ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM OF ADMINISTRATION OUTLINED

"Day of Antagonism Between Business And Government Is Past" Declares The President

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 20.—President Wilson personally laid before a joint session of Congress today the fundamental principles of the democratic administration's program for dealing with the trusts and "big business." The president presented the case, he said, "as it lies in the thought of the country," reiterating "that private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable and declaring that conscientious business men throughout the nation would not be satisfied until practices now deprecated by public opinion as a restraint of trade and commerce were corrected.

"We are now about to write the additional articles of our constitution of peace," said the president, "the peace that is honor and freedom and prosperity."

Besides suggesting the scope of legislation, the president made a personal appeal for an atmosphere of friendliness and incorporation in congress while handling the problem.

"The antagonism," he said, "between business and government is over. We are about to give expression to the best judgment of America, to what we know to be the business conscience and honor of the land. The government and business men are ready to meet each other half way in a common effort to square business methods with the public opinion and the law."

PRINCIPAL FEATURES

The chief points which the president singled out as a basis for legislation were:

1. Effectual prohibition of the interlocking of directorates of great corporations—banks, railroads, industrial, commercial and public service bodies.

2. A law to confer upon the interstate commerce commission the power to superintend and regulate the financial operations by which railroads henceforth are to be supplied with the money they need for their proper development and improved transportation facilities. The president made it clear that "the prosperity of the railroads and the prosperity of the country are inseparable connected" in this regard.

3. Definition of the many hurtful restraints of trade by explicit legislation supplementary to the Sherman law.

4. The creation of a commission to aid courts and to act as a clearing house of information in helping business to conform with the law.

5. Provision of penalties and punishments to fall upon the individuals responsible for unlawful business practices.

6. Prohibition of holding companies and a suggestion that the voting power of individuals holding shares in numerous corporations might be restricted.

7. Giving to private individuals the right to found suits for redress on facts and judgments proven in government suits and providing that statute of limitations should run only from the date of the conclusion of the government's action.

GIVEN PROLONGED APPLAUSE

The president was ushered into the packed House chamber at 12:29 o'clock while the audience rose and gave him prolonged applause. He began reading at 12:30. The scene was no less dramatic than on any of the previous occasions when the president, setting aside a precedent that had prevailed since Washington's time, came to the halls of congress to address Congress in person.

Hundreds of people straining for a glimpse of the president and unable to gain admission, packed the halls of the capitol. The roar of applause was only stilled by Mr. Wilson's evident desire to proceed with his reading. At time the demonstrations approached cheering. The president completed his reading at 12:51 o'clock and as he left the reading desk he was greeted by Democratic Leader Underwood.

Republican Leader James R. Mann lead the applause that greeted the declaration for giving the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate railroad finances.

President Wilson said:

"What we are preparing to do is happily, not to hamper or interfere with business as enlightened business men prefer to do it, or in any sense to put it under the ban.

Says Antagonism Over.

"The antagonism between business and government is now over. We are now about to give expression to the best business judgment of America to what we know to be the business conscience and honor of the land. The government and business men are ready to meet each other half way in a common effort to square business methods with both public opinion and the law. The best informed men of the business world condemn the methods and processes and consequences of monopoly as we condemn them; and the instinctive judgment of the vast majority of business men everywhere goes with them. We shall now be their spokesmen. That is the strength of our position, and the sure prophecy of what will ensue when our reasonable work is done.

"When serious contest ends; when men unite in opinion and purpose those who are to change their way of business joining with those who seek for the change, it is possible to effect it in the way in which prudent and thoughtful and patriotic men would wish to see it brought about with as few, as slight, as easy, as simple business readjustments as possible in the circumstances, nothing essential disturbed, nothing torn up by the roots, no parts rent, asunder which can be left in wholesome combination. Fortunately, no measure of sweeping or novel change are necessary. It will be understood that our object is not to unsettle business or anywhere seriously to break its established courses. On the contrary, we desire the laws we are now about to pass to be the bulwarks and safeguards of industry."

Interstate Trade Commission.

