CARTER COUNTY OIL PROSPECTS

NEW FIELD IN SOUTHERN OKLAHOMA GIVEN PROSPECT OF MAKING GOOD

SEVERAL WELLS DRILLING

Sand is Found at Comparatively Shallow Depth With Three Good Producing Strata

Since the Heidton well came in, Carter county has been in the spot light of oilmen for Southern Oklahoma. This well and the prospective field are twenty-nine miles from Ardmore. The nearest point on the railroad will be Ringling which will be about nine miles south of the field. At present the shipping point is Willson as the railroad is only completed that far, but it is the Ringling Bros. railroad and they are working on it and it will have it completed in time to take care of the shipments if the field comes up to the expectations. Contractors are wanting from $2.50 to $3.00 per foot and water and fuel furnished for drilling the wells.

These wells are completed at a depth of 918 feet, having three producing sands at 840 to 850-865 to 885 and 901 to 918 feet. This well looks good for at least 100 barrels natural per day. This is an approximate producing sand record of the Orthelwell No. 1 located in N. E. corner E. W. N. E. Sec. 8 4 S. 3 W. The new well is not run up to its capacity but is furnishing fuel for four drilling wells. Critchlow No. 2 on the S. E. corner of the southwest quarter section 5 4 S. 3 W. is in the sand. This well shows considerable regularity being substantially the same as No. 1. Both these wells show the same gas strata that is found at Oil City at a depth of 450 and 590. They are using a Braden head and are conserving the gas. The capacity is estimated at a million and one-half feet.

The Humble Oil Company is the next well expected in this well. It is located S. W. corner N. W. of N. W. 9 4 S. 3 W. This company has paid some pretty stiff prices for acreage in the field, one of which was $75 in cash and $75 in oil and a sixth royalty, half a mile west of Critchlow No. 2. It is the same old story—every one going wild and prices away out of proportion to the development. If your readers will remember an article written by the present writer that he forecasted the present field, not only that but commented very favorably on the present Oil City field.

The locations and drilling wells follow:

- Critchlow No. 1 N E Cor S W N E 8 4 S 3 W.
- Critchlow 2 S E Cor S W 14 5 4 S 3 W.
- Critchlow 3 N E Cor S E N W 17 4 S 3 W.
- Critchlow 4 N W Cor S W N W 21 4 S 3 W.
- Critchlow 5 N E Cor S W S W 29 4 S 3 W.
- Critchlow 6 N E Cor N W 14 8 4 S 3 W.
- John Dunn 1 Middle of S W N E 7 4 S 3 W.
- Humble Oil Co. 1 S W of N W N W 9 4 S 3 W.
- Humble Oil Co. 2 S E of S E 14 6 4 S 3 W.
- Hex Oil Co. 1 N W of S E 14 9 4 S 3 W.
- Corsicana 1 S E of S E N W 31 4 S 3 W.
- Crystal Oil Co. 1 S W of S E 14 5 4 S 3 W.
- Lacey et al 1 S W of S E 14 32 4 S 3 W.

Known parties are making three locations north and west of Hewitt which is a small town on the Ringling Bros. new railroad.

This has all the markers of a real new oil field and as the shallowness of the drilling is an item in cost of production it will appear to the one wise in the land that it is a very attractive place to play. The conditions are somewhat chaotic at this writing but by the next report matters will be pretty well in hand. What is reported herewith is absolutely correct and shows the energy with which Oklahoma fields are developed in comparison with the Texas district.

The way to get there from the south is over the Santa Fe R. R. from Wichita Falls via Gainesville. The Rock Island runs into Ardmore but it is a branch. When Ringling Bros. get their road finished to Wichita Falls that will be a short line to there.

OSAGE INDIANS RECEIVE BIG RETURNS FROM OIL

Washington, Oct. 28.—Commissioner Seila of the Indian bureau today approved an oil lease entered into by the Osage Indians and the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, covering 400 acres of Osage land near Cleveland, Okla. The terms of the lease provide that the company shall pay a royalty of one-sixth of all the oil produced and a cash bonus of $225,000. This amounts to nearly $225,000 more than was offered by any other bidder and the bonus is the largest ever obtained for an Osage oil lease.

FIRST NATIONAL BUILDING SOLD

CONSIDERATION IS IN EXCESS OF $70,000, INCLUDING $32,000 IN CASH

BANK REMAINS ONE YEAR

By That Time Will Probably Have its Own Home at Corner of Eighth and Indiana

The First National Bank building at the corner of Seventh street and Indiana avenue has been sold to Messrs. King and Tibbets of Gainesville for $72,000 cash and other considerations including an irrigated farm in Tom Green county. The other considerations in the deal are said to be valued at more than $45,000.

The deal has been pending for some time but the final papers were signed only yesterday. The bank building has a frontage of 25 feet on Indiana and the bank building proper is three stories high, the first floor being occupied by the bank, the second with offices and the third by the Marble Hall. Adjoining the bank building on the Seventh street side is a two story annex extending to the alley 150 feet from the Indiana avenue frontage.

The bank has retained the right to occupy the building but to exceed one year and before the expiration of that period expects to be in its own building at the corner of Indiana avenue and Eighth streets, where it purchased a site some time ago.

The new owners of the building it is understood, will remodel it putting in a new front and making other improvements.

W.M. FRIBERG IS DEAD AT HOME IN THIS CITY

Succumbs to Complication of Diseases After Long Illness—in This County Since 1885

Will M. Friberg, one of the best known citizens of Wichita county and a resident since 1885 died at his home at 2301 Ninth street at about 11:30 o'clock this morning. While it had been known for some time that Mr. Friberg could not hope to recover from a complication of troubles from which he had been suffering for months his death came unexpectedly.

Mr. Friberg was 55 years of age and is survived by a widow, five children, three grown and two small boys, his mother, Grandma Friberg and two brothers, E. V. and G. E. Friberg and three sisters, Mrs. A. E. Anderson, Mrs. Gus Byrman and Mrs. Minnie Dollard, all residents of Wichita Falls. Mr. Friberg came to this county with his father's family from Illinois and for many years made his home in the Friberg community, named for the family, and was one of the most progressive and successful farmers in the county. He was one of the strong supporters of the Friberg M. E. Church and also was a liberal supporter of the First M. E. Church in this city.

