JACOB A. RILS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

MAN WHOM ROOSEVELT CALLED "MOST USEFUL CITIZEN" SUCCEEDS TODAY

END OF AN UNUSUAL CAREER

Native of Denmark Came to This Country, Taking Prominent Part in Social Service

By Associated Press.
Barre, Mass., May 26.—Jacob A. Rils, author and social worker, died at his summer home here today after a long illness.

Jacob August Rils became, through his work in behalf of the poorer people in New York, "the most useful citizen," of the metropolis, according to a tribute once paid to him by Theodore Roosevelt, his intimate friend.

As an almost penniless immigrant, he obtained knowledge of the slums at first hand and found conditions there so repellant that he consecrated his whole life to warfare against wretchedness.

Rils was the thirteenth child of a Latin teacher in Ribe, Jutland, Denmark. He was born in 1849. Preparing at the literary career which his father had cut out for him, young Rils decided to work with his hands and became a carpenter's apprentice. The vocation he had chosen did not prevent him, however, from falling in love with Elizabeth Nielsen, daughter of one of the richest men in his native town. But she refused him, and when Rils was twenty-one years old, he learned his trade, he embarked for New York with only $40 in his pocket. He spent half the sum for a heavy navy pistol as soon as he landed "to fight Indians and desperados."

Had Varied Career
Rils led a varied career during the following six years. He built sawmills in a Pennsylvania construction camp, mined coal, made bricks, drove a team and peddled flat irons and books. At twenty-seven he spent his last cent in reaching New York, hoping to enlist through the French consul in the French army against Germany for the Franco-Prussian war, but his services were refused, and Rils was forced to accept a beginner's place as a reporter for a New York news bureau. At the very first he made his

With only $75 capital and notes for $375, he succeeded in buying the "Brooklyn News," a paper which was on the verge of bankruptcy and made such a success with the property that he was able to sell it at a considerable profit a few years later. He returned to Denmark and married the girl who had refused him when he was a carpenter's apprentice. This wife died in 1895 and two years later Rils married Mary Phillips of St. Louis.

As a reporter on the New York Tribune and later on the New York Sun Rils took up his real work in social fighting. While attending to routine duty as a police reporter, he worked day and night to improve living conditions. One of the first of his campaigns was against the impurity of the city water, and it was his fight which finally led to the purchase of the Croton water-shed to assure safe drinking water for New York.

Social Service Record

He brought sunlight to the tenement districts by forcing the destruction of tenements. He entirely cleared Mulberry Bend, one of the worst tenement sections in the city, and replaced the squalid home by shady parks.

Theodore Roosevelt was Police Commissioner of New York when Rils attacked the evils of police station-holding houses. He won his point and incidentally a strong ally in Mr. Roosevelt. Rils drove bake-shops out of tenement basements; he fought for laws abolishing child labor; and was largely instrumental in getting the passage of "the briefest, wisest, and best statute on the books of New York," among them the principle that hereafter no school shall be built without an adequate playground.

After twenty-seven years as a reporter, Rils resigned to continue his fight by writing and lecturing. Among the products of his pen are: "How the City of Half Lives," "The Children of the Poor," "The Making of an American" (his autobiography), "The Battle with the Sluts," "The Children of the Tenements," "The Old Town," "Theodore Roosevelt, the Citizen," and "Hero Tales from the Far North."

SHOOT AT FEDERAL TROOPS IN COLORADO STRIKE ZONE

By Associated Press.
Trinidad, Colo., May 26.—For the first time since they assumed control in the strike district of the Colorado coal fields, the United States troops were fired on last night. The shooting, it was learned today, occurred at a miners' camp at Segundo near Trinidad, where twenty shots were fired at a patrol from a hillside overlooking the camp. A trooper who had dodged a missile thrown at him through a window answered a shot fired at him from the darkness. Col. Lockett, commanding the federal troops, would make no comment on the incident.

POSTPONEMENT OF NEW HAVEN HEARING

WILSON AND McREYNOLDS RUMORED TO HAVE HAND IN DELAY

FOUR WITNESSES ARE SICK

Hearing To Be Resumed June 3—Books of Morgan Company Are To Be Examined Meanwhile

By Associated Press.
Washington, May 26.—Further testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission on financial affairs of the New Haven railroad was postponed today until June 3 to permit special examiners to inspect the books of J. P. Morgan & Company and personal papers of the late J. P. Morgan. Special examiners of the Interstate Commerce Commission will make the examination.

