NO REASON KNOWN FOR GUTIERREZ' ACT

WASHINGTON DOES NOT UNDERSTAND WITHDRAWAL FROM CAPITAL

NO DISORDER IN MEXICO CITY

Reports of Breach Between Villa and Zapata Factions Can Not Be Confirmed

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 18.—When General Gutierrez left Mexico City yesterday morning he took with him most of the troops garrisoned in the capital. State department advisers indicate that Gutierrez' present command is 5,000 men. An official here infers that few soldiers remained in the capital from the fact that the first act of General Garza the new provisional president was to utilize the police force temporarily for military purposes.

The state department is particularly anxious to know whether Gutierrez had abandoned all claims to the provisional presidency or had gone to Pachuca with part of his cabinet to set up a government there in defiance of the conventional faction in Mexico City.

So far there has been no confirmation of reports that Villa and Zapata have broken off friendly relations. Villa is on his way from Agua Calientes where he has a formidable army assembled and is expected to enter the capital sometime today. A part of the garrison remaining in the capital is said to be made up of Zapata troops. The report of a breach between the two leaders soon will be put to a practical test.

A telegram to the state department, dated January 16, 9 a. m., from Mexico City states that all business houses were closed and uncertainty existed as to what the faction controlled the city. Another telegram sent at 5 p. m. the same day said the reason for the sudden departure of Gutierrez still was unknown. The governor of the federal district had given assurance that there was no cause for alarm in the capital, adding that he had sufficient troops for the preservation of order and anticipated no attack on the city. The telegram, dated January 17 from Aguascalientes said all rail traffic south of that point had been suspended.

An undated dispatch from Mazatlan said the cruiser Maryland and the Mexican gunboat Lanza had arrived there. Nine railroad bridges had been burned between Navarero and Mazatlan. The message said the opposing forces were engaged at Navarero.

NO ARRESTS ARE MADE IN DAVIS SHOOTING CASE

No arrests have been made in connection with the shooting of Al Davis early Sunday morning. Officers who have investigated the affair are convinced that the revolver was discharged during a scuffle between Davis and his wife and are not disposed to file a complaint against Mrs. Davis. Davis' wound is not serious.

OKLAHOMA POULTRY SHOW BEGINS FOURTH SESSION

By Associated Press. Oklahoma City, Jan. 18.—The Oklahoma Poultry Show, known as the "Gold Special" was opened here today and continues through Saturday. This is the fourth annual session of this association, considered the best among the best of the State.

Dr. F. M. McConnell, corresponding secretary of the Baptist executive board, will preach at the First Baptist Church Tuesday night at 7:30. He will also speak at Iowa Park Wednesday night and at Burkholder Thursday night.

FEARS PEACE WILL BRING STILL MORE HARD TIMES

By Associated Press. London, Jan. 18.—That the return of peace may prove even more calamitous to industry than was the outbreak of war, was suggested by Prof. Sidney Webb in a lecture on "The Terms of Peace," at the opening of the London School of Economics.

"We have survived the outbreak of war," he said, "with amazingly little economic distress. The question now is whether, at the coming of peace, we shall be able to take the steps necessary to prevent the terms of peace working out in misery and distress in hundreds of thousands of households. If we are to do so, the first of the terms of peace, from the economic point of view, must be: No disbandment of the army. If men have jobs to go to, or are willing to take the risks, let them go; but there must be nobody turned out until they are likely to be absorbed in industry."

"As to terms of peace, Prof. Webb counseled moderation. England would do well," he urged, "not to look for any indemnity, for indemnities have a habit of doing those who exact them no good at all. Belgium, of course must be rehabilitated. We should hope to make a peace which would leave the foe without undue embitterment or humiliation. Humiliation is a most expensive luxury for a victor to impose upon a vanquished enemy. It does not pay to have an embittered enemy in the world."

