THIN IN FOG CAME QUICKLY, THOSE ON BOARD STEAMER

Realized Their Doom Was Near, Captain and Crew Did All They Could—$1,000,000 in Silver Lost

Special Press.
St. Lawrence, Canada, May 30.—When the Empress of Ireland split in two by the collision with the collier Stordstad, the fog in St. Lawrence river on Friday, carried more than 900,000 dollars worth of silver and other valuables down a shipment of $1,000,000 worth of silver bars shipped from Cobalt, Ontario.

The collier Stordstad that ripped the liner's side arrived at Quebec today and proceeded slowly to the wharf to which port her cargo was consigned. Captain Anderson, refusing to give out any exact statement said that the collier had been due to the wharf when the fog shut down on the night he picked up more than 300 silver bars; in fact, most of those saved. Later they were transferred to Lady Evelyn and Eureka.

The collier's bow above the water line, a hole was torn large enough to admit three men ere the liner sank. The whole of Quebec mourned to be waiting the arrival of the dead bodies. Undertakers from far and near were summoned to this city and the government dock was crowded into a morgue.

Identification is slow. It will be several days before all the bodies of the dead have been identified. It is thought that of Alfred Anderson, a first class passenger of Montreal or London; other identifications supposed to be correct, were Mrs. T. Flack of Owenhurst, Ontario, not mentioned on the passenger list and the body of a man named Taylor. There is among the dead the body of a well dressed woman on whose fingers there are diamonds. Beside her lay the body of one of the Empress' stewards.

Many of the bodies are cut and buried, some as if with a rifle. There are many children. On the body of the man Taylor was a belt holding $2000. Some wore life-belts when picked up and of these many had died with their arms extended above their heads. Survivors arriving here and Montreal all agree on the outstanding points of the disaster. It was so quick that there was no time for intelligent or concerted action. Hundreds of women, it is said, might have been saved had they not stopped to dress.

No Censure for Crew.
Though the crew members predominated among the saved, no word of reproach for them has been said. It was pointed out that many of them were on deck on duty and that those who leaped after helping such passengers as they could were able to swim. Most of the first and second cabin passengers were caught in their beds by the rush of water. Few, so far of the bodies recovered, have been recognized but this work was undertaken earnestly after daybreak today.

There appeared to be many foreigners among the dead, judging from passports found in their possession in the grim pile was a mother with a child pressed to her breast. Those who witnessed the scene at Rimouski where the sea of the harvest rescue ship was laid on the pier, say that the sight was heart-rending. In the eyes of many of the dead there was an expression of horror; in others puzzled surprise. There was but little attempt to cover the bodies and for the most part they laid practically as they had been when they crossed the water, some half dressed and others nearly naked.

Death Comes Quickly.
Stories of the loss of the Empress of Ireland—brought to Quebec last night by the survivors gave vivid accounts of the most terrible tragedy in the annals of the St. Lawrence. Some compared the disaster to that which befell the Titanic, but pointed out that in case of the Titanic there was time to prepare for death, while for those who perished on the Empress of Ireland there was little time for reflection or prayer.

In many cases survivors declare death must have come with merciful swiftness and before victims realized their hour had struck. From the accounts of the saved it seems soon after the ship was rammed she crossed the water, some half dressed and others nearly naked.

Death Comes Quickly.
Captain Kendall was on the bridge when the collision occurred. When the steamer sank, he was washed away, later to be picked up by one of the boats apparently to his greater regret. This far he has vouchsafed no public statement, except to say that he would have preferred to have gone down with his ship. Passengers who observed him during the frightful few minutes after the ship was struck, speak in his praise and declare he did his full duty.

Chief Officer Speed it is said, was killed by a boat falling on him while

CAPTAIN TELLS STORY SHOUTED FIVE TIMES

SAYS SHIP STOPPED WHEN COLLIER WAS FULLY TWO MILES AWAY

Special to the Times.
Stordstad, Quebec, May 30.—While final tabulation of casualties in the sinking of the steamer Empress of Ireland were being made today, showing that 402 of her passengers and crew had been rescued and 964 had perished, Captain Henry George Kendall of the liner was telling his story of the disaster at the inquiry being conducted by the coroner here. Captain Kendall in substance declared he had taken all possible precautions. His ship had been stopped and he gave the required signal when the collier Stordstad which sank the Empress was two miles away, but the collier kept on through the fog that settled down soon after the two vessels sighted each other and rammed the Empress of Ireland while the latter virtually was motionless.

Then despite his plea to the master of the collier that he run his engine full speed ahead to keep the hole in the latter's side plugged with the collier's bow, the captain said the Danish vessel backed away. The water rushed in and the Empress sank. Captain Kendall took up the story of the disaster from the point at which the Empress had dropped her pilot Thursday night at Father Point. He said:

Stopped His Ship.
"We then proceeded with speed. After passing Rock-Point I sighted the steamer Stordstad, it then being clear. The collier was about one point, twelve degrees on my starboard bow. I saw a slight fog bank coming gradually from the land and knew it would pass between the Stordstad and myself. The Stordstad was about two miles away. Then the fog came and the Stordstad lights disappeared. I stopped my ship; at the same time I blew three short blasts on the steamer's whistle, meaning 'I am going full speed astern.' The Stordstad answered."

Lights Ship's Length Away.
"I then blew two long blasts. My ship was under way but stopped. The fog was under way but stopped. After two minutes afterward I saw his red and green light; he would then be about a ship's length from me. I shouted to him through the megaphone to go full speed astern. At the same time my engine was shut down and my ship went full speed ahead with the object of avoiding him if possible, the shock. Almost at the same time he came right and cut me down in a line between the funnels."

Shouted Five Times.
"I shouted five times. I also shouted 'Keep ahead,' said Captain Kendall, 'and if he did not hear me, he should have done it anyway. Any seaman should have known that.' "Was there wind?" he was asked.

FRANK KELL CHOSEN REGIONAL DIRECTOR

RECEIVES INDORESEMENT OF MEETING AT DALLAS—ELECTION CERTAIN

Special to the Times.
Dallas, Tex., May 30.—The election of Frank Kell as a "Class B" director of the regional reserve bank of this city was made certain here today when every elector in a group of two and a majority of those in group three of the member banks, included his candidacy. Those present represented 526 out of the 736 banks in the district and the formal mail ballot yet to be taken cannot change the result.

Class A, representing the member banks: Oscar Wells, vice president of the First National Bank of Houston, E. K. Smith, vice president of the Commercial National Bank of Shreveport and R. McKinney, cashier of the Durant National Bank of Durant, Oklahoma.

Class B, representing the agricultural and commercial interests of the district: Frank Kell of Wichita Falls, Marion Sanson of Fort Worth and J. J. Culbertson of Paris.

Election of Frank Kell is Welcome News Here.
News of Mr. Kell's election to the regional reserve bank received here Saturday afternoon shortly after the result of the balloting became known. While there had been every reason to hope that Mr. Kell would be chosen, on account of the many endorsements his candidacy received, it was still uncertain whether their respective communities and area well known throughout the district.

Wichitans feel that Mr. Kell is most aptly suited for the duties of a director because of his varied connections in his flour-milling interests, having points in many places in the district, but he is well acquainted with the railroad business, being builder of the Wichita Falls Route. His interests in this city include public service and his friends here received the news gladly. When Mr. Kell first agreed to allow his name to be submitted, there was some doubt as to the outcome; the district includes all of Texas, with considerable sections of Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Arizona and that Mr. Kell should be chosen as one of the three men to represent the many and varied interests of such a stretch of territory is quite a signal honor.

CLARK AND SMOOT MEMORIAL ORATORS

SPEAKER DECLARES SOLDIERS OF NORTH AND SOUTH ALIKE WITH HEROES

By Associated Press.
Washington, May 30.—The National capital today paid its tribute to the nation's soldier dead. Official and private business was suspended and all attended the ceremonies, Congress adjourning for the occasion. Ceremonies at Arlington were under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic. Speaker Champ Clark and Senator Smoot of Utah, were the principal speakers. Speaker Clark in his address declared Robert E. Lee deserved to rank with Sir Philip Sidney and King Arthur.

"The soldiers of the North and those of the South," he said, "were American freemen, all fighting like heroes for what they considered right and as such I honor them and teach my children to cherish them." The speaker referring to universal peace said:

"The day has not yet arrived when swords are beaten into plowshares or spears into pruning hooks, and that the physical intangible things called the balance of power of Europe is in as precarious and dangerous a position as when Louis XIV and William of Orange contended for mastery."

Senator Smoot said, since there were brought home the bodies of our men at arms, slain at the taking of Vera Cruz, the entire nation mourned the noble dead. To maintain the nation's honor, these men died and today a million men, necessary are ready to finish the task which they began. These men gave their lives that brutal murders of American citizens and bloody anarchy should cease and that our flag should be respected in the Republic to the south of us. We find the same spirit of patriotism, the same loyalty to country at Vera Cruz today, as has been manifested by the defenders of our flag in every cause for national defense. We do honor to ourselves in honoring this day the men who died at Vera Cruz. The Vera Cruz invasion has proved to the world, as did our war with Spain, that this country is the United States of America, filled with brave, generous patriotic and God-fearing citizens. If conditions develop in Mexico requiring our army to enter and maintain order, our happy and distracted Republic, if we should become involved in real war with all factions or any faction in Mexico, there will be no brothers arrayed against brothers. No Americans against Americans. It will be united America seeking to correct respect for the ordinary obligations of civilization.

There will be but one sentiment in the hearts of all our people; there will be but one uniform and but one flag. Wrong must be righted before the remaining banner can be drawn. War is a terrible thing and should be shunned, but the nation's honor is involved when our liberty is threatened, when humanity demands it, war, in my opinion is justifiable. The time will come when Christianity, civilization and man's humanity to man will have advanced to a point where war will be unnecessary. That day has not arrived but let us all hope and work for its early arrival.

President Changes Plans and Attends.
By Associated Press.
Washington, May 30.—President Wilson today changed his plans and decided to attend the memorial day exercises at Arlington National Cemetery. Secretary Tumulty made a statement explaining the president "was not willing his absence should be misconstrued." In announcing the president's decision, the secretary said:

"When the invitation was extended by the committee representing the Grand Army of the Republic of the District of Columbia, the president informed the committee that he did not think the occasion was opportune for the delivery of an appropriate address and because of this he felt he must decline the invitation, agreeing however, to attend memorial services at a later date. Evidently false construction has been placed upon this action and therein lies the reason for the change in the program. The president was not willing that his absence should be misconstrued."

Six Feet of Rain at Tyler, Texas.
Tyler, Texas, May 30.—Six feet of rain has fallen in Tyler from September 1, 1913 to May 30. This precipitation has on the whole been very harmful. There is very little fruit, the strawberry crop was cut to a fourth of its usual size; cotton and corn have been badly damaged.

Tampico, May 29 via Brownsville, May 30.—It was reported here today that the attack on San Luis Potosi by the rebels had begun.

RENE THOMAS WINNER 500 MILE AUTOMOLLE RACE

FLOOD SITUATION IS NOT IMPROVED

By Associated Press.
Houston, Texas, May 30.—Railway managers and others no longer seek to minimize the gravity of the present flood situation. Local streams are maintaining the enormous current and when the crest of the North Texas floods comes early next week, thousands upon thousands of additional acres of fine farm land will be submerged. It is not expected, however, that any loss of life will result.

The Colorado has already submerged all of Bay City and the people there have gathered in the taller buildings. No life loss is expected. The Brazos river has risen nearly four feet at Rosenberg since yesterday afternoon and is still rising. The same story comes from all along the lower reaches of the streams in South, Southeast and Southwest Texas. Sawmills are again idle and more crops are being ruined hourly.

Rain continued today, but it was mostly light showers. The ground is already soaked and the precipitation is draining off, putting streams up rapidly. Many light and water plants on the banks of streams are out of commission, and railway traffic is badly hampered.

