GERMANY NOT DISTURBED

SOME BELIEVE ENTRY OF ITALY INTO WAR MAY BE ADVANTAGE

SAN RIVER BATTLE

Reports From Berlin Indicate Another Great Battle in Progress on Southeast

By Associated Press. London, May 20.—No one in Italy any longer doubts that war begins today, says a press dispatch from Chiasso in Switzerland near the Italian border to Berlin and forwarded here. Austria's final proposals have been rejected unanimously by the Italian council of ministers and the two nations are a step nearer war.

The Italian parliament assembles today and a declaration of the government's policy is expected. A dispatch from Paris says that word has been received from Rome that parliament has given full powers to the minister of war. A Rome dispatch, however, merely says this bill was introduced. The German press admitting that it is almost certain views the prospect calmly, the opinion even being expressed that Austria, because of Italian attacks may be compelled to make a separate peace with Russia, a course which would probably mean the release of more German troops for the Western front. The predicted great battle along the San in Central Galicia apparently is already under way. The official announcement from Berlin today speaks of heavy fighting near Przemyd which is said to have resulted in advantages to the Austro-Germans. Several victories in the north on the fighting front near the east Prussian frontier, also are claimed by the Berlin war office.

The interval of comparative quiet on the western frontier has not been broken, so far as the official announcement from Paris and Berlin report. The Germans report a slight gain in the Loreto hills. The British trawler, Crystallites, has been sunk by a German submarine off the Scottish coast. The crew was saved. The London Times says that the reorganization of the cabinet will be through. A large number of resignations is expected and the cabinet will be reconstituted with the sole idea of carrying on the war.

PREDICTS HOSPITALS WILL REPLACE JAILS AND PRISONS

Washington, May 20.—Clarence S. Darrow told the Industrial Relations Commission today he believed the day not far distant when jails and prisons would be abolished and hospitals take their places. "I don't mean that some people won't be confined," said he, "but they will be treated for their social ills and not punished. Punishment is barbarian and the people generally are beginning to think so. Some day we will try to wipe out the cause of crime and doctor criminals instead of abusing and misjudging them." Most folks believe themselves innocent, no matter what they do, Darrow thought.

Rockefeller Will Influence. "I believe Rockefeller and Standard Oil have a most evil social influence, but Mr. Rockefeller thinks he is as innocent as any and justifies himself unto himself. Everybody thinks himself innocent."

Resistance of military and other constituted authority, if that authority were admitted, Darrow argued, was justifiable, arguing that liberty had been maintained by bloodshed. As one of the first steps toward an ideal social community, he urged public ownership of lands, mines, forests and railroads. "There is no final remedy for unrest except the grave," declared Darrow.

Rev. Smith takes advanced ground on several matters and is expecting some adverse criticism.

GREATEST ARTILLERY BATTLE IN HISTORY

LITERALLY THOUSANDS OF BIG GUNS IN DUEL AT YPRES IN RECENT FIGHTING

STORY BY AN EYE WITNESS

As Far as Glasses Could Carry Land- scape Was Thick With Bursting Shrapnel and Shells

By Associated Press. London, May 20.—This is the greatest artillery battle in the history of the world; the expenditure of ammunition is fabulous, writes an observer from behind the British lines at Ypres, describing the fighting of April 25 and 26, which resulted in considerable gains for the Germans.

After describing the almost continuous cannonading that had been going on for two days, with literally thousands of guns in almost constant action, the observer suggests that the intensity of the firing may be judged by the fact that at one small bridge across the Yser twenty German guns fought eighteen English and French guns all night, until finally the German guns were silenced. "The French 75's," he notes, "were fired so rapidly that they sounded like an endless roll of thunder multiplied by a thousand."

Canadian's Part

Touching briefly on the Canadian's part in the battle, he says: "One of the most notable incidents of the battle was the work done by the Canadian supply column. Not a cartridge or shell was a second late in reaching the man behind the gun, and when the black fumes blew across a section of supply men and they fell over the side of the hill and kept the fighting line replenished until the wind blew the fumes away."

"During the afternoon two aeroplanes—supposed to be British—marked and shaped exactly as the British aircraft were seen flying over the German lines, and it was noticed that the German shells played all about them without effect. Then they would fly over the British lines and back again, but the German shells always fell far short of bringing them down. On their third visit the Canadian field artillery let them have several shots. One aeroplane, badly damaged, was planned down into the German lines, and the other fled out of sight behind the German trenches."

