PRESIDENT WILSON WILL NOT RECOGNIZE CARBAJAL

Watchful Waiting Policy Will Be Continued Until Mexican Situation Is Clarified

MUCH DEPENDS UPON GENERAL CARRANZA

United States Will Lend Support To Government Resulting From Agreement Of Factions

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 16.—President Wilson will not recognize Provisional President Carabajal or any other government in Mexico not legally set up. This statement was made by a high administration official this morning.

Notwithstanding General Huerta's resignation President Wilson will continue his policy of "watchful waiting" until the Mexican situation is more clarified.

Administration interest is centered in the peaceful occupation of Mexico City by the constitutionalists provided General Carranza and his generals will accept the terms of Provisional President Carabajal.

President Wilson believes other nations will not recognize the new government until the United States acts.

WILSON HAS NO OBJECTION TO CARBAJAL

The President is understood to have no objection to Carabajal except that he derives his power from Huerta and the President is willing to accept him if the constitutionalists will agree to recognize him as provisional president until an election is held to choose his successor.

White House officials were confident today that the constitutionalists would agree to a peaceful entry of Mexico City. They believe there is no danger of wholesale killing or looting. Spanish Ambassador Riano called on Secretary Bryan today to make representations in behalf of the safety of Spanish citizens in Mexico City. He was unable to say whether the Spanish embassy would continue to represent the Mexican government in the United States under the new government. If Carranza refuses to settle internal affairs by diplomatic means and insists upon forcible entry into the capital recognition of Carabajal will be deferred until there is a legal election.

RECOGNITION DEPENDS UPON CARRANZA

The American forces will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a government is recognized. The first move toward effecting a transfer of the government to the constitutionalists already has been undertaken by Provisional President Carabajal. The three peace commissioners who are on their way to confer with Carranza to arrange for the peaceful occupation of the capital are thoroughly constitutionalists and were members of the Madero party.

Dispatches received by diplomats from Mexico City indicated that Carabajal will insist that peace and safety in the federal territory will be conserved through a general armistice proclamation.

Two of Carranza's representatives here, Zubaran and Louis Cabrera, said today they thought the sending of the Carabajal commission to confer with Carranza probably would have tangible results.

VILLA'S ATTITUDE IS UNCERTAIN

The only cloud on the horizon today was the uncertainty about Villa's attitude. It was reliably reported that Villa was deploying his troops in Northern Mexico to be in a position to make vigorous demands on Carranza. It was reported that after Carranza enters the capital Villa adherents may attempt to place another man in the provisional presidency. For that reason Carranza supporters are working hard to obtain early recognition of him.

SILLIMAN AUTHORIZED TO PLEDGE SUPPORT

Washington, July 16.—The United States today instructed John R. Silliman, consul at Saltillo, to inform General Carranza that if he arrives at a peaceful agreement with Provisional President Carabajal every possible support will be extended to the resultant administration.

AMERICAN ARMY OFFICERS WARNED NOT TO MEDDLE

By Associated Press. Washington, July 16.—Secretary Garrison today telegraphed Brigadier General Bliss commanding the American troops on the border ordering that American officers and soldiers be warned not to meet or discuss plans with Mexicans of either faction. Gen. Bliss was instructed to enforce this order with strictness.

ANTI-AMERICAN SPEECH IS HISSED

ATTACK BY DEPUTY MEETS WITH DISFAVOR BY CROWD AT MEXICAN CAPITOL

CHANGE CALMLY RECEIVED

No Outbreaks Follow Resignation of Huerta—Demonstrations For Carabajal

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 16.—The change in government whereby Huerta has surrendered the provisional presidency to Francisco Carabajal has been calmly received. Except for demonstrations in honor of Carabajal no outbreaks of importance have been reported in the capital.

There were a few shouts in the streets "Down with Huerta; Viva Carranza." Huerta is in flight and is probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends.

New Cabinet Today.

A new cabinet is to be elected. This will be named during the day. The diplomatic corps have arranged to call on the new president Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government was the announcement of the appointment of a special commission to meet with the constitutionalists and arrange for their peaceful entry into the capital. While the resignation of Huerta was pending in the Chamber of Deputies, Deputy Blanco made a bitter attack upon Americans and American politics. He was hissed by the public in the galleries.

HUERTA'S RETIREMENT A VICTORY FOR WILSON

This is View Taken By British Press—British Officials Hope It Means Peace

By Associated Press. London, July 16.—Huerta's resignation is regarded by the British press as a great victory for President Wilson. It is welcomed by the British public and in official circles as a probable solution of the Mexican troubles.

