A NEW NOTE FROM ENGLAND

SECRETARY GREY ANNOUNCES ENGLAND PREPARING NOTE TO U. S.

NATURE NOT KNOWN

Expected, However, That British Government is About to Make Some New Proposals

By Associated Press. Washington, July 27.—Sir Edward Grey cabled Secretary Lansing that the British government has in preparation another note to the United States on the Order in Council and asked that the note delivered yesterday be withheld from publication pending receipt of the new communication.

No indication of the nature of the forthcoming note was given in Sir Edward Grey's cable. State department officials assume, however, that it is of a supplementary nature. It was stated that the new note would be here in another week.

In official quarters the new development was regarded as highly significant. The belief prevailed that the last American note to Germany with its reference to the freedom of the seas may have influenced Great Britain to place herself on record as willing to take under consideration any new suggestion by the United States to the belligerents. Sir Edward Grey's request that the note received yesterday be withheld was taken to mean, at all events, that a new situation had arisen or that some new proposals were about to be made by Great Britain to relieve the effect of the Order in Council.

Secretary Lansing took occasion today to deny reports that cotton was about to be placed on the contraband list by Great Britain. Mr. Lansing declared there had been no discussion whatsoever between the State department and the British embassy here or with the foreign office in London relative to a change in the non-contraband status of cotton.

RECEIVER APPOINTED FOR CITY OF NASHVILLE

Mayor House and Two Members of City Commission Are Ousted From Office

By Associated Press. Nashville, Tenn., July 27.—Chancellor Allison today appointed as receiver in chancery, Robert Vaughn, receiver for the municipality of Nashville, under the commission form of government. A few minutes later Judge Matthews in the first district court in response to proceedings under Tennessee's new "ouster" law suspended from office Mayor Hilary E. House and Commissioners Robert Elliot and Lyle Andrews.

J. M. Wilkerson had recently resigned as city commissioner. Lyle Andrews, commissioner of lights and finance had been dismissed from office by vote of commission but the legality of the action being contested he was included in the counter proceedings.

Andrews together with City Comptroller Miles Burns, City Treasurer Charles Meyers, and Assistant City Treasurer W. H. West are under indictment in connection with the disappearance of certain books and records from the office of the comptroller. Commissioner Parker Marshall elected by the commission to succeed Andrews and Commissioner J. D. Alexander of the fire department against whom no proceedings have been instituted are the only remaining members of the city commission. It is asserted that the city's credit and financial standing are in no way involved, the movement being conducted against the officials for alleged misconduct.

