RUSSIAN SUCCESSES STILL BEING REPORTED

By Associated Press.

London, March 6.—Haying, as Petrograd claims, successfully countered the Germans' attempt to outflank him in Western Galicia and East Prussia Grand Duke Nicholas, Russian commander-in-chief, is said to be thrusting again at the center of the Teutonic line in Poland. A few weeks ago the Russians were said to have gained a little ground on the Bzura and Rawka rivers. Yesterday the reports mentioned a Russian attack near Skierniewice and today Vienna says the Russians made partial attacks east of Piotrkow. This is about the point the Germans and Austrians are linked and a successful thrust here would, according to military observers, compel a general retirement in Central Poland and enable the Russians to resume the offensive against Cracow which always has been foremost in the plan of campaign.

From all accounts received from Petrograd which at present is the only source of information, the Austrians have suffered a very severe defeat in eastern Galicia and are now in full retreat toward the Carpathian mountains. In the mountains to the westward the fighting which has been intense for weeks still is in progress. The two armies are contending desperately for the ridges, the possession of which would give an advantage to the holder. The losses in these battles are declared to have been as serious as any in the war but despite this neither side has conceded more than a few yards of the slopes at a time. The Russians also have been attacking along the Dunajec in western Galicia but apparently without making any impression on the Austrian defensive which are very strong on this river.

In northern Poland the Russians are still striving hard to drive the Germans back to East Prussia and prevent them from entrenching in Russian territory as they have done south of the Lower Vistula. It is said at some points this drive is meeting with considerable success and that at places the Germans are actually on their frontier but at other points the Germans are declared to have succeeded in checking the offensive.

A little more liveliness is evident along the western front, where the French continue their attacks and where, according to Paris, the French have made progress in the Champagne and Argonne regions. The Germans, however, have delivered some sharp counter attacks which the Berlin reports say have been successful. On the whole these tactics seemingly have not succeeded in materially changing the position of the two armies. If the French have not made the progress in the Champagne region which they credit themselves, military observers believe it will bring about a decided battle such as a similar advance did at Soissons, or a readjustment of the German front in this region.

As the allied fleet slowly progresses in its attacks on the Dardanelles the effect is being reflected in England's grain market where prices steadily are falling. In some markets wheat dropped to 50 shillings a quarter but the price averaged 52 to 55 shillings.

U. S. WANTS MORE INFORMATION FROM GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE

By Associated Press.

Washington, March 6.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan had under consideration a note of inquiry to Great Britain and France asking how the declaration of an embargo by the allies on the commercial intercourse between Germany and neutral countries was to be carried out in actual practice. So numerous have been inquiries from American shippers and exporters as to what will be the legal status of ships and cargoes if detained by British or French cruisers and taken into port, that the United States government has prepared a general inquiry on the subject to be addressed to England and France. Up to late today the inquiry had not been sent. It was

47 MINERS FOUND ALIVE

REACHED IN RECESSES OF MINE WHERE EXPLOSION OCCURRED RECENTLY.

85 KNOWN TO BE DEAD

Thirty Still Missing With Little Chance They Can Be Taken Out Alive.

WHAT A MAN THINKS WHEN DEATH SEEMS NEAR "I am writing to my wife, Mary, to bring up the kiddies, loving the Savior as I do now. How our sins creep up in our faces in a time like this."

By Associated Press. Hinton, West Va., March 6.—Forty-seven miners were rescued alive today from the workings of the Layland mines of the New River and Pocahontas Consolidated Coal company, wrecked by an explosion Tuesday. The men for four days and nights have been without food or drink. Rescuers who entered Mine No. 3 tearing down walls to let in fresh air found five men who seized and kissed the rescuers.

Continuing the search the rescuers encountered another wall about 500 yards beyond. Here they found 42 men alive. The miners were in such weakened condition that the rescuers had to carry them through the damp and gas to the entrance.

As Sam Morici was the hero who compelled his little party to barricade themselves, so did Hugh McMillan and John Whalen practically force the larger party, most of them negroes, to build a rude barricade to shut off the noxious after-damp. They realized their only hope of rescue lay in keeping out the gas. The rescued men all will recover, it is believed.

53 Rescued Alive. Tonight 53, including those found today, had been rescued alive; 85 bodies had been removed and 30 or more unaccounted for. All but eleven of the dead men have been brought out. The rescue parties worked feverishly following the rescue of the 47, but found no more alive. They entertain little hope that the 30 or more yet missing are alive. Some of the men had prepared to meet death, as was evidenced by a note written by Hugh McMillan, which said:

"All hoping that the rescuers will reach us in time and all praying to our Savior that such will happen, trusting to God that the air will last till they reach us. I am writing to my wife, Mary, to bring up the kiddies, loving the Savior as I am now. How our sins creep up in our faces in a time like this! Love to all."

At Bark and Leather. One of the twelve American born miners was William Dorango who escaped alive from the explosion in the mine at Eccles last March when nearly 170 men were killed. Frank Janony described the long wait as follows:

"We ate bark on mine posts, we got so hungry; eating soles of shoes, and good, too." It was reported tonight that one of the rescued men died while being taken out, but this could not be confirmed.

600 KILLED IN A RAILROAD ACCIDENT

TRAIN CARRYING REFUGEES IN MEXICO RIMS WILD DOWN STEEP GRADE

PLUNGES INTO AN ABYSS

Off 900 on Board 600 Killed Outright and Only Three Escaped Unhurt. Boston, March 6.—Reports of a railroad accident in Mexico last January in which 600 lives were lost is contained in a letter received today by the American board of commissioners of foreign missions from one of its representatives at Manzanillo on the Mexican west coast. The letter was written on February 14. According to the writer, after the entry of soldiers in Guadalajara, which was captured by Carranza's troops on January 18, the governor ordered that their families be brought from Colima on a special train.

SUFFRAGE LACKING ONLY THREE VOTES

VOTES FOR WOMEN AMENDMENT LOSES SHORT OF TWO-THIRDS

ANOTHER TEST YET AHEAD

Burmeister Paves Way for Motion to Reconsider and Submit to Another Test

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, March 6.—Women's suffrage was given another test in the House today when it was brought up for final passage and was defeated, 90 to 32, lacking only four votes of the two-thirds necessary for the submission of a resolution for constitutional amendment. There were really 91 votes and only three are necessary for its final passage, because Mr. Burmeister, author of the resolution, voted "no" in order to move to reconsider and spread on the Journal, so that another chance may be had to vote on the resolution.

WOLF SCALP BOUNTY APPROPRIATION LIKELY

Special to The Times. Austin, Texas, March 6.—Members of the House may yet accept the invitation to Dallas to attend the laying of the corner stone of the union station next Tuesday, despite the fact that the House during the morning declined the invitation. During the afternoon session the House by a vote of 50 to 49 reconsidered its action of the morning, thus leaving the resolution by the Dallas delegation to accept the invitation, pending, before action could be taken on the resolution. The speaker ruled that the time for the consideration of the resolution had expired and the matter went over until Monday.

The House adopted the free conference committee report on the Tilson bill appropriating $100,000 to be given by commissioners, courts of counties for scalps of wolves, wild cats and jack rabbits. The Nichols-Reeves bill was adopted extending the state purchasing agent's duty to all state institutions and schools, except the state penitentiary system. The bill fixes the salary of the agent at $2,500 per annum and requires him to purchase all supplies of the various state institutions and schools. It does away with many of the present store-keepers and stewards, making a saving of the state's expenditures.

The House bill appropriating $25,650 for the Prairie View Normal was set a special order for Tuesday at two o'clock. The Harris bill to allow hunting in pasture of 2,000 acres or more was killed after some debate. The House finally passed Cunningham's bill requiring all political advertisements or circulars to show the name of the person ordering the "ad" and the cost of the same.

The bill by McKnight and Nichols, applying the anti-nepotism bill to members of the legislature, was passed finally by a vote of 60 to 37. It also passed finally Sullivan's measure allowing pool halls to have refunded their licenses where the halls have been voted out through local option elections, and Witt's bill reducing wholesale druggists' taxes for selling alcohol.

FILIBUSTER CONTINUES ON "COMPULSORY EDUCATION BILL"

Special to The Times. Austin, Texas, March 6.—Opponents of the compulsory education bill in the Senate, which measure has been under consideration for four days in the upper branch, continued their filibustering tactics this afternoon which continued until a few minutes before eight o'clock tonight, when the Senate recessed until Monday morning at ten o'clock, without having reached a vote on the bill. However, an amendment was adopted which will require the bill to go back to the House should it pass finally in the Senate. This amendment provides that no officer shall invade a home in quest of a truant child without a warrant. This amendment was accepted by the friends of the measure.

During the afternoon Senator Nugent obtained unanimous consent and had passed to engrossment his bill which requires tax collectors to give bond for one year's taxes instead of two.

MANY BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR SATURDAY

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, March 6.—Governor Ferguson today signed a number of bills appropriating $5,000 for the suppression and eradication of citrus canker. The bill carries the emergency clause, making the appropriation available at once. The bills signed today are: Validating election held in Brazoria county for issuance of certain bonds; bill creating road system for Grayson county; Groveton independent school district law; senate bill conferring concurrent jurisdiction on the two criminal district courts of Dallas county with the Dallas county court at law in misdemeanor cases; house concurrent resolution granting leave of absence in July and August 1915 and 1916 of the first judicial district court.