AUSTRIA THOUGHT ITALY WAS PREPARING TO INVADE

Rushes Troops To Border, Only To Find It Was Telephone Girl's Mistake

By Associated Press. Genoa, Jan. 18.—A false report of an Italian invasion was spread in Trentino by the mistake of a telephone girl, said a Venice dispatch. She reported that Italian troops were marching toward Sappada, one of the easiest points for invading Trentino. The authorities never questioned the truth of the report. All night long roads were blocked up and troops were rushed toward Sappada. In the morning all were ready for the invasion, but there were no signs of them. The telephone girl is being prosecuted.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT WHEN HE FAILS TO PAY ENEMY

Judge Rules That Set of Furs is Not Legal Tender in Making Payments

W. P. Grisham of Electra, was given a hearing before Judge Akin in the district court this morning on a charge of contempt of court after hearing testimony Judge Akin ordered Grisham to pay to his former wife, Myrtle Grisham, at once $21.50 alimony.

During the present term of court Mrs. Grisham was granted a divorce by Judge Scurry from the defendant and was ordered to pay her $30 monthly alimony. Complaint was made that Grisham was refusing to pay all of this amount. At the hearing this morning he claimed that he had paid the full amount including a set of furs valued at $25 and other goods in the possession of the complainant as part of the amount. It developed in the testimony that the furs had cost Grisham only $15. They had been sent to Mrs. Grisham at Christmas time.

Mrs. Grisham testified that she had accepted them only with a distinct understanding that they were a gift and that their value was not to be charged against her alimony allowance. Judge Akin held that such a charge could not be credited against the alimony. No penalty was assessed against Grisham.

DEFEAT PROHIBITION FOR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Senate Refuses to Order Special Rule for Consideration of the Question

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 18.—The Senate defeated today 49 to 38 the motion to suspend its rules for consideration of a prohibition rider to the District of Columbia appropriation bill. A two-thirds majority was necessary to suspend the rules prohibiting general legislation in appropriation bills and the motion failed to receive even a majority.

COUMBS SIGNS CONTRACT WITH BROOKLYN NATIONALS

By Associated Press. Palestine, Texas, Jan. 18.—Jack Coumbs, former pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics, announced that he had signed a contract here today with the Brooklyn National team.

STEPS FOR IMPROVING PFTROGRAD WATER SUPPLY

Present System Apt To Fail in Cold Weather and Is Not Believed Sanitary

Petrograd, Jan. 18.—The city's recent experience in doing without water, as a result of the blocking of the Neva conduits by ice, has renewed the agitation for the adoption of a pure water from Ladoga Lake. The prince of Oldenburg has been appointed chairman of a commission to examine into the whole question.

The present system is the cleansing of the river water by means of an ozonizing process, which was recommended and installed by German experts, and has several times been condemned as inadequate and unsafe by British engineers. The latter hold the water responsible for a long series of epidemics.

DIFFICULTIES OF EASTERN CAMPAIGN

TRANSPORT SERVICE OF GERMAN SURMOUNTS NUMEROUS HARDSHIPS

By Associated Press. Headwaters German Army in Poland, Dec. 20, by courier to Berlin (by mail)—From Kutno to the headquarters of General Von Mackensen's army, one of the divisions to which the Associated Press correspondent has been assigned temporarily, runs one of the boggy trails over which the German transport service has done almost superhuman work in bringing forward ammunition and supplies for the last two months. A powerful automobile was barely able to plow its way over this track to army headquarters.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST CHOLERA

Fear of Disease is Rife—Destroyed Railroad Lines Are Now Being Rebuilt

By Associated Press. Headwaters German Army in Poland, Dec. 20, by courier to Berlin (by mail)—From Kutno to the headquarters of General Von Mackensen's army, one of the divisions to which the Associated Press correspondent has been assigned temporarily, runs one of the boggy trails over which the German transport service has done almost superhuman work in bringing forward ammunition and supplies for the last two months. A powerful automobile was barely able to plow its way over this track to army headquarters.

On most of the "lesser" roads progress in automobiles is stately out of the question. Ammunition wagons with lighted loads are barely able to struggle along behind three spans of horses. The route runs for 75 miles through an almost continuous battlefield, scarred with Russian and German trenches, some of them months old and some of them in which the feed turned earth is still fresh and yellow. Little half moon breast works show where the German mounds marked by a cross and the spiked helmet of the fallen soldier. The Russian graves usually show the Russian cross with its double bar.