TWO FAMILIES WIPED OUT BY EASTLAND DISASTER

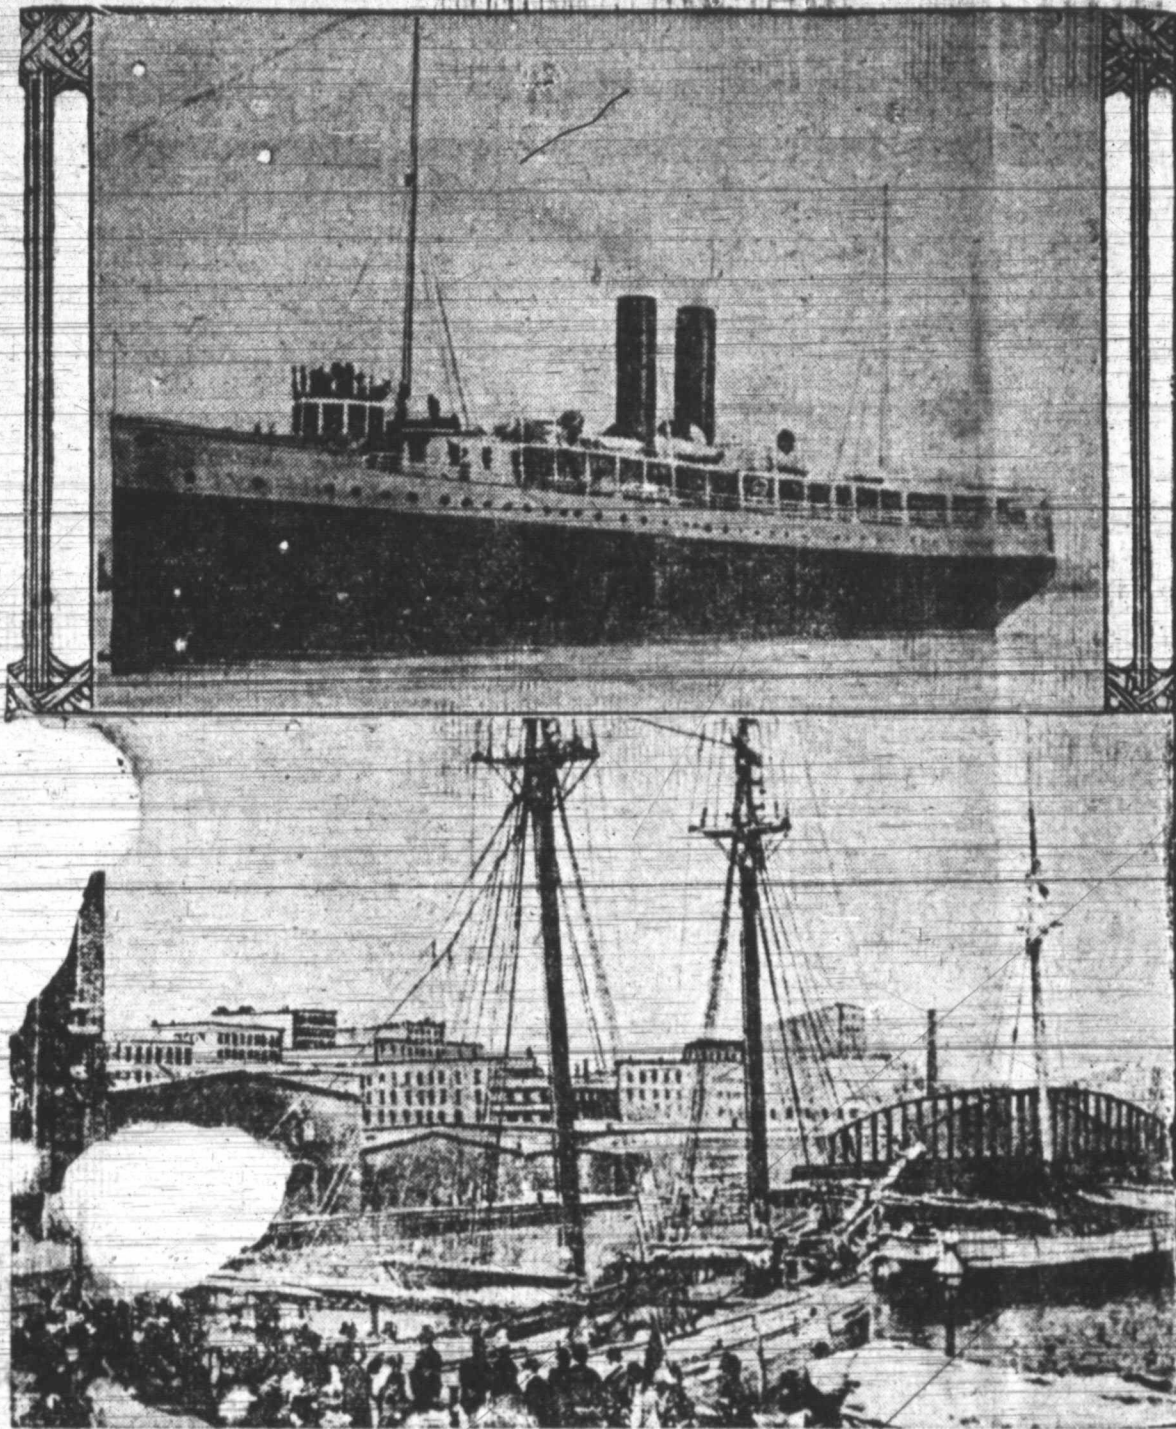

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 27.—A house on East Kolin Avenue has not been entered since the Eastland disaster. Two families lived in the house but all are either dead or missing. A wagon carrying two bodies drove to the house yesterday but there was no one there to receive them.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED WHILE BEING CLEANED

Gasoline Ignited and Top and Rear Cushions W. M. McGregor's Cadillac Damaged

W. M. McGregor's Cadillac car was badly damaged by fire this morning at the Imperial garage, igniting while a negro was washing the engine with gasoline. The engine caught fire and the flames shot backward under the car, igniting the top and rear cushions. The damage to the engine is believed to be small. An alarm was turned in and the fire department extinguished the blaze with the chemical.

SORROWFUL SCENES AS SEARCH IS MADE FOR BODIES IN CHICAGO RIVER DISASTER

When the steamer Eastland, with more than 2,000 persons aboard, capsized in the Chicago river every available police reserve and ambulance was rushed to the scene, where hundreds of persons struggled about the narrow landing on the Clark street bridge, which commanded a view of the steamer. The bridge soon was covered with shrieking humanity, and the police had to use their clubs in an effort to clear it. Tugs and small craft responded to the emergency call and bore boatload after boatload from the overturned hull to the landing, where the victims were rushed in ambulances and patrol wagons to hospitals. There were pitiful scenes as bodies were brought to the surface by divers. In the accompanying illustration are shown the steamer Eastland and the river front and Clark street bridge where the boat went down.

RUSSIANS REPULSE GERMAN ASSAULTS

TEUTONS ARE BATTERING AT ADVANCE DEFENSES OF NOVOGEORGIEZSK

FIGHTING ALONG THE BUG

Petrograd Claim German Assaults Have Been Driven Back at Several Points

By Associated Press. Petrograd, July 27.—German attacks southeast of Pultusk have been driven back but they are battering at the advance defenses of Novogeorgiezk, according to an official announcement tonight. Assaults against the advance fortifications of Ivangorod also have been repulsed, the Russians claim, while a terrific battle still is in progress on almost the entire front between the Beleriz and Bug rivers. The statement stresses the destruction by torpedo boat in the Black Sea of 40 coal laden sailing vessels. The text of the communication follows:

"Towards Chok midway between Tekum and Riga the enemy offensive which began Saturday was repulsed with the assistance of ships' guns evidently on vessels in the Gulf of Riga. On the Narw front the enemy continued unsuccessfully to attack our position on the Plessa river near Sinyatki. South of Rozan, after a stubborn encounter with the Germans who had crossed the Narw, we threw them back near the mouth of the Olz as far as the village of that name.

"Southeast of Pultusk and north of Warsaw the enemy's attacks were repulsed. Small engagements were begun with the advance defenses of Novogeorgiezk. On the left bank of the Vistula the enemy's attack on Ivangorod's advance works were repulsed. Between the Vistula and the Zieprz the artillery duel continues. Between the Zieprz and the Bug the battle continues with great intensity. On the 25th the enemy attacked along this whole front with the exception of the immediate vicinity of Zieprz. There has been no fighting on the Bug, the Zioja Lipa or the Dneister.

"In the Black Sea Sunday our torpedo boats operating in the coal region destroyed 40 sailing boats laden with coal. They also destroyed a new coal shaft and a suspension bridge."

REIGN OF TERROR IN PORT AU PRINCE

REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT BROKE OUT IN THAT CITY TODAY

REBELS FIRE ON PALACE

Building in Flames While President Resists Attacks. Guillaume's Fall Seems Sure

By Associated Press. Port Au Prince, Haiti, July 27.—The revolutionary movement against the government of President Guillaume broke out in this city today at dawn. Rebellious troops of the government attacked the presidential palace at 4 o'clock and continued firing upon it for two hours. There were a number of casualties. The president was in the palace resisting the attack of the rebels and the building itself was in flames.

"There has been a reign of terror in Port Au Prince for the last ten days. On the 17th of July President Guillaume, doubtless realizing that his fall was but a question of a few days started on a series of persecutions. He caused the arrest of Haitians of wealth or position and began expelling all foreigners. He apparently recognized the fact that the spirit of revolution was growing in the country and he knew that the rebels were marching on the capital. Haitian women have been arrested on the streets. On July 17 Madame Taldey, a French actress was treated in this arbitrary manner. The prisons in the city are full and the conditions in them are deplorable. Prisoners die daily as a result of hunger and the unsanitary conditions in which they are compelled to live.

"After several hours of fighting at the presidential residence the president took refuge at the French legation which he was preceded by members of the family. By noon the city was in possession of the revolutionists. Gen. Oscar who remained at the palace after the president had fled succeeded in eluding the rebels and has taken refuge in the Dominican legation.

"The present revolution in Haiti has been going on several months. Its purpose is to drive out the present president and to set up Dr. Rosalvo Bobo. Up to the present the fighting has been largely on the northern coast but the outbreak of today (Continued on Page Four)

DALLAS STIRRED BY BOMB OUTRAGE

FOREMAN SADDLERY FACTORY IS HURT WHEN BOMB EXPLODED AT HOME

OTHER BOMBS WERE FOUND

European War Orders or Grievance Over Labor Trouble in Past Believed the Cause

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, July 27.—The bomb thrown into the home of W. P. Moore, a saddle factory foreman, early today was enclosed in a suit case bearing the name H. O. Cloud of Monroe, La. The police were investigating a theory that the attack might have been on account of the saddle factory business for which Mr. Moore worked which has furnished large European saddle orders. A personal grievance also offered a clew and a near relative of the Moores was taken into custody but no orders were issued for his arrest. Both Mr. Moore and his son will recover from their injuries, physicians say, although the bomb exploded under their bed.

J. D. Padgett, president of the saddlery company told the police today he was sure war orders had no connection with the bomb. He said that former labor difficulties might explain the attack on Moore's house. Four sticks of dynamite were found under Mr. Padgett's house after some one whose name Mr. Padgett refused to reveal had phoned him a warning. This dynamite was found in two locations, both having caps attached.

