Insistence of some democrats, including Democratic Leader Kitchin, that instead of voting on the foreign affairs committee's recommendation...

Absence of many democratic members from Washington on week end trips.

Unwillingness of Speaker Clark to ascertain a tabling motion on Monday, which is unanimous consent day.

The desire of many members for the longest possible delay in not taking the measure will have to go on record on the proposition.

Soon after the House convened today, Acting Chairman Fox announced that the committee had decided there would be no vote until Monday.

The letter was addressed to Congressman Charles D. Carlin, chairman of the other two members of the committee.

The chief objective in tabling the resolution is that its probability is burdened with requests for papers that do not exist or cannot be produced.

FRY MANDAMUS CASE DISMISSED

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS AT FT. WORTH TAKES ACTION SATURDAY

EFFECT OF DECISION

Not Known Whether Question of Grand Jury List Being Publicly Waived Settled

By Associated Press. Ft. Worth, March 4.—The appeal of former County Judge Fry of Young county, who sought a court order to see the grand jury list in his county, was dismissed here today by the court of civil appeals.

Judge Fry will have opportunity to challenge the array of the grand jury if he desires to do so, and it is considered probable that time will be allowed him to submit a challenge after the jurors are ready to be empanelled.

The dismissal of the appeal does not settle a question in which there was considerable interest, that of whether a grand jury list, after it has been opened by the district clerk, is a public record.

Mr. Bryan conferred during the afternoon with many friends including some members of Congress and discussed the merits of the bill...

FEDERAL DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAYS HOUSE COMMITTEE IS ACTING UNFAIRLY.

HITS MEMBERS HARD

Says They Have Tried By Slander and Intimidation to Prevent Buchman's Prosecution.

By Associated Press. New York, March 4.—United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall made public here today a letter which he sent to the congressional committee...

Mr. Marshall's letter was the sequel to the arrest yesterday, by order of the committee, of L. R. Holme, a reporter for the New York Times.

The account in question said it was the belief in the district attorney's office that the investigation was started by German offenders against American law.

In addition to fearing the result of the democracy vote on a straight warning resolution, administration leaders frankly admit they are unwilling to take chances on what the republicans would do on such a proposal.

WICHITAN NEAR ZEPPELIN RAID

J. G. CULBERTSON IN PARIS WHEN THE GERMAN AIR-CRAFT ATTACKED.

VISIT TO TRENCHES

Returns Home After Successful and Interesting Trip to England and France.

Only five blocks away from a part of Paris where the Germans were dropping bombs from Zeppelins, later visiting some trenches close to the battlefield, and then returning home on a liner that was guarded by a torpedo boat destroyer and in which the life boats, provisioned and equipped, were ready to be lowered whenever a German torpedo should happen to land—these were some of the experiences of J. G. Culbertson, of this city, who has just returned from a trip which included Paris, London and other European points.

Mr. Culbertson's trip was for business purposes, and he reports success in his mission.

The Zeppelin raid of January over Paris, resulting in considerable destruction and loss of life, visited a section of the city only five blocks from where Mr. Culbertson was staying, giving him a very realistic touch of war conditions, but failing to impress him, as it had failed to impress many observers, with the efficacy of the Zeppelin as a factor in war. There was considerable noise, Mr. Culbertson says, and some women and children were killed, but he pointed out that the total number of deaths charged to Zeppelin in England during the war was no greater than were usually caused by accidents in times of peace.

"And as a result of the streets being darkened as a precaution against Zeppelins," Mr. Culbertson said, "the number of accidents has been great and some deaths have resulted."

Mr. Culbertson was not permitted to go into the actual war zone in France, but he did visit Chalons, a point reached by the Germans in their first rush on Paris but, from which they were forced to retreat. In the threatened enveloping movement of the French that saved the capital, there he saw numerous trenches and other evidences of war.

Returning on a British boat, Mr. Culbertson saw numerous indications that trouble was not considered as any too remote. A torpedo boat escorted the liner, the Tasmania of the Cunard line, for two days, while on the liner itself the life boats had been prepared for emergency, giving passengers a feeling that might have been akin to discomfort.

No submarines appeared, however, the return journey being safely completed—Mr. Culbertson reached New York early in the week and arrived in Wichita Falls Friday.

10-CENT ADVANCE IN PRICE OF OIL

NEW QUOTATION OF $1.40 PER BARREL POSTED HERE SATURDAY.

WILL AFFECT BONUS

Means Still Higher Prices On Some Contracts—Follows Advance in Oklahoma.

Following quickly upon the heels of a similar advance in the MID-CONTINENT field, the price of oil here went up ten cents a barrel Saturday, $1.40 being the new mark.

The advance posted by the Texas company, and will probably be followed by the Gulf Production company, The Magnolia Petroleum company, the third leading agency in this section, ceased several weeks ago to post the prices.

The curious situation now exists in the field, that $1.40 per barrel is the quoted price for oil, and yet probably not a single barrel is being run into the tank at that figure. Bonuses ranging from 20 to 50 cents, and in some rumored cases even higher, are being paid by independent refiners as well as by the big companies.

The advance will have some effect upon market conditions, however. Many contracts have been made at a stated differential above the market price, and the price of oil on such contracts will of course, go up ten cents. In this way the advance will work a hardship upon independent buyers, of which there are several in this field.

By Associated Press.
Tulsa, Okla., March 4.—The price of Oklahoma and Kansas crude oil advanced to $1.40 a barrel here today, setting a new high record. The increase of 10 cents was announced by the Prairie Oil & Gas Company. In addition to the posted prices many buyers are reported to be paying premiums between 25 and 40 cents a barrel.

By Associated Press.
Pittsburg, Pa., March 4.—So strong was the crude oil market here today that producers expected an advance by purchasing agents when the news came from Tulsa of a further advance in the mid-continent field. No announcement was made although it was stated on the highest authority that premiums of five and ten cents over the posted price of $2.40 a barrel for Pennsylvania crude were being offered by refiners.

AMERICAN CONSUL IN ROME IS DEAD

William F. Kelley, Is Believed to Have Been Victim of Heart Failure

By Associated Press.
Rome, March 4.—William F. Kelley, the American consul here, was today found dead in a chair early today. Death was probably due to heart disease.

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 4.—Consul Kelley's home was at Lincoln, Neb., where he had practiced law 22 years before he became private secretary to Secretary Bryan in October, 1913. He was the nation's assistant solicitor of the state department in August, 1914, and in June last year he was made a consul, being assigned to Rome. He was 61 years old.

W. C. T. U. CAMPAIGN FOR HONORARY MEMBERS

A campaign for honorary members for the W. C. T. U. has been started by the White Ribboners, according to plans perfected at the last business meeting, held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Akin. The campaign is to last only a month and judging from the enthusiasm prevailing the ladies are confident that at least 75 men will be enrolled as honorary members within that time. The members are each asked to secure one or more members and the losing side will entertain the winners at the "Pay Your Dues" tea to be held the first Tuesday in April. Mrs. Selma Hammond and Mrs. A. R. Prothro are the captains of the two sides.

Other important work lately undertaken by the Union is among the railroad men. The members request that all who will aid them in the work leave magazines, church papers and books at the North Texas—Burnham Store where a bureau of W. C. T. U. literature has been established just inside the door.

Half-hour services in 12 prayer circles will be held weekly from now until the convention, the first leaders and places of meeting to be announced today from the pulpits of the city.

The next meeting of the Union will be March 14th, with Mrs. P. P. Langford.

BRANDIE'S LAW PARTNER ON STAND IN INQUIRY

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 4.—Louis Brandeis law partner, E. F. McClellon, was cross examined today for three hours before the Senate subcommittee investigating Mr. Brandeis' appointment. Counsel for those opposing confirmation asked particularly about the Lenox bankruptcy case and at the end of the cross examination he committed himself to summon James K. J. Jones the principal in that litigation and requested Mr. McClellon to produce stenographic notes in which reports of conversations on the subject were made. Opponents of Brandeis charge that he was guilty of unprofessional conduct in filing an involuntary bankruptcy petition against Lenox based partly on an assignment he is alleged to have previously advised McClellon to make.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Consult the impression uppermost in your mind and you will find that you think of this car as very carefully and conscientiously made. People think of the car in this light because of their high opinion of Dodge Brothers as manufacturers. And that good opinion is justified by the facts, and by the performance of the car. For example, 22,500 machining operations are involved in the manufacture of the car. A great many of these parts are machined to an accuracy of one-half of a thousandth of an inch. At least three processes used in Dodge Brothers' factory are distinctively exclusive. Scientific manufacturing accuracy reduces the friction of moving parts to the smallest degree, and a greater proportion of power is available for driving the car. The use of forged and pressed steel parts instead of lighter weight sheet metal, and the all-steel body is lighter than the usual forms of construction. The all-steel body also makes possible a lustrous finish of unusual character, which is unexcelled for a long period.

It will pay you to visit the dealer and examine this car. The tire valance is unusually high. The price of the Touring Car or Roadster, complete, is $750 (f.o.b. Detroit).

PUBLIC UTILITIES REPORTS FOR 1915

Water and Electric Companies Show More Spent Than Was Taken In.

Neither the light and power business nor the water business in Wichita Falls was profitable during 1915, according to the annual reports of the Wichita Falls Electric Company and the Wichita Falls Water Company just filed with City Secretary W. A. McCarty.

The light company's report shows that its operating cost was $295,121.69 while its earnings total was $126,850 included in operating cost, however, is an item of $110,587.87 for extensions, indicating that so far as actual operations are concerned, the company did not lose as much money as might appear at first glance.

The water company's reports that its operating cost was $190,725 last year and its earnings $62,466.97. This company spent over $44,000 for extensions, so that its loss on running expenses was light.

The Wichita Falls Electric Company report shows an investment of $700,000 of which $200,000 is preferred stock and $500,000 common stock. It has issued $642,000 in bonds, which were sold for $1.4 and it has a floating indebtedness of $10,905.87. The value of its visible tangible property is placed at $481,859.53, of which $83,306 is in land, $100,888.15 in buildings, $189,302.27 in equipment, $109,790.50 in machinery and $8,772.31 in cash.

Among the items making up the total of $206,131.68 operating cost are: Salaries $8759.11; fixed charges, including interest, $28,262.58; extensions, $110,587.87; labor, $13,229.40; fuel, $17,075.81. Of the total of $126,850 in earnings, $77,954.05 was from light, and $48,896.87 from power.

The electric company's reports does not state whether the lines built last year to Electra, Iowa Park and Burk Burnett are included in the extensions by the company.

The capital stock of the Wichita Falls Water Company, according to its report, is $400,000 of which $100,000 is preferred stock and $300,000 common. It has issued $295,000 in bonds, selling them at 87.7; they are due in 1945. The visible tangible property is valued at $210,035.44, as follows: Equipment, $148,763.17; buildings, $28,229.26; machinery, $3,003.78; The floating indebtedness is placed at $26,009.

The total of $100,725.32 in operating cost included $3529.85 for salaries, $15,442.27 for fixed charges including interest, $44,360.68 for extensions, $28,984.91 for miscellaneous expenses. The earnings are placed at $62,466.97.

"That Was a Fine Piece of Meat"

A few days ago a lady called on my meat department and seemed puzzled—didn't know just what she wanted.

After a little questioning, my meat clerk showed her a cut of beef that was new to her.

She didn't exactly like the looks of it but later being assured that it was very tender and of good flavor, she took it and just a day or two later she came back for more of the same kind with the remark quoted above.

Perhaps I can help you the same way. Glad to try, anyway.

ECONOMY IN BUYING CARS SUITABLE FOR ALL SEASONS.

