KING CHARLES WANTS TO HELP GERMANY

ROUMANIAN CABINET CALLED TO MEET TOMORROW TO DE-CLARE STAND

DIVISION IS REPORTED

King and Council Reported at Odds
Over Question of Supporting Germany

By Associated Press.
London, 2:22 p. m., Sept. 30.—The Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company reports that a message received at Rome from Bucharest says that King Charles of Roumania has summoned the cabinet in special session tomorrow to declare the attitude of Roumania in the European war.

STRONG OPPOSITION TO KING'S GERMAN SYMPATHY

By Associated Press.
Paris, Sept. 30.—According to a Bucharest dispatch published in the Journal des Debats, Germany counted on the aid of Roumania but when King Charles asked the cabinet to order the mobilization of the army
one of the ministers exclaimed:
"We are quite willing if it is against Austria."

King Charles answered:
"I gave my word to Emperor William and the Hohenzollern keeps his word."

J. J. O'Brian, the president of the council here interposed. "The country knows no Hohenzollerns. It knows only the king of Roumania, who does not have to give his word."

King Charles then decided to call a council of the crown with the former ministers in attendance but only one decided in favor of him in taking the side of Germany. It is reported that the king then applied to General Abercrombie to try a coup d'etat and arrest the ministers but Abercrombie refused saying, "Sir you will be the first victim." It is also said that some superior officers declared they would desert and join the Russian army
rather than fight on the side of Austria.

UNION MEN PLEDGE SUP- PORT TO LAUNDRY WORKERS

The financial and moral support of the union labor men of the city to the Laundry Workers Union in what ever action it may decide to take in reference to the failure of the laundry owners to sign contracts with the union was pledged at a mass meeting of union men held at the court house last night. About three hundred responded to the call and talks were made by several. Frank Harris presided over the meeting. At its conclusion those present by a rising vote pledged their moral and financial support to the Laundry Workers. The vote was unanimous.

CROWN PRINCE OF BAVARIA TAKEN?

THIS IS REPORT RECEIVED AT LONDON IN SPECIAL DISPATCH
FROM NANCY

BIG BATTLE IN THE EAST

Forces of Gen. Von Hindenburg and
Gen. Rennenkampf Fighting On River Niemen

By Associated Press.
London, Sept. 30.—The British official communications received here
from Paris declare that the conditions along the battle front in France remains unchanged. Among the special dispatches is one from Nancy which tells of the retaking by the French of St. Mihiel and the capture of the Crown Prince of Bavaria, and relates that desperate attempts are being made to retake the distinguished prisoner.

No one knows except those on the ground how the battle of Aisne is progressing but there are many indications that its 19th day of desperate contact in the valley of the Somme is approaching a definite conclusion. Belgium again has been the scene of fighting which in a war of less magnitude would be called a great battle. It is estimated that more than 150,000 men were engaged in the Antwerp triangle. During the day desperate fighting took place along the line extending from Piermond to Aerschot. The Germans are reported to have been reinforced from the south of Brussels and are steadily drawing their lines about the Antwerp fortress. From Brussels comes the report that the German military government is preparing to remove from that place to Namur.

In the east Gen. Von Hindenburg and Gen. Rennenkampf along the River Niemen are reported to have been engaged in a fierce battle during the last three days without any decisive result. Vienna states that the much heridad Austrian army from Galicia has formed a junction with the German corps at Cracow. This junction has been expected, but in the British view, it occurred none too soon as the Russians are reported to be only 60 miles distant. Heavy fighting in this region and in Silesia is expected soon. Owing to the marshy ground the Germans have been compelled to place their siege guns on the railroads. This is taken here to indicate that the artillery will not play an important part in the coming operations as it did in the earlier engagements of the war.

BERLIN SAYS BATTLE IS INDECISIVE

General Staff Statement Reports
French Have Renewed Attack
Near Verdun

By Associated Press.
London, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam says that the headquarters of the German general staff made the following official statement:
"On our right wing in France inde-cisive battles have occurred. Between the Oise and the Meuse it is generally quiet. The army operating against the forts on the Meuse was repulsed. The French have made a new assault along the line from Verdun to Toul."
"Our siege artillery has opened fire on the forts at Antwerp. The assault of the Belgian forces against the attacking line at Antwerp has been repulsed."
"In the Eastern theatre of war the tussian attack in the government of uwalki failed. Heavy artillery yesterday began a bombardment against the fort Osorence."

ANY SCOTCHMEN ENLISTING IN ARMY

London, Sept. 30.—Figures showing the percentage of recruits enlisted in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales;
obtained from the Director of Recruiting and published in the Liverpool courier, makes Scotland appear as the most generous contributor of men. The approximate total number of men raised from August 4 to September 15
was 591,580, the percentage of recruits to the total male population
being given as follows:

	Recruits	Pct.
England	396,731	2.41
Scotland	64,444	2.79
Ireland	20,419	.92
Wales	19,966	1.94

OST $6,258,392 TO RUN TEXAS LAST YEAR

Austin, Texas, Sept. 30.—During the fiscal year ending August 30 the comptroller's department issued 49,560 warrants according to figures just made public here. This number represents an outlay of $6,258,392—the cost of running the state government for one year. This sum was aid from the general revenue and does not include about one million dollars paid confederate veterans which now is secured by a special tax of five cents on the $100 property valuation.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, Sept. 30.—Arousing public sentiment in favor of greatly reduced acreage of total elimination of the 1915 crop through the medium of county organizations with the ultimate aim of having legislatures enact laws regulating planting, was the decision of the Southern Cotton Convention today as the best solution of the problems arising from the European war.

