ARGUMENTS BEGIN IN SULZER TRIAL

IN OPENING FOR DEFENSE MARSHALL ATTACKS TESTIMONY OF SUPERINTENDENT PECK.

VOTE MAY COME TUESDAY

Defense Rested Unexpectedly Late Wednesday Without Sulzer Going on the Stand.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Final arguments held the stage in the Sulzer impeachment trial today. Attorneys for each side were allotted five hours, nearly a full day's session for their summing up.

It was believed today that at the end of the arguments on Friday night court would adjourn over Monday, Columbus Day. Then voting on the constitutional objections to the impeachment articles brought by attorneys for the defense, and to impeachment articles themselves, will be begun. The voting on objections to articles of impeachment and testimony will be done in executive session. The final vote will be taken on each of the eight articles separately if all of them are allowed to stand. Lewis J. Marshall opened the argument for the defense.

General denial of all charges against Governor Sulzer, a bitter attack on the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, state superintendent of public works and accusations that unfair tactics were used by the impeachment board, and a picture of the governor as a man of integrity but of poor business ability were features of Marshall's opening speech.

Most of his address centered about the "money articles" of the impeachment, Articles 1, 2 and 6. These charged Sulzer in that he converted to his own use money contributed to his campaign, and perjury in that he gave a false affidavit in support of an inaccurate campaign statement. Mr. Marshall said no larceny existed because the money came in Sulzer's hands legally and that the charge of perjury was groundless because the new law required an affidavit to a campaign statement. He argued that the governor thought the statement an accurate one when he signed the affidavit.

Peck's testimony that he was asked by the governor to deny a $500 campaign contribution under oath was termed a brazen perjury. The attorney said Peck's department had been under investigation and serious irregularities uncovered.

"Peck had a strong motive for inventing such a conversation as that to which he testified," declared Marshall, "because it would enable him to aid in the destruction of the man who had set in motion an investigation which threatened not only the office he held but his very liberty."

The criticism of the board of managers was in relation to their insinuation in court that the books of Harris and Fuller were doctored and that Frederick Caldwell and Lewis A. Sarecky were induced to go in hiding by the governor.

Both the prosecution and the defense rested their cases in the Sulzer impeachment trial yesterday afternoon and the court adjourned until 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

The defense rested at 4 p. m., without calling Sulzer or his wife. This action was somewhat of a surprise, and the lawyers for the managers, considering their case sufficiently strong already, rested soon afterward, giving little attention to rebuttal of the defense evidence.

FORT WORTH WOMAN AND BROTHER HELD

Investigation into Death of F. M. Stallings at Dallas is in Progress.

By Associated Press.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 9.—Mrs. F. M. Stallings and her brother, Robert West, are held by the police here following the murder of the woman's husband in Dallas over two weeks ago. The body of Stallings was not found for a week until after his death and some difficulty was experienced in identifying it. Stallings was lured to Dallas by the promise of a position with Stallings and West were arrested last night at a local boarding house.

CHARTER ELECTION MAY BE ORDERED TONIGHT

An election of the new charter may be ordered at tonight's session of the city council provided the charter committee can get together this afternoon to make the corrections which have been found necessary in the document. A meeting was called for this afternoon by Chairman Britain, but it was not certain that one would be held.

The changes to be made are merely of a corrective nature and will not affect any point or feature in the charter. As soon as they are made and the document gotten into the proper form, the council is expected to fix the election date for some time in November.

COURT MARTIAL FOR GENERALS

THREE MUST ANSWER FOR RESPONSIBILITY FOR FEDERAL DEFEAT AT TORREON.

CHANGE CAMPAIGN PLANS

General Maas Recalled From Piedras Negras to Help Retake Torreon From Rebels.

Mexico City, Oct. 9.—Confirmation of the execution by rebels at Torreon of Gen. Alvarez with his staff and a number of federal soldiers has been received here by the war department. Gen. Alvarez had started for Durango when he was defeated and his artillery captured.

Evacuation of the city of Torreon by the federal troops was confirmed by Graza Alvarez, minister of the interior who declared that Gen. Tracy Aubert, the federal commander with Generals Bruze and Esedero is now at Hipolito. The latter three commanders, according to reports here, are to undergo court martial for the evacuation of Torreon. The report that Gen. Aubert had deserted to the rebels is discredited. General Maas has been recalled from Piedras Negras to co-operate with General Villar who left last night with 400 troops for Torreon.

GERMANS CELEBRATE WAR OF LIBERATION

Centennial Celebrated at St. Louis Where German-American Alliance Convention Meets

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 9.—Today was "German Day" in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the German war of liberation against Napoleon I, which was formally opened here Wednesday. The centennial celebration is being held in conjunction with the biennial convention of the German-American Alliance which opened Monday with 500 delegates present from all parts of the country.

Besides the delegates many thousands of visitors are here. The event was of such importance that reduced rates were granted to St. Louis for the first time since the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in 1904. The crowning feature of today's celebration will be a torchlight procession in which 15,000 Germans will march. On Saturday the first Jahn monument in the United States will be unveiled in Forest Park. Turner societies and school children will take part in the ceremonies. Frederick Ludwig Jahn was the originator of physical culture as now taught in the schools and colleges. He started and was in charge of the work of giving German soldiers systematic instruction in physical culture just prior to the work in which Napoleon was driven from German soil, and for this work he was given a great portion of the credit for the German victory. Adolphus Busch is honorary president of the centennial celebration; Charles Nagel, ex-secretary of commerce and labor; Frederick W. Lehmann, former solicitor general; Max Loehr, German consul at St. Louis; Mayor Kiel and Ben Althelm are honorary vice presidents. The centennial celebration in Germany will be held next week, and on Oct. 18, Kaiser Wilhelm will unveil a national monument on the Leipzig battlefield.

DINNER IN HONOR YOUNG MAN HOME FROM NAVY

Twenty-eight guests eighteen of them children and grandchildren of W. M. McDonald and wife, sat down to a big turkey dinner last Sunday, celebrating the arrival of Mr. McDonald's son, W. M. McDonald, after a four years' enlistment in the United States navy. Young McDonald arrived on one of the early morning trains Sunday and the dinner was given in his honor at his father's home two miles south of town. He has been aboard the United States cruiser Hancock, and after completing his four years' enlistment he liked his experience so well that he re-enlisted for another four years' term. He is now on a visit with relatives here before beginning his second enlistment.

CHINA'S FRIENDSHIP TO FOREIGNERS EMPHASIZED

In Inaugural Address President Yuan Urges Strengthening of Cordial Relations Existing.

By Associated Press.

Peking, China, Oct. 9.—The friendly intentions of the Chinese government toward foreigners is emphasized in President Yuan Shi Kai's inaugural message. On this subject, he says:

"The attitude of the foreign powers to us has always been one of peace and fairness. They have given us cordial assistance whenever the occasion arose. It is most important for all citizens of the Chinese republic to understand this and to endeavor to strengthen these cordial relations."

JACKSON'S FATE NOW WITH JURY

ARGUMENTS CONCLUDED AND CASE GIVEN TO JURY THURSDAY AFTERNOON

IMPOSING LEGAL ARRAY

Able Talent On Both Sides and Large Crowds Were Attracted By Arguments

Archery City, Texas, Oct. 9.—The fate of A. J. Jackson charged with the murder of Charles P. Yeary in a wagon yard in Wichita Falls last July, is now in the hands of the jury. The case was given to the jury early Thursday afternoon.

Testimony was completed late yesterday afternoon and argument for the State was opened by District Attorney Edgar Scurry. At a night session of the court Walter Nelson and J. T. Montgomery spoke for the defense. Fred Weeks for the State opened the morning session. He was followed by W. H. Murchison and Judge Carrigan for the defense. R. E. Taylor closed for the State. Judge Martin read his charge and the case went to the jury early this afternoon.

The array of attorneys on both sides in this case was one of the most prominent participating in a trial in this county in a number of years and large crowds were attracted to the sessions last night and this morning to hear the arguments.

MISSIONARIES UNDERGO HARROWING EXPERIENCES

When Rescued From Chinese Bandits They Were Living Skeletons—Without Food Most of Time

By Associated Press.

Peking, China, Oct. 9.—Harrowing experiences of missionaries who fell into the hands of bandits under "White Wolf" at Tsao Yang, were told today in a dispatch from Rev. Christam Stockard of the Norwegian Mission.

"When the government troops entered Tsao Yang," said the dispatch, "Holm and Faulk were living skeletons. The children had been for ten days hidden under a heap of straw. For the first two days they were without food. Afterward it was obtainable, but the fugitives were without food for long periods. The bandits searched their hiding place, thrusting bayonets into the straw piles under which they were hiding, grazing the flesh of the fugitives."

