VILLA'S TELEGRAM SIGNED BY MANY

VILLAS CHIEFS, GENERALS AND MANY CITIZENS JOIN DE-MAND FOR ABDICATION

RECEIVED BY CARRANZA Press in Mexico City Silent Concerning Latest Development of Situation

By Associated Press.
Mexico City, Sept. 28.—Villa's telegram requesting Carranza to resign as supreme chief of the constitutionalists in favor of Fernando Calderon reached Carranza here last night. In addition to Villa it was signed by various Villa chiefs, fourteen generals, four colonels and several doctors, lawyers and prominent constitutionalists.

The press here is making no comment on the Villa-Carranza outbreak.
The following is the text of Villa's communication:

"I lament the circumstances which have brought about grave danger, but sincerely protest that my sole ambition will be to arrange existing differences without shedding blood, if possible. I emphatically state, however, that the only move which can bring about cessation of hostilities on my part is that Venustiano Carranza deliver supreme command to Fernando Iglesias Calderon so that in shortest possible time elections may be called. At the same time I declare that I shall not accept Carranza as president or vice president or president ad interim or constitutional of the Republic. I shall prove the rectitude of my intentions and the disinterestedness which animates the forces of this division. Later the world will realize where rests true disinterestedness and abortive ambitions."

SOLDIERS WOUNDS ARE BEING HEALED RAPIDLY

(Correspondence of Associated Press) London, Sept. 10.—The rapidity with which the wounds of soldier-are healed and the practical absence of blood poisoning cases, has been a surprise in view of the "deadly effectiveness" of the modern army weapons.

"The antiseptic treatment of wound-almost immediately after their inflict-ion has a great deal to do with the fact that cures are effected in such a short time as has been demonstrated in the London hospitals," said one of the physicians in attendance upon the wounded British soldiers.

"While surgery has made wonderful strides in the last decade, the results might have been different were it not that the antiseptic preventive measures have been applied with the utmost efficiency.

"Another very important reason lies in the fact that the bullet fired from a modern rifle travels with such velocity as to obviate the danger of a ragged wound and unless a vital organ lies in the path of it, the recovery presents no over-difficult problem."

ALBANIAN SENATE HAS ELECTED A NEW PRINCE

By Associated Press.
London, 2:23 p. m., Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says that a message received there from Durazzo, Albania, announces that the Albanian senate has elected Prince Burham Eddie, son of the former Sultan Alfred Hamid, prince of Albania to succeed Prince William of Wied who left his kingdom some days ago and subsequently renounced his throne taking refuge in Switzerland. The correspondent announces that Essad Pasha has arrived at Peldra and declares his intention of proceeding to Durazzo with 10,000 men.

NO SUPPORT HERE FOR BANK BILL

LOCAL BANKERS SEE NO MERIT IN COLQUITT'S LATEST
PANACEA

OPPOSITION IS OUTSPOKEN Bank Would Be Pickin' For Politicians But Disastrous to School Fund

Governor Colquitt's plan for a central state bank at Austin, for which a bill is now pending in the legislature, finds little favor among local bankers. State bankers here are outspoken in their opposition; national bankers are unanimously against it, but for obvious reasons would not be interviewed on the subject.

T. J. Taylor's View.
"If Governor Colquitt really wants to help the situation," said T. J. Taylor, cashier of the First State Bank & Trust Company, "let him approve the bill the legislature passed recently, cutting state bank reserves from twenty-five to fifteen per cent and providing for two examinations a year instead of four. I have heard that he will veto this bill because it would encourage state banks to enter the federal reserve system when he wants them to come into his scheme. It would be a great help to present conditions if he would approve it."

"There is no necessity for a central bank and it would do nothing that would not be done under the federal reserve system which the state banks can join and which many of them will join if the recently passed law is approved. I believe if the central bank bill is passed, it will result in many state banks surrendering their state charters and incorporating under the national bank act. Again, I don't like the idea of taking charges with the school fund; that money is now yielding eight dollars per capita for the school children and there's no necessity for risking it on such a scheme as this. The state might organize such a bank and it may pay, on the other hand, it would be politics and run the risk of getting into the hands of crooks or incompetents."

Mr. Ferguson's Views.
W. R. Ferguson, president of the Wichita State Bank, also voiced his opposition to the measure.

"I don't consider it practical," said Mr. Ferguson, "I really haven't paid a great deal of attention to it, because I've looked on it just as an optical scheme. I can't see where such a bank would serve any good purpose. The idea that all state banks should keep their reserves in the state may be good in principle, but we have to keep money in New York and other places in the East to serve our customers and we couldn't keep all our reserves at Austin."

Mr. Ferguson said that the bill recently passed, if approved, would give considerable relief. It had always been considered unjust he said, for state banks to have to have a reserve fund of twenty-five per cent, while national banks were required to hold only twelve per cent.

SENATOR REED ATTACKS CLAYTON TRUST BILL

By Associated Press.
Washington, Sept. 28.—Senator Reed opened his attack on the Clayton anti-trust bill conference report in the senate this afternoon. He said the bill should be entitled "an act to apologize to unlawful restraints and monopolies." He assailed the elimination of specific penalties for exclusive contracts and the deletion of his amendments for using courts to sell property of convicted corporations.

"If the allies," declared Senator Reed, "had attempted to stop the Germans with dough bullets the Kaiser would have taken Paris in twenty-four hours. So far as its anti-trust features are concerned, Rockefeller, like another Richard, now can declare snow is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer by these conferences."

GERMANS SAY FRENCH ADMIT POSSESSION DUM DUM BULLETS

Berlin, Sept. 28.—The French government according to an official announcement here has admitted the possession of dum dum bullets, but explains they were made only for "shooting societies."

