PIEDRAS NEGRAS IS EVACUATED

CONSTITUTIONALIST TROOPS LEAVE BORDER TOWN AND HEADQUARTERS MOVED.

REGUGEES CROWD BRIDGE

Rebel Leaders Say Troops Are Being Mobilized South of City to Battle Federals.

MESSAGE FROM GEN. CARRANZAS

Piedras Negras, Oct. 1.—A message just received from Gen. Carranzas by United States military authorities says that the capital has been abandoned temporarily and the constitutionalists are concentrating their forces 25 miles north of Salinas for a last desperate stand against the federals.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, OCT. 1.—

Confronted by the implied ultimatum that United States soldiers would be used to prevent the destruction of the international bridge as well as property of Americans in Piedras Negras, all of the responsible chiefs of the revolutionary movement disappeared from Piedras Negras, their military capital, leaving the town at the mercy of the federals should they decide upon a filibustering attack from the American side.

After deserting the city constitutionalists sent a message to Major Caldwell of the Fourteenth United States Cavalry, telling of the desertion and requesting that troops be used in preventing filibustering across the river. In the meantime a spirit of anarchy which was apparent was sternly repressed by the few remaining constitutionalists left in Piedras Negras, and several looters were shot down in the streets. At noon today the constitutionalist headquarters were closed and word was passed that dynamite had been planted under the foundation and that it was dangerous to attempt to enter.

Thousands of refugees are attempting to cross the bridge, fearing the approach of the federals, and the bridge was blocked today. An effort was being made to bring order out of chaos. In explanation of the abandonment of the city, the constitutionalist officials, still on the scene, assert the entire available fighting force is being mobilized to meet the federals at a point south of the city.

Many Cross into the United States. Terror has gripped this city, the provisional capital of the constitutionalists, with the victorious northward march of the federals and the arrival of hundreds of refugees from the surrounding devastated country. A steady stream of people poured across the international bridge Tuesday afternoon, many carrying on their backs what they had been able to bring with them when they fled from their homes. Many Americans were among them; following two official warnings to proceed to Eagle Pass, on the American side, rioting and pillaging is feared as the disorder grows worse.

Falling to obtain assurances that the property of foreigners will not be molested, after formal protests of the United States department of state were lodged with the constitutionalist officials through Consul Blocker, it is understood that an ultimatum will follow the first attempt to interfere with foreign property. What form this will take has not been made known.

Major Caldwell of the Fourteenth Cavalry has requested reinforcements for the American garrison at Eagle Pass. Fighting Expected Soon. Reports from the front assert that fighting is expected to start at Salinas Wednesday morning. The constitutionalists are short of ammunition, and it is feared here that they will be forced to fall back on Piedras Negras for Matamoros.

Take Chance With Death Rather Than Be Deported to Country From Where They Came.

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 1.—Four men who were to have been deported on the steamer France, obtained liberty of death today by leaping forty-five feet from an upper deck of a steamer on the Hudson river, as the vessel lay at her pier. All trace of the men were lost, but the finding of two life-belts in the river led to the belief they had perished. The men were confined in a cabin adjoining the hospital cabin. They escaped by cutting a hole through the wall.

Velosky is undergoing the terrific ordeal bravely in his prison one hundred feet below the surface. Frequent members of the rescue party conversed with him during the night, his remarks being heard very clearly through the fifty feet of tubing penetrating the coal from an adjoining chamber.

TRIED TO LYNCH ACTORS IN PLAY

"TAKING OF SCUTARI" WAS TOO REALISTIC FOR IMPRESSIONABLE MONTENEGRINS.

AUDIENCE WAS VIOLENT

Made Rush for Stage With Intention of Lynching Actors Representing Turk Characters.

By Associated Press. Celling, Montenegro, Oct. 1.—A riotous outbreak almost resulting in the lynching of several actors representing Turk characters marked the first performance of King Nicholas' play, "The Taking of Scutari," last night when the actor who played the role of Essed Pasha, the Turk commander, came on the stage, a youth sprang to the platform, brandishing a revolver, and with difficulty was prevented from shooting the actor. When a member of the cast began to describe the assault of Parashov, several veterans seated at the front of the audience denounced him as a liar.

When the third act showed the Turks in retreat the audience rushed for the stage with the intention of lynching the wearers of the faces and the police were compelled to use force to restore order.

"Did you have a conversation with Cowell in October, 1912 in respect to opening an account?" Attorney Brackey asked Gray.

"Yes he asked me to get a quotation on Big Four. I quoted it and he gave me an order to buy 100 shares. He made two payments against the stock when it was delivered one of $1500 and one of $1000."

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST REBELS IS CHARGED

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 1.—Senator Morris Shephard of Texas took up with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin a complaint received from H. L. Beach of the San Antonio Light, that the government was discriminating against constitutionalists in favor of the federals in the decision relating to the neutrality laws.

Mr. Beach says the federals are buying horses, saddles and forage at San Antonio and that the assistant secretary has ruled these purchases not in violation of the neutrality laws as the supplies are not manufactured for military purposes. On the other hand Mr. Beach declares, that Col. Ortega's horses, saddles and forage at San Antonio are prohibited from exporting provisions for constitutionalist troops, and that the treasury department has arrested merchants at Eagle Pass and Laredo for buying overalls on a treasury department ruling that they were for military purposes.

FORMER TEXAN ENTERS OKLAHOMA GUBERNATORIAL RACE

Oklahoma City, Oct. 1.—F. E. Herring of Elk City announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor. It has been known for some time in local political circles that he would be a candidate. Mr. Herring is the only so-called "outsider" to announce, the others being included in the present State administration. This brings the list of definite entries up to three, the other two being Secretary of State Ben F. Harrison and Judge Robert L. Williams of the supreme court.

Mr. Herring is a native Texan. He has been a resident of Oklahoma twenty-nine years, coming to Oklahoma in 1884, locating on what was then the Comanche Reservation, now Comanche county. He was one of the organizers of Greer county, where he located in 1888, and was a member of the constitutional convention. At 60 he is engaged in cattle raising and farming, mercantile and banking business in Western Oklahoma, having a chain of department stores in Roger Mills and Beckham counties. His home is at Elk City.

Mr. Herring's announcement says: "I take the position that State government is nothing more nor less than a great corporation in which every taxpayer is a stockholder. I believe that I will be able to systematize and economize the affairs of the State to such an extent that it will reduce very materially the burden of taxation."

FALL PLOWING

By Col. Henry Exall

It is a well known fact that even in the most humid climates a crop is seldom raised that has not at some time during its growth suffered for the want of water. This need of moisture is especially felt over the larger portion of Texas and the western country. Yet even in the driest sections of our country the annual rainfall is generally ample to make at least one crop a year. The great trouble is not that there has not been sufficient rain but that a large portion of that rain has been lost in the ground before it reaches the soil. The water in the soil until it was needed, the greater portion ran off or evaporated. Twenty inches of rain, the average for even the driest sections, if it were all saved and applied to the crop as needed, would supply enough water to raise one hundred and twenty-six bushels of corn. Of course, it will seldom be possible to save all of this rainfall, but by proper handling of the soil much larger quantities of this moisture, than is usually done, can be saved.

Loss of Surface Water.
The chief cause of loss of rain water is the running off from the surface and evaporation from the soil during dry weather. As a matter of fact even in sections where the rainfall is frequent and gentle, not over fifty per cent of the water that comes in this form is retained by the soil. The rate with which soils absorb rainfall varies both with the kind of soil and the rapidity of the precipitation. Coarse grained soils and soils, the surface of which are loose and open, will absorb and store much more of the rain water than will soils that are fine textured and more compact. Again, if the surface of the soil is level it will be able to absorb a greater portion of the rain water than if it has an incline and at the same time the same soil will absorb more of the water if the surface is uneven than if it is perfectly smooth.

Since the greater portion of Texas and our western country consists of fine clays and containing very small spaces between the particles of soil for the absorption of water and, further, since the majority of our rainfall comes in heavy downpours and at a time when our crops are not growing upon the land, this problem of saving the moisture within the soil until it will be needed by the plants, is of paramount importance and yet after all a comparatively simple one of solution.

Plow Before Winter Rains.
First we must take steps to prepare the soil that it will store as much of the moisture that comes to it as possible. The way to do this is to plow that soil as deeply as possible before the usual winter or early spring rains. The deeper this is done the greater will be the absorptive area, and the more moisture will be stored within the soil for the use of our plants next summer. It is of especial importance that his fall and winter breaking shall be deep and done here on yesterday's noon train and this morning. Sheriff Randolph and county attorney Dan Boone questioned Van Williams, Ben Summers and Mrs. Williams, as to the affair. The stories of Van Williams and Summers corroborate that of Mrs. Williams in practically every detail. A complaint charging assault to murder was filed against Van Williams and his trial set for tomorrow, the other two being held as material witnesses.

The condition of T. J. Williams was too serious today to permit his talking about the affair. The bullet was a .38-caliber and went all the way through his body, coming out near the shoulder blade.

Van Williams Under Arrest, Mrs. T. J. Williams and Ben Summers Held as Witnesses

T. J. Williams, aged about fifty, is dangerously wounded and Van Williams, a young man, is under arrest, as the result of a shooting at Burk Burnett late Saturday night. In addition, Mrs. T. J. Williams and Ben Summers are held by the State as material witnesses for the examining trial of Van Williams, which will be held tomorrow.

The wounded man was shot in the left breast above the heart. His condition was reported quite serious this afternoon and owing to his age, fears are entertained for his recovery.

Van Williams and Summers were boarders at the T. J. Williams house in Burk Burnett. They had recently moved there from Altus, being partners in the plant and running machine business. Late Saturday night, according to a statement made by Mrs. Williams this morning, she and Summers were together in a shed near the Williams home when T. J. Williams approached.

"Is that you in there, Alice?" he said.
"Yes."
"Who is that with you?"
"A lady friend of mine."
"Younger Man Ordered To Leave."
This answer apparently did not satisfy Williams and he struck a match. As he did so, Summers broke and ran. Williams then returned to the house and told Van Williams to pack his things and leave, that he and Summers could not stay there any longer. Williams refused to leave and after some argument between the two men, the elder Williams left the house.

According to Mrs. Williams' statement, she argued herself, getting her own pistol out of her room. Van Williams, she says, saw the weapon and took it away from her, going out of the house into the rain. A minute later she heard some firing.
"One Bullet Took Effect."
The shooting took place not far from the Williams home, near a vacant lot. Only one shot took effect though several were fired. As Van Williams was leaving the scene he almost collided with Constable Brennan who arrested him. The elder Williams was able to make his way home despite his wound.
All of those implicated were brought

WORTHAM REPLIES TO GOV. COLQUHITT

SAYS GOVERNOR'S EXPLANATION OF VETOES IS EFFORT TO SHIFT DERELICTION

ASKS FOR FRANKNESS

Says He Cannot Forgive Dodging Being Shareholder of Former Governor Campbell

Port Worth, Texas, Sept. 29.—The following reply to Governor Colquhitt's explanation of his veto of certain items in the eleemosynary and educational section of the general appropriation bill was issued Saturday by Louis J. Wortham, chairman of the house appropriation committee, on behalf of that committee and the legislature:

The governor's effort to shift his dereliction to the legislative body is more than amusing; it is pitiable. With all due respect to his Excellency he does not play the game fair with either his critics or the public, which may be partial to him because he occupies an exalted station.

In one paragraph he argues that he recommended to the Thirty-second legislature appropriations adequate to take our insane out of jails, and to house under the care of the state our deaf and dumb and blind and epileptic and tubercular. These appropriations were chosen during the regular session of 1907, and he says:

But two years later, when the appropriations were made adequate, he strikes the death blow at many of the items with a riotous blue pencil. The governor admits that appropriations were needed two years ago. Were they needed two years later when dilapidation of the asylums had made them less adequate for their purposes, and when fifty jails confined a larger number of insane than the government had at regular sessions? Were they needed two years ago when dilapidation of the asylums had made them less adequate for their purposes, and when fifty jails confined a larger number of insane than the government had at regular sessions?

For Mexican Presidency Being Watched With Interest by Washington Government

Washington, Sept. 29.—The Administration has reluctantly concluded that there are no constitutional means now of opening official negotiations with the insurgents in Mexico. This fact developed today as the result of an inquiry as to whether Mr. Lind, special representative of the administration in Mexico, was about to set into communication with the constitutionalists with a view of securing an agreement from them to respect a truce while the projected October elections are under way.

The administration is much interested in the entry of new candidates into the race for the presidency of Mexico though not willing to express any opinion as to the significance of the entries in their bearing upon the settlement of the question as to whether the Huerta government is genuinely complying with the desire of the United States for a free and fair election.

IN THE LARGEST STATE

(Frank Putnam in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

An [unclear] [unclear] prevails throughout the country that the principal occupation of the people of Texas is agriculture. The truth is, the chief business of the Texas is politics.

