WILSON'S LETTERS AID CONGRESSMEN

PRESIDENT OPENS LETTER WRITING CAMPAIGN FOR ELECTION OF DEMOCRATS

ENDORSEMENT OF SHIVELY

President Says Maintenance of Democratic Majority of Utmost Importance

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 1.—President Wilson today opened his campaign of letter writing for the election of Democratic senators. He wrote to Senator Chamberlain of Oregon. Others will be written in the near future. In his letter to Senator Owner, endorsing Senator Chamberlain, he declares "the maintenance of the Democratic majority in the Senate is of the utmost importance if the present policies and program of the government are to be sustained and continued. And I take it far granted that voters everywhere will feel the force of the motto."

The letter endorsing Senator Shively was addressed to Majority Leader Kern of the Senate. In it the President said: "I am genuinely surprised that any question would have arisen as to whether I want Senator Shively returned. I do most decidedly. I have admired Senator Shively's steadfast devotion to duty and his unflinching loyalty in all matters of public policy, as all his party associates have, and I have learned to have a very warm personal feeling and admiration for him. It would, in my judgment, be a very great loss to the party and to the Senate if he should not be re-elected. I trust that there is no doubt of his reelection. May I not add a word of cordial appreciation of the whole Indiana delegation. The members of the House have stood loyally and faithfully by the administration in every important matter and have made me feel a very deep interest in the political fortunes of every one of them. I need not tell you my own appreciation and admiration of yourself."

ANTWERP'S FORTIFICATIONS AMONG STRONGEST IN WORLD

The fortifications of Antwerp are reckoned among the strongest in the world. The city has been fortified since the middle of the sixteenth century. In 1860, twenty-eight years after the taking of the city by English and French troops, Brialmont, the noted Belgian fort builder, supervised the re-fortification of the city, and since 1877 it has had a line of forts well out from the inner defenses.

The growing efficiency of modern siege guns, however, compelled the Belgians, if they desired to preserve their neutrality, to modernize their defenses. In 1907 the government decided to do away with the inner line of walls and replace them with an inner line of forts on the right bank of the Scheldt. The plan involved the barricading of the intervals between the eight forts with iron barricades and permanent redoubts. At the north and northeast great earthworks were planned for infantry and ditches, which can be inundated from the Scheldt were dug in front of the earthworks. The forts on the left bank of the Scheldt are to supplement this inner line of defenses.

The greatest importance is attached to the outer works. They consist in part of new fortifications, in part of the forts rebuilt. The work was begun in 1913.

It is probable that this ideal was realized and that the fortification system is now practically complete. Of the new forts on the outer line, five lie to the east of Antwerp, Cravenzel, Oelghem, Broechen, Resael and Koningslyck. There are six redoubts to the west, and two more protect Herbrand and Braschaet in the north, while the new forts, Breendonk, Lajezele and Bornhem have been erected on the south. The Fort Haesdonk, protected by two redoubts, also has been erected on the west.

This outer chain of forts lies from ten to eleven miles outside the city and has a front of about eighty miles.

BANK BILL AGAIN HAS NARROW ESCAPE

ADJOURNMENT CAME JUST IN TIME TO PREVENT COMMITTEE VOTE

HARD SLEDDING IS AHEAD

Governor Will Appear Before House Committee Tonight To Discuss Measure

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Oct. 1.—Friends of the bank of Texas bill in the Senate committee again saved the measure from possible defeat by preventing a vote being taken on the motion of Senator Wiley that the bill be adversely reported. Just as a vote was about to be taken, the Senate setting as a committee of the whole voted to adjourn by a vote of 13 to 12. This is the same vote by which the bill was saved yesterday.

The bill was under consideration today by the Senate judiciary committee No. 1 to which the entire membership of the Senate was added. The committee began its session at 9 o'clock. Senator McNealus insisted that the bill should be given full discussion.

Senator Collins who is a supporter of the bill insisted that the governor and Assistant Attorney General Cureton should be heard on the measure by the committee; that to refuse to invite them would be a great indignity. Senator Collins challenged the opponents to submit it to the people. The committee, however, sidetracked his motion.

