LIEPOLD NINE WINS FROM BLACK CATS

The second of the Twilight League season resulted in victory for the Liepold nine, by a score of five to one. The victors hit the ball hard, while Filgo's offerings were not touched up by the Black Cats to any extent.
On Tuesday the Liepold nine will meet the Irish Lads and this promise to be a contest worth while. The teams appear to be evenly matched and a close game is anticipated. A back stop and some seats are to be constructed at the park early this week, to afford better accommodations for the spectators.

WILL ASK PYTHIANS TO MEET HERE IN 1915

Local Knights Leave Today for Temple Bearing Invitation to K. P. Grand Lodge
The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias at its annual meeting at Temple held its 1915 session in Wichita Falls, and in event that the invitation is not accepted for 1915 it will be extended for 1916. Dr. J. W. DuVal, chancellor commander of Pioneer Lodge and official representative to the Grand Lodge has been authorized to extend the invitation and A. G. Mathewson and Harry Daugherty will attend the meeting in the interest of Wichita Falls. They will carry a supply of badges and literature leaving for Temple today.
One thousand or more delegates are expected to attend the Grand Lodge meeting. These delegates are representative citizens from all sections of the State and it is believed much good would result if they could be brought to Wichita Falls. This city has gotten into the race a little late but it is believed if the Grand Lodge cannot be brought here next year it can surely be brought here on the year following.

INTEREST IN CONTEST IN FACTORY DISTRICT

To the Civic League:
Children of the Sam Houston school entered in the in-contest, including children in the factory district and between this district and Floral Heights.
"Clarence Felton, Eula Mefford, Roy and Exa Turner, Jessie and Grace Donaldson, Leo Weakley, Beulah McCurley, Frank Dixon.
"There are some more children but on account of the rain I am unable to obtain their names.
"I wish to thank the ladies of the Civic League for including our children in their contest as the people out here feel that no one cares for them that we are neither town nor country. Respectfully yours,
"PHOEBE J. MILBURN."
The Civic League publishes the foregoing letter as it feels that the interest shown by the people in the factory district is worthy of mention. The organization of a Civic League in the factory district has been contemplated for some time and when possible a committee which has been appointed for that purpose will form an organization.

Our Mutual Girl meets Blanche Ring

No girl ever had a greater variety of experience than that busiest of all young people in New York.

OUR MUTUAL GIRL

In the eleventh issue of this incomparable picture series Margaret who has been to see Blanche Ring in "When Claudia smiles" at the Lyric Theatre, becomes so enthusiastic about this musical hit that she pleads with her aunt for permission to go on the stage herself. Of course her aunt refuses, much to the disappointment of who determined to have her own way at any cost starts out to find a position. She applies to a well known manager with such success that she is actually rehearsing with a ballet when her aunt finds her. Then she has to go back home and is put to bed.

Remember that none of these things would have happened if Margaret hadn't had the good fortune to be introduced to who is shown on the screen in TWO OF THE BEST SCENES OF HER PRODUCTION. SPRING TIME IS HERE and that part of the eleventh reel which is not devoted to Margaret's experience trying to "go on the stage" shows this young devotee of fashion at one of the most famous Fifth Avenue Millinery shops. She has a number of hats sent to her aunt's home and tries them all on, which is shown distinctly and in the utmost detail. These hats are certainly enough to thrill with joy every woman and girl in America.

As usual OUR MUTUAL GIRL meets famous people, views famous sights and does so many other interesting things that this picture will grasp and hold the attention of the most elusive spectator from the opening to the closing scenes. Every week OUR MUTUAL GIRL'S following is perceptibly increased and her new admirers find her just as interesting as do those who have seen every picture from the beginning. If you have not seen the preceding chapters by all means start this Wednesday. DON'T LET ANYTHING PREVENT. Each picture is complete in itself.

SUFFS MARCH TO THE CAPITOL

SEVERAL THOUSAND WOMEN FROM ALL SECTIONS OF COUNTRY IN PARADE

10 BANDS AND GREAT CHORUS

Parade Ends at Capitol Building Where Women Lay Siege to Congressmen

By Associated Press
Washington, May 9.—With banners flying, ten bands playing and the women singing a marching song, several thousand suffragists from various sections of the country today paraded along Pennsylvania avenue from Lafayette Square to the Capitol. There 531 of them, representing every State in the Union, and assigned one to each senator and representative, presented to the members of Congress petitions asking the passage of the Bristol-Mondell resolution calling for a federal constitutional amendment enfranchising women.
Immense crowds viewed the procession along the route. When the Capitol was reached the bands were massed on the plaza before the East front, where they played the "March of the Women" composed by Dr. Ethel Smyth of England, accompanying a chorus of 1000 women, wearing robes of white, with green sashes and belts of green on their heads.
Parade Follows Mass Meeting.
The parade followed a mass meeting in a downtown theatre presided over by Mrs. William Kent, wife of Representative Kent of California, and at which stirring addresses were made by Miss Caroline Lexow, field secretary of the Women's Political Union of New York; Mrs. Donald Hooker of Baltimore and Miss Lucy Burns of Brooklyn, vice chairman of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, under the auspices of which the demonstration was held. Above those occupying boxes at the meeting were Mrs. G. H. Belmont of New York; Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles of Wilmington, Del., daughter of President Cleveland's secretary of State; Miss Julia Lathrop, chief of the Federal Children's Bureau; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, of New York, daughter of the late Elizabeth Cady Stanton, one of the pioneer leaders in the suffrage movement.

Novel Features of Parade.
There were many novel features in the parade and the marching women were cheered loudly by the throngs that lined Pennsylvania avenue all the way from Lafayette Square, opposite the White House to the Capitol. First and foremost was borne aloft a banner, twenty feet wide, bearing the inscription: "We demand the passage of the Bristol-Mondell resolution." Then came the first section, the recent division, trooping Spring, Youth and Hope, which had been arranged under the direction of Mrs. Elliphaget Andrews, a well-known artist. Thousands of garlands of flowers were carried by the young women and children, the shades of the blossoms having been selected with an eye to harmonizing with the Union's colors, purple, white and gold.
1000 Voices in Chorus.
In this division also marched the chorus of 1000 led by Mrs. Apolline M. Blair, president of the Rubenstein Club of this city. Attractive as was this part of the parade, it did not evoke any more enthusiasm or interest from the onlookers than the cavalry section which came next and was commanded by Mrs. Juliet Barlett Ruljes of Washington, who also was the mounted grand marshal of the procession.
In advance of the cavalry contingent were seven color bearers on horseback, each carrying a purple, white and gold flag. At their head rode Miss Estie Hill, daughter of former Representative Hill of the State of Connecticut. Among the prominent cavalrywomen were Mrs. Denver Church, Mrs. Charles Everett Curry, Miss Mary Morgan, Miss Alberta Hill, and Miss Elizabeth Kent, Writers and Actresses.
Mrs. George Odell was chairman of the foot marshals of the political division, which was next in line and which was subdivided into various sections. The sections that created the most interest were those of the women writers and the actresses. The former was organized by Mrs. Marie Manning Glash of Washington, and among those who trudged with her were: Mrs. Zona Gale of Wichita; Edna Kenton, Helen Reimer Martin, Mrs. Fairbanks Timmons, daughter of former Vice President Fairbanks.

