FRENCH VICTORIOUS AT MUELHAUSEN

ATTACK UPON GERMAN ENTRENCHMENTS DESCRIBED AS BRILLIANT

GERMAN RETREAT TRAGEDY

Mistaking Own Troops for French Germans in Fort Open Fire on Fugitives

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from its Paris correspondent says:
"The battle of Muelhausen and Alstern lifts the curtain for the first time on the operations of the two chief belligerents, the losing of a position and its recapture in a war so colossal is merely an episode indicating the strength and weakness of the opposing forces. The tragedy which enabled us to take Muelhausen was as follows: We knew from aviators that the Germans had between the French frontier and Muelhausen a comparatively small force and that the major part of their army was massed on the right bank of the Rhine. With our knowledge our objective in the attack was to cause them to fall back, we obtaining control of bridges on the Rhine to enable us to repulse a counter-attack if it should come on the right bank. The Germans installed artillery and earthworks. The attack was brilliant and forceful and as the Germans were strongly fortified our success was a valorous deed. The enemy suffered heavy losses, but as night was approaching our cavalry was forced to abandon active pursuit."

GERMANS FIRED UPON THEIR OWN FORCES

By Associated Press.
Rome, via Paris, Aug. 22.—The Tribuna today publishes a telegram from a correspondent at the front who says that the German retreat from Muelhausen under the fire of the French artillery became a tragedy. It was impossible for the Germans to see whence this fire came. The Interim fort on the Rhine, the correspondent continues, seeing a body of German troops approaching in the night, mistook them for French and commenced firing on them. The mistake was not discovered until dawn. The German command had numbered all night long, making havoc among their own men. The people of the region evacuated by the Germans came out to welcome the French troops with French flags in their hands, crying at the same time, "To the Rhine! To the Rhine!"

REPRISALS THREATENED BY SERBIAN GOVERNMENT

Letter Declares Austrians in Retreat Killed and Disabled Many Non-Combatants

By Associated Press.
Paris, Aug. 22.—The Serbian legation here has brought to the attention of the government a dispatch from the Serbian foreign minister at Belgrade to the Spanish minister at Roumania, in which it is declared that the commander-in-chief of the Austrian army had ordered his troops to burn crops and villages and kill the peasant inhabitants of Serbia. In the retreat of the Austrians towards the Drina they left behind them many killed or disabled, chiefly old men, women and children. The Serbian foreign minister asks the Spanish minister to inform Austria that Serbia will be forced to take measures of reprisal.

SONS OF WORKING MEN ATTEND ARISTOCRATIC SCHOOL

By Associated Press.
London, August 22.—Eton College, the most aristocratic of English schools is being thrown open to the sons of working men for two weeks this summer. Tuition, board and lodging for the fortnight's course are covered by the nominal charge of two pounds. Over one thousand boys are enrolled. The Eton summer course for laborers' sons follows a similar scheme now in vogue at Oxford. Each student will be expected to study from two to eight hours a day. One of the popular features of the scheme is that the boys are allowed the run of the celebrated playing fields of the school and the use of the boats.

MANN BLOCKS ACTION ON WAR RISK BILL

Measure Will Be Taken Up Next Week and Underwood Predicts Speedy Passage.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—Although immediate consideration of war risk insurance was blocked in the House today by Republican Leader Mann, it will be taken up early next week, even if it is necessary for democratic leaders to invoke a special rule. Representative Underwood predicted it would be passed without further delay.

LEGISLATORS GATHER AT AUSTIN

EMERGENCY BILL NOW READY

Many Members Express Themselves Favorably on Bill Drafted by Attorney General.

Special to The Times.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 22.—With tonight's arrival, there are now approximately seventy-five members of both branches of the Legislature here for the special session, which convenes Monday, and there is no doubt but that there will be a quorum present in both branches.
Quite a number of the members of the Legislature who have been seen appear to be in favor of the passage of a bonded warehouse law, such as has been prepared by the attorney general's department, and which meets with the approval of the governor. This is the so-called "emergency bill."
The companion bill known as the "permanent bill" was completed late this afternoon. This bill is more elaborate, and will not be acted on until the emergency bill has been disposed of. Governor Colquitt is at work on his message and he said today that it would not be completed until tomorrow afternoon.

DEATH RODE IN AUTOMOBILE RACE

WEALTHY YOUNG PHILADELPHIA DRIVER FATALLY HURT IN ELGIN ROAD RACE.

HIS CAR HIT THE FENCE

Spencer Wishart Dies From Broken Leg and Fractured Skull—De Palma Won Race.

By Associated Press.
Elgin, Ill., Aug. 22.—The Elgin National Road Race which, like that of yesterday, was won by Ralph de Palma, today developed into a tragedy.
Spencer Wishart, the wealthy young Philadelphia racer, a bridegroom of only two months, met death while driving his machine at a rate of eighty miles an hour. His mechanic, John C. Jenter, a New Jersey boy, probably was fatally injured. Wishart's right leg was broken, his skull fractured and his chest crushed. He was rushed to a hospital, where he died in the presence of his wife.
Jenter was thrown 100 feet; he, too, was taken to the hospital, where it was said tonight his chance of recovery was slight.
Four spectators were bruised when the car hit the fence.
De Palma's time was 4:06:18 and average speed 73.5 miles per hour.

BELGIUM PROTESTS GERMANY'S ACTS

CALLS ATTENTION OF NEUTRAL NATIONS TO VIOLATION TREATY OF 1839

U. S. RECEIVES PROTEST

Official Dispatch Announces Defeat of Belgian Army in Southeastern Belgium.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—Mr. Havenich, the Belgian minister, has presented a note of protest to the state department against violation by Germany of the treaty of 1839, which guarantees the integrity of the foreign office will be delivered to the foreign offices of all neutral and allied nations.
An official dispatch to Minister Havenich announces the defeat of the Belgian army in the southeast of Belgium, where it was forced to yield to superior German forces. The troops retreated in good order to Antwerp, the dispatch added, and they will cooperate with the allies. Brussels is entirely cut off from communication with the temporary headquarters at Antwerp. No mention was made in any of the dispatches of the alleged German violation of the rules of war.

SHORTAGE OF FLOUR AT ROTTERDAM

By Associated Press.
Rotterdam, Aug. 22.—The Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says, because of a shortage of flour, Rotterdam bakers are making bread composed of equal parts of flour and potatoes. The mixture is palatable.

IN VIOLATION OF NEUTRALITY

ENGLAND WOULD SO CONSIDER SAILING OF MAZATLAN WITH COAL

CLEARANCE IS REFUSED

American Government Will Not Permit Steamer to Leave Port With Fuel Supply

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—The British government will consider it a direct violation of American neutrality if the San Francisco, is permitted to sail with coal for the German cruiser Leipzig.
Colville Barclay, the British charge, took the matter up with the state department today. He was informed that the question already has been considered by the state department and some phases laid before the department of justice. Mr. Barclay said he felt it unnecessary to file a formal protest.
The British embassy believes that Leipzig is using San Francisco, a neutral port, as a coaling station through the medium of such ships as the Mazatlan and claims it as strictly a violation of neutrality as though the Leipzig put into port herself for coal. The Leipzig has coaled once in San Francisco and under neutrality laws may not coal at an American port again for three months.

By Associated Press.
San Francisco, Aug. 22.—Clearance papers were refused the steamer Mazatlan today by order of the treasury department today. The Mazatlan is German owned and is laden with coal originally bought by the German consulate here for delivery aboard the German cruiser Leipzig at sea.

MANY LONDON WAITERS TAKING PART IN WAR

By Associated Press.
London, August 22.—The call to the colors for the continental reservists had immediate effect on London restaurants, hotels and boarding houses. London became almost waiterless.

The old fashioned English waiter is all but extinct. His passing has been deeply regretted by the older generation of English, because of his intelligent service, which he rendered as one of the fine arts, and his respectful demeanor. But he could not withstand the competition of the cheaper living foreigner.

FRANCE CALLS GERMANY UNBRIDLED SAVAGES

In Official Statement Says Enemy Has Considered Non-Existent International Rules

By Associated Press.
London, August 22.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph agency from Paris quotes an official statement:
"Owing to strategical considerations it has been impossible to cooperate earlier with the Belgian army in the defense of their country, but the engagements we have undertaken are only the more solemn and our cooperation will be the more close and will be pursued with energy."
"In contrast with the considerate treatment accorded German prisoners it has been established that the enemy considered as nonexistent both international conventions and the most ancient traditions of right and military order. We are suffering a veritable invasion of barbarism. We wish indeed to remain civilized, but will do so until the end despite this return to savagery on the part of a nation which has pretended to be the arbiter of civilization, but it is impossible to preserve toward our present adversaries the spirit of generosity which until now has been the rule between soldiers. Time for war with gloves on has passed. The enemy with whom we exchanged at Fontenoy courteous words before opening fire, have become today our faithless and useful allies. We have before us unbridled savages. We owe to them only the strict observation of the rules of humanity and the laws of war. The minister of war has issued a strict instruction that German prisoners, officers as well as soldiers, are to be treated with just consideration and favor."

By Associated Press.
New York, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press has received the following message from the German ambassador:
"Berlin, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press, New York: Germany is completely cut off from the rest of the world and can neither send out news nor receive it. The empire, therefore, is unable to defend itself against the falsehoods propagated by the press of hostile countries. It only can defend itself by its deeds. The German people will be profoundly grateful to you to disseminate the real truth. Von Betham-Hollweg, Imperial Chancellor."

GERMANY APPEALS TO ASSOCIATED PRESS

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press has received the following message from the German ambassador:
"Berlin, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press, New York: Germany is completely cut off from the rest of the world and can neither send out news nor receive it. By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—The German advance into the western part of Belgium has not as yet interfered with the passenger steamer service between Folkstone and Ostend. The regular morning boat from each port left on time today. The reports of last night, that German patrols had reached Ostend have not been confirmed.

GERMANS AND ALLIES CLASH IN FIRST GREAT BATTLE OF WAR

TIME LIMIT OF JAPAN'S ULTIMATUM HAS EXPIRED

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—A Tien Tsin dispatch to the Central News says it is reported that the Japanese fleet accompanied by a large number of transports conveying troops is near Kiau Chau ready to begin operations, as soon as the ultimatum expires. The German warships and forts are prepared to offer the utmost resistance.