Twelve Inch Rainfall Within Three Days.
By Associated Press.
Beaumont, Texas, May 30.—There was no improvement today in flood conditions. The rainfall here has tallied twelve inches in three days and over eight inches in twelve hours yesterday. The Beaumont river is still rising steadily. It is four miles wide opposite Beaumont. Farm lands in all directions have been flooded with from one to three feet of water and farmers with their families are fleeing to the highlands for safety. No attempt was made today to operate trains over the Santa Fe except on the Somerville and Centerville branches; traffic is entirely suspended on the Gulf and Interstate between here and Galveston. Six hundred feet of track is under water between here and Hamshire and below Hamshire a bad washout has been reported.

A heavy rise on the Neches river is expected tomorrow on account of the heavy rain north of Beaumont. The river is fifteen feet above normal and the Trinity is six miles wide at Dayton and Liberty.

Demand Election by Vote of the People.
Legality of Fort Worth Commissioners Action in Naming Charter Committee Attacked.
Fort Worth, Texas, May 30.—Legality of the City Commissioners action in appointing a charter commission Saturday morning is contested by the charter committee of the Young Men's Business League, which contends that the charter commissioners were not elected by popular vote. In a statement issued Saturday afternoon upon what they term the city commissioners' usurpation they announce that the city commission will be called upon to submit to the voters as the law provides.

Members of the committee were frank to state that the only object they could see that could have been sought by the commission in taking such a step was to name men opposed to the city manager plan which the League seeks to have incorporated in the new city charter.

Delayed Trains Prevent Pictures at Gem Saturday.
On account of the loss of the films in transit the Gem remained closed all day Saturday, the first time since it has opened that there has not been a show on week days. Numerous washouts and wrecks along the road have caused delays and it was on this account that the films were misplaced.

ALL SPEEDWAY RECORDS BROKEN

By Associated Press.
Indianapolis, May 30.—Rene Thomas driving a French car, won the fourth annual 500 mile race on the Indianapolis motor speedway today. All speedway records from five to 500 miles were broken. The first American to finish was Barney Oldfield in fifth place. Thomas time was six hours, three minutes, 45.95 seconds. The winner maintained an average speed of 82.47 miles an hour. The former record of six hours, 21 minutes, 3 seconds was established by Joe Dawson in 1912.

Arthur Duray finished second, eleven minutes after the winner. Albert Guyet, team-mate of Thomas was third and Joe Cox, winner of the 1912 race finished fourth. He was six minutes ahead of Oldfield.

Six Men Hurt.
Six men were injured, none seriously. Joe Dawson suffered a broken collar bone and minor injuries when his car turned over after trying to dodge the wrecked machine of Ray Gilhooley. Veres Barnes, Dawson's mechanic was hurt and Gilhooley and Mino Zonani his mechanic, also suffered minor injuries. Jean Chastagne and Albert Mitchell, handling an injured car limped away from their machines after it rolled over a turn.

Boilott Thrills Crowd.
The race was an exciting one and rivalry among the foreign teams made one of the most exciting finishes ever witnessed at the Indianapolis course. George Boilott pushed his car to such excessive speed that in the 147th lap when leading the field he was forced out because of a broken frame. Boilott thrilled the spectators through his sensational effort to catch Thomas near the end of the contest and Cox always seemed to be a contender.

$40,000 for Winner.
Thomas drove the last hundred miles at an average of more than 84 miles an hour. Thomas' car was number sixteen. Cox carried the same number to victory last year. Thomas won a first prize of $20,000 and accessories, prizes and trophies will swell this amount to about $40,000. Joseph Christiansen in a Elgin car finished sixth. Harry Grant in an English machine was seventh. Keene and Rogers, under American car placards, eighth and William Carlson was ninth. One hundred thousand people saw the race.

REBELS TO ORGANIZE COMPLETE GOVERNMENT

All Departments Will be Completely Organized Within Few Days Carranza Says
By Associated Press.
Durango, Mexico, May 30.—The formation of the constitutional government of Mexico, partly incomplete in some departments up to this time, will be completed within a few days, according to announcements from General Carranza. When General Carranza reaches Saltillo, it is said he will appoint heads of all departments of government and will name a complete cabinet. Up to now the affairs of the various cabinet officers have been administered by acting secretaries or chief clerks.

General Carranza at the same time will issue a complete declaration of principles, which will outline the social and political reforms which the constitutionalists will put into effect and the principles to which the government pledges itself. This action, it was said, will place the constitutionalists in a position to receive official recognition from foreign governments under international law. General Carranza expects to reach Saltillo by way of Torreon within the next few days.

Plumbing Examiners Law Unconstitutional.
Dallas, Texas, May 30.—The state plumbing law requiring the appointment of boards of plumbing examiners in cities of more than ten thousand population was held unconstitutional today on grounds of "class legislation" in a decision in the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals.

MANY TO "GRADUATE" FROM GRAMMAR TO HIGH SCHOOL

Large Number Will Receive Certificates of Promotion to the Rank of Freshman

On Monday morning nearly one hundred boys and girls will receive certificates of graduation from the grammar grades of the Wichita Falls schools and to them this graduation is quite as important and they feel as much in the limelight as the older boys and girls who will receive their sheepskins on Monday evening. No special exercises will be held for the grammar school graduation, the certificates to be given with the promotion cards. With the addition of some of the first year students who failed there always are a few that fail, next year's freshman class bids fair to be a large one. A list of the grammar school graduates includes the following: Robert Ferguson, Charlie Carrington, Robert Ferguson, Griffin Gilbert, John Kay, Howard Rodgers, Paul Rutledge, John Ryan, Page Trotter, Earl Whitley, Everett Whitley, Syloma Barney, Anna Carter, Orelia Childers, Ethel Colburn, Ruby Delaney, Theresa Grimes, Georgia Thompson, Mildred Corbett, Eugene Barry, Fannie Craig, Ruby Donaldson, Arthur Ford, Lola Gilpatrick, Annette Humphries, Anna Lea, Oscar Meyers, Hazel Hurst, Lois Morgan, Eloise Peery, her and throwing up a rope, Kathlyn fastens it to a rock and then slides down the face of the cliff. Kathlyn has this danger, when she hears the howling of a pack of wolves and rushes breathlessly along until she sees the mountain rest-house where the faithful "undita is resting. The wolves make for the cabin, but the woman carries a revolver and aims at the entrance and by concealing themselves in the cupboard, allow the wolves to rush into it, then, snoring the door shut—trap the savage howling beasts. By this time Col. Hare and Bruce have arrived upon the scene—Kathlyn shows the hunter how she has imprisoned the wolves and he, a security pick of the leaders with his rifle. About this time a caravan comes that way, which they join and eventually arrive safely at a seaport town.

ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN

The eighth story of the "Adventures of Kathlyn" entitled "The Cruel Crown" is shown at the Majestic Theatre Monday. The story is as follows: Pandemonium follows the escape of the leopards, placed to guard the treasure room in Umballah's palace. Royal page and attendants flee from the spotted terrors, and Kathlyn takes advantage of this to get away from the throne room, where she was surrounded by enemies. She flees into the Garden of Brides and takes refuge in a covered bullock cart close to the palace walls. The scene opens as Kathlyn lifts the draperies of the covered cart and gazes affrighted at the prowling leopards in the palace yard. As they rush by she descends the cart and runs through the garden. Still, the walls seem to bar her escape. A heavy, clinging vine is not to be despised and immediately uses this means to scale the barrier. Her father and Rambahal who have been reinforced by Bruce and Pandita, have their canines only a short distance away and her appearance baffled—joyously. She is assisted down the wall by a ladder; then the party mount their camels and start through the city of Allah. As they pass through the outer gate they are recognized by Umballah's captain of the guard, who hurriedly rushes to the palace and notifies Umballah who is holding a session with the Council of Three of discovery and their departure. Umballah decides to give chase as he is particularly anxious to recapture Col. Hare, who has been made king, merely to serve as the creature of his caprice. Then begins an exciting chase over plains and through woodlands with thrilling incidents. At a native village, the party come upon a festival in which the dancers are masked with animal heads. Learning of the close pursuit of Umballah, they persuade the dancers to allow them in their places, and although Umballah and his followers come upon the scene and see the dancers, they do not penetrate the disguise and recognize them and so disgusted, they finally reluctantly return to Allah.

Kathlyn and her party, having secured fresh mounts, start on their way to cross the mountains and eventually stop and camp for the night. During the hours of darkness, treacherous natives steal their horses, greatly inconveniencing the travelers. Different members of the party start out in the morning to hunt their property and Kathlyn is trailed through the broken country by a pair of hungry tigers. Her situation is perilous, indeed, when a shop-holder observes and throwing up a rope, Kathlyn fastens it to a rock and then slides down the face of the cliff. Kathlyn has this danger, when she hears the howling of a pack of wolves and rushes breathlessly along until she sees the mountain rest-house where the faithful "undita is resting. The wolves make for the cabin, but the woman carries a revolver and aims at the entrance and by concealing themselves in the cupboard, allow the wolves to rush into it, then, snoring the door shut—trap the savage howling beasts. By this time Col. Hare and Bruce have arrived upon the scene—Kathlyn shows the hunter how she has imprisoned the wolves and he, a security pick of the leaders with his rifle. About this time a caravan comes that way, which they join and eventually arrive safely at a seaport town.

DIPLOMAS ARE PRESENTED TO FIVE NEGRO GRADUATES

Closing Exercises Are Held Friday Night Before Large Gathering at School

Diplomas were presented to five graduates of the Washington school for negroes Friday night, when the closing exercises of the institution were held. The program consisted of an oration or essay by each of the five graduates, some recitations, an address by W. E. King, a Dallas negro and the presentation of diplomas by Superintendent Carpenter. The graduates were Napoleon Bonaparte Holmes, Lester Lucullus McConnell, Bernice Cecilia Trimble, John Wendell Norford, Johnnie May Hill. The address of W. E. King who edits a negro paper at Dallas, consisted mainly of advice to the graduates as to their future careers. A large crowd attended the exercises.

Clouds of Steam Rise From Downtown Street After Shower Saturday

Clouds of "steam" rising from the wooden pavement downtown, presented an unusual spectacle to the gaze of Wichitans yesterday shortly after noon. The phenomenon was caused by the sun's shining shortly after a heavy shower, the excessive heat converting the water on the street into steam. The temperature was sultry at the time and the clouds of steam made the atmosphere anything but pleasant for downtown pedestrians, regarded though they may have been by the novelty of a May climate that can produce anything from a chilly norther to steam heat all within the same month. Every pair of glasses made by us is backed by our guarantee and the endorsement of those for whom we have made glasses. We know how Dr. DuVal, the Progressive Eye Specialist. 15 11c

MAY BUILDING PERMITS REACH TOTAL OF $34,650.

Fourteen building permits aggregating in value $34,650 were issued during the month of May. The total is low compared with other months but is about as the usual May total here. A number of residences are being built for which no permits have been issued. Complaints it is said, will be filed against the owners of those buildings this week.

TOMORROW IS FIRST MONDAY LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

Usual Gathering of Farmers, Horse Traders and Others Will Be Here For Occasion

Tomorrow is First Monday and as the wet weather has delayed the harvest it is expected that a large number of farmers and traders will be in the city. The First Monday trades day is an increasingly popular occasion and crowds attend the sales and other events every month, many coming from distant points.

Representatives of Fort Worth live stock concerns are making an attendance and buying large numbers of horses and other live stock, offered by farmers and ranchmen.

New Honey Texas' Best

Texas produces some mighty good honey, and I'm always on the watch for this fancy Texas quality.

A few days ago I was offered a special lot of 5, 5 and 10 pound tins, and I snapped it up in a hurry. I bought it so that I can make a price of 60c on the 3 lb., $1.00 on the 5 lb., and $1.90 on the 10 lb. tins.