George C. Hubbs, assistant general sales manager of Dodge Brothers, points out that if a person uses his car all the year around that he automatically reduces the overhead on his investment and that the car is therefore much cheaper than when it is only used for the summer months. "I have often expressed the thought that a motor car should be considered from its utilitarian value rather than as a pleasure vehicle," says Mr. Hubbs. "And in impressing this point I have tried to show the real economy of buying a car which can be driven all the year around. While the initial cost of a car equipped with a top for winter driving is slightly higher when you figure the cost of all the year driving compared with summer driving only, the advantages of purchasing the car with the closed top is very apparent."

Dodge Brothers closed car is the ideal car for driving all the year around. In winter you have a handsomely fitted up closed car. When the first warm days come the side panels can be removed and it is a semi-open car. With the coming of real summer the top can be taken off and the regular open top substituted.

Remainder to Be Selected Shortly—Cows Are to Be Bought in Wisconsin.

The dairying industry in Wichita county will have taken a decided step forward by March 20, by which time the 75 head of Holsteins, to be placed by the Chamber of Commerce with fifteen farmers close to this city, will have been received.

E. Woodall and John W. Thomas will probably leave before the end of this week for Wisconsin, where they will select the cattle, shipping them here promptly.

At a meeting to be held next Wednesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, the farmers selected will meet with a committee from the organization, at which the final details incident to placing the cattle will be arranged. It is expected to deliver the cows here by March 20. Twelve to fifteen farmers who will receive five head each have already been selected and the remaining three will probably be chosen within the next day or two. The twelve chosen are:

George D. Keith, F. P. St. Clair, C. C. Bannenburg, Leo Prescott, N. Gambrell, W. P. Brown, J. H. Carrithers, L. Emmert, Paul Meese, C. W. Bondling, E. M. Jones, A. N. Simpson.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ORGANIZED HERE

Both Senior and Junior Branches Are Perfected at Meeting Saturday

Organization of both a senior and junior camp of Campfire Girls, to be affiliated with the National Campfire Organization was perfected Saturday afternoon at a meeting held at the M. E. Church South. Miss Marie Hickman is the guardian of the senior camp and Miss Hazel Robson will act in the same capacity for the junior girls. The initial enrollment was rather limited but there are a large membership in both camps is assured, a number of girls having expressed their interest in the organization and a desire to join.

The senior Campfire Girls joining yesterday afternoon were: Misses Margery Mathis, Gertrude Davidson, Lois Martin and Hazel Thornton; Junior members: Misses Maurine Hickman, Ruth Crowell, Alice Jeine, Bernice Walker, Madge Grayett and Helen Kennedy.

The senior camp is considering very seriously taking the name of Camp Wichita and if this is done the old customs of the Wichita Indians will form their study and the tribal totem will be taken for the camp totem.

The Campfire Girls is an organization corresponding in nature to the Boy Scouts, organized several years ago in England and the United States by Sir Baden-Powell. It is peculiar to America in that the customs and many of the names suggested as well as the ceremonies used are those of the different tribes of American Indians. Each camp goes by a name, preferably an Indian origin and significance and each Campfire Girl has her "Indian name" which expresses some characteristic of her owner. There are numerous ranks to be achieved in the order of Campfire Girls and the girl joining takes an oath as does her brother, the Boy Scout. The different ranks are to be earned and for duties performed and lessons learned there are badges given.

The ceremonial is a very pretty one and wherever established the Campfire Girls have had wonderful success, the organization teaching as it does lessons and truths that aid the growing girl in everyday life. The organization while fostered by the workers of the M. E. Church South is to be open to all girls between the ages of 12 and 18 who manifest an interest in the work.

KNIGHTS COLUMBUS INITIATION TODAY

Large Number of Visitors Here For Ceremony—40 Novices to Cross Swords

Several delegations of Knights of Columbus from towns in this section had arrived last night for the initiation of that order to be held here today. It is expected that 40 candidates will be initiated. Delegations and candidates will be here from Rhineland, Windthorst, Scotland, Electra, Childress and other towns.

District Deputy Fenelon of Fort Worth degree team will preside with in attendance including Father Mosely of Bonarton, Father John of Rhineland, Father French of Childress and Father Parachino of Montague.

It had been planned to confer one of the degrees before noon but this has been given up and the conferring of the degrees will not start until 1:30 in the afternoon. At 10:15 this morning the Knights will assemble at the old Catholic church on Ninth street and will march in a body to the new church at 10:30 to attend Mass. At 1:30 the initiation of the candidates in all three degrees of the order will start at the I. O. F. hall. After the degrees are conferred the Knights will go to the old church where a luncheon will be served and talks made by visiting Knights and others.

FRANKIE MANILLA

What is expected to be one of the classic featherweight bouts ever staged in Wichita Falls will be put on Friday evening between Frankie Manilla the famous Italian fighter and Carlo Fleming, the local whitewrapping scrapper as principals at the old Moose hall. The fight will go ten rounds and will be given under the auspices of the business Men's Athletic Club.

This mill is going to have some attractive parts. Young Manilla is a rapid fire artist of the lyric class. He is confident, capable and nervy, combines speed with boxing ability and has the idea created because of a score of windings that he can handle the "give-up" tag on any other featherweight in the country. He does not hesitate to boast that he will make Fleming admit he is whipped before the last period arrives and will give him the licking of his life. He may be right for the way he drubbed Kid Dixon at Fayetteville last Friday night even made Jimmy Hurd, his Kansas City manager, confess he was in a class by himself. There are those however who are not ready to admit that Manilla has the easiest task in the world in driving Fleming from the ring, as Fleming is also an athlete. He has class, great bundles of ginger, and his perry is galvanized. It is probable the Pittsburg boy will get a surprise.

At any rate the mill will be a good one. The boxers will weigh in at 122 pounds at 3 o'clock. Manilla says Fleming can weigh 126 pounds if he likes. Manilla in all his confidence, however, is training hard and is taking no chances of losing on account of under estimating his opponent. He will take up training headquarters at the R. M. A. Club working out each afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The exhibitions that have been arranged by Matchmaker Frank Howard to be given here next week will be the most interesting that have ever been staged in this city, not only is the main event attracting a good deal of attention but the semi-winship between Red Bird and the Fleming Dutch, is also attracting much attention and the opinion is that these two boys are so evenly matched that there is much speculation as to the probable outcome of this bout. Dutch is young at the game and going up against a more experienced opponent, but he is clever and can take a lot of punishment and fight from the sound of the bell. Red Bird has the advantage of experience but whether that will overcome Dutch's fighting ability is a question. There will also be a battle royal and probably some other events.

SUPERVISOR NAMED AT AUSTIN SCHOOL

Mothers Club Creates Office and Pays Salary—Duties Are Many and Varied

A new office has been created at the Austin school, that of children's supervisor and the appointee, Mrs. E. R. Rowlett, will take up her duties Monday morning.

This action was taken by the Mothers Club which not only fostered the innovation but is directly responsible for the salary of the supervisor. The appointment was made by a committee of the club Saturday afternoon.

The duties of supervisor involve looking after the children on the playground and in the buildings while they are out of the rooms and the physical and moral well being of the child will be in her care, supplementing the mental training he is receiving in the school. The office fills a long felt need and there is little doubt but that the supervisor will find plenty to occupy her. Playground supervision and assistance in keeping the children amused at the play times is also included in the list of duties. The Austin school is the first of the city schools to have such an addition to the force and in this the Mothers Club is keeping up with the most modern and advanced schools in large cities.

TEA ROOM IS LATEST ESTABLISHMENT HERE

With the opening next Wednesday of the Loreita Tea Room at 305 Indiana, Wichita Falls will acquire what is being marked as a strictly up to date city, an attractive place of refreshment, especially designed to meet the needs of shoppers and others desiring service de luxe. The business is the original idea of two young women, Mrs. M. Ingram, formerly of Amarillo and Mrs. E. A. Fullington of this city, who during her residence here of more than a year has made an extensive acquaintance.

The room is equipped with booths for private parties, the managers catering especially to theatre parties and other social affairs.

MANY FANCIES AND FOIBLES NOTED IN STYLES FOR EARLY SPRING WEAR

New York, March 4.—Dame Fashion would not be the artist that she is were she not influenced, more or less by every passing fancy. The influence of the Russian Ballet has been direct and noticeable. We may glimpse the Baked note in the brightly colored jewelry, real and artificial, now so much the vogue; in the quaint hand made trimmings, quiltings, pleatings, cordings and puffed-out which serve to trim so many of our summer frocks of silk and cotton.

The matinee for the Russian dancers given at the opera house in Paris, early in the year, was the first real important social event in France since the beginning of the war. The large house was crowded to the doors with a beautifully gowning, enthusiastic audience. When this same company appeared recently at the Century Theatre in New York, we were quite as enthusiastic, and they received an equally favorable reception. Night after night the house was crowded with gorgeously gowned women and men in evening dress. Our principal little dancer, Florence Watson, trilled against a background of moonlit garden, so real that one can fairly hear the whispering of the trees as their branches intermingle and the rippling of the water back of the small marble temple. The skirts are full and billowy and the bodices tight and basque like. The costumes of the papillons are of the early Victorian period; and they are directly responsible for the present vogue of hand-made trimmings.

Quilled and Pleated Trimmings. For tulle and the printed silks which are now so high in Fashion's favor, for the crisp organzies, and daintily figured voiles and crepes, there is no more practical or effective trimming than cording, smocking or shirring. Many of our dance frocks for summer will be of organza or net; an unusually pretty imported frock of it, shown recently in one of our exclusive shops, was made with an extremely full skirt, gathered at the waist, equally wide top and bottom. The skirt was hung over a crinolone slip stiffening and the entire dress was trimmed effectively with quaint pleated sutiles. Another effective summer evening gown displayed at the same time was of white Georgetown crepe headed with opaque white tulle. The bodice was cut in bold crepe effect, and the skirt was a charming contrast to the full skirt of the net dress, being pleated to fall straight and narrow, looking from waist to ankles. A narrow braided cord encircles the waist and caught up a strain of panel in the back, to carry out the balero effect.

For Trimmed Costumes Still in Evidence. Although our shops are overflowing with airy, summery looking fabrics, hats and dresses, our Avenue presents, with the exception of a crazy hat now and then, quite as wintry an appearance as it has for the last few weeks. The velvet suit, combined with faille or broadcloth, is a general favorite, and fur is still its trimmings. The notion of combining cloth and silk or velvet is a practical and effective one; often, as in our illustration, the lower section of skirt is of broadcloth. This of-ton was seen once or twice in the lobby, gowned in one of Lucille's fanciful evening frocks, causing, as one woman remarked "everyone else to look tame." Ruth St. Dennis was seen on another evening, tall and distinguished looking, watching with professional interest every graceful movement of little Popokova and her companions. While some of the fantasies were rather weird to our Western eyes, all were poetical, the very embodiment of romance, fascinating and inspiring.

La Slyphides and Papillons' come nearer to the modern costume than the others; the costumes of the first are simple to a degree of pure white.

PLANS FOR DIAZ WERE PREPARED

JUNTA IN SAN ANTONIO SAID TO HAVE MAPPED OUT CAMPAIGN.

VILLA'S AID SOUGHT

Overtures Made to Several Generals—Intended to Make Attack Late in Summer.

