

SERBIANS AND ALLIES ARE MARCHING ON BULGARIA; FIGHTING FOR RAILROAD

ASSISTANCE GIVEN BY FRENCH FORCES; BULGARS RETIRE

ARE REPORTED, HOWEVER, TO HAVE FIRST CUT IMPORTANT RAILWAY LINE FROM SALONIKI IN DIRECTION OF NISH.

FIGHTING ALONG WEST FRONT

Both French and Germans Claim Minor Successes—Fighting Continues in Galicia and Also at Riga on Eastern Front.

By Associated Press. London, Oct. 18.—Serbian and Anglo-French troops have occupied the Bulgarian town of Stumitsa, thirty miles north of Saloniki, according to official telegrams from Athens. This followed closely upon news that Serbians with allied assistance, have repulsed a Bulgarian attack at Dilandovo, turning the advance of the Bulgars into a retreat beyond their own border.

The chief military importance of the Allied-Serbian success is the defeat of the Bulgarian project for cutting the Saloniki-Nish railroad which is known to have been the Bulgarian objective. It is not clear whether British troops cooperated with the French in this action but a message from Athens stating that they had left Saloniki for the Serbo-Bulgarian frontier indicated they at least were near the scene of fighting. Russian and Italian help thus far has been only indirectly exerted by increased aggressive action against the Germans, rendering the sending of German forces to the Balkans impractical.

In the eastern theater the Germans are again attacking the Russian positions southeast of Riga but Petrograd statements say this is purely a demonstration calculated to distract attention from the Dvina region and Galicia, which have gained greatly in importance with the Balkan developments. It is clear that although the battle which General Ivanhoff is fighting continues with varying success, the Germans have been unable to establish themselves on the eastern bank of the river Styr.

With an intense artillery fire on both sides in the Champagne region the French war office reports slight progress. A strong barricade to the southeast of Neuville has been captured and the Givency wood positions have been consolidated. The French forces repulsed completely last night three German attacks, according to an announcement this morning by the war office. These took place northeast of Souchez.

According to a special dispatch to a Paris newspaper from Saloniki rumors are current there that the Bulgarians have already cut the Nish-Saloniki line at Erange, about twenty miles west of the Bulgarian border. Following up their blockade of the Bulgarian ports operations by land and sea against Bulgaria along the Aegean shores are to be prosecuted by the entente allies including Italy. Two-thirds of the Serbian army is said to have been sent against the Bulgarians while the remaining third is resisting Field Marshal Mackensen in the north.

A dispatch from La Panne in Belgium says a German attempt to break the Belgian lines on the Yser front Saturday and Sunday night was foiled by the Belgians. Seventy-one lives were lost when the French steamer Amiral Hamelin was sunk by a submarine last week in the Mediterranean, according to a Paris dispatch. The submarine is said to have been an Austrian vessel.

While Bulgarian and Serbo-French forces are clashing for the possession of the Saloniki-Nish roads, in Southern Serbia, the Austro-German invaders are continuing their advance from the north. Berlin today reported further progress for the Teutonic allies south of Belgrade. The entente allies have landed troops at Enos on the Aegean Sea, in European Turkey, close to the Bulgarian border, according to an Athens dispatch. The Bulgarians pressing from the east to form a junction with the Teutonic forces coming from the north have captured additional heights.

German airmen dropped bombs on the French fortress of Belfort, Berlin, announces.

In Russia, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has reported good progress in his attack of Riga.

DISCRIMINATION ALLEGED IN SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD

Case of J. E. Frazier Against Fort Worth & Denver on Trial in District Court

The suit of J. E. Frazier against the Fort Worth & Denver railroad is on trial before a jury in the 78th district court today. Frazier who is a resident of Vernon is asking $1500 in penalties against the railroad for alleged discrimination.

In his petition he alleged he drove down from Vernon in his automobile on the night of June 6th, 1915 during the flood season and bought a ticket to Fort Worth. The ticket agent, he said, told him that the train was several hours late but assured him that it would go through to Fort Worth that morning. On this representation, he said, he remained in Wichita Falls and that his wife and daughter returned to Vernon in the automobile.

On the day following service being suspended between Wichita Falls and Fort Worth over the Denver a train was made up here and run to Fort Worth via the Wichita Valley and the Texas & Pacific. Other passengers were carried through, the plaintiff alleged, but he was refused transportation on this train, and was told that he would have to buy a ticket to Fort Worth, at a cost greater than the ticket he had already bought to Fort Worth from Wichita Falls. On the second day he was also refused passage on the train by way of Abilene and the Texas & Pacific but on the third day he was taken. He asks $500 penalties for each of the two days he was refused passage on this train and $200 penalty for requirement of the railway company that he exchange his ticket for another at a higher cost.

Judge Nicholson overruled the defendant's demurrers and the selection of a jury was begun this morning. The plaintiff is represented by Judge C. B. Felder, Judge J. T. Montgomery is representing the defendant.