The funeral service will be held at the First M. E. Church, corner of Seventh and Lamar streets at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

GUARDS AND MINERS FIGHT

By Associated Press. Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 28.—In a battle today between approximately 1200 strikers and 300 mine guards in the camps at Hastings, Delagua, Tobasco and Berwind, one mine guard and three strikers are reported killed.

Greek strikers had started early today for these coal camps announcing they would attempt to take the camps and if successful would hold them against state troops.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly meeting this morning authorized the manufacturers committee to confer with a Mr. Benton of Corsicana relative to his requirements for a site for the location here of a plant for the manufacture of rotary drills, pumps, engines and other well drilling machinery.

Mr. Benton was present and addressed the directors. He said that his company would need about a block of land for a site located on a spur track or switch. It would represent an investment of from $25,000 to $30,000 and at the start would employ about ten or twelve skilled mechanics which, Mr. Benton said, the company would expect to double within the first twelve months of operation.

The manufacturing committee is conferring with Mr. Benton today to see if some site which the Chamber of Commerce could furnish would be acceptable to him.

Convicts on Highways. W. G. Long who was appointed at a previous meeting as a delegate to the roads conference at Dallas Wednesday was authorized to represent the Chamber of Commerce as favoring the working of state convicts on the highways. Mr. Long stated that he had written the governors and prison wardens of fourteen states and that he had received favorable replies from all of them.

While on the floor Mr. Long declared he believed the Chamber of Commerce ought to take some action in reference to the matter now practiced by the county authorities in the key and collection of fines from the inmates of the red light district. He said he had been informed fines had been levied and the women allowed to return to the houses to use them out under a convict bond on the installment plan. As there was lack of definite information on this subject there was no consideration of the matter.

To Bring Editors to Texas. Mr. Long also read a letter from Lee J. Rountree, editor of the Georgetown Commercial who is now in Chicago to attend the meeting of the National Editorial Association, asking the Chamber of Commerce to send telegrams to the association endorsing Houston's invitation to hold the next convention in that city. The suggestion was adopted by the directors and the newspapers of the city were also asked to send telegrams of like tenor to the makers now practicing.

Upon a motion the postal card folder recently published by the Chamber of Commerce was ordered placed on sale at the newsstands and other places in the city where post cards are sold. While copies of this folder are being distributed upon application at the headquarters it was felt it would be a convenience to visitors to have them placed on sale at a nominal cost.

WICHITA FALLS TO ORGANIZE COMPANY

This City May be Represented in State Militia—Col. Cecil Lyon Writes Letter Urging Action

Wichita Falls has another opportunity to secure a company of the Texas National Guard here. Acting Secretary John Thomas of the Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from Col. Cecil Lyons of Sherman saying that he has been assigned all the territory north of the Texas & Pacific railway in his division and that there is one company of his regiment, the Fourth Infantry yet to be filled.

The geographical location of Wichita Falls would make it a desirable point for a home for this company, and Col. Lyons wants to know whether such a company could be organized and supported here. The full quota for a company is three officers and fifty-eight enlisted men.

Several months ago an attempt was made to organize a company here but for lack of support the effort was abandoned. Whether the effort can now be successful depends upon the young men of the city. If they are sufficiently interested no doubt Col. Lyons would make a visit to the city and encourage their efforts. In his letter Col. Lyons says that he believes if a company was organized here that a summer camp would be established at Lake Wichita.

HIGH NORTH WIND CAUSES DAMAGE IN PANHANDLE.

A high north wind is sweeping the Panhandle and Northwest Texas from Texline to Fort Worth this afternoon. At some points the gale is reported to have reached a velocity of seventy miles an hour. At Kirkland three box cars on the Fort Worth & Denver tracks were unroofed this afternoon and minor damage has been done at other points.

From Texline to Amarillo a temperature of 40 degrees was reported early in the afternoon with the mercury still falling. Freezing temperatures are forecast as far south as Fort Worth tonight. Some damage was done locally to telephone and light wires and it is feared that some damage has been done in the oil field but no such reports had been received up to 2:30 this afternoon.

WICHITA SPEAKER AT CONVENTION IN DALLAS

A. G. Deatherage Talks on Publicity at Meeting of Granite and Marble Dealers

A. G. Deatherage of this city, in Dallas attending the annual meeting of the Texas Retail Marble and Granite Dealers Association of which he is president. Mr. Deatherage delivered the principal address at a banquet of the association held Monday night. The Dallas News quotes his address in part as follows: "The thing that is most needed in this business is publicity. The whole sale dealer should join hands with the retail dealer in a State and National-wide campaign of publicity, using every available means in advertising. If it pays you to advertise your business it pays the other fellow; if he knows how. The public is following blind tradition and custom in the erection of their private memorials. They can not tell you what an emblem carved thereon means. They do not know and should they know they would feel better satisfied. Perhaps education should extend along these lines, using every conceivable method toward this end. I will not pretend to say the best method. Any way it betters than none at all. Perhaps a series of illustrated stereopticon views of cemeteries, parks and memorials would help. Good and interesting articles in the daily papers and monthly magazines, each section co-operating with the other, are advisable. There is no question to my mind but that the daily press is the best, and the most satisfactory way to educate the public and to inspire them toward higher and better things. We should ask them to join hands with us in this great work."

WILL INVITE EDITORS TO TEXAS FOR NEXT YEAR

By Associated Press. Georgetown, Oct. 28.—Editor Lee J. Rountree of the Georgetown Commercial, a member of the executive committee of the National Editorial Association, left today for Chicago to attend the meeting of the council on next Thursday to select the 1914 place of meeting. The meeting place has narrowed down between Richmond, Va. and Houston, Texas.

Mr. Rountree will present the claims of Houston and has official invitations from Governor Colquitt, Lieutenant Governor Mayes, the Chamber of Commerce of Houston, and the commercial organizations of Galveston, San Antonio, Waco, Austin, Fort Worth and Dallas.

If the association comes to Houston an eight-day circle trip in Texas in special trains will be made by the 500 visiting editors.

KNEW SULZER'S FATE IN ADVANCE

CONVICTED SENATOR WAS TOLD LAST JUNE GOVERNOR WAS TO BE REMOVED

HAD PROMISE OF PARDON

Sulzer Makes Public Letter From Senator Who is Serving Term on Charge of Bribery

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 28.—Stephen J. Stillwell, former state senator acquitted of bribery charges by the Senate, then convicted by a jury and now serving his sentence, appealed to William Sulzer, governor, for a pardon and offered in return to expose inner workings of "boss rule" in New York.

