DEMOCRATS ARE VICTORIOUS IN NEARLY ALL ELECTIONS

Tammany Overwhelmingly Defeated And Mitchell And Sulzer Win— Results In Other States

Democratic governors were elected yesterday in each state where this office was filled, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia. With the exception of New York where the Tammany democracy was severely rebuked, more democratic than republican victories were recorded.

In Massachusetts there was a democratic landslide. Lieutenant Governor David I. Walsh was chosen governor by a plurality of 53,601, the largest ever given a democratic candidate for the office.

The Tammany democracy in New York state was condemned in a manner which left little solace to the leaders. John Purroy Mitchell, Fusionist, was elected mayor of New York over Edward E. McCall by 121,209 votes.

In New Jersey, James F. Fielder, Democrat, was elected by 22,000 and the democrats will control both houses of the Legislature. The democratic victory in Kentucky was complete.

The defeat of Tammany in New York City was accentuated, of course, by the triumph of William Sulzer, running on the Progressive ticket for assemblyman from the sixth district.

By a safe majority, the republicans will control the next Assembly, democratic, fusion and progressive candidates being defeated in enough up-state districts to overcome the small margin which the democrats possessed in the legislature.

One result that is occasioning some comment today is that in Massachusetts, where the republicans have apparently secured second place. The progressives had practically been conceded second place and were hopeful of electing their man to the governorship.

Middle Western Results Are Divided Between Democrats And Republicans

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Returns from yesterday's elections in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, show the following: Cincinnati and Toledo will have republican administrations. Cleveland, Columbus, Indianapolis, Evansville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Muncie and Logansport will have democratic administrations.

MURDERED MAN IN JAIL; DECLARED TO BE INSANE

Zepeda took a squad of police to the prison, had Hernandez shot and the body burned. The report today has been taken under advisement by a civil judge who, it is expected will liberate Zepeda.

ADMINISTRATION'S VIEWS UPHELD, WILSON'S VIEW

Has No Official Comment To Make on Election Results, But Feels Encouraged

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Wilson made no official comment today on the Democratic victories but told friends he was much encouraged because in the three states electing governors the tariff and currency were issues and he felt the administration policies had been upheld.

MUD TO BE USED IN TREATING CZAR'S SON.

Odesa, Nov. 5.—One thousand cases of mud from the municipal salt lake baths near here were shipped today to Livadia, in the Crimea, where it will be used in the treatment of the little Czar's son. The mud is said to be marvelously efficacious in affections of the bones such as that from which the Czar's son has long been a sufferer.

STATE RESTS IN COX TRIAL TODAY

ONLY TWO WITNESSES ARE PUT ON STAND BY PROSECUTION IN CASE

DEFENDANT NOW WITNESS

Goes on in His Own Behalf This Afternoon—Testimony May be Concluded by Tonight

Henrietta, Texas, Nov. 5.—The State rested this morning in the trial of E. J. Morris charged with murder for the killing of Policeman Sterl B. Morris at Wichita Falls on the night of August 21 of this year, after examining two witnesses, J. T. Young and Policeman Charles Summerville who were eyewitnesses to the shooting.

The defense at once began the introduction of its testimony and when the noon recess was taken of their witnesses, Graves and Storey, policemen and W. P. Hooper, employed with L. C. Hivick, the oil man, had testified.

There were discrepancies in the details of the testimony of all the witnesses, each testifying to incidents and words that others had not observed and each seeing some things differently from others.

The jury is composed of men none of whom are over forty-five years of age and none apparently under thirty years. It is apparently a jury of high average in intelligence. It is probable that the testimony will be closed tonight. All of the important witnesses are being held even after they testify.

Graves and Hooper were good witnesses for the defense. Their cross examination failed to change their testimony on any important point.

Clarence Brown was on the stand when noon recess was taken. It was announced that the defendant himself would be the next witness.

The taking of testimony began yesterday afternoon. Charles Summerville and J. T. Young being the witnesses. Mr. Young's testimony was completed and Summerville had undergone his direct and cross examination when the court recessed for the day.

This Morning's Session. On re-direct examination at the morning session Summerville said that at the city hall Morris had only said that if the complaint against the men was filed by a negro he would not accept it. Nothing else was said that he remembered. Cox, he said, walked out without saying anything. The State rested with Summerville's testimony.

Policeman J. S. Storey was the first witness placed on the stand by the defense. His examination was taken up by Attorney Taylor.

Storey said he worked with Cox probably more than he worked with any other policeman. He was on duty on the night of the shooting. He was at the scene where he had gone for a drink of water when he heard the shots. He said four men were brought to the city hall before the shooting. They were arrested by himself, Cox, Morris and Summerville. They were arrested at the alley on Seventh street between Indiana avenue and Ohio. The officers took the men to the city hall. Two of them were "pretty well organized."

When they arrived at the city hall they sat them down and he and Cox started to fill out complaints. Morris asked, "Who is there to swear out these complaints?" Cox answered, "These niggers." Morris said, "We won't take any complaints from niggers." Cox then said "alright" and got up and walked out. Morris said, "You're a d— it's all right."

He then told of the arrest of two of the same men and a third the second time and putting them in jail after entering their names on police blotter. The second arrest was made by himself, Graves and Cox. After this Cox and Graves walked up the street toward Eighth street. He, Storey, walked over to the ice plant and heard the shots about the time he reached the ice plant. There was one shot and then two shots in rapid succession. He ran toward the scene of the homicide and met Humphries on the way to the city hall with Cox. He went back to the city hall with them and then went on to the scene of the shooting.

Witness was handed the broken bottle. He estimated its weight at more than two pounds. He said he had seen Morris before the shooting. Had not seen him take a drink; he believed from his talk that he had been drinking. Smelled the fumes of liquor in the room at the city hall. Morris and others were there. He couldn't say that fumes came from Morris.

Storey is Cross Examined. Cross examination by Mr. Mathis, witness said he was familiar with the fumes of liquor; knew the meloniness of a long toddy himself. Each of the four men took one of the prisoners to the city hall. He and Cox started to write out appearance bonds when Morris told them that if there was nobody but a nigger to make a complaint against them, they wouldn't need any bond. Cox suggested that the policeman could make complaints but did not offer to do so. Cox walked out. He followed soon after. He did not know how the prisoners got

FRANCE ASKED BY MEXICO TO MEDIATE IN CRISIS

Gives Non-Committal To Request, Indicating Unwillingness To Interfere With United States

By Associated Press. Paris, Nov. 5.—The French foreign office was asked informally today by the Mexican foreign office if it was disposed to mediate between the United States and Mexico. The French government took the attitude that it will do nothing further until advised as to the policy of the United States toward Mexico, and then nothing which might be unwelcome.

Action Of France Brings Satisfaction In Official Circles At Washington

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 5.—State department officials take the position that the action of the French foreign office in refraining from indicating whether it was disposed to mediate between Mexico and the United States is another evidence of the intention of France to defer to the policy of the United States in the Mexican situation. France was among the first to comply with the request of the United States to defer action until this government formulated a policy.

Mr. Bryan today flatly refused to discuss the Mexican situation. He was asked about one published report, that General Huerta had made a reply to a recent communication from the United States; he refused to either confirm or deny it.

Though the use of the word ultimatum has been avoided, it has been admitted here that negotiations have been proceeding in pursuance of President Wilson's determination to secure the elimination of Huerta as a factor in Mexico. That this involved the delivery to the Mexican authorities of another communication also was admitted, though it was said that this communication did not partake of the nature of an ultimatum.

This much abused diplomatic term, it was pointed out, marks a stage in negotiations where one party notifies the other that a compliance with certain demands must be made by a certain fixed hour and date, leaving it to be inferred that force would be used if necessary to bring about a compliance. The term is often popularly used to indicate an urgent diplomatic communication that in effect is calculated to bring the negotiations to a definite issue, and some officials suggested it probably was in this last sense that the term was used in reports of action taken at Mexico City.

The correspondence already published shows that President Wilson has from the beginning insisted that the United States government can not recognize the legality of Huerta's claim to the presidential office and also that the so-called elections in Mexico, held Oct. 26, fell short of meeting the Washington view of the requirements of the constitution.

Consequently, it was said it is a logical deduction that this late note or communication was in the line of development of a policy which President Wilson has consistently pursued from the beginning and that in substance it amounted to a rather sharp reminder to Gen. Huerta that the United States government now looked to him to meet its expectations and give way to some regularly constituted authority calculated to bring peace to Mexico by commanding the hearty support of the factions now at war.

In communicating these views, however, it is said the officials here are desirous of having their movements proceed in a normal manner without an over emphasis which would imply that all the resources of diplomacy had been exhausted.

BARR IS AGAIN TAKEN TO DALLAS

IS TAKEN FROM JAIL AT WAXAHACHIE UNDER GUARD OF SHERIFF

NO DEVELOPMENTS TODAY

Sister of Man Gives out Statement Regarding His Actions at Time of Murder

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, Nov. 5.—Meade Barr, under guard of Sheriff Brandenburg, started for Dallas this afternoon from the Waxahachie jail. It was believed Barr was to appear again before the grand jury here. There were no developments in the case today.

Sister Asserts His Innocence. Mrs. C. E. Sanders, Barr's sister, in an interview, asserted that her brother is innocent. Her husband expressed the same belief. The sister said today of the events just before the Brown murder:

"For a week or more before Meade left Dallas he seemed to be in mortal fear that the Indiana officers were coming after him and often he would not leave the house alone. On the Sunday before the murder of Miss Brown, Meade appeared to be more nervous than ever. He claimed that the Indiana officers were in Dallas looking for him and would not let us tell anyone that he was in the house. When the telephone rang he warned Mr. Sanders to tell anyone who asked for him that he was not there.

"On the morning of July 28, the day the murder was committed, Meade left the house about 8 o'clock. It might have been a little before or it might have been a little after this hour. When he left he said me good-bye, saying he was going to leave Dallas. He walked south along Haskell avenue, going toward Fair park. On the Saturday night pre-

WILSON'S AGENT TO MEET REBELS

THE REPORT IS DENIED

Washington Representatives of Rebels Say They Have No Knowledge of a Meeting

Denied at Washington.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Representatives in Washington of the Mexican constitutionalists denied tonight any knowledge of a meeting planned between Carranza and an agent of President Wilson at Nogales.

Government Silent As To Plans.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Administration officials shed no further light today on their plans for dealing with the Mexican situation.

Reports describing the conduct of the election and giving impressions of the political situation generally in Mexico, were received today from John Lind at Vera Cruz. It is believed some of the suggestions under consideration here have been submitted to Mr. Lind for approval.

Urges Massachusetts to Uphold President.

Boston, Nov. 1.—The Orient, Europe and Mexico would regard the defeat of Massachusetts democratic candidate for governor, Lieutenant Governor David I. Walsh, a repudiation of President Wilson's foreign policies according to United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis who addressed a democratic rally here tonight.

"Mexico will go further," he said, "she will preach to her people that this condemnation was because the president had not recognized Huerta."

Senator Lewis entered the Massachusetts campaign hurriedly at the request of President Wilson. While in Chicago Thursday, he received a telegram from Secretary Tumulty and immediately cancelled several conferences to hasten to this state.

"Foreign governments do not understand your state issues," he said, "but they do know Massachusetts; you decide this election against the democracy and the morning after the fight of Massachusetts in behalf of the black man will cry aloud that Massachusetts had repudiated her president on the yellow question. Mexico will go further; she will preach to her people that this condemnation was because he had not recognized Huerta."

FINAL ATTACK ON MONTEREY IS PLANNED

Rebel Leaders Reported to Have Decided on This Course at Conference Saturday

By Associated Press.

Matamoros, Mexico, Nov. 1.—A final attack on Monterey with the combined constitutionalist forces now in the vicinity of this city, numbering ten thousand, was planned at a conference of constitutionalist officers and leaders. The conference which took place twelve miles east of Monterey, was participated in by General Jesus Carranza, General Gonzalez and General Blanco.

Additional details of the fighting at Monterey were brought to this city today by constitutionalist officers. The destruction of several hundred freight cars and several of the city's largest buildings by cannon and fire is confirmed. The number of non-combatants killed in the fighting, according to the officers, has been greater than the number of deaths among the troops on either side.

FIRE EARLY TODAY NEAR WATER AND LIGHT PLANT

A house near the power plant and pump station of the Wichita Falls Water and Light Companies owned by Moore and Ricbolt and occupied by Earl Nash and family was destroyed by fire early this morning. The fire started in the roof and is believed to have originated from a fuse. The building was destroyed but a part of the furniture was carried out.

COMMON GRUB WORM DOES $7,000,000 HARM IN YEAR

Department of Agriculture Issues Bulletin Showing Beet How to Fight Pests Away

Washington, Nov. 3.—A very conservative estimate places the damage to corn, timothy and potatoes in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois done by the common white grubs in 1912 at not less than $7,000,000.

This estimate resulted from a personal survey by John J. Davis, a scientific assistant, bureau of entomology, whose interesting pamphlet on the "Common White Grub" was recently issued as farmers' bulletin No. 543 by the Department of Agriculture.

The damage to the same crops in other infested areas can not be figured at less than 5,000,000, which brings the total loss, exclusive of strawberries, nursery stock, lawns and miscellaneous crops to not less than $12,000,000 for one year. Injury was sustained in almost every section of the country north of the Ohio River from the Atlantic Ocean to South Dakota.

Differences in Grubs

There is a general belief, which is erroneous, that the common white grubs of the old and the white grubs found in manure heaps and rotten logs are identical. The grubs of May beetles are not known to breed in refuse of any kind.

The grub of the Southern green June beetle is also commonly mistaken for the more serious pest. The grub of the June beetle seems to prefer fertilized soils and may also be distinguished from the true white grub by its peculiar method of crawling on its back.

Farmers in the regions infested last year will find it of special value to do deep plowing this fall. Ordinarily the best time to plow is between Oct. 15 and Oct. 15. The grubs will at this time have changed to pupae and adult beetles. These pass the winter in cells and if the cells are disturbed their inhabitants will be destroyed.

It is important to remember that plowing should not be delayed until cold weather for the grubs will have gone down to their winter quarters beyond the reach of the plow. An infested field may be thoroughly freed from grubs by pasturing it with hogs and this method should be followed wherever possible. Hogs will root to a depth of a foot or more in search of grubs. For infested lawns hogs are efficacious, but are not usually desirable as they tear up the sod.

Turkeys Good Assistants. Domestic turkeys—in particular— are preferable for lawns and if given the run of infested fields when the land is being plowed, will destroy large numbers of grubs. Pasturing of hogs to root out these grubs should not be delayed later than the middle of October nor practiced earlier than April or May, since in winter the grubs are probably too deep in the ground to be reached.

The May beetles usually deposit their eggs in fields of grass, timothy and small grains, especially in the vicinity of timothy where they feed. The crops planted in these fields the year following a season of beetles should be those least susceptible to grub injury. Such crops are small grains, buckwheat, clover, alfalfa and peas. There is no automatic record of the grub attacking these crops. In 1914 a maximum acreage of such crops as corn and potatoes should be planted as this will be in general, a season for beetles rather than grubs. These should be kept thoroughly cultivated during the spring months (May and June). Land which is planted to small grain, timothy and other crops which cover the ground with vegetation at this time should be planted in fields farthest from trees.

Liberal applications of commercial fertilizer will assist grass in overcoming grubs if there are not too many of them. When a lawn is badly infested the sod should be removed and the grubs gathered by hand, after which, fall plowing will probably prove satisfactory. In Europe cheap labor is often employed to gather grubs after the plow, especially where the grubs are numerous.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS ARE AFFECTED BUT LITTLE

Washington, Nov. 1.—Although the new tariff act with its lowered rates of duty has been in effect practically a month, the customs receipts have to far shown little falling off. According to the treasury statement today, the customs receipts amounted to $30,154,000 for October just about $80,000 less than those of October, 1912. The deficit for the fiscal year to date, the statement shows, is $5,537,627, about $1,800,000 more than the deficit in the corresponding period last year.

Pension payments under the Sherwood act are apparently largely responsible for the larger deficit. The payments for the period in 1912 through October amounted to about $2,500,000 and for the same period this year to $2,700,000. The net balance in the general fund of the treasury at the close of today's business was $121,923,123, and the grand total of cash in the treasury was given at $2,037,846,254.

Balling—Poultry enthusiasts of his city and surrounding vicinities are planning a poultry show to be conducted here in December. This will be one of the most extensive exhibits ever held here and is creating much interest among the fanciers of fine fowls.