Probably only the fact that the mattress was between them and the (Continued on Page Four)

GERMAN ENVELOPING MOVEMENT OF STUPENDUOUS MAGNITUDE

Jaws Of German Army Closing Down On Russians--From North And South Teutons Striking At Russian Railways

By Associated Press:

London, July 27.—The magnitude of the German enveloping movement in the eastern field is now absorbing the attention of the British officials and public. The latest reports show that General Von Buelow's 30,000 calvary have turned southward from Riga and are within 80 miles of the railway connecting Petrograd and Warsaw. In this way the northern German line is closing in on the main northern railway artery to the Russian capital, while the southern army similarly is approaching the main southern artery running to Odessa.

The Times declares human history can show no parallel in the tremendous extent of this enveloping movement which it says involves results to Russia and the western allies comparing with Russia's resistance to a Mongol invasion. The newspapers point out that the fall of Warsaw will have a grave significance for the best as it will mean that Russia's power to resume a successful offensive will have been indefinitely postponed and the principle base for offensive operations will be in the hands of Germany.

Today's Petrograd official statement saying that the Germans have thrown back at one point on the Narw river brings some relief to London as the military observers here hold that the final results depend on Russia's prolonging her resistance until climatic conditions in the country interpose a barrier to the full realization of the German plan. Reports from the other military fields with the exception of the Italian frontier where the Italians claim to have taken 16,000 Austrian prisoners are meager.

FRENCH SUBMARINE DESTROYED BY A GERMAN UNDER SEA BOAT

Berlin, (wireless to Sayville) July 27.—The French submarine, Mariotte, was destroyed by a German submarine on July 26, in the narrows of the Dardanelles according to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Matting Zeitung. Thirty-one members of the French submarine crew were captured.

GREAT AND FRIGHTFUL BATTLE IS NOW IN PROGRESS IN THE TYROL

Berlin, July 27.—The battle between the Italians and Austrians along the Isonzo rivers are described by the correspondent in the Tyrol of the Local Anzeiger as the "mightiest and most frightful the world war."

JITNEY DRIVERS MUST TAKE OUT LICENSE

Operation of Cars Stopped this Morning After New Ordinance Became Effective

Drivers of jitneys were notified today by the police department that they must either obtain licenses or cease to do business. The ordinance putting them under bond went into effect today. The jitneys were operating as usual this morning, but quit as soon as notice was served by the police. It is not known whether there will be any test of the ordinance. One or two of the operators, it is understood, expect to take out their licenses and comply with the ordinance.

BOB TEVIS HELD UP AND ROBBED ON BURNETT ST.

Bob Tevis, son of C. G. Tevis, was held up by a masked man near the corner of Burnett and Burnett streets last night. Young Tevis handed the robber 50 cents, all the money in his pockets, and succeeded in dropping his watch down his trousers leg where the robber failed to find it when he searched him.

The robber stopped young Tevis by asking him for a match and then thrust a revolver into his face, which Bob told friends was four feet long and with a muzzle as big around as a saucer. Mr. Tevis was on his way home from a prohibition meeting there when the robber stopped him. The robber wore a blue bandanna handkerchief over his face and was rather roughly dressed. He wore a cap. After searching young Tevis the robber ran down the street while Tevis ran across the street and woke up the residents. Officers were notified and a search made for the robber. When they went down town they found two other young men who had been robbed by a man answering the same description near the Fort Worth & Denver water tank. From one of these boys the robber secured $1.50 in cash and from the other a small amount. No further trace of the man could be found.

827 DEAD HAVE BEEN RECOVERED

MISSING IN EASTLAND DISASTER NOW 393 TOTAL DEATHS MAY BE MORE THAN 1,200

INVESTIGATIONS ARE BEGUN

Testimony Being Taken at Coroner's Jury Which Is Probing Cause of Disaster

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 27.—With the taking of testimony at the coroner's jury today the first investigation of the capsizing of the Eastland started. At the same time investigations were being conducted by the state grand jury, the federal authorities and the city council. Secretary of Commerce William T. Redfield arrived today and took up what he promised would be a thorough inquiry. A short time later attorneys from the United States District Attorney's office visited all the men sold as witnesses and obtained statements from them at the same time subpoenaing them to appear before the federal grand jury which meets Thursday.

States Attorney Hoynes also was active in his investigations and the cooperation that he received today from both the federal authorities and the police indicated that the threatened strained relations between these three sets of investigators turned in complete harmony. Mr. Hoynes said today he was confident that the boat was over loaded. "From all accounts there were scores of children on this boat, only part of whom can be accounted for by the ticket stubs," he said. The work of taking the bodies from the river continued today. The official roll today is: Identified dead 882; unidentified 5; missing 393; total 1,280.

CARRANZA TROOPS HAVE EVACUATED NACO

ASHABRANNER FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULT

Man Tried on Assault to Murder Charge Convicted of Lesser Offense and Fined $25

A fine of $25 was assessed against W. R. Ashabranner, who was found guilty of aggravated assault Monday afternoon. Ashabranner was indicted for assault to murder, following an alleged attack upon his wife, but the jury reduced the offense and assessed a light penalty. Judge Stubblefield of Cisco, where the Ashabranner family formerly resided, made the closing speech for the defendant, it being considered one of the ablest arguments heard here in some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashabranner are living together again after their recent trouble, and will probably make their home in this city, the suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Ashabranner having been withdrawn. She was not a witness in the case. Ashabranner's defense was that at the time his wife was injured, he was trying to quiet her and prevent her injuring herself, during one of the nervous attacks to which her illness had made her subject.

The case was vigorously prosecuted by District Attorney Humphrey and Assistant County Attorney Daveport, Eddleman and Hoyer of this city helped Judge Stubblefield for the defense.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKET ARRESTED LAST NIGHT

Tom Elliott Grabbed Hand Which Was Reaching For Purse at Lamar Airline

While Tom Elliott, a carpenter of this city, was listening to the anti prohibition arguments at the Airline last night, standing in the crowd at the rear, he felt someone's hand fumbling with his pocket; he pretended not to notice it and presently the hand reached into the pocket for his purse. He at once nabbed the owner of the hand, who turned out to be a young man. The latter was turned over to Constable Will Allen and lodged in jail on a charge of theft from person.

THE BIG ANTI JOKES OF THIS CAMPAIGN FOR KEEPING THE OPEN SALOON

(ADVERTISEMENT)

Our anti friends have fought behind masked batteries and have tried from the beginning to fool the people and beloud the issue which is: "Are Saloons Right or Wrong?" In doing this they have perpetrated some amazing jokes which we will now mention:

Joke No. 1.—The saloon is a moral institution and helps the community to be a better place in which to live and raise a family than does prohibition. To turn 1390 drunks into the courts of this city in one year, and to have 1184 prisoners in the county jail for the same year charged with crime 75 per cent. of which was caused by liquor is of course to improve the morals, over what they would be if the city and county jail was practically empty as it would be under prohibition.

Joke No. 2.—The saloons and their patrons and advocates built the churches and the schools. The people smile when they hear that and no one believes it.

Joke No. 3.—You can't enforce the law and we will have bootleggers. If prohibition is a good thing for the bootlegger why is he and all his kind advocating the open saloon in this campaign? $1,300 spent for liquor every day in Wichita Falls is more than all the bootleggers in every prohibition county from here to the New Mexico line could sell in twelve months.