Senator Hudspeth occupied the floor for almost two hours in which he explained the basic principles of the measure. He also charged that the opponents of the bill were attempting to force a vote on the Wiley measure because they believed they had a majority. The Senate committee meets again this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The House also convenes at the same time.

After a conference today with Representative Calvin, champion of the bank of Texas bill in the House, Governor Colquitt decided to appear before the House banking committee tonight. It is said that he would favor the bank of Texas bill even were the school bonds eliminated as the bank of Texas would be started on a small scale with other funds which it could get and which it was estimated would amount to approximately $7,000,000.

ANTWERP ATTACK STILL CONTINUES

BELGIANS CLAIM GERMAN FIRE HAS BEEN INEFFECTIVE AGAINST FORTS

BELGIANS CAPTURE GUNS

Silence of Forts Leads Germans Into Error That Cost Loss of Many Men

By Associated Press. London, 5:26 p. m. Oct. 1.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Antwerp says the German attack on Antwerp continued through last night with little interruption. The Belgian forts replied so effectively with artillery fire that the Germans several times were compelled to change the position of their batteries.

The Wivre and St. Catharine forts remained silent for some time, their silence leading the Germans to believe that their bombardment had been effective. The Germans then sent a section with field artillery toward the forts. The Belgians then opened fire. Only a few of the attacking force escaped. Following this the Belgians made a sortie and captured several guns.

ALLIES CONFIDENT

British Observers Believe History on Marne About To Be Repeated.

London, Oct. 1.—The screen of secrecy erected by the censorship across northern France and behind which, figuratively speaking, military craftsmen for the past three weeks have been fashioning the rough draft of the map of the eastern hemisphere, stands today almost unperceived. It has, however, been pierced here and there with holes which would permit some inkling of events happening on the stage where the great armies are gripped. From what can be deduced from these fragmentary glimpses there would appear to be justification, in the opinion of British observers for the confident optimism on the part of the allies.

British observers describe events as shaping themselves for a repetition of history as it was written on the River Marne when the allied forces sent the Germans back on their track. All the tactical tactics employed by General Von Kluck, commander of the German right wing, to counter or break through the fence of bayonets constantly reaching northward beyond his own line right thus far have failed. These effects, however, have been by no means given up, and the German general staff, it is felt in London, probably will risk something elsewhere to reinforce this wing before the end of the chapter is written on the battlefield.

Heretofore reinforcements have been met by reinforcements in this critical quarter. The Germans nearly got through the Allies line near Albert to the northeast of Amiens, but in their struggle for the mastery they failed. These efforts, however, have been by the Germans have, according to the allied commanders, whose reports are alternated by statements from important sources, cost the assailants such appalling losses in men that even, allowing for reinforcements, their ranks must have been materially weakened.

The announcement from France of the creation of the post of Marshal of France, coming simultaneously with the report of General Joffre, commander in chief of the French force, as the satisfactory condition along the entire battle line was hailed by the allies as particularly significant.

In the eastern field the German navy is showing increased activity on the Baltic coast. It is in readiness to support German land forces if they succeed in crossing the River Neimen. In the meanwhile there has come to London news that within a week a new Russian army, a million strong, will join the present armies in Poland and Galicia for "Russia's principal attack on Germany."

The School Savings Department Will be Opened the First Monday in October

There was so much interest manifested the short time it run last year, by the children, that the teachers and the bank feel amply repaid for their extra trouble and expense, in trying to teach the children, as we think one of the most important lessons to be learned—THAT OF SAVING—AND WHAT SYSTEMATIC SAVING WILL DO.

This department was introduced and run less than three months last year and at the close of school there were 388 children depositing with their teachers and had a total deposit of $1092.42. This we consider a very fine showing.

For further information as to prizes, etc., call the bank or your teacher.

TWO YOUTHS WHO BURGLARIZED

BURGLARY IN THE DAY TIME

Boys Ran With Loot When Discovered—Captured After Veritable Man Hunt

Two boys, aged apparently about eighteen years, were in the toils at the county jail today as the result of the burglarizing of the house of R. V. Morgan, east of the city. Members of Mr. Morgan's family saw the boys in the act of burglary in the day time and the youths ran, carrying their spoils with them. The officers were notified and after considerable search the boys were located in the underbrush about a mile from the town. The suit cases which they had been carrying were gone.

