EAST YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, STRIKERS PLAN ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION

MORE TROUBLE IS FEARED IN OHIO TOWN TODAY

Troops On Patrol Duty Where Drink Crazed Mobs Ran Riot Causing Death, Many Injuries And $1,500,000 Property Loss

Youngstown, Ohio, January 8.—Quiet prevails throughout today with members of the Ohio National Guard patrolling the principal streets of East Youngstown where last night drink crazed mobs ran riot, looting and burning property, causing the loss of one life and financial loss amounting to $1,500,000, but fresh demands tonight resulted in renewed vigilance on the part of the military authorities.

Meetings of strikers were held in the hills back of the town this afternoon at which plans of action were said to have been discussed. It was learned also that employes of plants in the Mahoning Valley, now on strike, will hold a demonstration here tomorrow. According to the plans the men will assemble on the outskirts of East Youngstown and march across the scene of last night's rioting and onto a big hall where speakers will address the crowd.

Militia officers acknowledge that they have been informed of such plans but refuse to indicate what attitude the militia would take. They admitted, however, that the fourth regiment composed of nearly 1,000 men was being held in reserve at Berlin Center, fifteen miles away for any possible emergency. Although troops began arriving here at five o'clock this morning none were taken to East Youngstown for patrol duty until nearly noon when Mayor E. H. Cunningham of that place requested that militiamen replace police officers there in order to permit the men to get a much needed rest. The remainder of the troops stayed on the trains which were backed into the yards of the East Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company.

Efforts on the part of the state to effect a settlement of the strike will probably open here tomorrow. F. C. Croston, state mediator, is expected to arrive here tonight.

Saloons Closed Yesterday.
For the first time in the history of the city saloons were closed in Youngstown on a Saturday this action being taken in an effort to prevent further disorder. Saloons in East Youngstown and Struthers were also closed, but those in Girard, five miles away, were open and cars running to that town were crowded. Today was pay day at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company. Owing to the burning of the pay office by the rioters last night the men were compelled to line up in the streets to receive their checks.

Reports from Struthers where threats had been made to blow up the Willow Creek dam, which would result in the flooding of the business section, said it was quiet there. A detachment of soldiers was sent to that point to patrol the district all night.

87 Persons Arrested.
Eighty-seven persons have been arrested in East Youngstown as a result of the riot. All have been transferred to the county jail and will be held for trial. Every available cell and room in the jail was put into use. Fire continued to smolder tonight in the ruins along Wilson avenue which had been roped off to prevent the curious from approaching too near to the smoldering walls. A lighting system which had been just completed Thursday night at a cost of $10,000 was wrecked by the mob and tonight the street, the principal thoroughfare of East Youngstown, was in darkness. Practically every light was put out of commission and the heat had melted the artistic posts to a shapeless mass. Despite the reports that four persons were killed last night, only one fatality was ascertained, being George Got, who was shot when he was smashing a glass in a building. Twenty-two persons are in hospitals suffering from injuries, one being in a critical condition. According to the police at least 100 others suffered minor injuries, chiefly gunshot wounds, but were able to be taken to their homes.

County authorities tonight raided the homes of 30 foreigners in East Youngstown and confiscated a wagonload of beer taken during the rioting last night. The officers who participated in the raid state that much other loot also was found.

May Deport Rioters.
Common Pleas Judge Babin of this city tonight communicated with United States district attorney E. F. Holmes of Pittsburgh, with a view to instituting deportation proceedings against the foreigners who participated in last night's rioting. East Youngstown has a population of 15,000 but of this number only 400 are voters; 500 national guardsmen with machine guns tonight night-marched Wilson avenue and the adjacent hills. There was no semblance of any trouble but crowds were not permitted to gather.

Trouble Began Friday.
The trouble began late yesterday when the day shifts at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company quit for the day. The plant is located on the flats of the Mahoning river, several hundred feet from the hillside, on which is built East Youngstown where most of the workmen live. Two weeks ago laborers of the Republic Iron & Steel Company struck for an increase of wages from 19¢ to 25 cents an hour. The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company offered them 22½ cents an hour immediately after the United Steel corporation had announced its increase of ten cents for laborers. This was rejected by the workers, and the strike has since been in progress. Reports today were prevalent that strike breakers had been imported, which precipitated the trouble.

The mills are reached from town by a high bridge, spanning the railroad yards; this bridge has been carefully guarded by private watchmen since the laborers at the plant several days ago joined the laborers of the Republic Iron & Steel Company and other mills for a raise in wages of 25 cents a day.

How Firing Started.
A crowd of men and women estimated at 200 had gathered at the

ATTENTION CALLED TO GUNS MOUNTED ON VERDI

Austro-Hungarian Charge Calls Lansing's Attention To Mounted Guns On Italian Steamer.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 8.—Baron Erich Zwielenk charge of the Austro-Hungarian embassy today informally called to the attention of Secretary Lansing the presence of two mounted 3-inch guns on the Italian steamer Giuseppe Verdi, when she arrived in New York Thursday. While official information on the subject was lacking it was understood that the charge had made inquiries as to what action the United States as neutral considered taking in the matter. Collector Malone's report regarding the presence of the guns on the Giuseppe Verdi, which arrived in New York Thursday by a civilian crew and did not, as reported, carry gunners of the royal Italian navy. This became known today after the collector's report had been received at Secretary Lansing's office.

Until the secretary decides what action will be taken the steamer will be detained in New York harbor. Secretary Lansing was said to have assured the charge that the vessel would not be allowed to leave American waters before the question involved had been disposed of. Officials familiar with the attitude of the United States express the belief that the ship will not depart until the guns have been removed.

Whether the charge expressed the belief to Secretary Lansing that the ship, through being armed, had been subject to internment could not be definitely ascertained. It was believed, however, that the ship's status would be taken up informally by the Italian government.

CORRESPONDENTS SHOWN BRITISH NAVAL BASE

Impressive Sight of Concentrated Power and Alert Readiness Presented.

By Associated Press.
London, Jan. 8.—Under escort of officers assigned by the admiralty, a correspondent of the Associated Press and a party of foreign journalists were given the first opportunity to visit one of the great naval bases on the coast, where cruisers, destroyers and submarines are assembled for their watch over the North Sea and from which point big ocean going submarines are sent to the Baltic and Dardanelles.

It was an impressive sight of concentrated power and alert readiness with long lines of battle scarred cruisers stretched seaward and headed by the famous Arcturion, back of them a flotilla of destroyers and a number of submarines of the latest D and E types, which have recently performed such brilliant work from the Dardanelles to the Bosphorus and throughout the Baltic. The day was typical of the rigors the British fleet now experiences in the North Sea with rain in plenty, a north wind cutting the sea into foam and sea gulls everywhere. The little fishing village on the coast had been transformed by the war into a vast naval rendezvous with stores stretching a half mile prepared to equip an armada and sent it back to sea within two hours.

Here also were the "mother ships" ranged in long lines along the Quay ready to receive back their fighting children each time they came from a raid on the coast.

