FRIAR MEETINGS
OPEN HERE TONIGHT

REVIVAL CAMPAIGN OF MORE THAN ORDINARY MAGNITUDE INAUGURATED.

TENT SEATS OVER 2,000

Rev. H. H. Friar And Party Of Evangelistic Workers Here Ready For Opening.

We wish to call the attention of all the Christian people of our city to the evangelistic services which are to begin this Sunday evening at the big tent on Eighth and Lamar. Brother Friar submitted the proposition of a meeting of this character to the Ministerial Association and has received the endorsement of the churches which affiliate in this association and promises in return to make good in the meeting and to render such services as we can all heartily endorse. We call your attention to this meeting and as pastors request your co-operation in harmony with our plan for these meetings and wish that you would be on hand for the first meeting Sunday evening. We most heartily invite and urge every one who has the interests of the community at heart to give Brother Friar a hearing and to lend your support to these services. This is in no sense a denominational meeting and people of all denominations are urged to attend. (Signed) C. C. SMITH, Chairman of Ministerial Association. R. C. MILLER, Secretary.

A revival campaign of more than ordinary magnitude will be opened in Wichita Falls tonight at 8 o'clock in a big tent at the corner of Eighth and Lamar streets, with Rev. H. H. Friar as the evangelist. The evangelist and his corps of trained workers are here to begin this co-operative revival and everything is in readiness for the opening service.

Mr. Friar is an independent evangelist of national reputation and comes to this city highly recommended. He has held very successful meetings at Dallas, San Antonio and other places. The tent where the services will be held has comfortable seats for 2,000 people. With Dr. Friar is a party of workers and assistants of a high type of Christianity, whose services are expected to add much to the meeting. The troubles incident to the placing of the tent have been satisfactorily adjusted, as stated in The Times of Friday. A large chorus choir is being organized to provide good music for the services.

Dr. H. H. Friar is a native of Texas, his home being in San Antonio; he was for several years pastor of one of the leading churches of Birmingham, Ala., adding more than 500 members to his church in two years' service as pastor-evangelist. It is said of him that "he knows the pastor's viewpoint and stands for the church, believing in it to the very limit in fighting her battles."

T. F. Green, Dr. Friar's assistant and for a number of years an evangelist, has in hand the general management of the tent and the children's work, together with the organization of the young ladies' work, and the cottage prayer meetings.

J. A. Maples, who is also an assistant evangelist, is a lecturer of considerable note. He will be superintendent of the men's work and of the shop and street meetings.

W. G. Lewis, a student of the Moody school of Chicago, will direct the large chorus of 200 voices and organize and direct a large junior chorus. J. Grover Wells is assistant chorus director and soloist and is in charge of the publicity work. Paul Dixon, a young law student, and a recent convert of Dr. Friar's will handle the song books and have charge of the literature department.

WORK STARTED ON IOWA
PARK BRIDGE LAST WEEK

Work started last week on the new Iowa Park bridge, for which Austin Brothers of Dallas were awarded the contract. Material is being unloaded and work on the structure will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

In the meantime, a sort of ferry service is maintained at the old crossing where the bridge washed away. Vehicles cannot be transported across, but boats are on hand to carry foot-passengers and there are usually vehicles on hand to carry those from the south side on to Iowa Park. The river was reported to be bank full, north of Iowa Park, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the rise is likely to delay work on the bridge for several days.

Public school music. CROWDS SMALLER AT UNION STATION SATURDAY

With practically all of the afternoon trains delayed Saturday, the Union Station presented an appearance in marked contrast to that of most afternoons, there being only a handful of prospective passengers on hand. Travel has been very heavy for the past two weeks and the scene in the Union Station from 1:30 to 2:30 in the afternoon has been one probably not rivalled in Texas save in the largest cities. Harvest bands, students returning from school and summer vacationists going away, in addition to the increased amount of ordinary lines of travel, have made business quite brisk in the passenger departments of the roads.

Wichita Falls, Texas, June 6, 1915

In order to encourage fly swatting, one enterprising Wichita Falls dry goods establishment is giving away 5,000 fly-swatters. Go and get one and get busy.

There has been just about as many crops destroyed or greatly damaged by excessive rains in this country as there have from drought or the lack of rain. This seems to be one of the years when there has been too much rainfall at a time when dry weather was most needed. Two weeks ago the wheat and oat crops promised well. In fact, those who have resided in this county for the past twenty-five or thirty years gave it as their opinion that the prospects were never more flattering. The heavy rain of Friday night followed by that of yesterday, however, has done great damage. As to what it will amount to, of course, can hardly be estimated but there is no question but that it has been very great.

Mexico has a population slightly in excess of fifteen millions of people, and less than 150,000 are at war, while, if we can credit the reports, the balance are starving. President Wilson has said to the warring factions that this condition of affairs in Mexico must come to a speedy close. They must get together and compromise on some form of government that is responsible and that can be recognized and held responsible for its acts by other nations. As to just how the president expects to force Mexico to accept his warning is not known, but it is possible that it means intervention, and that even all those who have been wanting the country to go to war with some other country will probably be given an opportunity to shoulder a musket and cross over the Rio Grande. It will be a good way in which to test their metal.

At Terre Haute, Ind., recently the Federal grand jury returned indictments against more than one hundred citizens for participating in election frauds, and the mayor of the city and the sheriff or an ex-sheriff of the county were among the number. And furthermore, when the cases were brought to trial, all or nearly one hundred of them were found guilty and given penitentiary sentences, some drawing a term of four years, the mayor being one of the four-year terms. Now comes the report that the Federal grand jury sitting at Corpus Christi has returned forty-two indictments against citizens of Nueces county for participating in frauds at the last congressional election held in that county or district. The county judge is among the number indicted. Most Texas papers commended the action of the Federal authorities in the Terre Haute affair. We are just wondering now what will be their attitude when the Texas cases come to trial.