GERMANY SILENT ON JAPAN'S DEMANDS

NO REPLY RECEIVED LAST NIGHT BELIEVED GERMANY WILL IGNORE THEM

JAPANESE CHARGE TO LEAVE

Believed at Washington Germany Will Leave Initiative in Hostilities to Japan

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—The time limit on Japan's ultimatum to Germany, demanding that the Chinese territory of Kiau Chau held by Germany, be surrendered, and that German cruisers in far eastern waters be disarmed, expired at ten o'clock eastern time, and at noon Sunday, Tokio time.
As that hour approached, state department and diplomatic officials here watched for a possible reply from Germany, to be transmitted to Tokio through American channels. So far as was known, no such message had been forwarded through other channels and the opinion was general that Germany would ignore Japan's note, leaving the initiative to Japan.

Japanese Charge to Leave.
Baron Chinda, Japanese ambassador to the United States, transmitted through the state department today a message to Mr. Fonkkoeha, Japanese charge d'affaires at Berlin, ordering him to leave the German capital at four a. m. tomorrow if by that hour he had received no reply from the German government to the ultimatum. The Japanese charge was instructed to leave the interests of Japan in the hands of the American embassy.

The next step on the part of the Japanese government, it was generally assumed here, would be to attack Kiau Chau. At the Japanese embassy it was reiterated that Japan would carry out to the letter the terms of her ultimatum. The discussion has been raised in Tokio as to whether Japan would not be relieved from the execution of this pledge if through Germany's refusal to meet the terms of the ultimatum Japan is put to the expense and trouble of taking Kiau Chau by force.

Intimations received by officials here, however, are that many Japanese statesmen believe the time has come when efforts must be made to regain the confidence of the Chinese people in Japan's intentions; also, it is deemed necessary for the successful development of the large political plans of Japan in the far east that she should retain the good will of the United States.

OFFICIAL DISPATCH CONFIRMS BATTLE REPORT

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—An official dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph company from Antwerp dated 10:50 o'clock Saturday night, tends to confirm reports that a great battle began yesterday morning between the French and Germans. The dispatch says:
"It is believed that a great battle commenced this morning between the French and German armies, between Namur and Charleroi. It is thought that it will last two or three days. Precise details are lacking."

READY FOR VOTE ON WATER POWER BILL

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 22.—The House today completed consideration of the water power bill, first measure on the administration's conservation program. It was laid aside for final vote, when all four conservation measures have been completed.

BATTLE LINE EXTENDS NAMUR TO CHARLEROI

Hundreds Of Thousands Of Men Believed Engaged In Struggle That May Last For Days

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—After nearly three weeks of mobilization the battle of giants has begun.

Briefly speaking, the Germans are trying to work around the allies' flank in Belgium, while the French are attempting to apply the same process to the Germans in Alsace. Almost all encounters that have been held have been mere reconnaissances. The defeat of a regiment here and there has been proclaimed a great victory but in this grapple of hundreds of thousands such affairs fade into insignificance.

From the standpoint of the allies the important feature of Saturday's developments is the great battle which began in the morning on the Namur-Charleroi line. This is being fought on the position chosen by the allies.

GERMANS CAPTURE MANY PRISONERS

A German official statement says that the troops under crown prince of Bavaria fighting between Metz and Vosges took 10,000 prisoners and fifty guns. It adds that the French troops opposing the Germans comprise eight army corps. An official British statement explains calmly that nothing resembling a great battle has been fought as yet and warns the people against optimism.

Reports from the Austro-Serbian boundary say the Austrians have won a battle on the Drina which military experts say is highly probable. Although the Servians have a comparatively small army, it has passed through two years actual war and has the advantage of veterans fighting against amateurs.

CONFLICTING REPORTS FROM RUSSIA

From the Russian boundary conflicting reports come, both sides claim successes. The English papers are warning the people that the war is only beginning and that they must be prepared for a long struggle taxing the resources and manhood of the nation to the utmost limit. While appreciating all that the colonies have done they expect the colonies with populations of Canada and Australia to contribute much more in men and money than they yet have done.

AUSTRIANS LOST 20,000 IN BATTLE WITH SERBS

Servian Reports Say Enemy Driven Back Along Entire Line And Pursued By Victors

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 22.—Official sources confirm the reports that the Austrians lost 20,000 men in the three days of fighting on the River Drina and that General Leman, the Belgian commander of the forts at Liege, is a prisoner of the Germans and is en route to Cologne.
The following announcement concerning the victory over the Servians was made at Nish, Serbia, today:
"The Servian army has gained a great victory at Mount Pzar and the River Zadar. The enemy retired along the whole line, our troops pursued them vigorously. The enemy suffered enormous loss. The booty was great. Yesterday the Servians continued pursuing the Austrians' left wing toward the Drina and captured two more cannons."
"The Austrian attacks on the Servians' left wing were repulsed, the enemy retiring pursued by Servian artillery fire. On the mountain front there was only a feeble bombardment of Belgrade. The Servian artillery has destroyed three Austrian steamers and three barges."

GERMANY PLACES BLAME ON ENGLAND

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN EMPEROR AND GERMAN PRINCES MADE PUBLIC

AMERICANS WELL TREATED

Ambassador Girard Says They Enjoy as Great Security as if at Home

By Associated Press. Berlin, Aug. 22.—Via Copenhagen and London—A laconic dispatch of seven words announcing the entry of the Germans into Brussels is all the news regarding the occupation of the Belgian capital yet published here. The military authorities are contenting themselves with a brevity of announcement surpassing that said to have been employed by the late Field Marshal, Von Moltke.

England Blamed for War
The papers express admiration over the swiftness of the German advance, but make no comment on the German tactics. They occupy themselves almost solely with the correspondence exchanged by the emperor of Russia, Prince George and Emperor William, which was exchanged just before war was declared and was published for the first time yesterday. The papers are unanimous in the decision that these documents, with the dispatches, exchanged by the emperor of Russia and the German emperor, prove completely that Germany, until the last moment, sought her utmost to maintain peace with France and Russia.

Americans Well Treated
The American ambassador James Girard, publishes in the newspapers a denial of reports that Americans have been ill treated in Germany. He states that some charges d'arrivés were during the first days of the war but adds that such mishaps are almost unavoidable during big wars and that in all cases those arrested were speedily liberated.

SEVERE REPRISALS BY GERMANS AT LIEGE

When Shot Fired From Private Residence Widespread Bombardment is Begun

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—The correspondent at Amsterdam of the Reuter Telegraph company has sent in the following account of the present situation at Liege, which he received from the Rotterdam Courant, which in turn got the story from its correspondent at Maastricht:

"The firing of a shot from a private house on one of the streets in Liege yesterday was the signal for widespread bombardment and arson on the part of the German army of occupation. The situation of the population of Liege became extremely perilous. Immediately after the shot was fired the Germans opened up with their machine guns, destroyed twenty houses and killed the inmates of ten other houses. In addition to the war tribute of $10,000,000 levied upon the province and city, an additional $2,000,000 has been obtained from Liege. The German army administration having seized this amount of cash in private banks. All citizens have been ordered to hand over their arms and at the same time have been invited to return to the country and begin harvesting. The lives of foreigners are in danger. There are many Dutchmen in Liege and the Dutch government is taking measures for their protection." In conclusion the correspondent says since Eitel Friedrich, second son of Emperor William, has left Liege.

$42,000,000 FOR EXCESS BAGGAGE OF GREAT BRITAIN

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—The traveling public paid the British railway companies $42,000,000 for excess baggage in 1913, and this notwithstanding the fact that the Englishman invariably sends his luggage in advance and thus pays for what ordinarily the companies would carry for nothing. Here, as elsewhere, every passenger is allowed a fixed amount of baggage. The rate on excess, like that in America, is fairly heavy, and this together with the big revenue derived from carrying baggage in advance, which has to pay a certain rate, helps to make up the forty millions that are added to the companies' receipts.

BREAKING GROUND FOR BIG WHEAT ACREAGE

Several Farmers are Using Tractor Outfits to Break Ground and Sow Seed

Promises of war time prices for wheat and a favorable season for plowing and sowing the crop together with an abundance of seed wheat have caused many farmers to alter their earlier determination not to sow a large wheat acreage, and it now seems probable that the wheat acreage sown this fall will be as large if not larger than that sown a year ago.

A number of farmers are planning to put in the biggest crop since the twenties. Several are breaking their ground with tractor plows. St. Clair Shefford and J. A. Kemp are putting in a thousand acres by this method. L. F. Bell of this city who is breaking 700 acres for F. P. Warren on his farm northwest of the city by this method, is running his outfit day and night and is breaking as much as 50 acres in twenty-four hours. His tractor is equipped with two seven gang discs.

The last special session of the Legislature in July, 1913, cost the taxpayers of Texas just about $400,000, and nothing worth speaking of was accomplished.

The attitude of Villa towards Carranza is getting uglier every day, which indicates that another provisional president of Mexico may find it to his advantage to give up the job and leave for a foreign country before the beginning of the new year.

"UNEASY LIES THE HEAD THAT WEARS A CROWN"

The Emperors, Kings and Presidents with each other vied; Nations of Europe's soldiers mobilized side by side, The censors suppressed the news, the agencies lied; And the Pope prayed for peace at Rome.

Over the battlefields of the Belgians hangs a war-cloud, And the thunder of great guns are fierce and loud, While earth and sky weaves for the dead a shroud, And mothers and wives weep at home.

King's arouse the prejudice of race; appeal to love of kin; While the nations at war pray the God of battle to win; And the Death Angel gathers the tens of thousands in, To appease the wrath of an aged Emperor.

How long, O Lord, will great armies march and warships sail, And, thousands of women weep and millions of children wail; Battlefields run red with human blood and peace fail; While the Priest swings the Golden Censer?

Something About Cities And Scenes Along Europe's Grim Battle Line

LOUVAIN—The capital of Belgium in the day before the rise of Brussels. Its population is about 50,000, and it is situated about 15 miles northeast of the present capital. With Tienen, Mout, St. Trond and Tongres, it furnishes the line for holding back the movement of an enemy across the territory between Brussels and Liege.

LIBAU—A port of Russia, on the Baltic sea, a little less than 50 miles from the extreme northern portion of Northeast Prussia. It has a population of about 75,000. Troops marching from Meneh, Prussia, could arrive by land without leaving their own territory more than 50 miles behind. It has railway connections with Moscow, Orel and Rharkev. There are numerous factories making gun powder, soap, machinery and tin plate.

