CARRANZA MAY DECLINE OFFER

HIS SECRETARY SAYS WILL REFUSE INVITATION OF MEDIATORS.

GOING TO WASHINGTON

"Wont Treat With Huerta Except on Battle Field," is His Reported Attitude.

By Associated Press. New Orleans, June 23.—Carranza will not accept the invitation of the United States government to send representatives to meet informally with agents of Huerta in an endeavor to select a provisional president of Mexico, according to a statement here today by Alfredo Brocena, private secretary of General Carranza and a member of the latest commission Carranza is sending to Washington.

Brocena is here en route to Washington with Fernando Calderon and R. F. Villavicencio, a constitutionalist official of Saitillo. They probably will leave for Washington tonight.

"Carranza is firm in his attitude that he will not treat with Huerta except on the battlefield," Brocena told the Associated Press through an interpreter. "We are on a very important mission to Washington, which we cannot discuss, but it is not to meet with representatives of Huerta formally or informally."

That the commissioners intended to be fully informed of the situation at Washington and Niagara Falls was indicated today by the arrival direct from Washington of J. F. Urquidí, secretary to the constitutionalist representative in Washington, and who delivered the important Carranza note to the mediation conference at Niagara Falls.

Urquidí said he was in New Orleans on another mission and would leave probably tomorrow, but for where he would not say. His arrival at the place where the statement as to Carranza's attitude was being given out was received apparently more with satisfaction than surprise.

Brocena denied reports from the border that he was going to resign the position of secretary to Carranza.

PREPARATIONS FOR CARRANZA REPRESENTATIVES

By Associated Press. Niagara Falls, June 23.—Mediators American and Huerta delegates, were occupied today in making arrangements for the informal conference between representatives of General Carranza and General Huerta at which it is hoped an agreement will be reached on the individual who is to be provisional president of Mexico. Details still were lacking and depend on the traveling arrangements of the constitutionalists now en route here.

On the delegates from the two factions themselves will rest the burden of selecting the man of the hour, a task which deadlocked the mediation conference last week and nearly disrupted it. By turning over the delicate question of personnel to the Mexican themselves, the mediators and American delegates feel temporarily relieved. There can be no charge of foreign dictation then to the American government is ready to recognize whoever is agreed upon by the two Mexican delegations.

In the informal conferences, all international questions will be discussed. The counsel of the American delegates will be given when sought. On international questions the mediation board will continue its conferences. The fact that two warring factions are to be brought together to discuss personnel for the new provisional government has encouraged the mediation colony generally to hope for a settlement. There are many, however, who are no more sanguine than before that the vexed question of the personality of government can be settled by diplomacy.

It is an assured fact, nevertheless, that before the informal conference will be permitted to dissolve without agreement, the power and influence of the United States will be brought to bear with renewed vigor and determination. A settlement will be insisted on, lest graver consequences ensue.

LIGHT VOTE IS BEING CAST IN CITY BOND ELECTION

A light vote is being cast today in the election to determine whether the city will issue $7,500 bonds for a new fire station and $20,000 for park purposes. At 2 o'clock this afternoon less than 100 votes had been cast in the two boxes and it is probable the entire vote will not exceed 150. No organized opposition to either bond issue is apparent.

The polling places are at the city hall and the county judge's office in the court house. Those living east of Lamar street vote at the city hall; all others at the court house.

The polls remain open until seven o'clock.

NEW STAGE REACHED IN HOME RULE CRISIS

AMENDING BILL IS INTRODUCED TODAY IN HOUSE OF LORDS

OFFERS ULSTER LOCAL OPTION

Separate Counties Can Vote On Entering or Remaining Out of Irish Parliament

By Associated Press. London, June 23.—The crisis in connection with the granting of home rule to Ireland entered another stage today when the Marquis of Crewe, liberal leader in the House of Lords, introduced a bill to amend the Irish home rule bill. The terms of the amending bill are identical with those offered March 9 by Premier Asquith and refused by Sir Edward Carson the Irish Unionist leader, who described the premier's proposal as a "hypocritical sham."

By the new bill, the parliamentary electors of each county in Ulster will decide by vote whether the county shall be excluded from the provisions of the home rule bill for six years after the first meeting of the new Irish parliament.

Is Parliamentary Precedent.

The situation has never been paralleled in parliamentary procedure in the British Isles. Never before has a bill been presented to parliament to amend a measure not yet on the statute books; this was, however, the only means of overcoming the deadlock as the House of Lords refused to consider the main bill until the proposals of the government were before it.

In introducing the amending bill, the Marquis of Crewe dwelt on the religious difficulties surrounding the question of Ulster, but while he admitted the necessity for some form of exclusion for those who deemed themselves affected by the home rule bill, he contended that the exclusion of the entire province of Ulster would involve great injustice. Consequently the government, he said, had reiterated in the amending bill, Premier Asquith's proposal of exclusion by counties from the operation of the measure.

Trenton, N. J., June 23.—Governor Fielder and Adjutant General W. F. Sadler today received the three Massachusetts members of the Sons of the American Revolution who are making the trip to Cambridge over the same route taken by Gen. George Washington 139 years ago. With appropriate ceremonies a tablet commemorative of Washington's stop here will be unveiled tomorrow at St. Michael's Church. The party goes from here to Princeton where the members will be received by President John G. Hibben of the University.

Chicago Futures.
By Associated Press. Chicago, June 23.—Wheat today went down into the "seventies" that is sold for less than eighty cents a bushel. An official estimate put the Kansas total yield this season at the huge aggregate of 180,000,000 bushels. Shorts were the only buyers. Opening prices which were a shade off 1-4 higher were followed by a set back all around. Speculative purchasing by big houses made corn firm; there was talk that the Oklahoma crop was seriously threatened by lack of rain with temperatures above 100. The market after opening 1-8 down to 1-8 and 1-4 advance scored a moderate general upturn. Oats sagged because of sales by pit traders. After a decided additional fall in wheat occurred as a result of exporters backing away, the Kansas secretary of agriculture was quoted as saying the yield everywhere in the State exceeded expectations. Close was heavy. Corn closed strong. Wheat, July 79 7/8; September 79; corn, July 65 1/4; September 67 3/8; oats, July 39 1/8; September 37 7/8.