Court Like Millionaire's Convention. New Haven Anti-Trust Suit Begins

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER • HENRY K. MCHARG

William Rockefeller, Henry K. McHarg and nine other past or present directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company appeared in the federal district court in New York to stand trial before Judge Hunt and a jury on a charge of having conspired to violate the Sherman law by seeking to monopolize all the transportation facilities of New England. In the eleven defendants and their counsel Judge Hunt had before him a collection of individuals the personal wealth and ability of whom probably never before had been equaled in any court room. Mr. Rockefeller not only ranks as one of the wealthiest men in the world, but has been one of the important railroad men of the country. The ten other defendants also are men of wealth and importance in the railroad or industrial world. Their attorneys include some of the best known lawyers.

The case is the most important since the passage of the Sherman law in 1890. It is the first time since that law was enacted that a railroad company has been charged with monopolizing the transportation facilities of a large section of the country. The case is expected to be tried for several weeks. The railroad company has been accused of conspiring to monopolize the transportation facilities of New England. The case is expected to be tried for several weeks. The railroad company has been accused of conspiring to monopolize the transportation facilities of New England.

CARRANZA CLAIMS SUBSTANTIAL GAINS

PROGRESS AGAINST BOTH ZAPATA AND VILLA FORCES MENTIONED IN REPORT.

VALUE OF MONEY INCREASING

Food Supplies in Large Quantities Are Said to Be Arriving in Mexico City

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 18.—Carranza reports today say Toluca, near Mexico City, has been taken from Zapata forces, that nearly half the state of Chihuahua is completely controlled by Carranza troops and that Juarez is cut off from the interior and that many towns in the north are armistice attacks by Villa forces. It was reported that before evacuating Parral the Villa troops sacked the city. Food supplies in large quantities were said to be arriving in Mexico City.

One dispatch reported the defeat of Villa troops on the west coast. The value of Carranza money continues to increase. Reports that Zapata had threatened Americans are discounted in today's dispatches, which say no Americans are known to be in his territory. Gen. Carranza's war office has been moved from Vera Cruz to Mexico City.

Since the Pan-American conference announced its decision to recognize Carranza a wide-spread effect on the internal situation in Mexico has been noted in official reports. The chief result has been the apparent crumbling of opposition to Carranza. Many Zapata leaders and Villa generals surrendered or left the country. Amnesty has been freely granted to those laying down their arms. The work of restoring railroads is progressing slowly, however, and officials here realize that the problem of pacification is far from solved.

Religious Liberty Promised. Opposition from officials of the Catholic church in this country to the recognition of General Carranza continues to be manifested in various ways. Secretary Lansing before deciding on recognition elicited definite promises from the Carranza authorities that "no one would suffer in his life and property" because of religious belief. Administration officials feel, therefore, that the Carranza assurances must be taken as an index of future policy and the attitude of the Carranza authorities toward the clergy awaited before judgment is passed.

Eusebio Arredondo issued a statement on conditions in Mexico saying: "General Alvaro Obregon has just made a lengthy official report regarding recent operations in the fourteen states of the republic under his command. In general the division of the north-west, according to a cablegram received in Washington. These statements comprise all the northern portions of Mexico and the report shows that the only organized opposition to the Carranza government is confined to portions of the states of Sonora and Chihuahua. An expedition has been dispatched into the state of Sonora to aid the constitutional forces already ready there smothering the Maytorena arms."

Two Italian aeroplanes gave chase to the enemy which flew back to its own lines, dropping a series of bombs, one of which fell close to the king.

COUNSEL OUTLINES GOVERNMENT CASE AGAINST NEW HAVEN

TELLS OF ROADS OPERATIONS AND PURCHASES SINCE SHERMAN LAW BECAME EFFECTIVE IN 1890. TEXAN AN ATTORNEY

BOSTON & MAINE'S ACQUISITION IS AWAITED WITH INTEREST

Says Railroad Paid Man $2,750,000 to Buy Stock and Hold It—Tells How Railroad Acquired Holdings of All Competitors

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 18.—The jurors chosen to try William Rockefeller and ten other directors or former directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, charged with conspiracy to monopolize interstate commerce under the Sherman law, took their seats in the federal court today to hear the opening address of R. L. Batts, attorney for the government.

Mr. Batts expected to occupy the whole day and probably all of tomorrow in telling the jury what the government intended to prove. He planned to outline the case in chronological order, beginning in 1890, the date of the enactment of the Sherman law and tracing the various transactions under which formerly independent roads, trolley lines and steamship companies in New England were brought into the New Haven fold.

"The New Haven railroad," he said, "which once owned only 528 miles of track, acquired all its competitors until it controlled 7,500 miles of line and gained a position where every person engaged in business in New England, and every enterprise was under its power and control."

Steamships and trolley lines were similarly acquired, he said, and a complete monopoly of all transportation traffic attained, a monopoly that was unlawful and "designed to place an unlimited power in the hands of these conspirators."

