E. W. FRY PLACED ON TRIAL ON FORGERY INDICTMENT

MOTION TO CONTINUE WAS OVERRULED

JURY BEING SELECTED TO TRY FORMER YOUNG COUNTY JUDGE IN WARRANT CASE.

R. M. TODD ATTENDS TRIAL

Fry Represented by R. E. Taylor and Fred Arnold—Difficulty in Selecting Jury.

Selection of a jury to try E. W. Fry on a forgery indictment began this afternoon in the 78th district court, after a motion to continue the case had been overruled by Judge Nicholson. All except five of the regular jury for the week had been excused and 27 additional talemens were summoned.

At 3:15 this afternoon the panel of 30 talemens had been examined, leaving 23 available. Each side was to have ten challenges, and an additional 12 talemens were summoned. Prospects are that the jury will be completed late today.

In his questioning of the talemens, Judge Taylor of the defense made frequent reference to newspaper articles and comment, and once used the term "vicious" in connection with newspaper publications in inquiring whether prospective jurors had been influenced by what they had seen in the newspapers.

Pete Fry, brother of the defendant is here to attend the trial. The motion for continuance was presented by Judge Taylor for the defense on account of service on some witnesses not being complete.

A number of Young county officials and citizens, witnesses in the case, are here for the trial, a number coming in on this morning's train. Judge Taylor of Henrietta and Fred Arnold of Graham are counsel for the defense, while District Attorney Humphrey, County Attorney Marshall of Young county, J. C. Kay and P. A. Martin are to conduct the prosecution.

R. M. Todd, one of the defendants in the murder trial last April, in which he Judge Fry, Pete Fry and J. B. Liske were acquitted, is here to attend the trial. He is now living in Fort Worth.

The particular indictment upon which the first case will be tried involves a warrant made out to J. M. Watson, the amount involved being $145.

PHYSICIAN ENDS LIFE WITH PISTOL

DR. G. W. JOHNSTON FOUND DYING IN HIS OFFICE THIS MORNING.

FOLLOWS INDICTMENT TUESDAY

Notes Found Near Body Protested Innocence, Saying Could Not Bear Humiliation.

Dr. G. W. Johnston, a physician, died at 9:50 this morning in his office in the Ward building as the result of a pistol wound, self inflicted. Notes which he left protested his innocence of the charge upon which he was indicted by the grand jury Monday, but stated that the humiliation of a trial was more than he could bear.

The fatal shot is thought to have been fired about 9 o'clock at which time Dr. Johnston and his son, Homer, aged sixteen, to the post office. When the son returned he found his father unconscious in his chair, with a bullet hole behind his right ear. The boy at once notified Dr. Schulte in the adjoining office and others in the building. The bullet ranged diagonally through the head, emerging near the left temple. It was evident that death was a matter of minutes only and there was little that could be done. The pistol was a 38-automat.

Justice of the Peace J. P. Jones viewed the body and held an inquest, finding that Dr. Johnston met death by his own hand. The body was removed to the home, 1208 Broad. Dr. Johnston came here some time ago from Corpus Christi and had been engaged in practice here.

Two notes which were found begged the forgiveness of his family for the act and gave directions for the disposition of his property. "What I am accused of is more than I can bear," is a sentence in one of the notes. Dr. Johnston was indicted, told attorneys and friends that he knew nothing about the charges which had been brought and he reportedly protested his entire innocence, being apparently much worried by the accusation.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church of this city and held memberships in the Woodmen of the World and a burial society of Nueces county. Six children survive Dr. Johnston, all being by a former marriage. They are: Mrs. H. H. Stevenson of Comanche, Mrs. John P. Maddox of Houston, Mrs. James D. Shirley of Brownsville, Miss Ocala Johnston of Corpus Christi, R. C. Johnston of Valley Mills and Homer Johnston of this city. A brother, O. B. Johnston of Kleberg, Texas also survives.

The burial will take place Friday at Corpus Christi and the body will be forwarded tonight. Services will be held at the house, 1208 Broad at 7 o'clock. Dr. Johnston was 46 years old.

The two notes left by Dr. Johnston follow: "Wichita Falls, June 23, 1915. "Dear One—I hope you all will forgive me for this rash act, but I cannot help it. What I am accused of is more than I can bear. My W. O. W. is in a real pocket in the Home Benefit Association of Nueces county is in the drawer in desk. Pay my burial expenses out of this and all of you do the best you can. May God bless one and all is my prayer. I wish Georgia to have what's in the house. It is hers. (Signed) "G. W. JOHNSTON."

"Children, give Georgia, my wife, that which is in the house. It is hers, and you all do the best you can with what little is left after my burial. The money is paid and please do not try to do more than give me a decent burial and may God forgive me for this rash act. Please, children, you forgive me for I am innocent of the charges, but I cannot bear the humiliation of being tried for such a crime. (Signed) "G. W. JOHNSTON."

No one has been found who heard the shot, and it is thought that the two doors between the inner office and the corridor of the building served to muffle the noise. The report of an automatic pistol is not very loud. The first intimation that those in the office building had of trouble was when Dr. Johnston's son rushed out of the office.

Early today Dr. Johnston wired some money to his daughter, Ovidia Johnston, in Corpus Christi. Soon after his death a telegram came from her, inquiring if anything was wrong. The message to her contained no suggestion that there was anything wrong.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS FIVE

MORE THAN MILLION DOLLARS PROPERTY DAMAGE IN IMPERIAL VALLEY, CALIF.

THREE SHOCKS FELT

First, Which Lasted 30 Seconds Did Most Damage—Shocks Were Most Severe Below Border.

By Associated Press. El Centro, June 23.—An earthquake shook up the Imperial Valley of California last night, killed five persons, caused damage estimated at $1,000,000 in the valley's little cluster of towns and left almost undamaged the great irrigation system which transforms the valley from a desert to a fertile farming country. El Centro suffered more than any other town. The five killed were caught in falling walls at Calexico just across the border. Martial law was proclaimed at that place.

