$2,700,000 PROFIT ON NEW HAVEN DEAL

MELLEN CONTINUES HIS TESTIMONY AT INTERSTATE COMMISSION HEARING

MORGAN'S HAND AGAIN SEEN

Loan To Boston Newspaper Is Also Discussed In Evidence—Influencing New England Legislation

By Associated Press. Washington, May 20.—Details concerning relations of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and the Dillard Company through which the latter, or 1,000 Dillard, made a profit of $2,700,000 were given to the Interstate Commerce Commission today by Charles S. Mellen, today's proceedings—while interesting, were lacking in the spectacular features of yesterday. Stress was laid upon the relations of the New Haven and the Dillard Company.

Mr. Mellen maintained that all the records of these transactions were in the hands of the commission, and spoke for themselves. He declared that Dillard was "a strong and honorable man as honorable a man as I ever knew," but he related incidents of Dillard's transactions with the New Haven with evident gusto.

Near the close of the morning session, the purchase of the Worcester, Nashua and Rochester railway by the Boston and Maine was discussed. It developed this was brought about by J. Pierpont Morgan. Mr. Mellen testified that Morgan handled the details of that purchase. The road cost the Boston and Maine nearly $2,000,000. Mr. Mellen, while he considered the property valuable, frankly said he had not approved of its purchase.

$300,000 Newspaper Loan No. 1

Mellen showed no signs of fatigue from his prolonged effort yesterday when he reappeared on the witness stand in the New Haven inquiry before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. How long he may continue on the stand it was impossible to forecast. Mr. Folk opened the hearing by asking:

"When was a loan of $300,000 made to Haskell of the Boston Herald?"

Two years or more before notes of Haskell were sold to Mr. Villard," replied Mr. Mellen.

"Asked to explain this transaction, Mellen said:

"I had known Mr. Haskell some years and I laid the case before the finance committee and they agreed to the loan."

"Was the fact that he was owner of the Boston Herald an inducement to make the loan?" asked Mr. Folk.

"It was certainly not a bad inducement."

Pending Legislation

"What was pending in the Massachusetts Legislature at the time of the Haskell loan?"

"There was always something pending in the Massachusetts legislature," Mr. Folk turned to the Boston railroad holding company bill which Gov. Draper advocated to bring the stock of the Boston and Maine under a company controlled by the State of Massachusetts. Mr. Mellen testified copies of the bill had been sent him by Mr. Choate or Mr. Byrnes. The Byrnes was Timothy E. Byrnes, vice president of the New Haven.

"Did you retain Mr. Choate to draft this bill?"

"Mr. Choate was our registered legislative agent. Everybody in New England seemed opposed to railroad ownership of trolleys. I felt an enlightened public opinion would favor railroad ownership of trolleys."

To "enlighten" public

"Did you spend $400,000 in enlightening public sentiment?"

"I know nothing of that kind."

Mr. Mellen said he knew little of the details of the work of Vice President Byrnes.

"Did he spend money to influence legislation?"

"I am sure not."

"Do you recall the prayer from the hills?"

"Yes, in general, but I know little about it."

"Did you pay for it?"

"I fancy I have to pay for all the prayers in my behalf."

"Were a large number of newspapers carried on the pay roll of the New Haven?"

