FRENCH BATTLE CRUISER LEON GAMBETTA SUNK BY AN AUSTRIAN SUBMARINE

By Associated Press.

Berlin, April 28.—The French armored cruiser, Leon Gambetta, has been torpedoed by an Austrian submarine, according to news received by the Overseas News Agency. Part of the crew of the French warship were saved.

The French armored cruiser Leon Gambetta displaced 12,416 tons and carried from 700 to 800 officers and men. Her main batteries was four six-inch guns. She cost $5,880,000.

ALL OFFICERS REMAINED AT POSTS AND LOST LIVES

Paris, April 28.—A communication from the ministry of marine announcing the torpedoing of the French cruiser, Leon Gambetta, was given out today.

"The armored cruiser Leon Gambetta while cruising at the entrance of the Otranto canal was torpedoed on the night of April 26 and sank in ten minutes. All the officers on board perished at their posts; 135 members of the crew including under officers were rescued by vessels sent out promptly to their help by the Italian government."

OPERATIONS IN 3 DISTINCT FIELDS

IMPORTANT ACTIONS AT DARDANELLES IN FLANDERS AND IN CARPATHIANS

NO DECISION AT ANY POINT

Believed Fighting in Flanders Preliminary to Important Move by the Germans

By Associated Press.
London, April 28.—Military operations of critical importance now are under way simultaneously in three distinct fields of action.

In Flanders the Germans once more are struggling for mastery of territory near the Yser canal where several months ago there occurred what was perhaps the most terrific struggle of the war thus far.

In the Carpathians Russians again are assuming the offensive in their repeated efforts to force their way through the Carpathians.

At the Dardanelles the allies have succeeded in landing troops on both sides of the straits insuring the combined land and sea attempt at the conquest of Constantinople.

A British correspondent at the front reports that the German attempt on the left British flank near Ypres has failed and that the Germans have been checked definitely although the battle continues with force.

French military authorities are cautious of expressing the theory that the plan of the Germans is to break through to the English channel but they regard it as a possibility that such a huge concentration of troops on a limited area means that the present drive is preparatory to some more important operation.

Russian and Austrian official reports both say that fighting in the Carpathians is becoming more intense. Each side claims to have defeated the other's attacks. Military observers at Petrograd say that more decisive operations than have occurred hitherto are expected.

The situation at the Dardanelles remains obscure although it is apparent the French and British have made some headway in landing troops at the straits.

Italy is still debating the question whether she shall enter the war. The Italian ambassador in France one of those summoned to Rome has had a long conference with the king concerning intervention.

SPECIAL SESSION OPENS TOMORROW

DOUBTFUL WHETHER QUORUM OF LEGISLATURE WILL BE AT OPENING

SPEAKER WOULD IS THERE

Lieut. Gov. Hobby Arrived at Capital Today—Governor's Message Ready

By Associated Press.
Austin, April 28.—Only approximately 20 per cent of the members of house and senate were here today but the majority of the legislators were expected before tonight. Although officers of the legislature believe there will be a quorum tomorrow there is some doubt. Even with no quorum present the legislature will be convened and adjourn until a quorum is obtained.

Lieutenant Governor W. P. Hobby reached here today and Speaker John W. Woods arrived yesterday. According to the rules of the house there will be no reorganization of officers and only appointive officers are to be named. A reduction in the force of employes is planned.

In the senate there will have to be a complete reorganization, as under the rules prevailing in the upper branch officers and employes are appointed only for the session. It is expected that all the old officers will be re-elected but that there will be a material reduction in the force of stenographers and other employes.

Governor Ferguson has practically completed his message to the lawmakers. The message, it is said, will be brief.

APPROACHES TO BRIDGE NEAR IOWA PARK OUT

Eighty Feet of Embankment Washed Away at Wichita River Bridge South of That Place

Eighty feet of the approaches to the Wichita river bridge south of Iowa Park was washed out during the recent rains, and causing considerable inconvenience to those using this bridge. The bridge itself is not damaged and is not thought to be in danger. The nature of the ground on each of the banks is such that long approaches had to be built up to the bridge and the high water and rains washed a considerable portion of the embankment away.

DOCTORS MUST, BEFORE TALKING, GET "O. K."

Wichita County Medical Society Takes Steps to Prevent Impositions on Public

At a meeting of the Wichita County Medical Society Tuesday night at the city hall, it was decided that no member of the society shall hereafter address public meetings of any character, in a professional way, without first securing the indorsement of the society. This step was taken to prevent the public being imposed upon by doctors of no responsibility.

Several papers were read at the meeting: Dr. Mike Walker read a paper on "Hemorrhage"; Dr. C. R. Hartsook on "Pressure on Linuses Adjuvant to the Eye"; Dr. Duane Meredith on "Filterable Virus." These papers, with one read at a previous meeting by Dr. A. D. Patton of electric will be read at the state medical convention at Fort Worth next month. A paper by Dr. L. Mackechney will probably also be given to that meeting.