Describing the artillery fighting, the writer says: "As far as our glasses could carry, we could see the white bursts of shrapnel, the black bursts of the German giant guns, or the feather floating clouds of anti-aircraft shells which broke in the heady, burning dome of the sky, where both German and English aeroplanes soared. The old theory that shooting causes rain was disproved, for the sun shone brightly over the indescribable scene. The wind was strong, but the aeroplanes facing it made no headway, and standing in the wind in one plane like kites, the British aeroplanes seemed as stationary as the top of the Eiffel Tower, directing presumably the British gun fire."

Firing at Aeroplanes

"From behind our hill two British aeroplanes soared so low over us that we could see their guns; they climbed into the sky to drive away a Taube biplane which was flying over the hill sidewise in the heavy wind. The Taube took to flight at a height so great that it looked like a dot in the sky even without glasses turned on it. Soon the white puffs of the German anti-aircraft guns and the gun-ladder white puffs of the British sky-lauder floated in the sky, above and below the glittering dots which were the aeroplanes gleaming in the sunlight. "Behind our hill were Belgian peasants plunging. Further behind them in a meadow, we could see men playing football. I discovered later that some of the men in the trench were the trenches in the meadow of enter which we were beholding. I spoke to one of these men who told that he first of those who had been the first to be injured. The umpire impatiently called the time while I talked to the goalkeeper. "Tonight the glars of the battle illuminate the sky of Belgium for many miles. The tower of the Cloth Hall at Ypres and two church steeples were visible in the rays of the evening sunset, but many fires were burning in the town, and my glimpse of the ruins of the Cloth Hall tower may have my last, for the German shells were falling about it incessantly."

FINAL READING, TONIGHT OF JITNEY ORDINANCE

The jitney regulation ordinance will come up for final passage at tonight's session of the city council and its enactment without further amendment is considered probable. In its present form the ordinance is not very objectionable to the jitney drivers though there are some features of it they wish to see changed. Just whether a court contest on the ordinance will be inaugurated is not known.

ALLEGED GERMAN SPY COMMITS SUICIDE

ANTON KUEPFERLE WHO CLAIMED TO BE AMERICAN CITIZEN HANGED HIMSELF

HE CONFESSED WAS SOLDIER

Left Message on Slate Saying Could Not Mount Scaffold as a Spy

By Associated Press. London, May 20.—Antonio Kuepferle, who claimed to be an American citizen, who once lived in Brooklyn and who has been on trial charged with giving military information to the enemies of Great Britain, committing suicide last night in Brixton prison by hanging himself. He left a message on a slate bearing testimony to the fairness of his trial. He confessed that he was a soldier and declared that he could not bear to mount the scaffold as a spy.

The trial of Antonio Kuepferle began at the old Bailey police court; the charge against the prisoner was that he attempted to communicate to Germany information respecting British warships and military forces. The prosecution contended that while he claimed to be a neutralized American citizen, he was in reality a German. Kuepferle was charged with writing a letter to an address in a neutral country in Europe, giving valuable facts regarding English military disposition. It was asserted that while the letter appeared on its face to be an innocent commercial communication, it was found to be interlined with invisible ink, military information being written in German. Kuepferle arrived in Liverpool February 14; he showed a passport signed by Secretary of State William J. Bryan issued ten days prior to his sailing from New York. In writing the letter which resulted in his arrest he gave his home address as 1665 Kekah avenue, Brooklyn. He represented himself to be a woolen merchant. From Liverpool he went to Dublin and then to London where he was arrested February 16. His hearing when resumed yesterday was in camera, "in the interest of the national safety."

The clubs have proven very beneficial organizations nearly everywhere.

ONE BILL ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE

BILL FOR PURCHASE FIRST TEXAS CAPITAL NOW GOES TO GOVERNOR

MORE MATTERS SUBMITTED

House Spends Morning in Considering Educational Appropriation Bill

By Associated Press. Austin, May 20.—The first bill passed by both branches of the legislature at the present session and signed by the presiding officers of the house and the senate was the act appropriating $10,000 for the purchase of the site of the first Texas capitol at old Washington which was signed today. The governor sent a message asking for the passage of an act providing for the naming of inheritance tax collectors throughout the state; also recommending the creation of a state board of horticulture composed of seven members.

