TOMORROW CLEAN UP DAY FOR WICHITA

WAGONS START AT 8 O'CLOCK IN MORNING TO COLLECT
TRASH HEAPS

LEAGUE ISSUES PAMPHLET

Appeals to Citizens to Help Make Wichita Falls Clean and Attractive City

Tomorrow is clean-up day! Final arrangements have been made by the committees and by this time tomorrow all Wichita Falls will be sparkling clean. The citizens are their aid to the ladies of the League. The oft repeated request to have all trash such as can not be burned, collected in barrels or other receptacles and placed in alleys, or on sidewalks where there is no alley, is again emphasized. The city will furnish wagons to make a tour of the entire city to collect the trash placed in the alleys and the work of cleaning up will be supervised by the chairman of the district committees.

Those in charge of the work call attention to the fact that the wagons will start at 8 o'clock so that all trash should be collected before that hour.

Pamphlet issued. To aid in the campaign for clean-up day tomorrow, the Civic League has issued the following advice in pamphlet form, the folders being distributed all over town:

"Bear in mind your home is a unit in our most worthy undertaking of making Wichita Falls a clean and attractive city.

"Your surroundings so far as you can influence them are an expression of your tastes and habits. Since environment is such a strong factor in character building it becomes our righteous duty to make our homes attractive to the passers-by, as well as a comfort to its inmates.

"Will you help us in carrying out the following suggestions:

"Confine your chickens.

"Keep clean sidewalks, yards and alleys.

"Burn all trash. Put trash that will not burn, tin cans, etc. in boxes or barrels.

"Paint or whitewash unsightly places. Plant trees, vines and shrubs. Have window and porch boxes, plant, annuals; seeds are cheap and will make bright, showy flower beds.

"Attend all meetings in your district. Take part in plans for a city beautiful.

"John the Civic League and give you town the benefit of your influence."

TEUTONS HERE SENDING FLOUR TO FATHERLAND

Ten Pound Shipments By Parcels
Post Being Mailed To Relatives
From Here

Ten pound packages of flour are being sent by parcels post in large numbers to Germany by German-Americans with a view to warding off any possible food shortage in Germany, it was learned today. A number of such shipments have been through the local postoffice by German-Americans in this city and vicinity.

German newspapers in this country have been urging their subscribers to adopt this means of preventing any food shortage in Germany and it is understood the response has been liberal. The shipments go as part of the United States mail and are consequently not subject to interference or seizure. If all the German-Americans in this country were to comply with this request it would mean the sending of millions of pounds of flour to Germany and would result in a material increase in that country's food supply.

ST. LOUIS TELEGRAPHERS VOTE TO GO ON STRIKE

Many Claim To Have Been Discharged
Because of Union Membership

St. Louis, March 30.—One hundred and twenty-five telegraphers, present and former employees of the local branch of the Western Union Telegraph Company unanimously voted to strike at a local meeting here today, according to Sylvester J. Koenekamp, international president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union. While the vote was being taken W. C. Long, secretary of the local union, received a telegram from Secretary of Labor Wilson saying that M. Blackman, commissioner of conciliation was en route to St. Louis to act as mediator. A request for mediation had been made to Secretary Wilson by the union.

The strike vote was taken on the petition of forty members of the union who claimed to have been discharged because of their membership in the union.

Officers of the telegraph company claim there has been no discrimination between union and non-union members.

SALOON LICENSE MANDAMUS REFUSED

JUDGE NICHOLSON RULES CITY
CHARTER NOT IN CONFLICT
LOCAL OPTION LAWS

REGULATION IS REASONABLE

Pierce Nichols Will Appeal to Higher
Court in Effort to Secure License

The provision of the city charter limiting saloons to a prescribed section of the city is constitutional, and the limits as defined by the charter are reasonable, according to the ruling of Judge Nicholson in the 78th district court late Monday in the case of Pierce Nichols vs. Harvey Harris, county judge. Judge Nicholson denied the petition for mandamus to issue saloon license to Nichols; notice of appeal was given.

