GERMAN BLOCKADE THREAT IS EFFECTIVE AT MIDNIGHT

To Try To Bring War Into English Seas And Results Hold Interest Of Nations

NEUTRAL SHIPPING TO DISREGARD WARNING

England Expected To Soon Announce Retaliatory Policy Relative To Foodstuffs To Germany

By Associated Press.

London, Feb. 17.—At the stroke of midnight the waters surrounding the coast of Great Britain will become, as far as lies within the power of Germany to make them, a war zone, which all vessels, neutral or otherwise, will penetrate at their peril. Some of the services across the channel probably will be curtailed, but a majority of the neutral shipping lines will accept the risk and continue their sailings.

The names and nationalities of the vessels and the flags of their nations will be painted on their sides in the hope that German submarines will not sink them by mistake.

England's announcement of details of her proposed retaliatory policy by which she plans to shut off the German food supply from the outside is expected momentarily and apparently there is not the slightest prospect that this country will accept the German proposal to call off the blockade. If England will relax naval pressure on shipping it is not expected that there will be any immediate and widespread activity by the German submarines, but the developments regarding neutral ships should bring to a head one of the most interesting and threatening situations of the war.

England was noticeably cheered by the second air raid on the German bases on the Belgian coast but as in the case of the previous raid the official report does not indicate the extent of the damage.

In the Carpathians the fighting still is without decision. The Russian ends and center are holding notwithstanding repeated violent attacks, but in Bukowina the Austrians have passed on to within twelve miles of Czernowitz.

50,000 PRISONERS CLAIMED

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—The official statement follows:

"In a nine days battle in the Mazurian lakes district the Russian Tenth army consisting of at least eleven infantry and several cavalry divisions not only was driven out of strongly entrenched positions east of the Mazurian lake plateau but was forced back across the frontier. Utterly defeated at almost every point along the line, the remnants of the army managed to reach the woods of Suwalki and Augustowo where they are being pursued.

The number of prisoners taken has not been ascertained but certainly exceeds 50,000. More than 50 cannon and 60 machine guns besides an unknown quantity of war material were captured. Emperor William was present during the decisive fighting in the center of our lines.

"The victory was won by veteran East Prussian troops who were young for such work but proved their worth. The achievements of these troops under fearful weather conditions marching by day and night and fighting such a stubborn enemy are beyond all praise."

ARMY OF 450,000 TO BE SENT TO INVADE SERBIA, SAYS DISPATCH

Paris, Feb. 17.—The Austro-German forces organized to operate against Serbia consist of nine army corps, three of which are German, totalling 450,000 men, according to a dispatch from Athens upon what is said to be authoritative information.

DENIES TURKEY WAS FORCED BY GERMANY

OTTOMAN OFFICIAL SAYS ENGLAND AND RUSSIA CAUSED ACTION

DECLARES HOLY WAR REALITY

Says Christians Are Not Suffering, However—Is Ready To Carry War Through

By Associated Press.

Constantinople, Feb. 17.—Turkey declared war without being urged by Germany or impelled by any other influence, says those of the empire, says Tallat Bey today in a statement to the Associated Press, made in reply to questions concerning the political and military situation in his country. Tallat Bey today fills the post of minister of the interior, minister of finance and minister of marine in the Turkish cabinet. Two weeks ago, in addition to these offices, he was also minister of war which gave him the four most important portfolios in the administration. He is a young Turk, and is undoubtedly the most important man in Turkey at the present time.

"Turkey engaged in military operations," he continued, "only when action on the part of Russia and Great Britain made defensive measures necessary and today Turkey has taken all steps needed to carry the war through. The Holy War is not menacing Christians but the Holy War is a fact which the enemies of the Mohammedan world should bear in mind. Christians in the Ottoman empire who are participating in the destinies of the Ottoman empire are suffering from conditions brought about by the present state of affairs and any statements to the contrary are a result of British, French and Russian intrigues the purpose of which is to direct against Turkey the present neutral coalition of land or sea." "The Ottoman world," he said, "is a world of peace and justice."

JOINS PROTEST AGAINST PUBLIC UTILITIES BILL

Wichita Falls Takes Part In Fight To Stop Control In Commission at Austin

Wichita Falls is joining other municipalities in protesting against the passage of what is known as the Robbins public utilities bill, now pending in the legislature at Austin. Mayor Britain has wired the senator and representative from this district, asking them to oppose the measure and, Judge Secord is at Austin to work against it.

One section of the bill would place even municipally owned utilities such as sewer systems and water works under the control of a commission at Austin and Texas cities generally are up in arms against any such plan. It is felt that the cities are able to handle the utilities question and the individual problems cannot be looked after by any general board.

The bill provides for the creation of a public utilities commission which would have control of practically everything coming under the name of public utilities. This body would consist of three members and would sit at Austin. Mayor J. H. Rigdon of Waco is taking an active part in the fight in the bill.