Texas no sooner elect one set of State officials before two or three new sets begin running for election two years hence. It is in the blood, or the climate, or something. Even the Texas Republican party, so small one needs a high-power microscope to locate its totality in the November returns, is constantly torn with internal dissension over perfectly useless nominations for office.

Few native Texans look with favor upon any plan to divide their State into several. But the number who do so increases every year, and the very large citizenship drawn in from other states is apt to be more moved by the patriotic sentiment than by the growing belief that Texas is too big a region to be competently governed by a single legislature.

When Woodrow Wilson's friends in Texas undertook to procure the election of a set of Wilson delegates to the Baltimore convention, they rallied the vote of the Democratic Democrats—that is, the low tariff Democrats—and won by a satisfactory margin over Harmon and Underwood, who were supported by the Republican Democrats.

Gov. Colquhoun is an avowed protectionist—as soon as a Republican. The main issue dividing the parties, as any northern governor. And he made no secret of the fact when he ran for the office either. In fact, Texas has had about as many Republican Democratic governors, though all, of course, since reconstruction days, were nominally Democrats.

Texas, you see, like most of the other States is really a "doubtful state" politically, and by no means so lopsided as you may have been taught to think it. The verdict for Wilson and lower tariffs, over the years, however, in the campaign last year, that none of the Republican Congressmen from Texas—I mean the high tariff men—has deemed it discreet to bolt the party's caucus at Washington during the making of the new tariff bill.

Upon one thing all agree: that if Texas does adopt a prohibitory State-wide amendment, the demand for division of Texas into two or more States will become vigorous. What open all along the line. When division comes, as nearly everybody admits it will come, with the adoption of State-wide prohibition—it is safe to predict not less than four States will be made—East, North and West Texas, with a lively possibility of the vast western half of the state, still scantily populated as compared with the eastern half, but filling up rapidly, may be divided into two States, giving the original Texas ten instead of two United States Senators and five legislative instead of one.

Right now Texans who look a few inches ahead of their noses are discussing, under their breath, the rising probability that the big State will presently have to be split up into two, three, four or even five States, all provided for in the treaty by which the Republic of Texas was annexed to the United States as one of them.

With 265,000 square miles, Texas is something over five times as large as Iowa, and 55,000 square miles larger than the German Empire in Europe. (St. Louis people can understand how one who through long residence has imbibed the Texas habit of thought is shocked when he first sees the little, one-square, Connecticut-size street upon which this city has conferred the mighty name. Mayor Kiel, who has been there, should take steps at once to have this gross incongruity corrected.)

This feeling grew rapidly in volume and vehemence during the State-wide prohibition campaign of 1910. The pros rule North and East Texas, the antis are strongest in South Texas and have a slight lead in West Texas. Of the 254 organized counties, 175 have county prohibition. More than three-fourths of the inhabitants dwell under this form of local dryness. The pros are preparing to submit the State-wide amendment again next year, to take the minority of wet counties into the dry blanket willy nilly. Pros and antis alike tell me it looks very much like the pros will carry the state this time. The antis won by a trifle over 6000 votes in 1910—a Bunker Hill victory. Observing that a good many erstwhile distinguished anti prohibitionists are drifting, as quietly as possible, over to the pro side, this year, one is bound to believe they will think they see, a prohibition cyclone coming.

What is Provides. It provides that after September 1, 1914, a tax of one-tenth of 1 cent per pound on the sale or agreement to sell cotton for future delivery, one-half of the tax to be paid by the buyer and the other by the seller, shall be levied upon each sale agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, any cotton for future delivery made in the future contract market at or on or in any place, or by or board of trade, or other similar place, or by any person acting in substantial conformity to the rules and regulations governing such future transactions, or market quotations of any such cotton exchange, board of trade or similar place.

THE CONFERENCE REPORT READY

IT WILL GO TO TWO HOUSES WITHOUT SIGNATURES OF REPUBLICAN MEMBERS

COTTON TAX UNSETTLED

May Not be Retained in Bill—President Not Insisting on its Retention

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 29.—The conference report on the Underwood tariff bill representing the final adjustment of the dispute between the Senate and House over the Senate amendments was made public today when the democratic managers submitted it for the first time to their republican colleagues on the conference committee.

In the form on which the tariff bill will ultimately go to President Wilson it contains scores of changes from the original Underwood bill passed by the House. While the Senate gave way on many of its amendments many important changes were retained and the general rates of the House bill was reduced about four per cent ad valorem.

The conference committee met shortly after 10 o'clock and the report was submitted to the full committee by Chairman Simmons. It was approved by the Senate, amendments while the six republicans who had taken no part in the conference deliberations refused to sign it. Senator LaFollette, one of the republican conferees announced that he did not decline to approve the report because of prejudice against it but because he had not been consulted in the deliberations.

Representatives Fordney, Murdock, Payne and Senators Penrose and La Follette did not sign the report. Senator Lodge was absent.

No decision has been reached by the democratic conference members today as to what should be done with the cotton futures question, but it was expected that a second conference would be arranged at which it may be dropped from the bill. While President Wilson has favored the proposed compromise he made it clear today he would not insist on its being put in the bill.

The Underwood substitute introduced in the House Sunday is identical with what has recently been referred to as the Smith-Lever proposal.

THE COMMITTEE MEETS TUESDAY

DRAFTERS OF CHARTER WILL INSERT I. R. R. PROVISIONS INTO ALDERMANIC CHARTER

THEN UP TO CITY COUNCIL

Expected That Submission of Charter Selected Will be Ordered at Next Meeting

What is expected to be the final meeting of the charter committee has been called for tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the office of A. H. Britain, chairman of the committee. It will be for the purpose of inserting the initiative, referendum and recall provisions in the document, as requested by the aldermanic faction previous to the election, and otherwise setting the charter in shape for final adoption or rejection by the voters.

The council is expected to order the final election at its meeting Thursday night and will probably fix the date for some time early in November.

If any other changes in the charter are contemplated, no official action has been taken. There has been some talk of putting in an amendment dividing the city into wards instead of having the aldermen elected at large, but this has not taken definite form. The initiative, referendum and recall provisions to be inserted will be the same as in the commission charter, the recall petition requiring thirty-five per cent of the initiative and referendum twenty-five per cent.

ANOTHER GENERAL UPRISING OF PAVING

The rains of last week caused another general uprising on the part of the wood block paving, bumps, buckles and breaks being numerous again yesterday. It is believed that the trouble is caused by water getting down to the sand-cushion underneath the blocks, and it is possible that the city council will ask the paving company to take steps to prevent this.

Detectives have been searching for her in New York for weeks, it was learned today, but she has not been abandoned, however. Her testimony is desired along with that regarding the governor's deals in stocks. None of the transactions were made directly through her, as the governor's agents, it is said, but she is believed to know much of the manner in which the deals between him and his agent or agents were consummated.

SOUTHWEST TEXAS FLOOD DAMAGE

RICE GROWERS ALARMED

Continued Rains Will Mean Ruin of Their Crops—Rio Grande Threatening at Brownsville

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, Sept. 27.—Information from Southwest Texas show but little improvement in flood conditions. The Mission River continues to rise. In the Refugio section and inundates lowlands, causing serious damage to cotton and other crops. Railway traffic is materially interfered with and the Brownsville road, already confronted by some serious washouts, is fearing more delay from this source. At Brownsville, the Rio Grande is bankful, still rising and the lowlands will be flooded. Corpus Christi, Kingsville and other points in that vicinity report almost unprecedented rainfall, with more in prospect and all streams are rising rapidly. In the Bay City, Matagorda and other rice growing sections, intense alarm over the weather conditions prevails and growers are becoming convinced of their inability to prevent damage, which will mount into thousands of dollars.

DECISIVE BATTLE EXPECTED TODAY

Long Expected Federal Advance into Constitutional Territory is Begun

By Associated Press. Piedras Negras, Sept. 27.—A protracted artillery duel which began this morning at daylight between the constitutionalists and the main federal army under Gen. Maass beginning the long expected advance into constitutional territory was reported today in official advices from constitutional field headquarters at Agra. Preparations have been made for a decisive battle tomorrow. Losses on both sides today are heavy. The federalists are better equipped with artillery and the rebels relied on their cavalry which is said to have checked the federal advance.

It wasn't until after the hurrying and acceptance of the deft that the House organized a golf club and selected a team to meet the already organized Senate team.

COTTON WENT TO NEW HIGH LEVEL

OPTIONS FOR SEVERAL MONTHS CROSSED FOURTEEN CENT MARK SATURDAY

BREAK AT THE CLOSE

By Associated Press. New Orleans, Sept. 27.—The prices of cotton went to new high levels for the year this week, several options crossing the fourteen cent mark. Values were the highest in several years. The market closed for the week at a net gain of twenty-five to thirty-five points. The high prices were made Saturday and the low prices on Monday. At the highest the trading months were fifty-seven to sixty points over last week's close; at the lowest, they were twelve to fifteen points under. The close would have been higher but for a sensational break right on the week end on unfavorable rumors from Washington regarding legislation.

Wichita Falls Shows Greatest Increase in Scholastic Population

The forthcoming report from the department of education will show greater growth in Wichita Falls than in any of the smaller cities of Texas.

Table showing scholastic census for 1912-1913 and 1913-1914 for various cities in Texas. Columns include City, 1912-1913, 1913-1914, and Increase.

In other words, the increase for Wichita Falls alone is 267 more than the other seven cities combined. Temple actually decreased six, while Amarillo barely held her own, neither gaining or losing, the only change being one more white child and one less colored. Outside of Wichita Falls, Cleburne makes next best showing, and being the only one of these named above whose scholastic population still exceeds Wichita Falls, although all except Abilene and San Angelo were ahead of us last year.

RAIN IS STILL FALLING

Rice Industry Dealt Particularly Heavy Blow—Flood Damage in Southwest Texas

By Associated Press. Lake Charles, La., Sept. 29.—Southwestern Louisiana, particularly the Lake Charles vicinity is suffering the worst flood in the history of this section and the damage is reported as enormous. Rain is still falling and it is feared the crest of the flood has not yet been reached. The rice industry has particularly been dealt a heavy blow and the full amount of the damage cannot be estimated. The lumber firm of Krause and Magnan suffered a heavy loss today when a great log boom at their mill broke turning thousands of logs in Calcasieu river. Railroad traffic has been discontinued here on the Kansas City Southern, the Lake Charles branch of the Southern Pacific and the Iron Mountain line may be compelled to discontinue its trains before night.

Flood Situation in Southwest Texas

Houston, Texas, Sept. 29.—Interest in the flood situation in today centers along the Brownsville railroad where high waters prevailed in all streams and where the operation of trains are almost at a standstill. The lowlands continue under water while conditions are almost equally as bad in the Refugio and Mission settlements. So far there has been no loss of life except at Troupe west of Angleton where the drowning of a man named Park is reported.

DID YOU SEE METEOR SEVERAL WEEKS AGO?

If You Did U. S. Weather Bureau Wants You to Send in Your Observations

Washington, Sept. 29.—The weather bureau is in receipt of considerable interesting information with regard to a remarkable meteor that was seen about seven or half past seven in the evening of Thursday, September 4th. This great body seems to have passed from coast of northern Florida westward over southern Louisiana into Texas with but slight change in its course.

It must have varied in its altitude above the earth's surface from a hundred miles over the Atlantic coast down to twenty miles over Alabama, and then risen to a hundred miles over Texas, by which time it had split into two great glowing orbs rather smaller in apparent diameter than the full moon. Such occurrences give much important information with regard to the upper atmosphere. They not only show us that there is a material gas at this altitude, but we may even know something of its nature and whether it has any influence on temperature at the earth's surface. There is need to know much more about meteors and the smaller masses that are called shooting stars. A continuous photographic register of such meteors has been devised, but until it comes into general use, reliance must be placed upon the observations made by those who are fortunate enough to observe them.

All persons who had a good view of this meteor from Florida to Texas, 7 p. m., central time, September 4, Thursday, are earnestly requested to send their notes and observations addressed, "Chief of Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C." The apparent angular bearing from the north, and apparent angular altitude from the horizon, when first and last seen and again when at the highest point in its apparent path, are matters that are of especial importance to those who calculate its true relation to the earth.

SATURDAY'S ELECTION—ALDERMANIC VICTORY

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT REJECTED BY VOTE OF 285 TO 254 LIGHT VOTE CAST

By a majority of more than two to one the voters of Wichita Falls Saturday rejected the commission form of government and voted for a continuance of the present aldermanic government. The vote was: For the aldermanic form, 549; for the commission form, 285. The aldermanic government a majority of 284 votes out of 514 polled, nineteen more than two to one.

While the number of votes polled lacked about five hundred of the number cast in the last municipal election it is considered a good vote when the rain and mist yesterday are taken into consideration. Soon after the voting started those who were keeping in touch with the situation saw that the aldermanic vote would lead but only the most sanguine of the aldermanic adherents expected as large a majority as the count showed.

While the leaders of both factions in the contest that has held the center of interest for the past ten days fought hard and earnestly for their respective sides there was no disposition last night on the part of the victors to exult over the result and on the other hand the leaders in the fight on the commission side accepted the verdict with pledges to give their nearest support to an aldermanic government.