The great pressure being brought to bear on the advertising columns of the Times for Sunday's paper is working a hardship on the entire force, much of which could be avoided if our patrons (many of whom are only patrons of the Sunday morning edition) would hand in their ads for Sunday's paper through the week, and not wait until late Saturday afternoon to do this. On account of the delay some ads intended for Sunday's issue have been left out, not because we wanted to leave them out, but because we did not have the force to put them into type. And it also might be well to state right here that some of the ads that have been given space in Sunday's issue would have better been left out for the reason that our force did not have the time to give them a proper set up. If our patrons will bear this in mind they can be of great assistance by handing in their ads intended for Sunday's paper as early as possible. If we can get them Thursday or Friday it will be all the better, and the patrons who pay for the ads will in turn get better service. The Times hopes that the advertisers will take this in the spirit that it is intended. We want to give them the best possible service.

THAT REVIVAL CONTROVERSY.

Editor the Times: The writup of the controversy over the site for the revival tent, which appears in the Wichita Daily Times of Friday, June 4, calls for a word of comment. I have neither right nor inclination to begin a prolonged discussion of this matter through the Times. I will studiously endeavor to use my language that might occasion any further statement from either side. In the main, the writup of Friday states the facts. The statement that the Church of Christ had planned for only a ten days meeting is incorrect. It has been our intention and understanding with our evangelist to devote the greater part of June to this meeting. Our arrangements were being made accordingly. This is one reason why we refused the offer of the Friar tent for the limited time of ten days.

It is true that Mr. Culbertson had given us free use of the lot, yet I think it not unjust to add that our committee offered to pay him for same. We secured the lot and made our announcement from the pulpit before we knew of the coming of the Friar party. After the announcement of the Friar tent meeting appeared in the Times, Mr. Watson, a member of our committee, phoned Mr. Culbertson and asked if there was anything to interfere with our beginning preparations on the lot for our tent. Mr. Culbertson said there was nothing. Again Mr. Watson asked if there would be any charges for the use of the lot, offering to pay. Monday, May 31, we moved the lot. Late Wednesday evening we moved our tent upon the lot preparatory to erecting it Thursday. But Thursday morning early when we went to raise our tent, we found it pulled off the lot and the Friar tent well under course of construction. In this we felt that our rights were being trampled on, and losing sight of the spirit of the language: "If a man would take away thy coat let him have thy cloak also," acting upon the impulse of the moment we filed injunction. But reconsidering, we have agreed to accept an offer of compromise. For the consideration of fifty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($57.50), to pay our attorney, court costs, and other expenses incident to such removal, we agree to remove our tent to another location.

It is true that the pastors of the town have been incessantly after us for the lot, but none other suited us so well as the one we had secured. We did not desire a location on 10th street, on account of the noise. The pastors said they preferred 10th street, but of the two lots available on 10th street, large enough for their tent, one was too far out and the other was too near the railroad or too close in. But we could not see why we were responsible for such conditions. If we secure another lot we will have to go either too far out or too close in. We have given up our location now, and are in the same condition they were in, without a suitable location. We could not see why we should be asked to do this. We thought certainly we would not be incessantly urged to do so. We were shocked when we were even forced to give way or else take the disgraceful step into the courts that we did. And even yet, although the matter has been compromised, we have agreed to move to another place and do the best we can, we are unsupplied with an answer to that question, "why?"

Yours, A. A. BUCHANAN, Minister Church of Christ. We certify that the foregoing is a true statement. M. W. WATSON.

FATAL SHOOTING AT ELYSIAN FIELDS.

Marshall, Tex., June 5.—Charles Hendrix was shot and instantly killed late yesterday at Elysian Fields in front of Furrows' store. GOVERNMENT ISSUES BULLETIN ON CHIGGERS

Sulphur and Naphthalene Are Recommended as Preventing Red Bug Bites

Throughout portions of the South, East, and the Central States the chigger, or red bug, scientifically known as the harvest mite, and which is microscopic in size, often attacks a person when walking through long grass or other vegetation. They do not choose any particular part of the body, but attack the exposed portions first. Thus the barefoot boy in many parts of the South and East has become painfully acquainted with these red eight-legged pests. They enter the large sweat tubes or pores of the skin, where their progress is necessarily slow, and a few hours later the spot where they entered comes very painful or causes intense itching.

Chiggers are most abundant and troublesome in the tropics, but are generally distributed in the Gulf States, up the Mississippi river to Missouri and Illinois, and through the Atlantic coast states, to northern New Jersey. Farmers' Bulletin No. 671 by the United States Department of Agriculture. Harvest Mites, or "Chiggers," states that these pests are most bothersome between the months of June and October.

The large inflamed spots which the presence of the mites under the first layer of skin cause are often diagnosed as hives, nettle rash, urticaria, or "wheals," and closely resemble the "bites" of fleas and of some mosquitoes. A characteristic of the harvest mite attack is that on the second or third day a minute water blister usually develops in the middle of the infested area.

To walk among blackberry or other shrubbery, or to come in contact with grasses or similar herbage along streams or pools, on edges of marshes, or under trees near such places the mites inhabit, is to invite an attack. It is obvious, therefore, that the best preventive is to avoid exposure. If a salt bath in hot water, or water containing salt or strong soap, however, is taken within a few hours after exposure, no ill effects will be experienced.

Sulphur is the best preventive for chiggers. It has been found, according to the bulletin, that a person walking through vegetation is attacked mostly from the knees down, so by sifting flowers of sulphur in the underclothing from the knees downward, and into the shoes and stockings, these mites are eliminated to a great extent. Naphthalene is also successfully used in the same manner, and is a safeguard against several other forms of man-infesting tropical insect pests.