SUCCESSFUL APPLICATION OF U. S. NEW PEACE POLICY

Santo Domingo, Oct. 9.—The American minister to the Dominican Republic, James W. Sullivan, has indicated the warring factions in this country to sign a peace pact and the revolution headed by General Horatio Vasquez against the government of Provisional President Jose Bordas Valdes is ended.

The American minister's action is the first successful application of the United States government's new Latin-American policy with regard to the Dominican republic, which is to the effect that the force of arms can never settle any question in this country.

Mr. Sullivan has made it known that the last civil war in this republic has been fought. In future any uprising, he says, will be stamped out as criminal without a conference being held between the opposing factions, the United States government supporting the constitutional authority against force, regardless of the merits of the issue. The people of Santo Domingo are being instructed that the remedy for future grievances lies in the free ballot at a future election.

The American policy, as announced by Mr. Sullivan, has been accepted joyously by all parties regardless of political affiliations.

The American minister arrived at Santo Domingo City from the United States Sept. 17 and immediately brought about an armistice between the rebels and the government troops fighting in the northern department.

Since then negotiations had been in progress continuously with the result that what promised to be the most sanguinary revolution in the history of the Dominican republic has been averted.

GASOLINE BURNED TO DRY BALL FIELD

Thirty-five Thousand Fans Swarmed Stadium Despite Heavy Clouds Threatening Rain.

Polo Grounds, New York City, Oct. 9.—The New York Giants and Philadelphia Athletics played the third contest of the world's championship series today. Thirty-five thousand persons, undiminished by a constant threat of heavy rain, swarmed the stadium to see the struggle. Ten thousand were in line when the gates were opened this morning.

The first to enter was David Jones of Scranton, Pa. He got in line at 3 a. m., only to collapse from exhaustion later. When other fans learned under what circumstances he gave up his place, they insisted that he be given it back when he recovered. This was done.

A soggy, drenched field was presented this morning. Gasoline was burned on the paths to dry them and the outfield was sponged dry, but the grounds remained too soggy for fast play.

KENTUCKY GIRL KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Five Others, All Prominent, Injured When Car Turned Turtle in Covington.

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Miss Bright Kelly, aged 22, a society girl of Covington, Ky., was killed and two other girls and three men injured when their touring automobile turned turtle. The injured are: Brent Arnold Jr., Polk Laffon, R. D. Meacham, Miss Emily Woodall and Miss Linora Gooch. All are prominent. Miss Gooch is the daughter of the late Congressman Gooch of Kentucky.

REBEL OUTRAGES AT TORREON

SPANIARDS PARTICULARLY ARE SUBJECTS OF REPRISALS BY CONSTITUTIONALISTS

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Oct. 9.—Reports of attacks on Spaniards at Torreon by the victorious constitutionalists have been received here, but no estimates were available as to the number of Spaniards killed.

A Monterey newspaper of yesterday, which is regarded as a government organ, said that passengers reaching Monterey from Torreon reported sixteen persons executed before they left, some of these victims being Spaniards. This paper gave as the time of the taking of Torreon Oct. 5, instead of Oct. 3, as earlier reported.

These passengers arriving at Monterey said Spaniards were held for ransom by a rebel captain and released when they paid it. This captain was executed by his commander, General Villa, for setting his prisoners free.

ATHLETICS WIN IN THIRD GAME OF SERIES—SCORE EIGHT TO TWO

Bush Pitched a Masterly Game for Athletics and Connie Mack's Famous Batters Looked After the Rest.

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Connie Mack sent Bush, second-string pitcher and a castoff of the Boston Americans, in against New York today and the youngster proved the wisdom of the choice by holding the Giants to five hits and pitching a peerless brand of ball for a world series game.

Philadelphia batsmen fell on Teasreau, McGraw's box offering in the first two innings, for enough hits to put the game on ice, but the Texan lasted until the seventh when he was relieved by Crandall. It was Philadelphia's day. The infield went off again in form after yesterday's looseness and fast sharp fielding saved more than one run. Schang, after permitting three base runners to steal, partially redeemed himself by a home run to deep right.

The Athletics hammered the young Texan through the seventh inning in the opening frame and added five more at intervals in the later innings. The day was bright and clear and the field was dry and fast, with 40,000 spectators crowded into the big concrete stadium to watch the fray.

Today's victory of Athletics over two games to New York's one and there is already speculation as to whom Mack will work tomorrow. Many believe that Bender, who has had two days' rest, will be sent in, while McGraw has his choice of Urmarek, Fromme and Marquard.

The performance of Bush today was remarkable in many respects. It was the first time the youngster had appeared in a world's series, and when the first few innings passed and he seemed still steady, those were many who predicted that he would not last the full distance. Yet inning after inning drifted past and still he never wavered, pitching a class of ball that stands out as one of the bright features of the game.

HILL ADDRESSED BANKERS' CONVENTION

Railroad Magnate Emphasizes Necessity For Better Co-operation With Farmers

Boston, Oct. 9.—Reports of committees, formal consideration of invitations for the next convention, communications from the executive council and a report of the committee on nominations with addresses by Joseph Chapman, vice president of the Northwestern National Bank, of Minneapolis, and James J. Hill, St. Paul's railroad king, were included in today's program for the closing sessions of the thirty-third annual meeting of the American Bankers' Association. The meetings were held today in Symphony Hall.

Vice President Chapman's address followed the report of the committee on agricultural developments and education. James J. Hill took for his subject "Agriculture in the United States." He emphasized the necessity for better co-operation between bankers and farmers if the agricultural interests are to continue to develop in ratio proportionate to the development and growth of other business of the United States. A radical change in the present system of loaning money to farmers, declared the veteran railroader and financier, is absolutely essential to the future success of agriculture.

Dr. George S. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, followed James J. Hill with an address on "The Tendency Toward Practical Education," and Sam Jordan of Pettacon, Mo., closed the symposium on agriculture with an address on "The County Agent." This afternoon the newly elected officers were formally installed and the convention adjourned sine die. Immediately following the new executive council met for organization at the Copley-Plaza Hotel.

DIFFERENTIALS' REPEAL THE BEST WAY OUT

Objection to Clause of New Tariff Law to Be Remedied by Congress.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Repeal of the five per cent differential in the new tariff bill against which many foreign nations have protested, lined up today for passage by congressional leaders, was blocked temporarily by the fight to get a working quorum.

Leaders Underwood and Simmons were agreed that a repeal was the best way out of a foreign tangle, and that view was said to have the approval of the White House.

WORK STARTED ON NEW TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

F. H. Crites of Kansas City, Awarded Contract and Work Begun Thursday

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia—Murphy started the inning with a single to right field. Oldring's grounder forced Murphy at second. Oldring being safe at first. Collins cut loose a smash to right field that scored Oldring and landed Collins on third base, whence he scored a minute later on Baker's single to center field. Crandall was sent in to pitch for New York and retired McInnis on a liner to second that enabled Doyle to pull off an unassisted double, he touching Baker. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

New York—Shaffer began New York's half of the seventh with a drive for a pair of sacks, the ball going to deep left, and Murray brought him in with a hard single. Wilson struck out, letting golden opportunity slip by, and Murray died when he tried to piffle second. Bush gave Merkel four bad ones and he walked, Witte being sent in to run for him. Crandall went out on a grounder to second. One run, two hits, no errors.

Philadelphia—Witte went in in Merkel's place at first. Strunk died, pitcher to first. Barry met the same fate. Schang, with the bases empty, uncorked a long one to deep right and beat the ball back in home. Bush

AGED MAN DROPPED DEAD HERE WEDNESDAY

Charles V. Hupf, Aged 72, Stricken With Apoplexy at Home of W. H. Holder

While working at some chores in the yard at the home of W. H. Holder, 1316 Seventeenth street Wednesday evening Charles Valentine Hupf, aged 72 who has made his home with the Holder family for the past twelve years, fell dead from a stroke of apoplexy. Neighbors saw him fall and went to his assistance to find him dead.

The dead man was not related to the Holder family but has been given a home by them ever since he came to them without friends or money a dozen years ago. He was thoughtful and kind with members of the family who thought a great deal of the old man.

He is said to have had a sister in New York State but letters addressed to her remained unanswered. He had an interest in a small estate in Beaumont. His funeral will take place Friday being delayed for the arrival of Mrs. Holder who has been visiting relatives out of town.

ARCHER CITY'S DAM GOES OUT AGAIN

Heavy Rain Last Night Resulted in Break in Reservoir Dam Wasting Water Supply

Archer City, Texas, Oct. 9.—A two inch rain fell here last night, and for the second time this year the dam at the city reservoir went out, losing about 12,000 gallons of water. The first time the dam broke was in May of this year.

