CABINET DEMANDS MAJORITY

Will Not Appear Before House Unless Assured of It and Outcome Is in Doubt.

By Associated Press. Athens, Nov. 9.—A prediction that the Chamber of Deputies will be dissolved unless a majority agrees to support the cabinet is credited to Premier Skoufopoulos by the Paris, which asserts that he replied, when asked whether the ministry would appear before the chamber, "the question will be voted upon at a meeting of the cabinet this afternoon. I can say now, however, that the cabinet will not appear unless a majority of 200 in favor of this is not given; the chamber will be dissolved."

The section of the press which now supports M. Venizelos is unanimous in declaring that the presence of Gen. Yanakitsas in the new ministry makes it quite impossible for the parliament to give a vote of tolerance to the government.

NEUTRAL ZONE ON BORDER PROPOSED TO STOP DAMAGE

Would Extend Four Miles Over International Line—Not Considered Feasible.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Neutral zones at Agua Prieta, Naco and Nogales, extending four miles over the border from each of those places, to be patrolled by American soldiers, were proposed today by Senator Lanning to Secretary Lansing and Major General Scott, chief of staff of the army, as a means of preventing further damage to American life and property in the Mexican border fight.

Difficulties in the way of creating neutral zones were pointed out by both Secretary Lansing and General Scott. General Scott thought the plan would involve invasion of Mexico and Secretary Lansing indicated it was not feasible from the state department's standpoint. General Carranza's government, it is understood, would be willing to permit United States troops to cross into Mexico, if Mexican troops were permitted to cross into the United States. The plan was discouraged and Senator Ashurst was inclined to drop it. It was submitted to him by citizens of Douglas, Ariz.

GERMANY CONSIDERS NOTE TO GREAT BRITAIN VERY MILD

Press Calls Attention to Lack of Any Threat—President's Stand Is Praised

Berlin, via London, Nov. 9.—Too mild and too late, is the general tenor of current criticism of the American note to England concerning British interference with American trade at sea.

From a legal standpoint, it is conceded that President Wilson made out an unassailable case. It was not with his arguments that fault was found, but with the fact that he did not back them up, as Germans evidently think he ought to have done, with some sort of a threat, veiled at least.

REPORT KITCHENER CALLED TO INDIA

BRITISH RULE SAID TO BE CONFRONTED BY STATE OF UNREST

WASHINGTON HEARING RUMORS

New Explanation of Secretary's Mysterious Absence From London Is Offered.

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 9.—Earl Kitchener's ultimate mission during his mysterious absence from the British war office is said by confidential information received here today to be India, where according to the same information, British rule is confronted with a more serious state of unrest than has been generally known outside of British official circles.

Uprisings Are Rumored. Through the thick veil which the British censorship has thrown about the events in India and Egypt, comes a statement that Mawab, Sultan, U. Nukh the Nizam of Hyderabad, one of the most influential of the native princes and a staunch supporter of the British, has been deposed by his people. This development, coming as one of the climaxes, to successive reports of mutinies and unrest, many of which have been substantiated by the British government, is said to be the leading reason for Earl Kitchener's departure for Egypt which has been shrouded with much secrecy.

It has been officially announced that the head of the British war office was on his way to the theater of operations in the near east, which has been generally interpreted as meaning the Balkans where the critical situation of the moment confronts the allied forces.

German Agents Active. Information reaching the United States, however, through channels not subject to censorship, is that it is well known London among those close to the government that while Earl Kitchener to coordinate the efforts of the allied forces, his ultimate destination is not only India, but Egypt as well, where the British gateway to Asia is now menaced by the Teutonic, Bulgarian, Turkish success in the Balkans. Coupled with repeated rumors of activity of German agents fomenting discontent among the native populations of India, have come reports of dissatisfaction, also, ascribed to the same sources.

Since the Turks failed to cut the Suez Canal, mainly through prompt arrival of colonial troops of New Zealand and Australia, it has been reported that agents from Constantinople and Berlin have been conducting a persistent propaganda among the natives. Some time ago, Great Britain imposed the most stringent restrictions against the entry of foreigners to India and Egypt with the announced purpose of keeping out the agents of Great Britain's enemies.

Kitchener Suited to Task. Earl Kitchener's selection for the task of holding Britain's oriental empire intact is viewed by many as having been caused by his long service in India and Egypt, his intimate knowledge of the native, temporary and his large personal following among the leaders of the natives. Earlier in the war, the disaffection of India and Egypt evidently was of such threatening proportions that the use of Japanese troops was being suggested to take the place of native forces which had been withdrawn for the European battlefields.

The last reports to the state department on political conditions in British possessions in Asia were received more than two months ago when details came of the mutiny at Singapore last year, in which practically all officers and most of the troops of a British regiment were killed.

At the Japanese embassy the opinion was expressed that under the treaty between Great Britain and Japan, the latter would be bound to furnish troops called upon for duty in India or Egypt. The embassy, however, had no advice on the situation.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice the British ambassador, is at Ottawa. At the embassy it was said no new advices had been received to throw light upon the situation.

ACTION OF BULGARIA MAY FORCE ITALY TO SEND TROOPS

Threat of Invasion of Albania Likely to Find Emphatic Answer In Rome.

By Associated Press. Rome, Nov. 9.—What appears to be a forecast that Italy will send troops to Albania to aid the Serbs is contained in a semi-official note which says that while Italy did not participate in the recent expedition of the allies to assist Serbia, she has found a better way to oppose the Austro-German-Bulgarian attack upon Serbia. This way, the note says, was opened by the Bulgarians themselves when they threatened to invade Albania to reach the Adriatic, a design so dangerous to Italy's interests that "the mere threat must oblige Italy to take appropriate measures to frustrate it immediately."