Mr. Batts then went into the acquisition of the Boston & Maine. He told of the Massachusetts court decision which restrained the New Haven from holding Boston & Maine stock "and the appearance on the scene of John L. Dillard who took over the Boston & Maine shares temporarily."

"The New Haven," said the attorney, "through this stock deal, for the use of the name of John L. Dillard for one year, paid him $2,750,000."

"It will be for you to determine whether this money was spent in a regular and proper manner or in an unlawful manner for the purpose of gaining a monopoly."

Mr. Batts is a Texan, a former law partner of Attorney-General Gregory, he was employed by the government to represent it especially in these suits. Mr. Batts' home is in Austin where he has been engaged in private practice. He was formerly a member of the law faculty of the State University.

WILSON PLANS TO GO ON STUMP FOR DEFENSE PROGRAM

WILL SPEAK BEFORE MANHATTAN CLUB IN NEW YORK ON NOVEMBER 4TH TO EXPLAIN NECESSITY FOR TAKING ACTION.

Expected to Show Motive for New Plans—Building Program Will Tax Capacity of American Yards for Several Years, It Is Said

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 18.—President Wilson will open his campaign for his national defense program in a speech before the Manhattan Club in New York on November 4. It will be the president's first public utterance on this subject since he approved the plans prepared by Secretary Garrison and Secretary Daniels and the speech is expected to be of significance because the president is expected to disclose the reasons he will urge on Congress why the United States should be more adequately prepared for defense.

Today the president received a letter from the Maryland peace delegation for national defense asking him to take steps to assure the United States against attack from abroad. The five year naval building program which contemplated the addition of sixteen ships to the navy by 1920 will tax the normal capacity of American shipyards in the opinion of American navy officers. Secretary Daniels said today that that fact had much weight in determining what period the expenditure of $500,000,000 which will be asked, will be distributed. American yards now are busy with new ships and have contracts to keep them engaged for several years.

VILLA DESERTERS PURSUED AND OVER 300 EXECUTED

Men Who Quit Rebel Chieftain Are Overtaken and Most of Them Put to Death

El Paso, Oct. 18.—An official report from the mobilization army of General Francisco Villa (Cass) grades received Saturday narrates the desertion of three generals and 300 men, who were pursued and practically exterminated, while an alleged bribe paid one general for deserting was seized, together with a number of prisoners.

"General Donato Lopez Pallas, chief of the Chao brigade," says the report, "General Criel Lopez and Colonel Angel Ochoa deserted eight days ago, taking more than 300 men, who killed small groups of local troops they encountered. Some of the deserting soldiers, upon learning the plans of their leaders, returned to us voluntarily."

General Villa ordered the forces of Manuel Ochoa Fernandez Castro to pursue the rest of the band. Three days ago Ochoa surprised the deserters on the Motezumma ranch, in the heart of the mountains, and many were made prisoners.

"In the skirmish thirty-five deserters were killed. We had no casualties. All the supplies taken by the deserters were captured. General Pallas escaped on foot with about twenty men, going toward Baliza. Among the effects of General Pallas was found a large amount of silver currency, the bribe he accepted to cause the desertion. This money, we learned had been sent to him on three mules."

"When the deserters had been captured they had been reduced to eating mule meat.

"Most of the prisoners taken were officers and of the Chao brigade. The prisoners are arriving in this camp. Three thousand women and children, camp followers of the westward migrating Villa army, arrived at Juarez Saturday, sent back from Casas Grandes before the army taken to the march to Sonora. They halted about box cars that brought them into the railroad yard at Juarez today, bewildered and without supplies."

GOVERNMENT LIMITS DRINKING IN SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM SYSTEM HOLDS EACH CITIZEN TO STATED AMOUNT OF LIQUOR.

PROHIBITION MAY COME NEXT

Present Rule is Rigidly Enforced and Prevents Moderate Drinkers From Becoming Drunkards.

By Associated Press. Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 18.—Although nothing so drastic as the prohibition measures of Russia has been attempted in Sweden, there has been, since the beginning of the war, a steady and systematic curtailment in the sale of liquor, which is approvingly regarded by temperance advocates as a decided step toward absolute prohibition. The Stockholm system of allowing each citizen only a fixed quantity of spirituous drink, which was inaugurated just after the war started, has now been extended to thirty-one of the hundred districts in Sweden, and according to a government order recently issued, will after the first of January, 1916 apply to the whole of Sweden.

The Stockholm system which allows every citizen in good standing in the city to become a moderate drinker, while effectively preventing him from becoming a drunkard, was ingeniously devised by Dr. Ivan Bratt. He has been lauded, commended, idolized and ridiculed, and his work has become the theme of almost daily discussion in the newspapers of Sweden some of which criticize him for being too moderate and others too extreme in his reforms. But on one point all are agreed. The system works.

Government Gets Profits.