This is the Rodman Wanamaker sea plane with which Lieutenant Porte will try to cross the Atlantic probably about the middle of July. It shows the hull of the hydroaeroplane and part of the cabin. It was planned to hold the first trial flight of the machine at Hammondport, N. Y., where it was constructed by Curtiss on June 22. Lieutenant Porte has announced that he will fly less than 500 feet above the sea. He will not have any wireless apparatus because he wants to save weight. He will be guided by flags on passing ships.

BUSINESS MEN GO TO HELP IN FIELDS

WHEN IMPORTED LABOR QUILTS, RESPOND TO FARMERS' APPEALS

LEAVE WOMEN TO RUN THINGS

Every Male Resident of Hoxie, Kan., Dons Old Clothes and Goes to Wheat Fields

By Associated Press. Hoxie, Kansas, June 23.—This is today almost a deserted village. The men went to the wheat fields today, when a delegation of farmers came to town, lamenting that harvest hands, imported from the East, had quit because of the heat.

"We need help quick and you fellows must help us," declared the delegation's leader to a meeting of business men. Half an hour later the town harbor posted a sign reading "Shave and haircut on Saturday only."

The doors of the court house were locked and every county official donned his old clothes. Merchants turned their stores over to women clerks. Lawyers forgot their fees and the editor placed his wife in charge of the "shop."

Loss of the harvest would paralyze the town's business.

WHEAT IS COMING IN STEADY STREAM

BETWEEN 15,000 AND 20,000 BUSHELS BROUGHT TO THIS CITY TODAY

TWO-CENT DECLINE IN PRICE

Seventy-three Cents is Being Paid Today With Good Demand, From Millers

Following declines in the big wheat markets the price of wheat here has dropped to seventy-three cents. This is a decline of seven cents since the market opened ten days ago.

Elevators all over North Texas are being flooded with wheat and the demand from local millers, it is claimed, has been the only thing that has held the price up as well as it has been.

Receipts today increased to between 15,000 and 20,000 bushels and wagons drove up to the weighing scales in almost a steady stream after nine o'clock this morning. Heavy receipts also are reported from the elevators at Burkburnett and Iowa Park and other points in this section. The yields reported have averaged all the way from twelve to twenty-three bushels. The quality generally has been good with little wheat grading below No. 2.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO REQUEST IMPROVEMENT

AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S WORK

Appropriation is Made For Demonstrator's Salary—Session of Directors Held

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce was appointed at this morning's session of the directors to take up with Manager Phillips of the Southwestern Telephone Company the improvement of the service here. Delays in answering calls, allowing others to break in upon conversations and other delinquencies were reported which the directors thought could be eliminated.

A. L. Huey, F. H. Pennington and R. H. Miller were named a committee to take up the matter with Mr. Phillips and report at the next meeting of the directors. In discussing the fact that the improvements now being made and the transfer to the new exchange, would necessarily cause some trouble and inconvenience but they did not believe there ought to be the delays that are now met with in the telephone service.

Interurban Party Coming.
Two hundred dollars was appropriated to J. W. Campbell for the ensuing year. Mr. Campbell is the agricultural demonstration agent in this county. His salary is paid in part by the federal government and is supplemented by payments from the county and the Chamber of Commerce.

J. A. Kemp reported that a committee of Dallas men would be here Friday morning in the interest of the proposed interurban from Dallas to Wichita Falls. A committee comprising Messrs. Kemp, Carrigan and Blair was named to take the Dallas committee in charge. Mr. Kemp announced that it was planned to take them to Burkburnett and other sections of the county to show them the oil and agricultural resources of the county. The visitors will also be shown over the city.

The yields so far as reported have been between twenty and twenty-two bushels.

KANSAS FLOOD SITUATION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT TODAY.

By Associated Press. Kansas City, June 23.—The swollen streams in northeastern Kansas are receding today and railroad traffic in the affected district is assuming normal conditions. Large numbers of men worked all night repairing the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe lines at Valley Falls, Potter and Geocalooks, where long stretches of track were washed out by the heavy rains of Sunday and Monday. The Kansas river at Topeka dropped thirteen inches in the last twenty-four hours, and with but light showers since yesterday, fears of further damage are past. Near Atchison, the damage to crops, live stock and other property in Strange Creek Valley will exceed $100,000, according to estimates made today.

DEFEAT FOR PACIFIC POINTS IN DECISION

RESULT OF INTERMOUNTAIN CASE MONDAY ENDS LONG RATE CONTEST

SOUGHT TO MAKE EXCEPTIONS

Railroads Tried To Give Tidewater Cities Advantage Over Those Further Eastward

By Associated Press. Washington, June 23.—The action of the supreme court on Monday in deciding the "intermountain" rate cases against the railroads, brought to a close one of the most interesting rate fights in many years, between the Pacific coast cities on the one hand, such as Seattle, Los Angeles and Portland and the intermountain cities, such as Spokane, Phoenix and Reno on the other. The intermountain rate orders were issued in June and July, 1911 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, under authority of the "long and short haul section" of the interstate commerce act. This section clothed the commission with discretion to make exceptions to the general rule laid down in the law that railroads should not charge more for a short haul than for a longer haul in the same direction and over the same lines or routes.

The orders were the outcome of a change in the law in 1910. From 1887 to 1910 the law against a greater charge for a shorter than for a longer haul applied only to hauls under "similar conditions" but that proved unsatisfactory and led to the law being amended by striking out this phrase "similar conditions" and leaving the commission with discretion to make exceptions to the general rule laid down in the law.

Panama Canal's Effect.
That the distribution throughout the country of the benefits of the Panama Canal will rest with the Interstate Commerce Commission and not with the transcendent railroads is one of the conclusions being drawn from the supreme court's decision in the intermountain rate cases which after nearly two years of consideration, the court upheld the orders of the commission by unanimous opinion. It has been generally claimed that the Panama Canal would reduce freight rates from Atlantic seaboard points to the Pacific coast cities and vice versa, but the question to what extent the railroads might at low interior points to share in the benefits of water competition enjoyed by the seaboard cities was disputed.

The decision of the court is that the commission will answer these problems and that the railroads may simply proceed to haul the freight. The railroads fought for the right to adjust the trade balances among various sections of the country. The court found an answer to the whole controversy in holding that Congress had conferred on the railroads themselves the right to make discrimination in their rates, and hence had given the right and did in 1910 take this right from the railroads and give it to the commission. Had the decision been to the contrary it would have rested in the judgment of the railroads as to how far interior cities should share with seaboard cities in the benefits of water competition.