VIOLENT FIGHTING AROUND ANTWERP

AT HOFSTADT GERMAN HEAVY ARTILLERY SUNK IN THE MUD

LIERGE NOW BEING FORTIFIED At Several Points Belgians Have Blown Up Bridges and Destroyed Railways

By Associated Press.
Paris, Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Petit Persien from Amsterdam says violent fighting has occurred between the Belgians and Germans, four miles east of Antwerp, and at Termonde, sixteen miles east of Ghent, and at Hofstadt, 18 miles east of Ghent. In the latter locality the heavy German artillery became sunk in the mud and the Germans were obliged to retreat.
It is confirmed that the Germans are fortifying Liège.

BELGIANS BLOW UP VIADUCT CUTTING OFF RAILWAYS

By Associated Press.
London, Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Blankenberge, Belgium under Sunday's date says the Belgians have blown up the viaduct at Bierghes thus cutting railway communication between Mons and Brussels.

BANK BILL LOSES THROUGH DELAY

OPponents SAY IT LOOKS DIF-FERENT TO SOME ON SEC-OND THOUGHT

NO QUORUM AT CAPITAL

House Banking Committee Not Likely To Make Favorable Report On Bill

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Sept. 28.—Neither House of the legislature had a quorum this morning and the House adjourned until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the Senate until ten o'clock tomorrow morning. On motion of Representative Tillotson the House went under call and the ser-jeant at arms was directed to telegraph absentees to come at once.
The Senate took similar action. It was believed both bodies will have quorums tomorrow.

The House committee on banks and banking was to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon to consider the bank of Texas bill. Should a quorum of the committee be present the program is to consider this bill two or three days. Indications point to an adverse report but with a favorable minority report. Senate judiciary committee No. 1 was unable to consider the measure today for lack of a quorum as the entire membership of the Senate have been added to this committee. After brief consideration by the committee the plans seem to be now to report the bill back with a favorable report and fight it out on the floor. Opponents of the bill say that the delay is causing the bill to lose support.

HOLIDAY CITIZEN IS STRICKEN IN KANSAS

J. A. Lowery Succumbs To An Attack of Paralysis—Body Brought Home

The body of J. A. Lowery, well known resident of the Holliday neighborhood, who died last Friday in Kansas, reached Wichita Falls this afternoon and was sent at once to Holliday where the funeral took place this afternoon. Mr. Lowery was in Kansas with a threatening outfit when he was stricken with paralysis, which proved fatal. He had resided at Holliday for many years, being one of the pioneers of that section, and news of his death will be received with regret by friends throughout Northwest Texas. Surviving are three sons, Bert, Vance and Roger, and two daughters, Mrs. George Thorburn of this city and Mrs. Herbert Perkins of Petrolia. Mr. Lowery was about sixty years old.

28.—The correspondent of Giornale D'Italia, who has entered Pola, the great naval port and arsenal of Austria reports that all the woods around the harbor have been burned, country houses and villages have been painted gray and entrenchments dug and traps laid. He estimates the troops centered at Pola total 300,000.

GERMAN RETREAT IN RUSSIAN POLAND

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS REPORTS SUCCESSSES BOTH IN NORTH AND GALICIA

RETIREATING TO CRACOW Austrians Abandon Many Guns and Trucks in Their Flight Westward

By Associated Press.
Petrograd, Sept. 28.—The following official dispatch has been received from the staff of Grand Duke Nicholas in command of the Russian field forces:

"An engagement near Sopotkin on the Nieman River in Russian Poland and Drusienka came to an end with the retreat of the Germans.
The enemy had approached Osowetz from the north and had begun the bombardment of the fortresses.

"In Galicia we have occupied Emble on the railroad, 65 miles east of Cracow and between Rzeszus and Tarnow. A numerous column of the enemy in retreating from Przemysl in the direction of Saneck, 30 miles southwest of Jaroslav in their flight abandoned many guns and motor carriages.

"At Clujok we defeated a detachment of the enemy and captured a number of prisoners. Continuing the pursuit our troops entered Hungary."

JOHN BULL IS TAKING THE WAR STOLIDLY

London, Sept. 15.—(By mail)—No contrast between English and foreign ways has so impressed American tourists as the reception of the recruits here during war time. An idle crowd stands during the day around the recruiting stations watching the applicants. At evening when the newly enlisted men march out in a column of fours with some attempt at military swing, singing or whistling, "it's a long, long way to Tipperary," reads pop out of windows and crowds gather on the curbs, but there is seldom more than faint cheering if any at all. There is none of the running up to hand the new tobacco, fruit or flowers, common to more emotional peoples.

Once in the forces, the recruits who are mostly youths, may be seen marching to the parks for drill, but even then they are watched only by voiceless idlers. The last seen of them in London is on the platform of one of the great railway stations to be sent to some unknown where generally they depart in the night.

There is something grim and impersonal about the English way of taking the war. But the American cannot turn on a London street without meeting an extended hand for some fund to benefit the soldier.
"Tommy Atkins" is not made much of individually, but collectively his comforts are all looked after, even the question of tobacco in the firing line.

18 CARLOADS OF HORSES FOR CANADIAN GOVERNMENT carloads of horses passed through their way to Detroit supposedly for the immediate delivery to the Canadian government.

LEAF AND ARMY WORM DAMAGE COTTON GREATLY

Lockhart, Texas, Sept. 28.—Receipts ported at 10,000 bales or more less than last year. Leaf and army worms are said to have caused the shortage.

Beachey Startles Capital With Sensational Stunts

By Associated Press.
Washington, Sept. 28.—Lincoln Beachey, in an aeroplane looped the loop four times above the National capitol while President Wilson watched the performance from a White House window. The aviator then made such an abrupt landing on the Potomac river that observers in the Arlington radio station reported that he had fallen. Beachey then finished the performance by turning two loops over the White House and more loops over the business section of the city while thousands watched in amazement.

BATTLE ISSUE CANNOT MUCH LONGER BE DELAYED GERMANS USE BAYONETS

By Associated Press.
Paris, Sept. 28.—The prolongation of the struggle on the two battle lines in France must have become insufferable to the Germans since reports from the front indicate that they have resorted to bayonet fighting.
The opinion is expressed here that General Joffre's master hand is shown in this as it is believed he has succeeded in pushing his lines inside the range of the deadly German guns and forced the enemy to hand and hand fighting.