The only question voted on in Saturday's election was whether an aldermanic or a commission form of government was preferred by the voters. Now that this point has been settled it is expected that the charter of the aldermanic form published in last Sunday's Times will be submitted to the voters in the next few weeks for ratification or rejection. It is not believed there will be any opposition to the adoption of the new charter. Many of the aldermanic adherents have publicly pledged themselves to vote for its adoption.

PURITY SUNDAY IS PROCLAIMED

November 9 Designated in Proclamation Issued by Acting Governor Hayes

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—Acting Governor Hayes issued a proclamation setting aside November 9 as "Purity Sunday." On that day, he recommended that whatever subjects have been under consideration by the National Purity Congress in session at Minneapolis, November 7-12 be considered by everyone. He believes that these should be taken up in the churches and considered by the people in their homes.

PASTOR BECOMES A SALOONKEEPER

By Associated Press. New Haven, Conn., Sept. 27.—In the eyes of the law a New England clergyman is managing two of the city's saloons. This has come about by the appointment of Rev. Father Pontak, pastor of the Greek Catholic church as administrator of the estate of a parishioner at the request of the widow. The estate included one saloon and partnership in another. The clergyman reluctantly took the appointment. He will not tend bar but under the excise laws he will be legally responsible for the conduct of both saloons.

HORACE CHILTON FILLS THE BILL

DECLARATION OF HOUSTON LAWYER REGARDING GUBERNATORIAL CAMPAIGN

VISITING BROTHER HERE

Former Member of Legislature Discusses Political Condition and Need of Lower Star State

Judge John M. Duncan of Houston, one of the best known attorneys in South Texas and formerly prominent in State politics, was a visitor in Wichita Falls yesterday, being here to see his brother, Charles Duncan, who is in the employ of the Producers' Company. Judge Duncan has been in poor health for the past two years and for that reason has not taken much of a hand in things political.

Recently, however, he was quoted at length in the Dallas News as to his political views and he suggested Horace Chilton, former United States senator, as the one man who could "fill the bill." Judge Duncan was a member of the Twenty-ninth legislature, in which the Bailey fight was staged and he was one of those who urged the erstwhile junior senator promised to "run into the Gulf." Since that time he has moved from Tyler to Houston, but has not yet reached the Gulf.

The interview in the Dallas News in which Judge Duncan's political views are set forth follows: "Texas' great need now is a clean, broad, well balanced man for governor; a statesman and not a politician; a man who will have the courage to go to the people and tell them the truth; a man who will tell them that if they are going to have good government in this State they have got to pay for it by a compensation of public officials which will attract men of the requisite ability. In other words, he must tell them they must pursue the policy that the great corporations pursue, paying whatever salaries are necessary to secure the services of men properly equipped for the positions in which they are placed. The State is in direct competition with these great corporations for the services of such men and the latter do not hesitate to pay whatever price is necessary to secure them. Hence the great life-ponderance of talent and ability is in the employ of corporations. Occasionally, of course, men of fitness and ability do enter the public service; but they do not stay there, which is a calamity."

TEXAS' GREATEST CURSE

"The people are all right, and they will not fail to respond properly when they understand the situation. I actually believe that the greatest curse that rests upon Texas today is the false and foolish economy practiced by the narrow politicians who happen to get into office, but which in the long run is the grossest extravagance. I have reference to the holding down of salaries, to the stinting of State institutions, to the cutting down of appropriations upon the theory that the people indorse the policy and with the idea that the people haven't sense. Why, the greatest thing about Jim Hogg was that he had the courage to do what was right in full confidence that the people would always indorse the right thing when they understood it. He was told that it would never do for him to refuse to accept the sugar bounty, but he nevertheless refused it. Then he went before the people and explained why, and that settled it for all time."

"But we are getting in office the kind of politicians that we are paying for, and how we are going to get any other kind in this situation is a problem I haven't solved. I am hopeful, however, that we may, notwithstanding the meager compensation, get a big tax for governor, and that bring about the right conditions all along the line."

SAYS CHILTON FILLS THE BILL

"In my opinion Horace Chilton is the one man in Texas that fills the bill. Whether or not he would accept I do not know, but I do know that he is fit for the office and that there are many things that would make him a strong candidate."

"Of course, as long as conditions are such that it costs $25,000 or $30,000 to make a campaign for governor it is difficult to get good men to make the race. The limit ought to be $2,500, just enough to circularize the State once. A man who is not already sufficiently known in Texas to afford some hope that he might be nominated ought not to be permitted to advertise himself by the expenditure of $20,000 or $30,000 to the extent that will make him governor without regard to the reputation that he may have built up in the course of his lifetime."

A SUGGESTION FROM JOHN LIND

REPORTED HE WILL RECOMMEND THAT U. S. SEND AGENT TO MEXICAN REBELS

TO URGE AN ARMISTICE

Believed General Huerta Would Agree to Such a Proposal Coming Election

By Associated Press. Vera Cruz, Sept. 27.—It is reported that John Lind, confidential representative of President Wilson in Mexico, intends to suggest to the Washington administration the advisability of sending a confidential agent to treat with the rebels in a capacity similar with his own. It is urged in view of General Huerta's promises for a fair election that it is opportune to urge the rebels acquiescence and participation in the election.

The general belief is held here that if a suggestion for an armistice were to come from the rebels it would be accepted by President Huerta.

Gov. Tarranza Will Not Recognize Huerta Election.

By Associated Press. Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 27.—"I declare that whoever proclaims himself president of Mexico as the result of the Huerta election in October will be considered a traitor of his country. If he falls into our hands he will be tried under the law of January 25, 1912, and the same treatment will be accorded to all who recognize him as president."

This declaration formed a part of a long message received here today from Gov. Tarranza. The constitutionalist leader at Hermosillo. It was in response to a request that he state his position regarding Gen. Huerta's promise of a fair election.

The law referred to provides that all traitors may be summarily executed without trial.

LAW ENFORCEMENT BILL NOT PASSED

By Associated Press. Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 28.—The extraordinary session of the 58th general assembly of Tennessee early this morning came to a close with the so-called law enforcement bills still on the calendar of the House. The bills would prohibit the shipment of liquor into the state and within the state, and also provide for action in the civil and criminal court by tax payers to have saloons declared a nuisance.

The bills passed the Senate more than a week ago and came up in the house last Monday. Opponents of measures instituted a successful filibuster to prevent them from coming to a vote during which time it was charged that gunmen were in the house.

In a special message sent to the house last Monday Governor Hooper stated that he was strongly inclined to call another extra session for the sole consideration of the bills.

SPECIALIZATIONS OF UNITED STATES SENATORS

Nearly Every Solon Has His Specialty in Legislative Matters at Washington

Washington, Sept. 27.—Specialization is the order of the day and members of the United States Senate reflect that tendency. Most of these have their specialties in legislation. A rough compilation gives the following: Warren, Wyoming: Expert in making two appropriations, from where only one comes before; specialist in army post appropriations. Norris, Nebraska: Knows everything about coffee and the coffee trust. Jones, Kentucky: Bryan and Bryanism; democratic platforms. Bacon, Georgia: Foreign affairs. Stone, Missouri: Poor Lo; also waiters. Vardeman, Mississippi: The negro question. Smoot, Utah: Wool and sugar. Bristow, Kansas: Sugar and the Dutch Standard in the tariff bill. Williams, Mississippi: Sarcasm, Shakespeare and fiction. Yorks, California: Peace. Pittman, Nevada: Mining and Nevada. Martine, New Jersey: The "common people." Chaflerlain, Oregon: Alaska and Alaskan railroads. Ashurst and Ball, of Arizona and New Mexico: Mexico. Penrose, Pennsylvania: Objections. Nelson, Minnesota: Poor puns. La Follette, Wisconsin: Legislation, progressivism. Foreign affairs. Lea, Tennessee: Soft Southern accent. Lodge, Massachusetts: Cigarettes and literature. Sheppard, Texas: Effulgent eloquence.

The list might be made complete by listing the remaining senators as experts on constitutional law.

Post Office Takes Stock.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The post office department at Washington and postoffices all over the United States today are taking inventories to learn the value of all department property and equipment. The inventory is expected to take several months.

DETACHMENT OF SECOND CAVALRY ATTACKED BY MEXICAN FEDERALISTS

FORTY SHOTS WERE FIRED

Both United States and Mexican Authorities are Investigating the Shooting

By Associated Press. El Paso, Texas, Sept. 27.—A detachment of United States troops, Second Cavalry, was fired upon today this afternoon by Mexican Federal cavalrymen. The Americans were on duty patrolling the International border about fifteen miles east of El Paso. None of the Americans were injured. Two Texas rangers who were nearby, were also fired at by the Mexicans. Army officers stated tonight that their soldiers did not return the fire. There were about forty shots fired at them. H. L. Rhodes who was near the scene when the Mexicans began shooting stated that the American troops returned the fire for twenty minutes to cover. It is not known whether any Mexicans were injured. The American troops were at a patrol station on the border about two miles east of San Elizario when they were fired upon by the Mexican side. The Mexicans were about two hundred yards from the Americans when the shooting began. The United States authorities at Clint, Texas, were notified soon after the shooting and went to San Elizario to conduct an investigation. At Juarez the Mexican federalists are also conducting an investigation. The Mexican troops who fired at the Americans composed a scouting party that left Juarez this morning. Late tonight the troops had not returned to their barracks at Juarez.

PORFIRIO DIAZ SUMMONED HOME

GRIM OLD EX-PRESIDENT ASKED TO COME BACK TO MEXICO FOR ARMY SERVICE

THE OLD WARRIOR DELAYS

Sends Non-Committal Answer to Summons—His Service as Advisor Needed

Mexico City, Sept. 27.—Gen. Porfirio Diaz, ex-president of Mexico, has been summoned by the war department to return to Mexico for active army service. A cablegram sent to General Diaz today brought a non-committal reply from him, asking the war minister to await his arrival at a letter which he would dispatch him.

General Diaz is now at Biarritz, France. It is recognized here he is too old to render service except possibly in an advisory capacity. The Wilson bill, the Dingley bill and the Payne-Aldrich bill, also the Underwood bill, as it probably will appear when finally disposed of. The statement showing the total imports under these various tariff laws may be interesting to you. Under the Payne-Aldrich law in 1912 the imports amounted to 391 boxes and the duties derived from these importations were about $385,000. The estimated imports as calculated by the Underwood committee total 517,000 boxes, or an increase over the imports of 1912 under the Payne-Aldrich bill of 126,000 boxes; and while the number of boxes has increased about thirty-three per cent, the duty derived from this increase in boxes is $95,000 less than under the old bill. This decrease in duty and increase in quantity does not appear to American manufacturers or to American business men and we cannot see the strength of the argument advanced by these tariff revisionists when they bring in a much larger quantity of glass to compete with our already over-produced home market, when the income derived in the way of duties will be almost $100,000 less than under a protective policy. The decrease in revenue will be quite an item and the harm done to those engaged in the window glass industry will be many fold greater. These free traders contend that the consumer will be benefitted, but we doubt that very much and believe time will show that the consumer will not be penny better off under this tariff bill than in the past.

MOTION TO RETAX SUBPOENA COSTS

The Right of an Officer to charge up the cost of subpoenaing each of a number of similar cases was attacked this morning on a motion in the county court to retax the costs in the vagrancy cases growing out of the bawdy house indictments. There were a number of these cases and W. F. Weeks, attorney for the defense, contended that as there was only one service upon each witness for the entire sixteen cases, the sheriff's department could not charge the cost of the subpoenas in each separate case. Judge Felber overruled the motion to retax, but an appeal may be taken. It was brought out that although from twenty-five to thirty witnesses were subpoenaed for each case, only one or two, outside of the subpoena were put on the stand as witnesses. The fines assessed in these cases are to be paid, by agreement, upon the installment plan, the women agreeing to pay from $25 to $100 monthly until the entire amounts are liquidated. Some of the women are as much as $550 and one of them seven-eighths; she would probably make no attempt to pay her fine, but go to jail and lose what she had. The costs question will likely be taken to the court of criminal appeals.

TARIFFS EFFECT ON GLASS PLANT

LEGISLATIVE AND LABOR TROUBLES DELAY REOPENING OF FACTORY

MEN SEEKING NEW SCALE

Want Twenty Per Cent Advance Over Last Year, Which Factories Say They Cannot Grant

With both labor and tariff troubles besetting the window glass industry, the time of the reopening of the plant of the Wichita Falls Window Glass Company is still uncertain. A few weeks ago it was thought that the plant would again be in operation early in October, but the wage scale question is still unsettled. The men are asking for a twenty per cent advance, which the manufacturers declare they are unable to meet on account of the sharp reduction in the tariff on window glass, which is expected to admit foreign glass on a competitive basis. The glass blowers and allied tradesmen met at Cleveland last week and discussed their demand for a twenty per cent advance, the manufacturers answering by offering the same scale as last year. Another meeting of the workers will be held at Pittsburg early in October and the manufacturers will meet there on September 30 to consider the situation. Practically every window glass plant in the country is facing the same problem as the local factory.