Senator McNeel introduced a resolution that appropriations be given the right of way as the end of the session was near. The resolution was referred to the senate committee on rule. The senate educational bill was taken up and passed to engrossment. The senate refused to suspend the rules and the bill finally passed the free conference committee on the eleventh day of the session. The bill carries a total of $4,049,370. After passing finally the bill by Senator Bailey of Dewitt relating to the impounding of surface-water rights was adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon.

The house devoted the entire morning session to consideration of the educational appropriation bill mainly because of efforts of members to strike out certain appropriations for the University of Texas and for other appropriations for tutors. This amendment was defeated 65 to 48. Representative Burmeister and Grindstaff offered an amendment to strike out the item of $10,000 for a student loan fund and also to strike out the appropriation of $23,500 for the first and $28,500 for the second fiscal years for summer schools at the University. Both amendments were defeated. The bill was still under consideration when the house recessed.

CORRECTION OF COURT TERM BILL BEING URGED

President of Bar Association Asks Governor to Submit Matter of Change

The change in the time of opening the June term of the 30th district court will be corrected by the present called session of the legislature in the matter can be acted upon in time. Judge R. E. Huff, president of the Wichita County Bar Association, is taking the necessary steps, by a letter to the Times, Judge Huff expresses the view that the section of the bill making the change is inoperative, but will try to have the legislature remove any doubts. His communication follows: Editor Times: Have just returned from Waco and noticed in the Fort Worth Record that the bar has been considerably exercised over the change of time of holding our District Court for the 30th Judicial District. In my judgment, the act changing the time for Wichita County is not so good as to make it effective. The constitution of Texas, section 25 says, "No bill shall contain more than one subject which shall be expressed in its title, but if any subject shall be embraced in an act not expressed in its title shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall be so expressed." Now, the law attempting to give the District Court of Clay County an additional time in fact undertakes to amend and repeal all of paragraph 40, article 40 relating to the 30th Judicial District but does not express that intention in its title, nor is any change of time of holding the District Court of Wichita County mentioned in the title and, I believe, it is therefore void so far as effecting the change of Wichita County and being so void will not have taken effect so far as give Clay County the time. However, I think there will be no trouble in getting it straightened out at the present session of the legislature as before leaving for Waco I took the matter up with Governor Ferguson and also with the representative from Clay County, and also with Judge Akin. Judge Akin has written me that he will assist in having a correction bill submitted and Mr. Boner writes: "The governor has promised to submit the correction amendment to the law passed by the 34th Legislature touching the time of Clay and Wichita County District Courts, and the correction will be made this special session. I thank you for calling my attention to the defect."

I make this explanation of the present status of matters but have wired Governor Ferguson during prompt submission of the subject and believe that everything will be adjusted before the legislature adjourns. Respectfully, R. E. HUFF, President Wichita County Bar Ass'n.

BURGLARS OPERATE IN WICHITA FALLS

THREE STORES ENTERED AND CONSIDERABLE QUANTITIES OF GOODS TAKEN

GROCERIES AND DRY GOODS

$500 Worth of Booty Secured at P. B. M.'s—Groceries Taken From Floral Heights Store

Burglars were active in Wichita Falls, Wednesday night and secured goods valued at $500 from the P. B. M. department store and about $40 worth of groceries from the Floral Heights Grocery. The Stokes Electric Company building was entered, but nothing was missing this morning.

The loss at P. B. M.'s consists of a large number of dresses; some of them of silk and other expensive materials, and their value is estimated at not less than $500. It is thought the burglars may have secured other articles which would not necessarily be missed. Entrance was effected through a rear window. The stolen goods could not have been carried away by less than two men, and it is thought at least three committed the burglary.

At the Floral Heights Grocery, bacon, ham and beef, constituted the loot, and about a wagon load of groceries was taken. This grocery is located at Eleventh and Taylor streets and W. P. Bennett is the proprietor. The back door was forced open by the thieves. The burglary was not discovered until this morning.