REFUGEES EXPECT TO RETURN TO INTERIOR

Retirement of Huerta Expected To Bring About Temporary Peace At Least

By Associated Press. Vera Cruz, July 16.—Many Americans and other foreign refugees have expressed their intentions of returning to their homes and businesses in the interior now that Huerta has retired.

That the removal of Huerta means permanent peace in Mexico is doubted in some quarters but it is generally believed the anti-American sentiment will subside and that there will be a period of relief.

During the last few days a large number of German, English and the better class of Mexicans have left here for the interior. One of the great impediments to business in portions of the interior where the revolution has not touched will be removed by the probable resumption of oil operations.

Housework Duty Wife Owes Husband Says N. J. Court

By Associated Press. Jersey City, N. J., July 16.—An agreement between a husband and wife to the effect that the latter should receive a weekly wage for performing household duties was held to be illegal by an advisory master in chancery court here yesterday. The opinion declared that work performed in the home by the wife was rendered in discharge of a duty she owed her husband and could not be construed on her sole separate account. The case was that of Mrs. H. Wende against property owned by her husband.

AN IMMENSE CROWD AT LONDON FIGHT TONIGHT

Even the Poorest Seats Were Selling Today At Premium of $15 To $20

By Associated Press. London, July 16.—There will be an immense crowd tonight at the twenty-round fight between Gunboat Smith, the American heavyweight and Georges Carpentier of France, the European heavyweight champion at Olympia. Seats were selling at a premium, even the poorest ones bringing from $15 to $20.

CARBAJAL WELL RECEIVED AS PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 16.—The succession of Francisco Carabajal to the provisional presidency has been well received by Mexicans here. The fact that he is a civilian helps win sympathy from Mexicans who appear tired of a military dictatorship. Although most of the troops in the capital left with General Huerta and members of his cabinet, complete quiet has prevailed here. Revolutionary troops occupy a village not far from the capital but they have made no attempt at hostilities and they have received orders to suspend all operations.

General Velasco was appointed minister of war and was sworn in today.

WEITHER ROCKEFELLER NOR BILLIARD WILL RESIGN

Both Will Continue as Directors of the New Haven It Was Announced Today

By Associated Press. New York, July 16.—Before the meeting of the New Haven directors here today reports of the anticipated resignation of William Rockefeller were dispelled by Mr. Rockefeller announcing he intended to continue as a director. It was also announced that John L. Billiard will not resign. Upon the action taken by the directors today, it was expected the government possible prosecution may depend to a large extent.

William Rockefeller's seat on the New York stock exchange was posted today for transfer to his son, Percy Rockefeller.

TWO NEW VAUDEVILLE BILLS OPEN AT AIRDOME TONIGHT

Butler and Lyons will open an unusual vaudeville act at the Lamar Airdome tonight. In "A Musical Roundup" they present a number of fancy violin duos and are supported by a "Whirlwind Cow Girl" pianist. They introduce a novel cowboy dance. Their act is a top-liner every where and will prove no doubt to be very pleasing. Alvarez and Martell also open a three days engagement in their classy singing and talking act, entitled "The Girl From Sherry's."

EIGHT PERSONS IN WAGON

Emmett and Leonard Salzer Open Fire—W. M. Johnson Killed, Others Wounded

By Associated Press. Carthage, Texas, July 16.—Additional details of the shooting of seven members of the Johnson family on a country road near here, yesterday reached Carthage this morning. W. M. Johnson, his wife, his five children and a small girl named Mills, a guest of the Johnson children, were driving in a wagon when they passed the residence of Emmett and Leonard Salzer. The Salzers and the Johnsons have had a series of bitter disputes for three months over various troubles.

All Killed or Wounded.

As the Johnsons passed, the Salzers hailed them going out to the road where a discussion started and trouble followed. The discussion is said to have started of the trespass of a cow in a forbidden field.

The Salzers with a pistol and a shotgun killed Johnson and wounded every member of the Johnson family. The little Mills girl was unharmed. It is said Johnson also fired a shot. Mrs. Johnson and her second daughter were reported seriously wounded but physicians reported by telephone this morning that all members of the family probably would recover.

Salzers Are in Jail.

Emmett and Leonard Salzer surrendered and are in jail here. They expect an examining trial as soon as the Johnsons wounded are able to testify.

Favorite And Most Loyal Regiment Form Escort—Movement Of Special Closely Guarded

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, July 16.—General Victoriana Huerta, resigned provisional president of Mexico, together with a large party of his friends, former senators and prominent officials of the Huerta administration, are speeding toward Puerto Mexico, today where it is expected they will board a German or Dutch steamer for Europe. Reports from Vera Cruz at ten o'clock this morning said that the special trains carrying the Huerta party and the Thirteenth infantry, Huerta's favorite and most loyal regiment, had not yet reached Orizaba, where they were due early this morning. The Thirteenth regiment has been renowned for its loyalty to the former dictator.