Owing to the bursting of the reservoir dam, the gin will be forced to have its supply of water hauled in order to finish ginsling for the season.

ANOTHER RAIN HERE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Damage From Mail Reported in Counties Northwest of Here—No Damage Here.

About half an inch of rain fell here last night, starting about 5 o'clock and continuing at intervals far into the night. It was accompanied by a vivid display of lightning and a brisk wind, but no damage was done in this county, so far as known. In other sections of Northwest Texas there was some damage by hail reports, but Wichita county appears to have escaped.

Reports were in circulation last evening that Vernon and Quanah had experienced damaging storms, but it appears that neither of these communities received visitations more severe than that in this city, save for some hail at Vernon. This morning the temperature here was appreciably lower, but this afternoon the weather was somewhat warmer.

HOO-HOO'S HERE IN BIG FORCE

MEMBERS OF LUMBERMEN'S ORDER GATHER FOR CONCATENATION

STREET PARADE AT 7:00

Cars Will Be Taken For Lake Wichita at 7:30 O'clock For Intention

Members of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo from points scattered over Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and even some from Missouri are gathering here today for a concatenation opening this afternoon and extending into the night. With the members are coming a large number of "kittens," who will be initiated into the order tonight at an assembly to be held at Lake Wichita, where a banquet will be spread.

Nearly a hundred visiting lumbermen are in the city, some being delayed until late this afternoon in their arrival by delayed passenger trains. Among the visiting lumbermen are some high in Hoo-Hoo ranks, including R. A. Finley of Oklahoma City, vice-governor of the Western Oklahoma district; E. G. Bower of Dallas, affectionately known among the lumbermen as the "Little Shooter"; and Charles P. Walker of Oklahoma City, former member of the Supreme Nine.

AMBER SPECTACLES BEST TO KEEP OUT SUNLIGHT

The wearing of spectacles to protect the eyes from the glare of the sun is a very old custom. The natives of the far Northern regions long ago invented spectacles of wood, with a very narrow slit in the center, to diminish as far as possible the continual snow glare of the long Arctic day. It is said that the Emperor Nero, who was an albinic, and whose eyes were therefore very sensitive to light, used amethyst or emeralds to shield his eyes. Today the use of tinted glasses is very common, but unless the glasses are wisely chosen more harm than good may result.

In the first place, the shape of the glasses is often wrong. Curved or "toric" glasses ought not to be worn except by direction of an oculist, for they are irregularly refractive, and sometimes cause a great deal of eye strain. Unless tinted glasses are made especially from an oculist's prescription, they should be perfectly plane on both surfaces, and equally thick throughout.

The color of the glasses is also important. You will find both blue and smoked glasses in the shops, but both, especially the first, are open to objection. Colored spectacles are meant to shield the eyes from the actinic or chemical rays of the sun, but not to cut off the light rays so that it will be hard to read or to see small objects. Blue glasses do not cut off the chemical rays at all, for those rays are at the violet end of the spectrum. Smoked glasses, on the other hand, often cut off so much light that reading with them is like reading by twilight. Sometimes green glasses are worn. They are better than blue, but they are not wholly satisfactory. Red glass excludes the actinic rays completely, but it is dark, and red light is often irritating to the nervous system.

Yellow, or rather amber glasses, are now the best. They cut off almost all the chemical rays and admit light enough for easy vision. They make a dark day seem brighter, and soften the glare on a sunny day. Unless the oculist prescribes some other color for a special purpose, wear "window glass" spectacles of not too deep an amber color.—Youth's Companion.

An Open Letter on Butter-Nut Bread

For several days past I have had to refuse to send my customers hot Butter-Nut Bread, and I want to explain why I have had to do this.

In deciding to put out the Butter-Nut Bread, I did so only after the most thorough examination into its quality, and upon being convinced that the ingredients in it were the best that could be put into any loaf of bread. In the study of methods employed in the best bakeries of the United States, I also became convinced that the only sanitary method of handling bread was to wrap it in an airtight, dustproof, waxed wrapper. To this end I installed machinery to wrap and seal the loaves, so that it was never touched by hand from the time it went into the oven until it was put on the table to be eaten. I made Butter-Nut Bread out of ingredients that cost nearly twice as much as the ordinary loaf of baker's bread, but I made just one mistake. I tried to deliver it to my customers hot.

Now, in the nature of things, one cannot wrap a hot loaf of bread in an airtight wrapper and have it come out good. The chemical process that takes place in the cooling of bread after it is baked makes it imperative that it lie in the open air until cooled, else it becomes soggy, just the same as if it were confined in an airtight bread box before cooling.

For this reason I have decided in the future not to deliver Butter-Nut Bread while it is hot, and those who desire it hot from the oven should come to the store and get it before it is wrapped. In this way I believe I can serve the people of Wichita Falls with the best bread that was ever turned out of any bakery, and I know it will reach my customers in the most sanitary and healthful manner possible. It will be on sale in all of the leading grocery stores of this city, and will always be fresh and pure. Give it a trial.

Cotton Farmers Wanted At Blessing, Matagorda, Texas

In the rain belt of the Gulf Coast country. We want "Actual Settlers," who will raise cotton, corn and hogs. These crops are money-makers. We will let you have what land you can handle on

Ten Years' Time
10 Per Cent Cash, 10 Per Cent Each Year, 6 per Cent Interest

Mr. Renter, these terms or payments, are less than rent you are now paying, and you own the land, too. This is strictly a development proposition between the owner of the land and the settler. The best opportunity you will ever have to come to Blessing, Matagorda County. Rich, sandy loam soil, 42-inch rainfall, good drainage, artesian water, graded highways, two railroads, good market, fine school and church privilege. No malaria. Big crops. Get wise to Matagorda County and you'll be prosperous. North Texas cotton farmers are locating every week. We want more good farmers.

Cheap excursion in a few days. Don't miss it. This is your chance to be one of us. It will pay you to see me at once.

Song.
Stay, stay at home, my heart and rest;
Home-keeping hearts are happiest.
For those that wander they know not where
Are full of trouble and full of care;
To stay at home is best.

Wearied and homesick and distressed,
They wander east, they wander west
And are baffled and beaten and blown about
By the winds of the wilderness of doubt.
To stay at home is best.

Then stay at home, my heart and rest
The bird is safest in its nest;
O'er all that flutter their wings and fly
A hawk is hovering in the sky;
To stay at home is best.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

JONES-WAGGONER WEDNESDAY

Wednesday at high-noon in the presence of many friends and relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Waggoner, their daughter, Alice, became the bride of Lester Jones. Preceding the ceremony Miss Bonhard sang "O, Perfect Love," accompanied by Mr. Durland. The ribbon girls, little Misses Crystelle Waggoner and Bernice Walker, cousins of the bride, preceded the wedding party. The bride attended by her sister, Miss Cora Lee Waggoner came down the stairs to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. Durland and were met by the groom and his attendant, Burton Stoyton. The party proceeded to the double doors where the beautiful ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Hill. The youthful bride was most attractively gowned in a going away suit of mahogany with hat to match. She carried a conventional bride's shawl bouquet. Her attendant, Miss Cora Lee Waggoner, was charmingly attired in blue crepe material with black picture hat and arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The Waggoner home was most beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, palms and cut flowers. The punch-bowl was in a veritable crown of ferns and roses and might have been served to the guests before departing. The array of presents was one of the most handsome displays of wedding gifts ever seen in this city. A large table was completely covered with beautiful cut glass and numerous other lovely gifts at testing the popularity of the young people. After receiving the many hearty congratulations of the assembled guests, the bride and groom slipped away to their honeymoon, where a tax was in waiting and were halfway to the station before their absence was discovered. They were quickly followed, however, by a number of young people and left for their honeymoon amid showers of rice.

Both of the contract parties are well known young people and very popular. The wedding was the happy culmination of a friendship of school days, both bride and groom being members of the graduating class of 1910 of the Wichita Falls high school. The bride is a most popular young woman and an excellent musician. The groom is a young business man of sterling worth and is highly respected. They both have many warm friends who join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Jones all possible happiness in their married life and who rejoice that they will continue to make their home in this city.

MRS. FRED THOMPSON TO GIVE CONCERT OCT. 30

Mrs. G. Fred Thompson will give a concert under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church, October 30, at the Wichita Theatre. She will be assisted by Mrs. Bruce Greenwood, violinist, Mrs. E. L. Fulton, soprano and Mesdames A. B. Huff and Vonder Lippe, pianists.