CHARLEROI (Sar-Léhu-Rwa)—A town of southern Belgium, on the Sambre River, some twenty miles above Namur as the crow flies, and about twice as far by the river. It is the center of the iron district of Belgium, and enjoys water communication into France as well as across Belgium. It was ceded to France soon after it was founded, and was fortified by Vauban so strongly that it twice held out against the attacks of William of Orange. The fortifications later were razed, but it was re-fortified in 1816 by the order of Wellington.

ANTWERP—A city of Belgium regarded as its principal fortified stronghold. Although 50 miles from the sea, it is still one of the greatest seaports of Europe, because the broad and deep Schelde River gives it an excellent outlet. Its population is almost entirely Flemish. Under Emperor Charles V it is said to have been the most populous city of continental Europe.

MULHAUSEN—A town in upper Alsace, on the River Ill, an affluent of the Rhine, and also on the Rhine-Rhone canal. It is a great textile center. The manufacture of railway equipment and other machinery is also an important industry. It passed to Germany with the greatest part of the Franco-German frontier in 1871.

ED PERRY'S BURNS WILL BE FATAL

DEATH OF WICHITAN BURNED WITH GASOLINE WAS EXPECTED MOMENTARILY.

IGNITED FROM A MATCH

Clothing Soaked in Oil While Under Automobile Makes His Body a Torch

Death last night was expected momentarily to relieve the suffering of Edward E. Perry, member of the firm of Perry and Roberts, grocers, who was burned with gasoline Friday night. Mr. Perry was conscious most of the day yesterday and suffered terribly, but early Saturday evening he sank into a state of coma, and physicians who had been at his bedside since he was burned Friday night gave up hope and said that his death was only a question of hours.

Mr. Perry was burned at about 9:30 Friday night. He was testing out his automobile, which had been out of repair for some time, with Parker Simson. They had reached the corner of Sixteenth and Broad streets when they discovered that the tap on the gasoline tank had been jerked off and that the gasoline was leaking. Mr. Perry got under the car and placed his hand over the opening, but before his clothes had become saturated with gasoline. Later he asked Mr. Simson to hold his hand over the opening while he, Perry, went back to look for the tap.

Walking back about fifty steps, Mr. Perry lit a match to search for the lost tap. When he did so the gasoline fumes from his hands and his clothing ignited, the flames shooting up for a distance of several feet. Simson, who is crippled, cried out to Perry to run to him, but the latter, in his confusion, ran in the other direction.

He was finally caught by persons, who, attracted by the light from the flames, ran to the scene. When they reached him his clothing was falling from his body. He was terribly burned along the front of his body from his knees up to his chest, his clothing falling off his back after it had been burned from the front of his body, and the burns on his back being less severe than those in front.

Physicians were summoned and Mr. Perry was removed to his home, 1308 Eighteenth street. Mr. Perry is thirty-three years old and has a wife and two children. His father and mother, who live at Grandfield, Oklahoma, were notified of his critical condition and reached his bedside yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Perry has been a resident of Wichita Falls about twenty years and is one of the best known men in the city. ST. LOUIS BUSINESS MEN ADOPT COTTON METHODS

Tell Government It Need Not Concern Itself Further Over Situation.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, Aug. 22.—Plans for the protection of the surplus cotton crop of the South were perfected today by a committee appointed yesterday at a meeting of the St. Louis Business Men's League.

Pentus J. Wade, president of the clearing house, will report to Secretary of the Treasury, McAdoo, Monday that the government need not concern itself with financing of the cotton crop. He will, however, urge that the St. Louis bank be opened soon as possible in order to facilitate the workings of the St. Louis plan.

THE FOUR GREAT SOCIAL EVILS

THIS WILL BE EVANGELIST MARTIN'S SUBJECT AT MASS MEETING TODAY

LARGEST CROWD OF WEEK HEARD STIRRING SERMON AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The largest crowd that has yet attended the Baptist revival was present last night to hear Rev. Martin's biggest and best sermon "Hell as Represented by Reason, Infidelity as Represented by Robert Ingersoll and the Bible, Showing That They Agree." Sunday School was announced for tomorrow at 9:30 and pastor Miller made a strong plea that everybody attend, because Evangelist Martin would give a special illustrated talk to the young people. At three-thirty tomorrow evening the mass meeting will be held and the visiting ministers will talk on "The Four Great Social Evils."

During the first part of his sermon last night the speaker devoted a few words to the condemnation of Chas. Russell, of New York City, stating that that gentleman was passing himself off as a model when as a matter of fact he was nothing but a foul slanderer. He said that Russell denounced all of the other ministers as out of date—or else a pack of grafters. But he went on further to say that most of the preachers he knew did stand for God's truth, which was more than Russell did.

The Two Separate Hells. The evangelist advanced the theory that there were two separate hells giving an interesting comparison by taking the word prison. He said that the word prison meant either jail or the penitentiary, the jail being used as a place to keep the prisoner until the judge had passed judgment on him. He said on the same principle hells was the jail in which God's prisoners were kept until judgment had been passed after which, if they were found guilty they were sent to hell, in discussing whether hell was a place of fire, the speaker said that he did not know and wasn't going down there to find out.

In further contradicting Russell at this point of his sermon the evangelist stated that Russell had never been elected chairman and had never been elected secretary. The executive committee of the fifth judicial district also met and I. N. Burnett was elected chairman and H. B. Thompson secretary. The nomination of Hugh Carney of Atlanta, Texas, as district attorney was confirmed.

Crime or sin deserves some kind of punishment some time, some how, some where," the minister declared. Going further along the line that sinners are punished in this world, he said: "The more man sins in this life, especially in certain lines, the less man suffers for it in this life." This point was illustrated by the evangelist by the statement that if a tender, refined woman was driven by desperation into cursing, she would cry and be repentant and suffer untold agonies for weeks while the average man who every day could utter a curse and think nothing else about it. A pirate captain, he said, had made a statement to the effect that after he had killed several men he had gotten into such a state of degeneracy that it bothered him none to slay even a baby. But during the start of his career, it had caused him to feel the prick of conscience.

Robert Ingersoll's philosophy of life was read, which he said consisted of about the following: "I believe in the scope of justice. I don't believe in forgiveness. If I rob Smith and God forgives me, what good will it do Smith. I believe that if a man commits a sin he will never feel as well as he would had he never committed it." Rev. Martin said that this agreed exactly with the Bible's definition of infidelity.

To show just how near these three agreed, the speaker made this statement in personification: "There are different kinds of punishment beyond the grave," said Reason—and the Lord in the Bible—and Robert Ingersoll in his psychology of religion. The pastor believed that when a man was sent to hell he was taken from under all restraint of Christianity and made the victim of sin. Consequently when he was sent there for ten minutes he would sin enough to be sent for fifteen minutes more, during that ten minutes. And so it would continue. That's his conception of the eternal punishment—the bottomless pit, he said.

The sermon last night was ended by three touching tales from the entertainer's own life all teaching the moral that memory of sins will be one of the vilest and most persistent forms of punishment in hell.

Friday Night's Meeting. At Friday night's service Evangelist

RUCKER BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED IN SENATE

Measure to Limit Campaign Expenses Has Already Passed in the House.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The Rucker bill to regulate publicity of campaign contributions and limit campaign expenditures for candidates for congress, which has passed the House, was favorably reported today to the Senate. One report would have that in no contingency should any political committee expend in any congressional district more than $5,000. Another amendment would direct that "no corporation or officer thereof on behalf of such corporation shall make any contributions whatever to any election." The bill would limit the candidates for congress to an expenditure of $2,500 in a campaign for nomination and election and candidates for the United States Senate to $50,000.

SWITZERLAND'S WHOLE ARMY MOBILIZED Washington, Aug. 22.—At the Swiss legation here the following statement was made public today: "The Swiss federal council has mobilized from the beginning of the whole military force of Switzerland. The Landwehr and the part of the Landwehr, numbering about 300,000 men, are in arms. The mobilization is not a result of a menace to Switzerland, but merely a precautionary military measure. The efficient training of the army and careful preparations enabled Switzerland to keep its territory inviolate. The mobilization was completed quietly and speedily. The Alpine passes and other passages are strongly guarded. The German railway station at Basel is barred. Railroad traffic between Germany and Basel has ceased, as all trains are stopped in the German station outside Basel. The Swiss-German boundaries are sharply guarded on both sides. Some German patrols which crossed the line were immediately disarmed and returned. The financial situation is entirely satisfactory. There is no evidence of a panic and money is not being withdrawn from the banks."

COMMERCIAL WAR AGAINST GERMANY

ANTI-GERMAN TRADE CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED IN ENGLAND WITH ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT

GERMAN SHIPS ARE HELPLESS

British Claim Seven Per Cent of German Tonnage Already Captured and Rest Tied Up.

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—A bitter commercial war between Germany and Austria has been inaugurated in England with the loyal support of press and public. The London Chamber of Commerce committee discussed this anti-German trade campaign. The Commercial Intelligence of the board of trade has a skilled staff working on the list of German imports and its cessation of manufacturers to the following lines which Germans sell heavily in England: Electrical appliances and apparatus, iron and steel, wire, stone and earthenware; china ware, cutlery, cotton hosiery, woolen and worsted goods, cotton prints, leather, gloves and boots and shoes.

It is estimated that $12,000,000 worth of German dynamite and motors are sold annually in British territory. The board of trade has arranged for the suspension of German and Austrian imports in England wherever manufacturers want to make use of them in public interest. German's chemical trade in England is in danger of capture. Buyers are urged to boycott German goods.

BRITISH STAYERS ON NAVAL SITUATION

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 22.—The British embassy tonight made public the following official summary of the naval situation received today from the London foreign office.

"The floating force of Germany has been brought to a standstill by the operation of British cruisers. The German fleet is unable to interfere or to set their commerce free, owing to the British main fleet which is cruising in full strength and preventing any interference with the exception of about seven per cent of the German tonnage in British hands. Another twenty per cent is sheltering in neutral harbors and the remainder is either in German harbors unable to move or favoring to find security.

"British shipping with the exception of less than seven per cent which was in German harbors when the war started is actively pursuing business on all the commercial routes. The German squadron in China has been rendered ineffective by constant pursuit by the British squadron. Trade in China therefore is unaffected. The Austrian squadron has retired into the Adriatic before the combined Anglo-French fleet which is so superior that it is able to send strong detachments to any part of the Mediterranean, and adjoining seas where required.

BODY OF POPE PIUS IN SAINT PETER'S CHURCH

Bier Will be Deposited Near Casket Containing Remains of Pope Pius V.