A strict censorship was imposed here today on outgoing and incoming news and little can be learned concerning the progress of the trains believed to be carrying the fugitives to the coast. Huerta's last hours at the capital were spent with friends. Early in the night he went to his favorite cafe and took his usual place near the entrance.

An immense crowd followed the ex-President to the cafe, shouting "Vivas" for him. Many shook him by the hand, while others embraced him and several kissed him on the cheek. The stern old soldier was overcome and tears filled his eyes. He raised his glass and said: "This will be my last toast in my favorite resort, and I drink to the new President of Mexico."

FIGHT ON CONFIRMATION OF JONES CONTINUES

Administration Officials Vigorously Deny Withdrawal of Nomination Planned

By Associated Press. Washington, July 16.—There was no decisive change in the president's fight for the confirmation of Thomas H. Jones of Chicago for the federal reserve board. Indication that the nomination might be withdrawn was emphatically denied by White House officials who said the administration supporters had increased in number. Opponents were confident they could beat Mr. Jones. The administration was still hopeful of a victory although by a slender majority. A statement endorsing Mr. Jones from twenty-five large business concerns in Chicago, was made public at the White House this morning.

FEDERAL LEAGUE WINS FIRST LEGAL VICTORY

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 16.—The Federal League won its first legal victory in its war on organized baseball today when the appellate court held the 10-day clause in the baseball players regular contract null and void. This ruling was given in a court decision reversing a superior court decision which had enjoined E. M. Johnson, the Indian pitcher from playing with the Kansas City Federals. The superior court had decided that Johnson belonged to the Cincinnati Nationals.

An entire change of vaudeville will be made today.

The lady proves to have too much spirit for Wood B. and his matrimonial adventure turns out like the previous ones have.

The Victoria.
A number of interesting events are pictured in the Mutual Weekly and a two reel Majestic, "The Soul of Honor" is showing also. Henry Walthall and Blanche Sweet are two actors that make this drama one of exceptional interest.

Old Col. Potter had distinguished himself in 1812 and his son, Dick, was made lieutenant fighting for the Confederacy. One July noon '68, worn out with riding, Dick dropped from his horse at this father's house. He carried important dispatches, he said, but could not resist stopping off to see his young wife, Nancy, and get a short rest. Nancy pleaded with him to stay over night, but the old colonel sternly reminded the young officer that his duty comes before personal happiness and Dick goes reluctantly to saddle his horse. Meanwhile Nancy has secretly let the anti-while Nancy has secretly let the anti-able to find the horse in the darkness, Dick goes into her entreaties to stay. Early next morning a courier rode up with the news that a battle fought at dawn had been lost because the young Lieutenant Potter had not reached the camp with dispatches. Ignorant of the fact that his son had stayed, his father boldly declares that his son must have been killed, as otherwise, a Potter would have never failed in his duty to his country. The courier rode on to trace the missing officer. A few minutes later the colonel discovered his son on the point of continuing his mission. Sick with shame, yet unflinching he told him it was too late—that he had disgraced the family name and his country. Then, leading him to his room, Col. Potter took down his revolver and laying it silently before Dick left him. The lieutenant took farewell of his wife as though he was going on a journey and rode away. Out of sight of the house he drew rein and through the still morning air a shot rang out. The father found his son's body five minutes later—he cleaned and re-loaded the revolver, placed it in Dick's belt, stimulating evidence that the young officer had been surprised and attacked, stole sorrowfully away. A little later the courier was stooping over the body and muttered, "Died like a soldier."

The Empress.
Valentine Grant, the former Broadway star is featured today in "A Mother of Men." The Moving Picture World has the following comment on this production: "Here is a story of Civil War days along new lines. It is of a family divided—but it is divided in sorrow, not in anger. The father in the uniform of the South and a son in the uniform of the North bid good-bye to the weeping wife and mother. The two men ride down the picturesque road fringed with maple and hick trees; at the point of parting the son falls on the neck of his father—but his grief does not overcome his deeply-rooted conviction. 'A Mother of Men' is a story which will cause no measure of irritation on either side of the fast fading as it was more than imaginary Mason and Dixon line.

