REJECTION OF U.S. DEMANDS BY HUERTA IS REPORTED

Mexican President Said To Be Standing Firm, And Will Seat Congress Chosen At Recent Elections

By Associated Press. Mexico City, Nov. 6.—The purposes of General Huerta were voiced this morning by a person who is close to the provisional president. Huerta is determined to reject all the demands set forth in the latest American communication and is resolved to seat the Congress just elected.

If Congress, however, declares the recent presidential election void and makes arrangements for another election, General Huerta would be disposed to abide by this decision and submit to the people's choice of a president.

There was no indication here today whether Huerta would make a formal reply to the communication of the United States. The nature of the memorandum was said to call for no other reply than compliance.

How long Washington expects to wait for this compliance is a question which is greatly interesting the few here who are convinced of the passage of the communication from the United States government to the provisional president.

U. S. May Retaliate By Lifting Embargo On Arms For Rebels

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 6.—News that Huerta would reject the American demands for his elimination was received in official circles without comment. Talk of lifting the embargo on arms was revived in congressional circles. The president last August took a position against lifting the embargo.

Many persons have been pointing out, however, that one of the alternatives open if Huerta declined to resign, was to lend support morally to the constitutionalists. The rebels here declare they do not wish recognition of their belligerency, but only to obtain arms on equality with Huerta. Officials declined to say whether they had received an answer directly or indirectly from Huerta to the latest demands.

The foreign relations committee discussed the Mexican situation and gave consideration to the question of lifting the embargo on arms. Senators said nothing definite had been done, but it seemed most of the senators had not changed their favorable attitude toward such a move but were disposed to defer to the wishes of President Wilson in the premises.

GERMAN BOATS SENT TO SOUTH AMERICAN PORTS

Battleship and Cruiser Will Sail to Waters Where They Will be Convenient to Mexico

By Associated Press. Berlin, Nov. 6.—The newest German battleship Kaiser and Koenig Albert and the cruiser Strassburg have been ordered to leave early in the month of December for South American waters. The cruise is said to be merely a "test voyage" but the warships, it is pointed out here, will evidently be available for service on the Mexican coast if it should prove necessary.

M. E. CHURCH REVIVAL CONTINUES IN INTEREST

Attendance is Good, Considering Inclement Weather—Services Held Each Evening

In spite of inclement weather, much interest is being manifested in the revival at the First M. E. Church, where Rev. Van Arter of Portland, Oregon, is conducting services each evening. Although the weather has been bad and the streets muddy every night this week, there has been good attendance and with the return of good weather, it is believed much larger crowds will attend.

"The Man Who Petered Out" was Mr. Marter's subject last night. He told the story of Peter and his denial of Christ and compared the incident to the experience of many people of the present day.

FOUR STATES DELEGATES AT GOOD ROADS MEET.

Neosho, Mo., Nov. 6.—Governor Major of Missouri today urged other states to follow the example set by Missouri in specifying certain days of each year as "good roads days" when every citizen is to "get out and work" on the highways of the state. The plea was made at the annual meeting of the Four States Good Roads Association. Delegates from Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri attended. Gov. Major declared that if every state in the union emulated the Missouri example it would do more to make the roads of the nation better than any other one thing. A special program has been arranged for tonight when the delegates will be shown moving pictures of the work done in Missouri on good roads day, when the chief executive of Missouri donned overalls and with the governor of Kansas as his guest, put in a day or two digging on the roads with "other ordinary citizens."

INTERNATIONAL PURITY CONGRESS IN SESSION.

