RUSSIANS INVADE SILESIA EXPECT CAPTURE Breslau

Austrian Army Report Lost 120,000 Galician Battle, Also Evacuation Of Cracow Begun

By Associated Press.

London, 9:30 a. m., Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Rome says: "Dispatches from Vienna say the advance guard of the Russian center are marching toward Berlin. The Russian troops have invaded Silesia, the southeastern province of Germany and the capture of Breslau is imminent."

VIENNA ADMITS AUSTRIAN ARMY LOST 120,000 IN GALICIAN BATTLE

By Associated Press.

London, 9:45 a. m., Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Rome says: "A message from Vienna says it is officially admitted there that Archduke Frederick lost 120,000 men in the recent Galician battle or one-fourth of his entire command. The Germans are marching south toward Poland to aid the Austrians but before this aid can be given they must cross the Vistula river. The Russians are preparing to check them there."

REPORT FROM ROME SAYS AUSTRIANS HAVE BEGUN EVACUATING CRACOW

By Associated Press.

London, 3:40 p. m., Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Reuters Telegraph Company from Rome says the Austrians have begun evacuating Cracow.

PEACE TREATIES IN MIDST OF WAR

COUNTRIES NOW AT WAR AGREE TO SIGN TREATIES WITH UNITED STATES.

OTHER COUNTRIES INCLUDED

One Effect Will Be To Keep U. S. From Suddenly Being Drawn Into Conflict.

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 10.—In the midst of the European war Great Britain, France, Spain and China have agreed to sign peace treaties with the United States. One effect will be to keep the United States from being drawn suddenly into the conflict. Germany, Russia and Japan have signified their acceptance of the principle of the agreement although negotiations have not advanced to a stage where signatures are made. Similar agreements with Turkey and Greece are almost ready for acceptance.

ENGLAND WANTS NO PEACE UNTIL GERMANY BEATEN

Ambassador Page Informs President Wilson This is Sentiment at London

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 10.—Great Britain is determined not to make peace until she decisively defeats Germany. This sentiment has been conveyed to President Wilson by Ambassador Page at London who says that while it is not official it is the result of his observations. This has tended to discourage efforts by Washington for peace for the present.

NEW BATTLE BEGUN NEAR LEMBERG ON WEDNESDAY

By Associated Press. London, Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Reuters from Vienna, dated Wednesday and reaching London by way of Amsterdam says: "It is officially announced in Vienna that a new battle began around Lemberg today."

RUSSIAN CENTER WITH AUSTRIA CRUSHED NOW SWEEPING DIRECTLY TOWARD BERLIN—ADVANCE VAST LINE

By Associated Press.

London, 10:20 a. m., Sept. 10.—Exultant messages from Petrograd and admissions of disaster from Vienna indicates that the long series of military misfortunes marking the history of Austrian monarchy are about to be capped with a final debacle which may not only open the road to Berlin but also bring Austria to sue for peace.

The armies in the west seem as if passing to watch the fearful drama in Galicia, the outcome of which may have a tremendous effect not only on the plans of the invaders in the western theatre of war as well as upon the allies themselves in that region.

GERMANS ALARMED IN BELGIUM.

News from Belgium indicate that Germans are preparing for eventualities in that region. The first definite indication of this movement is given in a dispatch from Belgium which relates that the German forces which has been waiting outside of Ghent for provisions demanded from that city has hurriedly left in a southeasterly direction.

THE RUSSIAN STEAM ROLLER.

England had looked hopefully for the Russian steam roller to get under way but the impetus with which the Russian army already has proceeded has surprised even the military experts. The Russian advance has been so speedy that the German divisions advancing on the Vistula are hardly likely to arrive in time to assist the hard pressed Austrians in Galicia. Reports from Petrograd indicates that the Russians are already driving the Germans before them on the west bank of the Vistula.

In this region the only point left to the Germans and Austrians that can be of strategic importance is Bracow the old capital of Poland situated in Galicia in a broad plain on the left bank of the Vistula and not more than thirty miles from the frontier of Silesia. If this place falls before Russian it is felt in London that annihilation of the Austro-German army in Galicia is imminent.

The Russian advance now occupies almost a straight line from Koenigsburg in East Prussia to Cracow.

HEROIC FIGHT BY BRITISH.