The picture is staged in luxuriant Florida. The photography is of the best. On the dramatic side there are in this smoothly told story many situations that will stir. On the sensational or spectacular sidethere are well staged battles in which many men are engaged. The views of strife are short and snappy; they supplement the main action, but never subordinate it. Some of the more striking scenes are the serenade of the parents and three young sons by the slaves; the cutting on the wrist of the youngest son by a rebellious negro; and the later kidnapping of the little fellow; the declaration by father and son of their respective political beliefs and the departure for the war; the death of the father and the grief of the son as he kneels by the body; the interjected views of the mother at home, always awaiting; the departure of the second son and his selection to do the work of a spy; his later detention in the Northern camp to determine if he is entitled to wear the blue; his dramatic overpowering of his guard and novel escape; the torch lighted pursuit through the palmetto grove and seeking of refuge in his own home, followed by men in command of his brother, who is ignorant of the fugitive's identity; the exchange of fatal shots between the two; the grief of the mother and her departure in search of the son kidnapped in childhood; and the fading back to the sombre Night Court, where the gray bearded judge scans the face of the trembling old woman beside him and then slowly turns back his coat sleeve and reveals the scar—and the reunion of mother and son.

"Mr. Olcott has done well, both as producer and in his portrayal, brief but nevertheless effective of the judge. 'A Mother of Men' is a story that will hold and move, too."

FUTURE EVE TO BE BALD.

FLAT BREASTED, WRINKLED

Berlin, July 15.—The future "Eve" will be bald. So declares Dr. Broig today in "The Bulletin Medical." "In the 30 years of my practice," says Dr. Broig, "I can say as a result of close observation that the physique of the new generation of women is slowly but surely undergoing a change. The breast is sinking in, the shoulders becoming more stooped; cold feet are becoming a normal manifestation, the hands are showing tendency toward a violet or purplish color, the face is becoming smaller, deep wrinkles in the forehead more frequent and the digestion getting worse. And that is not all; bloodlessness is affecting the face and skull. The elasticity of the pores is decreasing and the nose is developing more and more. This decrease of vitality is affecting the scalp. Women today are losing hair as never before. This phenomena is the forerunner of the bald pate hitherto the sole privilege of men. Women are rapidly becoming more baldheaded."

A picnic lunch is nothing if it isn't unusual. The average family doesn't indulge in picnics often enough to make the lunch problem a very heavy burden even though the unusual is selected.

Yet the picnic lunch proposition is large enough to demand pretty careful attention at the food store and I have made a department of these goods second to none in the state. WICHITA COUNTY WILL RAISE BIG FEED CROP

Earlier Crops Already Assured—Later Crops Will Need More Rain To Mature

Wichita county is going to raise a big feed crop this year and much of it is already made, according to J. W. Campbell, district agricultural agent. The earlier feed crops are already assured, but it will take another rain to make the late crops what they should be. Milo, maize, kafir corn and feterita are all promising at present, some being nearly ready to cut. Mr. Campbell says that the acreage in forage crops is materially larger this year and that few, if any farmers, will have to buy any feed.

Corn is needing rain again in some parts, Mr. Campbell says, and is going through the usual critical period of July when a delay of a day or two in the arrival of wet weather will mean no crop. Most of it is good for several days yet, he believes.

Cotton is not needing rain just now and is as promising as anyone could ask. Its condition is far ahead of the average for the state, as a whole, which is unusually low on account of floods and other unfavorable conditions. Bastrop—A number of new residences are being built at Bastrop this summer.

CROWDS FLOCKED TO LAKE WICHITA

WICHITANS GIVE EMPHATIC ENDORSEMENT TO CAR FARE REDUCTION

CROWD ESTIMATED AT 1000

Many Took Lunches and Picnicks Were Thick—Good Service Was Given

Wichitans gave emphatic endorsement last night for the street car company's reduction in fare to the lake. A crowd that was about all the company could handle went out to the lake, saw the picture show, skated, swam or just sat around in the cool breeze. It was one of the largest crowds that the lake has ever entertained. One thousand people at five cents each nets considerably more than a hundred people at a dime each and the reduction appears to have been a wise one.

All the cars went through, instead of only every other car, and during the early hours of the night was a case of standing room only on nearly every car. The trailers were put into use and practically all the available seating stock was required to take care of the patrons.

Regular Sunday. The reduction will not apply for the present on Sunday afternoons, as the present crowds are about all the company can handle. It is not expected that subsequent crowds during the hot weather will be as large as that of last night, but there is little doubt that a great many more people will visit the lake this summer.

While an additional ticket each way seems a small item, a man with a family would be much quicker to spend forty cents for himself, wife and two children on an evening's outing than he would be to give up the large end of a dollar. Many of the crowd last night took their lunches and picnicks were thick. The picture show, soda fountain, swimming pool and other attractions were all liberally patronized.

AUTOMOBILE TOURISTS ARE NUMEROUS HERE

From One To a Dozen Parties Pass Through City Daily Garage Men Report

From one to two to over a dozen automobile touring parties go through Wichita daily, according to local garage proprietors, and the position of this city as a tourist point seems to be firmly established. One garage owner says that on Tuesday seven cars, passing through this city on long trips put up at his place alone.