NEW MISSIONARY SOCIETY ORGANIZED

A missionary society was organized at a meeting of the Berea Class of the First Christian Church Wednesday afternoon. The society is to meet weekly and much interest is being manifested in the new work undertaken. The class was entertained by their most interesting teacher, Mrs. Lillian M. Gray, and after plans were laid for the future, delicious refreshments were served to members of the class as follows: Misses Irah Connor, Louise Kennedy, Helen Shields, Ruth Heath, Audrey Gibson, Irma Wheeler, Edna Mooneyham, Sybil Moore, Goldie Tyson and Mesdames R. D. Lee and C. E. Joyce and the hostess, Mrs. Gray.

MRS. BURNSIDE HOSTESS TO NEW CENTURY CLUB

The New Century Club had as its guest Miss Bertha Hutchins of Fort Worth, at the meeting Wednesday with Mrs. D. J. Whitney. The club members gathered at the home of Mrs. S. H. Burnside and were transported to the Whitney place, several miles out of town in automobiles. The following program was carried out during the course of the afternoon: Roll Call—Sayings from Poor Richard. The Growth of Government Leaders—Mrs. Addicks. Forms of Government—Mrs. Adams. Beginning of American Literature—Mrs. Barnard. Reading from Washington Irving—Mrs. Burnside. Miss Bertha Hutchins, who is president of the Thursday Book Club of Fort Worth, gave a most interesting little talk on that club's work. Mes-

James Gardner and George Harrington were elected members. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess. The following members were present: Mesdames Addicks, T. P. Adams, Barnard, Burnside, Grisham, Guest, Kelly, Lee, Lynch, Montsomy, McGregor, Slik, Salder, Smith, Watts and Wade Walker. Visitors were Misses Alice Burnside and Jeanette Walker.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB CHANGES NAME

At this season's initial meeting of the former Wednesday Bridge Club with Mrs. H. O. Cravens as hostess, Wednesday afternoon the name of the club was changed to the New Bridge Club and the meetings will be held on Friday. There were three tables of players and the favor for high score, a book entitled "The Card Player's Book" went to Mrs. E. P. Greenwood. After the series of games the players adjourned to the dining room and were served to a most delicious luncheon, consisting of a salad course, Grand marnch and Swedish cakes. Several new members joined the club. Members present were Mesdames Cullinan, Dant, Harrington, E. Greenwood, E. L. Smith, Frank Griffin, T. B. Smith, Strub Moore, Duval, Hieck, R. E. Huff and Miss Strie Dept.

Mrs. R. P. Webb was a visitor in his city over Sunday.

Mrs. M. D. Hanford of Fort Worth, visited Mrs. D. J. White the first of the week.

Mesdames D. J. White and W. H. Hanford spent Wednesday visiting in Henrietta.

By an error the report of the First M. E. Ladies Aid stated $7000 had been raised in the past year. It should have read $1000.

THE "WIRELESS EYE" LATEST INVENTION

It Will Enable Navigators To Scan Seas About Them at Night

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—If the "wireless eye" does all that M. G. Blum says it will do, navigation is on the eve of just such another revolution as it experienced with the discovery of the wireless telegraph. In the opinion of seafaring men who have examined the "eye" with which its inventor, S. Spitz, is experimenting at Vallejo, Blum and W. E. Ride are announcing the invention and have taken out twenty-seven patents on it.

The instrument, which works only at night, reflects on a mirror moving pictures of everything within a radius of several miles. It receives its impression from a web of wire directed on a tall mast. It is useless by daylight, however, for the reason that the wires register only the "night" rays.

The navigator of a ship so equipped could see on the darkest night the surface of the ocean all about him," said Blum. "He could observe other ships approach or the proximity of rocks, shoals or icebergs. A coastward-bound vessel could see an enemy's scout approaching long before the search had found what they were seeking."

"During a recent test at Vallejo the observers saw in the mirror the ships on the river, the railroad train passing up and down the valley, people walking about and even the sea-eries packing their bags on the island. Spitz was formerly a wireless expert on Mare Island.

Lockhart—A. W. Jordan, a farmer living four miles east of this city, has successfully grown dry climate long staple cotton on his farm this year. The staple measures from an inch and a half to three quarters of an inch and is of the highest quality from the department of agriculture at Washington.

DALLAS BRICKLAYERS GET HIGHEST WAGES

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 9.—Bricklayers and plasterers received the highest wages if any class of union labor in this city during 1912, according to a report just issued by the bureau of labor statistics at Washington. The scale is 75 cents per hour and the average number of hours per week in 1912 was 44, making an earning of $33.00. The lowest scale for union labor is for bakery employes, which ranges from 15 to 20 cents per hour.

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR" PLEAS

SEASON'S INITIAL OFFERING AT WICHITA THEATRE DELIGHTED CAPACITY HOUSE

SOME GOOD PORTRAYALS

Unpleasant Theme Handled Artistically By Cast of More Than Ordinary Talent

The Wichita Theatre opened the 1913-14 season last night with "Bought and Paid For" as the initial offering, before a capacity house. The production seemed to find favor with Wichitans and in spite of the bad weather and the trouble that many experienced in getting home, the opening was a decidedly auspicious one.

"Bought and Paid For" deals with a poor girl who marries a rich man; she quits him because he acquires the habit of coming home tanked; eventually, with the assistance of an ivorystep brother-in-law he is reconciled. No deep problems to worry over, no tragedy to weep over, no thrill to get excited over. Just as simple as the story of Pinocchio and the street car.

The production devotes three acts to getting you all riled by its sense of being a decidedly suspicious case.

It prepares you for anything from suicide and murder on up and then ring down the curtain on a wind up so tame it could cut out of your hand. The conclusion was brought out about as obviously and patently as that of a dollar musical comedy; after which, nothing more need be said.

The aforesaid brother-in-law, and his wife and a Jap servant, furnish the piece with its comedy, which was refreshing and relieving. The principal male part, that of Robert Stafford, was carried by George Macmurrie. His part was not a difficult one except in the second act where he comes home with the bun; instead of exaggerating his drunkenness it seemed that he seemed to forget at times that he was supposed to be illuminated; he went far enough, however, to make the scene as unpleasant as its author intended.

James Gilley as Hobart Cavanah, Stafford's brother-in-law, performed quite cleverly in the role of the comely simperton. The part of the Jap alet was taken by Clyde Crawford. His portrayal was good, but if it looks like that, we don't blame California.

Helena MatKeller as Virginia Blane, the married Stafford, is a pretty little thing whose looks and manners

Wichita Falls, Texas, Oct. 9, 1913

Never allude to a favor after it has been conferred. By doing so, if an obligation has been incurred, the same is canceled.

Here is the Athlon Globe's definition of an optimist: A hopeful citizen who takes a skillet with him to fry fish he has not caught.

The great state fair of Texas opens at Dallas Oct. 13. Of course, all of us expect to visit Dallas between the time the fair opens and closes. It is a great thing for Dallas and Texas.

The Corsicana Democrat and Truth puts it this way: "To bond or to bog, that is the question. Let us take all the towns of Texas out of the mud." The same can be said of this city. Our streets, outside the paved district, are in worse condition than for years. The city officials are helpless to remedy matters to any considerable extent. The larger a city grows, the more its streets are used, and the more money it will take to keep them in repair. Wichita Falls Times sees it, she must adopt that new plan and put it to work as soon as possible.

A few years ago the scarlet women of Dallas were driven into a reservation. A district was set aside for them and they were warned by the police authorities to keep within the pale. Many of these women invested in homes and are the owners of dwellings which they occupy. It was charged at the time that real estate dealers who owned land in the territory designated were responsible for the abolition of the old district and the selection of the new site. Now these women have been notified by Judge Robert E. Seay that they shall be given thirty days to vacate their residences before the county attorney proceeds to abolish same. There will come a slump in the property values but no inquiry will be shown the scarlet sisterhood. The hand of every man is turned against them, and yet men are responsible for their fall and placed them in the district set aside as the home of Babylon's daughters. A mad wife is shown about the same degree of leniency as is extended by society to a woman who has fallen into the mire. A pet dog is given better treatment and shown far greater consideration. For the woman who has stepped aside from the narrow path to walk in the primrose path of dalliance she is given hell here and is promised hell in the hereafter. With a man it is different. He can take a Turkish bath, order a tailor made suit, announce a willingness to reform, confess repentance for his sins and he is taken by the hand and lifted to high place in church and society. This is a blunt way of telling the story, but it is the truth and men who are not hypocrites are aware of the fact. The scarlet women will be driven from their homes in the segregated district in the city of Dallas. They will be scattered to the four quarters of the globe. But the makers of scarlet women will continue to hold high their heads, retain the confidence of their fellows, especially if they have money and position, and the old world will jog along as it has jogged for ten thousand years.—Fort Worth Record.

DEMOCRACY'S DAY OF TRIUMPH. [Houston Chronicle.] The Democratic party has kept the faith. It has redeemed its pledge made at Baltimore fifteen months ago that the tariff, by means of which the few fattened at the expense of the many, should be revised downwards. It has proved to the world that a pledge made in a party platform is not "mere wind and fury, signifying nothing," but a solemn compact made with the people which honor and duty alike demanded should be kept—and kept it was most solemnly.