After a person has become exposed to an attack of harvest mites, an application to the affected parts of a moderately strong solution of ammonia is possibly the best counter irritant. Because the poison secreted by the mites is acid, other counter-irritants such as bicarbonate of soda, or commen cooking soda or saleratus, may be substituted in saturated solution. If the suffering is severe, a dilute solution of iodine or colloidion should be lightly applied.

20,000 YEAR TOO LITTLE FOR 3 YEAR OLD BOY

John Jacob Astor's Widow Asks for Increased Allowance for Post-humus Heir.

New York, June 5.—John Jacob Astor, now in his third year, posthumous child of Col. John Jacob Astor who perished when the Titanic went down, has been living at the rate of approximately $30,000 a year, according to the accounting filed today with the surrogate's court by Mrs. Madeleine Force Astor. The court allowed Mrs. Astor $50,000 for maintenance for the boy for three years, or $20,000 a year. In the accounting filed today Mrs. Astor asserts she has spent in addition to this $639 of her own money for his maintenance. Chief items in the accounting are one-third of the taxes of the Astor Fifth Avenue home, the taxes being approximately $30,000 per year, $8,000 for professional services of physicians, lawyers and others and $5,000 for clothing supplies and toys. Mrs. Astor asserted she was informed that the income on the trust fund left by Col. Astor for the child was approximately $140,000 and upon this assumption contends it was Col. Astor's wish that his son be amply provided for. Of this income, she points out, she has been allowed only $50,000 for three years; the money she has spent from her own funds in addition to the $20,000 was expended from the date of the child's birth to December 31, 1914.

New York, June 5.—The National Railway of Mexico failed to pay its principal and interest which amounted to about $28,000,000 on obligations maturing June 1.

The third in a series of pre-nuptial entertainments with which Miss Beryl Murph has been honored this week was the kitchen shower given at the home of Miss Rubie Bachman Friday afternoon by the members of the D. O. D. Club. A unique entertainment was afforded by a mock wedding ceremony, participated in by the club members and perfect in every detail. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Nell Bullock, who sang "I Love You Truly" and Miss Lillian Bachman at the piano. After the mock knot had been tied, little Miss Beryl Bachman, baby sister of the hostess entered drawing a small cart, piled with aluminum kitchen ware the club gifts and the bridal shower bouquet was also presented her. After an interval of kodaking the guests were invited into the dining room where a bridal scheme of decoration had been carried out. Streamers of pink and white hung from the chandelier to each place, marked by pink score cards and white sweet peas. The polished table was overlaid with a hand painted Japanese silk luncheon set and pink and white sweet peas formed an effective center piece. An ice course in pink and white, with plate favors of sweet peas, was served to the following club members and guests: Misses Beryl Murph, the honoree; Nell Bullock, Daisy Stewart, Bessie Bachman, Celia Stayton, Lillian Bachman, Lillian Bell, Alie Mae Marberry of Henrietta, Stella Bachman, Mesdames Bachman and Doss Berry.

MERCHANTS PLAN TO EXTEND TRADE

COMMITTEE NAMED AT ANNUAL MEETING TO WORK OUT DETAILS.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

"Push Together" and "Keep Together" Were Keynotes Sounded by Evening's Speaker.

A comprehensive plan for extension of Wichita Falls' trade territory was considered at the annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association Friday night at the Westland, when a banquet was held. In spite of inclement weather, a number of the members were on hand and the meeting was one of the most interesting and enthusiastic the organization has ever held.

The trade extension movement was outlined by several speakers and a committee was named to work out the details. The speakers of the evening were Bert Bean, M. A. Brin and Rev. F. F. Walters. P. H. Pennington presided as toastmaster. Directors for the ensuing year were elected, and will meet tomorrow to elect officers. The directors are D. M. Hilsay, M. L. Hirschfelder, C. W. Hendricks, R. G. Scheurer, C. W. Reid, W. A. Frear, S. W. Roberts, Leon Loeb, B. T. Burgess, P. H. Pennington, R. P. Watts, J. L. Art, J. W. Bradley, B. J. Bean, M. A. Brin, J. W. Pond, C. H. Hardeman, W. S. Robertson, Marvin Smith and D. B. King.

The banquet was typical of the Westland cuisine and was thoroughly enjoyed; the menu included bouillon, spring chicken, potatoes, peas, olives, tomatoes, fruit salad, ice cream, cake, cheese, crackers, coffee, and cigars.

B. J. Bean First Speaker.
The evening's first speaker was B. J. Bean whose subject was "Keeping Together." Mr. Bean said that the individual could accomplish little single-handed, but that co-operation and working together were required. He cited the success which has attended the Germans as an example of what can be accomplished by working as a unit.

"We work together, all right," said Mr. Bean, "but we don't work together half enough. We've built a good town here by working together, but we can build a much better one."

He urged his hearers to erase the word "competitor" from their vocabularies, saying that the energy and time employed in running down one's business rival could be made to serve better ends. Mr. Bean said that there should be created here a sentiment for home trade, and that the practice of sending money out of town for purchases should be discouraged in every possible manner. He said he was afraid that some of the members of the Civic League, despite the good work they were doing for this city, were inclined to send money out of town for goods that could be secured at home. He spoke of what "pulling together" had done for Wichita Falls and said that by following up this idea, much new business could be created.

Rest Room Advocated.
M. A. Brin, who was next called upon, said that "push together" as well as "keep together" should be the motto. He said that people in this section who were accustomed to sending money away to mail order houses should be shown why it is to their advantage to trade here, and urged that when out of town buyers come here, they be shown every possible courtesy. Mr. Brin suggested that a rest room, with conveniences for ladies and visitors, be established at some central point downtown. In outlining his ideas about extending the trade territory, Mr. Brin thought that the members should purchase a cheap automobile and employ a good man to make trips into the surrounding country, keeping the names and addresses of everyone he visited, so that these might later be circulated by the merchants. He said he was assured that some of the big jobbers from whom Wichita Falls merchants bought goods would be glad to help in a fight against the mail order business. Mr. Brin also outlined the details of refunding fares to those who come from out of town. He suggested that all out of town buyers be given numbered tickets and that an automobile be offered, to be drawn for by the holders of these tickets. He predicted a large increase in business if the campaign were properly conducted.