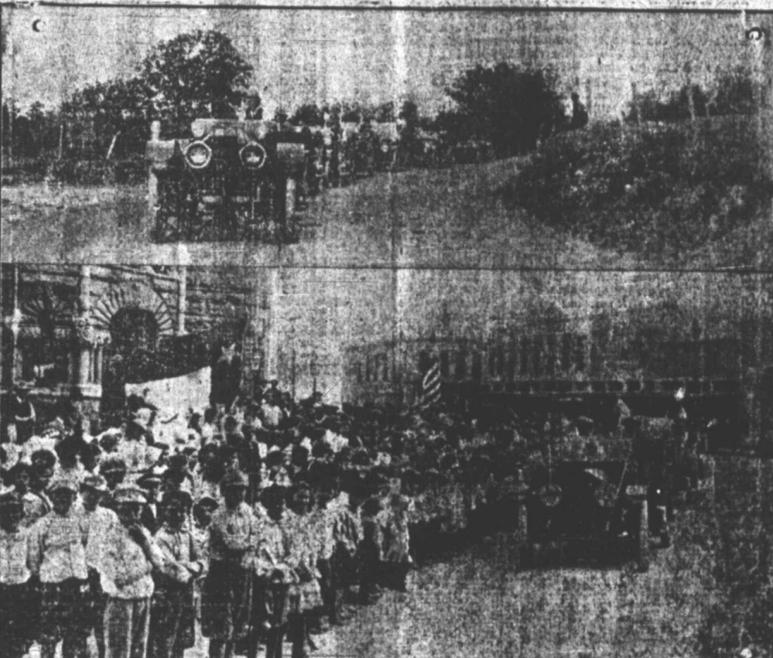

"I never heard of a large number being on our payroll."

Mr. Folk read the minutes of a director's meeting in October, 1930, at which a report of the contract with John L. Dillard, regarding the transaction in 109,948 shares of Boston and Maine was ordered approved. Mr. Dillard in previous testimony was said to have $2,750,000 out of the transaction. Mellen said that a part of the minutes, which made it appear the New Haven made a profit of $1,649,220 was incorrect.

ROOSEVELT JUMPS BACK INTO SADDLE

BUSY PROGRAM OF POLITICAL ACTIVITIES IS AHEAD FOR THIS YEAR

TO ATTEND SON'S WEDDING

Will Sail Shortly For Spain—Many Conferences With Progressive Leaders Planned

By Associated Press. New York, May 20.—Twelve hours after Theodore Roosevelt returned from South Africa he was back today in the thick of political. Col. Roosevelt, it was learned today, looks forward to one of the hardest political campaigns of his career. Except for the time occupied by his trip to Spain for the wedding of his son, Kermit, he expects to devote to politics most of his time until November.

Already a tentative plan of action has been mapped out. Col. Roosevelt has in mind one of the longest campaigns since he ever has made taking him from the Atlantic to the Pacific and several shorter trips in nearby States.

For the three days before he sails for Europe, Col. Roosevelt has planned a program that will keep him busy. His present desire is to get back in touch as soon as possible with the affairs of the Progressive party in all parts of the country and help to start the machinery for the coming campaign.

Before he left South America, he planned his work, arranging by cable for conferences with members of the Progressive party. The first of these was set for today. George W. Perkins of New York, chairman of the National executive committee and O. K. Davis of Washington, secretary of the committee, were expected at Sagamore Hill to give Col. Roosevelt a report on the situation.

He already has made appointments with Progressive leaders of several States. One of the most important of these will deal with the situation in Pennsylvania where Col. Roosevelt expects to make a hard campaign this fall. He will go to his editorial office in New York tomorrow to meet political associates. At that time he will confer with the New York State leaders.

SOME FACTS ABOUT MEATS For The Housekeeper

When I was in my old location, I had quite a few housekeepers come and talk with me or my meat cutter about the different kinds of meat that were available at low cost.

Quite a number of women thus learned something about meats that they didn't know before.

Both my meat cutter and myself are willing to continue that kind of educational work among the women of the city and we are sure that others, possibly yourself, can learn something to your advantage by coming and getting acquainted with the meat business from the inside. Any time of the day will be agreeable to us.

TIMES PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Man.

The Texas farmer is rather a queer sort of fellow, after all. From every part of the State he is complaining of the kinds and quality of laws that are enacted by our legislators. There is no complaint as to quantity. Yet, if the laws enacted are not just and equitable, and do not suit the farmers, they themselves are to blame. They are in the majority and have it in their power to elect a large majority of the law-makers. When they don't take advantage of this fact, and as a consequence do not get the kind of legislation they want, who is to blame? The whole trouble is that the farmers allow the law-making bodies of Texas to be filled by professional politicians, and so long as they allow this to be done they can't expect much relief.

The price of cotton is getting stronger nearly every day. This is encouraging to the cotton farmers. There is ample time yet in which to plant cotton. The reason for cotton raising seems favorable. And corn, it is going up also, based principally upon the discovery that Argentine has over-sold her supply. Wheat is standing around 90 cents. Oats hang around the 40 cent mark, with but little prospect that the price will go down. This makes things look good to Wichita county farmers. This is their year to be prosperous, and when the farmer prospers everybody shares in his prosperity. There are good times ahead. Don't doubt that.