INCOME TAX NOW BEING WITHHELD

IF YOUR PAY CHECK IS SHORT MAYBE ITS BECAUSE OF NEW TAX LAW

SELECTING COLLECTORS

Uncle Sam Needs 334 Collectors, 40 Agents, and Forty Inspectors for Service

Washington, Nov. 1.—With most of the regulations for the collection of the income tax out of the way, internal revenue officers today turned their attention to the selection of the staff to collect the money. In the next few months, 334 deputy collectors, forty agents and forty inspectors are to be appointed. Several thousand applications for these positions have been received at the treasury department. Appointments probably will be apportioned among the states. Although the operation of the income tax, so far as concerns collection at the source of income, began today, the actual cash will not reach the treasury for many months. Corporations and others who pay interest on bonds and mortgages or who pay salaries will withhold the tax. The return of the sums withheld will be made early in the year, but the collections will not begin until June.

Wall Street Irritated.

New York, Nov. 1.—Inauguration of the income tax law was the cause of much confusion in the financial district today. Institutions and banking houses which act as fiscal agents for large corporations were busy receiving and verifying coupons, the latter course being taken in cases where certificates of ownership were lacking. Wall street, as a whole, is irritated over the whole matter, its ill feeling resulting largely from the attitude of the treasury department which according to the Street has several times reversed itself in its regulations. At the house of J. P. Morgan & Company, the fiscal agents for many big corporations, coupons were received in large amounts subject to latest rules adopted at Washington. At the Chase National Bank, which has several thousand out-of-town correspondents from whom it collects coupons, payable here, it was said that coupons are not being received for deposit, but only for collection. It was reported that the bank is accompanying the coupons with a statement whether the bonds they represent were taxable or exempt.

ANOTHER WICHITA PIONEER GONE

Dick Wheeler, Once West Stage Driver, Succumbs To Attack of Dropsy

D. P. (Dick) Wheeler, a pioneer resident of Wichita Falls, died at his home at 1199 Seventh street at 11:30 o'clock Friday night after an illness from dropsy and complication of troubles, was in his sixtieth year and had been a resident here since the early eighties.

Before coming to Wichita Falls Mr. Wheeler was a stage driver out of Jackboro which was then one of the outposts of civilization along with Fort Griffin and Fort Concho. At one time Mr. Wheeler was employed by E. H. Corline when the latter was engaged in the livery business here and some of the older citizens remember when he made his regular trips over the city lighting and turning out the street lights for which Mr. Corline had the contract.

At the time of his death Mr. Wheeler was proprietor of the Princess Bar on Indiana avenue. He was a man of genial personality and it is his long residence here made many friends. Nearly all the old timers in this city here throughout this section knew and liked Dick Wheeler.

He leaves a widow and five children. One of his sons, G. F. Wheeler, Jr., who has been at work in the canal zone in New Mexico, is expected to reach here tonight. The other children are Mrs. A. O. Hancock, Miss Irma, Dick Jr., and Marie Wheeler.

The funeral will be held at the family residence at 1199 Seventh street at four o'clock this afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. F. F. Walters.

Musings of a City Builder. (By L. M. Ward, Sherman, president Texas Commercial Association). They took a little handle.

And they took a little grit. A little optimism. A little thought and patience. A little effort too. A little work to do. They took some persistence. And some tenacity. Some real determination. Some real consistency. Tenacity and courage. They added to the rest; A little public spirit. Some nerve to stand the test. A little unremitting. Unswerving confidence; A little plucky plodding. A bit of good horse sense; A little careful planning. A little civic pride. They said: "We'll build a city Where this old town has died." They organized their forces. Put everyone to work. They pushed the live ones forward. Ignoring those that balked. They got a lot of members. The kind that work and pay. And they built a thriving city. That is growing day by day.

EFFECT OF NEW TARIFF ON COST OF CLOTHING

Statistics Show That Average Family May Save As Much As Sixty Dollars a Year

Washington, Nov. 1.—Better clothing, and cheaper, too, is the joyful prospect for Americans as a direct and early result of the new tariff law. More real, tangible reductions of the "high cost of living" as a result of tariff legislation will be effected by the reduced duties on clothes and wearing apparel of all kinds than on any other commodity. Many republicans, as well as democrats, concede that clothing will be both cheaper and better because of tariff slashing. It is estimated the actual saving will be as much as $60 a year for the average family of five persons.

President Wilson today has before him statistics estimating the probable concrete savings Americans may expect on "wearables." The United Press is able to present exclusively these estimates which were prepared by the official statistician and "tariff expert" of the democratic party, who lifted the democratic campaign handbook in the presidential election last year. The figures will be used by the democratic congressional campaign committee during the forthcoming congressional campaigns. They are the democratic dictum on the probable reduction of the high cost of living as a result of the new tariff. The first figures are the present prices and the second are estimated reductions:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Items include: All wool serge suit, Worsted suit, Overcoat, Shawl, Shawl, Skirt, Collars, cuffs, doz., Linen cloth, yd., Woolen cloth, yd., Blankets, Flannels, Knit underwear, Wilton carpet, Brussels carpet, Tapestry Brussels, Treble Ingrain, Two ply Ingrain, Woman's dress, coat, etc.

The democratic statistician figures that the ordinary family will be able to save under the new law between 15 and 45 per cent each year on clothing, or between $20 and $60 a year. Republicans admit there will be a saving on clothing, but do not concede what the saving remains to be seen which is right. But the greatest tariff slashing was done in the wool, cotton and linen schedules, and some saving is bound to result. In any event, admission of wool, duty free after next spring will enable manufacturers to give consumers better quality if retail prices are not actually reduced.

For the man who buys suits costing from $7.50 to $12.00, little retail saving will be possible. Neither will tailor bills be any lower. But hand-me-downs selling now from $15 to $20 might go lower at retail—and eventually they will be of better quality. Few ready-made suits are imported however, and the imports are not expected to grow very much larger. Business mill costs are regarded as certain to follow.

Retail prices on wearing apparel however, can be readily reduced a few dollars before next spring, although wholesalers and retailers may decide to "unload" present stocks at bargain prices in some instances, in anticipation of the inevitable. Shirts, trousers, coats and other clothing, as a result of tariff revision leather has been on the free list an shoes became costlier at retail soon afterward. Lower import duties on shoe machinery and material used by tanners and shoe manufacturers, it is many years ago when any retail price reductions on shoes.

EUGENIC MARRIAGES ARE URGED BY BALDWIN

Kansas City, Nov. 1.—A plea to eugenic marriages by Governor S. E. Baldwin of Connecticut, and an address by Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis of Brooklyn, N. Y., on the new social obligations to the church brought to an end last night the fifteenth-annual council of the Congregational Churches of the United States. In addition to being the largest in point of attendance, the council was one of the most important in the church's history. It adopted a new constitution, appointed a general secretary, with enlarged advisory powers brought the eight church societies directly under the guidance of the council and provided for biennial meetings.

Governor Baldwin urged the passage of laws by state legislatures that will enable ministers of religion to determine whether or not parties to the marriage contract are fit before the minister performs the ceremony. Dr. Hillis said in part: "The great need of this hour in American society is the need of ministers and parents who will teach this generation that God is more than gold; that wealth is an obligation to poverty; and that from those who have received much, much will be required."

"There is not one industrial problem that would not be solved by the reappearance of the puritan type in our great railroads, banks and mines. If the republic is to prosper once again we must produce that splendid type of manhood that can hold our people back from the trampled corn fields and from bloody streets and fill the land not only with prosperity but with peace."

CUSTOMS COLLECTORS MEET IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, Nov. 3.—Economic efficiency methods for customs service administration were discussed today in a conference in the New York custom house at which all customs collectors gathered under order of Secretary of the Treasurer McAdoo. He recommended improvement and a complete survey of the proposed methods from within the service instead of from committees appointed from among outsiders as heretofore.

TARIFF IS NOT LOWERED ON THEATRICAL SUPPLIES

Devotees of Theatre Will Profit but Little by Passage of Underwood-Simmons Bill

Washington, Nov. 3.—None of the footlights didn't squint the eyes of Democrats who framed the new tariff law. They apparently had little thought of reducing the cost of theatricals in their "revision downward" to lower the cost of living. The stage-actors and play-goers will be little cheaped, if any, as the result of the tariff reductions. Of course, lambs and hams are made free of duty, but actors and actresses can find little financial solace in the new law. Neither can the devotees of the theatre, especially the "movie."

Theatrical supplies may even be slightly higher, as a result of the tariff revision, while increased import taxes on foreign moving picture films and complete photoplays, are given a new and almost prohibitive tax. Exposed and developed "movie" films must pay about 50 per cent of their value in duty now, as compared with 20 per cent under the old law. "Raw" unexposed film, however, is not subject to any duty. This gives American "movie" concerns the edge against foreign competition. It promises presentation of fewer foreign picture plays.

For the actor and actress, the new law increases about two per cent the duty cost of cosmetics, theatrical grease paint, pencils, powder, etc. Eyebrow pencils, however, are reduced about ten per cent. "Stage blondes" may be benefited by the dropping off of one-half the duty on bleaching powder. The dazzling calcium, so dearly loved by stage folk, may be cheaper by the reduction in the duty of three cents a pound on calcium. However, most of the spotlights nowadays are electric "opera glasses" may be cheaper, too, as the import duty has been lowered 10 per cent. Wigs of real hair do not increase in price at retail, as the duty of 25 per cent in the old law has been retained. Cheap horsehair wigs may drop at retail, however, as the import tax has been hopped considerably. Bureaucratic theatre patrons—and actresses—may be pleased to know that the duty on cotton lights has been cut in half. This may result in cheaper lights at retail—and more "em. Skeletons, too, are on the free list. Skins—dressed skins—reduced in duty to 10 per cent will indressed skins are on the free list.

NEW JERSEY'S CAMPAIGN PRESENTS MANY ANGLES

Fielder, Wilson's Successor as Governor, Is Democratic Nominee, With Much Opposition

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 3.—New Jersey's campaign is ended today. It is over but the shouting as far as the election of a successor to Governor Woodrow Wilson is concerned, is not over. The election of a successor to Governor Wilson is a matter of opinion—and the first in our state—on President Wilson's administration, since Wilson has openly declared for Acting Governor Fielder, who assumed to the office of this executive when Wilson resigned to go to the White House. Fielder has continued the policies started by Wilson when he was governor. He has continued to turn down the bosses and has turned a deaf ear to every suggestion from Jim Nugent, state boss on many years ago—Senator Smith whom Wilson, when governor, vaged open and relentless war, in every policy of administration and legislation. Democratic predictions are that Acting Governor F. Fielder, Democrat, will be elected to the chief executive office, defeating former Governor E. C. Stokes, Republican and former state Senator Everett Colby "progressive" but not mentioning the probability of a Republican victory. Claims are made also that the Democrats will remain in majority in the legislature, thus giving them continued control of state affairs and state offices. But Republicans are also making claims of success today. The supporters of former Governor Stokes are figuring out a Republican sweep that will elect him and return the party to control of the state. The progressives see a great slump from both old parties and the election of "Colby," although even in their optimistic moods they are not counting much on the legislature. Democrats base their claims for success on the split in the Republican ranks, due to the break with the progressives. They declare Governor Fielder will not practically the entire democratic vote excepting only in Essex county where his war on Smith and Nugent may result in some cutback. The Governor's recent repudiation of the Smith-Nugent crowd, it is believed, will cost him votes in Essex. RECKLESS DRIVERS GUILTY OF MURDER

Men Convicted are Denied New Trial By Chicago Judge—Decision of Great Importance

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A judicial decision said to be of great importance as precedent, was made here today by Judge Pennington Cooper when he declined to grant a new trial to two men convicted of murder in the use of automobiles. There have been suggestions for manslaughter in similar circumstances, but this is the first instance in Illinois of conviction and sentence for murder. The defendant, Frank Hrodek, and Lawrence Lindholm, were convicted in Judge Cooper's court, respectively of killing Patrick Condon, a retired merchant and Joseph Wells, a cigar manufacturer. In both cases testimony was produced showing that both defendants had been drinking and were driving without regard to the safety of pedestrians. Both defendants were professional chauffeurs.

Entire Side of Four Story Structure in New York City Gives Way, Falling On Dwelling

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 3.—The entire side of a four story storehouse in North Front street collapsed today and crashed through the frame dwelling of John Hughes, adjoining. Hughes and his grand-daughter, Eva Dooley, were instantly killed, three other persons fatally injured and another seriously hurt. Michael Greenberg, owner of the storehouse, said the building was dynamited, but firemen found no evidence of an explosion and declared that faulty construction probably caused the collapse.

MURDER CHARGE IS FILED AGAINST BARR AND WOMAN

'Lord Jesus, I Am Too Young to Die,' Miss Brown's Last Words, Caused Confession of Barr.

By Associated Press.
 Dallas, Texas, Nov. 3.—A charge of murder "by aiding and abetting Meade Barr" in the killing of Miss Florence Brown here last July has been filed against Mrs. Allie M. Lake, a young widow with whom Barr claims acquaintance. The charge was filed Saturday but not admitted to public notice until today.

A charge of murdering Miss Brown was similarly filed against Barr several days ago before his arrival here from the Jeffersonville, Indiana reformatory where he first confessed.

"O, Lord Jesus, I am too young to die and my life has been filled with so much trouble," ringing in the ears of Barr, confessed slayer of Miss Brown, was what led to his confession, according to information secured today.

"The words of that woman, uttered as she knelt on the floor after I had struck her with a pistol, and warm blood which splattered over my hand and arm when I drew the knife across her throat is more than I can bear to think of," said Barr. "When I close my eyes I can hear those words ringing in my ears, and I often wake up and find myself trying to wash the woman's blood from my hands and arms."

Officers who have been working on the murder mystery since Miss Brown's body was found lying in the real estate office where she worked on July 28, appeared to be well satisfied today. The grand jury continued its investigation of the case today, but Barr was not before it. He was still in the Waxahachie jail.

LEGISLATURE PLAYING PROMINENT ROLES IN NEW NATIONAL CURRENCY BILL CAMPAIGN

Washington, Nov. 3.—The complications arising over the enactment of the new national currency bill are absorbing almost the entire attention of congress. President Wilson has had united opposition to his plans, as embodied in the Glass-Owen measure, from the banking interests of almost the entire country. Carter Glass, congressman from Virginia, represents the president in conferences and debates. Leaders in opposition to the bill are Senators Bristow, Reed and Hitchcock. Senator O'Gorman of New York, originally opposed to the measure, is said to have been won over to the president's side. New York bankers had hoped that Senator O'Gorman would lead an active campaign against the measure.

MEADE BARR NOW AT WAXAHACHIE

BELIEVED AT DALLAS HE KNOWS SOMETHING ABOUT MURDER OF FLORENCE BROWN

CONSPIRACY IS HINTED

Believed Barr Will be Used in Investigation of Other Suspects in the Case

By Associated Press.
 Dallas, Texas, Nov. 1.—Meade Barr whom the police allege confessed to the murder of Florence Brown in this city last July is locked in the Ellis county jail at Waxahachie, it was learned definitely today. Barr was brought to Texas from the Indiana state reformatory where the alleged confession was made.

The jailer at Waxahachie admitted the man in his custody was Barr, but no one was permitted to see him. A new explanation for bringing Barr here developed from two sources today in private messages from New Orleans and from local agencies.

This was that he knows something about the circumstances of the murder. The New Orleans messages declared that Major Peyton, superintendent of the Indiana reformatory, intimated that some person other than Barr instigated the killing, and that the Dallas police hope to use Barr to find this person or persons. Locally, it was hinted there was a conspiracy behind Miss Brown's death and that Barr was to be used in investigating other persons.

Chief of Police Ryan, who two weeks ago announced in a formal statement that Barr could not possibly be connected with the killing and would not be brought here, would not talk about the case today. Public opinion here today seemed nearly unanimous in refusing to believe Barr killed the girl, unless direct evidence is produced besides Barr's already repudiated confession. Today also developed reports that the police believe local persons were the slayers of Miss Brown, about whom Barr knows something.

HIGH BRITISH OFFICIAL AND PARTY VICTIMS OF OUTRAGE BY MILITANTS

DOG WHIPS WERE USED

Rush Upon Automobile and Belabour Occupants Before Police Can Interfere

By Associated Press.
 Edinburgh, Scotland, Nov. 1.—Premier Asquith was attacked today by militant suffragettes, armed with dog whips. He was driving in an automobile accompanied by his daughter and Sir John Graham, a Scotch justice of the peace. The victims of the outrage were more frightened than hurt. The automobile was passing through the village of Plean, when it ran into a suffragette ambush. The "wild women" as they are called here, under cover of a shower of papers, rushed that if the women labored the premier and his companions.