After putting one of the boys through the sweating process, Constable Burns learned where the missing property was, the boys having hidden part of it under a pile of hay and buried the rest. The loot included several suits of clothes, a razor, a pistol and some other articles, taken from the rooms of the Morgan home. It was learned that one of the boys was convicted recently in Montague county, being under a three years suspended sentence there.

The search for the boys was a veritable man hunt those whose property had been stolen assisting the officers in scouring the country side. One of the men had followed the boys at a distance when they were first seen and he was able to show the officers about where they were.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing down feelings, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, overworked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder remedy will do for them. COUNTING SEASON AT LOCAL POST OFFICE

All Mail Will Be Counted and Weighed For Thirty Days On Rural Routes

This is counting season in the local postoffice, and orders have been received from Washington to count practically every class of mail that comes to the office. For one week all local letters, that is all letters and cards mailed here for delivery within the city, will be counted and the total postage upon them computed. For fifteen days all incoming parcels post bundles are to be counted, and all outgoing parcels are to be counted, weighed and the zone of the destination noted. From October 19 to 24, city carriers will be required to classify and weigh all the mail they deliver.

For thirty days the rural carriers will count and weigh all mail handled by them. This is done to ascertain the relative amount of work each carrier has to do; the law fixing the maximum pay of carriers at $1200 per year has been construed by the postoffice department as meaning that some carriers may receive less than that amount, not as meaning that each shall receive $1200. The pay is to be based on the amount of matter carried and the count was ordered for that purpose.

September's receipts at the office here were $4662.86, a gain of $166.77 over September, 1913. This gain, while not large, is considered a good one in view of existing conditions.

At The Theaters

The Victoria.
Today is showing the Mutual Weekly. Among other things of interest, some of the armies of the East will be shown in this picture. "Her Mother's Neckband," two part feature, a feature comedy drama of unusual merit in which Dorcas appears in a charming characterization.

The Empress.

An unusual feature, "The Eagle's Refuge," a three part picture giving a winter story in Switzerland, is showing here. The following criticism is from the Moving Picture World:
"The Alps in winter are magnificent as a background for a story. Even photographed as perfectly as in this offering, they will hardly take the place of good action, but when, as here, they set forth a story that of itself holds attention, they heighten the value of the offering greatly. This picture plot is not new at all, but the action which it keeps concrete is almost wholly entertaining and there strung on it incidents that are often startlingly fresh and sensational. Its climax is an avalanche which the mountain bursts down upon the 'eagle's refuge,' a cabin in which the heroine's burglar lover, whom she thinks a marquis, is engulfed. There is a telephone in the cabin and the imprisoned man calls her up where she is staying at one of the great San Moritz hotels. She and her true lover go to the rescue, but the eminent victim on the upper mountain slope has overturned his oil lamp and set the cabin on fire. The fumes of burning stifle him and they find him dead.

The story will prove entertaining, but the best thing about the picture is the fact that its action carries along through scenes of the every day sports of winter merrymakers in Alpine places. It is full of the holiday spirit, with skating, sleighing, etc., till one in this sultry summer weather forgets all about the heat. It opens at one of the big hotels and introduces an engaged couple, then the "marquis" comes and pays attention to the girl who, for a time, is carried away with the honor of being courted by a nobleman. Then jewels begin to be missed and a somewhat convincing detective is called. They find the right man, but his escape is astonishingly unconventional yet quite believable. All the snow pictures are photographed and toned in a way that brings out the beauty of the distant hills wrapped in their white and blue silence and doesn't neglect the charms of the foreground with golden light slanting across white snow and laying blue shadow from the trees.

The Gem.

Norma Tammadge, Antonio Moreno and Harry Kendall are featuring in "John Rance, Gentleman," a two part Vitagraph.