Most of the tourists are following the Texas to Colorado highway, Colorado Springs and Denver being the objective points. A few parties have gone through from Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska, bound for Gulf points; these follow the Meridian highway. It is an every day sight to see one or more cars, dust covered and travel-worn, the occupants tanned and perspiring, with baggage strapped to the fenders on the streets here.

Most of the parties stop here for meals, many remaining all night. A majority of them take occasion to lay in supplies of ice and other cold things, this being the last oasis for many miles for the northbound parties and the first one after many miles for the southbound parties.

The candidates just have nine more days in which to work and wait and they are making the most of it.

In a little more than one week this mud-slinging campaign will come to a close and all can be thankful for that.

Says Carranza to Huerta: "I will treat with you only on the battlefield."

And Huerta the man who traitored and then murdered Madero, replies by resigning as president and leaving Mexico.

As a rule, the man who is a success at his own calling can be trusted to transact business for the public.

In most cases, if a man is a failure in his own line of business he will prove a failure if elected to office.

There are a few exceptions to this rule but they are rare.

Texas Democrats are as much responsible for the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for president as any other State in the Union, if not more so.

At the time Texas held her presidential primary convention the cause of Wilson was at low ebb.

Texas Democrats, by an overwhelming majority, stood for Wilson and sent to Baltimore a delegation of forty true Democrats, with instructions to cast the vote of this state for Wilson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

It is now up to the Democrats of Texas to see to it that the administration of President Wilson is endorsed and enthusiastically endorsed at the El Paso convention.

This, however, cannot be expected if that convention is composed for the most part of men who have done and are yet doing everything possible to embarrass the president and his administration.

Doubtless the proposition to re-submit the question of statewide prohibition will carry in the July primary, as The Times believes it should.

The Times views the matter it is the quickest and best way to get that question completely out of state politics and the sooner that is done the better.

I have served on the Committee on Indian Affairs during my terms in Congress, and am now its Chairman.

The opening of the vast Indian Reservation in Southwestern Oklahoma was the result of my efforts in Congress.

The opening, settlement and development of this territory caused several railroads to be extended into Texas that would not have been built otherwise.

The building of these roads brought many emigrants and millions of dollars into our State and thus greatly added to the welfare of our population and enhanced the value of real estate and other property.

I was the author and secured the passage of the bill that provided for the settlement of the disputed boundary lines between Texas and New Mexico, and the definite settlement and location of the initial monument

It will be for the people. It was charged and it yet is charged that frauds were allowed to creep into the last statewide election and there is plenty of evidence to substantiate this charge. The pros are convinced that frauds were committed and there are thousands of conscientious anti-pros who agreed with them on that point. The pros are not satisfied with that kind of verdict. What they want is a fair election and a straight count of the vote. If this is given them and they lose then they will be satisfied with the result for some years to come. The constant agitation of this question in state election results in filling our law-making body with entirely too many peanut professional politicians who ride into office on that question. Therefore The Times believes that it is to the best interests of all concerned—both pros and anti to vote for submission on July 25th. If it carries and there is everything to indicate that it will, and a fair election is held, the result will be that of taking the prohibition question out of state politics.

TEXAS.

The people of Texas are proud of the great State and with reason. It contains 265,700 square miles, divided into 252 counties, of which five remain unorganized. In population, Dallas county leads with 135,748 persons and Cochran county comes last, with only sixty-five persons. The port of Galveston handles a foreign commerce which exceeds the combined total foreign commerce of all the Pacific ports. Texas has more railroad mileage than any State in the Union, but, territory considered, it will require four times as much as it has to equal the mileage of the state of Illinois. In agricultural products Texas is in a class by itself, cultivating 36,000,000 acres of land, which is about one-fourth of the tillable part of its superficial area. When the Texan goes ahead he makes a loud noise, and according to these statistics he has every right to be heard.—Memphis News-Sentinel

CONGRESSMAN STEPHENS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

To the Voters of the 13th Congressional District: Not being able to make a personal canvass of our District on account of Congress being in session, I take this method of calling your attention to some of the legislation secured by me while in Congress.

I secured free (road-side) mail boxes on star routes, which service was the forerunner of free rural and parcel post delivery. I have secured for my people more free rural delivery routes than any other district in Texas.

I was the author of the first bills and the active promoter of the law extending the national irrigation law to Texas. I actively promoted the extension of this law by joining the Western Irrigation Congress and became its vice president, and finally, at Portland, Oregon, I secured the passage through that Irrigation Congress of a resolution approving my bill providing that the national irrigation law be extended to Texas, and at the next regular session of Congress it became a law. This will eventually result in Texas securing several million dollars for irrigation purposes, and West Texas will be greatly benefitted thereby.