MAIN FORTS UNDER FIRE

ENGLISH SHIPS USING HEAVY GUNS AGAINST PRINCIPAL DARDANELLES FORTS

FORTS ARE OUTRANGED

14-inch Guns of Forts Barely Able to Reach Ships Which Have Bigger Guns

By Associated Press. London, March 6.—The British battleships, Queen Elizabeth and Prince George, and the battle cruiser, Inflexible, with their eight fifteen-inch guns and an even dozen twelve inch guns yesterday opened an attack on the principal forts on the European sides of the narrows in the Dardanelles. Two of the forts were damaged and the magazine of a third was blown up. These forts which guard the narrowest part of the straits from the European side are believed to be the strongest along the entire waterway, although those on the opposite of the narrow almost equal to them.

One of the ports, marked on the admiralty maps as "L," is armed with fourteen inch guns that could hardly reach the Queen Elizabeth which fired 29 rounds from her fifteen inch weapons by indirect fire and had the advantage of aeroplanes to direct her gunners. Two other forts are armed with three eleven inch guns and some smaller cannon. Meantime lighter cruisers continue attacks on the fortifications along the coasts of Asia Minor from Beika, which is near the entrance of the Dardanelles, to Smyrna.

Doubtless with a view to prevent reinforcements being sent to the straits where there are already a large number of Turkish troops with whom the marines, who were landed to destroy the forts at the entrance, have been in contact. It was in this land fighting that the allies suffered casualties, according to the British report, of nineteen killed and 25 wounded, and three missing. The Turks, however, gave the British casualties at a higher figure.

Tonight's official dispatch from the admiralty disclosed that the East Indies fleet under Admiral Sir Richard Percival, who is flying his flag on the Aerius, has joined the allied fleet and that he undertook the bombardment of the fortifications which were seriously damaged. Wednesday, the ships continued to bombard Fort Dardanos on the Asiatic side of the straits. Destroyers and mine sweepers are pursuing the work of clearing the outer straits of mines. French ships are keeping up a bombardment from the Gulf of Saros.

U. S. RAILROADS ARE UNDER THE WEATHER

"PUNISHMENT" BY STATE COMMISSIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR CONDITIONS

FRISCO RECEIVER ON STAND

Says Time Has Come for Railroad and Government Officials to Deal Frankly

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 6.—James W. Lusk, one of the receivers of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, testified today in the Interstate Commerce Commission's hearing of the application for forty-one western railroads for increased freight rates that one reason railroads were not earning sufficiently was because state commissions had reduced their rates as "punishment."

"The railroads of the United States are under the weather," said Mr. Lusk, "you may attribute it to the European war, the Mexican war, to politics or what you will. They say certain roads have been looted and the state commissions have reduced rates as punishment. You never see any looters going to jail; the innocent ones are hurt, the employes are laid off and the stockholders fall to get dividends. Government control of railroads has come to stay and the only way they can prosper or even live is for the railroad officials and the government officials to deal frankly with one another. You should not attempt to strangle the roads."

"Isn't it a fact that the continued talk by railroad officials about depression of business has tended to depreciate railroad credit rather than lack of revenue?" asked Luther Walker, representing the meatpackers who are opposing the proposed rate. "That is not true," replied Mr. Lusk, "my belief is that the railroads have not painted the situation bad enough. They have been afraid to hurt their credit. That's why I say let's get together and give the railroads a fair deal."

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS TO LEAVE MEXICO CITY

FRICITION BETWEEN CHIEF AND GENERAL

OBREGON DISPLEASED WITH CARRANZA'S MODIFICATION OF TAX DECREE

ATROCITIES ARE REPORTED

Zapata Adherents Attack Suburb of Mexico City and Perpetrate Outrages

By Associated Press. Vera Cruz, March 6.—Friction between General Obregon in command at Mexico City and General Carranza is reported here because of the alleged failure of Carranza to support Obregon in his recent decree assessing a special tax on all residents of the capital. It is said Carranza has given Obregon orders to evacuate the capital whenever he believed it necessary. Stopping of rail traffic between the coast and the capital is taken to mean that Obregon expects to evacuate the city soon.

An attack on Coyacan yesterday by soldiers claiming allegiance to Zapata was marked by barbarities of the most violent type, according to stories brought here by passengers of the last train out of Mexico City. Coyacan is a suburb of the capital. It is reported women, some of them foreigners, were stripped of their clothing in the streets during the daylight attack. Passengers report the soldiers railed the telephone exchange and that few of the female operators escaped.

INSANE GEORGIAN KILLS 5, WOUNDS 6

CRAZED MAN RUNS AMUCK ON STREETS OF BRUNSWICK SATURDAY

STILL SHOOTING WHEN KILLED

Uses Automatic Shotgun With Deadly Effect After Killing Lawyer in Office

By Associated Press. Brunswick, Ga., March 6.—Five men were killed, six others seriously wounded and about a score slightly wounded here today by Monroe Phillips, a local real estate and timber dealer, who ran amuck on the principal streets with an automatic shotgun.

Phillips himself was shot dead while he was still trying to fire on citizens. Phillips was thought to have come insane because of alleged financial reverses and developed an enmity for Harry F. Dunwoody, a prominent lawyer and politician in whose office he began his murderous attack. After killing Dunwoody Phillips went into the street and began shooting at every one in sight, causing a panic among citizens. It probably was half an hour after the first shot was fired by Phillips before he was shot down.

Several of the wounded are reported to be in a precarious condition and it is feared that the death list may be increased.

STEAMER PACIFIC NOT DETAINED BY BRITISH

Now Appears That American Ship Stopped Only to Take on an English Pilot

By Associated Press. Boston, March 6.—The cotton laden steamer Pacific, bound from Galveston to Rotterdam, which was detained at Deal End yesterday, has been released, according to a cablegram from Captain Mundy, her commander, today.

"An sailing for Rotterdam," he reported to the owners of the vessel. The officials of the company now believe the steamer was held up only to take on a pilot.

MAIL CARRIER GIVEN 15 MONTHS FOR THEFT

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, March 6.—Earnest B. Brogden, former letter carrier in the Houston postoffice, today was sentenced to fifteen months in Leavenworth prison after conviction in the federal court on a charge of theft from the mails. Judge Bruah, presiding, gave warning that he would be severe in such cases in the future, as crimes of this class appeared to be increasing.

SITUATION IS CRITICAL

BRYAN HAS RECEIVED NO REPLY TO LATEST PROTEST TO CARRANZA

TRAVEL IS STOPPED

Speculations as to Where Diplomats Will Go From Mexico City

By Associated Press. Washington, March 6.—The foreign diplomatic corps in Mexico City has decided to leave in a body. Dispatches telling of the decision were received here today by European diplomats and forwarded to their home governments. The Mexican government was admitted in all quarters to be more critical than at any time since Huerta precipitated the landing of troops at Vera Cruz.

Where the diplomats would go was the subject of speculation inasmuch as the conditions which are forcing them to leave are being imposed by Carranza's commander, Obregon, it was pointed out they would hardly go to Vera Cruz. Villa has invited the diplomatic corps to join him at his capital at Chihuahua. To do so, it was pointed out, might be construed as recognition of his faction. Without diplomatic representation in Mexico City the capital and a large portion of the country virtually would be cut off from the world.

While the foreign colonies have been reduced in the last year, there are still many foreigners in the country. Carranza's forces are refusing to permit travel on the pretext that the road is needed for military movements.

Juan Amador, head of General Carranza's agency here, today declared in a formal statement that reports of the gravity of the situation "have been grossly exaggerated."

Encouraging advice indicating that General Carranza might have representations of the United States and direct General Obregon to permit food and supplies to reach Mexico City were received late today by the state department. While the situation was still described as grave, the intimation was given that Carranza was beginning to yield to the diplomatic pressure being exercised at Vera Cruz for an amelioration of conditions in Mexico City where famine had threatened. Another disturbing element in the general situation reported to the state department was an outbreak of an epidemic of smallpox at Tampico.

300 PRIESTS PRISONERS IN MEXICO CITY

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 6.—Three hundred native priests are imprisoned in Mexico City and all the institutions at the capital and its environs with which nuns are connected have been closed, according to a statement given out by Archbishop Jose Y. Delrio, who arrived here today. In addition 114 priests of foreign birth have been driven from Mexico City, going to Havana, as did the archbishop. The archbishop, who was the head of the church in Mexico, will confer here next week with Cardinal Gibbons. Passengers who arrived aboard the steamer Texas today from Vera Cruz reported conditions serious, both in Mexico City and Vera Cruz. No American newspaper has been allowed in Vera Cruz or Mexico City in weeks.

CHICAGO DETECTIVES SEARCH FOR BANK ROBBERY LOOT

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 6.—Search for the hiding place of a sum supposed to be $120,000, part of the loot of the $317,000 robbery of the Branch Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., on September 16, 1911, was begun here today by a score of detectives, as a result of the arrest yesterday of two men believed to be ring-leaders in the robbery.

ANOTHER SLIDE STOPS TRAFFIC THROUGH CANAL

Section of Earth Slumps Fresh Top of Culebra Cut into Water of Canal

By Associated Press. Panama, March 6.—The Panama Canal has been closed to all but the lighter draft ships by a slide of earth from the top of the Culebra cut at a point north of Gold Hill. A further slide is probable but no serious stoppage is expected. The present channel is sufficient for navigation by ships with a draft of 20 feet. At one point the present channel is very narrow. It is not likely that ships of 30 foot draft will be able to pass through the canal until the middle of next week.

