ANXIETY FOR GEN. VILLA

ABSENCE OF WORD FROM VILLA
TAKEN TO MEAN THAT REBELS ARE HARD PRESSED

FIGHTING CONTINUES

News That Reinforcements are on Way to Relief to Federal General is Received

NO REPORT FROM GENERAL VILLA

Juarez, March 30.—No report was received this noon from General Villa and it was said that fighting was still in progress at Torreon.

By Associated Press Chihuahua, March 30.—For seven days Francisco Villa has swaged incessant warfare against Torreon. The fight has been the bitterest and the loss of life the heaviest of any battle of the Mexican revolution, according to the meager press dispatches re- ceived here and from the stories of slaughter told by many of the 589 wounded veterans of Torreon who have been brought here.

Constitutionalist officers here are again anxious as to Villa's safety and the safety of the remnant of his army of 12,000 men. No word came early today to relieve the anxiety. Reports that heavy reinforcements were on their way to relieve Federal General Velasco were received here with misgiving.

The fact that no news whatever of Villa's progress has been received within the last thirty-six hours is responsible for the approach as to his fate. When the advantage has been with the rebels heretofore the rebel leader has been free in his use of the wires but when he has met with reverses he has been silent.

Army officers here fear that Villa is in a dangerous situation. The many days of fighting has almost exhausted both his men and ammunition. Those familiar with Torreon cannot understand how General Velasco has been able to hold out against an assault by a numerically stronger force.

MAXIM GORKY, AUTHOR, SAID IN TO BE POOR HEALTH

Moscow, March 30.—Maxim Gorky, who is visiting here, today was said to be in very poor health.
The political police have thus far inferred in no way with the popular Russian author, although he was presented as a revolutionary refugee when he left Russia in 1906. Gorky has just sold to his publisher, the copyright of all his works for $100,000.

MILLIONS OF BALKAN WAR BULLETS RECLAIMED

Paris, March 30.—Millions of bullets fired during the Balkan war have just arrived at Marseilles and are to be manufactured into bottle tops and lead pipes. The bullets, picked up in battlefields, were in 2000 sacks of 100 pounds each and were sold to dealers in scrap metals. Something like 70 tons of cartridge shells arrived with the bullets.

AMERICAN SUGAR COMPANY SUIT IS ON AT NEW YORK

New York, March 30.—Taking of testimony in the suit of the government against the American Sugar Refining Company was resumed here-today. The prosecution completed its case several days before the last adjournment and the sugar company is now presenting its case. Former hearings have been conducted in the West and South.

JAKE WOLTERS AND JONA- THAN LANE INTERVIEWED

Houston, Texas, March 30.—At the office of Jake Wolters and Jonathan Lane it was denied today that recent rumors from the gubernatorial race would change the plans for the anti-convention at Fort Worth. If any changes had been made in the plans these leaders denied any knowledge of the same.

PRESIDENT TERMS CHARGES "INSULTS"

REGRETS THAT TOLL REPEAL-OPONENTS TRYING TO DIS-CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

DOESN'T DOUBT THE OUTCOME

Points to Contradictory Plank in Baltimore and Says Tolls Against Party Doctrine

By Associated Press Washington, March 30.—President Wilson declared today that on ac- count of contradictory statements in the Baltimore platform, democrats should have no hesitation in vot- ing for the repeal of the Panama canal tolls exemption. He declared the ex- emption a subsidy and pointed out that one plank in the Baltimore plat- form expressed opposition to any subsidy, direct or indirect, while an- other plank declared for tolls ex- emption.

"Exemption" Not Party Policy.
He said there should be no doubt among democrats as to which should take precedence. He said that exemption was never a policy of a democratic House because it had been passed by a coalition of Republicans and a minority. He explained that even if the international situation to which he referred in his message had not arisen he would have been opposed to tolls exemption as against democratic doctrine. He indicated, however, that he did not feel that it would have been proper for him to have questioned the act of a previous administration had not an international complication arisen.

Insults Are Denounced.
He said the story that he had entered into a bargain with Great Britain through the private secretary of Sir Edward Grey was one of several insults that had been introduced in the congressional debate. He said he regretted that what had been a dignified discussion of the question with a genuine difference of opinion seemed to be degenerating into an attempt to discredit the administration. He said that while this made all the more certain the results for the administration he thought it a great pity that public affairs should be handled in such an undignified manner. He did not think all the opponents repeal approved course of some of the congressional debaters in their unwarranted attacks and he did not see the motive for such attacks.