This is all in comb and it's the prettiest, cleanest honey I ever saw. In bulk I offer it at 17c per pound. Better let me send you a quantity of this before this shipment is all gone. It won't last long.

THE Columbia Conservatory OF MUSIC

Studios 1508 Eleventh Street

Opening Term, June 1st.

SPECIAL ENROLLMENT OFFER

We like only a few pupils having our first class organized. To those enrolling (Monday and Tuesday), June 1st and 2nd, may do so on monthly arrangements of $6.00 per month, all Home-Study-Text lessons, exercises, studies and annotated sheet music necessary for the pupil will be furnished without charge. You may discontinue any time thereafter if you are not pleased with our way of teaching.

WE INVITE ALL THOSE who are interested in the study of music to call at our studios and see the only standardized progressive series of Piano studies published which had been completed after years of labor and research by the highest authorities of musical matters in the world.

Leopold Godowski, Editor-in-chief is the head of the master school of Piano playing in Vienna, Austria.

Frederic Lillibridge is Executive Editor, unsurpassed as theorist. W. S. B. Mathews, the well known music critic. Emel Sauer, the great Piano virtuoso, of Germany and others. The Art Progressive Series of Piano Studies are the boiled down results of the bringing together the world's greatest musicians and pedagogues, and represents an expenditure of more than $250,000.

Advancement is therefore much faster, with no greater effort, and it gives a thorough musical education. Patrons are safe-guarded in patronizing our Conservatory as much so as if there were a law forcing music teachers to qualify as literary teachers do, as no music teachers can teach the Art Progressive Series until after they have qualified, and stood examinations by the supervisory board of the Art Publication Society. Our Musical Directress, Mrs. H. E. Barlow, studied piano under such well known teachers as the late Wilbur MacDonald, Southwestern Conservatory of music Geo. L. McMillan, Polytechnic College of Fort Worth and Frederic Lillibridge of St. Louis, who is now executive editor of the Art Publication Society. She taught four years as independent teacher, and for two years was head teacher in the Columbia Conservatory of Dallas. She has held pipe organ position with two of the largest churches in Dallas, Gaston Avenue Baptist Church and Trinity M. E. Church, the latter she resigned to accept her position here. If it is not convenient to call, we will gladly send one of our registrars to your home and explain our system in detail.

DISTRICT COURT TO CONVENE TOMORROW

GRAND JURY TO BE EMpaneled IN AFTERNOON FOR JUDGE'S CHARGE

HEAVY DOCKET AWAITS ACTION

Judge Scurry Has Announced That Consideration Will Be Given Demands of Harvest

The June term of the Wichita county district court will convene tomorrow morning. Other than the announcement of rules it is not expected that anything will be done at the morning session. The grand jury panel has been summoned at 1:30 o'clock and it is expected that Judge Scurry's charge will be given and the grand jury will be organized. The panel includes the following names: J. R. OLD FOLKS FIND NEW REMEDY RELIEVES ALL KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Drives Rheumatic Pains Away, Relieves Backache and Bladder Disorders After A Few Doses Are Taken Sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, and the many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life. The new discovery, Croxone, overcomes all such disorders because it removes the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly. It neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; and makes the kidneys filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood and drive it out of the system. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, Croxone is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate cases. It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for restoring the lifeless organs to health and strength and ridding the system of every particle of uric acid, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure such conditions. You can obtain an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

TIMES PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Mgr.

The Democrats of Tennessee have nominated Thos. C. Rye as their nominee for governor, and inasmuch as they adopted a plank in their platform to not interfere in any way with any of the laws regulating the sale of liquor in that State, the prospects are that those Democrats who voted for Hooper, the Republican-Fusion candidate two and four years ago, making his election possible, will now support the regular Democratic ticket. Senator Luke Lea was one of the Tennessee prohibition Democrats who supported Governor Hooper two and four years ago, and he dominated the convention of Democrats held the other day that nominated Rye on practically the same platform that Hooper ran on and was elected twice in succession governor of Tennessee.

Lots of eliminating business has been indulged in in Texas politics this year by the leaders of the two Democratic factions—that is to say, if we are permitted to use that word when referring to the anti and pro factions of the Democratic party of this state. It must be admitted by all close observers that both sides made a most wonderful success at sorting out the "scrubs" or submins in the gubernatorial race. Now, it is up to the Democrats to place their stamp of disapproval on that class of peanut politicians who are ever ready and willing to serve as our law-makers, and often it is the case they are so anxious to engage in the work of "saving the country" they can hardly wait long enough to get on speaking terms with a poll tax receipt issued from the county or district they wish to serve before they are asking for office. Texas has suffered more from electing that kind of officials than she has from all her droughts. Let's put a stop to it.

Common honesty, and we might add, common sense, demands uniform taxation. The home-owner who pays taxes on his humble home has a right to know that his rich neighbor who owns whole blocks of business and residence property is paying tax on his property in the same proportion; or the speculator in real estate who owns vacant lots in the center of the thickly settled portions of the city which he is holding because he will not sell except at a price that is more than a half-dozen times the amount on which it is assessed for taxes. Wichita Falls ought to encourage home-owners. One way in which this can be accomplished is not to tax them to death, while the owners of a great deal of property are allowed to dodge their just share of taxation. There is no need to show any partiality whatever to the home-owners. Just put them on an equal footing with the other fellow. The fact that a lot is vacant and growing a fine crop of weeds and grass, contributing to the unsightliness of that portion of the city, should not allow the owner of that lot to escape his just share of taxes. Neither should the fellow who takes some pride in keeping his lawn mowed and the grass trimmed be over-taxed. He really deserves to be encouraged.

The governorship contest is creating more interest than all others combined. In fact, there is not one voter out of ten who seems to care who are to be our other state officers, and not half of them know the names of the candidates who are seeking the offices. It's all Ball and Ferguson, and it looks like an awful queer mixup. There are pro Democrats who will vote for submission at the July primaries, and at the same time vote for Ferguson, who is credited with being so strong with the anti that he succeeded in eliminating all other candidates. Then there are strong, uncompromising anti-prohibition Democrats who are talking Ball as their favorite, and will vote for him at the election. At the same time every one of these anti who are for Ball will register votes against submission. In the country the farmers, as a rule, are prohibitionists, and ordinarily one would suppose that they would vote for Ball and submission. But there are many exceptions. There are many farmers who are dyed-in-the-wool pros, and who heretofore have always voted for the candidate for governor who voiced their sentiments on that particular question, that are going to vote for Ferguson. At the same time those pro Democrats who will vote for Ferguson will also vote for submission, which is a little bit inconsistent. So with such a mixup, it is rather a difficult matter to even make a guess as to whether Ball or Ferguson is the favorite with the farmers in this part of the State.

ANOTHER HAT IN THE RING

Hon. Joseph G. Cannon of Danville has thrown his hat in the ring. He has officially announced himself a candidate for Congress in the next election, and inasmuch as he is a Republican, he will be subject to the will and pleasure of Republicans of his particular district.

Hon. Joseph G. Cannon did this same thing 40 years ago and has been doing it ever since. During all that time he has been defeated only twice. He would be in Congress today but for the fact of unfortunate political complications. It is the old story of a house divided against itself. Uncle Joe was the victim, and a Democrat now represents the Danville district, much to the chagrin of Hon. Joseph G. Cannon and to the mortification of the Republican leaders of the state.

This business of throwing his hat in the ring with Uncle Joe has become a habit. Age can not wither nor time stale this congressional hankering he has for office. This last announcement may be received as something more significant than mere habit. Uncle Joe will have a fight on his hands this time. The Republican party is still divided and the return of Col. Roosevelt has kindled new hopes in the hearts of the Progressives.

Uncle Joe Cannon should also remember that there have been quite a number of post mortems held over many Republican leaders. Lorimer has been politically declared dead. Barnes has also passed from the living leaders, and to all intent and purpose Boise Penrose is on his last legs. Accustomed to smell the battle afar off, these discredited but not discouraged chiefs are beginning to put on their armor, as if the conflict is to be between them and their hereditary foe instead of that foe and the infant prodigy which Col. Roosevelt stands for.

So far as the general public of the country is concerned, most people would be glad to see Uncle Joe Cannon returned to Congress. He is a man of his convictions and stands by them in the face of opposition. He is so identified with the public life of Washington that his figure and face are familiar to all residents and visitors.

When he was speaker he was also czar, but this was because Joe Cannon was a good fighter. He had the confidence and the respect of all members of Congress, irrespective of party affiliations. It is his one ambition that he die in office. He has reached the serene and yellow age and should have his ambition gratified.—Commercial Appeal.

WHEN WOMAN SUFFRAGE BOSS

The Houston Post of last Thursday had a splendid picture of Major Henry E. Ellis, editor of the Denison Daily Herald, who was elected vice-chancellor of Texas by the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge at Temple last week. Were it not for the spectacles Henry would look as young as he was twenty-five years ago. He is worthy of the high honor his Pythian brethren have just paid him.—Georgetown Commercial.

If I remember correctly, the Houston Post also had an excellent likeness of Hon. Lee Rountree on the occasion of his election as vice president of the National Editorial Association. In consideration of the pictures of Col. Ellis and Col. Rountree we respectfully submit, in any fair-minded reader of the Post, granting for the time being that the Post has a fair-minded reader—the question of precedence in point of platitude. Both are well set up in point of carriage, both clean shaven, both tolerable young, both good dressers, both tasty as to neckwear and ornamental vests, and both go slow on jewelry and medals. It is true that Col. Ellis, as Col. Rountree points out, wears specs. But we do not observe that they detract from his looks. It is also true that Col. Rountree wears an open-faced collar which casts upon him something of the dignity of the old regime, but this should not count against him.—What State Press is driving at is this: He wants to nominate the handsomest man in the Texas Press Association—courier Ellis of Rountree—for floor leader on the day when women suffrage shall bob up as an issue at the press convention at Wichita Falls next month. Owing to the arbitrary parliamentary practice of the good-looking but tyrannical presiding officer at last year's convention the suffrage issue was kept down. We hear that the class are arming for battle this year, and it is very much doubtful that some captain be agreed upon who can soothe the suffragists with a smile and command the anti-suffragists with the weight of his hand.—State Press in Dallas News.

On Monday the Pathe Weekly No. 36 will be shown at the Empress, also a feature film containing some of the most thrilling scenes ever filmed. In "Fighting Death" Rodman Law and Constance Bennett play the leads in the story of the fearless mountaineers who have to fight against great odds to live.

Lacking the intuition of men and women of keener minds, the principal characters in this romance of the Kentucky hills, rely upon their native courage. When the hero is accused of being a moonshiner he is seized by officers sent to arrest him and escapes with his sweetheart. They act upon an impulse that comes from their hearts and are married. The young wife returns to her home and the husband makes his way to New York, where he hopes to build a home without being apprehended. He desires to see the woman he loves in his own home, but she has fled to a cabin without detection, he crosses a ravine 250 feet wide on a cable, using his hands to make the perilous trip. On another occasion, while riding a horse with his wife behind him, he jumps the spurs into the animal's flanks and it leaps from a high cliff into a river. Death is miraculously escaped and the two are saved to jump from the Brooklyn Bridge when hunger impels them to the act. They overcome their difficulties with primitive instinct and eventually find the happiness that has belonged to them all the time, and which would have been theirs had it not been for the machinations of a villain who sought to win the girl by fair means or foul.