Candidate Ferguson visited Houston recently. Houston is the home of Col. Ball. While there Mr. Ferguson took occasion to visit the Houston Club, which is located on the tenth floor of the splendid building owned by the Chronicle, and spent an hour there, and in a speech delivered at Fort Worth on Friday night, May 15th, gave a short description of what he saw and observed, which is about as follows: "Leaving the elevator and going into this big club room, I will tell you what I found. The first thing that arrested my eyes was about three billiard tables and two pool tables. A little further along I found eight or ten drinking tables. A little further along I found about six or seven card tables and at these tables I saw men playing cards and drinking liquor and paying the regular saloon price of fifteen cents per drink. I saw this taking place before and after the hours when saloons were closed and on Sundays when you fellows can't get a smell. In the middle of this big club room was a big fine finished saloon bar, presided over by two big yellow negroes as bar tenders. That my friends is the institution to which your prohibition candidate for governor belongs."

Col. Ball is receiving the support of at least 90 per cent of those pro Democrats who are against the open saloon. In addition to that more than half the leading anti-pro Democrats are giving him hearty and loyal support. If what Mr. Ferguson charges is true, then it is up to Col. Ball to tell us what advantage, (from a moral standpoint) has the club that dispenses liquor at all hours and at any old time of the day or night, including Sunday, over the open saloon that is forced by law to close at certain hours?

at Vera Cruz and those who may later be ordered across the Rio Grande, the twentieth century will have passed into history before the United States government will have ceased making appropriations to pay pensions on account of what will be known as the second war with Mexico.

Although the last war with Mexico ended officially on July 4, 1848, there are about 1500 veterans of that war upon the pension roll. Statistics from the pension bureau recently mailed out show that each of these veterans is drawing $30 a month from Uncle Sam.

There were 30,954 regulars and 73,776 volunteers, a total of 112,230 American soldiers engaged in the struggle, which officially began 66 years ago. The soldiers of that period must have been a hardy lot, for a boy at 15 at that time would now have passed the scriptural allotment of three score score years and ten, and would have weel on towards four score of years.

The large number of widows is accounted for by the fact that most of the soldiers married after the war and many married a second and some a third time. Soldiers of this war and their dependants received no pension for their service until nearly 31 years after the close of the war. Since that time the cost of their pensions to the government up to the close of the last fiscal year was $47,632,572.—Waco Morning News.

20 COME FORWARD ON TUESDAY NIGHT

DR. SCOVILLE PREACHES AT A GREAT THRONG ON "THE NEW BIRTH"

NEW BELIEF OF THIS TODAY

Discusses Christian Science and Spiritualism—Song Service One of Exceptional Strength

Previously converted 214
Monday's conversions 20
"You Must Be Born Again" was the keynote of the sermon of Dr. Chas. Scoville, conducting meetings at the Christian Church on Tuesday night and his powerful address brought twenty forward to accept his invitation at the close.

It was one of the most eloquent and forceful sermons Dr. Scoville has delivered here and was heard by a throng that taxed the capacity of the building, filling the entire lower floor and the galleries. He brought the need for a spiritual rebirth home to all his hearers and the responses were most gratifying, the number being unusually large for a week night service.

Tuesday night's song service was an exceptional one, the entire congregation joining in the hymns with a fervor and heartiness until as Huch Finn might have expressed it, "it was kinder usual to hear." The primary children of the Sunday school rendered one of the songs by themselves and the effect was more than one in the audience glistened as the little ones sang. A larger number of persons workers than usual made appeals last night, with encouraging results and the whole was a most successful service.

Present Day Beliefs.
With his sermons, Dr. Scoville never clings to his main theme too closely and Tuesday night he broke away from his topic long enough to take a few shots at some of the present day beliefs or as he slangily termed them "dopes." He was particularly severe in his discussion of spirit chills and Christian Science, referring also to Mormonism and Deceitism. He urged his hearers to cling to the Bible when advocates of these faiths appealed to them.

