BORDER TROOPS NOT WITHDRAWN

WILL REMAIN ON DUTY IN SPITE OF RAISING OF EMBARGO ON ARMS

TO GUARD THE FRONTIER

Needed To Prevent Marauding Bands From Crossing—Heretofore Used to Prevent Smuggling

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 4.—No orders for the withdrawal of United States troops from the border will be issued as a result of the lifting of the embargo on arms, according to a statement by the War Department today. Secretary Garrison said today that while he supposed the raising of troops would be considerably lessened by the lifting of the embargo, he could not say positively that fewer soldiers would be needed.

The border patrol, insofar as it has been preventing the smuggling of arms may now relax its vigilance, though its services will be required to prevent marauding bands from crossing the international line.

President Wilson's proclamation will not affect prosecutions indicted for violation of former President Taft's order. Attorney General McReynolds decided today that indictments in cases shall be prosecuted.

Chief Delaski of the department of justice bureau of investigation today telegraphed to his agents along the Mexican border to make no arrests for exportation of arms. They will remain on guard however, to prevent other violations of the neutrality laws.

As indicated in yesterday's dispatches, the executive order for the raising of the embargo was issued last night. It emphasizes that it was the desire of the United States to be in the same position of neutrality toward the contending factions in Mexico as were the other powers. The text of the proclamation follows:

Whereas, by a proclamation of the president issued on March 14, 1912, under a joint resolution of Congress, removed by the president on the same day, it was declared that there existed in Mexico conditions of domestic violence which were promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States; and

Whereas, by the joint resolution above mentioned, it was provided that it was unlawful to export arms or munitions of war to Mexico except under such limitations as the president should prescribe;

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby declare and proclaim that as the conditions on which the proclamation of March 14, 1912 was based have essentially changed, and as it is desirable to place the United States with reference to the exportation of arms or munitions of war in the same position as other powers, the said proclamation is hereby revoked.

Explanation From White House. Accompanying the order, the White House issued the following statement of explanation:

"The executive order under which the exportation of arms and munitions into Mexico is forbidden was a departure from the accepted practice of neutrality—a deliberate departure from those practices under a well considered joint resolution of Congress—determined upon in circumstances which no longer exist. It was intended to discourage incipient revolts against the regularly constituted authorities of Mexico. Since that order was issued the circumstances of the case have undergone a radical change.

There now is no constitutional question in this order hindering and delaying the very thing the government of the United States is now insisting upon, namely, that Mexico shall be left free to settle her own affairs and, as soon as possible, turn upon a constitutional footing by her own hand and counsel. The order, therefore, is rescinded."

BUSY AT NEW ORLEANS SHIPPING OUT MUNITIONS.

New Orleans, Feb. 4.—At different warehouses here where arms and ammunition intended for Mexican rebels have been held at least 100 men were put to work today packing rifles, cartridges and machine guns for shipment to Mexico. It is known that much ammunition and thousands of rifles were stored here, but when the embargo was lifted New Orleans appeared to be a veritable arsenal for rebels in Mexico.

KATY DECREE MAY GO TO DISTRICT JUDGE TOMORROW

Austin, Texas, Feb. 4.—The decree in the agreed judgment in the Katy merger suit will not be made public until after the district judge here has passed on it and entered judgment, according to Assistant Attorney General Luther Nickels. Indications are it will not reach the court before tomorrow.

PERU PRESIDENT UNSEATED TODAY

TAKEN PRISONER BY MILITARY REVOLUTIONISTS—ANOTHER ASSUMES PALACE

REBELS' SUDDEN ATTACK

Minister of War Is Killed—Soldiers Keep Crowd From Gathering by Firing Volleys

By Associated Press. Lima, Peru, Feb. 4.—The president of the Republic of Peru, Guillermo Billinghurst, was taken prisoner today by military revolutionists. The rebels suddenly attacked the presidential palace this morning under the leadership of Col. Benavides, Gen. Varela, premier and minister of war, was killed in the fight which ensued. Dr. Augusto Durand, a former revolutionary leader, whose arrest was sought by the police yesterday, took possession of the palace. It is believed he will at once organize a new government.

Squads of soldiers fired volleys into the air to prevent the formation of crowds and by this method they kept the people from moving from place to place. One civilian bystander was killed by a bullet. Great alarm prevails throughout the city.