The Underwood-Simmons tariff bill, as proposed, will reduce the average duty on glass from forty-six per cent to twenty-eight per cent and the manufacturers contend that the latter rate will admit European glass, particularly the products of Belgian factories, on a competitive basis. The glass tariff is still in an unsettled state, as the Senate increased the rate fixed by the house committee and the matter is being fought out in the conference committee.

W. E. Busby, manager of the local plant, stated yesterday that such conditions would be next to impossible to meet when the wage advance they sought and while everyone is hopeful of a favorable and amicable adjustment, this is still not in sight. The bottle factory has not fixed its reopening date, either, but hopes to resume sometime in October.

NEW TARIFF RATES

The tariff matter being considered by the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers and a circular letter sent out by the secretary of that organization at Pittsburg sets forth some very interesting matters in connection with the tariff bill.

The manufacturers' enclosed are some additional tariff figures, which are only repetitions of statements that have been sent you before. The first schedule shows the rates that will probably apply when the bill is passed. The only change made by the Senate finance committee was to increase the rates on the 10x15 bracket from 7-8 cents per pound to one cent per pound; the schedule otherwise remains unchanged.

For comparison we have shown the Wilson bill, the Dingley bill and the Payne-Aldrich bill, also the Underwood bill, as it probably will appear when finally disposed of. The statement showing the total imports under these various tariff laws may be interesting to you. Under the Payne-Aldrich law in 1912 the imports amounted to 391 boxes and the duties derived from these importations were about $385,000. The estimated imports as calculated by the Underwood committee total 517,000 boxes, or an increase over the imports of 1912 under the Payne-Aldrich bill of 126,000 boxes; and while the number of boxes has increased about thirty-three per cent, the duty derived from this increase in boxes is $95,000 less than under the old bill. This decrease in duty and increase in quantity does not appear to American manufacturers or to American business men and we cannot see the strength of the argument advanced by these tariff revisionists when they bring in a much larger quantity of glass to compete with our already over-produced home market, when the income derived in the way of duties will be almost $100,000 less than under a protective policy. The decrease in revenue will be quite an item and the harm done to those engaged in the window glass industry will be many fold greater. These free traders contend that the consumer will be benefitted, but we doubt that very much and believe time will show that the consumer will not be penny better off under this tariff bill than in the past.

TAKE ACTION FOR GLOVE FACTORY

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE VOTES TO PRODUCE PROPOSITION SUBMITTED BY HILSBURN.

CHARTER NOT ENDORSED

Directors Decline to Deviate From Precedent in Connection With New City Charter.

The Chamber of Commerce stuck to precedent this morning and declined to put itself on record in favor of the charter which was approved by the people Saturday. The directors have an unwritten rule that where there is material opposition to a matter of this kind, they will not take action. The only deviation has been in bond issue elections in which the opposition is nominal.

This morning, when J. B. Marlow brought up the charter indorsement matter, it was decided, without ever coming to a vote, that an indorsement of the charter would not only violate precedent, but that it might operate, in some quarters, to injure the charter's chances rather than aid them. Consequently no action was taken by the directors.

The weekly session, held this morning, accepted one of the glove factory propositions, furthered preparations for the farm exhibit Saturday, took steps to revive a local industry which is now idle and decided to hold a public membership meeting sometime within the next few weeks.

Loan For Glove Factory.

The three glove factory propositions submitted by Hillsboro Brothers of Dalhart were discussed at length, all the directors favoring accepting the third proposition, to lend the plant $10,000 at eight per cent, on a $25,000 capitalization. It developed that while the banks did not care for this loan, as a business proposition they would be willing to share it on notes backed by local business men, each indorser to be liable for a stated amount.

Headquarters pointed out that the industry would be a valuable one with every prospect of success and that it would be much more agreeable all around to sign a note, with security, than to dig up the cash for a bonus as had been done in the case several other local industries, and he thought little difficulty would be experienced in getting the notes accepted. It was voted then to accept the third proposition and refer the matter back to the committee for final action.

J. B. Marlow brought up the matter of a local manufacturing plant which was idle because of the owners' inability to finance it, and he suggested that the organization might secure someone to purchase the lot. This matter was set for the next regular meeting and in the meantime a definite proposition from the owners of the property will be sought, so that the matter can be taken up on a definite basis.

DINNERS FOR CLUB W.

At the request of J. W. Campbell, district agricultural agent, an appropriation was made to provide dinners for the club members here for the exhibit Saturday. Mr. Campbell said that he had received encouraging reports and hoped for a good attendance and a splendid exhibit.

MEMBERSHIP MEETING PLANNED.

Myles O'Reilly brought up the good roads question and suggested that the aid of the Automobile Club be enlisted in securing some real work. This led to the question of whether there really was an automobile club or not and from that the topic shifted to the need for general action by the Chamber of Commerce as a whole along this and other lines. Mr. Hill and Mr. Marlow favored a general membership meeting sometime in the next thirty days and this was agreed upon. A committee consisting of J. B. Marlow, A. H. Carigan and Myles O'Reilly was appointed to select speakers and make other arrangements.

In discussing the good roads matter, Mr. O'Reilly called attention to the fact that many other Texas cities have well organized and active good roads associations that are getting results and he did not believe Wichita Falls ought to lag behind the procession. Those present at today's meeting were R. E. Hall, N. Henderson, H. B. Hines, Myles O'Reilly, J. B. Marlow, J. M. Bell, J. C. Strauss, A. L. Huey, A. H. Carigan, M. J. Gardner, P. H. Pennington, C. W. Sulfer, directors; E. P. Joney, J. W. Campbell.

PROMINENT LOCAL MERCHANTS JOIN IN ORGANIZATION OF MAMMOTH ENTERPRISE

P. B. M. CO. IS NAME

P. H. Pennington, C. J. Barnard and Dew Millsaps Head Big Mercantile Establishment

Wichita Falls is at last to have a big department store. Through a movement inaugurated some time ago and consummated yesterday a $100,000 corporation to be known as the P. B. M. Company was organized, and by January 1 will be in active operation. The company is composed of P. H. Pennington, C. J. Barnard and Dew Millsaps and the purpose is to establish a thorough modern and up-to-date department store wherein will be handled every article of wearing apparel for men, women and children.

P. H. Pennington will be president of the new company; Mr. Millsaps will be vice president, and Mr. Barnard will be secretary and treasurer. The company will occupy a building owned by Mr. Pennington on Indiana avenue, which will be remodelled and enlarged to accommodate a two hundred thousand dollar stock. It will have a beautiful glass front and will be equipped with an electric elevator and every modern mechanical device to make it the equal of any store of the kind in the State. The company will sell goods at whole sale as well as at retail prices and do a large jobbing business in the section tributary to Wichita Falls. Every class of merchandise will be carried from the very finest to be found in the eastern and European markets to the medium priced grades, so that buyers can have their every want supplied without going to any other market.

In addition to the department store the gentlemen will also conduct as a partnership a business to be known as the P. H. Pennington Company, which will occupy the building now used by C. J. Barnard & Company on Ohio avenue. Mr. Pennington, as president of the larger company, will also act as manager of the Ohio avenue store and will divide his time between the two. Mr. Millsaps will have active management of the buying and selling forces of the P. B. & M. Company and Mr. Barnard will have charge of the finance and credit departments.

The organization of the new company means a very advanced step in the business interests of the city and speaks much for the enterprise and progressive spirit of the gentlemen who are interested in it. Each of them has already made his mark in the business life of the city and proved his power and worth. Mr. Pennington is the oldest resident of the trio. He came here about seven years ago with but a small stock and comparatively little capital. In that time he has built a business and amassed a fortune on which most men would be ready to stake their lives. Mr. Barnard's prime of his life has been spent for larger and greater things and with an undiminished faith in the future of Wichita Falls he has conceived and planned the enterprise that is to be the biggest thing of its kind in this section of the State. Mr. Millsaps has lived in the city about three years and has also built up a fine business. His present store is conceded to be one of the finest in the State and carries a stock equal to many of the stores in the larger cities. Mr. Millsaps has been in the city only since January first, coming here from Weatherford as head of the McGrath-Millsaps Company. He has, however, demonstrated his ability and possesses a knowledge of the dry goods business that is quite exceptional. The trio will make a strong force both financially and in experience and knowledge of the trade and the local situation, and should be in a position to make the business grow and help the city grow.

GIDEON HELD UP AS AN EXAMPLE

REV. ONDERDONK URGED HEART-SEARCHING AND CONSECRATED WORK BY HEARERS.

BURDEN YOUR OWN HEARTS

Victory Going to Be Won Not in Pulpit But in Prayer Room, He Declared.

Disclaiming that he was a professional evangelist and declaring that he had no special methods by which he could work up his hearers to a frenzy of enthusiasm, Rev. Frank Onderdonk in the meeting at the First M. E. Church, South, Tuesday night made a simple and straightforward but none the less strong and urgent plea for a heart searching and a consecrated effort to bring a genuine revival.

He declared that he himself was unable to bring to the town or to the church such a revival as was needed.

"There must be co-operation," he said, "your hearts must become burdened."

He took the story of Gideon as his sermon lesson to emphasize the value of a full consecration. "And they stood every man in his place," was the text.

He said God's hopes chosen people had fallen into the worship of idols and even Gideon's father had erected idols to Baal and had planted a grove for the worship of these idols. He then pictured the faith and consecration of Gideon and told of his efforts to bring about reformation in his own home; how he had cut down the grove his father planted and had destroyed the idols.

He compared the consecration and the faith of Gideon with that of a simple, unlettered, poor Mexican woman in the mission at San Louis Potosi. He said that every great revival in that town had been traced to this woman. "This woman was so consecrated and had such faith he said, 'she seemed to have her hand on the lever of the very forces of God.'"

"Where are you tonight?" the speaker asked, "don't bother about the other fellow but settle the question 'Where am I spiritually?'"

Gideon continued the work in his own home, was an example for his hearers, the speaker said. "I don't suppose Gideon had the face," he said, "to go out among his neighbors and try to reform them while the idols still stood in his father's grove."

He declared that one great test of a man's character was that his own family believed in him. "A man is what he is at midnight in his own home," he said.

Anything we love more than we do God and immortal souls, the speaker said, is an idol in our grove. Gideon had not sought to take any of the glory of the victory over the Midianites upon himself; he had given it all to God. We must do this, Rev. Onderdonk declared, if we are to have a real revival. "How much vain glory is there in our work?"

SHIP?" he asked. "So often we say 'praise the Lord' when we mean 'Not I.'"

"It took faith and faithfulness for Gideon to go out with 300 to meet the mighty hosts of the Midianites. He had gotten victory in his soul, if we are to have a true revival it will not be a victory of the pulpit, it is going to be God's victory and its going to be won in the prayer room."

RINGLING'S PARADE THREE MILES LONG

Nearly Hundred Nations and Races Represented in Great Pageant, October 15.

Something entirely new in the way of circus parades will be seen in Wichita Falls on Wednesday, Oct. 15, with Ringling Brothers' world's greatest show. The peoples of a hundred nations and tribes will be observed. A large menagerie will be displayed in open days. Fifty corps of musicians from savage tom-tom players to modern brass bands, will furnish the music. The parade will be driven like a circus. An endless panorama of world wonders will be unfolded before the eyes.

In originating and building this year's street spectacle, the Ringling Brothers have far surpassed all former records. Hundreds of Italian and French artists and property builders worked last winter in the foreign shop at Stoke-on-Trent, England, to turn out this parade. Only the best materials were used. The wagons, dais, chariots and floats are hand-carved. The costumes were designed in France. The flags, banners, scarfs and standards are from the looms of Japan.

The parade is three miles long. It displays 650 horses and two-thirds of the elephants in America. There are 1,250 men, women and children in the line. Among them are Oriental rajahs, amirs, pashas, caliphs, shroks, barbarian chiefs and savage despots. The grandeur of empires and kingdoms is reflected by retinue in regal floats, sumptuous coaches of state, gorgeous chariots, and palanquins and richly decorated howdahs.

In the children's section there are gunnakin carriages, floating bubbles of silken-netting and aerial clouds, peopled with the characters of fairyland. All the myths of Mother Goose land are to be seen. There are golden barges, ships of war and aeroplanes. The festal scenes of quaint countries are reproduced.

The performance in the main tent is in keeping with the street spectacle. The acts take place in three rings, on two stages, on the race course and in the dome of the tent. The talent of the world is there assembled. There are 375 artists. Of these 300 were selected last winter by the foreign agents of the show from the amphitheatres of Asia, England and the European continent. There are fifty clowns among them. They are as funny a band of fellows as ever cracked a merry jest.

The two performances to be given in Wichita Falls will be exactly the same as those presented in the Coliseum at Chicago and will open with the newly added $500,000 spectacle of "Joan of Arc" with 1,200 people, 600 horses, a ballet of 300 dancing girls and a trainload of special scenery and properties. The spectacle tells a wonderful story that every man, woman and child should hear—a true story from French history with a strong appeal to the heart.