It is the work not of congress alone, but of the President as well. He assumed the leadership of his party. He interpreted his election as a behest from the people that he should so do, and he led without stepping beyond that invisible line which constitutionally divides two co-ordinate departments of the government. It was a masterful leadership because a man with brains and courage and conscience and a clear conception of political, patriotic and moral obligations sits in the presidential chair.

Oct. 3, 1912, and 9 o'clock at night, will hereafter stand in the calendar as an eventful day, because it marks the birth of a new freedom—the deliverance of the producing millions from the bondage of economic oppression.

The gathering in the White House, when the President affixed his approval of the decree of emancipation from the tyranny of Payne's system of national taxation was historic and worthy to have been perpetuated on enduring canvases.

The first fight for the people has been won, and the way is made easier for the winning of the next great fight which is necessary to deliver the people from financial bondage.

The Democratic party has staked its fortunes on the issue of the tariff battle. Upon it rests the responsibility. If its work prove wise the glory will belong to it. If it prove unwise it will be held accountable to the people. With confidence a triumphant democracy awaits the issue.

CHANGE OF SENTIMENT INDICATED. [Denison Herald.]

The commission form of government has been awaited several times of late. Wherever the people have had a chance at it, especially after the system has been tried, it has been rejected. The Wichita Falls Times inquires:

Was Wichita Falls the leader in a popular reaction against the commission form of government? This question arises when we read the news that on Tuesday Minneapolis rejected a commission charter by a vote of more than two to one, and that several days ago Corsicana voted to surrender her special charter. These items following the news that petitions are on file at Tulsa and Oklahoma City for elections to vote on the question of returning to an aldermanic form of government indicate that from now on the people will move slowly in changing the form of municipal government.

But there are others who think the commission control is all right and wherever fault is to be found, the trouble is with the officers chosen under it and not with the principle involved, as witness the following from the Weatherford Herald:

The trouble with those towns and cities having the commission form of government, and wherein the newspapers are inclined to belittle the form, seems to be they have put the wrong set of men into office. There is nothing the matter with the principle; it's the men who have been selected to manage. Many a good plan has been ruined by bad management. Galveston was the first city in the world to adopt a commission form of government. After proceeding under its charter for a short time, it applied to the legislature for a modification of it and provided for an increase in the number of commissioners which resembles more an aldermanic form of government than it does a commission government. Dallas is now wrestling with the problem through a revision committee and it is reasonably certain that it will return to a representative government whenever it adopts a new charter. And so it goes. Commission management is not in keeping with the progressive slogan, "Let the people rule," and regardless of the wisdom of such a policy in municipal control and management, the voters have realized that it involves a complete surrender of the principle of a representative government and they will return to that form of government whenever opportunity is afforded though many of its abuses will not be tolerated, nor opportunity afforded by the law for a repetition of the evils against which the commission was adopted as a protest.

"ROBIN HOOD" MAY BE BROUGHT HERE

If Sufficient Encouragement Is Given Notable Operatic Production Will Be Engaged.

"Robin Hood," one of the largest and most notable operatic productions of the present day, may be presented in Wichita Falls on Nov. 1, according to advices received yesterday by Messrs. Marlow and Davidson, proprietors of the Wichita Theater, from New York City. The production has been offered and the offer will be accepted or rejected this afternoon. It will cost a minimum of $1,500 to bring this show here and the best seats will cost $2.50. This morning Messrs. Marlow and Davidson secured promises of a number of Wichitaans to take seats and if a sufficiently large number is secured, they will advise the agency this afternoon that Wichita Falls will do her share. A large number signed up for tickets and there are, of course, many who could not be reached today who would take advantage of the opportunity. The production would be the largest this city has ever seen and would go far towards establishing Wichita Falls as a good show town, if it can be secured. It brings eighty people, with special orchestra.

The Wichita Falls High School football team will leave tomorrow morning on a special car attached to a freight train, for Mineral Wells to meet the high school team of that city tomorrow afternoon. The game is the first of the season for the locals, and will be played in connection with the Palo Pinto Fair.

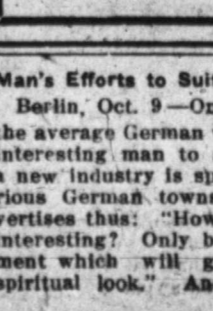

The Wichita Falls & Southern has made a rate of $3 for the round trip and a number of students probably will accompany the team. The team has been put through stiff practice by Coach Brant within the past two weeks and is said to be in good condition, ready to give a good account of itself at the health resort. There has been practice every day, instead of every other day as heretofore, and the players are hard and in good playing form. The first game at home will be played tomorrow week, with the Henrietta team.

Man's Efforts to Suit Woman's Fancy Berlin, Oct. 9.—On the theory that the average German woman prefers an interesting man to a handsome one, a new industry is springing up in various German towns. One firm advertises thus: "How can you become interesting? Only by using our ointment which will give you a wan, spiritual look." Another concern is reported to be doing a flourishing business providing imitation scars, such as decorate the cheeks of university students who indulge in student dueling. The firm advertises that it will produce the scars "without pain or interruption to business." Close resemblance to the real thing is guaranteed in the advertisements.

TRY A TIMES WANT AD

said the attorney. Ruth replied:

"Yes."
On cross examination Attorney Stuart pressed Ruth to describe further how Hampton acted when asked the second time concerning the whereabouts of the house. Ruth replied:

"Hampton acted and talked like he had been caught and wanted to get out. If he could have made a good explanation concerning the whereabouts of the house that would have ended the matter."

Attorney Stuart asked Ruth what Gus Thompson said after they left Commissioner Hampton's office. Ruth replied:

"Thompson said 'he looked like he was in a hole, didn't he?' to which I replied:

"Yes."

Civic Motives.

Ruth told the jury that he was prompted by civic motives in going to the city hall and inquiring about the house. Ruth said he was opposed to the commission form of government as administered in Oklahoma City, and also admitted that he and Mayor Whit M. Grant had recently gone to Texas, where they spoke on the commission form of government. Ruth said he spoke against the commission form of government and that Mayor Grant defended it. He testified that the house in question was worth $300 and that when he viewed the house it was on Mrs. Hampton's lots and on a foundation laid in 1907, and that the house was in a habitable condition. He said he had known Hampton for about two years and had nothing personal against the commissioner.

Before Ruth was placed on the stand Will Clark testified that he was park commissioner under the old form of government and was familiar with the appearance of the house while it stood upon the ground traversed by the boulevard.

R. E. Brownwell testified that he was at the head of the surveying department that made the survey of the boulevard around the city, and also testified a map showing where the house stood on the boulevard.

District Clerk Tom Kirby was placed on the stand and identified the papers filed in the condemnation proceedings instituted against the Schuman acres on which the house stood and which were subsequently traversed by the city boulevard.

ATTORNEY KILLED WALKING IN SLEEP

Frederick, Okla., Oct. 9.—F. W. Johnson, for five years county attorney of Tillman county, was killed in a fall from the third story of a local hotel here, when, at 3 o'clock in the morning, it is believed, he was walking in his sleep. No other theory can be advanced as there were no indications of suicide.

Johnson's wife and baby were in Snyder visiting her parents, and the attorney was staying in the hotel. The fall of the body aroused the night clerk, but Johnson was dead when found. The position showed that he had not dived out the window, as a person attempting suicide, probably would have done. It indicated that the man literally had walked through the window.

Johnson was county attorney from 1907 until 1913, serving two terms, and had a lucrative law practice. Funeral services will be held Tuesday and the body sent to Snyder for burial.

Coal Output Breaks All Records.
Bridgeport, Texas, Oct. 9.—In 1912 there were 2,188,612 tons of coal, valued at $3,655,744, taken from the Texas mines, breaking all previous records both in quantity and value. The average 89 cents per ton was $1.67, the bituminous running $2.31 and the lignite 89 cents per ton. The mines operated 230 days in 1912, and furnished employment to 5,127 persons. The Texas coal mines were practically free from labor troubles, there being only four instances of idleness from that cause in 1912. Only 238 men were affected, and the average number of days lost was 7.

Some of the principal producing mines are located in the vicinity of Bridgeport.