The huge establishment was vibrating with energy and in the harbor mine sweepers were coming back from their work, hydro aeroplanes were maneuvering from the decks of the German ships and the British officers—some of them who had now received their medals in the famous fights under Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty—were dejected at the idea that the Germans would venture forth. One of the officers was in command of the torpedo boats when they fired the deadly missiles which hit the German cruiser Bluecher and sent her to the bottom in the fight last January. He pointed out these same tubs and told how they had worked.

"First we let go that one," said he, "and then the Bleucher amidship. She was lying off there about 1000 yards. The thing that impressed me after we hit her was the deadly stillness. It was deadly still until the big cruiser threw up her bow, turned clean over and sank."

"Yes this is the one that did it," and he patting the death dealing engine affectionately as if it were his child.

FORD PEACE PARTY AFTER FIVE WEEKS REACHES THE HAGUE

IMMEDIATELY ON ARRIVAL MEMBERS OF PARTY BEGIN SPEEDING OF PEACE PROPAGANDA, THEIR MISSION.

SEE INDICATIONS OF WAR

Pass Through German Territory On Special Train—Trip Filled With Impressive Suggestions Of War—Train Viewed By Silent Crowds.

By Associated Press.
The Hague, January 8.—Five weeks after its departure from New York, the Ford peace expedition reached the Hague today. The members of the party planned to begin immediately the work of speed peace propaganda. The trip from Copenhagen in a special train made through Germany, touching at Lubeck, Hamburg and Bremen, was filled with impressive suggestions of war. At the important stations the American peace advocates passed rain loads of soldiers bound for the front and Red Cross nurses in hospital coaches.

The progress of the expedition through Germany was watched by silent crowds, except at one place where a German lieutenant in his helmet and expressed his hope of success for the project. The entire trip through German territory was made after dark.

Arriving at the German port of Warnemunde in a ferry boat from Denmark, the Americans with their Norwegian, Swedish and Danish delegates, were met by a special train. The train was provided by special permission of the military authorities and stood on the dock surrounded by the soldiers. As the peace advocates stepped on the platform in the dusk amid a drizzling rain, they were selected one by one as their names were called, and permitted to go aboard the train. Then the train was locked and started quickly for the trip across Northwestern Germany.

After a while the military guard on the train relaxed the rules and permitted the travelers to look out of the windows. In the brilliantly lighted stations at Lubeck, Hamburg and Bremen, the pilgrims caught their first glimpse of military activity. Evidence of war was not missing from the train itself. Only one dining car was provided for the 200 travelers. The railroad authorities explained that all the dining cars are being used to transport wounded. Posted in the cars were notices calling on the public to eat sparingly and not waste food. The posters gave ten rulings admonishing people to cook potatoes with the skins on, save the crusts of bread and stem from meat. Another notice was to the effect that when the train was passing over bridges and through tunnels the windows and doors should be locked because spies on occasions had thrown bombs with the purpose of destroying the railroad.

After leaving Hamburg and while approaching the fighting zone the train was kept at its highest speed and the usual stops at the smaller stations were omitted. The crowds at some points along the railroad had been in the war since the beginning of the coming of the party. Yet the spectators viewed the train silently.

BOGUS DRUGS SEIZED AT FORT WORTH SATURDAY

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, January 8.—Seizures of drugs said to be bogus and which will be followed by seizures in other cities of the state, were made here today following an investigation by state officials. State Chemist Golz is heading the investigation. It is said by the officers that large quantities of worthless powder have been sold for a well known drug at greatly reduced prices, despite the fact that the drug has been advancing in price everywhere in the world since the war began. The seized powder is harmless.

By Associated Press.

The king's statement was made in communicating to the correspondent an important declaration of his policy which he had given to a representative of the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin. This declaration was made with a view to clearing up any misunderstanding which may exist in Germany regarding his intentions.

Robinson, United States senator from Arkansas, tonight denounced both the belligerent and the central powers for their treatment of neutral nations in general and the United States in particular. He spoke at the annual Jackson Day banquet at which the Missouri democratic campaign was formally launched.

ANCONA LIFE BOAT BEARS EVIDENCE OF TORPEDO FIRE.

By Associated Press.
Rome, Jan. 8.—A fishing vessel put in at Anzio today with a life boat from the steamship Ancona, recently picked up. Examination of the boat seemed to bear out the assertion that it was fired upon by the submarine that attacked the Ancona while containing passengers, among whom were women. Many hair-pins were found in the boat. Several holes, apparently made by shells, had been stopped by shells and torn skirts.

MOTHER OF ERICH MUENTER IS DEAD IN CHICAGO

By Associated Press.
Chicago, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Julia A. Muentzer, mother of Erich Muentzer who in June last year placed a bomb in the capitol at Washington and later attempted to assassinate J. P. Morgan died at her home last Wednesday it became known today. Ignorant of the acts her son committed. Neither did she know that her son, who committed suicide in jail after shooting Morgan, was dead. So far as the family was concerned, Muentzer, who was known as Frank Holt, passed out of their lives nine years ago when he disappeared while police were searching for him in connection with the mysterious death of his wife as a result of poisoning. Mrs. Muentzer died last Wednesday, at the age of 73.

BATTLE CONTINUES BETWEEN RUSSIANS AND AUSTRO-GERMANS

GERMAN NAVAL CRITIC SAYS RUSSIANS HAVE GREAT RESERVES ARTILLERY AND OF MEN TO BE BROUGHT INTO ACTION.

BRITISH CRISIS SUBSIDES

By Associated Press.
London, January 8.—The battle continues between the Russians and Austro-Germans in Galicia and Bukovina. The Russians claim further gains and the Austrians claim to be holding their ground. The Austrians have made determined attacks along the Strypa and northeast of Czernowitz, but according to Petrograd, they were beaten back with enormous losses while the Russians have made distinct gains occupying several Austrian positions and taking more than 1300 prisoners in all.

Count Von Reventlow, the German naval critic, writes that the Russian offensive has been well sustained and that the Russians have great reserves of men and artillery and he considers that the movement, if successful, might bring Roumania and Greece on the side of the entente.

Count Von Reventlow's opinion concerning Greece is not shared in Great Britain where the opinion prevails that the Greek king is not likely to oppose his brother-in-law the German emperor. Emperor William's condition continues to be a leading topic. All messages from Berlin say the throat ailment is only slight while rumors from neutral points say it is dangerous.

TALK OF MINERS' STRIKE

The British political crisis over conscription has subsided for a time at least. Most of the radical section of the labor men, particularly the Socialists, talk of a strike by the coal miners which would bring the wheels of industry to a standstill and handicap the shipping industry, which is the heart of the nation's life, but there is no strong evidence that any important strikes will materialize.

John Hodge, chairman of the labor party in the House of Commons, as well as other leaders of the party, there is no demand for a general election. Enlistment of troops under the Derby plan will reopen January 10 and continue indefinitely to give an opportunity for all who fail to enlist to avoid conscription, by volunteering before the act goes into effect.

The exclusion of Ireland probably will have an important bearing upon the politics of that country after the war as the Ulstermen will find the refusal of the Nationalists to place themselves on the same footing as residents of England and Scotland an argument against their own exclusion. Newspaper debate continues as to whether the government may not cripple the industries necessary for maintaining the army and navy by calling upon to bear a proportion of the cost of the men to great arms.