STATEMENT ABOUT THE COUNTY JAIL

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 30, 1914.—To Whom It May Concern: We, the undersigned, prisoners now confined in the County Jail at Wichita Falls, Texas, beg to say: That our treatment, since our confinement in this jail, by E. L. Randolph and his deputies, Ed Carsons and his estimable wife, has been all that we could ask for, under the circumstances. We have been well supplied with good and wholesome food, well cooked and prepared at all reasonable times. We have been supplied with medicine when needed. The jail has been kept in a clean and sanitary condition as far as it is possible to keep it. We have no complaint to make against Mr. Randolph or his deputy, but feel kindly toward them for their kindness to us since our confinement in this jail. Art Work On Exhibit At College of Music and Art

The final art exhibit in which all of the work done by the students during the past year is shown, is now on display at the College of Music and Art. The exhibit contains a remarkable collection of over two hundred pictures in a wide range of mediums and with a great variety of subjects. An unusual feature noticeable in the work done at the College studio is the decided originality displayed in all of the departments. The students work direct from nature, life or still life. The work of the juvenile department attracts much attention and is the object of much wondering admiration. The sketches from living models are very life-like and full of action and in all the work has been shown a fundamental knowledge of form and color—that is remarkable in the work of children. The work done in the out of doors

Oil Paintings.

The display of oil paintings is by Miss Ethel Bean shows a unique combination of impressionism and detail, a combination unusual, but presenting very pleasing results. Lifting her work quite out of the ordinary. She has shown this same individualism in the modeling of the bust of a girl from life. The head is full of character and the face is lighted with a quizzical, half smile that is very alluring. Special mention should be made of the work of Miss May Vaughn, who shows remarkable talent and ability in the handling of this difficult medium. She gives reality in the painting of draperies and a suggestion of texture that is very real and shows an excellent understanding of the subject.

Crayon and Charcoal.

In the crayon and charcoal class the work of John McKee, Kenneth Barker and Alexander McKee shows a great deal of talent, especially in the original composition of some of the pictures, in fact the originality in all of the work of the students is one of the most prominent points.

Perhaps the exhibit which elicits the most admiring comment is one from the Ceramics department, consisting of more than fifty pieces of china. Throughout special attention was devoted in this department to the decoration of the Japanese wares, to the Billeck china and the etching of French and German china. All of the designing for this china is absolutely original and some exquisite patterns have been developed. Among the pieces on display is a magnificent plate with a fruit design in rich colors, painted by Miss Clara McCarty. Miss McCarty's designing of the Satsuma and Seiji ware is quite out of the ordinary in dictating much inherent artistic ability. One of the most beautiful and unique pieces of her handiwork is a Satsuma rose bowl in an all over design in Ceramics of soft Japanese blues, pinks and greens with a touch here and there of scarlet.

A fruit bowl, the work of Miss Lillian McGregor seems to be also the object of much admiration. The design for this bowl was very elaborate and rich in coloring and taken with the other pieces of more delicate design shows her ability in handling both styles of work. Mrs. Rexford and Miss Alice Burnside deserve mention for their etching on white china and designs along conventional lines, work in both being very good.

Awards of Honors.

In the china painting department first honors were awarded to Miss Clara McCarty and second honors to Miss Lillian McGregor. First honors in the advanced classes in oil and water colors were given to Miss Ethel Bean for her work and to Miss May Vaughn for her work in water colors. Miss Glenn and Miss Stevens both received honorable mention for their work done in crayon and water colors. The exhibit is really wonderful and something that will be enjoyed by all. Mrs. McKee, on account of the requests of patrons and interested friends will hold the exhibit open all day Monday and those who were kept away on account of the rain will have another opportunity to view it.

CRISIS REACHED IN NEGOTIATIONS

QUESTION OF ADMITTING CONSTITUTIONAL REPRESENTATIVE LOOKS UP

U. S. WANTS CARRANZA IN

American Government Does Not Wish to Run Risk of Preach With Rebels

By Associated Press. Niagara Falls, May 30.—A crisis in the progress of the mediation proceedings was reached tonight. While awaiting answers from the Huerta government and the United States to the tentative plan for the new provisional government in Mexico the question of admitting constitutionalists to the conference before an agreement for a protocol is signed loomed up as likely to influence the decision of the American government on the plans already outlined.

The mediators late today called in the Mexican delegates to learn if Gen. Huerta had approved the main American proposal. The Mexicans said they had received no reply but they telegraphed again, urging a quick response. The American delegates reported that Washington had not acted on the plan.

The South American diplomats did not broach the subject of constitutionalist representation to the Mexicans or show the note delivered yesterday by Juan Urquidí, messenger of Gen. Carranza.

Will Answer Note. The mediators, however, let it be known they would answer the note they said early in the day. It was not clear if it could be interpreted as declining to participate on the subject of pacifying Mexico. They do not consider that Gen. Carranza has receded from the position that caused them to withdraw their original invitation. The note, however, has not indicated a desire to take up internal questions.

On the other hand it is said the Washington government agrees with Gen. Carranza. Withdrawal of the invitation to him to send delegates and the failure of the mediators to answer an inquiry as to what points would be treated in the negotiations left Carranza in the position of not having anything on which he could act.

U. S. Wants Carranza in. Mr. Urquidí talked with Mr. Lehmann early in the day. The American commissioners say that they have not been shown the Carranza note but they are hopeful that the way may be found to bring constitutionalists into the conference. In this connection the American delegates conferred tonight with the mediators. The American government, it is known, realizes the critical position in which it might be placed if the entire responsibility of dealing with the constitutionalists had been placed upon it.

Intimations have come here that the United States do not wish to run the risk of strained relations with the constitutionalists who would be certain to resent any radical adjustment of internal affairs. It is because of this situation that the Americans desire that the constitutionalists be brought into the mediation. The impression prevails that final answer of the United States on the essentials of the peace plan will not be given until there is a definite understanding on this point.

Up To Mediators. The Huerta delegates are not averse to having the constitutionalists admitted, but have left the matter entirely to the mediators. Minister Naon of Argentina took a long walk with Frederick Lehmann of the question of constitutionalist representation was discussed. The mediators continue to minimize the importance of the communication from Carranza. Unless the American government assumes an insistent attitude on constitutionalist representation, details of the agreement between the United States and Huerta government will be worked out in a few days. Otherwise the board will probably sit for several weeks longer.

NEGOTIATIONS LIKELY TO BE PROLONGED.

By Associated Press. Washington, May 30.—Every indication here tonight pointed to prolongation of Mexican mediation negotiations at Niagara Falls. It is known the Washington government desires the constitutionalists represented in the proceedings pending for peace. The view of the administration is said to be that terms of peace with Mexico which will not mean permanent peace are useless.

Administration leaders cognizant of this view, tonight reiterated confidence that the mediation conference would not adjourn until the pathway to an adjustment of the whole Mexican problem had been cleared. In circles close to the administration it was declared that American representatives at Niagara Falls had been instructed to urge the necessity of recognition of the constitutionalists in framing a peace plan. After the mediators today had accepted the message from General Carranza, chief of the constitutionalists, hurried to Niagara Falls by Mr. Urquidí it was reported the aspects delegates would abide by any decision the mediators might make as to receiving Carranza's delegates into the conference.

This with the fact that the Washington government was eager that the constitutionalists be represented was taken to indicate there might be a broadening of the scope of the conference before the signing of a protocol which would lead to a provisional government for Mexico, in substitution for the Huerta regime. Constitutional representatives in Washington asserted that nothing had come from Carranza since the delivery of his message to the mediators.

CORNELL WON COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

By Associated Press. Cambridge, May 30.—Cornell won the thirty-ninth annual championship of the intercollegiate amateur athletic association today, scoring forty-three points out of a possible 195.

With the championship went permanent possession of the intercollegiate trophy, the victory giving Cornell the final leg for the silver vase. Pennsylvania finished twelve points behind the red and white. Two records were broken. J. S. H. of Cornell clipped three-fifths of a second off the two mile record making the distance in nine minutes, 23 4-10 seconds. D. C. Caldwell of Cornell won the 880 yard run in one minute, 53 2-5 seconds.

LANDING F O CARGO MATTER FOR DIPLOMATS. By Associated Press. Vera Cruz, May 30.—The landing of munitions for Huerta from the Hamburg-American liner Ypiranga and Bavaria passed into the realm of diplomacy late today when both ships were granted clearance by the collector of the port, Captain Herman Stockney after Karl Heyon, general agent in Mexico of the company had signed a bond covering the fine assessed against the steamers under the collector's interpretation of the Mexican navigation laws. Captain Stockney holds that diverting to Puerto, Mexico of the shipment consigned to Vera Cruz was a direct violation of the laws and a fine of twenty pesos on each package landed was assessed. The total fine amounted to about $200,000 in gold.

Heymen held that the Mexican laws and the proclamation of May 13 issued by President Huerta declaring Vera Cruz a closed port and Puerto, Mexico open for Vera Cruz cargoes was ample justification for diverting the shipment. Collector Stockney refused to discuss the case.

RISES COME DOWN BOTH FORKS OF THE TRINITY. Fort Worth, Texas, May 30.—Squatters in tents and people living in shanties in the river lowlands at Fort Worth were driven out Saturday night when big rises came down both forks of the Trinity river and lapped on the banks submerging all land within the levees. Police Chief Montgomery and a squad of men spent several hours in the lowlands Saturday night warning people to get out.

Practically every stream in Texas was out of its banks. With the Trinity, Brazos and Colorado Rivers all flooded and bearing down upon South Texas that section can look for the worst when the greats arrive Monday. Flood conditions were unchanged Saturday night. Showers may be expected Sunday in most parts of the state which increases the gravity of the flood situation. A six-foot rise came down the Clear Fork at Fort Worth Saturday afternoon.

BAPTIST WORKERS' MEETING COMES TO CLOSE. Every speaker on the program at Saturday's session of the Fifth Sunday meeting of the Wichita County Baptist Workers' Association was present and the program was carried out as announced. The meeting was brought to a close last night with a sermon by Rev. W. C. Garrett of Electra. His subject was "The Holy Spirit Our Help."

At yesterday's session attention was called to the Lake Wichita Encampment which will be held at the Lake beginning the week of July 26. The program for the encampment is now being prepared.

While it was originally planned to have the meeting continue through Sunday there will be no special program today. The regular services will be held at the First Church and the Fourth Street Church.

WILSON FAILURE SAYS ROOSEVELT

HAS'NT HANDLED TRUST OR TARIFF QUESTIONS IN SATISFACTORY MANNER

BUSINESS IN JEOPARDY

Colonel Proposes to Clean House in New York on Return from Spain

By Associated Press.
New York, May 30.—Failure of the Wilson administration to handle satisfactorily either the trust or the tariff questions was charged by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in a statement he left behind him today for publication before sailing for Europe.

"The cost of living has not been reduced nor the slightest progress has been made in solving the trust question," he said, and again,

"It has been shown that the reduction of the tariff in no shape nor way helps toward this solution. The economic conditions are such that business is in jeopardy and the small business men, the farmer and the industrial wage worker, are all suffering because of these conditions."

Clean House in New York

Col. Roosevelt said he would put in his hardest work of his campaign in New York state.

"I believe the time has come to clean house in New York," he declared. He assailed the "Murphy and Barnes machine" but made no reference to tentative plans of the progressive leaders for endorsement of the Republican nominee in this state provided he meets their requirements.

The statement in part follows:

"Since my return from South America I have received hundreds of telegrams and letters from all over the country requesting statements from me on the political situation. It has been utterly impossible to reply to these communications. When I return from abroad I shall take up actively the political situation. There is widespread apprehension among our people; poverty is felt in many a household; we cannot ignore conditions which have brought about this state of things."

Business in Jeopardy

"The cost of living has not been reduced nor the slightest progress made in solving the trust question. It has been shown that the reduction of the tariff in no shape nor way helps toward this solution. Economic conditions are such that business is in jeopardy and the small business man, the farmer and the industrial wage worker, are suffering because of these conditions."

"The truth simply is, that the only propositions which represent a constructive governmental progressivism were the principles enunciated in the Progressive platform in connection with the trust and tariff alike. Our policies would have secured the passing around of prosperity."

Duty Lies in New York

"I believe that this falls my chief duty lies right here in the state of New York. The people of this state who wish clean and efficient government are growing indignant with the system which survives for the seasaw of the Murphy and Barnes machines. Under such rule it is absolutely impossible to get decent and effective government. Each branch of the government has been administered primarily with a view to the political expediency. No advantages whatever to the people at large can possibly come of it."