I was the author and secured the passage of the bill that provided for the settlement of the disputed boundary lines between Texas and New Mexico, and the definite settlement and location of the initial monument at the intersection of the One-Hundredth Meridian with Red river gave to Texas an undisputed title to more than 100,000 acres of land, the title of which was formerly claimed by the United States. The towns of Terlingua, Farwell and Terico were involved in this controversy and would have been lost to Texas if the contention of New Mexico and the United States had been sustained.

When I came to Congress there were no federal buildings in our District, but during my term I have secured six, and now have bills pending for other cities, part of which I hope to have incorporated in the next omnibus public buildings bill passed by the Congress.

The following letter written by me in reply to a constituent explains my position on the current State and National political questions enquired about by him, and which appeared in a recent issue of the Record and Chronicle of Denton, Texas:

Mr. Stephens Gives Views on Leading Political Questions. "Editor Record and Chronicle:—I enclose you herewith a letter just received from Hon. J. H. Stephens. I have been personally acquainted with him for over thirty years and can say he has always stood four square on all public questions of the day. "No better friend of the laboring man can be found."

J. J. MATTHEWS. "June 12, 1914. Mr. J. J. Matthews, Denton, Texas. Dear Sir: Your kind letter of recent date requesting me to give you my views on some political questions now before the country for solution, is at hand.

"In reply I beg to state that on the issues enquired about I fully endorse Tom Ball for Governor. I served with him six years in Congress and can state that from my standpoint no better man can be found for Governor than my friend Ball.

"I favor a referendum vote in both State and Nation to settle the prohibition question. The Texas Legislature should submit a constitutional amendment for ratification or rejection by the voters of the State. And Congress should submit to the respective states of the Union the same question. This method would take the vexed question out of both State and national politics and settle it, as it should be settled, by a non-partisan vote. I should vote for both State and National constitutional prohibition.

"My idea of a remedy for any evil, and intemperance is the chief of all tribes of evils, is to dig it up by the roots; as it can never be done by cutting off a few limbs. I therefore believe that the only effective way to control the alcoholic traffic is to prohibit its manufacture, importation, sale or use in the United States. Federal licenses should not be issued in dry territory. However, should three-fourths of the States vote for a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the sale or use of alcoholic liquors in the United States the prohibition question would be solved for all time.

"I favor the repeal of the law giving free tolls to our ships for passing through the Panama Canal. These tolls should be paid to keep up the expenses of running and maintaining the canal, and to pay the annual interest on the bonded canal debt. I am opposed to giving bounties to ships, railroads, or any other greedy public utility corporation.

"I favor the trust measures proposed by the Administration and believe that we as a nation should use every honorable means in our power to avoid war with Mexico. I am not a jingo, but stand for a peaceful solution of the Mexican problems, through mediation and compromise, and I fully endorse the policy of the Administration in these matters.

"I am opposed to ratifying the recent treaty with Colombia giving that country twenty-five million dollars and various other concessions as an indemnity for taking over the Panama Canal strip of territory.

"I regret that my duties here will prevent me from canvassing the district before the primaries, as it now appears that we will not adjourn before September. I will have to rely on my friends at home to keep up my

BATTLE FOR WHITE CHAMPIONSHIP

GUNBOAT SMITH AND GEORGES CARPENTIER IN TWENTY ROUND BOUT

DOPE FAVORS THE AMERICAN

Boy Wonder of France, However, Regarded As Likely Opponent of Gunboat

London, July 15.—Before an assemblage of 11,000 men and women George Carpentier, the boy wonder of France, will try tonight to capture from Gunboat Smith, American ex-bluejacket the white heavy-weight championship of the world, and incidentally win a flat purse of $25,000, the largest ever offered in England. The scene is the big West End enclosure Olympia and the fact that the most successful performances hitherto staged there was a play called "The Miracle" is regarded by the Frenchman's supporters as a most propitious omen.

As one sided as the contest promises to be, according to the dope of fight experts generally, it has been proven to be the most popular of the present unusually active boxing season in this country. A month ago the regular $50 ring-side seats were going at a premium and today found the "hooking" agencies unable to supply any more of even the $1.25 variety, located a furlong or so from the center of the arena. English fight fans have taken especial interest in the match on account of Carpentier's previous sensational defeats of Bombarier Wells, the British heavyweight and because this is the first time in history that a Frenchman has fought for a world's title. As to the case of the Welsh-Ritchie fight of last week a considerable portion of the audience will be women.

Gunboat Not Too Sure.