Little Interest in House.
The mission of Col. E. M. House, personal representative of President Wilson, has created little interest here. Col. House is meeting prominent official civilians but disclaims any purpose of attempting to pave the way for peace negotiations.

The fact that German 15-inch shells have begun dropping on Nancy, just south of the French lines has caused stories of destruction and panic to be circulated in Paris and elsewhere. The statement issued by the prefect of the department in which Nancy is situated shows that there have been casualties in the city, six persons having been killed and ten wounded and that the population is leaving, but it declares that no fires have been started by the shells and that there was no panic.

Little Activity on West.
The Hartmann-Wellerkopf sector appears to be the only point on the western front where there has been infantry activity. The Germans claim to have taken a portion of a trench south of the summit.

There is little activity in the Balkans except at some points in Montenegro where the Austrians and Montenegrins are still clashing.

There are also a few political developments in connection with the Balkan situation, probably the most interesting one being the report of the arrival at Toulon, France, on a warship, of the consul of Germany, Austria-Turkey and Bulgaria recently arrested at Saloniki. It has recently reported that these consuls were to be released. The Toulon advisers state that they are waiting to await the disposition of the authorities.

IRREGULAR FLUCTUATIONS IN COTTON MARKET
By Associated Press.
New York, January 8.—Conflicting reports with reference to the shipping situation caused more or less confusion of sentiment in the cotton market here today and fluctuations were irregular. An early decline to 12.50 for March was followed by rallies, however, with that position selling at 12.61 later and with the general list closing very steady net unchanged to two points higher.

SINGLE TORPEDO WON'T SINK NEW BATTLESHIPS

Future American Dreadnaughts Will Be Partially Torpedo Proof Navy Experts Say.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 8.—Future American battleships will be able to survive the explosion of a single torpedo against their hulls, regardless of where they are struck, in the opinion of navy experts. Experiments which have been in progress for more than a year, it was learned today, have demonstrated that two or more torpedoes must find their mark before ships subdivided and protected as are the new American craft can be sent to the bottom.

The two new dreadnaughts and two battle cruisers Congress has been asked to authorize this year will be designed on this plan. Battleships 43 and 44 contracts for which have already been awarded to the Mare Island and New York navy yards have added interior construction resulting from the study of the question of torpedo defense since the outbreak of the European war. Later ships will have even increased provisions in this regard. The experiments are continuing and officials expect further information to be developed.

MASONIC LODGE APPROVES PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING

Ratify Award of Contract to Taylor Brothers and Authorizes Steps to Secure Money.

At a special meeting of the Masonic Lodge last night it was decided by a unanimous vote to go ahead with the present plans, as prepared by Field & Clarkson, architects, for the construction of the Masonic Temple, a three-story structure 50x150 feet on the northeast corner of Scott avenue and Tenth street, and the building committee was authorized to award the contract to Taylor Brothers, whose bid was found to be the lowest.

With the $25,000 to be loaned on this building at 6 per cent interest for a period of ten years and with the amount already pledged to be loaned the lodge, by members without interest for a period of from three to five years and with the amounts in the treasuries of the various branches of the lodge it was found that the sum of $7,600 was still necessary for the completion and furnishing of the structure and a committee was appointed to meet at the lodge room at 3 o'clock today for the purpose of appointing a sub-committee whose duty it will be to call upon the members of the lodge and induce them to raise their subscriptions. The membership of the lodge is about 300 and all but 78 have pledged to loan the lodge certain amounts of money. Those who have not pledged have as yet not been called upon by the committee and it is believed that when this is done the $7,600 will be easily raised. If it is not raised in this way then those who have already subscribed will be called upon to raise their amounts in sufficient sums to make up what is lacking. It was thought that it will take about six months in which to complete the structure and when finished it will be as fine a Masonic Temple as can be found in any city of a population of 50,000 or more. The ground floor of the temple will be constructed with a view of renting out for business houses and the second and third floors for lodge rooms. The Masonic order occupies the entire third floor for its own use.

KANSAS COURT RULES AGAINST STOPPING CATTLE IN TRANSIT

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 8.—The Kansas supreme court today ruled that the practice of stopping in allowing cattle to be stopped in transit to test the market is illegal and discriminatory. The ruling affects cattlemen who have been shipping stock from Oklahoma and Southwestern Kansas to feeding stations the shipments being billed through to the final destination with the privilege of stopping the shipment at Wichita or other markets to determine what offers could be obtained for the animals.

JESS WILLARD LIKELY TO DEFEND TITLE THIS YEAR

Question of Who Will Meet Him Not Decided But Several Matches Are Probable

New York, Jan. 8.—While some uncertainty exists as to just when and where Jess Willard will defend his heavyweight title during 1916, there appears to be little doubt that the champion will be seen in one or more battles during the coming 12 months. There is also some question as to which of the challengers for the title will be accorded first chance to meet Willard in the ring.

If height, strength and youth were the only qualifications necessary to insure their possessor the right to meet the champion in the squared circle, Willard's prospects for a busy season would be extremely bright. Notwithstanding the enormous proportions of the present champion, he is not the only giant in his class for the heavyweight field today consists of Digger men than ever before in the history of the ring. Willard stands six feet six inches and weighs close to 240 pounds, when in condition.

In the older days of pugilism he would have towered above the average heavyweight like a Goliath among pygmies. Such is not the case at present, however, for there are several candidates for the title who, physically at least, class with Willard in many respects. Lee Bodin, one of the latest aspirants for ring honors, stands six feet, six and a half inches; Fred Fulton is six feet four and a half inches tall; Cowler six feet three and a half inches; Wernert six feet two and a half inches; Coffey six feet one and a half inches; Georges Carpentier, now serving in the French army, five feet, eleven and a half inches; while Gunboat Smith is the smallest of the group being but five feet, eleven inches.

Among the older school of heavyweights Jeffries and Corbett alone approached in height the big men who today are fighting in the ring. Jeffries stood six feet, one and a half inches when at the top of his ring career. Corbett measured six feet, one inch when he defeated Sullivan who was but five feet, ten and a half inches. Jack Johnson was half an inch over six feet; Fitzsimmons a quarter of an inch under six feet while Sharkey and Tommy Burns were all under five feet ten inches.

Recruits Going Home On Italian Steamer Lose Lives When Vessel Strikes a Mine

By Associated Press. Paris, Jan. 8.—Two hundred Montenegrins from America lost their lives by the sinking of an Italian steamship which struck a mine in the Adriatic. The sinking of the vessel with the attendant loss of life is reported in an official Montenegrin statement of January 7 from Cetina as follows: "An Italian steamer from Brindisa with supplies, and 425 Montenegrin recruits from America on board, struck a mine yesterday near San Giovanni de Medua. The ship sank immediately and 200 passengers perished."

House, personal representative of President Wilson, today saw Sir Edward Grey, British minister for foreign affairs. No statement was given out regarding the matters discussed. Officials of the government displayed anxiety that nothing be said that would indicate that Col. House call could be termed a conference between the two men.