The roar of the tremor below the border was the first warning that the people of the valley had. There was about 8 o'clock. The first shock was the most severe; two others followed. After the first shock the stricken towns were in darkness except for the light furnished by blazing buildings. The greatest confusion reigned everywhere.

As far as can be learned the shocks were worst below the border and grew less and less violent the farther north they came so that Calliatria and Niland appear to have been injured slightly less than the towns in the south end of the valley. The earthquake was felt on the way to Yuma. The duration of the first shock was about 30 seconds. This was followed half an hour later by a second shock almost as severe as the first. Plate glass windows, flimsy brick walls and hollow tile structures were damaged. No one was killed in Imperial Valley.

Fifty deputies took station about the business district here and patrolled the town, telegraph and telephone service were interrupted but the telephone company set up a service booth in a vacant lot and messages were sent to Yuma and there relayed to other points.

FURTHER SHOCKS WILL ENDANGER WATER SUPPLY

By Associated Press. Calexico, Cal., June 23.—Further earthquake shocks were felt here today. Further shocks, it was feared, may break the Imperial Valley irrigation system, and paralyze the entire water supply of the valley causing immense losses.

EARTHQUAKE PROBABLY OCCURRED IN GREAT FAULT

By Associated Press. Berkeley, Cal., June 23.—The Imperial Valley earthquake probably occurred along the lost southern end of the "Great Fault" indicated in the wall-cuts San Francisco earthquake of 1906. Prof. R. S. Holway, head of the department of physical geography at the University of California, said today. This fault disappears in the Mojave desert, but Mr. Holway said it probably extends far south.

JAPANESE KEPT OUT OF EUROPE BY U. S.?

Dutch Paper Declares American Pressure Kept Back By An Army of Three Hundred Thousand.

The Hague, via London, June 23.—The Handelsblad in its edition of today asserts that the United States is preventing 300,000 troops to Europe as the result of an unofficial hint to Great Britain from Washington that such an expedition would be undesirable.

The newspaper declares that a Japanese army of that strength was landed in Manchuria, where it was exercising preparatory to departure for the European battlefield, but that Great Britain after receiving the intimation from the United States informed Tokio that she "was sorry, but that under American pressure must request the Japanese government do nothing further concerning the dispatch of an expeditionary corps to Europe."

"After this," the Handelsblad concludes, "the Japanese army disappears from Manchuria, probably much to the relief of Great Britain."

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 23.—H. T. Meredith, publisher of an Ohio farm journal told the national advertising men today that the farmers of today are different from those of twenty years ago. He said: "Farmers are wearing garters now." He said the ad men failed to discover the wants of the farmers today and think they are the same as twenty years ago.

TEUTONIC FORCES STORM AND CAPTURE GREAT GALICIAN FORTRESS

By Associated Press: Berlin, June 23, via wireless to Sayville.—Lemberg has been conquered after a very severe battle according to an official report received from the headquarters of the Austro-Hungarian army. The Galician capital fell before the advance of the second army. The announcement was made officially from army headquarters.

Lemberg, capital of Galicia was occupied by the Russians on September 2, 1914 about one month after the outbreak of hostilities in the course of the early Russian drive into Austria. It has therefore been in Russian control more than ten months. For the last twenty days since the Austro-Germans took Przemyśl it has been the objective of a furious series of fierce and concentrated attacks by the Teutonic allies. Their success will have a far reaching political effect, as the driving out of the Russians from Galicia is counted upon in Berlin to help maintain the status in the Balkans.

The capture of Lemberg was one of the earliest important successes of the Russians, following it they rushed onward rapidly through Galicia. The high watermark of the invasion found almost all the province in their hands. They approached in striking distance of Cracow at the western end of the province, close to the German frontier, stormed the heights and passed of the Carpathian mountains which separate Galicia from Hungary and to the east swept down through the crownland of Bukovina to the Rumanian frontier. All this has been changed by the steady succession of Austro-German victories of the last few weeks. The change began with the launching of the great drive from Cracow eastward. Great numbers of German troops were sent to assist the Austrians as well as a vast amount of field artillery, the use of artillery by the Teutonic allies has been described by correspondents as on a scale never before undertaken. Its effectiveness was relatively increased by the shortage of shells on the part of the Russians, which is believed to have contributed largely to the weakening of their resistance. The Austro-German armies pushed forward westward through Galicia, re-captured Przemyśl June 3 and then without pause thrust at Lemberg from the south and west. At no point were Russians able to withstand the terrific bombardment against their positions and even the line of defenses near Grodek, sixteen miles west of Lemberg, which is of great natural strength, proved to be untenable.

With Lemberg now in her hands Austria has reclaimed virtually the whole province of Galicia. The fighting in this campaign has been of unusual intensity with heavy losses. The figures of killed, wounded and captured as given in Austrian, German and Russian official statements run into the hundreds of thousands. Russia had made plans for permanent occupation of Galicia, bringing in officials to set up civil administrations in the territory as fast as it was taken. Lemberg was christened Lvov, the old Russian-Polish name. The city has a population of about 200,000 and was an important Austrian military station. Although founded in the 13th century it is of modern appearance and is known for its imposing buildings. The city is protected by outlying forts, although its defenses are much inferior to those of Przemyśl.

SUPREME COURT KNOCKS OUT POOL HALL LAW

Act Held Unconstitutional in a Majority Opinion of the Court Announced Wednesday.

By Associated Press. Austin, June 23.—The supreme court today in a majority opinion held unconstitutional the so-called local option pool hall law enacted by 33rd legislature in the case of ex-parte A. H. Mitchell from McLennan county, and the relator was discharged. The court held the act to be invalid on two counts. First, that it amounts to a delegation of the legislative power of its own legislative power imposed upon it by the constitution; second, because it authorizes a suspension of a general law of the state by the vote of a county or subdivision of a county, the general law referred to being the act authorizing the license and operation of pool halls throughout the state.