STEAMSHIP DACIA IS SUNK BY TORPEDO

BOAT THAT CAUSED COMPLICATIONS COMES TO VIOLENT END.

Came Near Causing International Controversy Over Ownership Earlier in the Year.

By Associated Press. The boat formerly belonged to the Hamburg-American line. After the outbreak of hostilities she was purchased by Edward N. Breitung and changed her registry and became an American ship. Laden with cotton, she was on her way from Galveston to Rotterdam when picked up by a French cruiser and taken into Brest.

The seizure of the vessel was confirmed by a prize court and the cargo of cotton was purchased through a special appropriation. In August the boat was sold and her new French owner remained her the Ysor.

OILING PARTY MACHINERY READY FOR YEAR'S CONTEST

Meetings of National Committees Next Month Expected to Start Things Going

Washington, Nov. 9.—The real regular machinery which will pick and groom the next Republican and Democratic candidates for president will be started up in December. With the meetings here of the national committees at that time, the dates and places of meeting of the Democratic and Republican conventions will be decided upon. From then on, committee headquarters here will be busily watching booms, primaries, delegations and the other details of the program of picking the president.

Chicago, Philadelphia and San Francisco are bidding for the Republican convention. The seaboard cities find Chicago's central location is the chief thing they have to combat and each is going about offsetting this in her own way. The convention will be held the latter part of June.

Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago, Buffalo and Omaha are contenders for the Democratic convention. The seaboard cities find Chicago's central location is the chief thing they have to combat and each is going about offsetting this in her own way. The convention will be held the latter part of June.

Responding to a demand following the last Republican convention, there has been a cent of ninety delegates, largely among the Southern delegations, which represented districts in which there is little Republican strength. The number cut off is as follows: Alabama 8, Arkansas 3, Florida 4, Georgia 12, Louisiana 8, Mississippi 5, New York 2, North Carolina 4, South Carolina 7, Tennessee 2, Texas 14, Virginia 9. It has been ruled that the Hawaiian, Philippine and Porto Rican delegates, numbering ten, can not vote, and they are included in the ninety.

This brings the number of Republican delegates down to 988. The Democratic delegation numbers 1,058. In nineteen States the delegations are now chosen by primaries, and these are looked forward to with keen interest as showing the desires of the country in the matter of candidates. The primaries will be held as follows:

Indiana, March 7; Minnesota, March 14; New Hampshire, March 14; North Dakota, March 21; Michigan, April 1; Wisconsin, New York and Illinois, April 4; Iowa, April 10; Nebraska, Oregon, April 18; Massachusetts, April 25; Maryland, May 1; California, Ohio, May 8; West Virginia, June 6; New Jersey, May 23.

ANGLO-FRENCH ARMY BEGINNING TO MAKE ITS PRESENCE FELT

ADDITIONAL GAINS AGAINST BULGARIAN FORCES IN SOUTHERN SERBIA REPORTED BY ENTENTE ARMIES

INFLUENCE ON RUSSIAN FRONT

Austro-Germans Are Thrown Back In Riga-Dvinsk Region Where Czar's Forces are Apparently Waging Vigorous Offensive

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 9.—The central powers and their Bulgarian ally now control about two thirds of Serbia and within a few weeks probably will have the main Serbian railroad running through Belgrade and Nish in full operation. This will give them two routes to Constantinople as communication by way of the Danube to Bulgaria already is open.

That this has not been accomplished without weakening the other fronts is indicated by definite news of Russian advances on the Riga-Dvinsk front, the last part of the eastern battle line on which the invaders kept up anything in the nature of a definite offensive.

Thus far the plans of the central powers in the Balkans have worked like well oiled machinery, but the latest news from Macedonia indicates the initiative is not to be left entirely to the invaders much longer. Reports come by way of France that the Anglo-French forces are making their presence felt against the Bulgarians.

The entente allies claim their operations are proceeding along the whole front with success notwithstanding the handicap of operating in a difficult country.

It is reported also that the Serbians holding the Bulgarian front have checked the Bulgarians after inflicting heavy losses on them. If the Serbians can sustain the attack for a short period the French should be able to join them south of Veles.

The Russians continue their policy of sharp and sudden attacks at various points along the front. The latest attacks, according to Petrograd, consisted of three successful assaults southwest of Riga, two south of Dvinsk and three west of the Sty, south of the Priepet marshes, where the Austrian line was broken in two places.

Except for artillery exchanges on the western front nothing of great importance has occurred recently in that theater of war.

DEFENSE PLAN TO AVOID CONSCRIPTION

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR TALKS TO NATIONAL GUARDSMEN.

COMPULSORY SERVICE EVILS

Plan for Continental Army Makes It Unlikely More Stringent Plan Would Be Needed.