Doesn't Expect Political Fiction.
He said he had no anxiety over any political fiction in the democratic party and referred to the repeat not as a "capital operation" but said he would regard it as a symptom of "convalescence."

INQUIRY NOT PROTEST GERMAN OIL MONOPOLY

By Associated Press
Washington, March 30.—President Wilson today described the recent instructions to the American ambassador in Germany in connection with the German oil monopoly as in the nature of an inquiry and not a protest. He told callers today the ambassador had been instructed to learn whether there was any discrimination against Americans.

NEW USE FOUND FOR THE JAPANESE BOGEY

Senator Lewis Uses It as Argument in Favor of Supporting President

By Associated Press Washington, March 30.—Senator Lewis today urged his resolution to give the president the authority to suspend canal tolls.

In his speech he urged the democratic party to stand squarely behind the president in his handling of the Mexican situation. He strongly advised against intervention declaring that should the United States intervene in Mexico, Japan would at once seize the Philippine Islands and Hawaii and Russia would seize Alaska and the Panama canal could not be completed. He said that even England would be powerless to render assistance to the United States.

He said he did not believe the con-

the committee which issued the call and that so far he had heard nothing of such action.

He declined to discuss what effect the withdrawal of Owsley, Sparks and others would have on the plans for the convention or to say whether there had been any breakdown in the plans. "So far as I know the Fort Worth meeting will be held," he said.

not at all an unprofitable undertaking, according to the annual re-

Secretary McCarty. While neither

Sparks was picked as a winner in the anti- convention but had the opposition of a number of the influential anti- who had announced they would not support him if nominated. There is a strong drift among anti prohibition- ists toward Sam Ferguson of Bell county. Ferguson is an avowed anti- and has announced that if chosen governor he would veto any liquor legislation. However, he has con- demned the "constructive" conven- tion at Dallas in strong terms. If it were not for this it is believed he would receive the endorsement of the "constructives."

Just As You Are.
Just as you are, no change for me, Truehearted friend,
I like the faults that other sees,
We don't pretend
That life is much besides a dream,
And things are not the way they seem.

Just as you are, I do not ask
That flies you so,
I only want to see the task
Perfection, no,
And aid you in it to the last,
And ward from you life's tempest blast.

Just as you are; change not your voice,
Nor yet your smile;
Both make me constantly rejoice—
Linger a while
And let me see again those eyes
That make me strong to silence sighs.

To your virtue I would not add;
Yours doth suffice.
Example fair to make all glad,
At my price.

I'll try to emulate your grace,
In your heart find my resting place,
I'd change you not; to Time leave all,
Too soon, alas!

The stage be dark, the curtain fall,
The actors pass,
And I will know, to my distress,
Not even your faults can I possess.

ATTENDANCE REPORTS FROM SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Request Made That Officers of Schools Report Attendance to The Times Monday

How many Wichitans attended Sunday school yesterday? The asking of this question has started a movement to have the officers of the Sunday schools of the city to report to The Times each Monday morning the attendance of their schools on the day previous.

In this connection we have received the following communication: The Times: At the conference of Sunday school workers on yesterday it was decided that we would like to see every Monday afternoon in your paper the total attendance at every Sunday school in this city. It was estimated that likely not more than 2000 of the fifteen or sixteen thousand people here were in the Sunday school. Complying with that request I furnish the attendance at the Christian Church and expect to do so every Monday morning. Every school in the city will do this. We will know how many were in attendance all told. This will be interesting to Sunday school workers and to the people generally was the belief of those who were in yesterday's conference. Very truly yours,
W. J. BULLOCK.

The report handed in by Mr. Bullock gives the attendance at the First Christian Bible class Sunday as 357, 14 93 absent. The collection was 9.48 and 146 brought Bibles.