An interesting feature was a large delegation of women voters from the ten states where members of the fair sex now are allowed to cast the ballot. Walking at the head of this contingent was Dr. Cora Smith King, of Seattle, Wash., treasurer of the National Council of Women Voters. Bringing up the rear of the parade were hundreds of women under the banners of separate states.
The words of the song, "The March of the Women" which was sung by the paraders and which had been learned in this country only once before, are:
"Shout, shout up with your song,
Cry with the wind, for the dawn is breaking;
March, march, swing you along,
Wide blows our banner and hope is waking.
Song with its story, dreams with their glory,
Lo, they call and glad is their word.
Lender and lender it swells
Thunder and freedom, the voice of the Lord.
"Long, long—we in the past
Covered in dread from the light of heaven,
Strong, strong—stand we at last,
Fearless in faith and with sight new—given,
Strength with its beauty, life, with its duty.
(Hear the voice, oh hear and obey)
These, these—beckon us on;
Open your eyes to the blaze of day.
"Comrades—ye who have dared
First in the battle to strive and sorrow;
Scorned, spurned—nought have ye cared,
Raising your eyes to a wider morrow.
Ways that are weary, days that are dreary,
Toil and pain by faith ye have borne;
Hail, hail—victors ye stand,
Wearing the wreath that the brave have worn."

SCOVILLE HERE FOR SOUL WINNING

EVANGELIST AND PARTY ARRIVES AND HE SPEAKS BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE

EXPECTS GREAT MEETING

Will Preach This Morning and Tonight and Address Men and Boys in Afternoon

Belated by washouts in Kansas, Dr. Charles Reign Scoville and others in the party of evangelists arrived here Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. Dr. Scoville conducted his first service in the meetings now in progress here. He was greeted by an audience that filled the auditorium at the First Christian Church.

At the outset Dr. Scoville recalled other revival meetings he had conducted in Texas among other places Dallas, Houston and Beaumont. He recalled also a meeting he had conducted at Springfield, Mo., when Rev. Walters was pastor there and in which there were 1261 converts. He told of the marvelous success in soul winning in the meetings at Hutchinson, Kansas, in which there were 4,109 converts. He expressed a hope for great success in the meetings here declaring that cities which were great in commercial enterprise, such as Wichita Falls, ought also to be great religiously. He asked all of those in the audience born outside the State to stand up and three-fourths arose to their feet. Dr. Scoville said this fact accounted in great measure for the get-there spirit of the city. He declared that Wichita Falls and other of the newer cities had drawn from the older communities their most virile blood, those coming here being those with the most ambition and get-there spirit; they were citizens of backbone and not wish-bones as evidenced in the fact that they had struck out to a new country for themselves.

Dr. Scoville declared that the Bible was not the story of a religion that had died but of a religion of today; that God existed today as much as He ever did. That was the reason he was here. Such a religion and God were permanently needed by a progressive people, he said.

Others arriving with Dr. Scoville included Mrs. Arlene Scoville, wife of the evangelist and soloist and pianist. Mrs. Scoville is a graduate of the Chicago Conservatory of Music and of several other leading musical schools of the country. Last night she sang "Would You Care If Some Soul You Had Met Day By Day Had Never Been Told About Jesus?"

C. E. Marty, musical director, and Mrs. Marty, personal worker, together with Rev. Walter H. Sandy and wife make up the other members of the party. "Five Hundred in the Sunday School" is the slogan for the First Christian Church where the revival meetings are being held this morning. Last Sunday over 400 were out and it is believed the 500 mark will be reached today.

Dr. Scoville will speak at 10:45 on the subject, "The Revival that Revives." At 3 p. m., Dr. Scoville will address a meeting of men and boys on "God and Your Mother." He had not announced his subject for the evening service last night.

Final plans for the structure will be adopted shortly. The building will be at least five stories in height, but no definite decision as to the architecture has been reached.

The tenants of the buildings at Eighth and Indiana were given notice to move several weeks ago and as soon as possible the work of raising the one story structures will begin.

PIERCE CORPORATION DENIED TEXAS PERMIT

Mandamus Proceedings Will Be Instituted to Compel Issuance of Permit

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, May 9.—The Pierce Oil Corporation, a Virginia concern, is not entitled to a permit to do business in Texas, according to an opinion given the secretary of state today by the attorney general's department. The statement gives the history of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company covering 2,000 written pages. The attorney-general recommends not to issue the permit as it would violate the old judgment against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company in June, 1907 in Travis county district court, also that it would violate Article 7805, revised statutes, providing no permit be issued to the successor of any corporation whose right to do business has been forfeited. The secretary of state declined to issue the permit. A petition for a writ of mandamus to the supreme court will be filed to compel the secretary of state to issue the permit. Annual cemetery dues are now due. Send your remittance to—Mrs. M. M. Adickes, treasurer.

TIMES PUBLISHING CO. ED. HOWARD, Mar.

A sample of oats, grown on the farm of C. A. Andre, five miles north of the city, was brought to the Times office yesterday and we are now judge of such matters. Mr. Andre is going to be in the class of the famed Mr. Carter when he harvests his crop.

Most of the oat crops in this section of state were looking so fine about Christmas that it was thought they would be ready to harvest by the middle of February, but the late freeze caught them, and the oat crops that were a little backward are about the only ones that will be any good this year.

In writing about the visit of the National Editors to Wichita Falls on last Saturday, the Tiall County Herald, edited by State Senator W. A. Johnson, has the following to say:

Wichita Falls is a wonder for a west Texas city. The show shows the possibilities of a city of push. During the past few years they have accomplished wonders by their energy. Four new lines of railroad have been built out of there by them. Glass factories, potteries, Ball Brothers' jar factories, automobile factories and many other kinds of plants have been established.

BOUNTEOUS BREAD

Just think of it! One wheat farm alone in the Wichita Falls country will require at least 12,000 pounds of binder twine in the harvesting of the 6,000 acres of wheat on it this year.

This wheat will yield, at a low estimate, an average of at least fifteen bushels per acre, or 90,000 bushels, and if it sells for what it is or will be worth, it ought to bring at least $90,000.

A whole lot of money, and a whole lot of money. Wichita Falls Times.

The report comes from all the wheat country of the Southwest, of which Oklahoma is an important part, that the wheat crop is growing to a heavy yield of grain. This is good news, and we hope it will soon be reflected in the price of biscuits. State Press in Dallas News.

Naturally enough, we're opposed to raising the price of second-class mail matter from one cent to two cents per pound. It would work a hardship not only on the general reading public, but on the publishers of periodicals and newspapers.

The only way they would have of meeting the expense would be to either raise the subscription price to offset the increase in postal rates, or else cut down the size of their publications. That would mean less weight, less blank paper and less labor.

For instance, should a great newspaper like the Dallas News, which generally issues from sixteen to twenty-four pages week days, and from fifty to sixty on Sundays, cut off about one-fourth the number of pages, it would result in the laying off of several printers and pressmen.

As now, one cent per pound as a charge for second-class mail matter seems high enough, and the postal department of the government is more than self-sustaining. That being true, then why raise rates on second-class mail?

Kentucky lawmaker is clamoring for one-house legislature. Move to amend by making it "a bat house."

Dutty men are elected to the lawmaking departments of state. Why call it "a house of representatives?"

But house would come nearer covering all the ground—Fort Worth Record.

The Record is perhaps a little too severe in the above, but the matter of selecting our law-makers should receive closer attention at the hands of the people. Successful business men should supplant the professional office seeker and professional politician in our law-making body. By this we do not mean to exclude the successful or practical farmer. In fact, a farmer who can farm correctly is a business man and there is no question but that if Texas, which is largely an agricultural state, would take to sending to the legislature a few more practical farmers the state would have better and sounder laws. But if the farmers suffer from the bad laws, they themselves are to blame, largely. It is in their power to elect the representatives, and the excuse they make that they can't afford to neglect their business to go to Austin is rather a poor excuse. They can afford to elect one of their own number to represent them in the legislature, and if necessary carry on his farm work for him during his absence at no cost to their representative while attending to official duties at Austin, rather than put up with a man who they feel sure are thorough men who they feel sure are thorough in a lawmaking body.