Rev. Walters Speaks.
Rev. F. F. Walters also had something to say about the mail order houses and he suggested that one way to meet their competition would be to see that they had nothing of an advantage in either quality or price. He urged that merchants pay more attention to the manner in which their goods are delivered and said that this was too important a feature of the business to be entrusted to young boys. The speaker said that there were many organizations worthy of support and he expressed the belief that every citizen should enlist in the Chamber of Commerce. He told of the work the Rotary Clubs are doing and of the benefits that followed.

The election of officers followed, the chair appointing a nominating committee of Messrs. B. J. Bean, Leon Loeb, and J. W. Bradley who were instructed to include themselves in their nominations. They made the nominations as above listed, all being elected without opposition.

Committee Named.
P. H. Pennington spoke informally along the lines suggested by Mr. Brin and that he believed the time had come when the merchants should take action and bring to Wichita Falls the share of business that was theirs. J. W. Bradley moved the appointment of a committee to work out a plan for presentation to the directors. C. W. Reid of the National Bank of Commerce seconded this motion, saying a similar plan had met with marked success at Muskogee. The motion prevailed and Mr. Pennington appointed M. A. Brin, C. W. Reid and J. F. Riggs as the committee. Adjournment followed.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Schetterly, 1114 Taylor street last Wednesday.

NATIONAL BANK COMMERCE DECLARES DIVIDEND

Wichita Falls Youngest Financial Institution Pays Its First Cash Dividend

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the National Bank of Commerce, a cash dividend was ordered paid July 1st, a part of the furniture and fixture account was charged off, and some of the undivided profits set aside to the surplus fund.

The National Bank of Commerce is Wichita Falls' youngest financial institution. The growth and success of this bank has been quite unusual during its first year's business. Only in rare cases does a new institution make such headway that it is able to start in upon regular dividends in one year's time. This bank has the advantage of being managed by a cashier who owns more than 50 per cent of its stock.

Although the past year has been very trying on all lines of business, under the capable and efficient management of Mr. Reid, this bank has built up a large and profitable business.

The deposits have more than doubled since the first of January and the total resources are now more than $350,000.

The board of directors of the National Bank of Commerce comprises the names of some of the wealthiest and most substantial business men in this section of the state.

at Washington yesterday, a telegram approving the increase of capital stock by which the merger of the First National Bank and the First State Bank & Trust Company is effected. By this action the bank now has a paid up capital of $250,000 and a surplus of $175,000.

MARLIN HIKERS ARRIVE IN CITY

MAN AND WIFE WALKING FROM MARLIN, TEXAS TO SAN FRANCISCO

ADVERTISE MARLIN WATER

Walked Through Mud From Henrietta to Here in Six Hours—Dog Frisco Along

Drenched with rain, covered with the mud of an eighteen mile tramp over country roads, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Marlin hikers and boosters for the Marlin waters, arrived here at noon today, coming from Henrietta. The trip from Henrietta was made in six hours but despite the mud and rain the couple looked fresh and untired, regarding the morning's trip as a mere trifle. The couple was accompanied by Frisco, a Marlin police dog, who will make the trip to San Francisco with them and who proceeded to make himself very much at home in the office of The Times. The dog was the only one who appeared in the least tired and he was ready for a shoe at the first stop.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are making a trip to San Francisco under the auspices of the Marlin Commercial Club and at every stop they distribute circulars and pamphlets from "The Caribad of America." They have allowed themselves 147 days for the trip of 2,500 miles and in the fourteen days they have been on road have made 225 miles, averaging about 22 miles a day. Owing to the recent rains they are one day behind schedule and for that reason will set out this morning after Sunday school, although they as a rule do not travel on Sunday. Mrs. Wilson always attends Sunday school and is a Presbyterian, but the mayor of Marlin told her when she left that she must visit thirteen Baptist churches so sometimes she foregoes attending her own church.

They came here from Henrietta, being marooned there in an oil station last night. Mr. Wilson says that the roads have been very bad and that the storm of yesterday was the second they have encountered. This is the first long trip he and his wife have made and their feet, at first easily tired and travel sore, are now in fine condition. They camp out except on Saturday night, when they clean up and prepare for Sunday.

For amusement on the walk they have been killing snakes and centipedes, and it is Mrs. Wilson's ambition to kill a rattler. So far they have found their trip pleasant, if one will except the mud. The only drawback, Mr. Wilson says, is that we have been drinking Marlin water with us. It is a great Marlin water booster. The couple carry credentials from the Marlin Commercial Club, the mayor of Marlin and the mayors of the various cities visited and a letter of introduction from Governor Ferguson to Governor Johnson of California. "As a rule the people have treated us very well," said Mrs. Wilson, "but at some places they have acted as though we were tramps and that's something I won't stand. At some places it was actually hard for us to get a place to stay, the people didn't understand what we were doing."

The Marlin club was supposed to send out advance notices and routes but failed to get Wichita Falls on the schedule, consequently they were unheralded here, with the exception of advertising matter sent to the Chamber of Commerce. They have pictures of themselves in their walking rig which they sell on the route. They will leave this afternoon for Vernon to take up their journey one-tenth of which will be completed on their arrival there.

GOOD BACKS FOR BAD

Wichita Falls Residents Are Learning How To Exchange the Old Back For a Stronger One

Does your back ache, feel weak and aching?
Do you suffer headaches, languor and depression?
Is the urine discolored, passages irregular?