Joke No. 4.—Property will go down 50 per cent. in value in Wichita Falls if we have prohibition. When we offered to buy it at the price they fixed on it themselves they now declare every body knows "it will go down some."

Joke No. 5.—The bootleggers of Seymour and other places sent the pro committee several hundred dollars for this campaign.

Joke No. 6.—That wonderful and amazing postal card sent out to fool the people about taxes.

But what is the use to argue the matter further. Their whole campaign is a joke from beginning to end but they have fooled no body but themselves.

ABOUT THE TAX CARD

We received in the mail today one of those cards on which is written the following:

Pro Committee:—I would be glad indeed to stand this increase and save thousands of dollars annually for my company has lost through the booze this anti committee is upholding. Please note and return to original sender if you care to.

FRANK CULLINAN.

In compliance with the request of Mr. Cullinan, who is manager for the Producers Oil Company, we are mailing this card today to the anti committee. The Producers Oil Company paid last year to the County and State the sum of $3,735.32 in taxes but still they are willing to increase that 33 1-3 per cent. claimed by the anti committee, if saloons are voted out.

AN OFFER TO THE ANTIS

We will give five dollars for any reputable banker or merchant in a town of our class who will say prohibition injured business.

A LETTER FROM GAINESVILLE

GAINESVILLE, TEXAS, July 23, 1915.

HON. W. J. BULLOCK, Wichita Falls, Texas.
Dear Sir:—I have been informed that it has been currently reported in your city that prohibition in Cooke County has materially injured our business and general prosperity, and that our houses are all vacant, and the conditions generally are very unsatisfactory here. As a business man and having been materially connected with the commercial affairs of our city for the last twenty years I wish to enter my protest, and deny the truth of such statement, and I wish moreover to state that prohibition has much improved the business conditions of our city, and that even under the somewhat depressed conditions in all parts of our State and Southland incident to war our merchants are having prosperous business and our houses, both business and resident are crowded, to utmost capacity, and whereas we had thirty-five vacant business buildings in our city when saloons were voted out, now we have only two or three of any prominence, and they could easily be rented if the landlord would accord to reasonable requirements of tenants.

You hardly find a creditable vacant residence house in our city and never in the history of Gainesville since I have known it, has there been a more universal demand for labor.

As credit manager for one of the largest retail stores in North Texas, I can truthfully say since prohibition went into effect we are extending credit to and even collecting old account, from hundreds of our citizens, who under the saloon regime, were not entitled to and could not receive credit from any business house in the city, as a result families are better fed and clothed, children are better educated and have more opportunities, and the general improvement in every way is so marked, that prominent men who always supported the saloon ticket, say they will never again support the saloon. These same men who worked for the saloon, now checkmate every effort to petition an election to vote on the proposition. Our city is happy and prosperous and there is no possibility, at least in the near future of saloons returning here.

I have many friends in your city who will give credit to my statement above made, and I refer to any bank in our city or to any public officer in our county.

Respectfully yours,

WHITE DARNELL,
Secretary and Treasurer for Wm. Kilgore & Co.

This is from poor old Gainesville, a dead town, according to the antis. Gainesville discharged half of her police force and the city judge since they had prohibition, but still our anti friends say morals are bound to be bad when the saloon leaves.

KANSAS AND OHIO

Kansas has one man in the penitentiary for every 2,250; Ohio has one for every 1,200. Kansas has one insane for every 750; Ohio has one for every 450. Kansas has a bonded indebtedness of $159,000 or less than ten cents for every man, woman and child in the state; Cincinnati alone has a debt of $60,000,000, or more than $165 for every man, woman and child. Cincinnati receives annually from the saloons a revenue of $400,000. Kansas receives nothing. Poor old Kansas, our anti friends still continue to traduce and malign her with figures manufactured for the very purpose, not here, but elsewhere for the very thing for which they are being used.

How many men did the saloons ever make sober? How many did they ever find a job for? How many orphan asylums do they maintain? What good do they do to the community? We call on the anti committee to answer.

SOME COMPARISONS

To the Voters of Wichita County:

In reading the speech of one of the able counsel for the Whisky Element, in this morning's paper, one is appalled, at first thought, by the awful fact that Paris, the incomparable had actually imported some 500 shipments of booze in one whole month. As to just what proportion of these shipments were whiskey and what was beer, we are left in the dark, but it is a matter of common knowledge that express shipments of "lieker" are usually in one-gallon quantities, and that of beer is by the cask of approximately 120 bottles.

Now, it has been asserted that the average sales of the saloons of Wichita Falls is $50.00 per day for each saloon, and the writer has failed to find any refutation of this estimate by the anti people, so we must conclude that this is at least a fair estimate, and the writer does not doubt but that it exceeds this estimate considerably.

But leaving conjecture to others, let's figure on the above basis, and see what prohibition has done for Paris, with a considerably larger population than Wichita Falls.

We will assume that the above amount is equally divided between whiskey and beer, the two leading drinks. Let's see how it figures. $50.00 per day for twenty-six saloons equals $1,300.00 per day, and one-half of $1,300.00 is $650.00. To receive $650.00 in one day from the sale of beer, necessitates the sale of 13,000 glasses of beer at 5c per glass, or reduced to bottles for convenience sake, allowing two glasses to one bottle, we have the equivalent of 6,500 bottles of beer per day, or the enormous total of 169,000 bottles for twenty-six days in a month, which reduced to casks of 120 bottles each gives us approximately 1,400 casks per month consumed by Wichita Falls.

Now, to take in the other half of the daily sales, or $650.00 from the sale of whiskey, it necessitates, at 15c per drink, 4,333 drinks per day, which at sixty-four drinks per gallon (estimated) is equal to sixty-seven gallons per day or 1,742 gallons per month.

Reduced to express shipment terms, this would result in 1,742 shipments of whiskey and 1,400 shipments of beer for one month in the city of Wichita Falls, under the "highly moral" reign of the open saloon.

Think of it. Poor old Paris, with a third more population taking 500 shipments per month and Wichita Falls the staggering total of 3,142 shipments. It is thus shown that Paris is at least 5-6 dry to say the least of it.

To carry the comparison a little further, assuming that half of the Paris shipments were whiskey, there would be 250 gallons of whiskey for which Paris citizens paid say an average of $4.00 per gallon, equalling $1,000.00 per month spent for "booze" against $16,900.00 paid by our Wichita Falls citizens during the same period. Think of it men. $16,900 wasted each month, absolutely gone, and on the beer side, Paris would spend at $10.00 per cask the sum of $2,500.00 for their 250 express shipments, and at the same time Wichita Falls is spending $16,900 for its beer, or totaling the sales, Paris is spending $3,500.00 a month against Wichita Falls $33,800.00.

How do you like it men? Are you going to "stand for it"? This is from the cold-blooded "dollar and cents" standpoint, and does not take into consideration the sorrow and woe, the depravity, the degradation, the ruined homes, the lost virtue of our womanhood, and all of the other logical results of the damnable traffic. Think well, before you vote to continue such conditions.