ANTWERP IS BOMBARDED

WITHOUT EFFECT

Sortie by Belgians

Later Claim Germans Repulsed With Heavy Losses—Confidence in Redoubt

By Associated Press.
Antwerp, via London, 4 p. m., Sept.
30.—An official statement issued by the Belgian general staff today says:
"A vigorous German bombardment was directed against forts Lizele and Bredonta. Our troops holding positions between these works allowed the enemy to advance until they were within close range when the artillery and infantry and working in a remarkable combination met the attacking column with a hail of projectiles and bullets which threw the ranks into disorder and compelled a precipitate retreat. This attempt cost the Germans dearly and was not repeated."
"In short the events of the day confirmed the confidence of the Belgians
in the strength of their national redoubs."

Narrow Escape For Texas Bank Bill

SENATE COMMITTEE REFUSES TO TABLE MOTION FOR AD-
VERSE REPORT

ADJOURNED BEFORE VOTE

Lively Sparring When Bill Was Called Up For Consideration This Morning

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Sept. 30.—Governor Colquitt's bank of Texas bill narrowly escaped a death blow this morning before the Senate Judiciary committee No. 1 which had the bill up for consideration. When the committee met Senator McNealis moved that the remainder of the week be devoted to the committee to the consideration of the measure and that all those who desired to appear before the committee be invited to do so. Senator Nugent opposed this motion and insisted that the bill be considered immediately. Senator Lattimore moved as a substitute that the committee adjourn subject to the call of the chairman and that the members of the committee proceed to the House and listen to the discussion of the bill there.

Senator Huddspeth insisted that the people of Texas should be given a chance to be heard before action is taken to dispose of the measure. He claimed the press of the state had unfairly criticized the bill. After some further discussion the committee rejected the motion of Senator McNealis and the question of inviting persons to appear before the committee was left unsettled.

Senator Wiley moved that the committee report the bill adversely and the committee refused to table this motion by a vote of 12 to 12, and before a vote could be taken on the motion of Senator Wiley the committee adjourned until tomorrow morning.

GENERAL CARRANZA SENDS ANSWER TO ULTIMATUM

Mexico City, Sept. 29.—Gen. Carranza answered a message sent by General Francisco Villa's division of the army which while protesting loyalty, asked the first chief of the constitutionalist to resign in favor of Fernando Calderon, thus maintaining the honor of the constitutionalist cause and preventing bloodshed, anarchy and possible intervention.

While the text of Gen. Carranza's answer has not been made public, government officials are most optimistic regarding the results which it may have.

FIGHTING INDECISIVE GERMAN REPORT

Berlin, via London,
11:41 a. m., Sept. 30.—

The following statement was issued today
by the general army
staff:

"There has been general fighting on our right wing in France but nothing decisive. The center is quiet. The French advances in the vicinity of Verdun and Toul have been renewed."

ITALIANS PROTEST MINES IN ADRIATIC

By Associated Press.
London, 5:33 p. m., Sept. 30.—As a result of the sinking of an Italian fishing boat near An-cono by an Austrian mine a Rome dispatch to the Central News says:
"The Italian government has instructed its ambassador at Vienna
to enter an energetic protest against the mines which prevent free and safe traffic in the Adriatic."

PROMINENT MEXICANS PUT TO CLEANING STREETS

By Associated Press.
Galveston, Sept. 30.—Between thirty and forty of the prominent residents of Puerto Mexico have been arrested by constitutionalist authorities
and put to work cleaning the streets, according to Capt. Hanson of the steamer Atlantic which arrived here yesterday from Mexico. No violence has been offered them.

CONGRESS EXPECTED TO ADJOURN OCTOBER 18

Washington, Sept. 30.—An administration approved movement for three-day recesses of both houses beginning next week, adjournment of Congress is possible by Oct. 19, and a reassembling of Congress in special session Nov. 11, under call of President Wilson to consider specifically the ship purchase bill, was undertaken today by Democratic leaders. All day conferences between leaders and the rank and file of their party in both houses gave hope for an agreement
along this line tomorrow.

The President has told Senators and Representatives repeatedly that the revenue tax bill already passed by the House and the Clayton anti-trust bill should be enacted into law before adjournment. The third measure the President urged was the river and harbor bill, which passed the House last night and is ready for his approval.

Democratic leaders in the House believe the situation is well in hand there and Democratic Leader Kern tomorrow will make known the disposition of the Senate toward entering into a pact for considering the shipping bill
at a specific time after the elections.

FRENCH TURNING MOVEMENT ON GERMAN RIGHT DEVELOPING WITH GREAT RAPIDITY NOW

The turning movements directed against the German right wing by the allied armies is developing rapidly, according to an official announcement by the French army headquarters. It is declared that the vigorous assault on Tracy Le Mont was repulsed with heavy losses to the Germans. Tracy Le Mont is the elbow of the fighting line that in a general way stretches from that point east and north. The official statement says this action moves more and more toward the north. There is nothing in the Paris announcement to confirm last night's report from a Paris correspondent of the London News Agency that the German right wing had been broken.

The French war office claims also that slight progress has been made in the Argonne region and Meuse and that the allies have advanced east of St. Mihiel. No notable movement has occurred on the center and the situation on the right is reported unchanged.

An official German announcement coming by way of London states that there has been general fighting on the German right but that nothing of a decisive character has transpired. German headquarters also report the center of the battle line is quiet.

The French advances in the region of Verdun and Toul have been renewed, it was said. A German official statement issued last night also described the fighting on their right wing as indecisive. The allies operating against the forts on the Meuse were repulsed, it was said.

Berlin confirms the assault on Antwerp and said that attacks by the Belgian garrison had been repulsed.

If the Russian forces have won the passes of the Carpathians nothing except improvised forts remain to prevent them from overrunning Hungary which, it is reported, has been abandoned to its fate by the Austrians who are reported to have left only the Hungarian guard to protect it. Budapest, however, reports that the desperate struggle still prevailing in the passes is holding back the Russian advance.