CHARTER READY FOR SUBMISSION

CHANGES MADE IN PUBLISHED DRAFT BY COMMITTEE TUESDAY.

NOW READY FOR COUNCIL

That Body Expected to Order Election at Thursday Night's Meeting for Submission.

The charter committee yesterday afternoon made several minor changes in the aldermanic charter, made formal request of the city council to submit it to the people and finished its labors, so far as the present work is concerned. Incidentally, it declined to adopt a number of amendments offered by Judge Felder and voted him down cheerfully, courteously and unanimously on practically everything he asked for. The Felder amendments defeated were:

Division of city into wards, providing for election of one alderman from each by people at large.

Striking out of provision giving council authority to acquire ground outside of city limits for park purposes.

Striking out of provision giving the park board authority to regulate tree planting along sidewalks.

Striking out of provision giving people the right to vote waterworks and lighting plant bonds.

On the third amendment, W. J. Bullock voted with Judge Felder but on the other he was alone. Some member of the committee would second his motion to amend, so as to get the matter before the committee, but that was the extent of his support.

Judge Felder also opposed the motion to ask the council to act this week, saying there was no necessity for such prompt action. Members of the committee replied that he had ample opportunity to study the document.

Saloon Regulation. The changes made by the committee related to the publication of ordinances and to saloon regulation. On the former, it was decided that franchise ordinances should be published at the expense of the party or corporation desiring the franchise. The saloon ordinance provided that no additional tax should be fixed by the city council and practically limited the city's regulation of saloons to the right to forbid their doing business outside the fire limits.

I. R. R. Provisions inserted. The initiative, referendum and recall provisions were inserted, and considerable time was spent in getting the sections worded so as to make them clear. They are the same as provided in the commission charter; that is, to recall an official the petition must be signed by a number of qualified voters equal to thirty-five per cent of the total vote cast for mayor at the next preceding election; of this thirty-five per cent, a number equal to ten and a half per cent of the total vote for mayor must have voted for the man whose recall is sought. On initiative and referendum petitions, twenty-five per cent of the number voted for mayor is required. T. B. Noble, J. M. Bell and W. J. Bullock voted against the initiative, referendum and recall provisions.

The motion that the committee adopt the charter as a whole, with the above changes, was made by W. J. Bullock, Judge Felder casting the only negative vote.

IT HAPPENED IN WICHITA FALLS AND IS HAPPENING TO WICHITA FALLS PEOPLE EVERY WEEK.

The case told below is not an uncommon thing. The same occurs frequently and will continue to happen as long as folks have kidneys and overtax the kidneys.

Mrs. Mary Beck, 712 Seventh St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "For years I suffered from kidney trouble, having pains in my back and side and irregular action of the kidneys. I steadily grew worse and about three years ago the trouble reached a climax, when I had to take to my bed. For three months I was helpless and six local physicians said that I had Bright's Disease. I was discouraged. A friend suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills and I took them. I began to improve and by the time I had taken the first box, I was much better. Four boxes cured me."

ALABAMA MINSTRELS COMING OCTOBER 6

The famous Alabama Minstrels are to play here in their big tent theatre Monday, October 6th. In speaking of their performance the Paris Advocate has the following to say:

"The Alabama Minstrels appeared last night on the Fitzhigh lot under tent. The entertainment was one of the best that has been witnessed here in some time and the specialties were all good and the jokes fresh and very interesting. On account of the weather conditions the crowd was not as large as it would have been, but those present were well paid for their time and price of admission. 'Little Willie' responded to a number of encores and was as clever as some of the old timers in his specialties."

Do not fail to see Mr. H. L. Carl at St. James Hotel, Wichita Falls, Tuesday, Oct. 7, relative to civil service appointments.

CITY OF CLEVELAND GOES INTO BUSINESS

Will Undertake Establishment of Model Village of Homes for Workingmen

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 30.—The city of Cleveland, home of the 3-cent street car fare and other similar successes along progressive municipal government lines, today is contemplating another venture which will greatly benefit the "ordinary person" if it works out as planned. Cleveland is going into the real estate business.

When Cleveland gets down to work under the new city charter which has been called the last word in progressive principles, the city will undertake the establishment of a model village or a community of homes for workingmen that will stand as a great American model of the ideal American home. The city owns a 33-acre tract of land near the outskirts. This will be laid out in lots and streets to form what is hoped by the planners to be a perfectly mapped out city in embryo. Arrangement and naming of streets, parks, sanitation and every detail that goes to make up the "perfect city" will be planned by the best experts. Homes that would be sold by a private real estate corporation for at least $3,000, will be erected on the plots. They will be sold to 500 Cleveland workmen for $2,000 and the terms of payment will be within reach of any steady, industrious worker. It has not yet been decided whether the title to the land will remain with the city or be turned over to a stock company. Mayor Baker favors the former idea.

Paris Takes Up "Fly Swatting." Paris, Sept. 29.—The war on flies begun in America and which later spread to England, today reached Paris when between 500,000 and a million posters were scattered all over the city describing the germ carrying capacity of house flies and the resulting diseases, all vividly illustrated. The wording closes with the French equivalent of "Swat the Fly." The posters are being circulated through the prefecture of police.

ARSON TRIALS AT WEATHERFORD OCT. 27. Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 27.—The trials of Lee Weatherford, Roy Estus and William Radtiff, charged with arson in connection with the burning of the First Baptist church, will begin at Weatherford October 27, according to a statement Saturday by County Attorney J. E. Carter of Parker county, where the trials were transferred on a change of venue.

Just which one of the three men will be tried first will be determined when the cases are called. All the cases will be called together. It will be practically up to the defense as to which man will be tried first.

William P. McLean, Jr., of counsel for defense, said today that his firm would resist any effort of the state or private prosecution to dismiss or postpone any one of the trials.

REBELS AGAIN AT PIEDRAS NEGRAS

FORCE OF 300 CONSTITUTIONALIST SOLDIERS IN POSSESSION OF BORDER TOWN.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING

Rebels Claim to Have Repulsed Federalists While Latter Said to Have Upper Hand.

By Associated Press. Piedras Negras, Oct. 3.—The constitutionalists again occupied Piedras Negras, their provisional capital, with the return this morning of 300 troops under Colonel Herrera from the front. Conflicting rumors still come from Piedras, where the Federalists and constitutionalist armies face each other, the latest being that the Federalists are slowly forcing the rebels from their positions. The constitutionalists claim to have repulsed the Federal forces under General Marks last night. It is believed no important engagement has taken place.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT TO CARE FOR WOUNDED

By Associated Press. Mexico City, Oct. 3.—The Mexican government at Eagle Pass, Texas, has been instructed by the Federal government to care for the wounded Constitutionalists left in Piedras Negras before the vacation of that city, and also to assist the Mexicans who crossed the United States border to escape from the revolutionists. According to reports more than 2,000 Mexicans have sought protection in the United States.

GOVERNOR FOSS WOULD PROHIBIT STRIKES

Boston, Mass., Oct. 3.—Should a strike of engineers and firemen on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad be ordered, Governor Foss will ask for a special session of the Massachusetts Legislature to enact laws to prohibit all strikes of railway employees within the Commonwealth. Such is the declaration contained in a letter which the governor sent to officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers at New Haven. The latter says that the governor has been informed that the two brotherhoods are voting on the question of calling a strike. A strike, it adds, would be of grave concern to the people of Massachusetts, as it would mean the stoppage of the wheels of machinery, loss of employment to hundreds of thousands of laborers, interference with the regular supply of food and fuel and a consequent high death rate among invalids and infants.

PLEASANT FEATURE ACT AT THE LYDIA MARGARET.

Delmar Delmar and Demeter Bros. made a hit in their feature act at the Lydia Margaret last night. They presented novelty comedy and harmony singing and have special scenery for their act. Delmar sings "In the Valley of Broken Hearts," and his beautiful rendition of this song is one of the best things heard at the Lydia Margaret in a long time. At the close of their act the quartette leaves the stage, singing from the rear of an observation car.

RESCUERS WITHIN 15 FEET OF TOSNOSKY

Miner Entombed Week Ago Must Spend Another Night in Prison 100 Feet Below Ground.

By Associated Press. Centralia, Pa., Oct. 3.—Lehigh Valley Coal Company officials estimated today that fifteen feet of solid anthracite coal remained to be cut through before rescuers would be able to reach Thomas Tosnosky, entombed one week ago today. It had been expected he would be liberated at noon, but he doubtless will have to spend another night in his prison. The man is confined 100 feet below the surface in a space seven feet wide by fifteen feet long.

PUZZLING MARRIAGE TANGLE DISCOVERED.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 3.—Details of a marriage tangle so puzzling that even the defendant, A. O. Jacobs, erstwhile husband of five "wives" through legal means, when asked for details, were brought out in today's session of the trial of Jacobs, charged in the district court with bigamy. Jacobs is a horse dealer. Four of the "wives" are living. The charge was brought by Mrs. Mary Paul Jacobs of this city, who said Jacobs already was united to Mrs. Cora Andrew Jacobs of Kansas City, Mo., when he married her. Under a Kansas law prohibiting marriage within six months after divorce, Jacobs contended both these marriages were illegal, since he contracted them within six months after his divorce from Mrs. Merle M. Jacobs in Fort Scott, Kan., and therefore that he was no bigamist. In return, the State sought to prove that the divorce had no effect in the case, inasmuch as the marriage in Fort Scott was itself illegal, having been contracted a month before Jacobs was divorced by a former wife, Mrs. Katie D. Lamaster Jacobs of Jonesboro, Ark., a blind woman. It was at this point that the horse dealer threw up his hands and asserted it was impossible for him to remember "all the red tape" surrounding his marriages.

MUCH LIQUOR DESTROYED IN EASTERN OKLAHOMA.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 3.—Enough liquor was seized and destroyed in Eastern Oklahoma during the month of September to supply the saloons in a "wide open" state for a month, according to figures on file in the United States marshal's office here. In Tulsa county alone seizures of illicit shipments ran into the thousands of quarts. Holmes Davidson, deputy United States marshal for Tulsa county, reports seizures from Sept. 1 to Sept. 23 amounting to 8,131 bottles of beer and 184 gallons of whiskey, alcohol, gin and wine. Davidson and his deputies arrested forty men for violation of the liquor laws, fourteen of whom are in jail and the rest are on bond.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MARRIAGE WOULD LOSE PATRONAGE

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 3.—Declaring that his business would be ruined if news of his marriage were made public, one of the applicants for marriage license at County Clerk Widule's office today asked that his name be withheld from publication. "I own a butcher shop and am counting money," he said. "There are more than three hundred unmarried young women living in my neighborhood. Because everybody knows that I have money, the match-making mothers send their girls around to my shop with a view to getting me interested. "But if they found out I was married, they would get mad and boycott me and I would go to the wall. When I get married, I am going to introduce my wife as a new hired girl!" Under the circumstances County Clerk Widule agreed to suppress the man's name.

FORT WORTH ARSON CASES TO BE TRIED NOVEMBER 3.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 3.—Trial of the First Baptist Church arson cases, transferred from this city to Weatherford, has been set by Judge F. O. McKinstry for November 3. There are six cases to be tried in connection with the burning of the First Baptist Church and parsonage of this city in 1912. ### TEXAS MINES BENEFIT BY COLORADO STRIKE.

Bridgeport, Texas, Oct. 3.—The coal mines at this place are benefiting by the Colorado coal miners strike and several orders have been booked for immediate shipment to that state. The infrequency of labor troubles in the Texas coal mines has contributed toward the development of this industry and has popularized the Texas mines with both local and out of state consumers.

PRESIDENT IS MUCH CONCERNED

DISAGREEMENT AMONG MEMBERS BANKING AND CURRENCY COMMITTEE CAUSES WORRY.

A TEXAS BANKER TALKS

Says Texas Bankers Did Not Fully Understand Administration Bill When They Acted.

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 3.—The apparent break in the currency and banking committee in the senate has become a matter of deep concern to President Wilson and members of the senate who favor early action on the bill. Four members of the senate banking committee have been in conference with the president during the last week in an effort to devise a plan for hastening action on the bill but have not decided upon a course of action. If the full committee should refuse to report the bill back to the senate that body probably will take up the bill without a report.

Edmund McMorris of Meridian, Miss., and W. F. Caleb of San Antonio, Texas, endorsed the general purpose of the bill, but suggested a number of amendments to make the system more attractive to country bankers, where they appeared before the committee today.

Mr. McCaleb said the action of the Texas Bankers' Association in endorsing the criticism of the bill drawn by the Chicago conference of bankers grew out of the fact that the Texas bankers did not understand the bill fully.

"Do you think congress should pass a bill which the country does not understand?" asked Senator Reed.

"If you wait for the bankers of the country to understand a currency bill it will never be enacted. Such a bill must be imposed upon the bankers," said Mr. McCaleb.

BANK ROBBERY AT FULTON, ARK.