By Associated Press. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—National defense founded upon such a system as the administration's proposed continental army, offers the only possible avenue of escape from compulsory military service for all citizens and its attendant evils, Assistant Secretary Breckinridge of the war department declared today addressing the annual convention here of the National Guard Association. "In the last year," said Mr. Beckinridge, "we have seen all the manifold resources of nations welded into one instrument and subordinated to one will for the waging of war on a scale never before witnessed in history. If the liberties of republics are to be maintained their military resources must be adequate to translated into military strength. For the first time in the history of our country a settled and permanent military policy is proposed for the nation. There are those who say it will not work. The answer is that it will, have to work. And, furthermore, that if it will not work, then nothing adequate can be had except under the compelling hand of a militarism that none of us desires to contemplate. How Policy Was Informed. "I say to you that this proposed military policy, imperfect if it be, is the product of earnest patriots on whom our Constitution and the laws have placed responsibility for working out just such a scheme. They have done their best. I appeal for your patriotic support, for if this result which is the product of so much labor, of such infinite counselling and difficulties, which has received the imprimatur of the president, of the heads of the legislative military committee and of the sober opinion of the press of the country, fall of adoption, then we have chaos, inaction and the continuing compromise of the safety of the republic. In opening his remarks, Secretary Breckinridge read a letter from Secretary Garrison, "regretting the latter's inability to attend the convention and urging support for the war department's defense plans. "Those interested in proper preparation and precaution," the letter said, "have an unprecedented opportunity to accomplish something of incalculable value to the country. "We must all lay aside any feeling we may have concerning non-essential. We must show our disinterested public spirit and our patriotism by getting together on a common ground for a viewpoint and by rendering mutual assistance for results. "I stand ready to do this, and I feel an abiding confidence that you also. "Being thus actuated by the right spirit and working together to accomplish the right end we may rest assured that success will be merited and achieved."

PLANS FOR VISIT OF AVIATION OFFICERS

SPECIAL CENSUS IS PROPOSED

Government Willing to Act, It Is Understood, Provided City Will Bear Expense.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly session this morning authorized an appropriation for the entertainment of the aero squadron of the U. S. aviation service when it stops here on its flight from Fort Sill, Okla., to San Antonio. T. B. Noble, F. P. St. Clair and A. L. Huey were appointed a committee to select a site for the landing of the squadron and to arrange for the entertainment of the party.

The squadron commander had written to Mayor Britain that there would be forty men and five officers in the party. It is planned to give a banquet for them. The date for starting the flight has not been announced. In his last letter to Mayor Britain the squadron commander wrote that the flight would start some time between November 15th and December 5th.

It is probable that grounds south of the city not far from the car line will be selected for the landing site so that everybody may have an opportunity to see the aviators.

Frank Kell who presided at the meeting this morning in the absence of President Huff called the attention of the directors to the possibility of having an official census of Wichita Falls taken under the supervision of the government. He said that El Paso was preparing to have such a census taken and that Corpus Christi was considering having the census of that town taken. Mr. Kell said he understood that the government would take the census provided the city would pay the expense and that the census would be an official one. He said that while the 1910 census showed a 3,000 population here he believed a census now would show between 12,000 and 14,000 people. Secretary Thomas was instructed to secure information on the matter.

Reported Money For Building is Available if Site and Support Are Promised

The Chamber of Commerce this morning appointed a committee to act with a committee of the club women of the city in an effort to secure a Carnegie library for Wichita Falls. The committee named at the request of the ladies.

Mrs. G. W. Snider, Mrs. A. H. Carranza, Mrs. Wilcox Blair and Mrs. J. A. Kemp comprised a committee of club women who laid the matter before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Snider acted as spokeswoman for the committee. She said that Mr. Carnegie would donate any amount necessary to build a library building provided the city would furnish a site and would vote a tax which would raise a sum equal to ten per cent annually of the amount donated by him. She said she believed a building that would fit the need and be a credit to Wichita Falls could be built for between $25,000 and $30,000. This would provide, under the ten per cent tax agreement, between $2,500 and $3,000 for the maintenance of the library and the purchase of new books.

The only requirements, she said, asked by Carnegie were that a site be furnished and that the tax be voted. Several directors spoke in support of the library movement. On a motion the committee of the club women were authorized to select a committee of three from the Chamber of Commerce to act with them to further the movement.

inspected. Recommendations have been made and approved that six gunboats be fitted for mine sweeping. Portable mine-laying tracks have been ordered for one division of destroyers in each of the fleets. These tracks are to be carried in the destroyer tender, to be shifted to the destroyers when necessity arises. Mine-laying tracks have been authorized for eleven vessels of the cruiser class. During the summer extensive exercises have been conducted in mine laying and sweeping in the fleet and in general it may be said that the whole subject has been made active and progressive. Progress has been made during the year toward getting smaller navy gunboats at various yards in reserve for use on merchantmen in time of war, and instructions have been issued to provide for quick mobilization of the weapons loaned to the naval militia should need arise. Inventors have been busy with war materials and the report shows that the special board appointed to examine suggestions dealing with ordnance matters considered 656 proposals.

ENGLISH PAPER SAYS IRISH DOING THEIR SHARE

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 9.—Referring to the refusal of the Cunard company to permit 900 Irishmen of military age to sail from Liverpool Saturday, the Manchester Guardian says: "For a country whose population has been halved by misgovernment, while England's has doubled, the response of Ireland to the call to the colors has been creditable. Of 600,000 men of military age said to be left in Ireland, fully two thirds are engaged in agriculture from which equipment has been discouraged and when allowance is made for intensions workers and the unfit, the recruitable margin is not great."

AT THE THEATERS

"DAMAGED GOODS" AT WICHITA THEATRE NOV. 18

Richard Bennett's co-workers will present "Damaged Goods," Eugene Brioux's sociological drama at the Wichita Theatre Nov. 18.

This is a play which has created more discussion since its first production in America, at the Fulton Theatre, New York on March 14th, 1912, than any other drama of modern times. At the New York Times has said, "It initiates a new epoch of civilization" an epoch that seems destined to establish a new outlook upon life, and an epoch which will mean the correction of a great social evil.

The play is based on the ignorance and blindness with which men and women of today assume the most sacred obligations of parenthood. The central character in the play is a young man unfit to marry and who is so advised of the fact by his physician, but who because his word is given and because he fears to violate the custom of engagements, marries an innocent girl.