Four important witnesses whose testimony is desired still are too ill to appear. Samuel C. Morchese, George McCulloch Miller, Devere Warner and Morton F. Plant—today sent physicians' certificates to the commission to show that they were too ill to go on the witness stand.

Speculation As To Delay.
The announcement that further taking of testimony would be delayed came after a conference of the commission; Commissioner McChord announced that the wait was to permit the inspection of the Morgan books and that in the meantime the commission would consider various phases of the case.

The delay coming quickly upon yesterday's conference of President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds and a persistent report that the investigation probably would be halted, caused a great deal of speculation but there was nothing official to bear out the view that the conference was stopped or that inquiry was delayed because of this.

Ledyard Wants To Testify

Lewis Cass Ledyard made a statement saying he wanted to deny much of the testimony of Mr. Mellon and protests against the hearing being closed without his testimony being taken. Mr. Ledyard was handed a letter written by Mr. McChord under today's date, saying:

"Developments have been such that the commission has deemed it advisable to withdraw the subpoenas heretofore served upon you. Should you desire to appear voluntarily, waiving all immunity by the testimony you may give, the question of your being a witness will then be determined." Mr. Ledyard announced he would accept the suggestion that he be a voluntary witness.

Written statements were produced at the hearing today showing that a meeting of New England Navigation company directors on July 9, 1909, an agreement between the New Haven and Navigation company, John L. Dillard and the Second National Bank of New Haven for the sale of 109,948 shares of the common stock of the Boston and Maine railroad (the Boston Railroad) Holding Company was approved and the president was authorized to negotiate the sale. The transaction was approved by the New Haven directors at a meeting held on the same date.

Examiner David Brown told of efforts he had made yesterday to see William Rockefeller in New York. He was informed both at Mr. Rockefeller's office and home that he had been away several weeks.

LIMESTONE COUNTY SCENE OF MANHUNT FOR NEGRO

Accused of Shooting White Man Sunday—Five Others in Jail at Fairfield

By Associated Press.
Fairfield, Texas, May 26.—About one hundred possesmen this afternoon on a manhunt for a Negro, a white man reported that they believed they had the negro cornered in a bottom a few miles from here. Thomas on Sunday waylaid James Casey and killed him. Casey had gone to collect a debt for a horse from Thomas. Five other negroes suspected of connection with the crime are now in jail here. While the manhunt has produced excitement throughout this section of limestone county, it is believed the negro will be brought here for trial if he posse captures him. Among the five negroes in jail here is the father of Thomas; the elder Thomas refused to comment on the shooting or to say whether he had any part in it. An effort probably will be made to spirit him out of town in case of trouble.

WANT DEFINITE PLAN FOR LAND PROBLEM

UNITED STATES' INSISTENCE ON THIS POINT AGAIN THREATENS TO DISRUPT

INTERRUPTS SMOOTH SAILING

Mexican Delegates Decline to Declare Position, But Don't Want to Block Progress

By Associated Press.
Niagara Falls, May 26.—A sudden halt today in the peace negotiations today when all seemed going well in the mediation conference. The Mexican delegates said they had concluded to issue no pronouncement on the land question. Everyone, amazed at the sudden step, was speculating upon the reasons for it when the American delegates dashed up in their automobile. There was a hurried visit to the room of the mediators and a prolonged and earnest "conversation" began. It was obvious there must be some more definite assurance regarding the land question to meet the declared purpose of President Wilson. Precisely how it was to be worked out was not altogether clear, but little doubt was felt by those participating that it would be worked out.

The Mexican delegates issued a statement that they would not allow the agrarian question to disrupt the proceedings. After the conference between the mediators and the American delegates, Justice Lamar dictated the following statement:

"We have begun to discuss the details of a plan of pacification. Upon a number of these we find ourselves in substantial agreement; others still are under consideration and as to them there has been no disagreement; it is of course improper for us to specify the particular points on which we have agreed or those which we have advanced for further consideration."

The Mexican delegates had contemplated making their position clear on various phases of the subject but after consideration they agreed to defer the announcement indefinitely. The American delegates and the mediators went into conference shortly before noon. It was the first talk they had had since late Sunday night; the interval has been occupied in conferences between the diplomats and Mexican delegates.