Kutno is the present head of the railway which the German military corps is rebuilding in the rear of the army at the rate of from five to eight miles daily. This railway has been destroyed again and again during the operations. In many places so thoroughly that it was afterward hard to establish just where the original road had lain. The bridges on it, as General Von Ludendorff, Von Hindenburg's chief of staff, remarked, have been most of the time "in the air."

Here at Kutno was a field laundry in full operation. It is transported by automobile and can be brought into service almost anywhere. The laundry machinery is furnished by the automobile on which the laundry is transported.

COTTON SEED CRUSHING SHOWS GAIN OVER 1913

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 18.—Cotton seed from the crop of 1914 crushed prior to January 1 amounted to 3,333,955 tons compared with 3,012,885 tons of the 1913 crop. The total for 1914 and 1,767,802 tons from the entire 1913 crop. The census bureau announced today. Seed crushed and linters obtained by States follow: Oklahoma, seed in tons, 233,896; linters in bales, 36,708. Texas, seed, 917,255 tons; linters, 142,046 bales.

SERBIA HAS HARD TIME CARING FOR HER CAPTIVES

Hands Full Already Feeding Her Own People—Some Prisoners Very Friendly

By Associated Press. London, Jan. 18.—(By mail) The care of prisoners taken in battle has become one of the most serious problems of the war in Serbia, which already has its hands full feeding and providing for its own people. A Serbian captain writes to one of the staff of the legation here:

"One can have too much of a good thing. We began to understand why savages make no prisoners, but we are not savages and must feed and roof all these hostile visitors until the war is over. It is becoming a tremendous tax on our resources. Some of the Slav prisoners and most of our prisoners are Slavs, are not ill-disposed toward Serbia and a few of these we treat with the least important work of the camp and battlefield. One of my corporals who hurried across from an Austrian border town as a volunteer at the beginning of the war brought an Austrian dragon before me today, his face wreathed in smiles.

"This is my own brother, captain," he said, "I told him before I left that he would be pressed into the Austrian army if he remained and sure enough here he is."

SENATE WRANGLES OVER ENDORSEMENT

PRO-WILSON RESOLUTION TAKEN CAUSE, BUT NO ACTION IS TAKEN

Amendment Is Offered in House. Speaker Wood Announces His Committee

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Jan. 18.—Forty-seven new bills and 579 resolutions providing for amendments to the constitution, were introduced in the House of Representatives today. A majority of the bills were of a minor character. Among the proposed amendments to the constitution was the woman's suffrage amendment introduced by Burmeister of McMullen county. It was introduced simultaneously in the Senate by Senator McGregor of Travis county. Representative Dison introduced an amendment providing for four year terms for all state officers.

Boyer introduced a resolution providing for the reduction of the number of representatives to 21 senators and 63 representatives. He also introduced a resolution exempting wheat and cotton farmers from taxation for a period of ten years. Among the important bills introduced were:

By Templeton—compulsory education bill, fixing the school age from six to sixteen years.

By Wainwright—providing a fine of $100 to $1000 and a jail sentence of 20 to 60 days for betting on the result of any State election.

By Dove—creating rural banking associations.

By Wilford—giving physicians a lien on property for their services.

By Tilton—creating a state highway commission.

There was a considerable discussion in the Senate to the adoption of a resolution providing for the introduction of the Wilson resolution containing the declaration in favor of the exemption of American vessels from payment of tolls through the Panama Canal, which found its way into the Democratic platform through an oversight. The resolution also granting the action by the president and Congress in repealing the law relating to American vessels such exemption; the Mexican policy of the president also was discussed.

Senator Hudspeeth created a stir by offering an amendment providing for the introduction of the Wilson administration. Before any action could be taken on the resolutions the Senate proceeded to the House in a body to canvass the returns for governor and lieutenant-governor. Eight new bills were introduced in the Senate among them being the bill seeking the repeal of the Wilson resolution. The bill was introduced by Senator Bailey of Harris. Among the more important bills was one by Cowell amending the state depository law so that deposits may be secured by bond executed by the state depositories with bond and surety companies.