The second act takes place eighteen months after the first act, and the young married people are buoyantly happy in their home and jubilant over the birth of a daughter. The sins of the father have been visited upon the child, and all the happiness becomes as the ashes of Dead Sea apples upon the lips of father and mother.

The third act concerns the efforts of the father of the young wife and the family physician to construct a new life for the young people on the crumbling foundations of the old.

The Lydia Margaret, Lily Garywood and Violet Mesercau are featured in a one part comedy, "The Unnecessary Sex" and the program is completed by a two part drama, "The Message for Help" a Bison and "When Lizzy Went to Sea" a Nestor comedy.

The Gem

Marc McDermott, Mabel Trunelli and Edward Earle are featured today in a four-part Edison drama, "Ransom's Folly," from Richard Harding Davis' book of the same name.

Lieutenant Ransom's campaign in the Philippines has been both strenuous and enjoyable for he is an extremely red-blooded youth. In fact, he is daring to the extent of being foolhardy. After a month of two in Washington, he tells his father that he must have a chance to see some excitement and General Ransom arranges to have him go to Fort Stanton, Texas commanded by an old friend.

Arrived at the railroad town, Ransom is conveyed to the post by stage coach. A prairie fire is in progress a few miles from Fort Stanton, and Ransom joins the soldiers and others in fighting it. Incidentally, he is successful in rescuing Mary Cahill, the daughter of the post-trader, Patrick Cahill. When the fire is finally under control, Ransom returns to the post with Miss Cahill and the men, and there he meets Mary's father, who expresses his deep gratitude. Ransom becomes a leader among the younger men. Ransom constantly comes out for excitement. When one of the men calls Ransom's attention to a large reward for the capture of "The Red Rider," an outlaw, Ransom declares that it is nothing at all to hold up a stage.

On a fifty-dollar bet, he himself will hold up the stage coach that night—and with a pair of shears! His brother officers ridicule the idea. He makes a mask from a handanna handkerchief, and sticks the shears in his belt. He rides off to intercept the coach. Meantime the coach has already started when Lieutenant Patten arrives carrying a large bag containing $10,000 with which to pay off the soldiers. Finding the coach gone, he engages a man with a buckboard. Ransom is waiting and successfully holds up the stage coach—with the shears. He takes nothing from anyone except a souvenir from one of the ladies, this being proof to show his brother officers. He rides back to the post and joins Mary. Meantime Lieutenant Patten is held up by a masked man dressed exactly as was Ransom. In a fight the highwayman kills the driver of the buckboard, and wounds the lieutenant.

Ransom has gotten himself in a rather bad mixup but to tell the rest of the story would spoil things for the theatergoers.

ELSIE JANIS AT THE EMPRESS-WEDNESDAY

Elsie Janis in moving pictures has caused literally a furor throughout the country. In answer to repeated demands of exhibitors and patrons from coast to coast Boxworth, Inc. re-engaged this celebrated comedy star for a special return engagement, and now present here in "Nearly a Lady," the brightest, prettiest, funniest photo comedy in which Elsie Janis has yet appeared.

"Nearly a Lady" was written by Elsie Janis herself. For years the star of musical comedies which have been the rage of London, New York, Chicago and other large American cities, Elsie Janis brings to bear upon her authorship an experience in comedy mechanics that is plainly reflected in the brilliant story she has produced.

Indeed, the final complication alone, where her masquerading in a dapper masculine garb starts a laughable belief of a man having "been seen" in her room. If it were to have been introduced in a spoken drama would have stood a good chance of insuring the piece a full season's run on Broadway.

The Empress

A Thanhouser drama "Out of the Sea," an animated cartoon comedy, "Keeping up with the Joneses," and a two-part drama, "His Guiding Angel" are the pictures on today's program. "His Guiding Angel" is an interesting drama of both the east and west.

The cast includes Charles Gray, Gladys Brockwell, Jack Dillon and Bert Hadley. Alaric Neal, notorious "bad man" of the West sees beautiful Vivian Gray play "Parthenio." He ideal izes the actress, and she becomes his guiding angel. Chance brings to Neal's door Jack Gray, Vivian's reckless brother. Neal saves the day and goes with him to New York. Vivian a heartless woman of the world and an angel in real life, meets Alaric, the reformed outlaw. His feeling for her awakes a kindred emotion in herself. For the first time, both are really in love. A former paramour of the actress's, Fred Ainsworth, threatens to give away her past unless she borrows money for him from Alaric. She fearfully agrees. Neal falls into the trap, but discovers the ruse in time. Ainsworth, foiled in his attempt to get the money, turns informant. His stories are substantiated by Alaric's confession. Neal remembers his own wild career before love of Vivian chastened him. He asks the woman to forgive him, even as he forgives her, and wins from her the promise to begin life over again with him.

The Majestic

"The Regeneration," a film version of Owen Kildare's book, "My Mamie Rose" is today's offering at the Majestic.

It is safe to say that there has never been a scene filmed so true to life as the scene in "The Regeneration," which has been released by William Fox, several remarkable fights take place in this Bowersky Dive and Director Walsh took many weeks in securing the types he needed. Most of them were of that vicious "Bowersky" type that would rather fight than talk, and a make-believe fight means nothing to them. The instant that the director gave the word to start things, they started, and started right so far as they were concerned. In one scene three men are knocked unconscious. In another a man's eye was badly torn and there were several strained backs in the fight. For actual fire and atmosphere, there is no question but that these scenes of underworld life will be the strongest ever produced on the screen.