President Billinghurst was taken as a prisoner to Callao from which port he will be sent into exile. Peru's sudden revolutionary trouble is due principally to the president's efforts to place the finances of the country on a sound basis.

His plans for doing this involved the strictest economy and proved unpopular, particularly among officeholders whose salaries and estimates were reduced. He is the son of an Englishman, but was born in Peru. His mother was a Peruvian.

Dr. Durand, who seized the government, has led several revolutions in Peru.

PROMINENT NEW YORKERS ARE SENTENCED TODAY

By Associated Press. The sentence followed conviction on the charge that Willett had purchased a nomination for a supreme court judgeship from Cassidy.

LENT $20,000 TO MAN WHO REFUSED CREDIT

By Associated Press. New York, Feb. 4.—Cicero Smith, millionaire lumberman, who died in Mineral Wells Sunday night, left each of his children $100,000, it was said here today. The funeral was held at Mineral Wells. Smith, it is told, was refused credit for a $4000 pair of shoes in East Texas when he was thirty-four years old. The man who refused him credit for the shoes afterwards borrowed $20,000 from Smith on his personal note.

FRENCH POLICY TOWARD MEXICO IS UNCHANGED

Raising of Embargo by United States Will Not Affect Paris' Attitude in Matter

By Associated Press. Paris, Feb. 4.—The French policy is recognizing that the United States should have a free hand in Mexico will not be affected by the raising of the embargo on arms, according to views in semi-official quarters here today. Francisco de la Barra, Mexican minister to France, said today he could not see how the policy of permitting such rebel leaders as Zapata and Villa to arm themselves freely could be consistent with the humanitarian views of President Wilson.

STEAMER THAT SANK THE MONROE. CAPTAIN AND HERO WIRELESS OPERATOR OF LOST SHIP; CROWD GREETING SURVIVORS

1. CAPT. JOHNSON 2. F. J. KUEHNE 3. S. S. NANTUCKET AFTER CRASH 4. TAKING SURVIVORS FROM PIER

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 4.—The revised figures of the victims of the sinking of the Old Dominion liner Monroe show that one life was lost—nineteen passengers and twenty-two members of the crew. There were thirty-nine survivors saved and sixty of the crew, a total of ninety-nine. The sinking of the Monroe by the Merchants and Miners Nantucket off Hog Island, one of the most shocking tragedies of the coastwise trade, will be promptly investigated by the government, and officers and crew of both boats are being held as witnesses by order of the federal steamship inspection service. Capt. E. E. Johnson of the Monroe and Captain Barry of the Nantucket have been ordered by the officials of their lines to make no statement as to the cause of the collision. According to reports, there was a confusion of signals. One of the heroes of the disaster was F. J. Kuehne, the wireless operator of the Monroe, who struck his post until the last minute, when he gave his life-preserver to a woman passenger and sank with the ship. The illustrations show Captain Johnson of the Monroe, Operator Kuehne, who lived in New York city, the Nantucket after the collision and the crowd surrounding the auto at the dock at Norfolk, where the survivors were taken ashore.

MAY CHANGE DATE OF INAUGURATION

LIABLE TO RESULT IN CHOICE OF SOME ONE WHOM PEOPLE DO NOT WANT FOR PRESIDENT

PRESENT PLAN'S DANGERS

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 4.—Startling suggestions of the possibility of revolution in the United States were contained today in a minority report of the Senate judiciary committee, urging adoption of Senator Shadroth's resolution for a constitutional amendment to fix the second Monday in January, following a national election, as the date for the inauguration and the first Monday in January for Congress to assemble.

Signed by Senators Shields, Ashburn, Nelson, Cummins, Chilton and Fletcher, it points out that under the existing conditions it becomes possible for a political party, repudiated by the people to elect a president who was defeated at the election, in case any candidate fails to get a majority of electoral votes.

MINNESOTA HOTEL FIRE COSTS FIVE LIVES TODAY

PLANS MEASURE AGAINST DIVORCE

SENATOR RANDELL WOULD PROHIBIT REMARRIAGE OF THOSE SEPARATED

TO AMEND CONSTITUTION

Cites Statistics Showing Growth and Extent of Evil in This Country in Recent Years

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 4.—Divorce with the right to remarry, would be prohibited forever in the United States and in all places under the Nation's jurisdiction by an amendment to the federal constitution proposed in the Senate today by Senator Randell of Louisiana.