Petrograd reports signs of activity on the part of the German fleet in the Baltic and a gale credited with being the heaviest in human memory sweeping over the North Sea in Denmark has washed ashore bodies of sailors in German uniform near Esbjerg, Denmark, according to reports reaching London.

The Balkan allies pressing the attack on the Austrian Province of Bosnia have won several minor successes but the investment of Sarajevo, the capital, proceeds slowly as the nature of the country makes the movement of siege guns snail-like, while the six miles which separates the capital is occupied by a range of mountains.

TURNING THE GERMAN RIGHT

MOVEMENT RAPIDLY DEVELOP-ING IN SOMME VALLEY THE FRENCH CLAIM

ATTACK IS REPULSED

Official Statement Claims Progress Between Argonne and Meuse

By Associated Press.
Paris, Sept. 30.—According to the official bulletin on the war issued by the army headquarters the turning movement of allies north of Somme
is developing rapidly.

A German attack on Tracy Le Mont
has been repulsed with heavy losses.
The text of the statement is as follows:
"First—On our left wing north of the Somme the action continues to develop to the northward. Between the Oise and Aisne the enemy has delivered a vigorous attack on Tracy Le Mont northeast of the forest of Aigue. These were repulsed with heavy losses."
"Second—On the center there is a relative calm along the entire front which extends from Rheims to the Meuse. Between the Argonne and the Meuse we have made slight progress. In the Woivre district there have been severe battles. Our troops have advanced at several points notably at St. Mihiel."
"On our right wing in Lorraine and the Vosges there has been no change."
"In Galicia the efforts at sorties made by the Austrian garrison at Przemysl have failed. The Austrian armies continue to retreat in disorder losing many prisoners and much artillery and war material."
"At Mt. Dufok south of Przemysl in the Carpathians a Russian detachment has defeated a Hungarian brigade and penetrated into Hungary."

RUSSIANS CAPTURE ENORMOUS SUPPLIES

By Associated Press.
London, 5:44 p. m.—

A Rome dispatch to the Central News says the Russian ambassador announces that an Austrian army fleeing before the Russians near Doubklo was overtaken and that its defeat is complete. All the food, ammunition, clothing
and war material being carried back into Austria has fallen into Russian arms. The spoil includes 500 armored au-

WACO COTTON MILL PLANS ARE NOW UNDER WAY

Waco, Texas, Sept. 30.—Plans for establishing a cotton mill in Waco are well under way according to information available today. Harry P. Jordan,

ted the cotton mill plan to the Young tee was appointed by the League to tively discussed the possibility of

HERE'S WHAT'S WHAT

IN EUROPEAN WAR

How To Pronounce Some of the Names Appearing in the Dispatches

(New York Sun) Several readers have written to the Sun requesting the publication of a key to the pronunciation of some of the places mentioned frequently in the war dispatches. In the following list an attempt is made to give as nearly as possible the English equivalents of many of the names.

It should be borne in mind, however, that it is impossible to indicate exactly the sounds employed in pronouncing the originals. For instance, the reader should not place too great stress on the nasal sounds suggested in some of the names.

The French and Belgian names in the list as a rule are accented equally on all syllables. To the American ear this will at first sound as though the last syllable were accented. Many of the Austrian names, on the other hand, are accented on the first syllable.

Below will be noticed words marked "nasal." To get the correct sound, for instance, in the French word mon (my) it is pronounced as though spelled man, the n, however, not being sounded, the word dying away with a nasal twang. It is as though the end of the word tried to get through the nose but was choked off and stopped there.

This firm manufacturers boys' clothing, a brand of goods favorably known throughout the country and of whom the P. B. M. Company is a large purchaser and in expressing a sympathy with the buy a bale movement to the extent of investing their money, they have demonstrated a wide-awake spirit and a lively interest in the welfare of this section.

The firm's letter with reference to the matter is as follows: "Boston, Mass., Sept. 24. P. B. M. Co., Wichita Falls, Tex. Gentlemen: Your favor of 19th received in which you request us to purchase one or more bales of cotton. DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS FOSSILIZED SAYS ROOSEVELT

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Addressing an audience in Memorial Hall here Colonel Roosevelt criticized the old parties as "fossilized," found little save inefficiency and incompetency in their programs affecting labor, combinations and the tariff and pointed to the progressive platform as the only one showing the way to true reform.

The old parties, he said, can not and will not deal with new ideas in adequate fashion. "They know that if they put the wine of the new idea into the old bottles of their organizations these old organizations would burst asunder," he said. "The attitude of the present Democratic administration on the tariff and trusts he described as firing 'no one to hit it if it is a bear and to miss it if it is a calf.'"

Colonel explained his opposition to state ownership in most instances because of the superior efficiency of most privately conducted enterprises. The distribution of the mail, water and light, he said, fall naturally within the province of the State but in general State regulation and supervision were to be preferred to state ownership.

Our System Superior. My own recent experiences in traveling on a State-owned railroad in France and in using the State-owned telephone in England, impressed me with the marked comparative superiority in service rendered by our own privately owned railroads and telephones, but I am informed that in Belgium the direct reverse obtains," he said.

In pleading for an unimpaired tariff commission, the speaker declared that the Democratic revision was hampered in the same manner that the Aldrich-Vreeland adjustment was, by the conflict of sectional and private interests.

"We are a great Nation," he asserted, "and we must think nationally and act nationally."

Colonel Roosevelt pointed to the placing of sugar on the free list as an example of unscientific legislation and declared that the advance in sugar resulted because the American grower simply quit business and the law of supply and demand did the rest. He described the policy of the Progressive party as one of wise and cool-headed radicalism.

NIMRODS LOOKING FORWARD OPENING DUCK SEASON

The opening of the duck season, October 15, is being anxiously awaited by local hunters and the date will mark the beginning of much shooting at Lake Wichita and other bodies of water in this vicinity. The season opens two weeks earlier this year, the change having been made at the instance of duck hunters throughout the State. Since the weather became cool, ducks have been quite plentiful at the lake and some good shooting is in prospect.