SIX BANDITS HOLD TOWN AT BAY WHILE ATTEMPT MADE TO BLOW SAFE.

ONLY $70.00 IN PENNIES

Vault Doors Withstand Dynamite and Robbers Poorly Paid for Their Perilous Adventure.

Special to Times. Fulton, Ark., Oct. 3.—Holding the whole town of Fulton at bay early today six bandits robbed the Bank of Fulton of $70 in pennies after trying in vain to dynamite the inner doors of the bank's vault.

City Marshal Tom Logan was shot and seriously injured. The robbers used a citizen of Fulton, whom they captured to shield them from bullets as they made their escape.

The band is believed to be the same that robbed the First State Bank of Dardanelles last Wednesday morning. Bloodhounds were secured and a posse is in pursuit. Before they fled they shot out all the street lights in the town.

Previous to breaking into the bank, they burglarized a store and stole six shotguns with which they battled with the townspeople.

TURN DOWN CARNEGIE'S GIFT OF $1,000,000.

Cleveland, Tenn., Oct. 3.—The Holston conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today unanimously voted to endorse the action of the college of bishops and of the minority of the board of trust of Vanderbilt in declining to accept an offer of a $1,000,000 gift by Andrew Carnegie for Vanderbilt University's medical school. The resolutions express regret that the terms of said gift as set forth in Mr. Carnegie's letter "were such that it could not be accepted with honor."

PULLING CASING FROM TEST WELL AT LOVELAND.

(Frederick Leader) There will be no further development of the Big Pasture Oil and Gas Development well. This is settled. A contractor and a crew of workmen from Burk Burnett, Texas, arrived at Loveland yesterday, and are drawing the casing from the well, the contractor having purchased the tools from the State Guaranty Bank of Frederick. The rig and casing have not yet been sold. This well was the first one started in Tillman county and was hoped to place Tillman on the map as an oil county, but in spite of a large expenditure of money, nothing came of the work.

18 JAILED ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

TWELVE MEN AND SIX WOMEN ARE IMPRISONED FOR DEFYING COURT'S ORDERS.

SEATTLE JUDGES CLASH

Several Prisoners Released on Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued From Another Tribunal.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—Superior Judge John E. Humphries Thursday sent twelve men and six women to the county jail for contempt of court in defying him in his decisions against Socialists. Later a consultation of other judges of the superior court was held and Thorwald Seigrist, an attorney who previously had complained to the Bar Association of Judge Humphries' excessive use of the writ of injunction, was requested to apply for a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoner.

Seigrist applied to Judge Everett Smith for a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Glenn Hoover, attorney for the Free Speech Defense League and former Attorney General of Washington, and G. M. Hodgson, one of the signers of "Resolutions of protest" against Judge Humphries' anti-street speaking injunctions. The writ was granted and the men released on their own recognizance. Each had a short time before being sentenced to pay a $100 fine for contempt of court, while in addition Hoover had "forever been disbarred" by Judge Humphries and Hodgson was sent to jail for six months.

Judge Smith said he would release all the prisoners who sought freedom on writs.

Judge is Angry. Judge Humphries was very angry when he heard of the consultation of his fellow judges and release of the prisoners. He denounced the other judges and declared the right of habeas corpus did not apply in contempt cases.

The scene in Judge Humphries' court late yesterday was remarkable. The court room was jammed to suffocation and the proceedings interrupted and applauded frequently. Most of the prisoners when arraigned expressed anew their contempt for the judges and defied him. Glenn Hoover, attorney for the prisoners, was fined, disbarred and ordered removed to jail as soon as he began to speak.

Attorney Hullet M. Wells, Socialist candidate for mayor at the last election, was disbarred and fined $100 without being permitted to speak.

Mrs. Humphries, secretary of a Socialist local, was dismissed with a "never mind," the judge saying he did not wish to humiliate a member of his own Scotch clan.

Mrs. William McNally stood up with a baby in arms. The judge said he did not wish to send a baby to jail. "Never mind," the judge said, "terribly, the baby is as guilty as I am."

Woman and Baby Go to Jail. She was fined $100 and sent to jail with the baby and a little boy. The woman's husband, a Spanish War veteran, was also fined $100 and sent to jail, and two children arrested and held in the county jail.

Judge Humphries expects to take up the remainder of the cases today. Fifty-five Socialists were cited by Judge Humphries for contempt of court because they had signed "resolutions of defiance" that denounced the judge for his injunctions in street speaking cases. The judge proceeded with the contempt cases in spite of the fact that the State supreme court had issued a writ restraining him in the case of two defendants who had appealed.

Judge Humphries first overruled the defendants' motion for a change of venue because of prejudice on the part of the court. He warned the defendants and their counsel that the filing of such an affidavit was of itself a new contempt.

"No Respect For the Court." The judge fined Kate Sadler, a street orator $100 and costs, and imposed the same fine upon Mrs. Hannah Anderson, who retorted that she had no respect for the court.

H. O. Saylor and Ray O. Draper, who did not sign the recommendations of defiance but who applauded Mrs. Anderson in the court room when she gave her opinion of Judge Humphries, were each sentenced to six months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $300.

Defendants who explained that they signed the resolutions of defiance through a misunderstanding were released upon payment of trivial costs. Appeals to the State supreme court, it is said, will be taken.

SHALLOW PRODUCTION AT FOWLKES IS INCREASING

The shallow sand production at Fowlkes station on the Denver south of Electra was increased twenty-five barrels yesterday when Cochran's well on this land was brought in to 800 feet. The well is believed to be good for twenty-five barrels or better, there being forty feet of fluid standing in the hole.

This makes six producers in that portion of the field, counting the J. A. Fisher well south of the railroad track, and the total production is close to a hundred barrels. Considerable new work is to start shortly, most of it with star machines, although some standard tools will be used with a view to further testing the deep sands.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGES FILED

ST. LOUIS COTTON EXCHANGE CLAIMS FAVORITISM BY RAILROADS TO GALVESTON.

ATTACK OKLAHOMA RATE

70-Cent Rate From Southern Oklahoma to Both Points Declared Discriminatory.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 13.—The St. Louis Cotton Exchange today gave out particulars of a complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, charging discrimination against the St. Louis rate of cotton.

The complaint is directed against the Katy, Frisco, Iron Mountain, Rock Island, Santa Fe and the St. Louis Terminal railways.

It is charged the 70 cents from Oklahoma to the St. Louis gateway thereby depriving St. Louis of the advantages of its location and natural advantages.

It is charged that the blanket rate from Southern Oklahoma points to Galveston is 70 cents, the same as the rate to St. Louis, although the distance to Galveston is much greater, and it is alleged the discrimination in favor of Galveston abnormally enlarges the territory of that market to the disadvantage of St. Louis.

OFF SEASON ON Doves REMAINS NINE MONTHS.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 3.—In an advice from W. L. Hancock, assistant in the biological survey at Washington, to a local sportsman, it was stated that there was absolutely no change in the closed season on doves on the federal statutes. The state's law providing for a nine months' closed season on doves and the months open—November, December and January—stands unchanged. The ruling follows:

"I beg to advise that the regulations prepared in connection with the federal migratory bird law in no way affect the open or closed seasons on doves. The statute affecting these birds remains in full force and effect, the federal law in no manner interfering with the state law."

HANS SCHMIDT MAKES FRENZIED DISPLAY

At Inquest He Tears Rosary into Bits and Flings Them at Newspaper Reporters.

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 3.—Hans Schmidt, confessed murderer of Anna Amuller, became frenzied today at the coroner's inquest into the death of the girl. He suddenly rose in his seat and ripped from his neck the rosary he had worn ever since his incarceration, tore it into bits and hurled them all at newspaper reporters sitting nearby. The jury found him responsible for the girl's death.

Schmidt was immediately remanded to the Tombs to await the action of the grand jury. His outburst occurred in the presence of a jury of millionaires empaneled to conduct the inquest. The verdict was found in fourteen minutes. Theodore P. Shoats, president of the Interborough-Rapid Transit Company, was foreman of the jury.

Such a station, the war department points out, will be necessary with the completion of the Panama Canal.

BIG WIRELESS STATION ON TEXAS GULF COAST.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Information has leaked out from official sources to the effect that a large wireless station is to be erected shortly on the Texas coast. According to reports furnished Representative Gammeter, the big tower will be erected at Port Isabel.

Such a station, the war department points out, will be necessary with the completion of the Panama Canal.

Customs officers today began the task of redrafting the regulations for the enforcement of the new tariff law. While it goes into effect tomorrow collectors of customs will continue to assess the duties of the old Payne-Aldrich act pending receipt of copies of the new law.

KELL BUYS OKLAHOMA CITY OFFICE BUILDING

Dispatch From That City Says Wichita Paid $150,000 for Eighteen-Story Structure.

A dispatch from Oklahoma City in the Dallas News says that Frank Kell of this city has purchased what is known as the Insurance building, an eighteen-story office building in that city.

Mr. Kell has been at Battle Creek, Mich. for several weeks and no one here could confirm or deny the report. It is believed here that the report may be true in view of the fact that Mr. Kell owns a controlling interest in the Oklahoma City Milling Company.

The Oklahoma City dispatch follows: "Frank W. Kell of Wichita Falls, Texas, purchased the insurance building from Franklin J. Harbour and wife, the price being $150,000 and other considerations. The deed will be filed for record next week.

"The insurance building is an eighteen-story office structure, occupying fifty feet front by 140 deep off Broadway in Oklahoma City's business district and is considered one of the choice locations. For the present it will continue under the management of W. S. Spenser & Co., who represented both parties in the deal. The building was completed three years ago.

"Mr. Kell with J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls promoted and built the Wichita Falls & Northwestern Railroad Company, which extends through Western Oklahoma from Red River to Fort-gan, Beaver county.

BIG APPROPRIATION FOR AEROPLANES IS ASKED.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Credits amounting to $2,750,000 for the development of France's military aviation will be demanded of the Chamber of Deputies when the fall session begins next month. Of this sum $1,500,000 will be spent during 1914. This was the plan announced today by the Poincare administration.

Recent developments in the art of flying demonstrate that aviation is comparatively safe in a veritable cyclone have encouraged the French war office in its old belief that aeroplanes are better than the unwieldy dirigibles such as the Germans use and it is whispered in political circles that not only will the demanded credits pass the house but that sums additional may be given.

RITUAL MURDER THEORY SCOUTED

BRITISH EXPERTS DECLARE RUSSIAN BOY NOT KILLED TO COLLECT HIS BLOOD.

EVIDENCE IS DISCUSSED

Counsel of Mendel Beilis Will Attempt to Introduce Report at Trial of Jew.

Kieff, Oct. 3.—The chief counsel for Mendel Beilis, whose trial is to open in the criminal section of the Kieff district court on Oct. 8, today received from London a certified copy of the full report of the British experts who, after an exhaustive analysis of the records of the two post-mortem examinations of the boy Andrei Fuschinsky, completely demolished the "ritual murder" theory.

Determined efforts will be made by M. Karachevsky and Grusenberg, leading members of the St. Petersburg bar, who were retained on behalf of Beilis, to introduce this report as evidence. If they are unable to do so directly, they will incorporate its substance in the form of hypothetical questions to be submitted to the experts who have been subpoenaed by the crown. In like manner they will offer the reports of the German, Austrian and French medico-legal authorities who reached a similar verdict.

At the head of the London committee was Dr. W. H. Wilcox, senior expert of the British home office, whose remarkable analysis conclusively proved that Dr. Crippen murdered Belle Elmore. His associates were A. J. Pepper, senior expert in the public prosecutions department, and Dr. Charles A. Mercier, consulting physician for mental diseases at Charing Cross Hospital. The main conclusion of the crown in endeavoring to establish the "ritual murder" theory was that the forty-seven stab wounds were inflicted by the murderer for the purpose of draining the boy's body of blood while he was still alive, to be used in the making of passover bread. On this point the British experts assert:

"It appears to us quite impossible to suppose that the boy was killed for the purpose of collecting his blood. If the murderer had wanted the boy's blood, he would have used a knife or cutting instrument, and probably would have cut inflicted punctured wounds with an awl or chisel-like instrument, for these wounds cause internal bleeding and not such copious external bleeding as a cutting instrument.

"In our opinion this case was one of murder, prompted neither by greed, lust, nor revenge, but committed with excessive unnatural and frantic violence. It was a coarse, brutal murder perpetrated by a person of unscrupulous mind and by means of such an instrument as happened to be at his service. We find no evidence whatever to suggest the nationality or occupation of the murderer. Such murders as this are frequent enough and are characteristic. They indicate, from the lack of motive and from the excessive violence that the murderer is insane. It is well known to every alienist and medical jurist of experience that murders of this kind are quite common in the case of lunatics affected by epileptic larvae, and that they also occur not infrequently in other forms of mental disease."