Monopoly For Coast Towns.
Shortly after the passage of the act in 1910, practically all the railroads traversing the intermountain region of the West applied to the commission to have exceptions made so that a higher rate could be charged on shipments from the East to intermountain cities such as Spokane, Reno and Phoenix. The rates to these cities from points east of the Rockies had for years been made by adding the through rate to the Pacific coast and the local rate from the Pacific coast to the interior city.

The intermountain points rebelled against what they claimed was a monopoly given to the Pacific coast cities of the trade at all points from the coast back to the very doors of the intermountain cities. The matter was fought out in hearings before the commission.

The decision of the commission was a compromise. It refused to let the railroads charge a higher rate to the protesting cities than was charged to points beyond them on shipments originating west of a line that could run north and south through St. Paul, Minn. but on shipments originating between St. Paul and Chicago, the railroads were permitted to charge an increase of not more than 7 per cent on shipments originating between Chicago and Pittsburg not more than 15 per cent; and from the zone between Pittsburg and the Atlantic not more than 25 per cent.

Commerce Court Acts.
The commerce court set aside the orders on the ground that the commission had no authority to issue "blanket" orders or "zone" orders, but could act only in regard to the reasonableness or unreasonableness of specific rates. An attempt was made to have the commerce court hold up the intermountain rate cases at the constitutional section of the law under which the orders were issued on the ground that Congress had given no guide to the commission's discretion.

CASE OF GEORGIA JUDGE IS REPORTED

SUB-COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS NEITHER EXONERATION NOR IMPEACHMENT

MINORITY REPORT FAVORABLE

One Member Would Clear Speech—Question Now Goes to Full Committee For Action

By Associated Press. Washington, June 23.—The sub-committee regrets its inability to either recommend a complete acquittal of Judge Speer of a culpability so far as these charges are concerned on the one hand, or an impeachment on the other hand.

This was the conclusion submitted to the House Judiciary committee today by the special sub-committee that for months has been investigating charges of official misconduct filed against Emory Speer of Macon, federal judge of the southern district of Georgia.

Nineteen Charges Filed.
Complete exoneration of Judge Speer, however, was recommended in a minority report by Representative Volstead who attacked the methods and findings of the majority of the sub-committee. The committee report, after an exhaustive resume of evidence with severe comment, held that some of Judge Speer's official actions "tend to approach a condition of tyranny and oppression" but recommended that no further proceedings be had by the House. The conclusions now rest with the full committee on Judiciary which is expected to report them to the House for final disposition of the case before the adjournment of the present session of Congress.

The sub-committee comprises Representatives Webb of North Carolina and Fitzhugh of Illinois, Democrats and Volstead of Minnesota, Republican. Nineteen charges were lodged with the committee; they alleged, among other things that Judge Speer entertained matters beyond the court's jurisdiction, allowed excessive trustee fees to a personal friend, used his position for preference for his son-in-law, abused his authority by domestic use of government, paid court employes, violated laws regarding drawing of jurors and dissipated bankrupt estates by appointing unnecessary officials and allowing excessive fees. Another charge was that in the case of Henry Jamison, a Macon negro, Judge Speer defied the mandate of the supreme court of the United States and the circuit court of appeals.

Volstead's Minority Report.
Representative Volstead attacking the methods of the committee said: "I desire to express in an emphatic language as possible my protest against the methods that have been pursued. I do not criticize the motives of my associates but the proceedings in this investigation have been marked by acts cruelly unjust and unfair. No effort was made to protect the Judge against mere slander and abuse that could serve no other purpose than to disgrace and humiliate him. It is humiliating to read this record and have to admit that a committee of Congress is responsible for this sort of cruel injustice. No court in any civilized country would tolerate any such proceedings. If judges are to be subjected to the treatment accorded Judge Speer, how can they be expected to maintain that spirit of independence so essential to the just administration of the law?"

WILSON IS WILLING TO SELL BATTLESHIPS TO GREECE

Has Been Assured That They Are Not Intended For Use in War at Present

WILSON IS WILLING TO SELL BATTLESHIPS TO GREECE

By Associated Press. Washington, June 23.—President Wilson told inquiries that he was supporting the provision in the naval bill to sell the battleships Mississippi and Idaho to Greece. He had been assured by the Greek charge d'affaires that the battleships are not to be used in any immediate aggression. Wilson told callers that if he had any idea that the vessels were to be used against Turkey or any other nation he would not support the project.

Rustem Bey, the New Turkish ambassador had an engagement with the president today but White House officials denied any suggestion at the ambassador was to protest against the prospective sale of the battleships to Greece in view of reports of a threatened war between the two countries. It was said the Turkish ambassador had an engagement merely to present his credentials.

The first "go" of the race meet sounded shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon when the horses got away for the 2:11 pace, the first event of the meet. Four numbers this afternoon and an equal number daily for the four days of the meet make up the days' program.

A big crowd had gathered at the lake for this afternoon's card and there was much interest. About 150 horses are here to take part in the races, this meet marking the beginning of the circuit of the Texas Short Ship races which will cover a dozen or more towns in North Texas. The track was in excellent condition, the weather the best possible and there seemed to be little to prevent this being one of the most successful race meetings Northwest Texas has ever seen.

Hundreds of visitors from out of the city are here today to attend the races and most of them will doubtless remain for the four day program. While most of the spectators journeyed to the lake on the street cars, the automobile road was dotted with machines. This road was very dusty and there was considerable discomfort for the occupants.

The program for each day will include two harness events of three heats each and two running races, with the feature of the meet next Friday afternoon, the free for all pace for the $1000 purse.

CALOMEL IS A FORM OF DEADLY MERCURY

(Instead of Such Dangerous Stuff, it is Recommended that You Take Dodson's Liver Tonic for Constipation)

Dodson's Liver Tonic was made to take the place of calomel, a mineral and a poison. Dodson's Liver Tonic is an all-vegetable liquid—never harmful.

What calomel does unpleasantly and often with danger for constipation and biliousness, Dodson's Liver Tonic does for you safely and pleasantly, with no pain and no griping. It does not interfere in any way with your regular business, habits or diet. You feel good after taking it.