In the first place, the liquor companies, while directed by private individuals were practically made government concerns, for all profits were to go to the government. This removed any incentive on the part of the directors to over production. It was followed by a careful supervision of the supply of liquor furnished to hotels, restaurants and public bars. These places still had a right to as much liquor as they required, but they were only allowed to order on a reasonable amount of trade. If they did business in excess of that amount fixed by the government, they had to purchase this additional supply at retail price, and were forced to sell at the same prices. This it would seem, would have removed the zealous effort of hotel proprietors to make their liquor trade as large as possible.

But none of these expedients was successful. The total consumption of liquor was scarcely diminished. The amount of drunkenness in Sweden showed no decrease, and hospitals and medical records were full of alcoholic patients and cases of illness caused by alcoholism as before. It was evident that the decrease in the amount of liquor sold in hotels and bars was offset by the increased business done at wine stores where customers bought as much bottled spirits as they liked and took it home for consumption.

The book system, which is now in operation, was devised by Dr. Bratt at the beginning of the war. It allowed every citizen in good standing to buy one litre and no more of spirituous liquor every five days. To make this plan feasible, each person was provided with a small book resembling a commutation railroad ticket from which a coupon was torn every time the consumer bought his litre of whiskey, brandy, cognac or whatever kind of alcoholic beverage he fancied. At the same time, his book was stamped with the date of the purchase so that it would be clear to the dealer when he made his last purchase. Without showing his book, no citizen of Stockholm has the remotest chance of obtaining alcohol anywhere in the city. The regulation is rigidly enforced.

Some Can't Buy at All.

It is true that in some cases, however, exceptions are made. If one can persuade the authorities that on account of his social position and the demands of constant entertainment one litre every five days is totally inadequate and if the authorities are convinced that such a person can be trusted with more liquor without abusing the privilege conferred upon him, he is then given a special license, according to the circumstances. On the other hand if the person is a notorious drunkard, has a police record, or has in any other way incurred the displeasure of the authorities, he is allowed no liquor at all. For purposes of ascertaining the standing of the citizen in the community, an elaborate card catalogue system is maintained at the central bureau and all questions of allowing any person more or less than the ordinary amount of liquor are referred to this.

OVER THREE INCHES OF RAIN FALLS HERE

IS GENERAL THROUGHOUT THIS SECTION—SOME DAMAGE TO COTTON.

MANY TRAINS REPORTED LATE

All Schedules Being Maintained and No Washouts Are Expected in This Section.

Three and two-tenths inches of rain fell here Saturday, Saturday night and Sunday and Sunday night. Two and eight-tenths inches fell from Saturday noon until Monday morning. The rainfall was general over Western Oklahoma, and Northwest Texas Saturday and Sunday and was general over practically all of Texas Sunday and Sunday night. While considerable damage has been done to cotton it has not been as great as if the rain had been a heaving one or had been preceded by high winds. It will further delay the opening of cotton and will further cut short the crop in case of an early frost.

Sunday and today passenger trains were running behind their schedules but service is being maintained on all lines and there is now little fear of further damage by washouts. The washout Saturday on the Wichita Falls & Northwestern at the bridge over the north fork of the Canadian near Willow, Oklahoma, has been repaired and trains are now running over this bridge. The Pease river bridge on the Fort Worth & Denver is now believed out of danger. No apprehension is now felt for the Northwestern's bridge over Red river.

Generally cloudy weather prevailed in Oklahoma this morning, according to the Western Union's report. Rain fell last night at McAlester. A hard rain was reported from Pine Bluff, Ark. An all night rain fell at Dallas and rain was still falling there this morning. Rain fell all night at Jacksonville and a light rain was reported this morning from Eastland. Two inches of rain was reported from Greenville and Wauhatchie, three inches from Weatherford. Heavy rainfall was also reported at Fort Worth, Waco, Paris, Taylor, Farmersville, Kopperal, Athens, Sherman, Denison, McGregor, Valley Mills, San Antonio, Luling and Round Rock. Canyon, Amarillo, El Paso, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Eagle Pass and Mission reported clear skies this morning.

MEDICAL MISSIONARY TELLS OF HIS WORK IN EAST AFRICA

Visit of Dr. H. A. Weber Results in a Decision to Send Presbyterian Missionary to Field.

Dr. H. A. Weber, Presbyterian medical missionary in West Africa, where the largest Presbyterian church in the world is located, spoke Sunday morning and evening at the First Presbyterian Church. As one of the direct results of the visit of Dr. H. A. Weber, the men of the First Presbyterian Church will be represented in the West Africa field by Mr. Evans, church clerk. A new missionary society movement was started some time ago and funds were pledged for the support of a missionary, the choice having been delayed until Sunday evening, following Dr. Weber's eloquent appeal for the foreign field.

Dr. Weber had been here since last Friday and has addressed the public on three occasions, Friday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening. He is in the West Africa field in the capacity of a medical missionary and his addresses were mainly along this line, although he told of his work being done, the spiritual aid being given as well as the physical needs being met.