In the Baylor County Banner, Seymour, of this week, Dr. Brooks of the Baylor University virtually makes the announcement that he will be a candidate to succeed Senator Chas. A. Culberson. This announcement is made in response to a letter written to Dr. Brooks by Mr. Harrison, editor of the Banner. Congressman R. L. Henry, of Waco, has announced that he will also be a candidate for the U. S. Senatorship to succeed Culberson. In the meantime Senator Culberson has not yet said that he will or will not be a candidate for re-election. Until he does this more than half the Democrats of Texas will not be apt to commit themselves to either Dr. Brooks or Congressman Henry. Culberson has proven himself an able and faithful representative of the people of Texas, and the Democrats of Texas are not going to desert him just for the sake of honoring one of her other able men. In other words, if Culberson wants re-election, all he will have to do is to make it known. The fact that he is in bad health should not act against him.

It is said there are 200,000 tenant farmers in Texas, and the statement may be true. We should be glad if each one of these owned his farm. In the cities and towns of Texas there are probably fully 200,000 families who do not own the homes they occupy. They are tenants, and the rental they pay for the houses they occupy is in cash. We do not hear any loud expressions of sympathy for these town tenants, though they are as much a part of the body politic as the renters of farms. We wish every family in town and city owned its home. That will be the case in time, but the time is in the future. Waco Tribune.

We have a candidate for governor who is the champion of the tenant farmer, but so far he has said nothing for the tenants in the cities and towns. They need relief, but their case is as hopeless as that of the tenant farmer. The laws of Texas as well as that of most states are against the poor man. For instance, if a man buys a farm for $5000; pays down $1000 and gives a mortgage for the balance, he not only pays interest on the deferred payments, but is required to pay the taxes on the farm. The man who owns the notes is also required to render them for taxation. That makes it a double tax, but notes and mortgage holders, in nine cases out of ten, never render them for taxation. The poor devil who is paying out his home or farm can't escape. He must pay the tax and the property stands good for it. Were the vendor lien notes rendered for taxation, as is required by law, the tax burden of the fellow who has a mortgage staring him in the face day and night would be made lighter. The holders of land notes have a way of evading the law. How they manage it we do not know. But they do it just the same. They are tax dodgers. At least, most of them are. It is a safe proposition to make that not more than ten per cent of all the land notes are ever rendered for taxation. If there are those who doubt this statement, and who want to inform themselves, let them go into the county clerk's office and find out just the amount of land notes or mortgages that are placed on record in that office, and then, without being forced to leave the court house, let them step into the county assessor's office and ascertain just how many dollars worth of land notes have been rendered for taxation. The proof of our statement is there, and it can't be successfully contradicted. Instead of all this nonsense about regulating farm rentals, why don't one of the candidates for governor, or both of them, as far that matter, advocate a law that will make it a penal offense to dodge taxes? If that was the law, and it were enforced as strictly as other laws, it would give some relief not only to the tenant farmers, but also to the man who is renting the home that shelters his family. He would encourage him to become the owners of his home by being assured that the man from whom he purchased would be compelled to pay a part of the tax so long as he held a note against his home. The way it now is, 90 per cent of the fellows who are endeavoring to own their homes or farms are paying all the tax, in addition to the interest on the deferred payments. The candidates for office, however, put on the soft pedal when it comes to the point of making laws that will make dodging of taxes a penal offense. They would rather devote their time to "promising relief that is almost as impossible to bring about by their methods as it is to regulate the weather, or cause it to rain or cease raining just when rain is needed or not needed.

NEW CONNECTION TO THE HENRIETTA ROAD Better Outlet is Now Ready for Travel - Avoids Labyrinth of Turns and Tracks

A new outlet from the city connecting with the Henrietta road was completed yesterday by the county road gang. Commissioner Jackson has had the county road force working on this piece of road for some time and his announcement yesterday that it was ready for traffic was hailed with joy by persons who have occasion to travel that road.

Heretofore it has been necessary to wind through and over a labyrinth of turns and tracks, being confusing and dangerous. Directions for getting out over the new road are as follows: Go to the end of Ohio Avenue and cross tracks; go one block and turn to right passing the Farmers Union gin to the end of the street; turn left and go to Holiday Creek bridge on the Windthorst road; from this bridge follow new road straight ahead to the railroad water tank where you get into the old Henrietta road.

of the action of the German Steamship Company in directing the return of its ships without unloading their war munitions for Huerta at Puerto, Mexico. Inquiry failed to develop the reasons which actuated the steamship company, but it is assumed that the cargo was taken at the shipper's risk and with a distinct understanding that it would not be landed if the company would thereby be embarrassed in its relations with the United States government.

It was learned that these arms and ammunition, like the cargo on the "Pyraus," turned back from Vera Cruz, originally was shipped from New York or some other eastern port. Reassuring information concerning the safety of Vice Consul John R. Silliman, reported arrested by Huerta commanders at Sallillo or San Luis Potosi, were received.

The state department received through the French legation in Mexico City a communication from General Blanquet, Huerta's war minister at Sallillo was regarded by federal troops as safe and that neither Mr. Silliman nor others was under arrest.

rest. The movement of refugees continued. Sir Lionel Carden, the British representative in Mexico City again strongly urged British subjects to leave to the coast. Admiral Howard reported that Mazatlan on the Pacific coast had not surrendered to reports printed here, but that fighting continued. He also reported that Huerta had ordered the lights in the light-houses on the Pacific coasts extinguished to embarrass navigation and that American telegrams and mails to and from Mexican Pacific ports could not be transmitted.

Representative Dies, in the House today, advocated the disarming of the "ignorant murderers" of Mexico and placing in their hands the "implements of husbandry." He prophesied that if President Wilson ever closed down his "square jaws" on the Mexican situation "it will have to thunder many times before he lets go."

GEM REOPENS WITH MANY IMPROVEMENTS. The Gem Theatre which was closed most of the week to make some changes, reopened yesterday with a good program. The theatre now occupies the entire building, the rooming-house upstairs going out of business to provide better ventilation and also to permit the construction of a gallery where smoking will be permitted. The gallery is not yet open, as the seats have not been installed. Additional openings at the rear provide plenty of fresh air in the theatre and insure comfort for the warm weather patrons of this popular playhouse.

Will Run Street Car WITHOUT USING TROLLEY Inventors of Primary Cell Apparatus Will Demonstrate Invention This Morning A test of electricity, generated by chemicals, will be made in Wichita Falls tomorrow morning at ten o'clock when John McGivney and Julius J. Krohn, patentees of a primary cell for generating electricity in this manner will run a street car over the tracks downtown without the use of a trolley or any external apparatus. The electricity by which the street car is to be propelled will be generated on the car with the invention of the two-men named and they claim will be sufficient to propel the car the same as if the trolley were getting power from the overhead wires. The invention is said to be a remarkable one and if it comes up to the expectations will doubtless be of great commercial value. The test will be made at 10 o'clock from the corner of Tenth and Indiana.

Perfect Crops for North Texas
Recent rains in North Texas have insured the largest wheat crops we have harvested in years. Wheat is headed and in full bloom. With what moisture we have we would have a large small grain crop should it not rain again before wheat is cut. Crop conditions will demand a large amount of machinery for harvesting and threshing purposes. The Rumely Products Co. of Dallas, Texas, is preparing to meet the emergency by shipping 45 cars of Rumely machinery in one train to their distributing house at Dallas, having just received one train of 40 cars last week consisting of Rumely Oil pulls, Rumely gas pulls, Advance, Gear-Scott, and Rumely Threshing machinery. ### SAYS FRIEDMANN CURE WORTHLESS

NEW YORK DOCTOR SAYS IT IS NEITHER PREVENTIVE NOR CURATIVE

18 PATIENTS WERE TREATED

None of These Shown To Have Been Benefited and Several Have Since Died

Washington, May 7.—Dr. Friedmann's vaccine, after a year of careful experimentation, according to Dr. George Mannheimer of New York, has exhibited neither curative nor preventive powers and it cannot, therefore, be recommended. Dr. Mannheimer made this statement today at the sessions of the Clinical Section of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in annual convention here.