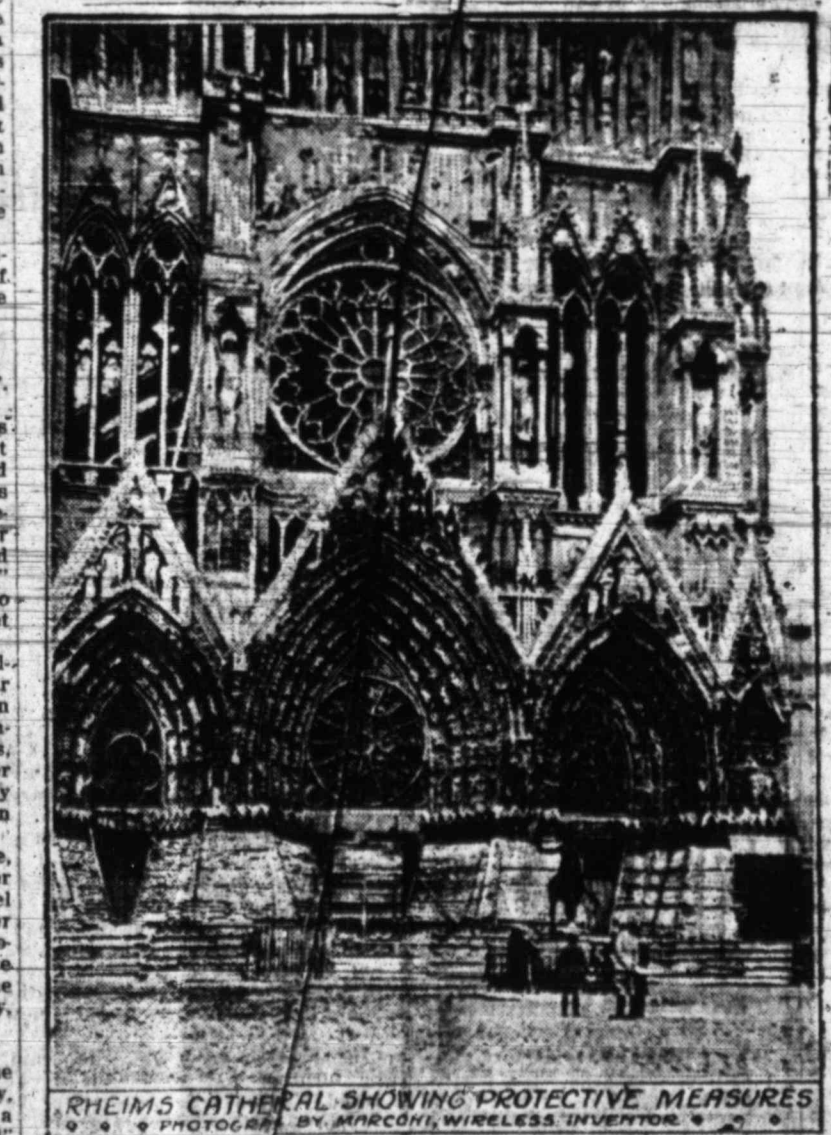

During the scene in "Regeneration" where Mamie Rose is trying to escape from "Skinny the Rat," there is a desperate struggle between the two. Mamie fights furiously to get out of the door while "Skinny" tries to hold her back. Anna Nilsson who plays the part of Mamie struggles so hard that she injures the ligaments of her side and was forced to be under the care of a doctor and a nurse for several days. During this same scene she is supposed to bite the hand that "Skinny" is holding over her mouth. So realistically did Miss Nilsson bite that the doctor who plays the part of "Skinny" that blood was drawn. In fact all the scenes in "Regeneration" are powerful as regards reality. In one of the big fight scenes, three men were unconscious, another had his face badly torn and another one of his eyes badly cut—how'd you like to be a motion picture player?

COOKE COUNTY VOTES FOR ERADICATION SATURDAY

The cattle tick was ordered banished from still another North Texas county last Saturday, when Cooke county by a vote of 592 to 540, supported the eradication plan. The action of Cooke county leaves a gap, Montague county, in the line, but there is promise of an early election in that county. Cooke county is the fourth Red River valley county to adopt eradication this year, the others being Wilbarger, Wichita and Clay.

RHEIMS CATHEDRAL SHOWING PROTECTIVE MEASURES PHOTOGRAPHED BY MARCONI, WIRELESS INVENTOR

"The marvelous cathedral" writes Pierre Loti, the famous French novelist after a visit to Rheims. It stood for ages a network of stone, and now it is in fags, pierced by a thousand holes. In the effort to protect it a little in future they have had up a mountain of sandbags around the columns of the portico. The accompanying photograph of the facade of the Cathedral of Rheims, showing the sandbags to which Loti refers, was taken by Guglielmo Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy.

FRANK KELL'S REELECTION AS FEDERAL DIRECTOR CERTAIN

No Opposition Develops in Making of Nominations Which Ended October 30th.

The re-election of Frank Kell of this city as a Class B director in the federal reserve bank at Dallas is now assured, he having no opposition. The time for making nominations expired October 30. Mr. Kell drew a one year term as director and when his time was up his friends here took steps to secure his re-election, he consenting to the use of his name. The Dallas Journal of Monday says:

"Frank Kell of Wichita Falls is certain of re-election as Class B director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas and the re-election of J. T. Scott of Houston as Class A director seems assured.

"For Class A director John Scott, who was elected to fill the unexpired term of Oscar Wells; Henry S. Fox Jr., president of the Houston National Bank and J. B. McDougall, vice president of the National Bank of Denison, have been nominated.