DECLARES ZEIGLER STOVES ARE BEST IN THE WORLD

They are the best stoves in the world," says the Graber Furniture Company of Hutchinson, Kansas, speaking of the product of the Zeigler Stove Company of this city. The Hutchinson concern recently wired in a rush order for more stoves from the local company, adding the above complimentary statement to its telegram. Mr. Zeigler and his associates were much pleased over this estimate of the stove, coming from a point so far away, but they assert that it merely bears out the opinion of those nearer home who have been using them.

POLL TAX PAYMENTS AHEAD LAST YEAR'S FIGURES

680 Poll Tax Receipts and 25 Exemptions Issued Up to Close of Business Last Night

Both property tax collections and poll tax payments are well ahead of the same date last year, according to County Tax Collector B. M. Ballard. During October, November, December and to the close of business last night collections of 1915 taxes had amounted to $44,745.95. The 1915 tax rolls total $241,721.67 leaving $196,976.62 to be collected between now and February 1 so that it can be seen that busy days are ahead for the county tax collector's office. During the period mentioned above $385.21 in back taxes has been collected.

Up to last night a total of 680 poll tax receipts and 25 exemptions had been issued. Exact figures for the same date last year were not available but it is known that the number of polls paid is well ahead of last year's figures. The poll taxes issued to date in each voting precinct follows:

Lea and C. W. Riecholt will accompany Fire Chief McClure to Dallas next Tuesday to inspect a sample of the American La France truck there. If it is found to be all that it was represented to be by the representative of the company a contract will be closed. In event a contract is not closed with the American La France Company a truck will be purchased from the Seagraves Company for $5600. Other bidders before the council Friday were the Kissell Car Company, Jeffrey Car Company and the White Motor Truck Company. Friday after-

WHY GRAND JURY FOUND CITY JAIL UNSANITARY

Unusual Conditions Had Prevented Jail Being Cleaned When Grand Jury Visited It

The grand jury found the city jail in bad condition because they visited it in the morning before the debris of the night could be cleaned up, according to Chief of Police Nall. He explains the situation in a formal statement issued yesterday as follows: "I wish to explain why the grand jury found the city jail as it was when they inspected it. First, there had been a jail delivery the night before and I had to crowd all the inmates into the lower cell so the carpenters and bricklayers could fix the upper one. Second, all persons arrested in the evenings and at nights are tried on the following morning, and until such parties are tried, they have to be kept in the city jails, so I have no chance to have it cleaned up until in the afternoon. If the visit of the grand jury had been postponed until the afternoon, they would have found the jail in as clean and sanitary condition as is possible to keep it."

The allies are declared, in a report from Berlin, to have paid Italy $400,000,000 to join their side. If they did, they paid too much.

The death rate from typhoid fever alone in the city of Mexico is given at an average of 100 per day, and the same report says there are thirty-five thousand cases in the city.

There will be no special session of the legislature unless a public calamity strikes the state, says Governor Ferguson. Thus it appears that we may avoid calamity altogether, and in event of calamity we will have a double dose.

Tax collections are better at this time this year than at the same time last year, including both property and poll taxes, which indicates that the country generally is in a more prosperous condition than one year ago.

Wichita Falls built a $50,000 high school and outgrew it in five years; built a $150,000 union station and outgrew it in five years; built a $75,000 postoffice and outgrew it before she had it. Why not build a court house that will meet future needs as well as those of the present?

With over three million dollars on deposit in Wichita Falls banks and with 15,000 people in Wichita Falls, there is an average of $200 for every man, woman and child in the city. The shortage at this desk is $109.70.

There are five Saturdays in July of this year, and as the election law provides the primary election shall be held on the last Saturday in July it throws the election on the 29th day. Some authorities have been contending that the election law calls for the primary on the fourth Saturday of July, which would be the 22nd day, but this appears to be their own conclusion, and is not correct according to the way the law reads.

There were two notable features of the statements printed in The Times last Sunday, giving the views of a number of business men as to what they considered Wichita Falls' chief aim should be in 1916. One was what so many of the writers wanted greater cooperation with farmers; the other was that not a single one mentioned the public library, which so many Wichitans consider to be this city's greatest need at the present time. There are many things that a growing town needs, especially a town that is growing as fast as Wichita Falls, but in the minds of many citizens no need is more present than a public library, and it is one of the things that should be kept earnestly in mind during 1916. This is said in no disparagement whatever of the question of increasing this city's importance as a farming center; that is an important matter and one that will increase this city's properity in proportion as it is given attention and consideration of business men. Wichita county farmers have changed greatly in five years. They no longer have to buy their feed; many of them have silos, those exclamations of prosperity and thrift; few of them are without at least a small bunch of cattle and hogs and many of them are giving attention to that bank account builder, the poultry industry. Conditions have changed greatly and Wichita Falls has profited by the change more than she has realized. The real opportunity for further improvement lies not so much with the farmers themselves as with those institutions and individuals that can meet the farmers' financial requirements.

WOULD CONSCRIPT LEGISLATORS.

Next year there will be elections in many sections of Texas, to name men who shall compose the Texas Legislature. At present there is little inducement for good men—well trained, capable men—to offer themselves for the position of State Representative. Almost any nincompoop with a clean personal record—and many without it—can conduct a successful campaign for the office. The result is that the Texas Legislature has more whippers than brains, and knows more about some other things than about business management of large affairs. We long to see the day when the office of State Representative will be sufficiently attractive to able men that they may be induced to offer themselves for the place. Brownwood Bulletin.

The Texas Legislature is nothing more than a training school for embryonic Statesmen, many of them recruited from the law class of the University. While pursuing their studies at this seat of learning, young and ambitious men who seek membership in the legal profession simply for the benefit it will be to them in a political sense, find it quite convenient to have their respective counties honor them with seats in one of the other branches of the Legislature where they can contribute their efforts toward the salvation of the country. That is one of the results of our delectable primary election system. Men of ability are not going into a scramble for a mediocre office regardless of the emolument fixed by law. None but the "nincompoop" so to speak, will do so. In olden times, the people had the right of drafting for public service men of ability, of character and of standing, the result being a wise and economic system of laws. And the country would have been very much better off if the young statesmen had not sought to improve upon them. But they did and we have a bundle of complications and inconsistencies that would even puzzle the brain of the infatuated legislator whose intent is to increase the pay change the personnel of the membership—no more so than increasing the ply of district judges gave to the State a better class of officers. Conditions will continue to worsen in any of spirit the multitude of foolish and nonsensical laws enacted for their government by men whose sole conception of government consists of the size and fatness of the statutes.—Denison Herald.

The court of criminal appeals has reversed and remanded the case of E. W. Fry, from Wichita county, tried under indictment charging forgery and given two years in the penitentiary. The case was retried with attention because of the fact that Fry was a member of the legislature at the time of his indictment and arrest. This is not the first reversal on the grounds of "misconduct of jury." We are sure no jury which tries a case intends to indulge in misconduct; but it may be that in some instances we have in mind no particular instance—they are unconsciously influenced by the conduct, or misconduct, whichever you choose to term it, of the lawyers engaged in the trial of the case.—Houston Post.

