped with pink roses is made with a pannier overskirt of pink taffeta. The kimono waist of the figured chiffon is cut away in front over a round necked vest of flesh colored chiffon. A wired bow of narrow black velvet ribbon at the waist, adds a Frenchy touch and the neck of the chiffon vest is drawn up with bebe black velvet run through beading. A leg-horn with a ruching of blue malines encircling the crown and covering the brim is caught on one side with a 15 France rose.

A white wash crepe is cut on long straight lines with its low cut out oval neck outlined with a little upstanding de Medicil frill of net. The long sleeves are finished with a frill of the same and a prelate sash of coral satin, very wide, breaks up the dead whiteness with a splash of vivid color.

A chic little suit of rose ratine has a jaunty pony jacket whose distinctive feature is a yoke and sleeves cut in one piece. It has a cutaway front and Windem—The initial copy of the Herod, a new publication at this place, has been issued and contains several pages of interesting reading matter.

Wichita, Sept. 19.—Willo Ritchie, champion lightweight and Freddie Welsh, who will meet here tomorrow both took today easy. Both claimed to be in great shape. Welsh says he is confident of victory. Ritchie declared Welsh will have to be the best lightweight who ever stepped into any ring to beat him tomorrow. Considerable money was bet today on the outcome. Some money at 2 to 1 on Ritchie was placed but the most of the bets were at 5 to 4 and 3 to 2 on the title holder. The takers of the odds who are backing the English fighter are mostly Americans. Canadian backers of Welsh said today they will wait until ringside to bet, as they expect then to get 2 to 1 and possibly 3 to 1.

DON'T TAKE THE WRONG MEDICINE.
If Your Liver Gets Lazy You Need a Liver Tonic, Not Merely a Laxative for the Bowels.

Many people take a simple laxative when their liver gets sluggish rather than take cod liver oil, which they know to be dangerous. But a mere laxative will not start a sluggish liver. What is needed is a tonic that will live up to the liver without forcing you to stay at home and lose a day from your business.

You have such a tonic in Dodson's Liver Tonic. Dodson's Liver Tonic must be all they claim for it because they guarantee it to take the place of dangerous cod liver oil and to hand back the money with a smile to any person who tries Dodson's Liver Tonic and is not satisfied with the relief it gives.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a harmless vegetable liquid with a pleasant taste, and is a prompt and reliable remedy for constipation, biliousness, sour stomach and the other troubles that come from a torpid liver.

Stomach and Bowels give it their personal guarantee and if you will ask about this guarantee you will protect yourself against imitations that are not guaranteed. Large bottles of Dodson's Liver Tonic is 50 cents. (Advertisement)

MORE OFFICES NEEDED ACCOMMODATIONS SCARCE

A marked scarcity of desirable office locations exists in Wichita Falls at this time and new concerns which have come here recently to begin business have found it quite difficult to secure suitable quarters. Some of the cotton men, who are much less numerous this year than heretofore, are experiencing considerable difficulty in getting offices and were the number of cotton buyers as large as it is when there is a full crop, it is difficult to see where accommodations would be found.

Owners of two story buildings in the business section are accustomed to making rooming houses out of the upper stories, as the demand for such accommodations is nearly always up to the supply. One of the concerns which has a paving contract made a fruitless effort recently to find a room for its office, and was unable to do so. Every available office has a tenant, so far as can be learned and the present supply is inadequate.

With this condition existing in the face of the short crops in this part of the State, one can only imagine what would be the case if crops were up to the normal. Of the new buildings being erected, it is understood that one will rent its second story for office purposes, and this means relief to the condition for the present.

DRUGLESS HEALERS IN CONVENTION AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 18.—Legislation which will legalize the practice of several systems of drugless healing was demanded today by speakers at the annual convention of the Washington Association of Drugless Healers which opened today to continue two days. The speakers declared that jealousy, narrowness and ignorance were the chief causes why such legislation has not long ago been passed. They pointed to innumerable instances in which deformities, many forms of disease and breaks and certain kinds of wounds have been permanently cured by different systems of drugless healing. During the convention which opened today there will be several clinics to demonstrate the efficiency claimed for the drugless method of healing and treating chronic diseases and deformities; physiological treatment and exercises; scientific food chemistry and hygienic measures.

CATHOLICS PLAN BIBLE REVISION

POPE PIUS STARTS MOVEMENT HE HAS CONSIDERED FOR MANY YEARS

MONEY IS BEING RAISED

Would Have Revised Text That Would Stand Test of All Modern Criticism and Research

Rome, Sept. 18.—Announcement was made today at the Vatican that the Right Rev. Abbot Casquet, supreme head of the monastic order of the English Benedictines, and who is already in the United States on a visit, has just intrusted with a special mission there by Pope Pius. It is hoped that Father Gasquet will be able to secure contributions in America that will make possible the complete revision of the Bible which the Catholic church now has under way.

The preparing of a revised text of the Bible that would stand the test of all modern criticism and research has been one of the greatest ambitions of Pope Pius from the moment he was elected Pope ten years ago. The amount of money which it was foreseen would be entailed made it impossible for his holiness to undertake the work until 1907 and now with a goodly part of it completed, he is facing the necessity of having to abandon his current generous subscriptions are forthcoming.