The dove and quail seasons will open November 1. Doves are reported exceptionally plentiful in this section this year, but quail are not so numerous.

POOR SPELLING COST HIM HIS FREEDOM

(Chicago Herald) Solomon Charles Olckman did not know how to spell hunderd. He always spelled it as he pronounced it—"hunderd."

Because he could not spell he is being held at the detective bureau charged with swindling fourteen banks in and near Chicago out of amounts of money totaling about $2,500.

It was said he had a new system for "beating the banks." The charge is made that he loitered near the windows of the receiving tellers and learned the names of depositors. Later he would call for the canceled checks of some depositor and obtain copies of the signatures.

The next day, it is charged, he would deposit forged checks in a pass-book bearing the forged name of a depositor. Later he would forge and present checks drawn against the fake deposit he had made previously. He might not have been captured if his largest check had been $99.99. When, according to the charges made, he tried to write a check for more Eldorado. Gayly bedight, A brilliant knight In sunshine and in shadow Had journeyed long, Singing a song, In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old— This knight so bold— And o'er his heart a shadow Fell, as he found No spot of ground That looked like Eldorado.

And as his strength Failed him at length, He met a pilgrim shadow; "Shadow," said he, "Where can it be— This land of Eldorado?"

"Over the mountains Of the moon, Down the Valley of Shadow, Ride, boldly ride, The shade replied, "If you seek for Eldorado!"

ANIMAL PARTY FOR LITTLE TOTS TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Tuesday afternoon the little children in the Beginners' Department of the First Christian Church were entertained by the teachers with a delightful animal party in the basement of the church. The tiny chairs were placed in a large circle in the rooms and over head were hung festoons of kittens, cut out of red card board and at the conclusion of the party the tiny tots were given these kittens for their very own, each having one as a souvenir. Games of various kinds were played and then an animal hunt was instituted. Animal crackers had been hidden in the basement and the children were told to find them, there being two prizes, a stuffed kitty and horse, for the hunter who bagged the most game. Elephants, bears, lions and tigers were among the kinds of games brought in by the small Sim rods and little Sibyl Hancock received the first prize, having gotten eighteen animals in her hunt. Little tables had been set, decorated in an attractive manner and ice cream and cake was served to the children about fifty in number. The mothers were also invited to attend and a score of more accepted the invitation, all declaring with the children that this was the very nicest party ever. The teachers entertaining were: Mesdames Walters, Bradley, Bond, Carr, Webb, Misses Lorene Courtney and Lucette Henderson.

OKLAHOMA OFFICERS COMING TO LOOK OVER SUSPECT

Officers are expected here today from the reformatory at Granite, Okla., to attempt to identify the youth arrested late Monday on a charge of swindling. The youth gave his name as George Williams, but admitted to the officers yesterday that this was an alias. He tallies closely with the description of a boy who escaped from the Granite institution, and officers from there will come here to find out. If he is found to be the party wanted the charge here will not be pressed against him.

The boy told local officers that his performance here was his first venture into high finance and from his youthful appearance it is not believed he has had much experience in that line.

DAY OF ATONEMENT OBSERVED BY JEWS

Today is being observed by orthodox Jews in this city and elsewhere as Yom Kippur or the "day of atonement." Practically all business houses of which Jews are proprietors are closed and services continuing all day are being held at the Moose Hall, where Rabbi Hoffman of Waco is conducting the exercises. It is a day of fasting and prayer for the Jews.

The day of atonement in the tenth day of the Jewish New Year; it began at 6 o'clock last evening and ends at the same hour today. The fasting and prayers are supposed to be in atonement for sin, coming at the conclusion of the ten first days of the new year during which the orthodox Jew is supposed to repent of his misdeeds.

Although the Jews of this city and vicinity have no organized congregation, their observance of this and similar rites of their church is none the less general.

COTTON MILL MEN EXPECT CHANGE FOR BETTER SOON

Providence, R. I., Sept. 30.—The New England cotton goods mill are finding this a hard season. New business seems to be about the last thing that is coming to them. Jobbers and converters at New York are making some offers, but the offers are not acceptable with new cotton, unless the staple were to be secured for less than 5 cents a pound. Because of the lack of new business, many of the mills are curtailing gradually, and more employees are given enforced vacations each week.

Nevertheless, despite this condition, the mill men are optimistic and believe that there will be a decided change for the better among the cotton mills within a short time. Before the end of the year, they say, most of the mills will be in possession of the enough new business to start most of the idle machinery.

One of the brokers, whose firm handles a large percentage of the cotton brought into Providence, is authority for a statement that, never under similar conditions has the market been so firm. He states that it is practically impossible for the brokers to secure cotton to sell for less than 10 cents at this time. The cotton spinners are securing a little new business from time to time, but prices that are offered for most of the goods are too low for actual business to result from the offers. Few of the spinners are working full time and further curtailment is imminent in the trade.

Richard W. Sears, founder of the Sears-Roebuck Co. of Chicago, died at his home near Waukegan, Wis., on the 28th, leaving a fortune estimated at $25,000,000.

Property values in Wichita Falls hold up remarkably well, considering that but few sales have been made.

What kind of a government do these folks want down there, anyhow? exclaimed a man today in discussing the situation in Mexico.

One man has unlimbered his oratorical talents and has opened for a long time from Red Oak, Iowa, to Hackensack, New York.

Governor Colquitt has had a moratorium bill drawn up and has it up his sleeve to present to the legislature as soon as he finds that the banking bill is not likely to pass.

The Buy-a-Bale movement has about run its course, and while it lasted the price of cotton was boosted considerably.

There appears to be more money in stock-raising now than in farming.