John Rance, a young hospital interne, becomes ill from overwork and goes to a summer hotel for rest. There he meets Lesbia Vane, a frivolous, pleasure-seeking girl, who flirts with him. On return to the city, Lesbia scorns John's love and flouts him. He is heartbroken, leaves the hospital and takes up medical work among the sailors. He meets an old friend, George Cummings, who is about to start on a cruise around the world. John tells him of Lesbia, without disclosing the girl's name. Cummings, while abroad meets and marries Lesbia. Three years later, he returns with her to America and invites John to come and visit them. Lesbia is cold and indifferent to her husband's love, and when she and John come face to face, realizes she really loves him. She essays the role of temptress, but John turns from her coldly. Later, her husband overhears Lesbia passionately declaring her love for his friend, who tells her, "I love you as of old, but your husband is my dearest friend." Cummings is dazed and disappears, leaving a note saying he wishes to make Lesbia and John happy by his action. John finds the note, and later, his friend's body, realizes the tremendous sacrifice Cummings has made, and determines his own renunciation shall be as great. Shortly afterwards, when Lesbia tells him, "I am free, I am wealthy; let us be happy," John sternly hands her the note left by her husband. Her better self is awakened and with an understanding of the nobility of the two men, turns sadly away, leaving John Rance alone with the consciousness of having been true to his friend and himself.

The Majestic.

Today's picture are as follows: "The Man and the Master," featuring Charles West, Claire McDowell, and "A Little Child Shall Lead Them." The next time they meet she makes a thrust at him with a dagger. Mario rushes between them and receives the blow. The wound is a glancing one and Rosa shows her love for Mario by her penitence and sympathy, while Ernesto is glad to make peace and depart.

LAUNDRY WORKERS WALK OUT TODAY

WALKOUT FOLLOWS REFUSAL OF PROPRIETORS TO SIGN UNION CONTRACT

DRIVERS AND GIRLS QUIT

Only Few Machines Running—Employees Wanted to Retain Hiring and Firing Right

About forty laundry employees, mostly girls, walked out this morning and the laundries are operating with short forces. The walkout follows the refusal of the laundry proprietors to sign a contract with the recently organized laundry workers' union. Negotiations were reopened this week and when the managers again refused to sign up, the walkout followed.

A number of the machines were idle in the three local laundries following the walkout, but a few machines were running. At the Pond Laundry several girls were still at work and J. W. Pond, the proprietor, stated that he had sufficient force at work to prevent any inconvenience. At the Model and Acme laundries, the plants were very nearly idle.

It is understood that the question of wages is not involved at this time and that the employees want only recognition of their union. At one time one of the laundries here had signed up with the union but it changed hands soon afterward and the new management declined to sign up. The principal feature of the contract, it is said, is that it puts the hiring and discharging of employes in the hands of the union.

A union of laundry workers was organized here several weeks ago and has been bending its efforts since that time toward getting the proprietors to sign contracts. The number who quit work today is estimated at more than sixty.

BURKBURNETT MAN UNDER BOND ON SERIOUS CHARGE

J. W. Robinson of Burkburnett, said to be a preacher, was released on $2000 bond today from the county jail where he had been confined on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Friends and relatives from Cleburne arrived this morning and arranged for the bond, Robinson having waived examining trial. His case will await the action of the grand jury.

The complaining witness is a young woman residing in the Burkburnett neighborhood. The complaint was filed at Burkburnett and her name could not be learned here.

A new vaudeville bill will open today, the two acts playing the first part of the week closing a very successful engagement last night. These speak highly for the new vaudeville circuit which the Lydia has booked and an unusually good bill may be expected for tonight. "For the Secret Service," a two reel Rex drama, has its conception in the methods of modern warfare as waged on the continent at the present time.

With the advent of the aeroplane as an implement of war came the necessity of meeting this new menace with a means of destruction. The perfecting of such means—a mechanical device which will locate an aeroplane before it is in range of human vision and the control of wireless waves in exploding the gasoline supply of an aircraft—the desperate efforts of foreign agents to gain the secret of this discovery, the meeting, the progress of love between the young inventor and the female United States Secret Service agent forms the material on which this drama is based.

Robert Leonard, one of the Rex's most sterling actors and as handsome as he is popular, is seen in the role of Bryce Carlton, the young inventor. It is a part that demands just such a vigorous physique as he possesses. Miss Ella Hall plays opposite as Constance Chambers of the United States Secret Service. She is piquant, dashing and unafraid. In the rescue she makes of the young inventor, her lover, and the wild automobile pursuit following, we have one of the most thrilling series of scenes ever conceived for the screen.