Congress convened in regular session on December 6th. Eight days later Cyclone Davis, Congressman-at-large from Texas, delivered himself of a speech on the subject of preparedness. Three days later he again arose from his seat and indulged in a few pious remarks concerning the report of the committee on industrial relations in which he took occasion to warn his colleagues he would meet them at Philadelphia should they oppose expending a hundred or two thousand dollars for its printing. Now comes the announcement that the gentleman has been recognized to speak for an hour on Thursday on the subject of credit. When Cyclone was first elected, we offered to bet that he would take up more space in the Congressional Record than any four members which no one had nerve to call. We repeat, he will waste more, not only before the session, ends than any six members from any State. Will any body call that bet?—Denison Herald. Well, the press dispatches tell us that on Thursday Cyclone was there with the goods. That was not all. They also tell us that the galleries were well filled—more so than had been the case at the present season Cyclone is not only taking up space in the Congressional Record, but what he says is considered of sufficient importance for the special correspondents of all leading papers throughout the United States to make note of. And anyhow, it is perhaps a more dignified way of getting before the public than sending out packages of garden seeds. He's a hot air merchant, alright, but one for whom there always seem a ready demand for his goods. Nobody is going to call you bet. Besides you ought to be a better sport than to make a proposition to bet on a cinch. MADE A GOOD GUESS. (Philadelphia Telegram.) The conversation in the lobby of a hotel the other night turned to the question of bad guesses, when the story was told by Congressman Michael Liebel, of Erie. Smith was rambling about the waiting room of a big railroad terminal one afternoon when he saw a woman walk over to a lonely-looking man and ask him to hold her baby—while she went to a store on the street level. "That trick is an old one," said the wise Smith, going over to the lonely-looking man. "You will never see mother dear any more." "You have made a bad guess, this time, old man," smiled the lonely one. "She will come back all right." "She will, eh?" returned Smith, who was sure of his ground. "What makes you think she'll come back?" "She is my wife," smiled the other, "and this is our baby." The bitterest arraignment that has been made of the Wilson administration (and it applies almost as much to that of President Taft) is in a current magazine from the vitriolic pen of the Bull Moose leader. His animadversions deal somewhat with the acts of the Wilson and Taft administrations with regard to Mexico, but his story grows in fury as he thinks of President Wilson's efforts to prevent the embolment of this country in the European war and charges that the timidity of the administration toward Germany is due principally to the fact that there is a huge German vote in this country. Most others believe that the President has long since lost the support of this element (largely republican anyway) and if the President has lost in addition the support of the British sympathizers, as Colonel Roosevelt seems now to think, there is no reason why the colonel shouldn't be glad to secure the nomination of either his own or the G. O. P. next year, since success would—assuming he is correct—be virtually certain. Colonel Roosevelt's article is, as would be expected, most interesting and forceful. We recommend that all who can read it, because most of those who do will join us in thinking the editors of the magazine might have printed an advertisement just below it.—Thank God for Wilson.—Denon Record-Chronicle. GLOBE SIGHTS. (By the Atchison Globe.) So many have eyes who do not see. Abusing a bill collector is no way to improve your credit. A secret won't keep very well after it becomes a partnership. If you can't whip him it is easy enough to control your temper. Try to give your compliments with strings attached, or don't give them. Why does the man who says what he thinks have such unpleasant thoughts? It occurs to us that the professor who trained the trained fleas had the least to do. It takes a darn sight more than a tempest in a teapot to attract attention nowadays. This time of the year Father firmly believes that one can live without poetry, music and art. A lot of men are living without hope and seem to be as well off as a lot of us cheerful optimists. Nearly any man will assume a heavy load of responsibility if the freight rates are high enough. Going back to the old home town after years of absence should be litted with the other disappointments. A successful politician is one who can see that invisible something known as public sentiment, and get in the clear. Country Judge: "How long have you owned a car?" Motorist (charged with speeding): "One week. Your Honor!" Judge: "Um—then you can still afford to pay a fine? Twenty dollars?"—Fack. And hears thy stormy music in the drum.—Campbell. PLACING THE POST. The Waco Times-Herald, which we are sure will not support Tom Campbell for the United States senate, has finally smoked the sly old fox out of his hiding place and the old fellow's hat got into the enlarged senatorial ring two days before the New Year. Good for you brother newspaper man—you served Texas a fine turn in making it more easily possible to elect a fitting representative to the upper house of congress. And the senator elected from Texas next year will not be Tom Campbell.—Houston Post. Will the Post kindly tell us, then, who is to be the lucky fellow? We put into successful operation and other public improvements have been made under his administration. As judge of the county court, he has administered matters in a manner satisfactory both to the members of the bar and to the public in general. As a member of the commissioners' court he has worked in harmony and cooperation with the members of that body, which is considered one of the most progressive and efficient in the State. There are many details of the work of the county judge with which the general public comes in little or no contact, and those who have had opportunity to witness Judge Harris' conduct of these matters feel that his services have been satisfactory in every particular and that the second term precedent may be exercised in his behalf with the assurance that Wichita county will be profited thereby. J. P. JONES IS CANDIDATE FOR REELECTION AS J. P. The announcement of J. P. Jones as a candidate for justice of the peace to succeed himself, appears in The Times today, he offering for place No. 1. Mr. Jones was elected to this office in 1914 by the county commissioners following the death of Squire Brothers, and was re-elected by the people of the precinct at the election of that year. Perhaps the most notable feature of Judge Jones' administration was his decision not to permit the unfortunate women of the city to be victimized as "vagabonds" when he considered that the real vagabonds were going unpunished. While this stand has brought criticism upon Judge Jones from some quarters, it has met with the hearty and whole-souled approval of the general public, not only in Wichita Falls but elsewhere, he receiving letters from distant points indorsing his attitude. It may be said that it has cost Judge Jones something, from a material standpoint, to do what he has done in this matter, but he has no cause for regret. In the affairs of his office, Judge Jones has administered conscientiously and carefully, and he feels that his claims for a second elective term are entitled to full consideration.

MOVING PICTURES BARRED FROM SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES
By Associated Press.
Chicago, Jan. 8.—Moving pictures will not be permitted to be exhibited in Chicago's public schools and churches, according to a ruling of the city council building committee. ### YOUNGSTOWN, O., STRIKERS PLAN ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION

East Youngstown end of the bridge and jeered the workmen as they crossed. Suddenly a shot was fired and guards, taking this as a signal, fired over the heads of the crowd. The crowd replied and another volley came. A number of persons, including two women, fell to the street and the mob broke and ran up the hillside. A block away they reformed and set fire to the building occupied by the telephone company's employment bureau. Later they fired a small warehouse and then turned their attention to private property.

A saloon stood on the corner and a mob was made for the door. In a minute a shouting crowd filled the little room and helped themselves to what they saw. When the looting was complete, a mob was applied. A clothing store nearby was next entered and the stock cast out to the constantly growing crowd in the streets by those inside. Clerks fled for their lives and when the looting was finished the place was fired.

Liquor Passed Around.
By this time the mob was in a frenzy. Men danced and sang and women joined them. Liquor was passed around freely and those who had no cups scooped it up in the hollow of their hands for within half an hour other saloons had been looted and the fire was spreading rapidly. For half an hour or more the mob was content with the small shops and saloons on the side streets but then they turned their attention to the more pretentious stores on Wilson Avenue, the main street. By this time it had lost all semblance of leadership and splitting up into bands of a dozen more, went madly about the work of destruction. Saloons after saloon was broken into, looted and fire set to them. Attention was turned to the other business buildings on the street. Fanned by a strong wind, the fire tore its way up the hill and many residences, some occupied by the rioters were burned.