COTTON OIL COMPANY DAMAGE CASE IS AFFIRMED

Special to The Times.—Austin, Texas, Feb. 17.—The supreme court today affirmed the judgments of the district court and of the court of civil appeals in the case of Wichita Cotton Oil Company vs. Wm. S. Hanna, from Clay county. Hanna recovered judgment in the trial court for injuries while employed by the oil company in the operation of a cotton gin. The court of civil appeals sustained this decision and today the supreme court affirmed the case of Chief Justice Brown, who rendered the opinion says: "There being but one error assigned upon which he reversed the judgment in this case is sought which calls for comment and the plaintiff having invited that error, if it be error, the assignment must be overruled and the judgments of the district court and the court of civil appeals are affirmed."

ITALIAN HORSE BUYERS EXPECTED HERE SHORTLY

Agents New In Oklahoma Said To Be In Market For 30,000 Head of Horses

Wichita Falls horse dealers are expecting to receive orders for cavalry horses from the Italian government within the next ten days. Representatives of the Italian government are now in Oklahoma and are expected to be in Fort Worth this week to open a receiving depot. It is said that the Italian order will be for 30,000 head. Some draft horses are also wanted by the Italians.

AVIATION RAIDERS MAKE SAFE RETURN

FRENCH AND ENGLISH AIRMEN RE-ENTER OWN LINES UNHARMED

SEVERAL ATTACKS BY GERMANS

Repulse of Offensive Movements Reported in Champagne and Argonne Forest

By Associated Press.

Paris, Feb. 17.—The French war office this afternoon issued the following official statement: "In spite of an active cannonade, the French and English aviators who yesterday threw bombs into the region of Ghistelles and Ostend have been able to re-enter our lines unharmed. The Belgians artillery has carried out some effective shooting against gatherings of troops. In Champagne ten of the enemy's constant attacks were repulsed during the night. In the Argonne there was considerable activity. Near Pontaleneux-Charnes, we have destroyed a block house and 100 meters of trenches. A German attack launched by at least three battalions between Four-de-Panis and Hill 262 west of Boursulles has been very severe. We have entirely repulsed it, inflicting on the enemy huge losses and taking some prisoners. More to the east in the forest of Milancourt we have captured 100 meters of trenches. From the Meuse to the Vosges nothing noteworthy has occurred."

CRIPPLED AIRSHIP SEEN OVER AMSTERDAM TODAY

By Associated Press.—London, Feb. 17.—An airship believed to be one of the Parseval type, apparently damaged by gun fire over Amsterdam today, says a Reuters dispatch from that city. The airship was flying at a height of about 600 feet and its crew were unable to keep the vessel in a horizontal position. Assuming a vertical position the airship drifted in the direction of the Zuider Zee arm of the North Sea, carrying with it telegraph wires which became entangled in a dangleing rope. The airship was later sighted minus its gondola.

REPORTED DEMANDS BY JAPAN ON CHINA

WANTS LETTER TO AGREE TO ACCIDENT HERE BEFORE MAKING CONCESSIONS

RELATIONS TO OTHER POWERS

Will Ask First Privileges in Making Loans, Building Roads and Giving of Advice

By Associated Press.—Peking, Feb. 17.—If information from presumably well informed sources both foreign and Chinese, is correct, among Japanese demands are these: Before granting railroad concessions to any third power, China must agree to consult Japan in advance. Before endeavoring to obtain capital for loans from any third power, China must consult Japan. Before choosing any foreign political, military or financial advisers, China must consult Japan.

Indian Outlaw Under Indictment For Murder—Veteran Fighter at Head of Posse

By Associated Press.—Denver, Colo., Feb. 17.—News advices from Cortes, Colo., stated that 20 frontiersmen under command of A. N. Gingles, a veteran Indian fighter left here today for Bluff, Utah, to capture Tee Ne Gat, also known as Evert Hatch, and the band of 50 Indians with which he is said to have entrenched himself to resist arrest. Hatch was indicted by the United States grand jury in October charged with the murder last March of Juan Chacon, a Mexican on the Ute reservation. The 90 mile trip over rugged country to Bluff is expected to take several days. Somewhere on the road the posse is to be joined by a Utah force under United States Marshal Aquila Nebeker of Salt Lake City who will take command of the combined party. Leaders of the Colorado contingent said the plan was to capture Hatch and his braves by siege or strategy rather than in battle.

ACTION BY NEUTRALS GERMANY'S PURPOSE

ITALIAN COMMENT ON RECENT NOTE FROM UNITED STATES

SAYS FAMINE IS THREATENING

Scarcity of Food Already Making Itself Felt in Berlin, Declares Rome Report

By Associated Press.