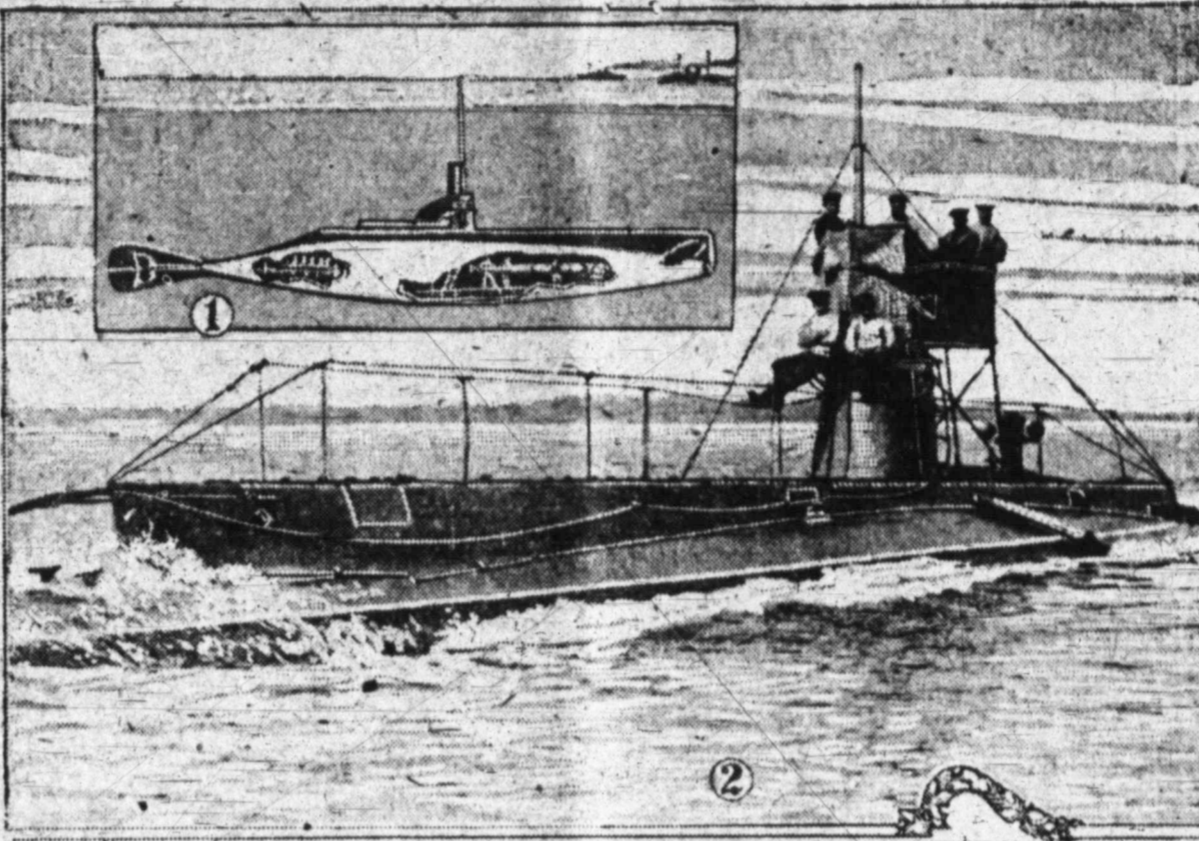

The business of the country, the president said, has suffered because it could not obtain a more explicit legislative definition of the meaning of the existing anti-trust law, but now that "we are sufficiently familiar with the actual processes and methods of monopoly and of the many hurtful restraints of trade to make definition possible, these practices can be explicitly and item by item forbidden by statute in such terms as will practically eliminate uncertainty, the law itself and the penalty being made equally plain."

But business men of the country desire something more than that, the president declared, which desire would be met by an interstate trade commission.

"The opinion of the country would naturally approve of such a commission."

BRITISH SUBMARINE LOST, WITH ELEVEN OFFICERS AND CREW, ONE OF THE "HOODOO" CLASS A; OFFICIAL PROBE PROMISED

London, Jan. 20.—The British naval authorities, deeply shocked by the loss of the submarine A-7, with eleven officers and crew, will appoint a commission to investigate the entire subject of underwater navigation. The sunken craft, which disappeared near Plymouth, will be raised as soon as divers locate her. The A class of submarines in the British navy has had a consistent history of bad luck. A-1, the first of the class, was sunk in collision with the steamship Berwick Castle off the Isle of Wight on March 13, 1904. Her commander, Lieutenant Mansergh, and the crew of ten men were killed. A-5, the first of a new series of the class launched in 1904, blew up in Queenstown harbor on Feb. 10, 1905, killing four of the crew and seriously injuring seven others. A-8, a sister ship of the A-5, was lost in Plymouth sound on June 8, 1905. She was running on the surface with her hatch open, her helmsman heeled her sharply to one side to avoid a fishing craft and the submarine plunged headlong to the bottom. Fifteen of the nineteen men aboard were killed. The A-1 was raised after the accident of 1904, the bodies of her officers and men recovered and the boat again was put in commission. On Aug. 6, 1910, an explosion of gasoline, on the coal-plunger severely injured two officers and five men. On Feb. 2, 1912, the A-3 was in collision with the British gunboat Hazard off the Isle of Wight and went down like a stone, killing four lieutenants and a crew of ten men.