Physicians present Tuesday night were: Doctors Daniels, Germond, M. Walker, Jones, Lee, Smith, W. H. Walker, Hartsook, Meredith, Beckman, Patton of Electric and Clark Jr., of Iowa Park.

THIS IS JUVENILE DAY IN THE COUNTY COURT

Pistol, Dagger and Dynamite Some of Weapons of One of the Offenders

This is juvenile day in the county court and seven youthful offenders, the oldest only fifteen years, are receiving the attention of the court. Five of them were put on probation and turned over to their parents with promises to do better. The other two will have jury trials.

Two of to be tried by jury are from Burk Burnett; their mother does not live there and they have been in their father's care. The oldest, aged fifteen, has been carrying a pistol and dagger, according to the officers, and among his stunts was an attempt to blow up the school house with stolen dynamite.

The other five, two from Burk Burnett and three from this city, appeared to be boys with whom parental discipline had been somewhat lax. All of them solemnly promised Judge Harris to do better and keep out of trouble, and the judge read each a lecture that was considered very brief, coming from a man who has absolutely no children of his own.

Railroad yards in the lowlands will be inundated.

BATTLE GOES ON AFTER FIVE DAYS

NARROW MOUNTAIN DEFILES SCENE OF DEATH GRAPPLE BETWEEN GREAT ARMIES

OUTCOME STILL UNDECIDED

Strong Austro-German Forces Are Daily Receiving Reinforcements Petrograd News

By Associated Press.
Petrograd, April 28.—The battle of the Russians and Austro-German armies in the vicinity of Stry in the Carpathian mountains has entered its fifth day with no signs of diminishing and with the outcome still undecided. Fighting is progressing in the narrow mountain defiles and there is little opportunity for carrying out extensive maneuvers. The exceedingly strong Austro-German forces are daily receiving reinforcements.

RUSSIANS NOT HOSTILE TO WAR PRISONERS

Petrograd.—There is no evidence of hostility to prisoners of war in Petrograd. Hundreds of prisoners pass through the capital daily, on the way to their places of confinement in remote sections of the Empire.

A novel sight recently was a party of 1,500 Austrians from Przemysl, who were allowed to walk around the city as tourists, being shown the principal streets and buildings. Their bearing, especially that of the officers, was cheerful. After a day spent in sight seeing, conducted by their guards, they left for the interior.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TEXAS FLOODS RECEDING

Believed Floods There Will be Out of Way in Time to Handle Water From North Texas

By Associated Press.
Houston, Texas, April 28.—Central and South Texas flood conditions were greatly improved today and it was hoped that the worst is over. All drainage drains were still out of their banks this morning and are doing much damage. However, no rains had been reported over reaches of the rivers in more than 48 hours and the waters are slowly receding. The crest of the North Texas floods will not arrive for several days yet and by that time it is believed the local fall will have been sufficient to enable the water to pass into the gulf.

DR. YANTIS TESTIFIES AGAIN IN DAMAGE SUIT

Plaintiff Expects to End Rebuttal Testimony This Afternoon—Case May Close Thursday

The case of Dr. G. R. Yantis vs. the Fort Worth & Denver is now drawing to a close in the district court, and the plaintiff was expected to end his rebuttal testimony this afternoon. The plaintiff himself was the last witness in rebuttal and was still on the stand at 3:30 this afternoon. Doctors Meredith, Conn, Mike Walker and Swartz were all put on the stand by the plaintiff in rebuttal, and their testimony generally speaking, was to the effect that the plaintiff was seriously and permanently injured. Most of the physicians who testified for the plaintiff gave it as their opinion that Dr. Yantis has sustained some injury to the brain, but none of them have been able to make a definite diagnosis of it.

It is expected that argument will begin late today or tomorrow morning and that the addresses will consume all of tomorrow and probably part of Friday.

3500 FEET OF TRACK WASHED OUT ON KATY

Heavy Downpour Tuesday Afternoon Causes Damage Between St. Jo and Bonita

About 3500 feet of track between St. Jo and Bonita on the Katy was washed out Tuesday afternoon in a rain storm and traffic between this city and Dallas is again dead, with prospect that about twelve hours will be required to repair the damage. Dirt was washed over the track for some distance, two small bridges were washed away and some long stretches of track rendered impassable. The train due to reach this city last night was annulled and today's trains are subject to delay. The noon train from Dallas being also annulled.

NEW TERM PULLED ON CITY ATTORNEY IN VAGRANCY CASE

Three young men, aged seventeen, twenty and twenty-five years, were arraigned in corporation court this morning on charges of vagrancy. They were arrested last night near the standpipe where it appears that they were merely sitting on the grass swapping yarns. Their cases were dismissed upon promise to shake the dust and mud of the city from their feet straightway.

City Attorney Nutt questioned the youths at some length as to how they had been getting by as none of them appeared to have worked steadily in recent months. One of the boys said he had been working for his board in a local hotel.

"What doing?"