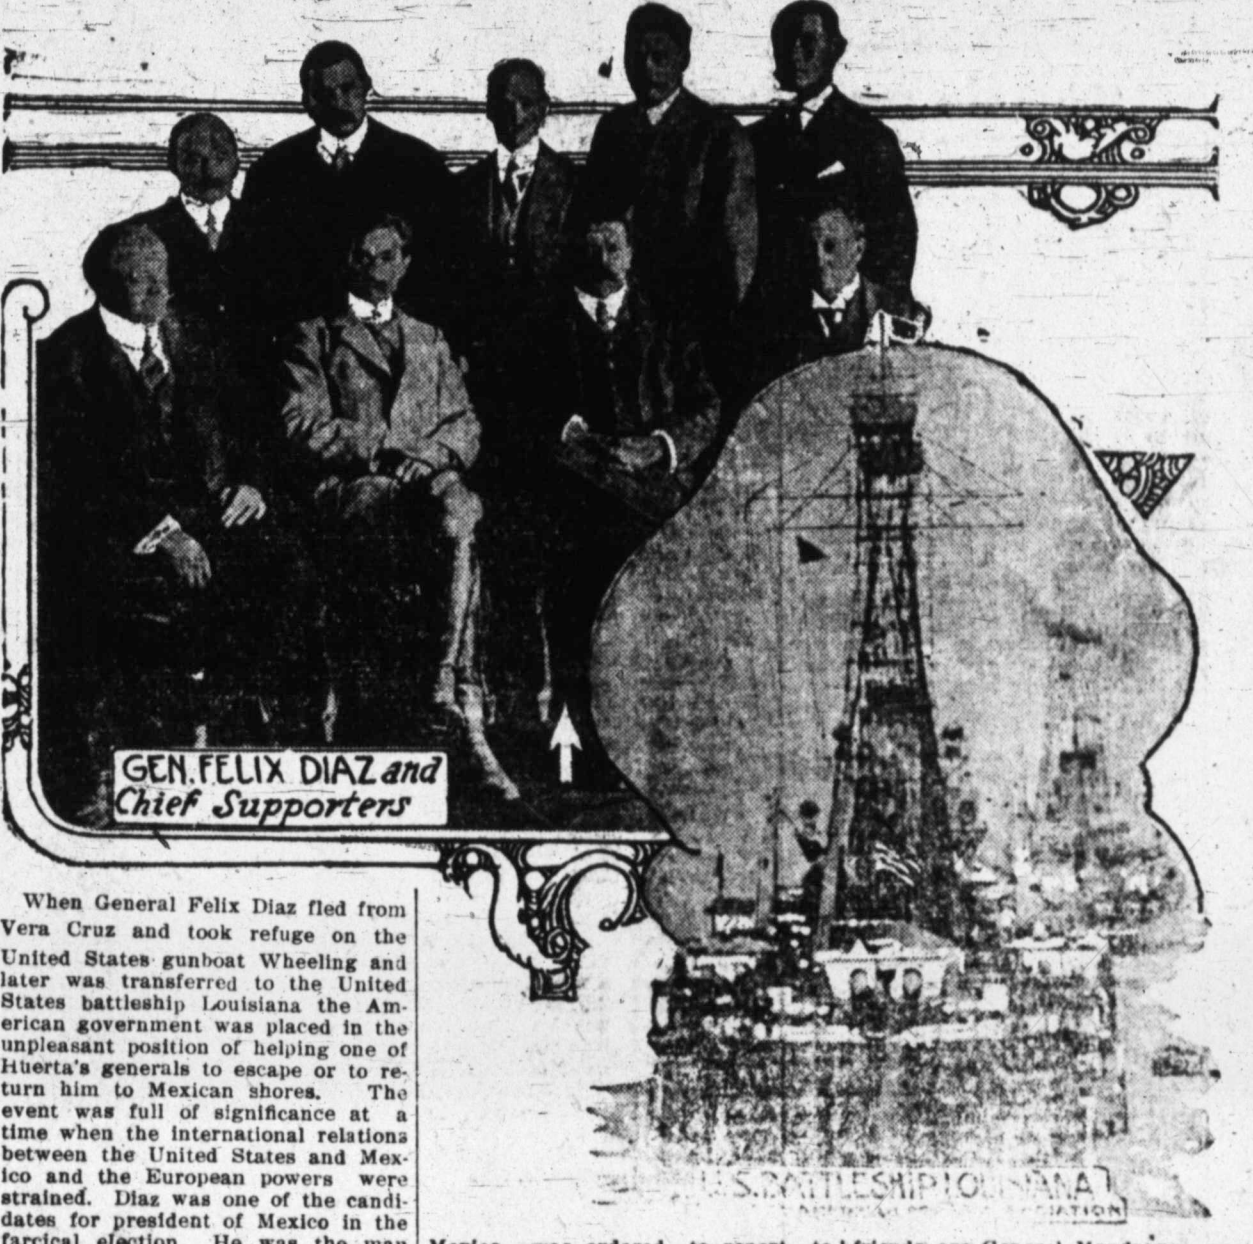

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 6.—Government officials, members of societies organized to forward social uplift; eminent reformers and philanthropists of international reputation, gathered here today from every section of the United States and from the entire civilized world to attend the seventh International Purity Congress which convenes in Minneapolis tomorrow under the direction of the International Purity Federation. The Congress will remain in session through Wednesday, November 12. During that period, men and women prominent in every line of activity for the suppression of the social evils, the white slave traffic, and the various evils of municipal, state and federal government as relating to society, will deliver addresses, and the topics selected will be discussed at open sessions.

Minneapolis today received more than two-thirds of the thousand or more delegates and visitors to the convention. Every state in the United States and Canada, England, Germany, Australia, France, Mexico, Austria, Russia, Turkey, Japan, China, India, Spain, Holland and Portugal are some of the countries represented by delegates who reached here today.

TOTAL ABSTAINERS MORE SUBJECT TO APPENDICITIS.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Don't be a teetotaler if you would avoid appendicitis. This is the advice given by Dr. Gagey and Professor Sabrazes, in an article on the subject, published today in the current issue of La Presse Medicale. They cite a family of sixteen persons among whom six, who were total abstainers, had to be operated on for appendicitis. None of the others, all of whom were wine drinkers, have ever shown any symptoms of the disease.

REGIONAL BANKS' STOCK TO PUBLIC

GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL THEM—BASIS OF COMPROMISE ON CURRENCY MEASURE

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 6.—The stock of the regional reserve banks of the new currency system will be owned by the public and the regional banks will be controlled by the government. The Senate banking committee today incorporated that feature in the administration currency bill by a vote of seven to five.