DIDN'T INTEREST THEM MUCH Coming Bridegroom Felt Himself Ignored by the Clerks in Marriage License Office. 'Say,' said the man who takes himself seriously, 'I had a great surprise burst upon me when I went down to get my marriage license last month. When I think it over I am ready to assert that it was a disagreeable surprise. I sneaked into the big office under the impression that everybody was watching me. But when I told the clerk at the window what I wanted he took the information with a coolness that was almost disgusting. When I gave him my name—which seemed to me to reverberate like thunder—not a solitary clerk raised his head. And nobody laughed when the inquirer asked me how I spelled it...

INFLUENCED BY HIS MOTHER John Bright's Explanation of His Supreme Mastery of the Art of Public Speaking. The famous English orator, John Bright, was asked how he came to be such a master of the art of public speaking. He answered that the only help he ever had in that direction he got by listening to his mother read the Bible. She was accustomed to read the Bible aloud to the children, and he was so fascinated, he said, by her way of reading that he had tried ever since to imitate it. John Bright became a great statesman, who carried out the teachings of the Bible in a noble and helpful life. Such was the power of his eloquence that he brought about great and beneficial changes in the laws of England. His mother's Bible reading during the years of his impressionable childhood influenced his whole life; the careful, unhurried, reverent and expressive way in which she read was the chief influence in producing one of England's greatest and noblest orators. There are many ways in which a mother may influence legislation, even in communities where she may not yet cast a vote.—Youth's Companion.

Oratorical Brains. The spell of the orator is still magnetic, and talk is as cheap as it used to be. The telephone puts a price on 'hot air'; the phonograph sells the most expensive kind of oratory at a low rate of charges, but the man with a good speech center, a large vocabulary, a flexible mouth, ample chest, some literary tastes, fine sense of self-confidence, who has lost the sting of fear and found the mission passion, smelted the call of destiny, may be heard with profit on the political stump, the chautauqua platform, the sacred pulpit and sundry other places. While human life by word of mouth can influence other human lives and speech is free to all, oratorical brains—large, specialized, cultured and properly directed—will mint money.

At Theaters THE LAMAR AIRDOME. Adolph and Raymond and Dixie Jose close their engagement tonight. THE MAJESTIC. The Black Box, No. 9, is today's feature and the two reels with Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little in the role of the detective with most modern methods and his charming assistant continue to please movie enthusiasts. THE GEM. Wednesday again sees a Francis Bushman feature at The Gem, the handsome man with the screen personality that has won him many admirers, playing at this theater in 'The Silt Princess.' Mr. Bushman and Miss Ruth Stonehouse star equally in this production, Miss Stonehouse taking the titular role of the Oriental princess who was too slim. She was slim because a jealous courtier fed her pickles, she just doted on pickles but they caused her to be left way behind when the list of beauties was made up, beauty in her sister's kingdom being reckoned in direct proportion to avoirdupois. It really seems as if the slim princess would have to be an old maid, she wasn't hefty enough for any of the court gallants, although she stuffed her clothes with pillows. Her younger sister resembled a sack of meal and had a nice comfortable disposition that matched her looks so she was courted widely. It was against the royal rules that the younger daughter should marry before the older one so again the princesses were in a pickle. Then along came Alexander M. Pike, a bustling young American. The slim princess struck him as being the original Persian net-tarine. He liked her just as she was and by means of a magazine proved to her that she would make a hit in America. Daddy, the king finds out about this and threatens the American with beheading. Well, in the end the princess goes to America where she can indulge in all fifty-seven varieties at once if she wishes and Alex M. having overcome all difficulties, captures her for his very own.

portrays the character of the villain, Lieut. Waring, and while he naturally does not succeed in gaining any sympathy for the man he makes him as forcible as such an individual could be drawn. Donald Crisp plays with dignity the part of Col. Archer. He is strong and convincing. He plays with evident sincerity and at all times holds the sympathies of the audience. The rest of the cast, including Olive Johnson, Ethel Phillips, Russell Bassett and Jack Pickford, give more than adequate representations of the characters they portray. Miss Dovey throughout is charmingly effective, and plays up to the climax with the dramatic skill of a finished artist. The action has the rapidity, the rhythm and the crispness of a Maxim gun. We have had none too much of this type of photoplay. 'The Commanding Officer' will command the interest of audiences wherever shown.

Various Instruments. The genius with his violin Who in a garret hides. Has always rather friendless been And short of food, besides. He makes his fiddle to him croon And that helps some. But, gee! The horn of plenty plays a tune That's good enough for me. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

AFTERNOON BRIDGE FOR VISITORS MONDAY

In compliment to Miss Rosalyn Linn of McAlester, Okla., Miss Olive Airey of Mobile, Ala., and Miss Vivian Potter of Bowie, Miss Alice Burnside entertained at bridge Monday afternoon. Six tables for the game were placed in the flower decorated living room. Boxes of dainty correspondence cards were souvenirs for the three honor guests and the prize for the game was cut by Miss Hazel Hunter. A delicious ice course was served late in the afternoon. The guest list included the honorees, Misses Linn, Potter and Airey; Misses Geraldine Graves of Crowell, Ann Carrigan, Agnes Reid, Lillian Avls, Lillian McGregor, Florence Sammons, Orville Wyatt, Kathleen Stonecipher, Bess Kell, Bertha, Mae Kemp, Ann Freear, Hazel Hunter, Louise Bullit, Louise Fox, Kathleen Blair, Grace Nolen, Jewell Kemp, Fae Garrison, Mesdames Ben Bell, Merrill Blair, Garrison, Beckman, O'Donohoe, Britain, Wade Walker and Shepherd. UNIQUE PARTY TO HONOR VISITING GIRLS.