C. M. McFARLAND.

THAT BOTTLE BABY—WICHITA FALLS

In reply to the recent assertion, in an anti speech, that Wichita Falls is an infant being brought up on a bottle, the undersigned, being an old-fashioned mother of ten would like to ask a few questions.

Why the bottle? In all the anti ranks could not a wet nurse have been found? Surely no self-respecting organization would have risked its child's life with a bottle when real mother's milk could have been had.

All of us old timers well know that the infant is plenty good and ripe for a first class spanking anyway. The hand that rocks the cradle also spans when the infant is not amenable to reason.

Is it not because the bottle has given our infant city a most calamitous case of colic that its well-wishers insist on wresting it from the ignorant nurses so as to give it more sanitary feeding and sane care?

If it has been nourished properly without the oversight of the mothers, why are they not keeping silent and out of sight?

Is there any doubt where the overwhelming majority of Wichita's women stand?

Of course it is hard for men, especially childless men—and more especially unmarried men, and most especially bottle fed men to see why the pacifier must be taken from Wichita Falls. True she may cry for it for a month; but as the light of truth and understanding dawns upon her she will thank God for those who deprived her of the artificial nourishment which dwarfed her growth, dulled her senses and made of her hidden parts whited sepulchres in which all unrighteousness is born and bred.

There is nothing but love in our hearts for the bottle-fed baby—it is a manhandled foundling whom we mothers would feign give a bath, clothe in the white robes of Right—then hold to the breast where no mother need feel ashamed that the child belongs to her. A mother's breast is the God-given right of every child born in Christendom and no bottle-fed child ever measured up to the standard of perfection.

When that procession of the innocent parades our streets Saturday look into the eyes of our helpless ones before you drop your ballot into the box. Have one big, honest thought which is all your own. If that fails then look at the mothers—your wife—aye! Your next the Mastermind itself—your mother stands there offering herself as a substitute for the bottle which you are tempted to vote for.

Shall it be said of the sons of Wichita Falls that they proffered their own mothers stones when they asked for bread?

If there is one anti mother who wishes to keep the baby's bottle clean won't she please, let us hear from her over her own good name?

At The Theaters

The Majestic.

Today's feature is "Wormwood" the famous Fox production. Of all the highly popular and famous books written by Marie Corell, none has attained the world wide fame of "Wormwood," pictured for William Fox, with an all star cast of Broadway favorites. The novel literally turned the world upside down with its depiction and was responsible for the United States law which bars the importation of absinthe in any form to this country. The story it tells is a strikingly absorbing one and brimming with dramatic power and force. In the pictorialization the novel gains tremendously in strength and interest as no expense or effort has been spared to make of "Wormwood" the picture of the year.

At the beginning of the story, Gaston Beauvais (John Salspols), a young aristocrat and banker, is engaged to Pauline de Charmilles (Ethel Kaufmann), a charming girl of excellent family, the daughter of an old Royalist Count (Frank de Verdon). A transient sailor at the Charminier's mansion is an exceedingly handsome young ecclesiastic studying for holy orders, Sylvion Guidel (Chas. Arthur). Fascinated by Guidel's charm and manner, Pauline slowly falls in love with him while Gaston never suspecting that anything is wrong, comes Guidel among his dearest friends.

One night in a savage, icy gale Gaston opens his door to a veiled visitor. It is Pauline who has braved the storm to come to her fiancée's rooms.

"My love, Gaston," she exclaims and then launches into the confession of her relations with Sylvion.

Gaston, thunderstruck, a first is incredulous; but at last Pauline compels belief.

With this confession it seems as if Gaston's reason will totter. He forsakes his companions and as the time for the wedding approaches becomes more and more downcast. Through an artist friend he receives an introduction to the soul and mind destroying drink, absinthe. He becomes an abject drunk, drinking all the time and sinks to the lowest stage of degradation. The finale is pitiful and carries with it a convincing moral.

The Gem.
Herbert Prior is featured in a three part Edison drama, "The Test." A synopsis is given.

Tom Nell, clerk in the law office of Robert Polindexter, is a man of no principles or ethics. When reproached by John Burly, a lawyer in the office, for stealing the "dope" sheet of a newspaper so as to get a line on the horses, he resents it strongly and the seeds of hatred are sown. Subsequently, Burly, in debt to the extent of $300 to George Laughlin, a newspaper man, steals the money from the Polindexter office, as the back of Luke Jackson, the cashier, is turned. Because of inaccuracies discovered in Nell's accounts previous, the charge of theft is made against Nell. Burly, however, admits the theft and writes out a confession to that effect. He is then dismissed and the police are not advised.

Previous to the theft, Helen Polindexter, niece of Robert, had visited in New York, and became acquainted with Burly, through her uncle. A warm friendship sprang up between them. After the trouble at the office, Burly leaves the city and comes to correspond with Helen, resolving at first to make good. Helen, soon returns to her home in the west. At most a year has passed, and Burly has turned up in the west, in the same town where Helen resides.

Early in the public square, Helen features obscured by a heavy veil, dispenses food to the poor. On one occasion she hands food to Burly, who has kept straight and paid back some of the money to Robert Polindexter. A note is slipped into her hand by Burly who does not recognize her. She reads the note, which is an appeal for assistance. The following day she decides to test him and doing her best where he sees it. A few hours after Burly returns the purse to her at her home when he faints from hunger. He recognizes her later and is persuaded to remain in Helen's home until he recovers. Helen writes to her uncle in New York telling how grateful she has found Burly to be with the result that a recommendation is sent on for Burly by Robert Polindexter and his confession is torn up. Next through the keyhole, sees Burly peep over the keyhole, sees her and gets it and pastes it together.

With revenge in his heart and seeing a chance to blackmail Burly, now a lawyer in the office of ex-Judge Gary, Nell goes west and puts it up to Burly, who buys the confession. Nell substitutes a decoy for the original, which he sells to District Attorney Wallace, Burly's opponent for political office. George Laughlin, now editor of the newspaper in the same western town, supports Burly strongly for the office, but Wallace's disclosures of the theft are endangering Burly's chances. Helen, whom Wallace has been paying attentions to, succeeds in tearing off the signature from the confession in Wallace's office, so when the confession is shown newspaper men, it has no significance and is declared a forgery. Consequently Burly wins both the election and Helen's hand.