Senators Reed and Hitchcock, Democrats, joined the five Republicans voting for the resolution over the protest of Senators Owen, Pomerehne, Shafroth, Hollis and O'Gorman the remaining Democrats. Jointly framed by Senators Reed, Hitchcock and Weeks, the resolution was regarded by some as the basis of a compromise between the White House and the senators in control of the committee.

Full details of the plans will be made public within a few days.

SWEDEN'S CROWN PRINCE IS NOW A TEETOTALER

London, Nov. 6.—The crown prince of Sweden has become a teetotaler, through the influence of his wife, formerly Princess Margaret of Connaught, according to Herbert Stead, who today returned to London from a tour of the Scandinavian country. "The crown prince has greatly endeared himself to the people of Sweden," said Stead, "by the prominent part she has taken in forwarding the total abstinence movement. Her conversion of the crown prince to total abstinence is only one of the many things she has done for the cause of temperance. Although the royal pair continue to provide wine for their guests at formal dinners, neither one of them ever tastes anything stronger than plain water."

COMMERICAL EXPEDITION ARRIVES AT COLON TODAY.

Colon, Panama, Nov. 6.—The steamer Albarguez of the United Fruit Company line, arrived in port today with a score of members of the "Commercial Expedition," which will tour Central and South America aboard. They will sail on that date on the steamer Lamari for Payta. Tomorrow the Expedition will inspect the canal and the Panama fortifications, as the guests of the government officials in charge of the canal zone.

COX CASE TO BE WITH JURY SOON

ARGUMENTS IN MURDER TRIAL ARE BEING HEARD THIS AFTERNOON

EVIDENCE IS CONCLUDED

Numerous Witnesses are Used by the State in Its Rebuttal Testimony This Morning

(Staff Special) Henrietta, Texas, Nov. 6.—The fate of E. B. Cox will rest with the jury late this evening. Testimony was concluded at noon today. The arguments are now in progress. Three hours each have been given to the state and the defense for the argument.