Enactment of uniform marriage laws from all states and territories, with provision for separation without permission to remarry, would be directed by the amendment.

With the states of the Union granting more than twice as many divorces as all the rest of Christendom combined, Senator Randell told his colleagues that the time had come for the nation itself to put down this menace.

"The remedy by the constitutional prohibition is drastic," said the senator, "but the malady is so fatal that nothing short of it will prove efficacious. In the United States divorce has permeated every walk of life and is prevalent among every class of people. The total number of divorces granted in 1867 was 937 or twenty-seven per 100,000 population. Forty years later in 1906, there were 4,000 divorces per 100,000. Thus in actual numbers there were eight times as many divorces in 1907 as in 1867, or allowing for the increased population, divorces had increased 319 per cent."

COUGH—TWO YEARS OLD

Yields To Vinol. Read Why Strong vigorous men and women rarely ever catch cold; it is only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs of a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run down condition again? Mrs. D. A. Melroe of Waycross, Ga. says: "I had a chronic cold and cough which kept me awake nights for two years and I felt tired all the time. Vinol cured my cough and I feel stronger in every way."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains a delicious concentrated form of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood building iron added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run down system.

WICHITANS RETURN FROM VISIT TO MANY STATES

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kiel have returned from their tour through fifteen states of the southern, middle Atlantic, New England and Central groups and Canada. They started December 26th for New Orleans where their son, Oliver is a prospective graduate of a medical college. They then passed through Birmingham and Atlanta seeing the railroad. Mr. Kiel's father helped to construct more than half a century ago and headed for Savannah, Ga. where they took the "Queen of Sea" routes, ranking foremost as one of America's outposts to Philadelphia. The Kiel were in a seventy mile pale causing slight sea sickness but all was mitigated by the bracing salt sea air during this 670 mile sea voyage.

They went to Washington, D. C. to visit Mr. Kiel's brother, H. C. Kiel, who is working in the war department there, after seeing the historical scenery in Philadelphia, such as Independence Hall, built in 1723 (where the Liberty Bell still marks the place where the Declaration of Independence was signed), also Congress Hall, the new mint, Academy of Fine Arts, etc. They say that one is sure to leave Washington with a purer love for his country and deeper admiration for its institutions after seeing its wonderful buildings.

From Washington they started to Chicago via Baltimore, New York, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Canada and Detroit, where they spent several days with a brother, G. H. Kiel. From there they went to Gerald, Mo., to visit the elder mother, a sister and two brothers. On their return home they stopped a day with Mrs. Kiel's brother and sister at Cadole, Okla. After spending several weeks at home Mr. Kiel expects to further his trip by going to New Mexico, Colorado and later to California.

BREAK WEATHER RECORDS IN 1913

ONE OF WETTEST AND COLDEST YEARS STATE HAS EVER EXPERIENCED

RAINFALL DOES DAMAGE

Year Peculiar In Many Ways From Standpoint of Weather Man, According To Statistics

With only four exceptions in the last 26 years, the year 1913 was the wettest in the recorded history of Texas and with only six exceptions at that period it was the coldest year the State has ever experienced since the establishment of weather observation stations.

The mean temperature for the year amounted to 63.3 degrees. The average precipitation for the State was 5.95 inches for the entire year. This was 12 inches in excess of the total average rainfall for the State the preceding year.

It will show that the most striking features of the year's record were an unusually warm and dry midsummer and an exceedingly wet fall that caused floods of several streams in October and November and culminated in the record breaking floods of December.

Other conspicuous features that will be mentioned where the local hail and storms in February and May. A damaging cold wave late in March after the fruit trees began to bud and general rains in Newton and Jasper counties in April, in Uvalde county in June and Hunt and Rockwall counties in July.

Damaged Totaled $10,000,000 The total damages wrought by the various storms and floods aggregated a value, including reported losses only, more than $10,000,000 and during the year about 180 persons are known to have been drowned by river floods.

The months of September and December are recorded as the wettest quarter and December for the past 26 years. July and August were the drier, collectively, in history, though individually July had been exceeded three times and August four times in previous years.