QUIET FOLLOWS PRISON MUTINY

INQUIRY TO BE MADE AT McALESTER WHERE EIGHT MEN WERE KILLED MONDAY

GUNS SMUGGLED INSIDE

Three Prisoners Get Pistol From Somewhere and Attempt to Shoot Path to Liberty

By Associated Press.
McAlester, Okla., Jan. 20.—Quiet prevailed today at the state penitentiary where last night seven persons lost their lives during a battle between guards and three convicts who attempted to escape. The bodies of the three employees, H. H. Drover, head of the record department; Patrick Oates, assistant deputy warden and F. C. Godfrey were at the penitentiary morgue while in the city morgue the body of Judge John R. Thomas of Muskogee, a visitor of the prison killed by convicts' bullets, awaited shipment to relatives.

Fists smuggled into the prison and reaching the hands of Charles Koons, China Reed and Tom Lane, who gave up their lives in their dash for liberty, caused the tragedy. Warden W. R. Dick continued a searching investigation today to discover the means by which the weapons came within the prison. Word came from Oklahoma City that a special commission might be appointed to investigate the affair.

ARREST REBEL GENERAL ON THE AMERICAN SIDE

Gonzales is Held on Charge of Carrying Pistol—Is Complained of by American Cattleman.

By Associated Press.
Alpine, Texas, Jan. 20.—Major General Jose Gonzales commanding constitutionalists opposite La Jida, Texas, was arrested on the American side last night charged with wearing a pistol. American cattlemen have complained of Gonzales' treatment while they were in Mexico. Gonzales said that but for his arrest he had planned to give battle to General Orozco today. He is the general who ordered three Americans, T. J. Riley, I. J. Jones and Joe White executed last week as spies but who later released them.

STANLEY'S BILL WOULD VOID JUSTICE WHITE'S ANTI-TRUST RULING

Washington, Jan. 20.—Representative Augustus O. Stanley of Kentucky has introduced a bill providing for two changes in the phraseology of the Sherman law. The first change provides that the law shall state specifically that every attempt at restraint of trade or monopoly "in any degree" is illegal. It is aimed at the supreme court "rule of reason" theory in the Standard Oil case in which Chief Justice White wrote the decision. The second gives district attorneys power to institute suits on their individual initiative without specific directions from the department of justice. Mr. Stanley offered this bill soon after he had returned from an interview with President Wilson.

STATE'S DAY IN TRIAL OF NORRIS

WITNESS SAYS PASTOR TOLD HIM HE COULD GET $30,000 FOR CHURCH

WOMAN FIRST ON STAND

Says Defendant Talked To Her About Testimony Before Grand Jury, Three Witnesses Heard

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 20.—After a full day of argument over the admissibility of certain circumstantial testimony which Judge Swayne ruled out for the present, attorneys in the trial of Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor accused of burning his own church began today the taking of evidence. The court room was packed, the majority being members of the First Baptist Church.

"I can get $30,000 for the church at any time," A. P. Baker, real estate dealer and former deacon of the First Baptist Church, testified Rev. Norris told him before the church was burned; $30,000 insurance was carried on the property.

This statement to which he stuck in spite of efforts of the defense to make him agree that Norris might have said he could get $30,000 for the lot together with the testimony of John Homan, that Norris admitted to him last August that the testimony of Mrs. K. K. Taylor on the perjury trial was "in the main correct" gave the State its strongest session since the trial started.

Mrs. Taylor's Testimony.
These reports of the testimony were given in the presence of the jury. Mrs. K. K. Taylor was the first witness of the day. She said that Norris asked her not to go before the grand jury without first seeing him; that he could explain everything. She said he complained that his "official family" said they did not remember about things but that his enemies knew what they were going to swear.

At one time, she said, he told her that what she was saying would put him in stripes and that she must not testify to such things.

HERE'S A SPOTLESS TOWN ONE ARREST LAST YEAR.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 20.—East Washington, this city's exclusive suburb, proudly boasts that it has no church and needs none. And just as proudly boasts that it needs no police corps nor even a justice of the peace. Divorce lawyers would starve to death in East Washington. During last year there was, but one arrest—that of a drunk whose fine netted the community $2.50. The population of East Washington is 1,500 and all were careful to explain in connection with the excitement connected with the arrest and fining of the lone disturber that he came from Pittsburgh.