A. J. Humphries, night watchman, who arrived at the scene of the shooting just before J. T. Young and Policeman Charley Summerville drove up. Mr. Jennings, the lodging house man with whom Hooper, a witness for the defense said he was talking at the Globe corner when his attention was attracted to the trouble, Mrs. Sterling B. Morris, widow of the man killed. W. J. Bullock, foreman of the grand jury and Dan Boone, county attorney who assisted in the grand jury investigation of the killing, were witnesses placed on the stand at the morning session by the state.

The defense used only one witness at the morning session this witness being Constable Harrison Schwend who testified that he got the knucks exhibited in yesterday's testimony from a hardware store in Henrietta.

Mr. Humphries said he was across the street when his attention was attracted to what at first he thought was some scuffling in front of the Wichita Hardware store. He ran across the street and saw Morris, Cox and Graves in a mix-up. He tried to pull them apart and was behind and to one side of Morris when the latter was shot.

Mr. Jennings could not identify Hooper, who testified for the defense, as a man he had talked to on the corner just before the shooting. He did not remember of having seen any one cross the street just before the shots were fired.

Grand Jury Foreman Testifies. W. J. Bullock could not say for certain whether Hooper had been before the grand jury or not. He was certain that if he had he had made a statement to the effect that Morris had made a move toward his pocket just before Cox fired the first shot. County Attorney Boone's testimony was to the same effect.

Mrs. Morris, widow of the slain man, was in the court room this morning for the first time during the trial. She testified that her husband had left both his billie and his revolver at home on the evening of the killing.

Most of yesterday afternoon's session was taken up with the testimony of the defense. The witness who was on the stand for nearly three hours and who underwent a severe cross examination by Attorney Mathis. The witness sketched his life's history up to the day of the killing. On his cross examination he made several admissions that might be considered as damaging to himself. He declared he had fired only after Morris had jerked himself entirely loose from the other officers trying to hold him and that Morris was making a move toward his right side pocket. He testified that he had an automatic revolver. He testified that in the struggle preceding the shooting he had heard Graves warn Morris to keep his hands off his gun, pistol and to let loose his billie.

Questions About Brass Knucks. The relevancy of questions concerning knucks in the struggle became apparent yesterday afternoon when Undertaker Hill and Justice of the Peace W. J. Howard testified they had observed wounds on Morris' head that might have been inflicted with a pair of knucks.

The score or more of witnesses from Wichita Falls who have been in attendance upon the trial left on the noon train for that place.

A summary of the testimony of J. T. Young and Charley Summerville was taken from Henrietta Tuesday night was lost in transmission to The Times office.

Wednesday Afternoon Session. After the noon recess Wednesday, Mr. Hooper was recalled for further cross examination by the State. He was asked concerning his examination before the grand jury at Wichita Falls. He said no questions were asked him that he told the grand jurors all he saw. He did not remember whether he told of a movement toward Morris' right hip pocket or not.

George Hawkins, deputy sheriff, was next called. He said he did not consider Mr. Morris a dangerous man at any time. He did not know whether Morris and Tom Roberts were close friends or not. Witness said he was standing in front of city hall when Morris, Tom Roberts and three others came out of city hall. A negro was talking to him, Hawkins, "telling his troubles."

Witness said parties arrested were cursing and that two of them were intoxicated. Hawkins said he was standing in front of city hall when the change.

TROOPS ORDERED TO INDIANAPOLIS

GOVERNOR PUTS CITY UNDER MARTIAL LAW ON ACCOUNT OF STREET CAR STRIKE

WILL TRY TO RUN CARS

Labor Leaders Protest Against Action of Chief Executive—Troops Due to Arrive Today

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—The entire state militia of Indiana has been ordered to proceed to Indianapolis, by Governor Ralston, because of the street car strike here. The governor also asserted he would declare martial law. All of the troops are expected to reach here some time today.