ILLY SUNDAY TO INVADE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, March 30—Whether such a novel sight as a whole University "hitting the sawdust trail" for Illy Sunday will be witnessed here is the question running broadcast in the anticipation of the visit of the late's most famous evangelist to the University of Pennsylvania today. Clerks, miners, farmers and men of all other walks of life have it the trail through the rest of the state during the meteoric career of the picturesque former baseball player, but never before has he thrown himself on the tender mercies of a college organization. People are wondering if he will meet the same fate as a famous preacher at Princeton who about a month ago saw his worshippers get up and walk out the door because his sermon went a little over time.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND

Vinol For Run Down People
If any person should know the value of medicines it is the druggist who dispenses them and from our experience we want to say if people in his vicinity only knew the value of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) at this season of the year, we would not be able to supply the demand.
This is because Vinol is a combination of the two most world famous tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of cods liver with the Vinol tonic to the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.
Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women should try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Sufferer Drug Store.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

Get Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken. I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."
For over 30 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.
Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

Now, if you come and let me show you personally just what kind of meats can be used for these dishes and the different costs of them, I am sure that you'll find a pleasant surprise and that you'll be ready and glad to use some of these less expensive cuts in this way and thus save money.

A Georgia woman is suing her husband for a divorce because he gave her only $50 a year for clothes. And, yet, it sometimes seems to us that the average woman might get considerably more clothes for $50 a year than some of them manage to get now.—Houston Post.

Richard C. Cooke, Jr., at present county judge of Collingsworth county, writes the Times that he is a candidate for the State Senate in this, the 29th senatorial district. The present incumbent of this office is Hon. W. A. Johnson, editor of the Memphis (Tenn. county) Herald, and who is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Cooke, in his letter to this paper has to say for himself: "I am just a plain Democrat, without prefix or suffix. Am for morality in all things, as I have always been. I am of course opposed to the liquor traffic, but the people should pass on this matter and I will be guided by their action." Mr. Cooke is a graduate of Clarendon College and Cumberland University, and is thirty years of age.

A CORRECTION

In its Sunday issue the Times mentions the demonstration to be held in Wichita Falls April 11 protesting against the imprisonment of Mother Jones. Will you kindly make the following corrections: Mr. Hoffman is not an official of the Miners' Union, but simply acts as a promoter of this enterprise, which has the support of labor unions interested in this demonstration.

The demonstration will be on a much larger scale: The laboring masses and their sympathizers from Dalhart to Dallas and from Altus to Abilene will meet together on this occasion. We expect John Mitchell and the valiant member of the cabinet, Secretary of Labor Wilson to be present and address the multitude.

Thanking the Times for its fair attitude toward labor, I remain very respectfully,

FRANK HOFFMAN, Wichita Falls, March 30th, 1914.

Sam Sparks has dropped out of the race for governor. It is perhaps well he took this action, as no man, whether he be a pro or anti prohibition Democrat, could possibly hope to be elected governor of Texas this year and advocate the fee system. As the Times understands it, Mr. Sparks was the especial champion of the fee system when an attempt was made before the legislature to amend or repeal that law entirely. But sentiment has changed, and if we read the signs aright, no candidate for the legislature or for State or district office can hope of election who openly advocates a continuance of the present fee system. This withdrawal may have the desired effect—that of getting Mr. Ousley back into the race, or it may mean that Mr. Ferguson, now that his friend and opponent, Sam Sparks, has withdrawn, will lose no time in taking back what he has heretofore said: that he would not seek the endorsement of any faction of the Democratic party, and allow his candidacy to be placed before the faction to meet at Fort Worth on April 14th.

few of the local unions of the city met at the court house on yesterday to discuss the propriety of organizing a Trades Assembly but it was decided to postpone further action until a later number of, or all the unions in the city are represented, which we hope to see next Sunday at 2 p. m. at the court house. Every trade union in the city is expected to send at least two delegates to the meeting Sunday, and I would suggest that each local appoint their most experienced and best qualified members for this purpose, so that we may have the best thought on the lines under contemplation. Every wide awake union man recognizes the superior advantages of trade unionism, when systematically conducted and well attended by all members of the union. Besides many other things, it minimizes competition—labors enemy educates, elevates and generates a social feeling and friendship among the unionists not otherwise attained anywhere, each item alone being worth vastly more than the cost of membership.

These advantages are, to the writer, further and largely augmented to each local by unionizing all the unions into a trades assembly. If same business principles and conservative judgment be observed in its dealings with the employers and its deliberations in its meetings.