Dealing specifically with the evidence of Professor Sikorsky of St. Vladimir University at Kieff, whose declarations were made the basis of the "ritual murder" indictment, the British experts emphatically disagree with his conclusions. It is well known that the Jews slaughter animals by cutting their throats right across with a special knife with a long, broad, sharp blade. This fact is of importance, they point out, for it clearly demonstrates that the murder was not committed by a Jew who was accustomed to the slaughtering of beasts, as Sikorsky concluded.

"It is clear," observes the report, "that the wounds in the head and neck were inflicted first and those in the trunk not for some little time afterwards—either immediately before or just after death. The wounds in the head were probably inflicted just after death. The blows on the head must have caused immediate unconsciousness—the wounds on the trunk were not made until afterwards. It is quite impossible for any torture to have been caused by their infliction. All the wounds could quite easily have been inflicted by one man, and there is nothing in the details of the murder which suggests that it was done by more than one man."

The report of the French experts, of whom Dr. M. A. Lacaze, professor of legal medicine in the University at Lyons, was chief, says: "It would be a singular method of procuring the blood of a human victim to inflict upon him a series of wounds most of which do not penetrate, and not one of which at all events establishes any considerable communication between a big blood vessel and the exterior. The absurdity of the method employed settles the question in the present case beyond doubt."

Beilis' counsel are finding a great deal of difficulty in preparing their case for presentation, on account of the manifest bias of the bench. When, for instance, they applied to the court for a certificate entitling them to obtain from the Academy of Sciences official copies of Hebrew books which had been quoted to the examining magistrate by a priest named Prandis in support of the theory that "ritual murder" is an authorized institution of the Jewish faith, their request was refused. The reason given that it was the task of the prosecution to furnish proofs of the existence of ritual murder among the Jews, not of the defense.

Valuable Help. Molly's eyes were pinched grim. On Molly's head, a cap. Around her waist an apron trim—Audacious thing! Then clap! Went upon and basin and she said: "You'd best yourself betake. To regions less occult and dread, I'm going to make a cake!"

She took off all her shining rings And 'round the kitchen flew; I cut the raisins—sticky things! But something I must do To find excuse to keep my seat And watch fair Molly bake; And take a toll from every sweet That went into the cake.

She pondered o'er the recipe, And murmured, line by line, As might some vestal devotee At sacrificial shrine.

The victim I, but oh 'twas nice! For she made one mistake, And with the sugar and the spice, Stirred love into the cake!

Upon my coat—a tell tale score—Lay finger prints of snow; On Molly's lips lay something more, "But, faith! that didn't show."

Success is sweet—such sweet success (Through it does courage take), And 'tis a glorious business, This making of a cake!

Construction Activities In Texas During September

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 3.—The opening of traffic of a hundred miles of new interurban line, the issuance of one and one-half million dollars of building permits in the principal cities, the completion of three new railroads and the appropriation of a half million dollars for highway improvement by bond issue, constitute the principal features of construction work in Texas during September.

The unusually heavy precipitation during the month retarded to some extent construction on railroads, interurbans and highways, and although the rainfall wrought damage rather than aided growing crops, it had its virtues in turning public sentiment in favor of good roads. In some sections of the state the roads were rendered impassable by the heavy rains, and farmers as well as business men who heretofore bitterly opposed the issuance of bonds for highway improvement, have, in several instances, openly declared in favor of good roads, regardless of how the money had to be raised to secure them.

One Texas community reports that on one day during the heaviest rains cotton was selling at 15 cents and only a few bales were on the market.

The Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association is keeping a close tab on building operations in this state and a review of September activities prepared by that association follows:

Three New Steam Roads Completed. Three railroads were completed and placed in operation during the month, which leaves only four lines, with an aggregate mileage of 150 under construction at the present time. Plans are on foot for the building of three new lines, and a definite announcement is expected from them at an early date.

Train service on the Stone City-Giddings line was inaugurated the first part of September. Trains running from Stone City to Giddings connect with north and southbound trains of the Austin branch of the H. & T. C. Central Texas Interurban railway, and made arrangements for the use of each other's lines, and as a result, through service has been established between Bryan and Giddings via Stone City and Caldwell.

The total length of the Stone City-Giddings line is thirty-nine miles and the franchise arrangement, with the interurban company gives them a mileage of fifty-two.

Grading on the Solemantexico cut-off of the Santa Fe railroad was completed early in September and to date 60,000 cubic yards of steel has been laid. Only twenty more miles of steel remain to be laid and it is expected to have this road in operation by Jan. 1, 1914.

The finishing touches were applied during September to the Fredericksburg Southern road from Fredericksburg to the main line of the H. & T. C. at P. A. Warring. The total distance of this line is twenty-five miles. For twenty-five years the people along this route have been trying to secure a railroad and finally realized their efforts by paying a bonus of $150,000. Train service will be inaugurated early in October.

The lesson which the speaker emphasized was that the limit of our ability in Christ is life according to our capacity to receive. "According to your faith, so be it unto you," Jesus' words to the blind man, was his text.

He compared the Christian to a child showing that as the teacher could only instruct as the capacity of the child developed, so God could only give the Christian understanding and capacity as his faith grew; that only as we were willing to surrender our hearts to God's will could we become strong as a joyful Christian and as an exemplification for others.

The song and prayer service that opens the meeting at 7 o'clock are being much enjoyed. Rev. Onderdonk begins his sermon at 7:30 and closes promptly at 8:30. At 9 o'clock each afternoon he delivers a lecture in a series on "Mexico and the Mexicans." He has spent eighteen years in Mexico and has been a close observer of the customs, the people and political and religious life of the Mexican people.

The arrival of the steel for the Matador Northern road is anticipated daily. The steel and culverts have been distributed and the weather conditions are such that the road will be operating within a short time. The line is six miles long, connects Matador with the main line of the Quannah, Acme & Pacific, near Roaring Springs, and is the second railroad ever built in Motley county.

Construction work on the Artesian Belt railroad was held up in September on account of the hard rains in that section of the state during September. This line is an eighteen-mile extension from Christine to Crowther, and the grading for the entire distance is completed. Tracklaying will be resumed as soon as the weather permits.

Heavy rains in the southern part of the state prevented the starting of construction on the line from Freeport to Sealy, but it is expected that work will begin within a short time.

The Business Men's Club of Kerrville has been negotiating with a party of capitalists who contemplate a building a road from that city to San Angelo. The organization now has the matter under advisement and will render a decision at an early date.

The citizens of Yoakum are raising a $100,000 bond issue to secure the San Antonio & Pecos Valley road from Yoakum to Aransas Harbor. It is expected that the project will assume definite shape at an early date.

Two interurbans Opened. The interurban between Dallas and Waco which was completed last month was opened for operation the latter part of September, and a regular schedule installed. This part of the Southern Traction Company's line is 103 miles long and the portion from Dallas to Waxahachie, which is twenty-nine miles in length, was completed and placed in operation in 1912.

The line from Dallas to Corsicana is forty-seven miles long and will be officially opened for traffic on the 15th of October.

The Beaumont, Port Arthur, interurban is operating cars on regular schedule and report a good business. The steel laying was finished last month and the last of ballasting completed early in September.

FALL FOR OLD GAME AND CALL IN POLICE.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—William J. Young and wife of Brandon, Manitoba, appeared to the police here to search for two men who had swindled them of the amount of $5,000, which Young and his wife had bet on a "sure thing" horse race.

Mr. and Mrs. Young traveled 2,000 miles to St. Louis to invest money which yesterday they turned over to the confidence men in a local hotel. After a false fight the men left the hotel with the money, promising Young and his wife they would return. According to Young, he and his wife arrived at West Baden, Ind., ten days ago and there met an affable man who introduced himself as C. H. Kleinfelder, who was walking about the town they met a man who claimed to be Mr. Rector. Mr. Rector confided to Young and Kleinfelder that he was a race-track bookmaker and that because of his inside information he could make "big killings." Kleinfelder professed to be skeptical but Rector persuaded him and Young to put up $1 and he would show what he could do. Later that same day Rector gave his two friends $2 each—their winnings on a 2 to 1 bet. Mr. and Mrs. Young rushed back to Brandon, got $5,000 and went to St. Louis where they met Young.

ROAD COMPLETED AFTER 25 YEARS HARD WORK.

Fredericksburg, Texas, Oct. 3.—Train service will be inaugurated on the Fredericksburg-San Antonio railroad within the next two or three days, and this place will be afforded its first rail connection. The citizens of Fredericksburg and San Antonio have been endeavoring to secure this line for twenty-five years and finally realized their efforts by contributing a heavy bonus.

CAPACITY TO RECEIVE LIMIT OF ABILITY

"According to Your Faith, So Be It Unto You," Jesus' Words to the Blind Man, Text.

Despite the rain Thursday night a band of the faithful attended the meeting at the First M. E. Church, South, and heard one of the most helpful and instructive sermons yet delivered here by Rev. Frank Onderdonk, who is assisting Rev. Hill and Rev. McKee in the protracted meeting.

The lesson which the speaker emphasized was that the limit of our ability in Christ is life according to our capacity to receive. "According to your faith, so be it unto you," Jesus' words to the blind man, was his text. He compared the Christian to a child showing that as the teacher could only instruct as the capacity of the child developed, so God could only give the Christian understanding and capacity as his faith grew; that only as we were willing to surrender our hearts to God's will could we become strong as a joyful Christian and as an exemplification for others.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Oct. 3, 1913.

Either Horace Chilton or Henry Exall would make Texas a good governor, but neither of them seem to command much thought among the politicians. It would be a great thing, however, if the people of Texas would stop this business of sizing up gubernatorial aspirants by the way they stand on the question of prohibition. Texas needs a man who has the ability to administer the state government in the interest of all the people, instead of only a faction. Both Chilton and Exall are good Democrats, and one of them or the other is a candidate who is not opposed in his views on the question of prohibition should be given the Democratic nomination for the governorship and elected.

Tammany's motive in removing or impeaching Governor Sulzer seems to be for Tammany's good, and not for the good of the people of New York state, and it now seems almost certain that Tammany will succeed in its plans. Most of the state senate, comprising the court that is trying Sulzer, is composed for the most part of Tammany men, and whether the evidence is sufficient or not, will make no difference to them. They have received orders, and orders from their boss, Charles Murphy, must be obeyed. However, if the impeaching of Sulzer will lead to the complete destruction of Tammany, it will be worth the price to the people of New York, regardless of political leanings. From present indications that is about what is going to happen the very next time the people are given a chance to vote.

The portrait of General Sam Houston that has adorned the walls of the senate chamber at Austin has been removed, and that of ex-Senator Bailey substituted. This was done, it seems, because our legislature refused to appropriate a sufficient amount of money to pay the artist who painted the picture of Houston, and apparently to get even with the lawmakers he painted a picture of ex-Senator Bailey, showed it to the ex-senator's friends and admirers, and they purchased it with the understanding that it was to hang on the walls in the senate chamber. In order to make room for it, perhaps, for other reasons, the artist removed the portrait of General Houston, and placed in its place that of ex-Senator Bailey. He had that right. The picture of Houston belonged to him, but he should have never been given permission to hang it unless he intended that it should remain in position. Now, the right thing for Texas to do is to have a real first-class artist to make a picture of Houston, pay for it and have it placed in the same position the one taken down occupied. Texas cannot afford to have it said that an insult has been offered to as great and good a man as General Sam Houston was in his day.

KEYS BUYS QUANAH ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

C. P. Walker, field man for John C. Keys, arrived here Monday night. This morning the ownership of the Quanah Light and Ice Works passed to John C. Keys, the consideration being $47,500. Mr. Walker tells the Observer that the following will happen to the plant and its conduct:

Just as soon as the material arrives, which will be in about three weeks, transmission lines will be built from the Quanah plant to Chillicothe and to Eldorado, Okla., furnishing those towns with light and power. The Chillicothe plant will be dismantled and shipped away.

The entire electric plant here in Quanah will be replaced with the most modern equipment, including a 500-horsepower Diesel engine. The city lines will be rebuilt. There will be a constant current, day and night. The price of the current will be 15 cents per kilowatt hour maximum, to 3 cents minimum. There will be no such thing as meter rent charged.

The present buildings, which house the plant, will be superseded with a brick structure 100 by 175 feet, but this work will probably not be undertaken before next spring. The changes in the ice making plant have not been thought out yet, and will not be thought out until the plant is replaced.

NEWEST CONCEITS IN POCKETBOOKS

POUCH BAGS FAVORITE OF MOMENT—BEADED BAGS ARE SMART AGAIN.

HATPINS ARE ARTISTIC

Variety of Designs and Combinations in Jeweled Hatpins for Catching Up Your Veil.

Phyllis has a pocket book that is a very new thing in her pretty arm. Yet it's not too loud. Money talks, but it's not too loud. Can you blame sweet Phyllis then that she is quite proud?

New York, Oct. 3.—If Lucy Lockett had lost her pocketbook today and Sally Fisher had found it I doubt very much if Lucy would ever have seen it again so delectable are the many conceits in the purse line now tempting femininity.