To give women temporary jobs, they reply, would result in serious industrial trouble when the men were discharged from the army.

which will undoubtedly end on March 20. During this week much progress was made with the consideration of these party pledges, due in a great measure to the chiding given the lawmakers last Sunday by the governor and also the outside interests.

The governor points with some degree of pride to the enactment of the land tenant rent bill which is now a law and believes that the text book bill and the compulsory education bill will soon reach the executive office for signature.

The sine die resolution is now in the Senate and it is likely to be acted on next Monday, and from the sentiment prevailing in the upper branch there is little doubt but that the Senate will concur and decide to adjourn on March 20.

The governor received the Texas Company bill this evening and will study it. In this connection he announced he would act on this measure Monday, as he will leave Austin Monday night or early Tuesday morning for San Antonio, where he is to attend the meeting of the Texas Cattle Men's association. There is every reason to believe that the governor will sign this bill.

As to when the special session would be called the governor declined to express himself, but the general impression prevails that he does not propose to recall the lawmakers immediately, but will do so probably in May or June.

D. RESTA WINS VANDERBILT AUTOMOBILE RACE AT SAN FRANCISCO.

AVERAGES 67 MILES PER HOUR

Upsets Are Frequent on Oily Track But Only One Accident Is Serious.

By Associated Press.
San Francisco, March 6.—D. Resta, driving car No. 9, in which he won the Grand Prix last Saturday, today captured the 331-mile Vanderbilt cup race over the course of the Panama Pacific exposition, in what is said to have been one of the most thrilling contests in this American automobile classic.

His time was 4:27:37. He maintained an average of 67.1-2 miles an hour. Howard Wilcox, No. 26, was second in 4:34:36. Eddie Pullen in No. 4 was third in 4:35:27. Ralph De Palma in No. 22 was fourth in 4:39:07.

It was a grueling heart-breaking race from start to finish. The pace set by the winners subjected the cars to a terrific strain so that long before the finish less than half of those that answered the starter's call were still in the running. Every few minutes a car went to the pit for repairs.

Upsets were frequent owing to the fact that the track became slippery from oil drippings, but there was only one serious accident when Bob Burman's car turned completely over on a right angle turn. His mechanic, Joe Cleary, received a broken thigh and may be internally injured.

expected the American government would ask Great Britain and France for an explanation of their recent note since President Wilson has spoken of the general and vague policy announced in those communications and the necessity for discovering how the principles expressed would actually be enforced. As yet, no reply has been received from Great Britain to American proposals for the abandonment of submarine warfare and removal of mines, and the shipment of foodstuffs and conditional contraband to Germany under supervision that would guarantee their distribution to civilian population only.

GERMANY ANTICIPATES ATTACK ON CONSTANTINOPLE BY ALLIES

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 6.—Germany has asked the United States to care for its diplomatic interests in Constantinople should the allied forces occupy the capital of Turkey. Ambassador Morgenthau has been instructed to assume that duty when the German minister to Turkey leaves with the Ottoman government for Ichehir, the newly selected temporary capital for the porte.

There is every indication from the official dispatches received here both at the Turkish embassy and the Washington government that the Ottoman forces have made extensive preparations to defend all approaches to Constantinople. Removal of the government will in no way affect the intention of the military authorities to make every resistance against the invaders. Reports of a contemplated evacuation of Constantinople are not mentioned in any official dispatches.

Ambassador Morgenthau is arranging a neutral zone for foreigners should the fighting reach the capital. He will remain in Constantinople and one of the embassy secretaries will accompany the Ottoman government.

Boats Standing By Ready to Transfer Them if It Is Found Necessary.

By Associated Press.
London, March 6.—A further message from the steamship La Touraine received at Queenstown says the steamer Rotterdam is standing by prepared to render every assistance including the transfer of passengers if necessary. Wireless messages have been sent to the steamers Arabic, Corsham, Swamere and Stanford, saying their assistance is not now required.

Meantime, however, an "S. O. S." call had been picked up by a British cruiser on patrol duty in the Atlantic and she proceeded at top speed to the assistance of the La Touraine. Her aid is not considered necessary as the captain of the Rotterdam has promised to stand by the La Touraine until she reaches port. When the Rotterdam reached the La Touraine the crew of the latter vessel was fighting the fire with every means at their disposal.

MUCH ANXIETY IS FELT FOR SAFETY OF VESSEL

By Associated Press.
New York, March 6.—When the steamship La Touraine reported 500 miles west of Havre, France, sailed from this port last Saturday, she had aboard 84 passengers, of whom 38 were in the first cabin and 46 in the storeroom. The vessel was one of six big liners to leave this port the same day; the sailings were the heaviest recorded here for some time.

On board the La Touraine were 4,384 cases of cartridges, intended for use in the European war. The crew numbered approximately 200; the vessel was under command of Captain Causin. It was said, with M. Gaillard as second captain. Two wireless operators were aboard.

Stored away in the vessel's hold was the ammunition which caused keen apprehension as to the vessel's fate when it was known that a fire was raging aboard.

Wireless stations along the Atlantic seaboard directed radio queries through the air to the burning ship and the little fleet of rescuers reported around here. While the crackle of wireless sparks from powerful stations could be heard by steamers as far away as the La Touraine the wireless plant aboard those vessels were too weak to send back any answer. All news of the La Touraine, it was thought, would have come from the other side. In addition to the cartridges the boat carried 139 rapid fire guns and a varied assortment of supplies for the allies, both foodstuffs and clothing.

An exchange tells us that it takes big men to eliminate the prejudice that is in us, and therefore that exchange comes to the conclusion there are but few big men. But that has not been the way this newspaper views such a matter.

It now begins to look as if the legislature was going to yield to the wishes of Governor Ferguson and amend the Robertson insurance law that will permit the old life insurance companies to do business in Texas.

MARCH 6, 1915. AND THEN SOME. (Henrietta Review)

Commenting on an article from a prominent state paper which is directed against the ship purchase bill supported by President Wilson, the Wichita Times says: "But then when it is taken into consideration that the shipping trust has increased the ocean freight rates from $1.75 on a bale of cotton from Savannah to Bremen to $18.50, and that the cotton producer receives that much less for his cotton, then there is a reason for the government to get into the shipping business."

Among the troubles with us as a people, mentally and economically, is that so many of the prominent "disseminators" from which we get our so-called information have subscribed to political creeds. And all within the narrow circle is good, and all without is bad.

It is now begins to look as if the legislature was going to yield to the wishes of Governor Ferguson and amend the Robertson insurance law that will permit the old life insurance companies to do business in Texas.

Washington, March 5.—The following statement concerning the province of Bukovina, the neighbor of Galicia in the Austro-Hungarian empire, which has been figured the war news recently was prepared by the National Geographic Society: "Legend has it that the old gods are in exile in Bukovina. Crowded from their temples in Greece and in Italy and from their halls on Olympus, they fled to the raw mountain forests of Bukovina, where they have since led sadly impoverished lives with no objects of worship, no incense, no notice, with nothing but bleak, lonesome beech forests and rocky mountain sides. However true this may be in the case of the gods, it is true in the case of the peoples of Bukovina that most of them went there in exile. They are the Ruthenians and Roumanian tribes who were crowded out in the bitter struggles through which Europe came to its present apportionment. They, like their neighbors the excited gods, lead lean existences in the small, mountainous forest land which lies on the outskirts of every thing."

Bukovina is an Austrian crownland, with the rank of a duchy, with a few small cities and a population of some 800,000. It presents an unobstructed frontier to the Russians, while it is cut off from the Austro-Hungarian empire by the Carpathian mountains. Its chief city, Czernowitz, is just across from the Russian frontier. Broken spur ranges from the Carpathians, further isolate much of Bukovina from its neighboring Galicia. It is most of access to Russian and to Roumania. The first natural difficulties which the Russians meet were the interior mountain ranges, covered with forests, and tangled with underbrush. "The Crownland has an area of 4,031 square miles, and lies almost wholly in the Carpathian belt. Its climate is severe, and its soils, except in the larger valleys, are not very productive. There is little mineral production, and no industry besides brewing distilling and milling. Bukovina is a land of exiled gods and people, miserably living with black bread and cheese and possessing little wealth for contending armies to destroy."

A pleasing picture of Dutch life is drawn by Mrs. Florence Craig Albrecht in a paper prepared for the National Geographic Society in which she describes the tidy housewife, shows how the little girls exactly duplicate their mothers in dress and the little boys must be appraised exactly like their fathers or be hopelessly out of fashion. The writer shows how formerly every one of Holland's many islands and most of her many towns had their own particular and distinctive dress, and even to this day, in a little country less than a fourth as big as New York, one may still recognize the places from which many people come by their costumes. She draws a picture of the Walcheren dames who drive to the butter market at Middleburg, descend from their wagons and chaises with much shaking of voluminous skirts and aprons, much patting of their comely Dutch caps, and much smoothing-of-wrinkled faces. "When the farmer's wife comes to town she replaces her workaday apron with one of black sateen," says Mrs. Albrecht, "almost as long and full as her skirts; it is close shirred at the waist in many fine, even rows. Her bodice is black likewise; but a shield-shaped tucker is frequently of gay colors, and the sleeves are but an apology, ending far above the elbow in a broad and very tight black velvet band."