"In March, 1913," said Dr. Mannheimer, "18 patients were treated under my supervision. Of these 15 can be followed up and of that number three are dead. The number of injections in these cases were one, two and four respectively. Of the remaining twelve patients, ten received one and two received four injections. Five of the ten patients who received one injection developed abscesses at the site of the injection and were therefore unsuitable for further injections, according to the inventor. The other five patients were not injected, either because they did not see the improvement they had been led to expect or because they had become worse and had lost confidence in Friedmann. As to their present condition, five of them are now unchanged and five are worse than a year ago. One patient who had four injections, feels well and presents signs of an arrested lung process, but he has not gained in weight and has developed a new tuberculosis process in another part of the body. The second patient with four injections has tuberculosis of the knee joint and is now decidedly worse than before. The infiltrate of the fourth injection broke down and discharged pus.

"Where abscesses resulted at the site of the first injection, the vaccine apparently produced no additional harmful effect. The disease remained uninfluenced. Friedmann neglected to prevent abscess formation, although he claimed to know how. To be very charitable, one might judge from one single case, that decided natural healing tendencies, aided by common sense treatment, will not be hindered by the remedy."

In speaking on the subject, "The Subsequent History of Cases Discharged from Tuberculosis Sanatoria," Dr. Charles Bolduan, of the New York department of health, declared that tuberculosis sanatoria are useless and constant preaching of fresh air washed unless we bend every effort to provide suitable remunerative fresh air employment for the tuberculosis especially for those discharged as arrested cases from sanatoria.

The same argument was made by the Rev. Sidney Goldstein of New York, who declared that unless arrested cases are followed up the work is rendered useless.

Two methods, by the use of which surgery has proven of service in the treatment of tuberculosis, were reported upon by Dr. Edward Archibald of Montreal. "While modern methods of climatological, hygienic and dietetic treatment accomplish a great deal, particularly in incipient tuberculosis," said Dr. Archibald, "there remain a large number of cases with more advanced disease for whom these methods avail little. For a certain number of such patients, especially those in whom one lung is the seat of serious ulcerative lesions while the other lung remains practically sound, operative surgery will often prove of great service."

The day of the ultra-feminine gown has arrived once more. Boyish, severe lines are banished and soft, clinging draperies will hold full sway. Classic outlines and classic draperies are the rule. The captivatingly graceful and womanly dresses full of undulating, supple curves and folds are the rage.

Bunchy draperies in skirts are being made by Drecol, Worth, Doucet and Rouff of Paris. They are also creating gowns with tunics that are gathered at the waist and made from soft materials that reveal the lines of the figure to advantage.

Smart little coatees are to be much in evidence this season. But designed only for the extremely chic woman. Teh bolero is recalled in some respects. They have long sleeves and the coatees are fashioned short waisted, giving a very peculiar and fetching effect which is most attractive.

Mantles are now being adopted by the smart. Some of the prettiest are made of black satin and lined with Martine printed silks. They are immensely comfortable, chic and becoming. For summer such garments are ideal.

CHILDREN'S STYLES GOING TO THE DICKENS

David Copperfield Suits and Other Dickens Novelties Popular in Children's Wear

(By Margaret Mason)
Said Willie Jones to Tommy Smith, "My goodness gracious me, Ouf styles are simply going to The Dickens, don't you see."

New York, May 8.—There's the very Dickens of a revolution in children's styles and Dickens novels. The David Copperfield suits are the best in the field and are as practically comfortable and sensible for the small boy as they are quaint and artistic.

The favorite combination of a white linen or cotton poplin waist with the ankle length trousers of a contrasting color fastening to it with large pearl buttons and collars and cuffs to match the trousers are charming in color schemes of delft blue, leaf green, pink, tan and old rose with white. A model that will bring joy as a laundry lightener, however, is an all-dark brown cotton poplin relieved only by the big white pearl buttons and frills of this white batiste at the neck and wrists. Often the waists are fashioned of white cloth striped in the same color as the trousers.

For more elaborate and dressy occasions come to the Copperfield suits evolved with waists of corded or chint silk and trousers of black satin, and for the little Rollos and Percys who never will their pretty clothes are suits of pale blue satin or all white corded silk.

The Paul Dombey suits are not unlike the middy blouse suits of last season. In fact, the waist is cut exactly like a middy, sans the sailor collar. They are best when developed in colored linen with the straight-knee length trousers of the same although the two-colored scheme is employed in the suits also to suit ones taste.

Dresses for the small lass called Little Dorrit frocks are exactly like the David Copperfield suits of her small brother except that in lieu of trousers they have a pleated skirt of colored cotton poplin that fastens with the quaint white pearl buttons high up on the little waist of white.

The queer little lam-o-shanter shaped hats of straw with a visor and two dinky ribbons ends hanging down behind like David Copperfield and Paul Dombey affected are the correct things in the hat line for young hopefuls today. Little inverted butterbowl shapes of straw are also good.

It seems hardly fair that Dickens should be given all the credit for these charming styles for children when it is the inimitable illustrator of his works, George Cruikshank, who pictured the Dickens children in this attire. For that matter, Kate Greenway deserves quite as much credit for all of her dainty picture ladies were dressed this way. Perhaps it is a safer thing to call the new child fashions "character" or "period" suits, as a well known department store one of the first sponsors of the new styles, is doing by way of solving the difficulty of bestowing credit where credit is due.

Another cunning style has the straight knee-length pants and a waist cut like a coat with a front of white plique to stimulate a little waistcoat. This model is particularly satisfactory developed in chambray. Even rompers have undergone a complete metamorphosis and in their newest state are little one piece suits, short kimono sleeves, square low neck and ending in trunk length straight pants instead of the full bloomers of the rompers of yesterday. Nothing cooler or more attractive and comfortable for the wee summer man could be imagined. In striped and checked ginghams or chambrays, banded in solid colors, they are too cute for anything except just what they are made for—the partial covering of a pudgy boy.

Cunning washable kid gloves for the kiddies is another innovation, bound to bring joy not only to the small man and little woman but to their respected and long suffering parents who must hand out the price of these expensive infantile dress accessories. Of white and chambray toned dooskin they are exactly like mother's washable gloves and can be popped into soapuds black as small scrubby hands can make 'em and come out again as immaculate as a brand new pair. Hence a wash-in time will save buying a new pair of gloves nine times out of ten.

SLEEVELESS GOWNS QUITE THE THING

WHAT'S LOST AT ONE EXTREMITY, HOWEVER, IS MADE UP AT OTHER

PROTECTION PETTICOATS

Now Return To Enfold Ankles In Scant White Ruffles of Sheerest Organdy

(By Margaret Mason)
Fashion says your coat and frock must be sleeveless, what a shock this will be to Sarah Brown. Quite the smartest girl in town, for she's often I believe fond of laughing in her sleeve.

New York, May 9.—Not only are evening gowns absolutely guileless of even a hint of a sleeve, but even the smartest hose wraps and capes and coats are sleeveless and slip their empty armholes over fair feminine arms with all the careless abandon of a perfectly good masculine waistcoat. What is lost at one extremity, however is now made up at the other for protection petticoats have returned again in scant white ruffles or sheerest organdy or Paris muslin. They are so narrow and so thin that they neither add bulk to the ankle line nor hide any of it. They quaintly resemble the old style pantalets as they peep out from under the short ruche edged taffeta skirts of the moments and are indeed a far cry from the petticoat of yore.