A graphic account by Field Marshal Sir John French in command of the British expeditionary forces on the continent of the heroic fight the British expeditionary force made to keep from being annihilated was published this morning. The British fought like a wildcat pursued by hounds was backed steadily toward the river Oise. Gen. French's bomb confession has fallen like a bomb shell on the British public which had been kept in ignorance of how hard pressed their army had been. Terrell On August 25 the British faced the bulk and strength of four German army corps and were in danger of being surrounded and destroyed. The heroic stand of General Smith Dorrien on the British left undoubtedly saved the day. On this day the British stood alone. Even the French cavalry on account of the exhaustion of their horses were not able to cover the withdrawing movement. Great comfort is derived by the British public by this report which indicates the British troops never once lost their morale.

ALLIES MORE THAN HOLDING OWN.

That the allies are doing a little more than holding their own is the deduction today from the meager news of the battle which has already progressed four days in the region of the river Marne. Great satisfaction is gained from the clause in the official report "In the center our advance is slow but general."

It is pointed out that the allies had prepared their center for the most formidable and dangerous attack which if successful would divide their army. It appears the Germans rushing tactics have been at least temporarily countered and that the Germans have found it necessary to withdraw troops from Belgium and practically denude upper Alsace of troops which are being rushed to the support of the German center.

PLACE FOR PEACE TREATY.

Diplomats in Rome are already discussing the place at which a peace treaty will be concluded. The general view is that peace is most likely to be brought about ultimately through the mediation of President Wilson in which case Washington will be the scene of the negotiations.

EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH IN HIS USUAL HEALTH

TWO AUSTRIAN TELEPHONE COMPANIES MAY CONSOLIDATE

By Associated Press. Anstn, Texas, Sept. 10.—Consolidation of the two local telephone companies, the Southwestern and the Independent, seems today to be a fair way toward consummation. Recently there have been several conferences between the city council, J. H. Farnsworth, president of the Southwestern and J. B. Earle of the Independent. Mayor Woolridge of Anstn, has said he favors consolidation. The council probably will say the final word for or against consolidation and this vote is expected soon.

By Associated Press. McKinney, Texas, Sept. 10.—This morning Dick Rowe shot E. Hill with a pump gun. Hill's condition is very critical. When asked about the cause of the shooting Hill said "I don't know, I hate to go this way." Rowe would make no statement. Both are unmarried.

DENTON COUNTY FARMER SHOT HIMSELF TODAY

By Associated Press. Denton, Texas, Sept. 10.—Worry over finances is given as the cause of suicide of Mr. McKnight, a farmer, aged 45, living west of here. This forenoon he lay on the ground with a stick of wood for a pillow and shot himself.

CAN GERMANY BRING UP BIG GUNS IN TIME TO WIN?

Allies Formidable Task Is To Break German Line Before Heavy Guns Arrive From The North

By Associated Press.

Paris, Sept. 10.—All morning long a line of couriers in automobiles coming from the fighting line east of the city has been arriving at the military headquarters.

An American, well known as an automobilist, is now attached to the headquarters of Sir John French. This American came into Paris this afternoon. He said:

"The British soldiers were cheerful and confident. British troops are in much greater force than supposed. Figures must be avoided for strategical reasons."

One hundred thousand Germans Sunday night passed Crevy-en-Brie in the departments of the Seine and Marne. Part of this column was marching eight abreast. A large detachment of German cavalry cut off from the army took refuge in a forest last night and now is surrounded.

The task of the allies' army stretched out from Nanteuil to Verdun is formidable. They must beat an immense German force of unknown strength before the arrival of big guns from the north. The allies apparently have forced the Germans to fall back considerable distance, according to this American.

It probably will require fifteen days or more for the German heavy artillery to arrive as they must use only the best main roads. Their heavy guns weigh four tons each without carriages or platforms. The latter are transported separately on large motor trucks. These must be heavily guarded owing to the possible presence of columns of allies along the route.

HALF MILLION MEN WILL BE ADDED TO GREAT BRITAIN'S REGULAR ARMY

By Associated Press.

London, 12:38 p. m., Sept. 10.—Premier Asquith today asked Parliament to add another half million men to the regular army. This would make the total 1,186,400 men, which is an unprecedented size for a British army. His request was unanimously granted.