It is entirely within the power of the cotton farmers to raise the price of cotton in this way.

Senatorial elections occur this year in the following States: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin.

BE A BOOSTER—NOT A KNOCKER.

When the Creator had made all the good things, there was still some dirty work to do, so He made the beasts, reptiles, poisonous insects, etc.

thing to counteract it, so He took a sunbeam and put it into the heart of a child; the brain of man, wrapped these in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet and a grasp of steel; made it a lover of fields and flowers and many sports, a believer in equality and justice and called it a "Booster."

Ever since these two were, Mortal Man has had the privilege of choosing his associates—the "Booster" or the "Knocker."

What a furor some people are making about the European war. It is a great chance for the calamity howler.

Our sympathy is for the poor people who must suffer in order that some power may be greater, and some petty jealousies satisfied, but our mind is on getting just as much business as ever, paying for what we buy and being paid for our services.

POLITICAL PEACE IN TEXAS.

The fight over the State bank bill is growing warm. The opponents of the measure are holding mass meetings and issuing statements against it.

In the dim distance looms up the fight for the United States Senate two years hence, and the Ferguson campaign for re-election at the same time.

We record these facts for the purpose of refuting the charge but for the agitation for prohibition peace and legislative rest would bless Texas.

Let us keep the record straight as we journey along.—Waco News.

BIG GUNS SURPRISE EVEN TO GERMANS

EXISTENCE OF 42 CENTIMETER SIEGE GUNS KEPT A PROFOUND SECRET

THEY WILL NEVER WEAR OUT

One Meteor Could Pound Down All the Forts in Christendom

Berlin, Sept. 30.—A member of the German Parliament, who for nearly ten years has been connected with the Army Budget Committee of the Reichstag, tells some interesting things of the history of the now famous 42-centimeter siege guns which served the Germans so effectively at Liege and Namur.

"The surprise that Germany possessed such mortars," he says in an article published by the Neue Zuercher Zeitung, "was as great in Germany as it was in other countries."

"Over forty officers took part in the discussions at which the military budget was prepared for submission to the Budget Committee of the Reichstag."

"Six weeks ago, I visited an ammunition factory as a member of the armament commission and ascertained that any number of projectiles and cases for these mortars could be produced within a very short time."

"If a weapon of the German army has a claim to popularity it is the 42-centimeter mortar, which in spite of their huge dimensions, have managed to remain concealed in fact, the nick name Brummer, which has been given to these mortars shows how far this popularity had progressed."

Cardiff, Wales, via London, Sept. 30.—At a largely attended meeting over which the earl of Plymouth presided, David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer, spoke of the government's decision to raise a Welsh army of 50,000 men.

He told his hearers the recruits were going out for a stern enterprise which would involve hardships, wounds and danger, but, he added, a vast majority would return and would have left the mortar unscathed, a great noise left by cutting through the air."

Wales expected to furnish 50,000 recruits

R. F. Lane, a boiler maker in the employ of the Magnolia Petroleum Co. at Petrolia, is the owner of an eye that is in a very serious condition as a result of an accident that occurred there yesterday. Mr. Lane was assisting the putting down of some steel tanks this company is having placed at Petrolia. He was operating the riveting machine when the end of a rivet was knocked off and struck him under the eye with such force that it plowed its way on up into the eye-ball, blinding him. He was brought here yesterday and given into the charge of an eye specialist, who, by turning a powerful magnet on the eye and observing the pull on the ball, came to the conclusion that the steel was still in the eye. An operation was postponed because the wound was raw and inflamed, and it was thought not advisable to remove it until today. The piece of steel will be removed about six o'clock this afternoon.

They are all owners of fine farms at Seymour, but have decided to make a change and this county is their first choice if they can secure the kind of rural property that suits them. The young man's case was set for this afternoon. He claims to be a light-weight pugilist and told inmates of the rooming house that he had been in a shooting scrape with an officer at Quannah.

FOUND WAY TO SEE PARIS

Englishman Quickly Got on to Scheme Which Enabled Him to "Do" the City Thoroughly.

There is a very good friend of mine, whom I now call the New Innocent Abroad, says a writer in the London Times. Though he has lived the greater portion of his life in the West end of London, circumstances have always conspired to prevent him crossing the channel.

He cannot speak a word of French, and last week he spent three days in Paris.

When he came back I went to see him. "I think I have seen everything there is to be seen in the streets of Paris," he said when I met him, "because I discovered the ideal way of seeing a strange city."

"Whenever I wanted to go anywhere I signaled a taxicab and showed the driver the address I wanted. Now, all these French cab drivers are men with wonderful intuitions. They knew at once that I really wanted to see Paris in all its beauty. So they took charge of me, and whenever I wanted to go from one office to another they drove me all round the city."

"Often after the first day I knew that the place I wanted to call at was not more than a few hundred yards away from the hotel. Still the cab drivers determined that I should improve my knowledge of Paris."

"The proper way to pursue this method of sightseeing is to drive for half an hour in silence. Then you stop the cab with violent signals, produce your written address again and flourish it in the driver's face."

"He smiles politely and generally treats you as though you are a naughty child. Meanwhile, a small crowd collects composed of polite individuals all anxious to proffer you their services."

"They direct you to different places of public interest, and after an exchange of courtesies you start on another joy ride for half an hour or so."

REAL CAUSE FOR ANXIETY

Old Gentleman's Exceedingly Neat Rejoinder to Tactless Remark Made by Nephew.

There is an old gentleman in Philadelphia approaching the ninety mark who still finds much zest in life, and, having retained all his faculties, he feels that a few of the physical disabilities of age are of small account. His nephew is a man of small tact, a fact which has always aroused the ire of the old man.

A few weeks before the old gentleman's eighty-ninth birthday this nephew, who had been overweighted with business cares for years, started on a trip to Europe that was to consume a year.