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, March 4.—According to information in possession of government officers the junta which is reported to have disbanded here recently had other plans for the Felix Diaz revolution. Whether this plan was promulgated with a view of throwing off United States authorities and deceiving Carranza agents who were watching every movement, or that the local junta was working along other lines than the one Diaz finally launched, is not known. The officers have names of prominent Mexicans who participated in the sessions of the junta here, some of them coming here from New York, and other distant points for the purpose. The junta was organized here early in December and held meetings at the home of a Mexican and in a hotel. From the reports of the junta it would appear that the plan of campaign was to begin late in the summer with an armed expedition in the lower Rio Grande and in Sonora. Overtures were made to certain Villa generals, notably General Felipe Angeles, former director of the Chapultepec military academy. Other men approached, it is stated, were General Rafael Flores, General Luis Cabarera, General Jose M. Maytorena, General B. Reyes and others. General Angeles was expected here, but did not come.

BRYAN EXPECTED TO OPPOSE WILSON
Many Believe He Will Be Against Renomination of Present Incumbent
(Washington Dispatch to Austin American.) William J. Bryan will, it is declared, oppose the renomination of President Wilson in the Democratic National convention. He will base this opposition upon the uncertain plank of the Baltimore platform and upon Mr. Wilson's advocacy of preparedness. Bryan made Wilson's nomination possible at Baltimore. He will, his friends declare, train the same guns upon the president at St. Louis to prevent him again being the choice of the Democratic party. If he fails in his mission, he will support Wilson's candidacy—as he did that of Alton B. Parker. "I have not thought it wise," Mr. Bryan said recently to a friend in Washington, "to make an open statement as to whether or not I would support the president. No one has such a right until the president announces he wants another term." The fact that President Wilson has permitted the use of his name on the Ohio primary ballots, however, has left Bryan in the open to declare his position. Upon the strength of the president's announcement, Mr. Bryan's friends feel at liberty to state that the erstwhile Secretary of State will line up against his former chief. "Nothing in my past actions," said Mr. Bryan, "has justified the suspicion that I would not support the Democratic ticket. I have no ax to grind. All I ask is to be allowed to work along my own lines for the reforms in which I am so deeply interested. I have no friends whom I must reward at the expense of the Nation and no enemies to punish. There are plenty of good men from whom to choose." Speaking of his opposition to President Wilson's preparedness plan, Mr. Bryan said: "Democracy should and must stand united against it. It is a Republican issue. It is a part of the scheme to restore to the country the protective tariff policy. It emanates from the interests. It would be the height of folly for the Democratic party, after fighting for years for tariff reform, to be blindly led into the arms of the protectionists. Their only return would be the enrichment of the interests who will make vast fortunes out of this preparedness scare. "I have failed to be convinced that the voters demand big armaments. In fact, every mandate from the voters on that score so far as I have been able to see, has been negative." Bryan's decision to oppose his former chief will naturally have a great weight. To what extent he will go at the St. Louis convention cannot be surmised.

SALANDRO GOVERNMENT GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE
Rome, March 4.—The Chamber of Deputies gave Premier Salandro's government a vote of confidence on a vote of 278 to 49 on the occasion of a motion to open a discussion on the conduct of the war and on the government's foreign policy. The premier said the motion was not opportune for a discussion of this kind.

IMMEDIATE FORECLOSURE OF ROCK ISLAND URGED
By Associated Press. Chicago, March 4.—Immediate foreclosure of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway was demanded today by Louis C. Krauthoff in the hearing of the receiver's petition for instructions regarding certain funds now going over before Judge George E. Carpenter in the United States district court. Mr. Krauthoff is attorney for the Central Trust Company of New York, trustee of $100,000,000 worth of first and refunding mortgage bonds. Attorneys for the stockholders and the holders of $20,000,000 of debenture bonds are urging the court to instruct Receiver Jacob M. Dickins to pay the $600,000 interest on these bonds as the only means of saving the road.

throughout the country. World Film Corporation releases the five part photoplay "Over Night" based on William A. Ruddy's successful stage play of the same name.

Phillip Bartholomae wrote the original play and chose a bright and lively story for it.

Two young couples, just married, have made up their minds to spend their honeymoons in the Catskill Mountains, up state in New York. And by a remarkable coincidence they decide to take their trip by water, choosing the mammoth Hudson river steamer Hendrick Hudson, as the bridal equipage. Everything looks bright and promising for the honeymooners; until Fate takes a hand. In the confusion of embarkation one bride is left behind on the pier with the wrong husband; the other bride finds herself on the boat with the wrong husband. The action of the comedy then proceeds to the Catskill Mountains where the two assorted couples meet and after many misunderstandings finally rearrange themselves in their proper order. James Young directed the picture which has many bright and attractive settings; a strong cast; and is briskly acted.

FOX FEATURE DAY AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY

"The Fourth Estate" a newspaper picture dealing with political life and newspaper folk in general will be the attraction at the Majestic Tuesday.

Few photoplays of recent making have had stronger casts than "The Fourth Estate" produced by William Fox. The cast includes Clifford Bruce, who was a star under Charles Frohman, and who played with Maude Adams and other favorites. Mr. Bruce also played in "A Fool There Was" with Theda Bara and has been seen in other Fox features.

Samuel J. Ryan who plays the part of Boss Duprey, is one of the oldest and best known actors in the business. He was for years leading man for Cohen and Harris, and played prominent parts in "The Yankee Prince" and other Cohen and Harris plays.

Alfred Hickman, who plays the corrupt judge who the original "Little Gilly" in "Trill" and has scored notable successes in other productions, including several William Fox pictures.

Victor Bennett, who plays the part of the newspaper reporter, is a screen favorite of long standing. In "The Fourth Estate" he is cast in a part that perfectly fits him. Ruth Blair, co-star with Mr. Ryan and Mr. Bruce has appeared on the stage under the management of the Selwyns. She has many successes to her credit.

"BIRTH OF A NATION" GETS RECORD CROWDS

In each of the large cities where D. W. Griffith's "The Birth of a Nation" which will soon be seen at the Wichita Theatre, was produced last summer, there were long lines of patrons waiting to buy seats at the box offices. Absolute capacity was the rule for many months. During the fall times that had fallen upon the theatre these lines or queues of prospective buyers had practically disappeared. "Oh, there won't be any advance sale," said the box office attendant, "when asked about an engagement. It took a Griffith production of pictures and music suggest to bring back the long absent queues. New York's Broadway, Chicago's Loop, Boston's Tremont street looked like old times again, with the box office forces doubled and the lines of "The Birth of a Nation" admirers stretching to the curb or even to the next street. The same phenomenon has been repeated in all the other cities which the play has visited the present season. It means of course that the high class theatre is not moribund. Only the touch of David W. Griffith's master wizardry has been required to infuse it with life.

TRIANGLE MOVIES AT THE LYDIA MARGARET

Commencing Monday the Lydia Margaret Theatre will show "Triangle" films. The first offering is "The Disciple."

William S. Hart plays Jim Honsler, "The Disciple," a "shootin' iron" who locks up his doctrine with his gun but his wife runs away with Doc Hardy and his child is stricken with fever. He then splits with God, curses Him and becomes an engagement. It took a Griffith production of pictures and music suggest to bring back the long absent queues. New York's Broadway,

See what the lightning did what the storm brought—the most terrible storm in moving pictures. See why Hart is the biggest character actor in his profession; his marvelous facial expression; his wonderful ability to seize every opportunity without having them thrown at him like so many bouquets.

Hart makes men cry. Hart is a wonderful actor, a wonderful artist. Hart is a man—not a sissy.

WHEAT SUFFERS HEAVILY IN VICINITY OF DENTON

Wheat in the vicinity of Denton is 80 per cent killed, according to the Record-Chronicle of that place which quotes Denton authorities on the subject. The Record-Chronicle says: "Eighty per cent of the wheat west of Denton is dead," said J. N. Raynor, Thursday, after completing an inspection of a large scope of territory in the wheat belt. "At request of grain men in the north and middle west, we made the inspection, going over 2,700 acres of grain. Of this 2,100 acres showed nothing and much of the remainder, there is so poor a stand that there is very little hope for a crop.

"I don't know what is responsible for the destruction, but it is a repetition of the conditions in 1890. Some say it was the wet freeze, others the dry freeze, still others the impoverishment of the plant due to the attacks of the green bugs. Probably it is the result of three factors."

P. F. Hill estimated that about one-third of the wheat in the Parvin community is killed out. J. M. Evans reported that on his farm near Krom the entire crop was practically ruined, but that on his farm near Mingo the crop was doing apparently well.

Thousands of acres planted in wheat will have to be replanted and the prospect is that a very large proportion of it will be in oats, although cotton and corn will be used on much of the wheat land. R. J. January, who was at his farm near Ponder Thursday morning, said that while some wheat fields in that section looked fairly good, most of it looked to be dead. Mr. January said some have begun resowing their land in oats and that the oat acreage will be the largest ever known in the Ponder community. "The farmers are fortunate in having a plentiful supply of seed oats which are bringing 50¢ a bushel with some asking 60¢.

VITAGRAPH SPECIAL AT MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY

Harry Morey, Rogers Lytton, Belle Bruce and Eulalie Jensen are co-stars in "The Making Over of Geoffrey Manning," a four part Vitagraph on the Majestic program for Wednesday. Harry Morey takes the part of Geoffrey Manning.

Brought up in idleness, Geoffrey Manning is one of the most self-complacent individuals known to man. His father, a hard working father of ten, reprimands him for his laziness, but he only laughs; until a young social "uplifter" gives him a verbal jolt that sets Geoffrey to thinking. The result is that, talking only Matthew, a family lawyer, into his confidence, Geoffrey tells his father he is going hunting for a job and disappears from his little world. In a cheap suit of clothes, and with very little money in his pockets, he sets out determined to make his own living unaided.

What a rude awakening he experiences! No training, no experience, he finds himself unable to secure a job of no use to anyone. Finally he gets work tearing up the street with a rough gang, and although he is strongly built, the work almost kills him. But he is game. They get a job in the big steel mills—the very one owned by his father. Under an assumed name, he goes steadily up the ladder of promotion in the huge forge room. Becoming interested in labor troubles, Manning has become a popular leader among the men, who go to him for counsel in all their troubles. Meanwhile, his father and the acceptance of the prison he has met and fallen in love with Harmony Laurie, a pretty nurse, teacher and a girl of sterling character. He rescues the girl from a terrible fire at the mill, nearly losing his life. On his return to work he finds the men on the verge of striking and as their old leader, takes up their grievances in person with his

LUBIN FEATURE AT THE GEM THEATRE MONDAY

Helen Walcott and L. C. Shumway are starred in a Lubin feature, "The Law's Injustice" showing Monday at the Gem. A story is given.

Nina, an Italian girl, works in the factory of Ashton Morris. Her wages are insufficient to provide for her sick little brother, and soon she is in the clutches of a loan shark. The debt grows steadily, and soon her wages are garnished. Morris tells her nothing can be done as it is the law, but suggests an easier way out of it by having Nina borrow the money and give it to him. She is more determined than ever to get her. The collector gives Nina no receipt when he collects her rent, and so she is forced to pay twice. She appeals to Morris, and he again tells her it is the law. Seeing that she is not yet ready to consent, he places temptation in her way by giving her work to do at home. Tony is taken worse and, Nina sells the materials entrusted for her. She again tells her it is the law, and she receives three years. She makes a scene in court and vows to get even with Morris. Her sentence served, Nina is befriended by an actress, and becomes a singer at a roof garden. She learns that Morris is running for governor of the state, and she goes to his desk and purloins the books and falls in love with Morris. Stanley, not knowing who he is, Stanley is managing his father's campaign and gives her a position in his office. Nina keeps close watch on him and soon discovers that the voters of the third district has been bought through the boss, McEwen. She informs the other party. On the eve of election day, Stanley prepares the sworn statement of campaign expenses required by law. Nina gains access to his desk and obtains the vouchers, signed by Stanley, and gives them to the other side, Morris is elected. Stanley overjoyed, proposes to Nina. She promises to give him an answer at the roof garden that night. When he goes he is arrested and Nina tells him that is the answer. Stanley faces a prison sentence and Morris is disqualified. Nina realizes that her vengeance is not worth the remorse she feels for having betrayed her lover.