FATE OF THE FOURFLUSHER

Young Man Was Mistaken in Thinking Girl Had "Fallen for" the Automobile.

She sat on a bench under one of the elder trees, with closed lips, drinking in the glories of the setting sun. "Excuse me," he said, lifting his hat with his right hand while he addressed her with the left, "but do you happen to have such a thing on you as a match? That is my automobile standing there and I find myself without a match to light the lamp." It was obviously but a ruse to engage her in conversation, but he was rather a nice-looking young man, with a three-dollar knitted necktie and all, and she smiled as she told him how sorry she was about having no match. "They all fall for the automobile," he muttered to himself. One thing led to another, and soon he was sitting beside her chatting gaily about the Latin Quarter, Shakespeare's latest play, the prevalence of divorce and other absorbing topics. But soon it really did begin to darken up. "I must go," she said, and giving him a final smile, she strode daintily to the automobile to which he had pointed as his, hopped in and was lost in a cloud of dust, leaving him to reflect on the just deserts which sooner or later must envelop all fourflushers. 55 1tc

TRAPS THE TEUTONS

Englishman Delivers Germans Up to Their Enemies.

Signals British Warship That Vessel on Which He is Crossing Water is Carrying Reservists—Is Severely Attacked, But Wins Out.

Halifax, N. S.—More thrilling than fiction was the story of the British battleship Glory's stopping of the Spanish mail boat Montserrat, as told here by members of the crew. The Montserrat sailed from Vera Cruz several weeks ago and stopped at New York on route here. The British consul general at New York was suspicious of a number of those reported on the Montserrat's sailing list, thinking they were German reservists. When the Montserrat sailed from New York one of her passengers was a quiet little Englishman who made plenty of acquaintances and seemed to know a great deal about the ship. Nobody paid much attention to him, however, until the Glory bore in sight. Then some of the German-speaking men aboard became very much aware of his presence. They discovered the quiet Mr. Beatty on the poop deck in the shelter of one of the boats carrying on a vigorous wig-wag with the Glory. The Germans—many of whom had been telling the sympathetic Mr. Beatty all about how they had their uniforms under their civilian clothes and how they planned to rejoin the German army—made a rush for the Britisher and a lively scrap ensued. The Glory meanwhile signaled for the Montserrat to stop and demanded that Beatty be protected. Captain Ferrer obeyed. The big 12-inch guns of the British battleship were trained on him and he had no alternative. When a heavily armed boarding party of British blue jackets came aboard Beatty saluted their officer and made a formal detailed report of his investigations. The Germans were arrested on arrival here and held. Their baggage is being searched. 55 1tc

Official Berlin Bulletin Tells of Reprises to Russians and to French

By Associated Press. Berlin, March 6.—The official statement follows: "On March 5 in the western theater of war southwest of Ypres we made a counter attack and captured an English trench. An attempt by the French to take the conquered positions on the Lorette Heights failed. We took fifty French prisoners. In the Champagne district the French conducted their attacks near Pertuis and Le Meaulx but were repulsed. Near Pertuis we captured five officers and forty French soldiers. In a counter attack we occupied the small wood north of Pertuis and the Yiro trench of their positions near Le Meaulx. The French attacks against our positions near Vauquois and east of Badonville and northeast of Celles were unsuccessful.

"In the eastern theater our entire war booty in the forest district northwest of Grodno and around Augustowo has been collected in spite of energetic Russian counter measures. Our troops, which were employed for this task, are now at our disposal for other operations; otherwise there is nothing of importance to report from around Grodno and near Lomza. Northeast of Prasnys a Russian attack broke down with severe losses to the enemy. North west of Plousk a Russian attack also was repulsed. South of Vistula there is nothing important to report."

COTTON CLOSED WEEK AT SHARP PRICE ADVANCE

Spot Shorts Having Hard Time Covering Commitments in Texas

By Associated Press. New Orleans, March 6.—Cotton bulged sharply on the week-end session, standing fifteen to sixteen points over Friday's close at the highest and closing at a net gain of ten to thirteen points. Peace rumors were the strong influence in the trading. Reports that spot shorts were having a hard time covering commitments in Texas, which advancing prices in that state seemed to confirm, also had something to do with the strength of the market, as did a statistical estimate showing over 25 per cent of the acreage last season would go into grain. The market was active for a week-end session and much fresh buying came in.

INCREASING FIRMNESS TODAY WITH BUSINESS MORE ACTIVE AND GENERAL FOR TIME PAST

The close was firm at a net advance of fourteen to sixteen points. The market opened steady at an advance of two to three points in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables and overnight buying orders inspired by the firmness of yesterday, the large spinners' takings for the week and the continued steadiness of the Southern spot market. Demand seemed to broaden as the market worked higher and, in addition to covering, there was considerable buying by Wall Street and Western connections, Wal Street and Western connections. Some traders predict a great increase in shipments to Russia if the Dardanelles are opened.

MUCH OF PICTURESQUENESS DISAPPEARING FROM WAR

Nothing Fancy or Foolish Now About Equipment For Armies in Field

By Associated Press. London, March 6.—Was has struck a blow at both military smartness and military picturesqueness. These two features, which distinguished European wars of the past, are now yielding to the practical. The British Tommy in the trenches, wearing gaiters, coat, rubber boots and knitted cap pulled down over his head, looks more like a Robinson Crusoe than a soldier. French Zouaves still wear baggy trousers, Moorish jacket and fez, but the cloth is colored a greenish yellow like the British khaki. Belgians have changed their regulation foolish little cap for a good, warm cap which looks as if made for a caudron.

Among the changes undergone in the British field uniform is a Sam Brown belt made of webbing instead of the more conspicuous leather. The

SPORTING TENDENCIES OF ENGLISHMEN CRITICISED

Indulge in Pheasant Shooting in France in War Zone While Natives Are Barred

By Associated Press. London, March 6.—The inability of a certain type of Englishman to repress his sporting instincts when engaged in the graver business of war is severely condemned by the Daily Chronicle in an editorial dealing with pheasant chasing and pheasant shooting at the front. A number of officers have even imported packs of beagles the species of hound used in the chase of small animals.

"Sympathetic imagination is never the Englishman's strong point; and for lack of it some of our officers at the front have made a rather serious mistake," says the Chronicle. Then, after quoting a newspaper description of a hunt behind the trenches, it continues: "It does not need much reflection to see how jarring such conduct must be in what is not a conqueror, but an allied country, while its mourning inhabitants in presence of the great calamity of invasion, are refraining from every sport of the kind. It is likely to stir—and we happen to know that it has given—great offense to our French allies. Shooting parties have been organized behind our lines and pheasant pressure raised. All game shooting in France is prohibited during the war; so that the French see English officers indulging in sport which is not only unseemly but also actually illegal so far as they are concerned. We feel sure that this sport is not indulged in with the knowledge or consent either of the commander in chief or of Lord Kitchener."

DESPERADOES KILL ONE; WOUNDS ANOTHER

By Associated Press. Wilmington, Del., March 6.—In a running fight today with a supposed footpad Frank Tierney, a policeman was killed. Another policeman, Maurice McDannel, was wounded fatally. Two others were injured severely and another slightly. The desperado, Charles Monnets, was captured after being wounded in the breast.

CONTRASTS AND BRILLIANT COLORS IN SPRING STYLES

New York, March 6.—With the first breath of spring weather, costumes begin to take on spring like colorings. Hats in gayer colors or trimmed with bright flowers and feathers announce to the world that spring has returned. Even when the suit or dress remains of the somber colors of winter, cover cloths has been the novelty in winter suits and is very popular in the spring, for it is light in color and combines with many things. A new cloth called buck skin cover is the newest of this type.

A few days ago I received an announcement card from a Fifth Avenue dress making establishment, of a private view of their newest models. From the general salarooms I was guided into a gray and gold elevator and from there to an artistic room also in gray and white and gold. The simplest of small stages occupied one side of the room. A few chairs were placed carefully around the room and we made ourselves comfortable for the review.

Boilers were the most striking features shown. Short little bobby, sleeveless jackets, some cut square and straight around, others scalloped or slashed. These were worn over full blouses which bloused a trifle over the belt or girdle instead of being pulled straight down. Most of these were long sleeved, while others had the bell sleeves, three-quarter or half length, wide and unbound at the lower edge.

The skirts were full and short most of them being built on peasant lines, with full apron like overskirts front and back, divided on the sides and showing a plain or ruffled underskirt beneath.

Another noticeable feature in these dresses was the fact that they were all made with a normal waistline, an interesting fact when one thinks of all the long waisted and Empire lines which are shown as forerunners of spring and summer fashions. It is a fact that the frocks made on Empire lines are decidedly for the girlish figure while the round waisted frocks suit all styles of figure more or less.

Another type of costume shown here was taken from the 15th Century French costumes. The waist was in doublet effect, slashed several times front and back through which the creamy white chiffon blouse peeped. A short pleated peplum finished the lower edge of the waist. This was worn over a full skirt with a pleated ruffle on the bottom. An interesting thing to remember is that these pleated ruffles which are used on the bottom of so many skirts are pressed flat and put on the lower edge without a heading of any kind.