The kidneys may be calling for help.
Weak kidneys cannot do their work. Give them the help they need.

To cure a kidney backache, you must cure the kidneys.
Use a tested and proven kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

Convincing proof of merit in Wichita Falls endorsement:

Mrs. P. A. Lambeth, 400 Burnett St., Wichita Falls, says: "Pains in my back came on quite often and made it almost impossible for me to do my work, as I couldn't stoop over or lift. I used only one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, but they relieved the pains in my back and strengthened my kidneys. I have had very little need of a kidney medicine since."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lambeth had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

PRAYED DAILY, DIDN'T DRINK BUT STOLE A MILLION

Chicago, June 4.—Nathan Sternberg, who says he does not smoke, drink or dissipate and prays daily and who admits that in ten years he stole and disposed of $1,000,000-worth of property, today resumed the stand in the so-called police graft case.

"When I came from Austria," said the witness, "and tried to get work in New York, I was just a clean-handed kid with no other ambition than to live an honest life."

"What made you change?"
"Just little old New York. It is easier to be crooked than straight there and more profitable. I got in with a bad gang and I am here."

BUICK

--And they Followed the Man Who Dreamed

SOONER OR LATER, to every line of human effort, there comes a prophet, who sees clearly beyond the Things-As-They-Are—and his courage matches his own vision.

Approval or disapproval are the same to him, for he knows that his work will inevitably prove itself.

The achievement of the Buick Valve-in-Head Motor is an example of that success which follows when a genius gives his idea the wings of fancy and the feet of fact.

Triumphant leadership has long been held by the Buick Car through the inspired common sense which has the vision and the flight, but keeps to the solid ground of practical performance.

To the far-seeing vision of the Buick dreamer, the Valve-in-Head Motor was, long ago, the logical Power Unit to make the Motor Car render its utmost in service and fulfill its practical destiny. He foresaw the limitless possibilities of the automobile in every arena of the world's action.

Today everybody hears about the movement throughout motordom for the adoption of the Valve-in-Head Motor.

It is the response of the industry to the call for more power—for the Sixes of today, with their continuous torque and velvety, vibrationless smoothness—more power.

But the demand does not stop there. It is for more power with less fuel.

And the Valve-in-Head is the answer.

Now the question arises, what is the connection between these two developments—Sixes and the Valve-in-Head?

No mere coincidence explains the fact that the Valve-in-Head is acclaimed everywhere just as the Sixes reach the peak of popularity.

As far back as 1903 the Valve-in-Head principle was worked out for Buicks. From that time on, Buick Cars have proved the might of the Valve-in-Head on every road in the world.

In 1912 the first Buick Six was built. The Valve-in-Head principle was to have a more severe test.

After two years of driving under every condition that could possibly do a motor car to death, it came through unscathed. Then—Buick Sixes were offered to the public. And the factory has never caught up with the demand.

The Buick Valve-in-Head Motor has made real the dream of possibilities in the six.

These are the reasons why, for the coming season, we shall build Sixes exclusively—and why Valve-in-Head construction is being so widely adopted by the Motor Car industry.

The discussion one hears on all sides about the Valve-in-Head makes it seem like something new. But to the Buick builders it is the story of a prophecy fulfilled.

The "dream" came true; the applied Principle which gave leadership to the first Buick car now reaches the high tide of present day perfection in the two models of the 1916 BUICK SIX.

Further and Detailed Announcement of the 1916 Buick Line will appear in the near future.

WOULD MAKE COLORADO RIVER NAVIGABLE STREAM.