PARAMOUNT COMEDY AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY

"Jane" a comedy with Charlotte Greenwood and Sydney Grant starred in it, is being offered at the Empress Theatre Monday. The Motion Picture World critic offers the following comment:

In photoplay form "Jane" written by W. H. Lestocoe and produced on the stage some 25 years ago, makes pleasant entertainment. It is not uproariously funny, but genuinely amusing for the greater part of the five reels made by the Oliver Morosco Company, with Charlotte Greenwood in the role of Jane and Sydney Grant playing William, the butler. Miss Greenwood and Mr. Grant are effective scene-comedians without resorting to the tricks of slapstick and they are given admirable support by Myrtle Stedman, Forrest Stanley, Lydia Yeamans Titus and others in a cast of exceptionally even merit.

On the stage "Jane" is classed as a farce of the old school; as a picture production it will be termed comedy. One might add polite comedy, for there is nothing to offend the taste of a sensitive audience. The farcical bits of the situation are realized with considerable expertness in view of the difficulties confronting the director of a five reel comedy. The intricacies of the problem arising out of Shackleton's attempt to deceive his uncle into believing that he is married, when as a matter of fact he remains a bachelor, are made more mysterious as the story progresses. With each new move Shackleton becomes more deeply involved in the network of deceit and the last reel brings the liveliest sort of a farcical climax, capped by explanations satisfactory to all concerned.

Miss Greenwood displays a keen sense of photoplay comedy in her portrayal of the servant who consents to pose as Shackleton's wife. Her facial expressions are varied and well judged and she never spoils an effect by unnecessary exaggerations. She was in every respect a fortunate choice for the character of Jane. The settings for the picture call for particular comment. The interiors are rich and what is more indicate a refined taste in decorations.

VIVIAN MARTIN AT THE EMPRESS TUESDAY

"Over Night" is to be the attraction at the Empress Tuesday. Dainty, winsome Vivian Martin is again the bewitching heroine of one of those bright and sparkling film comedies which have won her the patronage and praise of movie fans

TENANT PROBLEM IN THE SOUTHWEST

Special to The Times.
Austin, Texas, March 5.—Under the title "Migratory Tenants of the Southwest" William E. Leonard, of the University of Texas, discussed the classification of "Southwestern farm tenants in the January 29 issue of the Survey, New York. He says there are two misconceptions of the tenant problem in general circulation: one is that all tenants are falling, which, he says, is not true, and another is that the tenant problem is of recent origin.
He divides for purposes of description southwestern tenants into three groups, one of which is getting ahead and acquiring land, another that is enjoying a fair standard of living, and a third, or migratory class, that is beating about from pillar to post apparently unable to acquire even teams and tools with which to farm. He says that this class is likely descended from weak stock of colonial times and also from the generation weakened by the civil war and the reconstruction period. He says the landlords are also to be divided into classes from the worst to the best—the best being those broad-minded, fair-minded landlords who seek by rigid methods to build up permanent estates, and to accomplish this, offer generous leases to secure good tenants. The hard-bargain driving class of landlords, he says, must deal always with the inefficient migratory class of tenants, who, he says, "readily promise anything and then turn to their luck in being able to skin both the land and the landlord."
"At the lowest level of tenancy," Mr. Leonard concludes, "the problem is more than a landlord's question. It is even more than a land problem. Although land reform is sorely needed for the whole body of tenants, yet this alone will not solve the problem in the class in question. Indeed were these men given fertile land, fully improved, with interest at two per cent, a few would suffice to bring most of them again to their present unhappy position."
The problem, he further declares, to reconstitute the whole life of these people, make them more intelligent, more prudent, and careful as to their own numbers." They must be shown how to become more careful and trustworthy farmers, how to use properly their time and substance, and how to rid themselves of the burden of store credit.

SPRING STYLE SHOW

Thursday, March 9th—a Style Show which will reflect the up-to-dateness of our city.

DRUG STORES HAVE STYLE

The Old Time Way of doing business is gone. A Drug Store to be Up-to-date must employ Up-to-date methods. Medicines that were once used for certain diseases and thought to be the only remedy, have been supplanted by science with Up-to-date and more Effective Remedies. A Few years back a child that had a bad case of Diphtheria had to die and the doctor could not help it—now with a dose or two of Diphtheria ANTITOXIN the child is well in a few hours.

WE ARE UP-TO-DATE in that we keep in touch with the New things that come on the market—We keep in stock the NEW and UP-TO-DATE remedies which are used by progressive doctors.

THERE IS STYLE TO OUR SERVICE! Style to the New and attractive packages of toilet goods we show you from season to season—Style to the quality and up-to-dateness of the merchandise you buy at our store.

HETTY GREEN SELLS FAMOUS GOLD MINE

Old Eureka Property, Said To Have Produced $20,000,000 Brings $1,000,000

By Associated Press. San Francisco, March 4.—Mrs. Hetty Green, the New York capitalist, has sold the "old Eureka" gold mine at Sutter Creek, Amador county, California, to a syndicate of eastern millionaires. The price was said to have been more than $1,000,000. Among the purchasers, according to an announcement today is William E. Corey, steel magnate. The mine, long known as "Hetty Green's pet kitten" was opened for a brief period in the early 70's and was reputed to have produced $20,000,000. In 1887 Mrs. Green closed the mine down and caused it to be flooded. The explanation for her action, given at the time, was that she thought rivals were attempting to force her to sell it.

Harry Daugherty and family came up from Archer City yesterday and will be the guests of John Moore and family over Sunday at the country home of the latter.

The Perfume of Flowers for the Style Show

With all the beautiful creations of apparel that will be shown at the big Style Show this week there will needs be toilet articles—perfumes, powders, toilet waters, face creams, etc., and that will be our part to furnish and to show. From the choicest of the French and domestic perfumes we have garnered the choicest of flower sweetness—Djer Kiss, Mary Garden, Lilas de Rigaud, Carolina White, that lovely oriental type suggestive of the beautiful woman whose name it bears, the Richard Hudnut lines and many others equally as desirable.

We invite your inspection on the occasion of the Style Show, and will endeavor to entertain you with a program of Victrola selections from the world's greatest musicians.

CONCERT IS GIVEN BY MUSIC PUPILS

This Feature of Work of the Public Schools is Presented Friday Night.

A packed auditorium greeted the children of the music departments of the grade schools at their first public appearance this year Friday evening at the high school. A novelty introduced in the program was the folk games, presented by the children in costume and the audience was very enthusiastic over this new entertainment. Proceeds of the ticket sale were $64.50 and this money will go towards establishing a musical library, the Victrola fund and for the purchase of new records for the ward schools. There were numbers of people who were unable to get even standing room and a larger auditorium would have meant much more money for the music fund.

The folk games featured the program, there being three Danish games, two Swedish and one Scotch game given by the children in the costumes of the countries represented. A pretty song was that of "Little Miss Daisy," the children taking part being dressed in yellow and white daisy dresses and caps. In the first grade chorus the following boys took the part of soldiers, dressed in uniforms and carrying guns: Hugh Hammond, Claude Cood, Mudy Stayton and Lawton Dennis. The third grade chorus "In Germany" was effectively dramatized by Elsie Orr and Pierce Langford, in German and J. W. Whiteaw and Willie Levine dressed as Chinamen, pantomimed the song, "In China" sung by a chorus.

Mention was made in particular by the patrons of the marked improvement in voice tonality over last year and special praise was given the grade teachers for the efficient and systematic way in which the large choruses were handled. The work of Miss Agnew, instructor of music for the public schools has been the subject of much praise and each recurring concert event finds added words of commendation. Miss Frances Allen did excellent work as accompanist.

The personnel of the choruses follows:

First grade chorus—Grace Stanley, Vilma Daniels, Lucile Malacodr, Dolly Dunn, Irene Stuck, Billie Hood, Mary Ferguson, Ben Langford, Dorothy Reed, Gladys Ashby, Mary Simpson, Weldon Cartist, Eva Brown, Marie Edmond, Lucille Mae St. Clair, Harrell McConnell, Willie Ground, Ethel Johnson, Bertha DeLay, Margaret Stuart, Billiken Vaughn, Thelma Quinn, Mozelle Smith, Jewel Gambel, Mary Margaret, Lucille Rowland, Raymond Peeble, Lloyd Bland, Marvin George, Lewis Jernigan, Roy Neel, Reba Hefner, Jack Velta, Ben McCleary, Lucile Rountree, Paul Robb, Hardy Paul Smith, Mamie Simpson, Biddle Grace Bludworth, Alene Brown, Richard Brown, Lucille Pitts, Eugene Gibson, Jewel Sparks, Carol Quinn, Elaine Fuller, Fay Selby, Shumaks Baker, Louise Hendricks, John Dunn, Allene Holstead, Richard O'Neal, Orville Brown, Irene Clark, Stanley Field, Cecil Exleton, Lovella Furton, Elis Crane, Mary Ashmore, Gladys Cook, Isabelle Waller, Maurice Wright, Beatrice Brownlee, Hugh Hammond, Vivian Ross, Louisa Bello Morgan, Geraldine Kincaison, Isadore Cohen.

Opening Exhibition of Spring Styles. Fashion Utters the Wanted Word!

Styles for Spring are different—quite different. Fashion renounces simplicity and abandons herself to elaborate effects. This is most noticeable in the new skirts which are wider or artificially distended. In dress bodices, bust and waist are clearly defined. Shoulders are narrower. Exceptions are observed in the Russian and a few of the "period" styles which are not form-conforming. Millinery appears in countless new and attractive shapes, materials and colors. A feature is the unusual diversity of styles. There is no limit to the choice. And of the many new models, we present in this introductory display only those pleasing and practical, rigidly correct ideas wanted by women who dress within bounds. They are now ready, and we invite you to examine them while the assortments are complete and unhandled.

SUITS FOR SPRING

The new suits are unquestionably the smartest presented in many seasons. The silhouette has changed decidedly. The coat is short or long with a becoming flare from the waistline. Skirts are shorter but the shortage is made up for in fullness. Some extreme models measure five yards around the hem. The weaves and colorings of fabrics would make interesting reading, but we prefer to have you come and see.

Dresses Are Unusually Pretty

The bouffant effect of Civil War times, and "before the war" is cleverly interpreted in these models for 1916. The fullness of skirt has been faithfully copied but modified in ways to modernize it. Silks and combinations of silks and fabrics appear in many attractive effects.

THE SPRING MILLINERY

Each model presents an independent thought. No two closely resemble each other, yet all are equally attractive. High effects, from which ribbons branch out in all directions, are favored by some. Small turbans that hug the head, and with just the suspicion of a brim are developed in numerous straws in many colors with just enough trimming to enliven them. Many attractive sailers—both large and small—are displayed. Still other shapes feature new fruits and berries, walnuts and such garnitures as have never before been seen.

MORE BIRTHS THAN DEATHS RECORDED

Ratio is 31 to 24 For January and February—Many Physicians Do Not Report.

There were 31 births recorded in Wichita Falls during January and February, while 24 deaths were recorded during the same period, indicating that there is no race suicide in this city. The records are not considered complete, many physicians failing to report at all and others delaying their reports several weeks.