JAPAN SIGNS "ALL FOR ONE AGREEMENT"

By Associated Press. Petrograd, Sept. 9, via London, Sept. 10.—A dispatch from Tokio says Japan has joined the agreement of the allies not to conclude peace without the consent of the allied nations. Japan has informed Russia that she will not make peace with Germany until the war in Europe is ended even if Japan occupies Kia Chow before that time.

DEEDS FILED FOR RECORD.

GERMANS HAVE ABANDONED LUNEVILLE IS REPORT

By Associated Press. Paris, via London, 5:10 a. m., Sept. 10.—The Temps publishes a dispatch from Nancy saying it is rumored there that the Germans evacuated Lunerville fifteen miles southeast of Nancy on September 6. Commenting on this dispatch the Temps says that what seems certain is that the Germans had to abandon the heights surrounding Lunerville.

BRITISH-FRENCH FLEET IN ADRIATIC INACTIVE

Rome Paper Takes This to Mean Allies Want Austria to Withdraw From Germany.

FURTHER GREAT LOSSES TO AUSTRIAN FORCES

By Associated Press. London, 9:28 a. m., Sept. 10.—A dispatch from Rome to Reuters says: "According to Galician advices the Austrians have made several attempts to resume the offensive against the Russians with disastrous results. There were further great losses."

WAR WILL DELAY PUBLIC WORK HERE

BOND COMPANY DECLINES TO TAKE COUNTY AND CITY HOSPITAL BONDS.

NO MARKET FOR OTHERS

European Owned Securities Being Sacrificed in American Financial Markets

The erection of the joint city and county hospital and new fire station, and the purchase of park property, have been indefinitely postponed, as an indirect result of the European war. The bond company which agreed to purchase the hospital bonds has declined to accept them, while the general financial situation makes it impossible to dispose of the park and fire station bonds at the present time.

The securities market at present is badly demoralized and Wichita Falls has plenty of company in her predicament. European securities are flooding this country, the owners being willing to accept almost anything to get the cash, and investors are taking such bonds in preference to American issues. Many American bonds are sold in Europe and the war has of course put a stop to such business.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

The Campbells are Coming. The Campbells, a famous clan of old Scotland, were much dreaded and admired by the other clans of the highland and lowlands. When war was about to be declared the famous Scotch bag pipers could be heard playing the popular rallying song in the purple twilight, as they, the singers, gathered along the banks and braes of Bonnie Dundee.

Upon the Lomonds I lay, I lay, I look'd down to Bonnie Lockleven And heard three bonnie pipers play. CHORUS

The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming to Bonnie Lockleven.

The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming to Bonnie Lockleven.

The great Arzyle, he goes before, He makes his cannon loudly roar, The sound of trumpet, pipe and drum, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming to Bonnie Lockleven.

The Campbells they are a' in arms, Their loyal faith and truth to show; With banners rulin' in the wind, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming, O ho, O ho, The Campbells are coming to Bonnie Lockleven.

MRS. DEATHERAGE HOSTESS TO ROWENA CIRCLE

Wednesday afternoon marked another day in the meeting of the Rowena Circle, the session being held at the home of Mrs. J. Deatherage. The officers of the Circle, Mrs. South, president, Mrs. Deatherage, vice president, Mrs. Dunaway, secretary, and Mrs. Robertson, treasurer, were present and filled their respective places. As usual the business was attended to first, there being much to discuss, old committees to be discharged after performing their duty and new ones to be appointed to take up their work. The circle is rapidly growing, as every one is taking an interest and is ever ready to do their part. "Lanthe" was taken up following the completion of the business, and as only one chapter is discussed at each meeting, there is not a great deal to be said. The third chapter gives a laud description of Cedric, the Syrian, his home and servants, with here and there a mention of the beautiful Lady Rowena, and further knowledge of her will be gained with much pleasure. The social hour was much enjoyed, music and conversation being the diversion offered. Delicious refreshments were served, after which all said goodbye until the next evening, September 23, with Mrs. S. A. Douglas, 1912 Eighth street. The members present at this meeting were Mesdames South, Richardson, Dunaway, Robertson, Coleburne, McAllister, Hallowitz, Jenne, Sheuler, Douglas, Misses Carlton and Adams and the hostess, Mrs. Deatherage.