The rear window of the Stokes Electric shop was forced open by someone, but if anything was taken it could not be ascertained this morning. Earlier in the week the plant of the Wichita Boiler works, in the Denver yards, was entered, and a suit of clothes, a watch, four dollars in money and some other articles were taken. Last night's burglaries are the most serious reported here in some time and indicate that there is a gang working here. Last Saturday night an attempt was made to open the safe at the Wichita Laundry, but this was unsuccessful. The officers are at work on all the cases here reported.

BAILEY IN CLASH WITH JUSTICE

FORMER TEXAS SENATOR REBUKED BY JUDGE IN ARGUING RIGGS' SUIT

TEXAN IS GIVEN WARNING

Told That Another Improper Remark Will Bar Him From the Case

By Associated Press. Washington, May 20.—Argument in the Riggs bank injunction suit against Secretary McAdoo, Controller Williams and Treasurer Burke started off in the district supreme court today with a clash between Former Senator Bailey, chief counsel for the Riggs bank and Justice McCoy. Senator Bailey was going for the admissibility of affidavits when Justice McCoy interrupted to say that he had already ruled it would be admitted and further argument only took up time. "Your honor has already taken more time than what I intended to say," replied Mr. Bailey.

"Your remarks are highly improper," returned the justice. "Another remark of that kind and some other counsel will argue the case." Mr. Bailey exclaimed: "If the court feels that way about it I will withdraw." "Do as you please about that," retorted Justice McCoy.

Several of the bank's lawyers surrounded Senator Bailey and after a short conference Senator Bailey said: "I feel that I owe to my client a duty higher than any I owe to myself, therefore I will continue my arguments." At this Justice McCoy said: "I also feel that I owe a duty to your clients and that will lead me to dismiss what you have said from my mind," whereupon he ordered the argument to proceed.

Mr. Untermyer's reference to "pipe line" between the treasury and the Riggs bank, Mr. Bailey characterized as "political accusations." "I might as well say," he declared, "that while they eliminated this pipe line they have established another to the tune of $50,000,000. I do not know but that I might as well say as pipe line to the Commercial National Bank in Washington." The Commercial National is headed by a former associate of Controller Williams.

Market Reports

Chicago Grain Futures

By Associated Press. Chicago, May 20.—Fear of black rust led today to an upturn in prices for wheat. Other features aided the advance. ## GREEN BOOK ISSUED TO JUSTIFY ITALY'S COURSE

By Associated Press. Rome, May 20.—The Italian Green Book, its contents seeking to justify Italy's warlike measures, was issued today. In brief, its says that the break began last December when Italy declared that the Austrian invasion of Serbia was a violation of the Triple Alliance Treaty. In the middle of February German pressure was issued Austria to make concessions to Italy because evident. In March came Austrian offers of territorial concessions which were very small compared with Italy's demands. On April 2, the Italian foreign minister, Sonnino, declared that Austria's demands on Italy in return for concessions were "contemptible." On April 25 Italy learned that Austria did not believe Italy would fight. This caused Italy on May 4 to denounce her treaty with Austria, resulting in the present situation.

Cheers greeted Gabrielle D. Annunzio when he entered the gallery (D. Annunzio is known for radical stand in favor of war). Signor Marcora, president of the senate, took his place at three o'clock. All the members of the house and every one arose and acclaimed the former follower of Garibaldi."

At The Theaters

ANITA STEWART AT THE GEM TODAY

Anita Stewart is featured in a three part Vitagraph drama, "From Headquarters." Earle Williams plays the main lead. The story of the picture follows:

Rose Peters, the daughter of a detective who believes there is no such thing as an excuse for crime, falls in love with Peter, employer of William Brown. He devotes himself to her exclusively, despite the anger of her father. Matters change when Belle Waring is engaged to fill a position in his employ. Brown turns to the new beauty, ignoring the pleadings of his former charmer, who is becoming an object of derision to her fellow-workers. Things come to a crisis when Rose enters the private office unexpectedly and finds Belle Waring in Brown's embrace. A stormy scene follows. Rose, in a frenzy, impulsively grabs a paper-knife and stabs her employer. Thinking him dead, she makes her escape from the office, but is seen by Edward Temple, a client. Rose arrives home just as her father receives detailed information from the Police Sergeant in his district of the Brown assault case. Rose begs her father not to take up the case, pleading for the unknown girl who was so cruelly wronged. In her excitement, Rose goes through the motions enacted when she stabbed Brown. Her father's suspicions are aroused, and when he goes to Brown's office as an officer of the law he becomes convinced that his own daughter committed the crime. He is about to do his duty and arrest her, when word reaches him from headquarters that she has died. Brown, repentant, and finding his wound is not fatal, has halted further investigation. He sends a telegram to Peter, who leaves all, and the father returns home to his daughter with a glad heart. Brown's old love for Rose returns and he makes her his wife.