They disappeared before the police car following—that of the premier, had reached the scene.

"I feel like dancing," she told the Chicago suffragettes, "but I never dance." She made two speeches and attended three receptions as her day's activity. Mrs. Pankhurst told several hundred members of the Political Equality League that if the women of Illinois failed in their duty at the polls, the fight for votes for women would receive a setback all over the world.

STREET CARS ARE TIED UP

Governor Ralston Refuses to Call Out Troops—Says City Police Not Doing Duty

By Associated Press.
 Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Governor Samuel M. Ralston tonight emphatically refused to take any action in the strike of street car employes, which completely tied up the service here at noon today. He told Mayor Shank, who admitted the situation was beyond control by the city authorities, that the police were not doing full duty, and for the mayor to appeal to Sheriff Portus of Marion county.

The mayor tonight conferred with the sheriff, but no decision was reached. No attempt has been made to move a car tonight, although about four hundred strike breakers were brought into the city this afternoon on a special train from Chicago. President Todd of the Street Railway Company, said tonight he was prepared to start the cars at any time police protection for them was offered.

Mob of 5,000 Fights.
 For more than an hour today, a mob estimated at 5,000 persons fought in the downtown business section before broken up by the mounted police. The trouble began when Joe Hinchman, a car inspector tried to repair a broken trolley pole on a car. The mob pulled Hinchman from the car and started to drag him to union headquarters when police rescued him.

The crowd continued to battle with the police until the mounted reserves arrived. At a meeting of business men with Mayor Shank, the advisability of closing the saloons until the strike is settled, was considered. Thousands of men and women walked the streets tonight wearing placards which read "We Walk—Do You?" Women took a prominent part in the disorder. They stood in the crowd defying the police and strike breakers.

Uncle Sam May Take Hand.
 That the federal government may take a hand in the strike was intimated in a statement by Postoffice Inspector William T. Fletcher. The car company has a contract with the government to collect mail from stations. Inspector Fletcher declared the mails must be collected on schedule, and if they were not the government would start an investigation and make arrests if necessary.

All cars on the thirteen interurban lines which run into the heart of the city over the lines of the traction company were stopped at the city limits. Deserted street cars, standing in the downtown streets were attacked by strike sympathizers and many windows were broken. The opinion is freely expressed that no attempt would be made to re-establish street car service until after the municipal election Tuesday.

Unionists Declaim Violence.
 President Beatty of the Central Labor Union today telephoned the governor, saying that the union disapproved of violence and charged that the police were at fault in not dispersing crowds and preserving order. Should the company care to make an effort to start its cars tomorrow, Superintendent of Police Highland said tonight he would try to give them enough police to stop rioting.

Eastus Case is Called But Substitution of Another Sought—May Proceed This Afternoon

By Associated Press.
 Weatherford, Texas, Nov. 3.—Failure of witness F. O. Hill and wife to appear, caused a postponement of the Fort Worth First Baptist Church arson trial here brought here on a change of venue until this afternoon. Prosecutor B. M. Doyle said if the witnesses were present the State would be ready this afternoon, but without them it would not.

The case against Roy Eastus was called first and a short recess was taken while a motion was prepared calling for Lee Weatherford's trial first. Before passing upon this, the court asked the State to announce whether it was ready and the failure of Hill and his wife to appear was followed adjournment.

Lee Weatherford, Bill Ratliff and Roy Eastus are accused of burning the First Baptist Church and parsonage, following the alleged confession of Fred Lavender before the grand jury. Lavender implicated them, but later repudiated the confession. However, the prosecution claims it can make out a case without Lavender.

LARGE FORTUNE IS LEFT

Estimated At From $30,000,000 to $50,000,000. Had Been in Business Since Age of 14

By Associated Press.
 Chicago, Nov. 3.—Edward Morris, president of Morris and Company, packers, died at his home today after an illness of more than a year, due to nervous breakdown. Mr. Morris was forty-seven years old and was the oldest son of the late Nelson Morris, pioneer packer. Edward Morris was a multi-millionaire and one of the best known meat packers in the world.

In the will of Nelson Morris, the building of the vast fortune was attributed largely to the genius and energy of Edward, who began his business career at an age when most of his companions were barely out of their teens. He entered his father's office.

The wealth held by Mr. Morris is estimated at between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000. He was credited with being the largest individual owner of bank stock in this city.

REBEL AGENT IN CAPITOL

Will Doubtless Be Permitted To Confer With President Wilson Regarding the Situation

By Associated Press.
 Washington, Nov. 3.—Reports from John Lind concerning his recent conferences in Vera Cruz with the Russian, German and Norwegian ministers to Mexico, conveyed the impression to President Wilson that there was a disposition on the part of those diplomats to cooperate with the United States in plans for solving the Mexican situation.

No announcement was made today as to any future policy but administration leaders said public stories forecasting armed intervention were unwarranted. The arrival of Robert Pesquera, an emissary from General Carranza, raised the question whether the Washington government would receive representation from the constitutionalists. President Wilson made it clear that officially the government would not receive formal representation, but that in some way or other Pesquera's information would be laid before the American government.

It was learned the rebels have decided not to ask for recognition of their belligerency, but to request that there be no interference from the United States in their own efforts to solve the situation by force of arms.

Strikers and Sympathizers Gather So Thickly Near Barns That None Are Moved Out

By Associated Press.
 Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—No effort was made up to noon today to resume the street car service, tied up since Friday night by the strike of employes of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company.

Although a special guard of police was detailed to guard strike breakers, the crowds of strikers and sympathizers locked so thickly near the Louisiana street car barns that the cars were not run out.

Bankers, merchants and professional men are to guard the streets tonight in order to let the police devote their full time to the prevention of destruction of street car property. Two hundred representative business men were summoned this morning. They were called upon to aid the sheriff under penalty of arrest.

Clubs were used freely today when strikers interfered with policemen running cars into the barn.

FIFTY SEVEN COMPLETIONS IN NORTHWEST TEXAS FIELD DURING OCTOBER

DAILY TOTAL NOW 33,000

Iowa Park Continues to Hold Interest—News From Shackelford, one of Month's Features

The 33,000 barrel mark was reached during October by Northwest Texas oil production, that figure being attained through 483 barrels new production, resulting from fifty-seven completions.

The Iowa Park district held the center of interest for the month, but there were no marked extensions of the shallow field being developed there. Much work was in progress and the activity there is still unabated. Petrolia came to the front with a good strong gasser and two oil producers and Burk Burnett had several producing completions. Electra, as usual, furnished the bulk of the new production with 4367 barrels.

Another feature of much interest during October was the news from Moran, Shackelford county, where a 200 barrel well was drilled in. This is not of course, in the Northwest Texas field, is not too far away from Wichitans to be considerably interested, and developments there are being closely watched.

Runs and shipments for the month were as follows:

Pipe Line Figures.
 Electra—J. M. Guffey Petroleum company ran 73,000 barrels, shipped 60,000 barrels; stock, 50,000 barrels. Texas Company ran 450,000 barrels, shipped 350,000 and let the Magnolia have 100,000. Its car shipments were 3500 barrels and fuel deliveries, 4900 barrels; its stock is 100,000 barrels. The Magnolia Petroleum Company ran 200,000 barrels, shipped 35,000 barrels; stock, 850,000, including 100,000 from the Texas Company.

Burk Burnett—The Texas Company ran 4000 barrels, shipped 1600 barrels and delivered 4000 barrels for fuel; stock, none. The Magnolia ran 25,000 and shipped it all.

Iowa Park—Magnolia Petroleum Company ran 8000 barrels, the entire production. Part of this was shipped via two inch pipe line to Iowa Park and the rest used for fuel. These figures indicate a production of about 265 barrels per day in the Iowa Park field.

Petrolia—Texas Company ran 20,000 barrels, shipped 25,000; stock, 50,000. Magnolia ran 13,000, shipped 18,000; stock, 20,000. The Develop-

HARVESTER CASE ARGUMENT TODAY

FINAL STRUGGLE IN GOVERNMENT'S SUIT TO DISSOLVE BEGINS AT ST. PAUL

SUIT IS IMPORTANT ONE

Differs From Other Anti-Trust Actions, Not Being Against Holding Company or Merger

By Associated Press.
 St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 3.—Opposing counsel entered the United States district court here today for the final struggle in the government suit to dissolve the International Harvester Company as a monopoly in violation of the Sherman law. Members of the court heard final arguments in the case, filed more than a year and a half ago. Two days probably will be consumed in arguments.

Attorney General McKevynolds headed the government's counsel and the harvester company had on hand a formidable array of legal talent. The suit is regarded by officials here as one of the most important undertakings by the department of Justice in many years. This is one of the few government prosecutions of a corporate combination. Most of the big cases which have been won in the supreme court have been directed against holding companies or mergers.

The government contends that the International Company was formed for the sole purpose of taking over companies engaged in selling harvesting implements and that it was in effect the same sort of monopoly as was condemned in the tobacco trust case.

Waco have resulted for a two cent railroad fare. Two cents per mile could be enough in a thickly settled country but in a thinly settled state like Texas it is not enough to pay the operating expenses of a train.

In a speech delivered the other day in a southern city President Wilson made it plain that the policy of the United States was now, and ever would be, to never acquire more territory by force of arms.

The Times believes that Texas should deal fairly by the railroads, and allow them to earn a reasonable amount on their investment. But, in saying this, the Times believes the railroads should deal fairly and honestly with the people in making up their operating expense budget.

Cone Johnson received a great ovation in Dallas yesterday, when he spoke on the tariff and currency, upholding President Wilson in his efforts to carry out platform pledges.

For once, at least, the Times finds that it quite agrees with Col. R. M. Johnson of the Houston Post, who, on a visit to Dallas, gave out an interview saying among other things, the following:

without inquiring whether he believed in prohibition or whether he does not. Horace Chilton would make Texas the best governor since the days of Hogg or Quiberson.

The short cotton crop has, of course, hurt to some extent, but in spite of that drawback old Wichita is pushing right along just as if nothing of the sort had occurred. The statements just issued by the four banks in this city show a substantial increase in deposits over this time last year.

A city the size of Wichita Falls should have at least five or six miles of paved streets, but Wichita Falls can never hope to have as many blocks of street paving put down as she ought to have, unless some provision is made whereby the city can be made financially able to take care of its portion of the improvement.

Several weeks ago it was announced with some flourish of the flourish of the melodrama that a reconciliation had been patched up between Mr. William J. Bryan, the secretary of state, and Mr. Champ Clark, those two eminent Democrats having since been estranged since Mr. Bryan foiled the plot of Tammany Hall at Baltimore.

Mr. Clark in his public letter announced that he had forgiven Mr. Bryan, but recent developments indicate that he has not forgotten. One day last week Mr. Clark had published a letter he had addressed to the secretary of the Upper Mississippi River association, declining to deliver an address before that body.

The moral and physical work mother died, leaving the "brand of Cain" on the white brow of her offspring. Without the guiding hand the white splendor of her eyes, her purity and the precious better she pledged to a life of shame.

it now seems that Gov. Brown of Mississippi, is to be the next governor to be impeached. His real offense is that he caused to be sent to the penitentiary a few fellows who were breaking the state. Of course, that is not the way the indictment of the impeachment court reads.

then remarked, "You don't seem to like what happened down at the city hall while ago." Cox answered, "That wasn't my affair and it didn't make any difference with me."

On cross examination Graves said when he and Cox met Morris in front of the Wichita Hardware store he did not know whether Morris knew of the second arrest of the men.

Witness said Graves ran in several times between Morris and Cox and that he saw a billie fall to the ground. He saw Morris kick Graves and heard him tell Graves, "You're my friend but you've got to turn me loose or I'll hurt you and hurt you bad."

ORGANIZATION OF $50,000 COMPANY

ADDITION ACROSS WICHITA RIVER IS SOON TO BE PUT ON MARKET

EW BRIDGE IS PLANNED

Stockholders Make Proposition to the County Commissioners—Name of New Addition Not Chosen

Organization of a $50,000 company to handle an addition to Wichita Falls, across the river, was started yesterday afternoon when the stockholders met and elected directors. A proposition to the county commissioners to pay half the cost of a $24,000 bridge across the river at the foot of Lamar avenue, was made.

The name of the new addition and of the company back of it, was left up to the directors, who will hold a meeting shortly. The directors chosen are C. W. Bean, N. Henderson, J. M. Hall, M. Stanforth, J. M. Bland, B. J. Bean and A. L. Huey.

The addition to be sold, as heretofore explained in The Times, is the Bean and Markowitz property north of the river and west of the Denver tracks. With a bridge across the river on Lamar, the lots would be within easy walking distance of the business district, and the company hopes to bring about the construction of a bridge sufficient to accommodate a street car line. A. L. Huey and J. L. Sadler, latter of Oklahoma City, have been the prime movers in the organization. The stockholders include:

N. Henderson, J. J. Lory, T. T. Reese, M. Stanforth, A. L. Huey, Leroy Sadler, C. W. Bean, J. Markowitz, John Thomas, F. A. Lee of Weatherford, J. F. Durrell of Seungin, Reese A. Allen, L. H. ## BARR IS AGAIN TAKEN TO DALLAS

vious to this Meade was drinking and when he came home that night he told me he had just cut a negro all to pieces. On that Sunday he hadn't had any trouble with a negro. When he would tell us these fantastic yarns his eyes always appeared to be abnormally bright and there was an air about him that would cause anyone who knew him to realize that he was drawing on his imagination.

"He was at my house all the Sunday before the murder. Once in talking to me, he said that he had not had any serious trouble but that he was dissatisfied with Dallas. When he left here Monday morning he carried no clothing nor any wearing apparel except what he wore and he had but very little money. I received a letter from him the following Thursday, which was mailed on the train some place in Arkansas. I did not hear from him again, nor see him again until he was brought back to Dallas.

"To my mind he is as innocent of that brutal murder as any man who walks the streets of Dallas, and I believe that the officers would work as hard in establishing his innocence as some of them are to fix guilt upon him, they would prove a complete alibi for him. His statements that he killed the girl are simply the statements of a man with a disordered mind. He seems to crave publicity. Why he should bring a woman into the case as he has is beyond me. Despite the fact that he has been rather reckless and has been in number of escapades, he was always very polite to women and would fight for them if he imagined that they were in the least being imposed upon."

GENEROUS RAINS HERE: PANHANDLE GETS SNOW

Heavy Showers Throughout Northwest Texas Monday Night—Much Colder in Amarillo

A warm soaking rain, which began early this morning and which continued well into the day, has fallen in this city and vicinity. It comes at a very opportune time for the farmers who were unable to get their wheat planted before the first rains of the fall, and is expected to make winter pasturage still more plentiful in this section.

Three inches of snow in the Panhandle from Amarillo north to Texline, was a feature of the weather situation in that section last night. From Amarillo south to Fort Worth there was a good rain, about the same as in this city and there is no doubt that the precipitation covered a wide territory, as is shown by reports from the Valley and Northwest-ern offices.

The snow in the Panhandle is the first of the season in Texas and is an unusually heavy snow for November. It is expected to be of much benefit to Panhandle wheat, which was already in good condition. The temperature at Texline was thirty-two, and at Amarillo thirty-nine, according to reports received at the Denver offices here.

COLLECTION IS SOUGHT ON "SIN KILLER'S" NOTE

Those Who Indorsed For Negro Here Recently are Called Up For the Money

"Please send check for $4.50 to cover balance on Griffin note." This was the substance of a letter received by Sheriff R. L. Randolph. Mr. Randolph was one of those who endorsed for Sin Killer Griffin, the negro evangelist, when the latter borrowed money first to get his tent out of the express office and later to erect a tabernacle during the negro's evangelistic campaign here recently.

Sin Killer came here when there had been no rain for nearly two months. He announced he would bring rain and within a few days after his announcement it started raining. If Sin Killer's supplications brought the rain they were powerless to stop it for rains continued so frequently for weeks afterward that it seriously interfered with Sin Killer's meetings and finally when the negro was compelled to give up an unequal contest against the elements he was behind in his financial obligations. Before leaving the city he announced, however, that he would send back the money to square off every obligation.

Several endorsers are hoping that Sin Killer won't try to monkey with the weather man's job at the next place he starts a meeting.

TWO MEN ARE HELD FOR ATTACK ON TOM SMITH

Charles Kaufman and David Black waived a preliminary hearing in Justice Brothers court Tuesday morning on charges of assault with intent to murder Tom Smith Monday afternoon and were bound over under $1,000 bond each.

Kaufman and Black were arrested Monday afternoon but were allowed to go to their homes Monday night under the watch of a guard. This was permitted because Black's wife is ill.