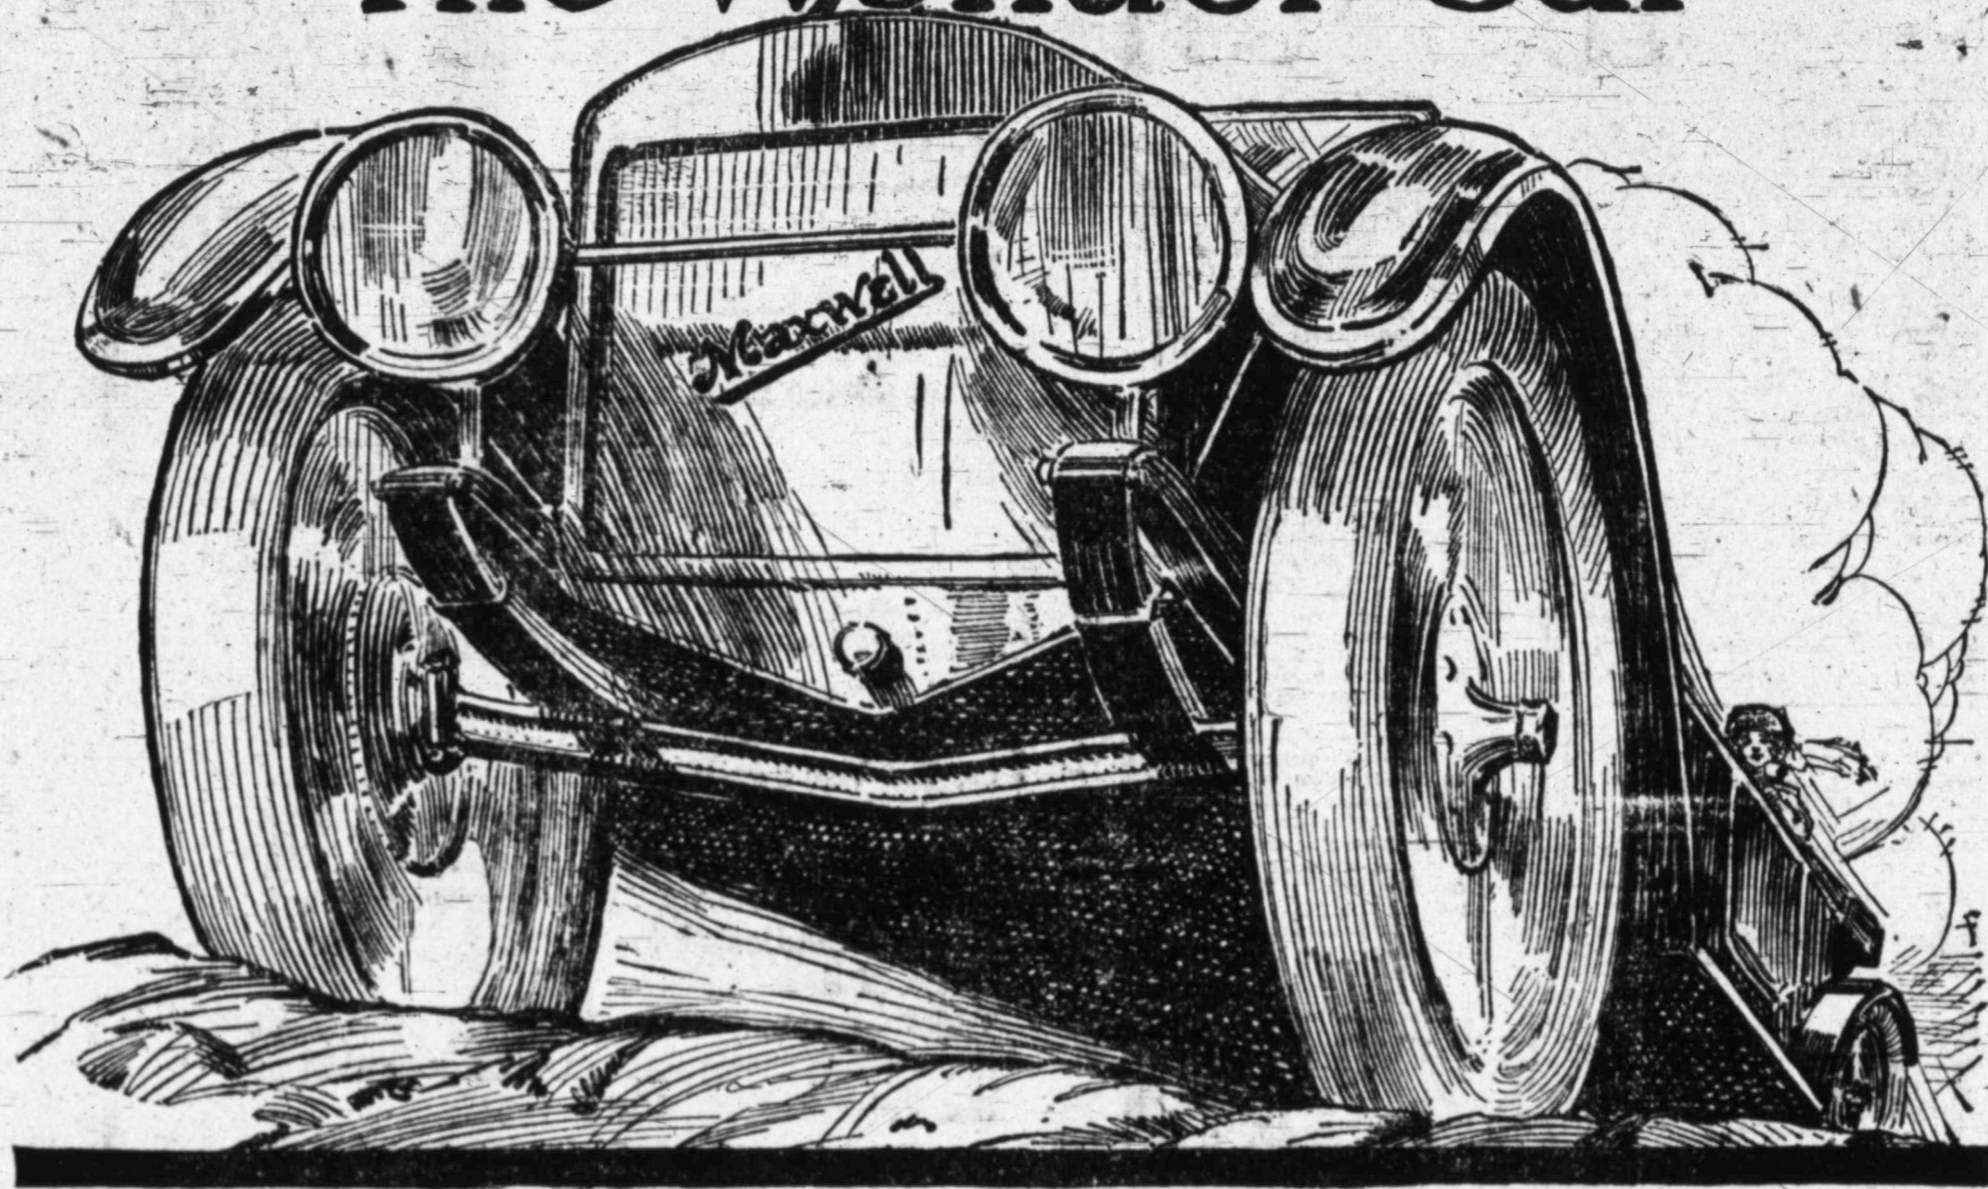

Austin, Tex., June 4.—Plans for the conversion of the Colorado river into a navigable stream, at an expenditure of approximately $3,000,000, has been decided upon by the Colorado River Improvement Association, which held a meeting here recently. The cost of improvement, under these plans will be borne partly by the counties the stream traverses and by the federal government. The association desires to have the Texas delegation lay the matter before congress at the next session. It is claimed making the Colorado a navigable stream would save millions of dollars annually to Texas in freight charges.