The great success and wide sale of Dodson's Liver Tonic are the result of what it does for people. Its merit is backed up by a guarantee of "satisfaction or money back," as your druggist will tell you.

Dodson's Liver Tonic was intended from the start to take the place of calomel. The label on the bottle always has said so, beginning with the first bottle sold.

Dodson's Liver Tonic "cleans the liver," overcomes constipation agreeably and makes you feel good, and if you are not satisfied completely with it your druggist will hand back the purchase price (50c) to you with a smile.

When you go to buy a family remedy, don't fail to judge between the plain, simple truth about Dodson's and the loud claims of its imitators. That the public does so accounts for the enormous increase in the sales of Dodson's Liver Tonic month after month.

MUCH INVOLVED IN OIL LAND DECISION

PROPERTY WORTH $700,000,000 AFFECTED BY COURT RULING OF MONDAY

LONG CONTROVERSY CONCLUDED

Government Claimed That Discovery of Oil Caused Title to Revert From Railroads

By Associated Press. Washington, June 22.—More than $700,000,000 worth of oil lands owned by the great transcontinental railroads were involved in the Supreme Court's decision yesterday in the case of Edmund Burke, who claimed title to part of the lands which were granted by the government to the Southern Pacific Railroad in California. The government contended that when it gave the lands to the railroads it did not grant valuable minerals not then known to exist.

The government issued a patent in 1894 to the Southern Pacific in aid of its construction of a transcontinental line. Patents were issued likewise to the Northern Pacific and other lines traversing the plains and the Rockies to the coast. Each patent contained an exception and reservation reading as follows:

Excepting and reserving all mineral lands which should be found in the tracts aforesaid, but this exclusion and exception, according to the terms of the statute, shall not be construed to include coal and iron lands.

For years a fierce controversy has been waged as to the effect of the discovery of oil. The railroads contended that oil was not a mineral and therefore oil lands were not excepted from the grant. Furthermore, the railroads contended that the exception was void under the law governing realty.

The government took the position that it could show at any time, even after the issuance of the patent that the lands were oil in nature and thus prevent their remaining in the hands of the railroads.

Previous to the government suit, a three-cornered nature of the controversy was emphasized by Burke and others laying claim to a portion of the oil lands, under the placer mining laws. They contended that the Southern Pacific had no title to the lands on which the same grounds as the government, and asserted affirmative title for themselves.

Railroads Affected. The Northern Pacific obtained leave, because of its indirect interest in the litigation, to present an argument in this case. It contended that other land-grant railroads would be affected vitally by a decision upholding Burke's claims.

The value of the property at stake has been estimated by showing that it is more than the valuation placed upon both real and personal property for taxation in either Louisiana, Rhode Island, Virginia, North Carolina or Nebraska and nearly as great as Oregon. The value is said to be seven times as great as all the gold coins in the United States and about three times the combined public debts of the various states.

MEXICAN EXPORTS REACH LOWEST FIGURE IN YEARS

Blockade by Constitutionalists Causes Heavy Falling Off in Receipts at Eagle Pass

By Associated Press. Eagle Pass, Texas, June 23.—As result of the embargo on Mexican exports by the constitutionalists, customs receipts here for May were the lowest in twenty years. Receipts which in May, 1913 amounted to $99,900 had dwindled to $2,400 for the same month this year.

That the blockade is having a serious effect on the ranching interests of Texas is shown by the complete blockade of live stock shipments from Mexico. During last April shipments through Eagle Pass were valued at $214,000 while in May they were only $47,000. During May the traffic in cattle, sheep and goats practically ceased, only a few horses being imported. Under the new tariff, however, this would little affect customs receipts as all stock except horses is admitted free.

Another cause for the precipitate drop in receipts is the interruption of Mexican railroad traffic.

Rafael Musquiz, constitutionalist collector of customs in Piedras Negras, has announced that the embargo on the exportation of livestock will be lifted soon, as far as it applies to foreign ranch owners in Mexico. An export duty of $6 gold a head for cattle will be charged.

DIRT CHEAP

—Dirt Cheap.
 —Yes dirt is cheap.
 —So are some baking powders.
 —But do you want that kind of Baking Powder?
 —Do you want to pay for a lot of inferior ingredients—fillers that simply make bulk but have no leavening properties whatever.
 —Do you want to put into your baking a lot of useless materials that only do harm?
 —Then you should avoid the cheap and big-can baking powders

BECAUSE

- they are big in bulk but frequently lack sufficient leavening properties.
- they often require twice as much to produce the desired effect
- they will not always produce light, wholesome foods.
- they leave the baking sometime bleached and acid—yellow and alkaline.
- they are seldom uniform in strength or quantity.
- Such baking powders are merely made to deceive the eye—to look big to attract your attention—to get your money.

Next time you buy Baking Powder, consider

Consider Calumet. It's moderate in cost, but it's all baking powder—and it's the best you can buy at any price.

We guarantee it in this way: If it does not produce the lightest, tastiest, most wholesome food you ever ate take it back to the grocer and get your money.

We couldn't say more for its dependability—for its purity—for its economy, if we used an entire page in this paper.

The Friends That Love Us. The friends that love us always in the good times and the bad; The friends that keep us glad. Are the friends that cling in tempest. As they do in calm are those That have made the paths of hardship Seem paths of song and rose.

The friends that love us always. When we go their way or not, Are the friends that bear a remembrance When the others are forgot. The friends that stick the closest. When the trouble grows the worst: The friends that love us always. Just the way they did at first.

They are the crowning jewels Of these coronets, we wear; In the dreams of tender moments When the troubles start to leave; And we list their names forever And we see their faces clear; The friends that love us always, In the sun or shadows, dear.

WICHITA FALLS RECIPE.

Recipe For Orange Marmalade. (By Mrs. W. W. Silk)

Slice very thin three large or five small oranges and one lemon. Peel oranges from top and cut in small pieces. Pour over this eleven cups of water and let stand for twenty-four hours then boil one hour. While hot add ten cups of sugar. Dissolve well and put aside for another twenty-four hours. Then cook until thick (about one hour, it could be too long if it is stirred, stir often to prevent burning. This is quite as good if the pineapple is omitted in fact many prefer it without.