By Associated Press. Rome, Aug. 22.—The body of Pope Pius X, clad in his pontifical robes and with the emblem of his sacred office beside it, lay today in the chapel of the blessed sacrament in St. Peter's. The doors of the great church were opened and the faithful resumed their pilgrimage to the bier. Preparations for the burial are now under way. The stairway leading to the crypt under the altar, where the remains of St. Peter, have been covered with heavy boards; down these the bier will be lifted gently until it is finally deposited near the casket of Pope Pius XI.

Three hundred invitations have been issued for the ceremonies of entombment. Among those present will be members of the diplomatic corps and representatives of the Italian nobility. The troops today were withdrawn from the square of St. Peter's.

Entombment at Sunset. The entombment of the late Pope Pius X took place this evening at sunset. The bier was removed and placed on a low platform on wheels. The cortege passed amid the kneeling crowd while through the silent church was heard the Miserere sung by the Sistine Choir. The cortege marched into the crypt where the body of Pope Pius X will have its resting place. The body is in a cypress coffin on which rests a solid gold cross. This is encased in zinc and finally in an oak casket. On the casket is the inscription: "Here lies the body of Pius X. Born June 2, 1835, died August 20, 1914."

IF GERMANY RESISTS JAPAN MAY HOLD KIAU CHAU

By Associated Press. Tokio, Aug. 22.—Japanese newspapers which sometimes are officially inspired, say that if Kiau Chau is to be a prize of war, Japan may not be obliged to restore German protectorate. Restoration, they declare, would be conditional on the peaceful transfer of Kiau Chau to Japan by Germany. Mochi says the German ambassador to Japan, Count A. Rex, will sail for Seattle on August 26. A number of German officials already have left on the steamer China for San Francisco. Interest is absorbing in the arrival at Peking of the recently appointed Japanese minister to China, Eki Nioki. He is expected to bring about a friendly understanding between Japan and China. Captain Dimitri Vamleff, naval attache to the Russian embassy in Washington, has stoppers here on his way to the United States. He said Russia had 4,500,000 men ready to strike and probably they would strike soon.

COTTON DECLARED GOOD COLLATERAL

DALLAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SUGGESTS PLAN FOR FINANCING 1914 CROP

CAN BE DONE WITHOUT CASH

Under Dallas Plan Merchants Would Hold Cotton Only as Collateral for Farmers

By Associated Press. Dallas, Aug. 22.—Declaring that "cotton properly handled and insured is our best asset and is good collateral for credit," the Dallas Chamber of Commerce tonight made public a letter which has been sent to members of Southwestern cotton growers and merchants, suggesting a plan to finance the 1914 crop without cash until the market situation clears up.

The letter, signed by 550 manufacturers and jobbers of Dallas, proposed that the farmer secure his indebtedness to the merchant by cotton, which the merchant would hold, properly protected, only as collateral, until the farmer could sell it without sacrifice. It was claimed this would relieve the situation financially, and steps were being taken tonight by the Chamber of Commerce to recommend the plan to all cotton growing states.

GERMAN INVESTMENT TOOK BRUSSELS BY SURPRISE

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—A Reuter correspondent sent the following dispatch from Ghent, dated August 20:

"The Belgian army, which up to three days ago held the line, roughly speaking, from Aerschodt to Triesmont and Mavra, has fallen back on a line between Antwerp and Maldeghem. It is not likely the Germans will trouble themselves about Antwerp which could resist indefinitely. The news that the Germans were at the gates of Brussels took the people by surprise. There had been an exodus of well to do residents two days previous, but that only proved there was a scare, not that it was well founded. The censorship allowed nothing positive to be published until the morning of the arrival of the Germans. Now the Germans are in Brussels and Brussels will have to pay not only a war contribution, but more or less a ransom. The Germans are traders, for instance, under the raid and for all the disconcerting things that have happened to Germans since they entered the country."

ENGLISH AND GERMAN MEET AT WATERLOO

By Associated Press. Antwerp, via Paris, Aug. 22.—An English and a German cavalry brigade had a sharp fight Saturday on the battlefield of Waterloo.

JAPAN MAY ISSUE A DECLARATION TOMORROW

By Associated Press. Tokio, Aug. 22.—The Chamber of Commerce has announced that Oriental-European sea routes are safe except in the neighborhood of German possessions. The route from Japan to Seattle is declared safe, but by way of Honolulu. It is advisable to steam to the north. The Japanese government is expected to make an important declaration tomorrow.

SAN ANTONIO MAYOR ASSAULTS NEWSPAPER MAN

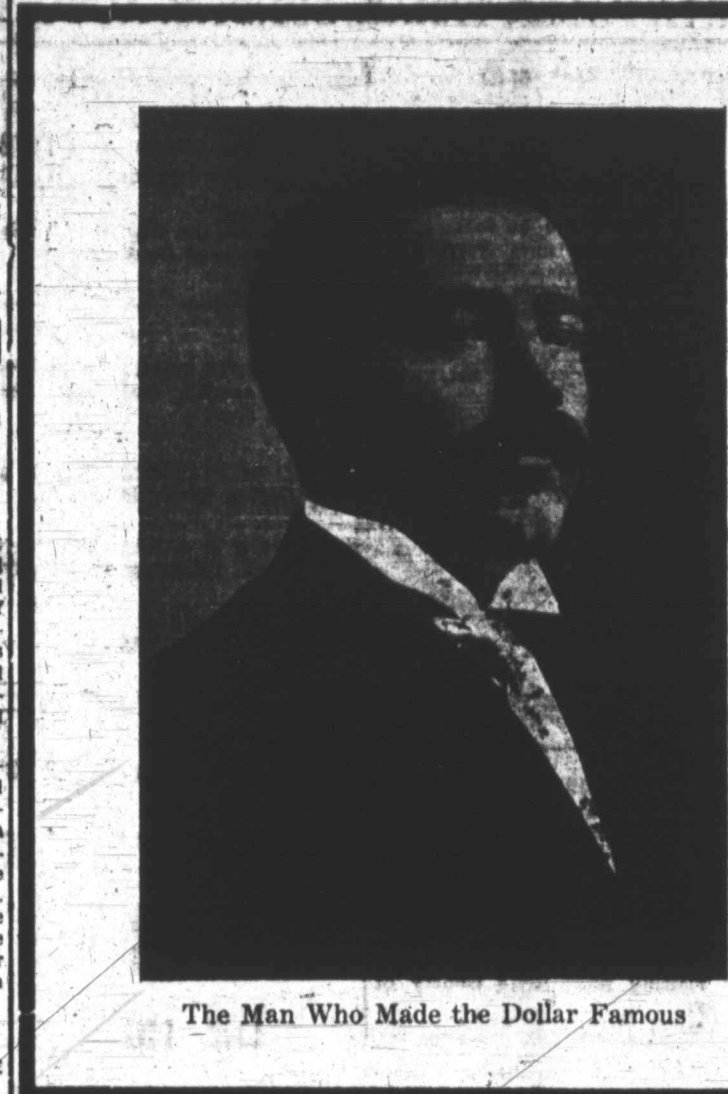

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 22.—A ten dollar fine was lodged against Mayor Clinton G. Brown this morning after he had pleaded guilty to an assault on Mike M. Harris, editorial writer on the San Antonio Express. A charge of abusive language against the mayor in the justice's court was withdrawn by the complainant. The cases grew out of an altercation in the Express office yesterday in regard to an editorial the mayor considered objectionable.

We don't advertise bargains in glasses. We do not claim to give something for nothing. Glasses represent definite value. Cheap prices mean cheap value. Service is the main feature to be considered when the eyes need attention. Without competent service the best glass in the world is useless. Skill, experience and knowledge are necessary to render satisfactory service. These are obtained at the expense of time, labor and money. Those who profess to give service free have little science to give. Do you want your eyes—the most delicate organ of the body—taken care of by one whose service is of value, or by one who thinks so little of its value that he gives it away? Anyone can merely fit glasses, but experience and knowledge are required to do it correctly, or to tell when glasses are not required. We have both these qualities. Let us prove it.

One's Character

Is determined by the lines of the face, the clothes and the way they keep their places of abode. Beautiful, well kept homes bespeak thrift and energy; neglected ones, carelessness, idleness and indifference. WE HAVE NOTICED that those who were careless or indifferent about their homes or business were doubly so when it came to taking care of their dead. Should you want to read character, go to the cemetery. You can tell every class without a microscope. YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY HOSPITALITY AT ANDREE HOME

At about eight-thirty a crowd of young people motored to the home of Mr. C. A. Andree, residing about seven miles north of this city. The party was taken out in Alvi Karrenbrock and Bachman's cars and they took with them iced watermelons. After arrival of the party, games of bunco and forty-two were played until a late hour, when the hostess served ice cream, cake and punch; then the iced watermelons were cut and enjoyed by all. Those that partook of the hospitality shown by Mrs. Andree were: Misses Coggin, Friberg, Stella Bachman, Rubie Bachman, Grace Anderson and A. G. Karrenbrock, Webster Andree, Harrison Bachman, Orio Andree, Stanley Piercy, I. W. Karrenbrock, Homer Bachman and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Andree.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MRS. RINEHART

Monday afternoon Mrs. F. J. McCullough and Mrs. Walter Claig entertained at the home of the latter with a going away party for Mrs. F. A. Rinehart, who left during the week for Los Angeles, Cal., where she and her husband will make their home. The affair was kept a complete secret from the honoree, whose birthday it was also, and when she was taken for an informal visit to Mrs. Claig, she found the guests already assembled. Needlework was engaged and the usual social chat, the merriment being somewhat tempered with sadness at the thought of the departure of the honor guest. Refreshments were served in the dining room, and as the delicious ice course was enjoyed, birthday toasts to Mrs. Rinehart were offered by all. The guests on this occasion included Mesdames Leon Denton, Harvey McCarty, Ben Garner, Bennett, Rogers, Barwise, Miss Gladys Shaw and Mrs. Rinehart.

MERRY WIVES MEET FRIDAY WITH MRS. B. F. STENGAL

Mrs. B. F. Stengal was hostess to Kennedy, Mrs. Scott and Miss Kathryn Kennedy were the guests and the members present were Mesdames Bradley, Boone, Craig, Barclay, Dillard and Dole.

Morris, Mahoney, Burton, Riggs, Bee, Morris, Burton, Young, Morris, Mooney, Mr. Dodson, Misses Hurley, Mabel and Myrtle Morris, Lucille Morris, Jewel Burton, Ina Morris and Pet-oway Conn.