Dr. Scoville's talks are always sprinkled with anecdotes and incidents from his experiences. One story will convince his hearers with laughter and the next will cause a general digging up of pocket handkerchiefs. A vein of complete good humor runs through nearly all of his utterances and if there is an exception that sneaks of slang in some of his most eloquent appeals, it detracts nothing from the force of it. He has the knack of holding the rapid attention of his hearers and despite his digressions of saying a great deal in a very short time; his sermons are a rule, do not last over thirty or forty minutes.

The solos by Mrs. Scoville and the singing led by Mr. Marty are always brilliant features of the service and Tuesday night was no exception.

Seven Are Baptized.
A baptismal ceremony preceded last evening's services, being immersed by the pastor. Song Leader Marty taught the congregation an other new song, "Tell it Wherever You Go." Then came the usual preliminary song, and prayer service, with a song by the primary grades.

Dr. Scoville announced as his subject "You Must Be Born Again" taking his text from the story of Nicodemus. Dr. Scoville said that before he left this city he wanted to preach on the evidences furnished by the infidel world of the "miracle of Christ." He quoted the words of Nicodemus: "We know that thou art a teacher come from God" and dwell on the beauty of knowing things about Christ. Commenting on the fact that Nicodemus went to Jesus at night and his motive for him to go at night, secretly they do not do so at all.

He returned to the fact that Christ came from God and said that one could not believe the cults and "dopes" of the present day came from such a source.

Discusses Spiritualism.
When he turned the lights out and held hands in the dark to be religious, it's pretty poor religion. Holding hands in the dark may be devotional services, but it isn't religion. (Laughter.) He pointed the finger of ridicule at those who patronized fortune tellers and the like. He discussed spiritualism at considerable length, following it with some remarks on Christian Science, saying the first thing one got from the Christian Scientist was the price of the "treatment."

"Eddy says Christ never died; Paul says Christ died and came from the dead. I'd rather believe Paul."

"The religion of Jesus Christ is a religion of common sense. Any kind of religion today that does away with the common sense of the world is dead. I don't believe in such a fool as to believe in the nations, sit down and read your Bible."

Resuming the story of Nicodemus, he referred to the Pharisee's question, "Can a man be born again when he is old?" He canvassed the congregation to show that only two among the many Christians present joined the church after they were forty while hundreds had joined before they were twenty-five.

"A man can be born again when he is old, but he isn't apt to be," said Dr. Scoville, "age works out the choice of youth."

Being Born Again.
"God can't call you any louder than He has called you," he continued.

The Liepolders broke the record of goose eggs in the fifth inning of the game and put three runs across for a three to zero score, over the Post-office Stampers. The latter played an exceptionally good game, but their pinch hitters were missing and Hughes, in the box for the Liepolders, had plenty of smoke that discouraged the batters. It was a fast, sharp game and interest was high, especially when the Stampers started in such fast style.

There will be no game this afternoon, but tomorrow the Irish Lads and Liepolders will play off the tie which resulted in their affairs of last week. It promises to be a sure enough game. On Friday the Irish Lads and Black Cats will meet, completing the first round of the schedule.

ed, "you've seen the birds fly south in the fall and return in the spring; you've seen the bee gather his honey from the flowers and the squirrel lay up his nuts for the winter. Can you believe that the leaves fall from the trees and yet you can't believe God calling you?"

He said the text "You Must Be Born Again" should be preached from more than any other.

"Every man and every woman will give the real Christ a real chance on your real lives, you'll be over whelmed with the power of a new born soul," he said.

"Just because you were born of Christian parents, you think that makes you a Christian. You must be born again; if you were born in a potato patch would that make you a potato?" he continued, "just to stop stinking here; saved any more than stopping borrowing wiper out the debts of the past. You must be born again and I ask you tonight to accept this new birth."

BEHAVIOR OF U. S. TROOPS IS PUZZLING TO MEXICANS

Had Expected Looting and Pillaging of City and Advance Upon Capital

Vera Cruz, May 19.—Mexicans still are puzzled over the attitude of the United States troops here. They don't quite figure the answer. Not a man back of them but was certain that with occupation of this seaport by hostile troops would come marks capture or taking of a city of towns by Mexican soldiers. They have become uneasy when after a really wonderful exhibition of two handed fighting prowess, the youthful marines and Jackies, as soon as some semblance of order was established, went calmly about the work of feeding the women and children of the men at whom they had so recently been shooting.