He is on a furlough and is prevented by the war from returning to his station in Africa and while awaiting the earliest opportunity of returning he is taking advantage of the opportunity presented of stating his views all over the country, to interest the people in missions in general through telling of the work of the board in Africa. His addresses on Friday and Sunday were devoted to telling of what has already been accomplished and what still remains to be done in the great field of West Africa.

Dr. Weber will go from here to Jefferson City, Mo., and will continue his tour until such time as he will be able to return to his field.

ENGLISH TRAIN SERVICE IS NOT MARRED BY WAR

By Associated Press. London, Oct. 18.—In spite of war-time economies and alterations in railway time tables, English still has the fastest trains, the longest non-stop runs and the lowest fares in the world, according to the Daily Chronicle.

The fastest train for a fair distance is explained, is the morning express from London to Bristol, which makes this run of 119 1/2 miles daily in 120 minutes. A special test trip over this route was made several years ago, exactly 84 minutes.

The longest non-stop run is by the Cornish Express, London to Exeter, 174 miles in 180 minutes. The cheapest fare is the round-trip excursion rate between London and Skegness, which offers a 262 mile trip for 75 cents or about 1-4 cent per mile.

MASONS DEDICATE WASHINGTON TEMPLE

$2,000,000 STRUCTURE IS SCOTTISH RITE HEADQUARTERS FOR THE SOUTH.

STRUCTURE IS IMPOSING ONE

Is Fashioned After Ancient Mausoleum—Many Notables Attend the Exercises Today.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—The new two million dollar Masonic Temple, headquarters of the Supreme Council of Scottish Rite Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, which also is called the Mother Council of the World, was dedicated here today with elaborate ceremonies and in the presence of a large assemblage of distinguished Masons from many parts of the country.

The stately structure, fashioned after the famous mausoleum erected for King Mausolus by Queen Artemisia at Halicarnassus—one of the seven wonders of the ancient world—is unique among the many magnificent buildings in the National Capital. It has been under construction since 1911 when ground was broken. It stands on Sixteenth Street about one mile from the White House on the Capital's finest boulevard and in a section of the city where many of the nation's most celebrated public men have lived during their public service in Washington.

Viewed from the exterior, on a plateau above symbolic flights of steps, the structure presents a lofty base, above which rises a lofty pyramidal entablature supported by thirty three massive columns.

Description of Building: The approach to the main portal is by four flights of steps. Two colossal sphinxes, symbols of Divine Wisdom and Power, are at the entrance. On the pilasters of these figures are inscriptions in Phoenician and in Egyptian hieroglyphics. Just before the great door, let into the pavement, are two flaming swords, and between them the inscription "The Temple of the Supreme Council of the Thirty-Third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, erected to God and Dedicated to the Service of Humanity. Salve Frater!" Carved into the frieze over the great door is "Freemasonry Builds Its Temples in the Hearts of Men and Ages of Nations." A plaque on the great door bears an oblong square with a rayed triangle in its center and with the figures "33" in the center.

Through the great door the Atrium, a large hall, flanked on either side by four massive fluted pillars of polished green granite, is reached. A doorway on the right leads to the apartments of the Sovereign Grand Commander, and on the right to those of the Secretary General. Both apartments are paneled from floor to ceiling with Russian walnut. In the center of the Atrium is a great marble table and on either side between the pillars four pedestals. On the walls behind the pillars are plaques bearing symbolic designs.

Directly opposite the great door is the grand staircase guarded on either side by the seated figures of Isis and Nephthys. Doors to the right and left of the staircase lead to the Library and to the Supreme Council Executive Chamber. At the head of the staircase on the first landing, at the back of the ellipse, two other flights, curving to the right and to the left, lead to the door of the Temple, in front of which is the marble seat of the Grand Tyler, inscribed "Know Thyself!"

The Temple is a lofty room in cube form each dimension measuring 75 feet surmounted by a dome supporting a skylight 10 feet from the level of the floor. In the Temple are three great arched windows, on an either side and one opposite the door, over the Grand East. Each window is divided by two pillars of polished green granite, with the lower part screened by a racy of bronzed serpents. Extending around the room is a frieze of black marble, bearing the inscription "From the Outer Darkness of Ignorance, Through the Shadows of Our Earth Life, Winds the Beautiful Path of Initiation Unto the Divine Light of the Holy Altar."

the six pointed star in a circle. The apex of the dome is ornamented by four double-headed eagles one on each side with the tablets of the Ten Commandments between. High over the main doorway is the organ loft. In the center of the Temple stands the Great Altar, a solid block of black marble veined with white, with four horns at the corners. In the floor around the Great Altar is the inscription "From the Light of Divine Word, the Logos, Comes the Wisdom of Life, the Goal of Initiation."

Ceremonies Elaborate. The ceremonies were performed by Sovereign Grand Commander George Fleming Moore, assisted by Lieutenant Grand Commander Charles E. The ceremonies were performed on an improvised platform at the head of the four symbolic flights of steps at the main approach to the temple and in full view of the thousands of invited guests.