The only evidence taken at the hearing this morning was a statement by Deputy Sheriff Carnes who said that Black told him that he went out to give Smith a beating for an alleged insult to his wife and that he took Kaufman along to see it done. He denied that both men attacked Smith and also denied to Carnes that he had kicked Smith.

County Attorney Boone stated that the state would show that both men had a part in the attack upon Smith and that Black kicked him after he was down. Attorney Blankenship agreed to a bond of $1,000 each for the two defendants after an effort to have the county attorney agree to a lesser amount.

Smith who was unconscious for some time after being beaten passed a restless night. It is believed he has a broken nose and two or three severe bruises on his head above one of his ears and is otherwise bruised and his face lacerated.

BARNEY OLDFIELD NOT KILLED; REPORT UNTRUE

Widely Circulated Report Regarding Famous Auto Racer is Contradicted This Morning

GRAND JURY IS STILL AT WORK

NO INDICTMENTS YET BROUGHT IN FOLLOWING ALLEGED MURDER CONFESSION

WOMAN'S LAWYERS TALK

Say They Have Urged Her to Tell—But are Sure Charges Will not be Sustained

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, Nov. 4.—Grand Jury investigation continued today into the Meade Barr confession involving himself and Mrs. Ellis M. Lake in the murder of Miss Florence Brown here last summer. It was said the jury had so much to discuss and confirm that no action was expected today.

Mrs. Lake's attorneys issued a statement, that they had urged her to go freely before the grand jury with whatever information was wanted, and that they were confident Barr's charges reflecting on her, the nature of which is still kept secret, would prove unproved.

Barr claimed he gave the knife with which he cut Miss Brown's throat to a street sweeper in St. Louis, where he visited soon after leaving Dallas the morning of the murder. Dallas police today said they have asked in St. Louis to try to confirm the story.

Attorney's Statement

"We, her attorneys, advised her to appear before the grand jury as often as they wanted or called for her and to answer all or any questions that are asked her; to be perfectly frank and open in her testimony before that body.

"Mrs. Lake and her husband lived on South Haskell in an apartment house. When she first moved there one of the tenants in this apartment house was Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Sanders being the sister of Meade Barr. These two families naturally became acquaintances, and often played cards at night and had many friendly chats on the porch together, this being the extent of her acquaintance with the Sanders family and Meade Barr, who lived with them. She, however, often assisted Meade Barr's sister, Mrs. Sanders, in preventing him, Meade Barr, from drinking at home.

"While we fully intend to protect her in all her legal rights, yet we intend to let the grand jury take its course in a thorough examination before any steps will be taken in her behalf, and we do this because we feel that in justice to Mrs. Lake and all that are interested in running down the murderer of Miss Florence Brown, that the people may know that justice was done and had its course, and that Mrs. Lake will be duly exonerated from having any knowledge of this, the most heinous crime that has ever been perpetrated in the city of Dallas.

"ARMED TO THE TEETH" IS ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM

President Will Not Launch any Recommendation Until Currency Bill is Disposed of

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson said today he would not launch any recommendation for anti-trust legislation until the currency bill was passed, and that it would be his aim to keep the currency question the center of attention. He made it plain, however, that he had some very definite ideas on the trust question.

"An anti-trust program, armed to the teeth," is the way those close to the president described his plan.

DALLAS NEWSPAPERMAN IS FINED AND JAILED

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 4.—Ed McDaniel, a local newspaper man, today was fined ten dollars and sentenced to serve one day in jail by Judge Robert Seay in part one of criminal court, for contempt. McDaniel's sentence grew out of his efforts to cover proceedings of the grand jury Saturday night while the Brown murder case was under investigation. It is charged he stationed himself at a door of the grand jury room where he could overhear proceedings and that he published a report of the deliberations which the law provides shall be secret. McDaniel was lodged in jail this morning.

CONNECTICUT WOMAN IS SENTENCED TO HANG

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Desale Wakefield and James Plew were sentenced this afternoon to be hanged on March 4 next, for the murder of William Wakefield, the woman's husband. No woman prisoner has been hanged in Connecticut since 1786. Mr. Wakefield's counsel will appeal to Governor Baldwin to commute the sentence.

Wakefield was killed in his home last July. Plew turned state's evidence. He said while Mrs. Wakefield took her three children for a walk, he shot Wakefield then tied a rope around the neck to give the appearance of suicide.

Down the Mississippi and Across the Ocean Bottle's Long Journey

By Associated Press. Rochester, Pa., Nov. 4.—When the Deaver River was at flood height last March, Clarence Mitchell wrote a note, signed his name and address and sealing it in a bottle, tossed the bottle into the flood. Last night he received a letter from Frank Warthing in Glasgow, Scotland, saying he had picked up the bottle on the Scotch coast. The bottle, to reach its landing place, had floated down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers to the Gulf of Mexico and had drifted across the Atlantic Ocean to the Scotch coast.

VOTING HEAVY IN N.Y. TUESDAY

ROTTEN EGGS AND VEGETABLES ARE USED AS WEAPONS AT ONE BOX

IN THE SULZER DISTRICT

Vote There Larger in Proportion Than in Rest of City—Some Arrests Made

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 4.—Throughout the city today there were indications of an unusually large vote in the city mayoralty and assembly elections, evidencing the great interest in the fight between Tammany and Fusion. About twenty-five arrests for alleged irregularities in voting had been made up to noon. Among those arrested were four Columbia students.

In Sulzer's district the vote up to mid-afternoon was larger in proportion than in any other in the city. Sulzer's supporters said all indications pointed to his election. In the second assembly district where there is a hot contest between Alfred E. Smith, present democratic speaker of the assembly and Morris Cohen, the Fusion candidate, adherents of both were bombarded with rotten eggs and vegetables when they appeared at the polling places.

Clement Driscoll, president of the Voters' League, in interceding for a challenged voter, was set upon by gangsters. Police rescued him.

NO REPLY TO U. S. DEMAND FOR HUERTAS' RESIGNATION

Silence In Mexico City Regarding Communication From Washington In Form Of Ultimatum

By Associated Press. Mexico City, Nov. 3.—There was no indication here today that President Huerta has yet delivered any reply to the communication from the United States government, telling him he must resign the presidency without loss of time and that he must not leave as his successor any of his adherents whom he might be able to control.

In official quarters here, as well as at the United States embassy emphatic denials were still made as to the transmission or receipt of the communication from the American government. A meeting of the Mexican cabinet, however, was called for today, at which it appeared probable the matter would come up for discussion.

Wilson Goes Home to Vote While Capitol Eagerly Awaits Development

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson let the Mexican situation simmer a few hours today while he went to Princeton to vote. The tension over this government's ultimatum to Huerta was not relieved by the president's absence, however, and just before he left the State house, he conferred with Secretary Bryan.

All officials here were consistently silent over the notice to Huerta to vacate the provisional presidency of Mexico and seat no partisan. The understanding was that the attitude here is to make no announcement and await the next step.

The greatest interest centered about Huerta's conference with the Mexico City diplomatic corps. As soon as Charge O'Shaughnessy had delivered the latest note, Huerta called in the diplomats, but no announcement has been made of their conference. President Wilson planned to be in touch with the situation practically every hour he is away.

An air of confidence in official circles is taken to indicate that the United States is satisfied that practically all the great powers have agreed to support the administration's policy, at least to the extent of observing a strictly neutral attitude and allowing the United States to test its own plan for restoring peace in Mexico.

Today Secretary Bryan issued a statement. He declined to discuss the use of the word "ultimatum" note or "advices," saying he had no more to say than the statement itself conveyed. It was as follows:

"I have made it a rule not to discuss newspaper reports concerning international matters, but the nature of the dispatches from Mexico this morning suggests a departure from the rule at this time. No ultimatum has been sent to Mexico and it is unfortunate that the press should give credence to such a report."

Discussion of the possibility that President Wilson might again take the Mexican situation to Congress in a personal address was revived in administration circles again today.

Violence in the street car strike. Almost the entire police force was on duty. The special deputies appointed yesterday by the sheriff also were on guard to keep order. A special warning was issued by Mayor Shank warning dealers in fire arms and keepers of pawn shops not to sell fire-arms or ammunition.

Thirty patrolmen of the Indianapolis force turned in their badges today rather than ride on street cars and protect strike breakers. A squad of fifty more policemen, detailed to guard a car which was preparing to start, protested so strongly that the effort to resume traffic was abandoned.

Members of the police force joined in the cheering which followed the order sending strike breakers back to the bars.

Sallie E. Yearly, widow of the late Charles P. Yearly, has filed suit against the Woodman Accident Association to recover on a policy on the life of her husband. Yearly was killed by a man named Jackson in a fight in a wagon yard here last July. Jackson was acquitted when tried for murder.

RECEPTION IN ROME FOR AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS

Plans Under Way for Gala Occasion There When United States Fighters Arrive

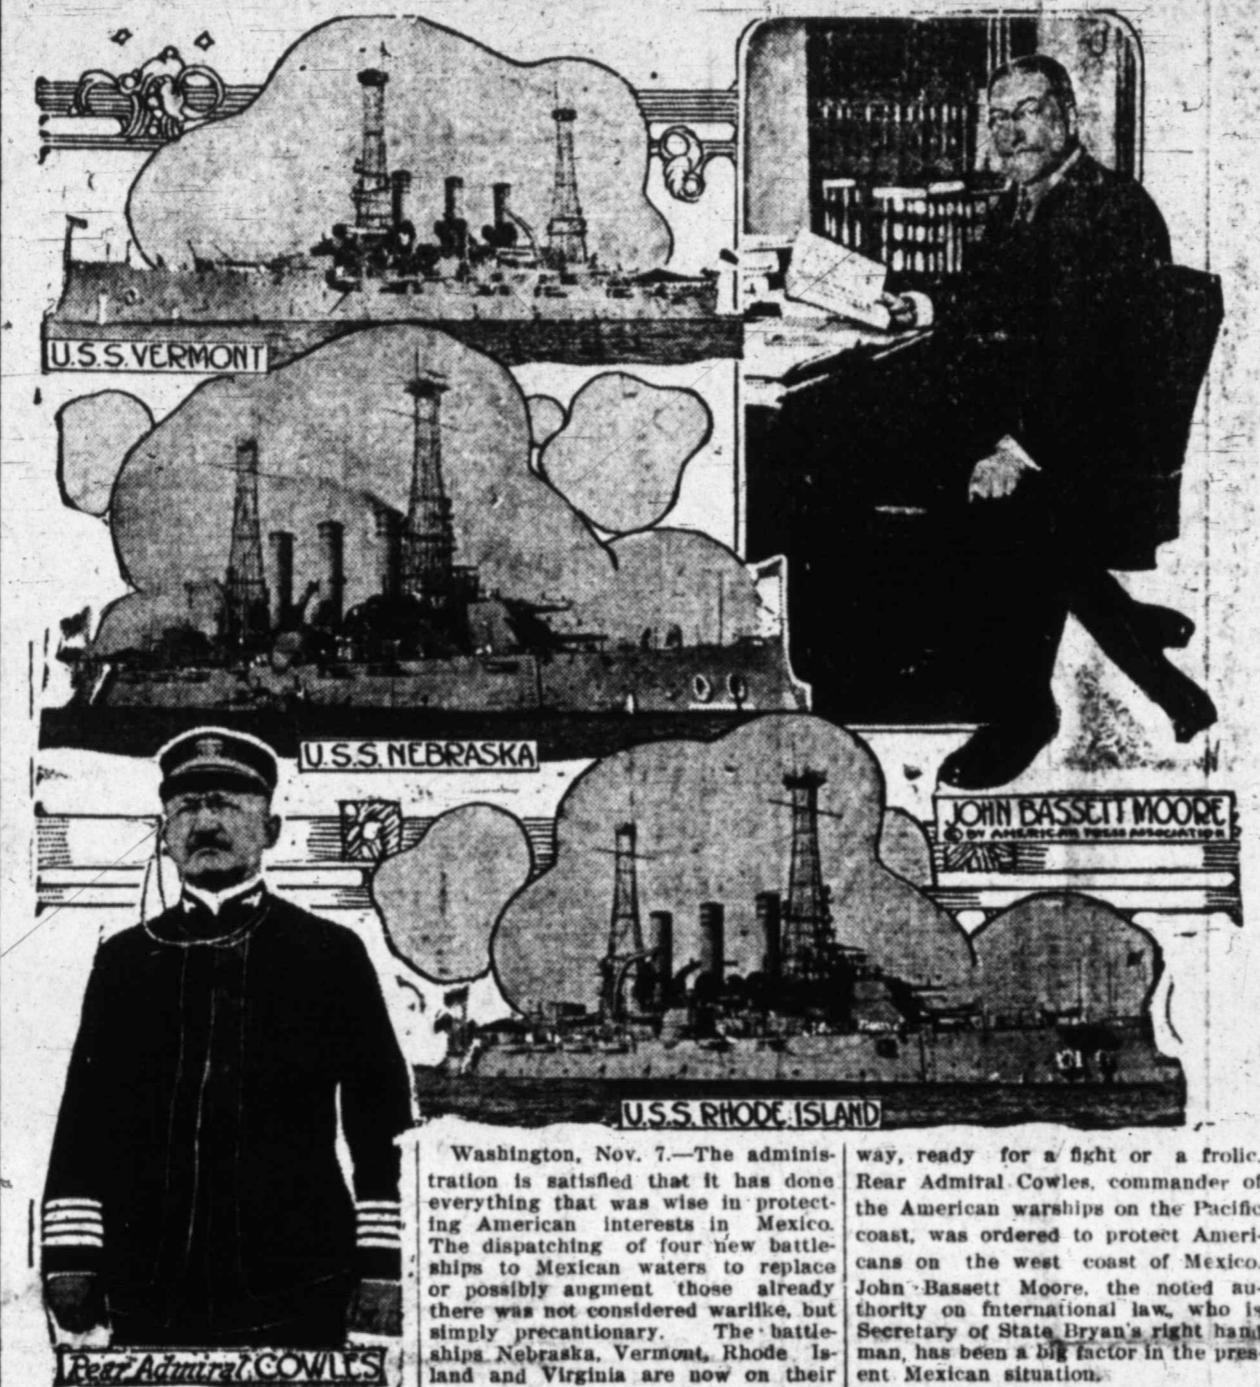

Rome, Nov. 7.—Arrangements were completed today for a royal reception to the officers and crews of the American battleships now cruising in the Mediterranean waters. The American ship of war will make stops at all ports of note on the Italian coast. The battleships Connecticut and Kansas are due at Genoa tomorrow at practically the same time that the warships Arkansas and Florida will anchor in the Bay of Naples. The boats will remain in port at those places until November 30. At both Naples and Genoa the streets today are decorated with American and Italian flags and banners. The ships will steam into the harbor full dressed. Reception committees from the Italian navy will formally receive the officers of the American vessels, immediately anchors are let go. Banquets will follow in the evening. An almost endless program of entertainments for members of the crews as well as the officers has been planned for the entire stay. Under orders from the state and navy departments at Washington, the American embassy at Rome will do its little formal entertaining as possible, in order that officers and men may have more time for travel and sightseeing in the interior. This plan is a part of Secretary Daniels' promise to make life as a member of the navy as enjoyable as that of the army and the merchant marine.

It was formally announced today by Vatican officials that all details have been completed for the Pope to receive sailors from all four battleships in special audience. Special trains will convey the sailors from Naples and Genoa to Rome for this event, and after the audience they will be given as much time as is compatible with the rules governing shoreleave, to see Rome and historic places nearby. It having been officially announced to the Italian government that the greatest reception ever given to the officer in charge of any foreign fleet, the Italian minister of marine, personally will be in charge. Among some of the features of the stay of the American blue jackets will be a series of baseball games and other athletic events. At the baseball games the Italian naval officers will be guests of the American officers, the former having expressed a desire to witness exhibitions of the national game. Included in the athletic events will be boat races among crews of the ships.

MORE TEST WELLS GO DOWN NEAR STAMFORD.

Stamford, Texas, Nov. 7.—The Jones County Oil & Gas Company announces that it will begin drilling next week on a well about one mile east of Stamford. The machinery is being unloaded now. The contract calls for 2,000 feet, and the company is incorporated for $30,000. Rapid progress is being made on the Bunkley well, sixteen miles from the city and the drillers are very confident that pay oil or gas will be found by the time 2,000 feet is reached. The third well is being bored five miles north of town and a depth of about 200 feet has been reached.