In these dresses the long tunic was shown in many different styles. Sometimes with a pleated lower skirt showing just below, and again with an underskirt of filmy lace.

One of these frocks I will describe in detail. The skirt had a long blue tulle striped with a thread of yellow and crossed with a satin stripe. This was slashed up about eight inches and faced upon the upper side with plain blue. The pleated underskirt of plain blue just peeped out from beneath the tunic.

A short bolero jacket also slashed and bound with plain blue is worn over a white chiffon blouse with a narrow pleat down the center having a frill on either side. The long sleeves had deep flaring cuffs of the striped silk with a frill of the chiffon around its edge. The collar of the blouse was very high with a frill of chiffon above and below.

Another little dress which sported a short bolero jacket and chiffon blouse having deep bell sleeves of the chiffon, had a skirt which showed a new evolution of the tunic skirt.

The skirt was of blue chiffon taffeta with two box pleatings around the bottom. The skirt was the full length in the back, but the front was the depth of the two box pleated ruffles shorter, and beneath were two box pleated frills of white chiffon. The effect was stunning.

Contrast is a strong note in the color combinations of the season. Many dark jackets were shown with white or light colored skirts. Wide leather belts were used on some of the dresses. One white serge dress had a red patent leather belt which was very effective indeed.

A white chiffon afternoon dress showed the raglan sleeves with surplice fronts of flat lace and a loose panel of the flat lace in the back. The unusual skirt was made of chiffon with three graduated bands of shirred silk applied. Each band was shirred upon a cord top and bottom which gave the band a very pretty finish.

A coat and dress showing the long and the short waisted effects are shown in the illustrations. The coat in diagonal blue serge, with full skirt and belt with pockets upon each side is a late and practical model for the spring coat. In the illustration the coat is worn with a sand colored skirt.

One of the largest formal dinners of the season was the seven o'clock dinner given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robertson at their home on Tenth street. As February offers a number of ideas for decoration, so the March hostess has St. Patrick's Day to offer unlimited suggestions, and the hostess had taken advantage of the latter occasion. Covers were laid for eighteen on a large oval table. The Irish harp, famed in story and song of Irish legends, formed the central motif, cleverly conceived, the frame of smilax with gold strings. This harp was mounted on a smilax embanked mirror reflector and at intervals around it, to form a circle, vases of double yellow jougals and brass candlesticks with green candles were placed alternately. Favors, tall green hats for the gentlemen, with green boxes, surmounted by golden harps, for the ladies, were filled with nuts. The covers were marked by shamrock embossed place cards, bearing on the reverse Irish jokes, which were read between courses, even the table talk being in accord with the general scheme. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson's guests included Messrs. and Mesdames C. W. Snider, P. P. Langford, R. P. Watts, Noble, Farris, Freear, Mesdames Wood, R. T. Ray, of Austwell and Messrs. The Guild of the Good Shepherd met Monday afternoon in regular session with Mrs. W. E. Japhet. Some very interesting questions were asked and the resulting discussions in which the pastor, F. T. Datson took a prominent part were very helpful. The members present were: Mesdames Datson, Adams, Akin, Warner, Fontaine, Sammons, Japhet, Albin, Fogsell, Stewart, Shult, Blair and Rev. F. T. Datson.

GUILD MEETING MONDAY PLANS FOR SOCIAL THURSDAY

The Westminster Guild met in regular session Monday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Grayson as leader. The lesson was taken from Chapter 14 of the study book and Mrs. Thompson read an excellent paper on the different classes of friars and gave a sketch of the Dominican monk. At the business session plans were made for a social meeting of the young women of the church and congregation to be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the church parlors. All young married women and young ladies of the congregation are extended a most cordial invitation to attend.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN LADIES HAVE PROGRAM

The Ladies Aid of the Central Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. F. Kerr as hostess. The usual devotional services and sentence prayers for the sick preceded the program of which Mrs. Wright was leader. Roll call was answered with notes on missions in Mexico and an unusual feature of the program was the reading of a lecture by Dr. Ennis of New York, a noted missionary. This lecture was read by various of the members at the conclusion of the regular program. A social half hour was also enjoyed, the hostess serving a salad course.

REGULAR SESSION OF W. C. T. U. MONDAY AFTERNOON

The W. C. T. U. met in regular routine of business and observed United Sign Day Monday afternoon at the First Christian Church. The program was carried out as planned, all present manifesting a pleasing amount of interest. On account of the conflict of the various church societies it was deemed best to make a change in the day of meeting from Monday to Thursday of each week. The Union will meet next March 11 in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church. All ladies who have been members of any W. C. T. U. and all interested in the cause of temperance are urged to attend.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN AID ELECTS OFFICERS MONDAY

Gaffney was elected president; Mrs. J. W. Culbertson, vice president; Mrs. C. W. Beavers, secretary; Mrs. L. M. Boyd, treasurer. Following the election of officers the Bible study was engaged in, the lesson being taken from the Book of Genesis from the tenth to the thirtieth chapters. The lesson was made quite interesting by the leader, Mrs. Kemp and numerous excellent points were gained from the discussion.

Late in the afternoon delicious refreshments of nut salad, sandwiches, olives, croissants and cake were served to the following: Mesdames Klander, Datson, Menzie, Felder, Faust Lenoir, Collier, Vaughn, Adams, Cook, McElroy, Hagland and Miss Catherine Cook.

EXPECT TO UNEARTH PREHISTORIC BONES

TO RESUME DIGGING IN SAND
PIT IN RIVER BOT-TOM

FORMER SPECIMENS RECALLED

Believed to Be Relics of Mammoth,
Large Animal Resembling
Elephant in Form

When work is again started in the portion of the sand pit along Red River on C. A. Walling's farm near Burk Burnett next week where bones of a prehistoric mammoth were found more than a year ago, it is expected that the remainder of the skeleton will be uncovered.

Only a few bones of this animal had been discovered when excavation in that part of the pit was stopped about a year ago. These bones were found within a few feet of each other and it is believed that the rest of the skeleton is lying buried in the sand in that vicinity. Among the bones found were four or five teeth. These teeth weigh more than eighteen pounds apiece and are six inches broad and about fifteen inches long.
A part of the jaw bone is still attached to one of the teeth. Recently one of the vertebrae, probably from the neck of the animal, was uncovered. A man's fist can easily be thrust through the hole in the bone through which the animal's spinal chord ran.

Probably Bones of Mammoth.
The bones were found at a depth of thirty-three feet in the sand and Prof.
Hester of the State University, who examined the bones at Burk Burnett some time ago, said that they might be anywhere from 10,000 to 100,000 years old. The mammoth was a member of the elephant family which, however, was proportioned in size to the ordinary elephant as a tiger to an ordinary house cat. No complete skeleton of a mammoth has ever been found. The bones unearthed at Burk Burnett are being saved and will probably be turned over to some scientific institution.

Scattered bones of mammoth have been found in this section at different places showing that the animals must have been numerous in this territory many thousands of years ago.

TODAY IS ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

New Building Dedicated Just One Year Ago—Much Accomplished
in Twelve Months

One year ago today the First Christian Church was dedicated free of debt, and two years ago today excavation began for the foundation. The completion and payment were accomplished by less than 300 members in that short time and the pastor, Rev.
F. F. Walters, who has had the leadership in other such enterprises, says he never saw so much done in so short a time. Another item of which the congregation is proud is that the building was erected in the period between two large missionary offerings, one taken on the Sunday before beginning the excavation, the other on the Sunday before dedication. Concerning the year's work, the pastor said:

"During the year much progress has been made in every organization.
On entering the new building the Bible school was organized and graded. W. J. Clark, the national expert, who conducted a school of methodists here with one hundred enrolled, said this church and Bible school was doing the nicest piece of work he had ever seen undertaken. Sure this is the spirit of North Texas church as well as cities. Since entering this new building the Scoville meeting was conducted at a cost of $2000; the membership has been largely increased, though many of the most influential families have moved from the city; the Bible school has doubled in regular attendance and now has fifty officers and teachers at work each week, under the leadership of W. J. Bullock, superintendent.

"Some time ago the officers and entire church voted a continued call for the pastor to remain at least two more years with the congregation, they believe longer pastorates are essential for the success of both the church and pastor."

TO GRAVEL ROADS IN THIS COMMISSIONERS' PRECINCT

Burk Burnett and Iowa Park Highways Will Be Improved Within Next 30 Days

Two thousand yards of gravel are to be placed on the Iowa Park and Burk Burnett roads in commissioner's precinct No. 1. This work will start in about 30 days. Commissioner Jackson has closed a contract for the purchase of gravel and is opening a pit about two miles north of town, where a deposit of a fairly good grade of gravel has been found.

The gravel will be placed over sandy stretches of the road and Mr.
Jackson is hoping that it will improve the roads so much that the people will be ready to vote a bond issue to have all the roads in the district graveled.

Dragging of the roads had just been completed before the rains last week which have made it necessary to do the work all over again both on the country roads and on the city streets. Many streets were dragged yesterday and should be in good condition for travel today.

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE AUTO BUYERS

MERIDIAN ROAD IS EASY FOR TOURISTS

ALL THEY HAVE TO DO IS FOLLOW DIRECTIONS SHOWN ON BANDS

POLES MARKED FOR MANY MILES

Local Autoists Paint Them In This Section—Want Line Marked For Entire Route

A deaf and dumb man with one eye out could start at Lawton and travel to Wichita Falls and as far south over the Meridian Road as Decatur without having to ask a single question as to the route. All he would have to do would be to follow the stripes painted on fence and telephone poles by Wichita Falls autoists.