Since the attacks have been repulsed, according to official reports, military experts here cannot see now what resources the German general can call upon to hold their positions in France.

The Matin expresses the opinion that the new troops the allies found fronting them on the left wing but were part of the forces sent to East Prussia several weeks ago but now brought back to face a more pressing need.

The general opinion is that the battle has reached a critical point and that the issue cannot be delayed much longer. Losses in the last few days on both sides are said to have been enormous.

Hour Near At Hand For Death Grapple On Russo-German Front

Violent attacks are being delivered by the Germans against the lines of the allies between the districts of the Aisne and Argonne, says the official French statement issued at Paris this afternoon. Thus far, according to the statement, these onslaughts have been repulsed. The official announcement is brief. The French war office contenting itself with the added remark that there is nothing new otherwise in the general situation.

The war is costing Germany it is stated $5,000,000 a day. The war loan has proven a success and with the various resources from which the government can derive the war revenue it is stated, to continue the struggle a year with the money now in sight.

A dispatch from Rome says that 300,000 men have been assembled at Pola, the great naval port of Austria, and that thorough preparations have been made against an attack from the sea.

The hour for the battle which will be determined whether the Russians will make their proposed invasion of Germany with Berlin as their final objective is believed near at hand. Official and unofficial advices indicate a struggle in Russian Poland rivaling in desperation and possibly in the numbers engaged in the battles of the Marne and Aisne. The main body of the Russians is moving toward the Posen frontier. On its right wing another army is supposed to be attempting to protect the larger body by stemming the rush southward of the German forces that drove the Russian invaders from East Prussia and now seeks to halt the westward movement.

At the same time the Russian army in Galicia is pushing its successes against the Austrians and moving westward with the expectation of meeting the combined Austrian and German forces concentrating at Cracow on the Galician frontier in a battle that, if successful, will complete their campaign in Galicia. The Germans are reported in strong force on the line from Kalisz to Cracow where they are said to be entrenched.
There is every reason to believe that the real test of the Russian aggressive strength will not be long delayed.

Again the report that the Russians have crossed the Carpathian range and entered Hungary capturing Ucek is repeated. Ucek lies in a line extending from Lemberg, the capital of Galicia southwest to Budapest. There is nothing to indicate that the Russian diversion into Hungary is a very important factor in their strategy.
Earlier reports that the Russians in Galicia had occupied a part of Przemysl on their march to Cracow have not been confirmed.

In the Far East the Japanese and British attack on Kiao Chow, the German leased possession in China, moves slowly. A battle between the land forces has been fought in the outskirts of Taing Tzu, the seat of government of Kia Chow. Tokio claims a victory in the engagement which does not appear to have been on a very great scale. German reports say that their forces fell back to their first line of defenses around Taing Tau.

Occasional fighting continues in Belgium. Amsterdam reports a sharp encounter between the Germans and Belgians east of Antwerp. How it resulted is not known.

There has been a distinct falling off of all war news coming from the capitals of the belligerents or which must pass through these capitals in reaching the United States. The censors at London has been made more strict evidently in the interest of British strategy and this action has been reflected at Paris in abbreviated reports, official and unofficial.
From the start the censorship at Berlin has been rigid. At the present moment the absence of detailed reports from the battle lines seems to indicate that momentous events are transpiring.

G. O. P. AND DEMOCRACY ALLIED WITH LIQUOR

Col. Roosevelt Emphasizes Prohibition Issue in Speech at Cleveland, Ohio

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, Sept. 28.—Endorsing the entire Progressive ticket in Ohio and asserting that the Democratic party is either openly or covertly supporting the liquor interest while the Republican party is straddling the question yet at the same time supporting it, Theodore Roosevelt addressed a meeting of the members of the City Club and their guests here today. He exhorted his hearers to join the Progressives in an effort to throttle this evil.

Col. Roosevelt said that if Ohio followed the example of Illinois and adopted woman's suffrage civilization might move eastward until eventually it reached New York.

The School Savings Department Will be Opened the First Monday in October

There was so much interest manifested the short time it run last year, by the children, that the teachers and the bank feel amply repaid for their extra trouble and expense, in trying to teach the children, as we think one of the most important lessons to be learned—THAT OF SAVING—AND WHAT SYSTEMATIC SAVING WILL DO.

This department was introduced and run less than three months last year and at the close of school there were 388 children depositing with their teachers and had a total deposit of $1092.42. This we consider a very fine showing.

For further information as to prizes, etc., call the bank or your teacher.

GERMAN SCHOLARS CRITICIZE ENGLAND

EXPATRIATED ENGLISHMAN DE-CLARES ENGLAND RESON-SIBLE FOR WAR

OTHERS SIGN DECLARATION

"Contemptible Envy of Economic Successes" They Declare Cause of War

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Sept. 10.—Houston Stewart Chamberlain, the well known English author, who married a daughter of Richard Wagner, and who has lived many years in Germany and Austria, is deeply disappointed with England because of its declaration of war upon Germany. In a letter which has appeared in the German press he says he holds England chiefly responsible "for the terrible disaster that has broken upon Europe," and he can only explain the action of England by assuming that it has been spinned with blindness. In answer to a correspondent who had suggested that he write a protest against England's course and have it published in England, he further wrote: "The moment for such a protest has not yet arrived. The English must first bear the consequences of their disgusting course in the form of heavy blows; after that they can be reasoned with. May God protect the glorious cause of the Germans; there is no other hope for the future of the human race."