Of the births, seventeen were females and fourteen males. Thirteen of the deaths were males and eleven females. All births were white, with the exception of one lone pickaninny. The records are kept by Dr. J. H. Moore, city health officer, and while local physicians are complying with the law better than they formerly did, reports are not made with the regularity that the law contemplates. Some doctors neglect to report at all, thereby laying themselves liable to a fine.

CORNERSTONE WILL BE LAID MARCH 23

Masons Fix Date for Ceremony on Their Building—To Invite Neighbors.

The cornerstone of the Masonic Temple, now being erected at Tenth and Scott streets, will be laid March 23, and the local lodge at its meeting Friday night, made plans for the ceremony. Worshipful Grand Master McMillan of Whitewright, head of the Masonic fraternity in Texas, will be invited to attend and Deputy Grand Master Jones of Houston will be invited to serve as orator for the occasion.

Masons from all lodges in neighboring towns will be invited to be present at the ceremony, and it is expected that several hundred Masons will be in attendance. The solemn rites of the order for such occasions will be carried out at the cornerstone laying.

ATHLETIC MEETING BY KATY EMPLOYEES

Plans for Organization of Teams to be Made Here This Afternoon.

Plans for forming an organization of Katy employees who are interested in athletics will be considered at the meeting which is to be held this afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall, and it is expected that steps will be taken to see that the Wichita Falls district is represented in the track and other contests which the Katy is promoting among its employees.

Last year the Katy held a track meet at Denison at which teams from all the large points on the Katy system competed in track and field events, several thousand being in attendance. The idea is to be repeated this year, and the Wichita Falls district employees are anxious to be represented.

The plans include leasing ground near the old ball park east of the city, where the employees might get into trim for the various events in which they would compete.

TO ORDER ELECTION FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Steps to Be Taken Shortly to Provide More Room—Amount Not Decided.

An order for election for school bonds will probably be issued by the school board within the next few weeks, as a preliminary step to alleviating the present crowded condition of the schools. The plan, as set forth in The Times of last Sunday, is to erect one new building in the southern part of the city, and to make some additions to the high school building.

The amount of the school bond issue has not been determined, but it will be sufficient to provide substantial buildings, it being the hope of the trustees to care for any increase in enrollment for the next five years.

In connection with the present state of school finances, concerning which there has been some publicity recently Prof. Lee Clark, superintendent of schools, has given The Times a statement of what the Kansas City schools are doing, particularly in the line of special features. Many of these features have been desired here, but could not be provided with school finances as they are at present. The Kansas City schools have the following special features to meet community needs: assembly halls, gymnasiums, baths, open air rooms, shops, playgrounds and school gardens. The schools are one story buildings, lighted from the ceiling, with outside door to each room. In Kansas City, 52 per cent of the 50,000 pupils complete the seven year elementary course and eighteen per cent graduate from the six high schools.

Style Week

Thursday, March 9th, 8 to 10 P. M.
And All Day Friday

A Co-operative, City-Wide Event Our Part of Which is to Introduce
Complete Displays of Advance Spring Fashions

Because of the pointedly different character of the fashions for Spring this is an unusually important style show that Wichita Falls holds this week. An entirely new influence is evident. The creations in garments, millinery and accessories are picturesquely original, but practical to a degree that will have the immediate approval of women and misses who wish a blend of beauty, commonsense and service.

In the display there are examples, in complete size ranges, of the best models, chosen only after an exhaustive study of the fashions and an examination of the best that makers offered. We present these with every assurance that they are fashion's first and last word.

A Special Style Show Display of the Famous

Wooltex Suits

Dressy suits are of silk, principally taffeta, faille and gros de Londres; satins are also used. Some have jackets in box effects extending to just below the waistline. Others are in two sections the lower of which flares smartly. Some suit coats reach almost to the knees. Skirts are wider and many of them are trimmed. Fabric suits are shown in all the staple and many novelty materials. They embody practically the same style features. Wooltex suits are the smartest of ready-to-wear garments. For Spring we show a better selection of models than ever.

Fashion's Latest Word On

Separate Skirts

These are distinctive models with the noticeable flare, the sort that women who desire something out of the ordinary run of styles will recognize as possessing the individuality they seek.

Coats are More Attractive

Than They Ever Have Been.

Not in seasons have there been coats quite so smart as these. Lines are original, and many of the fabrics are shown now for the first time. Rippled and fitted models are introduced. The flaring styles will be most popular, although the semi-fitted models are equally smart and will have a wide following. Collars are invariably high and convertible. Cape, shawl, sailor and notch collars are also shown.

Here Are the

Latest Model Dresses

They all have those attractive outstanding skirts which are such an important fashion feature. Fitted waists and bodices, peplums, tight and full sleeves are other characteristics that make the styles different. In this display we offer the latest models developed in either silks or fabrics, or combinations of these materials. Styles and sizes for women and misses.

Millinery for Smart Women

There are countless straws and satins and leathers in the stunning high effects in which height is attained by clever arrangements of trimming; flat jaunty sailors, medium sized sailors with rippled and drooping brims; high crowned sailors with brims sharply turned at the side; variations of the tri-corner and high back turban. The choice is practically unlimited this Spring.

Exceptionally Pretty Blouses

The blouses for Spring are of the more ornate type with tucks, and frills of pretty laces and embroideries. Here are plenty of the most charming of them, at prices that will encourage liberal buying.

Silks Were Never More Beautiful

The Spring Silks are more beautiful than those shown in previous seasons and are most practical for the new fashion departures in women's dress. TAFFETAS—Colored Chiffon Taffetas, yard wide, in the new grays, every shade of blue, brown, green—in fact every wanted light and dark shade. Samples of the new Spring Silks will be most cheerfully furnished to out-of-town people.

Smart Styles in Footwear

And Your Sizes Are Most Important

In this range we are showing the prettiest line of new spring pumps, every new style and leather, every new heel, in heavy welt or light flexible turn soles. Pumps that are sure to please and a large variety of the newest styles, including the new ankle and instep strap. These strap pumps will be very popular this summer.

WICHITANS AND VISITORS WILL GIVE SPRING STYLES 'ONCE-OVER' BEGINNING AT 8 P. M. THURSDAY

LIVING MODELS TO BE FEATURE OF TOWN COMING

REAL HUMANS WILL BE USED TO SHOW THE LATEST STYLES.

NEIGHBORING TOWNS WILL SEND
MANY TO THIS CITY'S SHOW.

SECRECY PREVAILS NOISE, ALSO LIGHTS

Many Things Are Being Kept Dark
Until the Proper Time
Arrives.

Committee Asks Cooperation of All—
Bigger Crowd Than Before Expected.

Every one is impatient for the first annual Spring Style Show of Wichita Falls on which the curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock next Thursday evening and what perfectly wonderful things are in store for that evening, when the merchants open their stores all dolled up in their spring and summer finery. Almost every merchant is planning some extra little stunt to be pulled off Style Show night but none will divulge the secret except just enough to make your mouth water in expectancy. And when the sales folk in the store show an especially pretty gown or hat they murmur tantalizingly to the customer.

"Well, this is really pretty. And so smart don't you know. But I have just gotten in such a wonderful creation, several stunning things that would be just what you want. Our Style Show starts and they has mysteriously back towards the delicious place behind the scenes where all those wonderful things that are going to be shown Thursday evening are kept until you are half raving to see everything.

You don't want to wait a bit but then of course you will and the new gowns and hats and shoes and other pretty things will be so much more attractive the night of the show on those stunning living models—Oh pshaw, that was a secret, but it is out now so it might as well go.

Next fall Style Show night is going to be made the occasion of a smart Society Fashion Revue, the society folks and the debutante set to be asked to enter into the Style Show to make a brilliant pageant. This was seriously discussed for this spring event but the idea was taken up a little too late to accomplish anything of importance so it was thought better to wait until next fall and then to work a month or more ahead of time. However, there will be a social feature to the Style Show in the presence of society folk in conventional full dress attire prior to the grand march opening the Style Show ball at the Elks' club rooms.

The merchants are planning a very extensive decorative scheme and are preparing for the most elaborate showing of their goods ever made.

REDUCED KEY RATE HAS BEEN ORDERED

Insurance Commission Acts Following
Purchase of New Equipment
For Department

Special to The Times.
Austin, Tex., March 4.—The State fire insurance commission today announced that a reduction from 30 to 28 cents had been made in the key rate of insurance of the city of Wichita Falls.

This reduction was granted on account of the purchase of a combination hook and ladder auto and chemical engine.

INITIATION TUESDAY BY KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

The Knights of Pythias of this city are looking forward to next Tuesday night with a great deal of pleasure. They will initiate two of the most prominent young men in the city in the Bank of Commerce and the members of Olney lodge of Olney, Texas, will bring a candidate for the Rank of Knight, the local team doing the initiatory work. Every subordinate lodge in this Pythian district has been extended an invitation to be present and attendance is expected. This order is growing rapidly, and a membership of 200 is expected by the time 1916 will have ended.

SAYS THIS MEDICINE 'FILLS LONG FELT WANT.'

(County Line Correspondence in Elctra News.)
A long felt want has been supplied in County Line by J. T. Elliston, who has been studying medicine. We have been taking a cough remedy compounded by him and think it the best we ever saw. It is composed of eight ounces of glycerine, the juice of four lemons and ten cents worth of rock candy put in a quart bottle and the bottle filled with whiskey or alcohol. Shake well, take one dose and give the bottle to your wife to hide, else you will take all of the medicine the first day. We have only been using the remedy for three weeks and have taken three quarts of it and can tell it is doing our cough a world of good and we think that if Mrs. Jo will let us continue the treatment for about two weeks longer we will be sound and well.

PAVING OF SCOTT TO START SHORTLY

Work Will Begin in Few Days Though
All Contracts Have Not Been Signed.

Work will start shortly on the paving of Scott avenue between Tenth and Thirteenth and pipes have been lowered and other preparations made for the putting down of the concrete. A few of the property owners have not yet signed contracts for the work, and while they are expected to do so in a short time, the work will proceed at once and the street in front of their places will be left unimproved. It is hoped however, that it will not be necessary to leave any gaps in the pavement.

The work on Lamar avenue is finished, although all of the street has not been opened to traffic. The marked improvement in the appearance of this thoroughfare has been the subject of much favorable comment. Although the Eighth street paving petition was one of the latest to be circulated, it has been pushed in such a way that that thoroughfare will be ready for the work to proceed, judging from present indications, before several of the others. It is expected that most of 1916 will be required to complete the paving already ordered.

'THE RAGGED EARL' AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE MONDAY

Visitors to the Style Show Thursday night and Friday will better understand the modern manner of things, with reference to men's clothes, by an inspection of

RIGGS' SUITS

It is no longer necessary to pay $35 or $40 for the best suit of clothes—if one knows where to buy. Riggs' takes the undelivered suits of the largest tailoring houses of Chicago and Cincinnati. It's a misnomer to call them misfits—they are the finest fitted, finest tailored, smartest styles and best weaves produced any where in the world, and made to sell at $25, $35, $40, $45 and $48-50.

RIGGS

SELLS THEM FOR

$15, $18, $20
and $22.50

WHY PAY MORE?

That's a saving of one-half your clothes expense—gives you two suits for the real value of one. The extensive assortment of styles and weaves gives every opportunity for selection that will insure a perfect fit for any figure.

Our new spring stock is coming in every day. It is well worth your while to look them over before buying. You will be surprised. You are especially invited during the Style Show hours next Thursday evening and Friday.

OIL WELL BONUS HAS BEEN RAISED

$10,000 IS QUICKLY RAISED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE.

GEOLOGY IS CITED

Indicates That This Immediate Section is Favorable to Discovery of Oil.