The Mexicans laughed scornfully when they were told that the marines and sailors would not immediately attack Gen. Mans, the federal general and march on Mexico City. "How the Americans didn't again they could not quite get it."

"Oh, but wait until the regular troops arrive under your Gen. Funston," they then said. "When your Gen. Funston comes, it will be different. Americans merely have been waiting to go into action until the regular soldiers come."

Everyone was firmly convinced this would be the progress and the ultimate result of a military campaign. (Reached after the regulars had been here a week without the expected advance toward the capital.)

It is only now that Vera Cruzans are beginning to realize that American soldiers are giving their best city government they ever have had. Some of them, still with hatred smoldering in their hearts, against the gringos may not admit this aloud, but nevertheless Mexicans from the capital and other interior cities have flocked to Vera Cruz for safety.

All this, of course, has bred great respect and no little welcome toward American fighting men and American fighting methods. But there still is another feature that vexes these Mexicans like about the situation.

The American marines, Jack tars and regulars, not to mention the great influx of refugees, from town to town, has bred a great army of buyers who have caused intense delight to merchants. The best of it is that the money the 10,000 or more American troops spend in local shops is good, United States money and not depreciated Mexican coin. All the shops are open again and today the native dealers, caterers, restaurateurs and the like are enjoying such prosperity as they never enjoyed before. The great demand for food stuffs to say nothing of clothing has sent prices sky high.

SAYS OKLAHOMA BANKERS ARE FAVORABLE TO KELL

C. W. Sulder, cashier of the City National Bank, who was in Oklahoma City last week, says that bankers in that State are supporting Frank Kell of this city for a membership on the regional bank board for this district and that the Wichitan will receive many endorsements in that state. Mr. Sulder said, however, that Oklahoma bankers are working hard to have Oklahoma changed from the Dallas district to the Kansas City district, which they feel would serve their interests better. The general opinion is that no changes will be made in the districts as announced.

WOMAN SUBDUES PRISONER BY USING INHERITOL

Wife of Jailer Ed Gurney Proves Herself Equal to Emergency When Trusty is Unruly

A shot fired from a 45-caliber revolver in the hands of Mrs. Ed Gurney, wife of Deputy Sheriff and Jailer Gurney, caused a trusty who had defied her and who was leaving the jail yard to change his mind about the matter. However he would not obey her orders to enter the jail and be locked up.

The shot brought Justice W. J. Howard, a Confederate veteran and ex-sheriff to the scene. Judge Howard tied into the trusty who resisted, Judge Howard called for help, a young man in the crowd that had gathered responding and together they forced the resisting prisoner into a cell where he was locked up. The prisoner was a trusty who had been allowed the freedom of the jail yard. Yesterday during the absence of Jailer Gurney, who was out of town he was turned into the hands of Mrs. Gurney. She was ordered into a cell by the authority and started to walk away. She ran into the house and returned with a revolver which she fired in the ground at the feet of the prisoner. This apparently chilled his desire to leave the jail.

TEXAS FIREMEN HONOR DR. J. M. BELL'S MEMORY

Resolutions of respect for the memory of the late Dr. J. M. Bell were adopted at the State firemen's convention at Victoria last week and his name was also included in the memorial service held for firemen who had died during the year. This was the first time such action was ever taken for anyone who was not a fireman and evidences the high esteem in which Wichita Falls' late mayor was held by the firemen of Texas, who came to town in large numbers when the State convention was held in this city last year.

Decoration Day, May 30th

Will soon be here, and thousands will go to the cemeteries through the great land of ours to decorate the graves of their departed loved ones. What satisfaction to those who go and find a more suitable remembrance than a few withered flowers.

We still have time to do a limited number before the final day, if you call at once and make your selection from the many finished memorials we carry in stock for this occasion. If you haven't time to come see your TELEPHONE, and we will be glad to call and get your selection from our latest designs and samples.