German professors and men of science have made a strong protest against England's course by renouncing all the honorary degrees, titles and other marks of distinction conferred upon them by English universities, academies and other bodies of English scholars. They have published a declaration on the subject as follows: "England has declared war upon us under a hollow pretext which is least of all justified in view of English history, and the true character of which is laid bare by numerous documents. Although England is related to us by blood and race, it has, out of a contemptible envy of Germany's economic success, incited other peoples against us for years; and, in particular, it has allied itself with France and Russia to crush us as a world power and to endanger our cultural achievements. It was only because they were able to reckon upon England's co-operation that Russia, France, Belgium and Japan threw down to us the gauntlet of war. England bears, foremost of all, the moral responsibility for this conflagration of the nations, which will result in a frightful suffering for millions of men and will demand unheard of sacrifices of blood and treasure. England's brutal selfishness has placed an indelible blot upon its name. We are well aware that very eminent English scholars, with whom German men of science have for years been in friendly and fruitful relations, were opposed to this war, so wantonly begun, and spoke against it. "Nevertheless, those of us who have received marks of distinction from English universities, academies and societies of scholars do renounce, as a matter of national feeling, all such honors and the rights attached to them."

This declaration was published with some thirty signatures, and other signatures are coming in daily. Among the signers are many men with world wide reputation. They include such medical men as Von Behring of Marburg, Paul Ehrlich of Frankfurt, Czer and Otto Schjerning of the General Staff of the Army; philosophers like Rodolf Eucken of Jena and Wilhelm Haeckel of Jena; sociologists like Freilburg; law professors like Paul Laband of Strasburg; Josef Kohler and Franz von Liszt; the political economist Adolf Wagner of Berlin; and Jakob Riesser, the specialist, in the science of banking; the composer Humperdinck; and the painters, Von Werner and Liebermann.

The cotton business is of secondary interest to R. D. Harvey today, as a result of the arrival at his home last night of a nine pound boy.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together. My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sidesache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling? If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century. Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

COTTON MASS MEETING CALLED FOR SATURDAY

Merchants, Business Men and Farmers Will Discuss Cotton Situation

A call for a mass meeting next Saturday afternoon to discuss the cotton situation has been issued, signed by President McConkey of the Farmers' Union, President Huff of the Chamber of Commerce and President Pennington of the Retail Merchants' Association. The meeting will be held at the four o'clock house.

The purpose of the meeting is to line up those having cotton with a view to securing more general holding of the stable, and also to renew interest in the buy a bale movement. Wichita Falls is the only point in this section that now has storage facilities, and while plans for warehouses have been formulated at other points, nothing further has been done. With cotton in the warehouses, farmers can borrow money on it to meet their obligations and it is hoped to be able to show to the farmers how their own interests can best be served by not selling the cotton at the present time.

EUROPEAN WAR THEME AT MEETING OF FORUM

The war in Europe will be the theme of tonight's session of the Young Men's Forum at the city hall at 8 o'clock and several short talks on features of the European situation will constitute the program. It is hoped at this meeting to enlist a number of new members, and have been asked to join, so that the work of the organization may be carried forward this fall and winter on a larger scale.

Those on tonight's program are Wiley Fuller, Charles Crowell and P. J. Settle and their subjects will relate to the present war. After tonight's meeting, it is expected that a debate on some timely subject will be a regular feature of the program.

MOTHERS MEET TO SELECT COSTUMES TOMORROW

The mothers of the children who are to take part in the "baby opera" to be presented at the Wichita Theatre next Friday under the auspices of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd, are to meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the P. B. M'Company's store to select costumes for the little ones.

About 200 children are to take part in the entertainment, which will consist of selections from well known operas. Rehearsals are being held daily at 2:30 in the afternoon and the youthful stars are getting into excellent trim for their performance which promises to be one of the most enjoyable and novel this city has witnessed in some time.

PRZEMYSL ENTERED BY COSSACKS IS REPORT

Cossack Officer Says People Received Them With Great Rejoicing

By Associated Press. London, Sept. 28.—A Petrograd dispatch to the News quotes a Cossack officer as describing the entry into Przemysl. The dispatch says:

"Our turn came," says the officer, "when the Austrians began to give way before our infantry. Then we were let loose. We soon converted the retreat of some of the Austrians into a rout. As we rode down upon them we heard men cry out in terror, the Cossacks, the Cossacks. The Hungarian cavalry were brave horsemen and attempted to stop us but we swept them aside like chaff. The Hungarians cannot put the force into their charges. When the Cossacks charge we throw into our blows the whole weight of the horses. The same morning the Cossacks rode into the town. Everywhere we were received gladly and no shots were fired. Church bells rang and priests came out and blessed us."

MORE GERMAN BOMBS DROPPED INTO PARIS

Buildings Damaged and Man and His Daughter Are Blown to Death

Paris, Sept. 28.—Four bombs were dropped on Paris from a German aeroplane Sunday. One missile exploded in Avenue Du Trocadero and blew the head from the shoulders of a man standing on a corner with his laughter. The child was wounded. The other bombs did little damage.

Crowds, taking advantage of the beautiful autumn day, were promenading on the banks of the Seine when the aerial warbler appeared almost directly over the Eiffel tower. It is believed the first bomb dropped was intended for the wireless station on the tower or possibly for a nearby building containing army stores. It landed in Avenue Du Trocadero, no far from the tower and the explosion was heard for many blocks. Houses in the vicinity were badly damaged. The bomb struck only a block from the American embassy at No. 45 Rue De Chailiot, where Ambassador M. T. Herrick, who did not accompany the government to Bordeaux, still makes his home.

Rush to Shelter.
In the wake of the bomb fluttered a German flag. At the sound of the explosion the promenaders first rushed for shelter and then, as the airship moved on, hurried to the scene of the havoc.

A cordon of police was thrown about the debris and the mangled body of the man was found and removed. Near his body the girl was discovered.

Among the houses damaged was the residence of the prince of Monaco. The building containing army stores suffered considerably. At the time of the attack services were being conducted in the American Holy Trinity church in Avenue De L'Alma. Many of the congregation fled to the street.

How To Clean Silk Cords.

The silk cords with the tasseled ends, popular for use with the limerick collar, often become dingy and need cleansing. They are made to look quite like new by carefully washing them in a lather of white soap. Make the soapsuds with tepid water and immerse the silk cord, rushing it gently with a very soft brush. A toothbrush is nice for the purpose. After washing, rinse the cord well and brush out the tasseled ends carefully. A pretty conceit is to wrap these silk cords around the ear of a sachet, and they will be quite fragrant when wanted for wear.