MISS EDITH LUECKE ENTERTAINS CLARA YOUNG PEOPLE

Miss Edith Luecke was hostess to a most delightful entertainment Tuesday evening, the guests being a number of the young people from Clara, where Miss Luecke taught school last winter. The lawn of the Luecke home was hung with electric lights and had been transformed into an outdoor reception room. Here games were played and several indoor diversions had been planned also. Sometime was spent in the hilarious occupation of blowing soap bubbles and wreath throwing was engaged in. The party then retired to the lawn where their interest centered in the reading of Progressive Proposals, this being concluded by a mock "Dutch" wedding. Punch was served throughout the evening and at a late hour ice cream and cake was served to the following: Misses Alida, Frances and Emma Roberts, Ella Borchelt, Martha Holson, Minnie Martin, Lola Schnarre, Norma Holson, Emma and Bertha Shultz, Alice Lochridge, Messrs. Borchelt, Martin Borchelt, Coleman, Shultz, Ben Shultz, Herbert Meyers, Oscar Luecke, Homer Meyers, George and Theodore Luecke and Mr. and Mrs. Ashford.

The Y. G. C.'s met Friday afternoon with Miss Fay Delaney as hostess. The afternoon was spent most pleasantly with sewing, with games and merry conversation at the right intervals. Delicious refreshments of

MISS PITMAN CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY MONDAY

Monday afternoon Mrs. J. S. Pitman invited a number of the playmates of her little daughter, Eleanor, to help her celebrate her sixth birthday. As the children arrived they found several pleasing games in progress on the lawn and these engrossed their attention for some time. They were next invited into the music room and here a delightful program was rendered by the children themselves. Little Miss Lida Jo Horton gave a reading, the little honoree and her sister, Clarice, gave a charming duet number and piano solos were given by Misses Hortense Horton and Clarice Pitman. This part of the afternoon's entertainment was very much enjoyed by the children, it being enhanced in their eyes by the fact that they did it all themselves. After the program was completed a miniature trunk was brought in by Mary Meredith and Lida Jo Horton and placed before the small birthday girl who, utterly oblivious of all else, seated herself on the floor and proceeded to examine the contents. The children's eyes opened wide as they viewed the trunk, just right for dolly's clothes and the various little gifts contained, all remembrances from Eleanor's little playmates. Following this they marched into the dining room to a march played by Miss Mattie Pitman where they found the birthday cake with its glowing candles. The dining room had been decorated with charming effect, a color scheme of red and white being observed in the candles, the cake and the blossom wreathed napkins. The cake was cut with the usual ceremony and a hunt for the favors ensued. A fruit sherbet was served with the cake. As the crowning treat to this program so replete with enjoyment to the little folks they were taken to the front porch where story telling by the older folks was in order until time to go home. The guests included: Mary Meredith, Buddie Meredith, Lessie Lucille Bailey, Sidney Maude Williams, Marie Grant, Nettie and Pauline Holden, Ruth Hartman, Hortense and Lida Jo Horton, Clarice, Eleanor and John Robert Pitman.

BONHAM VISITORS HONORED VERY DELIGHTFULLY

Saturday afternoon Mrs. H. L. Montgomery complimented her two nieces, Misses Pearl and Pauline Mills who are visiting here from Bonham with a delightful informal party. Music was quite a feature of the afternoon's entertainment, piano selections being given by Miss Ruby Ricks, an out of town guest, who is from Denison, also Miss Kate Ricks, Miss Eldine Ricks favored with a number of enjoyable vocal solos. The usual conversation was enjoyed, altogether the afternoon proved pleasant to the guests invited to meet Mrs. Montgomery's charming visitors. A delightful refreshment course was served to the following: Misses Survelia Shultz, Rusey Romine of Atlanta, Texas, Eldine Ricks, Kate Ricks, Ruby Ricks of Denison, May Sloan of Corsicana, Myrtle Garrill of Galveston, Vernon Ricks, Richardon, Masters Monte Penman and Millis Mey and the honor guests, the Misses Mills.

MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING OF WOMAN'S ALLIANCE

An unusually large attendance and more than usual interest characterized the regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Alliance which was held Monday afternoon at the church. The usual reports were heard from each division and these were excellent, each division having been working in spite of the extreme warm weather and as fall is nearing the interest is being increased and very ambitious plans were laid for the coming year of work. The association meeting which will be held next month, was discussed, also the meeting which is just now beginning, a matter of consuming interest at present. Rev. Mr. Miller met with the ladies and lent his advice and encouragement. An offering of $100 was made for associational missions and a free will offering of $33 was taken up.

Miss Lou Kerr and John Calvin Pressley were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kerr. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate family of the contracting parties being in attendance and was marked by elegant simplicity. The house was decorated quite beautifully with ferns and cut flowers, the lavish use of bridal white flowers adding to the every producing a charming effect. In the parlor a bridal arch was constructed of ferns and flowers and here stood the officiating minister, Rev. R. L. Lowrance, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church in this city, Rev. Fred McFadden, the present pastor assisting. The bride and groom unattended were together to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Phillip Kerr, sister-in-law of the bride. As the solemn words of the beautiful ring ceremony were spoken the music changed into "Pure as Snow" until the final benediction was spoken. The bride was attired in a robe of lace and illusion, caught with pearls, most suited to her slender girlish beauty. A string of pearls, worn by her great grandmother was twined in her hair and she carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. The conventional black worn by the groom provided a fitting background to the charming picture. Following the congratulations which were in order, the company repaired to the dining room which was also beautifully and appropriately decorated. Here the wedding cake was cut with the proper ceremony and the hunt for favors caused much merriment. The entire wedding party then went to the home which Mr. Pressley had already prepared for his bride on Broad street and here a general reception was held. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kerr and is a most charming and accomplished young lady. She is a member of several of the city clubs and both she and the groom have a large circle of friends who will unite in wishing them every happiness possible. The groom has been a resident of this city for several years and is held high in the esteem of his business associates and friends. Mrs. Pressley will be at home at 1008 Broad.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY FOR MISS PUGH GIVEN MONDAY

Complimenting her niece, Miss Lucy Pugh of Arkansas, who is her house guest, Mrs. Eugene Sherrord was hostess Monday afternoon. Five Hundred was the favored game and four tables of guests engaged in this diversion for some time. The final score found Miss Helen Stone the winner of the favor. The rooms in which the tables were placed were decorated simply but quite effectively by vases of roses, correctly placed. An ice course was served at the conclusion of the game. Those enjoying Mrs. Sherrord's hospitality for her lovely guest were: Miss Edie and Genevieve Carver, Ann Freear, Mary and Gertrude Orth, Pauline Richolt, Margaret Noble, Edith Mathis, Della Stone, Lillian Avis, Helen Stone, Lucille Sherrord, Ann Carrigan, Lucy Morris of Tyler and Lucille Ware of Manor, Texas.

PICNIC FOR VISITING GIRLS TUESDAY AT LAKE WICHITA

Honoring Miss Lucy Pugh, who is the guest of Mrs. Eugene Sherrord and Misses Lucille Ware and Lucy Morris who are out of town guests of Miss Ann Carrigan, a number of young people enjoyed a very delightful picnic at Lake Wichita Tuesday evening. A tempting repast was served in picnic style and the evening was replete with enjoyment. The guests included the three honorees, Misses Pugh, Ware and Morris, Misses Genevieve Carver, Lillian Avis, Presser, Orth, Stone, Carrigan, Messrs. Stone, Clayton, Gould, McGregor, Lee, Jalonic, Blair, Boyd, Bonner, Statton.

MISS LUCILLE THATCHER OF OKLAHOMA CITY, ARRIVED YESTERDAY FOR A VISIT AT THE HOME OF HER AUNT, MRS. ALEX KAHN.

MISS JESSIE KERR SATURDAY

One of the most pleasing of the many anniversary occasions shown Miss Jessie Kerr on her birthday last week was the surprise shower given Saturday by Miss Emma Childers and Mrs. Harry Robertson at the latter's home. Miss Kerr and her mother went, as Miss Kerr thought, to pay a social call to Mrs. Robertson's sister, Miss Pattie Pritchett who is a visitor. After they had entered the house, the door of a room adjoining the parlor suddenly opened and little Miss Mary Meredith, attired as a miniature bride, even to the veil and orange blossoms, entered, while the wedding march was played on the Victrola. The little bride bore a basket, laden with gifts from the members of the Art Literature Club, who had been concealed in the other room trying to keep quiet, until the time was ripe for their appearance. They followed the little gift-bearer into the room and found much enjoyment in the astonishment of the bride to be and in her delight over the handsome presents which she found in the basket. Later little books were passed to those present and a contest ensued to determine which could frame the largest number of words from the letters comprising the word "marriage." Miss Emma Childers secured the largest number, thirty-four, with Mrs. Gebhardt second. The prize, a little volume on "Friendship" was presented to the honoree by Miss Childers. The guests then enjoyed a very interesting talk by Miss Pritchett on the subject of her recent travels in the west and this was certainly not the least of the afternoon's pleasures. Brick ice cream, in the Art Literature colors, purple and white, with wafers were then served to those present. Those present included Mesdames Elmer Filgo, Lou Gebhardt, Cravens, Kerr, Leacham, J. S. Pittman, Misses Pressler, Emma Miller, Pattie Pritchett, Mary Meredith and the honoree, Miss Jessie Kerr.

ENGLISH CLERGYMAN TO DEVOTE LIFE TO LEPERS

Will Supply Their Spiritual Needs and Try to Prevent Catching Disease Himself.

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—From a life of comparative ease to isolation in a Japanese leper colony is the lot which the Rev. A. S. Hewitt, until now the vicar of Birkenhead, has chosen for himself. He is now on his way to Japan. The clergyman took the step only after careful thought. But as he has no family ties, he saw nothing to stand in the way of it. He will not work on the medical side, but devote himself to the spiritual needs of the lepers. At the same time, he will not neglect the cautions known to science to avoid contracting the disease.

SMUGGLING OF OPIUM INTO CANAL ZONE ON INCREASE

Laborers Becoming Addicted to Habit and Many Arrests Have Been Made.

By Associated Press. Panama, August 22.—A number of arrests have been made recently of persons charged with the smuggling of opium into the canal zone where the increasing use of the drug by the canal workers is noticeable. The source of the trouble is in the adjoining territory of the Republic of Panama, where no effort has yet been made to prevent the importation and sale of the drug. According to the canal authorities, Panama derives an annual revenue of $20,000 from the opium trade, the entire concession for which is leased for the sum to Low Lam, a Chinaman. While the Chinese on the Isthmus are the principal consumers of the drug, in the last several months the West Indian negro laborers on the canal have taken to the habit and it is feared that there are some white employees who may become its victims. Pressure is being brought upon the Panama government to prevent the importation of the drug. As long ago as March, 1912 the Panama Republic signed the Hague convention for the suppression of opium trade and bound itself to prevent the importation of opium into her territory. Since then, however, nothing has been done. In reply to the protests from Canal Zone officials and United States Minister Fries, the Panama government points out that the Hague convention did not become binding until all the signatory nations had ratified the agreement.