"I have come to say good-by," announced the nephew to the old man. "I am starting abroad to be gone a year—perhaps longer. I thought I might never—well, you understand—I wanted to be sure to see you once more."

"Whereupon the old man leaned forward, fixing his nephew with his bead-like eyes.

"Bill," he said impressively, "do you mean to tell me the doctor doesn't think you'll live to get back?"

How the Rain Bore Holes.

When rain falls it does not actually soak into the earth, but bores its way in, forming tiny tubes. These tubes are so small that it would be impossible to insert a hair in one of them without bursting its walls. Sometimes the tubes are bored down to a depth of four or five feet. When the surface dries the water evaporates from the tubes, just as it would from a pipe. If the tube is twisted it takes longer for the water to evaporate.

If one takes a rake and stirs the ground after each rain he breaks the tops of the tubes and the water will stand in them for months. In this way the farmers of the West, on semi-arid lands, store the rainfalls one year and raise a crop of wheat every other year, there being sufficient water in two years, but not enough in one, to raise a crop.

How to Win an Author.

"There's no greater fallacy," said an author at the New York Authors' club, "than the popular one to the effect that writers don't like you to talk to them about their work."

"Mark Twain exploded this fallacy well when he said that there were three ways of pleasing an author: First, to tell him that you have read one of his books; second, to tell him you have read all his books, and, third, to ask him to let you read the manuscript of his forthcoming book. The first way wins his respect, the second wins his friendship, and the third wins his love."

TRY THIS ONE.

If you haven't looked for this recipe you will be glad to have it after you have tried it. Mix together a cup of butter, a fourth of a pound of powdered sugar and a pound of flour. Roll out a quarter of an inch thick, prick with a fork and bake a golden brown. This is Scotch short bread. Rice flour is best for this if it can be obtained.

Peanuts and Rice.—Two cupfuls of rice (cooked), cupful of peanut butter, a cupful of cracker crumbs, one-half cupful of milk and two eggs. When the rice is well cooked and salted, stir in the peanut butter, stirring until well blended; then add the milk; the eggs well beaten, and lastly all the cracker crumbs, leaving some for the top. Shape into a rounding loaf, place in a buttered pan and bake until a golden brown all over. Serve garnished with parsley.

Nut Mince Pie.—Chop two cupfuls of apples, add a cup of nutmeats, cut fine, a half cup of vinegar, cider, or any fruit juice, one-half cup of sugar, one cupful of raisins, cloves, cinnamon and allspice, with salt to taste. This will make two pies.

Bran Bread.—Sift two cupfuls of flour into a basin, add two cupfuls of bran, two cupfuls of sour milk, a cup of brown sugar, a cup of chopped raisins, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in the milk, and half a teaspoonful of salt. Turn into a buttered pan and bake one hour in a moderately hot oven.

Onion and Pepper Salad.—Chop six green peppers and one large Bermuda onion very fine; add salt, pepper and a bit of mustard; a cup of olive oil and the juice of a lemon, well mixed. Add an inch of preserved ginger cut very fine. Serve on a bed of lettuce, very cold.

Scotch Broth.—Take the liquor that mutton has been cooked in, remove the fat and add turnip, carrot, onion and a little celery. Boil until the vegetables are tender, and serve.

At The Theaters

The Victoria.
Walter Edwards, Leona Hutton and Harry Keenan are featured in a two part Kay Bee, "The Stigma" and "Coat Tails," a Keystone, provides the comedy end of the show.

The Empress.
Pauline has three narrow escapes today, first a deadly rattlesnake is hidden in a basket of flowers which a gypsy brings to her and she and Harry narrowly escape death by this means. Then she decides to ride in a sleigh. Her horse stumbles and falls with Polly underneath. And this peril came near being a little too realistic for the comfort of Pauline. Her horse really did fall and in the fall Miss White was injured seriously, so bad that for two weeks no pictures could be taken. But she is nothing if not game and when she recovered she went on with her third peril, a plunge down a steep declivity into the river. The gypsies come after them hot-foot but she and Harry escape for the time being by the interference of the other guests at the house party which they are attending.

The Majestic.
The first installment in three reels of that much talked of picture, "The Trey of Hearts" will be shown here today. The trey of hearts is the death sign which one man has devised for another, his enemy.

She becomes the mother of twin girls, while Law, marrying, becomes the father of a boy. Trine discovers his wife's lack of love for him; ruins Law and threatens his life. Law begins to find tery of heart cards about, and knowing it is Trine's warning, finally breaks down and kills himself, after sending his son to Europe.

At the opening of the play, Law Jr., a prosperous business man, Trine sends his daughter, Rose to win his love. The plan succeeds, but Rose is unaware of her father's intentions. Trine writes his daughter she shall never wed Law. Law finds his first treys of hearts and suspects it is Trine's doing. Rose, fearful for Law's life, leaves for America, and it is arranged between them that a rose shall be a sign that one is needed by the other. Trine lures Law to America by sending a rose, and sends his daughter, Judith, Rose's double, but a hard, revengeful woman, to meet him. She, with accomplices, captures Law, but he escapes, and shortly after saves her life. Overcome with his exertions, Law sleeps and the first awakening of love in Judith's breast leads her to leave a rose on his breast where he had expected to find a trey of hearts.