GENERAL VILLA WANTS SALAZAR

REPORTED TO HAVE SENT REQUEST TO COLQUITT FOR FEDERAL'S EXTRADITION

TO FACE MURDER CHARGE

Huerta Officer is in Hands of American Federal Officers and Colquitt Will not Act

By Associated Press.
San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 20.—A special to the Light from Austin says:

"Gov. Colquitt has received a request for the extradition of General Salazar, Mexican federal general now held in Texas. The request came from General Villa, constitutional leader.

"Salazar is wanted in Mexico on a charge of the murder of Thomas Fountain. The governor said before he took any action looking toward honoring the request for extradition he would confer with the authorities at Washington.

GOVERNOR WILL PROBABLY TAKE NO FORMAL ACTION.

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Jan. 20.—Gov. Colquitt had not this morning received the message which Gen. Villa is reported to have sent him asking extradition to Mexico of Gen. Salazar. He did not indicate what course he would pursue, but is hardly probable that the governor can see his way clear to act in the matter at all beyond referring it to Washington. Salazar is now held by the federal authorities.

FRENCH THREAT SENT TO MEXICO

INTIMATES THERE MAY BE FORCED COLLECTION OF INTEREST ON LOAN

PROTEST GOES TO HUERTA

Note Framed So as to Imply Tacit Approval of Policy of United States Toward Mexico

By Associated Press.
Paris, Jan. 20.—The French foreign office today instructed the French minister to Mexico to protest to Provisional President Huerta against the suspension of the payment of interest on the Mexican public debt.

The French note differentiates between the loans of 1910 and 1912. The first of these, secured by sixty-two per cent of the Mexican customs duties, received the formal approval of the French government. The second loan of 1913, secured by thirty-eight per cent of the Mexican customs, did not receive government recognition.

It is understood the notes to Huerta mention in careful terms that the French government will now exercise its privilege of forced collection of the Mexican customs duties and the document is framed in such a way as to imply tacit approval of the policy of the United States.

FEDERALS LEAVE LAREDO; PLAN ATTACK ON REBELS

Another Fight at Matamoros is Also Promised—General Alvarez in Command

By Associated Press.
Laredo, Texas, Jan. 20.—One thousand federals left Nuevo Laredo under Gen. Alvarez today, ostensibly bound to attack a band of rebels encamped down the Rio Grande. It was said the federals later planned to unite with other forces for an attack on Matamoros opposite Brownsville.

By Associated Press.
Pittsburgh, Okla., Jan. 20.—Two bandits rode up to the State Bank today, forced the cashier into the vault at pistol point, rifled it of coin, placed their loot in a sack and galloped safely out of town. Bank officials say that only a few hundred dollars was taken. Other reports said several thousand was the loss. A posse with blood hounds started on the trail.

FAMILY OF FOUR DEAD

DISCOVERY OF TRAGEDY IN FT. WORTH IS MADE THIS AFTERNOON

ONE WAS BURNED

Others Had Been Shot—Father Had Not Been Seen Alive Since Early in December

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 20.—M. F. Taylor, Armour and Company employe, his wife and two children were found dead this afternoon at their home.

They were last seen alive December 16, when Taylor quit his position, saying he was going to Oklahoma City. A pistol was found by the father's side. The smaller child had been burned to death and the others had been shot.

Two gallon jugs which had contained beer were found in the house. It is believed a final farewell feast was held before the family was exterminated.

CATTLEMAN IN SESSION AT DENVER THIS WEEK.

Denver, Jan. 20.—The decrease in cattle production in the West and how to prevent it will be the principal topics discussed during the annual convention of the American National Livestock Association which began a three day session here today. Several hundred stockmen, here to attend the National Livestock show, are in attendance.

CONGRESSMAN FIGHTS LAWYER

FISTIC ENCOUNTER BREAKS UP SESSION OF COMMITTEE AT WASHINGTON

ONE CALLS FOR A PISTOL

Lawyer is Accused of Lobbying and Encounter Follows—Men Separated by Spectators

By Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 20.—A fist fight between Representative Johnson of Kentucky and John Shields a Washington attorney, broke up a meeting today of the House committee on District of Columbia.

After the two men had clashed and several blows were struck, Representative Johnson broke away shouting "Get my pistol, I'll kill him." Mr. Shields was knocked down before the spectators could quiet the two combatants.

After Johnson had broken away and gone to his office, his demand for fire-arms soon reached the committee offices. When he returned only two clerks remained.

The clash followed a hearing on a District of Columbia bill when Johnson charged Shields with lobbying which the latter resented.

INCREASE IN VALUE OF STOCK EXCHANGE SEATS

By Associated Press.
New York, Jan. 20.—Stock exchange seats took a $5000 jump yesterday. Two sold at $50,000 each. The previous sale price on December 24, was $45,000. Since there has been a feeling of renewed confidence, the low price for seats was $37,000 last summer.