STRATEGIC ADVANTAGE OF THE KIEL CANAL

The great importance of the Kiel Canal in the present struggle of Germany against the combined forces of the triple entente has been largely overlooked, but is a matter that is liable to become very apparent at any moment. An expert in naval matters writing in the special war number of the Scientific American of September brings out some of the vital features of the situation as affected by the canal.

Another and most important strategic advantage in the German alliance is the Kaiser Wilhelm Canal, which affords quick passage for the latest battleships from the Baltic to the North Sea. This canal practically cuts the British fighting line in half. It was built for this very purpose.

For if the British force their way into the Baltic, the German fleet could pass to the North Sea through the canal and the Elbe, slugging to the English Channel, sink the vast fleet of transports that are carrying men and supplies to the English army in Belgium, and harry the whole English and French coasts. Hence, in seeking to bring the German fleet to action, it would be necessary for England to leave half her fleet at the mouth of the Elbe and send the other half against Denmark into the Baltic. This would mean that so far as her dreadnought strength is concerned, Germany could elect to fight either fleet under equal conditions.

The only other way to get at the Germans would be to reduce the coast fortifications with an expeditionary army. But the German coast on the North Sea is so shoal that the land-

THE TIMES PUBLISHING CO., ED. HOWARD, Manager.

Hon. James E. Ferguson, who is to be our next Governor, has finally decided to oppose Governor Colquitt's central State bank. That is, if we understand him correctly, he is opposed to establishing the State bank on the plan outlined by Governor Colquitt, which is to use the State school fund as the principal and controlling stockholder. In a press dispatch from Temple, Mr. Ferguson says on this subject:

"I have no objection to the consideration of legislation of the proper time regarding the advisability of incorporating a large State bank with necessary and proper limitations, provided the capital of such bank is not obtained by using the State school fund securities. I strongly oppose the investment of the fund which the fathers of this State so wisely provided for the education of the children who should come after them in any other manner than is provided. I would rather any time acquire the temporary trouble of low-priced cotton than to take the risk of permanent misfortune of not being able to educate the boys and girls of Texas."

We have heard of one ranchman who sold 100 calves for $2,500 and before he could deliver them, he had another offer of $2,000 for them. Silos and stockraising will solve the matter of getting a good price for cotton. The tenant system in the South is against stockraising. Haskell Free Press. That's twenty-five dollars per head for calves. This year Texas, and particularly this part of Texas, has produced the greatest feed crop in the history of the country. The truth of the matter is this: There is more feed than there are stock to feed it. There will be no real need to raise cotton next year. Farmers generally recognize the true condition of affairs, and the acreage to cotton in this section of the State is not likely to be more than half what it was this year.

My ambition will be to change existing conditions without the shedding of blood, if possible," says that tender hearted patriot, General Pancho Villa, in his reply to messages from Mexico City appealing to him to forget his difference with Carranza and join in the establishment of stable government in Mexico. Ah, Villa, it seems that you, too, have fallen victim of the seductions of diplomatic intercourse. What Villa really means and the message doubtless he would have sent a short while ago would have been something like this: "Venustiano Carranza, Usurper and Oppressor, Warning: I demand all the money in the treasury, all the concessions in the Republic and all the guns in the capital. Get out! I am coming Pancho Villa, Liberator."

Texas already has a splendid law for the establishing and governing of State banks—perhaps the best of any State in the Union—and while some few State banks have failed, the depositors of the State banks have never lost one cent. And it is not likely that they ever will, unless the present proposed plan to establish a central State bank that will force all the State banks to become stockholders and operate in such a way as to interfere with and greatly weaken the present law, and in the event the legislature should act favorably on Governor Colquitt's proposition, many of the State banks will lose no time in changing from State to National banks, for the reason they have little confidence that a bank with a great capital funded and managed by politicians instead of business men can be made to succeed.

MESSAGE TO VILLA.

We are sorry, Pancho, that you have felt it incumbent on you to again take up arms against what seems to be the constitutional authority. True, the many of us who wisher may be grieved, but not as much as you are, for you are not only at fault in his treatment of you and your men. We can't say as to that. But a recognition of Carranza as provisional president seems the one way to bring about peace in your storm tossed country. Of course, a restoration of peace won't amount to much under the conditions which formerly prevailed. But we take it that any unjust laws will be repealed, so permit the people to work out their own salvation. And that will require time, Pancho. You can't hope to attain the heights in a day. Some real statesmen are needed down there in City—men who can make provision for the little red schoolhouse on practically every hill from Colorado Island in the Pacific to Hobbox Island in the Gulf of Mexico. But you will not get these, Pancho, by the use of the sword. We have been banking on you, Pancho. When others have been your detractors, we have regarded you as the forerunner of that perfect liberty to which all men are entitled. That's why we are somewhat sick of heart at this latest revolt; it seems to deny a place of rest for the weary dove of peace. Come out of it, Pancho, and assist in the establishment of a stable form of government, trusting to the consent of once the part of your countrymen for that justice which alone makes for freedom.—Waco Times-Herald.

NO TIME FOR INTERMEDDLING.

(Philadelphia Record.) No one would wish to speak unkindly of the many persons—chiefly women, who are demanding political power—who are trying to coax or tease the President into some sort of action, no one knows just what, that is expected to induce the war dogs to let go of each other. The time is not opportune. The President has already done all that he can do with propriety and with the slightest prospect of success. The replies he received from Europe were not encouraging, and he can not and ought not to do anything more until one side or the other is in a more tractable state of mind.

There is a notion that Mr. Roosevelt induced Russia and Japan to stop fighting. Of course, he could not have done anything of the kind. When they had fought each other to a standstill they were willing to communicate with each other through the government of the United States, with a view to a suspension of hostilities. The Europeans and the Asiatics are not different from ourselves. When we were on the point of taking Spain the ambassadors of five countries offered to mediate, and President McKinley refused to receive them, collectively; he would be happy to have a social call from each of them singly. The British ambassador did not join in that, and it was regarded by us as a friendly act on the part of England. Fifty years ago England and France were very anxious to mediate between the United States and the Confederate States. We resented it. We fought not for four weeks, or four months, but for four years, to a finish, and this is a war to a finish.