Mayor W. H. Cunningham and the city police who make up the protective force of the village realized the situation was beyond them and gathered at the police station at the west end of the business district or wandered along the streets unable to do anything. Meantime the rioting had been in progress several hours. It was seen that the business section could not be saved. Every minute the crowd grew until there were hundreds of drunk crazed men and women roaming the streets. The fire department had been called out at the first alarm, but the hose was quickly cut to pieces and helplessly they looked on as the flames spread. Chief Wallace had men and equipment ready to send from the city but found it useless to risk lives and property to try to stop the mob. The fire mounted higher and higher until at 10 o'clock Wilson Avenue was in flames. No attempt was made to extinguish the flames or save the thousands of dollars in property being carried away or destroyed.

Robbed Postoffice.
Early in the afternoon the mob attacked the postoffice. It was a small building and the dozen or more men who entered it made short work of it. It was said that the men robbed the strong box before applying the torch.

Once the rioters were frightened, a passenger train steaming along the railroad track at the foot of the hill slowed down as it approached the burning buildings. A shout of the militia is coming rang out and for a minute or two there was a pause, but when the train did not stop the orgy went on. By this time so much property had been destroyed and the mob had become so inflated that the better citizens of the town had fled. Many families came to Youngstown and others took the street cars to communities farther away. The conviction was growing that if the disorder spread to Youngstown, nothing could save the city.

Rioters Flee Before Police.
Finally, a down or more citizens, led by Oscar Diser, city solicitor of East Youngstown, and former member of the legislature gathered at the police station and pleaded with the

STUDENTS FROM THIS CITY PROMINENT AT UNIVERSITY

The Times has received the following from the State University: "Wichita Falls, in proportion to its size, generally furnishes its full quota of students to the University of Texas.

"In a body organized as is the student body of the University there are many distinctions which the student body itself confers upon its members, such as the editorships of various publications, membership in the governing body, society and athletic honors, etc. While it is impossible to make an authoritative list of these student honors, still it has been practicable to collect many of these honors that are a matter of record during the fall term just closed.

"Among those students whose honors are a matter of record may be mentioned R. K. Pond, a freshman, who is a member of the Glee Club, an organization supposed to contain the best singers in the University. There is also Otto Nelson, a junior, who is a member of the "Students' Council," the governing body of the students' self government organization. Joseph E. Ward, from Wichita Falls, a senior engineer, is vice president of his class.

Just think of having a dance in the dining room any night that you wish and having for it the best and newest dance music. Or a concert in the library or parlor with a program made up of the best works of the great singers and musicians. Or the old familiar hymns and melodies and folk songs that bring to the heart a touch of the long ago. Nobody ever fails in the payments on a Victrola, nobody ever gives one up after they have had it in the home. It is the one great instrument that is teaching the world to appreciate good music, and it is only a question of time when every home WILL have a Victrola. Why don't you make your arrangements for one now?

BOND ISSUE PROPOSED FOR SCHOOL AT CASHION

Taxpayers of District Will Be Asked to Vote Bonds for School House to Replace One Burned

Property owning tax payers of the Cashion school district will again vote on the question of issuing bonds to build a new school building. At an election several months ago a proposal to issue bonds for this purpose was defeated. During the holidays, however, the frame school house in this district was burned. Petitions are now being circulated for an election to vote $1200 bonds. It is believed the bond issue will carry at this election without difficulty. While an adequate building would probably cost more than $1200 it is believed that warrants can be issued to take care of the amount over $1200.

There has been some talk of con-

CONTINUES RESTRAINING ORDER IN LIGHT PLANT

Judge Bonner Refuses to Dissolve Injunction Involving Henrietta Light Plant

Judge W. N. Bonner in the 80th district court this afternoon overruled the motion of the Northern Texas Utilities Corporation to dissolve the temporary injunction granted by Judge Akin several weeks ago restraining that corporation from the possession of the electric light plant at Henrietta, or from mortgaging or ### disposing of the same.

He continued the Burk Burnett independent school district. If this is done it will be necessary to provide transportation for the children residing in the Cashion district.

Morris contracted the sale of his plant at Henrietta to the Northern Texas Utilities Company. He was to receive a certain amount of cash and a certain amount in stock. In his application for an injunction he alleged that the corporation was insolvent and that misrepresentations had been made.

The Northern Texas Utilities Company was represented by W. H. Atwell and John W. Philip of Dallas. Mr. Atwell having been United States district attorney under Roosevelt and Mr. Philip having been republican candidate for governor at one time. Mr. Morris was represented by R. E.

Taylor and I. W. Parrish of Henrietta.

Among the officials of the Northern Texas Utilities Company here for the hearing yesterday were Hiram Grossman and W. C. Woodliff of Dallas.

AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURERS WILL EXCHANGE PATTERNS

By Associated Press.
New York, Jan. 8.—Seventy-nine companies manufacturing automobiles, and members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce will exchange all but their basic patterns under an agreement made today, the final day of the automobile show here. A great deal of litigation now pending will be terminated by this agreement which provides for cross licensing in connection with patent rights and applies to 350 varied patterns. The Automobile Chamber of Commerce announced today the appointment of a safety first committee.

"MOVIES" TO ILLUSTRATE LESON AND SERMON AT M. E. CHURCH SOUTH TODAY

Moving pictures in church are promised for Wichitans today, the innovation being planned for the services at the M. E. Church, South, A. machine has been installed there and will be used to illustrate the Sunday school lesson and perhaps the sermons at the morning and evening services. It is not certain as yet that the machine will be used today, as Dr. Andrews, pastor of the church, was sick yesterday, but he hoped to be able to conduct services today as usual. The pictures deal with various Bible stories and may be used to illustrate either Sunday school lessons or sermons. For instance, a film dealing with the life of Moses and depicting various scenes and activities of that Bible character, can be used to impress the lesson upon the minds of the Sunday school pupils and would also be of service in connection with a sermon that dealt with Moses in any way. Although an innovation here, the moving picture idea has been used with excellent results in churches elsewhere, especially in the larger cities. It is found much easier to hold the interest of the young people by this means, and the lessons are presented much more forcibly than by reading or by word of mouth, it is said.

E. W. FRY'S FIFTH TRIAL TOMORROW

FORMER COUNTY JUDGE OF YOUNG COUNTY TO BE TRIED AGAIN

STARTS AT NINE O'CLOCK

Probable Alleged Forgery of Name of "J. T. Lowe" Will Be Selected For Coming Trial

For the fifth time within less than a year E. W. Fry, former county judge of Young county and member of the legislature from the district comprising Young and Jack counties will be placed on trial on a felony charge before a Wichita county jury. Judge Fry is to be tried on another of the 49 forgery indictments returned against him by a Young county grand jury beginning at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the 78th district court, Judge E. W. Nicholson presiding.