"I believe the time has come to clean house in New York and I believe all right minded people ought to act together without regard to party differences in a determined effort to bring this about."

CAPTAIN TELLS HIS STORY

"It was quite still," he answered. "How many boats were there on the Empress?"

"Between thirty and forty. There were boats for everybody. We had boats for 2,000 people. There was no panic among the passengers or crew. About four boats were launched. As the ship sank, these boats floated away. The people who were saved were saved by the Empress' boats and the wreckage. The Storstad with three or four boats pulled around and took people off the wreckage. They did not get many. I passed a couple of his boats and he had only three people in them."

James Rankin, a passenger from Van Couver and a marine engineer said:

A Passenger's Testimony.

"I was roused by the noise and ran out. There was a big pitch to the deck. I cannot tell how the accident occurred. I heard the whistles blow when I reached the deck. Five minutes after the collision a heavy fog lifted. Four or five boats got away and saved many people. I think that if the collier had kept her bow in the hole she made in the Ireland's side, she would have been able to make the shore and probably have saved every one. The officers on the Empress did everything they could. The engineers remained by the pumps until they could get no more steam and the lights went out."

Inquest Adjourned.

The jury adjourned the inquest for one week. In the meantime Coroner Pinault will consult with the district attorney to determine what may be done toward obtaining the evidence of the captain and crew of the Storstad which arrived at Quebec today and proceeded to Montreal to land her cargo.

During the day the coroner gave an order for the removal of all the bodies brought ashore. Relatives who had identified bodies were allowed to remove them and others were taken to Quebec. At 5 o'clock this morning the Canadian government steamer Lady Grey with ensign half-masted, left here for Quebec, bearing 175 bodies in coffins. No other bodies have been found and it is believed the greater number of those lost were imprisoned inside the Empress.

SHERMAN DAIRYMAN SHOT BY YOUTH

Sherman, Texas, May 30.—F. A. Richardson, a prominent dairyman, was shot three times this afternoon by Herbert Richardson, the latter being only sixteen years of age. The shooting followed a quarrel of a few hours previous. F. A. Richardson is 42 years of age and has a wife. Although of the same name the parties are not related. Herbert Richardson surrendered.

WHEAT NOT YET DAMAGED SERIOUSLY BY WET WEATHER

Rain Has Delayed Starting of Harvest, But Work is Expected to Start Shortly

Farmers who came into town yesterday say that the rains have not yet caused any serious damage to the wheat and oat crop. In low ground where the growth has been rank both wheat and oats have laid down under the heavy rains but it is believed with fair weather the straw will rise again. In a few fields where the water has stood the crop of course has been damaged but these fields are not the damage in the aggregate has not been large.

Even with fair weather it will be Wednesday or Thursday before many of the fields are dry enough for binders to work and but little wheat will be ready for the sickle before that time. The wet weather has served to keep the straw and grain growing and has delayed the ripening of the grain.

MOTORCYCLE RACES WERE POSTPONED

On account of the wet track which would have made racing extremely dangerous the twenty-five mile motorcycle race scheduled at Lake Wichita Saturday afternoon was postponed and will be held this afternoon at four o'clock if the track can be gotten in proper shape. It is believed the track can be gotten into good shape for racing this afternoon.

Our War With Mexico Was A Melancholly Fluke That Blew Up in the Stretch

And all our patriotic state militia that was furnishing for a chance to examine the national Mexican complexion through the sights of a Mauser Rifle are now at liberty to begin thinning corn and shocking wheat as soon as Jupiter Pluvius stops handing us the worst of it. The consolation is if we can't have a nice-up-to-date war with the greasers we can have a wheat crop around Wichita Falls. The times that are immediately ahead of this village will make the grouchy pessimist sit up and take notice. The farmers will have to pay storage on their money, the newsboys will have more coin than the bankers have had in years, the street corner beggars will be riding in 1913 models and asking for a twenty dollar bill to buy a sandwich and the PALACE DRUG STORE will be right on the job from six o'clock in the morning until the street lights klock for union hours ready to get awfully busy with your drug store requisitions. MRS. SANDERS ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE THURSDAY

An enjoyable occasion of the past week was the bridge party given by Mrs. E. E. Sanders Thursday afternoon at her home on Tenth street. The card tables were placed in rooms made fragrant by the lavish use of vases of roses, combined with ferns and potted plants and the game engrossed the attention of the guests until late in the afternoon. The hostess had provided three favors which were out for at the conclusion of the game, for the out of town guest the favors were cut glass salt and pepper shakers which went to Miss Jane O'Day of Buffalo, a dainty Dresden figurine plate, the high cut prize went to Mrs. Benton and Mrs. Piner Avis received the consolation, a box of candy. A delicious maple nut cream topped with a cherry was served, accompanied by individual iced cakes, cherry decorated. Mrs. Sanders' guests on this delightful occasion included: Misses O'Day, Dent, Mesdames Mytiner, E. L. Smith, Drinkard, Delaney, Bolding, Carver, Fisher, Piner Avis, Taylor, Montgomery, Abe Marcus, Ben of Dallas, Mittenhal of Dallas, Fenton, Cobb, Greenwood, Webb, Pounds, Providence of Dallas, Loeb, Lichman, Jungk of Mexico, Booth of Mexico, Moore, Short, Grisham, Griffin, Larkin, Boulware and Benton.

COLLEGE OF M. AND A. FINAL RECITALS NEXT FRIDAY

On Thursday and Friday of next week the final recitals of the College of Music and Art will be held at the Wichita Theatre. Both nights a varied program will be rendered by a representative number of the students of the College to consist of vocal, violin and piano selections with readings. The College is just closing a most successful year and these recitals are looked forward to with interest. On Friday night the scholarship to the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music will be awarded to some fortunate pupil of the College by a selected committee of Judges. This scholarship is worth several hundred dollars and much interest is being taken in the outcome of the year's work which will decide to whom the scholarship will go. Both of these recitals will be free to the public and no invitations will be sent out. All are cordially invited.

MRS. SANDERS ENTERTAINS AT THE KEMP KORT

This week's round of social activities found Mrs. E. E. Sanders hostess twice, following her bridge party of Thursday with a "Tea Dansant" at the Kemp Kort dining room. This form of afternoon tea is an innovation much favored in the northern cities by clever hostesses during the season just past and received and promises to be very popular here. The dining room had been decorated in an entirely charming manner with wild flowers in natural effects and ferns in abundance. The tables had been moved aside to make room for the dancers and Katz orchestra furnished inspiring music to which the guests were pleased to tango, hesitate and execute other modern dances. In an alcove a tea table was placed covered with snowy linen, a tall cut glass vase of roses forming the centerpiece. Here ice tea was poured throughout the afternoon whenever refreshments were desired, accompanied by a buffet luncheon of sandwiches, rock cakes and cherries. While the weather was threatening outside, the guests passed the afternoon most happily, the dainty dance programs recording twenty numbers. A list of those present included: Mesdames Art, McCoy, Bessey, Best, Bodinware, Childress, Fitzpatrick, Ferguson, Haid, Harrington, Hig, Merrill, Murchison, Stinson, Walker, Robert Salkeld of San Francisco, Prather, Carpenter, Woods, Thompson, Patterson, Gwynn, Straus, Fontaine, Alviset, Stanforth, Francis of Fort Worth and Gohlke.

MISS DENT HOSTESS TO NEW BRIDGE CLUB FRIDAY

Friday afternoon Miss Carrie Dent was hostess to the regular session of the New Bridge Club. Five tables were placed in the large living room which was beautified with floral decorations of roses. A series of the chosen game found Mrs. T. B. Smith winner of the high score favor, a hand embroidered boudier cap, while the consolation went to Mrs. E. L. Smith. Following the game dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Cullinan, Piner Avis, Dent, Fenton, Cravens, Greenwood, Griffin, Harrington, Loeb, Abe Marcus, Pounds, Smith, T. B. Smith, Terrill, Weeks, Whitney and the hostess.

B. O. P. GRADUATES ENJOY DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR FRIDAY

Friday evening the B. O. P. girls entertained in honor of those of their number who belong to the graduating class of '14, at the home of Mrs. Dan Hardy. In the decorative scheme the library parlor and living room were decorated with roses in the B. O. P. colors had been cleverly intermingled. The table in the dining room was spread with a Cluny lace cloth, centered by a mirror reflector on which was a mass of purple and gold phlox the class colors. Rising from the mass of blossoms was a slender cut glass vase, filled with pink and white roses carrying out the club colors. The punch bowl was placed in a bower of ferns and flowers in the reception hall and at intervals all during the evening refreshing punch was served. The library parlor and living room were decorated with roses in the B. O. P. colors. The honorees of the occasion, the Misses Cora Lee Waggoner, Jewell Gullet, Mabel Williams, Beryl Murph and Carrie Roberts, were presented with dainty pink and white registers by Miss Tula Stokes, immediately upon their arrival and the guests registered in each book. Programs for "Progressive Conversation" were then passed by Mrs. John Chambers and this formed the chief amusement feature of the evening. After some time was spent in this manner delicious brick cream in pink and white and cake was served. The event of the evening took place when Mrs. Hardy presented her gift to the graduates, gilt-edged correspondence cards and a cluster of white carnations, the class flowers for each girl. Miss Stokes gave the toast of the evening, "To the Sweet Girl Graduate" to which all drank. Miss Stokes' toast was as follows:

don't know. Being a graduate may be something like the measles; nearly every one has to go through it sooner or later but there isn't any good reason for it. To return to our grammar lesson, I suppose sweet girl graduate has to have an object and with most of them it is to get a husband. Perhaps that was what Kipling had in mind when he didn't write:

"When the last commencement is over and the last oration is said,

When we've told teachers how we do love 'em and the last composition is read—

We can rest and I guess that we'll need it, lay off for a season or two.

Till we each of us land us a husband and he puts us to work anew And there'll be no teachers to flunk us, no examinations to pass, Life's a domestic economy lesson, but only one in the class.

And I hope that you all will be happy and that each of you will see Safe Journey into that country of things as we'd like 'em to be. During the evening entertaining vocal selections were given by Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, also instrumental music by Misses Cora Lee Waggoner and Beryl Murph. Those enjoying this delightful affair included: Misses Annette Coffield, Milliken, Heron, Blaylock, Crabtree, Stokes, Roberts, Gullet, Stringer, Jacobs, King,

CHRISTIAN LADIES AID FAREWELL TO MRS. HUFF

Monday afternoon the members of the Ladies Aid of the First Christian Church were the guests of Mrs. R. R. Hamlin and Mrs. J. E. Bond at the home of the former, Tenth street, hon- oring Mrs. C. C. Huff who is soon to move to Dallas. After the regular business of the meeting was over the roll was called and the members re- sponded with humorous stories and incidents; some of these referring to the honoree. One especially note- worthy was an original poem in re- miniscent strain by Mrs. Tyson. Following this a most delightful me- dical program was rendered. Mrs. May sang "The Rosary" very beau- tifully with piano and violin accom- paniment. Then Mrs. Bradley at the piano and Miss Matheny on the vi- olin rendered two numbers exquisi- tely. Kindly responding to special re- quest, Miss Matheny then whistled "The Mocking Bird" and "Old Folks at Home" with the piano. These were all treats to music loving souls. Mrs. Ross Duke then sang "Auld Lang Syne" (the ladies joining in the chorus). Mrs. Hamlin in her most gracious manner presented Mrs. Huff with a lovely bouquet of carnations and a dainty book on "Friendship," the gift of the Aid. Mrs. Huff responded in her own sweet way expressing appre- ciation. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Duke and Misses Alexandra, Ballock and Hamlin. After these had been fully enjoyed the company were asked to stand and join hands. They then sang one verse of "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," and closed with the Misses benediction.