Maxwell

"The Wonder Car"

Men who have driven other makes of cars for years—Men who have experimented—Men who have been "stung"—now drive Maxwells.

Right in this town—and all over the country—are men and women who have been driving different makes of cars for years, who now drive and swear by their Maxwells. Each year they used to buy a different make, trying to find a car which would suit them exactly. When the 1915 Maxwell "Wonder Car"—with its 17 new features and new low price of $695, was announced—these "motor wise" men began investigating it. They didn't take our word or anybody's word for it—they looked into it themselves. They found the Maxwell to be a handsome, powerful, easy-riding car. They compared it with cars that sell at double the Maxwell's price. They found that the Maxwell contained every worth-while up-to-date high-priced car feature. They tested the Maxwell on hills and on the level on really tough roads. They made it prove its ability to run at low cost over all sorts of roads.

Then they began buying and talking about the Maxwell. To-day 38,000 enthusiastic people are driving these Maxwells. Of these a great big percentage owned other makes of cars before they bought their Maxwells. Use your common sense when you buy your automobile. Don't be talked into an extravagant car or a car that hasn't had the "acid test" of time. Don't let them experiment at your expense.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

- Attractive Streamline Body—Pure streamline body; graceful curves; fast, with all rivets concealed. All the grace, style and "snap" that you will find in any of the highest priced cars.
- A High-Tension Magneto—Nearly all the high priced cars have high tension magnetos. A high tension magneto gives positive ignition. The Sumax magneto, with which the Maxwell is equipped, is recognized as one of the best magnetos made.
- Left Side Drive—Central Control—Left side drive with gear shifting lever in center of driving compartment—center control—has been accepted by leading makers of expensive automobiles as the safest and most comfortable for the driver; that is why the Maxwell has it. The Maxwell is so easy to drive and control that a child can handle it.
- Three-Speed Sliding Gear Transmission—All high priced cars have a sliding gear transmission. It is costly to make, but it is the best. If the motor has the power, sliding gears will pull the car out of any mud or sand. The Maxwell has a three-speed selective-sliding gear transmission because Maxwell engineers do not consider any other type to be worthy of the Maxwell car.
- Double-Shell Radiator with Shock Absorbing Device—The Maxwell radiator is of handsome design, gracefully curved, and it is built to trouble proof. It is the expensive double shell type and has ample cooling capacity. The radiator is mounted to the frame by means of a shock absorbing device on each side, which relieves the radiator of all twists and distortions of the frame, caused by roughness of the road. The shock absorbing device also minimizes the possibility of radiator leaks.
- The Roomy Full 5-Passenger Body—Adjustable Front Seat—The 1915 Maxwell has a full grown 5-passenger body. The front seat is adjustable, you can move it three inches forward or backward. This makes the car really comfortable for the driver. No cramped legs for tall people or uncomfortable reaching for short people. Most drivers' seats are made to fit anyone—no fit so one.
- Low "Up-keep" Carburetor—The carburetor used on the Maxwell was especially designed for it after long and severe tests under every conceivable condition. Economy tours conducted by hundreds of dealers and owners in different sections of the country have proved its efficiency. Its quick response to throttle and its extremely low consumption of gasoline. It has been termed the "low-keep" carburetor.
- Irreversible Steering Gear—The greatest margin of safety has been provided in the steering gear of the 1915 Maxwell. The Maxwell irreversible steering mechanism is of the expensive worm-and-pinion type and its superiority over every other type lies in its many adjustments. At no time is more than a fourth of the bearing surface of the gear which operates the worm in use. When needed, a new bearing surface may be had by adjusting the gear's quarter gear four times the adjustment of any other kind.
- Heavy Car Comfort—What surprises most people is the smooth, heavy-riding qualities of the Maxwell. The spring suspension of the 1915 Maxwell is the same costly combination of long front-elliptical front springs and the three-quarter elliptic rear springs that is found on more heavy weight, high priced cars. The Maxwell offers you every essential of the highest priced machines at a fifth of their cost.
- One Size of Tire—Anti-Skids on Rear—The Maxwell car is one of the easiest cars in the world on tires. Maxwell owners carry but one spare tire and but one size of spare tubes. Economical 30 inch x 2 1/2 inch tires are used all around. A family pack of anti-skid tires are supplied on rear wheels.
- A Dependable Electric Starter—For $25 extra you can have your Maxwell delivered equipped with the famous-Stamm-Huff electric starter. This starter is efficient, trouble proof and easily operated. And the Maxwell is completely equipped from the clear vision, ventilating windshield at the front to the extra tire carrier at the rear. When you buy a Maxwell you have nothing extra to buy.

The Maxwell Company's Guarantee of Service to Maxwell Owners

No other automobile is backed by a more reliable service than that guaranteed every Maxwell owner. More than 2,000 Maxwell dealers—in every part of this country—are always ready to give expert advice, to make adjustments, and to supply new parts at reasonable prices. This splendid Maxwell dealer service organization is perfected and completed by the chain of Maxwell owned and Maxwell operated Service Branches. Sixteen great Maxwell Service Stations are so located throughout the country that a Maxwell dealer can supply any part for an owner within a few hours if not in his stock. Maxwell Service is one of the great advantages enjoyed by Maxwell owners.

More than 125 prospective harvest hands, it is estimated, are in Wichita Falls at the present time, having come here to get work in the wheat fields of Oklahoma, Wichita Falls being one of the concentration points designated by the labor commissioner of that State.

Mr. Walker will not send anyone to Oklahoma until he knows the work is there for them. Comparatively few binders are going as yet, but within the next ten days the harvest is expected to open up in earnest, and then a steady stream of men will be sent from this city.