MICHIGAN BREEDERS' BIG POULTRY SHOW OPENS

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 20.—Farmers of Middle Western States today were confident of a come back in their poultry exhibits in the Michigan Breeders' Association show which opened here today. For years, poultry fanciers of Ontario, Canada, have sent their prize fowls to this annual show and they have never failed during those years to pull down a major portion of the blue ribbons. The international rivalry is friendly but intense. About 1,500 birds are entered in this year's competition. One of the novelties which attracted wide attention was a flock of domesticated wild mallard ducks.

SUPPOSED OUTBREAK OF GREEN BUG FICTITIOUS

Department of Agriculture Says Another (Fictitious) Comparatively Innocent, Is Taken for It

Washington, Jan. 20.—The fears of Texas and Oklahoma grain growers have been aroused by a supposed outbreak of the "green bug" in the northern portions of their states. That most of these fears have been caused rather by the insect known as the oat aphid, which does not as a rule work seriously injury to the grain fields over any extensive territory, is the conclusion of specialists that have recently been sent to the south by the department of agriculture.

During December complaints came from the Texas Grain Dealers Association at Fort Worth and also from Oklahoma business men that the spring grain aphid, commonly known as the green bug, was appearing in enormous numbers in the wheat fields. An investigator of the bureau of entomology was promptly dispatched to northern Texas to study the situation and report to the bureau. His investigations it seems that the insect most responsible for the fears of the grain growers is that known as the oat aphid and not the spring grain aphid.

The oat aphid is found, more especially among grain growers, where it colonizes upon the stems and to a less extent, upon the leaves. It is slightly more robust in form and may be distinguished from the green bug by the slightly reddish tinge on the edge of the back part of its body. The true "green bug" is found almost entirely upon the leaves of the grain. It is more slender than the oat aphid and in general color is Paris green. A third aphid also occurs in this section, apparently developed in great numbers on cabbage, rape and similar plants, spreading about over the fields.

Of the three bugs, the oat aphid is by all means the most abundant, according to the report of the investigators of the department. In many cases the third bug described was even more abundant than the dreaded spring grain aphid. While the "green bug" occurs generally in the fields, its numbers do not seem to be such as to warrant at this time a feeling of unrest among grain growers.

There is also present in the fields a tiny friend of the grain grower which destroys or holds in check all larvae of the bugs just described. This is a little black four winged parasite which breeds equally well on any of the three varieties. The parasite gets in its work whenever the temperature rises to about sixty degrees during the day. So abundant are these little foes of the grain aphid that it would seem impossible for an outbreak to occur, provided the temperature does not fall below about sixty degrees and remain so for a considerable period of time, as the parasite does not develop readily in a temperature below fifty-sixty degrees, while the "green bug" will develop in a temperature several degrees lower.

SACRED DRAMA IS AT ITS BEST IN "BEN HUR"

Sacred history properly dramatized must necessarily be of gross benefit to all who give it attention for where one person enjoys acquiring knowledge by reading, ninety-one or more prefer to study by the eye and ear combined and retain the instruction thus received far more vividly than if gained merely from the printed page.

General Lew Wallace's great book "Ben Hur" is without doubt a most interesting volume, but how infinitely more impressive is the actual presentation on the stage of the deeds therein set forth. The series of life pictures pertaining to the "Christ" have been most ably selected by the dramatist, Mr. William Young, but the stage version is by no means a picture of the life of the Redeemer. The salient earthly points of the novel are not strictly religious, and what the dramatist selected and for the reason "Ben Hur" is full of common interest, regardless of creed or beliefs.

A critic of note has said: "A great historical drama is not to be made with reference to the square and compass. It must be a vivid, historical impression and at the same time a wisely considered story of life." These two conditions are admirably fulfilled in "Ben Hur" which is a spectacular religious romance, with scenery of the highest conception of beauty and magnificence, and music that is appropriate and of high order. Art and invention joined hands to make the production a marvel of the stage and the thrilling interest of the story is intensified by the wonderful mechanical contrivances which make possible the presentation of such striking scenes and incidents as the stirring chariot race, with its galloping steeds, the sinking of the Roman galley and the rescue, the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem, the vision of the Vale of Hinnom and the Miracle on the Mount of Olives.

"Ben Hur" will be the attraction at the Wichita Theatre Monday and Tuesday evenings and Tuesday matinee, Jan. 20 and 21. Seats are now on sale.