PROMINENT FIGURES IN MEXICAN SITUATION AND U. S. BATTLESHIPS IN MEXICAN WATERS

ARBITRATION OF STRIKE SOUGHT

STREET CAR TROUBLE IN INDIANAPOLIS MAY BE SETTLED WITHOUT MARTIAL LAW

TROOPS REMAIN IN CITY

Governor Ralston Will Confer With Leaders of Both Sides in Effort to Adjust Difficulties

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Indianapolis will not be placed under martial law as long as there is possibility of settling the street car strike, Governor Ralston, after he had conferred with leaders of both sides, announced today. Nevertheless the entire force of state militia will remain here temporarily. The governor said he was hopeful of settling the trouble by arbitration. Recognition of the union seems to be the main bone of contention. It was announced no attempt would be made to operate cars until the governor gave the word.

Special trains brought the troops under hurried orders and they were detained in the suburbs, virtually surrounding the town. Great secrecy was maintained as to the movement and arrival of the militia and few citizens knew that the troops had been called out until late.

All companies were held when they arrived until they were of such number that it was deemed safe to bring them into the city. This was done to prevent any clash with the strikers, who after learning the troops had been called out, were on the downtown streets in large numbers.

Whether the street cars are to be manned by soldiers, officers in charge would not say. Nearly 300 women, members of the Garment Workers' Union, rushed across the State House lawn into the capitol and to the governor's office, where they demanded that Gov. Ralston force arbitration in the street car strike and call a special session of the State legislature. Many of the women were hysterical and Mrs. Edna Davis, president of the union, declared: "We are willing to take up arms to help win this strike."

SURGEON WHO ATTENDED M'KINLEY DIES TODAY

Dr. Charles McBurney one of First Physicians to Handle Appendicitis Cases in Country

Stoughton, Mass., Nov. 7.—Dr. Charles McBurney, eminent New York surgeon, died suddenly of heart disease at the home of his sister at Brookline, Massachusetts today. He was sixty-eight years old. When President McKinley was shot at Buffalo in 1901, Dr. McBurney was called and took charge of the case.

McBURNAY ONE OF FIRST TO DEAL WITH APPENDICITIS

New York, Nov. 7.—Dr. McBurney had acquired considerable reputation as surgeon when in 1889 he published an essay on "Experiences With Operative Interferences in Cases of Disease of the Vermiform Appendix." The essay brought him recognition from the whole world, and for many years his colleagues jocularly called him "the father of appendicitis." His essay created the first general recognition of the disease, established a means of diagnosis and gave to America prominence in the treatment of the ailment.

EXPOSITION FILIPINOS SAID TO BE STARVING.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Reports that forty-five Filipinos taken to Ghent as one of the attractions of the Commercial Exposition, have been left destitute, are being investigated by the consul at Antwerp. ### WINTER WHEAT ACREAGE INCREASED STILL MORE

Fair Weather Continues for Few Days Farmers Will be Able to Do Much Planting

Farmers who had about decided to abandon plans to sow more wheat after the long delays caused by the heavy rains are now hoping that fair weather will continue so that they can work in their fields and sow wheat. There is so much moisture that wheat growers believe if freezing weather does not set in fields sown within the next week or ten days will get a good start and have fair prospects for making a crop. A large acreage has already been sown in wheat in Clay, Wichita, Wabarger, Archer and Hardeman counties.

ARREST OF DIAZ FOLLOWS ATTACK

STABBED LAST NIGHT AND IN CUSTODY TODAY FOR WOUNDING MEXICAN

INJURIES ARE NOT SERIOUS

Electric Lights are Extinguished and Attack Follows, According to Diaz Account of Affair

General Felix Diaz was arrested here today accused of shooting Pedro Guerrero the young Mexican wounded by a bullet during last night's altercation in the course of which Diaz was stabbed. Diaz is said to have handed the revolver to a companion after shooting and seriously wounding Guerrero who had stabbed Diaz.

Felix Diaz recovered his composure today at the hospital to which he was taken after he had been wounded in the neck in an attack on him by Mexicans last night. All that Diaz could tell about the incident was that he and his companions were listening to a band when the electric lights were extinguished and he was attacked.

His wounds are not serious. Gen. Diaz was accompanied by Gen. Oron, his fellow refugee and Luis Malde, manager of the street car lines in Mexico City, when the five Mexicans appeared behind him armed with cane knives. Diaz was stabbed twice in the neck, but not deeply. He quickly arose and began beating off his assailants with an umbrella, while his companions took up park chairs in defense.

Suddenly one of the assailants drew a pistol and fired point blank at Diaz, but the weapon was knocked aside and the bullet wounded one of the assailants. The police then rushed up and succeeded in arresting three Mexicans. All were placed in coaches and taken to the Emergency Hospital ward, where Diaz's wounds were dressed, also those of his wounded assailant. Besides two knife wounds in the neck, Diaz received various bruises from canes, one on the arm being severe. The attack occurred when the fashionable people of Havana were attending the band concert. Thousands of persons, park-stricken, rushed pell mell in every direction, several being hurt by colliding with iron chairs.

NO COMMENT BY CABINET

MEXICAN SITUATION DISCUSSED, HOWEVER, AT MEETING HELD THIS MORNING

RETURN OF LIND

No Order Sent Him to Go Back to Capital But He Is Clothed with Sufficient Authority

Washington, Nov. 7.—John Lind's unexpected return to Mexico City is understood here to have been without orders from Washington, but in line with the general instructions under which he has been enjoying the greatest freedom of movement. This latest development in the Mexican situation was surrounded by a great deal of reticence here.

One official view is that Charge O'Shaughnessy either had received some intimation that Huerta was about to answer the demands made early this week, or that O'Shaughnessy is desirous of advising with Lind on additional steps to be taken under his instructions.

When a meeting of the cabinet, called today, broke up, the members were shown dispatches from Mexico City, saying Huerta's formal reply would completely deny the right of the United States to demand his retirement, but none would comment. All admitted the Mexican situation had been discussed.

CURRENCY BILL LINE-UP CHANGED

RECONSIDERS ACTION REDUCING NUMBER OF REGIONAL BANKS TO FOUR

FAVORS ADMINISTRATION

Reed and O'Gorman Come Over to Democratic Side and Joined by Crawford, Republican

Washington, Nov. 7.—An entirely new line-up in the Senate banking committee with a majority behind the administration again appeared today when by a vote of seven to five, the committee reconsidered its action reducing the number of regional reserve banks to four.

Senators Reed and O'Gorman, the democrats who had been voting against administration proposals, cast their votes with the other democrats. Senator Hitchcock, democrat, held out, but Senator Crawford, republican, joined the administration forces.

The administration won a point when the committee voted to retain on the federal reserve board as an ex-officio member, the secretary of the treasury.

Mrs. L. R. Warren has filed suit for divorce from G. W. Warren. The parties live at Electric. She also asks for an injunction to prevent the defendant from disposing of personal property until the trial of the suit.

DENIAL IS MADE BY BARR'S SISTER

SAYS CONFESSION WAS MADE MERELY TO SECURE PARDON IN INDIANA

REVENGE ON MRS. LAKE

Implicated Woman to Get Even With Her for Repulsing His Affectionate Advances

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 7.—Meade Barr's purpose in confessing to the murder of Florence Brown was to secure a pardon from an indeterminate sentence for murdering a negro, under which he was serving time in Indiana. This was the substance today by his sister, Mrs. C. E. Sanders, who said her brother had authorized her to speak for him.

Barr, she said, had hoped to make Dallas authorities believe his story of Florence Brown's death up to the point where they would ask for his pardon in Indiana, in order to use him as a witness in Texas, where a convict's testimony is not admissible. The sister said Barr's only reason for trying to implicate Mrs. Edna Lake was revenge, because she had refused his offers of affection. Mrs. Lake was still in jail today, held on account of Barr's story, and the nature of this story was still a grand jury secret. Her attorneys said they expected to try to secure her release by tomorrow.

LIND BACK IN CAPITAL

AMERICAN EMBASSY SUDDENLY RETURNS TO MEXICO CITY FROM VERA CRUZ

NATURE OF REPLY

Provisional President Said to Take Stand That This Country Cannot Demand His Elimination

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—President Huerta's formal negative reply to the United States' demands, which was discussed in detail at last night's cabinet meeting, will set forth that the United States has no right, legal or otherwise, to demand Huerta's elimination. This statement was given out today from one of the departments of the Mexican government.

The reply will also assert Provisional President Huerta has no legal right to accede to the demand. The informant says it was decided to incorporate in the reply a declaration that Huerta intends to increase the Mexican army to 500,000 men.

Final stages of the negotiations are to be participated in personally by John Lind. He arrived suddenly this morning from Vera Cruz.

The series of delays in Huerta's formal answer and the lack of definite action which would indicate his attitude has been annoying to Lind, whose sudden appearance in the federal capital is assumed to be due to his desire to bring things quickly to a head.

John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson, arrived here this morning from Vera Cruz. The United States embassy nor any one else in Mexico City had received any advices of his coming. There was much speculation here today over discussion at a cabinet meeting held last night. The public and Mexican officials did not know of Mr. Lind's movement and he came to the city contrasting greatly with his first arrival here.

PURITY CONGRESS PLANS FOR SINGLE STANDARD

Civic Morals and Sex Hygiene are Among Problems Considered at Minneapolis Meeting

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 7.—A high and single standard of morals; "safe and sane" instruction in sex hygiene and furtherance "of such social, civic, economic and moral reforms as will conserve the highest character and life," were some of the subjects to be discussed at the Seventh International Purity Congress which convened here today for sessions to last six days. Nearly a thousand delegates and hundreds of visitors are attending from all parts of the world. The congress is being held under the direction of the World's Purity Federation and the speakers are of international prominence in the work of social and moral reform.

E. S. Steadwell of La Crosse, Wis., president of the Federation, in his welcoming address at today's opening session, struck the keynote of the congress. He pointed out that for thirteen years the World's Purity Federation has been steadily at work combatting the white slave traffic, the social evil and kindred evils, without the accomplishment of "sensationalism, notoriety seeking or hysterical methods." The Federation, he explained, has been seeking for years to put before the public, statistics and cold figures on vice and the social evil, not in order to declaim against such things, "but to set right minded people to thinking how best to remove the evils which exist, prudes, white slavers, corrupt politicians and over-sensitive persons to the contrary." Special stress was laid on the importance of publicity in spreading knowledge of these conditions "no matter how much it hurts the sensibilities of some and despite violent opposition from certain organizations and cliques" in order to arouse the public to full realization of the necessity for demanding government aid in reform.

ELEMINATE HEM FROM SKIRT NOW

NO LONGER TO BE WORN THIS FALL, IF FASHION'S DICTATES ARE OBEYED

BUTTONS ARE NOVELTIES

Fare Getting to be Popular that they are being Put on Night Gowns Now

New York, Nov. 7.—No longer will you be all hemmed in by your skirt like the famous apple core, "there ain't agoin' to be none." Now don't begin to get nervous. In spite of them getting skimpier and scantier we don't mean "there ain't agoin' to be no skirt." Merely no! It's the hem that's to be eliminated. Henceforth and also backward, the satin, chiffon or crepe-de-chine composing your skirt is to be worn as natural; or in plain English, the selvage edge of the material will be used instead of the conventional and ornate hem. The effect is bound to be quite different and unique, as the grain of the fabric will necessarily run around the body instead of up and down.

The craze for the velvet bands with jeweled slides that have had fair ladies by the throat all season has now taken them in hand as wrist bands of wide black velvet with the gem incrustated slides are appearing on every wrist. The neck and wrist bands come in sets to match.

There is no doubt but that you are asked to stomach a great deal in the newest winter fashions. Food isn't the only thing going to stomachs by any manner of means. All the draperies also are headed that way. What has been the erstwhile cross of the pudgy person has become the feast of the svelte. Attenuated ladies sigh for tumblers as strenuously as did Alexander for more worlds to conquer. Actually, stomach pads of rubber are offered to supply any deficiency of the stomach line and the newest corsets are cut out over the abdomen so that ones stomach may appear untrammelled and to its full advantage. All the skirts are draped up high in front to enhance the full stomach effect, and to be truly swell you must put up a good front.

So great is the passion for fat that now you are expected to take it to bed with you. The latest word in nighties is one of shell pink crepe-de-chine banded in white cat. Very kitchish indeed!

Buttons, when you get the button, in the most foolish of questions these days, when everybody is buttoned up in front or back. There are buttons in front of you; buttons in back of you; buttons to left of you; buttons to right of you, nor can we wither nor custom-made the infinitesimal variety. They range from the thimble ball buttons of metal or cut crystal or jet, to huge bone buttons, the actual size of a saucer or of an after dinner coffee cup and are every where seen on the right-hued spot-couts especially.

Buttons covered in silk or cloth to match the material of your costume in popularity with quaint little of-fashioned china buttons in blue or white, painted in tiny pink or blue-roses. Many of the newest coats and jackets are buttoned in a straight line up the front and, fronts buttoning up the back are again backing in favor. It is for ornament rather than use, however, that the myriad of buttons are in most demand.

Most gorgeous evening wraps of solid head work are now being made at all the smart shops. Worked out in rainbow hued beads in intricate and elaborate floral patterns they are bizarre and ornate enough to attract undivided attention to the wearer even in this age of lavish and elaborate color schemes and circus effects.

For the occasions when a petticoat is absolutely indispensable—and there are a few such, even in these days of unveiled limbs—an ideal garment is a snugly fitting silk tunic with a bonnet of silk, chiffon or lace to trim your whim. While these petticoats are a trifle expensive, their durability and excellent fit make them well worth the initial expenditure.

As a change from the ubiquitous white tulle and net trills and Schuys the same effect, worked out in a straight line of black are very chic. Another touch to differentiate the lace or net fro outlining your low neck, is a heading of inch wide fur banding next to the skin. And speaking of skin—remember you must keep it that desirable yellow tone. For everything must have its yellow gilt.

"THE GRAIN OF DUST" AS VIEWED IN NEW ORLEANS.

The New Orleans States comments on "The Grain of Dust" to be presented here by James K. Hackett, as follows:

A fight to a finish between a trust buster and a corporation lawyer, in which a pretty stenographer, "The Grain of Dust," supplies the exciting force, was the material from David Abraham Phillips' great novel run through the dramatic mold for James K. Hackett, whose interpretation of Louis Evan Shipman's four act play is the Tulane Theatre offering this week. Hackett is still master of the art of portrayal and the author of "The Crisis" has provided ample channels for his talent.

It would be the case with any other "star" production, just what would come of "The Grain of Dust" without Hackett can only be conjectured, its supporting company suffers, perhaps, by comparison. Happily the burden of the work falls on the star's shoulders.

Hackett's voice, long the envy of the profession, has lost nothing of the power and charm that have made him famous. It runs the gamut of the emotions with a delightful ease and grace. From the time he "won his spurs" in the old chapel of the New York City College, a picture of which is part of stage adornment in the second act, Hackett has delighted thousands of theatre-goers and his recent effort indicates the flood tide of his art.

The story of "The Grain of Dust" is not new. Phillips' book, considered by some critics to have been overrated, loses a great deal in the dramatizing process, but the play ranks well with Shipman's other successes.

A trust magnate sets out to crush its former attorney, the most successful young lawyer in New York, because the lawyer has broken off his engagement to the only daughter and heiress of the financier. The attorney rashly admits his reason, love, for the pretty stenographer, "The Grain of Dust," and his former client declared war without a quarter. Eighteen months later the attorney is about to fly the white flag. He is lousy to his last dollar bill, and his wife, "The Grain of Dust," has left him. She blames herself for his rapid fall. Luck changes and the trust magnate is brought to his knees. His lawyer saves him from utter ruin by pleading with the wife of the rumpus and unrepentant attorney, who has luckily returned to her husband, at the psychological moment.

WHITE SLAVERY PROBLEM SUBJECT OF "THE TRAFFIC"

"The Traffic" which plays at the Wichita Theatre Saturday, Nov. 8 is a play of the most peculiar type. To say white slavery is the imminent and vital problem of the thinking world, and the awful truths about it are depicted, told staged in so genuine a dramatic, amazing, truthful a manner in Rachel Marshall's four act play, "The Traffic" as to cause astonishment. The success doesn't necessarily mean the public's approval of the piece, but rather their enthusiasm, their attendance at every performance, their eagerness to see it, their unlimited interest aroused by the naked truth of its teachings—and they have been all of this, in Seattle, where "The Traffic" was produced for the first time. It was only a matter of two performances and she play became the "talk of the town" in San Francisco and Los Angeles, what it caused can fairly be termed, a great sensation. Rachel Marshall, the playwright, is young and extremely interesting woman. She received the greatest part of her education at the Sacred Heart Convent in New Orleans, and afterward studied journalism and painting, during which time she became an ardent believer and follower of Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago. Last spring she wrote and sold the first piece for the stage to Blanche Walsh. It was only a little sketch, but possessed a big thought and an original idea. This was the beginning—the key to the stage door that let Miss Marshall in to do big things. The play will astonish and even shock. The truth—vulgar and awful in its accuracy—marks every scene and point in the play. "The Traffic" will be produced here by a competent company of well known and popular players.