"Mr. Kell is the only nominee in the Class B section. The nominations were closed at 3 o'clock on Oct. 30. In the Class A section Mr. Scott received the greatest number of votes for nomination by the member banks.

"The result of the election will be announced about Dec. 1 by E. O. Tenison, chairman of the Dallas Reserve Bank Board. Electors chosen by member banks will cast the votes for directors."

CARBIDE NEW INGREDIENT OF WHISKEY IN OKLAHOMA

Said to Put Proper Degree of "Kick" into Booze That Is Bootlegged in Hills.

Coalition, Okla., Nov. 9.—Bootleg whiskey in this section has the reputation for being rougher than the rocky hills. But even then some of the riotous members of the community complained of the lack of "kick" in their booze and the bootleggers have worked on a new idea.

Carbide is the thing. Common carbide that is used in the lighting apparatus on farms, is now supplying the kick for booze, the home brew that incites men to war and rebellion. Reports of its operation indicate that choc made with carbide to furnish the kick, kicks harder than a balky Porcupine the crank handle.

Enforcement officers here recently heard of a wonderful brew of choc as Choctaw beer is familiarly known. This choc was said to act like a combination of black damp and giant powder. Two drinks put the quiet citizen on the war path and set him stumbling oak trees backward and attempting to leap from rock to rock like the flying squirrel.

A search for this powerful brew resulted in a raid on a lonely shack in the woods. Five barrels were found. Quickly the tops were hammered in and the stuff poured out. In the bottom of each barrel was about ten pounds of carbide, a plug of Miner's Delight chewing tobacco and other things not yet identified.

Kentucky is still Democratic though by a very slim majority. At last account Stanley for governor was leading his Republican opponent by only 338.

August A. Busch said to be the wealthiest German-American in the United States, is not only an admirer of the French, but is a contributor to the French war relief fund. In a letter enclosing his check for $100, he says among other things: "I am an American first in all things, notwith standing I have many blood relations now fighting in the German ranks and regardless of the fact that many sentimental ties bind me to the fatherland. But my full sympathy goes out to the brave French in this terrible ordeal through which they are now passing and indeed, it goes to the wounded, sick and bereaved of all nations."

Governor Ferguson is going to make three speeches in Bell county this week against local option, and is going to do this because Bell is his home county. He thinks that if the people of the county should decide to adopt local option it would be a reflection on him and his administration. Of course if the Governor views the matter in that light, it must be so. Our own idea however, is that the people of Bell county could vote for local option and by doing so in no manner reflect any discredit upon the Governor of the State. Because he happens to be an anti-prohibitionist, is no reason in the world that a single prohibitionist in Bell county should change his views on that matter to coincide with those of Governor Ferguson. To out way of thinking the Governor is taking the narrow view of the matter.

Dr. Brooks, doubtless having in mind the elimination meeting of pro Democrats that took place at Fort Worth in 1914, in which the pro Democratic candidates for governor were all eliminated except one, says if anything of that nature is contemplated in the senatorial race he has not heard of it, and in the event such a meeting is called he will not submit his candidacy to it. Doubtless there will be more than one pro Democratic candidate in the race. In fact there are now at least two, and probably three, of that way of thinking, but for every pro Democratic senatorial candidate there seems to be an anti, and there is hardly a chance that any one of them either pro or anti, is strong enough to secure a majority vote in the first primary. In that event, a second primary will be ordered, and all except the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes in the first primary will drop out, or be eliminated by the law governing senatorial primary elections. Should there be one pro Democrat and one anti-pro Democrat left to run in the second primary, then the question of prohibition will be the principal issue in the campaign. Perhaps this ought not to be, but it will be the case, as it was when Jake Walters made it an issue in his campaign against Morris Sheppard, and Jake lost out by a majority of about 40,000. He was about as strong a candidate as the anti-prohibitionists of the State could have selected.

Mr. Bryan says he cannot criticize the President's motives, but I am compelled to dissent from his conclusions, and that we believe, will be pretty much the attitude of an overwhelming majority of Americans toward Mr. Bryan's criticism of the national defense plan. Few people in this country want to plunge the nation into war, and the President in his address before the Manhattan club stressed the point that the United States would never wage a war of aggression, a policy in which we believe there is practically unanimous concurrence throughout the country. Any tendency toward militarism is repugnant to every democrat; it has been instilled into American citizens from the beginning that that way lies danger to republican institutions. But we believe an overwhelming majority of American citizens believe with the President that it is time for us to be awakening to the fact that no longer are we isolated from the remainder of the world, and that it is time for us to be preparing to guard effectively against any other world power determined on aggression on this hemisphere. The American nation is the most powerful in the world today and each year serves to increase its ascendancy. That position in itself, arousing jealousies among the other nations which the United States is passing, is calculated to be one of possible danger, and while preparedness will not prevent war if we assume an offensive or intolerant attitude, it will surely make any nation consider well the dangers before it, and to act accordingly. Mr. Wilson's plan can hardly be accused of smacking even faintly of militarism. The small increase in the standing army and the establishment of a citizens' army of 133,000 men a year by short term enlistments would comprise too small a proportion of 100,000,000 people to warrant that charge. But his idea of building an American navy of "extraordinary force and efficiency" is quite in line with what we believe to be the idea of a vast majority of American citizens, most of whom look upon war with fully as much abhorrence as Mr. Bryan and those who think as he does. —Denton Record-Chronicle.

NO HELP FOR PANAMA SLIDES.