One of the cleverest and most original entertainments given here in some time was the "shopping party" devised by Mrs. Wiley Robertson to honor her guests, Miss Olive Airey of Mobile, Ala., and Miss Vivian Potter of Bowie on Tuesday afternoon. The always charming hospitality of the Robertson home was never more pleasant than on this occasion and the long living room and reception hall banked with ferns and fragrant with midsummer poses, Shasta daisies, sweet peas and nasturtiums, provided a fit setting for the guests, attired in airy summer frocks. Booklets entitled "My Days Shopping" were distributed, the pages blank, and each young lady was given magazines wherefrom to clip pictures that would tell the story of the day's shopping. "Myself at the start and my companion, our conveyance, amusing instances" were some of the page headings, with "Myself at the close of the day" as the finish. Some of the booklets developed romances beyond the wildest imagination, others were comical and the making of all provided much entertainment. Following this feature of the afternoon, Miss Vivian Potter, one of the honorees favored with several interesting readings. An ice course was served at the tables, each plate being accompanied by a cluster of sweet pea blossoms. For the honor guests and the two other out of town girls, Miss Ann Barthold of Weatherford and Miss Geraldine Graves of Crowell, the hostess had provided the start of a Bob-O-Link Friendship bracelet, a conceit that is finding much favor all over the country. For each girl there was a narrow band of black velvet with the starting silver link engraved with the hostess' initial. Mrs. Robertson was assisted in entertaining by her sisters, Miss Minnie Young and Mrs. R. L. Miller and Mrs. Walter S. Robertson. The guests included, Misses Potter and Airey, the honorees, Misses Kathleen Blair, Theresa Smith, Carrye Tappity, Lillian McGregor, Bess Kell, Agnes Reid, Irvett, Wyatt, Grace Nolen, Alice Burnside, Kathleen Stonecipher, Jewell Kemp, Bertha Mae Kemp, Geraldine Graves, Ann Barthold, Ann Freear, Ann Carrigan, Minnie Young, Mesdames Walter S. Robertson and R. L. Miller.

Wichita Falls, Texas, June 23, 1915

Marvin M. Jones of Amarillo has announced that he will be a candidate for congress from this, the 13th district, against the present incumbent, Congressman John H. Stephens of Vernon. Mr. Jones was born in Cooke county, is 32 years of age, and thinks he has a good chance of winning, providing that the race is left to be run out with only himself and Mr. Stephens in it. Doubtless there will be two or three other aspirants. Congressman Stephens has made this district a faithful and conscientious servant, and he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

Usually, the people of Texas show the confidence they have in the men they elect to the legislature by the way they vote on proposed amendments to the state constitution. On the 24th of July they will be given an opportunity to do this by voting on the six proposed amendments, and our guess in advance of the election is that only about one in ten will vote, and of this number a majority will be against the amendments, with the possible exception of the 6th, providing for the separation of the Texas University from the A. & M. College. There is but little doubt that if the two educational institutions were separated there would be less wrangling and possibly it would be the best for them and the state generally.

Texas farmers will be better able to appreciate their "business administration" at Austin this fall when they go to pay their taxes. A few years ago they paid about six cents on the hundred dollar valuation. This fall they will pay about fifty-four cents, or nine times as much as they paid under Campbell's administration. But of course it is all right. The people elected the administration and the people pay the bills. Who has any right to complain?—Bonham News.

Perhaps if that one million dollars the state claims is due it as back tax by the seventeen old line insurance companies that are resisting payment had been paid, it would not have been necessary to raise the state tax rate above that of last year. With only about a half year promise that these old line companies will loan in Texas during the next five years the sum of $35,000,000, the state administration seemingly is willing to waive the right of the state to collect this back tax.

The morning papers carried the first news of the loss of life when the Lusitania went down. The morning paper carried the first note of protest to Germany. The morning papers carried the first story of the resignation of William J. Bryan as Secretary of State. The morning papers carried the first second note to Germany and the various notes which Mr. Bryan addressed to the American people regarding his leaving the cabinet. The morning paper is the complete paper and the one which can be depended upon to carry the authenticated news of the world while it is still news.—Waco News.

Just why the News makes such claims is past the understanding of The Times. The Associated Press evening papers received a "flash" that Bryan had resigned the afternoon it happened, and there is no reason why those newspapers who get the service should not have carried this piece of important news in its regular edition. The Times published it and while we have not investigated thoroughly, judge that all other evening papers did the same thing. It was the same way in the matter of the sinking of the Lusitania. The Waco News should be fair.

With cash wheat selling in Chicago and St. Louis at $1.12 to $1.18 per bushel, and Texas wheat of the same grade selling at 93 to 94 cents, why should the Texas farmer be in a hurry to sell? Why not store his wheat for a time and get $1.25 and upwards? The Dardanelles have not yet been forced, and from the present prospects will not be for a long time to come. The demand for all the Texas wheat that can be stored is hungry mouths in Europe will be persistent for many months to come. There is no need why a bushel of the new crop of Texas wheat should be sold for a minimum price of $1.00 per bushel. The speculators are always seeking to induce the growers of food crops, as well as the growers of cotton, to play into their hands.—Houston Post.

There is considerable of what is known as "distressed" wheat in the country. That is, wheat owned by the fellow who has been forced, probably to mortgage his teams to buy seed and supplies with which to produce his crop, and the speculators know that this wheat must be sold to discharge the debt. Therefore, they always manage to lower the price just about the time such debts mature. Our banks and bankers can greatly aid, not only those who own this "distressed" wheat, but the people in general by extending such loans at a low rate of interest until the price gets right. There is a greater demand for American wheat today than has been for twenty or thirty years. The 1915 crop is said to be the "bestest ever produced, but even had it been twice as great as it is reported to be, there would not be the slightest cause or reason for selling a bushel of it for less than $1.00. If the European war continues (and it now seems as if there is little hope of it ending soon), the price of American wheat will, in the judgment of some who ought to be posted, be higher than it was last year when farmers were getting $1.50 per bushel.

THE NEW AMENDMENTS.

The following are the titles in brief of the amendments to the constitution to be voted on July 24th, and to which the average citizen is giving very little attention:

1. To increase the membership of the supreme court from three to five.
2. To permit counties to vote for the creation of a special loan fund for students.
3. To authorize the levy of a special road tax of not to exceed fifty cents on the $100 valuation in counties or subdivisions thereof.
4. Authorizing the issuance of bonds for "public improvements including drainage, levees, etc."
5. To permit traveling men to vote wherever they may be on election day.
6. The "Baker" resolution, providing for the separation of the Texas University and the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college.