Stillwell's offer to tell what he knew is contained in a letter made public today.

The offer was made by Stillwell on August 16, three days after Sulzer had been impeached. Stillwell asserted that he had been told in advance that Sulzer was to be impeached. In reply, Sulzer sent him word that if he would make a confession along the line of his promise, he (Sulzer) had no doubt the people would urge executive clemency.

"Sometime in June," Sulzer's statement says, "a well known citizen was told by Stillwell in the Tombs, that Governor Sulzer was to be removed before July 10 and that Just as soon as Governor Sulzer was out and Glynn was in, the latter would pardon him; for Stillwell to hold his tongue and everything would be all right. The name of this citizen will be given if required."

PLEASANT SESSION HELD

Grand Chancellor Tom Connolly of Marlin Delivers Principal Address of Evening

About one hundred enthusiastic Knights, many of them from outside lodges scattered through the twenty counties comprising the district were gathered at Castle Hall last night for the district convention of the Knights of Pythias.

The meeting was opened by Dr. J. W. DeVal, chancellor commander of Pioneer Lodge of Wichita Falls and following the opening ceremonies Hon. E. W. Nicholson of this city delivered the address of welcome to which response was made by Hon. L. W. Parrish of Henrietta.

A surprise feature at this juncture were vocal selections by a quartette, comprised of the following Henrietta Knights: L. C. Kelly, L. A. Kelly, T. M. Liles and O. T. Liles.

"What is the best manner in which to revive dormant lodges?" was a discussion in which many participated and in which the keenest interest was taken. The program was closed with an address by Grand Chancellor Tom Connolly of Marlin after which the rank of past chancellor was conferred on a class of twelve candidates.

Mr. Connolly left last night for Amarillo where he attends a district meeting tonight. S. D. Mobley of Cleburne, deputy grand chancellor, remained and will assist the members of Pioneer Lodge in a membership campaign.

DIAZ GIVEN REFUGE ON BOARD AMERICAN GUNBOAT

Applies To U.S. Consul For Protection Believing Life In Danger—Two Mexicans And an American

By Associated Press. Vera Cruz, Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz applied to the American consulate during the night for protection, and was taken on board the United States Gunboat Wheeling.

Jose Sandoval and Cecilio Ocon, two Mexicans, and Alexander Williams, an American newspaper correspondent who had made similar application to the consulate, were also taken on board the gunboat.

Diaz informed Consul William W. Canada he had received information that his life was in peril. He told the consul that a number of his adherents had been put in jail.

The fact that General Diaz and two of his supporters were refugees on the Wheeling was not discovered by Mexican authorities until this morning.

The flight took place after midnight, the three men taking the risk of an excursion over the roof-tops which were guarded by armed men, into the American consulate.

The two Mexicans who sought refuge with Diaz have played prominent parts in Mexican politics. Ocon was charged in the Mexican Chamber of Deputies with being "the actual murderer of Gustavo Madero." Sandoval was an attorney in Mexico City and an adherent of the late General Reyes, who was shot while leading the rebels in February this year.

General Diaz and his companions, apparently greatly excited, assured Consul Canada that their lives were in imminent danger. They declared they had knowledge that orders for their arrest had been issued and they begged for his protection.

Consul Canada pointed to the water front, some two hundred yards distant.

"There's a launch there," he said. "You'd better make a run for it."

The street in front of the American consulate was patrolled by detectives, but the detectives apparently did not recognize the fugitives. At the pier they presented a card from Consul Canada to the officer of the launch. The American naval officer hurried them on board, the launch cast off, steamed across to the Wheeling and they had found a haven.

Many Precedents For Action Declare Washington Authorities

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 28.—Officials here say there is no question whatever over the right of a naval commander to extend asylum to such a fugitive as Felix Diaz, as there have been precedents. In the case of Diaz, it is believed the Washington government was prepared to go further if necessary, and to furnish a marine guard.

General Felix Diaz was given asylum in the American consulate at Vera Cruz and on the gunboat Wheeling at the direct instructions of the United States government, cabled a few days ago by Secretary Bryan to Consul Canada, instructing him to shelter if his personal safety was in danger.

No protest was received today from Huerta today from the Huerta administration against the extension of asylum to Diaz. In the state department, it was believed no objection would be made by Huerta and Diaz will be free to transfer to a liner running to Havana or some other port without molestation.

When President Wilson's train passed through here shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, en route to Washington, news dispatches were taken aboard telling of Diaz taking refuge on the gunboat at Vera Cruz. President Wilson had no comment to make.

LOCAL ELEVEN IS GOING FOR TITLE

CHAMPIONSHIP OF NORTHWEST TEXAS IN SIGHT FOR WICHITA FALLS FOOTBALL TEAM

VORNON COMING SATURDAY

Mineral Wells and Fort Worth to be Here Later in Season—Team in Good Condition

The football championship of Northwest Texas and possibly of considerably more territory than that, may rest with the Wichita Falls High school eleven when the season ends, and a good start has been made in that direction. The next game will be at the city park Friday or Saturday with Vernon, whom the locals defeated last Saturday.

Next week the team will go to Henrietta. On November 21, the Mineral Wells team which defeated Wichita Falls earlier in the season, will come here, and on Thanksgiving Day the Fort Worth eleven will come here. If Wichita Falls can take care of Vernon and Henrietta as well as she has already done, the championship of Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma is here, as Vernon had already wrested honors from Quannah and Frederick. Mineral Wells is making some extensive claims, but the Wichitans will present a much stronger front when they meet the health resort boys next month.

Last Saturday's game was won handily. Vernon's second touchdown came with only a few seconds to play and Coach Brant feels that Wichita Falls should have had a wider margin. Connors, captain, and full back for Wichita Falls, was not in the game, but his place was ably filled by Jungk. Connors' ankle was badly wrenched in the Henrietta game. Vernon will be here either Friday or Saturday in an attempt to get back her lost laurels.

The Thanksgiving game with Fort Worth promises a real struggle; last year the Panther City eleven romped on the locals by a tremendous score, but they will face a decidedly stronger squad this year, and there are hopes that there will be a different story to tell. The season's football schedule is the most complete the high school has yet undertaken; it already provides for seven games and may take in still more.