Ernesto T. LeFevre, minister of Foreign Relations, declares that just as soon as all the other powers ratify the convention and begin enforcing it, Panama will do the same. The contract with the Chinaman, Low Lam provides that he must cease the sale and importation of the drug immediately upon ratification of the convention.

In the meantime, and in the absence of any assistance from the Panama government, the Canal authorities are doing their utmost to keep the drug out of the Canal Zone.

WAR PREVENTS SENDING OF NEW VICEROY FOR INDIA

Lord Kitchener Becomes Secretary of State For War When Conflict Start.

By Associated Press. London, August 22.—Lord Kitchener, who has been made secretary of state for war, much to the popular satisfaction, would possibly have won his way to India to succeed Lord Hardinge as viceroy, had not the European war developed so suddenly. Lord Hardinge recently lost his wife and as he is not in health himself, he has asked to be retired from active service for a time at least. The suggestion that Kitchener succeed him was being taken up seriously when the European situation became acute. The success Lord Kitchener had in putting down the Nationalist movement in Egypt suggested the wisdom of sending him to India to handle the anarchistic movement with which that country is more permeated than ever. As the organizers of the movements have the sympathy of a great many of the natives, it has become a serious situation for the Indian police to handle. Lord Kitchener has just received the letters patent granting him his baronism, which was bestowed on him on the King's birthday. His lordship is to be known as Earl Kitchener of Khartoum, Viscount Broome, of Broome, in the county of Kent, and Baron Denton, of Denton, in the county of Kent. There is a special clause providing for the succession to the title in default of an heir, to his brother, Colonel Kitchener, and his eldest son, and then to the son of the late General Sir F. W. Kitchener, another brother. Colonel Kitchener has a son and a daughter, while the late Sir Frederick Kitchener left a son and three daughters, so although the new Earl is unmarried there is little likelihood of the title falling to abeyance.

This City's Wetness Gets Publicity in Monthly Magazine

Popular Mechanics, a monthly periodical of national-wide circulation, advertises Wichita Falls as a wet town in its September issue. The magazine conducts a department of curious things illustrated with photographs. In the September issue is shown the photograph of a sign board bearing the crude representation of a beer bottle and the legend "Wichita Falls, 45 Miles." Such a sign board is reported in Baylor county about that distance from Wichita Falls. A write-up accompanying the illustration in the magazine says the sign illustrates the wide extent of prohibition in Texas considering a distance of fifty-five miles a wide stretch of aridity.

Tuesday will be the first "Red Letter" "Wooltex" day. See ad in Ladies Home Journal for August.

TOO MUCH CHEERFULNESS NOT GOOD FOR PHYSICIANS

Businesslike Solemnity, and Wellbeing to Listen Declared Best Attributes.

By Associated Press. London, August 22.—Whether a physician should adopt the cheery manner of bygone days or wear a look of businesslike solemnity, is the controversy raised in the London press by Lord Roseberry, who in a speech at Epsom College said he would rather a thousand times be treated by a third rate doctor with genial features than a first rate man of repellent countenance. "The old-fashioned type, who entered rubbing his hands, poked the patient in the ribs and started to tell him jokes," replies one physician, "would have a hard time holding his practice these days."

Another writer answers that the doctor liked by the best modern patients is the one who listens gravely and ends by saying, "I know exactly what the trouble is." The main reason why the grave doctor is liked is because he is a good listener, and patients love to do the talking when it comes to their troubles. "Nearly everyone prefers the doctor with the cheerful manner, providing he has a good record of cures," concludes the writer, "to the sunny duffer who is so likely to kill you as not."

LUBIN TWO-REEL FEATURE AT MAJESTIC MONDAY

The Living Fear featuring Justina Huff is showing Monday. Dr. James quer his falling. Brent's wife Julia, is given a strange case in the person of Richard Wayne, a young man who is obsessed with a passion to appropriate diamonds. Brent takes him into his house for observation and makes him his private secretary. In a short time Wayne becomes attached to Brent's daughter, Elsie, and he rigorously fights his mania. One day, however, he finds a diamond pin belonging to one of the guests. Elsie sees the set and taking him to task forces him to restore the pin and declare to conquer his falling. Brent's wife Julia, is given to extravagance and gives a social ball which throws her in debt. At the ball a Mrs. Gannon loses a diamond necklace. Wayne sees it, but yielding the temptation leaves it. Mrs. Brent finds it and seeing the opportunity to clear herself of debt appropriates and pawn it. Wayne, of course, is suspected and arrested. Elsie, however, discovers that her mother is the one to blame. The girl forces her mother to go to her father and confess her fault. Mrs. Gannon, who owes a debt of gratitude to the Doctor for saving her life, refuses to prosecute the charge Wayne is released now, proving that he is cured of his mania, and asks Elsie to become his wife.

Lama's Airdoms.

Robbins and Weller, high class entertainers, are booked for Monday, a funny black face and trick pianist; an act that has played the best vaudeville houses in America and are at present booked for a tour of Australia, South Africa and England. They will surely drive the blues away with their funny comedy, and lovers of music will have a chance to hear one of vaudeville's cleverest pianists. "When the World Was Silent," Imp three-reel special, is the picture for Monday. William Shay and Leah Baird are featured. The story in brief is as follows: Will is a young musician of the modern school, rich in his own right, who has a consuming ambition to make a name for himself as a pianist. For years, however, he has had only one other interest—Leah. She has been his friend, sweetheart and adviser and has continued to love him passionately, always with the hope that some day he would marry her. Then the time comes when Will meets a society girl. She is flattered by his good looks and ability on the piano, and Will, in turn, believes that marrying her will further his career. He decides on this step and informs Leah that they must part. Leah, in a moment of passion one night, and knowing that it is only his ambition that keeps Will from her, enters his apartment, chloroforms him while he sleeps and pours poison into his ears. Then she escapes, taking a silver ten set to make robbery appear as the motive. Will, with his hearing gone and unable to play, is thrown aside by the society girl. His butler, a faithful fellow, swears to bring the person guilty of poisoning his master to justice. Time passes; Leah marries Will, though the latter does not know her guilt. They are happy and it is through her that the musician is led to take up composing. Also, she teaches him the language of the lips. It is the butler who secures the evidence against Leah. While he decides to remain quiet, now that his master is happy, Will finds out—Leah is driven from the house. Several years pass by. Will has become famous by his compositions, mainly through the efforts of a concert pianist, Madam Genes. Through the music publishers a great recital is arranged—Will is to meet the pianist whom nobody seems to know much about. At the recital, Will comes face to face with his wife. Though he had driven her out, she had toiled to become a great player simply to play his pieces and make him famous as a slight atonement for her crime. Reconciliation comes in a scene that is rife with pathos.

KALEM TWO PART SPECIAL AT THE GEM OMORROW Mrs. Peyton's Pearls is scheduled for Monday: The Gem. The story is as follows: Tony Peyton is found unconscious with his mother's pearl necklace clutched in his hand. The victim absolutely declines to shed light on the mystery. The following story explains the reason for Tony's silence. Barton, regarded as a man of mystery, keeps all knowledge of men and of the world from his daughter, Eleanor. Fate, however, causes Eleanor and Tony to meet. The two fall in love. Later, Tony secures the girl's promise to elope with him. He arranges to meet her at the railroad terminal in the city that night. Because his mother refuses to repay a sum of money which she had borrowed from him, Tony appropriates her pearl necklace in jest. Mrs. Peyton's maid sees Tony take the necklace and later imparts the information to a mysterious man waiting outside. Tony leaves for the city and becomes slightly intoxicated on the way. Eleanor meets her sweetheart that night. Believing he is taking her to a minister, she accompanies Tony to his apartment. Discovering the truth, she shrieks from him in horror. At the same instant, a burglar enters Tony's bedroom via the fire escape. The intoxicated boy offers Eleanor his mother's pearls, but the girl repulses him. A cry of horror causes both to return standing in the bedroom doorway is Barton. Seizing a vase, the father knocks Tony down. Father and daughter gaze upon each other in horror. Eleanor finally convinces him of the truth of her story. The knowledge that her father is a thief fills the girl with grief. The following afternoon, Barton, aided by Eleanor, returns all the jewels he had stolen to the original owners. A maid enters with a message. It is from Tony. The boy acknowledges his baseness, but begs forgiveness. With a glad cry, Eleanor presses the note to her lips.

EIGHTH EPISODE OF "THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY"

Raging at the defeat of their efforts to capture Florence which ended in the tragedy of the drawbridge, as told in Episode Seven, but still determined to gain the secret of the millionaire's treasure, which they are sure she possesses, the conspirators form another plan. James Norton, the reporter, is the one man, who, with Jones, the old butler has thus far successfully thwarted them at every turn. With him out of the way, they argue it will be an easy matter to get Florence in their toils. In the meantime the conspirators have enlisted the aid of a band of thugs and cutthroats and to them he unfolds the plan which Brain has evolved. He shows them a manhole cover made to look, in every respect, like one of the big iron disks used to cover sewer openings, but which in this case is made of flimsy paper mache. He explains that they are to replace the regular iron manhole cover at the corner of a certain street at a given time with the paper mache duplicate and then await the coming of the victim. One of the gang becomes a taxi chauffeur at the invitation of Florence. This man having received his instructions, waits in his car outside the newspaper office where Norton is employed. A telegram, purporting to be from Florence, is sent to Norton, urging him to come to her with all speed, as she is in danger. Similar to the next taxi, which happens to be that of the conspirators, he rides off, never suspecting that he is a victim of a plot, his only thought being to hasten to the side of the girl he loves. He urges the chauffeur to put on all speed, but suddenly, as the car comes to the place where the trap is set, the man brings it to a dead stop opposite the manhole with its paper mache cover. "Something's the matter with the motor," volunteers the chauffeur with a leer, in response to Norton's hurried inquiry. "You'd better walk it or get another machine."