Further questioning developed that pearl diving is professional argot for the homely business of washing dishes. It is one degree lower, in the scale, than puddling pushing, which in turn is lower than hashing. Another of the defendants, who claimed to have been a jockey a day gone by said he had a job in Dallas. The third is working on a farm near here and promised to go back at once, though he wore no socks and would have to walk. All three were released.

RETIREMENT OF GENERAL RUSKY IS ANNOUNCED

Petrograd.—The retirement of General Rusky, one of Russia's most distinguished military leaders, is announced. The general has been suffering for some time from cancer, and only continued so long in his command through a high patriotic sense of duty.

General Rusky made his mark early in the war by his magnificent conduct of the Galician campaign, taking Lemberg and defeating the combined Austro-German armies. Lately, he has been in charge of the Russian forces around Przemysl and is held largely responsible for the Russian successes there. The Emperor accepted Rusky's resignation with an official receipt expressing his regret and appointing Rusky a member of the Council of Empire.

The state of Rusky's health is said to be very precarious, and it is not expected that he will be able to leave his bed again.

COLONEL EXPLAINS PLATT CONFERENCES

SAID HE FOUND OUT LEGISLATURE OBEY HIS ORDERS—VALUED EXPERIENCE

Barnes' Attorneys Protest Gesticulations as Witness Stand Without Avail

By Associated Press.
Syracuse, N. Y., April 28.—Theodore Roosevelt as a witness in the $50,000 libel suit brought against him by William Barnes today told why, when governor of New York and president of the United States he conferred with former United States Senator Thomas C. Platt—"the boss."

While he was governor, he said, he discussed things with Senator Platt because he had found out the legislature obeyed his orders and the witness thought it best when there was any likelihood of a disagreement to go first to headquarters and talk things over. Further as governor, the Colonel said, he did not want to run any chance of disrupting the Republican party. As president of the United States he conferred constantly with the senator in New York on all manner of things. He said that he valued the senator's advice and wanted to take advantage of his wide experience.

The statements were made in reply to questions asked the Colonel during the hearing and at his redirect examination. His cross examination by Barnes' attorneys having been concluded today. The Colonel was most active on the witness stand. He clapped his hands on his thighs and moved his arms and head as he talked.

He raised his voice and pounded on the arms of the witness chair until counsel for the plaintiff protested against what they termed his "gesticulations." The court replied that these actions could not be controlled.

A court room scene seldom equaled in the annals of New York jurisprudence ensued.

White's lifelong friend, James Clinch, also a prosperous business man on trial on the same charge with White then rose beside his friend's chair and pleaded guilty. The men were charged with leading a band of highwaymen who robbed bank messengers of a $3000 payroll nearly a year ago.

GERMANY WANTS PAY TO LEAVE BELGIUM

THIS IS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN HER PROPOSAL OFFERED AT ROME

HITCH IN THE NEGOTIATIONS

Germany Would Ask For Territory in Africa and Neutralization of Belgian Coast

(Arthur Learns Henning in Chicago Tribune)

Washington, April 25.—"No truce till you agree to pay for the evacuation of Belgium."

This is the reply Germany gave to a recent proposal of a truce for peace discussion which Great Britain and France submitted in the conferences at Rome last week; according to information obtained today from the foreign diplomatic sources.

The negotiations at Rome, centering in the bargaining of Italy and Austria over the price of Italian neutrality, were productive of rumors that impending developments might pave the way to a termination of the war. It appeared that the representatives of the belligerents were making a hand in the Austro-Italian affair and that both parties to the big quarrel realized the tremendous effect on their fortunes the ultimate decision of Italy would produce.

Rome to be Storm Center Little by little the inside story of the events at the Italian capital last week is coming out in official and semi-official dispatches received here. Those occurrences are the talk of the diplomatic colony tonight and the prediction is made that Rome will furnish the next most interesting development in the great war game within the next fortnight.

It appears from information received by the Germans, as well as by the representatives of the allies in Washington, that a hitch occurred in the negotiations which caused the Associated Press to cable the intelligence that steps in contemplation might bring about an actual peace parley. There are differing versions here of the cause of the hitch in negotiations.

From a German source comes the statement that when it appeared that Italy had decided to remain neutral the British and French ambassadors caused Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador, to be consulted upon the conditions on which Germany would be willing to call a truce for the discussion of peace terms. The intermediaries Prince von Buelow returned the answer quoted in the foregoing.

Germany Makes Many Conditions It is asserted that there was an extended discussion of the German at the hands of Prince von Buelow and the intermediaries in which the Kaiser's ambassador was drawn into a statement of the price of the evacuation of Belgium which he was to consider. Prince von Buelow is quoted as having stated that there are several conditions of the evacuation of Belgium to which the allies must agree before Germany would be willing to assent to a truce for the further discussion of peace terms. The conditions in substance were:

Restoration to Germany of such of its colonies as have been seized by the allies. Consent to Germany of the Belgian Congo or of equally desirable British or French territory in Africa. Neutralization of the Belgian coast.