LITTLE SISTERS MEET WITH MISS BESS KELL

After adjourning during the summer months, during which time the members were out of town, the Little Sisters resumed their meetings for the fall, meeting with Miss Bess Kell as hostess, Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in the pleasant manner customary to this social club and Miss Anne Garrison was the guest of the afternoon. A delicious salad and ice course was served late in the afternoon to the following: Misses Kathleen Blair, Anne Carrigan and the hostess.

MRS. G. E. FRIBERG ENTERTAINS NEW IDEA CLUB

The New Idea Club has resumed its meetings for the fall, meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. G. E. Friberg. Interesting discussions of the summer vacation trips made by the various members were enjoyed along with the usual sewing. The hostess assisted by her three daughters, Misses Nettie, Estelle and Edwina, served delicious ice cream, cake, home made cookies and ice punch. The guests were: Mesdames Fred Snyder, C. C. Smith and Mrs. Fehr of Denison. The club members present were Mesdames Simon, Carey, Delfis, Goodale, E. Y. Friberg, Dodson, H. J. Bachman and the hostess.

MISS DORA COONS ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Wednesday afternoon Miss Dora Coons entertained the girls of her Sunday school class in the First Christian Church with a "tacky" party. The girls all tied with each other in their costume and make-up and the results of their untied efforts were indeed ludicrous. Miss Mary Leath Tevis received the first prize for being the tackiest, the favor being a Japanese "Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil" charm. To Miss Gussie Pitchford went the second prize. Games of various sorts were played and the hostess served what she termed "tacky" refreshments, red soda pop and barrel ginger snaps. The class members present were: Misses Mary Leath Tevis, Genevieve Mudd, Edith Yates, Juanita Hamersley, Gussie Pitchford, Lucille Holden, Florence Tyson, Lucille Henderson, Alice Butler, Sibyl James, Annie Dardo, Ethel Panges, Ruth McKinzie. The other guests were: Misses Annie Lea, Louise and Sadie Tevis, Gwendolyn Mudd and Mesdames Tevis and Mudd.

DALLAS PRESBYTERY ADJOURNED TODAY

BRANDON, HILL COUNTY, CHOSEN AS PLACE FOR MEETING IN APRIL.

CONFERENCE IS BEING HELD

Northern Church Sends Committee to Discuss Consolidation of Some Churches

The Dallas Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, known as the Southern Church, concluded its work this morning and adjourned to meet next in Brandon, Hill county, sometime next April. This morning's session was brief, being occupied with the clearing up of matters on the docket. The concluding sermon was by Rev. J. N. Ivy.

This afternoon commissioners from the Presbyteries are meeting at 2:30 P. M. in the Southern Church, to discuss the consolidation of the United States, known as the northern church, with a view to adjusting matters in localities where there are two Presbyterian churches. It is expected that some consolidations will be effected in towns where it is found that the cause of Presbyterianism can best be served by one church.

At this morning's session Rev. W. M. Anderson Jr., of Dallas, was substituted for Rev. S. J. McMurtry on the committee on examination of church government and sacrament. Rev. T. W. Currie was granted a letter of dismission to the Central Texas Presbytery, he having been chosen secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the State University at Austin. Rev. Fred L. McFadden of this city was chosen as substitute for Dr. Wharton on the commission which is meeting this afternoon.

Rev. J. N. Ivy of Pilot Point, presented the final sermon of the obligatory this morning, his subject being "Christ the Power of God." Most of the visiting members left for their homes this afternoon.

Last Night's Session. A good sized crowd attended the evening session at the Central Presbyterian church. Rev. McCain of the Southwestern Presbyterian Orphan's Home first spoke. He said the work of this institution was not merely to care for the every day wants of the children, but that it had an interest in the soul of the child that came under its influence. It was urged that the members of the church set aside one day and give their whole earning of that day to the support of the home, which at the present is in very deep need of money wherewith to pay on next month's bills. The matter was taken up by the officials of the local church last night, and September 26 was chosen as the day to be given over to this charitable work.

Rev. Fincher read his text last night from Mat. 4:19, in which Jesus said: "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." And straightway they threw down their nets and followed Him. The speaker declared—that what Jesus meant by telling the fishermen that if they would throw down their nets he would give them a higher and nobler work to do—fishers of men for the service of God. If they would leave off their everlasting greed for worldly goods and follow Him, he would make them fishers of men's souls.