Say not the struggle naught avails,
The labor and the wounds are vain;

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back from creeks and inlets mak-

Comes silent, flooding in the main,

French Wines Cost More.
Paris, Nov. 7.—French wines, it was declared today, will cost more this winter than ever before because the wine crops in the district of Burgundy are ruined according to government statistics published today. Owing to too much rain, the grapes have failed to ripen and mildew has set in, injuring not only the fruit but the vines also. Wine growers have been reduced to the extremity of asking financial relief from the government.

Things You Do Not See

When you buy a mattress are its most important features. For instance, there is a stuffing called "linters" which often is made up of left-over wads of cotton seeds and dirt. You can buy one very cheaply. The ticking may be the same as on a high-grade mattress, but the bumps will soon come and nobody on earth can take them out.

A good mattress made of white, fluffy cotton, absolutely pure and clean, is worth every penny you pay for it. It will last for years and come back fresh and new every time you sun it.

In our mattresses, we pride ourselves on cleanliness and big value. A mattress of the right kind is one of the best investments you can make. Come in and get more facts about them. We will fit any bed.

WRESTLING MATCH TO BE HELD HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Wichitans who remember the wrestling matches of last winter will be pleased to learn that some more are in prospect for this winter, and the first will be staged next Tuesday night at 9 o'clock at the Moose Hall.

George Hart of Delta, Colorado, and Charles Rentrop, middle weight champion of Europe, will meet on the mat and an interesting contest is promised. There will be two preliminaries, it is announced.

It is probable that Adolph Ernst, the German giant who was here last winter and whose wrestling attracted so much favorable comment, will challenge the winner for a match in the near future, so that other contests are in sight.

More Breeches

BREECHES—This word is a direct descendent from Breechcloth. First Breech; that meant a hole, then the plural Breeches, two holes; meaning two places to put your legs through. Pants has no lineal connection to Breeches; the word pants got its name when they wore 'em tight and a fat man had to pant to get 'em on—maybe panted a couple of times. Therefore Pants. There is more to the word Breeches and more kinds, including Breeches-of-Promise. This latter is all caused from wearing Breeches, because if the word had remained in its purity a lawyer would have looked well suing a man for Breeches Clothibus of Promise. But Loeb and Liepold do not make promises. They state facts and back them up.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 7, 1913

Intimation of a probability of war with Mexico hasn't created any great amount of enthusiasm in a proposal to organize a company of National Guards here.

Wichita County and the City of Wichita Falls should vote bonds, or otherwise provide means for the establishment of a public hospital. The state law says some action of this kind must be taken and the sooner the law is complied with the better. An institution of that nature is badly needed.

Thanksgiving falls on the 27th. The election for the adoption or rejection of the proposed new city charter is set for the 26th, the day before. If adopted, Wichita Falls will then have something for which to feel truly thankful.

About the only shortcoming Bryan has, is that it is not furnishing one or more candidates for Governor.—Bryan Eagle.

Most any town should be able to put out a candidate for governor who, so far as ability to hold the job is concerned, will compare most favorably with any one of the several candidates so far announced. The Times feels safe in saying that at least a dozen or more could be found right here in Wichita Falls.

The great railroad magnate, James J. Hill, is quoted as saying "the country is water-logged with bonds." He might have added that some of the water-logging was done by himself, from which he enriched his fortunes to a point that has come near satisfying even his greed. Now he sees the ill-effects of such big business methods and is willing that all water should be squeezed out of bonds before they are placed on the market. It is better late than never. Mr. Hill is getting old. Perhaps he realizes this and is beginning to think what his reward will be in the hereafter. "Neither shalt thou steal."

Results of the elections Tuesday in several states and congressional districts are generally accepted as an endorsement of President Wilson's policies. In Massachusetts where a particularly hard fight was made by the Progressives and Republicans in opposition to the democratic candidate and in which the administration's tariff and other policies were discussed in every center of the state by leaders of all parties, Walsh, the democratic candidate received the largest plurality ever given a democratic gubernatorial candidate in that state. Plainly the people are well pleased with democratic stewardship.

The Vanderlip central bank plan, if we mistake not, is simply a scheme gotten up with a purpose of defeating any legislation on the currency matter at this time, and perhaps to forever throw a damper on any currency legislation that might hereafter be introduced or proposed. As now, the money interests have a monopoly. This monopoly they have enjoyed for years. And it has already begun to threaten what will happen if, (as this paper views it), President Wilson and his administration put through what is the fairest, most honorable currency measure that has ever been proposed. All this bluff being made by the big bankers that the proposed currency bill is a "menace," and that "it has gone far enough," that if enacted "might wreck the country," should and doubtless will be treated by President Wilson as it deserves. The bluffers have had their day. It is now the people's turn at the wheel, and if we are to take the results of Tuesday's election as an indication of what the people think of President Wilson's administration, they seem well satisfied with the way it has handled the tariff and currency matters so far, and so long as the people express confidence in the administration, it need have no fear from anything the "bluffers" and "calamity howlers" may do and say.

THE TRIUMPH IN NEW YORK.
If democracy, in a partisan sense, was defeated in New York, decency and good citizenship and good government triumphed.
The plans of a corrupt political boss to pillage a city, the running expenses of which are nearly $200,000,000 a year were thwarted, and not only was a man elected mayor who rebelled against his dictation and deed and denounced him, but a majority of the board of aldermen, which controls the city's pursestrings, were carried into office with him.
John Purroy Mitchell is at present collector of the port of New York, and the fact that Woodrow Wilson selected him for the place avouched his fitness for the high office for which he has been chosen.
He will worthily succeed honest William J. Gaynor, and a great city has been saved from plunder and debauchery by as conscienceless a bunch of political banditti as ever brought reproach upon municipal government.
Politics has no just or logical relation to municipal government, which is essentially a matter of business administration, and the defeat of the so-called democratic ticket in New York city in nowise reflects upon the Wilson administration.
On the contrary, the election of a man appointed by him to one of the most important fiscal posts in all the government was distinctly an endorsement of President Wilson's judgment.
The returns from the elections elsewhere show that democracy has held its own, and that the administration has been endorsed. This was strikingly shown in the president's home state, and the election of a democratic governor of Massachusetts was a distinct triumph.
The Chronicle extends its congratulations to the president, and a double share to purified and redeemed New York.—Houston Chronicle.

THE BITTER HOUR
Our hearts wear out with aching,
Our shoulders bend with care;
Our skies are full of shadow—
But still the sun is there,
We have our bitter hour,
We feel our whole souls wrung—
But love with all its power
Still keeps the green world young.
We wonder how we stand it,
Each day we rise to face
Some sterner, harder battle,
Some sorrow or disgrace;
Our hearts seem almost bursting,
They cannot stand much more—
"Lo, 'mid our hunger, thirsting
The bitter hour is o'er."
We rise and go forth strengthened,
We smile and climb our hill;
Renewed in hope and purpose,
Refreshed in force and will,
The bitter hour is over,
Its clouds, its shadows flee—
The light is on the meadow,
The sunbeams kiss the sea,
Sore, wounded and defeated,
Cast down and burdened deep;
Oh, weary hearts of aching;
Oh, eyes that long for sleep—
An unseen hand above us
Like curtains part our gloom;
We know there's God to love us,
We rise to song and bloom!

GASSEY IS DRILLED IN NEAR LAWTON THURSDAY

Hivick and Hall of This City Get Well With Some Oil—Other Holes Drilling

A good gas well was struck five miles east of Lawton late yesterday afternoon by Hivick and Hall of this city, according to advices received here this morning. The sand was struck at a depth of slightly over five hundred feet and the flow of gas was accompanied by a spray of oil.

The gas flow was ignited and made a blaze sufficient to be visible in Lawton. The well is one of the several being drilled in the Lawton vicinity. It is close to land held by the Forest Oil Company. A number of years ago T. M. Owen of that company struck a small amount of oil in a well very close to that drilled in yesterday. It was reported here this morning that a 100-barrel well had been struck, but later advices from Lawton did not confirm this.

FARMERS UNION COTTON OIL MILL IN OPERATION

Has Capacity of Sixty Tons Daily—McConkey Discusses Recent Ruling of Attorney General

The Farmers' Union cotton oil mill began operations today and the machinery is being given a thorough testing. The new mill is of the cold press type and has a capacity for handling sixty tons per day.

The capital stock of the company is $60,000. It has already bought more than 2800 tons of seed.

Farmers' Union gins and oil mills throughout the State are not affected by the recent ruling of Attorney General Looney, said J. L. McConkey, formerly chairman of the Farmers' Union state executive committee today.

Mr. McConkey says that this matter had been gone into by the Farmers' Union several years ago and as a result its investigation of the law it was made a rule to organize separate corporations for all Farmers' Union cotton gins, oil mills, stores and all other institutions conducted by the Farmers' Union. Stock in these institutions is held by individual members of the union not by any local or by the state organization.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Eney, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctors' lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardul, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 43 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardul certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to woman, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardul a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardul. Your druggist sells it.

PLUMBING ORDINANCE DEFEATED BY COUNCIL

By Vote of Three to Two, Measure is Lost—Has Been Under Discussion for Fifteen Months

After fifteen months of discussion the city council last night rejected the proposed plumbing ordinance by a vote of three to two. The ordinance was called upon the motion of Alderman Bradley. The vote was: Yes, Bradley and Reed; nay, Richolt, Young and Gardner.

The ordinance has been a subject of "unfinished business" or "special order" at nearly every session of the council in over a year. A number of changes have been made from the original draft from time to time. It is not expected in view of the prolonged discussion of this ordinance that another will be taken up in the near future.

SCOTLAND ADDITION IS NAME OF NEWEST TRACT Directors Meet This Morning and Elect Officers—Make Contract for Sale of Lots

The new addition to this city, across the river will be known as "Scotland Addition" in memory of John A. Scott, who once owned all the land in and around this city. This was decided at a meeting of the directors of the company this morning at which the following officers were elected: Charles W. Beas, president; J. M. Hland, first vice president; M. Stantford, second vice president; A. L. Huey, secretary and treasurer. A contract was authorized with A. L. Huey and J. Leroy Sadler to handle the sale of the addition. The land is to be platted and graded and placed on the market at once. The river is to be bridged so as to make the land more accessible and if the county will stand half the expense the bridge will be big enough for street railway tracks.

FIRST M. E. REVIVAL HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE The best attendance since the meetings opened was noted at last night's services at the First M. E. Church conducted by Rev. Charles Marter. The subject was "What Shall I Do To Be Saved?" and one conversion resulted from the forcible discourse that was delivered.

"The New Birth" will be tonight's subject. Services will be held to-morrow night, Sunday morning there will be rally day exercises at which Mr. Marter will speak.

INDIVIDUALISM Did you ever stop to think what it was that made your friend Jones or who ever it happened to be the kind of a character he was. Every time you think of him you remember some distinct characteristic. What is it? You don't know and you never will, unless the Creator gives you a better vision in the next world, but the human brain is such a wonderful thing that it looks and at once perceives the varied characteristics that go to make up the different individual. No other business calls for individualism like the one in which we are engaged. ## COX NOT GUILTY, VERDICT OF JURY

CASE IS DECIDED EARLY TODAY, THE JURY BEING OUT ALL NIGHT

SIX HOURS OF ARGUMENT

Widow of Blain Man Objects to Statements Made by One of Attorneys for Defense

E. B. Cox was found not guilty of murder in the killing of Sterling B. Morris by the jury in the Clay county district court. The verdict was returned a few minutes after 9 o'clock Friday morning. The case went to the jury at 9:45 p. m., Thursday night.

The case was given over to the jury at 9:45 Thursday night after six hours of argument by the opposing attorneys. Each side was given three hours. During the argument of Attorney Weeks, Mrs. Sterling Morris, widow of the slain man interposed an objection to some statements made by the speaker concerning the habits and disposition of her husband. Judge Matrin instructed the attorney not to repeat the statements and the argument proceeded.

RECEPTION IN ROME FOR AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS

Plans Under Way for Gala Occasion There When United States' Fighters Arrive

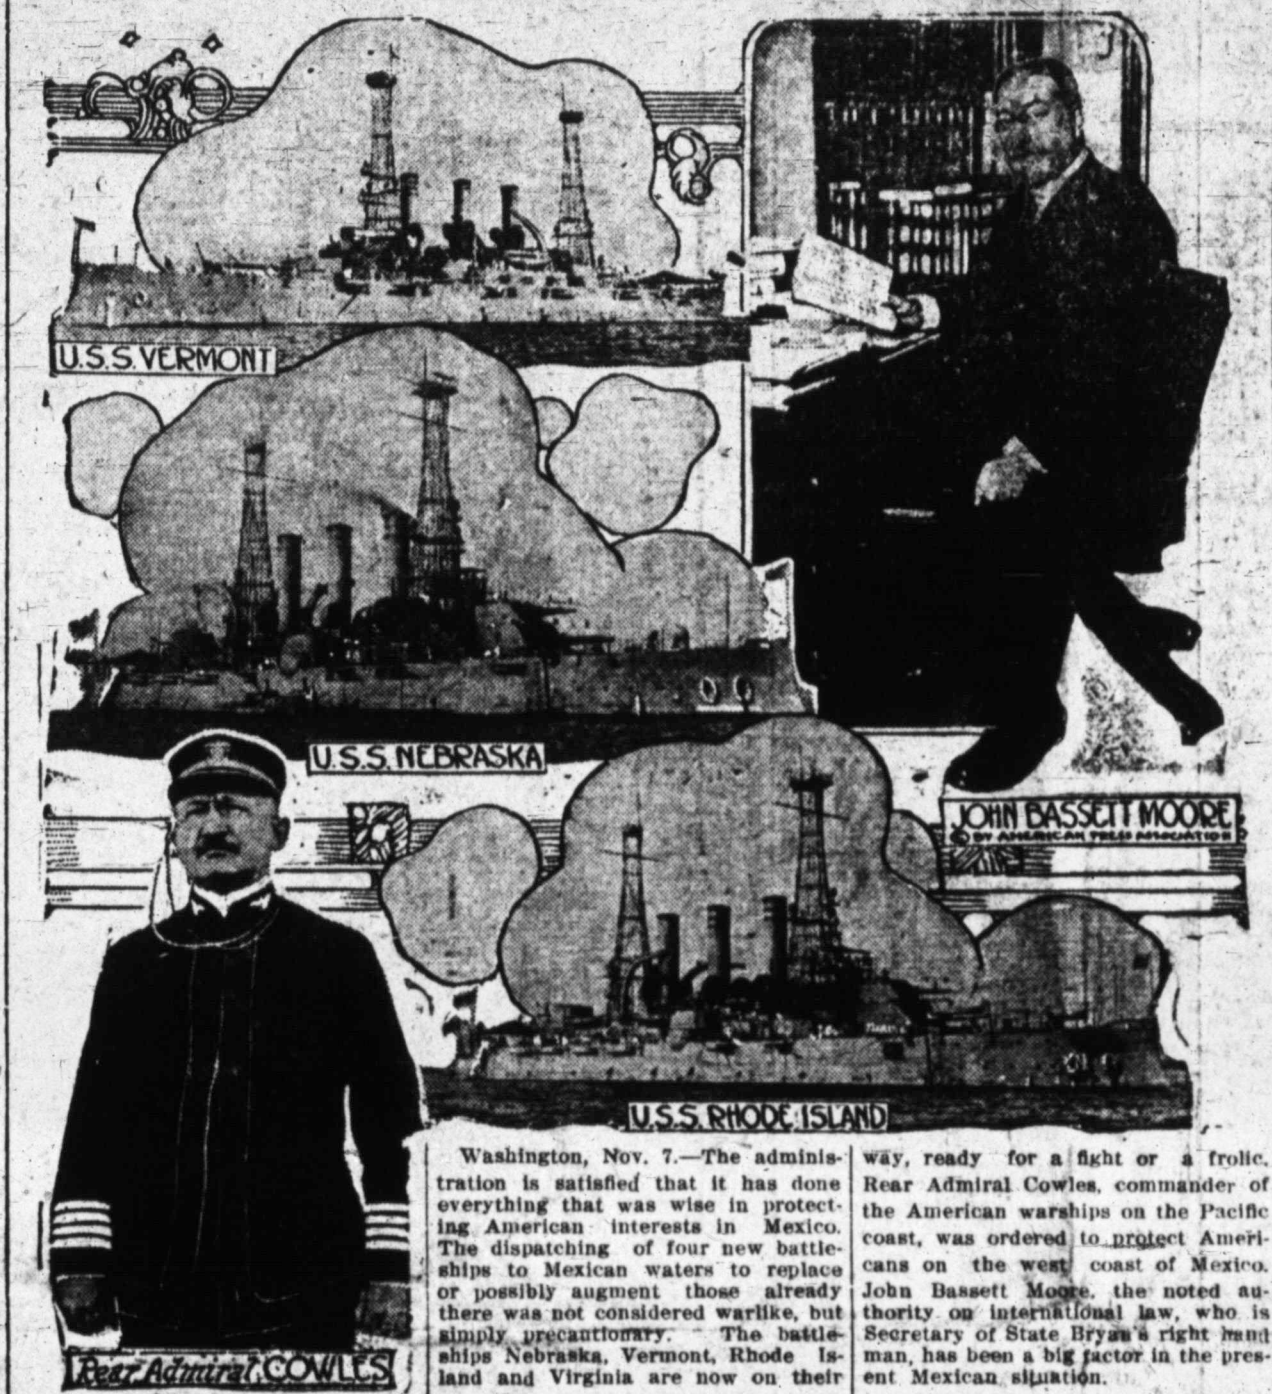

Rome, Nov. 7.—Arrangements were completed today for a royal reception to the officers and crews of the American battleships now cruising in the Bay of Naples. The battleships will remain in port at those places until November 30. At both Naples and Genoa the streets today are decorated with American and Italian flags and banners. The ships will steam into the harbor full dressed. Reception committees have been organized in the city. The battleships will formally receive the officers of the American vessels, immediately afterwards the Italian officials will follow in the evening. An almost endless program of entertainments for members of the crews as well as the officers has been planned for the five-day stay. Under orders from the state and navy departments at Washington, the American embassy at Rome will do as little formal entertaining as possible, in order that officers and men may have more time for travel and sightseeing in the city. Reception committees are being organized in all the cities which the fleet will visit. It was formally announced today by Vatican officials that all details have been completed for the stay of the fleet in special audience. Special trains will convey the sailors from Naples and Genoa to Rome for this event, and after the audience they will be given as much time as is compatible with the rules governing shore leave in Rome and other places nearby.