The $10,000 which Wichita Falls is willing to give for a 50-barrel oil well within four miles of this city, has been raised. With the promptness that usually marks such efforts, the Chamber of Commerce committee announced last night that the full amount had been subscribed. If no well is drilled, or if one is drilled and comes in dry, the subscribers will never be called upon to pay but the Chamber of Commerce proceeded not only in the hope, but in the expectation, that some one will have the right to call for the $10,000. In connection with the raising of the bonus, the following statement has been issued: Oil men the country over will be interested to learn of the action of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce in hanging up a purse of $10,000 for the completion of the first oil well in fifty barrels or more within a radius of four miles of Wichita Falls. The posting of this bonus is not mere conversation for within twenty-four hours of the action taken by the Chamber of Commerce a subscription list covering the full amount pledged was turned in by the committee, composed of T. E. Noble, J. L. Jackson and J. M. Bland. To the home folks this is not a surprising thing as it is simply another manifestation of the Wichita Falls way of doing things and doing it now. To strangers beyond our borders it carries a message of confidence and appreciation of oil operators and the resultant benefits from oil or gas development. Not Wild Cat Adventure. If the section surrounding Wichita Falls was purely wild-cat in its nature the average citizen or oil operator could think it a good advertising scheme with small likelihood of the subscribers ever putting up the money even though they would be glad to do so should a well be found. When one considers however that oil in paying quantities is now found on all sides of Wichita Falls, comprising as it does the well known pools of Electra, Burk Burnett and Petrolia and some shallow pools to the south and southwest, it is more than reasonable to believe that the testing of the territory around Wichita Falls will find oil or gas in paying quantities. The pools mentioned at their high tide about two years ago yielded a total of 35,000 barrels a day in high grade oil 42 and 43 gravity. After an almost complete shut down of drilling following the low prices that prevailed for nearly two years, renewed activity in drilling did not commence until late in the fall of 1915 when a low mark of around 18,500 barrels was reached. In the past several months new drilling has gradually increased these figures to about 22,500 barrels daily and the drill pump is doing full duty in these days of high prices for crude petroleum. From a posted price of 45 cents a last fall to $1.70 flat price for a year as offered by pipe lines, and with reported contracts at a premium above this figure, oil men are again wearing the glad smile of former days of prosperity. But it is not the oil men alone who feel the influence of high prices—there are greater numbers than of the operators who are affected. Land owners, field workers, teamsters, supply houses, banks, and the barber, the butcher and the baker are getting their bit. Wichita Falls, being the center and distributing point of the oil fields of this section, pines with the high or low as it affects the oil business. It has brought into our midst many of our business men and neighbors and if another pool right at our doors will bring more of that kind in, the citizenship is willing to pay for the privilege. That we are in the center of a real oil field is evidenced by the building of a large independent refinery in this city having a capacity of 2000 barrels of oil a day. Another refinery is in operation at Iowa Park in this county and still another being built at Electra. The large producing companies maintain well equipped offices in Wichita Falls and employ a large number of men who are residents of this city. Although one of the largest and most widely used gas pools in the South is found at Petrolia, Wichita Falls would like to see another gas pool opened within easy reach. While this city has no fear of a gas famine for years to come, a gas pool that could fall to the control of Wichita Falls people would insure a great manufacturing center being built up here to accentuate the handsome pay roll already established through the means of cheap gas as used by the glass making interests located here. Geologists Views. It is very noticeable of late that oil men are quoting geology in their drilling ventures. Those who are posted say that the Wichita Country is of the Permian age and underlying the Permian strata lies the Pennsylvanian. These two ages are known to have furnished the greater end of the oil and gas production of the United States and the wise ones say that the oil pools already found in this section are just a forerunner of what is to come. In this connection the recent government bulletin on the Petrolia field advises deeper drilling in this section in the belief that a deep sand will be found between 2000 and 3000 feet. Where deeper pay formations have been found under old oil pools they have been very prolific producers and cover larger areas as a rule. Some inclination for deeper drilling in this section during the year has been manifested by one of two of the large companies and if a deep pay is found the oil business and its resultant benefits will be multiplied many times in the Wichita Falls country. It is estimated that the royalty to land owners in this territory and the interests owned by independent producers, local men, amounts to something like $10,000 a day at the present market and rate of production so that any increase in production due to a new drilling of the proven sands alone means a further increase of prosperity that the community as a whole derives a benefit from.

Dress-Up FOR SPRING Dress-Up Nation Wide-is from March 27th to April 8th

Other seasons of the year are beautiful, but spring is the true dress up season, both for nature and for human beings, and this spring—even more so than ever before—is going to be a great dress-up season for all the people throughout this great land of peace and plenty. Our Uncle Sam, prosperous and at peace with the whole world has manifested his approval of the dress up idea. So those of you who have not, should get into the spirit, and go to work right now to make the Spring Dress Up festival the most successful and interesting event ever held in our city. Remember that the dress up campaign is not merely a play on the words dress up. It's an appeal to clothes consciousness. By that phrase is meant, not an appeal to snobbery or to conceited peacock-strutting in fine plumage but an effort to persuade people to think more of their clothes, and appreciate them more as a craftsman sees and appreciates and takes care of the tools that serves him so well in his quest of a livelihood. Our store is dress up headquarters for the whole family. Here you will find a representation of the clothes-crafters latest achievements. Style and type are stitched into exquisite fabrics taken from looms of foremost weaves.

GET GOOD WELL ON HEISERMAN TRACT

Flow at Rate of 450 Barrels After Shot—Other News of Oil Fields.

One of the best completions, the Burk Burnett field has yet witnessed, resulted Friday when the Producers of Company No. 3 Heiserman was shot. It flowed at the rate of 450 barrels a day during the first two hours, and may be raised at better than 400 barrels daily. Producers No. 3 Heiserman made 50 barrels after the shot. No. 4 was drilled in at about 1725 feet. These two wells are attracting particular attention to the Heiserman vicinity.

A number of completions have been recorded in the oil fields during the week just closed, all being in the proven field. With the prospects for fair weather, the starting of a number of additional rigs is expected within the next few weeks.

The policy of several of the oil companies in establishing settlements for their men closer to the wells has resulted in some new communities being born in the Clara vicinity, which, as set forth in The Times recently, was considered too far from Burk Burnett for the men to come and go daily. The Magnolia colony has two names—"Stringtown" and "Little Corsicana," on the Harlacher farm. The Gulf Production company's men are housed on the Thom Lease.

The Producers No. 2 Morris is making about 50 barrels after the shot; this well is in the 1800 foot sand. McBride's No. 3 Thom has been put on the pump, and is estimated at 50 barrels.

Producers No. 7, Schurz is now on the pump and appears good for 65 barrels, in the 1600-foot sand. Wood and Dale have made location for two wells on the Fred Thom lease. The Shultz Oil company has made location for a well on the northeast corner of its fee land.

J. W. Dyson has made location for a well on the southeast corner of his Horton & Walker lease, and is spudding. The Pink Hammond well on the Rayle lease is now down about 1000 feet.

Three inside completions have been made by the Producers at Electra recently, one being good for 120 barrels and two for about 50 barrel each. The Magnolia has completed a 75-barrel pumper on the Allen lease, at Electra, at about 1800 feet.

The Red River Oil company has a dry completion on its Bywaters lease, but has a good shallow sand producer, estimated at 40 barrels just completed on the same tract. The Pickle well north of Burk Burnett, being drilled by Urban et al. and in which there is considerable interest is drilling at about 1500 feet.

Your tin or galvanized iron shop work will receive best attention by competent workmen at Wichita Hardware Co. tin shop. 253-6c

BUICK VALVE-IN-THE-HEAD MOTOR CARS

Enter Their Fourteenth Season of Successful Manufacture

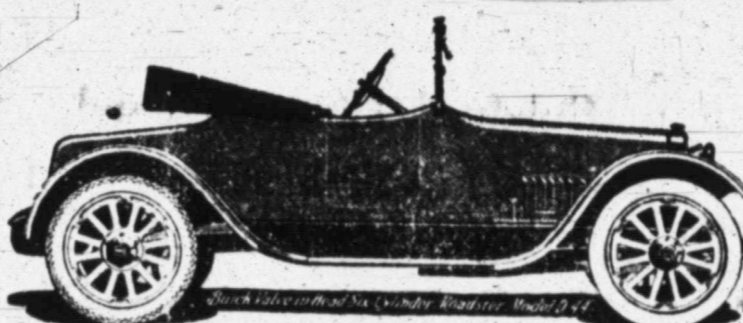

Long before the end of the Nineteen-Sixteen season Buick purchasers will possess upwards of 66,000 Nineteen-Sixteen Valve-in-Head Sixes. Meritorious performances of past Buicks will make many of them. Buick power and Buick beauty will have sold others. But the majority of these men will become owners of Buick Sixes primarily because they are convinced that the fourteen years of steadfast progress and unchanged faith in the Valve-in-Head principle of motor car construction has placed the Buick in a class far ahead of all competition.

Buick Valve-in-Head Six-Cylinder Touring Car, Model D-45

More Nineteen-Sixteen Buick Valve-in-Head Sixes have been bought than any other six-cylinder car ever built—More people today are demanding this particular Buick model than ever demanded any single model in automobile history—In this car is found the development of the best thoughts and ideas of the leading American and foreign automobile engineers, extending over a period of almost a quarter of a century—Every sound theory of mechanics during this period has been investigated, and when consistent with Buick Valve-in-Head basic principles, has been adopted.

Equipped with the famous Buick Valve-in-Head Six-Cylinder motor this car leaves nothing to be desired in dauntless power of hills or for speed, in smoothness, quietness and flexibility.

Users of this car will enthusiastically tell you that we are not over presumptuous when we guarantee, regardless of the car you buy or the price you pay, nowhere can you get greater value than in this Six-Cylinder Buick Touring Car.

This car was not built to meet a price, but to satisfy the demand for the best.

STICKING TO A PRINCIPLE

The Buick Motor Company, alone of all companies, has adhered to one principle of motor construction since it started in business fourteen years ago. Every Buick catalogue for the fourteen years Buicks have been manufactured has emphasized the Valve-in-Head motor principle.

The first Buick motor car ever made had a Valve-in-Head motor.

The three hundred Buick motor cars shipped today—and every day this season—all have Valve-in-Head motors. The quarter of a million Buicks that have been built since the company started in business all have the Valve-in-Head motors. They are all exactly alike as far as their motor principle is concerned.

That this is a sound principle is proven by the fact that most of the first Buicks are still in use. At the Buick factory at Flint we are today handling all our tremendous volume of hauling with trucks equipped with the first Valve-in-Head motors the Buick Company ever made.

The soundness of this principle is further established by the almost daily announcements of competing manufacturers to make and market cars with Valve-in-Head motors.

We confidently predict that within a very few years all motor car manufacturers will use Valve-in-Head motors.

The public has learned that the Valve-in-Head motor is every way superior—in power, in economy, in dependability. Hence the ever-increasing demand that will not be satisfied with any other motor type. Hence the demand for 1916 six-cylinder Valve-in-Head Buick Motor Cars—a demand which we believe is more insistent than any previous demand for any manufactured product.

3400 r. p. m. Subdued, Controlled and Converted Into Thrifty Energy

There is more meaning wrapped up in the term "3400 r. p. m. Chalmers" than in any phrase in the history of motor building.

It means, first of all, performance

It means might fused with mileage, and brute force tamed into silken flexibility.

It means supreme engine speed attained with absolute safety, and big horse-power that you and I dare drive.

It means that every drop of gasoline that is inhaled into the aluminum lungs of this wonderful beast's engine is compelled to deliver every available gram of its dynamic energy.