They Read the Grand Old Book. The speaker said he and a brother minister of the gospel were once traveling together in South Texas. At their hotel just before retiring for the night, they were devoting the evening to reading the grand old book. The minister declared that he asked the other gentleman to pray a little prayer of thanksgiving for such a peaceful existence and then they would dream the dreams of the just. And the man said that he was ashamed to pray and couldn't think of doing it. But finally he was induced to and the act itself was enough to give that man courage and confidence to be a fisher of men.

God intended that every preacher earn every cent of his salary. He was a fisher of men and ought to work just as hard for his daily meal ticket as a fisher after fish in the deep blue sea. Every church member should become a fisher of men, he asserted. Every boy—you included—should be a fisher of men for the service of Jesus Christ. He wanted you any time, but especially now to work for Him, he said. "God wants fishers of men." And the greatest bait, anybody could use in fishing for men for God is the grand old book—the Bible. God calls to you—to everybody—"Follow me and I will make you a savior of men." The minister said.

The speaker declared that it would take every ounce of strength, every ounce of energy, it would take your whole life, in fact, to grab the soul for God that had been lost beyond the thin veneer of respectability. And that is exactly what Christ meant when He said: "Follow Me and I will make you a fisher of men." Two Things To Do. God did not put us on the earth merely to attend picture shows and other amusement places, but sent us here for a purpose—and that purpose is to go out and get men—win souls—for the cause of the great Father above, he told his hearers. The first thing that is necessary to do is to pick up a church and join it so that you will have some place to bring men's souls. Then put the proposition of the gospel fairly and squarely up to a man and give him every chance to accept the word of God. The regular fisherman who makes his living snaring fish into his net was a rough and ready fellow, ready to get up at any hour of the night to go out after a fish. He would go after them whether it was

Had President Wilson encouraged the loaning of American money to the warring countries of Europe our country would soon have been drained of its gold, and the money loaned would doubtless aid the belligerents in prolonging the war.

Unconfirmed reports say that the finances of Germany are getting in a bad way. Can this be true if the report that Germany has levied fifty millions from Brussels, ten millions from Liege, and ninety millions from Brabant, is authentic?

Today's war news dispatches intimate that Austria-Hungary has made such a poor showing at holding the Rumanians back, and have lost so many soldiers, that that country is seriously considering the matter of suing for peace, and in the event she does, the end of the European war is in sight.

DIFFERING VIEWS.

For the most part, the American press is content to print such news as gets past the censors, accompanied by an occasional explanatory note.

"If the Germans have become detached from the time from their Christian liberties and are actuated just now by Nietzsche-Bernhard philosophy, there is no use of making so much remonstrance about dropping bombs in Antwerp.

"It is moral for the French to bombard Nuremberg and Coblenz from the air, but it is immoral for the Germans to bombard Antwerp and Paris.

"It is moral for the Japanese to violate the neutrality of China, but it is immoral for the Germans to get ahead of the French in violating the neutrality of Belgium."

"So there you are. The one question for us here in America, even though we are saying nothing, is the effect on Freedom to the ultimate outcome, between Freedom and Autocracy there is everlasting war.

"What if German militarism were exterminated? It would end in the rise of a greater military power, namely, Russia.

"This great power has today an army almost double the size of the German army and the most despotic government in the civilized world.

"The Russian ritual, the murder of thousands of Hebrews in Kief and Fishneff, the breaking into the houses of Hebrews and murdering their women and children, throwing the bodies from the roofs into the streets, and all for robbery and plunder, the police

TOLD THEY MUST GET BUSY

Farmers at Meeting Favored Warehouse Plan—Meeting at Burk Burnett Today

The first of a series of four meetings to discuss the cotton situation was held Wednesday afternoon at the Countyline school house north of Electra.

The Countyline meeting was well attended and the warehouse movement seemed to be agreed upon as the most feasible plan. While the farmers present considered Wichita Falls the logical storage point for their cotton, a number of business men from Electra, who were present, said that Electra was big enough to handle the situation without Wichita Falls' aid.

Practically all of the farmers favored storing their cotton in Wichita Falls and it seems probable that their support would be given to a warehouse in this city, which on account of its railroad connections and superior facilities, seems a more logical location.

It is understood that the Gainesville company is soon to be mustered out, and it is Mr. Stanforth's plan that the company to be formed here should take its place in the guard.