"MEASURING SOCIAL" OF W. M. S. PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

The hospitable home of Mrs. P. P. Langford was thrown open to the ladies of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6. The gathering was in the nature of a measuring social and it was found that 333 feet and eight inches of ladies were present and there were some who steadfastly refused to be measured on account of their extreme height. Each lady paid five cents for a tape at a penny for each additional inch, thus a good sum was taken in.

After a short business session a splendid program was carried out. Mrs. Lester Jones and Mrs. John Chambers with a number of instrumental and vocal selections, contributed much to the program and Miss Helen Hines charmed her hearers with her reading of "Cupid and Dickey." Miss Gladys Herron, whose musical talent is gaining her quite a reputation gave several selections also. Miss Edith Mathis' readings "Here Comes the Bride" and for an encore, "The Strangeness of It," quite captivated the audience. Miss Edith Slaten and others contributed additional numbers to the program which the ladies enjoyed.

The hostess served an ice course and those who kindly assisted her were: Mesdames Jackson, Perham, Dan Boone, Stokes, Bralley, Waggoner, Hinckley, Peery, Greenwood, Scallion, Montgomery. A committee was appointed to arrange for the next social meeting which will be held on the fourth Monday in July, composed of the following ladies: Mesdames J. D. Johnson, Noble, Gersline, Greenwood, Silk and Staples. Those present were: Mesdames Baker, Jones, Arrington, Harris, Rogers, Smith, Raley, Bland, Bolders, Haney, Shelton, Gorsline, Hutton, Booser, Herron, Williams, Rahl, Bacon, Fonville, Waggoner, Rowe, Hartsook, Fleming, Downing, Humphries, Perham, Lee, Mathis, Thornberg, Chambers, Noble, Grisham, Faulkner, Bralley, Greenwood, Scallion, Boone, Montgomery, Silk, Jackson, Stokes, Yielding, McDowell, Staples, Johnson, Hinckley, Peery, Trevathan, McCalister, Jenne, Guthrie, Carr, Norwood, Slaten, Misses Mathis, Herron, Hines and W. Slaten.

MRS. DONALDSON ENTERTAINS VERY DELIGHTFUL FRIDAY

Friday afternoon Mrs. J. P. Donaldson was hostess to a number of ladies at her home, 3219 Garfield street. Late in the afternoon Mrs. Donaldson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Ruby, served delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake, dainty carnations forming the favors of the afternoon. The following ladies enjoyed Mrs. Donaldson's hospitality: Mesdames Wilkins, McGinnis, Miller, Pastorius, Milburn, Misses Stratton, Moore, Jeanette Miller, Marion McGinnis, Ruby and Cande Donaldson.

which will be held until September, adjournment for the summer being now in order. The members present were: Mesdames McCullough, Shaw, McElroy, Short, Dutton, Blair, Fontaine, Shutt, Adams, Sammons, Johnston, Carnes and Rev. Dutton.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT AT LAMAR AIRDOME OPENING

An immense crowd packed the Lamar Airdome last night for the opening of the season with the Keyes Dramatic Co. "As Ye Sow" was the opening play. This will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night after which there will be a change of bill. It is the plan to change the bill each Monday and Thursday night during the engagement of the Keyes Company. Last night's performance was well received despite the fact that it did not go as smoothly as it might. Some of the vaudeville songs evidently were not heard by the censor before presentation. Doubtless they will be revised for tonight's performance.

LEAGUE LEADERSHIP MAY BE SETTLED THIS AFTERNOON

A game that will largely decide the present race in the Twilight League will be played this afternoon when the Irish Lads and Leopolders meet at the Twilight park. The leaders are just one game ahead of the Lads and should the latter win today it would put them right up in the running. It is safe to say that the Lads will do their mightiest to turn the tide. Tomorrow afternoon the tie between the Black Cats and Leopolders will be played off and the leaders will have to face another determined squad. These two games will go far toward deciding the league leadership and will be followed with interest by the Twilight fans.

WICHITA PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Mgr.

It was the editors' meeting last week; it's the race meet this week. Next week will be the Fourth of July celebration. The week following comes the Khatuauqua. In Wichita it's just one thing after another.

The editor of Collier's Weekly has decided that the administration ought to be criticized. Its criticisms so far indicate that his writers haven't found out just what ought to be criticized.

The Times can no longer refer jocosely to our lake and talk about its wharf, etc. At the direction of the city authorities the pavement in front of The Times building has been extended and a gutter, which is expected will carry off the storm water and not leave a mud puddle in the street after every rain. What can we find to complain about now?

Let us not forget to swat the fee grabber in the July primary. Under it many things are done in the name of the law that would not be done if our officers were paid salaries instead of fees. The intent of the fee system was not to fatten the purses of our officers, but to cause them to be more diligent. It has succeeded in making them more diligent in some instances. That cannot be denied. It is also true they are more diligent in some instances than the circumstances will warrant, and many pleas of guilty are made and fines collected under the fee system simply and wholly because the parties charged with offenses would rather pay the fines than be humiliated by fighting them through the courts, taking a chance on acquittal before a jury. There is hardly a county in the state where this has not been charged against the fee grabbers. As to how much truth there is in it this paper, of course, does not know. It has often heard, however, that where there is so much smoke, there must be some fire. Our officers should be faithful and efficient men, and they should be paid good salaries, but as The Times sees it, the law which makes it so that a constable, a sheriff or any other county official can draw by far a larger salary in the way of fees than the governor of this great state, is wholly wrong and out of joint, and such a law should be amended or repealed.

The failure of the four Lorimer banks and three others connected with them in Chicago Friday and Saturday brought disaster to thousands of people in Chicago. Most of these institutions appear to have been state banks, and if they had the state guaranty of deposits law, as we have in Texas, the depositors would be able to recover their losses. The Post views the guaranty law as one of the best pieces of legislation that has been passed in Texas in many a year.—Childress Post.