WHITE HOUSE BABY WILL HAVE PLENTY OF RATTLES

Grandpa Wilson Stays Late So As To See As Much of Bayre Infant As Possible

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 18.—President Wilson recalled a long list of callers at the executive offices later than usual because of his desire to stay as late as possible with his small grandson, the child of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Sayre, born yesterday at the White House. A large number of rattles were given to the young wife by members of the Wilson and Sayre families and close friends were ready for the youngster. A toy Princeton tiger for the young baby was presented to President Wilson today by a committee from the Princeton Alumni association of Maryland.

T-O LEAGUE IS NOW MEMORY OF THE PAST

Durant, Okla. Jan. 18.—The dissolution of the Texas-Oklahoma Baseball League was officially announced yesterday when President C. O. Johnson of the league wired the club owners at Texarkana, Paris and Denison that they were at liberty to join the Western Association. For the last four years this has been one of the fastest class D leagues in the country.

STRONG RESISTANCE AT SOISSONS

FRANCIS STUBBORNLY RESIST GERMAN ADVANCE ACROSS PLATEAU

By Associated Press. Soissons, via Paris, Jan. 18.—The rear guard of the Moroccan rifle regiment who covered the retreat of the French center across the river on January 14, acquitted themselves with distinction. They had been positioned in the village of Crouy at 4 p. m. The Germans advanced toward the village. The riflemen carefully concealed their quick rifles and themselves on each side of the road.

The Germans thought the road was clear and ran to the village to get shelter from the French heavy artillery. When they were within 500 yards of the place the riflemen opened fire. There was no room to deploy and the Germans fell in heaps. Those who could retreated to the brook of Bruy. Reinforced they attempted to turn the French position from the east side of the village. Three companies of riflemen were detached and charged. The shock was awful. Bayonets were twisted out of shape and then the soldiers used the butts of their rifles. For a second time the Germans gave way.

The Moroccans had been told to hold the place until five o'clock; it was then six o'clock but still they refused to retire. They did so only after a staff officer was sent to them twice with an order for retreat. During the night the German artillery roared ceaselessly in a bombardment of Soissons but in the morning this gave place to infantry fire.

At 7 o'clock a battalion of the line occupying the church of St. Paul was ordered to protect the advance trenches threatened by German attacks. The German tanks tried to force the German tanks trying the way far as the Crouy railroad station and taking 100 prisoners. Hardly however had they returned with the prisoners than they were assailed by fresh German forces. The church of St. Paul was subjected to a fierce assault over plowed fields, through orchards and in gardens, court yards and barns.

The tide of battle ebbed and flowed in the angle of a stable wall. Here the German dead were so numerous they stood upon the ground, lacking room to fall. The good practice of the French three inch guns, aided by aeroplanes, prevented German reinforcements from debouching from the western slope of the Vregny plateau and the Germans exhausted their courage at their lack of success retired in a body to Crouy at noon. The French retained the mastery of the suburbs of Soissons on the right bank of the river and on the bridge head.

GERMANY MAKES CLAIM OF SEVERAL SMALL GAINS

Fighting Now in Progress at Pont-a-Mousson—Cherbourg Along Eastern Front

By Associated Press. Berlin, Jan. 18.—The German official statement reads: "In the neighborhood of Nieuport yesterday there were artillery duels but nothing else. No striking movements have been undertaken by the enemy in the last few days. British mines have been washed ashore at several places along the coast. At La Boisselle, northeast of Albert our troops who again had established themselves in their churchyard of La Boisselle and in the hamlet to the southwest attacked the French with the bayonet and drove them from their positions. We took prisoner three officers and 100 men."

"Several French trenches have been captured in the Aronne forest. The French detachment occupying them was almost annihilated. The French attacks on our positions to the north of Pont-a-Mousson against a hill which is a mile and one-fifth south of Vellecy advanced as far as our trenches. The fighting is still going on. In the Vosges and in upper Alsace a heavy snowstorm and fog have prevailed, interfering with the fighting."

REPORT OF ENGLISH GAIN AT LABASSEE IS DENIED

Have Made No Attack There Recently and Former Statement Contradicted

By Associated Press. London, Jan. 18.—The observers for the British army in France who write the day-by-day reports of events given out to the press in authority for the statement that British forces recently did not capture certain German positions near Labassee and made an advance of one mile. That they had done so was reported January 15 in a dispatch from St. Omer, published in Paris. No attack on the positions at Labassee has been attempted by the British forces.