WINNIFRED GREENWOOD FEATURE AT EMPRESS

Winnifred Greenwood and Ed Coxon are featured in "The Problem," a synopsis of which is given.

The mother informs him that as she has sacrificed a great deal to give Edith an education and social position the least the girl can do in return is to make a wealthy marriage. Rees leaves, heavy hearted; and Mrs. Shannon falls asleep. In a dream she sees her daughter married to Howard Grey, a very rich man. It is not long before he tires of Edith, and his name becomes coupled with that of Edith. One scandalous incident follows another, until, one night, Grey returns home in an intoxicated state, and trying to embrace his wife, Edith shoots him. Awakening with a start, Mrs. Shannon sees before her her daughter and Rees. At the suggestion of the girl's grandfather, they have agreed to renew their love together. To their astonishment, the mother eagerly gives them her blessing. Other pictures are "Only a Young Man" and "Reliance" and "Money Among Cannibals," a two-part comedy featuring Shorty Hamilton.

TRIPLE FEATURE PROGRAM AT THE MAJESTIC TODAY

Three headline pictures are on today's program. Gertrude McCoy is featured in an Edison drama, "The Phantom Thief" with Edward Earle and Sally Cruise included in the cast. Ethel Clayton and Joseph Kaufman are featured in a Lubin comedy, "Monkey Business" and a two-part Vitagraph, "The Millionaire's Fiancée." "Dollar Bill" completes the program. This last named drama is a powerful argument against those who are cynical of human nature and believe only evil of it. Two clubmen make a wager on a beautiful woman, one honest, dishonest and selfish, the other that it is not. They drop an envelope with a $100 bill in it in a public park and Helen Wynford picks it up. The two men see her go straight to a modiste's and order a beautiful gown and the cynic laughs, but she soon later apparently give the bill to a poor shoppier, so his friend claims the bet. Both are wrong, but Helen later does use the bill for a truly charitable purpose, and gives up the gown. Later the cynic meets the self-sacrificing girl and looks upon life and human nature from a viewpoint, with her as his wife, while she reaps the reward of her unselfishness. It is all shown in a forcible manner by this well-drawn characterization with its subtle and forceful action.

FAVORABLE COMMENT ON ACADEMY PUPILS' SHOWING

The work of Mrs. E. L. Fulton in the staging of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" which was presented Tuesday night by the dramatic class of the Academy has been the object of much favorable comment. Mrs. Fulton is the dramatic instructor at the convent and as such had all details of the presentation under her direction. This is one of the most ambitious amateur productions seen here and the details of the scenery and costuming for so large a cast were not ones to be overlooked. The interpretation of the various characters was excellent and the parts were well chosen. This is the first time that Mrs. Fulton's pupils have been presented to the public and the performance of Tuesday speaks well for their instructor.

CREATING TANK FOR LOCOMOTIVE FUEL OIL

Denver's New Oil Burning Engines Will Soon Be in Use—New Cars Also Ordered

Work is now under way upon the tank to be used for storing fuel for Fort Worth and Denver engines. The tank is being built in the yards near the round house and will be ready as soon as the Denver starts operating its oil-burning engines.
Ten of these engines have been ordered by the Denver from the Baldwin Locomotive works. They are the superheated oil-burning Mikado type and will be put into service as soon as they arrive. The Denver has also ordered 1700 new box cars, including 1200 46-foot, 40-ton steel center-sill cars; 300 40-foot steel center-sill stock cars and 200 steel gondola cars.
These orders for new equipment are among several which have been placed by Texas railroads recently, the Rock Island and Santa Fe both announcing the appropriation of large sums for new rolling stock and steel.

The Boy Who Saved Holland

You remember the story of the little Dutch boy whose courage and foresight saved his country. He spied a trickle of water on the side of the dike, where the sea had found an entrance. He knew that the hole would spread, the dike weaken, collapse, and bury the country under many feet of water.

Thrusting his hand and arm into the hole, he stopped the leak, staying at his post until found in the morning.