FORMER WICHITA FALLS GIRL IS MARRIED IN NEW MEXICO

Dr. and Mrs. Reed of this city have received an announcement of the marriage of their niece, Miss Ruby Reed, formerly a teacher in the Wichita Falls schools and well known here, at Russell, N. M., on May 27 to Charles C. Averill. Mr. Averill is engaged in the oil business and met his bride while pro- specting here several years ago. She taught during the term just closed in the Roswell schools. The couple are now on their honeymoon in Califor- nia and after June 15 will be at home at Trees, La., where Mr. Averill is engaged in the oil operations.

BERNICE LANDERS HONORED AT DANCE FRIDAY EVENING

Friday evening Miss Ruby Moore entertained with a dance honoring Miss Bernice Landers, one of the high school graduates. Violet and white were the colors featured in the decora- tions and the refreshments. The favors for the evening were violets and white sweet peas and the violet and white dance programs contained thirteen numbers and three extras. The guests included: Misses Pauline Thibault, Adelle Jackson, Stone, Hines, Stayton, Kahn, Ethel Bean, Fain, the hostess and Messrs. Robert- erson, H. Robertson, Barnard, Fain, Williams, Pond, Hamlin, Carrigan, Avis, Junck, V. Junck, Douglas, No- len, Clossitt, Smith and Stringer.

MODERN CROCHET CLUB MET WEDNESDAY WITH MRS. STOUT

The Modern Crochet Club was en- tertained Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Stout as hostess. The occasion was the birthday of both the hostess and Mrs. John Colboth and they were the recipients of a number of very pretty and useful gifts. The afternoon was spent in the manner customary to the club and delicious ice cream and cake was served. Those present were: Misses Daley Brooks, Elizabeth Forsch, Messdames Brooks, West, Hammond, Ulrich, Col- both.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL FRIDAY AT HOME OF ELI MORGAN

Friday evening Division B of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist Church enjoyed the social at the home of Eli Morgan, 1597 Tenth. Various games were played, including several series of "Bunco" and music was also enjoyed during the course of the evening. At a late hour delicious ice cream and cake were served.

MISS COOK TO GIVE RECITAL NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

On Tuesday evening, June 2 the pupils of Miss Katharine Cook will give a recital assisted by Miss Cook and Mr. Von der Lippe at the home of Miss Cook's brother, R. W. Cook. Miss Cook is one of the most accom- plished musicians of the city and has a voice of remarkable clearness and beauty. The fact that she has been blind since her youth makes her mu- sical ability and talent seem nothing short of wonderful as she possesses musical ability that would do great credit to any one in possession of the faculty of sight. As a teacher Miss Cook ranks high and the recital is looked forward to with much inter- est. The following program will be carried out: Duet, Master Wans Faust Le Roy; (a) The Bells; (b) The First Waltz; (c) Ella Mae Cook; the Robins Lullaby; Irene Brooks; duet, Mabel Morris and Ellen Adelle Robert- erson; (a) The Voice of the Heart; (b) Stambler Song; Emma Cassidy; (c) Caballetta; (d) Mazurka Im- promptu; Clara Carlisle; Love's Lon- ging; Mabel Morris; (a) Trampler; (b) Serenade; (c) Reverie; Allen A. Gibb; Robert Morris and Ellen Adelle Robert- erson; (a) The Vocal solo; Miss Katharine Cook; Romance and Rolo; Mr. Von der Lippe, accompanied by Mrs. Von der Lippe; (a) Vissi D'Arte; Miss Katharine Cook, accompanied by Mrs. Ben Bell.

MRS. STANFORTH HONORS MRS. FRANCIS OF FORT WORTH

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Mon- tague Stanforth entertained at Bridge complimenting her sister, Mrs. W. W. Francis of Fort Worth. The rooms in which the tables were placed had been decorated in a simple but exceedingly pretty manner; carnations in delicate tones of pink and white, with a por- tion of lacey fern and similar, being the favored flowers. At the conclu- sion of the game, the dainty hand- made towels, provided by the hostess as the souvenirs of the afternoon, were cut, Mrs. C. R. Hine and Mrs. J. C. Straus being the fortunate ones. A dainty luncheon was then served to the following guests, indebted to the gracious hostess and her charming sister for such an exceptionally pleas- ant afternoon: Messdames Wiley Blair, Frank Blair, Cullinan, Duke, Gwynn, Hine, Clark of Dallas, Jungk of Mex- ico, Leoham, Marcus, Brin, Milton- ical, McGregor, Roberts, Sanders, Es- cove, Sherrard, Smith, T. B. Smith, Terrill, Toney, Mike Walker, Woods, Mytinger, Urban, Straus, Pen- ton, Craven, Dent, Misses Dent and Sherrard.

MRS. G. E. FRISBERG HOSTESS TO THE NEW IDEA CLUB

Instead of the picnic meeting with Mrs. H. J. Bachman, the New Idea Club met in regular session with Mrs. G. E. Frisberg and Misses Blair, at the picnic next Wednesday at Lake Wich- ita. Sewing and conversation formed the afternoon's diversions as usual until late in the afternoon, when the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Alpha, Estelle and Nettie, served a delicious luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, olives and coffee, followed by ice cream, cake and mints. The mem- bers present were Messdames E. V. Frisberg, M. E. Carey, J. J. Simon, D. Della, Dobson and the visitors were Messdames A. E. Anderson, G. Byman, Keister of Haskell, and Misses Allen, Anderson and Thompson Frisberg.

DELPHIAN SOCIETY CLOSSES SEASON WITH SOCIAL MEET

The final session of the Delphian Society for this season was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. T. R. Boone as hostess. The time was spent in a pleasant social manner and a delicious pineapple ice was served. Those present were: Mes- dames Dent, H. Moore, Carver, Ben- ford, Brainard, Boone, Bill, Yolking, Misses Carver and Boone.

MRS. CRAVENS HAS FINAL SESSION OF THURSDAY BRIDGE

The final session of the Thursday Bridge Club until the first Thursday in October was held Thursday after- noon with Mrs. Harry Cravens as hostess. A session with Mrs. Cravens as hostess means an unusually pleas- ant afternoon and this meeting proved no exception to the general rule. In the living room in which the four tables were placed for the game, at the afternoon, roses were the chosen flowers for the floral decorative scheme, a profusion of these flowers being used, both in artistic vases and baskets, the rose embowered room making a charming setting for the lovely spring toilettes of the guests. The rose predominated in the dainty score cards with which the progress of the game was marked. The favor of the afternoon, white silk hose, was cut for Mrs. Eugene Sherrard, being the fortunate one. Two new mem- bers were taken into the club mem- bership, Mrs. Frank Cullinan and Mrs. Walter Robertson. At the con- clusion of the game the guests were invited into the dining room and here refreshments in purple and golden tones were given the preference. Three large bowls of pansies adorned the table at each place a cluster of pan- sies were found, and the yellow tints of the flowers were reflected in the orange ice which was served. Those present were: Messdames Chamberlains and Sherrard, Messdames Roberts, Ed- Prather, Willie Blair, Frank Cullinan, Toney, Eugene Sherrard, McGregor, McCullough, Dent, Zundelwitz, Duke, Frank Blair and the hostess, Mrs. Harry Cravens.

SENIORS HONORED IN PARTY BY MRS. ROBERTSON

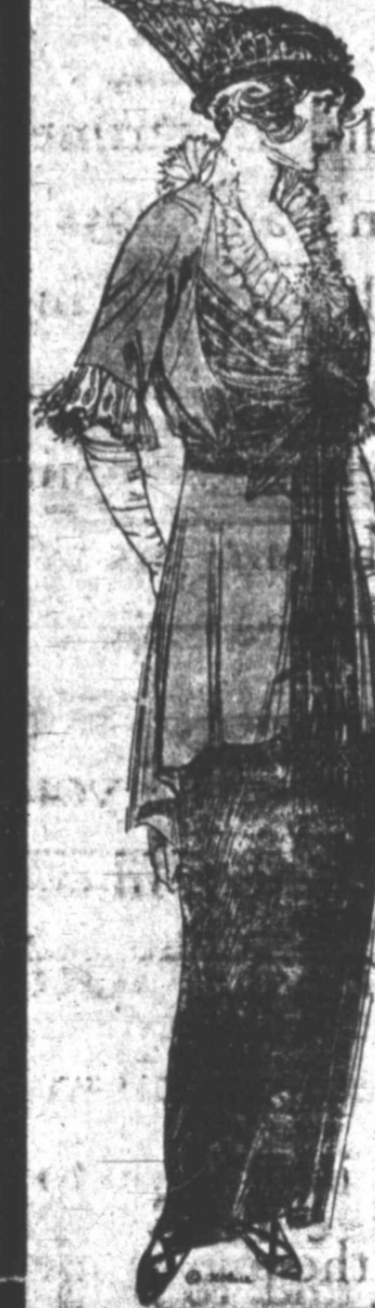

Another enjoyable event in the round of commencement festivities occurred Thursday evening when Mrs. W. L. Robertson entertained the seniors and the faculty of the high school for her son, Henry who is a member of the graduating class. The guests were welcomed by the hostess, Mrs. H. J. Bachman, Mrs. C. R. Hartcock, H. J. Bachman, and the young people left town about six o'clock, arriving at the lake some time was spent on roller skates. Sup- per followed this diversion and in the evening there was dancing with other attractions. Included in the party were: Misses Genevieve Carver, Lil- ian McGregor, Kathleen Blair, Ann Greer, Olive Edwards, Bertha Mack Kemp, Bess Kell, Messrs. Bullock, Burns, McGregor, Stone, Fain, Stay- ton and Chilton.

MRS. BURBIDGE ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Wednesday at high noon Mrs. B. H. Burbidge entertained at luncheon, thus paying a pretty compliment to Mrs. C. C. Huff who leaves soon to make her home in Dallas and Mrs. George Harrington who was on the summer. The table was charmingly decorated with pansies in a color scheme of purple and yellow, a mass of the flowers and foliage centering the table and a corsage corsage top- ping the plate favors. The color motif was further carried out in the tiny individual purple mints cups. Covers were laid for twelve and a Mrs. Cook menu was served. Mrs. Watts act-

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY PICNIC OUTING AT LAKE WEDNESDAY

Wednesday evening a number of the younger society set enjoyed a pic- nic outing at Lake Wichita. Under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. M. McGregor and Mrs. Ed. Carver, the young people left town about six o'clock, arriving at the lake some time was spent on roller skates. Sup- per followed this diversion and in the evening there was dancing with other attractions. Included in the party were: Misses Genevieve Carver, Lil- ian McGregor, Kathleen Blair, Ann Greer, Olive Edwards, Bertha Mack Kemp, Bess Kell, Messrs. Bullock, Burns, McGregor, Stone, Fain, Stay- ton and Chilton.

MRS. BURBIDGE ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Wednesday at high noon Mrs. B. H. Burbidge entertained at luncheon, thus paying a pretty compliment to Mrs. C. C. Huff who leaves soon to make her home in Dallas and Mrs. George Harrington who was on the summer. The table was charmingly decorated with pansies in a color scheme of purple and yellow, a mass of the flowers and foliage centering the table and a corsage corsage top- ping the plate favors. The color motif was further carried out in the tiny individual purple mints cups. Covers were laid for twelve and a Mrs. Cook menu was served. Mrs. Watts acted as toastmistress and a number of toasts were offered. Mrs. Carrigan gave a toast to "Women." Mrs. Snider invited to Mrs. Huff and Mrs. Whit- ney gave ones to Mrs. Harrington. Mrs. Greenless then proposed a toast to the hostess. The guests on this occasion were: Messdames Huff and Harrington, the honorees, Messdames Watta, Carrigan, Snider, Walker, A. D. Anderson, Greenless, Gray, Mc- Gregor and Whitney.

