MAYBIE DEFEATS BARTEL IN MATCH TUESDAY NIGHT

Roy Maybie of Oklahoma was victor Tuesday night over Fred Bartel of California in a wrestling match at the Wichita Theatre. The Oklahoma man captured the evening's honors in straight falls, the first in thirty-one minutes, the second in six minutes. Maybie's greater weight made him the superior of the two, and it was evident almost from the first that the smaller man would be unable to throw him.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED BY BAR ASSOCIATION TUESDAY

The members of the Wichita Falls Bar Association assembled at the court house Tuesday to pay their last respects to the memory of Major Robert Cobb. The association was called to order by Judge E. W. Nicholson who stated the object of the meeting. A. W. Kerr, clerk of the district court was appointed secretary. Judge Martin presented the resolutions adopted by the committee named by Judge Nicholson. Judge Hughes moved the adoption of the resolutions which prevailed unanimously. The resolutions follow: To the President and Members of the Wichita Falls Bar Association: Whereas, We have learned with deep regret that death has again entered the ranks of our association and has removed to the Court of Final Resort Major Robert Cobb, who was for three decades a respected member of this bar and during his active years one of the leading attorneys of Northwest Texas, and Whereas, We who knew him in the court room and out of it always found him to be a kind, courteous gentleman of the old school, belonging to that peculiar type now rapidly passing away, who made the South the land of chivalry, poetry, honor and hospitality and who gave it glory, not only in the forensic arena, but also in many bloody fields of battle, and who in the days of his sorest trouble gave the best years of his life in the defense of the rights and liberties of the whole people of the South.

Major Cobb was an example of that school and that age in Southern history and even in his advanced years his memory lingered lovingly around the stirring days of the sixties, when as a soldier he won for himself and for the South a name and fame which will live long after his martial figure has crumbled into the dust of ages, and Whereas, We in common with all of the people in our city shall miss his pleasant smile and hearty handshake as well as his cheerful words; Therefore, Be it resolved that we join with his loved ones in lamenting his death and tender to them our heartfelt sympathy and as a small testimonial of our esteem we request that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the district court and that a copy thereof, under the seal of the court, be transmitted to the family of the deceased and also that a copy be furnished the local press for publication.

Respectfully submitted, L. H. MARTIN, A. H. CARRIGAN, P. A. MARTIN, Committee.

SOCIETY

Crowning Jewel. The friends that love us always in the good times and the bad; The friends that love us always Are the friends that keep us glad. The friends that cling in tempest As they do in calm are those That have made the paths of hardship Seem the paths of song and rose.

The friends that love us always, When we go their way or not, Are the friends that hearts remember When the others are forgot. The friends that stick the closest. When the trouble grows the worst; The friends that love us always Just the way they did at first.

They are the crowning jewels Of the coronets we weave In the dreams of tender moments When the troubles start to leave; And we miss their names forever And we see their faces clear. The friends that love us always, In the sun or shadows, dear. —Baltimore Sun.

WICHITA FALLS RECIPE.

Recipe For Red Watermelon Conserve (By Mrs. A. C. Wilson)

Six quarts of the red watermelon meat cut in pieces, pick out all seeds and cover with four pints of sugar. Cook until the water in the fruit is all out. When half done add a lemon, peeled and cut in small bits, until the syrup is as thick as desired. Put up in jelly glasses pouring melted paraffin over the top. This makes a very clear jelly, much like plum but more delicious. (Recipes are solicited. Phone 1671 or send to Times office.)

MEXICO MAKES MANEUVERS GOOD AT CAMP DOUGLAS

Camp Douglas, July 23.—Not since the Civil War has this state seen such a military display as was spread out on the camp grounds here today when the entire state militia went through their maneuvers. Over 3,000 men, comprising forty companies of hospital corps, bands and a cavalry squadron were on the field.

The chance for service in Mexico brought the guard enlistment up to 2,000 within a month and most of the new members had seen service either in the regular army or in the guards. The excitement also increased interest in the drills and Adjutant General Holway said today that the men are better equipped than ever before.

DON'T GET HOT

At The Theaters

The Empress. The eighth episode of 'The Perils of Pauline' is showing here today. Pauline goes through with some more 'perils,' this time she races down a mountain side in close communion with a giant rock. She does this just to prove to the Indians who found her after she escaped from the cave where the arch villains left her the last time we saw her, two weeks ago, that she is the real one and only white goddess. The mummy comes to life again and tells Harry of the peril which is now besetting Pauline. Of course Harry leaves on the next train for the west. He then aids Pauline to escape, but the exact manner in which he does it is not related by the stories so the only thing to do is to wait patiently. Lamar Airdome. Both vaudeville acts continue to be very pleasing to the large crowds that frequent this popular place of amusement. Tonight is the last appearance, Thursday being the date for change of vaudeville. The pictures for tonight include 'Wife,' a strong society drama and 'Uncle Sam in Mexico.'