The bands along the Meridian Road Association have been used. A band of white on the right hand-side traveling southward means keep ahead. Two red bands, one half red and half white means turn right. Have you ever noticed those bands of white on the telephone poles along the west side of Ohio avenue? That street is a section of the Meridian Road. The white bands point travelers southward toward Decatur.

even and perfect and bear evidence of having been painted by an expert hand; no mere motorist could have gotten them on in that shape. The bands along the country roads are roughly painted and amateurish. The difference is accounted for by the modesty of the patriotic motorists who painted them. These motorists when they came to the city limits employed a regular painter for the work as they thought if they attempted to do it themselves they would hear so much joshing and free advice that they could never get the job done.

As soon as the roads dry off so that traveling is good the work of completing the signs into Fort Worth will be continued. It is reported here that the route has been stripped from Lawton to Oklahoma City. Most of the route has been stripped from Fort Worth southward, and it is expected the work will be completed all the way to the Gulf during the coming summer.

Wants Entire Line Marked.
D. P. Talley of this city who has given much time and work to the campaign to bring the Meridian Road and the Colorado to the Gulf Highway through Wichita Falls is now urging upon the officials of the highway to adopt official signs and markers and begin a campaign to mark the whole route from Colorado to the Gulf. He has brought the matter to the attention of A. W. Read, Meridian secretary of the Texas division of the association, who has written to him that he has communicated to the other officials of the organization and believes that suitable colors will soon be adopted.

Philadelphia Ledger tells what has been accomplished. It follows: "The motorist's dream, a highgear dirt highway 1200 miles long now is nearly completed and within the next year it will be extended until the driver can 'hit er up' for 2,900 miles without changing gears for a grade. The road is so marked that not even a note book is now necessary for the driver.

"This model dirt highway is the Meridian Road, which will run from Winnipeg, Canada, to Galveston, when completed. It is the longest 'high gear' road in the country, for not in the world. It was planned and routed by Kansas and virtually all the interest in it was brought about through the efforts of John Nicholson of Newton.

"It is also, probably, the longest straight road in the country, for in the entire 2,900 miles there are only seven turns or jogs exceeding six miles from the actual Meridian form which the road takes it name—the Sixth Principal Meridian.

Bob Burman during the time the Pace company participated in the principal racing events of the country, this car established records that have never been broken.

In 1911 Burman drove the Bug at 108 miles an hour in time trials on the Indianapolis Speedway, establishing a record for American built cars. Later during the same year at Jacksonville, Fla., he drove it twenty miles in 13.11.92.

Equipped with the Buick 'valve in head' motor, this little speed marvel is identical so far as the power plant is concerned, with the pleasure cars manufactured by the Buick company today.

JAPANESE STILL TALKING OF SENDING MEN TO EUROPE

Much Sentiment Prevails For Rendering Active Assistance To Allies Cause

By Associated Press.
Yokohama, March 5.—The project of sending Japanese army to Europe is to be pushed still further by those who have proposed the idea. A mass meeting was held here on February 4, and largely attended by those who cheered the chauvinistic speeches. The following resolution was adopted: "The Association Advocating the Dispatch of Japanese Troops to Europe pledges itself to do its best to induce the Imperial Government to arrange with the Governments of Great Britain, Russia and France, the terms on which Japanese troops are to be dispatched to Europe, in compliance with their desire. With this end in view the present association will try to create public opinion on the subject."

Skruoku Kuroiwa, editor of the Yoruoka, a newspaper which has been active in support of the plan of sending troops to Europe, declared in a speech at the meeting that if the present war should end in victory for the Germans, the future of Japan would be in danger. He held it was most important that Japan should do all in its power to avert such a catastrophe. He also said if the Allies were victorious their influence would necessarily extend to the East and an alliance with these powers would be necessary. Under these circumstances he believed Japan would do well to render assistance at the present time.

DECREASE IN NUMBER OF WICHITANS AT UNIVERSITY

Four Less Than Last Year Are Registered—Total of 2259 Now In Institution

Special to The Times.
Austin, Texas, March 5.—Registration for this session in the University of Texas reveals Wichita county represented by the following students: Bruce Glenn Kirk, Walter Brown Sisk, Cliff Dudley Beacham, B. D. Hawthorne, Myrtle Henderson, Luther H. Hull, Ralph Potter Mathis, Otis Eley Nelson, Wayne Somerville, Joseph Eugene Ward.

According to the records this is a decrease of four compared with the last session. The severity of the matriculation requirements of the University of Texas has been steadily increased from year to year until at the present time the acceptance of a student into freshman standing means that the preparatory school from which he has done his work well. Despite the hard conditions in the state incident to the low price of cotton, the institution is now having one of its most successful years. This year 2259 students are receiving instruction within its doors, a larger attendance than that of any other university in the south. It is interesting to note that 652 students of last session's matriculation were sons of daughters of farmers or stockmen. Above 1000 students are wholly or in part self-supporting, or nearly 50 per cent of the entire student body is not only, in a measure, self-supporting, but self-educating.

Diamond Tires satisfy 99% of their users

That means an awful lot when you come to think about it. It means built-in mileage of the sturdiest sort—and the price is honest and low, not padded.

This letter explains it: "Philadelphia, November 28, 1914. We believe that it will interest you to know that out of 1500 Diamond cases sold this year up to October first, the number that have been returned to us for adjustment amounted to less than one per cent. This we consider a remarkable showing, and speaks volumes for the quality that is built into Diamond Tires. About ninety per cent of the total number sold were Squeezee Treads, which we consider the best tire value we can offer our customers. The service rendered by this type of tire is consistently uniform."

"CHILD'S TIRE COMPANY," "Per Chas. J. Roth."

BUICK 'BUG' EXHIBITED AT DALLAS AUTO SHOW

The famous "Buick Bug" racing car, holder of several world records, was on exhibit at the Automobile Show of the Dallas Buick branch, 2015 Commerce street, during the spring drive show, March 3, 4 and 5. Driven by the bed-rock basis for judging tire mileage service is in the adjusting department, according to A. D. Lyman, chief adjuster for Diamond Tires, Akron, Ohio.

"Getting right down to brass tacks on tire service means getting the facts on how tires have performed during any certain period," says Mr. Lyman.

The tires which show immensely increased sales and greatly reduced adjustments certainly are tires the motorist is looking for.

"Diamond tires were remarkable in 1914 because of the falling off in adjustments. And at the same time the Diamond sales jumped enormously. These things mean that motorists found Diamonds gave them the long, untroubled service they wanted for their money.

"Ideal tire service is that which has no interruptions of adjustments or replacements—a service which is continuous from the day of purchase to the scrap pile, and which includes long mileage in the kind of service Diamonds have been rendering, and still are rendering, and the increases in sales merely indicate that more and more motorists are learning of these wonderful Diamond performances.

"The case of the Diamond retailer who reported sales of 4,000 tires with only two adjustments is typical of present day Diamond deeds. Decreased adjustments show the increased value Diamond tires have for the man at the wheel."

HUPP IS FEATURED IN EXPOSITION PHOTOGRAPHS

When the officials of the Pan-American Exposition decided to take photographs of the different buildings, it was agreed to show a motor car in some of the illustrations as typical of California progress. The exposition authorities finally announced that the Hupmobile, the most typical car of the American family on the coast, should be used.

Accordingly A. B. Barkman, western sales manager for the Hupmobile at San Francisco, was summoned one morning to appear in the exposition grounds with a 1914 Hupmobile. A large number of pictures were taken of the Hupmobile and distributed throughout the country.

The Hup was the only motor car allowed inside the exposition grounds. When the first batch of pictures were distributed throughout the country, the Hupmobile was in all of them. Some of the illustrations show the grandeur of the architecture, give an idea of the beauty exposition visitors will witness at San Francisco this summer.

TOURISTS CAN USE RED RIVER BRIDGE AT CHILDRESS

Automobile tourists to and from Colorado will not be compelled to cross Red River north of Childress. A. W. Read of Memphis, secretary of the Colorado to the Gulf Highway writes D. P. Talley of this city as follows:

"We have splendid road now from Memphis to Childress via the bridge near Childress, which obviates the crossing of Red River. I am also advised that the bridge across the Canadian is near completion, and I feel sure that tourists this summer will no longer experience the trouble they had last season in crossing these two streams."

TWILIGHT LEAGUE TO BE REORGANIZED THIS YEAR

Plans are under way for reorganization of the Twilight baseball league for the coming season and a meeting will be called within the next ten days to make the arrangements. Several teams are planning to join the league, and it is hoped to have at least six strong clubs. It is also planned to erect a backstop on the old ball grounds and provide some accommodations for spectators.

Last year the league played two interesting seasons, furnishing entertainment for many fans and recreation for a large number of players. The games are started soon after six o'clock, when there is sufficient daylight to play five innings or more. Those interested may communicate with John Gould at The Times office as soon as possible, as it is desired to start play within a few weeks.

WANTS STUDY OF ENGLISH CONTINUED IN GERMANY

Editor Says Knowledge of It Will Be Necessary Regardless of War's Outcome

By Associated Press.
Berlin, March 5.—The much noted and mooted plan to abolish the study of English in the German public schools is strongly opposed by Albert Bockelmann, director of the Uelsen higher academy, in an interview in the Rheinisch Westfaelische Zeitung.