Nichols for several years ran a negro saloon in the flats and when the new charter was adopted, his place of business was outside of the saloon limits, which stops at Tenth street. The county judge accordingly refused his petition for a liquor license, in compliance with the charter's provision. Nichols then sought to mandamus the judge, alleging that this particular provision of the charter was contrary to the local option laws of the state and to the constitution and that the saloon limits as defined were arbitrary and unreasonable.

As the case involved the validity of the city charter, Horace Nutt, city attorney, appeared for the defense and contended that the charter was adopted in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and the "home rule" bill and that the defined limits were reasonable, confining the saloons to the strictly business section of the city. This view of the case was taken by Judge Nicholson.

BOOKLET WILL BE PRINTED

Directors Appropriate $450 For This Purpose—Other Proceedings

Preparations for the entertainment of the United Commercial Travelers, who will hold their State convention here May 18, 14 and 15 were started Tuesday morning at the weekly session of the Chamber of Commerce, when $750 was appropriated by the directors to defray part of the expense of the affair.

Wiley Blair brought the matter to the attention of the directors, saying that between 500 and 600 visitors were expected for the convention, which Wichita Falls had obtained after Greenville was unable to handle it. It was planned to spend about $2500 in entertainment, he said, and he wanted $750 of this from the Chamber of Commerce. "The appropriation was ordered."

Plans For Decorating. E. Leopold brought up the matter of having the merchants decorate their places of business and this idea was discussed. It was stated that the local U. C. T. committee are making plans for considerable decorating.

L. S. Franklin of Dallas, financial secretary of the Texas Industrial Congress, addressed the directors upon the needs of the Congress. There were already 30,000 entries in the farming contests this year, he said, and was hopeful of some action being forward the work started by the late Henry Exall without interruption. Mr. Franklin paid a tribute to Mr. Exall and told of the importance and scope of the work. He wanted a committee appointed to work with him in raising funds here. Such a committee was authorized and President Huff appointed Messrs. Marcus Hueck and Smith.

To Print New Booklet. An appropriation of $450 was ordered to defray the expense of a new booklet which is being prepared by Secretary John Thomas for advertising purposes.

President Huff announced that he had been advised that the bill permitting corporations to contribute to the support of commercial organizations had passed the legislature. This bill was the subject of some action at a previous session of the directors. Those present at the session were R. E. Huff, T. B. Noble, E. Leopold, M. J. Gardner, M. A. Marcus, P. H. Pennington, A. L. Huey, R. O. Harvey, J. S. Bridwell, Marvin Smith, F. W. Gates, J. L. Art, J. A. Kemp, A. W. Reid, Myles O'Reilly, Wiley Blair.

MATAMORES QUIET TODAY

Nothing to Indicate When Hostilities
Between Factions Would Be Resumed There

By Associated Press. Brownsville, Texas, March 30.—General Funston arrived here today from Fort San Houston, Texas, to watch over the border situation during the Villa attack on Matamoras, opposite the place. Three batteries of field artillery from San Antonio are now unloading here.

There has been no renewal of hostilities between the Villa and Carranza factions today and nothing to indicate that when they would be resumed. The United States artillery is being brought here to guard against firing across the border; two persons having been wounded in the fighting of last Saturday. Villa soldiers who fell wounded in Saturday's attack are said to be still lying where they fell and today H. C. Harrison, an American Red Cross official sought permission from the authorities at Matamoras to pick them up. The commander, Gen. Neforate replied he had men out gathering the wounded and placing them in Matamoras hospitals as rapidly as possible. Nothing further had been heard today of the reported Villa reinforcements.

It was reported that the Matamoras garrison has planted dynamite in the approaches to the town and it was believed could repel an attacking force of 10,000 men.