Rome, Feb. 17.—Commenting on the diplomatic exchange between the United States and Germany on the subject of the submarine blockade of England the Giornale d'Italia says: "The German note to the United States does not deny the rights of neutrals of which the great American republic has become the champion nor does it renounce the threatened reprisals. The German purpose now has been revealed. All the policy and somewhat ridiculous maneuvers of imaginary maritime blockade had for their sole object the compelling of neutrals to make their voices heard in England, asking the German government to permit provisions to enter Germany."

"Germany" has been asserting that the danger of famine was absolutely non-existent. As a matter of fact, Berlin is seriously anxious and scarcity of food is already beginning to be felt among the less well to do of the German civilian population."

TEN CENT REDUCTION IN OIL IN NORTHWEST TEXAS

Magnolia Announces Cut, But Texas Company Has Not Yet Followed Suit

A ten-cent reduction in the price of oil for Northwest Texas was announced Tuesday by the Magnolia Petroleum company, making 45 cents the current quotation for this district. The Texas company, which heretofore has quickly followed the Magnolia's lead in prices, has not yet announced a reduction and it is hinted that it will not do so, continuing to pay the old price of 55 cents.

The present price of 45 cents per barrel follows reductions in the Mid-Continent field and makes a total of 60 cents reduction from the high water price of $1.05 which was paid more than a year ago. For the past year the price has gone steadily down, as a result of over-production in Oklahoma and conditions brought about by the war.

SHIP BILL GETS NO NEW SENATE SUPPORT

PROGRESSIVES AND INSURGENT DEMOCRATS WILL NOT VOTE FOR IT

PASSES HOUSE TUESDAY NIGHT

Support Which Had Been Expected For Measure in Senate Not Forthcoming

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Democrats got another setback in their fight for President Wilson's ship bill when they suddenly learned today that the bill as it passed the House last night will not command the support of Senators Kenyon, Norris and La Follette, Progressive Republicans on whom they counted nor the support of any of the seven insurgents of their own party.

HOUSE RECONSIDERS ON UNIVERSITY BILL

AGREES TO PRINT MEASURE, REVERBING ITS ACTION OF TUESDAY MORNING

COMPULSORY EDUCATION BILL

Special Order is Made For Friday Morning—Several Senate Bills Are Passed

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 17.—After a hot wrangle between the University and the A. & M. College men at the opening of the session today the House reversed its action on the one board bill and voted to print the bill by a vote of 76 to 23. The row was started when Caldwell of Travis moved to reconsider the vote of the day before when the House refused to print the one board bill.

Mr. Haney on a point of personal privilege declared that the authors of the bill said himself had been treated unfairly when the committee met and reported the bill out unfavorably, without himself or the authors of the bill being present.

The House set for a special order the compulsory education bill for Friday morning. A resolution inferring the Great Southern highway movement was adopted unanimously.

Several Bills Passed. The House passed on final reading the following bills:

Senate bill No. 42 providing for the taking over of the Colquitt memorial sanitarium for consumptive cripples at Galveston.

Senate bill 68 placing sheep scabies and hog cholera under jurisdiction of the live stock sanitary commission.

Senator Page's bill relating to the publication of sales in Bastrop county.

Senator Johnson's bill fixing time of holding courts in the 46th judicial district.

The committee on banking and banks reported favorably the bill by Baker of Scurry creating a system of farm credit banks.

The committee on penitentiaries concluded its hearing on the bills affecting the penitentiaries and appointed a subcommittee to draft a suitable bill embodying the necessary changes in the old law and considering proposed changes of the new bills.

Control of Wire Companies. The Senate committee on internal improvements today gave consideration to the bill by Gibson and others to place telephone and telegraph companies under jurisdiction of the railroad commission. While no action has been taken on the measure it is understood there is a substitute in the House confining the bill only to telephone companies.

BUDS APPEAR ON FRUIT TREES—FREEZE NOW FEARED

Warm Weather Has Caused Green Shoots To Appear and Crop Is in Danger

The appearance of buds on peach and other fruit trees in this city and vicinity is viewed with much concern as a freeze later on, which is considered certain, would mean destruction of the trees. The unseasonable warm weather of the past few weeks has caused a number of trees to put out little green shoots and a freeze would mean no peaches next summer. The trees are mostly early wheelers which form a considerable part of the peach crop in Northwest Texas; the Ehrberts are not budding yet, but probably will do so if the present warm spell continues. Owners of orchards are not very much encouraged over the outlook and are anxious for the weather to turn cold before the danger is increased.

BATTLE IN BUKOWINA IS NOW THOUGHT IMMINENT

Russians Reported To Have Been Expelled Between Rivers Says Dispatch to Berlin

By Associated Press.—Berlin, Feb. 17.—The Russian army in Bukowina has been enveloped by the Austro-Hungarians between the Ruth and Sereth Rivers, a correspondent of the Tagblatt says in a dispatch from Bistrotz. One Austrian army pushing the Russians from the south now has blocked Storojnetz while another Austrian force having advanced eastward from Marnevo against Wianicz stands in the vicinity of Czernowitz. A general battle may be expected thereabouts south and east of Czernowitz. The Russian army has halted twelve miles from that point, the Tagblatt is informed, having met reinforcements.