The governor said he regretted that the troops had to be called out, but the situation is critical.

"Men are being assaulted and killed," said Governor Ralston, "property is being destroyed and there is rioting in the streets which the city authorities have not controlled, and I feel it my duty to take this drastic action."

The Indiana National Guard numbers about two thousand soldiers. They will report with all equipment.

President Todd of the street car company announced today that no attempt would be made to run the cars until the soldiers arrive, and take charge of the city. Labor leaders protested to Governor Ralston against his actions. M. L. Clifton, a labor attorney, filed a written protest against the state interfering with the strike.

OIL MILL OWNERS MAY TEST LOONEY'S RULING

Are Warned to Relinquish Control of Gins Which They Own and May Take Matter to Courts

Officials of the local cotton oil mills declined to comment today upon the opinion of Attorney General Looney, in which he warns mill owners to sever whatever connection may exist between their plants and cotton oil mills are admittedly connected with gins.

"Our concern is not a corporation, but a co-partnership," said T. B. Taylor of the Farmers Union. Mr. Taylor was questioned about this matter when here last week and said he was satisfied the Farmers Union mill was within the law. The best legal advice available, said Mr. Taylor, sustained his view on this point. There are twenty-three gins in the Wichita Valley connected with the union mill. Mr. Taylor took the view that, not being a corporation, the union concern would not be affected by the action of the attorney general.

Nothing was given out at the Wichita Cotton Oil mill regarding the opinion. D. P. Talley, the manager, said he had heard that it was planned to test the matter in the courts, as set forth in a dispatch from Waxahatchie in today's Times.

POTATO TARIFF LOWER BY UNDERWOOD BILL

Duty on Spuds is Reduced But is Not Expected to Bring About Lower Prices

Washington, Nov. 6.—The new tariff law grants free potatoes. Don't get the idea however, that this will mean lower tuber prices for tubers all over the country. It won't. Except in a few sections of the country and except when the housewife buys by the barrel, removal of the former duty of 25 cents a bushel will not cut the retail price at the family grocery store. Democrats figure that Americans residing along the Canadian border may save the full 25 cents. And they may feel the reduction this winter. So many residents along the Atlantic seaboard. But folks in interior cities will pay the same old retail prices—50 cents to $1 a bushel—depending almost entirely on the home crop.

Imports from Canada, Scotland and the Bermudas duty free may cut retail prices in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Detroit, Duluth, Chicago, and Portland, Me. But the imported tubers probably will meet in successful competition with the home grown product elsewhere. Freight rates will limit shipment from the immediate district of importation.

The habit of American housewives in buying potatoes in small quantities is another factor making the 25 cent tariff reduction of little value in reducing the cost of mashed, baked and other potatoes on the family table.

first on the scene of arrest. He went a piece with Cox, Storey and Graves with the prisoners toward the city hall. Cross examined he said it was customary with the police to use their own discretion whether they would lock up a prisoner or turn him loose. Elmer Atkins, a waiter was the next witness examined. He said he went down to the city hall when the prisoners were taken there. He heard Morris say he "wouldn't take a nigger's word for it," and Cox answered, "Then, do as you please about it." Cox then walked out. Atkins left the city hall. He said he saw Morris about fifteen minutes before the shooting walk out of the Schlitz Bar near Salvation Army headquarters. Chief of Police R. V. Gwinn said he last saw Morris alive about 6:30 on the evening of the shooting. Morris was mad about something, he said, witness thought he had taken a drink. He had a talk with deceased about drinking. It was not customary to file complaints before making arrests.