September was the second coldest month and November was the second warmest November in the history of the State weather bureau. The report will state that the annual temperature averaged 3 degrees below the normal with mean values ranging from less than 63 degrees in a northern portion of the Panhandle to more than 74 degrees in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

Laredo Was Warmest. The warmest all the year found in Texas was Laredo. The observation station at Fort McIntosh showed a mean annual temperature of 74.8 degrees while at Dalhart, the coldest spot on the State map, the mean annual temperature was 47.6 degrees.

The temperature averaged below normal from January to April, inclusive and during the months of June, September, October and December had above normal during May, July, August and November.

The total precipitation for the year averaged 5.95 inches greater than normal, with annual local variations ranging from 10 inches in the extreme western part of Texas to more than 60 inches in the eastern portion.

Beaumont was the wettest place in the State. The total rainfall for the year at Beaumont amounted to 66.05 inches. El Paso was the driest Texan point possessing a weather station, only 7.09 inches of rain fell there during the entire year.

There was a general shortage of rainfall in the State throughout the year, January, March, April, May, July, August and a total deficiency of rain all charged against those months of 65 inches. The remaining six months were excessively wet with a total surplus precipitation of 16.27 inches. September and the first month of an average precipitation of 6.6 inches and August was the drier month, with an average rainfall of only 1.26 inches.

NATIONAL EDITORS WILL COME TO WICHITA FALLS

This City Included in Itinerary of Trip to Be Made Over the State in April

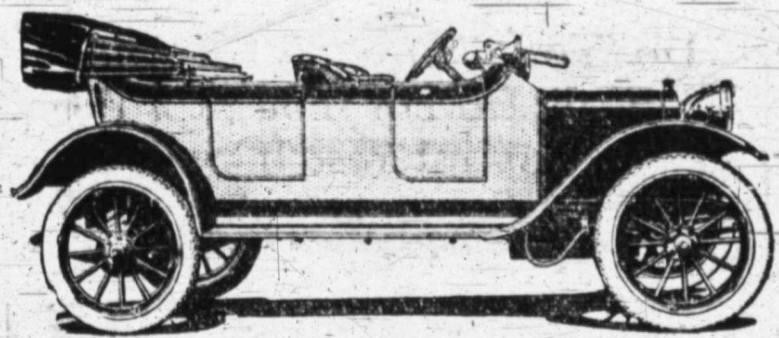

Wichita Falls will be included in the itinerary of the National Editorial Association when it makes a tour of the State of Texas after its annual convention at Houston in April. This was assured in a letter from the itinerary committee today to W. G. Long who was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to see that this city was put on the route.

The editors will come here from either Stamford or Fort Worth. It is estimated that it will come here from that place. If Stamford is not included in the itinerary, the train will come from Waco by way of Fort Worth. The editors will be taken through the Northwest Texas and held up to all other points of interest in this section, according to present plans and will be shown as royally a good time as it is possible for Wichita Falls to provide.

Ever since it was decided that a fair of the State should be held here in April, it has been felt that Wichita Falls should by all means be included in the itinerary. The route was made up to include only the largest points in Texas, but by reason of the particular attractions this city has to offer the committee decided that Wichita Falls was entitled to a visit also, provided the share of the expense is taken care of. This will be taken up at an early date by the Chamber of Commerce.

Why Seal Coffee? Because It's Better.

Phones 432 and 232 and 1318 Reese Building, 710 Ninth Street

Once in a while a customer asks me why I am so keen on recommending SEAL brand coffee. The answer I gave above tells the story in three words—Because it's better. Just what do I mean by that? There are coffees and coffees and you can pay as much for some other kinds as I'll charge you for SEAL Brand but you won't get SEAL quality.

I have failed to find any other brand that has the real SEAL flavor and quality. If I could find it I might perhaps be persuaded to sell it. But as far as I know, and I have studied the coffee market pretty thoroughly this SEAL coffee is the best coffee to be had in America today.

That seems to be a good reason why I should be talking SEAL coffee frequently. How does it appeal to you? Besides this my guarantee stands back of every pound and it must make good in your judgment or I will pay the price.

THE STATE PRESIDENT WRITES ABOUT BIENNIAL

My dear friends of the Federation: To some of you it may seem a trifle early to be planning for the Biennial, No. 3. It has been necessary for me as your president, to wire for reservations at Congress hotel in order for the Texas delegation to be comfortably located.