Attorney C. C. Huff went to Quannah on legal business this afternoon. T. B. Wilson was up from Mankins on business today. W. A. Freear went to Electra on business this afternoon. Mrs. C. E. Johnson returned this morning from Corpus Christi. M. Q. Wright returned to Dallas today after a visit with his brother, E. C. Wright. Harley Portwood, a ranchman from Seymour, was here on business this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tandy and wife of Dalhart, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nail of this city. Dr. Joanno Campbell has returned from a professional trip to Corpus Christi. Miss Nellie White of this city left yesterday for Dallas, where she will visit friends. Charles McFarland, a cattle man of Weatherford, is in the city today taking over a bunch of cattle which he recently purchased. Mrs. John Butts went to Fort Worth today to see a little grandson that was born to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Henry last night. Mrs. Dena Hart, Mrs. Robert Garvey, Mrs. Clayton Garvey and Miss Conner were here from Archer City today calling on friends. Mrs. L. W. Perham left this afternoon for Kansas City in response to a telegram saying that her brother was dangerously ill. M. W. Shriver, formerly of this city, but now located at Tulsa, where he has oil interests, is in the city today. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Mayer returned to their home in St. Louis today after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Loeb. Jess Braden of the T. H. Garrett Lumber Co., St. Louis, L. R. Norton of Amarillo, and P. F. Campbell, assistant sales manager of the Peavy and Brynes Lumber Co., of Shreveport, were among the early arrivals for the Hoo-Hoo Concatenation here this afternoon and tonight. C. A. and J. R. Greenlees, prominent operators in the Mid-continent field, are here to look after their interests in the Burk Burnett field. A little more than a year ago these two brothers cleaned up a nice fortune in the Burk Burnett district and they still retain some holdings there. C. A. Greenlees who lived here for some time while looking after their interests in the firm has been out on the Pacific Coast most of the time since leaving Wichita Falls.

KICKED OUT OF BED BY LINCOLN—PROUD OF IT

Indianapolis Man, 90 Years Old Today, Tells of Experience With Martyred President.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Kicked out of bed by Abraham Lincoln, a "distinction" which Dr. S. C. Richardson of this city enjoys, has not inferred with his health or his disposition. He is 90 years old today and says he will live to be a hundred.

How to live to be a hundred years old is Dr. Richardson's hobby. Here is how he says he is going to do it:
"Eat much less than ignorant appetite calls for.

"Chew what little you do eat with extreme care.

"Take a cold plunge every morning. Work every day whether you feel like it or not.
"Keep your mind clean as well as your body.
"Leave stimulants alone.
"Take regular mental and bodily recreation."

Besides his fight to vanquish old age—Dr. Richardson looks like a robust man of sixty—his pet hobby is Lincoln and the story of how Lincoln kicked him out of bed is his pet story. A remarkable diary covering eighty-five years and written from memory a few years ago relates many interesting incidents of his friendship with the martyred president. Dr.
Richardson met Lincoln at Charleston when the doctor was engaged in dentistry and in the early fifties.

"Mr. Lincoln came to my boarding house," writes Dr. Richardson, "and our acquaintance soon became close and friendly. Mr. Lincoln made Charleston his headquarters during important court sessions. When the city was very crowded Mr. Lincoln and I bunked together to accommodate our landlady. "On such occasions, 'Abe,' partook too much of extra strong corn beef and treasured honey cakes and other rambunctious dainties with inclinations toward nightmare. Suddenly he planted his No. 10's square in the middle of my back and knocked me out of the four poster to the center of the dingy bed room. Not to be outdone I tipped downstairs, drew a bucketful of water and dashed the water square in the snorting countenance of Abraham Lincoln. He slammed the door in my face and let me sleep on the rug just outside the door."

Working in connection with a government bureau, a commission named by one National medical and two electrical associations is endeavoring to decide definitely on the best method for resuscitation from electric shocks.

PRETTY SOFT FOR THESE THREE

McLEAN, FROMME AND GRANT WILL BE IN AT DIVVY OF
THE PURSE

HARD LUCK FOR AMES

Deal That Brought Luck For Three
Was Unkindly To Old Giant Guardman

Don't sing me a lullaby, mother,
Don't close the nursery door;
Don't kiss me and rock me and soothe me,
But, mother, please tell me the score.

Has Baker swung yet at a wide one?
Has he knocked one homer, or more?
I can't go to sleep now, mother.
Oh mother, please tell me the score.

And joined with the nursery wailing,
This question comes to the fore,
From club and freiside and barnyard,
Will someone please tell me the score?

New York, Oct. 9.—Our ingrained, double riveted, concrete bound, hermetically sealed idea of something pretty soft is the cruel fate which this year overtook Thirdbaseman Grant, Pitcher Arthur Fromme late of the Cincinnati Reds, and Larry McLean, onetime catcher for the Reds and afterwards of the St. Louis cardinals. Saying Reds and Cardinals brings visions of the tail-end of the National League race, but McLean, Fromme and Grant are among those present at the daily combats between the Giants and Athletics and will be in on the grandy divvy of the money.
Look it over.

Grabbed off from the tail end teams during the season and planked right down in the midst of one of the finest little collections of world's series money a ball player ever gazed upon—if the Giants win McLean, Fromme and Grant stand to have between $3,000 and $4,000 yet to be handed over to them. In the meantime, one might look around and discover Leon Ames. At the beginning of this season Ames and Larry Mathewson were the only members of the "Old Guard" of the Giants.

Mathewson, the only guardman left now, it may be recalled that Ames was traded to Cincinnati in the deal which brought Fromme to the "Great White Way." It will be a strange winter without the usual contribution from the Grand Old Tussle for Leon.

"Old Doc" Crandall might have been led out in the cold by being skidded to St. Louis when McLean was brought on here had it not been for a terrible yell from all corners of the immediate territory surrounding McGraw. Crandall is almost an instant. When McGraw sent him to St. Louis along with some cash which Mrs. Helene Hathway Robinson Britton might buy a new gown, rumors of insurrection, revolutionists, guerrilla warfare, bush whacking and whatnot began to come from the Glens camp. "Old Doc" was brought back in a hurry and was much in evidence today as one of those who will share in the spoils.

Young Shawkey, Athletic pitcher, hasn't any great will to register.
Shawkey was in the International League when the season opened. In the middle of things Connie Mack picked him. Now he comes in for the swag.

As one of the queer twists of baseball, but three of the players who battled for Mack and McGraw in the series between the two teams in 1905 appear in the series this year. But these three are the mainstays of the contending managers. They are Bender and Plank, the hope of the Athletics in the box, and Mathewson, McGraw's star. McGraw won the championship in 1905 with Mathew-son, Coakley, McGinnity, Ames, Mc-Gann, Gilbert, Devlin, Dahlen, Mertes, Browne and Donlin. Mack had Bender, Plank, Powers, Shreck, Davis,
Murphy, Love, Monte Cross, Lord, Hartel and Seybold. Davis is now chief adviser to Mack but seldom gets in the game. Dan Murphy is a substitute. The regular outfielder named Murphy, now with the Athletics, carries the handle, Eddie with his name. Lord is with Boston and the rest have passed to the minors.
Of the Giants of 1905, Ames with Cincinnati; Dahlen, manager of Brooklyn; Devlin is to manage Oakland of the Pacific Coast League; Mc-Ginnity is managing Seattle in the Northwestern League; Donlin is now playing independent ball. The rest have passed on as do all players sooner or later.

There have been changes also since the 1911 series. Melanis is at first for the Athletics in place of Davis; Rube Oldring is the only outfielder of that time remaining.
Schabas probably do the bulk of the work behind the bat in place of Thomas hereafter. Among the Giants, Burns has taken the place of Josh Devore in left field. Shafer took Herzog's place at third for the greater part of the season, but the slaters value in a world's series may put him back on third at any time as a fix-ture.

pocan hunting permitted on land under my control. W. M. Coleman

HOW LOCAL FANS FOLLOW GAMES

PLAY BY PLAY EVERY DETAIL OF PLAY IS CLICKED FROM WIRE

HOPES RISE AND FALL

Gloom or Joy Prevails As Operator Calls Out Play From Wire Direct to Grounds

"Ball one! Strike two! He's out, fly to left field."

Two hours ago, in Wichita Falls, but the game is played in New York or Philadelphia, some two thousand miles away. A second or two after Matty's arm whirled and sent a straight one across the plate, the fans here in Wichita Falls knew it.

A leased wire from Dallas, and from that city direct to the ball parks in New York and Philadelphia, supplies the fans here with information.
There is but one "relay" it being at Dallas; the Dallas office is connected direct with the baseball parks themselves. A number of local fans arranged for the service, which is received at the office of the Wichita Brick Company.

Practically every ball and strike called upon a batter is reported and within a very few seconds after something happens, it is known. It is interesting to watch the faces of the long distance fans at some crucial point in the game; a runner on third, two strikes and three balls on the batter. Then the wire clicks a click or two. "Struck out," says the operator, and joy or gloom prevails, according to which side the news favors.