The Majestic. 'Lost in Mid Ocean' is the chief attraction at the Majestic today. The young wife is kidnapped in Japan and taken from her husband. She escapes by strategy from her villainous captors and sails for America. The steamer strikes an ice berg and is lost in mid-ocean. Clinging to a bit of wreckage the girl is saved. All trace of her husband is lost and her search for him is vain until she is rescued from a burning building and they are reunited. A Melies two part, 'A Terrible Alternative' is shown. The Victoria. Dorothy Gish and Robert Harron are featured in a delightful comedy drama, 'The Newer Woman' and a Keystone makes fun for all. The program is completed by a Beauty, 'Drifting Hearts,' featuring Margaret Fisher and Harry Pollard. A synopsis of the story follows: After Dolly, the Courtleigh's little daughter died suddenly the young artist and his wife drifted apart. He buried himself in his work and she drowned her grief in the distraction of society. In his loneliness Courtleigh confided in his model, Marie, and Harriette, convinced that her husband cared more for art than for her, listened to the pleadings of an art student admirer. On her birthday morning, Marie came into the studio unannounced. A note addressed to her and a little box containing a pearl necklace caught her eye, and she read the message with a beating heart. It was from Courtleigh and was filled with tender gratitude. The gifts were his gift to her. While Marie was dressing in the next room or the posing Harriette came into the studio an hour before she had consented to leave Courtleigh's home with her admirer—but she could not do without taking the miniature of Kelly that was in her husband's garments. With her hand on the picture she happened to see lying open on the table Courtleigh's note to Marie. As she read it all came over her that this was the anniversary of their wedding day. He forgave her everything.

Rosemary Thoby, Winsley Shaw and Joseph Kaufman play the leads in a most interesting two part Lubin, 'Madame Coquette' showing here today. The story is one of husband and wife who in time become tired of each other. The wife plays with fire in the way of a reckless flirtation and nearly succeeds in ruining both their lives. The story carries the audience along with it. A Kalem railroad comedy, 'And the Dance Went On' tells the amusing mishaps which come to railroaders. Jim and Tom purchase tickets to the 'trainmen's ball' and are going to 'ride their sweethearts and have a grand time. They try to get off on the day of the ball but a stony hearted official says there is nothing doing, so they must take their Sunday go to meeting clothes with them on their run so they won't lose any time that evening in going home to dress. The conductor and engineer have that tired feeling and can't go fast, then the cows get on the track and interfere with the progress of the train, so the boys are late. Jane and Grace are some what peevish when the boys finally arrive but they finally get to the dance. Here once more 'kick' lands the poor chaps an awful buff. The call boy has orders to make up a crew and of course Jim and Tom are the first ones he nails. They have to go and clear away a wreck, but Grace and Jane do not worry a minute. While their disconsolate lovers are bemoaning their awful misfortune they are enjoying themselves immensely tangoing with two very good looking chaps.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together. My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it. Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling? If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century."

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

We are glad that Huerta got safely out of Mexico. He deserved death in many ways, but it would have been a shame to stain on Mexico to have killed him. And Mexico has enough to answer for as it is.—Lawrence (Kan.) Journal.

Yes, but it seems a pity that Villa was denied the privilege and satisfaction it would have given him to capture and mete out proper punishment to the man who betrayed and assassinated Madero. Huerta richly deserves death, and that he was permitted to escape with his life he can thank Washington, or in other words, President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, the two men whom Huerta blames with his downfall.

TRIBUTE TO COLONEL BALL

In a letter to a friend, District Judge Norman G. Kittrell of Houston, writes of Tom Ball:

"I have known Mr. Ball since he was born. He has struggled up out of direct poverty, handicapped by heavy burdens, to a high rank in his profession, and is honored and esteemed by all who know him. He was born in Greenville and was raised and married there, and nowhere is there more enthusiasm in his behalf. The people there know all his past as a lawyer, a politician, a member of congress, and they find no fault with him. He is a clean, hard-headed, broad-gauged gentleman, an able lawyer and business man."

The Times had always rather print something good about a candidate for public office than something bad. Therefore takes pleasure in giving the above space, which is sent The Times by an admirer of Colonel Ball. There has been entirely too much mud-slinging in this campaign.

If there are those who were of the opinion that the El Paso convention is going to prove a very tame affair, with but few delegates in attendance, they can now get rid of that opinion. The convention to convene in El Paso in August is going to prove the most interesting state convention since that of the Hogg-Clark affair at Houston. Two of the most interesting statesmen scheduled to take part in that convention will be Senator Morris Sheppard and Ex-Senator Bailey, and the chances are that both will make speeches. Ex-Senator Bailey will attempt to put through that convention a resolution endorsing his view of the tariff question, about which Senator Sheppard has the today. Bailey's proposed tariff plank is a repudiation of the Houston convention of two years ago, and of the new Democratic tariff law. Its adoption would mean that Texas would line up with Louisiana in demanding protection for local products. Its adoption would be used by Republicans throughout the United States in their attempt to overthrow the National Democracy and would place Texas out of line with the Democratic party of the nation. A debate on that question between the two distinguished gentlemen is all that will be necessary to make the El Paso convention the largest attended in years. Even those who will not be so fortunate as to be delegates will be there to hear Sheppard defend the National administration, and of course those who endorse Ex-Senator Bailey's tariff views will also be on hand.