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening

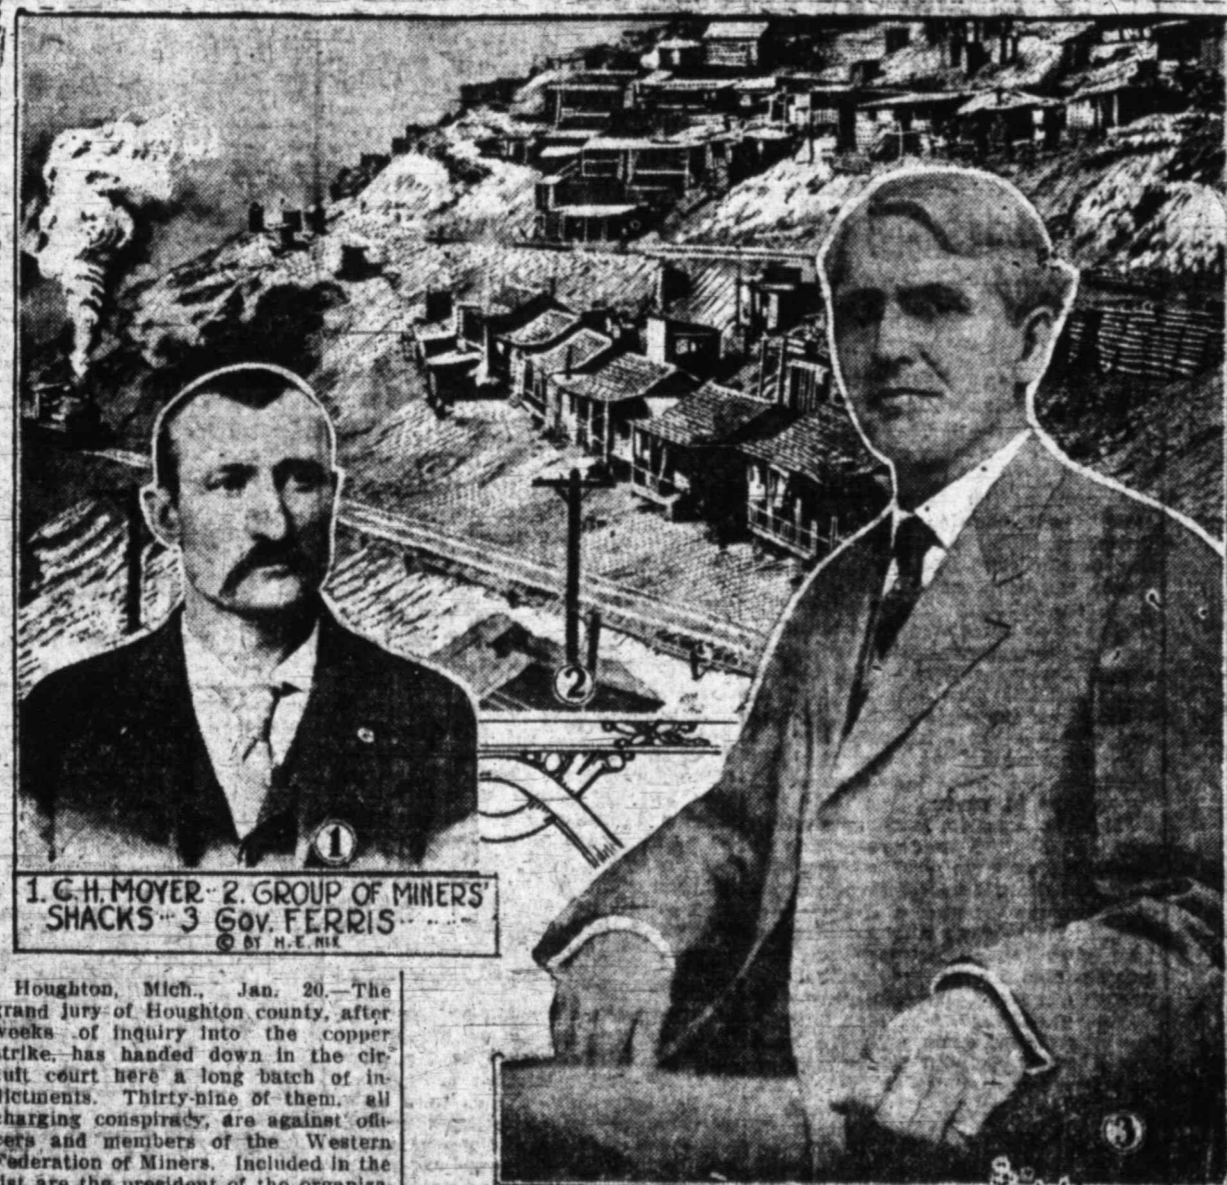

YOU'LL never use lard again once you try Mrs. Tucker's Shortening, or go to the expense of using butter for cooking purposes when this shortening will give you genuine butter richness at half the cost. Here is an ideal cooking fat—pure, wholesome and economical. You use less of it than you would lard or butter. It hasn't that heavy, greasy taste of lard and gives cooking results equal to high quality butter. This shortening is