Preceding the dedication ceremonies, Lieutenant Grand Commander Rosenbaum, as its chairman and on behalf of the executive committee in charge of the structure, formally presented the new temple to Sovereign Grand Commander Moor, by whom the oration of the day was delivered. ## Two Men Satisfied

There is something fine about the transaction between the Buick dealer and his customer. A Buick purchase means more than "value received." It is the expression of confidence.

Confidence of the buyer in the dealer.

Confidence of the dealer in Buick Motor Co.

Confidence of both in the Buick car—in its supreme value and security.

The friendship between dealer and buyer stands the test of time—because Buick does.

Pioneers in thinking out and developing the Valve-in-Head motor. Pioneers in bringing the entire car to Valve-in-Head standards. Pioneers in building cars that keep dealers and customer satisfied. These are the achievements and responsibilities of the Buick builders.

Great as are the previous Buick sales and performance records, 1916 Buick—Valve-in-Head sixes exclusively—will outdo them.

The unqualified public endorsement of the past has, this year, increased to phenomenal proportions. 1916 Buick demand is sweeping far beyond all expectations. Already many Buick dealers are oversold. Place the order for your Buick now.

Despite our low price, we guarantee 1916 Buicks contain more drop forgings, better upholstery, better paint and finish—greater quality throughout than any previous models. Buick cars are furnished complete to the smallest detail.

Regardless of the car you buy or the price you pay, nowhere can you get greater value.

At The Theaters

The Gem.
"The Runaway Wife," a Kalem four part Broadway Star-Favorite is on today's program at the Gem with a comedy reel, "The Drug Clerk." The new drug clerk watches the store while the proprietor is getting married. When the husband takes his bride to their new home, he received a letter from the rich uncle, who says he is coming to see the five-year-old boy. The maid coaxes the drug clerk into assuming the role, and dressed as a baby, he makes quite a hit with the rich uncle. The husband bribes a fruit peddler to kidnap the baby and write a letter demanding $5,000. The uncle gives the $5,000, but the husband gets it back and thus makes the uncle proud of him. The uncle wills him all his money.

BETTY NANSEN AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY.

Betty Nansen, "the royal actress" is featured Tuesday in "A Woman's Resurrection," the second showing of this picture here.
"In 'A Woman's Resurrection' as pictured for William Fox, Count Leo Tolstoi wrote what is admittedly his greatest and most powerful book. In fact it may be said to have echoed his message round the world of thought. Exceptionally dramatic, it makes a magnificent vehicle for the famous Betty Nansen.

The Empress.

Today's Paramount feature is "The Fighting Hope," a Lasky production with Laura Hope Crews in the chief feminine lead. In addition to Miss Crews herself, the cast for this notable offering will include George Gebhardt, Gerald Ward, Thomas Meighan, Richard Morris, Florence Smythe, Theodore Roberts, Cleo Ridgley, Tom Farman and Billy Elmer.
"The Fighting Hope" tells of the struggle of a good woman to believe in the innocence of her husband who has been condemned to prison and to remain true to him despite the fact that she falls in love with another man.

Miss Crews made her first stage appearance in San Francisco when only four years of age and has devoted her entire life to dramatic art. Among the leading productions in which she has played important roles are "Merry Mary Ann," "Ransom's Folly," "Zlar," "The Great Divide," "The Faith Healer," "The Havoc," and more recently "The Rainbow" and "Blackbirds." She has appeared also in London with success.

Laura Hope Crews stands as one of the few artists always sure of critical approval. She received propositions from practically all of the main photoplay companies of America. The fact that she determined to appear only under Lasky-Belasco direction, is itself significant of the care with which she has entered into this new departure and her positive desire to do only such work as much necessarily add to her brilliant reputation.

"KILMENEY" AT THE EMPRESS THEATRE WEDNESDAY

The regular Wednesday Paramount feature will be "Kilmenev" with Lenore Ulrich in the title role.

In presenting "Kilmenev" with Lenore Ulrich in the title role, the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company has found a powerful story for a powerful personality and a powerful personality for a powerful story. It is doubtful whether so big a role as the little rich girl abducted by north of England eyes at the age of six could have been put over by any lesser actress than Lenore Ulrich, who has been taking the country by storm in Oliver Morosco's masterpiece of old Hawaii.

Starring in "The Bird of Paradise" the past two seasons, Lenore Ulrich's success was so astounding that in practically every theatre she played the orchestra had to be removed to make room for seats. She packed theatre after theatre, and the actual business, reckoned in dollars and cents, was the greatest done by any road attraction in the last ten years. As a success of personality Lenore Ulrich's achievement was nothing short of amazing.

Other stars might have made Kilmenev adorable too, but it took the powers of a Lenore Ulrich to grasp all those cunning mannerisms and blend them into a whole which epitomized a girl who lives twelve of her most important years in woods and trails.

The Majestic.
Romaine Fielding in "A Species of Mexican Man" is today's chief attraction at the Majestic Theatre.