WHAT TO USE TO KEEP FLIES FROM LIVESTOCK

The season has arrived when flies have become both a nuisance and a menace to livestock. The U. S. department of agriculture has issued a timely bulletin on fly repellents which says in part:

Various oils, emulsions of oils and mixtures of oils are used in repelling flies. Crude petroleum, cottonseed oil, fish or train oil and light coal tar oil may be used pure.

Jensen (1909) recommends the following formula, which is said to protect cows for a week:

Common laundry soap, one pound. Water, four gallons.

Crude petroleum, one gallon. Powdered naphthallin, four ounces.

Cut the soap into thin shavings and dissolve in water by the aid of heat; dissolve the naphthallin in the crude oil, mix the two solutions, put them into an old dasher churn, and mix thoroughly for fifteen minutes. The mixture should be applied once or twice a week with a brush. It must be stirred well before being used.

Fish oil is rated as one of the best repellents and has been used alone and in combination with various other substances. Other substances that have repellent qualities and that have been used in various mixtures are pine tar, crude carbolic acid, oil of pennyroyal and kerosene. The protective action of fish oil is stated to range from less than two days (Parrott, 1906) to six days. Moore's formula is said to protect for two days. This mixture is safe when applied lightly with a brush, but not when applied liberally with a pump spray pump. The formula is as follows:

Fish oil, 100 parts. Oil of tar, 50 parts. Crude carbolic acid, one part.

Laurel oil is a very effective repellent. Mayer (1911) found that the protection lasted from two to twelve days. The oil when used pure has an irritating effect unless it is applied lightly. According to Mayer the irritating effect may be overcome by combining it with lincseed oil in the proportion of one to ten. In the experiments of the department of agriculture, it was found that ten per cent of laurel oil in cottonseed oil was active for less than a day.

A number of formulas for repellents for application to wounds have been recommended by various authors.

In experimental tests carried out by the department the following results were obtained:

A ten per cent mixture of crude carbolic acid (21.8 per cent phenol) in cottonseed oil has a very strong repellent action on flies, but this lasts less than a day, in consequence of which it is necessary to apply the mixture every day. The mixture should be applied lightly with a brush, since a heavy application with a spray pump is likely to cause phenol poisoning.

Mixtures consisting of 20, 20 and 50 per cent of pine tar in cottonseed oil have marked repellent qualities. They should be applied lightly and it is necessary to apply them every day. A liberal application of a 10 per cent mixture is deleterious to animals. This is also the case with a half and half mixture of pine tar and Beaufort oil when applied lightly with a brush.

A mixture of oil of tar (14 per cent phenols, volatile with steam) in cottonseed oil and in Beaufort oil has a very marked repellent action. A 10 per cent mixture of oil of tar in cottonseed oil is safe. A half and half mixture of oil of tar and cottonseed oil when applied liberally with a spray pump and 50 per cent oil of tar in Beaufort oil applied with a brush are not safe; 10 per cent oil of tar in Beaufort oil is safe. When applied lightly it is necessary to apply 10 per cent oil of tar in cottonseed oil or 10 per cent oil of tar in Beaufort oil every day.

Elbing—An East Prussian seaport town, forty-nine miles by rail east of southeast of Danzig on the Elbing, a small river which flows into the Frische Hafl about five miles from the town. Its population is about 60,000. In 1698, and again in 1793, it was seized by the elector of Brandenburg as security for a debt. Charles XII. of Sweden held it for ransom and the Russians captured it in 1710. In 1772 it fell to Prussia through the first partition of Poland. At the great Schichau iron works in Elbing are built most of the torpedo boats and destroyers for the German navy as well as larger craft, locomotives and machinery. In addition Elbing has important iron foundries and manufactories of machinery, cigars, lacquer, and metal ware, flax and hemp yarn, cotton, linen and organs.

Inowrazlaw—A town in Prussia Posen in the most fertile part of the province, twenty-one miles southwest of Thorn and twelve miles from the Russian Poland boundary. Its population approximate 20,000 and its industries include iron founding and the manufacture of machinery and chemicals. Salt works and a sulphur mine are in the vicinity. The town passed to Prussia in 1772.