Under the Texas state banking laws there have been but few state banks to fail or go out of business, and where they have failed the depositors have lost nothing. It is a good law. When those who need and must have money, it matters not who they are, if they get what they want from a bank, state or national, they must give ample security. That is just plain, sound business. Nothing wrong at all about it. If the one applying for a loan is entitled to credit and can put up the collateral, he is accommodated. On the other hand, there are those who think it wrong that a bank or banker must guarantee depositors against loss. They think it a reflection on the bank's integrity to make such a demand. Yet, experience, which after all is the best school, teach us that if it is good sound business for a banker to demand security for the money his bank loans out. It is also good sound business for those who have money to deposit in the bank to guarantee themselves against loss. It's just simply safe and sound business, and is no reflection on the bankers. This business of doing business on confidence alone works out satisfactory most of the time,—perhaps ninety-nine times in an even hundred, but there are bank failures, and unless the depositors are guaranteed against loss in the banks that do fail, they generally lose about the total of their deposits. The state bank guarantee law is working beautifully in Texas. Every state in the union should adopt a law as good. It would not be a bad idea at all to extend the guarantee of deposit law to all other banks, including National banks.

To the man in the grandstand, it looks as though Jim has as good chance as Tom and that Tom has as good chance as Jim. Neither has a cinch. Mr. Ball has the backing of the prohibitionists, but not the solid backing. Mr. Ferguson has the backing of the anti-prohibitionists, but not the solid backing. Some of the prohibitionists like Ferguson's land scheme. Some of the anti-prohibitionists are afraid of Ferguson's land scheme. It has been publicly stated that the land owners along the Rio Grande, ordinarily against Mr. Ball, are for him as against Mr. Ferguson. It is this Rio Grande vote—the majority of it—that Mr. Ball would disfranchise. Wouldn't it be queer if it should be the vote that saves him in the primaries? But Ball hasn't got this race won. Nor yet has Ferguson.—Waco Times-Herald.

"Have you any children?" This is the question that is generally asked these days when a pater familias arrives in a new locality and begins house building. An answer in the affirmative will frequently bar the new arrival from securing the house he wants, or in localities in the neighborhood in which he desires to live. We sometimes think it is bad that the childless home had not become the fad before some of these old landlord sharks, who are so wrapped up in their own miserly misery that they cannot enjoy the merry noise of a house full of playing children, were born. Have you any children? You bet your neck. And we would not part with the pleasure that twenty minutes of their company affords for all the tight-wad philosophy that could be whined to us in twenty years.—Corpus Christi Democrat.

We are glad to know there are others who hold to the same view on that subject as ourselves. Often, in looking over the want ads, one sees this: "Nice cottage, modern, to let to parties without children." The man and wife who have one or more children are virtually boycotted by the tight-waddish landlords. It is not the noise of the children they so much object to, but that children, as a rule, are not as careful as grown-ups. They might do damage to the property, and that would cost a few dollars more to have repairs made. That sort of landlords (and they seem to be in the majority) hold out inducements to the married couple without children. To us, it is entirely disgusting. But there are exceptions. Not so very long ago a citizen of Wichita Falls, who was the owner of quite a number of nice cottages, advertised them to rent to families with children, and only those who had children became his tenants. He lost nothing by the experiment, as he has prospered. The Times also recalls the little want ad that a couple with one or more children had inserted in its columns, which read something like this: "Wanted—Modern five or six room cottage, close in, by couple with children, who will not agree to kill them in order to rent a house." They had inserted ads before that, and had responded to others, but when applying the landlords generally asked if they had children, and if the answer was in the affirmative their application was turned down. As for ourselves, we would rather live in a tent and drink branch water the rest of our days than become the tenant of a landlord who only wants his property tenanted by families without children. If these ideas should become the rule, the prospects of increasing the population of the world would be slim indeed.

EX-SENATOR BAILEY.

(From the Denton Record and Chronicle.)

No man in Texas is closer to former Senator Bailey than Colonel R. M. Johnson of the Houston Post, and we are sure that Colonel Johnston would not have said this unless he knew just what he was talking about.

"We can assure Mr. Putman, most positively, that Senator Bailey has no intention of becoming a candidate for senator from Texas, and is in no conspiracy with his friends to 'come back' into Texas politics. He has a great law practice in Washington and is happy and contented."

"We have always given Mr. Bailey credit for being absolutely sincere in his retirement from Texas politics, and, as he himself says, he 'took the Bailey issue out.' We believe that he quit because the place wasn't worth the turmoil and strife and because he believed the turmoil and strife would continue as long as he held the office of senator. We never believed he declined to run in 1912 through fear of defeat because his defeat was only possible, and that was all, as any man could see. But there are many men who believe that the former senator has constant designs on the Texas senatorship, and that every move he makes is to further that end. They are mistaken, and Colonel Johnston's statement ought to be enough to convince them of their mistake.

WHAT A PITY!

(From the St. Louis Republic.)

What a pity it is that Mexico is unwilling to forget her National dignity and go to school. There is so much that Northern people could teach her people if they would unbend and listen attentively. Take the humble matter of keeping clean, for instance. When the American troops occupied Vera Cruz they found the ancient fortress and prison for which the town is famous so infamously dirty that it was not fit for the occupancy of pigs. The streets were little better, the disposal of all sorts of city refuse was neglected and the reputation of the city for salubrity was less than nothing. Within the few weeks that the American army has occupied the place the town has been transformed so far as cleanliness is concerned. The lesson in case was enforced, but it can not be otherwise than a blessing to the people. Unfortunately the other towns of Mexico can not get a similar lesson except by conquest or the consent. Conquest is out of the question, and in response to the occasional hints that Mexico would do well to consent to a moderate degree of outside help while her affairs are being readjusted all the leading men of the country bristle with resentment. The National

ADVERTISING This subject is commanding the attention of the master minds of the country and is the one great field of competition. The successful advertiser is the man who commands the big salary and the firm who is a successful advertiser is the real live wire in his community. We have abandoned the idea of publicity and have turned our attention to advertising. Last week we put a line of shoes in our windows at the ridiculous price of NINETY-FIVE CENTS which comprised every grade of shoes we handle up to $4.00 with the view that the advertising would pay the loss we were taking on these shoes. We knew this would be a subject of comment all over the community and would bring lots of new people into our store but were greatly surprised at the actual SHOE SALES it produced. We put SELZ shoe on feet that had never worn them before and they didn't fail to tell their friends. This week we are putting on a GREAT WHITE SALE, just when the long days of summer are starting and the demand for white shoes are the greatest we have chosen this line to spend our efforts in advertising on and we have excluded nothing in our line even including our FIVE DOLLAR SUPREMES; Baby Dolls, English Walkers, button oxfords, strap pumps, plain pumps, high shoes and low shoes, buck shoes and canvas shoes, cool enough to make your feet laugh, and in fact anything your heart can crave in white shoes and you can tell your friend that they may have any pair in the window or in the house for just $1.45. Some advertising, eh? Take a look at our windows, come in and see just what $1.45 will buy this week at Hines' Royal Blue Store 806 Indiana Avenue Next to The Empress Theatre dignity must be respected, even though dignity is compelled to flourish in dirt.