The pouch bag is the favorite of the moment and its name adequate description. It comes in plain seal, moire or navy blue and black moire. It is mounted on a gilt frame and lined with white satin and an inch wide gross grain ribbon swings it from its proud possessor's arm. Some of them boast a tiny mirror so attached that it points up blindingly like a jack in the box when the bag is opened. This is almost equal to letting the cat out of the bag. Yes? Others are well stocked with all the appurtenances of the first aids to beauty. They seem to lack only an electric vibrator to set up a complete beauty shop at short notice. Many of the bags have little putan watches set in one side and some have their pouch ends finished with a smart silk tassel.

A charmingly quaint bag of taffeta, faille or moire comes in black or dark blue embroidered at intervals with tiny little nosegays of colored silk flowers. They also swing from inch wide grosgrain ribbons with tiny jeweled slides and the metal clasps that hold tight their treasure trove are gayly jeweled also. Beaded bags are smart again. Elaborate designs in steel, bronze or jet beads are being picked out on moire backgrounds. Moire pouches with monograms traced in the beads are very lovely.

For wear with the new plain black velvet hats whose only trimming is a single feather, alluring hat pins have come to a head. Neither as large nor as ornate as the atrocities of former years they are artistic and conservative in their form and coloring. Flat ovals and disks of solid enamel sometimes centered with a pearl eye with oblong and round crystal headed pins for milady's favor. Tiny jeweled hairpins for catching your veil close to your hair at the sides come in an endless variety of designs and combinations. The veils they catch of finest mesh with alabaster borders of lace tracery are indeed beautiful. Lovely women should arise and take them to her heart and face after the horrible lace figured veils of last seasons whose sprawling designs made the fairest cheek appear disfigured with repulsive birthmarks.

In tulle silk mesh or flesh and white the new veillings are particularly becoming.

Original Effects in Caps. Since fair maids and matrons insist on capping themselves abroad as well as at home cap designers have been put to much ado for original effects. They have sought to weave the caps from the fair heads of all nations and now have even invaded the cloister to emerge with a nun's head-dress that proves as lovely on a sinner as on a saint. Evolved of heavy Venetian lace it bands the head low on the forehead and over the crown of the head close down around under the chin with such realistic nunlike effect that one is tempted to advise the demurely coiffed wearer to "Get thee to a nunnery" instead of to the theatre where such headresses now nightly shine. Directly opposite in its appeal and effect is the seductive turban of tulle which twists around the modern hour's head leaving her crown of hair au naturel. A dainty jeweled lattice cap a la Juliet has a quivering jeweled butterfly poised in front and a close fitting little Dutch cap of white lace with wired face wings jutting out over the ears is pretty enough for a Duchess. Caps are certainly written in capitals this season.

Arthur Keys, son of John C. Keys, has come here from Artesia, N. M., and will have charge of the plant for a considerable period. John Pruden of Quanah will be outside manager of the plant. John C. Keys has bought the Chillicothe electric plant and will demolish it as soon as the transmission line is built from Quanah to that town. The papers which will pass in the transfer of the property are being prepared today.

YOUNG OELRICH DECLINES TO DISCUSS GIRL'S CHARGE

By Associated Press.
New York, Oct. 3.—Young Herman Oelrich remained in seclusion today, declining to discuss the charge made by Miss Lucile Singleton, daughter of Dallas, Texas, mining man, that he had stabbed her last Tuesday just before the automobile in which they were driving crashed into a tree.

The girl today awaited the arrival of her father from Dallas. She is still suffering from shock and from wounds on her breast, which Oelrich's lawyers say she sustained when she was flung through the windshield of the automobile.

Columbia University authorities today began an investigation of the affair to determine whether the circumstances warranted Oelrich's expulsion from the University. 23 ttc

Giant And Athletic Catchers Compared

By Associated Press.
New York, Oct. 3.—The catcher of the New York Giants and Philadelphia Athletics will play an important part in the coming battle for the world's championship in baseball, and the managers of the rival clubs are fortunate in having dependable trios for the position behind the plate. Connie Mack has Schang, Lapp and Thomas to use as his judgment dictates and McGraw in Meyers, McLean and Wilson has an opposing squad of catchers, which, viewed in a broad manner, suffer little, if any, when compared with the Philadelphia wearers of mitt and mask.

Meyers and Schang appear to have first call for the position, with McLean and Lapp second choice and Wilson and Thomas as third string catchers. Meyers and Schang will be called upon to do the brunt of the work, barring illness or accident and therefore first to be considered in a comparison of the catching strength of the two clubs. From an offensive standpoint, Meyers is the better player of the two, due to his ability as a batter. The big Indian has an unofficial record of 210 for 115 games this season, 115 against 239 for Schang in 75 games. On the bases the Philadelphia backstop is a faster man, but this asset is more or less nullified by the fact that Meyers gets to the initial bag more frequently than his chief rival in the world's series. Both are accurate and fast in throwing to the bases, but the Athletic's youngster has a margin over Meyers in this respect, for he shoots to second with less apparent exertion and more speed than the chief Tortos.

Lapp has taken the ascendancy over Thomas during the past season and judging from present indications will be Connie Mack's second choice for the stand behind the home plate. He will have a formidable opponent in McLean, who joined the Giants via the trade route from St. Louis after the mid-season mark had been passed. As in the case of Meyers and Schang, the Giants' second string catcher has a decided advantage over Lapp in batting, for the records show that the former Cincinnati-St. Louis catcher has a batting average of .285 as against Lapp's .219. The figures are all the more impressive since both catchers have worked in about the same number of games. As an offset, the Philadelphia catcher has proved to be deadly in throwing base stealers out at second and third, and in this respect, outranks the veteran who was traded into a world's series pot of gold after his new team-mates had secured a commanding lead in the race for the pennant.

Ira Thomas, one of Mack's veterans in point of experience, at least, outranks Wilson easily, but the old adage of youth vs. age may equalize this, should pair don masks and pads in the game. Thomas is a catcher who rises to emergencies and as a tactician has few equals. As far as batting is concerned, he is far superior to Wilson, but the latter has been improving steadily and may surpass expectations in this respect in case he has an opportunity to break into the series at a critical period. Once on the base lines, he will have an excellent chance to pick up Thomas' advantage with the bat, for he is fast, considered from the standpoint of a catcher. The records of the catchers of the two clubs this season follow:

PHILADELPHIA
Schang . . . . . 75 301 36 52 4 2 259
Lapp . . . . . 74 210 21 46 1 1 259
Thomas . . . . . 22 53 3 14 0 1 264
NEW YORK
Meyers . . . . . 115 358 37 111 6 4 310
McLean . . . . . 71 215 8 61 0 0 285

FINDS HEADLESS GIRL AT SEA

Fishing Schooner Captain Buries Body of Woman Clad in Expensive Clothing.

Boston.—The discovery at sea of the headless body of an expensively dressed girl was reported by Capt. Charles White of the schooner Jennie Gilbert, upon his arrival in port from a sword-fishing trip. To the captain it appeared that the head had been skillfully severed with a sharp knife.

The body was picked up July 16 about 170 miles from Boston, in the track of both ocean and coastwise steamers. It evidently had been in the water but a short time. Capt. White described it as that of a well nurtured girl of from sixteen to twenty years. The clothing gave no clue to the identity of the wearer. Captain White says he wrapped the body in canvas and sank it in the sea.

cle Sam's on every sea may be seen this snowy pennant, with its blue device, shown in the accompanying picture, flying above the Stars and Stripes.

Only while the church services are in progress does the starry flag surrender its supremacy. When the worshiping is concluded the "Banner of the Blue Cross" is lowered with fitting ceremonies and the Red, White and Blue is restored to its head. In the picture is shown the main building at Vallejo on San Francisco bay in California, with the church flag flying from the staff in the foreground.

Was a Wife for a Day.
Milwaukee.—"It was worth the money to be a wife, even if it didn't last long. I'm no spring chicken any more, and I did want to be some man's wife." So declared Mrs. Violet Adamson, thirty, of Stonefort, Ill., after her husband of a day had disappeared with $500 of her money. She appealed to the local police for aid.

Many Have Appendicitis.
Mount Pleasant, N. H.—Calebbrook, near here, has gained the name of the "Appendicitis town." Over 200 of the 3,000 inhabitants have undergone operations for appendicitis.

Yonkum—The line to be built by the Palacios, San Antonio & Pecos Valley Railroad from this place to Aransas Harbor and Palacios Harbor; and to make northern connections with St. Louis and Kansas City by way of the shortest line possible, has practically been assured. The citizens have signified their willingness to raise the $70,000 bonus to secure the line. It is understood here that actual construction work will soon be under way.

SUBMISSION ORDER DELAYED

COUNCIL REFERS CHARTER BACK TO COMMITTEE FOR SOME MINOR CORRECTIONS.

CHANGES NOT ASKED

Expected Demand That Ward System Be Provided Did Not Materialize Thursday Night.

The proposed new charter was referred back to the charter committee last night by the city council, in order that a number of corrections might be made in the document before it is definitely submitted. A number of minor errors were found and there are several passages that the council felt were not sufficiently clear. The council adjourned subject to call so that a meeting may be held to order the election as soon as the corrections are made.

There was no disposition to make any changes in the charter other than those mentioned, the councilmen feeling that they had no authority to make any amendments in addition to the charter matter the council took action on a variety of minor matters. Two requests for permission to put up wooden buildings inside the fire limits were refused by council; one such request was made by "Slim" Koller, Griffin, whose tent is located at Tenth and Ohio. The tent is inside the fire limits and its presence there is a violation of the ordinance, so permission to keep it there was refused.

City Secretary McCarty reported that $894.50 in fines had been collected during September. Two requests for sewer extensions were reported upon by City Engineer Hinckley and were filed for future action the city being unable to do the work at this time. An offer from Messrs. Nobles and Henderson, some additional land for the city's stables on Sixth street was referred to a committee of Aldermen Reed, Bradley and Young; five lots were offered for $2000.

The sale of a quantity of old fire hose to one of the paving companies here was ordered. It was decided to take up with the Wichita Valley the question of a light at its crossing on Ohio avenue. Mayor Bell pointed out that since the extending of the street car line on Lamar, Ohio would extensively be used by people from the country and that it should be looked after. The matter will be taken up with the Valley officials. The advisability of putting numbers on the negro houses in the southeast part of the city was discussed, the need for such numbers in collecting sewer rentals being reported by Harry Robertson. City Engineer Hinckley reported that the city had a sound financial basis.

was discussed at some length. Mr. Young reporting that the contracts for the work were being signed. It was found that one or two property owners were still holding out and the necessity for taking the usual legal steps was discussed, without any decision being reached. Mr. Gardner was appointed to help Mr. Young in closing up the remaining contracts. The charter matter was then taken up and after some discussion referred back to the charter committee. The council discussed the idea of submitting it in chapters, but took no definite action on this point. At 11:30 the council adjourned.

FOUR FOOT RISE AT LAKE WICHITA

Water Now Only Two Feet Below Overflow Level—More Water Coming Down.

A rise of over four feet has been recorded in Lake Wichita in the past two weeks that being an unusually large amount of water for such a short period. Previous to the recent rains the lake was at the lowest stage in several years, but its stage is now 15 1/2 feet, less than two feet under the overflow stage. The water now covers the ground all the way to the dam on the west end and the lake presents a decidedly different appearance from that of early September.

A light rain, ranging from a drizzle to a moderate shower, fell here this morning and similar weather conditions were reported at the railroad offices for many other points in this section of the State. There were no heavy rains recorded, however. Palestine—The Young Men's Business League of this city has been reorganized and the club placed on a sound financial basis.

STREET TAX HIGHER IN OTHER TOWNS

Wichitans Glad to Send Back Three Bones When Collectors Elsewhere Get After Them.

Wichitans who have thought it a hardship to dig up three bones every year for a street tax may find consolation in the fact that residents of nearby towns prefer to pay their street taxes in Wichita Falls. Lately people living in Petrolia and Seymour, but whose legal residence is in Wichita Falls have paid the three dollars rather than put up the five dollars necessary in the towns mentioned.

Several men in the employ of the Wichita Valley who were at Petrolia recently, at work on the new depot there, were called upon for their street taxes for Petrolia, the amount being five dollars. This amount, it is asserted under a State law which provides that where a man has paid a tax in one place for the current year, he cannot be forced to pay it in another. So the workmen at Petrolia, the next time they came to Wichita Falls, paid three dollars here. Several Wichitans who went to Seymour several months ago to work in the compress there, and who failed to pay their street taxes here before they went, found themselves assessed five dollars in the Baylor county capital. So they sent three dollars each to a local saloon man, who paid the tax for them here. Did Collector Harry Robertson take the money. Did he? Well, would a duck swim?

MANY HIDES SHIPPED FROM SAN ANGELO. San Angelo, Texas, Oct. 3.—In the past twelve months more than 8,000 hides of wild animals have been shipped from San Angelo. In addition to this approximately 1,200 goat and sheep-hides and at least 60,000 cattle hides have been shipped. San Angelo probably sends more hides of various kinds to the leather and fur markets than any other town in the United States not possessing a packery.