The Gunboat whose other name is Edward, does not share the over confidence that his friends display. "Although I'm pretty sure I'll win," he said this morning to the United Press, "I'm not making the mistake of regarding it as all over, before I step under the ropes. I know they tell me it's a cinch but I've met 'cinches' like this before and have gotten the worst that ever happened. I have 26 knockouts to my credit and I hope to make Carpentier No. 37—but I'm going to make a clean job of it from the start and not take any chances."

Carpentier, despite the odds of size and weight and record of past performances against him, is apparently confident. He frankly admits that he is up against the toughest proposition he has yet encountered. "I have a great respect for Gunboat Smith's punch," he said, "but I hope to beat him. If not, I shall have gone down before the best white man in the world."

The French champion who arrived here only three days ago, has been undergoing five weeks of strenuous training at Mautot, France—a longer period than he has devoted to preparation for any of his previous matches. His manager Descamps says the boy has never been in finer form. "George will win, Wise la France," he shouted with Gallic enthusiasm. On the morning of Wells' 73 second defeat last December before the National Sporting Club it was Descamps by the way, who predicted confidently that Carpentier would win in one round.

Smith has been training at Harrow-on-the-Hill, near London, and has pleased the critics immensely. Such a fine judge as Eugene Corri, England's most famous referee, remarked today, "Gunboat Smith is not only a real good fellow but a born fighter. I think he will win and win comfortably."

Gunboat's Record.

Only once has the American met with defeat and that was in 1910 when Jim Barry beat him in nine rounds. Since then he has beaten Bombarier Wells, British champion in two rounds, George Rodel of South Africa in three rounds, Jim Flynn in five rounds, Carl Morris in five rounds and Tony Ross in ten rounds. He beat Sam Langford over the 12 round course and gave the Boston Tar Baby all he wanted. Carpentier has beaten Wells twice but in the first match at Ghent two years ago, the Frenchman took the count of nine and the experts haven't yet ceased wondering why Wells wasn't able to wade in and finish him. He has lost to Uapke, Klaus and Jeanette and as Langford has beaten the mulatto, the Gunboat on form certainly ought to find the Frenchman easy picking to-night.

The men are expected to take the ring about 10 o'clock, the contest being 20 rounds. Queenberry rules. J. T. Halls of the Sporting Life will referee and there will be two judges—a new departure in the English ring. An interesting feature in connection with the event is the insurance policy taken out at Lloyd's by Dick Burge, who is staging the show. For a premium of $100,000 Burge is guaranteed $10,000 by the underwriters should the contest be prevented by illness of either of the principals or for any other reason.

The fight is scheduled to start at about 10:30 Wichita Falls time.

HAL SHERIDAN'S SPORT LETTER

THREE CONTENDERS SEEN FOR NATIONAL PENNANT BY SPORT WRITER IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Pair of Sox Have Been Coming Up Fast—Lively Scrap at Finish

New York, July 16.—Jack Johnson, artist's model, is the latest. Advices from Paris bring the dope on the Big Smoke. He is sitting for Herr Herman Fisher, the well known German sculptor, who says Johnson is a regular Adonis and owns the finest body in the world. Herr Fisher has already completed one study of Johnson in clay but is trying again because he did not do the model justice, he says. Johnson, watching the artist one day, remarked: "You and me is just alike; both of us can do anything we want with our hands."

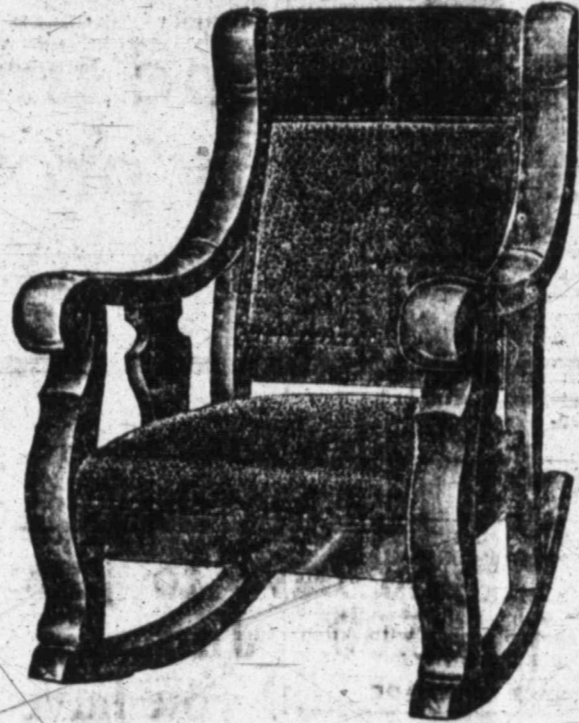

That Johnson has fought his last fight is the general opinion in Paris. Obviously on the decline as a boxer, he will be pie for the next halfway decent fighter that comes along. Since his defeat of Moran on June 27 his wine sippers, late hours and dissipation have recommenced again in earnest and he says he doesn't care much "which way the wind blows" now. With a contract to drive "Excelsior" cars in the big European race meets for some time to come, and with money in the bank, he intends to take life easy. Those acquainted with him know what that means. Herr Fisher, they say, caught Johnson in the sick of time for his bronze statue of the "Black" champion. He may be expected to be developing soon into a model for a large fat butterball man, lank somewhat freely with soot.