BRIDE AND GROOM HONORED WITH KITCHEN SHOWER

Thursday evening Miss Inogene Brown entertained with a kitchen shower for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bach- man. The affair was in the nature of a surprise to the young couple who were asked to spend the evening, finding on their arrival a number of friends assembled. The bride and groom were blindfolded a "kitchen bouquet" placed in the bride's hand and they headed the procession. On reaching the dining room the band- ages were removed and the surpris- ed couple looking on the table a huge pile of tissue wrapped bundles. On opening these bundles, countless use- ful kitchen utensils were disclosed in white enameled ware. Following the unwrapping of the gifts the remain- der of the evening was spent with mu- sic and conversation, delicious punch and cake being served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Jewell and Miss Vella Mae Gardner. The guests included the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bachman, Messrs.

MRS. CLIFFORD ROBBSON IS HOSTESS TO WESLEY GIRLS

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Clifford Robson entertained the Wesley Girls in regular session at her home in Floral Heights. The afternoon was spent in the most pleasant manner possible with fancy work and gay social chat. The hostess served a delightful luncheon menu, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad and ice tea. Mrs. H. J. Robson was the club guest and the members present were: Misses Muriel Hick- man, Myrtle Humphries, Hazel Rob- son, Messdames Rhea Howard, Lester Jones and the hostess.

MISSIONARY MEETING OF GUILD IS HELD MONDAY

The Guild of the Good Shepherd met Monday afternoon in regular session at the rectory and a most in- teresting missionary program was carried out. The members answered roll call with the symbols of the church and entertaining papers were read by Messdames Shutt and Childers.

and Messdames H. J. Bachman, C. M. Duke, J. M. Brown Jr., W. H. Bach- man, I. D. Brown, F. W. Snyder, W. W. Brown, Arthur Frisberg, Rev. C. G. Smith and wife, Misses Mamie Hill, Leona, Harriard, Lillian, Bach- man, Vella Snyder, Ruby Bachman, Ethel and Maggie Brown, Stella Bachman, Messdames Dobson and Corkhill and Messrs. Rankin, Mor- gan, Bachman, Simmons and Snyder.

MRS. DATSON GAVE A GOOD REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN MEETING WHICH SHE ATTENDED IN DALLAS LAST WEEK

Included in the program was a delightful violin selection by Mrs. Gwynn, accom- panied on the piano by Mrs. Carnes. Arrangements for a meeting to be held on Saturday were made and at the conclusion of the program and business session, the missionary com- mittee of which Mrs. McCullough is chairman, served delicious sandwiches and tea. Mrs. Shutt presiding at the tea service. It was announced that Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Shutt would be hostess on next Monday at the home of the former, entertaining the Guild and all friends of the church with a "parish tea." Those present at the meeting Monday were: Mes- dames McCullough, Childers, John- ston, Shutt, Jones, Millburn, Reed, Warner, Sha's, Shutt, Blair, Bibb, Gates, Fontaine, Sammons, Craven, Whitney, Allen, Kennedy, Datson, E. L. Smith, Gwynn, Carnes, Miss Chamberlain and Rev. Datson.

M. E. SOUTH LADIES ENJOY ALL DAY SESSION AT LAKE

The all day social meeting of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, convened Monday at Lake Wichita. The day was spent in the most pleasant manner possi- ble, a delightful lunch being spread at noon. In the afternoon a short business session was held, the ladies planning the work for the coming summer. Social meetings will be held at the homes of the members at intervals during the summer; the first of these to be a "meeting party" to be given at Mrs. Langford's

U. D. C. PLANS PICNIC FOR OLD CONFEDERATE VETERANS

The United Daughters of the Confederacy held a call meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. B. Felder. The meeting was called for the purpose of collecting the year's dues and planning for the picnic to be given the old soldiers. The business was disposed of in a very satisfactory manner and plans were made to hold the picnic on the fourth of June. The Daughters wish to urge that all old soldiers whether a member of the local chapter or not should attend and it would be much appreciated if those having knowledge of any veterans who might be overlooked when the invitations are sent, would notify the Daughters. The members present were: Mesdames Wiley Robertson, Eda Orr, Ed Howard, Patterson, Gaffney, McElroy, Shepherd, Peery, McGregor, Harry Robertson, Lee and Bolding.

QUILTING BEE IS HELD BY JUST SO CLUB SATURDAY

The Just So Club met at nine o'clock Saturday morning at the very pleasant home of Mrs. M. J. Gardner, for the purpose of quilting the "Philathia". Each member took a thimble and one dish for the "spread" which was enjoyed immensely at high noon. The quilt is a beauty and the club will sell it the money to go into the money to go into the Philathia treasury. It will be on display in a window down town some time in the near future. Those of the club deserving special mention for their work are: Miss Bolton who quilted holes in her thimble; Miss Barwise, whose left hand fitted in charmingly; Miss Downing whose strawberries fitted in charmingly also; and Mrs. Shelton, who worked hardest to earn the after dinner nap. After a delicious pineapple sherbet, the meeting adjourned with many thanks to Mrs. Gardner and family for the gracious hospitality shown. Those who attended were: Misses Edwards, Hilliard, Coffield, Barwise, Bolton, Smith, Barber, Gardner, Wilkes, Martia, Downing, Mesdames Walker, Shelton, Billingsley, MacDowell, Higgins, Jeanne, Hartook and Gardner.

BEST WHEAT CROP IN HISTORY AWAITS BINDERS

ITS RECEIVED IN MANY POINTS

BEST TEXAS AND SOUTH OKLAHOMA PROSPECTS BEST IN YEARS

MACHINERY IS SHIPPED

Plans Under Way For Harvest

Places This Week

Best wheat crop in history is expected to be harvested in the best of years in Texas and South Oklahoma, according to reports from many points in that territory by The Times. Generous rains during the winter and during the spring have given the growing wheat a prospect that makes the outlook favorable.

Every point comes word that there will be scarce unless hands are secured and it may be that scarcity will cause inconvenience in quarters. However, commercial intentions and business men are making their efforts already to meet this condition.

Estimates of Wichita county's crop published in The Times several weeks ago have not been materially changed by those in touch with the situation. This estimate was of an average of 45,000 with a probable average of fifteen bushels making Wichita county's yield 1,275,000 bushels.

Most conservative estimates estimate the million bushel mark and are not a few who believe that a million and a half bushels will be harvested within the limits of Wichita county. One local grain man estimates that about two million bushels will be marketed in this county but this estimate includes reports from adjoining counties.

The reports could scarcely be more optimistic and a tone of optimism such has not been noted in years in the letters published below.

On every side preparations for the harvest are under way. A report from Tillman county says one farmer has already started his binder and had it not rained in various parts of this section last week there is little doubt that the harvest would have started in many fields. The end of this week will see the binders going in many sections and by the middle of June a large part of the wheat of Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma will have been cut. Threshing will start as soon as conditions warrant.

Dozens of carloads of binders and other harvesting machinery have been shipped to this section, a large part of the equipment being hauled through this city. Several new threshing outfits have been purchased to handle the crop and the beginning of the harvest season will find the farmers well equipped.

Some time ago The Times addressed letters to newspaper men and others in touch with the situation throughout Northwest Texas and Oklahoma asking for information as to the crop. These reports are published in The Times today.

ACREAGE OF 40,000 IN CLAY COUNTY REPORTED
Henrietta, Texas—The best estimate of wheat acreage possible to make is 40,000 acres. This is one-sixth of the cultivated land in the county; some portions have a much larger proportion than this but there are other portions, especially in the extreme southern and southeastern parts that grow no wheat. The yield will probably average twenty bushels per acre, though there are some who say it will be twenty-five and others say eighteen. It is affirmed by all that we have the best wheat crop in many years. (Signed) CYRUS COLEMAN.

9,000 ACRES IN BAYLOR COUNTY, WITH GOOD YIELD
Seymour, Texas—In the Westover and Road Timber country there are about 9,000 acres of wheat, about 2,000 in the southwest portion and about 3,900 northwest of Seymour. Other portions would have 1,000 more, making a total of perhaps 9,000 acres in the county. Prospects now point to a yield of twenty bushels or better to the acre. The soil acreage is for the most part in small tracts, planted with the idea of securing some early feed. There are 2,900 acres in the county and it should yield forty bushels to the acre. There is ample help in the county to handle the grain crop, provided it could be utilized at that time. But continued rains have made spring crops late and it is very probable that all hands that might come here for work could secure it. Most grain in this county is late and harvesting will not begin generally until about the 10th of June. (Signed) O. C. HARRISON.

LARGEST YIELD IN YEARS PROMISED IN WISE COUNTY

Definite information as to acreage and yield in Wise county is not available but the editor of the Boyd index reports that in the south end of the county the acreage is ten per cent above the average and that if it is well saved the yield will be the largest in years. The harvest will start this week if favorable weather prevails the report says.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY HAS 10,000 ACRES IN WHEAT

Wellington, Texas—The number of acres in wheat in Collingsworth county is 10,000, oats possibly half as much. The average yield of wheat will be around twenty-seven bushels per acre. Harvest will start about the 20th or 25th of June. It is believed farmers will be able to secure the necessary labor. (Signed) LEADER PRINTING CO.

NEARLY 30,000 ACRES PLANTED IN FOARD COUNTY

Crowell, Texas—A complete canvass of every farm in this section shows that 25,694 acres are devoted to wheat in Foard county. It is estimated that this acreage will produce about 650,000 bushels of grain or a little more than 22½ bushels per acre. Other crops in the county present an excellent appearance also and with the recent rains in this territory there is every indication that Foard county will enjoy a banner year.

ALL CROP PROSPECTS IN HASKELL COUNTY GOOD.

Haskell, Texas—The acreage of crops in Haskell county is estimated as follows: Wheat 40,000 acres, will average twenty bushels, may go to thirty. Oats 15,000 acres, will average sixty bushels. There is an immense crop of maize and kafir corn up to a good stand. There is a large acreage of cotton up to a good stand. Harvesting will begin about June 10th. Have had splendid seasons and prospects were never better. (Signed) OSCAR MARTIN.

MILLION BUSHEL CROP IN SIGHT IN WILBARGER

Vernon, Texas—Wilbarger county's wheat crop it is believed will be well above a million bushels this year. The acreage is estimated at 50,000 bushels and it is believed the yield will be around twenty-two bushels. Harvest will start about June 5.

60,000 ACRES WHEAT IN JACKSON COUNTY, OKLA.

Altus, Okla.—While it is rather early yet to place an estimate on the wheat crop for Jackson county, indications point to the best wheat year since 1903. That year was the best wheat year ever known in the country and it was followed by another fairly good one in 1908 though too much wet weather badly curtailed the crop that year. There are approximately 60,000 acres planted to wheat in Jackson county. While the greater part of it was planted for winter pasture and most of it was pastured as heavy as it could stand, it is in fine condition and if nothing happens to prevent yield a bountiful harvest. If not a bushel of grain is harvested from any of the acreage planted in Jackson county the wheat will have paid for itself many times over in winter pastures for many of our farmers could not have possibly wintered their stock through without it. This writer examined a dozen fields of wheat in the vicinity of Elmer, Okla., in the southern part of the county Friday and estimates the yield at from fifteen to twenty-five bushels to the acre on an average. Where the land is good the wheat has made a splendid stand with heads from four to six inches in length running three grains to the inch. In these good spots it is from waist to shoulder high to an average man. There are other fields, however, where the grain runs from a foot to eighteen inches in height with small heads from 1½ to 2 inches long, with two grains to the inch. On an average it should make twenty bushels to the acre but many believe this is too low. There is one fault to be found with the wheat planted in Jackson county and this fault obtains all over the county; it is badly mixed. Hard and soft wheat grow together in the same field so mixed that it is impossible to tell what the farmer thought he was sowing. There are many varieties, too of both grades. This will not only have the effect of reducing the price to the farmer from fifteen to twenty cents on the bushel but it is also bad for the miller, for wheat must be either hard or soft, to be made into flour. Seed wheat was hard to get last fall and millers and grain buyers were compelled to accept anything they could get to supply the demand. In the past three weeks copious rains have fallen, in fact, for the past week there has been rain all over the county most every day. This has been good for the wheat which is now in the "dough" stage. There is some complaint of rust in certain parts of the county but not sufficient to hurt. The rust has appeared only on the leaves and of the fifty possibilities named by the writer Friday none was found on the stalk. The wheat crop in Jackson county taken all in all, could not be in better condition. (Signed) HORACE W. SHEPARD.