At The Theaters

The Gem.
Octavius, Amateur Detective is seen today in another of his highly interesting and ludicrous adventures. "The Adventure of the Absent Mind Professor." A Biograph drama. The "Cracksmen's Gratitude" and a Vitaphone special "The Moonstone of Fez" go to make up a very interesting program. The story of "The Moonstone of Fez" is as follows:
While touring Algiers, Mrs. Osborne and her daughter, Winnifred, make the acquaintance of Schulze, Van Norden, a young American business man. At the latter's home, Mrs. Osborne purchases "The Moonstone of Fez." On their way to their hotel, Winnifred and her mother are accosted by a beggar, who seizes Mrs. Osborne's hand and insists upon telling her fortune. The following night they retire to their adjoining rooms. In the morning, Winnifred is frightened to find her mother has mysteriously disappeared. When all the hotel attendants tell Winnifred she arrived at the hotel alone, proving it by the hotel register, the poor girl begins to fear she has lost her mother. In despair she writes to Van Norden for help. He learns, by investigating the beggar who annoyed Mrs. Osborne, had since died from the Black Plague. He examines the register closely and finds Winnifred's name has been erased. Following along a narrow street, Van Norden sees "The Moonstone of Fez" owned by Mrs. Osborne in a shop window. The shopkeeper confesses that a mail from the hotel had been sent to him. In a cross examination, the maid admits Mrs. Osborne died of the Black Plague, and fearing a panic in the hotel, the management had spirited away the body and denied her existence. The proprietor admits the truth, the guilty ones are punished, and the mystery explained. Van Norden and Winnifred immediately start for America to forestall the happiness of their future, the fearful incident of Algiers.

The Lamar Airsome.
A new vaudeville act is scheduled to open here tonight, the booking yet to be received. A Joker comedy, "The Woeful of Hecsy Bumskin" and "Circle 17" a tale of an Italian secret society, featuring Anna Little and Herbert Rawlinson are tonight's picture.
"Circle 17" draws a vivid picture of a famous Italian secret organization—tells of a gripping human interest story of love and adventure and intrigue. It was staged and directed by Otis Turner at the University of the Pacific coast. The Turner, who is a peer in the production of sensational, unusual dramas has put his best effort into this piece. It was written by Phil Walsh, who has written many Universal successes, and it has been interpreted by a splendid cast of players, headed by Mr. Rawlinson and Anna Little.

Prof. Bartoli has incurred the enmity of the society. With his daughter he flees to America. As they start to board the steamer, an agent of the society attacks Bartoli and would stab him, but for the timely interference of Capt. Rawdon, U. S. A. That is the beginning of a series of incidents strange, thrilling and interest sustaining. It is young Captain Rawdon who, in America, interferes in the plan of the black handers and saves, at the risk of his own life in a terrific fight in a river boat-house, Bartoli's daughter from an awful death.

The Empress.
A Marion Leonard feature in six parts comprises the program at the Empress. "The Light Unseen" is the love story of an artist's model. An artist well on the way to fame suddenly becomes blind. Being as yet poor, however, he is unable to raise funds for an operation. He has a pupil and omdel, a beautiful young woman who is secretly in love with him, and she determines to obtain the money. She visits a pawnshop, but is unable to secure a loan sufficiently large. She also tries roulette but loses her last dollar. Then an unexpected turn upsets the money within her reach. The old pawnbroker has a worthless son whom he desires to disinherit. In order to prevent his son from breaking the will, the father is advised to marry and leave his fortune to his wife. The old man becomes interested in the girl and offers to leave her his entire estate if she will marry him. She accepts for the sake of the man she loves. That night the old man dies. The girl gives the artist money for the operation on his eyes, telling him she borrowed it from a reliable source. When the pawnbroker's son learns of the disposition of his father's fortune he is furious. To get it back he forces his stepmother to marry him.
The next day the son tries out a new motor boat and is wrecked. He is supposed to have been drowned, but in reality is picked up by a ship bound for Africa. The girl next finds that her sacrifice is in vain, as the operation proved a failure and the artist is blind for life. Believing that her supposed husband is drowned, she marries the artist.
Many weeks later the pawnbroker's son returns, hunts up the girl and threatens to expose her unless she comes to him as his wife. He also insists on being given some of the money in the pawnbroker's safe. Thoroughly frightened, she accompanies him to the pawnshop. While his back is turned, she snies a revolver and a box of cartridges and decides to kill herself, but the cartridges don't fit the gun. She then decides that she must go home to get the combination of the safe. On her way she stops at a drug store to buy some poison, being still intent on suicide. Here she meets again the gambler who "married" her to the pawnbroker's son. He tells her that the ceremony was a fake and returns with her to confront the young villain. The latter kills him.

self and the girl, now free and rich, returns to a life of happiness with her blind artist.