The Empress.
A two part Kay Bee with Jack Davidson, Ethel Ullman and J. J. Dowling. Mutual Weekly air play. Scenes from various lands and happenings of much interest with a Romance drama, "The Celestial Code" make up today's program. Irene Hunt, George Walsh and Dark Cloud are featured in the latter picture, a story of which follows:

After a meeting of the Junta, Vasco Carillo, leader of the revolutionary party of Salvador, with its headquarters in Los Angeles, places valuable military plans in his safe in the night of his mansion. That same night Sato, Carillo's Japanese cook, a paid spy in the interest of the Salvadorian government, steals the plans hiding them behind a brick in the kitchen chimney. The house is roused and Carillo telephones to Glen Morton, a famous private detective. Morton tips off Adele Block, reporter on the Morning Dispatch. They drive together to Carillo's mansion. A thorough search of house and servants fails to produce the papers or any clew. Adele, who has not been seen by the servants, arranges to stay with the family as their guest. Next day she sees Sato flying a kite in the garden—ostensibly to amuse the Carillo children. She notices, however, certain combinations of colored tissue paper which he attaches to the kite. Making note of the colors and how they are used, she reports to Morton. The detective takes Adele's notations to an expert in Oriental matters. He recognizes in the color combinations the celestial code which he has the key. The signals, interpreted, state that Sato will place the stolen papers in the laundry package, leaving the Carillo mansion at 11 o'clock that day. It is now seven minutes to 11. Morton telephones Adele, who, on hearing the laundry delivery machine before the house, rushes out to the Carillo automobile, drawn up at the door, and gives chase. She tracks the Japanese, with the papers, to a noodle shop in the Japanese section of the town. Then she calls up Morton, telling him to join her at once. Fearful of losing her man, Adele enters the shop, where she is seized, gagged and bound and carried upstairs, where the Salvadorians are holding a meeting. Understanding Spanish, she is able to make out that one of their members is commissioned to take the documents of the revolutionist leader back to Salvador and that he has only a few minutes in which to catch the steamer, Garcia, one of the gang, is appointed to watch Adele. The others leave. By a clever ruse, she gets hold of the Spaniard's gun. She wounds Garcia, and fights her way downstairs and into her automobile, driving at top speed to the boat landing. Morton arrives at the shop, and then rushes to the wharf, as the steamer is pulling out with Adele on board. He charts a path and gives pursuit. On deck, Adele corners the Salvadorian, who leaps into the sea. She goes overboard after him. Morton, on the tug, comes up just in time to save Adele from being drowned by the Salvadorian, with whom she is fighting desperately.

NEW QUESTIONS INVOLVED IN HABEAS CORPUS HEARING

Austin, Texas, July 27.—Two new questions are involved in the hearing of an application for writ of habeas corpus here today in the case of ex-parto A. C. Saylor from Hill county, given an indeterminate term of not less than five nor more than 25 years imprisonment upon conviction of the murder of Joe Kirkpatrick. Saylor was convicted April 20 last and the case appealed to the court of criminal appeals where a reversal was ordered. Later, while this court was in vacation for the summer, the state filed a motion for a rehearing. Notwithstanding the case had been reversed and remanded, the sheriff of Hill county, it is charged in the application, to be heard today, refused to discharge Saylor on bail bond, approved prior to his trial. The questions to be decided are whether the sheriff had legal authority to refuse to accept Saylor's original bond, after reversal of his case, on the ground, the sheriff contends, that the state's motion for a new hearing would deprive Saylor of his liberty, and whether there is warrant under the law on criminal cases for the state to file a rehearing motion after adjournment of the court which reversed the case.

DOES YOUR FAMILY LIKE GOOD PRESERVES?

In most families the question isn't do they like preserves but how often can they afford to serve them.

Not because good preserves are expensive but because most women haven't yet formed the habit of buying preserves ready for the table.

Home made preserves are expensive in material, time and labor and with the multitude of other things to be done, preserving time comes and goes with only a little put up.

Those women who have tested Bismark Preserves are not bothered that way.

They can serve the world's best preserves any time without effort. You can too.

Your choice of Peach, Blackberry, Strawberry or Plum only 50c per quart jar.

I have a splendid line of jams, preserves and jellies—come in and see it.

MRS. W. J. NOLEN CIRCLE HOSTESS MONDAY AFTERNOON

The ladies of Circle No. 1 of the Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church, South, met Monday afternoon in social session with Mrs. W. J. Nolen. Social conversation was enjoyed for some time, the ladies being also entertained with readings by Misses Wyatt, Adams and Little Miss Nolen. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be conducted by this circle the first week in October. Ice cream and cake was served at the conclusion of a very delightful afternoon.

EXCELLENT MEETING OF B. W. A. MONDAY MORNING

The Woman's Alliance of the First Baptist Church met Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the church parlors. The regular monthly missionary program was carried out with Mrs. C. W. Rountree as speaker. "Home Mission" being the lesson topic. Mrs. R. P. Watts gave an interesting talk on "Missions in the Islands" and Miss Burgess' narration of the mountain mission schools was instructive and much enjoyed. A biographical sketch of Martha Sullinger was given by Mrs. Maxwell and vocal numbers by Madames E. L. Fulton, C. Y. Tully and W. M. Priddy added much to the program.

Miss Bruce Dickson went to Nocona this morning for a short visit.

The ladies of the Catholic church will hold a lawn social Wednesday evening on the convent grounds. Everybody invited. 64 2tc

SEMI-MONTHLY FIRE DRILLS AT LOCAL EXCHANGE

Twice each month hereafter fire drills will be held at the exchange of the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Company at Wichita Falls. During a very few minutes on the days when these drills occur, service will wait while the young women are marshalled at their positions and march by the stairway to the street.

"The treasury of the young women of the switchboard has been proven in many instances," explains Manager C. A. Boutte, "in flood and fire and storm at different points over the country they have remained at their posts as long as the wire were working. The safety of whole communities has often rested in their hands. The lives and property of individual subscribers in Wichita Falls as everywhere else, are frequently theirs to protect."

"Now the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Company has developed a plan for the protection of these community protectors. Fire drills at the exchange have been held before but never in such a comprehensive way as to include all the operators. We believe, though," he continued, "that the slight inconvenience to patrons of the company attendant upon such protective measures, will be understood and the conditions appreciated."

"There are now 25 young women on duty during the busiest hours in the local exchange. Twice each month at irregular intervals and without previous notice, the fire gongs will ring and the switchboards will be deserted for a minute or so while the girls march to the streets. Drills will be carried on exactly as if a fire was in progress."

PRO RIDICULES ANTI ARGUMENT ANTIS DENY THAT BREWERS CONTRIBUTE

JUDGE CARRIGAN DISCUSSES BUSINESS AND MORAL ASPECTS ONLY TWO OUTSIDE MEN HAVE DONATED TO CAMPAIGN FUND

HE CHALLENGES OPPONENTS BONNER TELLS OF HIS TRIP

Points to Other Cities and Counties in Texas Where Prohibition is Now in Effect Said He Found Conditions Very Bad at Paris and Deplorable at Sherman and Denison

In a prohibition address before a crowd of several hundred persons at the corner of Eighth and Indiana Monday night, Judge A. H. Carrigan took up the anti arguments that prohibition doesn't prohibit and crime will increase under prohibition, and that prohibition will kill the town. He declared that these arguments were shown wrong and had been disproven in scores of Texas towns and counties and that one didn't have to go far from home to learn the utter falsity of these claims.