Indeed, in spite of the fact that they really are petticoats they are never designated as such by the designers and dressmakers but answer the name of underskirts or pantalet frills.

Appropos of not calling a spade you must never make the shocking mistake of calling a separate waist a waist—mercy no, Clarissa, its a blouse. What ever is in a name in this case there isn't much in a blouse when it comes to material. Just two layers of chiffon or a single thickness or rather thinness of bookmuslin hemstitched around the open throat line, down the front and around the plain three-quarter slightly flaring sleeves, makes up some of the choicest new models.

For an ornate touch they rely on a tautastic girdle and gorgeously tinted, usually with vested, cuffs and collar of handkerchief linen promise great popularity for the summer.

Always the belt or girdle plays a striking part in the effective ensemble of the blouse. The favorite Roman stripes are shown in smart shirtings of both silk and madras for the more tailored blouses and these to be worn with the sport skirts and coats. It is made for the placket any way so anxious is it to return to its old home after a wandering life for the last two or three seasons and transitory settlements in the front of the skirt at the side or on one hip. It is a sad blow to all 1914 Cinderellas that long pointed vamps are the rage in the slipper line. It seems rather perverse that Americans should take up the long pointed slipper and shoe just when it has been cast aside by the smart Parisian for the dainty short vamps of the erstwhile American footwear. Brought into even more prominence by the shortwater skirts the up-to-date shoe foot will prove exclusively that it is shoes rather than brains that make large understandings. It is no longer a question of "Button, button, who's got the button?" since every woman seems to have every button tacked on to every available space or cranny of some one or two of her summer costumes.

Suggestions For The Trousseau

New York, May 9.—Preparations for that great event, the June wedding, are now in progress. The bride to be is busily superintending the making of the various kowals of her trousseau. For the all-important wedding dress, I suggest the model I have used for my first illustration, which expresses both dignity and grace, qualities which should be inherent in this gown of gowns. White taffeta is the material used. The handsome silk run lace for the vestee and rolling collar. The round length skirt has a charmingly modest and graceful bustle drapery, especially becoming to the youthful bride. Moire, charmeuse, satin meteor, and crepe de Chine are charming materials for such a dress. For the veil, white tulle is especially pretty, draped from a coronet of orange blossoms, as illustrated.

For the bridesmaid's gown there is no prettier fabric than daintily tinted organdy, plain or figured. The charming model I have chosen for my second illustration is of pale yellow organdy, with triple ruffles of fine meshed net bound with bias strips of organdy. The becoming hat worn with this dress is a dream of old time leghorn levelled one in an adorable flat shape, trimmed with the most exquisitely dainty flowers. Narrow black velvet ribbon streamers of "the once upon a time" are caught at one side, with one end forming a bridle.

For her trousseau, many materials and types of wraps and gowns are suitable. One of the new materials which is most popular for summer wear is the lovely golfine, which comes in all sorts of beautiful colors and several qualities. It has all the smartness of corduroy without the weight and for sports clothes is much better than the easily mussed fabrics of former seasons.

A stunning suit for motoring or sports is made of the light weight cotton, with a straight skirt that has just a suspicion of drape from the hip line to the waist, and quite a marvelous jumper, that hovers between a coat and a sweater. This is either "walked into" after the present day manner of donning a skirt or put on over the head. A square collar rolls back from the V shaped neck, which is quite low, giving the pretty line to show the dainty blouse underneath. A three inch loose belt at the waistline finishes this thoroughly cool, comfortable, yet striking outing costume.

Then the wonderful top coats, that are made of the heavier golfine, in all the bright shades of the season, are perfect, since one need not look warm and unhappy in a motor coat, for, although beautifully dressed, one can yet be fully protected. One lovely model has the long, loose back, with a broad belt across the back, the front being long and straight, with large revers. One side of the coat is buttoned high, so that a loose draped effect is obtained. A high double black velvet collar stands well away from the neck, giving an air of jauntness to an already wonderful coat.

Beautiful raincoats in bright colors and large sporty looking checks, are among the summer suitings. Lovely straight, narrow skirts are made of these checks, which should be worn with a pretty blouse and one of the thin silk sweater coats. These are shown in the same colors as the raincoats, and are eminently smart for the well put up woman who plans for a day's outing of any sort.

For the dressy summer afternoon frock, soft white crepes, with gorgeous colored figured borders, are distinctive, as are also the same crepes with the daintiest sort of colorings.

The blouses for the summer are indeed things of beauty—so dainty and cool. The organdies are perfect in all the smart shades of yellow, blue, pink, green and rose. Most of them are trimmed with white collar and cuffs, and often bows of darker ribbons at neck and sleeves. One very smart blouse is of yellow organdy with half inch stripes of French blue, outlined with a hairline of black. The trimming consists of a white collar and cuffs, and a bow of two-inch black moire, taffeta ribbon at the point of the V-shaped neck.

Among the more desirable dressy blouses, one sees lovely white chiffton stamped with exquisitely colored flowers. These are trimmed at neck and sleeves with dainty shadow lace ruffles, and having just a line of black through the lace gives a smart touch. Beneath these waists of sheers materials are worn the daintiest of dainty corset covers. Some are shadow lace and some are dainty white batiste run with delicate pink or blue ribbons, while others have winsome Dolly Varden design on a ground of white. All, however, should be glimpsed through the fabric of the waists in a misty manner.

Many styles of taffeta coats in all colors are to be used to throw over the dainty lace, chiffon crepe and lingerie gowns, but quite the newest and smartest thing yet shown for formal occasions is a kimono shaped, medium length coat of colored net, with wide flounces, which taper toward the front. Lovely narrow feather trimming circles the neck and tops the flounces on the sleeves.

Another lovely suit is of two toned green taffeta, with a copy of the same, gathered, not only on a band around the face, but at the crown forming a stunning sort of rose, like a cock's comb, on the top of the head.

Among the summer lingerie the coolest of summer nighties are seen in beautiful washable silks. White, with tiny colored stripes and white, with pretty Dresden flowers, are to be preferred. These have the low neck and very short sleeves, finished with ribbons to match the colorings in the silks.

NEW YORK PREPARES TO HONOR NAVY'S DEAD
By Associated Press.
New York, May 9.—Final arrangements for the tribute to be paid to the navy's dead, victims of the fighting at Vera Cruz, were completed tonight with the announcement of the official program. The city's public edifices which the procession will pass, have taken on a sombre appearance, with black draperies adorning their columns and porticos and the preliminary naval movement in the ceremonial already is well under way.

Off Sandy Hook tonight the United States battleship Wyoming which left the navy yard today awaits the coming of the funeral train, which will arrive with the bodies of the seventeen dead, due to arrive at noon tomorrow, accompanied by the Mayflower, with Secretary Daniels aboard. The Montana, with the Wyoming as escort will move up the bay late Sunday. By eight o'clock Monday morning, caskets containing the bodies will have been loaded on caissons in the plaza adjoining Battery Park. Battalions from the Wyoming and the Texas and from the naval militia of New York state will be drawn up ready to commence the march at nine o'clock.