AT THE THEATERS

"THE SPOILERS" AT THE MAJESTIC MONDAY

The story is familiar. It tells of an ambitious but wicked attempt by a corrupt body of Pudget Sound politicians, in conjunction with a weak judge of the superior court, to oust all the miners about Nome from their claims. Glenister and Dextry, partners in the Midas mine come out to Seattle for the winter. Alex McNamara, the genius of the conspiracy, goes to Nome, imports his judge, institutes proceedings to get the Midas mine into his hands through a court injunction. Helen Chester, niece of the judge and Cherry Slatotte, a young woman of Nome, play important parts in the development of the story.

Glenister is a fighter and McNamara is no less fearless, though far less honorable. It is a struggle to the death in a country where vital questions are settled to the bark of revolvers and where treachery and deception have scant courtesy.

William Parson plays Glenister; Kathryn Williams, Cherry Malotte; Beatie Eytan, Helen Chester, Frank Clark, Dextry; Jack McDonald, Slat Jack; Thomas Santschi, McNamara; Wheeler Oakman, Broncho Kid; Norman McGregor, Judge Stillman and W. H. Ryan, Struve, the drunk crazed attorney.

"THE JUGGERNAUT" GEM FEATURE FOR WEDNESDAY

Anita S. Stewart, Earle Williams and Julia Swaney Gordon are featured in "The Juggernaut," showing here at the Gem Theater next Wednesday.

The wrecking of a locomotive and three passenger cars while crossing a high trestle, on which are defective railroad ties, provides the highly sensational incident which deserves and will win applause for "The Juggernaut," and the scenes leading up to the disaster arouse high suspense. There is also a live theme in the play, something unusual in stories constructed around mechanical accessories. The vital motive and the characterization, particularly that of Philip Hardin, raise "The Juggernaut" above the melodrama class to which it naturally belongs. It is directed against the greed and graft so rampant in railroad properties run as stock-jobbing propositions rather than in the public interest.

The central figure is Philip Hardin, the dissipated son of an old railroad magnate. The latter's death brings some of life's sweetest rewards to Philip, including wealth and a beautiful wife. She dies and leaves him a daughter who becomes a maternal replica some twenty years later, at a time when Philip has accepted a railroad presidency as the tool of a stock manipulating syndicate. Meanwhile, growing in the legal profession to become District Attorney is John Ballard. The lives of these two men are strangely interwoven at the beginning of their active careers when they were classmates at college, Ballard assisting Philip to pass his examinations and extricating him from a man-handling experience in a gambling joint. Though the rescue was made at the peril of Ballard's own life, the death of one of the gamblers, supposedly at his hands, puts a weapon in the hands of Philip in case he clashes with his friend.

There is nothing heroic about Philip; he is very human; he accepts the wealth his father earned and the lovely girl his friend gave up as two of the prime essentials of happiness on earth. He loves his wife while she lives, and loves his daughter after the mother's death. He would even be scrupulous in business in response to District Attorney Ballard's personal pleading, but he is dominated by the Wall Street clique, and he reneges in favor of the clique at a time when public opinion runs high against the deadly economy of his road. He menaces the attorney with exposure of his supposed crime only to have his daughter reveal to Ballard that no such crime was committed.

The end is tragedy. A train bearing Philip's daughter is wrecked in consequence of his business policy, and he dies of heart failure in sight of the wreck. Ballard is also on hand, and he attempts the rescue of Philip's daughter, but she expires, and the attorney's closing act is to lay the girl, beautiful in death, by the side of her erring father—an artistic conclusion.

ELSIE JANIS AT THE EMPRESS THEATER MONDAY.

Katherine Bradley, known as "Kit," is an orphan and heiress. At an early age she is placed in a fashionable and select seminary for young women. Kit by means of her fascinating, daring, her unlimited cash, and her lovable personality, enlists the cooperation of all the girls in any affair which she undertakes. She so impresses the principal of the school with her openheartedness that she is given permission to drive her car from four to five o'clock each day. The story opens on the day of the annual play given by the young women of Miss Smythe's Select Seminary. The question passes from mouth to mouth: "Where's Kit Bradley? She's our leading man." A search is instituted which results in finding a note in Kit's room saying that she has taken her car out for a drive. The principal is horrified that her charge should be out without a chaperon, and determines that such an action shall not be repeated.

In the meantime, Kit, speeding along the county roads far from home, has an accident. A tire is blown. Kit is perplexed! Then a handsome young man comes along and offers assistance. She accepts it, and promises to meet him on the next afternoon. This arrangement is not carried out quite as Kit planned. Arriving at the school very late in the evening, she finds it necessary to enter through an open window. Quickly slipping into a kimono to cover her street clothes and getting into bed, Kit faces an indignant principal who enters her room, with a story of a nerve-racking toothache which keeps her awake. The next afternoon when Kit would take her usual spin, Miss Smythe reminds her that she must take a chaperon. Kit takes her, but makes the ride so hazardous that the chaperon, when told that the car is not the kind that can go slowly, is glad to be left by the wayside, while "Kit" takes a spin and returns for her.

Kit keeps her trust. Among the trees she and Cameron enjoy a picnic luncheon, but while this meal is in progress a passing tramp sees Kit's flashy new roadster, likes it, and takes it. Cameron takes her in his car and on the way she picks up the outraged chaperon, who believes not a word of the little story and hurries the culprit to Kit's guardian. To save herself, Kit announces that she is engaged to the artist, and this is confirmed by Cameron. Brought before the guardian, he recognizes in Cameron an old time friend, gives his consent, and after reciting a passage from the will of Kit's father that her fiancé must not see her for six months after the engagement, disappears in time for Kit and Cameron to become really and truly engaged.

The idea of not seeing her newly found fiancé for six months does not appeal to Kitty so she devises various methods of getting around the decree. Her pranks in this scheme makes the fun of the picture, which is happily ended by a wedding scene.