He declares that much as patriotic students may regret it, English will undoubtedly continue to be the trade language of the world and that, so far from ceasing to learn it, Germans should become proficient in it.

Quite an unreasonable as the proposition is to put the ban on English in Germany, he says, is the talk in England to forego German in favor of "simple, rich and musical" Russian, Serbian, Finnish or Japanese. The Germans, he says, might as well take up Turkish.

"Even the most brilliant victory over England," declares Herr Bockelmann, "and its various dependencies, will not mean that English as a universal trade language will be easily displaced. More than ever will the German youth, going out into the world to make a living, have need of knowing English. For if he does he can, in the friendly 'blockade' of trade, sink the boat of his opponent. More than ever before, it we are to live in the 'practical life' the slogan must be 'learn English.'"

"That after the war the world will have to learn German we believe to be a fact. Even England will have to take an interest in the language of the German barbarians in spite of the 'warthumplicity' and music of Russian. And the national consciousness of the German-American has been so strengthened by the war that the care and growth of the German language in North America is certain to be promoted."

JOHN LISCHKE WELL KNOWN TO BANKERS IN SOUTHWEST

Frequently Called Upon When Safes Are Out of Order—Survivor of Galveston Flood

John Lischke, one of the four men to be arraigned at Graham Monday for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Tom Cherryholmes in the court house fight there last week, was formerly a resident of Galveston and following the Galveston flood opened hundreds of safes for which the combinations had been lost. He is well known to bankers throughout the Southwest, his services being in demand whenever anything gets wrong with vault locks.

A special to the Dallas News from Fort Worth says:

Attorneys will be employed by friends of John Lischke, 826 Taylor street, to defend him against the charge of murder on which he was indicted by a Young county grand jury Wednesday in connection with the alleged attack on the court house at Graham and the resultant death of Deputy Sheriff Cherryholmes.

Lischke is a safe expert. He was summoned to Graham February 24 at noon. He left here at 5 p. m. His friends say he understood the call to come to Graham to open a vault in the court house was from a county official.

Although Lischke has lived in Fort Worth most of his life, he resided at Galveston at the time of the flood. He was kept busy for some time after the flood opening safes to which the combinations had been lost. Besides his mother, who has lived here with him for several years, Lischke's family consists of a wife and two children.

"I have known Lischke practically all his life," J. G. Burton, motorcycle and automobile supplies dealer, who was Lischke's employer, said today, "and I am sure that he was entirely innocent in any part he may have had in the matter. In the first place, I have never known him to do anything that was not strictly honest, and in the second place he was a man who was naturally very careful and conservative and always avoided anything in which there was any element of risk or danger."

Follow this Wichita Falls citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

P. W. Nolan, 1109 Indiana, Wichita Falls, says: "Pains across my kidneys made every move one of misery and in the morning the trouble was worse. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Harrington's Drug Store, relieved me. I consider them a fine medicine for regulating the kidney action and removing trouble with kidney secretions."

NEW DISTRICT COURT IS 78TH, NOT 74TH

ERROR IN NUMBERING IT HAS BEEN DISCOVERED AT AUSTIN

WILL CORRECT ERROR AT ONCE

Not Believed It Affects Validity of Citations Which Have Already Been Issued

The new Wichita county district court is the 78th instead of the 74th, according to information received by District Clerk A. F. Kerr yesterday. Mr. Kerr administered the oath of Judge Nicholson as judge of the 74th district court. He forwarded the papers to Austin and has now received them back for correction.

The new court was designated in the bill as the 74th but before enactment the number was changed to the 78th district, several other new court bills having gotten in ahead of it. Citations have been issued in a number of cases for the "74th district court" but it is not believed the error will affect the validity of the service.

Judge Felder who was at Austin when the bill was introduced has given of the opinion all along that the new court was the 78th and not the 74th as was generally believed here.

SONS OF CONFEDERATES TO BE ENTERTAINED MARCH 15

Veterans and Others Will Be Guests of Daughters at Home of Mrs. Adickes

Invitations will be sent out shortly to the sons and grandsons of Confederate veterans in this city and vicinity for an entertainment to be held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Adickes on March 15. Those whose fathers or grandfathers were in the Confederate army are to consider that sufficient credentials, whether they receive an invitation or not. The following has been received.

To the sons and grandsons of the Confederate veterans: We, the members of the W. R. Scurry Chapter of U. D. C. of Wichita Falls, will entertain the veterans and their wives at 8:00 p. m. March 15th, 1915.

To the Veterans: All veterans and their wives are hereby invited to be there. If you do not receive an invitation, it is because we have not your names and addresses, but every veteran and his wife, whether he receives a special invitation or not, is hereby invited to be there, and we assure you, you will be most welcome, whether you receive the special invitation or not.

To the sons and grandsons: We ask you to be present with your wives and help entertain the veterans and their wives.

If you know yourself to be either the son or grandson of a Confederate veteran, that is all the invitation you need, and if you do not get the special invitation, it is because the invitation committee has not received information as to your name and the fact that you are the son or grandson of a Confederate veteran.

To you sons and grandsons of Confederate veterans, we want to say that this entertainment is a tribute of respect paid to your father or grandfather. Will you not be present and thereby show your respect to the memory of your father or grandfather? Won't you come and show to the old veteran, that you really honor the memory of your father? We wish to honor your father. Won't you help us?

There will be a splendid musical program and a few short talks by the old veterans themselves and the sons. Yours truly,

The W. R. Scurry Chapter U. D. C. by Mrs. C. B. Felder, president.

FORMER MILWAUKEE MAN CLAIMS BRIDE IN WICHITA

Saturday morning Miss Gladys Shaw and Oliver J. Smith were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shaw, on Kemp Boulevard. The ceremony was a very quiet one, only the family of the bride being present. Dr. A. L. Andrews of the M. E. Church, South, was the officiating minister. The bride is the daughter of W. G. Shaw, one of the heads of the glass factory, and although she has resided here only a short while having been in school for several years, she has won numerous friends through her pleasing personality and charm of manner. The groom comes from Milwaukee but has lately been transferred to San Francisco, going there to take charge of the coast office of the insurance company with which he is employed. The wedding of Saturday morning came as the culmination of a romance beginning in Syracuse, N. Y., while Mr. Smith had business in that place and the bride was attending school. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Saturday night for San Francisco where they will make their home.

NINETY CONVERSIONS AT REVIVAL IN BURKBURNETT

(Burkburnett Star.) The protracted meeting services at the Methodist church closed last Sunday night after continuing five weeks. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Bounds, did the preaching during the first three weeks, and Rev. Marc Hines of Wichita Falls did most of the preaching thereafter. A total of ninety professions of conversions and thirty additions to the Methodist church are reported as a result of the campaign. Quite a number will join the Baptist and other denominations of the town. Scores of church members have pledged themselves to a more concentrated christian life and doubtless the moral tone of the town is greatly improved.

"PEG O' MY HEART" HEROINE IS RED HEADED

The heroine of Oliver Morosco's comedy "Peg O' My Heart" is red haired, and Irish to her finger tips. She has just landed in London from New York; whence she has come to live with her relatives, the Chichesters, a proud but empecunious London family. The family solicitor has just informed the family that a deceased uncle has left them one thousand pounds a year provided they take Peg, who is the daughter of an impoverished brother, care for her and educate her.

Peg is a diamond in the rough and her ready Irish answers to all questions are not of the sort to preserve equanimity in an aristocratic household, like the Chichesters. Moreover she is accompanied by Michael, an irrepressible Irish terrier as ever lurked a bone or chased an alley cat, and to all attempts to take Michael from her Peg turns a deaf ear. Her stately cousin Ethel has one of those fluffy, beribboned lap dogs that are cherished by women of fashion, and both Peg and Michael look at it askance. Michael is ready to annihilate the fluffy thing on the spot while Peg remarks scornfully, "well there's one thing about Michael, no one could ever mistake him for anything but a dog, while that thing looks like a bunch of knitting."

GOOD BILL MONDAY AT THE LYDIA MARGARET
One of the very best black face acts in any vaudeville circuit will be seen at the Lydia Margaret commencing Monday. These artists, Fagg and White, styl themselves as "Two Comedians in Cork" and have a ripping good line of stuff. The other act on the bill is a juggling and dancing act, "The Tossing Austins." A press notice reads: "Jugglers of all sorts of paraphernalia will be seen at the Lydia Margaret Theatre the first half of next week. They are the "Tossing Austins," in a queer and quaint offering that will make 'em laugh until their sides are near splitting. The male member of this aggregation of artists takes care of the comedy end of the bill and together this man and woman team in some of the best in vaudeville." Monday's picture is a three-part comedy feature, the biggest and funniest thing ever put out by the Universal people. "It's here! After Her Millions," the wildest comedy rick that ever was devised to escape from a producing studio. It's all jammed into three reels—three reels of hilarious fun. Three reels of farce—farce which makes one choke and gasp in a vain effort to give expression to the laughter which runs over while Billie Ritchie, Pauline Herman and Gertrude Selby are on the screen. What's it all about? Billie Ritchie only knows. It starts somewhere and ends somewhere, but just what's happening even those who, doubled up in their seats, try to follow the "plot" cannot tell. It's full of those comedies where, squint-eyed with laughter and you try to follow the next grand slam and throw your head back only to miss the hot tamale finale which sends your neighbor into hysterics. It's the sort of comedy scream which makes the lady in the next seat put her handkerchief in her mouth. And the sort of a tricky face-cracker which causes said lady-like lady to explode the next moment, while the tightly wadded handkerchief is ejected and hits the bald-headed man in the front row a terrific slap on his glazed dome."