Terms of Home Rule

Imperial Parliament remains supreme, but Ireland is given real autonomy in regard to purely Irish affairs, subject to certain reservations and safeguards.

Irish Parliament, to sit in Dublin consisting of a Senate and a House of Commons.

Irish Senate of 40 members, at first nominated by Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. They will hold office for terms of five years. After expiration of first term they will be elected under proportional representation, as follows: Ulster 14, Leinster 11, Munster 9, and Connaught 6.

Irish House of Commons of 104 members, elected by existing constituencies on July 1, 1914. When Asquith offers a bill of six years exclusion of individual counties; if so decided by popular vote; opposition rejected this offer; passed second reading in original form April 6, vote 358 to 276.

Definite No Hedge

The Mexicans hope to meet the United States half way in the adoption of some suggestions to be submitted to the new provisional government in Mexico, which might be used as a finger pointing the way to a final solution of the vexed land question. The Mexican land question is recognized by all as a fertile breeder of revolutions. It is virtually conceded here that insistence by the United States for a guarantee in precise terms, cannot be met since the Mexican representatives have no power to bind such an independent government as this mediation conference aims to bring into existence.

The delegates from the United States doubtless will have to content themselves with the best pledge the Mexican delegates are able to give and to rely upon this promise, that the arrangement will be honestly carried out.

The Mexican delegates are about to file a list of suitable persons from which to choose a provisional president, the American government and the mediators to indicate which one would be acceptable. They expect that the provisional president will appoint a cabinet representing the various political interests of the country, and that there shall be assured a fair election for a new president and a chamber of deputies.

They fully expect that the provisional government, established as a result of the mediation is to be accorded prompt recognition by the United States. They are very hopeful of the success of the program as outlined.

LABOR EXEMPTION MATTER BALKS TRUST LEGISLATION

By Associated Press.
Washington, May 26.—Representative Webb of the House Judiciary committee and Representatives Tarilla and Floyd conferred with President Wilson today over the Clayton anti-trust bill. The three members also met Secretary Bryan for a short conference. Representatives of labor organizations insist that such organizations shall be exempted absolutely from the effects of the anti-trust legislation.

The committee is unwilling to make any such sweeping concession, but there is a disposition to compromise if it can be done without too radical a change in the Clayton measure. A tentative understanding has been reached among House leaders to add to the bill the so-called labor union exemption provision and an additional provision that such organizations and members thereof, in themselves shall not be construed to be in restraint of trade or in conspiracy in violation of the anti-trust law.

Morley's Vote on Home Rule Bill Marks End of One of Parliaments Most Bitter Contests

History of Home Rule

1874—First Irish Home Rule Party formed under leadership of Isaac Butt.
1879—Land League founded by Michael Davitt.
1880—Charles Stuart Parnell became leader of Irish Party; declared he would never be satisfied "until we have destroyed the last link which keeps Ireland bound to England."
1880-5—Premier W. E. Gladstone passed Land and Coercion Act and imprisoned Irish members.
1882—Phoenix Park murders, Dublin.
1884—Fenian outrages in England.
1884—Gladstone converted to Home Rule.
1886—First Home Rule bill introduced; rejected by the House of Commons on the second reading by majority of thirty, thus splitting Liberal Party.
1893—Second Home Rule bill introduced; passed by Commons, but rejected by Lords 419 to 41.
1912—Third Home Rule bill introduced by Premier Asquith, April 12.
1912—Passed by Commons Jan. 16, vote 367 to 257; rejected by Lords Jan. 29, vote 325 to 69.
1912—Re-introduced in following session May 7; passed second reading in Commons June 9, vote 369 to 270; third reading July 7, vote 352 to 243; rejected for second time by Lords July 15, vote 392 to 64.

1914—Introduced for third time March 5; debate on second reading began March 8. When Asquith offered six years exclusion of individual counties; if so decided by popular vote; opposition rejected this offer; passed second reading in original form April 6, vote 358 to 276.

Home Rule Will Degrade Status of Ulster

Home Rule will degrade the status of Ulster by impairing its relationship to the Imperial Parliament.

It will involve the entire Catholicism of Irish education in all its branches.

It will seriously injure Ulster's material prosperity—industrial, commercial and agricultural.