NO LIQUOR LEGISLATION AT THIS SESSION LIKELY

Indications Are That Prohibitionists Will Not Seek To Reopen Fight Soon

Austin, Texas, Jan. 18.—With the inauguration planned for next Tuesday and with both branches of the legislature adjourned until Monday when the vote for governor and lieutenant governor will be canvassed, it may be taken as a self-evident proposition that while the present session of the legislature, according to the hopes of the members, will be a working legislature, the work will not begin in earnest until the second week of service—that is, legislation will not be carried out in both branches for there should be explanation however, it should be said that the Senate is already disposing of bills very rapidly.

One of the best indications that the present session of the legislature will be a working session may be found in the statement of Representative Wagstaff made yesterday that the majority of the prohibitionists who supported John Woods for speaker are not going to be parties to the consideration of liquor legislation, most of which is along the lines of the Althoff law, which has begun to be introduced. These gentlemen explained the situation, liquor legislation is tabooed by the governor-elect. Consideration of it would merely be a waste of time and would bring about feeling that would be inimical to the State's interests. There should be no liquor legislation in this session. Therefore the pros are willing to drop the matter entirely and devote their time to other matters. Such pros as Dwight Law, Effling will not subscribe to this view, but when men of the compromising type of Wagstaff and Reeves, so far as prohibition is concerned, make this frank statement, the indications are that prohibition is going to be forced to take a back seat.

NEW OFFENSIVE BY GERMANS PROBABLE

ARE MOVING MEN TO WESTERN THEATRE FROM RUSSIAN SIDE

By Associated Press. London, Jan. 18.—Reports here today indicated that the Germans have taken on the defensive in Russia and sent large bodies of troops to the French and Belgian battlefields. The fighting at Soissons, some British commentators declare, is the precursor of the entry of these troops on a vigorous offensive, perhaps an attempt to cross the river Aisne.

At Soissons the French failed to hold their positions on the northern bank of the river and for the Germans to attempt to gain the southern bank is regarded as a development to be expected. As to future engagements in this region, it appears to be a fact that the French artillery on the hills south of the Aisne command all the approaches to the river and that it will have to be reckoned with.

In the eastern arena of the war the steady pressure which the arrival of 1,000,000 of last year's levies has enabled the Russians to exert upon the Germans, according to news dispatches reaching London, has slowly pushed back the German line to the west of Warsaw. News dispatches today report the Russian recapture of Plock. This report has not been confirmed officially.