Insofar as there has been discussion or action, it has concerned itself with Nos. 5 and 6. As matters are shaping, the controlling factor in No. 5, will not be the matter of voting away from home, but that of the new rule here laid down that one must become a full-fledged citizen before one can vote. As for No. 6, it should be adopted. It will allow each institution to go its way in peace.—Waco Times-Herald.

THE IDLE RICH.

I'm fond of coin, but I don't itch to be among the idle rich, who have long green to burn; their wealth I could not well employ, for I could never much enjoy the bone I did not earn. Oh, every coin of mine is wet with honest, rich, transparent sweat, until it has been dried; it represents no sire's bequest, no buried miser's treasure chest, no "multi's" pomp and pride. I grind my own mill at home, and every time I make a poem, I take in fifty cents; I get more pleasure blowing in this hard-earned, honest, rich, transparent sweat, slice of tin, than do the wealthy gents. Their coin comes easy as the rain, it represents no stress or strain, no toll in sleep or den; they use their wealth to buy and sell, like taking water from a well; the hole fills up again. We do not value much the thing which, like an everlasting spring, wells up, year after year; if you'd appreciate a bone, you have to earn it with a groan, or seek it with a tear. I'd rather have the rusty dime for which I labored overtime, and aproned a wing or slat, than have the large and shining buck that Fortune handed me, or Luck, get wise, rich lad to that.

BLACKSHEAR'S RESIGNATION. Commenting upon the resignation of E. L. Blackshear, principal of the Prairie View Normal and Industrial School for negroes, the Houston Post says:

"There is nothing creditable or worthy in the conduct of those politicians of Texas who have annoyed and persecuted E. L. Blackshear until he has felt impelled to resign the principalship of the Prairie View institution in order to be relieved of their unrelenting abuse and opposition. The board of directors only a short time ago, re-elected him unanimously after making an exhaustive investigation of the trivial and contemptible charges which had been fostered and circulated by ambitious and unworthy negro sharpers who wanted the place, but no sooner had the board disposed of these charges than it was announced that the fight upon Blackshear would not cease. The duty of the board, as the Post says, is to ask Blackshear to recall his resignation and then protect him against further persecution by making known to the public the full information on the subject, so that they may know who those negroes are, as well as the white politicians who are behind them.

"Whether Blackshear withdraws his resignation, or not, this statement ought to be forthcoming.

"Why this school for the higher education of negroes—the only one supported by the state—should be made a football in state politics is beyond ordinary comprehension. The negroes do not vote in democratic primaries, they have no voice in party affairs, and their one institution of higher learning should be let alone. Granting that there are in several cities of the state negro wirepullers who are servicable to their white bosses in municipal politics, this state institution ought not to be used to reward them and it will be an outrage, if it be done, that the people will resent.

"There is another suggestion which the Post would earnestly press upon the board of directors. If Blackshear's resignation is not withdrawn the negro rascals who have slandered and backbitten Blackshear and select for the head of the institution an educator of character and ability, one who is capable of getting from the institution the best possible results for the state of Texas and its negro population. This should be done even if it be found advisable to go beyond the bounds of the state to find one who measures up to the requirements.

"Under no circumstances should an unworthy person be considered in connection with the office. Otherwise, irreparable injury will be inflicted upon the institution.

"As the matter stands now, Prairie View is to lose the services of the one man who has done more for the institution and for the negroes of Texas than any other man, white or black. He leaves it in the face of the unanimous opinion of every man who has served on the board for nineteen years that he is entirely worthy, efficient and competent. He leaves it in the face of the unanimous wish of the better element of negroes that he remain. He leaves it against the unanimous wish of more than 1,200 men and women who have graduated from the institution since he has been principal and of the thousands of others who have been trained there. Moreover, he leaves it over the protest of every white man in this state who has taken an interest in the institution and is acquainted with its work.

"And these are the facts that those who have provoked his resignation will have to face."

20 CONVERTED AT FRIAR MEETING LAST NIGHT

Rev. Friar Preached on the "Final Judgment"—Many are Struck With Conviction.

Twenty conversions marked the revival meeting at Friar's tent last night when Rev. Friar preached on "The Final Judgment." The attendance was good and the interest was deep. Shop meetings were held at noon today at the Wichita Motor factory, Ball Bros. factory and Pond's laundry. Much interest was manifested at this morning's meeting. Rev. Friar's text last night was Rev. 20:11, "And I saw a great white throne and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and heaven fled away; and there was no place for them." Rev. Friar painted with vivid, striking words the picture seen by the apostle. He said that on the final judgment day God will be on His throne to judge all the dead. "The book of God's remembrance will be opened," he said, "and your records will be laid bare. Jesus Christ will be there to intercede for His followers. The accuser (the devil), will be there to claim his followers. There is only one counselor, the evangelist said, to whom you can afford to trust your case, and that is God. 'You may be able to fool men for your sins,' he continued, 'but you can never fool God.' He urged men to make a confession of all their sins to Jesus Christ who is able to vindicate and to pardon.

He declared that there was great danger for the man who doesn't want to please God and declared that that man was a child of the devil. "When a saved man is overtaken in a fault," he said, "he can acknowledge his sin to his advocate, Jesus Christ, and receive forgiveness. In order for Jesus Christ to defend you, you must confess all your sins and submit your case to his hands." He compared the sinner seeking an advocate in Jesus with a defendant who employs counsel to defend him; the defendant must tell his attorney all the facts in the case in order that the lawyer can properly defend him. He closed with a stirring appeal to sinners to submit their case to Christ, the supreme advocate. Many were moved with conviction.