London, May 26.—Upon the rejection of the home rule bill by the Lords which is taken for granted, it will automatically become a law with the King's signature, and within the next twelve months the new Irish Parliament will be sitting at Dublin. The bill itself provides that it shall not become operative for eight months from the date of its passage nor is its effect to take place until fifteen months; but there is a special provision which compels the organization of the Dublin Parliament within a year. That the measure will receive the royal assent is a foregone conclusion, notwithstanding the flood of Unionist petitions which have been poured into Buckingham Palace asking His Majesty's veto. Although constitutionally King George would have the right to withhold his approval, it is known that he has not the slightest intention of doing so.

The progress of the Home Rule bill through the Commons this year was marked by one of the fiercest parliamentary battles in the country's history, precipitated by the arming of 100,000 Ulster Volunteers sworn to resist operation of the act, and leading almost to the disruption of the government. The regular army was on the verge of mutiny due to the blundering of the War Office in permitting officers to question its orders regarding service in Ulster; War Minister Seely was forced to resign from the cabinet; Field Marshal John French chief of the Imperial Staff, and Sir J. S. Ewart, Adjutant General, when they discovered they had been misled into signing a compromise memorandum with the recalcitrant officers, quit the service in disgust; and Prince Minister Asquith felt compelled, in order to prevent further undermining of the government's authority over the army, to take charge of the war portfolio himself, and to go before his constituents in East Fife for re-election as a member of Parliament.

Irish Parliament has been limited power to tax, but not to impose customs duty save on articles already dutiable in the United Kingdom. There are restrictions on legislation on income tax, state and stamp duties. Growth in receipts from revenue other than taxes imposed by Irish Parliament will go to diminish the deficit ($10,000,000 at present).

Forty-two Irish members (or one per 100,000 of population) will sit in Imperial Parliament at Westminster, instead of 102 as at present. If parties were divided as at present this would give representation at Westminster of 34 Nationalists and eight Unionists.

Bill to take effect not earlier than eight months after passage or later than 15 months as may be ordered by the King in the Council.

The Case For and Against Home Rule Nationalists' Arguments

Ireland's spirit of nationality demands self government.

No identity of characteristics or economic conditions between Great Britain and Ireland.

Act of Union, passed in 1801, was result of bribery, corruption, and fraud.

It has crushed trade and industries, weighted Ireland with unjust taxation, fostered discontent and disaffec-

ONE SIX YEAR TERM FOR PRESIDENT, URGES CLARK

Speaker Favors Making Change in 1920 So As To Affect Taft, Wilson or Roosevelt

By Associated Press.
New York, May 26.—Speaker Champ Clark, in an address last night to the graduates of a commercial school, declared that he would like to have the president elected for six years with the provision that after that he be "eternally ineligible."

"We should elect presidents for six years," he said, "and hold them to one term. As it is now, a president spends most of his first term trying to get back again. We should do away with the customs of inauguration particularly on March 4. They are merely spectacles for sightseers. Elections should be held on the last Monday in October. This should be done not before or later than 1920. This would give Roosevelt, Wilson and Taft an opportunity to get another term before the one-term law went into effect."

One Girl Has to Be Carried Into Court—Precautions are Taken at Epsom Track

By Associated Press.
London, May 26.—An almost uncanonically marked contrast to recent police court scenes in which militant suffragettes participated, prevailed today at the London session during the trial and conviction of the female vandals of the National Gallery and Royal Academy; several window smashers in recent suffragette raids in the West End were sentenced at the same time.

Six months' imprisonment was ordered for the picture destroyers while the window smashers in all cases were condemned to terms of four months. Several of the women refused to give their names and were identified by outsiders. One frail girl, convicted as a window breaker was so weak from the effects of a hunger strike that she had to be carried to court by women wardens. She collapsed in a huddled heap, her body quivering and her hands clutching convulsively. Eventually it was necessary to give her a restorative.

Tells Why She Did It.
Frieda Graham, the suffragette who smashed several valuable paintings in the National Gallery on May 22, told the court, however, that she had attacked the pictures "as a protest against King George's illegal and unconstitutional action in refusing to accept a delegation of women." She said:

"What are five pictures compared with 80,000 pictures by the greatest artist of all which are being shamefully damaged and degraded by men each night?"

Precautions at Race Track

Mary Spencer, who damaged a picture at the Royal Academy on May 22 also told the judge that the only way left for women to express their views was to "damage property, as they respected human life too much to destroy it."