SUBMARINE F-4 MOVED 300 FEET TOWARD SHORE

Vessels With Cables Towing Ill-Fated
Submarine from Her Death
Bed

By Associated Press. Washington, March 30.—The submarine F-4 sunk in the entrance of Chesapeake harbor had been moved 300 feet toward shore by vessels with cables at three o'clock this morning according to a message received today by Secretary Daniels from Rear Admiral Fore. The message gave no details.

This brief message was the first positive word that the rescue parties had made any progress toward the recovery of the submarine. While it gave hope of salvaging the boat it revealed no hope that any one may be found alive in the vessel.

Lieutenant Smith has reported that the water about the spot where the submarine rested is from 43 to 60 fathoms. The distance to the nearest land was 2800 yards, which would mean that the submarine is now 2700 yards from shore, and that shoal waters, in which divers could work was much closer than at first indicated.

PROHIBITION, ROOT AND BRANCH FOR THE BRITISH ISLES IS NOW PLANNED

REPROACH MAY HAVE MADE VON KLUCK DESPERATE

By Associated Press. London, March 30.—General Von Kluck who led the German advance through Belgium into France was wounded, according to dispatches received by an Amsterdam newspaper from Berlin, while recklessly inspecting trenches at the most dangerous position at the front after a stormy interview with Emperor William. It is reported that General Von Kluck has been displaced in command by Prince Eitel Frederic. An announcement that General Von Kluck was wounded was contained in an official statement issued yesterday at Berlin. The inference is that General Von Kluck deliberately placed himself in a dangerous position after he had been told that he was to be displaced in command.

DRASTIC ORDER EXPECTED TO BE ISSUED SHORTLY

Of The Three Enemies, Germany,
Austria And Drink—The Latter
Worst Says Chancellor

By Associated Press.

London, March 30.—Prohibition as drastic as that enforced in Russia and France seems certain for the British Isles. Press discussion of the letter sent by David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, to the ship owners federation competes successfully for public interest with the news of the sinking of two British passenger steamers with a loss of more than 100 lives.

The Chancellor in his letter said:

"We are fighting Germany, Austria and drink, and as far as I can see the greatest of these three deadly foes is drink," and added that the conviction was growing that only the severest methods would remedy the situation.

The employers are backing the government in the "root and branch action" to the extent of promising to seal their own wine cellars and prohibit the use of intoxicants in their clubs, while labor leaders are joining with the employers in the effort to bring prohibition.

BIDDER DECLINES TO SIGN CURB CONTRACT

Didn't Want City Engineer to Pass on Work—Contract is Re-
Awarded

By Associated Press. Because he was unwilling to have the city engineer pass upon the completed work, Contractor McCracken, who was the lowest bidder on the concrete gutter, curb and sidewalk work at the Lamar street park, refused to sign the contract and it was re-awarded Monday by the city council to I. H. Roberts, who was the next lowest bidder. Mr. McCracken wanted the council as a whole to pass upon his work, but it has been the custom to let the city engineer take this action.

It was decided to make an effort to rent the houses taken from the park tract, for $12.50 per month; city employees will be given preference.

A contract was closed with J. L. Berry for fencing in the city's dumping grounds east of the city. As compensation Mr. Berry will have the use of the tract and the pecan grove thereon for one year.

NO PARALLEL TO FIGHT AT HAVANA

WILLARD AND JOHNSON BIGGEST MEN EVER KNOWN IN CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST

WILLARD IS BIGGEST OF ALL

Battle Likely to Develop into Contest of Ring Strategy vs. Youth and Endurance

By Associated Press.
New York, March 30.—The history of the prize ring offers no parallel to the battle for the world's heavyweight championship in which Jack Johnson and Jim Willard will engage next Monday at Havana, Cuba. Big men have fought for this premier title of nations since the early days of the eighteenth century but never through the long list of champions from James Figg to Jim Jeffries have two fighters of the physical proportions of Willard and Johnson crossed arms in the roped arena.