It means the subordination of superfluous might into the golden boon of imperishable pick-up, obedience, and a smooth-running, uninterrupted, throbless stream of might.

It means 18 miles of glorious going from every gallon of gas, and a saving of $150 to $200 per year in gasoline that an engine of useless might would require.

It means 60 miles an hour, if you want speed, without whisper of the roar of racing motors.

It means performance plus, and cost of upkeep minus.

It means incomparable ability "on high" beyond any car in its price-class—anything from two miles an hour to twenty-five in less than ten seconds.

It means everything that the name Chalmers stands for at a lower price than any other Chalmers car has ever borne.

It means a competition-clearing car, built under new conditions of quantity production under the Chalmers' roof, at a time when the whole South is able to buy cars on a scale never equalled before.

It means that I am prepared to make prompt deliveries in the order of sales.

It means that this is the car you'll feel you must own, once you have seen and felt it perform.

"EVERYWOMAN" PATTERNED AFTER OLD MORALITY PLAY, PICTURES MODERN LIFE IN STRIKING, UNIQUE WAY

The success attending the play "Everywoman" described as a modern morality, has whetted the appetites of those who have not seen this curious dramatic and literary product. Henry W. Savage will offer "Everywoman" at the Wichita Theatre, March 22 and 23.

The mention of a morality play suggests an inquiry into the origin, character and purpose of the morality drama as we know it is one of the accepted facts of life with little regard to the processes of evolution which produced it. A morality play, "Everywoman" was played in the American theatres a few years ago by a band of English players but it was viewed only as a musty relic, with a contempt or pity for our ancestors, if that was the sort of thing they enjoyed. Of other morality plays, outside of occasional performances, the public in general know nothing.

Aside from having as its basic idea a homily upon life, "Everywoman" bears no resemblance whatever to the ancient morality. It is satirical, whimsical and often playful. It abounds in light, in color, and in, in brief, a moving panorama of the life of a beautiful young woman of our day who seeks love. The drama itself in the series of adventures which befall her.

The morality play reached the height of its vogue during the early part of the Sixteenth Century. Since then it has had but a second and dusty place in the library. In its original form it was the means by which the moralist and reformer promulgated his ideas. The stage was allied to the church and the masses being for the most part unable to read or write were addressed by the actor. The actors were, in fact, preachers and their message was the fundamental principle of human experience. The character was simply labeled and toward that there might be no mistaking his errand. Life, youth, age, greed, wealth, wisdom, death and sin were bodied forth in material form, speaking friendly or menacing warnings or admonitions. Woman cut little or no figure in the English world of letters. Men impersonated female parts in all theatrical representations and nearly one hundred and fifty years elapsed before the pretty faces and graceful curves of Mistress Hughes were to transform Desdemona into a feminine instead of a bearded charmer, and set a fashion which will never be given up in theatrical land.

Therefore "Everyman" was practically sexless in character, delineations while essentially masculine as far as the delineation goes. It was reserved for Walter Browne to offer to the public a woman as the principal character of a morality play. Browne was a singular character, himself, man of letters, son of a Lord Mayor of York, England, actor, singer, journalist, rover, soldier of fortune, he had looked upon the seamy side of life in many lands and had toiled long and laboriously upon the play he did not live to see produced as he died tragically upon the very day of his first performance of his play.

Only in structure does "Everywoman" resemble "Everyman." In all other respects the two plays are diametrically opposed. The ancient work shows Everyman trying to patch up his disordered life, get his book of records in decent shape and find some friends who are willing to linger with him while he hurries to keep an appointment with death.

The modern morality play, "Everywoman," is a chronicle of Everywoman's experience from the time she leaves her home, accompanied by three joyous companions—youth, beauty and modesty—in search of the greatest of all prizes—love. With considerable daring Mr. Browne quickly jumped his symbolic characters into environments familiar to everyone. After being tempted by flattery, who finds a coin of vanity in her mirror, Everywoman goes to a theatre to become an actress and afterward rises to fame. On the stage she is deserted by modesty, but she still retains youth and beauty, and with these two companions she still continues her search for love.

We watch her successful fight against the snares laid about her by wealth and witless and passion, and their machinations with the sordid qualities that infest metropolitan life and are aimed at every young woman in real life. Everyman found it impossible to return to even one of his erstwhile companions when it became known that he must make a quick exit by way of the grave. Everywoman finds it exquisitely pleasant to live, and awakens with a sob to discover that youth and beauty have at last fled along with modesty; that wealth and flattery no longer court her; that love is still elusive and finally is driven back to her first good friend, homely but warlike hearted truth, on whose breast she leans a tired and aching head, and by whom she is led back to her old home, there to find love, who has been waiting all the time at her bedside. Love, she learns, was always her next door neighbor. At any rate she has found what she sought, and while youth and beauty are gone forever, she takes up what promises to be a happy life with love, truth and modesty, who has returned to her at the first kiss of true love.

"Everywoman" visualizes the big truths of Everyman and by presenting real men and women in places, theatres, Central Park apartments, midnight restaurants with which we are familiar, brings the ancient dramatic scheme within understanding. The women in it are as real as the women in any walk of life, and the men we know. The principal woman is Everywoman and every woman is bound to recognize her.

Dallas, Texas, March 5.—Dallas and the State Fair Association may have the finest stadium in the south, when the 1916 fair opens.

Plans for the amphitheatre to seat 15,000 persons have been submitted to state fair officials. If the stadium is built, it is claimed Dallas will be the best equipped city in the southwest for handling crowds at big athletic events.

The stadium will be around a quarter-mile track. Two grand stands, each with a capacity of 8500 people will be built on each side. The spaces at each end of the inclosure will hold bleachers, the whole to accommodate 15,000 persons. The grand stand will have 300 boxes.

MRS. CARVER BRIDGE HOSTESS MONDAY AFTERNOON

Society, which is making this last week before Lent sets in one continuous round of gaiety, conceded the bridge matinee given by Mrs. E. B. Carver to honor Mrs. Harry Beggs of Vincennes to be quite the prettiest affair enjoyed in many weeks. The hostess had favored the fragrant violet in her decorations and the flower and its rich purple tones were featured in the many little accessories which are attributes of the bridge party. The score of the game was kept on purple cards and the honoree was presented with a huge corsage of violets. The high score prize, a Royal Doulton water pitcher, was won by Mrs. Strib Moore, the cut prize, a hand painted mayonnaise set went to Mrs. Wade Walker. Low score consolation, a jewel case in cross stitch design, went to Mrs. A. E. Myles. The luncheon course served at the conclusion of the game repeated the color motif, the plates being contained in violet covered cases and the slender stemmed ice glasses ornamented with bows of purple tulle. The menu consisted of pates, ripe olives, wafers, coffee, ice cream and cake. There were a large number of guests enjoying this delightful affair for Mrs. Beggs, eleven tables of players engaging in the game.

A Revue of the Best Spring Styles

March 9th and 10th

America's Foremost Designers Present Their Most Prized Creations

The fashion world has arrived here; a big world, but only the choicest selections have been gathered from the Parisian source, adapted by the foremost designers of New York—just these are here. So you may view that which is "best," that which is most alluring, that which is most becoming, in this big world of fashion, without arduous trips to foreign stores and distant cities.

This is a season of brilliant colors, proclaiming emancipation as it were from the sombre influence of the French. And it is also a season of the bouyant out-of-doors, for in most of the cloth garment, is seen the invigorating influence of the sports, and this likewise adds greatly to the practicalness of garments.

Thus the season changes. A new blade of grass, a tiny bud appears, a single robin perches in the yet barren tree—signs of SPRING may still be unnoticed by the less observing.

But to those who even casually glance within these doors, all doubts of the approaching season will vanish.

Spring has literally burst into full bloom, in this store, for every where the newness, the freshness, the beauty of SPRING merchandise is apparent.

Nature sets a good example—to you and to us. We are ready.

Our friends and the general public are cordially invited to attend the grand opening of the Style Show, Thursday, March 9th between 8 p. m., and 10 p. m.

call was answered with suggestions for the study course for next year. Miss Temple Thompson furnished music. During the business session several matters of importance were attended to. For the refreshment course the guests were invited to the dining room, attractively decorated. Sandwiches, olives, salted nuts and tea were followed by a dessert of pineapple snow pudding with cherries and individual cakes. Mrs. Kline, guest in the Smith home was a visitor, the members present being: Misses Hazel Hunter, Tula Stokes, Alice Burnside, Temple Thompson, Mesdames Burnside, Demers, Beckman and Harry Berry.

MRS. SNYDER HOSTESS TO CONGENIAL CROCHET CLUB

Mrs. F. W. Snyder was hostess to the Congenial Crochet Club Friday afternoon, the informal meeting being a measure to honor her mother, Mrs. I. S. Fahr of Denton. Crocheting furnished diversion for the afternoon and the hostess served delicious sandwiches, deviled eggs, coffee with whipped cream and pineapple custard. The members present were: Mesdames C. M. Duke, A. J. Andree, Bachman, Brown, C. A. Andree and Mead.

FRIDAY BRIDGE PLAYS WITH MRS. MORRIS MARCUS

The two tables of Friday Bridge players were entertained in regular session this week by Mrs. Morris Marcus. The prize, a dainty handkerchief, went to Mrs. Wade Walker, and at the conclusion of the game the hostess served a delicious fruit salad with nut sandwiches and coffee. Miss Eitelson of Waco was a guest, the members present being: Mesdames Wade Walker, Shepherd, Abe Marcus, Straus, Larkin and Marchman.

MISS ANNE CARRIGAN BECOMES BRIDE OF CARTER MCGREGOR

The wedding of Miss Anne Carrigan to Carter McGregor which took place this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. N. F. Grafton officiating, saw the culmination of a romance begun in school days and in this union two of the most prominent families of the city are united. There have been few weddings solemnized with more beauty of ceremony and attended so largely, and certainly none have surpassed in interest the marriage of the two young people, both born and reared here, to whom their friends have delighted to show every pre-nuptial courtesy. There was a pretty show of sentiment in that the bridal attendants and bridal chorus embraced almost in their entirety the circle of the bride's intimate friends. Also for the groom was this sentiment preserved in the person of his best man, his father, W. M. McGregor. The wedding music included the "Wedding Hymn" to the Mendelssohn air by the chorus, a violin number,

BIG PASTURE TOWN SITES TO BE SOLD

Memories of Earlier Days in That Section Revived By Proposed Act of Congress

Four townsites—relics of the boom days that were witnessed in the Big Pastures when that section of Oklahoma was first opened—are to be sold in the near future, if pending legislation in Congress is passed. The townsites are known as Isadore, Quannah and Eschite in Tillman county and Koonaskee in Kiowa county. These sites were laid off when the Big Pastures was first opened and each gave promise of being the metropolis of Southwest Oklahoma, if not of the state itself. At one time each of the places named was a thriving little community, with as much reason to hope for cityhood as some of the communities that have attained it in the Big Pastures. Then came the Wichita Falls and

VERNON VOTES FOR SPECIAL CHARTER

Adopts Commission Form of Government—To Hold Election in April

Special to The Times. Vernon, Texas, March 4.—In the special election here yesterday the city charter was adopted by a vote of 336 to 162, or slightly more than two to one. A heavy vote was polled. The charter provides for a commission form of government, two commissioners being chosen from East Vernon and two from West Vernon, and a mayor being chosen at large; the first election will be held a month from today. A maximum tax rate of $1.50 is provided by the charter. Agitation for a charter began several months ago. A special census was taken, showing that the town had over 5000 population and was therefore entitled to adopt a special charter under the home rule act. A committee of citizens drafted the document. There was some opposition but the friends of the charter were very largely in the majority.