SAYS BRYAN IS A BLOT ON WILSON'S ADMINISTRATION Editor The Times: Replying to your remarks in the Sunday edition I wish to say: I do not doubt your having very many exchanges and good scissiors. I do not always like the way you use them. I did not request you to publish all the clippings, only the one showing the Anti-Saloon League being a corrupt, minister-ridden political machine which claimed to have elected three-fourths of the members of the Texas Legislature. As I am positive of having included this clipping in my letter it seems strange you did not find it. The masterly article, "A Real American Peril—Womansism" (see "Womansism" as the counter made it) was certainly worthy of your attention.

In support of my remark concerning Bryan I refer you to the Army and Navy Journal of July 4 where it says: Mr. Bryan has forewarned his principles and has been doing his best to aid General Villa. Whenever Villa has been censured Mr. Bryan has held out his helping hand. All evidence point to the fact that Mr. Bryan and General Villa are "thicker" than ever. The motives for Bryan's partiality for the Mexican tiger, Villa, will be known and exposed and will form a blot on Wilson's administration and a just Providence will punish the evil deed by the consequence of his own deeds.

I have many other clippings which you ought to read, but as you seem averse to hearing the other side, I refrain from sending you any at present, except one on Mexico which is worthy of careful perusal.

Yours truly, EMIL FLUSCHKE (Editor's Note—The clipping enclosed by Mr. Flusche follows. Perhaps it is unnecessary to say that it does not meet with this newspaper's entire endorsement.)

In a recent issue of the Outlook (vol. 107, No. 6, p. 205) a special correspondent, Gregory Mason, campaigning with General Villa in Mexico, makes the following remarkable statement: "Villa is doing his best to remove from his country an old incubator of the Church—which has been the friend of capitalist aristocracy and the oppressor of the people since the days of the conquistadores." After quoting Villa to the effect that priests are "immoral, hypocrites" and "frauds" and that it shall be the purpose of the Constitutional leader "to open the eyes of the people to the tricks of the thieving priests," Mason adds: "Apparently his program thus far is successful. The only priest found in Torreón will form a blot on the house of a wealthy Irishman."

These accusations of the Mexican bandit against the priesthood, quoted by the Outlook correspondent, and triumphantly re-inforced by his own remarks, are absolutely false. The Catholic Church, far from being an oppressor of the people and a friend of the moneyed interests, has despite the years of hardship and persecution from her enemies in the administration and in the ranks of capital, been the greatest force for the amelioration of the conditions among the poorer classes in the southern republic. Mason himself in a subsequent article (The Outlook, June 20, 114, p. 322) declares that "while the lot of a Mexican poor is not enviable, it is a well-earned American to contemplate there is far more happiness to the square foot of equal land in the Mexican than in the state of a large American city, or in a glamorous, head driven American factory town. And this, at all times, and under all conditions, and three years of recent revolution that would have stripped a country of average wealth to barren ground."

In direct contradiction to the statement of Mason is the testimony of Charles L. Lummis, the distinguished Editor of "Out West," himself a New Englander, a Protestant and the son of a college professor. In his interesting book, "The Awakening of a Nation," he says: "It is fit to say just here that while, as in mining always, there are a few who are rich, the vast majority of chases, it is wholly unwarranted to speak of the downtreading of the Indian laborers. They were poor only as a man is poor whose wealth is little. They were not (despite the arm-chair historian) slaves. There was no mita in Mexico; no compulsory labor in mines; no labor without wages. The Indian who did not like the mine, or its administrator, or its wages, was perfectly free to go elsewhere, or to stay out altogether." (p. 32). In another place he declares that "human slavery was never a divine institution in those (the Spanish) colonies." "While this statement," he adds, "may derive a shriek from those who have learned history by not studying it, it is strictly true. Only the gross ignorance of centuries of closest historians biased by political and religious prejudice, untravelled, and apparently pledged not to read any original sources, could have brought us to such basic misconception of the Republic and the Enciomeas as to class them with our own slave-holding." "The laws of Spain as to the aborigines," he declares "the highest minded, most complete, and most noble Indian policy ever framed by man." (p. 86.)

And this was not necessarily because of any particular inherent racial virtue of the Spaniards but because of the strong spiritual influence of the Church. "The conquistador," Lummis says, "was human, but the hand of the Church was always upon his shoulder. Individually and casually he might elude it, but broadly he could not." (p. 125.)

The great explorer, Alexander von Humboldt, writing in his Essai Politique one hundred years ago, when the Church's influence was greater in Mexico than it is today, declares that "nowhere do the common people enjoy the fruits of their labor more than