At The Theaters

The Lydia Margaret. The Forrest dancing and musical act and the Sans sisters, "Fashion plate girls" close their three days' engagement tonight. The bill has been a pleasing one from start to finish and has made a hit. The elaborate gowns of the Sans sisters and the pleasing personality, and clever work of the other team make the bill one long to be remembered. Today's picture program includes a two part Salem, "The Fatal Opal" with Marin Sais in the lead and a comedy "The Butler's Baby."

The Gem. Kempton Greene, Earl Metcalf and Anna Luther are featured in "The Man From the Sea," a two part Lubin drama. Synopsis follows:

Carroll Brown and Bradley Wolf, both rich young men, are suitors for the hand of Marjory Sheppard. Marjory likes both men equally well and practically places the matter of a decision in their hands. Brown, who owns the yacht, Pole Star, has a fight with his captain and crew over wages and they desert after a melee in which Brown whips one of them. It is an opportune time to press his suit, but Wolf's presence delays the matter. Believing that with one out of the way the other would have a chance to win the girl, the two men go to Wolf's amateur wireless station on the beach of his seashore estate. The assistant is dismissed and it is to be a question of one hand of poker, high cards winning. Wolf cheats and Brown leaves to board his yacht, now deserted. He meets Marjory on the way and is compelled to be indifferent to her. She, piqued, turns to Wolf.

That evening, late, the yacht is admitted and fired while Brown is in his wireless cabin. When he discovers the fire he also finds that he is barricaded in and that there is no escape. Inadvertently, through the balance of the pack of cards he carried away with him from Wolf's shack, he also learns that he was tricked and cheated. He calls Wolf on the wireless but Wolf refuses to give him any help. He tells him that though he has cheated him he will be with him on his wedding night. Wolf laughs at this seemingly impossible message and goes to meet Marjory.

The next morning they find the beach strewn with wreckage, mut evidence of the blow up yacht. A wedding date is set for some month after, and the only disconcerting thing to mar Wolf's happiness is the message that comes to him, every lit the while, over the wireless that "will be with you on your wedding night," and signed Carroll Brown. On the night of the wedding the message comes again, only this time it reads "tonight." Wolf is called to his shack by his assistant at three minutes of ten. There, the sacred assistant having deserted him, he waits for a man who says he is coming back from the dead. Brown comes back, soaked and sodden, his clothes rotting and inter twined with sea grasses. The two men face each other—the living and the dead. Brown tells Wolf of his cowardice and that he will never marry Marjory, but agrees to give him one more chance. They play again for her—three cuts, high card winning. Brown wins and laughs at Wolf when in a frenzy he tells him that he will never take Marjory back to the sea with him. Marjory, meanwhile becoming impatient, takes the machine skids and plunges over the sea wall into the sea and the half drowned chauffeur, is all that comes back from its depths, carrying the dress news to the wedding guests. They communicate with Wolf by phone just as Brown is leaving. It is the last link that binds him to sanity and seizing his revolver he fires repeatedly at the man from the sea as he passes into the night. The guests hurry down to the shore, but do not see Wolf as he throws open the door, but face both Brown and Marjory, sea bedraggled and dead. Wolf staggers back as they disappear into the sea and frightened guests later find him stretched out over the table of his wireless, the smoking revolver clutched in his lifeless hand.

The Motion Picture World has the following criticism to offer on "Wildfire" the feature production with Lillian Russell that appears at the Empress today:

Supported by a good cast, Lillian Russell plays a picture role in one of her old Broadway successes, a rather youthful heroine—we certainly have to hand it to her for the marvelous

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down is Blind Unable to Walk, and What Helped Her.

Samantha Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emory, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the most miserable of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardul, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 45 years of age, but feel as good as I did when only 16."

Cardul certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardul a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardul. Your druggist sells it.

way in which she gets away with it in more than one scene. The plot is not high class, but it sets forth those always interesting types, jockeys and race-track people. It is also made after the right receipt and mixes good man and bad man, hero and villain, to the gallery's taste; has a whole world of good and evil and assures punishment to the latter when it becomes time for him to get what is truly his.

Lillian Russell as Henrietta Barrington, appears in a number of frocks, and in the back of a watch worn by the heroine's father is a photograph of her when at the zenith of her beauty—she was a wonderfully pretty woman. She doesn't, it is true, look to be only twenty-two or three, even when she comes out to the tennis courts and starts a game; but it is simply astonishing how young she does look, the more when we remember that picture cameras have a way of calling a wrinkle a wrinkle even in the faces of royalty. Among those who support Miss Russell, Lionel Barrymore, who is always strong in pictures, has the chief role, that of the gambler, who kills Barrington after a game of cards and having his papers forged a bill of sale for his Eastern stable of race horses.