The Gem.
"False Shadows," a Lubin which has the problem of eugenics as its basis is the feature picture here today. Two friends, a doctor and an artist are both in love with the same girl, the artist proposes and is accepted. Grace's father is an ardent advocate of eugenics and suggests that John be examined. Accordingly he goes to Fred Sterling, the physician's rival and tells him of his engagement and asks for an examination. Fred finds him in perfect health but seeing a way to get rid of him as a rival, substitutes a drop of blood from a diseased patient and tells him that he should not marry. John, heart broken accepts his decision and breaks the engagement with Grace, keeping the real reason from her. He goes away and troubled with the thought of the happiness which has been put away from him is unable to apply himself to his magazine illustrating sinks to the lowest level, and is only too eager for death to come. Fred Sterling renews his suit with Grace but she grieves over the disappearance of John. She falls ill and Fred realizes that only the sight of John can save her. Experiencing bitter remorse for his action he searches for John. Where and under what thrilling circumstances he found him makes one of the most thrilling bits of this picture. The young doctor in bringing back John redeems himself and his cowardice goes with him as his secret as he meets a hero's death in the flames of a burning building.

The Lydia Margaret.
The two vaudeville acts the Musical Fredericks and Smetetta Bros. and Moro have proven eminently successful and pleasing to the crowds attending this theatre the first days of this week. They close their engagement tonight. The picture program today consists of "Paint Heart N'er won Fair Lady" featuring Dan Mason, Edison comedy, and "The Skull and the Crown," Selig drama, featuring Adele Lane.
Dr. Loring is the jovial head of the insane asylum. His particular friend, Jack, calls one day to present a curiosity in the form of a peculiarly shaped skull. Jack takes a stroll through the corridors and during his absence Betty, the doctor's niece, enters the office. Betty has secured the legal robes of a queen to wear at a masquerade. With natural curiosity she notes the skull on the doctor's table and asks about it. The doctor, being in a jovial mood and feeling free to play a joke on his friend, tells Betty that the skull belongs to one of the inmates, who fancies himself to be Hamlet. When Betty leaves the office she forgets her crown; so when Jack returns, he asks the doctor who owns the ornament. The doctor sees an opportunity for furthering the jest; so he informs Jack that the crown belongs to a patient who fancies himself to be the queen of Navarre. Jack feels sorry for the poor girl and suggests that he would like to meet her, unless she is too insane. The doctor falls into the plan very nicely and later, when Betty comes back in search of her crown, she expresses the desire to see the poor young man who fancies he is Hamlet.

The doctor arranges a meeting in the reception room and each one endeavors to play the assigned part with due fidelity because the doctor explained that either one would become violent if it were apparent that the other might be pretending. The scene in the reception room is particularly ludicrous one. Hamlet, plays his part with a full measure of insanity injected, and the force of the scene frightens the bogus queen, who flees in dismay. On the following day Jack and Betty meet on the public street. Each believes the other to have escaped from the asylum and following the doctor's instructions each plays the part assigned. The police arrest them and they are taken to the station. The deaf sergeant phones the asylum for the padded wagon, in which they ride in consternation into the presence of Dr. Loring, who explains the joke with great gusto but to their comical dismay.

P. RADFORD PRAISES THE HENRY LOAN BILL
Farmers Union Official Declares Measure Only Adequate Means of Relief

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 30.—Adoption by Congress of an act incorporating the fundamental features of the Henry bill, now pending before that body, is the only means for relieving not only the farmer, but all the business and financial interests of the country, according to Peter Radford, recently returned from Washington, where he has been working for the passage of the Henry bill.

Peter Radford, national lecturer and organizer of the Farmers' Union, is one of the Texas representatives on the committee of forty which has been detailed to Washington in the interests of the Farmers' Union. Mr. Radford Tuesday discussed the merits of the Henry bill and the cotton situation generally. He said that the Henry bill or a similar act is the only relief in sight, at the same time praising the buy a bale movement and the proposed organization of the southern states for the purpose of fixing cotton prices.

The fundamental basis of the Henry bill is the direct loan of emergency currency from the United States government to the farmers of the South. This, he says, can be the only solution of the problem.

Committee Working for Bill.
"The Farmers' Union committee in Washington has been working hard for the bill," said Mr. Radford. "Almost the entire committee had a personal conference with President Wilson and many of the members talked to Secretary McAdoo. We have flooded the country with circulars and copies of the Henry bill."

However, the fate of the bill will depend upon the interest displayed by business men of the country. It is up to them to support such a measure, for it means as much to them as it does to the farmer.

"I believe that any right minded person familiar with the Henry bill will agree that it is the only means for immediate and substantial relief."

Praises Buy a Bale Move.
"The buy a bale movement is a great thing. It stands to reason that every bale of cotton taken off the market even for a short time will help to establish a better market. This movement, however, is inadequate to meet the emergency."

"The organization of southern states for the purpose of fixing cotton prices, which I have heard suggested, is also a good thing. I am heartily in favor of it. In fact, I am in favor of the organization of all states for that purpose. This will be of no immediate benefit, though."

"The offer of banks to loan farmers emergency currency under the present system would relieve the situation if the time of the loan were not so short. A four months' loan would be of absolutely no benefit to the farmer."

Saves Daughter
Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, though it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing."

"I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know we help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SCOUTS CHARGES OF DUM DUM BULLETS

BIG GAME HUNTER BELIEVES STEEL JACKETED BULLETS TURN SIDWAYS

COL. ROOSEVELT'S EXPERIENCE

At Short Range He Found Bullets Inflicted More Serious Wounds Than Dum-Dums

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Sept. 30.—F. C. Selous, the English big-game hunter, is inclined to accept the charges made by the warlike European Powers that each is using the dum dum bullets. Ragged wounds that have been inflicted, he believes, were done by the steel-jacketed bullets turning sideways. To support this theory he cites some of his own experiences in shooting big game and relates other instances as told to him by Colonel Roosevelt.

"I think in all probability both the allies and their antagonists," said Mr. Selous, "have been innocent of the charges made against them in this respect, and that the serious ragged wounds supposed to have been caused by bullets which have been purposely tampered with, have more likely been due to the fact, which I believe is not generally known, that the new pointed bullet itself is a German invention—more for the first time being employed in warfare in Eastern Europe, inflicting at short ranges more serious wounds than any sort of soft nosed expanding bullets."