New York seems to be a decided favorite among local fans and there was much happiness yesterday when "Big Six" pitched the Giants to victory. "But Philadelphia's supporters are numerous, too, and these had their inning Tuesday. The patrons cheer and applaud almost as enthusiastically as if they were at the game.

One prominent Wichitan was "watching Wednesday's game, being a thirty-second degree fan, when the phone rang for him.

"Long distance from Altus wants you right away," said his office.
"Tell Altus to go to the devil," said the fan, as he settled back in his chair and lit another cigar.

STATES OBSERVE FIRE PREVENTION DAY

Anniversary of Great Chicago Fire Made Occasion For Prevention of Fires

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—Throughout Indiana and several other Middle Western States "Fire Prevention Day" is being formally observed today. The date is peculiarly appropriate. Forty years ago today the disastrous Chicago fire in which more than 300 lives were lost, $200,000,000 property damage done and 17,450 buildings destroyed, started when Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over an oil lamp in a stable in the outskirts of the city.

Fire drills were held today in every public school in the state, premises were inspected and drills held in thousands of factories. The day was observed as "Fire Prevention Day" by proclamation of the governor. It will be an annual event.

Clean-Up Day in Missouri.
Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 9.—A general clean up of rubbish and other materials which might cause fires is going on throughout Missouri today in observance of the governor's proclamation naming the anniversary of the Chicago fire as "Fire Prevention Day."

Observance in Ohio.
Columbus, O., Oct. 9.—Today the forty-second anniversary of the great Chicago fire is official "Fire Prevention Day" in Ohio, having been so designated in a proclamation recently issued by Governor Cox. Methods of fire prevention today were discussed in schools throughout the state and by various civic bodies at the request of the governor.

Texas Observes Day.
Austin, Texas, Oct. 9.—Today was observed generally throughout the United States as fire prevention day and much effective work, especially in Texas, was done. In several of the Texas cities uniformed firemen made short talks to the children in public schools, impressing them with the dangers of fire, and the necessity of fire prevention. The State fire marshal and his staff, with the cooperation of the Texas press, also accomplished splendid results by a systematic campaign for fewer fires.

Since December 10, 1910 there has been 21,000 fires reported to the State fire marshal, and of this number 76 per cent have been preventable. Forty-three per cent of the total fires were dwellings mostly of frame structure. Thirty-six per cent were mercantile houses and twenty-one per cent special hazards and other classes.

There's Something to a Name
—When You Buy Shoes

When a man or woman buys a pair of shoes, they like to know something about the reputation of the maker.

When you buy a shoe with the SELZ trade mark stamped on it, you are getting the best shoe you can buy for the money, because that mark will not be attached to anything but a good shoe, and when it is placed there, a guarantee tag, that leaves no doubt, accompanies the shoe.

We don't believe you can get as strong a reason for buying any other shoe, that's why you ought to buy SELZ Shoes.

Last spring and summer when the crop prospects were good, we bought heavily—too heavily for our capital—of the finest line of fall and winter merchandise. The crops failed, but we must pay for the goods just the same, whether we make a cent or not. We are bound to keep our credit good with the manufacturers and wholesalers, and to do this we're to sacrifice the goods—slaughter the prices to a point where every man's dollar will do double duty—to a point where other merchants can buy of us and make a handsome profit; to a point where every man who raised a bale of cotton, or a bushel of wheat can make it buy twice as much merchandise.

ZIONISTS WILL SEEK TO DUST TOBACCU SMOKERS

Disciples of Dowle Carry Their Fight to Supreme Court of State of Illinois.

Zion City, Ill., Oct. 7.—Dowleites and anti-Dowleites in this city founded by the prophet, John Alexander Dowle, are primed for the battle to be fought before the state supreme court at Springfield, this month, by which Overseer Vollva hopes to purge Zion City of the vapors of nicotine.

Vollva will seek to oust the F. B. Cook electrical company and its tobacco smoking employees from Zion City on the ground that they violated their contract with the Dowleites by failing to employ the number of men specified in their contract, and by beginning operations twelve months after the specified date. This will be the technical objection raised by Vollva to the presence of the company on Zion City land. The real motive behind the fight is the fact that the electrical workers employed by the Cook company have persistently defied the Dowleite authorities in the enforcement of the ordinance forbidding tobacco smoking in Zion City.

For fifteen months, the elders of Zion City have sought in vain to convert the "heathen" electrical workers. They erected a little platform across the street from the plant and held religious meetings daily regardless of weather conditions. Street parades were an additional feature, the Dowleites descending upon the plant by hundreds, and several riots occurred. Two of the elders were beaten and lay at the point of death for several weeks but the daily meetings continued. The official press agent for Overseer Vollva paints the following picture of the daily meetings:

"There is a humorous and a pathetic side to this whole affair. Numerous when one sees the persistence of a handful of men and women against a hundred and more workers, and pathetic when one hears the prayers of the old people on the verge of the grave as they stand there with up-turned faces, crying to the Almighty to drive wicked men from their midst and to restore to them the building which was part of the city which they came from all parts of the world to build. More than once has the cry gone up 'How long, Oh God, How long,' and day after day they trudge down to their place of meeting across the street from the factory, like the Jews at the 'Weeping Wall' at Jerusalem, and the sight would wring the heart of an ordinary mortal."

Telephone evidence promises to play an important part in the trial. If the court is inclined to let down the bars and permit the whole row to be aired, the Cook people rigged up a giant dictaphone, with a huge funnel and placed it in such a manner that the horns collected the prayers and comments of the Zion elders, preaching across the street. These were transmitted by electric wires to a stenographer employed by the Cook company.

The Cook company stenographer caught the word "stink pot" addressed to a single worker in front of the factory several weeks ago. The company promptly obtained an injunction. The court held that the Dowle elders might address the whole of tobacco users as stink pots, but that it could not single out the Cook employes and address them by that name, if they hoped to preserve the peace.

AWARD OF PRIZES TO BE MADE FRIDAY

Boys and Girls Clubs Will Meet the Day After in Wichita Falls

The exhibit of farm products which was to have been held here last Saturday but which was postponed on account of the weather, will be held tomorrow at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, when prizes will be awarded for a great variety of agricultural specimens.

A large quantity of farm products has already been brought in for the exhibit and considerable more is expected by tomorrow.

On Saturday the members of the boys and girls clubs will meet at the Chamber of Commerce and will be the guests of that organization at dinner. J. W. Campbell, district agricultural agent, will be in charge of the young folks, a large number of whom are expected here for the occasion.

The exhibits collected will be taken to Dallas early next week by Secretary John W. Thomas of the Chamber of Commerce, who will arrange an attractive display. The exhibit will be in charge of J. T. Young of this city after the State Fair opens.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ATTEND FUNERAL

Automobiles Used to Convey Pupils of Fifth Grade to Funeral of Pearl Carter

The funeral of Pearl Carter, the thirteen year old girl who died Tuesday as the result of carbolic acid poisoning, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence. Dr. J. W. Hill officiated and the services were largely attended by friends of the girl and of her family.

The members of the fifth grade of the Austin school, in which the girl was enrolled, attended the funeral in a body, automobiles being provided to convey them to Riverside cemetery. The girl died Tuesday afternoon, having swallowed a large amount of carbolic acid late Monday evening.

AUTO POLO GAMES AT STATE FAIR

World's Most Sensational Sport to Feature Grandstand.

STARTS WITH ARGUMENT

H. A. Hankinson, Originator, Tells of Beginning of These Contests.

Dallas, Texas.—"Auto polo, a new game out of the West, will be played for the first time in the Southwest in front of the race track grandstand and at the coming State Fair of Texas which opens Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2," said President J. J. Eckford yesterday.

"Contract has just been closed for six machines and eighteen men, who will come to Dallas under the direction of H. A. Hankinson of Kansas City, Mo., the originator of the world's most sensational sport. It is declared that this game takes more human scurram, devil driving than any sport ever yet evolved by man, and the enthusiasm with which it has been greeted by thousands since the beginning of the year 1912, assures something out of the ordinary in an entertainment way at the coming fair. Those who have seen auto-polo played declare there is nothing extra thrill thrown in for good measure by other sports. The drivers that Mr. Hankinson will bring to Dallas are master hands and those who know anything of the art of driving an automobile can not fail to marvel at the rapidity with which turns are made."

Mr. Hankinson, who was in conference with the Fair management preliminary to closing the contract explained that auto-polo originated in an argument between two automobile salesmen as to which was the superior driver. "A race between the two salesmen was suggested," said Mr. Hankinson, "and their respective cars were stripped to the chassis. In driving over the boulevards of Kansas City in search of a good clear road in the country, free from obstacles or interference, a tin can which lay in the path of one of the drivers was struck by the front wheel of his machine. The judges accompanying the drivers and who were sitting on the running boards of the two small racers, began kicking this can from one side of the road to the other, each driver following as accurately as possible, his aim being to place his machine in such position alongside the can while in motion, thus offering a good opportunity for his partner to get a good kick at it. This was followed by a game of old fashioned shinny in which the can was very much battered and in which the contestants made a race to drive it away. This was originated what is now a National sport. The following day a basket ball of heavy material was purchased and an affair, field was selected as an arena. The thrilling spectacle that resulted consisted of those included in the possibilities of the sport."