SAMSON COMPARED TO SIN-BOUND MAN

IS SUBJECT OF SERMON AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

MERE STRENGTH NOT ENOUGH

Strong Man of Bible Shown To Have Many Prototypes in Man of Today

Samson, the strong man of Biblical history, has many prototypes today in men whose strength, like that of Samson, has been sapped and rendered all by their sins; this was the message contained in the Sunday evening sermon by Rev. C. C. Smith at the First M. E. Church. From the story of Samson the pastor drew a lesson showing that sin does to everyone who is in its throes. The text was: "The Philistines put out his eyes, and bound him, and he did grind in the prison house." (Judges 16-21). The pastor said in part: "The Old Testament heroes are distinguished for certain predominating characteristics such as a high degree of moral, unusual intellectuality or skill in war or perhaps for certain combinations of more than one of these qualities. When we speak of Moses at once we think of a man who as to powers of mind and ability as a leader was the peer of any man in any age. Gideon calls forth admiration for consecrated devotion, duty and trustfulness of God. Isaiah, Jeremiah and the prophets in general suggest men with whom God could safely trust His secrets. So throughout all the list of strong men which goes to make up our Bible heroes each one stands out as characterized by some noble quality of character. The same was said of Samson. He was distinguished by something different. Samson is something of a Bible hero idealized at least by every boy who is encouraged to read his Old Testament. But Samson is famous for no strength of character. He is known only as a man with unusual muscle. Several other Biblical characters are known to have been rather extraordinary in this particular, e. g. Saul, David, and Ishlah, but only Samson is famed for muscle alone. The others had something more distinguishing about them. A strong man excites our admiration within certain limits. There is a limit to human nature, especially in the matter of strength. We have seen a man who could lift a heavy stone, but we have never seen a man who could lift a heavy stone and still have any man of his weight in a country. We can hardly escape the long time world champion wrestler, never yet defeated in a contest. He has a splendid physique probably the best piece of human machinery in the nation if not the world today. There is something to be said in favor of the kind of life this man has led in developing his body and nerves and putting them under such perfect control. He has lived temperately in all things, worked systematically for years and so what? That he might be a champion in an athletic contest. Possibilities of Strength. The question arises: "What does it do that probably in order to become a wrestler why should not I be equally zealous in securing the best possible development of body and mind that I may have the most possible to put into work of rather a more ennobling character? There seems however, to be rather a close relation between physical strength and intellectual and moral strength. We wonder sometimes what these giants of earth could do if their intellectual and moral faculties were developed in proportion to their physical. It is a pitiable sight to see a great strong physical man who is at the same time a moral weakling. The Bible offers no account of a strong man, stronger than the picture of the giant Samson sitting at the feet of Delilah, a moral imbecile. It is a reflection on manhood did we not know that it is true to life. We could scarcely believe the story but for the repetition of it on every hand. We say that Samson was a fool for falling so easily into such a plain trap. Doubtless he was but he was not the first nor the last who has stepped into just such a trap. He was a fool sure enough but he had plenty of company in his day and in all generations. His life should serve as an object lesson to every person who really wants to learn the ways of life. This giant fool of early days should be our teacher. "Six operations on the soul may be summed up into three sentences which in deference to our text are the blinding of sin, the binding of sin and the grinding of sin. Let us consider each in turn. "The blinding of sin. "A sure result of sin is deadened sensibilities. Sin causes a man to be blind to the love of his child or his wife or his mother. Sin causes him to overlook the rights of his neighbor. It shuts his soul up from all the finer things of life. Good books, beautiful pictures, God in nature, all these are uninteresting to the one who allows sin to dominate his life. Familiarity with sin dulls the finer edge of the soul. Some people argue that young people need to look upon the sin of the world in order to be fully educated. Such familiarity is education in the wrong direction. The more free we are keep ourselves even from casual contact with the baseness of the world, sensibilities to sin and our responsibilities for sin will be the greater. The shock occasioned by observing for the first time a gross sin will pass as one sees it often. A clean well trained child will shudder at first sight of a drunken man but

Mr. Luetwiler seeing the other car coming and foreseeing that a meeting on the bridge was inevitable succeeded in stopping his car at the near end of the bridge while the driver of the other car apparently failed to see the bridge which is one of the flat kind without railings, kept on his course and ran into Mr. Luetwiler's car, partially wrecking it. The front axle and one wheel were broken while the other car appears to have escaped serious damage. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. Electra News.

MRS. ROBERT GREER PATTON PLEADS FOR WAYWARD GIRLS

The following verses, published by request, are embodied in meritorious verse of the sentiment which has bestirred all Texas. The author is one of Waco's most talented women, Mrs. Robert Greer Patton.

Her feet which blithely trod the way of peace, Now stumbling, stray in devious paths of sin. Her eager hands, outstretched life's joy to seize, Have found the bauble crushed their grasp within. Her eyes that braved the future without fears Are downcast now and drenched with unshed tears.

How could she know the fruit so seeming sweet Would turn to bitter ashes on her lip? How could she tell from primrose paths, her feet Into such stony byways soon would slip? Poor child, untaught, untrained, perhaps unred! Who can regard her piteous plight unmoved?

I think of One to whom the accusers came, And with them she they deemed not fit to live, A trembling woman, bowed with grief and shame. That He, the Holy One, might judgment give. Yet straight from that pure Presence crept they all, Lest on their guilty souls his glance might fall.

And He, Omniscient Dove, lifted grave eyes, And read in that sad face her life's sad tale— Knew all the hopes that poverty denies, Knew all the struggle, pangs with-out avail. And knowing, spake, thrilling that bruised heart's core, "Neither do I condemn thee, sin no more."