Some persons say they do not know what the war is about, and others think it is over some trivial thing that ought to be arranged by half a dozen gentlemen if they could be got together, and to more it is simply a horror that there must be some way of stopping. The issues are not obscure or trivial. The English believe that their existence as a colonial and maritime empire is at stake. The French know that their existence as a Great Power is at stake. The Germans have been declaring for many years that France had got to be effaced from the list of Great Powers, and the British maritime power had got to be broken or the expansion to which the German Empire was destined would be impossible, and for forty years the Germans have believed that upon them rested the duty of saving the rest of the world from Russia. The war has been expected for many years; no one pretended to fix a date for it, but some of the German writers came remarkably close in their approximations.

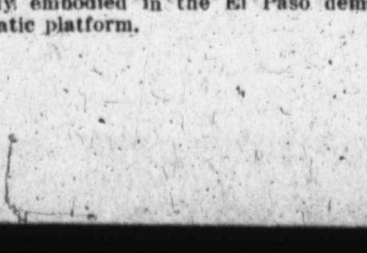

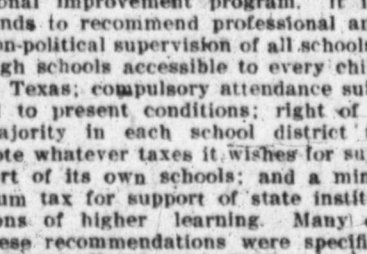

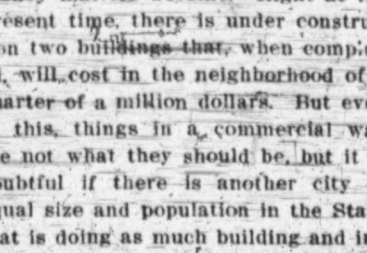

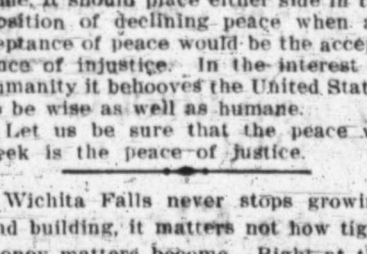

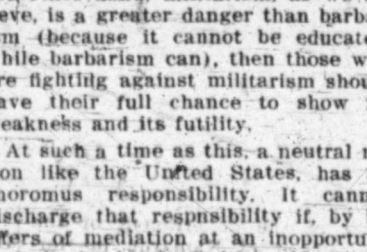

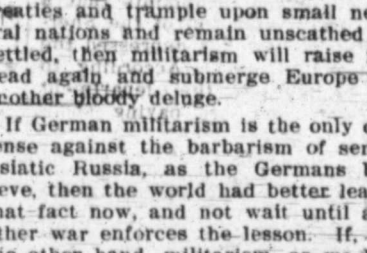

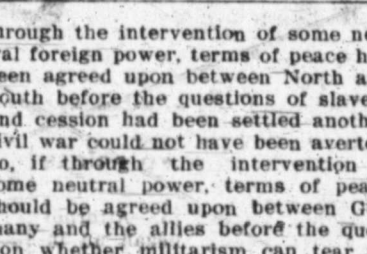

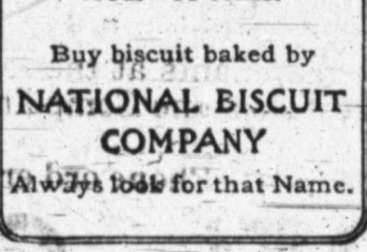

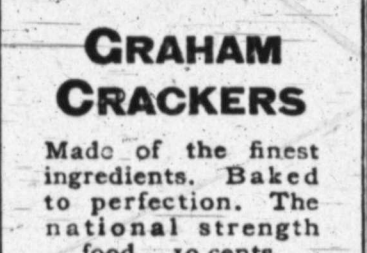

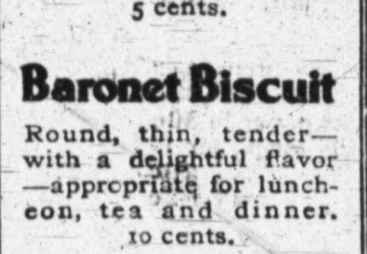

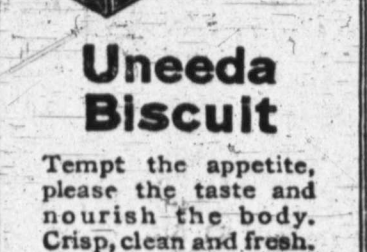

There are the two mighty forces of Pan-Slavism and Pan-Germanism—a struggle for existence, complicated by the fact that England and France recognize that their existence as Great Powers is at stake, and they believe that Pan-Germanism is more dangerous to them than Pan-Slavism. These being the convictions of powerful nations, from sovereign to subject, it is idle to talk of mediation until one side or the other recognizes the struggle is hopeless and it must make the best terms it can get. At the first indication of that condition the President and the United States will be only too glad to contribute to prevent the further effusion of blood. When the war ends it must be so that there will be an assurance of the world's peace for a century.

PEACE—OR JUSTICE.

(The Outlook.) When peace comes at the end of this war, is it to be a lasting peace or merely an armistice?

This is the question which should concern the world. No negotiations for peace will be of service that will tend to emphasize compromise and to subvert justice. It is reported that an inquiry has been sent from this country to the German Emperor as to whether he would be willing to discuss terms of peace. A similar inquiry, it is also reported, has been made to the British government. It is hardly necessary to caution our readers with regard to reports of this sort. It is as futile to conduct diplomatic negotiations by newspaper reports as it is to try a suit at law by newspaper editorials. In the one case, as in the other, it is easy for the reader to jump at wrong conclusions through inadequate knowledge of the facts.