The following communication is of importance to all Texas club women desiring to attend the Chicago convention of the General Federation. This is sent out by Miss Florence Beckett, La. Graue, II, chairman of the hotels committee for the local biennial board and is addressed to the Texas state president.

The local biennial board, having in preparation the entertainment of its guests during the convention of the G. F. W. C. from June 9 to 12, 1914, desires, so far as possible, to place delegates and alternates, as well as accompanying visitors, together, according to the states from which they come.

The local board has decided that, at the convention of 1914, there shall be no hotel designated as "official headquarters."

All of the hotels, listed by the hotels committee in a bulletin to be shortly issued, are equally desirable and are located in the downtown district of Chicago.

In order to increase the advantages of locating state delegations together, arrangements will be made whereby state headquarters will be provided free of charge in the hotel to which a delegation has been assigned.

The Texas delegation has been assigned to the Congress Hotel. As your president cannot be responsible for reservations, later than March 1st, delegates who do not take advantage of the reservations made must take the left-over. Let me urge you not to delay action in this matter.

Texas should have a hundred delegates to do honor to Mrs. Pennbacker. It is the opportunity that comes once in a lifetime for a state to have the honor of the presidency of the General Federation.

Mrs. Eli Hertzberg is state secretary to general federation and will give any information relative to the coming biennial.

Very truly, FLORENCE BECKETT, Local Board President Texas Federation of Women's Clubs

UNIVERSITY HAS 2500 STUDENTS

ATTENDANCE NOW COMPARES WITH THAT OF KANSAS AND MISSOURI INSTITUTIONS

BARBER EARNS OWN WAY

Prominent Physician Educated Self By Shaving Other Students—Other University News

Austin, Texas, Feb. 3.—Attendance at the University of Texas has reached the point where it now compares with the University of Kansas and Missouri. The number of students in attendance at Texas is only four less than 2500, the main department at Austin has 2223 students registered, while the medical department at Galveston has 273. The total registration is still far below that of the universities of Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan, and the physical equipment at Texas is very inferior to Missouri and Kansas, over half of the students at the University of Texas being compelled to attend classes in nine frame shacks on the campus due to the rapid increase in enrollment and the lack of building funds. The University of Texas is now the largest in the South.

A prominent alumnus of the University of Texas when he became a student moved his barber's chair to Austin, set it up in the boys' dormitory and earned all his college expenses by shaving the faces and cutting the hair of his fellow students. The young barber, through his ingenuity and splendid character, won the esteem of faculty and students, was graduated with honors, and is now a successful practicing physician. He was a good barber and got patronage; he was a good student and a manly man and therefore has reaped success. Such men always win their way. Nearly one-third of the 2500 students of the University belong to the self-supporting class who without a free-State University would probably be denied the benefits of college training.

Social centers at the public school houses throughout the State are the plan of the Department of Extension of the University of Texas. The Department has announced that it will assist in organizing and fostering social centers to be known as University Home and School Leagues and has issued Bulletin No. 222 which contains full information on the subject. The social center is now being set up at some points in Texas has been the means of stimulating and improving the many aspects of life, of creating a more sympathetic intelligent cooperation between the home and the school, and of contributing to the betterment of the agricultural and industrial affairs of these people. Certainly no movement is better calculated to help the rural and semi-rural sections of the State. The economic, the educational, the social, and the religious demands of the people will be served through the organization and the work of the University Home and School Leagues, and thousands of communities in Texas should call upon

She was stricken while on a tour of New York state in the interests of the army. She has pleurisy and in addition is suffering from a nervous breakdown due to overwork. Dr. Harlow Brooks said her condition was very grave, although there was no immediate danger of death.

EXPLANATION OF EXPRESS RATES

Washington, Feb. 4.—The most sweeping reduction in express rates for inland rates was announced today by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The commission spent nearly four years in investigating the express business and Chairman Edgar E. Clark, head of the commission, today consented to give the United States an interview in which he justified the events which culminated in the order which has just become effective.

"It was on June 8, 1912," said Chairman Clark, "that the commission, through Commissioner Lane, now secretary of the Interior, issued its first report in the investigation of the commission, today consented to give the United States an interview in which he justified the events which culminated in the order which has just become effective.