Now let every union in the city get busy this week, appoint delegates to meet at the court house next Sunday at 2 o'clock, and let those appointed be certain to go.

Every union in the city is cordially requested to act as one. Fraternally,

J. J. MANLEY, Wichita Falls, March 30, 1914.

HON. JAMES E. FERGUSON Hon. James E. Ferguson of Temple, candidate for governor, will be in Wichita Falls Thursday, April 2, and will deliver an address at the Court House at 8 p. m. on that date. The Times makes this announcement that the people who are interested in the matter of selecting the next governor of this State may turn out and hear what Mr. Ferguson has to say of his candidacy, and the platform on which he is making his campaign. He is quite an entertaining talker, and is well posted on political matters. Go and hear him. As he is not very well known in this part of the State, the following by Lester B. Colby of the Houston Chronicle, will give some idea of who Mr. Ferguson is, who are his backers and what he stands for:

James E. Ferguson of Temple, from platform presented his reason last night why the good citizens of this state should choose him for their govenor. He admitted, frankly, that he is new at the political game—but insisted that he is game, nevertheless. He is an "ingenue" in the realm of politics. He is a debutante in the society of worldly-wise political lovers. He is a fresh, pretty bulb in the unfolding. And he must take care that he is not plucked by rough and soiled hands. His very newness at the political game was his charm—last night. His method showed none of that crafty wariness that marks the old campaigner. He is a joy, as are the new spring grasses when the buds are beginning to burst. Many who were there clapped palms joyously for him and hand-clasped him afterward. But there could not but have lurked the wonderment of would this man—this fresh new bloom in the political pasture—weather the heat of the hot June and July days?

Much to ponder Over James Ferguson has a platform of muscled things in his platform. It tinkles of originality. But there's much to ponder over, a heap to analyze, both in the man and the things he is offering us. And also there's many a slip that can be made by any of the candidates between now and the primaries.

Jonathan Lane, as was announced, introduced Candidate Ferguson. A passing glance at the crowd gave evidence that the most of the old guard that has fought so long and well, slide by each, under the banner of Wolters and Lane, were there, either in the audience or on the platform. Joking himself was "out front," and checking the speaker's sentiments.

Hiberto Mr. Ferguson has announced himself as following a mid-way course—neither wet nor dry—bidding for the support of both. But last night he edged around a bit—cast aspersions upon those of dry persuasion, in fact, upon every one who barked at with loving ears the words of Banker Jim.

Objects to "Farmer Jim" It may be expected that he is discussing a new found kinship for the very wet, and also it surprised some to be told that he objected to the appellation "Farmer Jim." He doesn't quite like it. It was almost a shock to learn that he considers that there is not honor in the name.

He dwelt upon moneymaking, business and dollars. And he rather chided the moralists who showed plainly that he is, as he admits, a new campaigner. The least little sneer ban him irksomely. The unmeant, the unthought, the unspoken might be liable to send him charging, judging from his early get-off in the political race.

To the unbiased onlooker it is a question of whether this new man in politics can stand the gaff. And his brethren of the anti are evidently watching his qualifications, too. It is plainly true that so far they have known "not which to turn."

Ever in their thoughts stands the jovial spectre of Sam Sparks. Now Sam, he it is known, is a marvelous "bet" for the anti, did they know it. There are many who will quickly predict that the anti can beat without him. He has one of the greatest, grandest, most mechanically correct personal political machines that has ever been organized in this or any other state.

With Sam Sparks out of the way the Wise Men of the anti say they have a chance to win.

With both of them in it is a case of "Oh, I could be happy with either, were the other dear charmer away." These self same gentlemen, who the grand old guard are preparing to impinge the scone (meaning head) of one of these two hoping men with a mallet. A butcher always tries to fatten his ox. The present butchers of the "constituent democrats" find themselves with two fine oxen. They must kill one of them. It looks like they were fattening both, reserving decision.

Hand Caught in the Jug And while we are making smiles, there's another that's another. It's the story of the boy who reached his hand into the jug for raisins. When he filled it full he could not pull it out of the jug. When he let go the raisins he could get his hand out—but it would be empty.

Experience would have taught the boy to lift a few raisins at a time—or to tilt the jug. Amateurish tactics are ever hard on the amateur. The betting politician ever expects all of the words to be published here, there, and after off. And it is wornwood and gall to him when he is weighed in the balance and that the essayer must pass on his ore. There is often over-enthusiasm in the unskilled; many times a great amount of cooling over a new playing.