(From Washington Post.) "Slides have been more frequent in the Panama canal in the last year than before the ditch was opened for navigation, but that was to be expected," said Andrew Dade, an engineer of Chicago, at the Raleigh. "I have visited the canal on several occasions, just before this government took it over from the French, and several times since construction began under supervision of Colonel Goethals. When the board of engineers visited the canal at the outset, the subject of slides was much discussed, and it was agreed that it would be a long time even after the completion of the canal before it would be entirely free from slides. No matter how thoroughly the work might be done, no engineering foresight could guard against the work of nature, and we have just got to be patient until Gold Hill and other great bodies of earth get through pouring their dirt into the ditch."

"Meantime steamship lines operating the all-water, coast-to-coast route by way of the canal may be expected to lose by the unexpected interruptions. It has been estimated that as a result of the recent disastrous slide the steamship companies lost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 by reason of being tied up for an indefinite period. With steamer rates at the present high level, it is said that the average daily cost to steamship companies for holding a vessel at either terminal is not less than $1600 a day. Within less than five days after the canal was blocked during the last slide, I am told, more than fifty vessels were waiting passage, and in ten days there were some seventy freight and passenger ships. Of course, the government can do nothing."

THE LEAGUE AT HOME.

Editor McCullum is pleased to make these observations about the Ohio result: "It was the belief of many that state-wide prohibition being an issue at Tuesday in the Buckeye State, the Anti-Saloon League would concentrate its powerful resources and influence on that contest and make an object lesson of Ohio. We have seen here in Texas what campaigns the organization can wage when it wants to do so. Whether it did or did not care to make Ohio dry we cannot assume to say, nor do we especially care. We live in a state where Ohio is. But as a matter of general interest we have cited some of the reasons why many people expected to see the state-wide idea win in Ohio. Either the league did not care or endeavor to make its home state dry, or the state lacks in Ohio the influence it so intrinsically possesses and essays to exert in other states."

PROHIBITION WAS DEFEATED IN OHIO LAST YEAR BY A MAJORITY OF MORE THAN 14,000.

This year the majority against prohibition is under 50,000. The city of Cincinnati gave an "anti" majority of 60,000. But for Cincinnati's vote, Ohio would today be in the "dry" column. The Anti-Saloon League gave a very good account of itself in its home state. The facts speak for themselves. —Waco Times-Herald.

HARRY JONES, PRIVATE.

Harry Jones, private, Company C, Eleventh Infantry, dead from a wound inflicted by a bullet from the Agua Prieta battle lines. Jones was shot in the stomach as he stood guard over an army supply wagon—Douglas (Ariz.) dispatch to the Associated Press. Harry Jones was not a general; he was not even a corporal. Harry Jones' name in the Hall of Fame will not be alongside that of Grant or Lee, or Sergeant Jasper. But his death is an indictment of the attitude of the United States in its relation to the Mexican revolution. It is a disgrace to 100,000,000 citizens of this republic. Federal generals bottled Villa and his men fighting him that if their soldiers fired across the lines our soldiers would return the fire. Well, the Mexicans did fire across the lines and several of our soldiers have been wounded, some are nursing wounds, others are dead. No fire returned. A nation may be too proud to fight. A nation sometimes may be too stingy to fight. Jones was only a private in the army of the United States, but Jones was an American citizen, and the whole power of 100,000,000 people should be used to protect him, or to demand a requital for his death. We went to war with Spain not because the Spaniards were cruel to the Cubans. Big business had the situation in its hand until the battleship Maine was blown up, and several hundred American lives were lost. Then a war followed. No power in this country could have prevented it. But now our people seem willing to permit a hot-of-revenue to shoot at one another, and meekly to assume the role of innocent bystanders when we get in the line of fire. The virtue of molly-coddles has surely got deep into our hearts. —Commercial Appeal.

On the far reef the breakers
Recoiled in shattered foam,
Yet still the sea behind them
Urges its forces home;
Its chant of triumph surges
Through all the thunders din—
The wave may break in failure,
But the tide is sure to win!

O mighty sea! thy message
In clanging spray is cast;
Within God's plan of progress

The wave may be defeated,
But the tide is sure to win!

LANDING OF ALLIED TROOPS AT SALONIKI

GREEK FORMALLY PROTESTS, BUT PEOPLE GIVE CORDIAL WELCOME.

OFFICIAL ASSISTANCE GIVEN

Harbor Is Cleared of Other Vessels to Facilitate Movement of the Troop Ships.

By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 9.—There was an international flavor to the crowd which watched the landing of the first allied troops at Saloniki, a large number of English and American Red Cross workers having come down from Belgrade and Nish to await the course of events at the Greek port. Several of these eyewitnesses reached England this week. The Rev. A. H. Sewell, chaplain of the Red Cross detachments in Serbia, spoke in enthusiastic terms of the cordialness, quiet and speed with which the allied expedition disembarked and of the unmistakable cordiality with which it was received by the populace.

"A British vanguard reached Saloniki on September 30," he said, "consisting of Brigadier General Hamilton—who everybody mistook for Sir Ian Hamilton—and his staff, with a following of twenty strapping British Tommies in brand new khaki." "Both officers and men made themselves as inconspicuous as possible in Saloniki, their purpose being merely to inspect the camps prepared for the landing force some two miles outside the town. Four days later reports came of a general purvey that the expedition was already waiting in a huge fleet of transports outside the harbor. There was academic discussion among the populace as to the ethics of a landing and crossing of neutral Greece, but one hears suggestions here and there that it was just what the Germans had done to Belgium, but nowhere was there any attitude of hostility to the allied plans. Indeed, when opinion was expressed at all, it was in terms of cordial welcome.