"Investigation Was Thorough." "Full investigation was had and consideration given to the financial affairs of the express companies, character of their organization, relationships they had with the railroads, the extent and nature of their property, the character of their service, basis of their rate systems, cost of their operation, manner in which their rates were stated, the relation of the service given by the express companies to that given by the railroads in the carriage of freight, the relationship between the rates of the express companies in different sections of the country for the same service, similarities and dissimilarities as between the express service in the United States and similar service in foreign countries, etc.

"Thirteen defendant express companies in 1912, 1913 and 1914, over 218,913 miles of steam railway in the United States over 18,357 miles of steamship and stage lines, and over 6,565 miles of electric lines. They had to the rail, steamship and electric lines during that year $90,000,000 and their expenses were something over 64,000,000. The express companies' affairs and interests were interviewed through ownership of each other stock. "Aside from the complaints of excessive charges, the complaints then before the commission referred especially to double collections and unfair charges, overcharges and undercharges effecting discriminations between shippers arising out of an obscure rate system and ineffective accounting, indirect routing of shipments, etc. "Briefly, the commission required

IF CAESAR BUILT ROADS FOR PRESENT DAY CIVILIZATION UNCLE SAM IS FURNISHING A MODEL FOR THE MILLENNIUM

One Step in Construction on Same Road: James F. Voshell, Logan Waller Page and Vernon M. Peirce.

Washington, Feb. 4.—In an effort to save the millions of public funds that are wasted yearly in makeshift road construction, Uncle Sam has just completed a series of sample highways over the famous Cheyenne-Crossroads road. Vernon M. Peirce and James F. Voshell, engineers from the office of public roads, had charge of every step of the construction with the filed of gathering data and furnishing an object lesson in construction for the whole nation. For instance, the subgrade for brick was graded and rolled and six-inch concrete base provided. A sand cushion was laid and carefully rolled to a thickness of two inches and the brick placed upon it. Practically Permanent. In discussing the probable durability of the pavement the bulletin further says: "The life of a well-constructed brick pavement cannot be estimated with any degree of exactness; first, because the traffic conditions are constantly changing and second, because no brick pavement constructed in accordance with the best modern practice has yet worn out. "The amounts of wear sustained by given pavements during comparative long periods of time have been determined in several instances, but have been so small as to make it probable terms of service appear almost indefinite."

BACK FROM TRIP TO THE TROPICS

ISAAC MARKOWITZ RETURNS FROM BUSINESS VISIT TO CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA

EFFECT OF TARIFF LAW

Business Depression Prevails in West Indies, He Says—Wichitan Sleeps During Earthquakes

Isaac Markowitz has returned after a three months' trip through central and South America and to the West Indies for the Wichita Mill & Elevator Company. On the trip Mr. Markowitz visited all the Central American countries and the countries in the northern part of South America and Cuba and Porto Rico in all of which the Wichita Mill & Elevator Company sells considerable flour.

In the West Indies, Mr. Markowitz found the principal industry, sugar growing in a depressed condition owing to the removal of the tariff changes. Trade conditions throughout the territory he visited, he said, were more or less depressed in sympathy with a financial depression that had been world wide.

While Mr. Markowitz was at Central American points several times earthquakes were felt at the places he visited. "I slept through them all and didn't know anything about them until the next morning when I was told there had been considerable disturbance and that the most of the native population had run into the street."

The territory visited by Mr. Markowitz lies near the equator and mid summer heat prevailed.

When the temperature in New York was six below zero we were wearing Panama hats and alpacas coats and trousers," he said.

THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES.

A Free Prescription—You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye weakness. If so, you will be glad to know that there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses. It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them and see clearly and are strengthened more, will be able to strengthen their eyes, so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Get a bottle of Opton's. Fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water, drop in one Opton's tablet, and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. (Adv.)

LIKE REAL FLESH AND BLOOD ARE TALKING PICTURES

The Kinetophone or talking pictures will be seen here for the first time at the Majestic Thursday and Friday. Just as wonderful as was his invention of the original moving picture, is the latest discovery of the great wizard Edison. It is predicted for the Kinetophone that real flesh and blood actors, on many stages in the various theatres throughout the country, will soon be a thing of the past. To judge from the little gasps of astonishment and the chorus of "Isn't that something wonderful?" that one hears on all sides, wherever the pictures are exhibited the Kinetophone may be called an immense success.