Will the time ever come when a similar invention as suggested in this picture be developed and used in destroying aeroplanes? We think it is possible—in fact, quite probable. Even now the newspapers are recording experiments, more or less successful, along this line. Delving into the future, the action of this play shows what might reasonably happen in such a case—the terrible uses such an instrument could be put to. Bryce Carlton uses it to save his sweetheart who is being pursued in an auto by the foreign spies; he looks into the reflecting plate, sees the race between the pursued and pursuing automobiles, and when the latter seems about to overtake the former, pulls the lever that explodes its gasoline tanks and sends its occupants into the beyond. Thrilling escapades, with breathless romance combine to make the picture one of rare quality and interest.

German Coffee Cake

Made Without Yeast

By Mrs. Janet McKensie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. There is no warm bread quite as appropriate for Sunday morning breakfast as German Coffee Cake, yet it is seldom made by housewives who do not bake their own bread.

K C German Coffee Cake

Two and one-fourth cups sifted flour; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1 level teaspoonful salt; 2 tablespoonfuls melted butter; 2 tablespoonfuls sugar; 1 egg; milk.

Sift dry ingredients together, beat the egg, add milk and butter to the egg to make one and one-quarter cups; stir all together with inverted spoon to a stiff batter. Turn into biscuit pan and spread even. Brush top lightly with melted butter. Sprinkle sugar and ground cinnamon over the top. Bake in moderate oven.

Dutch Apple Cake or Prune Kuchen can be made with this same batter by covering the top with pared and sliced apples, or cooked prunes with the pits removed, skin sides down. Dredge with sugar and cinnamon the same as for Coffee Cake.

NO ARRESTS YET OF WOMEN OF RESERVATION

Reported That a Number Have Left Town and That Others Will Follow

Although last night marked the expiration of the two days of grace given the habitues of the reservation to move out and close up, no arrests were made by the sheriff's department. At the court house this morning it was denied that there had been any "back down" on the part of the sheriff's department, and it was said that no action was taken because a number of the women had left the city and the others were preparing to do so.

The sheriff's department takes the view that if the residents get out, there is no need for arrests and if the "move on" order is complied with, no arrests are likely.

LARGE HATS WITH SMALL CROWNS ARE POPULAR

The very small hat has had an unprecedented hold on popular fancy for quite long enough, say the millinery designers and while it will probably by any means be discarded this season, it at least is not to exclude the large shapes, as it has done for three seasons past.

The newest thing is the large, wide brimmed hat that sweeps up on one side, with a small close crown and extremely simple trimmings, and in these shades black velvet, reds and silvers. Metal tissue roses and gold and silver galloons are among the smart trimmings. These and feather trimmings are used almost exclusively.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST HIGH PRICES IS INSTITUTED

In response to a call issued by Mrs. S. H. Burnside, president of the First District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in accordance with the general call issued by Mrs. Henry B. Fall, state president, representative club women of the city met at the home of Mrs. W. M. McGregor Thursday morning at 10 o'clock to discuss the prevalent high prices and ways and means of lowering them.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. Burnside as acting chairman and Mrs. Sanders as secretary. Mrs. Fall's letter of this week, asking for co-operation on the part of the club women of Texas in a concerted effort to lower the cost of living in a practical manner was read by Mrs. Sanders and her suggestions noted. The question was then opened for discussion by all present and various theories and plans were advanced. Cash payment and more careful marketing on the part of the house wife was advocated and an allowance basis was suggested. It is the desire of the women to lower the cost of food stuffs, which seems to be most affected by the war, to aid the poorer people, whose need is greatest, for wages are no higher and the necessity for eating remains the same, while prices rise rapidly.

After a prolonged discussion, by motion it was decided that each one present should take up the question in her own club and that plans should be formulated and another meeting held to decide on some action in connection with this most important question. A plan was made of the pure food movement and a "white list" of local merchants was suggested as a means to accomplish the desired end in having the stores comply with all of the pure food regulations. This movement will also receive a good deal of the attention of the clubs during the coming season. Further action will be taken on the "cost of living" problem in the near future after it has been passed upon by the different clubs.