Of the champions of modern times Corbett, Jeffries and Johnson all passed the six foot mark while Sullivan, Sharkey and Fitzsimmons were from one to three inches below this height. When the negro title holder and his challenger step into the ring, Willard will tower six feet, six inches in the air while Johnson will stand five and a half inches below him. In weight these fighters are also far above the ring average of the heavyweight class. Willard will weigh close to 235 pounds which will give him an advantage of about twenty pounds over Johnson in the clinching and tussling which will doubtless play an important part in the battle.

Next to Jim Jeffries, the Goliath of modern ring times, Johnson is the biggest man who ever held the title. Jeffries weighed 230 pounds and stood six feet one and a half inches in fighting shoes; Johnson is six feet one-half inch tall and weighs 215 pounds, in condition; Jim Corbett scaled 187 pounds, at his best and was 6 feet 1 inch tall; Fitzsimmons was one and one-fourth inch shorter and fought at about 170 pounds; Sullivan stood 5 10 1/2 inches, and fought at 195 lb; Tom Sharkey was five feet nine inches and fought his best bouts at close to 190 pounds.

Willard Modern Sampson
Compared with these past heavyweight gladiators Willard appears as a Sampson. Even when ranged alongside of Johnson the negro title holder in almost every point of physical measurements. In addition to his 7 1/2 inches advantage in height and ten years difference in age he outweighs Johnson by twenty pounds. His reach of 83 1/2 against the negro's 76 inches will also prove of exceptional value if properly used. In all the measurements of rings and times Willard shows an advantage in structure muscle and chest expansion varying from two to four inches.

To offset these physical assets Johnson has the benefit of the ring wisdom and craft cultivated during his long career as championship contender and holder. Just as Willard surpasses Johnson in every point of physical make-up the Galveston pugilist excels the Kansas boxer in all departments of science and strategy and wearing glove punishment. With youth and power ranged against experience and skill, the battle is likely to develop into a contest in which ring strategy will equate brute strength and courage.

Willard's Ring Assets Unknown
Johnson's ring assets are well known but uncertainty clouds Willard's prospects. In his short period of active glove battling he has never faced an opponent of the power, skill and experience of Johnson. The negro is no physical weakling even at the age of fifty-eight years and while Willard must be accorded the advantage here it is likely that the champion's offensive and defensive skill in both boxing and clinching will nullify this to a considerable extent. In the closing rounds of the battle it is probable that endurance and courage will play an important part.

Willard has shown both these qualities but up to the present time they have not been noted for aggressiveness or boxing ability. Whether he can rise to the opportunity will be demonstrated in the supreme test at Havana next Monday. The future drawing power of America's champion, awaiting for so many of his people's eyes, will be in the glare to the battle which the promoters have had in mind since they began the preliminary arrangements some months ago.

They Talk of a Fight
That the match making is not without its delays and upsets is shown by the fact that the pugilists meet as scheduled next Sunday exactly six months will have elapsed since the day Jack Curley and the other promoters of the big bout decided upon securing Johnson's signature to the articles of agreement. The big champion was in France at that time and Curley was entrusted with the commission to go find the Texas negro and secure his endorsement on the articles which had been signed by Willard a day or two previously. The syndicate which promoted the bout had picked Willard as the most promising of the "five heavyweights" to take the title from Johnson, and they still believe that the Kansas will prove the victor.

Curley arrived at Paris, France,

ANOTHER PLUG TEST MADE YESTERDAY

MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL SEE TESTS MADE AT SCENE OF FIRE

SOFT SUCTION HOSE USED

The Amount of Pressure at Plug at Morning of Fire the Question

The differences which have arisen with reference to the Florida Heights fire for a few days ago, which is now the subject of investigation by the city council, now appear to have resolved themselves into a question of the amount of pressure at the plug on that night. A trip to the scene was made Monday by the city council and fire department and it was demonstrated that the engine could connect with the plug without trouble and that the soft suction coupling could be satisfactorily used.