Extraordinary precautions have been taken at the Epsom race course to prevent any repetition of last year's tragic occurrence in the running of the Derby when Emily Wilding Davidson met her death by jumping into the course. A force of 2000 police will be on duty during the race meeting while extra barriers have been put up around the course.

The arrangements to prevent King George and Queen Mary being subjected to annoyance by suffragettes have been made as perfect as possible.

TRIED TO KISS HIS GIRL, TWO ARE DEAD AS RESULT

Girl Falls While Struggling and Dies—Man's Fourth Attempt To Suicide Succeeds

By Associated Press.
Lisle, Ill., May 26.—Reynold A. Barr, leaving a note declaring that his slaying of his sweetheart, Florence Bentley at Bowmers Groves, three miles from here last Saturday night was accidental, jumped beneath a moving train here early today and was killed.

It was his fourth attempt at suicide. In the note he said that he took a drug twice in an effort to die beside the body of his sweetheart but both times failed. In desperation he next jumped into a quarry pit, but he lit in the stagnant water and "I couldn't sink," said the note. The clothing on his body was still wet when taken from the track.

The note said that Miss Bentley was killed when he tried to kiss her; he screamed and he placed his hand over her mouth. In the ensuing struggle her neck was broken; anyway, she was dead.

In an agony of remorse and fear he sat beside her for some time, seeking to find a spark of life; finally he gave up hope and went to Aurora where he purchased poison. He returned and lying beside the girl's body swallowed it. After a while he awoke. Again he made the trip to Aurora, says the note, and again returned with poison. That also was a failure. Jumping into the quarry between here and Aurora followed.

GIRL BORROWS DIME FOR POISON AND ENDS LIFE

Dallas, Texas, May 26.—With a dime which she borrowed from a friend, Miss Martha Norment, a telephone operator twenty-four years old, bought poison yesterday, and last night was found dying in her rest room of the building where she works. She died in a few minutes. Relatives could give no cause for her act. A brother-in-law from Kleberg arrived today to take charge of the body. The girl's mother lives in Bastrop.

SAVS REPUBLICANS WILL REGAIN POWER

SENATOR BORAH OF IDAHO ADDRESSES PARTY CONFERENCE AT DETROIT

THINKS AMALGAMATION NEAR

Believes Large Progressive Vote Was More a Protest Than an Actual Revolt

By Associated Press.
Detroit, Mich., May 26.—A glowing picture of the future of the Republican party reunited with the Progressive element which left it in 1912 was painted here today by Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, speaking at a statewide "conference" of Republicans.

"The Republican party," said the senator, "is coming back into power. The proof of it is on every hand. The trend is unmistakable. I had a year ago that the amalgamation which would take place would be an amalgamation of the voters, not the assumed leaders. I said furthermore, that that was the only amalgamation that was worth while. The party who voted the third party ticket to the number of four million for reasons entirely satisfactory to them can neither be questioned as to their integrity of purpose or their patriotism. But that it was a protest and not a manifestation of purpose to permanently unite and its policy is now established by facts and figures which cannot be doubted."

The Party's Task.
"Now in view of this pronounced and unmistakable purpose of those who voted the third party ticket to ally themselves with the Republican party, in view of the determination to support its principles and its policies, what is the task before us?—It is unquestionably to make our party equal to the tremendous problems which now concern us. It is to build up in this country, out of the traditions the achievements and the prestige of the past, the duties and obligations of the present and the hopes and aspirations of the future, an organization efficient, militant and progressive—worthy of its old days and equal to the obligations which now rest upon us. It is our duty to make it clear that the Republican party is to be as it was in its best days—a thoroughly progressive party. We ought not to assume for a moment or concede for a moment that because the party lists fall to the right of power there is going to be any compromise with the forces which brought it near its ruin. There is in this country a powerful influence for the bad in politics and it will take possession of any party in the world, if it can, which is enjoying power. This kind of an influence does not fight a party in the open. It holds itself in readiness to direct the course of any party which happens to be in power. With such influence there can be no compromise. We are to have a party which is going to meet and solve the great problems which a new industrial life and a new social condition have imposed upon us."