Defendant Takes Stand.
The defendant was placed on the stand. Said his name was E. B. Cox; was thirty-eight years old; born in Mississippi. Moved to Titus county, Texas, when he was twenty years old; lived on farm; when he left the farm he went to Texarkana when twenty-three years old and worked for street railway as conductor. He was never arrested when he lived in Texarkana; he went to Abilene in October, 1912, where he went into the hotel business. He was not arrested in Abilene. He went to Wichita Falls in December, 1912 and worked for the street railway company in Wichita Falls; began working for the city of Wichita Falls as a policeman in April of this year. His examination led him down to the night of the shooting. He told of the arrest of the four men and of Morris refusing to take complaints against them. He told of the second arrest of some of the men and of their being locked up in the city hall. He said they met Morris with Graves. He said they met Morris in front of the Wichita Hardware store. His testimony from this point on until the firing of the shots follows:

"Morris asked, 'Where are you boys going?' I answered, 'We're walking around.' He said, 'Cox, I didn't like what you said awhile ago.' I said, 'Morris, I didn't say anything to hurt your feelings.' He said, 'But you were butting into my business. I want to tell you now and for all time never butt into my affairs.' I said, 'I did not butt into your affair, but if you want to take it that way, what are you going to do about it?' He exclaimed, 'You --- I'll show you what I'll do about it' and jumped on me.

"As Morris was talking to me I saw him slipping his hand in and out of his right pants pocket. I thought I saw an automatic revolver there.

"After he jumped on me Graves tried to separate us. I heard Graves say, 'Keep your hands off my pocket.' In the scuffle Morris got Graves' billie and hit me several times. I had on a soft black Stetson hat. I knew he was hitting me with a billie. I heard Graves say, 'For God's sake don't do that, keep your hand off my gun.'

"Finally Mr. Summerville ran up and grabbed hold of Morris. Morris slung him loose and came toward me. I stepped back. When he slung loose from Summerville, he made a move for his pocket, then I fired.

"The witness did not know whether the first shot struck Morris or not. Defendant said Morris was coming toward him and nobody had hold of him. He believed at the time Morris intended to kill him and he shot to save his own life. Defendant said he had a billie in his pocket but he had no other weapon besides his revolver. He saw no one with a pair of knucks. After the shooting witness said Mr. Humphries came to him and said, 'Give me your gun,' which he did and walked to the city hall. Defendant himself picked up the billie and carried it to the city hall.

"Defendant said when Morris put his hand in his pocket he saw something that looked like an automatic revolver. He had before seen Morris with an automatic revolver. Witness believed Morris was drinking. He had been told by Graves never to cross Morris when the latter was mad or drinking.

Cox Is Cross Examined.
Cross examined he said when Morris exclaimed at the city hall when the four men were first arrested and he had told Morris that it was no affair of his (Cox) and Morris had replied, 'You're dam right I'll do as I please about it,' that it didn't make him feel sore.

"It nettled me very little if any," he replied in answer to a question from Mr. Mathis.
Defendant said so far as he knew, Morris did not know of the second arrest of any of the four men first arrested. He said he did not shoot before he did because either Graves or Summerville had hold of Morris. When Morris was loose from them and had come toward him and was making a motion toward his pocket he shot him. He declared he had "My head with me, but it was bruised." Mr. Mathis asked if defendant had not shot Morris, when he, Cox, was armed with a revolver and billie and while Graves, Summerville and Humphries, armed officers were close to Morris and could almost reach him. Defendant answered that Morris was loose from all of them and was making a motion toward his pocket and that he, Cox, believed his life in danger.

Cox said he fired the three shots as quick as he could pull the trigger. He didn't notice Morris falling until after the third shot.
Dr. J. M. Bell, mayor of Wichita Falls, described Morris' wounds. One of the bullets entered just as the end of the breast bone and ranged upward and outward. So far as witness knew it didn't come out. One other entered to the left of this and two or two and a half inches below the nipple. It ranged upward and outward coming out at the left side and entering the left arm. He believed the arm had been extended outward at the time the bullet entered. He did not believe it probable Morris was lying on his back on the pavement, from the course of this bullet.

Chief of Police Gwinn who was recalled to the stand said Morris had owned an automatic revolver.

J. A. Cooper, sheriff of Titus county and W. E. Miller, a minister of that county testified that Cox had a good reputation. The state announced it would admit Cox had borne a good reputation up to the time of the shooting. The defendant then rested.