There was a plug pressure of 25 pounds when the engine arrived at the scene yesterday, and a 54 foot stream was thrown with an engine pressure of 100 pounds. When the engine pressure was increased to 140 pounds the soft suction collapsed, but it was stated that the engine would never be run at such a speed during a fire for any length of time, on account of the strain on the machine.

The first tests were made with the normal pressure in the pipes but shortly afterward the water station was notified to put on the fire pressure, which resulted in a still stronger flow of water. The connection with the plug was not a perfect one, as the opening is not quite standard at this point, but there was not enough difference to cause any reduction in the pressure. Better results were obtained with the hard suction coupling, when it was used, than with the soft one, and this fact may have had some bearing upon the events of the night of the fire.

The council expects to hear some testimony before completing its investigation. Yesterday's tests did not determine what the reason was for the poor pressure of the night of the fire and this is a feature that will be probed still further.

WHY A DOG WAGS ITS TAIL

Italian Scientist Declares Animal Performance Action for Conversational Purposes

Why does a dog wag its tail? No, this isn't the foolish question 41144. Far from it. It is a sober, solemn problem which has long been a careful, scientific investigation, and which is now submitted to us with answer attached so that we needn't worry ourselves into the slightest degree of thoughtfulness over it. Prof. Giuseppe Renato of Rome, Italy, has devoted a lot of attention to this question. So you see there must be some weight somewhere about it. Professor Renato very kindly and solemnly tells us that the dog wags its tail for conversational purposes—and it is true, we all know dogs that are great conversationalists, don't we? Professor Renato says great intelligence has been shown in the past by scientists in not giving animals' tails a profound study. The tail, he solemnly pointed out, from the standpoint of antiquity, is much older than other organs of the various animals, and therefore entitled to be investigated first. Biology demonstrates, he says, that in the gradual development of animal life the tail was performing various important functions and working like a Trojan possibly centuries before the animal ever began to dream that it might also be nice to have paws, or jaws, or legs. He hopes his present, exhaustive and profound treatment of the subject will sort of square matters with the animals, or rather with their tails, on behalf of past neglectful scientists generally. And yet, in spite of the arguments of Professor Renato, some of us will continue to exhibit far more interest in the dental development and proficiency of the dog than in the conversational ability shown in tail-wagging, won't we?—Detroit Free Press.

HONESTY ITS OWN REWARD

Act of Street Car Conductor Made Whole Class Popular With Pittsburgh Business Men.

They were talking of the work of street car conductors and of their chances for graft in comparison with politicians.

"I suppose that all men use the wimble finger in response to the nimble mind at times, but let me tell you a bit of experience which may not be at all exceptional," said a contractor of the Central district. "Last summer one day I put $200 in $20 bills in one of those long folding books and slipped it into the inside pocket of my coat, as I thought. It was a hot day and I wore no vest. I boarded a car to go down town. Another car followed closely. Before I could leave the platform of my car I saw the conductor of the other car waving his hand, holding a book that looked like mine. I clapped my hand to my pocket and no purse was there. I sprang from the steps, ran back, the other car stopped, the conductor gave me my money and I felt for something to reward him. All the paper money was in $20 bills and I had only half a dollar in change. I offered him that and asked for his address, telling him I would send more. He replied pleasantly that he would not accept a reward for being honest, but that if he were in politics he might accept any old thing for being dishonest. After that I would treat a street car conductor as I would the cashier of my bank."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

callus without fail, without fussing with thick bandages, toe harnesses, corn swelling salves, irritating ointments. It's applied in two seconds—bing—two drops, the work is done, the corn shrivels up, your corn agony ends and the corn leaves forever. All the itching, the pain that dart to your heart's core, the excruciating of having to wear shoes or bare feet, the danger of blood poison from making them bleed by using knives, razors and sandpaper—are gone at last. "GETS-IT" is the new way, the sure, simple, painless way. Try it for corns, calluses, warts and bunions.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. (Adv.)