The Majestic. "The Master Key" is the attraction at this theatre today and this episode is one of the most interesting yet filmed. China town was invaded for he setting and this most picturesque bit of San Francisco life is faithfully reproduced. Two other reels of pictures will be shown in addition to "The Master Key."

WITH THE FRENCH WOUNDED
The Woman's Sacrifice
Paris, Feb. 9th, 2:30 p. m. Away from the battlefield one sees war stripped of its glamor. We see the heroic work of nurses who are on duty day and night. There is devotion, self sacrifice, suffering patriotism—qualities which only a great war and its terrible consequences can inspire to the highest development. The women everywhere are helping in every way one sees self sacrifice and devotion to country.

The women of the United States do not know how fortunate they are. There are plenty of women who suffer in silence, whose strength is out of proportion to their ambition. Their hands are tied by some chronic disease common to womanhood; that weak back, accompanied by pain here or there, extreme nervousness, listlessness, maybe fainting spells or spasms, are all signals of distress or worse. She may be growing from girlhood into womanhood, passing from womanhood to motherhood, and later suffering from that change which leaves so many wrecks of women. At any or all of these periods of a woman's life she should take a tonic and service, prescribed for just such cases by a physician of vast experience in the diseases of women. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has successfully treated more cases the last fifty years than any other known remedy. When you feel dull, headachy, backache, dizzy or perhaps hysterical, there is nothing you can enjoy. You can find permanent relief in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is sold by medicine dealers, or mail box by mail from Dr. Pierce, Medical Department, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of 50 cents, or one dollar for large box.—Advt.

"Damaged Goods." A story of the "social evil" in a play holding a delicate subject in a careful manner, will be shown at the Majestic Friday and Saturday, to men only Thursday, Saturday and night and to ladies only Friday. The Saturday show will be divided, for men at night and the ladies in the afternoon. The following comment was clipped from the "Fort Worth Record":

"Damaged Goods" has the support of various women's clubs and organizations throughout the country. Wherever shown, it has left a deep impression and has been endorsed by leading pastors and medical men. Although the subject deals with a very delicate one, there is not an embarrassing incident in it even for the most sensitive. It handles the subject in a clean manner and leaves a like impression. While showing to men the Hippodrome broke all attendance records and because of many requests from the ladies to produce the picture again, no doubt the record will again be shattered."

JITNEY SERVICE IS NOW PLANNED AT VERNON

(Vernon Record)
The City Council at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night had under consideration the application of some Electra parties for a franchise for the operation of a jitney line in Vernon, but postponed final action on the matter until some future meeting. The jitney is an automobile bus line, charging a universal fare of five cents per passenger, and has been introduced extensively in many of the larger and some of the smaller cities. In larger cities this mode of transportation has taken a large part of the passenger business from street car lines, and should be introduced in Vernon. The bus lines now operated would be subjected to very keen competition on account of the cheaper fares contemplated by the jitney service.

PECULIAR AFTER EFFECTS OF GRIP THIS YEAR

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous complications. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Hingham, N. Y., offer to send a sample of their Swamp Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50c and $1. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper. (Adv.)

INFORMAL RECITAL FOR FRANCIS MOORE, PIANIST

Francis Moore, the youthful accompanist of Maude Powell on her appearance here Monday evening, attracted a large amount of favorable comment, unusual for an accompanist who is generally overshadowed by the star. The solo numbers rendered by Mr. Moore at the Monday evening recital demonstrated his ability as a soloist and he also proved himself a perfect accompanist. He is a Texan and now but twenty years of age although already a good many rungs up on the ladder of fame of musical achievement and prominence, and the comment wherever he has played is that "the world will hear more of him." Coupled with his genius and ability by his pleasing personality and a boyishly obliging nature. A few of the local musicians were privileged to attend an informal recital given in his honor at the home of Mrs. Alex Britain Monday evening. The program was furnished for the occasion by Mr. Moore, his half dozen selections demonstrating a wonderful tone and quality that delighted his hearers. Misses Florence Sammons and Kathleen Stonecipher and C. Barthold Machlin each added a solo number to the program. The recital was served by the hostess following the program. THE TIMES PUBLISHING CO. ED HOWARD, Manager

The suspended sentence law, together with the liberal use being made of the pardoning power and inactivity of peace officers is largely responsible for the increase in crime that is sweeping over the country.

After the congressional reelection, his bill has been killed. It will then be time enough to talk about the candidates. The way it looks now West Texas stands a fairly good chance to get both the new districts, and there are at least fifty aspirants who want to go to congress from them.

As was expected the Democratic administration is being charged by the Republican party for the great business depression now prevailing throughout the United States, which unfortunate condition of affairs started with the breaking out of the European war, and is to get worse the longer the war lasts.

The opening of the Panama Canal general built by the United States or the benefit of the world's commerce, at a cost of $300,000,000.