May Continue Negotiations According to the account derived from German sources the intermediaries who were endeavoring to bring about a truce for the purpose of peace parleying carried Prince von Buelow's conditions back to the British and French ambassadors and the action of the allies upon the terms has not been made known.

It is intimated that the negotiations for a truce may be resumed if the representatives of the allies in Rome are authorized by their governments, after consideration of the German conditions, to continue the discussion with Prince von Buelow.

British officials emphatically deny the truth of this account of what took place in Rome last week. They deny that the allies approached Prince von Buelow with any proposal of a truce and they deny with unusual vigor that Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, was in Rome for any purpose.

The British say their information indicates that whatever diplomatic interchanges took place were initiated by Germany for the purpose of forestalling, if possible, the entry of Italy into the war on the side of the allies. Whatever the facts are, it is evident that Rome is the center of all the forces which at this time are fraught with the possibilities of bringing about peace or even a truce to hostilities. In this scene Prince von Buelow, probably the greatest diplomat in the service of the Kaiser, is a central figure.

It is evident that the movement which has resulted in the important developments at Rome has been in progress for some time. Germany put its minimum peace terms before the world nearly a fortnight ago. These terms, first made known to the American public through the publication by the Chicago Tribune, aroused extraordinary interest both in this country and Europe. The accuracy of the Tribune's report of Germany's attitude has been established by subsequent developments.

EAST PRUSSIA IS WORSE THAN BELGIUM

RUSSIAN INVADERS HAVE LEFT A TRAIL OF DESOLATION WHERE THEY PASS

SORROWFUL STORY OF MEMEL

Russians Not Only Piled Torch But Violated Women and Carried Off Inhabitants

Memel, East Prussia.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press) For seven months and a half the war had been little more than a rumor for the inhabitants of the little city of Memel, tucked away in northernmost East Prussia on the Baltic. Beyond the mobilization of 500 of the "land-sturm" to take the place of the regular troops things had gone on much the same as usual.

Then suddenly on the 17th day of March, there came the report that the Cossacks were coming from the North and the East, and Memel began to get its first direct impression of the gigantic conflict. In the days that followed it was to get other and more terrible impressions.

While officials frantically appealed for help from the military authorities, the little band of Landstrum slowly fell back from one defensive position to another before the oncoming Russians, made one final but ineffective stand at the outlying village of Al'hot, and on Thursday night, March 18, were forced to let the Russians enter.

Burn and Pillage. Burning and pillaging as they went, the Russian troops swept into Memel. As terrified villagers grazed from these windows, the soldiers marched through Memel's main street, swarming in the store windows, stopping only long enough to help themselves to tobacco, liquor and food.

Memel, however, had had 24 hours notice, and had utilized the time for partial flight. Terrified villagers from the outlying districts had come into town with stores of twine, wool, and other goods, and friends seized and borne off to Russia by Russian civilians following the wake of the soldiers, and of atrocities too terrible to mention.

Eight thousand of the town's population, thanks to one final stand of the Landstrum at the Karlsbrunne with a machine gun, succeeded in getting out of Memel, with a few belongings, and onto the long strip of sand dunes known as the "Kurische Nehrung" that runs in a curving direction southward toward Koentigsberg.

Some of the fugitives had had time to bring any food and on the narrow strip of sand there was nothing on which they could subsist. The bitter winter weather that had made the light so terrible, however, proved to be their harbor, for the sheltered water between the sand and the mainland so that supplies could be sledged across in sufficient quantity to keep soul and body together.

Invaders Expelled. Ignorant of the fate that might befall them, those who had left behind, suffering terribly in the bitter weather, the fugitives waited, hoping that the reinforcements or which they had appealed so earnestly had arrived to drive the Russians out. There they remained a week or four days after the invaders had been expelled with great losses.

For three days the Russian troops camped about the town. Their swoop on Memel seemed to have been inspired by no tactical reasons, for they did not sink the ships in the landlocked harbor, nor fortify themselves. Germany's threat that Russian towns would be destroyed if they continued to burn down German villages is believed to have restrained them from destroying Memel.

Instead they cleaned out virtually every delicacy store, every grocery market and every wine and liquor establishment in Memel. Individual soldiers, prowling about, entered the homes of inhabitants and added to their fears by their depredations and their threats.

Trail of Bodies. On Sunday the German reinforcements began to arrive, and the Russians began to leave. A few hours later a trail of dead bodies from the center of the little city to Al'hot—its remnants—told the story of the slaughter. When the last Russian was picked up and piled together, he had gone and the inhabitants ventured out of their homes, 171 corpses were picked up and piled together preparatory to burial in a common grave.

This gruesome work was still in progress when an Associated Press correspondent reached Memel.

One of the first to reach the scene was Ober-Präsident von Baptski of the province of East Prussia, and he began at once to sift out the truth from the mass of rumor and hearsay regarding the invasion. Shortly he determined that between 500 and 600 persons in the Memel part of the province had been carried off to Russia; that 12 civilians had been killed, that one woman took poison when she was attacked by a Russian soldier and that another died from such an attack; that the second mayor of the city had been dangerously and perhaps fatally wounded by a bayonet stab in the abdomen, and that sixteen German soldiers had been killed in dispersing the Russians.