Child Labor Laws in Two. Review of Legislation Shows a Lack of Uniformity—Change in Some States are Probable. By Associated Press. New York, June 23.—To the list of twenty-two states in which workmen's compensation laws were already in effect, eight more states and the territory of Alaska have this year been added by the action of their legislatures, during sessions which have just come to a close. This growth of the movement toward self-guarding the welfare of the laborer and his dependents is revealed in the summary of this year's legislative activities, which has been compiled by the Associated Press. The summary also shows progress in the abolishment of child labor and in the direction of limiting the working hours of minors.

31 STATES NOW HAVE COMPENSATION LAWS

EIGHT STATES AND ALASKA TERRITORY HAVE PROVIDED FOR WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

CHILD LABOR LAWS IN TWO

Review of Legislation Shows a Lack of Uniformity—Change in Some States are Probable.

By Associated Press. New York, June 23.—To the list of twenty-two states in which workmen's compensation laws were already in effect, eight more states and the territory of Alaska have this year been added by the action of their legislatures, during sessions which have just come to a close. This growth of the movement toward self-guarding the welfare of the laborer and his dependents is revealed in the summary of this year's legislative activities, which has been compiled by the Associated Press. The summary also shows progress in the abolishment of child labor and in the direction of limiting the working hours of minors.

The additional states to adopt the workmen's compensation are Wyoming, Montana, Oklahoma, Colorado, Maine, Indiana, Vermont and Pennsylvania. Favorable action toward the enactment of such a measure was also taken by the legislature of Utah which created a commission to investigate the question and report a bill for the consideration of the next legislature. In one state which considered the matter, New Mexico, a proposed workmen's compensation law passed the house but was defeated in the senate. In Idaho, the bill was vetoed by the governor. Several other states revised their former laws in order to insure more efficient operation.

Laws Not Uniform. Somewhat different standards as to the way in which compensation should be awarded and the law administered are shown in the measure enacted this year, but this lack of uniformity is also a feature of various laws previously passed in other states. For instance, under the new Colorado statute injured workmen will receive 50 per cent of their wages during incapacity, though not to exceed $8 a week. In case of total permanent disability, the compensation should be awarded through life. When death results from the accident, the worker's family is to receive similar amount for six years with a maximum of $2,500. In case of loss of eyes, hands, limbs or other members of the body, compensation is to be made for a specified period, varying from a few weeks to four years, dependent upon the nature of the injury.

Employers are required to insure payment either in a state insurance fund or by a mutual or stock insurance company. Administration is placed in the hands of an industrial commission of three members who shall adjust disputes, and with authority to make awards if employers or insurance companies neglect to make payments promptly. Court proceedings are thereby practically eliminated. The Maine law, however, awards the injured workmen payment by the employer of not more than $10 a week in case of total disability with a maximum of $3,000. Heirs in case of death receive the same and the scale of payments for those partly disabled ranges from $4 to $10 a week.

The Pennsylvania Law. Pennsylvania provided for the payment of fifty per cent of wages, but not more than $10 or less than $5, with a maximum total of $4,000. The act is selective and takes away from the employers the common law defenses, but the people will vote in November on a constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to make it compulsory. The act creates a state insurance fund, but employers are permitted to protect themselves in any other form of insurance or carry their own risks on approval of the bureau of workmen's compensation which will administer the law. Domestic and agricultural laborers are exempted. The Indiana law provides no state insurance, but permits the employer to seek it where he chooses, or not at all if he give proof of his financial ability to pay. The compensation is fixed at 55 per cent of the average wage, not to exceed 500 weeks and in case of death, burial expenses to the defendant not to exceed $100 and 25 per cent of the weekly wage for 300 weeks. Domestic servants and agricultural laborers are exempt and those engaged in interstate commerce. The law is elective with both employer and employee and is administered by a state industrial commission. Fifty per cent weekly wage, not to exceed 500 weeks is the basis of the Oklahoma law.

Child Labor Prohibited. Iowa and Alaska have the states which prohibit child labor. Maine adopted a law under which women aged over sixteen employed in mills, factories and laundries are permitted to work more than fifty-four hours a week. Pennsylvania four hours a week. The law limiting the hours of labor of children between 14 and 16 years to 15 hours a week. A feature of the law is that all such children employed must go to vocational school at least eight hours a week and must be computed in the 51 hours, thus making the actual working hours 43. It further provides that no messengers under 21 years of age employed by a telephone company or telegraph company at night and that no child under 12 can sell newspapers. A statute along similar lines, fixing at 10 years the minimum age of newsboys and other minors engaged in street trades, was adopted in North Carolina. Bills decried to enable officials better to enforce the present child labor laws were introduced in Massachusetts.

Alaska adopted an eight hour law for place miners and penalized her aged and indigent prospectors. A bill requiring employers of all kinds to grant their employees one day rest in seven was killed in the senate of Wisconsin, but one making such provision for railway employees was passed by the assembly and was at this writing awaiting action in the senate.

London, June 23.—The inadvisability of sending very young men to the fighting front is emphasized in a report by Dr. Murry Leslie on the treatment of cases of mental shock resulting from war service. Nearly all the cases of fighting affecting the mind have been in men of 21 or 22 years or younger, declares Dr. Leslie, who suggests that this may be the reason for the recent German order that no more volunteers under 21 years will be accepted for the army.

Dr. Leslie divides cases of battle shock into two classes those who have been constantly subjected to shell explosion and have no actual injury, and those suffering from neurasthenia. The first kind of case is characterized by a curious stupor; frequently patients are oblivious of all their surroundings. The neurasthenia cases require prolonged treatment and it is regarded as a great mistake to send them back too soon.

The writer points out the possibility, as the war progresses, that these cases of war-shock will become frequent also among the population at home. The censors know what they are doing when they suppress the gruesome details and pictures of Zeppelin raids. Such action is most important to keep up the morals of the nation, and is perfectly right from a medical standpoint of view. Optimism is of the greatest value to the nation as well as the individual. The feeling that all is going well is a great mental tonic.

WOULD USE AEROPLANES AS SUBMARINE GUARDS

British Experts Advocate Use of Air Craft to Patrol Shores for 450 Miles Around England.

London.—That aeroplanes can be effectively employed against submarines is the opinion of L. Blin Desbiede who is regarded here as an authority on aeronautical engineering.