The Nation's Problems

"No man living in this splendid age, amid these exhilarating environments, can afford to permit the corroding poison of pessimism to enter his soul. But on the other hand, the curse of our age is that cold, cruel, selfish conservatism which, living in its ease and comfort, enjoying wealth and all it brings, refuses to see of sympathy with the conditions of those disciplined, able to struggle, and of plenty are bordering on the line of hunger and misery, who refuse to see the new conditions or the new problems which must be met and dealt with in the same spirit and with the same courage and progressive sense that our fathers met the problems of their age. The great and almost superhuman task, my friends, is not the gathering of wealth but its fair and equitable distribution."

"What we want in this country is a party which will do the simple but profound thing which Lincoln did, that is gather up the common sense, the common honesty, the common courage, the common righteousness of the common people of this country and organize it into a militant, progressive, disciplined, able to struggle, and social justice and the it will under the constitution and laws of this blessed old republic."

MAKES SUCCESSFUL TEST OF NEW GASOLINE DEVICE

J. F. Rieg's auto used to Henrietta yesterday to give the new gas economizer which was designed by Messrs. Smith and Ferguson a trial. He drove over on one and three-fourths gallons of gasoline. He attached the economizer on his car just before starting home and used only one and one-fourth gallons of gasoline on his return. This trial proves that the economizer is a saving in gasoline bills and will be a success and saving to owners of autos.

BELIEVED FULLY 100 WILL BE

IN JUNE

CIRCUIT MAY BE INCREASED

Nacogdoches and Abilene Apply for Membership—1,000 Special
Purse Now Raised

Secretary Jeffries of the Texas Short Shift racing circuit has received letters from the associations at Nacogdoches and Abilene asking for dates in the circuit. The matter will be laid before the executive committee of the circuit at an early date.

There are now nearly fifty horses in the stables at the lake track. This morning Mr. Jeffries received a letter from a California racing man saying that he was shipping six horses here to race the circuit.

Letters are being received from horsemen daily and it is now apparent that the first estimate of 100 horses for the local meet will be greatly exceeded.

The guarantee for the thousand dollar purse for the free for all pace has been subscribed and notice is being sent out to horsemen. It is believed that this guarantee will bring some

LECTURE ON WHITE SLAVERY DELIVERED MONDAY NIGHT

Noted Rescue Worker Addresses Large Crowd at Christian Church—
Tells Forceful Story

Rev. W. T. Upchurch, a notable figure in the rescue work of this country, addressed an audience of several hundred at the First Christian Church Monday night, telling them many of the horrors of the white slave traffic, and what is being done to combat. His talk dealt to some extent with the work in Dallas where the reservation has been abolished, and in Waco where the license system once prevailed.
The speaker drew some vivid pictures of the evils of the white slave system, of the methods employed by "cadets" to lure girls to their ruin;
he charged that the saloon was in many instances allied with the traffic and mentioned the dance hall and the joy ride as adjuncts to the immoral business. Mr. Upchurch was very earnest in his remarks and quoted the Scriptural injunctions to Christians as to their duty toward those who have fallen. He said that had a black slavery been in the days when it thrived, it was nothing as compared to the horrors of the white slave traffic today.
Mr. Upchurch related some of the experiences of rescue workers and told how many girls had been saved from lives of shame. He was not an advocate of reformation, he said, as much as he was of regeneration.
There are six members of the Upchurch party and some excellent music was furnished in connection with the service.

PANAMA WORKERS WILL BE INVITED TO THIS SECTION

Are Planning to Organize Farming Colony in One of Southern States When They Return

Following up an Associated Press dispatch in The Times of Sunday, stating that many laborers at Panama who will soon be out of work when the canal is finished are planning to establish an industrial farming colony somewhere in the Southern States, Secretary Miller of the Chamber of Commerce has written to Canal Zone officials in an effort to get in touch with the men and induce them if possible to locate in Northwest Texas.

It is thought that this section can offer much to the colonists and there is plenty of land available in this section upon which they might colonize. As soon as Mr. Miller gets in direct touch with those back of the movement he will see that Wichita Falls literature is sent to them.

NEW HUNGARIAN CAFE IS FORMALLY OPEN MONDAY

A new eating place is available for the hungry ones of this city today, being the Hungarian Cafe. The informal opening was held last night, a large number availing themselves of the opportunity to call and inspect the premises. The rooms over the northwest corner of Seventh and Ohio have been fitted up in a very attractive manner and the elevation assures coolness and comfort. The interior finishing is very artistic and the furnishings comfortable and up to date. This cafe is under the management of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nathan late of Mineral Wells and they expect to operate it along the line of the well known Joseph resort in Fort Worth, making a specialty of German and Hungarian cooking though by no means confining their culinary talent to such dishes.