Taking up the argument that prohibition doesn't prohibit Mr. Carrigan said that the anti couldn't get a drinking man in one of these dry counties in this section of the state to make such a claim. He said it was true that the court records in many counties would show an increase of felony cases the first year after prohibition went into effect. He said in counties which voted prohibition now that bootlegging became a felony and that the first year under prohibition usually resulted in the trial and conviction of the criminals who remained from the saloon regime and after that there was little further trouble. He said that a number of years ago when the local option law was new there was considerable trouble in getting convictions in bootlegging cases and in making the convictions stick in the higher courts. Now he said all these points have been passed upon by the higher courts and bootleggers are now promptly convicted and sent to the penitentiary and there is no more trouble from them.

"Just let a man try to sell whiskey in Wilbarger, Clay, Archer or any other of our neighboring counties," exclaimed Judge Carrigan, "he will get the extreme penalty of the law. I grant you that there may be some whiskey sold in any of these counties if it is sold by some bootlegger running through the country as fast as a jack rabbit. If he ever stops he is caught and sent to the penitentiary."

He characterized as buncombe and balderdash the argument of the anti that prohibition will paralyze business and ruin the town. "I this was so," he asked, "why hadn't it ruined Greenville, Sherman, Texasiana, Paris, Hillsboro, Denison and other towns in the class of Wichita Falls? He offered to send any good anti to any one or all of these towns to count the number of empty business houses and the number of empty dwellings and make a canvass to find out if there were as many empty in any of them as right now in Wichita Falls."

"They've sent some of their bilious young gentlemen to some of these towns to try to dig up something to make you believe that prohibition has ruined these towns," said Judge Carrigan. "Have you ever seen a word from one of them?"

"Oh but some young whippersnapper of a cleric holder whom you will find leaning over the bar giving the bartender a confidential talk in the hope of a free drink will say 'I'm going to vote for the saloons for business reasons.'"

Judge Carrigan said that there was a big Cooke county property owner in Wichita Falls yesterday who had told him and had told others that business was doing a better business, cleaner and easier in every way under prohibition than under saloons. Voices from the audience said "We know him; that's right."

He said that Greenville now had eighteen miles of pavement and that bank deposits had more than doubled under prohibition and that Greenville merchants were doing a bigger, better and safer business under prohibition. Greenville, he said, had never amounted to anything as long as the town had saloons. Now it was one of the most prosperous and progressive cities in the state. "Yes, and Hunt county is building forty miles of paved roads," said a voice from the audience.

Judge Carrigan mentioned as factors in Wichita Falls growth, railroads, the Chamber of Commerce, oil and gas and the rich developing territory around us and asked if the saloons had been responsible for any of these elements.

"Did the saloons build these factories?" he asked. "Did they build these churches. Take that crowd do they want the news of any of these churches? Take that fellow who hangs over the bar giving the bartender a confidential talk, what is he doing for Wichita Falls or for these churches, pastors? I'll tell you preacher you, that's what he will. But the bartender won't. He hasn't gotten that low. You won't hear the bartender speak disrespectfully of the church or the preacher."

He declared that when the people closed the saloons the gambler would go and the brothel would close its doors. "They won't last 24 hours," he said. He pictured some well fed man driving around in a big automobile with a high collar and big diamond "like an English Lord or German Duke." "That's the fellow," he said; "the poor sick girl down in the flats is working for. When we vote out the saloons, he'll have to go."

MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tomorrow is the day set for the election of Becker, ex-lieutenant of police of the city of New York, convicted for the murder of Rosenthal, the gambler.

The State tax rate this year is the highest ever known in this commonwealth. This reminds the old-timer of the E. J. Davis regime, only a little more so.

In England some are talking of making cotton absolute contraband. England should remember that among the acts that caused the war of 1812 were acts similar to this.

That's about the correct way to size up the situation. England should be taught to understand there is no better time than right now to begin showing her a few things.

The United States can not, of course, admit the right of Great Britain to say that we shall ship to neutral countries only so much cotton as they have become accustomed to take in time of peace.

DEFEAT OF THE AMENDMENTS.

(Houston Post) It will require full returns from Saturday's election to decide the fate of the amendment to separate the University and the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

While a constitutional amendment is often of far greater importance than an individual, the people are interested more in the election of an individual than in a measure of organic law.

We can see from Saturday's election that the State must depend upon a constitutional convention to revise the organic law, otherwise its power is bound to be more or less restricted under the obsolete instrument which now shackles its powers.

Another difficulty is that nobody debates an amendment before the people. The meager information that is obtained from the press by those who reside in the rural districts militates not only against a full expression, but draws opposition from many who fear that the politicians, by asking them to vote upon words and sentences whose meaning and purport are not understood, are trying to "put something over."

All the six amendments but one were worthy, and that one would have been worthy, but for the inclusion of a "joke."

Wichita, Kansas, July 24, 1915.

Mr. Chas. W. Bean,
Wichita Falls, Texas.

Dear sir:

Enclosed you will find a statement signed by J. L. Gilchrist, clerk of the district court, showing that the total number of cases which were filed in the district courts in Sedgwick county for the year 1914, including both civil and criminal, amounted to 1501 of which 207 were for violation of the prohibitory law, injunctions against the owners of property, etc. Mr. Gilchrist advised me over the phone that these 207 cases is a great deal more than all the other criminal cases filed in the district court combined and authorized me to insert this in the affidavit, but I take it that this will be sufficient.

I am also enclosing you a statement signed and sworn to by Clarence F. Grant. He is one of the desk sergeants of the police department in this city, which shows, beginning July 1, 1914 and continuing up to July 1, 1915, making twelve months, there was filed in the police court 3,965 cases, 1,716 of these cases was for drunkenness and 322 of these cases was for violation of the prohibitory law, or what is commonly termed a liquor nuisance.

Trusting that this will be satisfactory and wishing you success on the 31st and asking you to advise me by wire at my expense as soon as the result is known, I am,

Yours very truly,

EUGENE JACKSON.

HERE IS SOME REAL KANSAS INFORMATION:

State of Kansas, County of Sedgwick, ss.

Clarence F. Grant, of lawful age, being first duly sworn deposes and says that he is one of the desk sergeants of the Wichita, Kansas, Police Department, and that he has examined the records of the Police Court of said city, beginning July 1st, 1914, and continuing up to July 1st, 1915, and that there was filed in said court within the time above mentioned three thousand nine hundred and sixty-five, (3,965) cases, of which amount there was one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, (1,716) for drunkenness and three hundred and twenty-two, (322) for violation of the prohibitory law. So help me God.

(Signed) C. F. GRANT.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 24th day of July, 1915.

(Signed) EUGENE JACKSON,

Notary Public.

My commission expires January 30th, 1918.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF SEDGWICK COUNTY, KANSAS

State of Kansas, Sedgwick County, ss.

I, J. L. Gilchrist, Clerk of the District Court of Sedgwick County, Kansas, do hereby certify that I have examined the records of this court for the year beginning January 1st, 1914, and ending December 31st, 1914, and find the following to exist:

There were filed in this court in 1914, 1501 cases of which 207 were made up of violation of the prohibitory law, injunction against owners of property and tenants where liquor was supposed to have been sold, and appeals from Police Court filed in this office of parties convicted in Police Court of violating the prohibitory law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this court in Wichita, Kansas, this 24th day of July, A. D. 1915.

(Signed) J. L. GILCHRIST,

Clerk of the District Court.