INTERSTATE COTTON OIL REFINING CO., Sherman, Texas

Indicted Head Of Miners' Federation; Michigan Governor, Who Defends His State's Action

1. G. H. MOYER, 2. GROUP OF MINERS' SHACKS, 3. GOV. FERRIS

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 20.—The grand jury of Houghton county, after weeks of inquiry into the copper strike, has handed down in the circuit court here a long batch of indictments. Thirty-nine of them, all charging conspiracy, are against officers and members of the Western Federation of Miners. Included in the list are the president of the organization, Charles H. Moyer; vice president C. E. Mahoney; Guy E. Miller, Yankou Teasch, J. C. Lowner and W. P. Davidson of the executive board; and a number of officers and members of the Houghton county local unions, including John E. Artuba, William Rickard, Ben Gogola, Frank Altonen, Charles E. Hystala and other local union leaders. The indictment charges conspiracy to prevent "by force and arms" the pursuit of their vocations by employees of the mining companies. The charge constitutes misdemeanor in Michigan. Several other indictments for felony were found, but not made public and it is not known whether they relate to the deportation of Moyer and Charles Tanner from Hancock on Dec. 28 or to the killings at Beebeville in which guards and deputy sheriffs were accused.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Governor Ferris of Michigan has wired President Wilson, characterizing as "false" and a "traitorous insult" to Michigan an alleged statement by Congressman W. J. MacDonald, Progressive, Twelfth Michigan district, Cooper strike district, to the effect that constitutional government no longer exists in that region. The governor said: "I know what I am talking about. Michigan asks that the truth be told. Michigan has protected the life and property of all her citizens and will continue to do so. Michigan needs no outside help."

The Days That Are No More. Tears, like tears, I know not what they are. I rise in the heart, and gather to the eyes. In looking on the happy autumn fields, And thinking of the days that are no more, Fresh as the first beam glittering on a sail, That brings our friends up from the under world, Sad as the last which reddens over one That sinks with all we love below it— So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more.

Ah, sad and strange as in dark summer dawns The earliest pipe of half-awakened birds To dying ears, when unto dying eyes The casement slowly grows a glim mering square; So sad, so strange, the days that are no more.

Dear as remember'd kisses after death, And sweet as those by hopeless fancy feign'd On lips that are for others; deep as love, Deep as first love, and wild with all a regret, Oe, death in life! the days that are no more.

—Alfred Tennyson.

MASONS CONFER DEGREES ON ELEVEN CANDIDATES

Surprise Banquet Given by Ladies of Eastern Star Feature of Initiation Ceremonies Monday

The meeting of the Masons on Monday afternoon and evening was one of special importance, the first degree being conferred upon ten candidates. At the close of the business session they were delightfully surprised by a banquet given them by the officers of the Eastern Star.

After they had shown their hearty appreciation of this treat by the manner in which they disposed of the good things provided, Dr. Gaston in behalf of the Masons, expressed in an appropriate speech their thanks to the ladies for their kindness.

Mrs. Sam Ashmore in a few well chosen words, responded for the Eastern Star. A number of other good talks were made by both old and young Masons. A large number of the local lodge were in attendance also a number of visitors from out of town.

YOUNG MEN'S FORUM IN SESSION MONDAY NIGHT

Debate is Held on Question of Literacy Among Immigrants—Several Short Talks Heard

An interesting session of the Young Men's Forum was held last night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, there being present most of the members and a number of visitors. The program included a talk on "The Texas Poll Tax Law" by Mr. Eddelman, one on "Government Ownership" by Mr. Settle and one on "Signs of the Times" by Mr. Fuller.

In the debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Government Should Apply the Literacy Test to Immigrants"—the negative side of the argument was victorious. Messrs. Bonner and Hysler had the affirmative, while Messrs. Crowell and Gould defended the negative.

Two lectures were given by Judge S. H. Hodges and L. H. Lawler were pleasant features of the evening and a number of short talks by the younger members were also heard. The next meeting of the Forum will be held Wednesday, January 23, next Monday's meeting being postponed on account of "Ben Hur."

HOBOS PLAN REFORMS AT THEIR COMING MEETING.