O gracious words! And yet not e'en God's might Can work His will alone—His pardon gives, His grace alone may grace our state. 'Tis ours to guide the faltering steps, 'Tis ours to point the timid soul the way to heaven. 'Tis ours with bread of life to still their moan For whose heart-hunger Life had given a stone.

'Twas ours to plan a haven safe serene, For heedless girlhood, starved and wronged by fate; Whence, strengthened, taught anew life's way, A home of peace may grace our state. And those who wrought this miracle have won the Master's plaudit sweet, "Well done, well done!"

passed that way many nights. I saw those same sights repeatedly until I became somewhat dulled to the awfulness of it. I became conscious of a loss of some sort through familiarity with such scenes. Here is where we need to be on our guard and especially the young. Sin blinds the spiritual eye. Perception is dulled. Men one time decent have become blind to moral distinctions so that they will practice and defend manifest evils. Samson toyed with sin until he was dull to its real significance, till his eyes both spiritual and physical were put out.

The Binding of Sin. "The next step in sin is the binding of the will power. We may say that the will is practically paralyzed under sin. It deteriorates until that which was a strong factor in the life becomes weak. It is supremely dangerous to toy with temptation. Often when you remonstrate with young people about trifling with sin you are assured that they understand what they are doing. They have will power and know when to stop. But they do not stop. There is a fact here with which they are not familiar. The power to will fades away if we trifle with it and we find ourselves easily impelled in the direction of wrong doing. You may speak to a young man who is tipping a lit with intoxicating drink and caution him as to the dangers in his path. He will most likely assure you that he has no intention of becoming a drunkard and that he has will power and can drink or not as he sees fit. It may be true that he has will power now but unless he exercises it very soon he will be like the hundreds of other fellows who are bound in helpless servitude of the devil.

"We can not afford to toy with temptation. We can not afford even to remain needlessly in the presence of evil. One should not loaf around in such places, saloons and dance halls because familiarity with sin as prevalent in these places deadens one's finer sense and dulls his will. This is not mere sentiment but a well known fact. A keen business man will be suspicious of his help if he knows that they loiter around in such places. He knows that it is an easy step from cooking with turpentine and he does not care to take chances on people who are reasonably sure of falling. Sin binds the will once strong and drives it to the most servile tasks.

The Grinding of Sin. "When sin once has succeeded in fastening itself upon ones soul it sets him to turning the devil's mill. Sin is a most relentless taskmaster. Men talk of freedom, of personal liberty, is the man who is a slave to some vice that he can not stop a free man? Does not the picture of old Samson bound to the beam in the millhouse, doing the work of the beast, just about represent the relentlessness of sin as a taskmaster? Samson was no more a slave than is the man who is bound by some sinful habit. The free man is the man who acknowledges the dominion of no vice. If the son shall make you free ye shall be free indeed. Freedom is not found in wrong doing but in right doing. Samson escaped from bondage only through death. Sin ends in death both physical and spiritual. Sin does not end with the death of the body. Death is turning an endless treadmill. We have worried somewhat over the truth or falsity of the literal hell fire and brimstone awaiting those whose sin condemns them to death. The literalness of that will be as nothing compared to the endless treadmill progression of sin. To be eternally bound under vice to grow worse and worse for ever is all the idea of hell one need have. That truth should deter us somewhat from sin. We do not covet bondage. Witness the man who desires to free himself from some evil habit. How he must fight to be rid of his self-imposed master. But continue this struggle through-out eternity and give the drug fiend, the drunkard, the cigarette fiend an ever increasing torture of appetite and you have hell enough. If it is not an endless treadmill of servitude then I do not know how to characterize it.

"Young man, young woman, I want to call you away from this sort of thing. Keep your spiritual eyes clear by avoiding all needless temptation. Keep your will strong by exercising them in the right way. Keep your liberty by keeping clean and walking with Christ in whom alone there is liberty. When you are tempted to sin think of Samson and the picture of the drunkard, the cigarette fiend, as he allows a sinful woman to betray him and then with his sightless eyes staring and his strong arms bound to the beam he goes round and round helplessly turning the mill. I can give you no better picture of what sin will do for you unless you call Christ to your help and live above sin."