Failure of Prohibition As Shown by the Following Authorities:

In an issue of Leslie's Weekly Hon. Royal E. Cabell, former United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, after presenting government statistics as to conditions in Kansas, says:

"If prohibition is the cause of wonderfully low death rate, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why has Topeka, the capital of Kansas, a death rate higher than that of 17 capital cities in states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and its death rate is exceeded by the rate in only eleven capital cities in registration era, four of which eleven are in prohibition states?"

If prohibition prevents death by violence, whether by accident or design, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why do the registration cities in the state of Kansas show a death rate from this cause higher than the death rate from the same cause in the registration cities of twenty-eight states in which liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition prevents homicide, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the homicide rate in Kansas higher than the homicide rate in fourteen of the twenty-three registration states, attention being called to the fact that of these fourteen states having a homicide rate lower than Kansas, in twelve of them liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition prevents suicide, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the suicide rate in Kansas higher than in twenty-one states in which liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition makes homes happy, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the annual average divorce rate in Kansas higher than the divorce rate in twenty-nine states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and why the rate of divorce to wives on account of drunkenness and cruelty, and why the rapid rate of increase in the number of divorces?

If prohibition is a benefit to the church, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the per centage of church membership in Kansas lower than the per centage in thirty-seven states in which liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition saves the boy and the girl, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the rate of juvenile delinquency higher in the state of Kansas than in sixteen states in which liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition improves the mental status of the community and prevents insanity, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the rate of insanity in Kansas higher than the rate of insanity in sixteen states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and why the tremendous increase in the rate of insanity in Kansas in recent years, although so many counties report no insane, and why should it cost Kansas nearly one million dollars annually to care for her insane, juvenile delinquents, imbeciles and epileptics?

If prohibition eliminates crime, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the rate of prisoners confined for grave and lesser homicides higher in Kansas than in twenty-four states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and for general offences higher in Kansas than in nine states in which liquor is lawfully sold?

If prohibition prevents pauperism and produces prosperity, and is the cause of thrift, and prohibition does prohibit in Kansas, why is the pauper rate in Kansas higher than ten states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and why is that Kansas has a smaller proportion of its citizens with savings accounts than in thirty-seven states in which liquor is lawfully sold, and why is that the savings accounts of the relatively few Kansans who have them average only about one-half of the savings accounts of the rest of the country?

COMING HOME TO VOTE

The following letter has been received from J. B. Parker, whose residence is in this city, but who is at present in Amarillo. Mr. Parker is one of the host who is paying out a home in Wichita Falls and naturally feels an interest in the success of the contest against prohibition now being waged, and his acquaintance with conditions in Amarillo is no doubt responsible, in a measure, for his position in this matter.

"Amarillo, Texas, July 22, 1915. Mr. A. H. Britain, Wichita Falls, Texas. Dear Mayor: I am sending today the delinquent tax list of Amarillo. Thought it may be some help in the fight against the pros of Wichita. I understand that Mayor Beasley recommended that you put Wichita dry. How does this tax list speak for a prosperous town? I am a voter of Wichita Falls. Am in Amarillo now, but will be home with a good wet one on election day. I see your name on the anti committee, is the reason I write you. I certainly hope that the antis will come out victoriously, is my prayer. Yours respectfully, (Signed) J. B. PARKER."

WICHITA FALLS ANTI-PROHIBITION COMMITTEE

PRAETORIAN MEMBERSHIP CONTEST CLOSED MONDAY

A very successful membership contest in the local council of the Modern Order of Praetorians was closed last night with the "white" side captained by George C. Taylor as winner. The "purples" led by Miss Mary Hamrner were but a few behind. Mrs. J. L. Bond will receive the $25 in gold as a special prize for individual effort and George C. Taylor as second will choose the best hat in town.

In the sixty days of the contest one hundred and ten new members were added, eighty-four of which were secured in the last fourteen days and twenty-two of these were acquired on the last day. On next Thursday night the winners will be the guests of the losers at a dance at the lake pavilion and at a future date not now determined will be entertained at a banquet.

Advices from the supreme lodge to officers of the local council express much pleasure at this visible evidence of that much heralded quality "the Wichita way" and congratulates the city on having one of the finest councils in the Praetorian jurisdiction.

KATY EMPLOYEES ORGANIZE AN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
St. Louis, July 27.—The promotion of clean athletics and good fellowship among the 20,000 employees of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas lines is the object of a movement launched in St. Louis in the organization of the Katy Lines Athletic Association. This organization is the outgrowth of local associations of the Katy employes and officials at Parsons, Kan., at which point the railroad company has placed at the disposal of the association ten or twelve acres of land, practically in the heart of the city for use as an athletic field. Similar local organizations will be formed at various central points. A general committee of nineteen, of which C. G. Elliott of Dallas is chairman, and George Howser of Parsons, secretary, will direct the activities of the association. The first system athletic meet will be held at Denison, Texas, November 5, 1915.

ANOTHER HEARING LIKELY ON INCREASE APPLICATION
By Associated Press
Austin, Texas, July 27.—Announcement has been made here that the Texas railroad commission will not decide finally what action to take in the application by Texas railroads for increased freight rates until some time in September. Another hearing on the application, it is announced, probably will be held about September 1 next.

ABOUT 1000 GINNERS APPLY FOR LICENSES

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, July 27.—About 1000 cotton ginneries in Texas have so far applied for and received licenses to operate their gins in accordance with the permanent warehouse law, and by the time the coming cotton season opens, about Sept. 1, it is expected in official quarters here there will be a rush for such permits. Ginneries generally, it is understood, have decided to abide by the law—at least until they have given the new statute a fair trial. There are more than 5000 ginneries ordinarily operating in Texas. It was stated recently certain ginneries would test the new law in the courts.

LET US TAKE JUST ONE MORE LITTLE DRINK, AND WE'LL ALL GO HOME

An old familiar refrain, that is heard often at our fountain. One more little drink of the nectar of sweetness served in a manner that will tickle the palate of the most fastidious. If you haven't tried our nut carmel made into drinks and smothered with spanked cream, you don't know what real goodness in the drink line is. We serve all the good drinks at our fountain or send them out when ordered.

MARY GARDEN

with magic skill, Monsieur Rigaud has succeeded in conveying in this delightful perfume, the eternal wonder of the Diva's charm. It is a marvelous blending of the fragrance of flowers and the sweetness of a woman. In far Mandalay the beautiful Orientals use Mary Garden Perfume as an offering to the priests in the Temples of Buddha.

GENUINE CRYSTAL CUT GLASS

A lucky opportunity in buying gives us a chance to give our customers a line of Genuine Cut Glass at prices less than jewelers would bother to handle it for. This new line is in the Butterfly pattern—as pretty as the butterfly itself. It is deep cut and the design goes through all the different pieces. We offer you water sets at $5, or the pitcher at $3.50 and the glasses at 25 cents each; ice tea glasses are 25 cents each; sherbet dishes with glass trays to match are 50 cents each. There are also pieces in vases, fruit and berry dishes, compotes, celery trays, etc., at very low prices.