The new post will bring all the Isthmian troops from the west side of the canal to the east bank and thus made the forces much more mobile in case of need. It will be located on the direct trans-isthmian railway line and within a short march from either the Miraflores or Pedro Miguel locks and the terminals at Balboa.

It is the plan of Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the Panama Canal troops to station at least one of the Isthmian infantry regiments in the vicinity of the locks at Gatun, which will also place them within a short distance of the terminals at Cristobal. They will form a supporting garrison to the various coast artillery defenses at the northern end of the canal.

General Edwards' residence will be on the side of Ancon Hill in the new townsite of Balboa Heights near the residence of Governor Goethals. All the posts of the army headquarters on the Isthmus will remain in the old civil administration building on the east side of Ancon Hill overlooking the city of Panama.

It is planned to begin the construction of the permanent infantry post within the next month, if the plans are approved.

A particularly strong point about a savings account as an investment is the fact that there is no worry or bother in connection with it, while at the same time the safe and sure interest feature is so profitable one.

Down where the whiteness of the great mimosa
Gleams when discovered by the golden moon,
Masses of over-sweet, red hearted
Sway to the lute's low, passion-laden tune.

The wild rose bushes bend above the river,
And drop their dawn pink petals, one by one,
The Melba's dreaming waters pause and quiver,
Before they kiss the gift and onward run.

So heavy is the air with blossom fragrance,
So madly sung the nightingale's delight,
That happiness and love, two long sought vagrants,
Rise from the wonder of this Southern night.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR J. T. HUTSON SUNDAY

Mrs. J. T. Hutson very pleasantly surprised her husband Sunday by inviting several friends to dine with him, the occasion being his birthday. The shades were drawn, the table being lit with candles in pretty holders and on the birthday cake, which was decorated with small yellow roses. The cake was placed on a bank of pink blossoms out of which tiny chicks peeped. The Easter place cards were suspended from the chandelier by purple ribbons. Covers were laid for the host and his six friends and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Della in serving the following menu: Cream tomato soup, chicken with oyster dressing and gravy, combination salad, baked country ham, caramelized sweet potatoes, corn and casseroles, mashed potatoes, hot biscuits, coffee, celery, ice cream topped with nuts, cake and cigars. Mr. Hutson was the recipient of a number of nice gifts.

A motion was also made and carried that the Guild should devote the afternoon of the second Monday in each month to visiting new members, the regular meeting to be held and the calls to be made following adjournment. Lesson 17 in the study book was taken up under the leadership of Mrs. Fischell, the subject being "Florence in the Days of Savonarola." Mrs. Ralph Robertson read an interesting paper on the artists of the Renaissance and Mrs. Thompson discussed the literature of that period and the classical writers. Mrs. Newton Maer had the Medal, the reigning family of that time for her subject and Miss Beavers gave a paper on Savonarola.

HOW PRETTY GIRL ATTEMPTED TO USE OFFICER AS TOOL

By Associated Press. —The following story of a pretty girl and a susceptible officer which ended in the discovery of a system of espionage, is published here:
"An officer, about to take the train to rejoice his regiment was accompanied by a pretty girl who blushing asked if he would post a letter for her at Paris, so it would arrive more quickly at its destination. 'I'm writing to my sweetheart,' she exclaimed.
"The officer promised to render this little service. The girl in a burst of gratitude threw her arms about his neck and kissed him. 'I have your word,' she cried after him as the train started. 'You'll post it at Paris this evening.'