GIANTS-TIGERS GAME HOPED FOR

WOULD FURNISH SOME INTERESTING DIAMOND DUELS FOR FIRST TIME

COBB VERSUS KAUFF

Two Premier Base Stealers Would Oppose Each Other—Notables Would Take Part

If the game between the Detroit Tigers and New York Giants, which it is hoped to bring here the latter part of this month, can be arranged, it will provide, among other notable spectacles, a diamond duel between two famous ball players—one whom fandom generally has crowned King and the other who was the champion batsman of the Federal League—will probably take place when the Tigers and Giants clash.

Ty Cobb, Detroit's centerfielder, who has grown to regard the premier batting honors of the American League as personal property, will have his first opportunity to match his skill and wits with those of Benny Kauff, the latter's great record at bat and in the outfield for Brooklyn, caused numerous baseball writers to refer to him as the "Cobb of the Federal League."
When the independent organization went out of existence, Kauff was purchased by the New York Nationals. Although he has had differences over salary with Manager McGraw, it is generally believed that Kauff will be in the New York line-up, not only during the training season, but as a regular during the 1916 campaign.
Manager Jennings of the Tigers, granted Cobb permission to report at the Waxahachie, Texas, training camp this spring, whenever he felt like it. It seems certain that Cobb will not do much spring training as he has said that such conditioning weakens him during the crucial autumn games, but some of Cobb's closest friends, who live in Detroit, assert that he will be in that Dallas series, if he has to walk from Georgia.
Wichitans have already had an opportunity to watch Bennie Kauff at close range, for he was here two years ago when the Indianapolis Federals had their spring training camp in this city. The Indianapolis team won the pennant that year, which might have served to bring this city into some favor as a training camp.

Kauff has never played in Detroit but numerous stories have come to the Tiger camp concerning his ability. Former Detroit stars, who were with Federal League club last season, have generally declared that Kauff is one of the greatest batters they have ever seen. They have not been inclined to class Kauff with Cobb as a base runner; they have said that Cobb "probably" is a bit more dangerous at bat, because of his versatility, but they all seemingly have been ready to take issue with any declaration that Kauff is not the greatest natural batsman in the game.
Local writers and followers of the Detroit club, who have regularly watched Cobb in action, have pointed out that his greatest feats have been achieved against clubs or individual players of championship calibre. A few of these, which have helped make baseball history follow:
Scoring from first base on a single and scoring from second on a sacrifice fly to center field, in the same series, against the Philadelphia Athletics, who then were world's champions.
Scoring from first base on a single at the expense of Hal Chase, playing first base for New York. Chase thought Cobb would attempt his usual trick of turning third and then returning to third base. Chase, after putting out the runner coming to first threw to third. Cobb outgassed him and sprinted home.
In a close game against Boston, Cobb took a long lead off third base. Cobb deliberately stood on the base line until the catcher started his throw. Then he turned and sprinted for third base, but being "accidentally" hit by the ball, scored and the catcher was charged with an error.
Walter Johnson is quite generally referred to as the most effective pitcher in the American League, when the game depends upon a single play. An American League umpire-delights in telling a long line of players when Cobb faced Johnson in one of the last innings. Detroit had the bases filled; two men were out. Cobb is claimed, walked toward Johnson and said:
"Well, Walter, here's the chance both of us have been looking for. Now we can decide who has the most nerve."
Johnson pitched. The little body of the Georgian hurled itself forward. The ball flashed to the outfield. Three men scored.
Cobb pulled up at third and noticing that Johnson seemed rather downcast, used his hands as a megaphone and, according to the umpire said:
"Never mind, Walter, old boy. You pitched that ball so fast I never saw it. Just shut my eyes and slugged."
CINCINNATI NATIONALS LEAVE TODAY FOR SOUTH

Beck, Butler, Hornsby and Miller. Outfielders—Wilson, Bescher, T. Smith, Long, and Cruise.
CHICAGO CUBS LEAVE FOR TAMPA TOMORROW
By Associated Press.
Chicago, March 4.—Under command of Joe Tinker, once a private in the ranks, the rejuvenated Cubs depart from Chicago tomorrow for spring training camp at Tampa. The party will include less than half the number of ball players on the roster, as the rest will go from their homes direct to the camp, but on the de luxe train which bears the Cubs south will be President Weegman and other stockholders of the new club and a number of guests.
Tinker's task this year will not be that of trying out recruits from minor leagues, but of watching veterans go through their paces. From the combined Cubs and Whales, a squad numbering about thirty were ordered to report at the Florida training grounds and nearly every one has had some major league experience.
MAXWELL MOTOR COMPANY ENTERS DELIVERY FIELD
Announcement comes from Detroit that the Maxwell Motor Company has decided to enter the field of light delivery, using for the purpose the standard Maxwell chassis which is furnished complete, including cowl, instrument board and electrical equipment, but lacking body, which the buyer can have designed and built locally to fit his individual needs.

With the car the Maxwell Company furnishes a scale of dimensions which enable any body builder to fit exactly the standard arrangement for attaching this part to the frame.
The work of attaching is free from any complication of wiring or piping. The chassis comes ready to drive.
"The Maxwell Company has found the one satisfactory solution of the light delivery problem," declares Wes Clabsey, local Maxwell distributor. "Light delivery is a problem of special body equipment. While it is possible for the landryman and the dry cleaner to use the same type of body each can greatly facilitate his problem by having a body built to carry the special type of merchandise that he handles. The same holds true with the butcher, the baker, the milliner, the grocer and every other line of business which uses or should use motor driven delivery equipment.
"There are good delivery body builders in every city. To his own design any merchant can have built the type of body best adapted to his needs.
"We price the chassis at $30 less than our touring car. This will more than offset the cost of the finest type of delivery body, mounted, painted and gold lettered."

ACADEMY STUDENTS TO PRESENT DRAMA

"Patricia the Unknown Heroine" Will Be Given—Pupils Are Now Rehearsing
At the Academy of Mary Immaculate the characters have been cast and work begun on a four act drama, "Patricia, the Unknown Heroine." This play has been presented at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, in Waco and St. Edward's in Dallas being enthusiastically received in both places by large audiences.
For the past two years the expression class at the Academy has been under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Fulton, whose superior work in teaching has won her marked success. Those who enjoyed last year the rendering of "Midsummer Night's Dream" staged by Mrs. Fulton with her class at the Academy as "dramatic preparation" will look forward with pleasurable expectancy to the presentation of the new drama. The date will be given later.
The infant-son of Postmaster H. W. Riddle and wife at Electra died early Friday morning after an illness from a complication of troubles. The funeral will take place this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle formerly lived here.

W. J. HOWARD, JR. ANNOUNCES AS CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR

W. J. Howard, Jr., formally announced today as a candidate for nomination by the Democrats of Wichita county as a candidate for the office of tax assessor. Mr. Howard was born and raised in Wichita county and has lived the 32 years of his life in the county with the exception of several years in Archer county. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howard, pioneer citizens of this section. In his youth he worked on his father's farm in Archer county and for five years was employed by the P. W. Nolen Mercantile Co. For the past two years he has been engaged in the grocery business here, having sold his store a few months ago. Mr. Howard has a wide acquaintance and many friends all throughout the county who feel that he is well qualified to discharge the duties of the tax assessor's office to the full satisfaction of the people. Mr. Howard expects to begin at once on a canvass of the county and hopes to meet every voter personally before the primary. The Times presents his name to the voters of the county, for favorable consideration.

CINCINNATI NATIONALS LEAVE TODAY FOR SOUTH

By Associated Press.
Cincinnati, O., March 4.—Manager Charles Herzog of the Cincinnati Nationals with seventeen players will leave Cincinnati tomorrow for the Reds training camp at Shreveport, La. Nine other players have been instructed to go direct from their homes to Shreveport.
Herzog is not taking as many players to the southern training camp as some other clubs in the major leagues and the reason will not have many to weed out. He announced before leaving that he would pay special attention to his candidates for second base and the outfield and to his pitchers. He expressed himself as positive that Fred Tenney would exceed his splendid pitching record of last year and insisted that McKenry would be a close second while he looked for great improvement in Dale and Schneider. These four men stood the brunt of the pitching near the close of last season.
Schultz, the Federal League south-paw and Mitchell, a Denver left hander showed great promise last season, and are expected to become fixtures with the Reds for the coming season. Both of these men have a peculiar style of delivery which Herzog believes will add to their effectiveness.
CARDINALS SECOND SQUAD GOES TO SAN ANTONIO
By Associated Press.
St. Louis, Mo., March 4.—The second squad of the St. Louis Cardinals will have joined the first at the spring training grounds near San Antonio, Texas by tomorrow. The second squad consists of the infielders and outfielders. The pitchers and catchers had an early start and will have had a week's practice before the rest of the team join them. Following are the players ordered to report at San Antonio:
Pitchers—Salce, Daak, Ames, Hall, Meadows, Griner, Jasper, Warhop, Steele, Williams and Lamline.
Catchers—Snyder, Gonzales and Brothen. Gonzales will not report until March 19.
Infielders—Miller, Betzel, Corban,

Substantial Spring Styles in the Famous Hart Schaffner & Marx "Good Clothes"

Hart Schaffner & Marx designers appear at their best in these latest suits and coats for men and young men. Without departing from the conservatism that is a feature of all Hart Schaffner & Marx clothing, they have succeeded in producing some quite original effects—a most difficult thing to do with anything so conventional as men's styles. These changes, though slight, are nevertheless of enough importance to mark your last season's suit as an old and outdated one. There is much choice of serviceable fabrics in many refined patterns that men of taste will like at once. All these suits are tailored with the same painstaking skill expended on custom made clothing costing double as much.

"SILENCE ROOMS" LATEST CHALMERS PLANT FEATURE.

"Playing a leading part in the automobile maker's march toward perfection is the anti-noise campaign which has been waged since the early days of the industry," says C. A. Pfeiffer, vice president and assistant general manager of the Chalmers Motor Company.

"We can all remember the terrific racket made by the old chain driven models and the noisy cough of the exhaust before the days of shaft driver cars and efficient mufflers. Today the modern motor car is as free from noise and vibration as engineering science has been able to make it, but the good fight is still being carried on with gratifying results.

"At the Chalmers plant in Detroit, we have just completed the construction of four silence rooms as a further step towards the reduction of noise in gasoline motors. These silence rooms, solidly constructed with 24 inch brick walls, form an additional operation to the many processes of production, and insure an absolutely silent motor for every car.

"Following the assembly of a Chalmers Six motor, it is taken to a large room where the motors are run under electric power. When the first stiffness is taken out of the motor it is removed to another department where it runs from four to six hours on its own power. In this department and in the tuning up process which immediately follows, all gear noises, oil and water leaks, generator and tappet noises and compression troubles are quickly attended to. When the motor leaves this room it is running as quietly as a well constructed watch and to the ear of the layman has reached perfect trim. But the trained experts in the new silence rooms have yet to place their O. K. on the product. In each of the four sound proof rooms is a dynamometer stand, on which a motor is placed. The one door in the room is closed and the inspector spends fifteen minutes with each motor before making his decision as to its fitness. The slightest noise is easily located by these master mechanics in the confined space, and the motor either passes on to the final assembly or is sent back for further tuning up, according as his decision is made."

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR EAGLES TO GET 1917 CONVENTION

Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Wichita Falls to Dallas when the state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles meets there in May. It is expected that no less than 100 Wichita Falls Eagles will attend the convention and join in a strong effort to bring the 1917 convention to Wichita Falls.