And Norton, his whole thought centered on Florence's need and quite unsuspecting, steps from the car and plunges into the blackness of the sewer. They are still reading, with horrified feeling, the accounts in the afternoon papers of Norton's tragic taking off, when the door of the library opens, and he enters, pale as death, with his terrifying experience. Florence embraces him tearfully, while he tells her how, unconscious, his body had floated out of the sewer into the river, where he was picked up by some boatmen. He narrates the clever plot of the false manhole cover by which the conspirators have endeavored to make away with him and vows that he will not again so easily be a victim of their wiles. The next day the Countess Olga calls to condole with Florence over Norton's disappearance and learns to her astonishment and disappointment that not only is he not dead or missing, but he is even alive and well, considering his mishap. Dissembling her real feelings before Florence, who thus far does not suspect her, the Countess returns to the headquarters of the conspirators and upbraids Brain and the others for consistently making a fizzle of their plans for sequestering Florence, making away with Norton and earning where the missing million is located. "You men have done your best—and failed," she says scornfully. "Now let a woman try. I'll show you how to break up this friendship between Norton and the girl. The rest will be easy. The Countess's plan is simple. Florence has promised to call upon her the following afternoon. And by a subterfuge, Olga gets Norton to call also, shortly before Florence is due. Previously she arranges with her maid, that when the latter arrives the girl shall press an electric button which lights a handsome standing-lamp in the dining room where she and Norton are seated. When this signal comes, she knows that an instant later Florence will enter the room. Norton arrives and is listening to her rambling talk, wondering just why she has sent for him, when the light flashes. The Countess staggers to her feet, pressing her hand to her heart. "I am ill," she gasps, tremblingly, her voice full of appeal.

SECRETARY OF STATE ENJOINED FROM CERTIFYING McLEMORE'S NAME

HEARING TO BE HELD SHORTLY

Temporary Restraining Order Is Obtained at Seven O'clock Saturday Morning.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 22.—Having met defeat at the hands of the state democratic executive committee, W. P. Lane, contestant in the race for congressman-at-large at seven o'clock this morning obtained a temporary writ of injunction from Judge C. A. Wilcox of the Twenty-sixth district court, sitting in chambers, and directed against F. C. Winert, secretary of state, and D. A. Gregg, acting secretary of state, restraining these officials from certifying the name of Jeff McLemore as the democratic nominee for congressman-at-large to be placed on the official ballot.

The temporary injunction enjoins these state officials from taking any action looking to the placing of McLemore's name on the official ballot and is to continue in effect until such time as the secretary of state or the acting secretary of state shall file an answer and ask for a hearing. It is expected that a hearing will be granted shortly.

Paul Waples, chairman of the committee, and filed with the secretary of state the name of McLemore as the democratic nominee, following yesterday's action by the committee.

YOUNG MAN'S LEG SEVERED IN ACCIDENT NEAR CITY

Mules Start Suddenly, Causing Blade of Hay Mower to Injure Man Severely.

J. B. Tyndale's leg was severed about half way between the knee and ankle Friday afternoon when he happened to an accident while mowing hay four miles up the Wichita river. The harness on the mules required attention and he went around in front of the machine to make repairs with baling wire. While he was at work the mules started at something and made a sudden move.

Tyndale was directly in the path of the cutting mechanism of the mower and says he tried to jump, but made the leap too quick, the result being that he landed just in front of it, and the blade passed entirely through his leg. He is from Fort Worth and has relatives living at that place. The crippled man is resting easily at the Wichita Sanitarium, though very weak from loss of blood.

WICHITA FALLS REBEKAHS CAPTURE HONORS AT VERNON

Attend District and Win in Several Contests—Wichitans Elected to Office.

The Wichita Rebekahs who attend the Association meeting at Vernon Wednesday and Thursday of this past week came back with honors, taken in the contests for Past Noble Grand charge contests, also the unwritten work. In the drill team work and the degree staff contests the local lodge did not enter for various reasons.

Mrs. W. M. West of this city presided as vice-president and as she held a certificate of perfection in the unwritten work, she was debarred from entering the lists. Mrs. Barclay of this city was also debarred for this reason. In the large assembly these two Rebekahs enjoyed the distinction of being the only ones holding certificates of exemption, with the exception of Mrs. Watts, of Memphis.

In the Past Noble Grand charge contest Mrs. L. B. Barclay won, with a grading of 100, while the other contestants, Mrs. G. H. Hattenbuehler, Memphis ranked 98, and Mrs. D. H. Henry of Vernon 95. Mrs. W. L. Dillard of this city and Mrs. J. A. Lucky of Vernon were the only contestants in the unwritten work contests, Mrs. Dillard receiving the premium.

Mrs. Barclay was elected second vice president of the Association for the following year. All of the delegates from this city reported a most excellent meeting and a very profitable one. A number of the higher officers of the Association were present and delivered addresses, and one of the most enjoyable features of the two-day session was the music furnished by the boy's band and the girls' orchestra from the I. O. O. F. Widows and Orphans Home at Corsicana.

MOTOR TRUCK DESTROYED BY FIRE FRIDAY EVENING

Match With Which Owner Started His Pipe Caused Blaze that Destroyed Machine.

Fire starting from a match with which its owner, J. H. Simpson of this city, had lighted his pipe, almost completely destroyed a twenty-three motor truck on the public road near Burkburnett Friday afternoon.

The truck which was loaded with lumber had stopped on a piece of strawed road and Mr. Thompson had been tinkering with it to get it started. When he had the necessary repairs made before starting the motor, he lighted his pipe letting the match drop to the ground. Unfortunately it dropped where the oil had been leaking and instantly a blaze flashed up igniting the straw running up under the truck where the oil had leaked.

Mr. Simpson worked furiously throwing dirt onto the flames but could not check them and they spread to the lumber. Before he could get the lumber off the front part of the car had been stripped of all inflammable material even the rubber being burned off the wheels.

The truck cost about $2600 when new. Mr. Simpson's loss is partially covered by insurance.

HALL COUNTY NIGHT RIDERS SEVERELY INJURE FARMER

(Hall County Herald)

A very unusual assault was made upon a citizen of Lakeview community Tuesday night of this week. The man assaulted was A. E. Capps, a good citizen owning a half section about three miles northwest of Lakeview. Some men on horseback approached his house about 9 p. m. and called him out of the house to see some man. He went out and followed two men toward the gate. Two others fell in behind him, and when some distance from the house they jumped on him and beat him up in a scandalous manner. His nose was broken, his eyes both blacked, his cheeks cut open with blows and a map of Belgium in war time made on his face. He was left half dead by the assailants as they rode away to the Northwest. It was soon learned that they had taken the precaution to cut his telephone line before making the assault. As a result help could not be secured in that manner. His wife had also been ill for some time. The alarm was not given until Wednesday. Then Dr. Wilson went out from Memphis and Deputy Sheriff Disheroon went out to investigate. No law could be obtained to the perpetrators of the outrage nor the cause. It seems that the community is somewhat divided up over the removal of the Methodist church down into Lakeview from Union Hill about a mile away. Mr. Capps is said to have circulated a petition relative to this matter on one side or the other. The night riders are said to have interrogated him about this matter before he assault. If the outrage was over church question it is hardly probable that there was any mandate in the usual to justify the means used.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF FARMERS UNION

NATIONAL MEETING OF ORGANIZATION TO BEGIN SEPTEMBER 1

DELEGATES FROM EVERY STATE

Practically All Sections of Country Will Be Represented.—Texas To Send Many.

Special to The Times. Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 21.—Real farmers—the kind that live in the country and who worked out their own problems as boys in the hot sun and the cold rain, are coming to Fort Worth in hosts from the four corners of the land to attend the Tenth Annual Convention of the National Farmers' Union, that opens September 1.

Suburban gardeners have worked out idealistic country life plans for them; and economists are weaving schemes for them to get rich quick; but the cream of the real farmers of the United States will settle their affairs for themselves at this convention.

There never was a national farmers' convention before, perhaps, that was equal in importance to the approaching Fort Worth convention, according to National President, Charles S. Barrett, of Union City, Ga., who was here recently to arrange for the convention. In his call for the convention, President Barrett said in part:

"This promises to be the greatest meeting ever held by the organization. The entire nation has been aroused over what most people are pleased to call the 'rural problem.' Naturally, everyone looks to the organized farmer for his O. K. of the solutions offered. The personnel of the Fort Worth meeting will be made up of men capable of advising, and no member who can possibly come should deny himself the pleasure of attending this meeting.

Estimates of Attendance. Texas Farmers' Union officials are working no less assiduously than President Barrett to make the convention a big success. They are not sitting at desks and estimating the crowds that will attend. They are going over the nation with a fine tooth comb and lining up farmers individually to attend the convention. President Barrett is "making" the state farmers' meetings and throwing enthusiasm into his followers over the approaching national gathering. National Secretary A. D. Davis of Gravette, Ark., is just back home from the Nebraska state meeting. He rushed to Nebraska just at the close of the Arkansas meeting.

W. D. Lewis of Fort Worth, president of the Texas Union, and Peter Radford of Fort Worth, National lecturer for Texas, started out from Washington after attending the cotton conference and are "drumming-up" visitors in the middle western states. President Barrett recently wrote to officers of district and county farmers' unions throughout the country, urging them to attend the Fort Worth convention strong.

The president of one of the biggest district unions in the country answered with a promise to send a record delegation to the convention. "I note your invitation to our district union," he wrote to Barrett, "and I think we will all meet you there with bells and spurs on, and I hope all the other district unions will be present and hope the requirements will be such that you will have to use a gavel as big as a ten-gallon beer keg in order to make yourself heard."

Texas to Send Many. N. R. Dorsey of Henderson, Texas, received a personal invitation from President Barrett to send ten car loads of Union farmers to the national convention because of the fact that the meeting would be so near the home of his district union. Here is Dorsey's answer:

"Your kind letter, including invitation to visit the national union convention to be held at Fort Worth September 1, with ten car loads of East Texas Central District Farmers' Union men, received. To this I will say that I intend to take everyone of them that I can get to go, if it takes twenty cars to haul them."

Dorsey speaks for a district comprising thirteen thickly populated counties. All the state presidents and most of the state secretaries are expected to attend the national convention and there will be farmers from states not even organized.

The seven Texas district unions will hold separate meetings August 31 in Fort Worth and get ready to attend the national convention the next day, prepared to give their best thought and efforts to make the convention count for something for the farmer. The meetings will be executive, as are all meetings of the Union farmers.

A county secretary recently wrote this to President Barrett: "Under instructions from my county Union, I am sending you the following resolutions, passed at our last session: Cotton Problem."