BABY WILL FIGURE IN SAN FRANCISCO CASE

Charge of Substitution of One Infant for Another Will be Heard in Court Soon

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 28.—The famous Slingsby baby substitution case is to be reopened. A Carnegie Ross, British consul here, has been appointed by the High Court, Chancery in London to take the testimony of witnesses, and upon the result will depend the disposition of the large Slingsby estate in Yorkshire, yielding an income of $50,000 a year.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Charles Raymond Slingsby, who claim the infant as their own, are on their way here to testify.

The Slingsby case came into international prominence more than a year ago, when the lieutenant, who holds that rank in the British army, began a fight for the family fortune. He was opposed by his brother, who declared that the child was not the offspring of Mrs. Slingsby, but that of a California school girl, substituted for the dead baby of Slingsby's wife.

The fortune, which is the subject of court proceedings, was left by the Rev. Charles Slingsby to his son, following the York and Ainsley hoards.

Lieutenant Slingsby is the eldest son. He has already assumed control of the most of his inheritance, and the court is now being asked to adjudicate the remainder, which Lieutenant Slingsby claims for his son.

One of the most remarkable human documents ever read was filed in the office of Dr. Snow in the case last January.

It tells the whole story of the two years' investigation into the charges that the child of a Geversville High School girl was substituted for the heir of the estate.

Not only are the charges of the conspiracy set forth, but the remarkable defense of Mrs. Charles Henry Raymond Slingsby, that she is the real mother of the babe and that she is prepared to prove it, is given in affidavit form.

Mrs. Slingsby said, in her defense that there was a conspiracy against her. She claimed that her husband's family had always persecuted her and that she had been driven from England. She intimated that all the testimony against her is the result of this conspiracy.

The version of Lieutenant Slingsby, who still thinks he is the father of the so-called Anderson baby, is also told. Both he and his wife were given all the charges against them. Slingsby said that the baby must be his, because his wife is the soul of honor and the baby looks like him.

Slingsby also lays stress upon the persecution of his father, saying that he was estranged from his family, that the father would have preferred the estate going to the second son and that the investigation into the baby's birth was carried on with his father's consent.

How Mrs. Slingsby came from Victoria, B. C. in 1910, to have her child born here, how she went to a hotel and later, where the child was born, was told by her.

How she came here with the purpose of getting a baby for adoption, her search for a founding, her near adoption of a Hawaiian baby, whose mother finally refused to give it up, how she put an advertisement in a paper for a baby, and how Dr. Frazer answered this advertisement and supplied her with the Anderson baby, was all told in another series of affidavits.

Doctor Testifies Against Her

Dr. Frazer, it appears, had no idea of assisting in a fraud when he answered the advertisement and called on Mrs. Slingsby at the Goodfriend Hotel, in August, 1910. He had a girl on his hands who was about to become a mother. He wanted to protect the girl's name. The girl did not want the baby. She refused to look at it after it was born, and let it go away from her without a cry.

After all this had taken place, Mrs. Slingsby came back and asked for the altered birth certificate. Dr. Frazer refused to give it at first, but consented finally, still on the plea of protecting the girl who had come to him in her great trouble.

Here is a bit of Dr. Frazer's testimony, given in the office of Dr. Snow, on May 5, 1911. He was questioned by J. G. Gardner, attorney for the board:

"Was Dorothy Morgan Slingsby the mother of this child?"

"No."

"Who was the mother?"

"Was any child ever born to Mrs. Dorothy Morgan Slingsby to your knowledge?"

"Not to my knowledge."

JEROME DALEY TO SING "SCARLET" IN "ROBIN HOOD"

Jerome Daley, who is singing the part of Will Scarlet in the de Koven Opera Company's production of "Robin Hood" which comes to the Wichita Theatre Friday matinee and night, while well known in dramatic circles on the Pacific coast and in the stock companies of the Middle West is a comparatively new acquisition to the operatic stage.

His past performances on the concert stage are of a very high order.

While he was studying his part last summer, Mr. Daley was anxious to rehearse the "Armorer's Song" with the "business" at the forge, as it was a novel situation to him. Such an opportunity presented itself while he was "hiking" through a small village near the Palisades in New Jersey.

Speaking of the amusing incident Mr. Daley says:

"We came to a little village consisting of a hotel, a few houses, the general store, and postoffice combined, and a blacksmith shop. My brother drove me to go in a better place and sing the Armorer's Song behind a real anvil, with hammer and hot iron in hand. The old, white haired smith evidently thought I was a nut but decided to humor me. So, much to the amusement of an audience consisting of barefooted boys, barking dogs and gawking loungers from the general store across the way, I sang the song for the first time with the props and real atmosphere. The old smith was eager for another song, but I compromised by talking him and a few others to the nearby tavern for cigars and other refreshments. I am sorry Mr. Parsons was not with us at the tavern, as it would have been an excellent opportunity for him to rehearse his song." Brown October Aie.

HOLD SERVICES SOON IN NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Seats are Delayed in Transit, but are Expected Shortly—Dedication Likely Next Month

The next two weeks will mark the beginning of services in the new building of the Christian Church at Tenth and Travis streets. It is announced. The structure is now complete and the congregation awaits only the installation of the seats. These were delayed in shipment and the date of their arrival is uncertain, but they are expected here in time to hold the opening service in the new church on a week from next Sunday.

The pipe organ will not be here until late in November and the dedication of the building will probably be postponed until it arrives. Holding of services will begin as early as possible, however, as the congregation is badly in need of more room for all of its activities.

145-FOOT SHALLOW WELL PRODUCES FIVE BARRELS

Local Company Breaks Record for Shallow Finding With Well on Threadgold Farm

A shallow well that is a record breaker has been brought in on the Threadgold by Messrs. Norton, Perkins and Snider, at a depth of only 145 feet. The well will make better than five barrels per day, it is believed, and is good pay considering the almost nominal cost of drilling. The company has made location for its No. 2 and will start other wells shortly.

The tapping of a well at such a depth is a record for this section, and while the production is small, it is substantially remunerative. Only a few days ago a new high record for shallow sand production was made by the Producers with its standard well on the Howards', which made two hundred barrels at the start.

METHODISM MUST EVANGELIZE HER SHARE OF WORLD.