Such reports, moreover, do considerable damage by awakening false hopes. With every day of this war it is natural that desire for its end should grow to be a sham peace. The neutral nations of the earth can inflict on Europe no injury comparable to that which would result in bringing an end merely to armed hostilities without bringing to an end to the cause of those hostilities. Horrible as the present carnage is, there is one thing that would be still more horrible—a renewal of the carnage on a greater scale. An armed armistice, under the guise of peace, without a settlement of the issues that caused the war would invite a renewal of the carnage as soon as either side could renew its strength. This war is a conflict between two irreconcilable ideals, in which respect it is like our own Civil War. If

GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY'S WAR PRIMER

Agram (Zagreb)—The capital of Croatia-Slavonia, Hungary, on the River Save, 187 miles by rail south of Vienna. It had a population of 75,000 in 1910. Tobacco, linen, carpets, leather and war-material are manufactured in Agram and a brisk trade is carried on in grain, wines, potato, honey, silk and porcelain. The city is divided into three sections, two of them, the Kapitel-Stadt and the Upper Town, having been bitter rivals for centuries, until the aggressions of the Turks forced them to forget their feud and combine for mutual protection. Earthquakes did considerable damage to the town in 1880 and 1901.

Tomovar—A Hungarian city on the River Bege, 188 miles southeast of Budapest by rail and 68 miles from the Serbian border, consisting of an inner town, formerly strongly fortified, and four suburbs. In 1910 it had 72,555 inhabitants. The most important center of commerce and industry of south Hungary; there are trades in grain, flour, spirits and horses and manufactures tobacco, cloth, matches, leather, beer and spirits. In 1514 the peasant leader, Stephan Dozsa, was defeated by the Transylvanian, John Zapolya, near here, captured and executed. The town was captured after a heroic struggle by the Turks in 1553 and remained in their hands until 1716, when it was liberated by Prince Eugene of Savoy. It successfully resisted the attacks of a Hungarian revolutionary army in 1849.

Wieliczka—A town of Galicia, Austria, eight and a half miles southeast of Cracow, and ten miles from the Russian Poland border, with a population of about 10,000. It is famous for its salt mines, which employ from 1,500 to 2,000 people. The mines descend to a depth exceeding 1,000 feet, are about three miles in length and 1,500 yards wide. The different levels are connected by flights of steps and are pierced by a labyrinth of passages, the aggregate length of which is about 100 miles. The mines contain two ponds which have boats upon them. Many of the gilded chambers, some of which are from 100 to 120 feet in height, are employed as magazines and some of them are embellished with candelabra, etc., hewn in rock salt. There are several chapels with altars, statues and other ornaments in rock salt.

Kosciusko Hill—A mound of earth, 65 feet in height, two and a half miles to the west of the center of old Cracow. It was thrown up in 1820-25 by the united efforts of the whole population of Cracow in honor of the Polish hero of that name. Since 1855, it has been converted into a fort from the many towers of which a fine view of Cracow, the Vistula River, and the many neighboring peaks of the Beskid mountain range may be had.

Horzadz—A village in Bosnia, Austria, on both sides of the Drina, not far from the Montenegrin border. The town has about 2,500 inhabitants, most of whom are interested in fruit culture. A school teaching the science of orchard cultivation is located here. The valley is dotted with numerous tobacco plantations.

Bielsk—A town of Russia, 90 miles north of east of Warsaw, and 100 miles from East Prussia, on the Bellanka River. In the 13th century it was razed to the ground. Later, it was frequently attacked by the Tartars and the Teutonic Knights. The wars of Poland with Russia and Sweden caused the town to decline in the 17th century, and in 1664 it was burnt and sacked. The northern war and the plague of 1710 finally devastated the "Bielsk Country." Under the second partition of Poland the town was acquired by Prussia, but was allotted to Russia in 1807. On the Castle Hill are the ruins of a castle, destroyed by lightning in 1563 in which the kings of Poland stayed when hunting the wild ox, supposed to be the original stock of our domestic cattle. Many wild boars are sold at the eight fairs held there annually.

Augustow—A town of Russian Poland, ten miles from the border of East Prussia and 20 miles south of Suwalki, with a population of about 12,000. It is on the Netta River, which, connected with the Niemen by a canal, affords water communication with the Baltic. The town was founded in 1547. It is famous for its cattle and horse fairs, its horses, mostly of the Lithuanian breed, possessing great endurance.

Belostok—A Russian town, 119 miles by rail northwest of Warsaw and 42 miles from the East Prussian frontier, with a population of about 65,000. Originally part of the kingdom of Poland, it was transferred to Russia at the partition of 1795. Napoleon ceded it to Russia by the Treaty of Tilsit in 1807. The city has numerous large cloth mills. It boasts of its magnificent chateau, in Italian style and once known as the Versailles of Poland, which formerly belonged to John II (Casimir).

Ratow—One of the best built provincial towns of Russian Poland, 65 miles south of Warsaw, at a point halfway between that city and the Austrian frontier. Its population is about 32,000 and it has iron and agricultural machine works and tanneries. It occupied the site of what is now Old Radom in 1216, New Radom being founded in 1340 by Casimir the Great, king of Poland. Here Jadwiga was elected queen of Poland in 1382. Several great fires and especially the Swedish war of 1707 were the ruin of the old city. It was annexed to Russia in 1815.

raising an interesting question in discussing smokeless powder, when he pointed out that the European conflict might be limited on account of the combatants running out of smokeless powder. "It is because smokeless powder is difficult to make that the supply may not be able to keep pace with unprecedented demand," said Mr. Franklin. He pointed to the reports from Northeastern France which told of constant firing as the allies and Germans faced each other in their trenches. "Smokeless powder principally is gun cotton mixed with cellulose nitrate acid of a certain strength," the powder house representative said, "but it is exceedingly difficult to make, and exceedingly dangerous to handle."

BUSINESS SECURITY.