"THE PIT" AT THE EMPRESS WEDNESDAY

"The Pit" Wm. Brady's big story of stock exchange has been filmed with remarkable success, Wilton Lackaye, Gail Kane and Milton Miller leading the head roles. This Brady feature will be shown at the Empress Wednesday. The story of the picture follows:

Curtis Jawdin, successful real estate dealer, is introduced to the Cressler family. He goes into a bear market in wheat with Cressler, which is highly successful. Jawdin meets Laura Cressler at a theatre box party and they become friends. In this scene is shown an entire theatre—a stage within a stage.

Sheldon Corthell, an artist, is in love with Laura Cressler, but Jawdin is the successful suitor. Laura is affectionate but Jawdin is heart and soul in his wheat speculations and unconsciously neglects Laura. She accidentally meets Corthell and in a fit of pique at her husband renews the old friendship.

While Jawdin is away Corthell spends the evenings with Laura. Corthell's ability as an organist appeals to her imagination. They are abruptly interrupted by Jawdin's entrance. He triumphantly announces that he has made five hundred thousand dollars. He greets Corthell cordially and in the midst of the conversation falls asleep. Corthell leaves. Laura compares him with her sleeping husband and pities her neglected self.

Jawdin's attempts to control a gigantic bull movement in wheat. He has a powerful adversary in Calvin Crookes.

In the fever and turmoil, Jawdin neglects Laura. The bull corner is finally attacked by Crookes and the strongest scenes are now enacted in Jawdin and Cressler's office and on the floor of the exchange. Jawdin pledges every dollar he possesses but cannot stem the overwhelming tide. Cressler, broken down, commits suicide.

In the midst of his losing fight, Jawdin is stunned by the announcement of the suspension of the firm. Crookes elated at his success, flips a dollar bill in Jawdin's face, saying: "Here's a dollar to buy your breakfast in the morning."

In the meantime, Corthell has persuaded Laura to elope with him and as she is preparing to leave, Jawdin broke down in spirit, appears, and her better instincts prompt her to stay by the side of her husband, who now needs her. Corthell sees the futility of his case and leaves. At that moment, the newsboys are crying in the street, "Waxtra! Waxtra! Curtis Jawdin, Great Failure." The noises arouse him, he says, "Failure? No! success!" and folds Laura in his arms.

KALEM FEATURE AT THE GEM THEATRE MONDAY

"The Black Sheep" with Tom Moore playing the "black sheep" Robert Ellis—brother—Marguerite Courtot is the feature picture at the Gem Monday. A synopsis follows:

Joe, Dr. Frank Clark's worthless brother, is induced to go West to make a new start in life. Shortly after the boy's departure, Ruth Sanders and her parents move into the house next to that occupied by the Clarks. Frank falls in love with Ruth, but says nothing concerning his affection.

A year later, the doctor and his mother receive a message from Joe. The boy has made good and is coming home on a visit. The moment Frank sees his brother, his practised eyes fill him with foreboding. Later, the doctor learns that Joe has fallen in love with Ruth and intends to make her his wife.

Then comes the discovery that Joe must never marry. The news drives the boy frantic. In an adjoining room, Mrs. Clark overhears all that passes between the doctor and his brother. The ensuing night is one of terror for Joe, but with the coming of the morning, he regains his assurance.

Joe calls upon Ruth, but the girl shrinks from him in horror. Believing Frank has betrayed him, Joe hastens home and attacks his brother. The struggle brings the mother to the scene. She confesses that her sense of duty had impelled her to break the news to Ruth. Insane, Joe rushes to his room. While Frank endeavors to console his mother, the sound of a shot comes to their ears.

The succeeding months reveal to Ruth that it is Frank whom she really loves and she consents to be his wife.

Marion Dentler as "Peg" in J. Hartley Manners' Comedy of Youth "Peg O' My Heart" which comes to the Wichita Theatre Thursday, March 11th.

"MASTER KEY" NO. 9 AT MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY

Upon arriving at Los Angeles, Dore Kane, the aged miner, and Ruth Gallon go to the Beverly Hills Hotel for a few days rest. Wilkerson and the adventures, Mrs. Darnell, arrive in the city also, stopping at another hotel. Although they have the seeds to the "Master Key" mine they have lost it. They are of no use, owing to the fact that no conveyance of the property has been made. Wilkerson, however, determines to seize the mine in spite of this fault in the deeds and sends Drake to Silent Valley to represent him there until further notice, wiring the engineer at the mine to accept Drake's authority. Meanwhile Dore endeavors to make Ruth forget the dangers which she has gone through by inducing her to plunge into a life of gayety in Los Angeles. She meets a young Englishman, who helps to a little who is somewhat of a fortune hunter. The young nobleman is well educated, handsome and polished of address. He is a new type to the western girl and makes a decided impression upon her. She is not infatuated, however, although Dore believes she is. As a result of Ruth's interest in the Englishman a slight coolness between she and Dore which neither can explain to the other. Dore decides to withdraw, whatever the blow to his happiness, but Ruth observes that the nobleman is after her fortune and gives him his coin. Meanwhile Everett, whom Dore consults in financial matters affecting the Master Key property has left San Francisco and arrives in Los Angeles to continue his work of raising money to develop the mine. Everett, however, makes it plain that he can do nothing unless Dore and Kane recover the deeds of ownership to the "Master Key" mine. They then begin tracking Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell. With a few hundred dollars which Everett loans Dore the latter repays his debt to Tom Kane and sends him to Silent Valley to help the starving miners and at the same time to report upon Wilkerson's activities there.

Kane finds the mine in Drake's possession and wires Dore, who at once leaves for Los Angeles with Ruth. They arrive in Silent Valley the next day after a long, dusty trip over the desert railroad and by automobile. An open war follows.

Wilkerson buries from Los Angeles to the mine when he learns from Drake's telegram that Dore has arrived and is preparing for trouble. Wilkerson hastily engages two hundred Mexican revolutionists near the California border to come to Silent Valley. Dore has barricaded himself and his men in the mine and the Mexicans are compelled to bring a machine gun to bear upon the mouth of the mining tunnel. Many miners and Mexicans are killed in the battle which rages, not only in the mouth of the mine but all over the property. Ruth has a "narrow" escape, but is again saved by Dore.

Later Dore engages Wilkerson in single combat and throws him from the trestle down the side of an ore dump.

Little Cecil Girl Buried at Houston Saturday
The body of Melba Cecil, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cecil who was killed in an elevator accident at Houston Thursday afternoon, was buried at Houston yesterday morning. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock and burial was in the Hollywood cemetery there. Houston was the former home of both Mr. and Mrs. Cecil and it was decided after the arrival of Mr. Cecil there Friday night to bury the body there. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil are expected home the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cecil, grandparents of the child, and their daughter, Mrs. Loyd Weaver, were at Mineral Wells when they heard the news of the little girl's death, and when it was planned to bring the body here, arrived home Friday evening.
The following account of the accident was given in Friday morning's Houston Post:
"Melba Cecil, four year old daughter of Norman Cecil of Elctra, was fatally injured Thursday afternoon when she stepped into the space between an elevator and elevator door in the W. Munn Company's building and after being rolled between the elevator and the door, dropped to the bottom of the elevator shaft, a short distance. She died about fifteen minutes later, after being picked up from the bottom of the shaft.
"The little girl, with her mother and aunt, Mrs. F. A. Clay, 1516 State street, was going up in the elevator, and the car had just passed the mesanine floor when the accident occurred.
"According to David M. Stovall, the elevator man, the child stepped forward, her feet passing into the space that intervenes between the car and the glass door of the elevator shaft. When the child slipped down, she stepped the car, but not until the child had been pulled down by the upward pressure of the car, her body breaking the glass of the elevator door."

Mr. Bost had just moved into the house at 405 Burnett and was busy setting up some of the furniture, when he suddenly collapsed, death ensuing within a very short time.

Men--Which Way is Best?

Are You Matching Cents Against Satisfaction?

The Home of Hart Schaffner and Marx Clothes

We feel it is worth-while using this space today just to talk frankly on the subject of "Early Season Buying or Late Season Buying."

Some people agree with us, and we have built up a fine early season business.

Some people do not agree with us, and we have very successful late season clearance sales.

So it works for us both ways, but still we know that the early season buyer is the most satisfied buyer, because he is not matching a few pennies saved against a lot of satisfaction lost.

You come in while the stocks are fresh and have a wide range of choice—you get just what you want—you feel better because you are wearing new clothes when you should wear them—you get full season service from them and can discard them with a feeling of contentment and not have to wear old styles next season, in order to get your moneys worth.

We are all more or less proud, and it really pays to cater to that pride—it means ease of mind and that is worth while. Why be uncomfortably dressed for two or three months waiting for pickups.

Prices at this store are always based on 100 cents worth for a dollar whether you buy late or early.

Think this over—the new Spring goods are here—we would like to have you see them whether you buy or not—will you come in.