The actual work of the revision was intrusted by Pope Pius in 1907 to the Order of the Benedictines. The work has since been carried steadily on in their monasteries in all parts of the world.

Owing to the fact that the great bulk of original Biblical manuscripts and early texts are preserved in museums from which they cannot be taken the work presented decided obstacles. These were later largely overcome by having photographs taken of all such manuscripts and these permit the most minute examination of all existing texts and early Biblical manuscripts. Over 200 volumes of these photographs including those of the famous Biblical manuscripts in the collection of the late J. P. Morgan, have already been forwarded to Rome.

The next step of noting all the differences in these texts and compiling them was to be carried on by the Benedictine monks in the monastery of San Calisto, just outside the walls of Rome, but for the moment financial difficulties have forced a temporary abandonment of the work. In this emergency, Pope Pius has authorized Father Gasquet, on his present trip to inspect the Benedictine monasteries in the United States, to make an especial appeal for funds which will permit the finishing of the work. When the new Latin text is completed it will be the first full revision that has been made since 1522.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. So he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken."

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

ROYAL WEDDING SOON IN ENGLAND

PRINCE OF CONNAUGHT AND DUCHESS OF FIFE TO BE MARRIED OCTOBER 15

MUCH FUSS BEING MADE

Principals Are of Retiring Disposition But Ceremony is To Be Very Elaborate Affair

(By Ed L. Keen, London Correspondent of the United Press)

London Sept. 19.—Not having a chance at a royal marriage for a good many years (the last one of importance was that of the Prince and Queen English Court and Society circles have seized upon the forthcoming nuptials of Prince Arthur of Connaught and the Duchess of Fife with an avidity that is anything but pleasing to the young couple. Personally, the Prince and the Duchess, who are to be married October 15, would much prefer to sneak off quietly to the South Kensington registry office and have the knot tied there without any fuss or frills, for both are of exceptionally retiring dispositions—the Duchess has been known ever since her social debut as "Her Royal Shyness." But, that being impossible, they naturally thought they ought to have something to say about the arrangements. These have been taken entirely out of their hands.

King George, having summoned his Council and formally given consent to the marriage of his "very dear cousin and niece," would doubtless have been quite content to let the young folks manage the affair to suit themselves—but not with Queen Mary on the job. Officially, the details are in the hands of Lord Chamberlain (Lord Sandhurst) but everything has to receive the O. K. of the mistress of Buckingham Palace.

Queen Picks Bridesmaids
It is the inalienable privilege of the ordinary bride to choose her own attendants but this was one of the first matters to which Queen Mary turned her attention. Of course, the selection of bridesmaids was supposed to have been made by Lord Sandhurst. Princess Mary, the King's daughter, heads the list. Then comes Princess Maud, the bride's sister, and Princess Mary of Teck. There are still four more to be named, and there is a fine old court intrigue going on among the ducal families to secure the Queen's approval for the daughters.

The question of the best man was very simple. Young Connaught was given no opportunity even to suggest one of his personal friends. The Lord Chamberlain merely told him that the Prince of Wales had been selected, and he didn't have to say by whom. Wales isn't bit more tickled over the prospect than Connaught himself. The Duchess did express one wish, and that was that she be permitted to name her own trainbearers, but the Lord Chamberlain courteously informed her that she would be relieved of this responsibility. Queen Maud of Norway King George's sister, had already been spoken one place for her son, the Crown Prince Olaf, and there was a host of little Tecks and Battenbergs from whom Queen Mary would make selections.

The bride also has had, practically nothing to do with the selection of her trousseau. Paris gowns were harvested from the start, for the Court demands that Princesses must support home industries. To avoid domestic jealousies, England is to provide the silks, velvets, shoes and gloves. Scotland the linens and lace, and Wales the corset.

Even the guest list is being prepared by the Lord Chamberlain, under Queen Mary's direction, although as a special favor it is expected that the bride and bridegroom will be allowed personally to invite a few of their intimate friends—that is if they are of sufficiently high rank and if there is room for them after all the royal-ties have been crowded into the church. Even the date of the wedding was fixed to suit the conveniences of the King and Queen, who will be in Scotland till nearly the middle of October.

It isn't much fun being a King if your name happens to be Alfonso and that of your mother-in-law Princess Henry of Battenberg. That there is little love lost between Alfonso and Queen Ena's mother is well known, but Society is still puzzled to learn what new imbroglio was responsible for the Spanish monarch's hasty departure from Cowes just before the recent regatta opened.

Alfonso, who is passionately fond of yachting, had arranged for a fortnight's vacation from the bomb-throwing district in order to enjoy a King if at Cowes, which incidentally has other attractions besides. Apparently he had overlooked the fact that his mother-in-law was staying there, and for the first night he put up at a hotel. After that his position became impossible, for he had either to ask the hospitality of the Princess or accept that of King George who had just arrived on the royal yacht. The British court is a bit too sedate for Alfonso, so the only alternative was to find that "urgent affairs of state" demanded his return to Spain by the next train and boat.