"Put in a nutshell, my scheme is as follows," writes the Sirén and Shipping. "To have at selected places along the coast of Great Britain and Ireland a number of small but highly efficient aerial squadrons whose duty would be either closely to scrutinize the area comprised between the coast and a line some 150 miles from it, or in special cases to act as a convoy to liners or cargo steamers."

"If the sea area defined above were rendered a danger zone for the enemy's submarines to enter, and if the enemy were made to realize that within that zone their submarines ran a greater risk than the merchant vessels they were out to attack, then it would follow that the submarine blockade would be rendered ineffectual."

"You can't do it," the officer challenged him.

"Bloody!" went the pistol and the lady's husband was punctured. Officers and others came running to the scene, fearing that some one was unduly trying to hasten the course of justice.

Two PURE Cinnamons— One strong, the other weak— Why?

Cinnamon is the bark of a tree. It gets its flavor from a volatile oil in the bark—the more of this oil the better and stronger the flavor.

The amount of oil varies according to the age of the tree, the soil, climate and the cultivation of the tree itself. Later, the handling of the bark must be such as to preserve the oil from evaporation, and finally the grinding must be so done that loss of oil will not occur during that process.

This you see that from the very start it is much more than pure—it is flavor and strength which can be lacking even in perfectly pure Cinnamon.

White Swan Cinnamon is made of high-grade, relatively high-priced and most carefully selected bark from young trees. In every step of handling and manufacture the greatest care is devoted to keeping the strength and flavor (the oil) intact. It is packed with the same care. We recommend it and guarantee its flavoring strength to be at least four times that of ordinary "pure cinnamon."

Ask your grocer—he can tell you what White Swan means to quality.

CORNELIUS CONVERSION
REV. NELSON'S THEME

Open Air Meeting May Close Thursday Night When Evangelist Will Discuss Infidelity.

Evangelist J. B. Nelson discoursed last evening upon the conversion of Cornelius, the first Gentile convert to the Christian religion. Mr. Nelson said that he doubted if there could be found a more moral man in the state of Texas than this man, Cornelius. A full account of his life and conversion is recorded in the 10th chapter of Acts and a rehearsal is given in the 11th chapter. We find that Cornelius was a devout (religious) man, just feared God, gave much alms to the people, prayed continually. Had devout soldiers, his whole house feared God and of good report of all the Jews. With all these traits of character he was not a saved man or a Christian. The Lord told him to send to Joppa for Peter, the preacher, and he would tell him what he ought to do. When Peter came he told him the commandments of the Lord. "Who shall tell the words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved." Acts 11:14. To be a moral man is not enough to save a man. All Christians are moral men, but all moral men are not Christians. We find that God selected one of the purest men of the Gentile nation to be the first man to receive the gospel. Up until this time no Jew would associate with the Gentiles in any sense; but now the middle wall or partition between the two nations has been broken down by the death of Jesus upon the cross and the Gentiles can have equal rights with the Jews, Eph. 2:14-16. This was all demonstrated to Peter by the vessel that contained all manner of four-footed beasts and fowls of the air, while he was in a trance upon the house top. There were miracles performed on this occasion. The miracles were not to convert Cornelius, for he was converted by the word of God that was revealed by the Holy Spirit through the Apostle Peter.

13-YEAR-OLD IS EVANGELIST

Mary McCain Believes She Saw a Vision and Starts Revival in Mississippi.

Natchez, Miss.—A thirteen-year-old girl is evangelizing this state. Over in Starkville she began a revival a few weeks ago. Now her name is known throughout the state. From every county she is receiving letters to come there and preach. Her experience is like that of Joan of Arc. Until a short while ago Mary McCain was a simple, untaught country lass, with no special learning toward religion. She was taken sick, and she says that in her sickness she saw a vision. She felt that she was near death's door, when a voice spoke to her. "Go forth and preach," was the command of the voice. In a few days she was well. Immediately she began to preach, and has converted hundreds of people.

DASHEEN IS A VEGETABLE

Resembles Potato, But is Much Tougher, and Contains Starch in Extreme Abundance.

Manhattan, Kan.—If you have been looking for a variety for the table for something new to eat, why not try the new vegetable, dasheen? The domestic department of the Kansas State Agricultural college has tried it, with good results.

Dasheen—the name comes from the French word meaning "from China"—was first raised with success in this country in South Carolina in 1909, though it has long been grown in the tropics. It is in the same family of plants as the Indian turnip and the elephant's ear.

As a food dasheens greatly resemble potatoes, but are much more fibrous. Their distinguishing characteristic is the extreme abundance of starch present, 60 per cent more than in the potato.

TWINS GROW "TALL" QUICK

They Were Bowlegged, and Doctor Puts Limbs in Plaster Cast and Straightens Them.

Pittsboro, Pa.—Philon and Uriah Schaeffer, four-year-old twins from Pingrova, will be returned to their homes from the Miners' hospital fully an inch and a half taller than when they were admitted three weeks ago. The twins were so bowlegged as to be deformed, and Dr. J. C. Biddle, straightened out their limbs, put them in a plaster cast. The result has not only been a straightening out of the legs but to make the boys much taller, while their walk is so different that they could hardly be recognized by relatives.

THINKS SONS NEED BIBLES

So Wood Wills Scriptures as Well as Estate—Another Man Leaves Dog to Daughter.

New York.—In the will of John Wood of New Rochelle he divided his $150,000 estate between his sons, William and Frank, and left a Bible to each. In mentioning the Bible bequest to William he added, "which I hope he will read very often." In the will of George T. Smith of Poundridge is this clause: "I give my dog Max to my daughter Helen, and I would state that although called Harry's dog, he has always been in my possession and I have always paid for his maintenance and taxes."

Two more bad checks have turned up here recently, each for $27. One being cashed by the P. B. The man whose name was signed to the check is not known at the Wichita State Bank, upon which the checks were drawn. The grand jury has returned two indictments for forgery recently and several other cases are pending, as the result of bad check operations here recently. A reward of $25 has been offered in the case mentioned.