The great question should be, will the toy wear, is the man worth the hire? And among other things, a meeting like that gives the analyst always opportunity to ponder.

So Jonathan's of I. R. and R. And to show that the day of miracles is not gone it has come to pass that Jonathan Lane, arch-foe of the initiative, referendum and recall, has endorsed it. To suggest it a few weeks ago would have been to court an attack of hydrophobia. Last night Jonathan—endorsed the platform of Ferguson. And the platform of Ferguson hath written within it the initiative, referendum and recall.

But Jonathan has been practicing hand-springs recently and his political acrobatics make it hard to say for him. Of course, Jonathan, the fox of the political set, knows what it requires 51 per cent of the voters to make the I. R. and R. a law and that usually there are not more than two-thirds out at a general election.

HOW ULSTER CAME ABOUT

The Irish home rule crisis and the threat of Ulster to revolt if not excluded from the sphere of the Dublin parliament are of peculiar interest to the descendants of the Protestant Scotch Irish who had so large a place in the settlement of the Appalachian south. Possibly they will be glad to have their memories refreshed and get it straight again how there came to be a Scotch Irish people. When Captain John Smith was laying the foundation of Jamestown, Ulster was as wild as Virginia. The people were nomads who wandered with their flocks and lived in huts of skins and wood. A curse had been pronounced against any that learned English, sowed wheat or built houses. The Ulstermen, Elizabeth described Ulster as a sort of Tasty. This was changed with startling suddenness at the very moment that Virginia and Massachusetts were being settled: A court decision brought the Scotch to Ireland.

In 1605 the judges declared the custom of gravel-kind, which has become one of the jokes of law schools, void in law and abolished the right of tanistry. The right of tanistry was the right of the tribe to elect the tanist or successor of the chief. The custom of gravel-kind was the theoretical right of all members of the tribe to use of the tribal lands which were held in the name of the chief.

This court decision thus introduced into Ulster the feudal institutions of England. The result was that when the Earls of Tyrconnel that Tyrone were involved in treason in 1697 and embarked at Rathmullen, never to return, the lands of their tribes were declared forfeited to the crown. The trap had been neatly baited and was duly set off. Half a million acres of fertile soil were opened to settlement by farmers, mechanics, laborers, weavers and small traders of England and the Scotch lowlands. Estates were granted to concessionaires under the condition that they grant fixed holdings to settlers. Castles and houses sprang up as if by magic. Towns began to grow. Thus desolate wilds were covered with a thrifty farmer population of well clad, well fed, self-reliant and self-confident men, with grain in their barns and money in their pockets. Within thirty years there were towns and factories and water-wheels were grinding flour, Belfast was founded in 1612.

The cornerstone of Ulster prosperity was the substantial independence of the tenant of the whims of the landlord. When in the early part of the nineteenth century south Ireland rang with the demand for fair rent, fixed tenure and free sale, Ulstermen had even in enjoyment of fixed tenure and their rights two hundred years.

But the Presbyterian Scotch never fused with the Celtic Irish. On the other hand they incorporated the valuable artisan population that came to Belfast from France as a result of the persecution of the Huguenots. Ulster became industrial as well as agricultural. Belfast now claims the largest linen mill, the largest shipyard, the largest mineral water plant, the largest rope-walk and the largest tobacco factory in the world.

At Derry and at the Boyne, the Ulstermen gave a good account of themselves and battled for Protestantism throughout Europe. A hundred years later they were to have a splendid start in the American war of independence.

Bigotry followed the Ulstermen to Ireland and a century after their settlement, emigrants began removing to America. There was also a famine in 1728 and the next year 5655 Scotch Irish settlers landed at Philadelphia in a total immigration through that port of 6208. The historian Lecky has declared that 39,000 Ulstermen went to America in 1771, 1772 and 1773. Those who remained at home shared their interest in the struggle against George III. Arthur Young, the careful traveler, found the entire province deeply absorbed in the struggle, which Englishmen now see was a battle for liberty in their own country as well as in this.

Time has not healed the racial religious and economic differences between Ulstermen and other Irishmen and it is not yet certain that Ulster will not fight again for what it conceives to be its rights—Knoxville (Tenn.) Sentinel.