Indianapolis, Oct. 28.—Methodism must evangelize her share of the world, is the slogan of the national convention of Methodist men which today opened a four days meeting here. The announced purpose of the convention is:

"To increase missionary intelligence and to deepen spiritual life; to present the definite responsibility of Methodism both at home and abroad; in relation to other denominations and Christian agencies; to adopt practical denominational programs and policies of advancement; to place more definitely before the church the new financial plan adopted by the general conference for the church as a whole and for the local branches; to emphasize the principles and practices of Christian stewardship as adopted by the general conference, and to discover and enlist more men for missionary and evangelistic service." Among the different agencies that are expected to make the convention a success will be the aid given by the general conference finance commission the evangelistic commission named by the same general body; missionary and church benevolent boards; church extension boards; Freedman's aid society; boards of Sunday schools; American Bible Society and Church Temperance Society; the Methodist Brotherhood and the publishing interests of the Methodist church. The negro problem will be one of the most important subjects discussed at the convention which opened today.

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE GIVE LEAGUE SOCIAL PAPER.

Monday night the Methodist young people gave a most enjoyable League Social in the basement of the M. T. Church, South. The basement decorations bore traces of Halloween which was also carried out in the refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee. In one corner the fortune teller's tent had been erected and Miss Laura Martin as the fortune teller proved very ingenious and entertaining. The company next amused themselves by watching a few of the more bolded bob for apples. Some of the boys proved themselves quite apt in the art, in spite of an occasional ducking. Others attempted biting for apples suspended by strings. Throughout the evening Miss Helen Hines and Mr. Durland favored the company with music. Much amusement was caused in guessing the identity of four young ladies dressed as ghosts. The affair was a most enjoyable one to all concerned, as is everything undertaken by the Methodist young people. Among those present were Rev. J. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shelton, Messdames McDowell, C. S. Shelton, Miller, H. A. Brentlinger, Forsythe, Misses Helen Brightwell, Edna Duke, Cora Belle Miller, Ruth Downing, Mary Naff, Kathleen Colfield, Irene Elledge, Lula Smith, Roberts Balton, Marie Gathke, Ernest Brentlinger, Robbing Brentlinger, Ha Cook, Charlotte Wright, Mary Lee Chancellor, Alti Ruffner, Una Cook, Jessie Montgomery, Helen Beavers, Lois Craddock, Rose Carver, Florence Barrier, Helen Hines, Marion Crutcher, Cora Lee Waegoner, Annette Coffield, Edith Slatten, Iva Bullard, Mary Wilkes, Anna Trimble, Beth Trimble, Lennie Peery, Leila McKee, Elizabeth Johnson and C. V. Durland, Alfred Cook, Homer Scott, Karl Brentlinger, John Gathke, Ernest Brentlinger, Perry Maricle, L. C. Blakey, Merle Waegoner, Levalle Childers, Charlie Johnson, Laverne Semerville, Parke Willis, Wilbur Lee, Claude Ruffner, Leonard Smith.

MONTHLY ALL DAY SESSION OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Missionary Society of the M. T. Church held its regular monthly all-day meeting Monday. The ladies spent the forenoon most pleasantly in fancy work and conversation and at noon a splendid lunch was served. In the afternoon a most interesting program on Mexico was presented and discussed. J. P. Jackson and C. B. Montgomery gave reports on the district meeting held recently in Bellevue.

MRS. CHILDERS HOSTESS TO EPISCOPAL GUILD

The Ladies of the Episcopal Guild met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Childers. They had a very nice meeting and in addition to other business decided to hold a towel sale Saturday, December 13, the place to be decided later. Members present were Messdames Allen, Sammons, Millburn, Clapp, McElroy, Gathke, Craven, Boger, Gwynn, Fontaine, Shaw, Childers. The Guild meets next Nov. 3 with Mrs. H. O. Gwynn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bachman left yesterday for Fort Worth, where they will spend a day or two. They will then go to Dallas to remain the rest of the week.

Messdames Burnside and Harrington leave Saturday for El Paso, where they go to represent the local M. T. Francis Grace Chapter of the A. H. in the state convention. Much interest is being shown in their convention being election year. The delegates go instructed for Mrs. Andrew Ross of Texas, as State Regent. Mrs. Rose is now State Historian.

The New Bridge Club will not meet Friday on account of the matinee performance of "Robin Hood" and will meet Saturday instead.

inspiration—to all who will attend goes are indeed fortunate to have gained her presence to attend. You are all acquainted with the magnificent success which attended Mrs. Moore's administration, and that she will be our guest I consider a great privilege.

We regret deeply that Miss Lathrop's health will keep her from the convention and we hope that she may soon recover, for we cannot afford to give up this brilliant woman who is doing so much for the welfare of our children. The letter here exceptly received from Prof. F. M. Bradley of the University of Texas, shows how very much the co-operation of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is sought and needed, and how much our ever ready interest in helping to promote the splendid work of that institution is appreciated.

Women are ever ready to encourage the uplifting of conditions in this world, and since we have the progress of our state educational institutions so much at heart, there is a substantial advance in the educational affairs of the state, apparent on all sides.

Professor Bailey says: Dear Mrs. Hertzberg:

Miss Mary E. Gearing, associate professor of home economics at the University of Texas, will attend the Corpus Christi meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Gearing will be glad to confer with members of the federation and the committee on the various phases of the subject of home economics; and with respect also to the group study correspondence courses offered by the university, which are especially attractive to the club women of the state.

If it should be convenient, Miss Gearing would like to make a brief announcement to the federation while in session with respect to home economics week, which will be held at the university from February 1 to 14; and also a brief announcement with respect to the group study courses. It would not be necessary for her to make both of the announcements at the same time.

"The University of Texas is especially anxious to be of service to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and Miss Gearing's mission in attending the Corpus Christi meeting will be for the purpose of getting in touch with the club women of the state, and of advising them of special lines of work the university is doing and in which the club women of the state are doubtless much interested. Any courtesies shown to Miss Gearing on the occasion mentioned will, I assure you, be deeply appreciated."

If any club has failed to receive presidential cards please notify Mrs. Jas. B. Cunningham, corresponding secretary, 1836 North Flores street, San Antonio at once and same will be forwarded.