It was only a small leak, but it would have worked great havoc.

Just the stopping of a trickle of water saved the people of a country. Of course, all trifles are not so important as this, but they are always fraught with possibilities.

Poor lubricating doesn't mean that the plant will be lost, but it may mean the stoppage of the unit at the most inconvenient time.

See that your plant is lubricated with Texaco lubricants. You can depend on Texaco. It lubricates all the time, saves bearing wear, saves work, saves power.

Fortified Tires Are Always Climbing Upward

104,000 Men

In the jungles and fields, in our factories, etc., 104,000 men are employed to meet the demand for Goodyear tires.

No other tire commands anywhere near such favor. And this spring has shown, in sales to dealers, an increase of 52 per cent.

Extra Values

The reason is, we fortify our tires. We give the best that others give, plus five exclusive features. In costly ways, employed by no one else, we combat:

- Rim-Cuts
- Blowouts
- Loose Treads
- Insecurity
- Punctures
- Skidding

And we never skimp. Despite all price reductions, Goodyears are better than ever. Lately we have added three conspicuous improvements. Some Goodyear supremacies can be seen at a glance. Compare size and thickness with the average tire. Compare number of fabric plies.

Prices Down

Goodyear has made in about two years three great price reductions, totaling 45 per cent. The last was on February 1st. Our matchless output enables a value which no other maker can duplicate.

Goodyears mean less trouble, less upkeep. That is proved by our exclusive features, our dominant place, and the swelling Goodyear tide. We urge you to join this army. Any dealer will supply you.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

THE END OF A DREAM.
Lord, for a little of heaven
We have come through a desert of hell!
Where shall we find it, this heaven
We have won so well?
Lord, for a little of dreaming,
And rest and glad heart,
We have faced the unutterable gleaming,
We have suffered our part;
We have served and have sacrificed humbly,
And all that our end might be
To lie in a green grave dumbly
And look up to Thee!

Lord, wash us clean of our trouble,
Let our hour of delight
Swing down to us now like a bubble,
That we walk not in night!
Lord, for a little of singing,
And peace and laughter, and sun,
We have faced such remarkable stinging,
We have had such a race to run.
And now we are hungry and weary
In this dust of our dream!
For a day that shall not be dreary
As the end of a dream!

—Baltimore Sun.

The score cards for the game, bridge being played the early part of the afternoon, were flower decked in the prevailing color note. ### A PICNIC

That's the thing that gets to buzzing in the brain of all of us about now. That Picnic Feeling comes to us just as regular as the grass gets green and generally makes an irresistible appeal when that green grass, flowers and all out of doors, seems to be calling to us. We approve of the picnic idea, because we believe it's good to get out in the open occasionally, and besides we sell Picnic Goods. Of course, that's a secondary consideration, but you'll agree that a Picnic isn't a Picnic unless there's an abundance of Eats. They are just as necessary as the grass, thistles, flowers and chickens. Fact is, you could not get along without some of this scenery, but the Eats—No, never. Pick the People, time and place for your Picnic—then come down here and pick your Picnic Eats. It's a Picnic to pick our Picnic goods. Any old scenery and our GOOD GROCERIES will make a Picnic of a picnic. Come on—let's all go.

How Studebaker cars are built—Ignition

SURE steady firing at any speed

Magneto? No, sir! Better than that—the Studebaker-Wagner Electric System that's built to order for Studebaker Cars. Lots of cars, of course, are still using magnetos. But study of the leading cars at the Auto Shows disclosed that more than 52% of the high-grade cars are using a battery-ignition system.

And the reason is simply that electric-system ignition is better than the magneto. When the motor is turning fast, the magneto is satisfactory. But the minute you slow up on a grade or in city traffic the energy developed by the magneto weakens—and that is just when you need ignition energy most.

For when the motor is running at low speeds and the charge is highly compressed, it takes a hotter spark to fire it. And that's why Studebaker is using this battery-ignition system, which is not only simpler but MORE RELIABLE, because it insures maximum voltage at low speeds as well as at high speeds.

It guarantees SURE, steady firing. For the storage battery is ready to deliver the maximum voltage at all times. The motor doesn't skip or miss at low speed. And it PULLS steadily and tenaciously ALL the time the car is moving. Guarantees the CERTAINTY of operation that a man looks for in this car.