What Does Good Meat Service Mean to You?

Perhaps I ought to put it this way, "What do you expect when somebody offers you good meat service?"

The reason I ask this is that I want to find out more fully just what you and the other housekeepers in town expect when you order a piece of meat. Now I am sure that you have certain ideas as to what you ought to get and I believe that my meat service comes pretty close to being exactly what you expect. If not, I don't think it would take very much to make it such and then perhaps we could do business.

Suppose you visit my meat department and let's have a little talk about this meat question, especially for the hot summer months. It won't cost you anything to try it and it may result in your getting something better in meat service than you have been accustomed to. Call for Mr. Morgan personally when you come.

Swept up the chimney to the night
They sat and looked at me
They found me fair by that firelight

TIMES PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Mgr.

Everybody is rejoicing over wheat prospects, and we are informed that one of Wichita county's by-products, the watermelon, is also looking promising at this time.

In just about three weeks all Texas editors who are wise will be packing their other shirt, hanging a batch of reprint on the hook for copy, and digging up advertising contract transportation (approved by the railroad commission) for Wichita Falls. Better pay the boys off before you go, because we don't intend to let you get back by Saturday night, by any means.

The Times on Monday published a very able sermon by Rev. Clark Smith, new pastor of the First M. E. Church and it has the promise of others from the same source. The Times is not only willing, but anxious, to give space to such things in its Monday issues and invites each and every local minister to lend his co-operation. The manuscript of the sermon, or an outline of it, sent to the Times office, will receive careful attention, and the Times hopes to make this a regular feature of each Monday's paper.

Judge Soury has promised to deal gently with farmers who are summoned for jury service and who are needed in the harvest fields at the same time. Wichita county farmers, it must be admitted, do not often have the opportunity to gather such a crop as is now awaiting the binders, and they can serve their country on the jury any old time. Jury duty is one of the requisites of good citizenship, but bread and butter form a still more essential requisite.

A man who can bolt his party, organize a new one, have himself nominated for president of the United States, and poll 4,000,000 votes, all within a period of four months, is a man to be reckoned with. Then why ask the question: Will Roosevelt be a candidate for president in 1916? Of course he will. There is no human power that can prevent such an outcome. The Republicans will be forced to endorse his candidacy and what he stands for, or go down in defeat. It may endorse Roosevelt, and yet be defeated, but with Roosevelt at the head of the reunited Republican party, the Democrats will have their hands full to elect their candidate—it matters not whether it be Wilson, Bryan, Underwood or Clark. Roosevelt is a most wonderful man—a vote getter who is second to none. Democrats had just as well make up their minds that they are not going to have a three-cornered presidential race in 1916. Therefore the party can hope to gain no friends by keeping in office and power men who are unfriendly to it. The party has a chance to greatly strengthen itself during the remainder of the present administration. If it neglects to do this, and by reason of that fact gives aid and strength to the Republican party, those who have worked for a party victory will have good right to become discouraged. So long as there remains a Democratic opponent and cause of adding, federal

THE NICKEL ACCOUNTED FOR

The Wichita Falls Times printed the following paragraph from an Eastern exchange:

An editor who started about twenty years ago with only $50 is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is owing to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business, and the fact that an uncle died and left him $89,899.50.

A correspondent writes in to ask State Press to please print a surmise as to what became of the 50 unaccounted for. The request is perfectly legitimate, but wholly superfluous. A newspaper man can discover so many different ways of spending a nickel, so many odd, quaint and costly little extravaganzas, and so many queer, curious and unaccounted places where his patronage is tolerated, even though not exactly invited—a newspaper man can find so numerous causes and occasions for getting rid of his five-cent piece it would be practically impossible to guess definitely at the probable disposition of the coin in question. (But if State Press had to guess under penalty of hanging without benefit of clergy, or imprisonment without the aid of comfort of the suspended sentence—if State Press were compelled to guess right or fall victim to punishment, he would hazard his life or liberty on the likelihood that they, apocryphal editor whose accounts showed a shortage of five cents—State Press would bet his life that the editor above set out got rid of that nickel in exchange for a soothed conscience. In other words, State Press guesses that the editor put the nickel in the missionary box. All editors S. P. knows are wild over missions, especially foreign missions.—State Press in Dallas News.