TAGES ZEITUNG ORDERED TO SUSPEND PUBLICATION

Berlin, via London, June 22.—The German authorities informed the administration of the Berlin Tages Zeitung that it would have to suspend publication for an indefinite period on account of the recent article published by this paper on the subject of German-American relations from the pen of Count Reventlow. The action of the German authorities is regarded here as an indication that the government is weary of seeing its relations with America more strained by journalistic outpourings such as those of Count Von Reventlow. The article in question followed the well known lines of that writer, who asserted that international law must be disregarded in the conduct of submarine warfare. The government's prompt action in suspending the Tages Zeitung is, but one of many indications that responsible statesmen are eagerly desirous of finding a common ground for an understanding with America.

Description Of Lemberg

Washington, June 23.—Describing Lemberg, for whose possession the mightiest trial of strength of the last few weeks, a statement just issued by the National Geographic Society says: "Lemberg, under Austrian overlordship has been a stronghold of Polish national consciousness. Almost unimpeded by the imperial authorities, it has administered, as Galicia's capital, the last remnant of Polish Poland. When the Italian Diet was formed in 1861, Lemberg had fallen from her brave position of the days of the Polish Kingdom. The city was poverty-stricken, unimproved, uneducated and hence, unhealthy, with no schools and generally upon the verge of ruin. Today, aroused by the constitution of 1866, after 50 years of hopeful effort, the tide of invasion swept over a beautiful, intensely modern city, full of fine, substantial buildings, of lovely, well-planned parks, of up-to-date, richly stocked shops, of excellent schools and colleges, of great monuments and expensive public works. The destructive tide of battle rolled over careful work of two generations and is now driving back again upon it. "Before the outbreak of the present war, there was no city of Lemberg's size in Europe, upon whose streets one might find more alert, vivacious life. The city had enjoyed a typically American 'boom' for more than a generation, and its people had more of an air of buoyant confidence than any other Polish community. Industries were growing; and the commission and transit trade of the city was attaining the importance of this trade under the old kingdom. From a small, bitterly poor community, Lemberg had progressed to the position of a wealthy metropolis of 230,000 inhabitants. "The Galician capital lies in a sharply cut valley, embroidered on every hand by well wooded hills. The surges and promontories of the city reach out into the hills, where some of the finest walks and garden spots have been laid out. Beyond the suburbs of the capital, little Polish villages straggle over the country roads, and, before great armies passed this way, flocks of thousands upon thousands of ducks and geese, for which Galicia enjoyed no small measure of fame, met the traveler's eyes everywhere. The insignificant little stream, Peltew, an affluent of the Bug, flows by the city. "Lemberg lies 468 miles northeast of Vienna by rail and 218 miles southeast of Cracow. It is about 60 miles from the Russian border. The capital is a main station upon trunk lines to Odessa, Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, Brest, in Germany, and Budapest in Hungary. It is the fourth city in size in the Austrian Empire, coming after Vienna, Prague and Trieste. Commercially and industrially, as well as politically and educationally, it is the most important city in Galicia. Its factories turn out machinery, iron wares, matches, stearin, candies and naptha. "Besides being the seat of the chief economic organizations and of the government of the crownland, Lemberg is an important religious center, the seat of the archbishop of the Roman Catholic, the United Greek and the United Armenian churches. The University of Lemberg was founded by Emperor Joseph II in 1784, and, since 1872, its language of instruction, has been Polish. There are a number of important museum collections in the city, among them collections all important to the student of the early life and customs of the country."

DOCTORS' HEAD SCORES UNQUALIFIED SURGEONS

Declares That Men are Operating Who Have Not Right to Take Human Lives in Their Hands. San Francisco, June 23.—Dr. W. L. Rodman, of Philadelphia, the newly elected president of the American Medical Association, who delivered his inaugural address at today's session of the annual meeting of the association, introduced his address with reference to some of the evils in the surgical profession. "In every community," he said, "men are operating who have no right to take human life into their hands. This does not apply to the general practitioner, who, in an emergency, and to the best of his ability, operates in an attempt to save life, but to those who, for gain, undertake that which should be done only by the skillful surgeon. Surgery is a special science, extra hazardous in its nature, and hence the public has a right to demand of the surgeon the very highest physical, mental and moral equipment. "In the eradication of this evil of the incompetent surgeon, Dr. Rodman said that the American College of Surgeons, which was organized only two years ago, was to be heartily congratulated upon the progress made. "The positive stand the college has taken on fee splitting alone more than justifies its existence," he said, "this evil has become intolerable, and a wave of protest is being sent throughout the land which should, and we believe will, overwhelm the offenders. "Let us at once apply the axe to you get for the money you pay a tailor does not depend on the building he is in, what his name is or where he came from, nor the amount of warm atmosphere he peddles. You get your satisfaction from the way the suit looks, hangs and fits. Amateur cleaners and pressers make a suit look as though you had cleaned it in a rain and pressed it by sleeping with it on. Our work is guaranteed to please you. We make suits that fit. We have laid the tape on every different shape of human being from the animated bean pole to the living tub who is wider than he is tall.

Sanatogen

Endorsed by Over 21,000 Physicians

"We'll just put him on Sanatogen." What a happy thought prompted that decision! He wasn't his "old self" at all—and try to mask it as he might, his face showed only too well how poorly he felt. And so when a friend—with conviction born of experience—spoke of Sanatogen, they "put him on Sanatogen." Sanatogen—combining the tissue-building properties of a FOOD with the invigorating qualities of a TONIC—rejuvenated his appetite, improved his digestion, brought rest to his nerves, made good the over-drafts upon his energies—and little by little brought back the old-time vigor and sprightliness and joy of living. Then simply let us tell you this: Over 21,000 physicians have testified in writing to the value of Sanatogen after having observed its effects in daily practice. So, too, have hundreds of famous men and women whose very names must be convincing—people who know from personal experience the restorative help that Sanatogen gives. It is a verdict that cannot be mistaken.