TILLMAN COUNTY HARVEST WILL BEGIN THIS WEEK

Frederick, Okla.—Tillman county will begin Monday the harvesting of the biggest wheat crop in its history. With an acreage of fifty per cent larger than last year's and indications all pointing to a wonderful yield there is every prospect now that within a very short time a stream of cash running high into the hundreds of thousands of dollars will be turned into the pockets of the farmers of this county. The wheat acreage in Tillman county is estimated at 70,000 acres. A conservative estimate places the yield at twenty bushels to the acre. This will mean a total of 1,400,000 bushels. The oat acreage in the county is not large and would be difficult to estimate. It is not nearly as large as last year's but the crop is in good condition, taking the county over. Many fields give promise of yielding forty bushels to the acre. The county will need help in the way of labor in harvesting this immense wheat crop. By the middle of next week it is highly probable that there will be work somewhere in the county for every man who comes here seeking employment. Work in the alfalfa fields was resumed Saturday and is now on in earnest. It had been stopped by the heavy rains Friday, Saturday and Sunday a week ago. These rains caused several hundred acres of cut alfalfa on the ground in Tillman county and damaged it to some extent. However, the owners are baling this and most of them will store it either to feed to their own stock or to save for shipment next winter when hay becomes scarce. Many fields are undergoing their first cutting while others which were cut earlier are rapidly producing a second crop. (Signed) A. L. NEWLAND.

HALF MILLION BUSHELS EXPECTED IN ARCHER COUNTY

Archer City, Texas—Archer county farmers are preparing to harvest a half million bushel wheat crop this year. The crop will be the largest ever grown here. Approximately 25,000 acres are sown in wheat and the yield will be between eighteen and twenty bushels. The season has been very favorable for upland wheat, most of Archer county's crop being of this character and the heavy rains have done little if any damage. Harvest will start as soon as the ground becomes dry enough for the operation of binders. Farmers have already taken a profit out of their wheat and oat crops from the winter pastures the high price of cattle having made this possible. Whatever the farmers get out of their wheat crop will be "velvet." Conditions are better in Archer county than for many years. (Signed) E. L. GREGORY.

RAIN CHECKS HARVEST STARTED IN YOUNG COUNTY

Olney, Texas—Wheat cutting which had started here Thursday was stopped by the rains Friday and Saturday and will be resumed as soon as the ground dries off so binders can be operated. Estimate of the wheat acreage in Young county are around 22,000 acres. The prospective yield in this section is twenty bushels per acre.

BOTH ACREAGE AND YIELD LARGE IN COMANCHE COUNTY

Lawton, Okla.—The estimated wheat acreage in Comanche county is 45,000 to 50,000 with from 20,000 to 25,000 acres sown. The prospective wheat yield, average is twenty to twenty-two bushels. Help will be scarce from present indications. Harvest should start about June 10. (Signed) E. L. GREGORY.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS DAY PROGRAM FRIDAY AFTERNOON BEGINS THE FESTIVITIES ARE TO HEAR SERMON TODAY

Diplomas Will be Awarded Monday Night—Other Features Mark Close of School

The first of the high school commencement exercises was the observance of class day on Friday afternoon at the high school auditorium. Although it seemed as if the sky itself would come down at the time set for the exercises, a good number was in attendance and the rain in no way interfered with the program. The program planned with the exception of the interment of the old school books of the graduates.

The first thing on the program was an address by Prof. Carpenter, superintendent of the city schools, who spoke of the future and the promises he held in store for the graduates who were just stepping out into the world. This address was followed by the class song which was composed by Vera Hincley, class poetess and sung to the tune of "School Days." Piano numbers were contributed to the program by Beryl Murph and Cora Lee Waggoner and violin numbers by Lola Norris and Jewell Guillett of the graduating class. The high school quartette composed of R. Pond, C. Butts, L. Dougan and C. Smith then gave a selection.

Class Prophecy is Read.
The class prophecy was read by Bernice Landers and the secretary of the class, Celia Stayton, read the characteristics of the members of the class. The feature of the afternoon's program was the presentation of the class gifts by the class comedian, Garrle Roberts. These gifts were suited to the one to whom presented, reflecting some hobby or characteristic and the comedian accompanied the presentation with an appropriate original verse. The reading of the class of 1914, last will and testament was followed by the presentation of the senior class key to the president of the senior class, Clyde Smith made the presentation and Ralph Pond responded as president of the class of '14.

Will Bury the Books.
The books were then placed in a receptacle on the platform to be interred at some future time when the weather will permit.

Saturday evening a banquet was held at the Westland accompanied by the usual toastmaking and speeches. Festive plans were made looking forward to a permanent Alumni Association of the W. F. H. S.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered today at the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. J. L. McKee. The commencement night exercises will be held Monday evening at the Wichita Theatre at which time the diplomas will be given. Judge Ode Speer will deliver the commencement

"The Store of Quality"

At the big Store

There are two things you consider when you make a purchase—price and quality. Not many years ago anything could be sold if the price was low enough. Price was the magic magnet that attracted crowds and drew dollars from the old, saving-laden socks in hidden holes in walls and floors. That was yesterday. This is today. In which class do you belong, in yesterday or today, Mr. Buyer? You talk quality to sell, no matter what business you may be engaged in. Do you demand quality when you buy? Naturally, you are looking for the price, but you are also looking for the best you can get for that price. Price figures in the transaction, but it is the quality of the article that counts after all, for quality is remembered long after price is forgotten. And as The Freear Store is builded on the foundation of quality, we have a long line of satisfied customers and would be pleased to add your name to our list. We carry no close-outs in case goods, old and yellow with age, or mis-matched or drop patterns in rugs or linoleum. Everything is this season's goods direct from the factories and we guarantee to save you money if quality is considered. See us any time. Our prices are always right.

"FITZ" TO LEAVE FOR CHILDRESS SOON

WILL ASSUME DUTIES OF DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT TOMORROW

MUCH REGRET AT DEPARTURE

Has Been One of Most Popular Members of Local Railroad Fraternity

That a railroad executive must have the respect of those whose work he directs, is one of the axioms of the railroad service; that he must have their confidence of his superiors is no less essential; but it is fortunate in the railroad official who possesses in addition to these, the love of those under his administration. Such an official is "Fitz"—best known as Robert G. Fitzpatrick, for the past four years superintendent of the Wichita Valley, who on June 1 becomes superintendent of the Fort Worth-Childress division of the Fort Worth & Denver.

There are branch lines and branch lines and the Wichita Valley is neither the biggest nor the most important of them. Yet it is a man's job to superintend it. It starts in the red clay banks of northern Clay county comes south to Wichita Falls and plunges untrifled into the prairies of the Valley country. It wanders along down to Abilene; there is a branch shooting off northwest from "Camford," meandering across the plains and across braucherous streams and up hill and down dale to the prairies of Dickens county. Cyclones and floods and droughts cross its path, making trouble for nearly everybody.

Just how well R. G. Fitzpatrick has run his job there are railroad men who can tell you better than The Times can. But The Times knows that promotions are not handed out to men who do not measure up to their work and Fitz has been promoted. O. E. Maer, one time superintendent of the Valley asked to come back to it because he felt that hankering that every ex-Wichitan they say feels when he gets away from here. No doubt when Fitz gets up to Childress for a while he will feel that same hankering. Everybody including R. G. himself, hates for him to leave Wichita Falls, though they rejoice that he has been given this recognition of his ability. All who have come in contact with him, either socially or in a business way have become his friends. His work will bring him to Wichita Falls frequently and he probably won't allow himself to become a stranger here. He has been in railroad work nearly all of the forty some odd years of his life and has come up from the ranks.

O. E. Maer who succeeds him as superintendent of the Wichita Valley, is too well known in Wichita Falls to require any introduction and his numerous friends here are glad of his decision to return.

MEN WHO SOLICITED MONEY HERE ARRESTED IN ST. LOUIS

Supporters of G. Orphanage in Syria Alleged To Be Bearing Forged Credentials

Wichitans who dug up various small sums several weeks ago for an orphanage in Syria and who fondly saw additional stars in their crowns for so doing, will regret to learn that the Balkan men and the two men they solicited funds from local people, securing probably several hundred dollars. They put a spell that would have touched the heart of almost anyone about the orphanage across the sea, rendered homeless by the Balkan wars and the two men gathered in many shakels thereby. All was lovely, apparently until they reached St. Louis when somebody got busy with results as aforesaid.

While here the two men used the letters to secure indorsements from local pastors and acted with these they solicited funds from local people, securing probably several hundred dollars. They put a spell that would have touched the heart of almost anyone about the orphanage across the sea, rendered homeless by the Balkan wars and the two men gathered in many shakels thereby. All was lovely, apparently until they reached St. Louis when somebody got busy with results as aforesaid.

DO IT NOW

Wichita Falls People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

F. McEnnis, carpenter, 1108 Scott St., Wichita Falls, Tex., says: "I suffered from pains across the small of my back and in my sides. I also had to get up frequently during the night to pass the kidney secretions. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended I got a box and used them as directed. In a short time I was cured."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McEnnis had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

HALF HOLIDAY GIVEN IN FREIGHT OFFICES

BOTH KATY AND DENVER TO CLOSE ON SATURDAY AT NOON THIS SUMMER

IS CUSTOM IN OTHER CITIES

Night and Sunday Work Also Eliminated—Employees Much Benefitted By Change

Announcement was made yesterday that beginning June 1 and until September 1 the two local freight offices here will be closed after one o'clock on Saturday afternoons, giving the clerks a half holiday. This is generally practiced in the larger cities but this is the first season it has ever been undertaken in Wichita Falls.

Heretofore the clerks have been worked on Saturday afternoons and nights and on Sunday just like every other day of the week and it has been a matter of common knowledge that these clerks worked longer hours than anybody else in town.

Now, however, brighter days have dawned for the local freight office forces. Night work has been reduced to a minimum in both offices and about a month ago Agent M. A. Bundy of the Fort Worth & Denver announced to his office force that there was going to be no more Sunday work in his office this was absolutely necessary. He has lived up to it too and his men long used to working seven days in a week feel like birds out of a cage on Sunday.

The announcement of a Saturday half holiday now makes the boys in the office feel like real human beings. The formal announcement posted in both freight offices follows:

"By agreement with the business men of this city we will, commencing June 1st close our freight houses every Saturday at 1 o'clock until Sept. 1st, 1914. Please be governed accordingly.

"M. A. BUNDY, Agent Ft. W. & D. C. and W. V. R.

"A. B. MAPLES, Agent M. K. & T. Lines."

DECORATION DAY PROGRAM IS PREVENTED BY WEATHER

Many Visit Cemetery However and Place Flowers on Graves During The Day

Formal observance of Decoration Day in Wichita Falls was prevented by the heavy rains Friday night and Saturday morning and the program that had been announced for ten o'clock in the morning was called off. The rain and the mud however, did not prevent many from going out to the cemetery and laying flowers on the graves of their dead. Many are expected to visit the cemetery today if the weather is propitious.

D. BROWDER FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

We see in the Wichita Falls Daily Times that our old friend and townsman, D. Browder has announced as a candidate for the office of justice of the peace in Wichita Falls. Mr. Browder lived long in Gordon where he served as justice of the peace and later as town alderman, rendering in each office faithful and efficient services. We heartily recommend him to the people of Wichita Falls and if they see fit to elect him he will make them a faithful and efficient officer. —Gordon Courier. (Adv.)