Three Contenders in National.

Whispering into July the general trend of questions search for an answer as to why the Giants should have reached this stage of the game still in the lead. Turning into July the Giants led by a comfortable margin, not because they had played such all-round good ball, but simply because no one else played as good as they did—which isn't saying much.

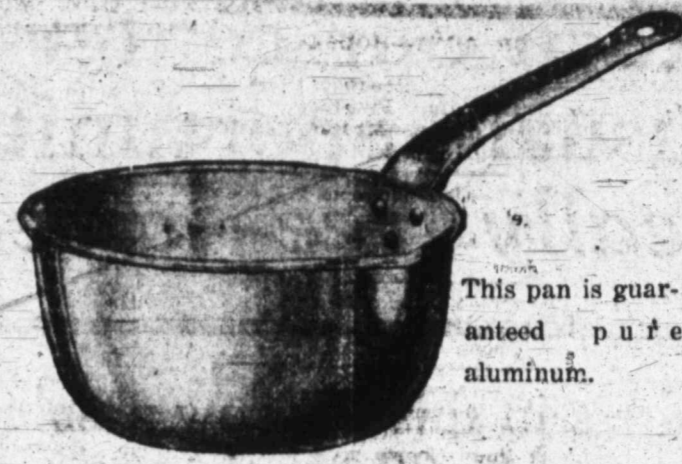

From June 1 to July 1, the Giants won half of their series. They met every team in the league during that period and succeeded only in trouncing the Cincinnati Reds to any advantage. They broke even with the Phillies, Cardinals, Cubs and Pirates and then split fifty-fifty on six games with Boston. Having acquired the habit they split even with the Brooklyn Dodgers. This was right at the time Wilbert Robinson signed a three year contract to manage Brooklyn and was desperate, however, so there is an all-time

Nothing is more common than the functional headache of eye-strain. The pain may occur in any degree of severity, but it is usually described as a dull aching, with periodical attacks of more acute suffering.

The location of the pain is not characteristic, yet it occurs more often over the brow or in the temple.

The pain may also be felt at the back of the eyes, and the eyes themselves are tender to the touch.

Both eyes may suffer equally, but usually the pain in one eye is worse than the other as there is usually a difference in the refractive error of the two eyes.

It is a curious fact that sometimes the discomfort is greater on the side of the more ametropic eye, presumably because there must be a great effort of accommodation to overcome the defect; while in other cases the discomfort is greater on the side of the better eye, presumably because this eye bears the greater part of the burden of vision.

BIG RAILROAD STRIKE HANGS IN THE BALANCE

Wichita Falls Engineers and Firemen Anxiously Await News From Chicago.

Wichita Falls engineers and firemen were today anxiously awaiting word from Chicago where the question of a strike on the western lines hangs in the balance. The latest dispatches tell of the refusal of the engineers to arbitrate their differences with the companies and this is taken here to indicate that there is little hope of averting a strike.

It was said today that both the Katy and Denver were prepared to a certain extent for a walkout of the men. The situation is admittedly critical, but little is being said about it locally. Both the men and the officials are awaiting advices from Chicago, where the matter is being thrashed out in detail.

UNION GIRL SAYS NOT PERSUADING OTHERS TO QUIT

Editor of The Times:—

As far as the glove factory not doing much business we are not at all surprised. We do not know and furthermore do not care who stated the untrue statement in Wednesday's Times. We only want to say it is untrue about a crowd of us union girls waiting on the outside for the new girls and persuade them to quit work. We do not persuade any one to quit work. They have common sense enough to teach them after working several weeks they can not make anything at 35c a hundred on canvas gloves. We think it very foolish of this person to even let such an idea get in their head and besides it does not take the time it would take for us to persuade them. Just let them make gloves several weeks and see if they need anyone to persuade them to quit work.

Ah, well if they are soosing it must be layed on some one.

We roast only high grade, carefully selected, well aged coffee and roast very day. If you never used fresh roasted coffee you don't know good coffee. Your MOTHER made good coffee because she roasted fresh before each meal. You'll do yourself a favor to try ours just once. That's all we ask.