MEXICAN AUTHORITIES ARREST CORRESPONDENTS
By Associated Press.
Vera Cruz, May 9.—Walter C. Whiffen, correspondent for the Associated Press, H. S. Sutton, photographer for the Washington Post, Oliver Heuffer, correspondent for the London Express and an English correspondent, Youke were arrested at Mexico City Thursday evening. They had just arrived from Vera Cruz and the police were waiting with coaches when the train drew into the station. All were taken to jail under guard and Sutton and Whiffen are held for investigation. The two Englishmen were released and the officers who arrested them were reprimanded. Whiffen carried only a hand bag which contained a copy of the Mexican Herald. The official who searched the bag remarked, "That kind of English does not go here." Sutton carried a camera which was confiscated. He showed correspondents' credentials from Rear Admiral Badger but this had no effect. Heuffer went to the Brazilian minister who notified the British minister, Sir Lionel Carden and also called on the police to release the Americans.

The police replied that some action would be taken as soon as the chief of police had investigated the merits of the case. Rourke the other Englishman, returned here while Heuffer remained in the city.

Everybody in the town with Murphy's show. It is about the only proposition ever presented in Sulphur Springs upon which one and all agreed. It is in the mind and soul. Man and woman love to be entertained and reach the heights of serenity.—Evening News, Sulphur Springs.

Murphy's Comedians

When "Red" Wilson, after the third act of Saturday night's performance, announced that Murphy's comedians would remain in Sherman another week the hand clapping, whistling, shouting and hurrahs were deafening. To know that every man, woman and kid in the big audience greeted the news with genuine delight must indeed be gratifying to Mr. Murphy.—Sherman Democrat.

Another Tremendous Crowd

Murphy's Comedians played to another extremely large audience last night, and the play was positively up to the high standard of all the Murphy plays. The second week's engagement has started off with a boom and the chances are favorable for a record week—which is to say that all of Sherman and a portion of Denison will be at the show every night.—Sherman Democrat.

An Instantaneous Hit

Murphy's comedians certainly more than made good last night and the verdict of the big audience was "the best ever." In spite of the fact that Murphy's show was recommended by many Shreveport citizens who saw the show in other cities, the more than one thousand paid admissions entered the tent with a "You've got to show me" air. They didn't have to wait long. The excellent orchestra rendition of Busch's descriptive overture, "A Hunting Scene," which brought the listeners to their feet with a whirlwind flourish. Then the curtain went up on the play, and for exactly two hours the audience was treated to about the best article of show Shreveport has had in many a day.—Shreveport (La.) Evening Journal.

Principals In Wedding At Baptist Church Last Wednesday At Noon

Mr. and Mrs. Ben M. Bell.

An affair of more than usual interest that has been looked forward to for some time by Wichita Falls society and the society event of the season took place Wednesday at high noon at First Baptist Church when Miss Mabelle Jackson became the bride of Ben Mosley Bell, Dr. J. L. McKee performing the impressive ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of blossoms, ferns and potted plants, the altar being a bank of green. The front pews reserved for the family of the contracting parties were marked with ropes of amilax and airy loops and bows of bridal tulle. Miss Oma Bell at the piano played as a preliminary "Romantic" by Chaminade, Mrs. W. S. Robertson following with "Beloved." Charles J. Templeton then rendered "Hymoree" on the violin, followed by Ivan Marchison with a solo, "Because." The bride's party entered to the notes of the Lobengrin bridal chorus, sung by Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Marchison, with violin obligato by Mr. Templeton.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Harry Jackson, of Waco, aunt of the bride and the maid of honor, Miss Bernice Jackson, younger sister of the bride entered first coming down opposite aisles to the altar. Mrs. Jackson wore an imported crepe robe, French embroidered in pink and a white lace hat with blue plume trimmings and pink roses and carried a sheaf of oysters. The maid of honor was gowned in white embroidered crepe with wide white satin girdle and carried pink bridesmaids roses. Her hat was a garden shape picture hat trimmed with pink roses and long ribbon streamers.

Miss Carver wore an embroidered net with sash of pale blue, a Leghorn garden hat trimmed with roses and daisies with long blue streamers, while Miss Kemp was crowned in an embroidered crepe, with pink satin sash with a large butterfly bow. Her hat was of Leghorn also, in garden shape, trimmed with roses and daisies and with streamers of pink. Both maids carried arm bouquets of white carnations. The maids and matron wore silver slipper buckles, the bride's gifts. Immediately following the maids and groomsmen the bride and groom came down the aisle together, the girl's bride being attired in a King's blue silk faille traveling suit, with all accessories in harmonizing shades, the costume setting off her fair beauty to the very best possible advantage. She carried a brides' snower bouquet of bride roses. Throughout the ceremony was played softly Mendelssohn's Spring Song, quickening at the close to Mendelssohn's Recession. As the bride party was leaving the church, Mrs. Walter Robertson sang Gounod's beautiful and appropriate "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee."

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson, one of the most prominent and influential families of the city. She has resided here since childhood, is a graduate of the Academy of Mary Immaculate and attended a select finishing school in Washington, D. C. The groom is a rising young business man of this city where he has lived for a space of several years, coming here from Mississippi. Both young people are very popular among the younger society circles and have numberless friends who rejoice with them in their happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon to be spent in visiting Dallas, San Antonio and other points of interest in this state.

PHILATHEA CLASS OF BAPTIST CHURCH SHOWER BRIDE-TO-BE

One of the most charming affairs honoring Miss Mabelle Jackson was that given Monday afternoon by the Philathea Class of the First Baptist Sunday school of which the bride-to-be is a member. This was a kitchen shower given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith. The home was beautifully decorated with carnations, roses and ferns. The guests assembled at 5 o'clock. Just after Miss Jackson arrived a most excellent musical program was carried out, consisting of piano solos by Misses Theresa Smith, Lucy Huggins and Cecelia Stayton. Vocal solos by Mrs. W. S. Robertson, Miss Kathrine Cook and Little Miss Lucille Smith. After this program was completed, Mrs. W. S. Robertson began playing the wedding march. Miss Jackson blindfolded and carrying a shower bonnet consisting of postcard, dish mop, soap shaker, tea and tablespoons, knives, forks, etc., was conducted to a seat by a table which was piled high with dainty packages done up in white tissue paper and tied with delicate pink ribbon. The bride-to-be was now allowed to behold what was before her and as she untied each article giving the name of the one presenting it much merriment prevailed. Most of the utensils were in the white-enameled wash but many lovely pieces of aluminum were among them. After a social hour had been spent delicious cake and brick cream in pink and white was served by the class. Those present were: Misses Stone, Taylor, Theresa and Emma Smith, Blanche Lawler, Marie, Powell, Renfro, Stayton, Freear, Huggins, Vera Taylor, Bernice Jackson, Cook, Brown, Mesdames Filgo, Cook, Wood, Lory, Robertson, Ferguson, Brooks, Barnard, Smyre, Farris, W. ### EUREKA! GOLD IS FOUND HERE

ORE ASSAYING $10,000 TO THE TON FOUND WEST OF BURKETT

DISCOVERED AT 2200 FEET

Formation Found in "Big Lime" While Drilling for Oil—Discovery Does Not Excite

Not oil, but gold and silver ore was found at a depth of 2200 feet recently by drillers on the Ella Schulz farm west of Burkett. The ore has been submitted to competent geologists, who declare it to be rich in both the precious metals named.

While the find is interesting, it is of probably no commercial value as the cost of mining at that depth would be prohibitive and the results uncertain.

peculiar appearance was reached and specimens bore tiny particles of what appeared to be gold and silver. Mr. Urban sent the rock to a geologist and received the reply that the silver ore in the rock would pan out about $10,000 to the ton, which is an average percentage for silver ore; no figures were given as to the value of the gold ore.

This is the first time any such ore has been found in this section, and were the discovery to be made at a depth where mining was practicable, gold and silver might well be added to the mineral wealth of Wichita county.