A "Man" born of woman, in a republic of darkness, walked straight and true, preaching the doctrine of light, intelligence and progressive and thereby developed a strength and manhood that the people respected and followed blindly not as fanatics, but as an enlightened race.

The above was accomplished by this man after years of strife, by following the commandments given by God to man, and weeding out intrigues, falsehoods and double dealings. Like our Saviour, he surrounded himself for the most part of loyal workers of the cause—that cause was moral, mental and physical citizenship and at the beginning of the story we find the "Man" on the battlefield working beside his men, enduring the many iconoclastic features that war entails. From camp to camp his men bow in deference to his superior presence and intellect; what they feel most is his inherent goodness and the discipline that this same quality brings forth, the same being evident by the manner in which his small band fights against tremendous odds.

The time comes, however, when the "Man" finds that he is compelled to leave his mother country for the purpose of importing arms and ammunition that the terrible war for right may go on. He visits his general commanding, finds him wounded unto death, and with his blessings and prayer leaves him and goes to the United States. We find him crossing the international border

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, and when the hair wears greener, maybe, I wonder will you look that day As truthfully to me?
When we grow old, sweetheart, and when Love's tenderest tales are told, What new ones shall we whisper then. Dear Love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young, We scarce can hear his feet, Save that each footfall leaves some song To make our dreaming sweet, But Time steals on, sweetheart, and when His steps have heavier grown, I wonder, shall we hear it then. The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I ween, Your hands in mine I'll take, And all the old love has been We'll tell for new love's sake. What though each passing year may bring,
A halting speech and slow, As truly as of yore, 'twill ring, "Dear love, I love you so."
—Answers.

PLEASANT MEETING OF JUST SO CLUB SATURDAY.

The Just So Club was entertained in regular session Saturday afternoon by Misses Barrier and Anderson at the home of Mrs. Hardy. Owing to the unsettled weather the attendance was somewhat limited but the members present enjoyed the usual program of fancywork and social chat to the utmost. A delightful luncheon course of sandwiches, salmon croquettes, salad and hot tea was served late in the afternoon to the following: Misses Laura Martin, Hazel Jones, Virginia Andrews, Lulu Smith, Florence Barrier, Adah Anderson, Mesdames D. M. Hardy, Jim Young and C. M. Demere.

Looking back upon the beautiful land of his forefathers, torn and mishapen.

Turning his eyes bravely to his adventure and while en route he meets with the daughter of the Powder King, who leads him to her father. Negotiations are entered and consummated for sufficient arms and ammunition to complete his conquest of Mexico. Prior to his return to his native land, he saves the son of a widow, Hiram, and his sister, Rose from an untimely end. Later the sister, sensing the "Man" gives him her heart, but bowing to the call of duty he leaves. A note left for his sweetheart (the future Mrs. President of Mexico) which reads, simply: "When I am worthy I will come for you. Until such time, I remain, the 'Man'."

PEACE OFFICERS OF OKLAHOMA MEET TODAY

Oklahoma City, Oct. 18.—A meeting of peace officers from various sections of the state was to be held in this city today. The meeting was called by Chief of Police Harris of this city, while those invited included sheriffs and deputies as well as all officers of the law. The object is to arrange for co-operation in apprehending criminals. The idea was evolved from a visit to eastern cities where such organizations seemed to Oklahoma officers to offer possibilities. About 200 are expected to attend.

PLOWING UNDER WEEVIL INFESTED PLANTS IS URGED

Federal Department of Agriculture issues Bulletin to the Farmers in Northwest Texas.
The prevalence of the cotton boll weevil pest in Northwest Texas has come to the attention of the U. S. department of agriculture, which is urging the farmers to pick their cotton at once and to destroy the plants. A bulletin issued by the department follows:
"The unusual storms of August and the very rapid multiplication of the boll-weevil in Texas, have resulted in a tremendous movement into Northwestern Texas and Oklahoma. This movement is probably not yet completed, nor has it been entirely ma-

ped out. The indications are that over half of the State of Oklahoma is now infested. Information has just been received that the boll weevil is at Vernon in Wilbarger county Texas and at Cache in Comanche county and Mingo in the extreme northern part of Gray county, Oklahoma. Unless immediate measures are taken by the planters throughout Oklahoma and Northwestern Texas it can be expected that the boll weevil will do some damage next year. The bureau of entomology advises that the planters throughout Oklahoma and the supposedly infested regions of Texas begin immediately to pick their cotton and destroy the plants. By destroying the plants the developing weevils will be killed. Two methods of destruction are available.—If the plants can be plowed under to four or five inches this is the most desirable method of procedure, otherwise they should be stacked in windrows and burned as soon as dry.
"After destroying the plants preparation should be made for a winter cover crop and for a rotation of crops next year. The weevil has maintained its position in Arkansas and has probably extended its area a little farther north in the western portions. The entire State of Mississippi is infested and the weevil is now known to be in McNairy and Hardin counties, Tennessee. Tennessee planters along the entire southern border should take the same precautions that have been recommended to Oklahoma planters. Probably only four or five counties in the mountainous sections of Northeastern Alabama will escape infestation by the boll weevil this year. Over thirty counties in Western Georgia are already known to be infested and there is no doubt but that five more will be recorded soon. Planters in Georgia and Alabama whether in infested counties or not, should take immediate measures to destroy the cotton stalks and prepare the fields for winter cover crops."

only with Christmas good wishes but with food and clothing. Those were the days when every shipload meant lives saved. Some of our best friends were newspapers and even little children in Sunday school gave freely of their penny banks in behalf of other children less happy than themselves.