COLLISIONS IN FOGS.

(From the New York Times.) It is very reassuring to know that two ocean steamers can come to collision in a fog so little damage to either that both may proceed on their way with most of their passengers unaware of the mishap. It is not reassuring, however, to learn that such a collision has occurred. The blow the Titanic received from the iceberg and that which the Storsted administered to the Empress of Ireland produced as little shock, it seems, as the Pretoria's glancing blow near the bow of the New York. As it was, the hull of the New York was badly damaged, and probably the necessary repairs to the other vessel will require much time. The need of better means for the protection of human life in case of fog at sea is just as surely indicated by the happy escape of the New York and the Pretoria from destruction as it was by the recent terrible disaster on the St. Lawrence.

The one startles the whole world, excites a tumult of emotional comment, leads to protracted investigation. But the injury into the harmless collision of Saturday should be as careful and as faithful as that which began Monday at Montreal.

HERE'S A NEW WRINKLE IN WAY OF CONVENTIONS

Chicago, June 23.—A new thing in the way of conventions opened here today when the twelfth annual meeting of the Wholesale Saddlery Association of the United States convened in the Auditorium Hotel. The saddlery wholesalers will be in convention for two days but with the exception of an address of welcome and response there are no speeches on the program. The saddlery manufacturers who will open their meeting tomorrow to continue through Thursday will go the wholesalers one better by dispensing with all set speeches and listening to committee reports and informal talks. Theatre parties, boat rides and other entertainments occupy choice places on the program for the two conventions.

The majority of the commerce court, however, found a guide to this discretion in the preceding section of the law which declared rates must be "reasonable" and non-discriminatory. Judge Archibald expressed a belief that the law was unconstitutional.

The ground upon which the railroads asked for the exemption under the "long and short haul" clause was that water competition required the railroads to carry commodities to the coast at an unreasonably low rate, and that the rates proposed for the Intermountain cities were reasonable in themselves for the service performed. Inasmuch as middle western cities would not be able to compete with New York and Atlantic coast cities if New York alone enjoyed the low rates, the railroads claimed a right by virtue of "market competition" to allow middle western cities to enjoy the same rates as New York.

"A CELEBRATED CASE"

Fulfilling a Promise.

As promised in our Sunday's ad we are going to show a program for the entire week that is by far above the average. Tuesday we have a two-reel American Photoplay very appropriately called

"A Soul Astray"

This two-reel drama in which Ed Coxen and Winnifred Greenwood play the leading parts. In the comments by movie critics, they have this to say: We can't praise the story too highly. All is pictured on the screen with much that is human and is done in highly pleasing and entertaining manner.

Other number for Tuesday is a Keystone, "Finnegan's Bomb."

"BEST ORGANIZED CITY" IS SLOGAN OF TRADES COUNCIL

"Best Organized City in Texas" is to be the slogan of the Wichita Falls Trades and Labor Council. This slogan was adopted at the regular weekly meeting of the council last night. Strong efforts are to be made to organize every branch of labor in the city possible. By doing this and pushing the union label campaign it is the intention of the council to make Wichita Falls one of the best union labor towns in the State.

D. B. White of Sherman, last night talked on the purchase of union label goods by trades union men.

AT THE MOVIES

The Victoria.
Ed Coxen and Winnifred Greenwood are featured in a two-reel American, "A Soul Astray." This story deals with a degenerate son and of the love and devotion of his sweetheart and her efforts to reclaim him to something better. He wanders to Honolulu and there becomes enamoured of a native dancer. The setting is a superb one and the story is interesting. A Keystone finishes the bill.

The Majestic.
Alice Joyce is featured in a four-reeler, "A Celebrated Case." This picture furnishes a most attractive vehicle for the expressing of the unusual ability of this talented beauty.

The Lamar Airdome.
This playhouse opened last night for the summer. Every seat was taken and the Keyes Stock Company with "An Ye Sow" as their opening bill, made good with the large audience. The same play will be presented tonight.

The Empress.
"The Angel of the Mine," a three reel Ambrosia is showing here today. The sixth episode in "The Perils of Pauline" will be shown here tomorrow as usual. Through mistake the synopsis in the Sunday issue of this paper stated that it would be shown at the Victoria, but as all know this popular serial is showing here at the Empress.

PORT ARTHUR MAN FINDS HEALTH IN WONDERFUL STOMACH REMEDY

marked Gain in Weight on Few Doses.

J. F. Stoneburner of Port Arthur, Texas, suffered from stomach ailments for a long time. He fell off in weight and took treatment without apparent benefit. He tried physician after physician until he almost lost hope.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy, then wrote:

"I have taken all of your wonderful stomach remedy and got good results from it. I have gained in weight since starting on your remedy—twenty-one pounds so far. I was under the care of five doctors for about six months before I got your medicine. I am entirely well."

Mr. Stoneburner's experience is typical of that of the thousands who have taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Sufferer is Restored and Makes Reach Remedy. Thousands of letters from people who have appreciated its wonderful benefits come from all parts of the country.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Many say that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it saved their lives.

The remarkable success of this remedy has caused many imitations, so be cautious. Be sure it's Mayr's. Probably it is known among your own neighbors. Ask them. Go to Fogushee & Lynch and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing in cases they know—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist will tell you its wonderful effects. (Advt)

MERCHANTS TO STOP "FAKE ADVERTISING"

TAKE VERY DEFINITE STAND ON SUBJECT AT THEIR ANNUAL MEETING

NEW OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

P. H. Pennington Chosen To Head Association For Year—Interesting Meeting Held

Plain talk and a very definite stand marked the discussion by the Retail Merchants Association Monday night and steps were taken to put an end to merchants being imposed on. The election of directors for the year who in turn elected officers this morning, was also accomplished as follows:

Officers—P. H. Pennington, president; J. L. Art, vice president; John W. Thomas, secretary.