"Before reaching Paris the officer had time to reflect upon some of the curious circumstances of the affair. He pulled the letter out of his pocket and found the address read: Madam X..... Then he recalled that the girl had told him she was writing to her sweetheart, 'Madam X.....' in that case could only be an intermeddler.
"He supposed that the peculiar circumstances justified him in looking into the letter. He opened it and read: 'My dear friend,
"Contrary to the information I have already given you my aunt Jane will be at Z..... with her baggage on the 2nd. You know that my relation still has a great deal of baggage. I think that she will arrive during the night.'

"The officer needed no more but carried the letter to the intelligence headquarters where it was figured out that this letter reported the arrival of important French reinforcements at a critical point on the battle front."

Every-Day Dress for Little Girl

"The 'every-day' dress for the little girl of school age pictured here leaves nothing to be desired in the way of design or material employed. From the age at which the little lass takes on the responsibility of getting her clothing until she turns her back upon the primary grades, dresses of this type are for her, and for all her general wear. They do not vary a great deal from season to season, but appreciate some of the new features brought in for the dresses of their elders, by way of becoming interesting.

In this particular model a novelty that will please everyone is noticeable in the introduction of a simulated grille which provides for two pockets. This may be managed so as to make the pockets more or less practical, as in the case of pockets on tea aprons where they amount to a decorative feature, but will take care of the handkerchief and other small articles.

The dress shown here is made of linen in the natural color, with narrow pipings of glad gingham in bright colors. These outline the collar, cuffs and girdle. A ribbon tie, in the same colors as the piping, finishes the neck with one long end threaded through buttonholed slashes down the front of the bodice.

In making children's dresses the fabrics should be shrunk before they are made up. An allowance must be made for shrinkage when the ready-made dresses are bought, unless this detail has been taken care of by the manufacturer.

These dresses are seasonable in price and save time for the home dressmaker. They are not quite so carefully finished and lack the individual touches, however, that distinguish those made at home.
JULIA BOTTOMLEY.
Severe Slopes.
Shirt waists cut along masculine lines, severely simple in style, are having a tremendous vogue this season. They are particularly suitable to the business girl. Three attractive models were seen recently. One was a finely striped silk, black and white being the color scheme of the skirt waist. This was made with a high collar—a new idea of the season—which buttons up tightly to the throat. Very chic but boyish is the effect. The other two blouses were of dainty handkerchief linen and showed a graceful shoulder line.

NEW TEXAS OIL KING IS GREAT PHILANTHROPIST

To earn $100,000 and to give the same amount away in thirty days—that is the experience of Fritz Fuchs of Taylor, the new "oil king of Texas."

The new oil king is a young German farmer. He owned a few acres of land near Taylor. He believed that his land was valuable and when oil was first discovered in that region he knew that his fortune was made.

For the first successes on his land the new oil king received a bonus of $100,000. But his success did not turn his head. He did not become a frenzied financier as his head was not turned on account of his wealth.

T. J. TAYLOR TO RETIRE FROM SCHOOL BOARD

After 18 Years Service He Declines Renomination—Judge Martin's Name on Ballot

After eighteen years of service as a member of the school board of the Wichita Falls Independent School District, T. J. Taylor has declined to permit his name to go on the ballot to be voted next Saturday when four members of the board are to be elected for a term of two years.

Three other members of the board: W. J. Bullock, J. L. Downing and A. H. Carrigan, have another year to serve. So far as is known there is no opposition to any of the four whose names will appear on the official ballot. The voters of Wichita Falls for a number of years appear to have been well satisfied with the acts of the board and very light votes have been polled in the school elections, and it is not expected that Saturday's election will be any exception to the rule.

ETIQUETTE RULES FOR PRESIDENTS AND THE EX-PRESIDENTS

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 30.—President Wilson thinks some sort of etiquette rules should be devised between the president and ex-presidents of the United States. He expressed this opinion when asked to reply to recent comments on his administration by ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt.