Because it's a Studebaker's

But why not come in and look over this Studebaker ignition system on the car itself. Like to show you the simple wiring system and all the details. Like to have you see the car, too, and know the convenience and the COMFORT and the safety that's built into it. And we'll gladly arrange for any kind of tests you like—hills, roughest roads, anything. Will you phone us? Or if you can't come in, write for our booklet on the Studebaker Electric System.

U. S. PRECEDENT IN BRITISH "BLOCKADE"

UNITED STATES RESORTED TO "STARVATION" PLAN IN THE CIVIL WAR

SMALL ARMS, AMMUNITION

U. S. Authorities Have Ruled Passenger Ships May Carry Such Supplies

An official "whose opinion carries weight" is quoted by the International News Service in a dispatch to the Austin American as saying that if Germany should renew her proposition to the United States to induce England to permit foodstuffs to get into Germany the proposition would have to be rejected.

He said on this point: "The United States would have to bear in mind that in the Civil War it pursued a policy of starving the enemy. The Federal Government, of course, established a blockade for that purpose, but Great Britain also has established a blockade. Her blockade is of a kind which sets a new precedent, but the British claim is that is justified by the employment of the submarine in modern warfare."

There is no official confirmation here of the report that President Wilson is meditating a new note to Great Britain on her general lines of activities in the detention of American ships and American cargoes. That the discussion growing out of the various phases of the British order is still going on is evidenced by the fact that British officials even today were discussing with the State Department payments for detained cargoes.

It was understood that at the time of Great Britain's declaration of purpose in her order in council the United States would again send a note to Great Britain dealing with the rights of American ships and shipments, and especially as to articles which Great Britain has declared to be contraband. That note has not been sent.

May Be Misapprehension. Notice was taken at the State Department of the discussion in Germany that the difficulty between the two nations might be solved if the United States would apply the law of 1882 relative to the carrying of explosives on passenger ships. Evidently there is a misapprehension in Germany as to the scope of that law.

Supervising Inspector General Uhler of the steamboat inspection service is authority for the statement that the law of 1882, known as the passenger act, does not prohibit the transportation of arms or small arms ammunition on passenger vessels. General Uhler said also there is no law which makes this prohibition. That law applies only to heavy explosives, such as dynamite or nitroglycerin.

In 1911 the steamboat inspection service, under the personal supervision of General Uhler, made exhaustive tests of the combustibility and explosive qualities of small arms ammunition in cases. A carload of various kinds of small arms ammunition was placed on a huge grill, over a bonfire. The ammunition burned and the cartridges exploded, but because of the absence of resistance the bullets had no force. They traveled not more than fifteen feet. Cases of ammunition were then dropped from different heights up to sixty feet, on solid concrete.

Although the boxes were broken and the cartridges scattered, not one of them exploded.

As a result of these tests, General Uhler reported that small arms ammunition could be carried with perfect safety on passenger vessels.

Application of Law. The solicitor of the Department of Commerce and Labor, Charles Earl, then rendered an opinion on the application of the law, of which the following was his conclusion:

"It is, therefore, as a matter of fact, small arms ammunition can be carried without endangering the lives or health of passengers or the safety of the vessel, the transportation thereof is, in my opinion, sanctioned by the language used in section 8 of the passenger act."

On receipt of this opinion, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor issued a circular permitting the transportation of small arms ammunition on passenger vessels.

Another provision of the law governing the service, which appears to affect the situation, occurs in section 4472 of the revised statutes, which says:

"No loose hay, loose cotton or loose hemp, camphene, nitroglycerin, naphtha, benzine, benzol, coal oil, crude, or refined petroleum or other like explosive burning fluids or like dangerous articles shall be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers," and "nor shall gunpowder be carried on any such vessel except under special license."

The steamboat inspection service, however, does not place small arms ammunition under the heading of "gunpowder," nor in view of the results of its tests does it regard it as a "dangerous article."

As has been stated by the International News Service heretofore, Germany may ask the United States to prohibit the shipment of arms and ammunition on all passenger ships leaving American ports to insure their immunity from attack by submarines.