BIG FEATURE FILMS ARE BOOKED BY THE EMPRESS

Perils of Pauline, Jack London's Dramas, and Other Famous Photo Dramas Coming Here

The Empress Theatre has made arrangements to present some very interesting feature films in the near future, chief among which is "The Perils of Pauline." This is a serial story to be run three reels each week, in which Pearl White has the leading character, assisted by Crane Wilbur and Paul Panzer. It is a story of a trip around the world depicting stirring incidents and dangers that befall the heroine.

Another big picture which the Empress has contracted to produce is "Charles Klein's 'Third Degree,' a five-act picture of the drama that made Klein famous. Other films are Jack London's "Sea Wolf," "Zingo," a twelve-reel burlesque, "Germinal," a picture from Emile Zola's novel, and "Through Fire to Torture." Since the new Theatre has opened business has been exceedingly good and Manager Earle is looking for all of the best productions he can get.

DOGS HAVE GOOD MEMORIES

Though Long Periods May Elapse, They Do Not Forget Their Former Owners.

Some remarkable instances of dogs' memories are given by a writer in the Scotsman. The late Major Fair of Wells he says, received a Bismont terrier puppy from a well known breeder, and kept her until nine months old, when she was sent back. She came into my possession five years later. One day, upon meeting Major Fair on the road, she ran forward, recognizing him and showing great delight in her happy doggy way, although she had not seen him for over three years.

Some years later (when the dog was nine years of age) I went into a local barber's shop and was surprised to see and hear her excitedly showing signs of meeting a friend which she did by yelping and jumping upon the man's knee and trying to lick his face. This man turned out to be Major Fair's coachman, who had brought her up and had not seen her for over six years.

Dogs have a mode of concealing recognition if it suits their purpose. A friend of mine sold a terrier to a late Ballie Morrison of Hawick. Upon calling upon the Ballie some three months later my friend was surprised at the dog taking no notice of him, but on his way home at night, when about four miles from Hawick, he happened to look back, and saw the dog following him in a stealthy manner, which it persisted in doing until it reached Jedburgh. It was sent back by carrier next day and never on any future occasion recognized its old master. Surely this was not lapse of memory so much as offended dignity.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXPERTS AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

National and State Superintendents Visit Departments and Hold Conference With Workers

Robert M. Hopkins, of Cincinnati, National Bible school superintendent of the Christian Church and member of the committee having charge of the preparation of the interdenominational Sunday school lessons and S. W. Hutton of Fort Worth, State Bible school superintendent of the Christian Church for Texas, were visitors at the First Christian Church yesterday. In the morning they visited the departments of this Sunday school, in the afternoon they conducted a conference on Sunday school methods and at night Mr. Hopkins delivered an address on "The Boy."

As a result of the visit of these experts—Wichita Falls has been designated as one of the two Texas points which will be visited by a team of Sunday school experts next November. Sunday school workers for a radius of more than a hundred miles will be invited to come here and study methods.

About one hundred Sunday school workers attended the conference Sunday afternoon. J. W. Hunt, superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday school with the teachers of that school attended in a body.

Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Hutton returned to Fort Worth last night. Mr. Hopkins will leave Fort Worth for Dallas today.

COUNTY TRACK MEET HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Iowa Park, Burk Burnett, Electric and Local School Expected To Enter Teams

The track meet of Wichita county schools, which was to have been held on March 21 at Iowa Park but which had to be postponed on account of bad weather, will be held in Wichita Falls next Saturday afternoon. Teams from this city, Iowa Park, Burk Burnett and Electric are expected to be entered in the competition. The local team has been practicing steadily as circumstances would permit and hopes to secure its full share of the honors.

Preparations are being made for the district track meet which will also be held in this city. It is hoped to be able to offer loving cups to the winning teams in both the senior and junior divisions of the competition, as trophies of the occasion.

AT THE MOVIES.

The first of the new series, "Dolly of the Dailies" with Mary Fuller as Dolly, will be shown today at the Majestic. The story of the advent of Dolly into the newspaper business was in Sunday's issue of The Times. After her story, "The Perfect Truth" had caused such a furore in the literary burg in which she lived, and she had had a quizzel with her parents over the story, she decided to take the money she had received from "The Perfect Truth" and go to New York and make her own way, working up a newspaper career. The first picture instills one with the desire to follow the girl in her further adventures, and gives promise of a very entertaining series.