NO SUCCESSOR TO DOCTOR BOLYN NAMED BY COUNCIL

No successor has yet been appointed by the city council to Dr. R. T. Bolyn, city food and dairy inspector, whose resignation is effective April 1, but it is likely that some decision will be reached Thursday night. Several names are under consideration. Dr. Bolyn has indicated that he will take no further action in the matter; he still holds to the view that he was not permitted to remain in office long enough to make the showing that the council expected.

Two jury cases were tried in the city court today, two negroes charged with disturbing the peace demanding this form of trial. One of them was acquitted after a trial lasting all morning and the other trial is in progress this afternoon. A number of pleas of guilty were entered in intoxication and vagrancy charges this morning.

M. H. Steadham, Claud Reeves and R. A. Dunn of Loving, Young county, were in the city today.

PROUD OF DISTINCTIVE GARB

Japanese Carpenters Wear Peculiar Coat Bizarre with Name of Their Employer.

The artisan of old Nippon is a walking advertisement for his employer. At work he wears a long blue coat bazoned between the shoulders with a huge white Japanese character denoting the name of the contractor for whom he works.

Down the front are figured in white other names of the contractor; whether they may be called given names or Christian names cannot say. At any rate, the name on the back is the one the contractor is known by to the world, like our Smith or Jones. Below this name is a rectangular design in white covering the entire skirt of the coat.

When the Japanese artisans first came to the exposition grounds to erect their national pavilion spectators thought they were some part of a pageant rather than carpenters, for their long coats are like the tabards worn by heralds in ancient times. The coat is a perquisite of the carpenter. Twice a year his employer has to give him a new one.

For the rest, the carpenter wears a pair of high-waisted, close-fitting, long blue tights with stocking feet, reinforced on the soles with thin leather. Most remarkable of all, the stocking foot has a separate division for the great toe, like the thumb on a mitten. Why, I cannot tell, I watched one of these carpenters for some time, hoping to see him pick up a nail or a hammer with his toes, but in vain. So far as I could see, the Japanese carpenter's footgear has no relation to juggling.—San Francisco Chronicle.

GOT CORNER ON BAD EGGS

"Entertainer" Must Have Been Somewhat Doubtful of His Power to Please Audience.

Apropos of Marie Corelli's new novel Butler Glaeser, the critic and essayist of New York said at the Players' club:

"Miss Corelli is the only novelist in existence who sends no free copies of her novels to the press for review. Miss Corelli has been roasted so hard by the press that she is resolved to undergo no more of it."
"She is like the long-haired chap who walked into the general store at Quog and said:
"Do you sell stale eggs?"
"No," said the grocer with a smile, "but I've got some."
"Well, give me all you've got," said the stranger.
"The grocer, as he bundled up the eggs, laughed and said:
"I guess you're going to see 'Hamlet' tonight at the opera house."
"No," said the stranger grimly, "I'm going to play 'Hamlet' tonight at the opera house."

Activities of Women.
New York has nearly seven thousand women boarding and lodging housekeepers.
Over 50 per cent of the females in the United States are unmarried.
Women school teachers in Denmark receive from $364 to $520 a year salary.
Quebec (Canada) nuns have a complete booking establishment in their nunnery, where girls entering are taught and trained in the rudiments of printing.
In Denmark the widow of a public school teacher is entitled to a pension of one-eighth of her husband's average salary during the last five years of his life.

WHEN YOU STOP TO THINK

Have you really done all you could towards beautifying that cemetery plot of yours? We know it is the habit to neglect those things, and count a death in the family as an added burden to be thrown off as lightly as possible. Yet, don't you think you owe it to the community in which you live to at least select those who are striving with all their might to make our BURIAL GROUNDS half way beautiful. The good ladies of the Cemetery Association have labored long and unceasingly, without so much as "thank you" from good influential citizens, who have never looked at their plot since that last sad day when some one was buried. Are you a real live wife, or just a plain make believe? Go out and look the situation over, that neglected plot on the hill will answer this question for you.