Considerable damage was done by hail at Snyder and Olutree Oklahoma, Wednesday, according to reports reaching this city today. A local roofing concern received a large order for roofing material from Snyder where the damage was the heaviest.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Society's Last Concert of Season will Be Given at Wichita Theatre Tonight

The Wichita Falls Choral Society will be heard in concert tonight in the Wichita theatre at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend this concert which will be the last to be given this season by the society.

Since its inception in October last the Choral Society has practically doubled its membership. It is doing splendid work under the direction of C. B. Machlin, who is most ably assisted by Mrs. Machlin, as accompanist. Applications for next year's membership show that the society will then number at least fifty people—a very fair size for a mixed chorus in a town of this population. The program is as follows:

- Chorus, Hail Smiling Morn, Spoforth.
  - Song, "A May Morning," Denza, J. W. Bradley.
  - Chorus, Sweet and Low, Barnby.
  - Song, "Sunlight," Ware, Mrs. W. S. Robertson.
  - Chorus, "Wake With a Smile O Month of May" (from May Queen) Bennett.
  - Song, "Mother of Mine" Tours, Mrs. G. F. Thompson.
  - Chorus, O Melancholy Plight (from May Queen) Bennett.
  - Song, Creole Lover's Song, Buck, Ivan Murchison.
  - Chorus, With a Laugh as We Go Round (from May Queen) Bennett (So piano obligato) Mrs. G. H. Carpenter.
- Four concerts are scheduled by the society for next season. It is planned to give both the "Cucifixion" and the "May Queen" in their entirety, and Mr. Machlin proposes also to have the chorus sing his "Festival Mass" and other of his own compositions.

Washington, May 20.—The Department of agriculture has sent out to its agents throughout the South suggestions for the proper handling of wheat and oats in this region. While it is expected that the entire crop is to be fed on the farm, and especially in neighborhoods where threshing machines are not readily available, it is recommended that both the wheat and oats should be either cut for hay or else fed as medium-sized bundles to be fed in the straw.

If intended for hay both wheat and oats should be cut when the grain varies from the "milk" to the very soft dough stage. At this time the stalks will be mostly green or just beginning to show signs of ripening below. After cutting they should be cured and handled exactly as any of the common grass hays. Under favorable conditions the hay will then have a bright green color. If the cutting is delayed, however, until the grain is in the full dough stage the hay will be dry, hard, and bleached, and the feeding value diminished.

If it is intended to feed the grain in the straw, the cutting should be put off until the grain has reached the hard dough stage and most of the stalks have taken on a yellow color. Under favorable weather conditions the grain will cure sufficiently for storage purposes in six or eight days if put up in carefully made round shocks of nine bundles each, including one cap bundle. Near the coast, where frequent rains are to be expected at this season, grain should be put in small shocks containing only six bundles, and left uncapped so that it will dry out quickly after a rain. It is unnecessary to fear down and spread these small shocks after rains as it sometimes is with larger ones. The bundles, of course, should be shocked in order to avoid the possibility of loss from bad weather.

The LESSON

From the darkening shadow of the grave we learn many lessons: Patience, Love, Remembrance, Fidelity to trust, Forgiveness, forgetfulness of others' faults, sacredness of duty, the frailty of life, the blessings of sorrow, the sweetness of memory, the reward of friendship, and the nearness of death.

There is no greater proof of these virtues among the living exemplified, as the erection of a suitable memorial. A visit to the cemetery will convince you of these facts.

Dear Madam: You can take the same flour, baking powder, shortening and other ingredients and by putting them together in right proportions, correct mixing and careful baking produce as good batch of biscuit, loaf of bread or cake as any one. Can you not? It's the same with Tea. We buy our teas directly of the Importer. The same teas that the big package tea people use at EXACTLY THE SAME PRICE and blend them by the same formula. (It's no more of a secret than your bread or cake recipe). As the teas are already processed when they arrive in this country, you can see it's a very simple process.

Now here's OUR ADVANTAGE, no expensive lithographed cans or national advertising or salesman's bills to pay. Just one profit between the importer and you—that's ourselves. Can't you see the advantage? It costs at least one-half the retail price of an advertised brand of tea to get it into your hands. We are packing teas under our WHO CAN BEAT IT BRAND, the very best money will buy. Have India and Ceylon, Formosa Oolong, Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder and Basket Fired Japan, at a uniform price of 65 cents per pound, 1-2 lb. 35 cents, 1-4 lb 20 cents. Try one package, we guarantee satisfaction