Panorama of Desolation. The Associated Press correspondent was able to retrace the route taken by the Russians as they advanced in Memel from the nearby border, to the north and to the east, and to see a panorama of desolation such as now is common in East Prussia, and no where else in Europe. Belgium is shell-riddled. East Prussia is burned down and devastated.

The route led up along the Baltic coast to the remains of the little village of Nimmerau—a typical town the principal building in which had been the inn. It had been the objective of the Russians as they swept over the border from Poland; they had stayed long enough to all but wipe it off the map.

The few inhabitants of the village who had mustered up courage to stay, or who had returned, told pitiful tales. One old man, with one ragged suit of clothing, a battered hat, and broken umbrellas as his sole remaining possessions, had left Nimmerau with his two young sons when the Russians approached, leaving his wife and five young daughters behind.

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

ACTION, ACTION, ACTION is the demand of the "movie public" and the problem of the "movie maker." When snapping a big battle; staging a coronation or picturing the "wild west"—these action-makers relieve the "tension" with a good chew of STAR.

Here's what you get when you take the STAR "tip" from these seasoned chewers: A thick plug, which means that you get more of the mellow chewing leaf and that a STAR plug won't dry out like a thin plug. A plug that never varies in quality and one that weighs 16 full ounces—all the time.

LAWTON MAN WHO PUT FALLS IN WICHITA FALLS

Small Niagara at Lake Wichita Now Silence Skeptic—Who Have Been Asking About "Falls"

The man who puts the "falls" in Wichita Falls has been located at last. Heretofore the last part of this city's name has been an empty title, but no more. The man is E. N. Lawton, general manager of the water and light company and the falls are at the spillway of Lake Wichita.

Water is pouring over the 400 foot concrete dam in miniature Niagara at present and the noise of the water is audible for some distance. Fishermen are numerous at the scene and some good catches are being made.

The "falls" in Wichita Falls originally was derived from some rapids in the Wichita river near this city and when the town was named these falls were dignified by being made part of the name. The falls in the river long since disappeared, and it remained for Mr. Lawton to restore them at Lake Wichita. The lake is falling slowly, but water will continue to pour over the spillway for some time yet.

WHO CAN DOUBT SWORN TESTIMONY OF HONEST FOLKS?

Some time ago I began the use of your Swamp Root with the most remarkable results. For years I was almost a wreck and was a great sufferer. I was so bad at times I would faint away and had sinking spells. Finally a new doctor was called. In and he said that I had kidney trouble and gave me medicine, of which I took several bottles. I obtained some relief from this but I was getting weaker all the time; I could not sleep and suffered so much pain that my husband and children had to lift me in and out of bed. After this time two friends sent me word to try Swamp Root, which I did, and I am glad to state that the first dose gave me great relief. After taking the third dose I was helped into bed and slept half of the night.

I took several bottles of Swamp Root and I feel that I owe my life to this wonderful remedy. The two family doctors said that I could not live three months. I would have to be helped in and out of bed ten or twenty times every night. After taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root for two days I was entirely free from getting up and could sleep soundly. Mrs. D. E. Hilleman, Tunnleton, W. V.

Personally appeared before me this 11th of September, 1909, Mrs. D. E. Hilleman, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and fact. JOSEPH MILLER, Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y. Prove what Swamp Root will do for you. Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing be sure and mention the Wichita Falls Daily Times. RUSSIANS PICKING UP MANY AUSTRIAN DESERTERS

By Associated Press. Petrograd.—There are still considerable numbers of Austrian deserters picked up along the Russian front. Most of these are soldiers of Serbian or Polish nationalities, whom the accident of locality has placed in the Austrian ranks.

It is asserted that for months past it has been a common thing to find bodies of Austrian troops, varying from three to four to a score of individuals, turning up in unexpected places to submit themselves to captivity.

MOORE-SAVAGE WEDDING TUESDAY EVENING

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at 8:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Savage, when their daughter, Irma Ruth, became the bride of John L. Moore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moore of this city. Miss Ethel Moore, sister of the groom and C. H. Savage, brother of the bride attended as maid of honor and best man. The bride party was proceeded down the stairs and into the parlor by the two little flower girls, Misses Marquerite Moore and Alice Savage, who strewed the path to the altar with rose petals. Down this path the newly advanced to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. W. T. Pedigo, standing before Rev. F. F. Walters who performed the ceremony, using the ring ritual. The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. W. T. Pedigo, violin, and piano and Mrs. C. B. Savage, voice. An informal reception was held following the ceremony, attended by about forty invited guests and refreshments of punch, ice cream and cake were served. There were a number of handsome gifts on display, attesting to the popularity of the contracting parties and the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends. The bride was attired in a girlish robe of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bride's poses, and the groom was garbed in the conventional black. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are at home to their friends at 1317 Seventeenth street.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS: Carrier boys are not authorized, nor is any part of their duty, to collect for subscriptions to The Times.