While it has not been definitely decided it is probable that he will be tried this time on the alleged forgery of the name of "J. T. Lowe" to a county warrant of Young county. District Attorney Leslie Humphrey and John C. Kay and Judge P. A. Martin will again represent the state, while R. E. Taylor of Henrietta and Judge Scurry will represent the defendant. It is probable that T. R. Boone will again assist the defense in the selection of a jury.

Judge Fry with three others was tried here early last summer on a charge of forgery growing out of the killing of Court House Guard Cherry-baines at Graham. He and the others were acquitted on this charge. This will be the fourth forgery case against Judge Fry to be tried here. In the first case a mistrial resulted. In the second he was convicted and given two years, but the court of criminal appeals last week reversed and remanded this case. The third forgery trial was in progress here when the indictment was discovered to be defective and the case was dismissed.

While no announcement has been authorized—it is generally believed that the case to be tried this week will be the last no matter whether an acquittal or a conviction results. The trials have already cost Young county several thousands of dollars.

VERNON WILL VOTE UPON NEW CHARTER FEBRUARY 29

Provides For Commission Form of Government—Maximum Tax Rate of $1.50

(Vernon Record)

The work of framing the new charter for the city of Vernon providing for commission form of government was completed at a meeting of the commission last Thursday night in the Business League office. The charter was read in detail and different provisions discussed and voted upon, several changes being made in the original draft as made up by the sub-committee of five. It was then signed by the eleven members of the commission. The principal provisions are given below. For detailed information, however, the voters will be mailed copies of the charter well in advance of the election which is to be held on Tuesday, February 29.

The legislative and executive functions are placed in a commission of five members, one of whom shall be mayor. Two commissioners will be elected from the east side of Main street and two from the west, but will be voted upon by the city at large. There will be no other elective officers.

Among other things the charter provides: For a school board of seven members to be appointed by the commission. For a maximum tax rate of $1.50. For the initiative, referendum and recall.

WILLIAM FARNAM AT MAJESTIC TUESDAY

The Fox picture "The Broken Law" will form the Tuesday program at the Majestic Theatre. The action takes place in England about the year 1850 and the story concerns itself mainly with the destinies of Daniel Esmond (Mr. Farnum), Ursula, a gypsy girl; Lord Phillip Duncan, and Isabel Berner, a wealthy English girl.

Esmond, a novelist, decides to write a book about the Romanies, a band of nomads camping on his estate. On the death of his father, he learns that he has a half sister who is a member of an unknown gypsy clan. He makes a futile search for her and finally joins a gypsy band in order to prosecute his quest. In the course of his wanderings he rescues Isabel from drowning, and later discovers that a mutual passion has developed between them. Isabel however, has been promised in marriage to Lord Duncan, a debauchee, whose fortunes have declined. Esmond finally becomes chief of the clan, but not until he has vanquished his rival, Gasper. Seeking revenge, Gasper accuses Esmond of seducing Ursula, a gypsy girl, who has really been wronged by Lord Duncan. Esmond and Ursula are branded and whipped from camp.

Rather than marry Lord Duncan, Isabel flees from home and goes to the gypsy camp. She is captured and is taken to the church to be married to Lord Duncan when— "Oh, well it would amount almost to sacrilege to disclose the ending.

C. H. MORRIS OF WINNSBORO ANNOUNCES HIS PLATFORM
Outlines Principles Upon Which He is Seeking Democratic Nomination for Governor

SALVATION ARMY OFFICER WILL SPEAK HERE TODAY
Brigadier Smith of Dallas Expected to Give Final Approval to New Building Plans

SPECIAL ROTARY SERMON TO BE DELIVERED TONIGHT
Rev. F. F. Walters to Address Members of Club on "Elements of Success"

Special to The Times
Winnsboro, Texas, Jan. 8.—Chas. H. Morris today made public the platform upon which he is seeking the democratic gubernatorial nomination before the primaries next July. The platform deals with pending state issues at length; while prohibition is not discussed in it, Judge Morris declares himself a life long prohibitionist by both present and prospective. He is opposed to the open saloon with all its attendant evils. He is a native Texan, he says, 55 years of age, son of a Methodist minister, like the present governor, and a Wilson democrat.

Judge Morris refers to the high tax rate and the increasing expense of government and suggests that a change is desirable. He opposes repeal of the Robertson law, favors amending the warehouse law to eliminate the useless and expensive feature, wants a complete marketing and warehouse system, wants state institutions for higher education taken out of politics by having only the president of each board appointed, the president to select his own board, favors taking of the insurance and banking department out of politics by means of civil service; urges amendment of the usury laws, thinks the state should accept the offer of the federal reserve bank to help the state keep on a cash basis, opposes increasing the number of official positions, favors a law providing for extra brakemen on long trains.

Dismissing the penitentiary system, Judge Morris says that it should be in charge of a general manager and that the power of the prison commission to buy lands and property and thus increase the indebtedness should be removed; he favors more publicity as a cure for the evils which he says at present afflict the penitentiary system, and thinks the surplus convict labor should be used for road building. Judge Morris wants the capacity of institutions for the insane enlarged so as to meet all needs.

Friendship for higher education is expressed in the platform, but administration of the institutions on an economic basis is urged. Judge Morris thinks that "the little school house on the hill where most of the children must receive their education should receive its just proportion of the funds."

"The greatest problem confronting the people of Texas," continues Judge Morris, "is how are we to help the poor, but honest and industrious men who are now tenants on the farms of the wealthy and in some instances heartless landlords, to obtain homes and do so without burdening the taxpayers with enormous tax rates?"

As a solution of the tenant problem, Judge Morris urges establishment of land loan associations to loan money on long time and at low interest rates.
He promises that if elected governor, he shall not interfere in local affairs and declares his intention to give Texas a business administration. He avers, in conclusion, that he is in the race to stay.

Brigadier J. C. Smith of Dallas, divisional officer of the Salvation Army in Texas, will be in Wichita Falls today. He will speak tonight at the First M. E. Church at the 7:30 services, and is expected to discuss phases of Salvation Army work. He will also participate in the street meetings which Captain and Mrs. Robb conduct here.

The visit of Brigadier Smith is expected to bring final approval for the Salvation Army building plans. They were submitted to him recently, and he desired some changes, which will be ordered. It is expected that following his visit the contract for the building will be awarded at an early date. The building will be located at the corner of Seventh and Scott funds for the construction having been raised here by Captain Robb.

A lecture sermon especially for members of the Rotary Club will be delivered this evening at 7:30 at the First Christian Church, by the pastor, Rev. F. F. Walters, who is a charter member of the Rotary Club. A special invitation to the 100 Rotarians of this city has been extended, and all are urged to be present. The promise being given that they will hear something of particular interest in connection with the ideals and principles that are the foundation of Rotaryism.

The pastor's subject will be "Elements of Success" and he expects to treat the subject from the Rotarian standpoint as expressed in the Rotarian motto, "He profits most who serves best." There will be special music and a large representation expected.

Which Are You Paying?

Only a few months ago we were scarcely known in Wichita Falls, but today we are employing more people than any other cleaning establishment in the city. There is a reason for this—our work is right and our prices are right. We are cleaners, dyers and hat renovators. We know the business and employ only people who know the business and guarantee to please you or no pay. We have an expert in our alteration department who can take your last year's suit and make it look like it was just from New York. If you are not our customer already, give us one trial and be convinced.