When Fashion Spells Economy. (From Woman's World) It isn't every year that we may take a shabby-blue serge suit and an out of style black satin frock and after cleaning and pressing, combine them into a dress that is quite up to date. This and similar delightful economies are quite possible now and remodeling is robbed of most of its difficulties. A drop skirt of lining will be made and faced, about 12 inches deep at the lower edge, with the black satin. The serge skirt will be drawn up at the waist, making it fuller here and about the hips, the fullness laid in a couple of plaits; or else this larger measure will be fitted into the waist size and the seams run out sharply toward the lower edge to give more "spring" or flare. The long tunic, only nine or ten inches shorter than the underskirt, is the most fashionable at present. Of course, cutting off the lower part of the serge skirt, where the edge is badly worn, is the simplest matter in the world. The sleeves may be made of the satin and the remainder of the waist of the serge. A wide belt of serge, with black satin buttons at the closing, will connect tunic and waist. And the new hip yokes! Do you realize what a blessing a yoke is in making over a skirt. When yokes were not in style, how often we have seen exactly the way to remake a skirt if we might only put a yoke at the top of it. Of course, the yoke must be the same material as the skirt. When we make these new old combinations we must be a little careful in selection, but by taking thought we may go ahead and remodel dresses and suits that seem hopeless because color or material could not be matched. REPUBLIC OF PANAMA SUFFERS FROM WAR (Correspondence of the Associated Press) Panama, Oct. 1.—Like nearly all the central and west coast South American countries, Panama is suffering from the effects of the European conflict. The situation here is aggravated, it is declared, by a lack of financial surplus and it has been found necessary to propose the discharge of many government employees and the stoppage of practically all of the public work. There is no immediate possibility of securing additional revenue from import duties. Under treaty agreements with the United States the republic cannot increase duties beyond the 15 per cent which is already imposed. Ever since the outbreak of the European war imports have steadily declined, those from Europe having almost disappeared, while imports from the United States and other neutral countries have not increased sufficiently to make up the deficit.

It is deemed easy enough for the State legislature of Oklahoma to legislate regarding oil, but now comes the difficulty of finding purchasers at the price named. It will be that way when legislation by legislators to regulate land rentals. A man who is forgetting to own a good farm is not much better off than the fellow who owns a farm that is not so good.
It stands to reason that if the soil of the good farm will produce more per acre than the farm with a soil not so productive, it makes the good farm more desirable to the tenant, and if the tenant wants to pay more rent for good land than for bad land, it is no-body's business but his own.

A month ago the slogan was: "Sit tight and don't rock the boat." But it hasn't been lived up to. Somebody has been rocking the boat, and the result is the people have been frightened between there was nothing—save one fact, the low price of cotton, to be frightened about. There is just as much money in the country now as there ever has been, but the trouble seems to be that when there is the greatest demand for it, those who have the money are least inclined to let it out. They are the fellows who are guilty of rock-ing the boat. After awhile, perhaps, the money-bags will become tired and loosen up a bit. When they do, conditions will change for the better. As to just when they will do this depends entirely on just how bad they have succeeded in frightening themselves by rocking the boat they are riding in.

The general opinion of the newspapers of the State is that Governor Colquitt's idea or plan for the establishment of a State central bank is very good, provided it could be accomplished without involving the State school fund. As a rule, the press voices the sentiment of the people, and if that be true in this instance, the Governor is wasting his energies and a goodly sum of the taxpayers money by attempting to put something over the people they do not want and are not going to have.
Rather than allow the State school fund to be used in a way that might wipe it completely out of existence, they—the people—prefer to sell their criticism at the best price obtainable and let it go at that. After all that has been said and done, the only real trouble seems to be that too much attention has been produced, and this trouble can be wiped out by the cotton raisers themselves, agreeing to not Plant-cotton next year. A year ago the cane sugar and sugar beet producers were scared fully as bad, if not worse than the cotton producers now are about the tariff being taken off of sugar. But they handled the situation nice-enough by planting less. The result is or ought to be very satisfactory to them, as sugar is selling now at a price that is a great deal higher than it was before the tariff was taken off.

The cotton farmers can raise the price of cotton in the same way. If they don't do it, then they will have no one to blame but themselves.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS.

Strangely enough political peace does not brood over Texas, notwithstanding the burial of prohibition politicians.