For a number of years, keepers in other towns have been asking about the "falls" at Wichita Falls.

The city of Waco is able to borrow money at three and three-fourths per cent per annum.

Attorney General Looney holds that the McCaskill reciprocal insurance bill, passed by the last legislature and approved by Governor Ferguson, is in direct conflict with the constitution of the State.

One of the defendants recently tried and acquitted in this city for the murder of a Texas sheriff in Young county, who had been placed to guard the court house at Graham against burglars has been arrested in Young county on the charge of bootlegging.

The plan to hold a fair in Wichita county best falls on one which merits the active support of every loyal citizen and The Times hopes that the undertaking will be successfully carried out as formulated.

Mr. Marshall arrived in the city on Sunday morning and was met at the train by a number of the leading politicians, with silk hats and long tailed coats, who said to him: "Mr. President we have a nice banquet prepared for you, and we will go from here to the banquet hall."

S. P. Hawkins of Burkburnett, was one of the first farmers to settle in Wichita county. He has resided in the county more than thirty years, and while in town today said that wheat fields of that section of the county presented as fine appearance as he had ever seen there.

AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP: Many of our most fervently patriotic American citizens today are those who were born in foreign lands and therefore can appreciate American institutions and American citizenship, so that when we hear some half-baked youth who wouldn't recognize the Declaration of Independence if he were to hear it read on the Fourth of July, ridiculing such persons it excites contempt. All that some people have to do to qualify as American citizens is to exist. For such the story of Manu Travlica, a Croation, whom the Columbus (O.) Dispatch explains, really wanted to be an American is worthy of consideration. In brief: He dropped off the train several years ago as it was passing through Mill waukee, and became a "citizen" of that thriving community. He made application to become a citizen—took out his "first papers" as it is called—and settled down to the business of driving a team for a brewery.

When he underwent the examination now required by the United States government before granting citizenship papers to an alien, Manu failed to answer the questions satisfactorily. Later he again failed to convince the court. The other day Manu showed up in court. Every conceivable question was asked him. He answered all of them. He knew more about this country and its institutions than anybody in court—or just as much. He could read and write our language, and he talked learnedly about our traditions, and explained the spirit of our constitution. The court allowed him to become naturalized, and then asked him how he had managed to acquire so much knowledge about our affairs.

Manu told him. He said that as a teamster he had to get up at four o'clock in the morning to begin work and that it was after 9 o'clock when he got home. He could not, therefore study. That was why he knew so little upon the first two examinations. But he was so anxious to become an American citizen that he had given up his occupation for the time being and had hired on one time a day while devoting all of his time to study. Then it was easy.

Does any one doubt that Manu Travlica, once a Croatian, is now an American?

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOURS. If you want to live in the kind of a town Like the kind of a town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long, long hike, You'll carry what you left behind, For there's nothing that's really new, It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town.

AN INCIDENT WORTH WHILE REMEMBERING: The Times' delicious journals carry a remarkable circumstance that happened on the visit of Vice President Marshall, as the representative of President Wilson to the World's Exposition at San Francisco recently. Mr. Marshall arrived in the city on Sunday morning and was met at the train by a number of the leading politicians, with silk hats and long tailed coats, who said to him: "Mr. President we have a nice banquet prepared for you, and we will go from here to the banquet hall."

on," so the politicians with their Prince Alberts declared. Every true American will say hurrah for Tom Marshall, he is a man worth while, who never forgets to honor God on the Sabbath day. May his tribe increase.

That is going to have a jury pass on his sanity. If he were to get a trial in the South, there would be but little trouble in getting him declared perfectly sane. If, however, he is declared sane, there will be a rather extensive interference in the sources of revenue for a great many American lawyers—Austin Statesman.

WILLY MASON. "I'll gladly hit the water cooler," says George, Great Britain's worthy ruler, "and cut the bugejuice out, as an example to the laddies who blow the shillings of their daddies for porter, beer and stout. By foreign god we are endangered, is raising the hob at home. It tells not, and keeps men from toiling, and keeps them hot with useless broiling, as they blow off the foam. We are running short of ammunition because our workmen's condition recalls the D. T.; the provocation now seems ample and so I'll set a good example no long cold drinks for me." His thus with all the warring nations; they're finding out that liquid rations are fruitful of despair, far more than all the swords that slaughter, the submarines down under water, the airships in the air. In Russia, now no vodka's flowing; we see the thirty millions going to tap the helpful well; and France, the volatile and merry, prohibited the old green fairy that sent her sons to hell. The German soldiers heard the Kaiser forming them it would be wisest to give the pump a show; thus all the rulers are deciding that barleycorn, the long abiding, means trouble, strife and woe.