AT THE THEATERS

GEM TO FEATURE KALEM, "THE COQUETTE" MONDAY

"The Coquette" a Kalem special will be the attraction at the Gem Monday. A story is given.

Knowing that the examination about to be made of his books will reveal his penitence, Cadwell confesses to his daughter. Existing the aid of Don, her sweetheart, who is employed in the same office, Doris saves her father from disgrace. As the result, however, the crime is shifted to Don's shoulders and the boy is sent to prison. This, although Hall, his employer, believes him innocent.

Later, Cadwell compels Doris to become engaged to Lane, a man of wealth. Determined to wed no one but Don, Doris fascinates Harris, one of the prison guards and induces him to aid her in her plan to free Don. In turn, she promises to become Harris's wife. Don escapes from jail, aided by the keeper. The two are joined by Doris and make a break for liberty in the girl's auto.

The pursuit is taken up and in the running fight which ensues, Harris meets his death. Cadwell learns of the escape and does all he can to bring about the capture of the fugitives. Don and Doris are wed. Hunted the two are on the verge of desecration when they accidentally meet

Hall. Resolved to shield her father no longer, Doris tells Hall the truth. The latter promptly takes the girl and the escaped prisoner to see his friend, the governor.

Cadwell is present during this interview. The father denounces Doris's story, but a slip of the tongue reveals the truth. The real culprit is overtaken by the retribution while Doris and Don know happiness once more.

HENRIETTA CROSSMAN AT THE LYDIA MARGARET

"The Supreme Test" the picture in which Henrietta Crossman makes her screen debut is scheduled to show at the Lydia Margaret Monday. "The Supreme Test" is a comedy drama of the highest order, a story of society and the slums with the lives of folks from the heights of one interwoven with those in the depths of the other. Wyndham Standline, Adele Farrington and Stella Rasetto are also in the cast with Miss Crossman.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY

The Wednesday program at the Majestic Theatre will be a novelty both in the picture bill and the accompanying song program. The picture will be a heart interest drama, suggested by the world famous song "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and the star will be Richard J. Jose, well known ballad singer who introduced the song. The picture is supplemented by song numbers, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" the song motif of the picture sung by Ivan Murchison, local tenor. The story is woven around the beautiful old song and presents a true picture of rural life with mingled comedy and pathos.

"THE BUTTERFLY ON THE WHEEL" HERE WEDNESDAY

World Film Corporation presents at the Lydia Margaret Wednesday the five part photoplay "A Butterfly on the Wheel" based on the well known stage success of the same name. Maurice Tourneur the famous director whose recent triumphs, "Tribby," "The Ivory Snuff Box" will be fresh in the memories of motion picture goers, is responsible for the direction of this picture which will be found one of the most dramatic offerings on the World Film schedule.

The brief information that Holbrook Hilton plays the part of a bus band who perceiving his young wife in compromising circumstances with another man, divorces her and then is reconciled to her, and that dainty Vivian Martin is the wife, will give the reader a hint that a good play well played is to be expected from this famous director, but it does not suggest the care and painstaking do-tail which he always imparts to his work. For Maurice Tourneur is an artist in pictures; he has a wonderful faculty of seeing life from a dramatic standpoint; he is a natural dramatist.

LYCEUM NUMBER AT HIGH SCHOOL MONDAY

Tomorrow night the second number of the Midland Lyceum Course will be given at the high school auditorium, the Varallo-Gross Orchestra Company with five people in the company. With the orchestra is Mrs. Maude Reeder Lyons, club impersonator and a Texas woman. Press notices of the company are most flattering and the number bids fair to be the most entertaining which has appeared here on such a course. Of the attraction, the lyceum bureau says: "This combination of seasoned veterans without Miss Gross traveled seven years with Giffen's Troubadors, one of the most popular attractions which ever played the lyceum. With Miss Gross they have played three years in vaudeville. Now they come back to the lyceum rich in experience, with the most entertaining program imaginable. We make no apology for Maude Reeder Lyons, the reader, who adds variety and is a little star in her work. Miss Gross also will sing."

MARIE DORO AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY.

"The White Pearl," a Famous Players film will be the Monday attraction at the Empress. Marie Doro is seen in the unusual role of a little American girl who suddenly finds herself transplanted on a Japanese island, worshipped by the natives as the representative of Buddha, through her possession of a mysterious white pearl with which some Hindu legends are connected, and through her own beauty. Despite the adulation of the Japanese, because of her lost love, Robert Alden, whom she believes to have drowned in the wreck which separated them.

There is opportunity provided here for a writh-like creation, of which the abundant art of Miss Doro takes full advantage. Her garments and hair, wet, after her rescue from the sea, Miss Doro is a veritable mist-sprite, a bit of drifting fog or foam that has come to life. And the lighting of this scene is one of the most exquisite effects ever contained in a photoplay, the moon coming up from the waters, and as she goes to sleep in the arms of the statue of Buddha, the moonlight falls upon her, until she is almost in actuality a white pearl of a girl. For beauty of character conception for artistic presentation of drama and romance combined, "The White Pearl" will never be surpassed, and perhaps never be equalled—unless, indeed, Marie Doro and the Famous Players Film Co. accomplish this marvelous feat.

LAURA HOPE CREWS AT EMPRESS WEDNESDAY.

Laura Hope Crews in "Black Birds" which is to be on the Wednesday program at the Empress, plays the part of Leonie Sobatsky, a young American woman of adventurous inclinations who is a member of a band of smugglers and who successfully, for many years, evades the law. Later, a greater law draws upon the young woman through the circumstances of coming into unlawful possession of a famous oriental prayer rug with mysterious powers.

MUSICIANS CLUB OFFERS UNIQUE NUMBER JAN. 22

Local music lovers are promised an entertainment of more than ordinary excellence on Saturday, January 22 at the Wichita Theatre when the Reynolds Sisters, who render duet recitals in costume, will appear there, under the auspices of the Musicians Club. Last year the Musicians Club brought the noted violinist, Maude Powell to this city and the coming attraction is the first of two to be presented this year. The Misses Reynolds appear in costumes suited to the songs they sing, the program including usually French folk songs, songs of Brittany and similar numbers, for which the accompaniment is played on the old fashioned spinet. Their program also includes classic numbers, in pleasing variety. They do not depend so much upon the novelty of their program, unique as it is, as upon the excellence of their singing, and press notices in places where they have appeared are highly complimentary.

JUST IN TIME

Some Wichita Falls People May Wait 'Till It's Too Late. Don't wait until too late. Be sure to be in time. Just in time with kidney pills. Means curing the backache, the dizziness, the urinary disorders. That so often come with kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills are for this very purpose. Here is Wichita Falls testimony of their worth. Mrs. C. E. Sprouls, 408 Lee street, Wichita Falls, says: "I was in bad shape with rheumatic pains in my arms and shoulders. My feet and hands were also swollen. I felt depressed and worn out and my health was very poor. I used only one box of Doan's Kidney Pills when I was in much better health. The dropsical swellings were removed and the rheumatic pains disappeared." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—but get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sprouls had.