News dispatches from Austin report that Governor Colquitt has broken with Nominee Ferguson over the State bank bill. In this connection it is interesting to note that the Governor revives the campaign story that Mr.
Ferguson is influenced to oppose any change in the method of handling the school fund by the fact that his bank borrows $50,000 of this fund at a low rate of interest and loans it at a high rate of interest.

It may be written down as a certainty that the Ferguson administration will not support Colquitt for the Senate. And it is equally certain that O.
B. Colquitt will not contribute anything to the peace and happiness of Mr. Ferguson during his term as governor.

And there is Bob Henry and his senatorial aspirations. A few years ago Mr. Ferguson launched the Henry boom at a banquet in Waco. Mr. Henry is the author of a scheme to valorize cotton which has the endorsement of Governor Colquitt and the Farmers' Union. The Union has also endorsed Governor Colquitt's State bank bill, which is opposed by Mr. Ferguson.

When the conference of Southern governors assembled in Washington Monday Congressman Henry appeared with a letter from Governor Colquitt appointing him to represent the Texas governor. These two aspirants for Senator Culberson's seat are fighting for the farmers vote and are championing measures opposed by Mr. Ferguson.
Later they will part company, but just now they are fighting shoulder to shoulder.

Senator Culberson has bought a bale of cotton at ten cents a pound from a Marion county farmer and occasionally writes an autograph letter to a Texas friend telling of his improved health.

The other prospective candidates for the Senate are not figuring in the news dispatches, but this does not necessarily mean that they are inactive.

There is always something doing in a political way in Texas. Fort Worth

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Sharply higher prices at Paris had a bullish effect today on the wheat market here. The stock of bread stuff in France was

THE EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.

J. C. Ziegler, the inventor and manufacturer of a stove that is said to create more heat and use less fuel than most any other stove, writes The Times as follows:

Wichita Falls, Texas, October 1, 1914.—The Times Publishing Company,
Wichita Falls, Texas. Gentlemen:
First of all I wish to thank you for the favorable mention you made of my stove in last Tuesday's issue of The Times, which created a very decided inquiry at Brin & Dolman's the following day. This is only another demonstration of the advertising power of your highly valued paper.

In this connection I wish to call your attention to the fact that this is the very first time in the history of Texas that the manufacture of stoves has been carried on in a commercial way and it should be of special significance that Wichita Falls is the place in which this enterprise is being conducted.

This is only another evidence of the enterprise and pluck of its citizenship and should go far to advertise our city as a manufacturing center and thus become the means of drawing other enterprises into our midst.

Again thanking you for the courtesy extended, I beg to remain, Yours very truly,
J. C. ZIEGLER.

Norman Cliff, who was injured at the Lone Star Gas company's pumping station, arrived on today's train and was immediately sent to the sanitarium in this city. Mr. Cliff was doing some work at the top of the cooling tower and accidentally fell to the ground, cutting a bad gash in his forehead and severely wrenching his back. The injured man was unconscious for some time, but regained control of his senses before arriving here.

Because a cotton picker preferred to talk about the prowess of Collins, Baker and McInnis in the coming world's series, he was refused a job by a farmer today. Instead of discussing the present low price of cotton and agreeing with the farmer that the man that raised cotton couldn't afford to pay a high price for picking, he told of the small chance Boston had when playing against the Athletics—and lost the job.

Moving from their home in Amarillo, to their future home in Dallas, Garwood Harris and wife stopped over here for a short time today to refill the gasoline tank of their automobile.
They left Amarillo yesterday a short time before noon and arrived here shortly after noon today. Dallas will be reached by about noon tomorrow.

On an extended tour of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, J. O.
Godlove and wife stopped here a short time this afternoon to make inquiries about the roads and secure necessary supplies. They left Clayton, N. M., about twenty days ago and have been out in the open in their car ever since.
Being out for Mrs. Godlove's health, their sole object in touring these states is to pass away the time out in the fresh air and incidentally pass a few mile posts in accomplishing their object. The car is loaded with camping outfit, suit cases, etc., and they make camp just any place night happens to approach. They left in the direction of the Oklahoma line as they intend to take in that state.

C. H. Russell, deputy sheriff, says that he was the man referred to in yesterday's Times by the man arrested in a downtown rooming house on a charge of being drunk and disturbing the peace and says he did not drink anything while in the house nor did he take a nap. He only answered a phone call to come and arrest the man which he did as quickly as possible. The man arrested was convicted and fined $5 and costs, failing to pay which was placed in jail.