"In 1910, on his journey through British East Africa and the Sudan, Mr. Roosevelt used for all game, except the very heaviest, an American Springfield rifle of .280 bore; taking the American military cartridge, which is loaded like our own military cartridge, with the solid, nickel-pointed bullet, known in Germany as the "spitzkugel." These solid, pointed military bullets, Mr. Roosevelt told me, although they never broke up on striking the animal, inflicted more serious wounds than any kind of expanding bullet he had previously used for big game shooting.

"Since the time I have myself shot in Africa with a Ross rifle (the Canadian army rifle) and rifle of .275 bore, both taking cartridges loaded with solid, nickel coated, sharp pointed bullets, and my experience with these projectiles entirely bears out what Mr. Roosevelt told me; that at close ranges, and at any rate up to a distance of 300 yards, they cause more grievous wounds than any form of expanding bullet. It would certainly seem that for some distance after leaving the muzzle of a rifle as long as their enormous initial velocity is but slightly impaired, these pointed bullets turn sideways on striking an animal, for although the hole of entry is always small, round and clean cut, the skin is often torn open where they pass out on the other side; and on several occasions I have found one broadside under the skin of an animal, through whose body it had torn a large, lacerated wound.

"At longer ranges than those at which game is usually shot, and when the initial velocity of these pointed bullets has slowed down to a considerable extent, no doubt they only drill small, neat, round holes through anything they hit, or a good deal more would have been heard about the use of dum dum bullets during the late Balkan wars than was actually the case. But accusations that such bullets were used in those who were frequently made, and they are now being heard again in Western Europe; and I cannot help thinking, from my own experiences in big game shooting, that such accusations will always be made on one side and the other in all future wars whenever the shooting is at fairly close quarters as long as pointed bullets are used."

LIQUOR DEALERS JOIN BUY-A-BALE MOVEMENT

Several Wholesale Houses Have Come Across—Auto Company Buys a Bale

The liquor interests are giving their aid in the buy a bale movement and today a local saloon was displaying two bales which it has been authorized to buy by a distilling firm from which it purchased whiskey. Several saloons have written liquor wholesalers and brewers and distillers, asking them to buy bales, and some favorable replies have been received. Nearly all of the saloons here bought bales.

Among recent purchasers of bales is the Maxwell-Sales Agency in this city, which handles Maxwell cars. The Maxwell Company authorized each of its agencies to buy a bale at ten cents on the company's account. Most of the bales which merchants and business men here agreed to take have been purchased and farmers who call at the Chamber of Commerce offices with cotton have been unable, for the most part, to find buyers lately. Most of the cotton for which no purchaser is found is stored in the warehouse.

WAREHOUSE STOCKHOLDERS MEETING SATURDAY

A meeting of the stockholders of the Wichita County Cotton Association has been called for Saturday afternoon for election of officers. Following this, application will be made for a charter. Officers have already been elected, but it was discovered that there was some question as to the regularity of the proceedings. Incidentally the organization has two secretaries, John W. Thomas and H. B. Hines both having been elected to the same position, through mistake.

ONE CAN NEVER TELL

What may happen! Better let us beautify that NEGLECTED Cemetery Plot before you do like many others seem to have done—FORGOT, become careless, or just plain don't care.

One of our customers said the other day, "I don't see why we haven't attended to this work long ago; we should have, but—well, any way we didn't intend to neglect it." How is the public, or those who have the best interests of the cemetery at heart, or even your friends and loved ones to know but that you didn't care? Deeds are more convincing than excuses. Anyone can make excuses, but it takes courage and character to do things.

We will do anything you want done—soil, water, beautify and erect the Memorial best suited to your particular needs. Why not shake off that indifference?

CONVERSATION AND LETTER WRITING WILL COME BACK

(Minneapolis Journal)

In the more spacious time of yore, conversation and letter writing took their places among the arts. Leisure and thought were devoted to them, as among the more agreeable occupations of those times. We like to read the old "table talks," the carefully written and neatly phrased letters, and the conversations of persons of genteel leisure of the Eighteenth and earlier centuries. Without them our literature would be singularly bereft.

But in these degenerate days the old art of quiet, leisurely conversation has passed away. We are in a rapid fire era, in which one man is not satisfied to shoot another with a single pistol bullet or one letter, but must mow him and his friends down with a volley of books, or with a rapid fire arms that squirts bullets as a hose sprays water. It is a waste of time to talk to one appreciative Boswell even, a man must address five thousand Boswells in the largest auditorium obtainable. Otherwise, is not the best of conversation somewhat wasted?

The rapid fire plan is so unpleasant a phase of life that in the nature of things the mental attitude that calls for it must change enough to permit something of the old conversation and the old letter writing of a more leisurely period to find their way back again. Do we not even now feel some of the desire for the familiar friend to whom we may leisurely listen without the necessity of much or any reply? We are going back to the charm of the old open fire, even where the house is superheated by steam. "The open fire" in letters and conversation will come back, if it is not already warming the cold hearts of the publishers. And so in the very presence of the speeding motor cars and the moving picture show, where conversation is clearly impossible, we are somehow cheered and strengthened. We take heart of grace. Conversation will come back.

El Paso—"El Paso" is the title of a 128-page pamphlet recently issued by the local Chamber of Commerce. The book is well gotten up and shows in a most convincing way the wonderful resources of the "Gate City" and the magnificent opportunities afforded settlers. It is being widely distributed.

MAY ARM ENGLAND SENTRIES WITH AMERICAN SHOTGUNS

(Correspondence to the Associated Press.)

London, Sept. 30.—A correspondent writes the London Field suggesting that British sentries "against German spies within the United Kingdom" be armed with the American "sawed off" shotgun, charged with buckshot. He urges that such a weapon would be more efficient for sentries at railway bridges and other places where guards are maintained than the service rifle, especially at night.