It was formally announced today by Vatican officials that all details have been completed for the stay of the fleet in special audience. Special trains will convey the sailors from Naples and Genoa to Rome for this event, and after the audience they will be given as much time as is compatible with the rules governing shore leave in Rome and other places nearby. It has been officially announced to the Italian government today that Wyoming, Rear Admiral Badger's flagship, will reach Naples on Nov. 12, to remain only one day. Plans were rushed through to the commander in chief of the visiting fleet and his immediate staff one of the greatest receptions ever given to the officer in charge of any foreign fleet. The Italian minister of marine, personally will be in charge. Among some of the features of the stay of the American blue jackets will be a series of baseball games and other athletic events. At the baseball games the Italian naval officers will be guests of the American officers, the former having expressed a desire to witness exhibitions of the national games. Included in the athletic events will be boat races among crews of the ships.

MORE TEST WELLS GO DOWN NEAR STAMFORD

Stamford, Texas, Nov. 7.—The Jones County Oil & Gas Company announces that it will begin drilling next week on a well about one mile east of Stamford. The machinery is being unloaded now. The contract calls for 2,000 feet, and the company is incorporated for $20,000. Rapid progress is being made on the Bunkley well, sixteen miles from the city and the drillers are very confident that pay oil or gas will be found by the time 2,000 feet is reached. The third well is being bored five miles north of town and a depth of about 200 feet has been reached.

ARBITRATION OF STRIKE SOUGHT

STREET CAR TROUBLE IN INDIANAPOLIS MAY BE SETTLED WITHOUT MARTIAL LAW

TROOPS REMAIN IN CITY

Governor Ralston Will Confer With Leaders of Both Sides in Effort to Adjust Difficulties

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Indianapolis will not be placed under martial law as long as there is possibility of settling the street car strike, Governor Ralston, after he had conferred with leaders of both sides, announced today. Nevertheless the entire force of state militia will remain here temporarily. The governor said he was hopeful of settling the trouble by arbitration.

Recognition of the union seems to be the main bone of contention. It was announced no attempt would be made to operate cars until the governor gave the word. Special trains brought the troops under hurried orders and they were detained in the suburbs, virtually surrounding the town. Great secrecy was maintained as to the movement and arrival of the militia and few citizens knew that the troops had been called out until late. All companies were held when they arrived until they were of such number that it was deemed safe to bring them into the city. This was done to prevent any clash with the strikers, who after learning the troops had been called out, were on the downtown streets in large numbers. Whether the street cars are to be manned by soldiers, officers in charge would not say.

WINTER WHEAT ACREAGE INCREASED STILL MORE

If Fair Weather Continues for Few Days Farmers Will Be Able to Do Much Planting

Farmers who had about decided to abandon plans to sow more wheat after the long delays caused by the heavy rains are now hoping that fair weather will continue so that they can work in their fields and sow wheat. There is so much moisture that wheat growers believe if frezing weather does not set in fields sown within the next week or ten days will get a good start and have fair prospects for making a crop. A large acreage has already been sown in wheat in Clay, Wichita, Wilbarger, Archer and Hardeman counties.

SURGEON WHO ATTENDED MCKINLEY DIES TODAY

Dr. Charles McBurney one of First Physicians to Handle Appendicitis Cases in Country

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stockbridge, Mass., Nov. 7.—Dr. Charles McBurney, eminent New York surgeon, died suddenly of heart disease at the home of his sister at Brookline, Massachusetts today. He was sixty-eight years old. When President McKinley was shot at Buffalo in 1901, Dr. McBurney was called and took charge of the case.

MURKIN ONE OF FIRST TO DEAL WITH APPENDICITIS

New York, Nov. 7.—Dr. McBurney had acquired considerable reputation as a surgeon when in 1889 he published an essay on "Experiences With Operative Interference in Cases of Disease of the Vermiform Appendix." The essay brought him recognition from the whole world, and for many years his colleagues jealously called him "the father of appendicitis." His essay created the first general recognition of the disease, established a means of diagnosis and gave to America prominence in the treatment of the ailment.

ARREST OF DIAZ FOLLOWS ATTACK

INJURIES ARE NOT SERIOUS

Havana, Nov. 7.—General Felix Diaz was arrested here today accused of shooting Pedro Guerrero the young Mexican wounded by a bullet during last night's altercation in the course of which Diaz was stabbed. Diaz said to have handed the revolver to a companion after shooting and seriously wounding Guerrero who had stabbed Diaz.

Felix Diaz recovered his composure today at the hospital to which he was taken after he had been wounded in the neck in an attack on him by Mexicans last night. All that Diaz could tell about the incident was that he and his companions were listening to a band when the electric lights were extinguished and he was attacked. His wounds are not serious. Gen. Diaz was accompanied by Cecilio Ocon, his fellow refugee and Luis Malda, manager of the street car lines in Mexico City, when the five Mexicans appeared behind him armed with cane knives. Diaz was stabbed twice in the neck, but not deeply. He quickly arose and began beating off his assailants with an umbrella, while his companions took up park chairs in defense.

Suddenly one of the assailants drew a pistol and fired point blank at Diaz, but the weapon was knocked aside and the bullet wounded one of the assailants. The police then rushed up and succeeded in arresting three Mexicans. All were placed in coaches and taken to the Emergency Hospital ward, where Diaz's wounds were dressed, also those of his wounded assailant. Besides two knife wounds in the neck, Diaz received various bruises from canes, one on the arm being severe. The attack occurred when the fashionable people of Havana were attending the band concert. Thousands of persons, panic-stricken, rushed pell mell in every direction, several being hurt by colliding with iron chairs.

REVENGE ON MRS. LAKE

Implicated Woman to Get Even With Her for Repulsing His Affectionate Advances

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 7.—Meade Barr's purpose in confessing to the murder of Florence Brown was to secure a pardon from an indeterminate sentence for murdering a negro, under which he was serving time in Indiana. This was the substance today by his sister, Mrs. C. E. Sanders, who said her brother had authorized her to speak for him.

DENIAL IS MADE BY BARR'S SISTER

SAYS CONFESSION WAS MADE MERELY TO SECURE PARDON IN INDIANA

Barr, she said, had hoped to make Dallas authorities believe his story of Florence Brown's death up to the point where they would ask for his pardon in Indiana, in order to use him as a witness in Texas, where a convict's testimony is not admissible. The sister said Barr's only reason for trying to implicate Mrs. Elle Lake was revenge, because she had refused his offers of affection.

Mrs. Lake was still in jail today, held on account of Barr's story, and was sure of this story in order to grand jury secret. Her attorneys said they expected to try to secure her release by tomorrow.

MEXICAN SITUATION DISCUSSED, HOWEVER, AT MEETING HELD THIS MORNING

RETURN OF LIND

No Order Sent Him to Go Back to Capital But he is Clothed with Sufficient Authority

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 7.—John Lind's unexpected return to Mexico City is understood here to have been without orders from Washington, but in line with the general instructions under which he has been enjoying the greatest freedom of movement. This latest development in the Mexican situation was surrounded by a great deal of reticence here.

One official view is that Charge O'Shaughnessy either had received some intimation that Huerta was about to answer the demands made early this week, or that O'Shaughnessy is desirous of advising with Lind on additional steps to be taken under his instructions. When a meeting of the cabinet called today broke up, the members were shown dispatches from Mexico City, saying Huerta's formal reply would completely deny the right of the United States to demand his retirement, but none would comment. All admitted the Mexican situation had been discussed.

Washington, Nov. 7.—An entirely new line-up in the Senate banking committee with a majority behind the administration again appeared today, when by a vote of seven to five, the committee reconsidered its action reducing the number of regional reserve banks to four.

Senators Reed and O'Gorman, the democrats who had been voting against administration proposals, cast their votes with the other democrats. Senator Hitchcock, democrat, held out, but Senator Crawford, republican, joined the administration forces.

The administration won a point when the committee voted to retain on the federal reserve board as an ex-officio member, the secretary of the treasury.

AMERICAN EMBASSY SUDDENLY RETURNS TO MEXICO CITY FROM VERA CRUZ

Provisional President Said to Take Stand That this Country Cannot Demand His Elimination

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—President Huerta's formal negative reply to the United States' demands, which were discussed in detail at last night's cabinet meeting, will set forth that the United States has no right, legal or otherwise, to demand Huerta's elimination. This statement was given on today from one of the departments of the Mexican government.

The reply will also assert Provisional President Huerta has no legal right to accede to the demand. The informant says it was decided to incorporate in the reply a declaration that Huerta intends to increase the Mexican army to 500,000 men. Final stages of the negotiations are to be participated in personally by John Lind. He arrived suddenly this morning from Vera Cruz.

The series of delays in Huerta's formal answer and the lack of definite action which would indicate his attitude has been annoying to Lind, whose sudden appearance in the federal capital is assumed to be due to his desire to bring things quickly to a head.

John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson, arrived here this morning from Vera Cruz. The United States embassy nor any one else in Mexico City had received any advices of his coming. There was much speculation here today over discussion at a cabinet meeting held last night. The public and Mexican officials did not know of Mr. Lind's movement and he came to the city contrasting greatly with his first arrival here.

PURITY CONGRESS PLANS FOR SINGLE STANDARD

Civic Morals and Sex Hygiene are Among Problems Considered at Minneapolis Meeting

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 7.—A high and single standard of morals, "safe and sane" instruction in sex hygiene and furtherance of such social, civic and moral reforms as will conserve the highest in character and life, were some of the subjects to be discussed at the Seventh International Purity Congress which convened here today for sessions to last six days. Nearly a thousand delegates and hundreds of visitors are attending from all parts of the world. The congress is being held under the direction of the World's Purity Federation and the speakers are of international prominence in the work of social and moral reform.

B. S. Steadwell of La Crosse, Wis., president of the Federation, in his welcoming address at today's opening session, struck the keynote of the congress. He pointed out that for thirteen years, the World's Purity Federation has been steadily at work combating the white slave traffic, the social evil and kindred evils, without the accomplishment of "sensationalism, notoriety seeking or hysterical methods." The Federation, he explained, has been seeking for years to put before the public, statistics and cold figures on vice and the social evil, not merely to declaim against such things, "but to set right minded people to thinking how best to remove the evils which exist, prudes, white slavers, corrupt politicians and over-sensitive persons to the contrary." Special stress was laid on the importance of publicity in spreading knowledge of these conditions, "no matter how much it hurts the sensibilities of some and despite violent opposition from certain organizations and classes" in order to arouse the public to full realization of the necessity for demanding government aid in reform.

BUTTONS ARE NOVELTIES

Fare Getting to be so Popular that they are being Put on Night Gowns Now

New York, Nov. 7.—No longer will you be all hemmed in by your skirt like the famous apple core, "there ain't agoin' to be none." Now don't begin to get nervous. In spite of them getting skimpier and scantier we don't mean "there ain't agoin' to be no skirt." Mercy no! It's the hem that's to be eliminated. Henceforth and also backward, the satin, chiffon or crepe de chine composing your skirt is to be worn au naturel; or in plain English, the salvage edge of the material will be used instead of the conventional and erstwhile hem. The effect is bound to be quite different and unique, as the grain of the fabric will necessarily run around the body instead of up and down.

The craze for the velvet band, with jeweled slides that have had fair ladies by the throat all season has now taken them in hand and wrist bands of wide black velvet with the gem intrusted slides are appearing on every wrist. The neck and wrist bands come in sets to match.

There is no doubt but that you are asked to stomach a great deal in the newest winter fashions. Food isn't the only thing going to stomachs by any manner of means. All the drape ries also are headed that way. What has been the bewitching cross of the pudgy person has become the desire of the svelte. Attenuated ladies sidle for tummies as strenuously as did Alexander for more worlds to conquer. Actually, stomach pads of rubber are offered to supply any deficiency in the stomach line and the newest cor sets are cut out over the abdomen so that one's stomach may appear untrammelled and to its full advantage. All the skirts are draped up high in front to enhance the full stomach effect, and to be truly swell you must put up a good front.

So great is the passion for fur this now you are expected to take it to bed with you. The latest word in nighties is one of shell pink crepe de chine banded in white cat. Very kittenish indeed!

Buttons, buttons, who's got the buttons, is the most foolish of questions these days, when everybody is buttoned up in front or back. There are buttons in front of you; buttons in back of you; buttons to left of you; buttons to right of you, nor can we wither nor custom state the infinit variety. They range from the tinselt ball buttons of metal or cut crystals or jet, to huge bone buttons, to actual size of a saucer or of an after dinner coffee cup and are every where seen on the right bled spo coats especially.

Buttons covered in silk or cloth to match the material of your costume in popularity with quaint little old-fashioned china buttons in blue or white, painted in tiny pink or blue rosettes. Many of the newest coat and jackets are trimmed in a straight line up the front and frocks buttoning up the back are again backing in favor. It is for ornament rather than use, however, that the myriad of buttons are in most demand.

Most gorgeous evening wraps of solid head work and being obtained at all the smart shops. Worked on in rainbow hued beads in intricate and elaborate floral patterns they are bizarre and ornate enough to attract undivided attention to the wearer even in this age of lavish and elaborate color schemes and circus effects.

For the occasions when a petticoat is absolutely indispensable—and there are a few such, even in these days of unveiled limbs—an ideal garment is a snugly fitting silk tricot with a flounce of silk, chiffon or lace to suit your whim. While these petticoats are a trifle expensive, their durability and excellent fit make them well worth the initial expenditure.

As a change from the ubiquitous white tulle and net frills and fichus the same effects, worked out in tulle or black are very chic. Another touch to differentiate the lace or net fri outlining your low neck, is a heading of inch wide fur hanging next to the skin. And speaking of skin—remember you must keep it that desirable sallow tone. For everything must have its yellow glint.

"THE GRAIN OF DUST" AS VIEWED IN NEW ORLEANS.

The New Orleans States comments in "The Grain of Dust" to be presented here by James K. Hackett, as follows: A fight to a finish between a trust magnate and a corporation lawyer, in which a pretty stenographer, "The Grain of Dust," supplies the exciting core, was the material from David Graham Phillips great novel run through the dramatic mold for James K. Hackett whose interpretation of Louis Ryan, Shipman's fight, set play is the Tulane Theatre offering this week. Hackett is still master of the art of portrayal and the author of "The Crisis" has provided ample channels for his talent.