E. G. Hill Testifies.

E. G. Hill, undertaker, was placed on the stand by the state. He testified he had been called to take care of the body of Morris and was present when the body was searched. He said no weapon was found. He described the range of the bullet and thought the bullet that came out at the left side and entered the arm, might have taken that course if fired while Morris was lying on his back on the pavement. Witness said there were bruised places on Morris' face, one being over the right ear and one under the left eye. He said there were also some indentations near the crown of the head. There were four of these indentations in a straight row and they were to the nose. These dents could be plainly seen. Witness left of them, in answer to a question from Mr. Mathis he said in point of size, number, distance apart and effect they might have been caused with a blow with brass knucks. He said Justice of the Peace W. J. Howard had brought a pair of knucks and had applied them to the indentations and the knucks fitted them if turned slightly on the hand.

On cross examination witness said neither the defendant or any attorney for him was present when this examination was made. Attorney Taylor addressed the witness as "Doctor" several times and was corrected by him. The attorney later repeated the title "Doctor" again and was corrected with some asperity by Mr. Hill. Mr. Taylor apologized and the examination proceeded.

Justice of the Peace W. J. Howard who followed Mr. Hill on the stand also testified that he had observed four indentations in a straight row on the head of the dead man. He believed they were such wounds as might have been caused with a pair of knucks. Witness said he had placed his fingers in the indentations and had found the skin in the deepest one broken and when he withdrew his finger it had blood upon it. He said he had been sheriff of Wichita county and was now justice of the peace at Wichita Falls. He said he had seen and examined wounds caused with knucks before. On cross examination he said he had no blood relationship with Morris.

With the examination of Mr. Howard court recessed until 8:30 this morning.

Things You Do Not See

When you buy a mattress are its most important features. For instance, there is a stuffing called "linters" which often is made up of left-over wads of cotton seeds and dirt. You can buy one very cheaply. The ticking may be the same as on a high-grade mattress, but the bumps will soon come and nobody on earth can take them out.

A good mattress made of white, fluffy cotton, absolutely pure and clean, is worth every penny you pay for it. It will last for years and come back fresh and new every time you sun it.

The Cry of the Tame. Let me get away from the city. Where squatter is seen every day. I want to go out in the wildwood in highways and byways in May. Away from its rattle and roar. Out to the hills grand and silent. Where the lark and the eagle soar. Somehow the city seems lonely. True I am old and I'm slow. But the cities wild cry is pathetic. It hurts me and I just have to go.

Let me get away from eyes staring. Away from the faces so grim. Let me get away from the flowers. Away from the tumult and din. Let me get away from sky scrapers. The ones that are bulged by man. Lead me to the sky peering mountains. Builded by God's own plan. There let me breathe their fragrance. Let me list to the purring stream. Let me grow wild like the flowers in this, the land of my dreams.

WESLEY GIRLS HONOR BRIDES WITH RECEPTION.