Directors—Leon Loeb, B. T. Burgess, P. H. Pennington, J. L. Art, J. W. Bradley, T. B. Noble, C. J. Barnard, B. J. Bean, J. W. Pond, C. H. Hardeman, W. S. Robertson, Frank Collier, Marvin Smith, R. P. Watts, D. B. King, M. A. Brin. The last three named are new directors.

The association adopted the rules of the Fort Worth advertising club with reference to advertising. These rules expressly disapprove of such forms of advertising as signs on chairs, clocks, time cards, programs and in special publications issued by churches, lodges, unions and other organizations. Those merchants who were present pledged themselves to stand by this determination and hereafter persons soliciting advertising of this kind will be referred to the secretary who will submit their position to a "blind" committee whose names will not be made public.

Held Session On Pier.

The membership meeting of the association was held last night at the lake. The members went out in automobiles and street cars and gathered on the boat pier, being cooled by a session out in the cool lake breeze. Cigars were passed and retiring President Bean called the meeting to order. In discussing the work of the past year, he said the value of the organization to its members and to the buying public had been brought to a very high point and for this he gave full credit to the secretary, John W. Thomas. There was still much that the organization could do, he said and he hoped to see it made still more valuable during the coming year.

The nomination and election of the fifteen directors followed, Messrs. T. Burgess, P. H. Pennington and D. B. King being made the nominating committee with instructions to include themselves in the list of nominees. There was no opposition to the ticket as suggested.

Advertising Matters.

P. H. Pennington took the floor and spoke of the need for concerted action with reference to advertising. He said that in one way or another, Wichita Falls merchants paid thousands of dollars annually for worthless advertising, much of this being given through unwillingness to offend some organization. He read the declaration of the Fort Worth advertising organization as to the things it disapproves and wanted this adopted by the merchants.

He suggested that as a means of protecting the merchants, each advertising proposition be referred to the secretary, who in turn would take it up with a committee selected by the secretary, the personnel of this committee to be kept secret. If this committee thought the proposition a worthy one they could endorse it or if they considered it unworthy, they could fall to endorse it. The solicitor would have to take the matter up in this way before proceeding with the merchants.

Mr. Bean said he favored the idea in general, but that he didn't like the idea of a "blind" committee; that he was willing to serve on such a committee and have the world to know it. Many advertising schemes, he contended, were black-mail pure and simple and should be treated as such.

Reward For Swindlers.

M. A. Brin suggested that affiliation with the Associated Advertising Clubs of America would be a proper step. Mr. Pennington resumed discussion of his matter which was carried by a unanimous rising vote of those present. He then asked all those present who would stand by the pledge as to what kinds of advertising were disapproved to stand, and all the merchants present responded.

The question of getting after the head check operator was taken up, and P. H. Pennington suggested making a twenty-five cent assessment on each member, netting a $25 fund, to be offered as a reward for prosecution of swindlers. This was referred to a committee to formulate a definite plan of action along this line. The meeting then adjourned.

Say what you will, go where you will, try what you will, there is hardly anything that you will find in the way of a summer table drink that will take the place of Welch's Grape Juice.

Now there are some physicians who claim that there is not very much nourishment in grape juice. Be that as it may, they do admit that it is a wonderful drink and there is enough nourishment in it to make it of extra value on the table.

It's simply full of health and ought to be used constantly in every home where good health is valued. Don't compare the single bottle price with the case price. It isn't fair to you or the grape juice. Let me quote you a price on a case of pints or quarts then you will realize why you can use it frequently.

NEGRO UNDER ARREST WHITE MAN STABBED

AFFRAY IN POOL HALL TAKES SERIOUS TURN MONDAY EVENING

STOPS POOL BALL WITH EYE

Negro Also Injured—Is Bound Over In Sum of $250 After Examination Today

Jim Wagner, negro, was bound over in justice Howard's court to the grand jury this morning under $250 bond on a charge of assault to murder one will Johnson, white.

The trouble happened in a negro pool hall in the flat district late yesterday afternoon. Johnson was slashed down the side of his throat with a knife in the hands of the negro and the negro was struck below the eye with a pool ball. Fourteen stitches were required to close the knife wound. The bone of the eye socket of the negro's left eye is said to have been fractured by the pool ball.

Johnson in his testimony at the preliminary trial of the negro this morning said that there was "an awful rumble" in the pool hall following the events just mentioned and that in getting away from the scene he "picked it up some." After he got some distance from the place and had slowed down some, he was taken to a doctor's office up town and his wound dressed.

Fing Negro Under Sed.

Officers who hurried to the scene found the negro hiding under a bed at his home. His wife assured the officers that she had seen nothing of her husband when they first went there. They left without a search of the house but returned later and despite the protestations of the negro that she still had seen nothing of her husband they looked under the bed and found him against the wall in the corner.

Johnson was one of a party of four men, he said, who stopped at the pool hall and saloon patronized by negroes. As they went in one of the party was stopped by two negroes, whereupon the negro, Wagner, told them that he didn't want "you law-farced white folks talking to my squaw." The four then walked on into the saloon and the negro followed them and began to jerk their hands out of their pockets. Fighting started and the negro had pushed one of the white men into the corner and was about to cut him with a knife, when Johnson says he pulled the negro away. As he did so, he said, the negro turned and slashed him with the knife. At about the same time someone hit the negro in the eye with the pool ball.

The other three white men got away in a hurry and Johnson says he hasn't seen them since. He admitted on cross examination that he had been in a "crag game" in the brush but denied that he had been gambling at or near the pool hall where the trouble occurred.

DEAD BODY OF SECTION WORKER DISCOVERED TODAY

Hot Weather and Alcohol Believed To Have Caused Death of Laborer Yesterday

Lying in a nook formed by two buildings the body of an Irish section worker known familiarly as "Sam

Jones" was found at the rear of the Jones Grain Company's feed warehouse this morning. Life had been extinct for some time. Justice Howard, who conducted an inquest, is of the opinion that the man crawled into this nook while intoxicated yesterday and fell asleep and that the western sun shining against the building cooked the life out of his body.

The man had been seen in the vicinity yesterday afternoon and was intoxicated. At the time of his death he was suffering from eruptions on his skin and weakened by this and alcohol he was in a condition in which he might easily have been cooked to death.

The victim was about 65 years old and had been around Wichita Falls for several years. His body was found by E. E. Keeley and was removed to Hines and Embree's undertaking parlors after it had been viewed by Justice Howard.