Be sure and send your dues with our delay to Mrs. Homer De Witt, treasurer, Stamford; this will lighten her labors. Always faithfully yours, MRS. BILL HERTZBERG, President, T. F. W. C., San Antonio, Oct. 22, 1913.

GIVES SOME REASONS WHY KANSAS IS STAYING DRY.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 28.—Asked why Kansas stays "dry," Attorney General Dewart today pulled the following statistics from a pigeon hole, saying he always used them to answer that question. "More than one-half of the county jails are empty. Sixty-five of the 105 counties of the state have no inmates in the state penal institutions. Many counties have not had a jury trial case in ten years. Eighty-seven counties have no inebriates. Twenty-nine counties have not a single inmate on their poor farms. Kansas is the richest state in the union; its average wealth per capita is $1,700. Less than ten of 786 newspapers in the state accept liquor advertisements."

Mr. Sulzer, though impeached as governor of New York, does not seem inclined to take the dose that was handed or forced upon him by Tammany, and is going to make an effort to rise to the top once more. He has already received by acclamation the nomination for assemblyman of his district, and if elected will be a candidate for speaker of the body. That he will be elected there seems but little doubt. This goes to prove that the people who know him best, have confidence in him.

That Illinois railroad official who gave an order to trainmen that they must remove the pictures of their wives, sweethearts and children from their watch cases is in a class all by himself. His reason for giving such an order was that the men wasted too much of their time in looking at the pictures. As to whether the order will be enforced is not stated, but our guess is that not one man in a hundred will pay any attention to it. The safety of passengers can better be trusted in the keeping of men who think enough of their wives, sweethearts and children to have their pictures placed in their watches, than in the keeping of men who have no love in their hearts, and who are reckless and careless—not only as to their own but the safety of the lives of others.

A list of what the "want ads" advertise never fails to astonish. There is no channel of business activity into which the "want ads" may not penetrate. In fact, it is that way with almost any kind of advertisement that is placed in the columns of the Times. To insertions of a 9-inch double column ad in the Times forced one Wichita Falls business man to close his doors yesterday at intervals—not because of lack of customers, but because there were more than could be waited on, and after allowing the store to be filled the doors were locked until that bunch could be waited on and allowed to pass out with their bundles and parcels, and another bunch permitted to pass. Of course the man who wrote the ad was prepared in every way to carry out his part of the bargain, and when that is true the man who has money to invest in printers ink need have no fears but that he will get good returns.

It has always occurred to the Times that the tax laws which force a tax on city and town property for the purpose of keeping up the roads the revenue realized from such tax cannot be expended on the streets of any incorporated city. As a result of the workings of this unjust law, many of the streets leading into the city are in bad condition, simply for the reason that the city is unable to keep them up. If a fair proportion of this county road tax was allowed to be used for street improvements in the incorporated cities, it would aid very materially in getting our streets in better shape. SEARCHING FOR OIL IN MANY PARTS OF COUNTRY

Many Test Wells in Unproven Territory Throughout United States Says Oil and Gas Journal

(Oil and Gas Journal)

There is a greater effort being put forth to find oil in the non-producing and semi-producing States than ever before in the history of the industry. The high price of the crude produce has had a stimulating effect on production the world over and every likely spot is being spied out and the drill started downward in search of one of Nature's most valuable products.

In the semi-producing States the greatest activity is shown in Tennessee, Colorado and Utah, while development work in Michigan has almost entirely ceased. Michigan has had a little shallow production for years and a lot of money has been spent in trying to find oil in that State in commercial quantities. Last year it was thought that of Saginaw Valley Development Company had found a field at Saginaw. This company drilled something like ten wells and spent over $100,000, but had to give it up. The company disbanded the other day. In all something like thirty tests were drilled in Michigan the past year, with none of them paying propositions.

Considerable wildcat work is going on in Utah, principally in the southwestern part of the State. Utah has produced both oil and gas, in small quantities, for a number of years, but the area seems to be quite limited. A recent report issued by the United States Geological Survey does not give much hope for Utah to ever become an oil-producing State.

Oil has been produced in Tennessee in a small way ever since the first well was drilled on Jones creek, in Dickson county, in 1866. A number of shallow wells in the northern part of the State are making a small production. Recently an organized effort was made to revive operations in Dickson county and the Indiana-Tennessee Oil and Gas Company has been organized to drill a deep test. Leases have been taken on some 20,000 acres and it is reported that drilling will begin at once.

An effort is being made to bring in a new field in Colorado. Phebus & McCoy of Denver have leased a large acreage four miles east of Denver and claim they are going to drill a test well. The old field at Boulder is still producing in a small way.

In the non-producing States, quite a lot of wild-cattling is being done. Alabama, Arkansas and Washington are the most active, while tests are being drilled in Missouri, Florida, South Dakota, Iowa, Montana, Arizona and Oregon.

Quite a lot of gas has been found in Alabama, near Jasper and Birmingham, but, so far, no oil. Montana has some oil in the Kootenay country, near the Canadian line, and the "danknucks" are hunting for it across the line, opposite the Montana development. Southwestern Missouri and Northwestern Arkansas look like good bets and the geological conditions in Iowa seem to be favorable to the discovery of pools in that State. More wildcattling in widely scattered sections is going on in Washington than in any of the other States and experts have picked Washington as the next State to enter the producing ranks. Development work in this State is well under way at Jefferson, at Quinault in the Olympic peninsula and near Centralia.

Within the past few days reports have been received from Arizona to the effect that a fair flow of oil has been struck in the well of the Yuma Verde Oil Company at a depth of 650 feet. The above has been cased off and the well will be drilled deeper. With all of these tests under way in so many different parts of the country, it would not be surprising if one or more new fields were discovered within the next few months.

You not only get comfort from our Gas Heaters, they add beauty to your home.

"RITUAL MURDER" CASE IS WATCHED

NOTHING SINCE TRIAL OF DREYFUS HAS STIRRED EUROPE SO

ANCIENT LEGEND IS CITED

Present Case is Fifth of Its Kind in Europe During Past Quarter of a Century

(By Karl H. von Wiegand)

Berlin, Oct. 28.—Perhaps no trial since the Dreyfus case in Paris has created such general interest in Germany as that of the Jew, Mendel Bellis, in Kieft on the ridiculous charge of ritual murder. The very fact that it takes the mind back to the days of the middle ages, has caused thousands of people of other faiths, and no faiths at all, in Germany to evince the keenest interest in the daily newspaper reports from Kieft of a trial that seems as much out of place in the new century as would be the "witch trials" at Salem, Mass., two centuries ago.