As would be the case with any other "star" production, just what would become of "The Grain of Dust" without Hackett can only be conjectured. His supporting company suffers, perhaps, by comparison. Happily the core of the work falls on the star's shoulders.

Hackett's voice, long the envy of the profession, has lost nothing of the power and charm that have made him famous. It runs the gamut of the emotions with a delightful ease and grace. From the time he "won his purs" in the old chapel of the New York City College, a picture of which a part of stage adornment in the second act, Hackett has delighted thousands of theatre-goers and his recent effort indicates the flood tide of his art.

The story of "The Grain of Dust" is not new. Phillips' book, considered by some critics to have been overrated, loses a great deal in the dramatizing process, but the play sinks well with Shipman's other successes.

A trust magnate sets out to crush his former attorney, the most successful young lawyer in New York, because the lawyer has broken off his management of the only daughter and heiress of the financier. The attorney frankly admits his reason, love for the pretty stenographer, "The Grain of Dust," and his former client declared war without a quarter. Eighteen months later the attorney is about to fly a perfect white flag. He is down to his last five dollar bill, and his wife, "The Grain of Dust," has left him. She blames herself for his rapid fall. Luck changes and the trust magnate is brought to his knees. His daughter leaves him from utter remorse. He pleads with the wife of the triumphant and unrepentant attorney, who has luckily returned to her husband at the psychological moment.

WHITE SLAVERY PROBLEM SUBJECT OF "THE TRAFFIC."

"The Traffic" which plays at the Wichita Theatre Tuesday, Nov. 8 is the play of the most peculiar type. To lay white slavery is the imminent and vital problem of the thinking world, and the awful truths about it are depicted, told staged in so genuinely dramatic, amusing, truthful a manner in the play. It is a four act play. "The Traffic" as to cause astonishment. The success doesn't necessarily mean the public's approval of the piece, but rather their enthusiasm, their attendance at every performance, their eagerness to see it, their interest, their interest aroused by the naked truth of its teachings—and they have been all of this, in Seattle, where "The Traffic" was produced for the first time. It was only a matter of two performances and he play became the "talk of the town" in San Francisco and Los Angeles, what it caused can fairly be termed, a great sensation. Rachel Marshall, the playwright, is young and extremely interesting woman. She received the greatest part of her education at the Sacred Heart Convent in New Orleans, and afterward studied journalism and painting, during which time she became an ardent believer and follower of Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago. Last spring she wrote and sold her first piece for the stage to Blanche Walsh. It was only a little sketch, but possessed a big thought and an original idea. This was the beginning—the key to the stage door that let Miss Marshall in to do big things. The play will astonish and even shock. The truth—judicious and awful—in its accuracy—marks every scene and point in the play. "The Traffic" will be produced here by a competent company of well known and popular players.

French Wines Cost More. Paris, Nov. 7.—French wines, it was declared today, will cost more this winter than ever before because the wine crops in the district of Burgundy are ruined according to government statistics published today. Owing to too much rain, the grapes have failed to ripen and mildew has set in, injuring not only the fruit but the vines also. Wine growers have been reduced to the extremity of asking financial relief from the government. Subscribe for the Wichita Times

Things You Do Not See

When you buy a mattress are its most important features. For instance, there is a stuffing called "linters" which often is made up of left-over wads of cotton seeds and dirt. You can buy one very cheaply. The ticking may be the same as on a high grade mattress, but the bumps will soon come and nobody on earth can take them out.

A good mattress made of white, fluffy cotton, absolutely pure and clean, is worth every penny you pay for it. It will last for years and come back fresh and new every time you sun it.

In our mattresses, we pride ourselves on cleanliness and big value. A mattress of the right kind is one of the best investments you can make. Come in and get more facts about them. We will fit any bed.

Say not the struggle naught avails, The labor and the wounds are vain. The enemy falls not, nor fainteth, And as things have been they remain.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking, Seem here no painful inch to gain, Far back from creeks and inlets make, Comes silent, flooding in the main, And not by eastern windows only, When daylight comes, comes in the light, In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly, But westward, look! The land is bright.

Run-Down Women

Find Health in a Simple Tonic. How many women do you know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run down, thin, nervous, tired and demoralized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. Walter Price, Biloxi, Miss., says: "I was in a run down condition for months, I had taken several medicines but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I began to improve until I am strong and well as ever."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. For sale by Miller drug store. (Advt)

WRESTLING MATCH TO BE HELD HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Wichitans who remember the wrestling matches of last winter will be pleased to learn that some more are in prospect for this winter, and the first will be staged next Tuesday night at 9 o'clock at the Moose Hall.

George Hart of Delta, Colorado, and Charles Rentrop, middle weight champion of Europe, will meet on the mat and an interesting contest is promised. There will be two preliminaries, it is announced.

It is probable that Adolph Ernst, the German giant who was here last winter and whose wrestling attracted so much favorable comment, will challenge the winner for a match in the near future, so that other contests are in sight.

More Breeches

BREECHES—This word is a direct descendent from Breechcloth. First Breech; that meant a hole, then the plural Breeches, two holes; meaning two places to put your legs through. Pants has no lineal connection to Breeches; the word pants got its name when they wore 'em tight and a fat man had to pant to get 'em on—maybe panted a couple of times. Therefore Pants. There is more to the word Breeches and more kinds, including Breeches-of-Promise. This latter is all caused from wearing Breeches, because if the word had remained in its purity a lawyer would have looked well suing a man for Breeches Clothibus of Promise. But Loeb and Liepold do not make promises. They state facts and back them up.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 7, 1913

Intimation of a probability of war with Mexico hasn't created any great amount of enthusiasm in a proposal to organize a company of National Guards here.

Wichita County and the City of Wichita Falls should vote bonds, or otherwise provide means for the establishment of a public hospital. The state law says some action of this kind must be taken and the sooner the law is complied with the better. An institution of that nature is badly needed.

Thanksgiving falls on the 27th. The election for the adoption or rejection of the proposed new city charter is set for the 26th, the day before. If adopted, Wichita Falls will then have something for which to feel truly thankful.

About the only shortcoming Bryan has, is that it is not furnishing one or more candidates for Governor—
Bryan Eagle.

Most any town should be able to put out a candidate for governor who,
so far as ability to hold the job is concerned, will compare most favorably with any one of the several candidates so far announced. The Times feels safe in saying that at least a dozen or more could be found right here in Wichita Falls.

The great railroad magnate, James J. Hill, is quoted as saying "the country is water-logged with bonds." He might have added that some of the water-logging was done by himself, from which he enriched his fortunes to a point that has come near satisfying even his greed. Now he sees the ill effects of such big business methods and is willing that all water should be squeezed out of bonds before they are placed on the market. It is better late than never. Mr. Hill is getting old. Perhaps he realizes this and is beginning to think what his reward will be in the hereafter. "Neither shalt thou steal."

Results of the elections Tuesday in several states and congressional districts are generally accepted as an endorsement of President Wilson's policies. In Massachusetts where a particularly hard fight was made by the Progressives and Republicans in opposition to the democratic candidate and in which the administration's tariff and other policies were discus-ed in every center of the state by leaders of all parties, Walsh, the democratic candidate received the largest plurality ever given a democratic gubernatorial candidate in that state.

Plainly the people are well pleased with democratic stewardship.

The Vanderlip central bank plan,
if we mistake not, is simply a scheme gotten up with a purpose of defeating any legislation on the currency matter at this time, and perhaps to forever throw a damper on any currency legislation that might hereafter be introduced or proposed. As now, the money interests have a monopoly. This monopoly they have enjoyed for years.
And it has already begun to threaten what will happen if, (as this paper views it), President Wilson and his administration put through what is the fairest, most honorable currency measure that has ever been proposed. All this bluff being made by the big bankers that the proposed currency bill is a "menace" and that "it has gone far enough," that if enacted
"might wreck the country," should and doubtless will be treated by President Wilson as it deserves. The bluffers have had their day. It is now the people's turn at the wheel, and if we are to take the results of Tuesday's election as an indication of what the people think of President Wilson's administration, they seem well satisfied with the way it has handled the tariff and currency matters so far, and so long as the people express confidence in the administration, it need have no fear from anything the "bluffers" and "calamity howlers" may do and say.

THE TRIUMPH IN NEW YORK.

If democracy, in a partisan sense,
was defeated in New York, decency and good citizenship and good government triumphed.

The plans of a corrupt political boss
to pillage a city, the running expenses of which are nearly $200,000,000 a year were thwarted, and not only was a man elected mayor who rebelled against his dictation and deed and denounced him, but a majority of the board of aldermen, which controls the city's pursestrings, were carried into office with him.

John Purroy Mitchell is at present collector of the port of New York, and the fact that Woodrow Wilson selected him for the place avouched his fitness for the high office for which he has been chosen.

He will worthily succeed honest William J. Gaynor, and a great city has been saved from plunder and debauchery by as conscienceless a bunch of political banditti as ever brought reproach upon municipal government.

Politics has no just or logical relation to municipal government, which is essentially a matter of business administration, and the defeat of the so-called democratic ticket in New York city in no wise reflects upon the Wilson administration.

On the contrary, the election of a man appointed by him to one of the most important fiscal posts in all the government was distinctly an endorsement of President Wilson's judgment.

The returns from the elections elsewhere show that democracy has held its own, and that the administration has been endorsed. This was strikingly shown in the president's home state, and the election of a democrat governor of Massachusetts was a distinct triumph.

The Chronicle extends its congratulations to the president, and a double share to purified and redeemed New York.—Houston Chronicle.

THE BITTER HOUR

Our hearts wear out with aching,
Our shoulders bend with care;
Our skies are full of shadow—
But still the sun is there,
We have our bitter hour,
We feel our whole souls wrung—
But love with all its power
Still keeps the green world young.

We wonder how we stand it,
Each day we rise to face
Some sterner, harder battle,
Some sorrow or disgrace;
Our hearts seem almost bursting,
They cannot stand much more—
Lo, 'mid our hunger, thirsting
The bitter hour is o'er.

We rise and go forth strengthened,
We smile and climb our hill;
Renewed in hope and purpose,
Refreshed in force and will,
The bitter hour is o'er,
Its clouds, its shadows flee—
The light is on the meadow,
The sunbeams kiss the sea,
Sore, wounded and defeated,
Cast down and buried deep;
Oh, weary hearts of aching,
Oh, eyes that long for sleep—
An unseen hand above us
Like curtains part our gloom;
We know there's God to love us,
We rise to song and bloom!—
—Baltimore Sun.

SOME OIL IS FOUND IN NEIGHBORHOOD OF CISCO

Several Wells Drilled Recently Have Showings and Further Developments are Expected

Cisco, Texas, Nov. 7.—While the oil question is being agitated in Moran, there has been a quiet agitation going on in and around Cisco. In the last few months there have been wells opened around Cisco found to contain oil in fair quantities. On the farm of W. P. Pulley, four miles from Cisco, oil has been found in a well, and the well has been stopped up for further developments. The Short well, which worked for a time, seven miles west of Cisco, has been plugged for developments. A well on the farm of Will Compton, nine miles from Cisco, near Scranton, contains much oil. Five miles south of Cisco, on the farm of Frank Penn, a well has been found to give a good yield of oil. Mr. McCannless, who lives three miles from Cisco, stated that in boring for water on his farm oil in abundance had been found, and the well plugged. On the farm of Dr. Bettis, south of Cisco, several times he has bored for water and each time has found oil. C. P. Schafer, who owns a large tract of land south of Cisco, says that the water from the wells bored there is not fit for stock water on account of being so impregnated with oil. L. N. Hart, living east of Cisco, owning a large tract of land, states that he has several times bored for water, and each time has struck an oil vein. W. A. Boshears and W. J. Ticknor, north of Cisco, whose lands join, each report veins of oil having been struck when boring for water. On the farm of Green Smith, seven miles west of Cisco, oil has been found. Two wells recently being bored in Cisco had to be plugged on account of the flow of oil. On the farm of James Daniels, seven miles north-east from Cisco, oil in a large quantity has been found, and the family of Mr. Daniels uses the oil for cooking

Cottolene

Cottolene "creams up" beautifully, always, and every cook knows what an advantage that is. It is always plastic and blends readily with the flour or sugar. This makes Cottolene especially pleasant to use in cakes, pastry, sauces, biscuits and the like.

Have you tried Cottolene yet? If not, do at least test it for yourself. You will then understand some of its many advantages. At the same time, do not forget that food experts advocate this wholesome shortening as reliable, economical and digestible.

GASER IS DRILLED IN NEAR LAWTON THURSDAY

Hivick and Hall of This City Get Well With Some Oil—Other Holes Drilling

A good gas well was struck five miles east of Lawton late yesterday afternoon by Hivick and Hall of this city, according to advices received here this morning. The sand was struck at a depth of slightly over five hundred feet and the flow of gas was accompanied by a spray of oil.

The gas flow was ignited and made a blaze sufficient to be visible in Lawton. The well is one of the several being drilled in the Lawton vicinity. It is close to land held by the Forest Oil Company. A number of years ago T. M. Owest of that company struck a small amount of oil in a well very close to that drilled in yesterday. It was reported here this morning that a 100-barrel well had been struck, but later advices from Lawton did not confirm this.

FARMERS UNION COTTON OIL MILL IN OPERATION

Has Capacity of Sixty Tons Daily—McConkey Discusses Recent Ruling of Attorney General

The Farmers' Union cotton oil mill began operations today and the machinery is being given a thorough testing. The new mill is of the cold press type and has a capacity for handling sixty tons per day.

The capital stock of the company is $60,000. It has already bought more than 2800 tons of seed.

Farmers' Union gins and oil mills throughout the State are not affected by the recent ruling of Attorney General Looney, said J. L. McConkey, formerly chairman of the Farmers' Union state executive committee today. Mr. McConkey says that this matter had been gone into by the Farmers' Union several years ago and as a result its investigation of the law it was made a rule to organize separate corporations for all Farmers' Union cotton gins, oil mills, stores and all other institutions conducted by the Farmers' Union. Stock in these institutions is held by individual members of the union not by any local or by the state organization.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. —They call him the "kid governor." There's a reason. He's the youngest in the United States. Leon R. Taylor is only thirty-one, yet he is acting governor of New Jersey, filling the office held not so long ago by Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States. Taylor was speaker of the state's assembly and became acting governor when Acting Governor J. F. Fielder resigned. The new occupant of the gubernatorial chair is only one year beyond the age that required for the governorship. Taylor looks even younger than he is. So that's why they call him the "kid governor." He serves till the end of the present year.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with a awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctors' lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 45 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

SCOTLAND ADDITION IS NAME OF NEWEST TRACT Directors Meet This Morning and Elect Officers—Make Contract for Sale of Lots

The new addition to this city, across the river will be known as "Scotland Addition" in memory of John A. Scott, who once owned all the land in and around this city. This was decided at a meeting of the directors of the company this morning at which the following officers were elected:

Charles W. Bean, president; J. M. Bland, first vice president; M. Stanforth, second vice president; A. L. Huey, secretary and treasurer. A contract was authorized with A. L. Huey and J. Leroy Sailer to handle the sale of the addition. The land is to be platted and graded and placed on the market at once. The river is to be bridged so as to make the land more accessible and if the county will stand half the expense the bridge will be big enough for street railway tracks.

FIRST M. E. REVIVAL HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE

The best attendance since the meetings opened was noted at last night's services at the First M. E. Church conducted by Rev. Charles Marter. The subject was "What Shall I Do To Be Saved?" and one conversion resulted from the forceful discourse that was delivered.

"The New Birth" will be tonight's subject. Services will be held to-morrow night. Sunday morning there will be rally day exercises at which Mr. Marter will speak.

INDIVIDUALISM Did you ever stop to think what it was that made your friend Jones or who ever it happened to be the kind of a character he was. Every time you think of him you remember some distinct characteristic. What is it? You don't know and you never will, unless the Creator gives you a better vision in the next world, but the human brain is such a wonderful thing that it looks and at once perceives the varied characteristics that go to make up the different individual. No other business calls for individualism like the one in which we are engaged. Our customers seek oftentimes to reflect the most marked characteristics, and we thus record history for future generations to consider. The Enduring Gift

Every woman loves a Diamond. Every boy, girl, youth and man has at some time admired a fine diamond ring. Diamonds have always been more than gifts. They carry with them more than a mere "gift" sentiment. A birthday diamond, for example, always delicate because of its sweet significance, as will as the regard of the giver and the enduring quality of the gift itself. So, when you give, let your gift fulfill that existing desire for something beautiful. Give a diamond—a handsome diamond—a diamond you can afford, the gift that you will endue. For whatever gift occasion—birthday, holiday or anniversary, you will find the diamond most appropriate no matter what it is for.