St. Louis, Jan. 20.—That Uncle Sam shall furnish employment of all the unemployed at all seasons; furnish transportation free to the place of employment and a federal eight hour law are the principal demands which the Missouri delegates, who left today for Cleveland, will present to the convention of the National Brotherhood Welfare Association, which convenes January 27. Among other demands formulated by the state convention of hoboes here under the leadership of Dr. James Eads for the amelioration of the condition of the unemployed are:

That the vagrancy law shall be so defined that it will not apply to the unemployed. That the constitution be amended so that the government shall be compelled to furnish work. That equal suffrage shall be granted to all adults. That the privilege of voting be extended to all citizens, who, in pursuing their employment are away from their homes on election day. That an industrial army be formed, under the direction of the secretary of labor in which unemployed men, and women can enlist and be assigned work for periods of three months with the privilege of re-enlisting. That every postoffice be converted into an employment bureau.

Enns—Work will begin shortly on the $50,000 improvements of the ice plant at this place. The plan is to enlarge the factory to 85 ton capacity daily. The latest and most modern machinery will be installed in this plant.

BIG CHALLENGE SALE!

Collier & Hendricks Semi-Annual Challenge Sale

Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings $25,000 STOCK OPENS THURSDAY

Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings, Commencing 9 A. M., Thursday, January 22, 1914

The sale that men look and wait for, because it is grounded upon the solid rock of truth, telling quality and price. Our stock this time is heavier than ever before on account of the mild winter. We are going to move these goods out at a great sacrifice because we never carry one season's goods to another, and prices are made to assure a complete clearance. At least $8000.00 worth of goods must be sold in 15 days. The time is short, hence the prices will be extremely low. You have the word of Collier & Hendricks that this is something more than an ordinary sale. The reason is the necessity for reducing the stock in order to have room for our immense spring and summer stock that will be coming in soon. Your satisfaction is the most important thing of all to Collier & Hendricks, so we emphasize again the chief rule of this store. Bring back anything not entirely satisfactory and get your money back without question.

THIS is a day when the delusions to which one has held for years are gradually being swept away by those superlatively clever people who know everything.

One such delusion, in which we all believed, was that to read while in a recumbent position was injurious to the eyes. We now know that if the light be good, and the type of the printed page clear, we may safely indulge in the luxury of lying down and reading at the same time.

Unless one has unusually strong eyes, they must not read when extremely weary. Exhaustion and fatigue affect all the nerves of the body, and the optic nerve is so sensitive that it should receive particular consideration. Nor should one ever be guilty of carelessness of reading or writing, facing a window. This, too, is a cruel strain on the sight.

When we consider how we neglect our eyes by using them by fading day light and insufficient artificial light, by forcing them to do work when they are weary, and by denying them the rest for which they long, we have cause to wonder not that they sometimes become mutinous, and refuse to fulfill our demands, but that they are ever faithful to us as we are to them.

OHIO LEGISLATURE SETTLES DOWN TO REAL WORK.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 20.—The Ohio legislature settled down today to the real work of completing its organization as a special session and taking up the progressive program mapped out by Governor Cox. Some of the legislation the special session will consider will be adoption of a new school system; an anti-screen measure under which 50,000 miners will be paid for all the coal they produce; departmental appropriations; a tax law giving the money paid in for automobile licenses to the highway department for road building and improvement; a banking law enabling state banks to conform to the provisions of the new currency law; a law requiring immediate deposit of all moneys received by state officers and a law empowering municipalities to issue bonds for self-supporting public owned utilities. The governor expects to carry through this program in thirty days.

Belton—During the latter part of this month the Texas Creameries Association will meet and discuss the best interests for their business. A large attendance is contemplated.

MOTHER'S COFFEE

You remember the cup of coffee your mother made way back yonder at the Homestead. In memory you still smell its delightful aroma, taste its rich mellow flavor and feel its exhilarating influence—a morning benediction.

Mother didn't have as good coffee as you get now, as coffee at that time was in the hands of semi savage tribes and was poorly cultivated and handled. Mother made it in an old tin coffee pot. BUT MOTHER DID HAVE FRESH ROASTED COFFEE. She roasted it herself in the oven—a day's supply at a time. It wasn't roasted in Boston, New York or Chicago. It didn't lay in dirty box cars and depots nor linger on the grocers' shelves for weeks and perhaps months before it reached your kitchen, so in spite of inferior coffee and inadequate apparatus mother made a dandy cup of coffee. You can make a better one if you buy your coffee of us for you will get the very best of fine old mild growths of coffee intelligently blended to get the best results in the cup and fresh roasted—in up to date roasting machinery.