It is not generally known that the Bellis trial is the fifty "ritual murder" case charged against the Jews in the last 25 years. Invariably these charges have been the climax to a wave of Anti Semitism or were brought to rekindle the fires of hatred against the Jews when persecutions were on the wane.

The first time in the last half century that there was a staked tribunal of justice the legendary medieval superstition that Jews drew blood of Christian children with which to knead the dough of their Passover cakes at Easter time, occurred in 1882. It came at the height of an anti-Jewish wave in Hungary when a young girl, Esther Solimossy, was literally butchered at Tisza-Eszlar. It was charged to the Jews as "ritual murder," as if they had merely sought for another opportunity to draw upon their heads still greater racial and religious hatred and persecutions.

When the anti-Semitic wave was at high tide in Germany in 1891 and again in 1900, a lad at Xantam and one at Konitz were murdered. Jews were charged with "ritual murder." Shortly after the "Christian Socialists," a Catholic organization, not identical with the Social Democrats, spread from a bitter anti-Jewish movement to peasant plaid were murdered. The bodies were terribly mutilated. The cry of a "Jewish ritual murder" was immediately raised and Leopold Hillsler, a half-witted Jewish cripple whom either of the girls could have handled with one hand, was charged with the crime. The charges naturally, were brought by "Christians."

After ten years of more or less continuing " pogroms," endless persecutions and indescribable horrors in Russia that seem incredible in the twentieth century, Mendel Bellis a Jewish brick-yard foreman is charged with "ritual murder" when the bitter racial and religious anti-Jewish wave is waning from exhaustion in the land of the Great White Czar.

In the Tisza-Eszlar case, the prosecution's sole evidence was the testimony of an 11-year old boy. He said he peeked through the keyhole of a door and saw the body of the girl lying on the altar in the Synagogue. The head of the community, said the boy, with the Rabbi by his side, stood in front of the altar. Around it were a number of high church officials. The theory was then advanced that there is a "secret cult" or society among the Jews, which requires blood of Christian children for their rites.

This belief still prevails very generally among the ignorant population of Austria, Hungary, Poland, Russia and even parts of Germany. Anti-Jewish agitators particularly in Russia, have always availed themselves of this belief and feeling, to fan the flames of hatred and persecution against the Jews.

It is time to put an end to this grotesque belief and charge against the Jews which is as unworthy of civilization and culture of today as it would be to try witches," said Dr. Paul Nathan, one of the leading Jewish philanthropists in Berlin.

According to reports received in Berlin there is a considerable exodus of Jews from Kieft, Odessa and Warsaw toward Germany. It is feared that the Bellis trial will be made the incentive for another era of Jewish persecutions in Russia.

COMMERCIAL CONGRESS DISCUSSES NEW CANAL

Effect of Panama Gateway Upon Business of South is Topic Today at Mobile

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 28.—The Panama Canal and its effect on the American South was the theme of speeches before the Southern Commercial Congress today. Memorial services were held in all of Mobile's churches at noon, at which prominent speakers eulogized the late Senator John Tyler Morgan, "the father of the Panama idea." Governor Major, of Missouri, spoke at the First Baptist Church, paying eloquent tribute to the Alabamian.

Watson, of South Carolina, on what the commerce of the Panama Canal means to the South.

Expectations of increased business from those interested in manufacturing and business as a result of the canal was expressed in addresses by Col. Harvie Jordan, president of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company; Bradford Knapp, in charge of the department of agriculture's special farmers' co-operative demonstration work; Julian S. Carr, of Durham, N. C.; J. Rice Smith of Richmond, Va.; Representative Hobson, of Alabama; and John M. Parker, honorary president of the Southern Commercial Congress. Five minute "free forum" talks by delegates followed each set speech.

Tonight Secretary of State Bryan was scheduled to lead discussion of the Panama Canal from the standpoint of South and Central America.

Director John Barrett of the Pan-American Union, the minister to Panama, the Peruvian minister, and the minister from Bolivia were scheduled to speak.

If osteopathy is so good why is it so little used? Because so few know what it is. How many people understand wireless telegraphy? Just as many understand osteopathy. I have never had a conversation with an M. D. who betrayed to me even a shallow understanding of osteopathy. My object in writing these pieces is to inform the public something of our claims. I believe with all the fervor of an honest soul, that if the people understood osteopathy as it is every sick person would want an osteopath for every trouble that afflicts humanity. That the osteopath would practically end suffering, that people would not die of disease, but of old age, and we would laugh at hundreds of diseases that we now fear. The osteopath treats causes, he locates causes by the symptoms but does not treat the symptoms. If interested, in health see an osteopath. Dr. Farris, K. and K. building. 42 3tc

TARIFF BILL IS LOWER ON DRUGS

MEDICINES AND CHEMICALS ADMITTED AT LOWER RATES UNDER BILL

SOME EXCEPTIONS MADE

Gum Arabic and Balsam are Taken off Free List, But Most Drug Rates are Lowered

(By Bond P. Geddes) Washington, Oct. 28.—Pains and aches and some forms of illness may be made somewhat "easier" financially, under the new Democratic tariff law. At least, that's the way it looks from here, after a study of schedules on medicines, and raw materials used by druggists and chemists in the manufacture of medicines, which are admitted or on which import duty has been lowered. Of course, there will be the same rates of charge by the doctors; and of course, you'll have to wait until the present supply of raw materials and drugs gives out before the anticipated (but by no means certain) reductions in retail prices materialize.

The trend of the tariff reductions is all broadly reducing the cost of curing aches and pains. Import taxes on medicinal and chemical compounds and preparations (patent medicines) all are reduced from 5 to 10 per cent. Duties on many drug store supplies are also slashed considerably. The import tax on hospital utensils is cut 15 per cent.

Gum arabic, which druggists use in great quantities and practically all of which is imported, will cost more than has been taken off the free list and made subject to a duty of one-half a cent a pound—and imports of 5,000,000 pounds are expected next year. Balsams, free of duty under the old law, are now taxable at 10 per cent of their value. But castor oil, the old reliable family remedy, should be cheaper, as castor beans can now be imported for 10 cents less a bushel. Castor oil ready for the family spoon is imported for 22 cents less a gallon than heretofore.