The Victoria.
The Mutual Weekly, No. 51 takes you around the world and tells the events of the day in an interesting manner. "The Saving of Young Anderson" is a two reel Romance drama of the police force, showing the duties that beset a young man who gets on the force and finds that old associates expect him to let them down when they break the law. An heroic is saved through the initiative of his uncle, Francis Billington and Fred Kelsey are featured in this picture.

The Majestic.
"The Prospectors," a Biograph drama, a conventional story of mining life, with a pleasing amount of love interest and rival suitors, features the interesting and excellent work of Louise Yale. Anne Schaefer is featured in a two reel Vitaphone, "His Wife and His Work." The program is completed by "Slipper, Slim's Inheritance," a West Coast comedy, showing the fickleness of a woman and how a mere man outwitted one, featuring Victor Hotel, Slippery Slim, Margaret Joslin, Sophie Clitis, Harry Todd as Mustang Pete, Mustang Pete and Slippery Slim are in love with the fair Sophie. Slim borrows money from his sister, so that he may lay out gifts on the woman of his heart. Slim's sister is in love with Mustang, but he spurns her love. One day morning Slim receives a letter from an attorney to the effect that he has been left ten thousand dollars. This he shows to Sophie, but she is afraid to marry him for fear Mustang will do something desperate. Slim conceives the idea of leaving a note for Sophie in which he states that he is about to commit suicide and wants her to marry him before he dies, thereby gaining his fortune. Sophie rushes to his bedside where the marriage ceremony is performed. The discovery of Sophie's letter becomes furious when she discovers that her husband is very much alive and that the money was left to his sister. Mustang rushes to Slim's home only to discover that the deceitful one's wife has been married to another man.

An Irishman and a German, rehearsed an old tale from the Dallas Dispatch yesterday evening on Scott avenue and came very near starting a miniature Irish-German war right over here in America. Not long ago the Dispatch printed a story about a wealthy German who received a fake telegram asking him to get together fifty of his fellow citizens and go to Germany to help the cause over there. Later he received another telling him to get two Irishmen if he couldn't get fifty Germans. An Irishman, short of structure, stubby of beard and substantially built, told the tale to a German of like dimensions and the German's "Dutch" was aroused. He gave the native of Ireland to understand that he was an American, but positively would not stand for anything like that, and was going to back up his statement with his two fists when friends of the two separated them. Both were very surly over the affair.

BUBONIC PLAGUE RAVAGING TURKISH TROOPS IN ASIA

By Associated Press. London, Sept. 10.—A Central News Agency dispatch from Constantinople says Bubonic plague is causing severe ravages among the Turkish troops at Smyrna and other places.

LADIES FIRST

You have heard this expression many, many times. Not alone since the Titanic's fatal accident, but ever since you can remember. It is the ladies that start the largest per cent of the Civic Improvements. Ladies for the parks, for the children's playgrounds, for our churches and schools and for our own cemeteries. The last named would be sadly neglected indeed if it were not for the good women of this country. About one man in twenty cares anything about their beauty or upkeep. On the other hand a very small per cent of the plots are neglected if left to our good women. We are anxious to help you continue this good work.

$3,500 ALREADY SUBSCRIBED FOR COTTON WAREHOUSE

Consistent progress is being made in the raising of the capital stock for the cotton warehouse company, and a total of about $3,500 had been subscribed up to this afternoon. The committee has had little opportunity to work steadily, but a number of subscriptions have been taken, and it is hoped to complete the amount at an early date. No decision has yet been reached as to the site. A number of tracts in and near the city have been offered.

OUR WORK

Is the best advertisement we have and our service cannot be beaten. We do not allow your suit to stay in our shop any longer than it takes to get it ready to go back to you. If you have only one suit go to bed and phone for us, take a short nap and when you wake up your suit will be ready for you. We are strong on extravagant promises but if we say your suit will be back to you at six o'clock we don't mean ten minutes after six. See us about that fall suit.