On October 5 the transports began to arrive in the harbor proper. They were crammed with French troops, which poured over the gang planks onto the Serbian quay. The Saloniki newspapers published two pieces of news side by side—first, that the Greek government had lodged a protest against the landing, and second, that the government of Saloniki harbor had given orders to clear it in order that no other traffic might interfere with the comfortable disembarkation of the allied forces. That typified the whole question: Greece had entered formal complaint, but was shutting her eyes to the actual operation. It interpreted popular feeling, which is sympathetically sympathetic with the allied designation and the causes of it reached Saloniki on the afternoon of Oct. 5, the public was stunned. It could not understand. It seemed so completely at variance with the actual unfolding itself before Saloniki's own eyes. It was like a thunderbolt.

Meantime the Anglo-French landing continued. The streets were crowded with spectators but troops, once disembarked, marched straight away from the town, not through it. Thus there was little opportunity for demonstration either pro or con. There certainly was not at any

MARTIN'S SELZ ROYAL BLUE SHOE STORE

MOTHERS

You will be glad to know you can now buy a perfect shoe for your child

Professor Thomas D. Wood of Columbia University says:
"One million school children in the United States have equal curvature, flat foot or some moderate deformity serious enough to interfere to some degree with health."

Dr. Evans in the Chicago Tribune says:
"One million school children are doomed to go through life as less incapacitated, limited in their earning capacity and uncomfortable for the remainder of their lives."

THIS is a matter worthy of your most serious consideration. You must take the responsibility for the health and comfort of your child. In offering the New "Selz Waukenphast Jr.," you are urged to accept these shoes with fullest confidence. They are the result of years of experiment on the part of the best designing talent available in the great Selz factories, those possessing scientific knowledge of the human foot. The feet retain perfect repose in these shoes, and have plenty of toe room. The shoes are entirely sewed. No nails, no tacks to injure the feet.

These scientifically constructed shoes are now displayed in our windows and ready for your closer inspection in our store stage anything approaching a hostile reception. The disembarkation took place beneath a broiling sun such as New York experiences in mid July, but the heat was not allowed to interfere with the workmanlike precision of the operation. The newcomers brought with them every solitary thing an army needs to live on and fight with. They needed to ask their Greek hosts for nothing except water. Artillery stores, horses, mules, tenting, ammunition—everything seemingly in great quantity, and spic and span shape—was on hand, and the troops simply walked out to their encampment and made themselves at home. The camp is on a plateau like area quite close to the beach.

Soldiers fraternize.
French and Greeks set in without delay. There was perhaps a little more immediate intimacy between the Greeks and the French for many of the Greek soldiers talk French fluently, while only occasionally is one found who speaks good English. On the other hand, there is a great physical resemblance between the Greek and British soldiers. Their khaki field-kits and uniforms are almost exactly alike.

The street vendors in Saloniki must be making a fortune. Mysterious edibles on sticks, almonds, pistachios, all are bought up by the visitors as fast as offered. The new-

PELLAGRA CURE GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT SAYS BLUE

Surgeon General of United States Public Health Service Visitor at Dallas

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 9.—Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the United States public health service, who reached Dallas last night from Washington to attend the convention of the Southern Medical Association is particularly famous for his successful fight against the bubonic plague in San Francisco and New Orleans and his campaigns in Honolulu and various parts of the United States against yellow fever and other epidemics. He is noted especially, as the greatest expert in this country on tropical diseases.

When asked last night at the Adolphus what he considered the most significant medical achievement in the last decade General Blue answered, without a moment's hesitation:

"The work of Dr. Joseph Goldberger, surgeon general of the United States public health service, in pellagra."

"In a series of experiments during the last twelve months Goldberger has shown that a diet consisting of animal and vegetable proteins will not only prevent but will cure pellagra. More recently he has shown that a diet devoid of fresh meats, milk, eggs and legumes will cause pellagra in man. Pellagra is the principal cause of death in one Southern State, and perhaps two, so the economic value of this is at once evident.

Dr. Blue said pellagra is not a new disease; that it has only been known in this country since 1907, but that it was first described in 1735 by Cascell, a Spanish surgeon. The recommendations of Dr. Goldberger for a suitable modification of diet by a population affected by pellagra were given by General Blue as follows:

"1. An increase in the diet of fresh animal and leguminous foods, particularly during the late winter and spring, and to this end he recommends ownership of a milk cow and increase in milk production for home consumption, poultry and egg raising for home consumption; stock raising, diversification and the cultivation of food crops, including an adequate pea patch, in order to minimize the disastrous economic effects of a crop failure and to make food cheaper and more readily available; making these foods as accessible as possible in the more or less isolated industrial communities by providing markets, particularly butcher shops, throughout the year.

"2. A reduction in the diet of the carbohydrate (starchy) foods and to that end improve economic conditions, increase wages, reduce unemployment, make the other class of foods cheap and readily accessible."

The Greatest Coat Cutter

In America can do nothing more than follow the measurements he has at hand. The finest tailors in the world make clothes that would not fit anything but a hippopotamus. But don't blame the tailors or the engineers who design clothes because the fit depends on the man who LAYS THE TAPE. The artist of the craft tailoring must depend for his specifications on the man who measures the form that is to wear the suit. For years I have laid the tape on every shape and size of man from the "Beef Trust" to the "Beef Pole" and made the suits fit. Any time the suit don't fit it is my suit and you can't leave my shop with it. It won't cost you a penny to find out whether or not I can make these statements stick.

I am Supton Tailor. I'll see that you're satisfied. Union Shop Phone 1067 "Our automobile will pass your house today"