For those preferring a less drastic remedy, calomel can now be imported 20 per cent cheaper, but calomel imports are small. The duty on epsom salts, too, has been cut in half and that of rochelle salts pared a half cent a pound. A me wduity of 1 cent a pound has been placed on sarsaparilla root, but the retail price of figs should go down a half-cent if the buyer gets all tariff benefits.

Quinine is still on the free list and 25,000,000 pounds of the bark are the estimated imports for next year. The duty on camphor is reduced one cent a pound, but the consumer will hardly save anything on a dime bottle as a result. Cod liver oil should be bought cheaper, at least in the East as the duty of 15 cents a gallon has been removed. Disinfecting one's home after sickness should be cheaper. As the duty on formaldehyde has been reduced from 25 to 4 per cent. Leeches the old-fashioned "blood-letting" devices are still on the free list. So are all anti-toxins, including vaccine virus.

"THE MERRY COUNTESS" IS ATTRACTION FOR TONIGHT. The following about "The Merry Countess" tonight's offering at the Wichita Theatre, is from a recent issue of the Shreveport Times: "The Merry Countess" is a most happy selection when they chose "The Merry Countess" to open the local season. That local theatre-goers appreciated their efforts was evidenced by the large number on hand. If last night's production is a criterion the winter will bring the best series of attractions Shreveport has had an opportunity to see in recent times. "The Merry Countess" is just naughty enough to be delicious and the champagne that flows so freely throughout three acts. While the rain poured down out with wit and humor. The singing is excellent, and the principals being possessed of a splendid voice and a knowledge of how to use it to the best advantage. The ease and naturalness with which they sing was remarkable. Mabel Baker as the Countess lived up to all that has been said of her in the second act where she steals her husband's watch which he so jealously guards from desiring "microbes," she reaches the pinnacle of her art. She is the mysterious Hungarian Princess par excellence. Carl Hayden, the amorous Hungarian, filled his part equally well. To him fell the majority of the song bits of the production and he made a splendid impression. And Harry Carter, that Prince chapt! He was the most utterly bored person that could be imagined—the world held nothing interesting for him—until Dale Winter, the Countess' masquerading parlor maid, came to his party on the invitation of her sister, Minna, of Prince Orloffsky's private harem. Then he found a girl who was "most disgustingly natural," so natural, in fact, that, even after she confessed to being only a lady's maid instead of Madam Olga, the famous actress, he couldn't forget that he was in love with her. As he himself expressed it, he was too old at 25, but when Ilka happened along he grew young again—quickly. Arthur Clough, as Count Max Clough, the husband of "The Merry Countess," and a nobleman of great capacity as an affinity hunter, and Pacie Ripple, as Dr. Bernacattier, private physician to the Prince, were two of a kind! Both sang well and acted well, contributing considerably to the success of the production.

But the show would have been most woefully incomplete without Charles Udell and Jack Henderson. Udell was Herr Hocheimer, governor of the New Age prison and Henderson, Mattoni, a most unfortunate new warder. Were the prisons on the other side of the footlights anything at all like Herr Hocheimer's experiment would require several armies to guard them against persons who broke the law in the hope that they would be sent to jail for life. The other members of the cast, particularly Veta Lorenz, were equal to the demands made upon them by the high standard set by the principals. Miss Lorenz's dancing was the best ever seen here, and she drew her share of the generous applause with which the efforts of the entire cast were rewarded. If all the rest of the attractions to be seen here this winter are equal in their separate lines, to the se-son's opener Shreveport is to be congratulated on the treats in store for it.

REAL SUFFRAGE ARMY IS MISS PANKHURST'S PLAN

London, Oct. 28.—A suffrage army well drilled and armed, ready if necessary to literally fight for the vote, is the latest scheme of the militant suffragettes, Miss Sylvia Pankhurst who is one of the "mouse" suffragettes has expressed her readiness to personally lead the army, and she is appealing for volunteers to instruct her followers in jujitsu and regular military drill.

The people of the East are quite ready to riot for us and would be very effective fighters if they had some training," declared Miss Pankhurst in an interview with the United Press. "Our big crowds are no match for the police, who are especially chosen for their size, besides being trained and armed. We could have you into Downing street any time, but if our people had only known how to keep together and once we had got there who knows what would have happened. If we were strong enough to overpower the police it would be a really simple matter to enter a minister's house, and the cabinet which does not care about a private citizen who has had his property destroyed would soon take notice of a more personal annoyance.

Cabinet Ministers have always advised us to make ourselves extremely disagreeable, so of course, we must, and as it seems clear that the vote can only be won by force, it is force we must use. The drilling under this new scheme will not be confined to women, for the men who wish to help can drill with us. It is quite legal for the government to make no attempt to interfere with Sir Edward Carson and his followers in Ulster who are arming and drilling themselves quite openly. As for weapons, why should we not use them? The police are armed. Some time ago I advised our people to use sticks and they have done so with considerable effect. I am convinced that it is our fighting in the streets that has killed the vote and caused laws for the police to have got tired of having to arrest the "infants" so frequently. When the law was new my mother was dragged back to prison even when she was about to attend Miss Emily Davison's funeral, while now she is allowed to go to the Continent.

INDIVIDUALISM

Did you ever stop to think what it was that made your friend Jones or who ever it happened to be the kind of a character he was. Every time you think of him you remember some distinct characteristic. What is it? You don't know and you never will, unless the Creator gives you a better vision in the next world, but the human brain is such a wonderful thing that it looks and at once perceives the varied characteristics that go to make up the different individual. No other business calls for individualism like the one in which we are engaged. Our customers seek oftentimes to reflect the most marked characteristics, and we thus record history for future generations to consider.

We always try to reflect the life of the individual, as near as possible using marble, granite or bronze and the English language.

A DIAMOND

Is the one stone that brings more returns than any other known Gem. It is the one stone that all—old and young—prize. Even a little one with a stone hardly large enough to be seen, is indeed proud. Then comes the little girl of from eight to twelve years—all prize them, and the young lady of eighteen prizes the DIAMOND. Why? Because Papa or her sweetheart, John, gave it. It brings joy and happiness. And now mother should not be forgotten, because it brings her closer to "hubby." Possibly all cannot afford a large DIAMOND, but we have all sizes—suitable for Baby to Grandma, and our