"THE HOUSE OF MYSTERY" AT WICHITA THEATRE TONIGHT

Tonight's feature at the Wichita Theatre will be "The House of Mystery" another of the natural color films recently secured by Manager Bert Earle. A synopsis follows: Andrew Garfield, a banker, disowns his son for marrying beneath his station. He learns of his son's death and regrets his action. He determines to locate his son's widow and child in order to repair to some extent the results of his harshness. He advertises for them in the newspapers. The child chances to read the advertisement. Her mother decides to call on the banker, but has no suitable apparel. She writes a note to a neighboring family, asking for a loan, explaining the circumstances. These people, however, are a set of rogues and take advantage of her confidence. Under pretence of helping her, they make her and her child prisoners and lock them in a wretched cellar. The woman then passes herself off to the banker as the widow whom he is seeking. Having been installed in the banker's home with her child, she succeeds in admitting her husband and her brother under the guise of servants. Puzzled by a series of thefts, the banker calls in Nick Winter, a famous detective. He disguises himself as a doctor and calls for the pretended purpose of treating the supposed widow, who has feigned an attack of paralysis. One night Nick finds Garfield dragged. He hides himself in the room and sees two masked men and a heavily veiled woman enter. He holds them up at the point of a gun but they escape after switching off the electric lights. Then follows a series of remarkable escapades. Nick finds a note in his room advising him that he has been recognized and threatening him if he remains. He puts a dummy in his bed and sets an automatic picture camera to take the picture of any intruders. The robbers enter and attack the dummy, which they suppose to be the detective. He rushes in and captures both men. Then he brings in the banker to show him the prisoners. But again they have escaped. Nick takes the camera and develops the film, which shows him the prisoners being released by the mysterious woman. He recognizes the servants and proceeds to trail one of them. The trail leads to a tavern where the robber gives Nick the slip by a clever ruse. He steals a wagon and drives off. Nick gives chase but to all appearances the robber escapes and drives to the house where the real widow and her child are prisoners. Nick crawls out of the wagon in which he has hid, captures the thief and rescues the captives. He then returns to the banker's home in another disguise. The thief makes his escape and returns to warn the others. Nick and the old man are made prisoners and placed in a dungeon of the old house. Learning of a secret contrivance for flooding the dungeon with sand, the robbers set the machinery in action. Soon the prisoners realize they are doomed.

"THE VIRGINIAN" TO BE SHOWN HERE SATURDAY

Messrs. Jones and Crane make the special announcement that their production of "The Virginian" which comes to the Wichita Theatre on Saturday excels all their previous efforts in so far as scenic environment and especially chosen cast of talented players of metropolitan reputation can aid in pleasing discriminating patrons of the theatre. "The Virginian" needs no special recommendation, as it was the dramatic as well as the literary sensation for a number of seasons, playing to capacity audiences everywhere. And the book is still enjoying the especial distinction of still being one of the best sellers as well as occupying a prominent place among standard works of literature. It is generally credited that Jones and Crane have added the finishing touches to their already long list of successful productions and while the greater output has been along dramatic lines, they believe they have in "The Virginian" a happy combination of romance, drama and sparkling humor. It is a thoroughly American play, catering to Americans of every faith. One needs but to possess but the average amount of intelligence to appreciate this stirring and entrancing play. The memory of its human and heart appealing interest lingers in the memory as a beautiful fragrance of some costly perfume of romance, reminding one that all is not sordidness and that there are more precious things than money worth striving for.

LIFE IN THE OZARKS SHOWN IN FRIDAY'S PLAY

Harold Bell Wright, the author of "The Shepherd of the Hills," "The Winning of Barbara Worth," "The Calling of Dan Matthews" and "The Printer of Udella" has made in collaboration with Elsbey W. Reynolds a dramatization of his most popular story, "The Shepherd of the Hills." The play has received an excellent production from Gaskill and MacVitty and Manager Marlow of the Wichita Theatre has secured the original cast and production for his theatre next Friday night. "The Shepherd of the Hills" is a splendid story of real life among the Ozark hills of Missouri and Arkansas. If you go there you will easily find a Murton Hollow, a hill like Dewey Bald and people like Sammy Lane, Young Matt, Mad Howard and Father Howitt. Clinging to the beautiful story simply told, is the very atmosphere of the life of the picturesque region which is so sadly unfamiliar to the travelers in search of new scenes. It is a clean and strong play well worth seeing many times.