Victoria. A two reel feature picture depicting Kentucky mountain life with wonderful clearness and unusual realism. "The Raiders" is on the bill for today at the Victoria. Marguerite Fisher and Harry Pollock play the lead in another picture, "The Wife," a Beauty film.

Empress. Today at the Empress—a strong three-act Warner Picture is showing, "The Vendence of the Just." The action is rapid and many tense situations make the picture one that holds the interest all the way through.

"Broncho Billy and the Bad Man," a Western 8 reels, starring G. M. Anderson, "When the Clock Stopped" a Latin drama and a Vitagraph featuring Maurice Costello, "The Perfect Bridegroom" and showing today at the Gen. The program is completed by the second of the Seniors' Expert Race at Wood—Beverly, "The Lovely Seniors."

To Our Friends and Customers:

Our attention has been called by several that they failed to receive an invitation to the recital which we will give on Tuesday night, March 31st, at Wichita Theatre. It is almost impossible in mailing a list of this size to keep mistakes from occurring. We wish to state that it is our intention to slight no one. And we extend a cordial invitation to every one of our friends and customers to be present.

BOTH TEAMS SHOWED MORE CLASS SUNDAY

KANSAS CITY WON AS USUAL 6 TO 3—HOOSIER BATSMEN UNABLE TO CONNECT

GAME PLAYED AT CITY PARK

Shower Made Lake Grounds Sea of Mud But City Grounds Were Not Dampened

After both fans and players had been driven around considerably by the weather, the Kansas City and Indianapolis teams and a number of spectators finally reached the city park yesterday afternoon in time to play a first class game of ball. Kansas City capped the large end of the score as usual, six to three.

The game was a vast improvement over the exhibition of the previous Sabbath, both teams showing much more class. Inability to connect with Kansas City's slabsmen in the pinches was the Hoosiers' undoing as the hitting honors were even.

The contest was to have been staged at the lake park, but about an hour before starting there was a heavy shower over there that reduced the baseball field to a sea of mud and made a game out of the question in that neighborhood. The players were getting ready to beat it home when word came that it had not rained at all in the city parks and it was decided to play there.

Accordingly, players and fans street-carred and autoed back to the city in time to start the game an hour late.

Hoosiers Scoreless Until Ninth. Indianapolis did not count until two were out in the ninth, when a three timer by Pinche, who was with the bats loaded, brought in three tallies. Up to that time Henning and E. Packard had been mowing Hoosier batsmen down quite regularly. This was E. Packard's first appearance in the local series; he is a south pinner and a good one. Henning, who opened for the Packers, was very hard to discover and allowed two hits only, in the five innings that he was on the firing line.

Kaiserling opened the fray for the Indians, and it was during his incumbency of the box that the butchers did their dirty work. Kaiserling replaced him in the sixth inning and fared some better.

Errors were not nearly as numerous as a week or two ago and there was some nice nifty fielding. Fancy catches by Kauff, Esmond and Laporte featured that department of the matinee. The general class of baseball was far above that of the Sunday before.

K. C. Scored in Third. Kansas City broke the ice in the third, inning, when Stone walked, Henning sacrificed, Chadbourne dropped one into right field, scoring Stone. Stovall popped out and Kenworthy walked. Goodwin uncocked a drive into deep right that looked like it had a home run label, but Boone sprinted it down in time to hold Goodwin at third after Kenworthy and Chadbourne had spiked the counting man. Kenworthy marked up in the fifth when Henning singled and scored on Stovall's two sacker. Stovall in turn romped home on Kenworthy's crack to deep left.

In the sixth the I. B. Kansas City score was made when Packard walked, reached second on Stovall's grounder and scored on Kenworthy's drive to center field.