If you want to ride on the wave of prosperity that may be said to be just starting, then don't delay longer about making an investment in Wichita Falls real estate—it will make no difference whether business or residential property, values are lower, much lower in fact today than they will be one year from now. The right time to buy is the time when there are a few who are satisfied to take a small profit on their holdings and sell. That time is now.

Market Reports

Chicago Grain Futures. By Associated Press. Chicago, April 28.—General selling today continued to send wheat prices down grade. Lower Liverpool cables added to the impetus that came from favorable crop conditions in the United States and Canada. Lightness of offerings called the corn market from weakness due to sympathy with wheat. Shorts quickly absorbed the offerings and the market more than recovered its early decline. Later there was a sharp rally in wheat due to reports that the Germans were preparing for a four-years war. Wheat closed strong. Corn closed strong. Closing quotations: Wheat, May 1.62 7/8; July 1.37 1/2; Sept. 1.26 1/4; corn, May 55 1/2; July 50 1/4; Sept. 48 1/8; oats, May 55 1/2; July 50 1/4; Sept. 48 1/8.

New York Cotton Futures. By Associated Press. New York, April 28.—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 5 to 9 points in response to lower Liverpool cables and general realising. Prices rallied shortly after the opening, the advance from the early low point carried active months 1 to 5 points higher. Business, however, was comparatively quiet. Prices later eased off to 4 points from the best under new realising. Before the close prices eased back. Cotton closed steady. The close for the leading months: May 10.10; July 10.38; Oct. 10.77; Dec. 10.87; Jan. 10.88.

WING GEORGE ALMOST A TOTAL ABSTAINER. Banning of Alcohol From Royal Household Will Have Little Effect on King and Queen. London.—Correspondence of the Associated Press: The banning of alcohol from the Royal Household will fall rather lightly on King George who, according to court officials, is almost an abstainer even in normal times. He has occasionally taken a small glass of claret with his luncheon, but more often he preferred water. At dinner, burgundy and champagne were always served, but the king frequently tasted neither one, and never indulged in more than a minute quantity.

from purchasing and drinking alcoholic liquors outside the palace, but as a matter of fact, the majority of the household staff have followed the royal example of total abstinence throughout the war. It is rather curious to note, however, that alcoholic drinks of all kinds can still be obtained within what are legally the palace grounds. The "verge" of Buckingham Palace, which is administered by the Lord Steward's department, stretches in two places as far as the Thames, and embraces considerable business property, including a number of saloons. The licenses of these are controlled by the king's board of the green cloth, and the master of the Royal Household is the chairman of the licensing court, which has just held its annual session and approved the renewal of all the licenses. Thus there is the anomaly of a royal residential residence under the roof of which licenses for the sale of intoxicants have just been issued.

UNCEASING MISERY

Some Wichita Falls Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's a kidney ache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizziness. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit. Proof in Wichita Falls testimony:

C. N. Harrison, 1925 Eighth St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "About two years ago I had great trouble from my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my father's family and proved reliable for removing kidney annoyances, so I used them. They removed the lameness across my back and other troubles, caused by my kidneys."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, but get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Harrison had. Foster-McBarn Co. Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv't.

Quality — The Keystone of the Chalmers Arch

It is the painstaking care given to every one of the thousand minute details connected with the Chalmers product and Chalmers construction that has made the Chalmers car pre-eminently the quality car of its class.

Time and science have tested every stone in the Chalmers arch and have proven them granite strong.

The Chalmers is not a great car just because it has a wonderful engine, or superior transmission or an exceptional beauty of design.

It is a great car because all of these things work together in an harmonious and sturdy whole.

That's why Quality is the keystone of Chalmers' success.

An aristocrat in motordom is the Chalmers—not to be measured by dollars and cents—but rather by inward worth and outward grace.

It is a difficult matter to make these things apparent in cold type.

The car itself must be seen and carefully examined for one to appreciate just what this quality claim means.

Come in and see it today.

And then compare—compare—compare.

We shall have no fear as to what the result will be if the comparison is thorough and unprejudiced.

See the three great "Sixes"—the new Six-40 at $1400—the light Six-48 at $1650—and the Master Six-54 at $2400.

At The Theaters

The Lydia Margaret
Tonight will mark the close of the vaudeville bill comprised of the acts of Hong Fong, and the Crusaders. These three people have most certainly a happy faculty of entertaining and their acts are free from any objectionable feature. The Chinese has been a favorite on account of the novelty of his act as well as his ability to put his line of comedy over and the classic musical offering and costuming of the Crusaders helped make them a success. Today's picture program includes a one reel comedy and a two-part Kaleid. "Jared Fairfax's Millions," featuring Ruth Roland, the girl detective.