New Year's Resolutions

We make them and we break them but there is one resolution that we should make and keep and that is to trade at home. Every merchant and business man living in the city of Wichita Falls is dependent upon you for patronage. Without you they could not exist. Without them you could not have the fine city that you do. In trading at home however, you must demand equal values, dollar for dollar, that you would get in Dallas or St. Louis. With a fair comparison I will guarantee you are getting that or should for the business men of your city can buy just as cheap in Eastern markets as Dallas men can and the business man here can operate with much less expense than the big city house does. Now the holiday season is over. Many of you received photographs from friends at a distance. It is up to you to reciprocate in kind. We can assure you just as fine work in our studio as you can get in Dallas or Fort Worth and we do not have the heavy operating expense the city studios have, consequently we divide the profits with you. Give us a trial. We will convince you and when we succeed we will all be happy. Call and see us. It costs you nothing. The photos of your friends speak for themselves. Remember the place. J. M. REGISTRATION OUTLOOK FAVORS WICHITA COUNTY

Almost Certain to Be Taken Away From Big Districts That Exist at Present

All of the congressional redistricting bills which have been introduced in the legislature at Austin place Wichita county in a district in which none of the present congressmen reside and there is every reason to believe that this county will, when a bill is finally agreed upon, be in one of the "new" districts.

Two of the congressional bills introduced place Wichita county in a district which comprises, roughly speaking, the Wichita Valley country and such a district would be generally satisfactory, it is believed. When one of the districts is finally agreed upon, it is predicted that it will take Taylor county of which Abilene is the county seat, from the "jumbo" district that extends to El Paso; this is rendered very probable in view of the commanding position which Representative Wagstaff of Abilene holds in the legislature, he being a leader in the Woods camp.

The last stage is loss of the teeth. This condition usually is unnoticed until it has progressed to the stage of pus formation. This pus is swallowed and the result is disorder of the stomach. Are you giving your teeth a square deal? DR. KEARBY 710 1-2 Indiana Avenue.

DUTCH ARMY IS STILL READY FOR EMERGENCIES

The Hague, Jan. 18.—The Dutch army of over 300,000 men is still under arms and the borders are guarded as vigilantly as if a hostile foe were approaching. The care of Belgian refugees is a part of their duty. This capital is full of the more prosperous Belgians who refuse to stay at home under the German flag. The hotels were never so full at this season. Scheveningen, which had a disastrous summer season, is now overrun with troops who are quartered in the hotels and kurhaus.

THERE IS JUST A STEP Between yesterday and today! Yesterday it was Nineteen Fourteen, today it is Nineteen Fifteen. Just one little figure changed the whole calendar, and yet that one figure is another step forward. The wheels of time, like the mill of God's, move slowly but ever onward. Each succeeding year has found us improving our facilities, profiting by a continual study of our business, until Nineteen Fifteen found us with more orders on our books than we have ever had, and under these depressed conditions we are just a little egotistical, and feel like we deserve it, as our equipment is the very best. Those who profess to care nothing for the dead, and that it makes no difference about our cemeteries we have nothing to say, and don't care to meet with you in any relation whatever, but those who love, honor and remember, and who take pride in our silent city, we solicit your co-operation and patronage. In response to a telegram from the Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Phillips wired that Valdosta, Georgia, had been selected as the training camp for the team. The owner of the team has interests at Valdosta and for this reason that town was selected. Nothing has been heard from Kansas City. It was announced at the end of the training season last year that the Kansas City team would return to Wichita Falls this year. No further word has been received from the management of that team. Acting Secretary John W. Thomas of the Chamber of Commerce telegraphed Saturday to learn whether the team was coming but up to this morning had received no answer. Dr. Monte R. WE CLEAN AND PRESS the finest suits in Wichita Falls. We look after the best wardrobes in the city. There is a reason for this. If we did not give absolute satisfaction in both work and price we would never be able to hold this business. We do one hundred cents worth of work for the dollar. We know that seventy-five cents worth of work scattered over a dollar job would never do with the class of people who patronize our shop. The American people get what they pay for. If the price is too cheap the work is the same way. We clean and press your suit for ONE DOLLAR because the dollar is right; more is too much, less is not enough. Our guarantee is wide open with no strings to it. IF WE DON'T PLEASE YOU DON'T PAY.