Billiard's Performance. It looked like a row of goose eggs for the Hoosiers until the very last when things began to eventuate. Campbell and Laporte went out east by in the ninth and the crowd was already in the street cars for the most part. Then Dolan opened up with a neat drive over second; Esmond shot a grounder to third base and Perring juggled it long enough to enable both runnings to get safe. Texter, batting for Warren, drew a gracious gift of a pass. Packard evidently thinking he could make quick work of Billiard. The result for the pitcher was a choice one deep in to center field and scored the three men ahead of him. Kaiser whiffed and the performance was over. The score:

THEN

Forty-seven years ago today the United States purchased Russian America, a tract as large as the Atlantic States put together, for $7,200,000. The bargain was widely ridiculed. The tract was called "Seward's Ice Box," after Secretary of State Seward who was largely responsible for the purchase. The United States gave it the name Alaska—a corruption of the native Alay-eska, meaning "a great country." The inhabitants numbered only a few hundred whites and a few thousand natives. There were no roads, commerce was confined to fishing and sealing, to the extent of $2,000,000 a year. The people laughed, but Secretary Seward died with the prediction that another generation would say the purchase of Alaska was the greatest accomplishment of his administration.

Today the resources of Alaska are still unknown, but the people think so well of "Seward's Ice Box" that their Congress has voted and their president signed a bill for the expenditure of $35,000,000 in the building of 1,000 miles of railway in Alaska. Today Alaska has a $20,000,000 worth of goods from the United States every year, and it sends about the same amount of merchandise to the States. In addition there has been a yearly production of nearly $20,000,000 in gold from Alaska. The population, as taken in the last census, is over 36,000 whites and 28,000 natives. Over 4,000 miles of wire communication have been

"I HAD NO IDEA IT WAS MY EYES"

How often we hear that remark. It is amazing to note the many cases of stomach trouble and nervousness than can be traced directly to defective vision. The majority of headaches, tired nerves and muscles are due to eyestrain. Glasses rightly prescribed and made, relieve you of little ills that annoy you daily. We have the experience and ability to determine, by careful examination, whether glasses will improve your general health. Can you afford not to investigate?

ANOTHER MEETING TO COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

Nine labor unions were represented Sunday afternoon at the meeting at the court house, at which steps were taken for the organization of a central labor council. The session was devoted to a discussion of preliminary plans. Committees were named to enlist the support of other unions. It is the hope to have every labor organization in the city a member. Another meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon at which it is hoped to perfect the organization.

Do you know what to do with a dollar? How do you stand in the book of financial batting averages? The American Dollar does its duty only when spent judiciously. You can't expect to make your dollar buy a hundred cents worth unless you buy standard merchandise from experienced merchants. The amateur who does not know any more about the goods he is selling than you know about the climate of Madagascar is not in position to help you in the matter of judicious buying. We are experienced merchants and careful buyers and our knowledge of the goods we are selling comes from a life time in the business. "I Consider It The Best Diamond In The City For The Money"

We sold a diamond one day this week for $550 to a man who had looked at every stock in the city, and had even gone to Fort Worth and Dallas to see if he could not get a better deal. After he had purchased the stone he told us how he had looked around, and the prices that had been made, and wound up with this very significant remark: "I consider this the best diamond in the city for the money."

That is the way all our customers talk, and it means a whole lot. It means that our prices must be right and our goods are equal, if not better, than others can show. All we ask of any buyer is comparison. Come in and compare. A word to the wise is sufficient.

WHY WE WENT INTO THE COFFEE ROASTING BUSINESS

We have been playing the game for twenty-five years and always paid particular attention to coffee.

Always had a great deal of trouble in getting blends to suit us, and for years before we commenced to roast bought our different coffees roasted separately and blended them ourselves and always enjoyed a splendid coffee business but coffees don't blend perfectly except in the roaster where the different flavors can combine harmoniously.

Years ago we bought a hand power roaster and experimented on a small scale but our business soon outgrew this and we had to go back to the Roaster.

In 1909 we built a small building at the rear of our store and rigged up the hand roaster with a motor and commenced to roast our coffee but did not let the public know we were doing so as we wished an unbiased verdict. Inside of ninety days our business had quadrupled and become too big to handle with our little plant so we ordered our coffees roasted again and went East to purchase a plant large enough to handle our increasing business. We bought the very best and up-to-date machinery obtainable and came back unafraid to ADVERTISE THE FACT THAT WE ROAST OUR OWN COFFEES, and since that time our business has increased faster than we dreamed. So we know we are right.

If you are using our FRESH ROASTED COFFEES there's nothing to say. If not, would be pleased to show you the difference.