FAMOUS ARTISTS MAY GIVE CONCERT IN WICHITA FALLS

Mrs. McKee of the Wichita College of Music and Art and Messrs. Harrison and Everton with the support of the women of the Musicians Club, are uniting their efforts to secure a concert by Harry Evans, the renowned London basso-cantante, one of the world's greatest cathedral and concert singers who was commended to V. 1911 and Otto L. Fischer, the celebrated American pianist and composer who created such a sensation with his appearance as a soloist with the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra of New York City.

Here are two of the most wonderful artists the musical world has ever produced. They are touring in America in joint concert and the above named persons are taking the names of every one who wishes to hear this concert. If enough people subscribe for tickets within the next few days to justify risking the expense of such an undertaking, they will sign the contract to bring these artists to the Wichita Theatre, Tuesday night, February 24th and Wichita music lovers will have the opportunity without having to journey to the larger city to hear two of the world's greatest artists in concert.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF "THE TRAFFIC" ON MONDAY

Concerning "The Traffic" which will be presented at the Wichita Theatre next Monday for a return engagement, the following was published in the Galveston News recently: "A gripping sociological play, 'The Traffic' was the hit at the Grand Opera House Monday night and, proved to be, as it had been advertised, a sermon for parents, pastors and employers. The play which, through the four acts, deals with the life of a factory girl in a city in her battle against starvation, the death of her sister and worst of all, the pitfalls which are placed in her path, is well presented.

The story is of the life of Agnes Burron, an orphan girl, who is left alone with her younger sister in a big city to earn their living by laboring early and late over needlework, which in return barely brings them enough to live upon. It is at the time when doctors have informed her that unless her sister, who is suffering from tuberculosis, is sent to the country she will die, that Vic Connor, a cadet, for the owner of an underworld resort, comes into the life of Agnes. Taking advantage of the conditions and under the cloak of friendship and love, Vic makes the helping girl promise to go with him, in return for which he will send her sister to the country in an endeavor to save her life. Then follows scenes showing conditions surrounding life in the underworld and measures often resorted to in recruiting its ranks. It is a strong and emotional play in which all parts are well presented.

"The Traffic" will be presented at the Wichita Theatre matinee and night Monday, Feb. 9.

NATURE'S WARNING

Wichita Falls People Must Recognize and Heed It

Kidney ills come mysteriously. But nature generally warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy. If there are settlings and sediment. Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time to fear serious kidney trouble.

It's time to use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have done great work in Wichita Falls.

John Glen, shoemaker, 712 Seventh street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "For many years I had various troubles caused by my kidneys and bladder and the only remedy I have ever found that will cure me is Doan's Kidney Pills. I had pains in my back and side and was troubled by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended, I tried them and found them even better than represented. They cured me and now I seldom need a kidney remedy. When I do, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they always benefit me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Members Hold Conference With Governor To See About Plans For Caring For Finances

By Associated Press.
 Austin, Texas, Feb. 3.—Unless ways and means can be devised for raising funds for the support of the Texas Employers Insurance Association, it may be forced to go out of business. This question is the purpose of a conference held today by the association, with Governor Quinn. It developed that the $5000 appropriated by the last legislature for the operation of this organization is exhausted and it has not as yet commenced business. Homer R. Mitchell, general manager of the association said that now the association has been compelled to adopt the stock companies' rates for a period of ninety days and this will further deter it in its operation.

is never satisfied. He lays awake, nights studying plans to "make 'em better." He has two of the prerequisites. He has the best materials that money will buy and he has the KNOW HOW. Try those taste teasing, palate tickling, spot hitting milk and egg creations that make you wish your neck was as long as a doctrinal sermon and each one tastes like several more. On the hot stuff he has all the information that goes with the job. His Bouillions are great and that old reliable hot chocolate with rich jersey cream spanked to a frazzled froth makes 'em walk nine blocks to get to it. Don't forget the place on Eighth street between the Elks Club and the earth.