The Majestic
The "Master Key" serial which has interested so many for the past fifteen weeks has closed and now the public approval another serial, "The Black Box," introducing two other stars to take the place of Ella Hall and Robert Leonard in the affection of movie fans. Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little will star in this feature. Mr. Rawlinson as Sanford Quest, criminologist, makes a superb matinee idol, with his wavy hair and his eyes, at once dreamy and hard with the stern realism of a master mind. Miss Little is of a vivacious brunette type, and is an actress of exceptional ability. There are others in this serial who are stars in their own right, for instance William Worthington, who plays a dual role, that of Lord Ashleigh and Prof. Ashleigh, a scientist explorer, Beatrice Van, seen in the first installment as Ella Ashleigh, Frank Lloyd, the villainous McDougal, and Laura Oakley, Quest's assistant. Now that the characters have been properly introduced a tiny bit of a hint will be given as to the first installment. Miss Van, Lady Ella, comes from England to New York to enjoy the metropolitan music, bringing with her Lenora McDougal (Anna Little) her maid and her husband. Some time after her arrival a valuable necklace is stolen from her, the "grasping hands" being first introduced here. Quest is sent for to unravel the mystery and the "black box" is introduced at the last of Reel Two.

The Big Tent
"What Happened to Smith" was graphically told last night by the Rentrows company, the play being enjoyed by a full house. Tonight "The Girl of the Golden West" will be given and this production is ranked as one of Rentrows' best, and that is saying very much indeed. Those who know the real west will find that the play rings true, and those who know the west only through reading will be delighted to see the visualization of their dreams. The plot is one of realism and commands the attention of the spectator from beginning to end. Other plays on the program of the week are "The Great Milky Way," a sensational society drama presented by Rentrows exclusively, scheduled for Friday evening; "Dora Thorne," Saturday afternoon; "Ladies Bargain Matinee" and "The James Brothers of Missouri" Saturday night, the final performance of the season in Wichita Falls.

The Gem
Arthur Johnson and Lottie Ericson, the Lubin favorites, are seen today at the Gem in an appealing drama, "Her Martyrdom." Synopsis follows:
Dolly Daniels married Waverly Hamilton only to save her lover, Jim Reynolds, from death from tuberculosis. Jim needed money for a trip west, and there was no other way to obtain it. Dolly kept her marriage a secret from Jim and also concealed her love affair from her husband. She wrote Jim the letters he would expect to receive, and spoke of their happiness when he would return. Hamilton's kindness opened a new life to Dolly, and at length she awoke to the fact that she loved him. The thought of Jim became a sinister shadow, marring her happiness, but she could not tell him the truth, fearing the result upon his health. Then Jim came home, and Dolly saw the selfish nature that he had concealed from her. He would not be left out of her good fortune. He demanded $25,000 for the letters she had written, to keep them from her husband. When Dolly could not meet his demands, he asked her about her jewels. He would come to the house and steal them. She was to leave the door open. Jim came, but his own carelessness awoke Hamilton, and he met death at the hands of her husband. In the jail safe, Dolly found her letters. Hamilton never suspected his wife's relations with Jim and comforted her by telling her that it was only a "thief in the night."

The Empress
This afternoon and tonight Blanche Sweet will be seen here in "The Warrens of Virginia," a Lasky Paramount feature.
The screen has seen the great American war drama "acted over and over again," and it may be that audiences are somewhat cloyed with civil war plays. "The Warrens of Virginia" has become a classic on the speaking stage. Just what screen values are to be found in this old play may be an open question. Of course in the matter of spectacular effects the screen is a far better medium than the stage. In the filmed version of the Lasky Company quite a good deal has been made of the spectacular possibilities. One or two scenes are especially worthy of note, such for example as the ambushing of the Confederate supply train and the destruction of the powder wagons. There was, throughout, much evidence of a most laudable desire to do things on a lavish scale.

As to the acting, the work of James Neill as General Warren, may be characterized as thoroughly capable and conscientious and effective; House Peters as Ned Burton had a most trying part, which tested his art to the straining point; Dick La Reno made a most acceptable "General Griffin." Blanche Sweet has a charming personality, which has won her innumerable friends among patrons of the screen. In the scenes where sweet girlishness was needed, Miss Sweet was at her best. She fitted well into the refined simple atmosphere of an old-fashioned Southern home. All the outdoor scenes in the play were extremely well chosen.

WEATHER UNDOES EFFORTS TO RAISE SUBMARINE
By Associated Press.
Honolulu, April 25.—The work done in an effort to raise the submarine F-4 now lying on the ocean bed outside the harbor has been undone by the rough weather of last two days. Only one cable is left holding to the bulk. It was learned today. The steers used in the raising operations have been anchored in the harbor to prevent their drifting out to sea, on account of weather conditions diving is impossible.

What causes that headache? Do you need glasses? It tells you nothing to have your eyes tested here. Harrington's. Ninth and Indiana.

The Victor System of Changeable Needles Enables You to Meet Every Acoustic Condition It gives you perfect control of the tone volume and enables you to adopt every record to the acoustic limitations of any room. The different kinds of Victor needles give you different and distinct gradations of tone, without which it would be necessary to have several instruments, each of a different tone to give such variation. You choose the volume of tone and play each record as loud or as soft as you personally wish to hear it. Come in and hear your favorite music played with different needles and you will fully appreciate the infinite variety of charm afforded by the Victor system of tone control.