Chicago Futures. Chicago, May 26.—Although the wheat market took an upward slant today the advance was not held, except for May in which trading lacked color. Cables afforded the basis for the temporary upturn but proved insufficient to overcome the influence of the faltering outlook for the domestic harvest. After opening unchanged to 1-8 higher, prices receded to slightly below last night's level. Corn rose on account of coverings by shorts who found offerings light. Quotations reacted though when wheat began to sag. Continued dry weather and increasing complaints of damage gave strength to oats. SLAUGHTER HOUSE NEED IS BROACHED

MATTER RECEIVES ATTENTION OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS

CROP OUTLOOK DISCUSSED

May Take Steps To Bring Labor Here If Farmers Need—J. C. Ward Elected Director

The question of a municipal slaughter house was discussed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly session Tuesday morning and a committee of three was named to meet with the city council to go over the matter and see what might be done toward the establishment of such an institution here.

Myles O'Reilly brought the matter before the attention of the directors. He said he had been led to make an investigation through a remark made by a stranger in a restaurant. The man had remarked that he wouldn't eat meat in Wichita Falls. O'Reilly said that he very patriotically demanded to know why the man wouldn't eat meat in Wichita Falls, telling the stranger that Wichita Falls restaurants were as good as any in the State.

After a short discussion a committee comprising Mr. O'Reilly, J. B. Marlow and Frank Cullinan was named to discuss the matter with the city council.

J. B. Marlow Presides. In the absence of President R. E. Huff, Vice President J. B. Marlow presided at the session of the directors. Those present were: Messrs. Marlow, Carrigan, Kell, Taylor, Blair, Kemp, O'Reilly, Pennington, Hardy, Boyd, Gates, Smock, Cullinan and Huey.

Secretary Miller read a letter from John T. Watkins of Greeley, Colo., who said he had formerly been engaged in the creamery business and was planning to re-engage in the business. He said that if after looking over the field here he thought it a good location he would establish a creamery here provided he was assured of a butter fat supply. The directors ordered that Mr. Watkins be invited to come to Wichita Falls.

Secretary Miller was authorized to attend the meeting of the Southern Association of Commercial Executives at Vicksburg, Miss., June 4, 5 and 6th.

J. C. Ward Director. The resignation of W. G. Long from the board of directors which has been on file for some time was accepted, Mr. Long having left the city. J. C. Ward was elected a director to succeed him.

Crop prospects were reviewed, Mr. Kell and others gave it as their opinion that the wheat crop was the largest ever raised in Wichita county. Mr. Kell estimated the yield at well above twenty bushels per acre. The question of securing help for the harvest was raised. Mr. Blair moved that all members of the board of directors over forty-eight years of age and under fifty be asked to tender their services for the harvest. Mr. Kell raised the point that the members thus qualified wouldn't be any account.

Conflicting views as to whether there would be enough help for harvest was given. It was decided to wait and see how the farmers were coming out, then if it was seen that there was not enough help to make an effort to bring outside labor here.

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening

IT'S hard to get good results making biscuits with lard; they're heavy, tough and soggy. The price of butter is prohibitive, and butter quality also varies like the weather. The one absolutely sure way to get biscuits that are light, creamy and palatable is to use Mrs. Tucker's Shortening.

For Light, Palatable Biscuits and Cakes

For frying meats, fish, vegetables, etc., Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is the purest, best and cheapest. 5-lb. to 10-lb. cans.

"Let the Buyer Beware!" The public does not want cheap things now. It is educated. It wants to buy good things. It demands value for money, and it knows, sooner or later, if it doesn't get it. It shuns the place where it has been "stung," the place where it was sold a cheap article for a cheap price. Quality has superceded price. Satisfaction is the lure that draws the business. It is the day of giving most for the money, and as we are on the jobbers list we, of course, get jobbers' discounts which enables us to sell you for what it costs the smaller dealer—then make a profit. We carry no close-outs in case goods, old and yellow with age, nor mis-match nor drop patterns in rugs or linoleum. Everything is this season's goods, direct from the factories, and we guarantee to save you money if quality is considered. See us any time. Our prices are always right.

Harvard's steady improvement in watermanship during the past few years has made the Cambridge navy greatly respected even by the ever winning Cornellians and while Cornell was picked by the experts as the favorite, there was much money bet by Crispin Folger at even that their oarsmen would beat the visitors.