After the initial contest daily practice exhibitions were held for a period of five months. Various young men were given opportunities to try out as team-mates for the drivers, to act as their mallet men. Many applicants for positions as mallet men were turned out after going through their daily practice those who were more adapted to this form of sport became accustomed to the awkward and dangerous positions of hanging on to the side of a small racing auto-polo car and wielding a heavy three-pound mallet while the car was going at full speed, said Mr. Hankinson. "In August, 1912, the first game was held in Kansas City and the third game drew an attendance of 5,000 people."

Mr. Hankinson explained that auto-polo is played in periods of ten minutes each, five periods constituting one game. In the event of a tie at the end of the fifth period, an extra period of periods may be added, until one end has scored a winning point over their opponent. The beauty of a contest of this sort is that no two games are alike. "Each one is entirely different from the preceding one," said Mr. Hankinson, "therefore much more interesting than automobile racing, aeroplaning, motorcycle racing or in fact most any other sensational form of amusement."

FARMERS' DAY AT FAIR

President Peter Radford Previews an Occasion of Unusual Interest.

Dallas, Texas.—Wednesday, October 23 will be Farmers' Day at the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas which begins Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2. Peter Radford, president of the Farmers' Union of Texas, and manager of the State Fair Commission, is in charge of the details as the day will be observed under the auspices of these two organizations. The purpose is to bring the farmers and real business men of the state together in a meeting of the real farmers and real business men of the state. "That is our aim and purpose and the two organizations which I represent will endeavor in every way to make the day a success from an attendance standpoint as well as from the benefit that will accrue to those taking part," said Mr. Radford.

Prominent men have been invited to take part in the program, among them Secretary David F. Houston of the United States Department of Agriculture. "We are very anxious to have Mr. Houston in attendance at the joint meeting of farmers and business men," said Mr. Radford, "and an address by Mr. Houston will be of intense interest to every practical farmer in the state."

Other prominent men who will take part in the program are C. S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union; L. M. Rhodes, president of the Farmers' Union of Tennessee; Judge S. A. Lindsay of Tyler, Tex., chairman of the Farm Life Commission; W. T. Lou-ermilk of DeLeon, Tex.; E. A. Calvin of Houston, Tex.; N. A. (Gus) Shaw of Texarkana, Tex.; Henry E. Webb of Cleburne, Tex.; Joseph Hirsch of Corpus Christi, Tex., chairman of the agricultural committee of the Texas Bankers' association, and ex-President Chamberlain of the Texas Bankers' association.

WICHITA INDIANS LONG IN SOUTHWEST

Spanish and French Explorers Found Them Here as Early as 1541—Then in Texas.

(By E. A. McMillan, in the Tulsa World.)

The Wichita Indians were the first known tribe to occupy Oklahoma as far as authentic history records. Coronado in 1541, in the New Mexico country known to his Indian guides as Quivira, became fairly well acquainted with the Wichitas who then inhabited the country between the Arkansas river and Oklahoma and as far north as Kansas.

From 1541 to 1719 but little is known of the Wichitas, except that Spanish and French explorers and missionaries visited them and found them hospitable and semi-sedentary in their habits.

In 1759 they had moved southward and occupied the country south of the South Canadian in the eastern part of the Old Chickasaw nation. At that time they had closed a long war probably with the Osages, and had taken a number of prisoners whom they were preparing to kill and eat, having already disposed of several in that way. Only one other historical incident is extant wherein a tribe occupying Oklahoma territory indulged in cannibalism. The Wichitas, however, neither before nor since have any record of indulging in such practices, rather has a history accorded them a place as a peaceful, sedentary race, given to agricultural pursuits and having developed considerable commercial ability.

The tribes of the north and east pushed the Wichitas below the Red river and for nearly eighty years they were buffeted about as the result of sanguinary contests between them and the Spaniards and Texans, the latter pushing them back into Oklahoma where they settled on the banks of the Washita.

They entered into a treaty with the United States government in 1837 and later moved to Fort Sill and thence to Rush Springs. The warlike Comanches caused their removal to Ft. Arbuckle, the belief being general that the Wichitas had been the cause of Major Van Dorn's attack upon the Comanches. At the opening of the Civil War they fled to Kansas and did not return till 1867, when they were placed on a reservation on the Washita river in Caddo county, where they have since lived.

QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS OF SILVER MINED IN 1912

Shafter, Texas, Oct. 9.—A bulletin just issued by the United States geological survey shows the total silver production of Texas in 1912 at 406,067 fine ounces, with a commercial value of $248,731. The bulk of the silver output is produced by the mine located in Presidio county, which has been active since 1884. This mine is opened by several shafts, the two principal ones being 400 and 700 feet deep and it also has 18 miles of underground workings.

As a tribe, though their long history has been one of defensive strife and turmoil, they have ever been considered agricultural and peaceful. They were communal in a marked degree. Their homes, sometimes, contained a score or more inmates. The house was conical and the beds placed on an elevated platform. The fire hole was in the center and the smoke hole near the apex of the thatched roof. The door holes faced east and west and near each but was found their arbors and dry racks. Even today members of the tribe use the ancient hut. Stone mantles for grinding corn were used and several are to be found today in our school museums, one very fine specimen being in the museum of the East Central State Normal at Ada. They sold their corn and other products to other tribes and their women were fairly well skilled in the making of pottery.

From the Wichitas, probably, several other tribes adopted their method of burial, that of placing the dead in the ground and erecting a small frame work of house over the grave, wherein the personal effects of the deceased were placed.

Their dance—similar to the Green Corn dance of other tribes—was the picturesque "Horn Dance." The great tribal event, which was looked forward to with intense interest, were the ceremonial races. Horse racing, foot racing and several feats of skill and speed called together the entire tribe, and the winners of the events were received with as much ceremony and elation as the winners of the Olympics of old.

Mooney says of them that "they are industrious, reliable and friendly in disposition." Less than 400 Wichitas reside in Oklahoma today.

fine ounces of silver have been taken from this mine. The commercial value of the output, since the beginning of operations, is more than seven million dollars.

WICHITA INDIANS LONG IN SOUTHWEST

Spanish and French Explorers Found Them Here as Early as 1541—Then in Texas.

(By E. A. McMillan, in the Tulsa World.)

The Wichita Indians were the first known tribe to occupy Oklahoma as far as authentic history records. Coronado in 1541, in the New Mexico country known to his Indian guides as Quivira, became fairly well acquainted with the Wichitas who then inhabited the country between the Arkansas river and Oklahoma and as far north as Kansas.

From 1541 to 1719 but little is known of the Wichitas, except that Spanish and French explorers and missionaries visited them and found them hospitable and semi-sedentary in their habits.

In 1759 they had moved southward and occupied the country south of the South Canadian in the eastern part of the Old Chickasaw nation. At that time they had closed a long war probably with the Osages, and had taken a number of prisoners whom they were preparing to kill and eat, having already disposed of several in that way. Only one other historical incident is extant wherein a tribe occupying Oklahoma territory indulged in cannibalism. The Wichitas, however, neither before nor since have any record of indulging in such practices, rather has a history accorded them a place as a peaceful, sedentary race, given to agricultural pursuits and having developed considerable commercial ability.

The tribes of the north and east pushed the Wichitas below the Red river and for nearly eighty years they were buffeted about as the result of sanguinary contests between them and the Spaniards and Texans, the latter pushing them back into Oklahoma where they settled on the banks of the Washita.

They entered into a treaty with the United States government in 1837 and later moved to Fort Sill and thence to Rush Springs. The warlike Comanches caused their removal to Ft. Arbuckle, the belief being general that the Wichitas had been the cause of Major Van Dorn's attack upon the Comanches. At the opening of the Civil War they fled to Kansas and did not return till 1867, when they were

Shafter, Texas, Oct. 9.—A bulletin just issued by the United States geological survey shows the total silver production of Texas in 1912 at 406,067 fine ounces, with a commercial value of $248,731. The bulk of the silver output is produced by the mine located in Presidio county, which has been active since 1884. This mine is opened by several shafts, the two principal ones being 400 and 700 feet deep and it also has 18 miles of underground workings.

Since the first mining 10,744,032

fine ounces of silver have been taken from this mine. The commercial value of the output, since the beginning of operations, is more than seven million dollars.