To the American Commission for Relief in Belgium—the Saviors of Belgium to quote Cardinal Mercier—has been left the vital task of solving the food problem and though the future of Belgium in 1916 is beyond prophecy and must apparently depend to a large extent upon American help, one may feel reasonably assured that the prospect of famine—for this year at least—has been definitely removed.

The task now undertaken by the Dollar Christmas Fund is to collect money for shoes, boots and clothes which are most urgently needed and for which special money must be provided. The necessity is appalling because at the present time there are roughly 3,500,000 destitute people in Belgium and the number increases as the winter approaches.

This year, as last, our Fund has the warm approval and valued cooperation of a committee of representative citizens including Colonel George Harvey, Dr. William T. Hornaday, Victor F. Lawson, Adolph S. Ochs, Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn, William C. Reick, Melville E. Stone, Oscar S. Straus, Geo. T. Wilson. All our workers are honorary and all money collected will be expended by the American Commission for the Relief in Belgium.

There are ominous reports today of greater hardships in store for Belgium—greater strain upon endurance already so desperately taxed. Stimulated by this knowledge it is certainly our privilege and, may I not add, our duty to appeal to Americans doubly blessed in their peaceful isolation and detachment from the vortex of horrors and bloodshed and agony of the battlefields of Europe to help those who are too poor to help themselves.

W. H. Cousins, once of this city, was the guest of honor at a "dinner dance" at Dallas recently, according to the papers. The report of the affair was quite unsatisfactory, for it failed to state whether or not the ex-Wichita Falls drugist himself got out and did the jolly roll and wampus cat wobble; that W. H. got by safely on the dinner part of the program is not to be doubted, but there is some curiosity on the part of his old friends here to know just how far he went with the rest of the performance.

Manufacturers of munitions of war have discovered that cotton seed linters—meaning the lint extracted from cotton seed after they have passed through the gin for the first time—were valuable in the making of explosives than the low grade cotton, which has formerly been used for that purpose.

Congressman and Mrs. John H. Stephens leave tomorrow for their return to Washington. They will visit Mr. Stephens' daughter, Mrs. S. W. Smith in Oklahoma City and will make other stops on the trip arriving in the capital about the first of November. Mr. Stephens is leaving early to look after some departmental matters and to begin work on the Indian appropriations bill, he being the chairman of the House Indian committee—Vernon Record.

Fierro sprang into prominence at the time of the death of William Benton a British subject, at Juarez a couple of years ago. Benton's death, which has never been satisfactorily explained, has been laid to Fierro, then General Villa's bodyguard.

During one of Villa's critical battles Fierro, in the fact of a deadly fire, uncoupled a troop train, preventing the arrival of Huerta reinforcements. This deed of valor is said to have won him his generalship.

Later Fierro became notorious as an executioner. One of his exploits as reported was the shooting of more than 300 prisoners taken in a battle. He is reported to have killed the men as they stood in a row and as rapidly as his aid could feed his gun. The report that Fierro met death by drowning is discredited here. It was informed circles it was hinted that Fierro was the victim of a conspiracy. It was reported from Torreon more than two months ago that a plot to remove both Fierro and General Urbina from the Villa ranks was afoot. Urbina was killed several weeks ago by Fierro himself, it was reported. The plot, which, however, was without confirmation, contemplated the removal of the two men in order to allow General Villa to negotiate terms of surrender with Carranza. General Robles of the Carranza forces, it was said, had refused to take over the Villa army while Urbina and Fierro lived.

COLLIER & HENDRICKS SALE

DRAWS VERY LARGE CROWDS

"Fair warning" signs that interested everybody all over town last week, and caused no end of speculation as to what their intent might be, were made manifest in The Times Friday evening, when a two page ad for Collier & Hendricks was carried advertising a big removal sale that was to begin Saturday morning. The sale was put on under the supervision of C. B. Evan of the American Sales Company. The sale opened Saturday morning and in spite of the bad weather, proved to be the most successful event of the kind the firm has ever pulled off. Although much extra help had been put on in anticipation of a big rush, the force was inadequate to handle the crowds that kept coming all day and even late in the evening, after the heavy rain set in. The sale will continue until a week from next Saturday.

A. S. Kemper of Denison and A. A. Graham of Sherman, officials of the North Texas lines of the Frisco with headquarters at those places arrived this afternoon for a short visit with J. V. C. T. Christensen of the Wichita Falls Foundry and Machine Company.