Stagnation in All Countries, Not Lacking This Security.
One of the most important questions of the day relates to the extent to which a government should interfere in the affairs of business. The successful man has always had to run the risk of attack. Safety from unreasonable interference by government or attack by others leads the ambitious man on to his greatest exertions. In some countries, as in parts of Asia, government capacity has made it dangerous for a man to acquire anything beyond his bare necessities. In such a society, nothing but poverty and business stagnation can exist. Governmental intervention in the affairs of business should extend only over such things as are necessary for fair publicity and truthful statements. Under such a government, business security is at its best. Individuality and initiative are encouraged, the country is progressive, and its future prosperity is well guarded. But as soon as legislation begins to deprive the producer of a square deal, or where business is "regulated" by people without this experience and necessary training, business security will be transferred into business depression. A government should be limited to its natural functions of just and reasonable legislation for the greatest good of the greatest number of people, and should never allow itself to be "caught" or to secure campaign contributions.

In addition to Certain-teed Roofing, we also manufacture a complete line of lower priced roofing, building papers, shingles, sheathing, carpenter linings, etc., put up in standard-sized rolls, packages and weights. They are accepted as standard by leading architects and engineers. Your local dealer will be pleased to give you full information about our goods and will quote you reasonable prices. A man who falls in business and who owns an automobile is not required to list the machine among his assets, according to a recent decision by the higher courts of Texas, recently quoted in a case on trial here. The domestic exemption law allows a man to retain certain property as part of his homestead, a carriage being part of the exempt property. Under the construction of the law, an automobile may be classed as a carriage and claimed as exempt.

IS IT WELL WITH THE YOUNG MAN?

DAVID'S SOLICITUDE FOR SON APPLIED TO MODERN PARENTS OF SUPREMIST IMPORTANCE

Rev. Chas. Clark Smith Discusses Duties of Parents and of the Community

"Is it well with the young man?" David's anxious question asked in II Sam. 18: 29 was the theme of a strong sermon by Rev. Chas. Clark Smith at the First Methodist Church, corner Seventh and Lamar streets, Sunday evening.

not how much will I be able to leave to my son but rather "is it well with the young man?" This is greater than the question of education.

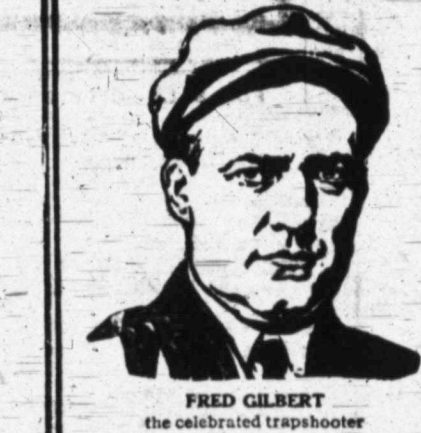

tomorrow will be largely what we make it. What will be the character of the ministers of tomorrow? Will the demand for a man who can fill a church replace the demand for a man who knows God and who can present His Gospel in a practical helpful manner.

GEORGE W. MAXWELL well-known trapshooter. "I find relaxation and complete enjoyment in Tuxedo. It's a nerve stealer and a sure fire, slow burning tobacco. Easily my favorite."

TOM A. MARSHALL famous trapshooter. "Tuxedo tobacco is unquestionably the acme of perfection; smoking Tuxedo makes life better worth living."

FRED GILBERT the celebrated trapshooter. "The coolest, most fragrant, most pleasant tobacco in my experience. Tuxedo. Leads in 'I'dness and purity.'"

Quick on the Trigger With a Snap-Shot Eye

THE crack trapshooter has to be a man with steady nerves and muscles absolutely under control—always ready, at the sudden jerk of a string to swing his gun into place and bring down his clay pigeon.

We present the names of some of these crack shots who smoke Tuxedo. They like to smoke; but they take no chances on a tobacco that might "throw them off."

is purposely made to give you all the benefits of the highest grade smoke. It is made from the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows—ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection-day.

Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Tuxedo has had many imitators; none has ever equalled it in sheer quality and smoking-value.

What Great Men Think of Real Estate Investments in a Growing City Like Wichita Falls

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN "Real estate is the best investment. More money is made from the rise of real estate values than all other causes combined." GROVER CLEVELAND "No investment on earth is so safe, so sure, so certain to enrich its owner as undeveloped realty. I always advise my friends to place their savings in real estate near a growing city. There is no such savings bank anywhere."
THEODORE ROOSEVELT "Every person who invests in well selected real estate in a growing section of a prosperous community adopts the surest and safest method of becoming independent, for real estate is the basis of all wealth."
ANDREW CARNEGIE "Few large fortunes can now be made except from one source—the rise in value of real estate. The wise man of today invests his money in Real Estate."
Let us show you where to make some good investments at bargain prices.

ST. LOUIS STREET RAILWAY PRESIDENT IS DEAD
By Associated Press. St. Louis, Sept. 28.—Capt. Robert McCulloch, president and general manager of the United Railways of St. Louis, died today after a brief illness.

ONE CAN NEVER TELL
What may happen? Better let us beautify that NEGLECTED Cemetery Plot before you do like many others seem to have done—FORGOT, become careless, or just plain don't care.
One of our customers said the other day, "I don't see why we haven't attended to this work long ago; we should have, but—well, any way we didn't intend to neglect it." How is the public, or those who have the best interests of the cemetery at heart, or even your friends and loved ones to know but that you didn't care? Deeds are more convincing than excuses. Anyone can make excuses, but it takes courage and character to do things.
We will do anything you want done—soil, water, beautify and erect the Memorial best suited to your particular needs. Why not shake off that indifference?

DEPENDABILITY

is the sheet anchor to which is moored the business ship. It is the capstan around which is coiled the cord of security. No dependable business ever went bankrupt. Dependability is the zenith of achievement in business. It embodies the result of every effort and expenditure. It is the wage of toil, the reward of efficiency and the price that satisfaction pays effort.
Our long hours of toil and the slavery incident to our business is that you may know that "WE ARE DEPENDABLE." Our long watch and eternal vigilance is to see that what leaves this store is right. If dependability appeals to you let us have your drug business.