The establishment of a new banking system which will enable our national banks to establish branches broad and give us financial independence from Europe, is one of the most important things that we should do.

The withdrawal or crippling of foreign shipping to the extent of 5,000,000 tons, is a serious matter, and the world's shipping is being crippled as a result of the war.

The enormous extension of our export trade by the demand for ammunition, food, clothing and other supplies of manufactured material and increased demand for the raw materials, is a serious matter, and the world's shipping is being crippled as a result of the war.

This we are the most favored of all nations, if we are wise enough to recognize and make the most of this wonderful opportunity. It is one that seldom comes to a nation.

Prosperity stands knocking at our door. Will the demagogues continue to block the way?

THE FACTS ABOUT DIVORCE. Ida M. Tarbell, the well known journalist, contributes to the Woman's Home Companion an article entitled "What Women are Really Doing" - an article in which she answers with facts and figures some disturbing questions as to the status of women in the United States today.

There has been an increase in divorce. In the thirty million married women whom the census taker of 1910 reported, they found 185,965 who had been divorced. Considering the difficulties of married life, the number does not appear to be large.

Who is getting all this interest? Naturally, the answer would be "The producers of the wealth" - the farmer who produces the corn, wheat, cattle, horses and all that we must have to live upon, the mechanic, the miner, railroad workers - in fact the industrial world.

But is this the fact? The papers say the farmers are in debt, some of them hopelessly so, and paying interest themselves, and a very high rate too, a further investigation shows that over ninety per cent of the industrial world is paying interest, the ordinary business man is paying interest, it is also claimed that the corporations are paying interest - and to sum up, we find the real producers of the real necessities of life, the cities, the counties, the states, the nation are all in debt - paying interest. Who do all these pay to?

If not to the producers, it would naturally occur to a man from the moon that they were compensating the Creator of the universe for His earth and the good things in it.

But is this true? It is a fact fully established both by history and experience that the debtor is a slave to his creditor - that the creditor can dictate terms to his helpless debtor.

What would be done with an executor, guardian or administrator of an estate who should thus embarrass the heirs of it?

Our national constitution provides that "The Congress of the United States shall have the power to coin money and regulate the value thereof."

Will some one tell us to whom, and why Uncle Sam is in debt?

PROSPERITY AT THE DOOR. Leslie's Weekly thus views the future. The year 1915 will be an epoch making year for the United States if we move in the light of experienced statesmanship.

The establishment of a new banking system which will enable our national banks to establish branches broad and give us financial independence from Europe, is one of the most important things that we should do.

But is this the fact? The papers say the farmers are in debt, some of them hopelessly so, and paying interest themselves, and a very high rate too, a further investigation shows that over ninety per cent of the industrial world is paying interest, the portion of it is due to a higher ideal of marriage and unwillingness to see the relation prostituted by a dissolute, cruel or unfaithful partner.

"A percentage is due, too, to the greater carelessness with which marriages are made under our changing social practices. We have removed largely from boys and girls the protective social devices by which we once guided their relations and choices. They go and come freely and, as might be expected, marry with less sense of the seriousness of their undertaking."

"EMANCIPATION OUR WORST ENEMY," SAYS NEGRO LEADER. Little Rock, Ark. - In a notable address delivered here to negroes, Dr. Wilkins, a negro leader, told them that in the matter of alienating the Southern white man from the negro, emancipation had been the negro's worst foe.

His address is "going the rounds" of the country. Among other things, he said: "I say here now, once for all, if we are too celebrate this occasion (Emancipation Day), we cannot in any conscience forget those who, in anguish and pain, still held out to us a hand without which we must have perished from the earth - our Southern white man from the negro, emancipation had been the negro's worst foe."

Let us then celebrate this day, in memory of their helpful friendship and in memory of our worthlessness of their benighted, but not unfeeling, torch anarchy. Am I with a blush of shame that anywhere in our beloved Southland any negro's pretended friends supposed that Lincoln's proclamation ever contemplated the immediate elevation of the ex-slave to the level of power that meant the humiliation of the negro's best friends but the destruction of that mutual reliance which was the most important element in the remaking of this Southland.

Does any one believe that Lincoln would ever have signed a paper in which he could have foreseen such a saturnalia of wickedness as reigns over the South during the days of reconstruction? A period of our history that every man who remembers it would gladly blot out if he could.

So, it would have been better for that great heart that beat for the noble breast than that that instrument of his making could be so construed as to produce such a condition in the land of his birth. God was merciful in taking him from such a scene. He never intended it. Not a man, who had heard heart beat in malice. And like the master of Malice, he taught love of one's enemies.

Please excuse this seeming digression. I remember well, as if it was yesterday, when old mistress came into the kitchen and told me another story.

"Aunt Jane, you are free. As free as I am. And you can go."