To mine the metal it would be necessary to sink a shaft large enough to admit a man's body, to a depth of 2200 feet; it costs over $10,000 to sink an eight inch hole to that depth, and the additional cost of a hole large enough to accommodate a man's body would be several times as great. The difficulty that would be encountered in shutting the water off from such a hole would also be great and much as Mr. Urban would like to turn gold miner, he does not consider it possible.

The extent of the stratum is of course very uncertain and it may be there is only a small pocket of the ore bearing rock. Other wells in that vicinity show no such formation, although the nearest well, No. 2 Ella Schulz is 1400 feet distant.

The find has attracted much attention from local oil men and some of them favor bringing an expert geologist here to make tests and observations with a view to determining if it is possible to commercialize the discovery. Although this does not seem possible, the discovery of other ore strata, perhaps nearer the surface, might result. It has long been believed that gold is to be found in the Wichita mountains across Red River in Oklahoma, and considerable money has been spent there in an effort to locate, but without results.

Silver ore, brought from close to the surface, can be profitably mined if it runs as high as $100 to the ton and that found in the Schulz well is 100 times as rich.

CONVICT RESCUES DROWNING BOY

PLUNGES INTO DENVER TANK AND DRAGS LAD ASHORE IN NICK O' TIME

GIVEN FREEDOM AS REWARD

Just Like it Happens in Movies Convict Risks Life to Save Another's

Plunging into the waters of Denver Lake, southeast of the city, Jack Pryor, a convict, yesterday morning rescued Joe Perdue, 707 Sixth street, from drowning. Pryor was working on the county road near the scene and ran to the boy's aid when the latter's playmates began calling for help.

County Commissioner Jackson gave Pryor his liberty as a reward for his bravery and presence of mind. Perdue, who is thirteen years old, had been sailing with a party of other boys and had gotten beyond his depth. He was able to swim, but gave out and was in real danger when rescued. The other boys began crying for help and the road gang heard them. Pryor waded through the mud to the scene, plunged into the deep water and hauled the boy out by the hair. The youth was nearly dead when he reached shore and first aid measures were adopted to empty his system of the water he had swallowed. Later he was taken home by Mr. Jackson.

Pryor's action undoubtedly saved the boy, as he would have been beyond aid within a few minutes. Pryor was serving a sixty days sentence for carrying a revolver and had about ten days still to serve.

Ballard had resided at Iowa Park about a year, coming there from Oklahoma county. He was a leaser and operator and had been interested in some of the shallow development work in the Iowa Park district.

MORAN SAILS TO MEET JOHNSON

IRISHMAN WILL FIGHT BIG DINGE IN FRANCE FOR TITLE JUNE 27TH

JOHNSON IS NOW TRAINING

Black Champion Selects Suburb of Paris for Training Quarters, and Begins Work

By Associated-Press
New York, May 9.—The sailing of Frank Moran for France marks the passing of the preliminary stage in the arrangements for the heavyweight titular bout to be fought in Paris on June 27. Jack Johnson, as defender of the championship, has already begun a regular routine of training and Moran will follow suit as soon as he arrives upon the scene of the coming contest. While his plans are but tentatively outlined at present and subject to conditions that Moran will have to consider upon his arrival in Paris, Johnson has settled upon a two-month schedule of conditioning which he declares will fit him for a successful defense of the title won at Reno on July 4, 1910.

Johnson has selected Asnières, a suburb of Paris, as the site of his training camp and began his conditioning there early this week. Judging from the reports from Paris the title holder has entered upon a round of preparation which indicates his belief that the coming contest with Moran is not to be considered lightly. Despite the fact that he is within twenty pounds of the weight at which he entered the ring against Jeffries he has selected to train fully two months for the meeting with Moran. Apparently Johnson expects a lengthy bout in which there will be resource to much footwork for he gives as one of the principal reasons for his selection of Asnières as a training camp the fact that the surrounding roads are ideal for running and long walks. He has intimated that this department of his training will be one to which he will devote much attention.

The other details are not to be overlooked, however, for Johnson has arranged to surround himself with a competent staff of trainers, boxers and wrestlers which will include several of those who have aided him in preparing for past campaigns. Calista Respress has been named as trainer and it is understood that overtures have been made to a well known American trainer to journey to France to assist in the work. Respress, who has trained Johnson for several of his bouts in Europe and other parts of continental Europe, will select those French pugilists and wrestlers who will be members of the training corps. Johnson will choose such American trainers and boxers as he may decide will be of help to him during the training period.

According to Johnson, who has just closed a series of boxing exhibitions at Brussels, his arm, which was fractured during a bout with Jim Jeffries is as strong as before the accident. He states that there is no pain when he blows an opponent's blow and that he believes the recovery so complete that there is no danger of a handicap in this direction. In other respects Johnson contends that he will be as physically fit for Moran as he was for Jeffries, making allowance for the four years which have elapsed since the contest on the sage plains of Nevada.

Whatever the outcome of the bout it is evident this early that the French are preparing to greet the principals with the usual French enthusiasm. Those in charge of the arrangements are in receipt of daily requests for seat reservations and several of the more desirable sections of the Velodrome d'Issy are already sold although the coupons have not been received from the printers.

MAKES RHEUMATISM PROMPTLY DISAPPEAR

Chronic, Crippled-up Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of New Remedy are Taken

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism, and be all crippled up, and bent-out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can surely avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood, the poisonous acid, uric acid, and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly cure you.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves all the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter all the poisons from the blood and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst back-ache or overcome urinary disorders.

AUTOMOBILE TOURISTS HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Wichitans Will Meet Party at County Line and Escort it to City—Leaves Monday

The Colorado automobile tourists who are to make the "sociability tour" of Texas and the Southwest, will reach Wichita Falls late this evening, according to telegraphic advice received here yesterday. They will complete the tour three days behind their original schedule.

The telegram requested that no entertainment be provided for the men today and this wish will be observed. A number of Wichitans are planning to meet the party at the county line and escort them to this city. Tomorrow morning the visitors will be taken to Lake Wichita, leaving this city for Fort Worth at 10 o'clock.

About thirty business men of Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Manitou and other summer resorts are in the party.

Wichita Falls automobilists will leave to meet the Colorado tourists from the Elks Club at 1 o'clock this afternoon. D. P. Tolley who has charge of the arrangements asks that every automobile owner who can do so make the trip. It is planned to meet the touring party at the Wichita-Willbarger county line and pilot them to Wichita Falls by way of the oil field. It is hoped to have at least 100 automobiles go up to meet the party.

EQUALIZATION BOARDS CONVEY THIS WEEK

Both the city and county boards of equalization will begin their work this week, equalizing property values for the current year's tax collections. The city board will probably start its work Monday or Tuesday and the county commissioners will start to work on the county renditions late in the week possibly not until next week.

Indications point to a substantial increase in the city, where the values are expected to pass the eight million mark, a gain of about a million and a quarter. The county's gain will also be considerable but not as large in proportion as that of the city.

I. D. Browder For Justice of Peace.

I. D. Browder announces in today's Times for the office of justice of the peace, precinct No. 1, place No. 2, Wichita county, subject to the democratic primary in July, 1914. Mr. Browder has been contemplating making this announcement for some time and by the solicitation of his friends he has decided to make the race. He is a native Texan. His father was a pioneer settler of the city of Dallas, where Mr. Browder was born and educated. He followed farming in his early life; was deputy tax assessor under John Witt in Dallas county in 1896 and 1891 and resigned this position and moved to Gordon, Palo Pinto county, where he engaged in the lumber and furniture business for a number of years. He is well qualified to fill the position of justice of the peace having served the people of Palo Pinto county in that capacity and as notary public and town alderman for a number of years, which position he resigned to come to Wichita Falls five years ago and accepted a position as yard manager for the Alfalfa Lumber Co. He served in this capacity for nearly two years then accepted a position with the Freezer Drain Furniture Company and remained with Mr. Freezer until recently. His work and dealings have been such as to make him worthy of the position and he promises a faithful obedience to the office if the people of precinct No. 1 will give him the nomination in the July primary.