The at-home given by the Wesley Girls at the home of Mrs. T. J. Wagoner given in honor of Mesdames Ithea Howard, John R. Chambers and Earl Harvey of Ladonia, was a complete success. Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Chambers are brides, members of the Wesley Girls and Mrs. Harvey, also a bride, is the guest of Mrs. Wagoner. The house was decorated with roses and chrysanthemums. The dining room was transformed into a Japanese tea room. The large table was covered with an imported Japanese tea cloth, embroidered in Vista-oria design in blue and white. An immense Japanese basket filled with white chrysanthemums completed the table decorations. Chrysanthemums were also placed on the tiny tea tables scattered around the room. The guests were invited for three different hours. The friends of Mrs. Howard, Sr. and Mrs. Hardy, mother of Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. R. E. Hendry, grandmother of Mrs. Rhea Howard were invited to come from three to four. The young matrons from four to five and the girls who are still "Misses" from five to six. The guests were met at the door by Misses Grace Nolan and Ruth Harding. In the receiving line in the reception hall were Mesdames Howard, Hendry and Hardy and the honorees, Mrs. Chambers, in a lovely gown of white satin with over dress of green chiffon and lace, Mrs. Rhea Howard in blue crepe-meteor cut-en-train, and Mrs. Harvey in white satin with fur trimmed over-drapery of black net. The guests were next ushered into the adjoining music room and library. Mrs. Hugh James was in the library and Misses Zora Robertson, Tommie Hale, Evelyn Hawley and Mrs. Leon Deaton were in the music room, the young ladies in their lovely evening dresses and the floral decorations of the rooms making a most charming picture. In the tea room, Mrs. Robson, Mrs. Jones and Misses Hazel Robson, Alta Ruffner and Gladys Burgett dressed as Japanese girls served brown and white sandwiches, olives, mints and tea in picturesque Japanese pots to the visitors. The Wesley Girls wore red and white ruffled class flower and colors through courtesy of Mrs. Ed Howard. Others in the house party were Mesdames Jack Shelton, J. O. McDowell and Misses Lena Gardner, Myrtle Humphries and the Cook during the course of the afternoon Mesdames Chambers, Harvey and McTier favored the company with solos and various young ladies furnished instrumental music. One of the most enjoyable features of the afternoon was a few selected readings by Miss Hawley. The whole affair was enjoyable in the highest degree showing careful planning and being skillfully executed, a marked characteristic of entertainments undertaken by the Wesley Girls and engineered by their teacher, Mrs. C. R. Hartsock. The guest list included: Mesdames Ed Cobb, S. Y. Ferguson, Patterson, G. D. Anderson, Stone, Avis, Carrigan, A. D. Filgo was elected corresponding secretary to fill the unexpired term of Miss Childers. The club was favored with special music, some vocal and instrumental selections by Miss Laura Bell. An elaborate salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Arthur and William Huff to the following members: Mesdames Blankenship, Bolding, H. L. Baker, G. W. Fligo, E. M. Burned Out, But Still in the Game

I have been so busy since my recent fire that I have not had time to prepare an add telling you that I was still in the game and that I was getting ready to re-open in a new location with new goods, new fixtures and new ambitions. My new location is in the Reese building. I expect to open between now and the 15th. The exact date will be announced later. I am going to show the people of Wichita Falls what a modern pure food store could be and will be. I will be better off in many respects than I was before the fire. That means that you will be able to get better goods and better satisfaction for your money.

INDIVIDUALISM
Did you ever stop to think what it was that made your friend Jones or who ever it happened to be the kind of a character he was. Every time you think of him you remember some distinct characteristic. What is it? You don't know and you never will, unless the Creator gives you a better vision in the next world, but the human brain is such a wonderful thing that it looks and at once perceives the varied characteristics that go to make up the different individual.

No other business calls for individualism like the one in which we are engaged. Our customers seek outfits to reflect the most marked characteristics, and we thus record history for future generations to consider.

We always try to reflect the life of the individual, as near as possible, using marble, granite or bronze and the English language.

The Enduring Gift

Every woman loves a Diamond. Every boy, girl, youth and man has at some time admired a fine diamond ring. Diamonds have always been more than gifts. They carry with them more than a mere "gift" sentiment. A birthday diamond, for example, always delicate because of its sweet significance, as will as the regard of the giver and the enduring quality of the gift itself. So, when you give, let your gift fulfill that existing desire for something beautiful. Give a diamond—a handsome diamond—a diamond you can afford, the gift that you will endure. For whatever gift occasion—birthday, holiday or anniversary, you will find the diamond most appropriate, no matter what it is for.

Good pure fresh roasted coffee freshly made contains nothing injurious, but on the other hand it produces contentment of mind, allays hunger, mental and bodily weariness, increases the capacity for work, makes man forget his troubles and anxieties; enabling those who use it judiciously to endure unusual fatigue and remain a long time without food or sleep, as well as to preserve their temper and cheerfulness. If you wish to try it you can at all times get a cup served with whipped cream for FIVE CENTS at the UNION CONFECTIONERY, Eighth Street