BIG ORDER FOR HORSES RECEIVED AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Oct. 1.—The largest order for army horses since the Boer war was given by the French government to commission firms at the horse and mule market of the St. Louis National Stock yards today. The order is for 4,500 cavalry horses. Further orders are likely. One horse dealer at the yards said the eight representatives of the French government who placed the order would remain at the stock yards for six weeks. They have permission to place orders for a total of 100,000 horses, the greater stated.

The order for 4,500 horses, which will be filled within the next ten days, involves more than $750,000. If the French army orders 100,000 horses from the St. Louis market the total amount of the purchase will exceed $12,000,000.

At the regular meeting of Temple 162, Order of Aztec last night, about 65 members were present. Nine new members reported for initiation and were carried through the ceremony in due course. Nineteen other applicants' names were handed over to the credential committee in order to let that department pass upon the desirability of them as members before the initiation. A. L. Kinard, keeper of secrets, resigned last night and M. B. Stevens was selected to fill his place. The charter was announced closed after the first of October and hereafter all applicants for membership must pay the regular entrance fee instead of being allowed to join without charge as they have been doing. The membership list has run over the 100 mark that was set for the closing. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a social meeting for October the 14th, when invitations will be extended to our sisters enjoining them to be present for the night. After which the regular social hour in which amusements went the rounds.

A fine of fifteen dollars was assessed for this remark and in default of the amount he went to jail. Yesterday afternoon Officers Nail and Towery sought to arrest a companion of his who appeared drunk, the man interfered.

A piece of steel as large as a water melon seed was removed from the eye of R. F. Lane, who was the victim of an accident at Petrolia while helping rivet some tanks that are being placed there. It was thought at the start that the eye could be saved from total blindness, but the havoc wrought by the magnet in removing it, necessitates that the eye ball be removed entirely. Inasmuch as the foreign substance entered from under the eye, it was necessary to apply enough force to cause it to forge its own way out to the front.

The striking laundry workers paraded through the business section shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon. There were about seventy in line, including the band and some sympathizers from other labor organizations. The procession was cheered at some points as it passed down the streets. NOMINAL WHEAT REQUIREMENTS BY FOREIGN NATIONS

England's average yearly import of wheat, the London Statist points out, is 218,400,000 bushels; Germany's, 67,200,000; Austria's, 1,600,000, and that of France 46,400,000. But in most of these countries, this year's crops are below the average. France, whose harvest is under the ten year average by eight or nine million bushels, will have to import about 56,000,000 bushels. Austria-Hungary has produced 40,800,000 bushels less than usual, and will therefore have to import something like 40,000,000. Germany has been luckier; its present harvest is nearly 5,000,000 bushels above the average; but even so, it will need approximately 60,000,000 bushels from the outside world. Russia is in the opposite position. Its average export of wheat is 140,800,000 bushels.

MANY WANT POSITIONS IN CONTROLLER'S OFFICE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 1.—State Senator H. B. Terrell, Democratic nominee for State comptroller, already has received several hundred applications for positions in the comptroller's department, where there are approximately forty clerkships. The impression prevails among many that a number of changes will be made in the personnel of the comptroller's office when Senator Terrell succeeds W. P. Lane, present incumbent.

BURLESON EXTENDS FARM TO TABLE SERVICE

Washington, Oct. 1.—Postmaster General Burleson today extended "the farm to the table" service of the parcels post to fifteen cities in addition to the twelve to which the service already applies. Among the cities named today was Austin, Texas, and New Orleans.

ONE CAN NEVER TELL

What may happen! Better let us beautify that NEGLECTED Cemetery Plot before you do like many others seem to have done—FORGOT, become careless, or just plain don't care.

One of our customers said the other day, "I don't see why we haven't attended to this work long ago; we should have, but—well, any way we didn't intend to neglect it." How is the public, or those who have the best interests of the cemetery at heart, or even your friends and loved ones to know but that you didn't care? Deeds are more convincing than excuses. Anyone can make excuses, but it takes courage and character to do things.

We will do anything you want done—sod, water, beautify and erect the Memorial best suited to your particular needs. Why not shake off that indifference?