"Be it resolved by the Delta County Farmers' Union, convening in regular session, June 26, 1914, that we urge our National Farmers' Union again to appoint a committee on the greater consumption of cotton and to push the work all the time, as cotton brings more cash from foreign shores to the United States than any other farm product, and the more cotton used the greater becomes the prosperity for all interests of the United States. "I am glad that the next session of the National Union will be held in Texas, and I look forward to its convening with greatest of pleasure.

"Perhaps at no period of the world's history has the producer gained so much of universal recognition as has the American farmer, and to him we say, 'All hail!' His splendid achievements are commanding today, as never before, the respect of the business world at large, and in the coming national convention to be held in the city of Fort Worth will be added a

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Wichita Falls Testimony
Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Wichita Falls endorsement.
Read the statements of Wichita Falls citizens.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it.
John Glen, shoemaker, 712 Seventh street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "For many years I had various troubles caused by my kidneys and bladder. I had pains in my back and side and was troubled by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended, I tried them and found them even better than represented. They cured me and now I seldom need a kidney remedy. When I do I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they always benefit me."
Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Glen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

COTTON OUTLOOK PLEASING
IN WESTERN OKLAHOMA
(Altus Times.)
If the ginners and cotton men are to be believed, the cotton crop of Jackson county, and in fact the entire western part of Oklahoma, is in the finest condition it has ever been at this season for the past decade. In fact, it could not be better, according to these authorities, and the opinion is confirmed by the preparations they are making to take care of an immense crop. Within the past month there have been two splendid rains, one on August 10 with a precipitation of 2 1/2 inches, and one since then of .37 of an inch. The crop is from 15 to 20 per cent better than it was a month ago because of these rains, and over 300 percent better than at this time last year. In the past ten days the dews have been exceedingly heavy, amounting to almost as much moisture as would result from a light shower, and these heavy dews have caused the plants to put on fruit at a marvelous rate. It is estimated that since the rain of August 10 cotton has put on 15 percent more fruit. The temperature at present is excellent, though the plants could stand more hot sun. And yet, experts say it is just as well for the cotton will continue to put on fruit at the present temperature, though it will require longer to mature. All the above is true and with a 20 per cent decrease in acreage this year, caused by the large amount of land sowed to wheat and forage crops. With a very short crop of 10,000 bales in Jackson county last year, a conservative estimate puts this year's crop at 32,000 bales, and that is largely guesswork, as it is too early yet to approximate the yield.

OIL TEST IS STARTED IN HARDEAN COUNTY
(Quannah Tribune-Chief.)
That an oil field exists not far from Quannah has been believed here for some time, but that outsiders shared this belief and are willing to risk their money to demonstrate the correctness of their theories, of that fact that a rotary oil rig has arrived in Quannah, and that preparations are being made to begin drilling seven miles northwest of Quannah, the last few days have brought proof. W. A. Doyle & Co. of New York are the men putting up the money. Mr. Doyle has been here for several weeks, and the oil field looked good to him. Notwithstanding Oklahoma parties had offered him valuable tracts of land plus cash bonuses, he felt that he could not afford to pass this place by. As Mr. Doyle is a man of considerable weight in the oil world, it may be well to state here something of his oil connections. He is a partner of Jno. Mays, the celebrated California oil magnate, who brought in the Midway field, the largest oil district in the world, also the Mays gusher, which produces 30,000 gallons a day, besides drilling the first well in the Colingua field. Mr. Doyle informs us that this No. One well which he proposes to drill here, will be followed by several more. For his camp he has selected section No. 199 in the Norton ranch.

QUEER HOSPITAL SYSTEM IS OPERATED IN ENGLAND

Charity Patients Well Cared for While Pay Patients Cannot Get Accommodations.

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—England's lack of hospitals for people in moderate circumstances is the thing that most impressed the members of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America who just met in London. All of London's wonderful hospitals, where the visitors have been watching operations by the great British surgeons, are charity hospitals. People who can afford to pay are barred, and must either go to the inadequately equipped private nursing homes or be operated upon in their residences.

Dr. Franklin H. Martin, of Chicago, general secretary of the congress, felt this condition keenly, as he had a touch of appendicitis during his visit to London and then learned that the hospitals he had been admiring would not have received him had he been forced to go under the knife.

"This method of conducting hospitals amazes us from North America," said Dr. Martin. "Palatial buildings, occupying acres of the most valuable land in the capital of the world, are devoted solely to non-paying patients, excluding from their advantages the patient of moderate means and made prohibitive to plants of wealth. This works injustice both ways. With their large endowments, these hospitals can afford the most elaborate equipment of operating rooms and laboratory diagnostic facilities. Yet patients of means are compelled to go to the imperfectly equipped private hospitals or to nursing homes with their makeshift arrangements. This must in turn have a pauperizing effect on people of small means who enter the hospitals as charity patients when they would gladly pay a small sum."

"The injustice worked on the paying patient may be serious, as nursing and private homes can not afford expensive apparatus such as the latest X-ray machines and the like."

Dr. Martin has only praise for the British surgeons. He believes them to be fundamentally better equipped for their profession than the American. By this he means preliminary training and the necessity of such English surgeon being a fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, which standardizes requirements.

"The average English surgeon is more deliberate in the technical performance of his work than the average American or Frenchman," Dr. Martin declared.

Prussian City Stuhm Collects Highest Taxes of any City in World

By Associated Press. Berlin, Aug. 22.—The small Prussian city of Gorno has lost the distinction of levying the heaviest tax of any city in the kingdom, which it possessed since 1911 until last year. The citizens there who earned $100 a month paid $15.75 monthly as an income tax alone, not including church, real estate and business taxes. The city of Stuhm has now, according to the reports for 1914, the highest taxes of any Prussian city. These amount to 11.7 per cent of the $100 a month on a man's earnings. The rate of taxation increases progressively, so that the man with $2,000 yearly pays $276.19, a little more than 13 per cent, and a man who has an income of $4,000 yearly is taxed $612.20, nearly fifteen per cent. Twenty West Prussian cities impose a municipal tax of at least 300 per cent of the state tax. The highest municipal tax of the Greater Berlin municipalities is 110 per cent, and some of them get along with 100 per cent.

ENGLISH COAL MINERS' STRIKE COSTS $5,000,000

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 22.—The last general strike of coal miners cost the trades unions of the men engaged in that industry just $5,000,000, and notwithstanding an increase of $20,000 in membership of all trades unions, the grand total of union funds at the beginning of this year was over a million dollars less than before that strike. In 1912, the last year for which a report has been made, there were 683 trades unions in the country with a membership of 2,597,772, and funds amounting to nearly $30,000,000. The income of the unions alone amounted to nearly $20,000,000, and they expended $3,000,000 in unemployed benefit; $8,500,000 in strike pay; $2,500,000 in sickness and accident benefit; $200,000 in funeral benefit, and $2,500,000 in other benefits.

YOUNG COUNTY FARMERS TO CONSIDER SEED PRICES

(Graham Reporter.) The farmers of Young county are interested in the price they are to receive for their cotton seed. Since the seed amount to about one-fourth of the cotton crop in value, they are necessarily interested in the price the seed will bring. In order that the best possible price may be had for the seed from this year's crop, there will be held precinct conventions over the county on August 29th for the purpose of electing delegates to a county convention to be held in Graham on Sept. 14, to discuss and provide the means of holding the seed should the price of same be lower than they are considered worth at the time of ginning. The call for the convention is signed by some of the county's best farmers, and many more would have signed had they been given an opportunity.

RED CROSS CAN CALL 60,000 FIELD WORKERS IN ENGLAND

That Many Are Available For Service in War if They Are Needed.

London, August 22.—The British Red Cross Society can call upon 60,000 persons—many of them highly trained, to undertake field ambulance and hospital work. If there is a serious demand for their services it is estimated that at least 95 per cent of this number will obey the call.

The society is the body officially recognized by the war department, and acts under the direction of the admiralty and war office, in conjunction with the hospital staff. Its present organization and status is due to the lessons of the South African war, when various independent nursing societies, some of them poorly managed and all interfering with each other's movements, caused the authorities no end of trouble. The result was that all societies were amalgamated and put under one head.

The forms of aid of the society include the provision and equipment of hospital ships and trains, hospitals and convalescent homes, clothing, medical supplies, food and comforts for the soldier, such as pipes, tobacco, chocolate, playing cards and stationery.

CHILDRESS RAILROAD MAN REPORTS LABOR SCARCE

(Childress Index.)

Superintendent Jack Mann of the Bridge and Building department of Childress, stated to a representative of the Index on Tuesday morning that it was next to impossible to secure laborers at this time. He said the wages or hours made little difference. Mr. Mann was of the opinion that there was more feed and cotton made in the Panhandle than the Denver Road would haul out this fall and winter and that the only question now was to save the crop. There is no money to anyone to produce a crop then have it wasted in the fields. Mr. Mann says it is hard to secure white labor, and that the Mexican laborer is of the inferior class. He suggested where the people are not opposed to negroes to try and secure them for picking cotton and ket white labor for handling of maize, kair and other feed crops. Mr. Mann was of the opinion that several thousand men could find employment in this section of the state and if they could be induced to come here that the farmers would make lots of money. There is going to be a big demand for all surplus feed and a good market will be had in North and Central Texas.

Protect Americans From Being Imposed Upon in Great Britain

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 22.—For the benefit of Americans and others who desire to buy antiques during their visits to London, the authorities of the city of London recently established a department at the Guildhall where purchasers may ascertain whether they have bought genuine or sham articles. A case of sham antiques has been collected and the intending purchaser after a visit to it should be able to judge whether articles offered to him are real or otherwise, while those who buy before visiting the Guildhall can soon learn whether their objects of art are worth the money they have paid for them.

Articles in lead and brass appear to occupy the special attention of the antique taker, who is today something more than a highly skilled craftsman, his bogus productions being in many cases highly artistic.

VERNON MAN BUYS FLOCK OF REGISTERED SHEEP

(Vernon Record.)

Will P. Jones of the City National Bank, has purchased a flock of ninety-two registered sheep. Mr. Jones secured the sheep from a farm near Lawton, Okla. Mr. Jones has placed the flock on his farm northwest of town. He says that he will offer about forty or fifty head for sale. Those who know how to judge sheep pronounce the animals the best they ever saw, and are complimenting Mr. Jones on his purchase. Sheep raising has always been profitably carried on in the Panhandle country but proper care and attention has seldom been given. Mr. Herman Alexander of near Childress, has a small flock that has paid him well and is conclusive evidence that sheep raising should be carried on to a greater extent in Childress county.