WHEN you buy a Lawn Mower you should buy a good one. A cheap, light mower will not cut our grass this year. The I. X. L. Lawn Mower which is being sold by Wichita Hardware Co., is built very strong; it has very large wheels, which adds power and enables you to cut very tall grass; the revolving knives are ball bearing, which makes it light draft; the blades are made of the finest steel; all parts adjustable that the wear from long usage can be taken up. The price of the I. X. L. Lawn Mower is no more than other so-called high-grade mowers, and a full line of them can be had at our store.

DR. YANTIS SUES FOR $120,000

PHYSICIAN ASKS HEAVY DAMAGES FROM RAILWAY COMPANY FOR INJURIES

ACCIDENT LAST FEBRUARY

Claims Nervous System Wrecked and Permanent and Serious Injuries to Body and Brain

Dr. G. R. Yantis has filed suit against the Fort Worth & Denver Railway Company for $120,000 damages on account of personal injuries. Dr. Yantis has been helpless since his fall from the platform of the Electric oil train on the evening of February 6, 1914. He is being cared for here but it is planned to take him to New Orleans this week.

His complaint alleges that he stepped on a banana peeling or some other slick and slippery substance on the coach platform and in attempting to recover his balance his foot missed the step and he fell onto the hard brick platform causing contusion of the brain and the formation of a blood clot. Artificial respiration was necessary, his petition alleges, and for more than 54 hours—he was unconscious.

As a result of his injuries it is declared that his bowels, bladder and other organs do not function properly and that he has suffered permanent and serious injuries to his brain, head and body and his entire nervous system is wrecked so that he is compelled to lie or recline at all times and when he is raised up it produces vertigo and his respiration is interfered with.

Dr. Yantis is 33 years of age and has a reasonable life expectancy of 32 years. He was making $6,000 per annum up to the time of the injury, according to his petition. His attorneys are A. A. Hughes, Fitzgerald & Cox and T. R. Boone.

PERILS OF PAULINE

Wednesday the third of the "Pauline" pictures will be shown at the Empress.

In the third installment we see Owen bitterly disappointed at his failure to injure Pauline in the airplane accident, which was one of the thrilling moments of the installment shown at the Empress two weeks ago. Owen now plots further with Hicks, in whose power he is, to decide that they must lure Pauline away from her home or from the influence of Harry Marvin. If they are to be successful with their plans. They finally locate an old sailor who agrees to tell Pauline a history of his life. They persuade Pauline to listen to this and the old sailor tells the most blood curdling stories of his life on a piratical treasure laden ship, on which he sailed as a boy. The pirate leads Pauline to believe that the ship was wrecked, but that he escaped ashore with the treasure and buried it on an uninhabited island. Fearing to tell his rescuers of the treasure, it has lain buried there all these years. Pauline falls for the story and agrees to fit out an expedition to help the old sailor recover the treasure. Harry tries to persuade her not to take the trip, stating that he distrusts Owen. Pauline, however, having perfect confidence in Owen, defends him, and the two lovers have a serious quarrel, but that he escapes Pauline refusing to allow Harry to accompany her. Harry, however, is determined his sweetheart shall not come to harm, and disguising himself as an old man, he boards the liner right in the presence of the conspirators who do not recognize him. They notice his interest in Pauline, however and fearing that he may influence her against them, they decide to do away with him.

Waiter Gone; So Is Money From Cash Register

Officers are looking for a young man employed as a waiter at the Union Station cafe who left suddenly late Friday evening with the contents of the cash register. While making change for a patron, the waiter suddenly seized the contents of the drawer, took a flying leap over the counter and was gone, wearing his apron and miffus his hat and coat. The day manager had been checked out only a few minutes before and the night manager had not yet appeared, so that the waiter was alone in the cafe at the time. He could easily have taken his hat and coat, helped himself to the money and walked out in a much less startling manner than he adopted. The money was believed to be about $25. Officers have not yet located the youth and he is thought to have left the city.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss. Frank J. ## PEACOCK SUBSCRIPTIONS INCREASED TO $1025

Wichita Falls Has Contributed One Third of Total Amount Raised To Date

A total of $1025 was Wichita Falls' contribution for the cyclone sufferers at Peacock, Texas, about $220 being added to the amount subscribed Friday. Friday afternoon and Saturday morning A. L. Huey and J. S. Bridwell canvassed the business district, securing a number of additional subscriptions.

The exceptional worthiness of this cause and the dire need of the sufferers made additional subscriptions acceptable and those who have not yet contributed still have an opportunity to do so. The subscriptions are received by the Chamber of Commerce any anyone who feels called upon to do so may notify that organization of the amount he can give. To date about $3000 has been raised in various parts of the State for the sufferers, Wichita Falls giving one-third of this amount. The subscriptions received, in addition to those noted in Friday's Times are:

AN OPEN LETTER TO WICHITA FALLS METHODISTS.

To the Methodist people of Wichita Falls, my dear brethren and sisters: Do you know our motto has ever been "a league offensive and defensive with every soldier of Jesus Christ." Throughout all our glorious history, during which we have come to be the largest Protestant denomination in the United States, it has been our boast and joy that we have not only built up our own great connection, but have helped and blessed our sister churches and all other people as well. The late Dean Stanley said in his address at the unveiling of the Wesleyan monuments in Westminster Abbey, that "when the Methodists went forth proclaiming the doctrine of assurance and salvation by faith to every man, they not only created a mighty denomination but sent a thrill of new life through all the veins and arteries of Universal Christendom." This witness is true. We have always held and do hold that every man who is a Christian is as good as every other man who is a Christian, without any regard to his denominational affiliations. We have always felt free, therefore, to invite other Christian people to help us in our meetings and we have always desired to do all we could in meetings held by other Christian people. We never invite members of other denominations to help us to a meeting and then at the close of it insult them by telling them that they are not as good as we are and that they ought to leave their church and come and join us. In other words, we are not proselytizers and sheep-stealers. We are trying to do our part as a branch of the holy Catholic church, in furthering the cause of Christ and bringing in the Universal Kingdom of God. Now it is well known that Bro. Walters and his people have already begun a meeting and he has said in the papers that the object of that meeting is the conversion of sinners and the building up of Christian people; and has declared that it is his purpose, when people are converted, to insist upon their joining the church of their choice. Nothing could be fairer than this. It is that broad, brotherly proposition that Methodist people have always made to the members of sister churches, and I write this "open letter" to every Methodist in Wichita Falls, in order that each and every one may not only be benefited by the meeting, but may do everything possible to bring the unconverted to Christ. In order to do this, there must be much self-examination, earnest prayer and faithful witnessing to the power of Christ to save. The Scriptures tell us that "no man can say that Jesus is the Christ, except by the Holy Ghost," and the Spirit of God cannot have the right of way in the heart of any man unless that man puts away his sins, makes restitution and gets right with his fellowman. The Scriptures say: "If a man regard iniquity in his heart, the Lord will not hear him." In order to get right with God, to use a modern expression, we "must come clean." It is easy enough for a man to say he believes so and so and to join the church and be baptized by any mode he prefers—a thief could do all that; but to be truly the Lord's is to turn the back absolutely upon the world, and to "know for himself, and not for another, that he has passed from death to life." Now, brethren and sisters, let us do all we can in this meeting and let us pray that many souls may be added to the Lord who are now in darkness and that we all may be more consecrated Christians when the meeting shall have come to a close.