"She wore a large gray shawl, and she turned to go I saw tears on her pale cheeks. My mother caught hold of her shawl and with streaming eyes said:

"Miss Jennie, where shall I go? What shall I do? I have nine children and I know no one but you. Why must I leave you?"

"We were all crying now. 'Oh, no Aunt Jane, she said, 'you need not go. I will take care of you right here if you wish and as long as I have a crust of bread and your children shall eat. I will pay you what wages I can. And so long as I live and you stay, if you suffer I will suffer, too.'"

"We stayed and she did suffer, much more than we. This scene was at that moment being enacted in thousands of homes all over this broad land. Those words were as the star of Bethlehem on that dark night to every negro then on the plantations of the South, as he stood dumbfounded, it seeing old mistress in tears.

"And when old master came to his dilapidated home from the war, he said 'amen' to every word that old mistress had said. And all was well, until the carpetbagger came and with his damnable practices, preaching and promises, hatched the hell into which the South was plunged from '65 to '76 and out of which the negro came reft of the friendship and help of those whom he knew and who loved him, those whom he loved and who loved him. And the scamp fled with his illegitimate gains to safer quarters and left us to shift the best we could and meet the storm of an outraged manhood. Today I wish you to celebrate the release of our friends from a worse slavery, a more salting yoke, than we ever wore. And let us celebrate by returning to our best and best love, and let us join hearts and hands with them and sing with all the soul:

"I never will leave or forsake thee Where you live I will live, your God shall be my God. And where you die there will I be buried."

"If this celebration shall mean this to us, then ere long we shall have occasion to shout 'Free at last!' This is the only kind of blow that we may strike which will mean liberty and freedom. It is in this way and in this way only, will the negro in America ever be free. Let us first free the white man from the impressions we made on him under vicious leadership of false friends, and then we may hope for him to free us from the bonds which our own hands have welded about our feet. And not until that day arrives can we have an emancipation celebration that will mean anything."

Let us first free the white man from the impressions we made on him under vicious leadership of false friends, and then we may hope for him to free us from the bonds which our own hands have welded about our feet. And not until that day arrives can we have an emancipation celebration that will mean anything."

"Let us repair the love which we forfeited for the few political hawks on which we fed, and that love will make us free. As present I think we are foolish for celebrating an event which has meant nothing to us but humiliation, obloquy, scorn and contempt. We are celebrating an event that has never taken place, and you know it as well as I. But some things did take place on that memorable first day of January. The ruined Southern white man gave us homes and food. He fed us when hungry, clothed us when naked, administered unto us when sick, and vindicated us when wronged. And our Lord says for one to do that is to do it for Him. Let us not forget it, but celebrate it. Remember all you who think that Lincoln's proclamation set you free that if it is so, our white friends were our saviors."

Additional Brevities. A grass fire said to have been started by a cigar stub caused the fire department to make a run to the corner of Ninth and Austin this afternoon.

C. E. Perry of Plainview, district deputy grand exalted ruler of the B. P. O. Elks, was a guest of the Wichita Falls lodge last night when a social session was held in his honor. Two candidates were initiated. A large attendance of members heard a splendid address by the district deputy.

D. A. Wilcoxan has filed a petition for an injunction before Judge Akin in the 30th district court asking for an order restraining Ed Bradley and J. E. Pierce from interfering with him in his work at the restaurant at the rear of the Senate Bar. The plaintiff alleges that on October 1, 1914 he entered into a contract with the defendants for the operation of a cafe at the rear of the bar where he was to divide the profits of his business with the two defendants. He alleges that on February 15th the defendants ordered him out of the place and threatened to "knock his head off" if he returned. He asks that the defendants be restrained from doing him bodily harm and from interfering with him in his work in the restaurant.

The following postal card to Alex Coker was received yesterday: "Charlie, Clay county, Texas, Feb. 14—I write you the sad news that mother has pneumonia, with no hopes for her. Respectfully, J. N. Bryan."

The lady referred to in Mrs. John Neely Bryan, widow of the man who located the city of Dallas, built the first house in the town and in the county. He also donated to the county when it was organized some years after his settlement on the east bank of the Trinity, his house being erected near the end of the Commerce street bridge, the block of land now known as the Courthouse Square and on which the courthouse stands. Bryan street was named in his honor.

Mrs. Bryan came to what is now Dallas county with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beaman, when a young girl just blooming into womanhood and not long afterward was married to John Neely Bryan and it was here in Dallas that her son, John Neely Bryan, who wrote the above postal card, was born.

It was during this period from 1841 to a few years later that the Beamans, the Cochranes, the Knights, the Hughes, the Rawlins, the Cockrells, the Lavenders, the Patricks, the Webbs, the Brandenbergs and a few others came to the village of Dallas and located homes in its vicinity. Of the heads of families of these pioneers but very few remain—Dallas News.

NEGRESS ARRESTED FOR PERJURY DURING TRIAL

Case of Bob Carruth, Held On Two Charges, Goes To Jury This Afternoon

After being out a short time the jury in the case of Bob Carruth, charged by indictment with illegal sale of liquor and running a gambling house, returned a verdict of guilty and assessed Carruth's punishment at two years imprisonment. The jury declined to recommend a suspension of sentence.

During the trial of Carruth, Judge Akin ordered a negress who was testifying removed from the witness stand and held in custody by the sheriff until a complaint charging perjury could be filed against her.

Her testimony was so palpably false that the action was decided upon. Judge Akin instructed the jury not to consider the court's action in this matter in deliberating on their verdict.

Testimony and arguments were completed in the trial of Carruth at noon when the case was given over to the jury. Carruth was one of those arrested following the grand jury investigation of the Central City Social Club, an organization of negroes. Since the indictment of Carruth Judge Akin has issued a temporary injunction closing the club and prohibiting its members from congregating in the club rooms. A large number of the eighty odd members of the club were in attendance at the trial.

PLAN MEETING TONIGHT FOR MILITIA COMPANY

Effort Will Be Made To Form Organization To Fill Vacancy in Texas National Guard

The effort to organize a military company in this city will be renewed at a meeting to be held tonight, the vacancy in the Texas National Guard being still open to Wichita Falls if the young men of this city can be gotten together. The committee has sent out the following letter to a number of young men, but all who are interested are urged to attend: "A meeting for the purpose of organizing a military company will be held at the office of the Wichita Falls Brick & Tile Co., 617 Eighth street, Wednesday, February 17th at 7:45 p. m. We desire very much to get a company located here in this city and will be very pleased to see you at the meeting. "Come out and help those interested whether you desire to join or not. Bring someone with you, perhaps the one you bring will be interested and did not get a letter. We will try and explain what the Texas National Guard means but we will not try to talk anyone into enlisting. Be sure to come to the meeting and bring someone with you. "COMMITTEE."

TUESDAY BRIDGE ADJOURNS DURING LENTEN SEASON

PROFITS IN PANICS!

THE PRESENT DEPRESSION IS A BLESSING IN DISGUISE!

The man who is in the habit of overreaching himself, is reaping his profit in a lesson of conservatism, because there is nothing else that beats a hungry stomach for inspiring ideas of economy.

The fellow who gets stung by the panics that recur from time to time learns where to look for the stinger, and therefore guards against its smart the next time.

The man who is far-sighted enough to prepare for the rainy day has the where-with in the strong box that enables him to take advantage of the depression in prices, and panic times, and reap his profits in money made or money saved which both amount to the same thing.

However, to Get Down to Brass Tacks, the present depression all over the country has caused more unclaimed clothing to be turned back upon the Big Chicago and Cincinnati Merchant Tailor's this season than any other season since the panic of 1907, and they have loaded us with more clothing than we can afford to carry with our limited capital. OUR STOCK IS THE LARGEST WE HAVE EVER HAD AT ANY ONE TIME BEFORE SINCE OUR ESTABLISHMENT IN WICHITA FALLS.

New Year's Resolutions

We make them and we break them but there is one resolution that we should make and keep and that is to trade at home. Every merchant and business man living in the city of Wichita Falls is dependent upon you for patronage. Without you they could not exist. Without them you could not have the fine city that you do. In trading at home, however, you must demand equal values, dollar for dollar, as you would get in Dallas or St. Louis. With a fair comparison I will guarantee you are getting that. It should for the business men of your city can buy just as cheap in Eastern markets as Dallas men can and the business man here can operate with much less expense than the big city house does. Now the holiday season is over. Many of you received photographs from friends at a distance. It is up-to-you to reciprocate in kind. We can assure you just as fine work in our studio as you can get in Dallas or Fort Worth and we do not have the heavy operating expense the city studios have, consequently we divide the profits with you. Give us a trial. We will convince you and when we succeed we will all be happy. Call and see us. It costs you nothing. The photos of your friends speak for themselves. Remember the place.

SOME FOLKS say that to remember the dead is folly and that they don't want any fuss about their remains. That's all right, we won't make any, but we notice that these same good folks have their loved ones buried with the sacred rites of religion, and cover their mounds with flowers, as token of their love. You may try to fool yourself into believing that this ends it all, or that there is nothing after death, yet that unexplainable something within you cries out against your folly and you can't even make yourself believe it, much less someone else. We are working for those who believe in REMEMBERING THEIR LOVED ONES. Have you a sacred mound that needs attention? Phone us. We decorate and beautify to your satisfaction.

GET THE HABIT

A long time ago when Wichita Falls was just a wide dusty place in the road we had to get our bread from Ft. Worth and Dallas. It was inconvenient and the bread was stale, but it was the best we could do. When we got a little larger we got a Baker and now have fresh bread and no one thinks about sending out of town—it's the same with coffee—it's no longer necessary to use coffee roasted in far away cities, for we roast it fresh every day. When you think of coffee think of
